Karl Hoblitzelle, Dallas, president of Interstate Circuit, Inc., largest chain operators in the state, is sponsor of Radio House Unit with a $5,000 fund to aid musically talented students of Texas University. The students, selected by rigid auditioning, use a part-time-work fellowship through the Unit.

Fidler vs. Wilkerson

Attorneys for W. R. Wilkerson editor and publisher of Hollywood Reporter, completed taking depositions from Jimmie Fidler, gossip columnist, on Tuesday, in Hollywood. Mr. Fidler is suing Mr. Wilkerson for $1,000,000, charging defamation of character. Mr. Wilkerson was ordered by his attorneys to have his deposition ready this Saturday morning.

Lee at Virginia MPTO

Claude Lee, director of exhibitor relations for Paramount, was a guest speaker at the annual meeting, in Richmond, Wednesday and Thursday, of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Virginia, presided over by W. H. Crockett. Accompanying Mr. Lee were Earle Sweigert, district manager, and J. E. Fontaine, branch manager.

Dan Mainwaring Resigns

Dan Mainwaring has resigned from the Warner home office publicity department in New York. He has left New York for Los Angeles.

This is IT!

This is IT!

CAGNEY

CANADIAN AIR FORCE

None braver!

Never better!

"CAPTAINS OF THE CLOUDS"

No greater thrill!

CAST:

DENNIS

None finer!

BRENDA

MORGAN · MARSHALL

ALAN HALE · GEORGE TOBIAS

REGINALD GARDINER · REGINALD DENNY

Directed by MICHAEL CURTIZ

Screen Play by Arthur T. Horman, Richard Macaulay, Norman Reilly Raine

From a Story by Arthur T. Horman and Roland Gillett

Music by Max Steiner • A Warner Bros.-First National Picture

PHOTOGRAPHED IN TECHNICOLOR

COLOR

Never more beautiful!

COMPANY:

WARNERS
of course!

INDUSTRY GOES TO WORK ON FIVE POINTS FOR UNITY

But U. S. Decree Report Interrupts Plans for New Selling Method

The United Motion Picture Industry—that is the new name of the Motion Picture Industry Conference Committee—this week began work on the actions and policies suggested by special subcommittees and worked out by the main committee during night and day meetings at New York's Hotel Warwick, opening Wednesday, a week ago, and running through this mid-week.

Most important of five points evolved at the original Chicago "unity" meeting, the intention to adjust business practices disputed by any branch of the industry, was adjudged the business of the whole committee last week, and, possibly action would have come immediately, had not a report by the Department of Justice, criticizing the consent decree, been released at Washington Thursday. In view of the report (see page 17), and, also the obvious inadvisability of enacting anything specific with the Department of Justice still pursuing its anti-trust course against Columbia, United Artists, and Universal, the United Motion Picture Industry, Friday, January 23rd, decided on five points for Point Five:

1. Plans for a better selling method than the decree's block-of-five system.
2. Development of an effective curb on forcing shorts with features where the practice is found to exist.
3. Establishment of conciliation machinery to investigate and correct territorial disagreements.
4. Development of machinery for investigating and determining individual complaints.
5. Development of a substitute for arbitration if it is found that arbitration is unsatisfactory.

A special subcommittee was appointed for this program: Jack Kirsch, former MPICC temporary chairman, and president of the Illinois Allied, chairman; Edward Kuykendall, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America; Joseph R. Vogel, Loew's; Max A. Cohen, New York Allied-MPTO; William Crockett, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Virginia.

Also, Robert White, chairman of the board of the Independent Theatre Owners of Oregon; Sidney Samuelson, business manager of the Eastern Pennsylvania Allied; H. A. Cole, head of the Texas Allied; and Robert Poole, executive secretary of the Pacific Coast Conference of Independent Theatre Owners, substituting for Leo Wolcott, head of the Allied Theatre Owners of Iowa and Nebraska.

Previously, the United Motion Picture Industry elected William F. Rodgers, vice-president in charge of sales for MGM, permanent chairman, and discussed an executive secretary for Mr. Rodgers, permanent offices, and financing.

It was reported $100,000 was the budget

EMPHATICALLY, Robert Poole, seated, executive secretary of the Pacific Coast Conference of Independent Theatre Owners, comments to Spyros Skouras, Skouras circuit chief, and chairman of the taxation subcommittee. Onlooker is Jack Kirsch, president of Illinois Allied; and, in the background, Colonel H. A. Cole.

agreed upon, with $10,000 the temporary budget. Much of Thursday last was occupied with discussion of the distribution of the burden, it being agreed exhibitors and distributors should share it. National Allied State's Association's $1,000 check arrived from Washington Friday, January 23rd, before the meeting ended.

Even as the UMPI met in one room on the Warwick's mezzanine floor, the National Allied's board met in another, Thursday and Friday, to hear the annual report of Abram F. Myers, general counsel (see page 16), to discuss policy, and problems, and to elect new officers, headed by M. A. Rosenberg, president of the Western Pennsylvania Allied.

Committees Meet

The UMPI subcommittee to adjust internal differences was instructed to meet until it developed action for all the five points in its program. It met the day it was appointed; it met Saturday, and again on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Tuesday, members told trade press reporters they hoped to evolve a selling system to replace the blocks-of-five method in the decree. Discussions continued through Wednesday.

The members were said to feel they might also study other practices of the industry in addition to those in the announced program.

Discussions on financing remained closed to newsmen; but further reports were that the permanent executive secretary might command a salary of $7,500 per year, and temporary headquarters might be at New York's Astor Hotel.

The subcommittees on the four other points suggested at the Chicago meeting to achieve unity within the industry, and a solid front to outsiders, reported to the whole committee last week and also met again.

Reports of the subcommittee on taxation, on the industry's good-name, on institutional advertising, and on the securing of priority ratings, were considered.

Mr. Brandt and Mr. Depinet were designated the UMPI's co-trustees; one for the exhibitors; the other representing the distributors.

To incorporate the UMPI as a non-profit organization, a legal committee was appointed: Mr. Myers; Felix Jenkins, Twentieth Century-Fox attorney; and I. Howard Levinson, Warner attorney.

Permanent Chairmen Named

On Friday, January 23rd, the subcommittee on institutional advertising and other good-will activities elected Howard Dietz, director of advertising and publicity for MGM, its permanent chairman, thus following the other subcommittees, which had elected George Schaefer, RKO president, permanent chairman for the protection of the industry's good-name; Joseph Bernhard, Warner general manager, the permanent chairman for the priority group; and Spyros Skouras, head of the circuit of that name, permanent head of the taxation subcommittee.

Although the Department of Justice report on the operation of the consent decree, written by special United States Assistant Attorney General Robert Wright, and released Thursday, to the interest and surprise of UMPI members, caused no public comment by most, Mr. Rodgers, UMPI permanent chairman, had this to say, that day:

"Because of the Department of Justice statement, some may be inclined to consider these problems (in the five-point program) with one eye on June 1, but it seems to me that the entire spirit of this unity activity will be injured, if not lost, if we approach these problems from the angle of: 'We had better, or else—.' We should solve our problems in our own way."

But a few hours before the Wright report came over the wire from Washington, conferees had been reported discussing a trade practice program which would supersede the blocks of five selling method of the decree, and probably require block booking with a 20 per cent cancellation privilege. The arrival of the report stayed specific plans, and members spent the afternoon discussing it.

Legal committees representing the majors' home offices and studios have been conferring on the advisability of establishing "good-will" machinery for special problems, including those arising from work of the Production Code Administration. On the committees are: New York, Joseph Hazen, Warners; J. Robert Rubin, MGM; Austin Keough, Paramount; Hollywood: Mendel Silberberg, Columbia; Maurice Benjamin,

STANDARD RAID RULES FOR THEATRES AND PATRONS

Emergency Orders, Now Law, Exempt Rentals, Admissions from Price

The Government in Washington is formulating a standardized guide for exhibitors, both large and small, for procedure in their theatres, whether empty or publicly occupied, in case of an air raid, blackout or direct hit.

The Government, too, excluded motion picture rentals and theatre admission prices from Federal price regulation legislation, unlike Canada, where ceilings on both rentals and admissions have already been established, as previously reported.

Regulations and instructions for the protection of theatre patrons and employees in the event of emergency, are now in the hands of the Office of Civilian Defense, on the basis of recommendations made by a committee of exhibition representatives.

A permanent industry advisory committee to serve for the duration of the war was named at a Washington conference last Friday, with John J. Payette, zone manager for Warner Brothers Theatres, as chairman. Others are John Ebersson, theatre architect; Robert Weitman, Paramount Theatre, New York; H. G. Barbee, Jr., general manager for the Lichtman Circuit; Sidney Lust, of Lust Theatres; Hardie Meakin, manager for RKO theatres; Edward Paul, representing the legitimate theatres, and Carter Barron, Washington division manager for Loew's theatres, with Nat B. Browne, executive secretary of Warner Brothers theatres, as secretary to the chairman.

The regulations will be issued shortly in printed pamphlet form, for distribution to theatre operators generally all over the country. They will include the fixing of responsibility of exhibitors for the protection of patrons and personnel during a blackout or air raid and in the event of a direct hit, and for the evacuation of buildings, also require regular theatre drills. They will include a description of the duties of managers, ushers, building wardens, floor wardens, fire watchers and those in charge of heating, plumbing, gas and ventilating systems, elevators, messengers and first-aid service and methods of communication. Regular drills will be required.

Following an initial conference with OCD officials in Washington early last week, an original temporary theatre committee, composed of Mr. Payette, temporary chairman; and Messrs. Barron, Meakin, Barbee, Lust and Browne, together with H. E. Loy-meyer, district manager, E. N. Read, maintenance engineer, A. J. Bachrach, technical manager, and J. A. Pratt, chief sound engineer, all of Warner Brothers Theatres, met to draft the recommendations which were later submitted to civilian defense officials. Si Fabian, of Fabian Theatres, represented the organized industry's War Activities Committee, from New York, during the draftings.

Those recommendations were designed to provide a program which could be adapted

RODGERS PREDICTS PRIORITY PROBLEM

Materials and priorities were the most important subjects discussed at the United Motion Picture Industry meeting, William F. Rodgers, chairman of the organization, said last week. He urged that exhibitors be informed of the seriousness of the supply situation for the industry, particularly distribution and exhibition. Only by doing so, he believed, will the necessary economies be effected to avert a crisis which some believe may result in shortening theatre running hours, theatre closings or elimination of double features.

by the operator of the smallest theatre in the most remote section of the country as well as the operators of the nation's largest houses, and proceed on the premise that theatres are a comparatively safe place during blackouts and actual raids, and, therefore, should be kept open in such emergencies.

Film Priorities Unchanged

The President's appointment of Donald M. Nelson as chief over all war production, and his subsequent abolishment, last week, of the Office of Production Management and the general re-shuffling of the various defense activities will make no basic change in the status of A. Julian Brylawski, in charge of film industry priorities, it was said in Washington this week.

While there are changes in the organizational structure, the several activities of the individual offices will continue as heretofore. Mr. Brylawski will be under J. S. Knowlson, Director of the Division of Industry Operations, one of the major organizations in the new setup.

Heretofore, Mr. Brylawski's office and certain other similar groups have been unattached to any special division and under the general supervision of one of William S. Knudsen's aides.

No Control for Film Prices

Price control legislation enacted by Congress this week will not affect motion pictures at any point in the industry.

Amendments to the measure, under which Leon Henderson, U. S. Price Administrator, is given authority to control the prices of all commodities not specifically exempt, were adopted by the Senate on demand of Senator Sheridan Downey of California, providing that neither the prices for motion pictures nor the admission prices charged by exhibitors were to be subject to regulation.

When the measure went to conference, the House accepted the Senate amendments without change.

As finally enacted, and sent to Presidential signature Tuesday, the bill provides that the definition of "commodity" should not include motion pictures, newspapers or periodicals, and that nothing in the measure was to be construed to authorize the regulation of rates charged by any person engaged in operating a motion picture or other theatre or a broadcasting station.

Metal Film Cans Cut

New prints from film laboratories to exchanges will be shipped in cardboard or fiberboard boxes instead of tin cans, under new regulations approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington. The new ruling was made public on Tuesday by Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, in New York. Critical shortage of containers for shipment of raw film was reported in MOTION PICTURE HERALD of January 24th.

The ICC granted this authority as the result of a petition submitted on behalf of the industry through A. S. Dickinson, director, conservation department, MPPDA. Because of requirements for tin in the war effort, the industry is turning to substitutes for this metal. It is estimated that nearly 1,500,000 cardboard and fiberboard boxes will be used during the next year for film shipments. Tests disclose that fiberboard containers are a slightly better protection against fire hazards than tin cans because of the insulating property of the material.

Navy Film Costs Rise

Funds for motion picture service and other recreation for Navy enlisted personnel were greatly increased this week by the House Appropriations Committee, which, reporting the naval supply bill for the fiscal year 1943, recommended that the current appropriation of $750,000 be immediately increased by $225,000 and that the fund for the coming year be set at $1,390,000.

The committee report did not specify how much of the money would be used for motion pictures, but the department had asked for an additional $40,000 for motion picture service, for which $125,000 originally was provided, and had informed the committee that approximately $400,000 would be required for equipment of new vessels added to the Fleet during the next 18 months.

Navy officials appearing before the committee indicated that war was likely to increase rather than diminish the need for

(Continued on page 24)

ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT

Another
MALTESE FALCON!

Another
SOCK PERFORMANCE BY HUMPHREY BOGART!

Another
HIT LIKE
'SERGEANT YORK'
'THEY DIED WITH THEIR BOOTS ON'
'THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER' • 'KINGS ROW'
'CAPTAINS OF THE CLOUDS'

HUMPHREY BOGART
CONRAD VEIDT
KAAREN VERNE

in
"ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT"

with

JANE DARWELL • FRANK McHUGH
PETER LORRE • JUDITH ANDERSON

Directed by VINCENT SHERMAN

Screen Play by Leonard Spigelgass and Edwin Gilbert • From a Story by Leonard Q. Ross & Leonard Spigelgass

FROM
Warner Bros.!

26 DEFENSE FILMS READY

(Continued from page 22)

recreation. They explained that after the tenseness of war service, such as an engagement with the enemy or active patrol duty, the ensuing let-down requires a maximum of recreational facilities to maintain morale.

New Defense Films Passed

Two new defense short subjects, "Safeguarding Military Information" and "Tanks," have been approved by the War Activities Committee and are now available, through the designated exchanges, to more than 12,000 exhibitors throughout the country who have pledged themselves to play these subjects as they are recommended by the committee.

"Safeguarding Military Information" depicts in narrative form the dangerous consequences of the careless revelation of military secrets. This film was made by Lt. Col. Darryl F. Zanuck as one of the series of training films made at cost for the War Department under the auspices of the Research Council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

"Tanks" presents the production of these armored units in one of the great arsenals of the nation. This short was produced by the Office of Emergency Management Film Unit with special commentary spoken by Orson Welles.

"Tanks" and "Safeguarding Military Information" bring the total number of defense shorts now available to exhibitors to 26. Other defense shorts previously approved by the committee include "Women in Defense," "Bomber," "Red Cross Trailer," "Food for Freedom," "Pots to Planes," "Army in Overalls," "America Builds Ships," "Bits and Pieces," "Where Do We Go," "Seven U. S. Treasury Tags," "America Preferred," "Calling All Workers" and 12 one-minute Army recruiting trailers calling attention to the need for men of special skills in the air force, field artillery, infantry, cavalry, etc.

Fire Bomb Film Ready

The first film authorized for training purposes by the Office of Civilian Defense, entitled "Fighting the Fire Bomb," is now being distributed throughout the United States. It is accompanied by an instruction manual containing supplementary lectures, material for a quiz based on the film and other instructional material. The film and manual constitute official training material approved by the Training Section of the Office of Civilian Defense.

The film was produced by Transfilm, Inc., of New York City, under the technical supervision of the Chemical Warfare Service and the National Fire Protection Association. The Instructor's Manual was produced by Safety Research Institute, New York City.

Copies of the film are being made available to state and local defense councils by the Office of Civilian Defense. Prints of the film and copies of the Manual may be purchased from Transfilm, Inc.

Lt. Col. Mason Wright, head of the Army Public Relations office has ordered 22 16 mm prints from Warner Brothers on "The Tanks Are Coming," a two-reel patriotic subject

RATIONING OF POWER FORESEEN

The rationing of power in theatres and other amusement places, as well as for all other civilian uses, is foreseen by Leland Olds, chairman of the Federal Power Commission, in testimony before a House committee, which was reported last week. He said the rationing, which would come "by the end of this year," would mean a "great deal more than simply the elimination of neon signs, ornamental street lighting, the use of radio in the home or other essentially luxury uses."

which was filmed at Fort Knox in color. Prints will be sent to Army Posts for instruction and morale purposes.

W. L. River, member of the Hollywood Writers War Mobilization central committee, left Los Angeles last week for Washington to confer on the production of Army training films which are being made by the industry in Hollywood.

Studios Prepare War Themes

From Hollywood this week came word of the purchase and preparation of more stories for the screen concerning the war and national defense.

RKO has scheduled "General Billy Mitchell" to be produced by William Hawks with Howard Hawks directing.

Eugene Frenke and Gregor Rabinowitch have purchased the re-make rights to "The Girl from Leningrad," a Soviet picture, and will produce it in Hollywood. Some of the footage of the original picture will be included in the new version. Anna Sten, wife of Mr. Frenke, may star in the picture.

Monogram plans to star Bela Lugosi in "Black Dragons," an original story by Robert Kehoe, dealing with a secret Jap sabotage group. Sam Katzman has been signed to produce the picture.

Pat O'Brien's first picture for Twentieth Century-Fox under a term contract will be "Calling Manilla" based on the current defense of Luzon Island. Irving Pichel will direct and Sol Wurtzel will produce.

"Soldiers in White," the latest Warner two-reel color Service Special, will have a dual world premiere Saturday, January 31st, at Interstate theatres in San Antonio and Houston, Tex. The defense subject describes the activities of the Army Medical Corps and was filmed at Fort Sam Houston with the cooperation of the Medical Corps and Mechanized Divisions.

Metro Goldwyn Mayer has purchased the screen rights to "Salute to the Marines," a war story by Robert D. Andrews, and Wallace Beery will be starred in the film. The story tells of an American-led contingent of Filipinos fighting Japs in the invasion of a Luzon village.

Columbia has acquired the film rights to "The American Way," the George Kaufman and Moss Hart Play, and has assigned George Stevens to produce and direct it. Sidney Buchman has been assigned to the script.

RKO, in association with Max Gordon and Harry M. Goetz, planned to produced the play in 1940, but subsequently relinquished the screen rights.

Republic has announced plans to produce "Make Way for the Commandos," a story concerning the recently organized fighting division of the British Army which has been operated so successfully in recent weeks along the coast of Norway. John Wayne and Ray Middleton will head the cast. The studio is also pushing plans for "Remember Pearl Harbor," and expects to get it under way soon in order to protect the title. It is reported the script has been approved by the War Department.

New Talent Procedure

Lieut. Gen. L. Dewitt, commanding general of the western defense command and the Fourth Army, has designated the Hollywood Victory Committee for the stage, screen and radio, as the organization through which units of his command will make requests for talent from Hollywood for the entertainment of troops.

In New York Actors Equity Association has appointed Bert Lytell, president of Equity, to represent it in all of the existing entertainment organizations designated to supply amusement to men in the armed forces. This was decided last week at a meeting of the union's governing board.

More film stars are volunteering for the personal-appearance tours sponsored by USO-Camp Shows, Inc., to Army camps and Naval stations, it was reported this week at USO headquarters in New York. Mickey Rooney went to Fort Bragg, N. C., on Monday, where he appeared with Clyde Lucas and the latter's orchestra for three days. Linda Darnell, Ann Miller and Joe E. Brown arrived in New York on Monday to begin tours of camps and Naval training stations. Judy Garland opened her tour last Friday night at Fort Knox, Ky.; Al Jolson began a two-week tour at Jacksonville naval air station on Monday; Miss Miller launched her personal appearances on Wednesday, at Camp Forrest, Tullahoma, Tenn., and on Monday, Constance Moore and Mr. Brown appeared at Fort Monmouth, N. J.

With Edward Arnold, Camp Shows' western head, rallying screen stars to Hollywood "talent pool," USO plans to make these tours a major feature for all army and navy entertainment.

New York film houses and legitimate theatres launched a plan on Monday whereby Army and Navy officers, up to certain grades, are admitted at half-price. The idea was created by producer John Golden who initiated a similar plan during World War I. Officers can obtain their tickets in the lobby of the Hotel Commodore.

A new organization, Vaudeville for Victory, was started in Hollywood last week by Peter Godfrey, RKO director and Howard Young, manager of the Music Box theatre, whereby funds will be collected for various camp activities. Benefits will be staged at the Music Box every two or three weeks with Hollywood talent contributing their services.

Bond Sales Aided

Eugene W. Sloan, executive director of the Defense Savings staff of the United States Treasury, on Monday commended Columbia Pictures' plan of awarding $50,000 in defense bonds as prizes in its forthcoming sales drive.

In a telegram to Abe Montague, Columbia general sales manager, Mr. Sloan said in part: "We are in full accord with this plan which we hope will induce all those participating to aid their country by purchasing defense bonds and stamps on a regular basis."

BOND SALES, RED CROSS AIDED

(Continued from opposite page)

To aid the newspaper carrier boys in their campaign to sell defense stamps and bonds, Sabu, "The Elephant Boy," and his pigmy elephant will tour the country.

The services of Sabu have been donated to the Treasury Department's Defense Savings Staff by Alexander Korda, producer of Rudyard Kipling's "Jungle Book," starring Sabu. United Artists will furnish Bernie Kamber, of the publicity department, to accompany and manage the tour.

The Baltimore Variety Club has pledged the purchase of $200,000 in defense stamps and bonds, according to J. Bernard Seaman, chief barker. That amount will buy a bomber, Mr. Seaman said.

Thomas F. Connor, associate editor of the Scranton (Pa.) Tribune, suggested to Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau that the Treasury Department issue a special Carole Lombard Defense Bond Series in memory of the firm star who did much to help the sale of bonds and stamps.

Aid for Red Cross

Hollywood has opened its Red Cross War Emergency Relief drive with a mass meeting of all studios and KFWB broadcasts in which Harry M. Warner, chairman of the industry campaign, and others participated. Francis Carothers, secretary of the Motion Picture International Committee on the Basic Labor Agreement, represented labor, and Edward Arnold, president of the Screen Actors Guild, represented the Permanent Charities Committee of which he is also chairman.

Cecil B. DeMille made an appeal on behalf of the Blood Donors Committee of the Red Cross.

John J. O'Leary, general manager of the Comerford Circuit in Scranton, Pa., has been appointed chairman of the theatre division in the local Red Cross drive.

George A. Nevins, manager of the Capitol theatre in Danville, Pa., has been elected chairman of the board of the Danville Red Cross drive.

Abe Einstein, executive of the Warner theatres circuit in Philadelphia, was appointed to the city committee to conduct the Red Cross War Fund drive opening in Philadelphia, February 13th.

FCC Resumes Radio Inquiry

The Federal Communications Commission resumed hearings on investigation of newspaper-ownership of radio stations, in Washington, last Wednesday, after a recess of two months. It rejected proposals of the Newspaper-Radio Committee to suspend the inquiry until after the war. The suspension motion, filed by Harold Hough on behalf of the committee, was denied by Commissioner Paul C. Walker, acting chairman, on the ground that "the Commission believes the war effort will be advanced by completing this investigation"; that the inquiry will not be a "definite hindrance" to the war effort, and that much time and money already had been spent in preparing the case, including compilation of statistical material which was believed to be of current value.

Judge Thomas D. Thacher, of New York, committee counsel, also objected to continuance of the investigation, urging that the FCC approach its inquiry from the standpoint of

ATLANTIC CITY TO AID MORALE

A united campaign to rid the resort of "war jitters" by providing a bigger and better amusement season this coming summer has been launched by the Atlantic City Amusement Men's Association, composed of the owners and operators of the ocean piers and major movie houses. Discrediting any reports that the war situation would cause a curtailment of amusement patronage this season, the Association urged its membership to plan for an augmented entertainment program for this summer, not only to assure a prosperous season, but at the same time to help build up civilian morale.

recommending legislation. He declared that otherwise the commission has no authority to discriminate against newspapers any more than against any other type of business.

FCC Gets Defense Appropriation

The Federal Communications Commission is given $2,667,619 for defense activities during the fiscal year beginning July 1, next, in the first appropriation bill to come before Congress this year, already passed by the House and now awaiting Senate approval.

The money was part of a $4,991,219 fund earmarked for the commission, with $2,300,000 of it to cover normal costs of operation, a cut of $15,229 from the current appropriation.

The defense fund also was under this year, by $61,381, but the House committee in charge of the bill disclosed that when the commission's program is further matured requests will be submitted for additional money which probably will carry the total much higher.

Collaboration of the industry with the Defense Communications Board it was noted, has made the transition of radio from peace to war a simple matter, and as a result commercial services are being subjected to few restrictions, although stations must go off the air if staying on will make them beacons to guide enemy planes.

First of a series of four basic lessons in civilian defense was launched on Monday night, by the National Broadcasting Company with cooperation of New York's Police Department. Broadcast from its New York station WNBC, NBC put on a 50-minute show, televised to air raid wardens, fire watchers and other defense workers at precinct stations in various parts of the city and to set owners within a radius of 40 miles. The program began with a motion picture showing incendiary bombs raining down on London, then followed with general air raid and defense measures viewed via slides and "live" scenes. Twenty men and women wardens gathered in the studios at Radio City, and asked questions of Lieutenant William F. Maley of the Police Department.

NBC and police officials, following three more Monday evening sessions in the basic course, are contemplating a series of 25 specialized lecture-demonstrations. With the co-operation of General Electric, DuMont Laboratories and the RCA Manufacturing Company, television receivers will be placed in every police precinct defense training classroom in New York City. It will require about four weeks to make these installations. Philco's station WPTZ, in Philadelphia, and the GE station near Schenectady also will hook up with the NBC programs for the benefit of defense workers in their areas.

Radio Output Cut

The War Production Board in Washington on Monday ordered conversion of the radio industry to war production by cutting output of receiving sets more than 40 per cent and slashing the number of tube sockets per set. More drastic reductions are expected, it was learned, but currently the reduction will be based on the volume of output during the nine months ended last September and will be effective for 90 days. Meanwhile, the National Association of Broadcasters made public the results of a survey conducted by the NAB in cooperation with the National Broadcasting Company, revealing that there were 56,000,000 radio sets in use in the United States last year, of which 30,600,000, or 86 per cent, were in homes, showing an increase over 1940 of 1,300,000 more sets in homes.

War Brings Listener-Rise

Since America's entry into the war, listeners to network evening commercial programs have increased at least 13 per cent, indicating an affect on the nation's box office. NBC's research department estimated this figure on the basis of the Hooper radio ratings, which revealed a 21 per cent increase between the first weeks of November and January. A study of the previous two winters showed a normal eight per cent seasonal gain was to be expected for that period, therefore the difference was attributed to the accelerated interest in war news.

Radio Off During Alert

Radio stations in Southern California were silenced for nearly four hours on Monday while unidentified planes cruised over the area, it was reported. An alert was given, calling stations off the air at 6:45 A.M., when planes were first heard approaching the Los Angeles-Long Beach Sections. Broadcasters did not return to the air until 10:30 A.M., after the unidentified craft had left the area and the interceptor command had given the all-clear signal.

Illegal Radio-Users Caught

In its first "report to the nation," on America's war preparations, the Office of Facts and Figures reported in Washington last week that the Federal Communications Commission had investigated 2,000 cases of illegal or subversive use of radio since July, 1940 and had secured 23 convictions. The commission, it was said, also detected 75 radio circuits operating between Germany and its agents abroad, a German-Japanese circuit and an active transmitter in the German Embassy in Washington.

Local 306 Settles With Attorney for $30,000

Compromise settlement with its former attorney, Matthew Levy, was achieved by New York projectionist union Local 306, this week. The sum reported was $30,000. Mr. Levy had asked $40,000. The union had asserted it owed only about $2,000.

The settlement returns to the union papers concerning various legal battles; most importantly, those concerning the anti-trust suit against the union by the Loew circuit.

Mr. Levy, dismissed by the union's new officers several weeks ago, retained the legal papers in lieu of his claimed fees.

A Message to the Mo

WATCH FOR PARAMOUNT'S 30th ANNIVERSARY PICTURES

ion Picture Industry

from Adolph Zukor

Chairman of the Board of Directors,

Paramount Pictures, Inc.

T was thirty years ago this year that I formed the Famous Players Film Company and started the organization that became Paramount on its long career as a leading producer of film entertainments.

In ordinary times the thirtieth birthday of Paramount, the oldest company in the motion picture business, would be signalized by banquets and broadcasts, speeches and memorials, but this is no time for such things. Paramount should commemorate its Thirtieth Anniversary in the film business by delivering to the motion picture theatres of the world the best pictures it has ever made.

I believe that Paramount has made a good start in that direction with "LOUISIANA PURCHASE," "THE FLEET'S IN," "BAHAMA PASSAGE," "SULLIVAN'S TRAVEL'S" and "THE REMARKABLE ANDREW," the pictures that are now released or about to be. But as good as these films are, Paramount will deliver even better pictures in the months to come. This I can safely predict, for I have just returned from the Studio where I saw "HOLIDAY INN," "MY FAVORITE BLONDE," "MR. AND MRS. CUGAT," "TAKE A LETTER, DARLING" and "TOMBSTONE"—excellent entertainments high in showmanship and big in box office.

Of all the productions that I looked at, however, there was one that stood head and shoulders above the rest. This was Cecil B. DeMille's "REAP THE WILD WIND." It is so outstanding that I have asked to have it named Paramount's Thirtieth Anniversary Picture. You will hear more about our plans for "REAP THE WILD WIND" at a later date.

Paramount today is fresher, stronger, more virile than ever before—not thirty years old, but thirty years young—and as the months of 1942 pass by, you will recognize, as never before, the true worth of that famous slogan, "If it's a Paramount Picture, it's the best show in town."

Cecil B. DeMille's "REAP THE WILD WIND" — In Technicolor

Donald Duck Shows the Nation How

Disney Cartoon Distributed Free for Treasury

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON

January 28, 1942

"The New Spirit," Walt Disney's first film provided for the U. S. Treasury Department at cost, and distributed to exhibitors gratis by the Motion Picture War Activities Committee, via National Screen Service, was made to instruct and inform the 8,000,000 new income taxpayers, and interest some millions of old ones, while entertaining them in the manner to which they have been accustomed by the chronically complaining but this time complacent Donald Duck.

This short, promulgated, produced, processed and packaged in a total lapsed time of five weeks, opens with Donald listening, and talking back, to a radio which tells him that his job in the war effort is to pay his income tax. After a moment of sulk he rallies to meet the need described by the radio voice, whereupon the radio set, aided by a pen, inkwell and blotter which also come alive, guides him through the simplicities of filling out his first income tax schedule, deducting allowances for his dependents and deriving from the furnished list of computations the amount of payment due. They whisk him merrily to the post-box on the corner, but, in his zeal, he spurns this convenience in favor of a sprint across continent to deliver the payment in person, right now.

This matter attended to, the radio voice continues in accompaniment to a sequence of depictions in the Disney manner showing the nation's mushrooming supply of planes, tanks and ships sending the forces of the Nipponese and the Nazis to destruction. Theme lines dramatizing these sequences are, "Taxes to Beat the Axis," "Taxes to Sink the Axis" and "Taxes to Ax the Axis."

The subject compares in all essentials to the Disney shorts sold and distributed formally in the entertainment field. It is in color, runs seven minutes, 20 seconds, and bears no placard declaring its sponsoring.

Secretary Morgenthau telephoned producer Disney in Hollywood on December 15th to say he believed a short which would

To the Moving Picture Exhibitor Addressed

Dear Sir:

Very soon you will be offered a new Donald Duck picture in technicolor entitled "The New Spirit" which is very entertaining. It was made especially for the United States Treasury by Walt Disney as a contribution to the nation's war effort. It carries a patriotic message to every American, showing through the medium of Donald Duck how each citizen can do his or her bit by paying his income tax promptly.

This picture will have widespread publicity, and I believe your patrons will be looking for it eagerly. It will be offered to you free and I hope that you will elect to show it.

Since its greatest effectiveness will be between now and March 16, I further hope that you will show it as soon as you can get it, and then send it along without delay so that the next exhibitor may show it promptly.

I shall appreciate very much your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Henry Morgenthau

Special permission has been granted by the Secretary of the Treasury to exhibitors allowing them to reproduce this letter, with signature, in any promotions or advertisements in connection with defense bond drives or other patriotic endeavors.

educate the new millions of income taxpayers was in order.

On December 17th, producer Disney and two of his writers were closeted with Secretary Morgenthau in Washington and Disney was roughing out his script.

The Disney plant dispatched the footage to the Technicolor plant on Sunday, January 18th. The plant delivered an inspection print on the 21st with approval of a Treasury Department official flown to Hollywood for the purpose. It supplied the first completed color print next morning. Four days later, the total order of 1,000 prints had been delivered by Technicolor to National Screen Service for routing to theatres.

All parties to the enterprise functioned on a non-profit basis.

SULLIVAN'S LIFE WAS ON THE SQUARE,

UNTIL VERONICA GOT IN HIS HAIR!

JOEL McCREA · VERONICA LAKE in
"SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS"

with Robert Warwick · William Demarest · Margaret Hayes · Porter Hall · Franklin Pangborn · Eric Blore

A Paramount Picture · Written and Directed by Preston Sturges

COLUMN 'HOOT' AT "CULTURAL RELATIONS" DRAWS REPLY

Officials of Whitney Unit Say "Merry - Go - Round" Charge was Inaccurate

by FRANCIS L. BURT
in Washington

The motion picture activities of the Office of the U. S. Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs were put on "The Washington Merry - Go - Round" last Thursday by the column conductors, Drew Pearson and Robert Allen, who whirled the affairs of the Rockefeller-Whitney South American goodwill cultivators to newspapers across the country (via United Features Syndicate), as follows:

BAD FILMS FOR GOOD NEIGHBORS

Young Nelson Rockefeller, who on the whole has done a good job for Pan-American cultural relations, has bogged down badly on films for our Pan-American neighbors. His Museum of Modern Art, which was supposed to do this, has been laboring for nine months at a cost of $15,000 per month to the Government—and finally has brought forth a mouse.

Rockefeller and Jock Whitney are getting a large dose of criticism about this because they are personally interested in the Museum and have permitted an amateur group to run the show—into the ground. Without benefit of competitive bidding or any system of checks and balances, amateur after amateur in the Museum has tackled the job of deciding what kind of films should be sent to Latin America. Here is a cross-section of the results so far: "Better Dresses, Fifth Floor", "A Child Went Forth", "The City", "Power and the Land"—all utterly unsuited and without objective for South America.

Some reasonably good commercial films have been donated, such as "U. S. Steel", "Greyhound Bus", "General Electric Excursions in Science", "The American Can Company Silver Millions". Also, Hollywood has handed over a group of pictures, such as "Eyes of the Navy", "Soldiers of the Sky", "The Battle", which are the best pictures that have gone to South America.

Meanwhile, the amateurs continue to chatter and muddle over uplifting films for our Good Neighbors—all at the expense of Uncle Sam.

"The Washington Merry-Go-Round" column written daily by Mr. Pearson and Mr.

Allen, is syndicated, under copyright, by United Features Syndicate, from Washington, to some 600 newspapers in the U. S. Not all of the papers publish all of the items contained in the columns. For example, this piece was published in the Washington Times-Herald. But the syndicate's New York client, the Daily Mirror, did not use it.

The attack brought no direct reply from either Nelson Rockefeller or John Hay Whitney, who handle the motion picture division of the Rockefeller South American cultural committee. But officials of the committee's Washington office said the conclusions drawn in the article were highly inaccurate and misleading.

Statements Contradicted

These officials made available material which they said controverted the charges of Mr. Pearson and Mr. Allen.

The columnists charged that the Museum of Modern Art, in New York, was getting $15,000 a month from the coordinator's office for film work, but, it was declared, the contract is for $10,000.

The Museum was cited as a non-profit organization and, as a matter of fact, it was declared, is operating at a loss under the contract since all the money received is used for cost and operation under the agreement and facilities, equipment, floor space and technical services are donated. Furthermore, it was explained, the Museum is responsible only for the editing and adaptation of 16mm non-theatrical films, only a fraction of the whole program.

It was alleged that the contract was let without competitive bidding, which was admitted, but it was pointed out that the motion picture section is authorized by law to negotiate contracts without bidding and that the Museum was the only organization which could carry out the work assigned to it.

Unsuitability Denied

A number of films were named by the columnists as having been sent to Latin America, a market for which they were definitely unsuited. On the other hand, officials said, none of the pictures named have been shipped south and, further, all the films scheduled have been placed on the program on the recommendation of the State Department, National Geographic Society, Smithsonian Institution, Pan American Sanitary Bureau, United States Public Health Service, members of the Latin American diplomatic corps, American College of Surgeons or John Hay Whitney, on the basis of information gathered personally by him as to the wants of each government during his Latin American trip last year.

One of the pictures named—"A Child Went Forth"—is particularly one in which several South American countries have expressed great interest.

Allegations that Rockefeller and Whitney benefit by the contract with the Museum of Modern Art were flatly denied, as were charges that the film program is in the hands of amateurs. Officials pointed out that Kenneth MacGowan, in charge of the motion picture section, is a recognized producer and director, and said Mr. Whitney himself hardly could be called an amateur.

All of the pictures which have gone to the southern republics were passed upon by the State Department, including "Airacobra" and films of parachute troops, war production and other defense subjects. The coordinator has made 12 public health films which have been requested by the health ministers of nearly every Latin American country, and has made films of each of the other republics for distribution in the United States.

It was pointed out that the columnists failed to give the coordinator credit for the work he has done with the industry itself, suggesting themes which would be of interest to Latin America and recommending either the withholding or revamping of pictures which would be subject to criticism if shown there. This work, it was said, is being received with appreciation by the industry, as indicated by the cooperation which has been given the office by leading persons, such as Walt Disney and Orson Welles, in producing pictures for Latin American distribution.

23 on Way

Already routed southward on Spanish and Portuguese sound tracks, it was said, are 23 reels of short films ranging from the progress of war production to scientific and health pictures. An additional 25 reels are now being processed. Thirty 16mm sound projectors have been sent to the missions in the other republics for loan to local groups, such as schools, organizations, etc., and more will be forwarded shortly.

Twenty-five reels of 16mm film dealing with the other republics have been prepared and are now available for nontheatrical showings in this country. Typical of these is "Americas All," produced and narrated by Julien Bryan, covering the activities of youth in every one of the other Americas. Fifty reels more are in the making.

Canadian Pilots To See Opening of "Clouds"

Two hundred pilots of the Royal Canadian Air Force, including the Precision Drill Squadron and RCAF Central Band of Ottawa will visit New York on February 12th. They will place a wreath at the Eternal Light in Madison Square, present an RCAF flag to Mayor LaGuardia, and, in the evening, will march from the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel to the Strand Theatre on Broadway to give a precision drill and later attend the opening of Warners' "Captains of the Clouds."

This picture was made in Canada last summer and shows how RCAF flyers are produced and gives what explanation is possible under wartime censorship of the operation of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan. The group of airmen going to New York includes one complete flight of American boys who had crossed the border to enroll in the RCAF.

Flying Officer T. G. McCall of the RCAF is already in New York to make advance arrangements.

SULLIVAN'S DAYS ARE A DIZZY WHIRL, WHEN HE TANGLES WITH THAT VERONICA GIRL !!!

JOEL McCREA • VERONICA LAKE in
"SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS"

with Robert Warwick • William Demarest • Margaret Hayes • Porter Hall • Franklin Pangborn • Eric Blore

A Paramount Picture • Written and Directed by Preston Sturges

State Concludes in Minnesota Blocks Trial

In St. Paul, Minn., on Tuesday, the state concluded taking rebuttal testimony in the trial of RKO, Paramount and Twentieth Century-Fox for alleged violation of the Minnesota anti-block-of-five law. Attorneys and the court lost no time in beginning trial of another action involving the law. In this suit, six companies, the five consenting companies and United Artists, seek to invalidate the Minnesota law by a court declaration that it is unconstitutional, and ask a permanent injunction preventing its enforcement.

A similar action, in which a temporary injunction is sought, came to grief last autumn when Judge Hugo O. Hanft of Ramsey District Court ruled the law constitutional and denied the restraining order.

Rebuttal of state witnesses in the criminal action was followed by rebuttal of several defense witnesses. Fred Strom, Northwest Allied secretary, was the last state witness. He said his organization sponsored the law and had run into little but trouble since. He testified concerning Allied's efforts to get product for theatres threatened with closing during the days before majors got relief from the consent decree to comply with the Minnesota law.

Mr. Strom also testified concerning a resolution sent out by the Allied board of governors, asking exhibitors to demand the 20 per cent cancellation permitted them by the law from all exhibitors.

L. E. Goldhammer, RKO branch manager, called in rebuttal by the defense, denied he had ever talked to Mr. Strom, although the latter quoted him as saying a 10 per cent cancellation clause would have been agreeable.

After testimony from rebuttal witnesses, the case was closed. There were no closing arguments, although David Shearer, defense attorney, dictated for the record a recommendation that the court find the defendants not guilty. The case then was taken under advisement by Judge Albin Pearson, who immediately began presiding over the second trial.

In the civil action, James M. Lynch, Ramsey county attorney, told the court he represented himself, Ed J. Goff, Hennepin county attorney, and Thomas J. Gibbons, Ramsey county sheriff, as defendants in the case.

Wednesday, Judge Albin agreed to apply testimony in the completed civil action to the criminal case. The decision on both cases will follow after March 1st.

The assistant state attorney general said he would observe the case with the intent of filing a brief to present the attitude of his office. Shearer said he would again represent the film companies, assisted by Joseph Finley of St. Paul.

It was indicated that arguments concerning both cases would be presented at the end of the civil action. Although only three companies are involved in the criminal action and six in the civil, close inter-linking of the cases in the minds of all concerned was manifested by the fact that the trial opened with identification of various exhibits in the first trial as qualified in the second action.

How the War Affects the Theatre Business in Milan, Indiana

Here in tabloid is a clear cut representative story of the dislocations and readjustments of the social and industrial map of the nation swept by the war effort. What Jim Haney has set down here for his little town in the Midwest is in some fashion and degree being repeated for many another of those little towns that are the backbone of this big America. Mr. Haney's problems are common to many. This is what he says:

TO THE EDITOR:

Milan, Indiana, is a town of 1,000 population and Mooreshill, 2 miles away, boasts of about 500. Milan is one of the very best small towns in the state. It has a fine furniture and veneer mill that works day and night. Farming is good also.

The Milan theatre was built 4 years ago, and is modern in every respect, and plays product right after the city break. It has enjoyed a very fine business up to the time the draft started. Over 200 young men and boys from his vicinity are in the army and navy. They were good patrons to the theatre from one to three times weekly. Other boys who worked at the local factory at a reasonable wage have left to go to the cities for high wages in defense plants. Older men have taken their places. These men are not movie minded like the young folks.

On a Sunday and Monday picture with which we used to gross from $125 to $175, we are now grossing around $75 and even as low as $45. Our Cash Nites Wednesday and Thursday, that used to gross $75 to $125 nightly, have fallen to around $40 and $50 per nite. Our Friday and Saturday business is now composed of kiddies at an 11 cent admission. We will say 75 per cent of it.

With the new draft coming up in February, just what will the business amount to?

The janitor has gone to the army, the manager does the janitor work and fires the furnace. He does all the sign writing, catches tickets; his wife sells tickets, books, and does the book-keeping. The coal, water, lights, taxes, insurance have to be paid and so does the operator, and he eats meat.

And so does the manager and his wife.

But the Milan theatre is paying more for pictures than ever before. What is going to be the answer for the small man who doesn't operate in the defense area?

Advertising in 4 weekly newspapers, putting out 100 tack cards weekly and using a public address in the vicinity of 30 miles around won't get any business if there are no people left to go to the show.

With an investment of $23,000 surely the management should be allowed something.

—JIM HANEY, Milan Theatre, Milan, Indiana.

Lytell in New Equity Post

Actors Equity Association announced in New York on Tuesday that its Council had named Bert Lytell, president, to a newly created post for the association, that of director of public relations, at a salary reported to be $8,000. Reason given for the move was increasing demands made on Mr. Lytell's time as head of Equity in connection with war benefits and shows. In addition to his present duties, he will serve in his new capacity until October 1st, representing Equity on the special committee of Associated Actors and Artist of America, parent body of talent groups, which will act on all war benefits.

Schlanger Shifts Managers

A general shift in house managers at the Warner theatres in Philadelphia was announced by zone manager Ted Schlanger as a result of Wilbur Grant, Universal booker here, returning to the circuit after an absence of two years, to manage the Manor Theatre, and Harold Brason, manager of the Diamond Theatre, being called back for army duty. Fred Boas, former manager of the Manor, was switched to the Vernon. Andy Schectman, Vernon manager, moved to the Allegheny; and Bill Wolf, manager of the Allegheny, took over the vacated post at the Diamond.

Formby Film Acquired

Astor Pictures in New York has taken over the national distribution rights of "George Takes the Air," starring George Formby, in accordance with a deal between R. M. Savini, president of Astor, and Jack Barnstyn of the BSB Corporation.

Warners' Chicago Changes

Harry Corbett, who was assistant manager of the Warner circuit's Beverly theatre, Chicago, has been promoted to manager of the Bay theatre, Green Bay, Wisconsin. Richard Fahey, assistant manager of the Hamilton theatre has been made assistant manager of the Beverly theatre, and John Hoffman, senior chief of service at the Avalon theatre, has been appointed assistant manager of the Hamilton theatre.

RCA-Tri-States Pact

The continuation of RCA sound service and the furnishing of parts and tubes to the 93 theatres of the Tri-States Theatre Corporation and Central States Theatre Corporation of Des Moines has been assured under the terms of a new contract recently signed. Myron Blank negotiated for the theatres and George Sandore represented RCA.

Hilda Growald with Bud Fox

Hilda Growald has joined the publicity office of Bud Fox Enterprises in New York. The Bud Fox organization is handling commercial tieups for Alexander Korda's "Jungle Book."

Portland Censor Named

Mrs. Thomas M. Joyce, has been named by Earl Riley to succeed Mrs. B. K. Lawson on the Portland, Ore., censor board, whose term recently expired.

Heinrich Resigns from RKO

G. L. Heinrich, booker at the Indianapolis branch of RKO has resigned from the company. He had been with the company for more than 20 years.

NOW WE'RE TALKING ON THE LEVEL
SHOWMEN EVERYWHERE WILL REVEL
IN THE TAKE OF SOLID CASH *
FROM THIS LATEST STURGES SMASH!

JOEL McCREA • VERONICA LAKE in
"SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS"
with Robert Warwick • William Demarest • Margaret Hayes • Porter Hall • Franklin Pangborn • Eric Blore
A Paramount Picture • Written and Directed by Preston Sturges

SULLIVAN REALLY TRAVELS

SMASHES ALL HOUSE RECORDS for a solid first week at the Michigan Theatre, Detroit . . . grosses 65% better than "Birth of the Blues" and 100% above Sturges' last hit, "The Lady Eve," for opening day at the Metropolitan Theatre, Boston!

Studio Costs Up 15% Since War: Freeman

Paramount Product Head Say "Films for Morale" Slogan Will Prevail

Hollywood production costs have advanced 10 to 15 per cent as a result of the war and the new wage increases to some 10,000 studio workers, effected last week;

To help maintain morale during wartime, Hollywood can and will render greatest service by continuing a steady flow of product;

The Government has not tried to influence producers to select feature stories with war angles or patriotic themes;

Short, factual films, to meet Government training-program needs will, however, continue in production.

These are observations of Y. Frank Freeman, head of Paramount production, and speaking in the main as head of organized production in Hollywood, made to reporters of the trade press, called by him to a private dining room at the Hotel Astor in New York last Friday. Mr. Freeman annually talks to the trade press in this informal manner on the state of the industry and its relation to the nation, this time in its relation to a nation at war.

Paramount's studio chief came to New York fresh from Washington, where he conferred with Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau and Lowell Mellett, Coordinator of Government Films, on Thursday, in connection with the current bond-selling campaign and on other industry-and-war matters. Mr. Freeman, head of the Hollywood section of the War Activities Committee, Motion Picture Industry, said he had offered the group's fullest cooperation in the drive to promote bond sales.

No Government Pressure

Mr. Freeman stressed that the U. S. had not attempted, either through request or by pressure, to influence Hollywood in selecting story material keyed to war propaganda. Films directed against Axis nations and their leaders will not be barred, he said.

In his Washington discussions with Mr. Mellett, reported Mr. Freeman, the Government film coordinator reiterated his instructions of 10 days ago to Hollywood, to "Stay on the job" producing films for national entertainment and morale and films for service training and defense instruction. "Films are as important as almost anything else in this war," Mr. Mellett was quoted as saying.

Mr. Freeman took from the Mellett conference the urgings of the Government to Hollywood executives, talent and technicians, not to seek service elsewhere.

With regard to Government training films, Mr. Freeman pointed out that Hollywood already had produced many such pictures for the War and the other departments. He said Paramount was planning approximately the same number of features for next season and speeding production. It is impossible to prophesy, he declared, that there will be no curtailment of Hollywood production for 1942-43 because the Government's wartime needs necessarily must be the industry's first consideration.

The film industry, in its broad aspect as a national morale factor, without doubt will be classed as an essential non-military activity according to Mr. Freeman. He emphasized, however, the need for economy in the use of all essential materials. The industry will receive a priority classification along with many civilian enterprises, but cannot expect preferred status with respect to any materials that are vital to armament, he indicated.

Referring to conservation programs already under way in all studios, Mr. Freeman said elimination of waste in production might be expected to result from the nation's war effort, and cited, for example, reduction in shooting time and the number of "takes" on scenes as one method of conserving raw stock.

Exhibition's stake in the industry, he pointed out, is in the ratio of four to one as compared with distribution and production, and he emphasized the necessity for exhibitors to do their utmost in selling their shows to draw the maximum box office return. He declined to comment on whether product had improved as a direct result of the block-of-five selling method of the consent decree, but declared he believed films during the past year were, on the whole, superior in quality to those films produced in recent years.

Distribution Costs Increased

Barney Balaban, Paramount president, who attended the luncheon, declared that distribution costs increased sharply under consent decree selling and that it took twice as long to get income from productions as it did under block booking. He estimated the new system was costing the five major companies, which are signatories to the decree, an aggregate of $5,000,000.

In addition to Mr. Freeman and Mr. Balaban, those present at the luncheon, from Paramount, were: Austin C. Keough, Claude Lee, J. J. Unger, Russell Holman, Milt Kusell, Bob Gillham, Al Wilkie, Herb Berg and Ed. Sullivan.

Trade press representatives who attended were: James P. Cunningham, Charles Aaronson, Jay Emanuel, Pete Harrison, Red Kann, Jack Harrison, Chester Bahn, John Flinn, Charles Lewis and Don Mersereau.

Woodward, Producer, Dies

Stacy Woodward, documentary producer and editor, died in New York January 27th. He was 39 years old. Mr. Woodward, who lived in San Francisco, was head of the Woodward Producing Company in New York. In 1933, with his brother Horace, he won a Motion Picture Academy Award for "The Sea." The following year they won a second Academy prize for "City of Wax," a story of bees. The brothers also turned out "Adventures of Chico," a feature, in 1938. Mr. Woodward made the "Battle of Life" series for Educational, and also photographed "The River," Government documentary film.

Mr. Woodward produced two featurettes for Producers Releasing Corp. in 1941, "Man the Enigma" and "Alive in the Deep."

FILMS RATE WITH TANKS, PLANES

Motion pictures are as important in winning the war as planes, guns, tanks and factories. This declaration came from Quentin Reynolds, correspondent, just returned from the front, who was given a dinner by the staff of Collier's Weekly, Monday night, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York.

"Motion pictures, maligned as they have been, and unjustly so, have proved this in England," he said. "Winston Churchill and Lord Beaverbrook are probably the world's two greatest film fans. The Prime Minister," Reynolds reported, "had seen 'That Hamilton Woman' six times, and cried every time he saw it."

Two Silverstones Resign UA Posts

Two Silverstones resigned this week from the United Artists grouping. Emanuel Silverstone left his position as executive representative for Alexander Korda Films. Arthur Silverstone resigned as New York metropolitan district manager for United Artists.

A third of the Silverstone clan, Maurice, remains with United Artists as a producer in association with Mary Pickford. Maurice had formerly been chief of world-wide operations for the company. Hollywood reported this week he was attempting to purchase UA stock.

Emanuel Silverstone had been with Korda Films eight years. He entered the film industry in 1931, joining Samuel Goldwyn's New York sales department. He then represented UA in Panama, after which he joined Mr. Korda. In 1938 he became Korda representative on the UA board; in 1940 he was elected vice-president and director of Alexander Korda Films.

Arthur Silverstone had been with UA 18 years, here and in Great Britain. In 1939 he was appointed assistant to the Eastern sales manager; in 1940 he was made metropolitan district manager.

Meanwhile, as the above resignations became known, speculation rose about future assignments of Edward Schnitzer, who resigned last week as Warners' New York metropolitan district manager; and it was reported he might join the United Artists organization.

T. R. Thompson was said this week to have resigned from branch management for RKO in Kansas City, to join UA.

This week the latter company's Indianapolis exchange was shifted from the Eastern to Western sales division.

From Hollywood Wednesday, came word that Harold Hurley, who was to produce two pictures annually for United Artists, has been released from his contract at his own request. The cancellation was voted at a meeting of the UA owner-members with management officials headed by Edward Raftery, Gradwell Sears, Laudy Laurence and George Bagnell.

TAX COLLECTIONS DOUBLED IN 1941, TO $87,819,800

Revenue in December Was $1,000,000 More Than November's

U. S. admission tax collections for 1941 more than doubled those of 1940, reaching a total of $87,819,800, compared with $43,483,373 in 1940, it was disclosed by the final 1941 report of the Internal Revenue Bureau, at Washington, Monday.

The outstanding feature of the report for December was the disclosure that collections in that month hit $11,412,679, a jump of approximately $1,000,000 over November's $10,411,198, reflecting the first month of operation under the 1941 tax law repeal of all exemptions, and $4,750,000 above the December, 1940, total of $6,653,971.

That the high December total was attributable almost entirely to the inclusion among the taxpayers of the theatres charging less than 21 cents admission was indicated by the special report for the Third New York (Broadway) District, which showed collections of only $1,196,659 as compared with $2,600,829 in November. The December collections were almost identical with those of the same month in 1940, when $1,193,461 was reported.

The cut in revenue from the Broadway area between November and December was due to a decline in box-office collections from $2,502,018 to $1,068,787, the report showed. Other collections included $14,556 in December from tickets sold by brokers against $9,875 in November; nothing from tickets sold by proprietors in excess of established prices against $70; $702 from permanent use or lease of boxes and seats against $174, and $112,613 from admissions to roof gardens and cabarets against $88,692.

Because of the fact that the exemption was dropped from 40 to 20 cents in July, 1940, and entirely eliminated in October, 1941, no comparison of monthly collections in the two years is possible, but in general the effect of the adoption of the 20-cent exemption was to increase the average monthly return from less than $2,000,000 to something like $6,500,000, while elimination of all exemptions will increase it further, it is indicated, to something more than $11,000,000.

Revenue from the admission tax during the two years, by months, was as follows:

	1941	1940
January .....	$6,583,277.97	$1,486,534.64
February .....	6,495,283.66	1,852,763.82
March .....	7,104,956.34	2,390,931.82
April .....	5,627,394.21	2,000,902.18
May .....	6,955,991.27	1,791,095.76
June .....	5,880,649.30	1,645,603.31
July .....	6,760,861.38	1,650,162.91
August .....	7,330,283.72	4,407,097.18
September .....	6,444,950.05	5,851,655.13
October .....	6,812,275.12	6,628,429.90
November .....	10,411,197.95	7,124,225.19
December .....	11,412,678.66	6,653,971.00
Total .....	$87,819,799.63	$43,483,372.84

Riviera Deal Settled

Settlement was made for the Stanley Company of America with William I. Greenfield, president of the Riviera Amusement Corp., for the purchase of Warner's Riviera theatre in Philadelphia. The house, in recent years op-

SEE $250,000 TAX ON STATE FILMS

In the executive budget submitted to the New York state legislature, Governor Herbert H. Lehman has estimated the state revenue from the motion picture review tax at $250,000 for the fiscal year beginning July 1st, 1942.

The estimate is a decrease of $50,000 compared with the current fiscal year which will end June 30th, for which a $300,000 revenue was estimated. The revenue for the year ended June 30th, 1941, was $316,096. The estimates are predicated upon past revenue and the rate of collections during the current fiscal year of 1942, the budget message said.

A sharp decrease in the number of foreign films offered for review is expected to account for much of the decrease.

Film Workers In Service

With the United States actively engaged in the war and the Government calling all available man-power to make up the potential 3,600,000-man-Army, the motion picture industry has contributed and will continue to furnish its share of personnel for the armed service. Those who have joined the various armed divisions in recent weeks include:

Elliot Kornish, Loew-Poli staff in New Haven, Conn.; Robert Anderson, of the Fox theatre, Spokane; Ed Connelly of Warners home office publicity department; Richard Marks, associated with his father Jack Marks, in running the Orpheum theatre in Clarksburg, W. Va.; George E. Finley of Warners' Rhodes theatre in Chicago; Frank Powell of the Paramount theatre, Montgomery, Ala.; Robert D. Rainwater, operator for Wilby-Kincey in Anniston, Ala.; Proctor Jones and Bud Gilliam of Warners' Cleveland branch; Joe Lingo, assistant manager at Loew's in Rochester, N. Y.; Leo Hill of the Strand in Wilkes-Barre; John Keller of Warners' Indianapolis staff.

Also, Sy Waxman, manager of the Hollywood and Cinema theatres in Atlantic City; Jackson Lang, Paramount shipper in Indianapolis; Robert Yentes, of the Twentieth Century-Fox exchange in New York; Frank Liberman of the Warner Chicago field publicity staff; Walter Dykes, former Navy man, and projectionist at the Ashley theatre in Ashley, Pa., has been recalled to the service.

Also Charles Goldfine, operator of the Alden theatre and president of Philadelphia's Showmen's Club; Ed Carlson, manager of the Dawn theatre in Detroit; Alex Barr, chief of service at the Palace theatre in Dallas; Richard Webb, Paramount actor; Henry Hoogland of RKO's home office still department; Edward Maisel of the Tivoli in Springfield, Ill.; Fred Greene, assistant manager of the Surf theatre, in Miami Beach; Fred K. Martin, assistant manager of Loew's theatre in Harrisburg, Pa.; Robert E. Dickinson, photographic salesman for Eastman Kodak in Rochester, N. Y.; Harry E. Hersheimer of the Tower theatre in Houston; Ralph Landnaes, MGM booker in Cleveland; Charles Been of the Fox exchange in Des Moines; Arthur Ehrlich, Sid Salitsky, Bennett Goldstein, Albert Cohen and Eddie Gelfand of the Loew's home office in New York; George Rixner, manager of the Missouri theatre in St. Louis, and Robert Brownstein, treasurer of the Fox in St. Louis; Robert Kinsely, manager of the Times theatre in Cincinnati; Ray Hughes, of the Roger Sherman in New Haven; Stanley Friedlander, the voice for Fleischer cartoons.

Also, Reino Maddough of Paramount's New Haven exchange; Joe Martello, assistant manager of the Saenger theatre in New Orleans; Bill Andrews, Paramount shipper, and Bob Nero, Monogram shipper, both of the Cleveland branches; Floyd Blitzh of the Grove theatre in Coconut Grove, Fla.; Oscar L. Carter of the Strand theatre in Miami; Pat Mitts of the Fox Lincoln theatre in Springfield, Ill.; Morris Cohn, Columbia salesman in Albany; Louis Robertson, Majestic theatre in Providence, R. I.; Phil London, assistant of the Felton theatre in Philadelphia; Leon Stashin of Warner home office sales department.

Edgar Keyes, Jack Hyde, Gordon Schaeffer, Charles Neiman, Robert Swissler and Charles Hayden, all employed at the Warner studio, have enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force.

SEC Reports Holdings of Universal, Keith Officers

The November summary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, issued January 23d, had only one film transaction to add to the long list previously reported for that month. It was the acquisition of 150 Universal Pictures Corporation common voting trust certificates by J. Cheever Cowdin, New York, voting trustee, through a holding company.

The summary included a delayed report on Universal showing that in October Peyton Gibson, New York, officer, disposed of 220 shares of first preferred stock held through Universal Corporation.

Neither J. Miller Walker, New York, who was made an officer in Keith-Albee-Orpheum December 5th, nor Leon Goldberg, New York, who became an officer in Radio-Keith-Orpheum December 15th, held any of the securities of those companies on those dates, it was shown in SEC reports on the holdings of persons becoming officers or directors of registered corporations.

Paramount Buys Site

Paramount Pictures, Inc., have purchased an additional site in Meywood, Ill., for their proposed 1400 seat theatre, the erection of which is still indefinite. New location is at Fifth Avenue and St. Charles Road, five blocks from the original site at Fifth and Warren avenues. Plans have been drawn by the C. W. and George L. Rapp, Inc., firm, Chicago.

Newsreel House To Open

The Drury Lane theatre, closed for some time, will become the first newsreel theatre in Louisville, Ky., and will be known as The Scoop. Harry Sheresky of New York has leased the property for the operation of the theatre.

"Joe Smith" and "King" Open

With attendant ceremonials and extensive field promotions, two Hollywood films will make their debuts next week, MGM's "Joe Smith, American," and Warners Bros. "Kings Row." Columbia's "The Invaders" bowed on Thursday in Canada.

Mayor H. W. Jackson of Baltimore issued a proclamation on Monday, naming the week of February 5th-12th as "Joe Smith Week." MGM's "Joe Smith, American" opens at the Century Theatre in Baltimore on February 5th. The mayor's proclamation was made "in recognition of these soldiers of production—the Joe Smiths of America, who are entrenched along our real line of defense—the great war production effort." Starring Robert Young in the title role, the film deals with a defense worker's effort in circumventing a sabotage plot.

Warner Bros.' "King's Row," adapted by Casey Robinson from the best-seller novel, and directed by Sam Wood, will debut at the Astor Theatre, New York, on Monday, February 2nd. Ann Sheridan, who stars with Ronald Reagan, Robert Cummings and Betty Field in the picture, is planning to fly from Hollywood to New York for the premiere, if the shooting schedule of her new production will permit. Following its debut, the film will be shown on Tuesday, February 3rd, and thereafter, at the Astor on a continuous, popular-price basis.

Columbia Opens "Invaders"

Columbia's "The Invaders," was launched this week with 12 key cities lined up for coast-to-coast premieres in Canada, it was announced this week at the company's home office. Starring Laurence Olivier, Leslie Howard and Raymond Massey, the picture will have simultaneous showings in Ottawa, Toronto, Montreal, Vancouver, Winnipeg, Hamilton, Halifax, St. John, Saskatoon, Edmonton, Calgary and Victoria in the three-day period which began on Thursday.

Civic and military officials cooperated in arranging special functions in each city for the openings and a nationwide radio program over the Canadian Broadcasting System on Thursday, at 8:30 P.M., launched the entire campaign. "The Invaders" is the story of a man-hunt for a fugitive Nazi U-boat crew and was filmed in Canada.

MGM announced this week in New York that the "Show Builder," the mobile unit designed to help smaller theatres in getting maximum results from low-budget promotion campaigns, would continue its Ohio tour until February 7th. Ken Prickett, of the company's field staff, is in charge of the unit.

The itinerary began last Friday, as follows:

Jan. 23, Somerset and New Lexington; Jan. 24, New Straitsville; Jan. 26, Chesterhill and Stockport; Jan. 27, McConnellsville and Beverly; Jan. 28, Coolville and Nelsonville; Jan. 29, Logan and McArthur; Jan. 30, Wellston and Jackson; Jan. 31, Pomeroy; Feb. 2, Gallipolis and Oak Hill; Feb. 3, Ironton and So. Webster; Feb. 4, Frankfort and Clarksburg; Feb. 5, Circleville and Williamsport; Feb. 6, New Holland and Washington; Feb. 7, Jamestown.

ARNSTEIN SPEAKER AT B'NAI B'RITH

By Staff Photographer

DANIEL ARNSTEIN, head of the Terminal Transportation System and the Yellow Products Company, and intimate of John Hertz, Barney Balaban and others in the motion picture industry, is the man acknowledged to have set the Burma Road into an American mold. Meaning that it is functioning, in spite of bombing, graft, weather, ignorance and terrain, increasingly in accordance with American transportation methods.

Mr. Arnstein, a guest speaker Wednesday evening at the regular meeting of the Cinema Lodge, B'nai B'rith, New York, described his reorganization of the Burma Road, his meetings with Chiang Kai Shek and other Chinese generals and with other Eastern celebrities. He showed numerous Kodachrome pictures of the territory visited. The meeting was held in the ballroom of the Hotel Edison, New York, and proceedings were broadcast over Station WHN.

Tyrone Power to Finance Production in Alaska

Tyrone Power, Twentieth Century-Fox star, soon to be seen in Darryl F. Zanuck's "Son of Fury" has announced plans to become a motion picture producer.

Mr. Power said that he would finance production of an Alaskan film.

Retitle Harris Theatre

Scheduled to reopen during the next month after being closed for more than a year while being rebuilt, the former Harris Lavin theatre in Pittsburgh will be known as the J. P. Harris theatre in honor of the late Senator John P. Harris, co-founder of Harris Amusements.

Turley in Realty Post

Clarence M. Turley, secretary of the St. Louis Amusement Company has been installed as president of the St. Louis Real Estate Exchange.

$100,000 to Aid N. Y. Charities

More than $100,000 was raised by the amusement industry in the 1941 campaign to aid 116 hospitals, institutions and other philanthropic services operated by the New York and Brooklyn Federations of Jewish Charities. Following a luncheon sponsored by the amusement division of Federation last Friday at the Hotel Astor, New York, David Bernstein, co-chairman of the amusement group, said this sum was still behind the figure raised last year. He said his committee would continue to function and seek contributions, working toward a goal of $150,000 from the amusement field for the 1941 Federation drive.

Mr. Bernstein, co-chairman of the division with Major Albert Warner, presided at the luncheon which was given in honor of William L. Shirer, lecturer, author and news commentator for Columbia Broadcasting System. More than 700 leaders in the motion picture, theatrical and radio fields attended. Speakers, in addition to Mr. Shirer and Mr. Bernstein, were Eddie Cantor, who served as master of ceremonies, and George Z. Medalie, president of New York Federation.

Stars, Executives Attend

Seated on the dais were: B. S. Moss, luncheon treasurer; Herman Robbins; Henry Jaffe, chairman of the arrangements committee; William Morris, Jr., and Jules C. Stein, luncheon co-chairmen; George J. Schaefer; Paul Felix Warburg, chairman of the Business Men's Council of Federation; Paul Moss, Commissioner of Licenses of New York City; Jack Cohn; Will Hays; Gilbert Miller; John Golden; Albert D. Lasker; Jacob Wilk, and William Klein.

Those present at the luncheon included: Dinah Shore, Jack Dempsey, Leo Abrams, Ben Boyar, Harry Brandt, H. H. Buxbaum, Irving Caesar, Max A. Cohen, Tom J. Connors, Russel Crouse, Meyer Davis, Armand S. Deutsch, Sam Dembow, Jr., Oscar A. Doob, Jack Ellis, Max Fellerman, Leopold Friedman, William C. Gehring, Charles Goetz, Leon Goldberg, Leonard Goldenson, Toby Gruen, Harry Hershfield, Hal Horne, Earl Hudson, Walter J. Hutchinson, Harry Kalmine, William Kingsberg, Charles Koerner, William J. Kupper, Abe Lastfogel, Abraham Leff, Dave Lipton, Harry Michelson, Charles Moskowitz, Martin Moskowitz, Sam E. Morris, Eugene Picker, Sam Rinzler, Louis Frisch, James F. Reilly, Harold Rodner, Budd Rodgers, Aubrey Schenck, Adolph Schimel, Si Seadler, J. H. Seidelman, John Shubert, Spyros P. Skouras, A. W. Smith, Jr., Nate B. Spingold, William Sussman, Max Weisfeldt and H. J. Yates.

Montague Opens Columbia Drive

A. Montague, general sales manager, and Lou Astor, sales executive, left for the coast Friday, January 23rd, to open "Columbia's Victory Sales Drive for Columbia's Greatest Year," in which $50,000 in defense bonds will be distributed as awards.

Mr. Montague and Mr. Astor will stop at Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco to open the campaign in those territories. The pictures scheduled for the drive will be announced shortly.

On Sunday, January 25th, Columbia ended a two-day meeting of its western division managers at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles. The sessions were devoted to a discussion of the company's forthcoming product.

LET THESE HEADLINES OF FIRST FEW DATES BE YOUR GUIDE LINES!

VARIETY, JAN. 14

'Hellz' Solid $10,000, In Sluggish Indpls.

Indianapolis, Jan. 13
'Hellzapoppin' at the Indiana is biggest thing in town.

*Held over
of course!*

VARIETY, JAN. 14

'Hellzapoppin' the Hottest

'Hellzapoppin' doing slick business in Cincinnati, bang up in Seattle for nine days of second week.

VARIETY, JAN. 21

'Hellz' Best Newcomer In Mildish K.C., $8,000;

Kansas City, Jan. 20.

Best entry is probably 'Hellzapoppin' in the Esquire and Uptown houses.

*Held over
of course!*

VARIETY, JAN. 21

'HELLZA' TORRID $8,000 ON PORTLAND 2D WEEK

Portland, Ore., Jan. 20.

Outstanding this week, though, is the remarkable strength displayed by 'Hellzapoppin' at the Broadway.
Olsen-Johnson comedy is not far off from the initial week which battled a blizzard to easily lead Portland biz.

*Held over
of course!*

MOTION PICTURE DAILY

'Hellzapoppin' Seattle's Best, Takes $8,900

FLASH! "Hellzapoppin" breaks all box office records for mid-week openings at Orpheum Theatre, San Francisco, Senate Theatre, Harrisburg and Astor Theatre,
Reading, Pa.!

FLASH! "Hellzapoppin" establishes new record at Denver Theatre, Denver!

FLASH! "Hellzapoppin" breaks all records at Palace Theatre, Rochester!

FLASH! "Hellzapoppin" in record-breaking engagements in Toronto (held over), and Hamilton, Ontario!

UNIVERSAL PICTURES presents

HELLZAPOPPIN'

starring OLSEN and JOHNSON
MARTHA RAYE

HUGH HERBERT • MISCHA AUER • JANE FRAZEE • ROBERT PAIGE • GUS
SCHILUNG • SHEMP HOWARD • The Six Hits • Slim and Slam • The Cangerous and the OLIVE HATCH WATER BALLET

Screenplay by Nat Perrin and Warren Wilson • Based on an original story by Nat Perrin
Suggested by the stage play "Olsen & Johnson's Hellzapoppin'" • Directed by H. C. Potter

A MAYFAIR PRODUCTION Associate Producers, Glenn Tryon and Alex Gottlieb

100 KEY CITY BOOKINGS DATED IN NOW!

ASIDES and INTERLUDES

By JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM

From the hell-fire of Luzon in the Pacific, to official Washington, and then relayed to the proper agents in Hollywood, United Press says that word has been transmitted by Colonel William J. Donovan, Coordinator of Information, pleading that there be rushed to General Douglas MacArthur's Army defenders of the Philippines, at all costs . . . recorded broadcasts by swooning crooner Harry Lillis Crosby, Jr., also known as Bing!

Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, whose spreading plants at Kodak Park are today engaged for the most part in manufacturing war materials, photographic and otherwise, has formally warned its employees to be on the alert for any act of sabotage or suspicious conditions that might lead to sabotage.

Eastman Kodak, related closely to this motion picture business by virtue of its position as No. 1 supplier of raw film, reminds that in this nation's chase for waste paper, a ton of the stuff will yield 1,500 shell containers, 9,000 shell cups for 25-pound guns, 47,000 boxes for .303 ammunition, 71,000 dust covers for aero engines, 36,000 cutout targets for shooting practice, 3,000 boxes for aero-cannon shells or 6,000 packing cases for 14-mm shells.

With clarions clear and trumpets bold, Warner Brothers Pictures sounds the call to its "King's Row," summoning the high and mighty to a formal white-tie, long-tail, hi-hat super de luxe premiere (RSVP) on the evening of Monday, at The Astor Theatre, at Times Square, adding the merry little note that, "Admirers of the beauteous Ann Sheridan are bound to approve of one 1903 costume she wears in the film. It is a 'hug-me-tight.'"

Bill Classen, a Warner Studio technician out in Burbank, California, has solved a little photographic problem for Uncle Sam.

The Army and the Navy have long since mastered actual combat photography in the air, on land, and on the ocean's waters. But combat picture-taking in tank warfare has been a headache. Classen has invented, and turned over to the Government, his invention of a camera holder for tanks, designed to film action outside moving tanks, allowing the Army to film tank battles and maneuvers just as aerial combats are filmed by cameras strapped on the outside of planes.

With the boldness of an energetic, young press agent having no respect for the traditions of old, Mr. Hollis Kennahan, of Warner Brothers, has gone all over New York inducing, influencing and inveigling restaurateurs, both high and low, to substitute on their menus the name, "Wild Bill Hickok Sandwich" for that glorious institution so dear to midnight coffee-table snackers, the Western Sandwich.

Mr. Kennahan's efforts on the old Western Sandwich are being spent in behalf of Warners' Western Picture, "Wild Bill Hickok Rides." The various guilds are weighing the proper procedure, to be taken, court-martial or other, for Mr. Kennahan's culinary sabotage. He sacrificed the Western on tables running all the way from the 15-center panned out by Six Avenue coffee pots to the ninety-cent Western which the Ritz Tower serves up there on ritzy Park Avenue.

NO SOONER was the news flashed in the Nebraska state penitentiary that Jules Rachman, 49-year-old Omaha exhibitor and film salesman, had died, than a collection was taken among the inmates to send a floral tribute to his bier, a most unusual happening for the outside from within prison walls.

Jules, who died last week of a lingering ailment, served eight and a half years in the Nebraska prison for the murder of his exhibitor-cousins and partners, Harry and Sam Goldberg, December 2, 1932, in an argument over money.

The theater programming, as it is now operated at the Nebraska bastille, is all the result of Jules' work. He was given the 'management' of the jail theater just as soon as he talked to the warden on his entrance for his period of penal servitude. When the offer was made, the story is told of how he asked the warden to guarantee him, if he got the prison theater going good, not to allow an opposition spot to spring up somewhere else in the jail to compete with him.

Jules was first to bring 'legit' show operation to the prison, because the pictures and shorts had been thrown together in hodgepodge style before. He not only improved the equipment, but also produced a total of 12 shows with prison casts.

Probably the most interesting was his experiment in using one-sheets in the lobby of the prison theatre as a means of making a better record of good behavior on the part of the convicts. Jules reasoned, if they had a chance to see a one-sheet in the dining hall or in the lobby as they filed out of the theatre, it would give them something to look forward to. Since one of the first privileges taken from an inmate when he misbehaves, is the privilege of leaving his cell to attend a show, he always thought twice before he allowed himself to violate a rule. Before it was explained to the shipping clerks of film row why he wanted poster sheets, some of them had a big laugh at the ridiculousness of billing a show when all the warden had to do was blow a whistle for, and give the command to march.

He once said that the worst two films he ever played in the prison were "Hearts Divided" and "Babes in Toyland." Many a convict was seized with fits of nausea and sickness necessitating their return to their cells before the footage was consumed.

His unwritten rules of "etiquet" for a convict attending a show, also got him attention. The three rules were:

1. Keep the guy quiet next to you.
2. Laugh only if a cop misses his target three times or more.

When Jules was released from prison, last year, he said he had three offers to sell film. After looking them over carefully, he finally took Monogram, because, he said, the company produced more prison pictures annually than any other—and he knew when he walked in to sell an exhibitor, and said it was a good prison flicker, he was speaking with authority!

The Mortuary Department of the Twentieth Century-Fox Studio, at Morietone City, California, has suffered a severe setback, a very severe setback.

The title of "Hearses Don't Hurry" has been changed to "Who Is Hope Schuyler?", and "No Coffin for the Corpse" has been retitled "The Million Dollar Ghost."

One would almost think cats are movie fans and could read, judging from the influx of them into Canadian maritime provinces' theatres since sailors starting releasing pet mice in seaport theatres. Perhaps the felines smell the mice. At all events the cats have been ganging up on the picture houses. Theatre owners, managers and staff members welcomed the cats at first, but now, there is an overdose of them. Some of the cats even insist on occupying seats in the front row, where they curl up and hit the Morpheus trail, refusing to vacate in favor of 'paid customers until ejected. Then, evidently feeling put out about it, they crawl up on the stage and back again, seemingly for revenge.

If the President of the United States visits your theatre in these war times you exhibitors might expect hordes of U.S. Secret Service men to storm your place, standing around your side and back walls, one every five paces and forbidding other patrons from moving about as freely as they ordinarily would. Such was the experience of the management of Washington's National Theatre, when the President dropped in the other night to see "Watch on the Rhine."

Special War Bulletin from Columbia Broadcasting System, New York, direct to the press, concerning a special program for the CBS network:

"Nila Mack's 'Let's Pretend' Gets Special Permission from the United States Government to Present a Well Known Fairy Tale."

The city editor of the Philadelphia Record thought of a fast one to beat daily newspaper competitors on the story of the unexpected cancellation of the local showing of RKO's "Citizen Kane," last week, after reporters of the town's papers had tried, unsuccessfully, to get the inside from Charles Zagrans, RKO branch manager.

The Record assigned Mr. Zagrans' daughter, Shirley, a rookie Record reporter, to interview her pa. She went back to her paper with . . . precisely nothing.

Most everyone knows that a "schlemihl" is a blunderer, a bothead. But who knows there's an original schlemihl, whose name was given to all the thumbfingers that have followed him.

To radio, our cousin in the art of public enlightenment and entertainment, we are deeply indebted for the information that in 1800, Adalbert de Chamisso wrote about the tale of Peter Schlemihl, a man who refused to sell his soul to the devil, but instead, thought he was making a pretty thrifty deal when he persuaded Mephisto to buy his shadow instead.

Werner Michel, radio scripter, wrote a playlet about Chamisso's tale, and Columbia Broadcasting put it on the air last Sunday, under the title, "The Man Without a Shadow."

Michel is from Germany, 1933. He is the son of the man Hitler forced from the presidency of the vast Reich Rundfunk Gesellschaft.

Despite the Nazi sub menace in Eastern waters, LaGuardia defense expert has announced that the public beaches will be open next summer.

They're out for
THE CASH AGAIN! and they get it

EVERY TIME!

H

BUD ABBOTT

“K

They never busted a Bronc in their lives—but oh, what they're doing to America's box offices!

STEP UP, PODNER!

NATIONAL RELEASE IS FEB. 13th

STEP UP—AND CASH IN AS THE CROWD CRASHES IN!

TT and Lou COSTELLO
in de 'em Cowboy"

with
DICK FORAN • ANNE GWYNNE • JOHNNY MACK BROWN
SAMUEL S. HINDS and THE MERRY MACS • ELLA FITZGERALD
THE HI-HATTERS • THE BUCKAROO BAND • THE RANGER CHORUS OF 40

Screen Play, True Boardman, John Grant • Adaptation, Harold Shumate • Original Story, Edmund L. Hartmann
Directed by ARTHUR LUBIN • Associate Producer ALEX GOTTLIEB

A UNIVERSAL PICTURE

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

By WILLIAM R. WEAVER
Hollywood Editor

ESTEEMED EDITOR:

That Boris Morros adventure in truncated cinema, "Tales of Manhattan," has gotten out of hand and into the realm of Big Business.

It was undertaken, you'll recall, in part as a means of amassing a broadside of marquee talent in behalf of box office without spending all the money in the Twentieth Century-Fox treasury for the numerous stars' services.

Actors were to be deployed in squads, so to speak, each squad functioning in one of the six separate chronicles connected solely by theme, a scheme calculated to require the retention of each player for but a fortnight or less and, of course, the outlay of but a fortnight's salary.

Developments brought out some flaws in the prospectus.

Agents representing some of the stars awoke to the fact that an appearance in a picture, whether for a 90-day shooting schedule or for a single take, places that star's name on the marquee and reduces by one billing the annual potential of the personality.

Some of the announced castings were nullified, and some of the fortnightly wages soared.

Other things happened.

People got ideas for expanding and glorifying the enterprise. A touch here, addition of a set there, new business in another spot and some rewriting of scenes—day by day the project edged away from the concept of economy on which it was based in the beginning.

It was to be shot in 60 days.

It may be finished in 72.

It was budgeted around the million dollar mark, with some allowance for uppage.

It has upped to three.

It will be the costliest production in the history of the company.

"Tales of Manhattan" indeed.

▽

'Tis the season for doing what can be done about acquiring some of those Oscars which the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences will be awarding next month and the forces of promotion and intrigue have been loosed.

Continuing straightaway and undeflected is the campaigning in behalf of "Citizen Kane" mentioned at length in a previous communication quoting odds of 8 to 5 that this film will be designated by the Academy electorate as the outstanding production achievement of the year. Those odds are now 5 to 2.

A bit more on the subtle side is the endeavoring in behalf of votes for "Sergeant York," which has been placed in re-exhibition at the Filmarte theatre on Vine Street near Sunset, a small but eminently accessible theatre dedicated to revival runs of the films of long ago. The picture is several years ahead of its time at this cinema of memories but in plenty of time to be seen

PRODUCT REPORT

Production for use, or its equivalent, continued in vogue as policy governing activity of Hollywood studios which completed eight pictures and started seven during the week to maintain a level keel with 43 pictures in shooting stage.

The facts:

COMPLETED

COLUMBIA
Alias Boston Blackie
MGM
Somewhere I'll Find You*
Fingers at the Window
MONOGRAM
Rock River Renegade

STARTED

COLUMBIA
Gentlemen Misbehave
MONOGRAM
Black Dragon
PARAMOUNT
Black Curtain
RKO-RADIO
Scattergood at the Races

SHOOTING

COLUMBIA
Highly Irregular
MGM
Sunday Punch
Mokey Delano
Tarzan Against the World
Tortilla Flat
Ship Ahoy
Mrs. Miniver
Her Cardboard Lover
PARAMOUNT
Wildcat
Palm Beach Story
My Favorite Blonde
RKO-RADIO
Journey Into Fear
My Favorite Spy
Tuttles of Tahiti
Magnificent Ambersons
REPUBLIC
Stagecoach Express
Yokel Boy
Dusk on the Painted Desert
20TH-FOX

PRC
Lone Rider in Cheyenne
PARAMOUNT
Holiday Inn
Take a Letter Darling
REPUBLIC
Sleepytime Gal

REPUBLIC
Affairs of Jimmy Valentine
20TH-FOX
Million Dollar Ghost
UNIVERSAL
Dutch Minds the Baby

Tales of Manhattan
Moontide
My Gal Sal
This Above All
Ten Gentlemen from West Point
Whispering Ghosts
Sundown Jim
Secret Agent of Japan
Who Is Hope Schuyler?
UNIVERSAL
Spoilers
Sheltered Lady
Saboteur
What's Cookin'?
WARNER
Gay Sisters
Shadow of Their Wings
Escape from Crime
Yankee Doodle Dandy

*Indefinitely suspended due to absence of Clark Gable.

by any qualified voter who may have missed it in all of its pre-release, first-run and subsequent engagements.

Deft is possibly the word for RKO-Radio's handling of "Suspicion," the Alfred Hitchcock production, which hadn't been in local mention as an item of Academy calibre prior to the New York Critics' Circle crowning of Joan Fontaine for her performance in it. The film was set into the Pantages theatre for a single day, by way of qualifying it for consideration under the Academy statute of calendar limitations, and is now in formal run at that theatre and the downtown Hill Street.

"How Green Was My Valley" got into exhibition in time to be eligible and is sailing under a maximum spread of exploitation canvas, inclusive of some unfurled in publication which do not pretend to sell tickets to the public at large but do allege to hold the reader-interest of the professional population which will do the Academy voting.

Thus the exploitation in the open.

That other variety of exploitation, the spreading of the unofficial but forceful word which impels the personnel of a given studio to agree with impressive unanimity in their markings of Academy ballots, continues as customary to receive attention offstage. It always does, although it doesn't always swing the election.

This year one of the pressure groups, operations of which infrequently come to light, is all-out for the granting of a special award to Gene Autry.

Speaker for this group is one Maym Gould of Pittsburgh who, says the speaker for the Academy, has forwarded 300 petitions bearing 27,398 signatures representing Autry fans in 30 states.

The Academy's itemization of Miss Gould's doings and sayings is in itself scarcely less than tantamount to a confession of intent to cooperate.

If such be Academy mood of the moment, this may be a time and place as good as any for recording the suggestion that a special award such as was given Bob Hope last year be struck off this time for the Messrs. Abbott & Costello for reasons which declare themselves at once.

▽

Those beacons which used to pierce these skies in signal to the populace that a premiere or preview was to be witnessed at the indicated location have vanished from this world of the unbelievable.

The events of December 7th snuffed them out.

But their place in the heavens has been taken by other beacons strictly in the bigger-and-better tradition of the community.

These are the searchlamps of the military, based on the encircling eminences and wielding beams of an intensity and penetration shaming Sid Grauman's maddest imaginings. They afford, in their precise pursuit of a target-plane flown so high that the drone of its motors is unheard below, a spectacle beyond the skill of studio craftsmen to simulate.

You'd know a population so responsive to the theatrical as Hollywood's would await with eagerness and watch with awe this powerful play of Titan blades on a field of blue.

There's a thrill for the multitude in the futility of the target-plane's efforts to elude the clutch of those fingers of defense. And a lot of reassurance.—W. R. W.

DISTRIBUTORS' BUSINESS WAS $5,600,000 IN FAR EAST

Philippine Offices Cut Off and News from China, Indies Is Scattered

American film companies' operations in the Far East, currently one of the main theatres of warfare, represent an estimated $5,600,000 annual rental revenue to U. S. motion picture firms. And, of course, business is at a standstill in Manila, Shanghai and Hongkong, while box offices in Singapore, Batavia and other Far Eastern places are reflecting general war conditions. In Japan, where additional large sums were grossed, U. S. film operations ceased some time ago.

Home office foreign division managers said on Monday that with all communications cut off from Manila since mid-December, it was impossible to determine what had happened to their representatives in the Philippines. Insufficient news from Shanghai and Hongkong have made it difficult to learn the whereabouts of other Far Eastern managers. Daily cables from Singapore, Batavia and Australia, however, carry assurance of the welfare of film representatives in those centers and indicate that for the time being, theatre attendance has dropped, but home office officials believe that following first effects of Axis attacks, theatre-going will be resumed, as it was in England, with greater impetus.

Philippine Loss Heavy

Spokesmen for the distributors report that the Philippines represent the greater part of revenue from the Far East to American film companies. They are hopeful that a quick victory over the Japs will restore the islands to the Philippine people.

Currently, the roster of Far Eastern representatives and their whereabouts, as reported by home office foreign departments, is as follows:

James E. Perkins, Paramount's general manager for the Orient, left China in October, 1941 and went on a survey trip to Singapore and India. He had just reached the Philippines when the Japs attacked. Mr. Perkins had decided to set up headquarters in Manila. Apparently, he is safe. His wife is in Los Angeles, and both she and the home office are trying to get word of him through the International Red Cross in Switzerland. Paul Verdayne, manager in Singapore, sent a routine cable to the home office last Monday. He is a member of the Black Watch, famous English regiment and it is understood that he must be taking an active part in defending his city against the Jap invaders.

Paramount's Chinese staff and manager in Hongkong, have not been heard from since the fall of that city. The Surabaya and Batavia offices, however, have sent word indicating they apparently are operating as well as can be expected under the circumstances. Harry Hunter, in charge of Australia, has reported that "business is good." Paramount plans to get film shipments from Australia up to Singapore and Java, and also to supply India.

NO BUSINESS IN DENMARK

American film firms must liquidate their operations in Denmark after June 1st, according to a cable received from Stockholm in New York on Monday by Joseph Seidelman, foreign division manager for Universal Pictures.

Denmark is the only Nazi-occupied country in Europe that has been permitted to distribute American pictures, although major companies have been making no new shipments there for about a year. U. S. companies have been expecting this new development for some time, it was learned.

D. B. Lederman, manager of the Philippines, and Arthur Doyle, district supervisor for the Far East for Twentieth Century-Fox are both in Manila but have not been heard from since December 24th. Fox has been trying to establish contact with them but thus far has been unable to get any information. The company is getting in touch with the State Department this week to learn what can be done. Fox last heard from J. McIlhinney, manager in Singapore and Batavia, during the Christmas-New Year's holidays. According to Theodore Lopato, a Russian in charge of the Shanghai office, "Business is at a standstill."

Universal reports that Al Daft, Far Eastern supervisor who left Batavia some time ago and cabled the New York office "not to worry," has not been heard from since before Christmas. No word has been received from Robert Perkins, manager in Shanghai. Through various sources, Universal is attempting to contact Larry DePrida, manager of the Philippines, but thus far has been unsuccessful. Robert Lury, Singapore manager, evacuated some weeks ago to Sydney, Australia, it was learned.

Universal reports that theatre business in Singapore currently is now about 20 per cent of normal; in Batavia, about 50 per cent. No shipments have been made to the Far East since December 7th, although the Australian office has been supplying some prints to Batavia.

From Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, it was learned that I. Cohen, Philippines manager, and Julian Berman, who has been manager in Shanghai as well as Far Eastern supervisor, are in Manila but that no word has come through from them. When Shanghai was taken over by the Japs, Mr. Berman went to Manila. The last cable sent to the two men was returned to New York "undeliverable."

MGM reported that Maurice (Red) Silverstein, who was on his way to Singapore via Australia when the Japs struck in the Far East, and had been instructed to return to Sydney, to remain there until further orders, is apparently safe. N. Bernard Freeman, manager for the company in Australia, is a native of that country. Prior to his current post, he had been working for Paramount and MGM in the U. S., and when he returned to Sydney he went as representative for Metro.

Warner Brothers report that Harold Dunn, Far Eastern supervisor, has been heard from, indirectly. He sent a cable from Shanghai, last week, to Warner's man in Buenos Aires, from which point it was routed to the New York home office. The company has not heard from A. L. Caplan, manager of Shanghai, and Clifford Almy, manager in Manila, neither do they know what happened to Michael Shatkin of the Warner Tokyo office. Apparently Warner's men in Singapore and Batavia, E. Moses and J. R. E. Lambert, respectively, are well. Nothing has been heard, however, from Hongkong or Tientsin representatives. Ralph Clark of Sydney, Australia, and A. G. McClure, in Wellington, N. Z., have sent in cables fairly regularly, reporting that business in their territories continues "good." Warner has stopped shipping films to China and the Far East but is still sending prints to Australia and New Zealand. Prints are being sent up from Australia to Singapore and other centers.

RKO Manager Safe

A cable received Monday from Leon Britton, Far Eastern supervisor for RKO, from Bombay, reported that he was safe. Mr. Britton said all business operations, including theatres in Singapore, were restricted to the city itself.

No word has been received from George Kallman, manager for RKO in the Philippines, since December 31st. All home office mail sent to Manila has been returned. The last contact with Floyd Crowder, Shanghai RKO manager, was before December 7th.

The most recent available statistics compiled in 1940, concerning the Far Eastern market for American film distribution, is as follows:

Philippine Islands—350 theatres. Product: 90 per cent American; 4 per cent Chinese, and 2 per cent, Filipino.

Malaya—123 theatres. Product: 55 per cent American; 22 per cent, Chinese; 13 per cent, Indian and 9 per cent, British.

Java—300 theatres. Product: 75 per cent American; remainder, Chinese and other countries.

Australia—1,400 theatres, seating capacity 1,100,000. Product: 86.3 per cent American; 13 per cent, British; 7 per cent other countries.

China—300 theatres. Hongkong, 28 theatres seating 29,000. Product: 75 per cent American; 25 per cent Chinese.

New Zealand—426 theatres. Product: 85 per cent American films; 13 per cent British; 1 per cent, Australian.

India—1,030 theatres. Product: 45 per cent American; remainder, Indian.

Japan—1,875 theatres. Product: 75 per cent American; remainder, other countries.

MIAMI'S GOT ALL THE

GALA $3.30 WORLD PREMIERE AT LINCOLN
THEATRE, MIAMI BEACH, THURS. NIGHT, FEB. 5TH

★ ★ ★ ★ Proceeds to Navy Relief Fund ★ ★ ★

BETTY GRABLE · VICTOR MATURE · JACK OAK
in

SONG of the ISLANDS

in TECHNICOLOR

with

Thomas Mitchell · George Barbier · Billy Gilbert · Hilo Hattie
HARRY OWENS and His Royal Hawaiians

Directed by WALTER LANG • Produced by WILLIAM LeBARON • Original Screen Play by Joseph Schrank
Robert Pirosh, Robert Ellis and Helen Lewis

AND SEE FOR YOURSELF! "SONG OF THE ISLANDS"

AND GRABLE TOO!

BALLYHOOED TO THE NATION'S MILLIONS BY A WEEK'S BUILD-UP ON KATE SMITH'S NOON HOUR SHOWS ... CLIMAXED BY THE KATE SMITH HOUR AT 8 P. M. (EST) FRIDAY, FEB. 6 OVER CBS! THE FIRST MAJOR NETWORK BROADCASTS EVER TO EMANATE FROM MIAMI! ENTIRE RADIO PRODUCTION UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF TED COLLINS!

BETTY GRABLE BLACK OAKIE

as Kate Smith's guest stars and guests of honor at premiere!

Each daily Kate Smith show has approximately 10,000,000 listeners!
The Friday night Kate Smith Hour is heard by approximately 25,000,000 people over 91 stations! A tremendous aggregate audience ... pre-sold!

STEN IN! WATCH THOSE BOXOFFICE REPORTS! LEVEL IN 20TH CENTURY-FOX'S SHOWMANSHIP!

LANDS" TRADE SHOWINGS FEB. 3RD!

CLEARANCE ELIMINATED IN APPEAL BOARD DECISION

New Jersey Complainant Wins Decision; New Cases in N. Y., Boston

The motion picture Arbitration Appeals Board of the AAA in New York this week again voted in favor of an exhibitor, in its 17th decision. It modified the clearance award in the complaint of the Colony theatre, Sayreville, N. J. The case was New York's ninth and was appealed by the intervenor, the Wilbur Amusement Company, operating the Capitol theatre, South River, N. J.

It was the first decision in which the Appeal Board completely eliminated a clearance.

New cases were filed this week in Boston and New York.

The Appeal Board ruled that All Five consenting distributors shall grant a maximum clearance of seven days to the Capitol over the Colony. Clearance of the Majestic, Strand, Ditmas and Crescent theatres in Perth Amboy over the Colony was eliminated. They are operated by the Perth Amboy Raritan Operating Company, also an intervenor. The Alvin Theatre Company operates the Colony.

Clearance Reduced

Robert A. Bruce, the arbitrator, in his original opinion found that the 14-day margins granted Perth Amboy and South River over the Colony were unreasonable and reduced them to seven days. The three appeal judges overruled him in respect to Perth Amboy, eliminating all clearance of Perth Amboy theatres over the Colony "so long as the Colony is subjected to clearance in favor of the first-run theatres in New Brunswick either directly or by reason of clearance in favor of any theatre which is subject to clearance in favor of the New Brunswick theatres."

The board found that the Sayreville theatre is in the New Brunswick clearance area, rather than Perth Amboy, and held that the present arrangement in which it was subject to clearance on both New Brunswick and Perth Amboy is unreasonable. In addition to a third run after South River in the New Brunswick area the board found that the Colony faced first-run clearance from four Perth Amboy theatres, a total of seven theatres. Three are in one clearance area, four in another.

The Appeal Board characterized the arbitrator's award as "able" and praised his separation of the two clearance zones. Sayreville is nearer to New Brunswick than it is to Perth Amboy and is on the New Brunswick side of the Raritan River. Costs were divided among all parties.

Boston

Boston received its eighth action on Monday when Paul A. Hunter, Jr., and Ruth M. Hunter, owners of the Playhouse in Gorham, Me., filed a clearance demand against the Big Five. The action named the Star theatre, operated by the M. and F. Theatre Corporation in Westbrook, Me., and the Strand and State theatres in Portland, operated by Ralph E. Snider.

The complainants charge that present margins of 30 days after the Star and 60 days after Portland are unreasonable and ask a reduction to one day after the Star and two weeks after Portland.

A hearing on the clearance case brought by the E. M. Loew's Theatres, Inc., against Paramount, RKO, Warners and 20th Century-Fox, was heard last week in Boston by arbitrator Harry Tosdal. The case, No. 7, was filed in behalf of the complainant's New Bedford, Mass., theatre, the Strand.

The Baylies Square Theatre and the Rialto Theatre in New Bedford were named as intervenors. Another hearing is to be held this week.

New York

Case No. 31 at New York was filed on Friday by the Dunellen theatre, Dunellen, N. J., against All Five consenting distributors. The complainants, John L. Fioravanti and Carmen C. Reina ask elimination of a seven-day margin held by the Brook theatre in Bound Brook, N. J. They assert that there is no competition between the two towns.

Francis Bancroft, vice-president of Pease and Elliman, New York City realtors, has been selected as arbitrator of Case No. 30, specific run complaint of the Savoy theatre.

Albany

Interested parties being unable to agree on an arbitrator from the panel submitted to them, AAA headquarters in New York, this week named Judge Joseph Rosch of Albany to arbitrate the clearance cases brought by Smalley Theatres, Inc., Cooperstown, N. Y., against all five signatories to the consent decree.

Judge Rosch, a former state Supreme Court judge, is now counsel for the Delaware & Hudson Railroad Corp. Judge Rosch set January 29th for the first hearing at the Albany office of the AAA.

Schine Enterprises Corp., Gloversville, has filed as an intervenor in the case. Smalley Theatres, Inc., is seeking to reduce the 14 days clearance presently held by the Colonial Theatre, Norwich, a Schine circuit house, over Smalley's Theatre, Sidney, N. Y.

Appearing for Smalley Theatres, Inc., will be Leonard L. Rosenthal, Troy attorney who is also executive secretary of the New York State unit of National Allied, Inc. The case against Paramount, 20th Century-Fox, Loew's, Warners and RKO Radio is the third filed in the Albany district.

Buffalo

At Buffalo, hearing on the seventh complaint, involving some run and clearance, filed by James, John and William Ryan, operators of Ryans' Ithaca Theatre, Ithaca, N. Y., against the Big Five has been postponed until February 6th. Richard H. Templeton is arbitrator.

The complainant charges distributors refused to license product and that the few pictures that were offered were on unsatisfactory clearance and rental terms. It was contended that that clearance now favors the State, Temple and Strand Theatres.

On Monday, February 9th, Joseph M. Boehm will begin hearing the case brought against MGM, RKO, Paramount and Warners by Vincent Martina of Syracuse, owner of the Astor Theatre in Attica. Mr. Martina charges clearance now favors the Family theatre in Batavia.

Postponed from January 23rd, hearing of the complaint of the Clyde Playhouse, Clyde, N. Y., against the Big Five will begin Friday, February 23rd, with Attorney William E. Barrett of Buffalo as arbitrator. The demand, filed by Caroline Perriello, named the Capitol Theatre, Newark, N. Y., a Schine house, and the Ohman Theatre, Lyons, operated by Ohman Brothers.

The clearance hearing of the Cuba Theatre, Cuba, N. Y., against the Big Five was completed Wednesday at a single session lasting about six hours. The Cuba Theatre is operated by Nunzio Tantillo, Sarah Tantillo, Rose M. Scura and Nina C. Montesano. They charge clearance favored the Palace, Haven and State Theatres in Olean.

New Haven

The clearance complaint of J. Lewis Cannon, operator of the Grand Theatre, New Haven, against Loew's, Inc., 20th-Fox, Warners and RKO, asking seven days' maximum clearance after the Pequot, New Haven, will be heard February 3rd. The arbitrator is Leonard S. Horner, executive of the Miles-Bemont-Pond Co., Hartford. The Pequot Theatre has intervened.

Final briefs in the complaint of the Oriental Theatre, No. 6, were filed last week. RKO and MGM withdrew motions to dismiss.

"Valley", Biggest Film for Fox

Nationwide business on "How Green Was My Valley," indicates that the picture will be the "largest grossing film" ever released by Twentieth Century-Fox, said Sidney R. Kent, president of the company, before leaving New York for Hollywood last Friday. "Public clamor" to see this Darryl Zanuck production "has been so strong in many places," he reported, "that exhibitors have been compelled to cancel previously advertised attractions."

Following the eight-week pre-release run at New York's Rivoli, "How Green" played four weeks in 14 situations and has been held for three weeks in a score of other places. It was pointed out that not even "Alexander's Ragtime Band" held for so long in so many spots.

Sound Stages for Chaplin

Construction will begin shortly at the Charles Chaplin studios in Hollywood. These buildings also may be used by other United Artists producers in the event stage space is not available at other plants.

Garvin Succeeds Beale

Homer Garvin, former theatre operator in Hastings, Neb., as a Paramount-Public partner, will replace Charles Beale, who has been operator of B. F. Shearer's Capitol theatre in Juneau, Alaska.

ARBITRATION'S FIRST YEAR AND HOW IT WORKED

THE motion picture arbitration system on Saturday, January 31st, completed its first year of operation. A total of 167 complaints have been filed in the regional tribunals set up by the consent decree between the U. S. Department of Justice and Paramount, Warners, Loew's, RKO-Radio and 20th Century-Fox. All of the cases are here summarized, together, for the first time in any trade publication.

With the exception of Seattle all of the tribunals maintained in exchange cities by the American Arbitration Association, administrator of the arbitration provisions of the decree, have received complaints. Only New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Detroit and Washington have received a substantial number of complaints, however. The flood of actions which observers were predicting a year ago never materialized.

The consent decree was entered in November, 1940, and the arbitration system and tribunals began operation on February 1, 1941. The first complaint was filed at Washington by the Walbrook theatre, Baltimore, on February 7th.

Clearance, some run and a few withholding prints charges were the complaints at issue in the first seven months of arbitration. On September 1st, Section X of the decree, permitting demands for a specific run became operative.

Of the total of 167 cases on the AAA docket 134 are clearance demands under Section VIII; 33 are some run complaints under Section VI; two are specific run action under Section X, and eight are combinations of the three causes. A total of 113 cases has been decided by local arbitrators or the Appeal Board or settled and withdrawn; 54 cases are still pending.

Albany

Case No. 1 and 2 (combined): Clearance; American theatre, (Alex Papayanakos, owner) vs. RKO and Warners and Schine Ogdensburg theatres. AWARD: Arbitrator eliminated 14 day clearance. APPEAL: Corporate owner of American ordered to re-file complaint. Three day maximum then granted.

No. 3: Clearance; Smalley theatre, Sidney, N. Y., vs. All Five. Asks cut from 14 days held by Schine's Colonial, Norwich, N. Y. AWARD: Pending.

Atlanta

Case No. 1: Clearance; Parkway theatre, Miami, Fla. (Aaron H. Courshon) vs. Paramount, Warners, MGM, and Paramount Enterprises circuit. AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 2: Clearance; Parkway, Miami, (Aaron H. Courshon) vs. 20th-Fox and Wometco Circuit. AWARD: Withdrawn.

Boston

Case No. 1: Some Run; Park theatre, Nashua, N. H. (Benjamin Gold) vs. All Five and Colonial circuit. AWARD: Some Run granted, MGM settled before hearing.

No. 2: Clearance; York, Capitol theatres, Athol, Mass. (Garbose Bros.) vs. All Five, affiliated theatres in Fitchburg and Boston. AWARD: Dismissed. APPEAL: Cut clearance of Fitchburg over Athol and Gardner to one day, otherwise upheld arbitrator.

No. 3: Clearance; Lucien Descoteaux theatres, Manchester, N. H. vs. All Five and State Operating Co. AWARD: Clearance cut to 30 days after 1st run. APPEAL: Arbitrator reversed, complaint dismissed.

No. 4: Clearance; Grand theatre, Taunton, Mass. (Waltham Amusement Co.) vs. All Five, Strand and Park theatres, AWARD: Cut clearance 60 to 30 days.

No. 5: Clearance; State theatre, Whittenton, Mass., vs. All Five, AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 6: Clearance; Weymouth, Weymouth, Mass. vs. Paramount, RKO, 20th-Fox, MGM and Levinson Bros. theatres in Quincy. AWARD: Cut from 30 to 21 days.

No. 7: Clearance; Strand, Boston (E. M. Loew) vs. Paramount, Warners, RKO, 20th-Fox and Rialto and Bayliss theatres. AWARD: Pending.

No. 8: Clearance; Playhouse, Gorham, Me. (Paul and Ruth Hunter) vs. All Five, Star theatre in Westbrook and State and Strand, Portland. AWARD: Pending.

Buffalo

Case No. 1: Some Run; Genesee theatre, Mt. Morris, N. Y. (Richard De Toto) vs. MGM, 20th-Fox, Warners, Universal, Columbia, Monogram, and the Family theatre. AWARD: Some Run granted.

No. 2: Clearance; Carlson theatre, Mayville, N. Y. (A. A. Carlson) vs. All Five, Jamestown theatre. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 3: Clearance; Sun theatre, Rochester, (Helen Weisenberg) vs. All Five. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 4: Clearance; Marlowe theatre, Buffalo, (N. M. Konczakowski) vs. Niagara theatre, Shea Circuit. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 5: Clearance; Baily theatre, Buffalo, (Dipson Corp.) vs. All Five. AWARD: Pending.

No. 6: Clearance; Allendale theatre, Buffalo, (Irving Cohen) vs. All Five and Marlowe theatre. AWARD: Pending.

No. 7: Clearance and Some Run; Ryan theatre, Ithaca, N. Y. (Ryan Bros.) vs. All Five. AWARD: Pending.

No. 8: Clearance; Cuba theatre, Cuba, N. Y. (Nunzio and Sara Tantillo) vs. All Five, State, Haven, Palace theatres, Olean, N. Y. AWARD: Pending.

No. 9: Clearance; Astor theatre, Attica, N. Y. (Vincent Martina) vs. MGM, RKO, Warners, Paramount and Family theatre, Batavia. AWARD: Pending.

No. 10: Clearance; Playhouse, Clyde, N. Y. (Caroline Periello) vs. All Five, Capitol, Newark and Ohman theatres, Lyons, N. Y. AWARD: Pending.

No. 11: Clearance; Apollo theatre, Buffalo, (Basil Bros.) vs. All Five, and Shea's Elmwood. AWARD: Withdrawn.

Charlotte

Case No. 1: Clearance; Patricia theatre, Aiken, S. C. (H. B. Ram), vs. All Five, Augusta, Ga. first runs. AWARD: Consent settlement, 14 days during resort season.

No. 2: Some Run; Lafayette theatre, Winston-Salem, N. C. (Ellis Blumenthal) vs. Warners, RKO, Paramount and Lincoln theatre. AWARD: Withdrawn.

Chicago

Case No. 1: Some Run; State theatre, Morris, Ill. (E. F. Vanderveer) vs. MGM and Anderson theatre. AWARD: Some run granted.

No. 2: Clearance; Ken theatre, Chicago, (Ben Banovitz) vs. RKO, 20th-Fox, Paramount, Schoenstadt circuit. AWARD: Dismissed. APPEAL: Upheld dismissal.

No. 3: Clearance; Lawn theatre, Chicago, (James Steininger) vs. All Five and Marquette, Colony and Highway theatres. AWARD: Consent dismissal.

No. 4: Clearance; Portage theatre, Chicago, (GCS Circuit) vs. All Five, Balaban and Katz. AWARD: Settled and withdrawn, house acquired by B & K.

No. 5: Clearance; Lincoln and Grand theatres, Lincoln Ill, (Steve Bennis) vs. All Five, Chicago, Bloomington first runs. AWARD: Consent dismissal, Clearance adjusted on Springfield and Bloomington.

No. 6: Clearance; Oriental theatre, Chicago vs. Big Five, all Chicago "A" theatres. AWARD: Pending.

No. 7: Clearance; Sheridan theatre, North Chicago (Sidney Schutz) vs. RKO, Warners, Times theatre, Waukegan. AWARD: Consent settlement.

No. 8: Clearance; Olympic theatre, Chicago (A. Goldstein) vs. All Five, Schoenstadt, Villas and Lasker circuits. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 9: Clearance; Alcyon theatre, Highland Park, Ill., (William Pearl) vs. RKO, Paramount, 20th-Fox. Deerpath, Teatro del Lago, Liberty theatres. AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 10: Clearance; Ogden, Chicago, vs. Big Five, West Chicago neighborhood theatres. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 11: Clearance; Don theatre, Downer's Grove, Ill. (Ray Jarman) vs. Big Five and Westmont, Balaban and Katz circuit. AWARD: Paramount, Warners and MGM settled. RKO and 20th-Fox ordered to grant one day to Westmont.

No. 12: Clearance; Annetta, Cicero, (B. and A. Bartelstein) vs. All Five, Lasker and Schoenstadt circuits. AWARD: Pending.

Cincinnati

Case No. 1: Some Run; State theatre, Newport, Ky. (Willis Vance) vs. Paramount, Warners, 20th-Fox, MGM, Hippodrome and Strand theatres. AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 2: Clearance; Parsons theatre, Columbus, O. (F.W. Rowlands) vs. All Five, Neth circuit. AWARD: Dismissed. APPEAL: Clearance cut from 52 to 45 days.

No. 3: Clearance; Main theatre, Columbus, O. (F. W. Rowlands) vs. All Five and Neth circuit. AWARD: Dismissed. APPEAL: Clearance reduced.

No. 4: Clearance; Olentangy theatre, Columbus, O. vs. MGM, Warners, RKO, 20th-Fox and Hudson theatre. AWARD: Pending.

Cleveland

Case No. 1: Some run; Ellet theatre, Akron, (Louis Israel) vs. All Five, and Co-operative theatres of Ohio. AWARD: Dismissed without prejudice.

No. 2: Some Run; Dueber theatre, Canton, O. vs. All Five and Reinhardt theatres, Canton, and Botzum theatres, Akron. AWARD: Pending.

Dallas

No. 1: Some Run; Joseph's Drive-In, Austin, Tex. vs. MGM, 20th-Fox Interstate circuit. (Continued on following page)

167 AAA COMPLAINTS FILED

(Continued from preceding page)

cuit and Underwood and Ezell theatres. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 2; Some Run; Normana theatres, El Campo, Tex. (Ruben Frels) vs. All Five. AWARD: Dismissed. APPEAL: Dismissed.

No. 3; Clearance; Campus, College Station, Tex., vs. All Five and Palace, Dixie and Queens theatres, Bryan, Tex. AWARDS: Queens, Dixie clearance cut from 30 to 14 days.

No. 4; Clearance; Overton theatre, Overton, Tex. vs. RKO, MGM, Warners, 20th-Fox and Gem and Strand theatres. AWARD: Clearance cut from 60 to 14 days.

No. 5; Clearance; State and Texan theatres, Atlanta, Tex. (B. R. McClendon) vs. MGM, RKO, Warners, 20th-Fox and Paramount-Richards circuit. AWARD: Dismissed. APPEAL: Pending.

Denver

No. 1; Some Run; Longmont theatre, Longmont, Col. (J. J. Goodstein) vs. MGM, Paramount, 20th-Fox, Intermountain circuit. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 2; Clearance; Star theatre, Ft. Lupton, Col. (E. K. Menagh) vs. All Five, Rex theatre, Brighton, Col. AWARD: Fox dismissed, 3 day clearance set.

No. 3; Clearance; Nile theatre, Mitchell, Neb. (W. J. and J. L. McDonald) vs. Paramount, Warners, 20th-Fox. AWARD: withdrawn.

Des Moines

No. 1; Some Run; Gem theatre, Charles City, Ia., (Jack Kuech) vs. Paramount, Charles theatre. AWARD: Pending.

No. 2; Clearance and Some Run; Burlington, Ia. (Lee and William Tiermeier) Warners, Central States circuit, charge split booking. AWARD: Pending.

No. 3; Clearance and Some Run; Avon theatre, Burlington, vs. RKO, Palace theatre, charge split booking. AWARD: Pending.

Detroit

No. 1; Clearance and Some Run; Booth theatre, Detroit (Julius London) vs. Paramount, neighborhood Detroit houses. AWARD: Pending.

No. 2; Clearance; Booth theatre, Detroit; vs. Paramount, Warners, RKO and 20th-Fox. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 3; Clearance; Drayton, Drayton Plains (W. H. Harris) vs. All Five, Butterfield circuit. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 4; Clearance; Gale theatre, Galesburg, (D. E. Frank) vs. Paramount, 20th-Fox, Warners, MGM, Butterfield, P. C. Schram circuits. AWARD: Dismissed without prejudice.

No. 5; Clearance; Ritz theatre, Watervleit; (Sol Winokur) vs. MGM, Warners Coloma theatre. AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 6; Specific Run; Parkside theatre, Detroit, (Erving Moss) vs. All Five and downtown Detroit theatres; AWARD: Pending.

No. 7; Clearance; Galewood theatre, Grand Rapids; (Alyce Cornell) vs. MGM, Warners, Paramount, 20th-Fox, Butterfield, Michigan Co-op circuits. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 8; Clearance; Southlawn theatre, Grand Rapids; (R. G. Taylor) vs. RKO Warners, MGM, 20th-Fox, Michigan Co-op and Butterfield circuits. AWARD: Pending.

Indianapolis

No. 1; Some Run; Grand theatre, Elizabethtown, Ky.; (G. Bowles) vs. All Five, Crescent Amusement Co.; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 2; Clearance; Irving theatre, Indianapolis; (William Rosenthal) vs. MGM and Rivoli theatre; AWARD: Pending.

Kansas City

Case No. 1; Some Run; Pic theatre, Iola, Kans.; (W. A. Weaver) vs. All Five; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 2; Clearance; Dickinson theatre, Mission, Kans.; RKO, Warners, Paramount, 20th-Fox, Kansas City first runs; AWARD: Pending.

No. 3; Clearance; Louis theatre, St. Joseph, Mo., (D. R. Gifford) vs. Paramount, Warners, MGM, 20th-Fox. Declares 160 day margin for Louis (negro theatre) is unreasonable; AWARD: Pending.

No. 4; Clearance; Cozy theatre, Topeka (J. E. Pennington) vs. All Five and Topeka first runs. AWARD: Pending.

Los Angeles

Case No. 1; Clearance; Mission Playhouse, San Gabriel; (O. W. Lewis) vs. All Five; AWARD: Clearance following Mission changed. APPEAL: Dismissed.

No. 2; Clearance; Campus theatre, Los Angeles; vs. All Five; AWARD: Pending.

No. 3; Clearance; El Monte theatre, Los Angeles; vs. All Five, Little Three; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 4; Clearance; River and Arvin theatres, Oildale and Arvin, (Lemucchi and Vauducci) vs. Paramount, Warners, MGM, 20th-Fox; AWARD: Dismissed.

Memphis

Case No. 1; Some Run; Camden theatre, Camden, Ark.; (V. D. Guest) vs. MGM; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 2; Some Run; Petit Jean theatre, Memphis; vs. MGM; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 3; Some Run; Cotton Bowl theatre, Lepanto, Ark.; vs. 20th-Fox, Warners, RKO, Paramount, Strand theatre; AWARD: Withdrawn.

Milwaukee

Case No. 1; Clearance; Rex theatre, Evansville, Wis.; vs. Paramount and Jeffris theatre, Janesville; AWARD: Clearance reduced.

No. 2; Clearance; Grand theatre, New London, Wis.; (Lee Macklin) vs. All Five; AWARD: Withdrawn.

Minneapolis

Case No. 1; Some Run; White Bear theatre, White Bear Lake, Minn.; (David Ratner) vs. MGM, Warners, RKO, 20th-Fox, State theatre; AWARD: Pending.

No. 2; Some Run; Gayety theatre, Minneapolis; (David Gillman) vs. 20th-Fox; AWARD: Consent dismissal.

No. 3; Some Run; Gayety theatre, Minneapolis; vs. Paramount; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 4; Some Run; Lyceum theatre, Duluth; (Ben Berger) vs. Paramount; AWARD: Pending.

New Haven

Case No. 1; Clearance; Forest theatre; West Haven; (M. Cascoli) vs. All Five, Rivoli theatre; AWARD: Reduced 14 to 7 days.

No. 2; Clearance; Saybrook theatre, Saybrook, Ct.; (L. E. Bonoff) vs. MGM, Warners, RKO, Garde, and Essex theatres, AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 3; Clearance; New Newtoning theatre, Newtoning, Ct.; (Fred Quatrano) vs. All Five, New Britain first runs; AWARD: Cut from 30 to 21 days.

No. 4; Some Run; College Open Air theatre, New Haven; (S. Dorno) vs. All Five and Middletown theatres: AWARD: Pending.

No. 5; Clearance; Plaza theatre, Windsor, Ct.; (Joseph Shulman) vs. All Five, Lockwood and Gordon circuit; AWARD: Pending.

No. 6; Clearance and Withholding prints; Grand theatre, New Haven; (J. L. Cannon, Jr.) vs. MGM, Warners, 20th-Fox, RKO, Pequot theatre; AWARD: Pending.

New Orleans

Case No. 1; Some Run; Drive-In theatre, New Orleans; (Charles K. Woolner) vs. Paramount; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 2; Some Run; Drive-In theatre, New Orleans; (Charles K. Woolner) vs. MGM; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 3; Some Run; Drive-In theatre, New Orleans; (C. K. Woolner) vs. Warners; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 4; Clearance; Ashton theatre, New Orleans; (W. A. Fonseca) vs. All Five, Popular theatre; AWARD: Pending.

New York

Case No. 1; Clearance; Regent theatre; New York, (Albert Margulies) vs. All Five, Apollo theatre; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 2; Clearance; Squire theatre, Great Neck, N. Y. (H. Scheftel) vs. All Five, Skouras circuit. AWARD: Clearance reduced. APPEAL: Modified clearance established for non-intervenors.

No. 3; Clearance; Forum theatre; Metuchen, N. J. (Jack Davis) vs. All Five, Walter Reade circuit, Plainfield. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 4; Clearance; Cameo, Jersey City (Jack Fields) vs. All Five, Skouras circuit; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 5; Clearance; Central theatre, Pearl River, N. Y. vs. All Five, Skouras Circuit; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 6; Clearance; Liberty theatre, Plainfield, N. J. (J. Siccardi) vs. Paramount, RKO, Warners, 20th-Fox, Walter Reade Circuit; AWARD: Clearance cut from 30 to 21 days. APPEAL: (by complainant); Further reduction granted.

No. 7; Clearance; Lyric theatre, Oyster Bay (Charles Meyerson) vs. All Five, Glen Cove, Huntington theatres; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 8; Clearance; Majestic theatre, Paterson, N. J. (Louis Martin) vs. All Five, Brandt Circuit; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 9; Clearance; Colony theatre, Sayreville, N. J. (Alvin Theatre Co.) vs. All Five, New Brunswick houses; AWARD: Clearance cut. APPEAL: Modified award.

No. 10; Clearance; Temple theatre, Union City, N. J. (John Carbone) vs. All Five, Summit, Roosevelt theatres; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 11; Clearance; Ramsey theatre, Ramsey, N. J. vs. All Five, Lafayette, in Suffern and Warner theatres in Ridgewood, N. J.; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 12; Clearance; West End theatre, Newark, N. J., vs. All Five, Ritz, Broadway theatres; AWARD: Clearance cut. APPEAL: Withdrawn.

No. 13; Clearance; Playhouse, Raritan, N. J., (Selig A. Posner) vs. All Five, Cort theatre, Somerville, N. J. AWARD: Clearance cut 21 to 7 days. APPEAL: Award Upheld.

No. 14; Clearance; Storm King theatre, Cornwall-On-Hudson vs. All Five, Broadway, Ritz theatres, Newburgh, N. Y. AWARD: Paramount, RKO dismissed. Consent settlement.

(Continued on page 50)

M-G-M TRADE SHOWINGS

CITY	PLACE	ADDRESS	(A) THIS TIME FOR KEEPS and (B) COURTSHIP of ANDY HARDY
ALBANY	20th-Fox Screen Room	1052 Broadway	TUES. 2/10 11 A.M.
ATLANTA	RKO Screen Room	191 Walton St., N.W.	TUES. 2/10 10:30 A.M.
BOSTON	M-G-M Screen Room	46 Church St.	TUES. 2/10 10 A.M. & 2:15 P.M.
BUFFALO	20th-Fox Screen Room	290 Franklin St.	TUES. 2/10 1:30 P.M.
CHARLOTTE	20th-Fox Screen Room	308 South Church St.	TUES. 2/10 1:30 P.M.
CHICAGO	H. C. Igel's Screen Room	1301 S. Wabash Ave.	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
CINCINNATI	Palace Theatre Sc. Rm.	16 East Sixth Street	TUES. 2/10 7 P.M.
CLEVELAND	20th-Fox Screen Room	2219 Payne Avenue	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
DALLAS	20th-Fox Screen Room	1803 Wood Street	{ (A) only TUES. 2/10 10:30 A.M. { (B) only TUES. 2/10 2:30 P.M.
DENVER	Paramount Screen Room	2100 Stout Street	TUES. 2/10 1:15 P.M.
DES MOINES	20th-Fox Screen Room	1300 High Street	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
DETROIT	Max Blumenthal's Sc. Rm.	2310 Cass Avenue	TUES. 2/10 1:30 P.M.
INDIANAPOLIS	20th-Fox Screen Room	326 No. Illinois Street	TUES. 2/10 9 A.M.
KANSAS CITY	Vogue Theatre	3444 Broadway	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
LOS ANGELES	20th-Fox Screen Room	2019 S. Vermont Ave.	{ (A) only TUES. 2/10 10:30 A.M. { (B) only TUES. 2/10 2:30 P.M.
MEMPHIS	20th-Fox Screen Room	151 Vance Avenue	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
MILWAUKEE	Warner Screen Room	212 W. Wisconsin Ave.	TUES. 2/10 1:30 P.M.
MINNEAPOLIS	Sc. Room Warner Bldg.	1104 Currie Avenue	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
NEW HAVEN	20th-Fox Screen Room	40 Whiting St.	TUES. 2/10 10 A.M.
NEW ORLEANS	20th-Fox Screen Room	200 South Liberty	TUES. 2/10 1:30 P.M.
NEW YORK NEW JERSEY }	M-G-M Screen Room	630 Ninth Avenue	TUES. 2/10 9:30 A.M. & 1:30 P.M.
OKLA'MA CITY	20th-Fox Screen Room	10 North Lee Street	TUES. 2/10 9 A.M.
OMAHA	20th-Fox Screen Room	1502 Davenport	TUES. 2/10 10:30 A.M.
PHILADELPHIA	M-G-M Screen Room	1233 Summer Street	{ (A) only TUES. 2/10 11 A.M. { (B) only TUES. 2/10 2 P.M.
PITTSBURGH	M-G-M Screen Room	1631 Blvd. of Allies	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
PORTLAND	B. F. Shearer Screen Rm.	1947 N.W. Kearney St.	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
ST. LOUIS	S'Renco Screen Room	3143 Olive Street	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
SALT LAKE CITY	20th-Fox Screen Room	216 East First St., South	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
S. FRANCISCO	20th-Fox Screen Room	245 Hyde Street	TUES. 2/10 1:30 P.M.
SEATTLE	Jewel Box Preview Theatre	2318 Second Avenue	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.
WASHINGTON	20th-Fox Screen Room	932 New Jersey, N.W.	TUES. 2/10 1 P.M.

"This Time For Keeps"—Ann Rutherford, Robert Sterling, Virginia Weidler
 "Courtship of Andy Hardy"—Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney and all the folks

CLEARANCE BIGGEST ISSUE

(Continued from page 48)

No. 15; Clearance; Colonial theatre, Monroe, N. Y., vs. Paramount, Warners, RKO, 20th-Fox, Ritz, Broadway theatres, Newburgh, N. Y.; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 16; Some Run and Clearance; Liberty theatre, Freehold, N. J., vs. All Five, Asbury Park first runs; AWARD: Pending.

No. 17; Clearance; Strand theatre, Keyport, N. J.; (David Snaper) vs. Warners, RKO, Paramount, 20th-Fox, Asbury Park first runs; AWARD: Pending.

No. 18; Some Run; Strand theatre, Astoria, L. I., vs. All Five, Skouras Circuit; AWARD: Dismissed without prejudice.

No. 19; Clearance; Kisco theatre, Mt. Kisco, N. Y., vs. All Five, White Plains theatres; AWARD: Dismissed. APPEAL: Pending.

No. 20; Clearance; Rome theatre, Pleasantville, N. Y., vs. All Five, White Plains theatres; AWARD: Pending.

No. 21; Clearance; Ogden theatre, Bronx, N. Y., vs. Paramount, MGM, Skouras Circuit; AWARD: Pending.

No. 22; Clearance; Arden theatre, New York City, vs. MGM, Paramount, Olympia, Stoddard, Carlton theatres; AWARD: Pending.

No. 23; Clearance and Specific Run; Cameo theatre, Jersey City (Jack Fields) vs. All Five, Skouras Circuit; AWARD: Pending.

No. 24; Clearance; some and specific run; Waverly theatre, New York City, vs. RKO, Warners, 20th-Fox, Becker and Rugoff Circuit; AWARD: Pending.

No. 25; Clearance; JJ Theatres, Inc., Bronx, N. Y., (Avalon, Oxford, Jerome theatres) (Julius Joelson) vs. Warners, 20th-Fox, RKO, Valentine theatre; AWARD: Pending.

No. 26; Clearance; Kingsbridge theatre, Bronx, N. Y., (Julius Joelson) vs. Warners, RKO, 20th-Fox, Valentine theatre; AWARD: Pending.

No. 27; Clearance; Strand theatre, Plainfield, N. J., vs. All Five, Paramount, Bradford theatres; AWARD: Pending.

No. 28; Clearance; Central theatre, Cedarhurst, L. I., vs. All Five, Rockaway and Lynbrook theatres; AWARD: Pending.

No. 29; Clearance; New Paltz theatre, New Paltz, N. Y., vs. All Five, Poughkeepsie, Kingston theatres; AWARD: Pending.

No. 30; Specific Run; Savoy theatre, Jamaica, N. Y., vs. Paramount, RKO, 20th-Fox AWARD: Pending.

No. 31; Clearance; Dunellen theatre, Dunellen, N. J. (J. L. Fioravanti and C. C. Reina) vs. All Five, Brook theatre, Bound Brook. AWARD: Pending.

Oklahoma City

Case No. 1; Some Run; Ritz theatre, Duncan, Okla., (J. D. Guest) vs. Warners; AWARD: Withdrawn.

Omaha

Case No. 1; Clearance; Strand theatre, Council Bluffs, Ia., (Morris Cohn) vs. All Five, Omaha first runs, Broadway theatre, Council Bluffs; AWARD: Pending.

Philadelphia

Case No. 1; Clearance; Florence theatre, Florence, N. J., (John Geyser) vs. All Five, Atlantic Circuit; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 2; Some Run; Earle theatre, New Castle, Del., (David Silver) vs. MGM; AWARD: Some run granted. APPEAL: Upheld.

No. 3; Clearance; Breeze theatre, Philadelphia, (Rose J. Hexter) vs. Warners, Paramount, 20th-Fox, Warner Circuit, AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 4; Clearance; Hollywood theatre, Elizabethville, Pa., (Bryant Weist) vs. MGM and Theatorium, Lykeng, Pa. AWARD: Cut from 7 to 5 days.

No. 5; Clearance; Palm theatre, Philadelphia, (S. and M. Somerson) vs. 20th-Fox, MGM, Paramount, Warner Circuit; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 6; Clearance; Hill theatre, Philadelphia, (E. I. Singer) vs. RKO, Paramount, Warners, Sedgewick theatre; AWARD: Dismissed. APPEAL: Upheld.

No. 7; Clearance; Hatboro theatre, Hatboro, Pa., (Herman Bronstein) vs. Paramount, MGM, RKO, Grove theatre; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 8; Clearance; Great Northern theatre, Philadelphia, (Columbus Stamper) vs. Paramount, 20th-Fox, MGM, Warner Circuit; AWARD: Consent dismissal.

No. 9; Clearance; Broad theatre, Philadelphia, (A. M. Ellis) vs. RKO, Paramount, Warners, Warner Circuit, Rockland theatre; AWARD: Clearance reduced.

No. 10; Clearance; Liberty theatre, Camden, N. J., (A. M. Ellis) vs. MGM, Warners, RKO, Paramount, Warner Circuit; AWARD: Pending.

No. 11; Clearance; Parkside theatre, Camden, N. J., (A. M. Ellis) vs. MGM, Warners, Paramount, RKO, Warner Circuit; AWARD: Pending.

No. 12; Clearance; Tioga theatre Philadelphia, (Lewen Pizor) vs. MGM, Paramount, Warners, 20th-Fox, Warner Circuit; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 13; Clearance; Rivoli theatre, Philadelphia, (Columbus Stamper) vs. All Five, Warner Circuit; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 14; Clearance; Colonial theatre, Phoenixville, Pa., vs. All Five, Philadelphia first runs; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 15; Clearance; Tioga theatre, Philadelphia, (Lewen Pizor) vs. Paramount; AWARD: Pending.

No. 16; Some Run and Clearance; Earle theatre, New Castle, Del., (John and Grace Koczak) vs. Loew's Inc.; AWARD: Pending.

No. 17; Clearance; Plains theatre, Plains, Pa. (J. Engle) vs. MGM, Paramount, Warners Parsons theatre, Parsons, Pa. AWARD: Pending.

Pittsburgh

Case No. 1; Some Run; 18th Street theatre, Erie, Pa., (Herman Lorence) vs. Warners, RKO, 20th-Fox, Paramount, American theatre; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 2; Clearance; Beacon theatre, Pittsburgh, (David Green) vs. All Five and Squirrel Hill theatre; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 3; Clearance; Majestic theatre, Elwood City, Pa., (Biordi Bros.) vs. RKO, 20th-Fox, Warners; AWARD: Pending.

Portland, Ore.

Case No. 1; Some Run; Rialto theatre, Albany, Ore., (P. R. Henderson) vs. MGM, 20th-Fox, RKO and Warners; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 2; Clearance; Egyptian theatre, Portland, (William Graeper) vs. Paramount, 20th-Fox, MGM, RKO, Fox West Coast circuit. AWARD: Fox dismissed, consent settlement.

Salt Lake City

Case No. 1; Clearance; Royal theatre, Laurel, Mont. and Park theatre, Red Lodge, Mont. (J. H. Moran) vs. Paramount, Warners, 20th-Fox. AWARD: Dismissed.

St. Louis

Case No. 1; Some Run; Sosna theatre, Mexico, Mo. (Louis M. Sosna) vs. All Five, Little Three and Republic. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 2; Clearance; Rialto theatre, Cape Girardeau, Mo., vs. RKO Fox Midwest circuit. AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 3; Some Run; Sosna theatre, Mexico Mo. (Louis M. Sosna) vs. MGM, Frisina circuit. AWARD: Dismissed; APPEAL: Some run granted.

No. 4; Clearance; Palm theatre, St. Louis, (Victor Thein) vs. Paramount, 20th-Fox, Fanchon and Marco Circuit; AWARD: Dismissed; APPEAL: Pending.

No. 5; Some Run; Star theatre, Lebanon, Mo., (Floyd Lowe) vs. All Five, Lyric theatre; AWARD: Warner's and Fox settled, dismissed.

No. 6; Some Run; Ritz theatre, Rollo, Mo., (Mildred Carsch) vs. All Five, Gasconade Circuit; AWARD: Some run granted.

San Francisco

Case No. 1; Clearance; Rita theatre, Vallejo, (Wm. Symfy) vs. RKO, Paramount, Warners; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 2; Clearance; Laurel theatre, Oakland, (A. C. Karsky) vs. RKO, Warners, 20th-Fox, Oakland first runs; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 3; Clearance; Westwood theatre, Westwood, Cal., vs. All Five; AWARD: Dismissed.

No. 4; Clearance; Piedmont theatre, Oakland, (Gerald Hardy) vs. All Five, Oakland first run theatres; AWARD: Granted one day clearance between 4th, 5th runs excluded move overs; APPEAL: Pending.

Seattle

(No Cases filed.)

Washington, D. C.

Case No. 1; Clearance; Walbrook theatre, Baltimore, (T. D. Goldberg) vs. Warners, 20th-Fox, Durkee Circuit; AWARD: Clearance reduced.

No. 2; Clearance; Charles theatre, La Plata, Md. (John Taylor) vs. Paramount, MGM, 20th-Fox, RKO, Lust Circuit; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 3; Clearance; Westway theatre, Baltimore, (L. H. Homand) vs. MGM, Warners, 20th-Fox, Durkee Circuit; AWARD: Dismissed; APPEAL: Dismissal upheld.

No. 4; Clearance; Lea theatre, Danville, Va., (L. W. Lea) vs. All Five; AWARD: Clearance reduced.

No. 5; Clearance; Schoolfield theatre, Schoolfield, Va. (L. W. Lea) vs. All Five, Kinsey, and S. W. Craver Circuits; AWARD: Clearance reduced.

No. 6; Apex theatre, Washington, vs. MGM, Warner Circuit; AWARD: Clearance eliminated. Appeal: 5 day maximum clearance.

No. 7; Clearance; Dentonia theatre, Denton, Md., (Sam Millets) vs. MGM, Reese theatre, Harrington, Del., AWARD: Clearance eliminated.

No. 8; Clearance; Linden theatre, Baltimore, vs. Warners, Paramount, RKO, Metropolitan, Fulton, Rialto theatres; AWARD: Dismissed. APPEAL: Pending.

No. 9; Clearance; Charles theatre, La Plata, Md., (J. H. Taylor) vs. MGM, and Marlboro and Waldorf theatres, Marlboro, Md.; AWARD: Withdrawn.

No. 10; Clearance; Bayne theatre, Virginia Beach, Va., vs. Warners, Newport theatre, Norfolk, Va.; AWARD: Pending.

December Box Office Champions

Victor Schertzinger, director

BIRTH OF THE BLUES: Paramount. B. G. De Sylva, producer. Associate producer, Monta Bell. Directed by the late Victor Schertzinger. Art directors, Hans Dreier and Ernst Fegte. Photographer, John Seitz. Cast: Bing Crosby, Mary Martin, Brian Donlevy, Carolyn Lee, Eddie "Rochester" Anderson, Warren Hymer. Release date, November 7th, 1941.

Arthur Lubin, director

KEEP 'EM FLYING: Universal. Glenn Tryon, associate producer. Directed by Arthur Lubin. Assistant director, Gil Valle. Cameraman, Joseph Valentine. Art director, Jack Otterson. Cast: Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Martha Raye, Carol Bruce, William Gargan, Dick Foran, Butch and Buddy, Charles Lang. Release date, November 28th, 1941.

W. S. Van Dyke, director

SHADOW OF THE THIN MAN: Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Producer, Hunt Stromberg. Director, W. S. Van Dyke. Cameraman, William Daniels. Recording director, Douglas Shearer. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Cast: William Powell, Myrna Loy, Barry Nelson, Donna Reed, Sam Levene, Alan Baxter, Henry O'Neill. Release date, November, 1941.

George Cukor, director

TWO-FACED WOMAN: Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Produced by Gottfried Reinhardt. Directed by George Cukor. Cameraman, Joseph Ruttenberg. Recording director, Douglas Shearer. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Cast: Greta Garbo, Melvyn Douglas, Constance Bennett, Roland Young, Robert Sterling, Ruth Gordon, Frances Carson. Release date, November, 1941.

Raoul Walsh, director

THEY DIED WITH THEIR BOOTS ON: Warner Brothers. Executive producer, Hal B. Wallis. Associate producer, Robert Fellows. Directed by Raoul Walsh. Cameraman, Bert Glennon. Art director, John Hughes. Cast: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Gene Lockhart, Regis Toomey, Stanley Ridges, Arthur Kennedy. Release date, January 1st, 1942.

Alfred Hitchcock, director

SUSPICION: RKO Radio. Produced by RKO and directed by Alfred Hitchcock. Assistant director, Dewey Starkey. Cameraman, Harry Stradling. From the novel, "Before the Fact", by Francis Iles. Art director, Van Nest Polglase. Special effects, Vernon Walker. Cast: Cary Grant, Joan Fontaine, Sir Cedric Hardwicke. Release date, November 14th, 1941.

New York Critics call it one of Hollywood!

Howard Barnes, N.Y. Herald-Tribune:

"A challenging, exciting and magnificent motion picture . . . As sheer entertainment, it is tremendously vital . . . Michele Morgan is so lovely and noble that she is certain to become a big star . . . Paul Henreid gives a sensitive and extremely sympathetic portrayal."

Bosley Crowther, N.Y. Times:

"A rigidly exciting and tenderly moving film . . . taut with fearful uncertainties and packed with sincere compassion."

Lee Mortimer, N.Y. Daily Mirror:

"Full of thrills and tears . . . exciting and fast-moving . . . Paul Henreid and Michele Morgan powerful, bristling personalities."

Kate Cameron, N.Y. Daily News:

"Either Paul Henreid or Michele Morgan would have been qualified to carry the picture alone . . . A moving and thrilling melodrama . . . filled with breathless suspense."

William Boehnel, N.Y. World-Telegram:

"Everything first-rate entertainment should have — romance, laughter, sentiment, danger and surprise. And then there is Miss Morgan. She's the best thing that's happened to Hollywood in years."

G. R., N.Y. Sun:

"A picture that must be seen . . . It marks the christening of two new stars and a new director on the American screen."

Archer Winsten, N.Y. Post:

"Engrossing and carefully made...Audiences' sympathy is completely engaged."

Rose Pelswick, N.Y. Journal-American:

"Marks the Hollywood debut of Michele Morgan and Paul Henreid, and both give excellent accounts of themselves."

NOW PLAYING AT THE LONG-RUN RIVOLI THEATRE, N.Y.

Best!

Made by the Producer of "KITTY FOYLE"

One day for life..
One hour for love.. and TERROR
stalked every precious minute!

MICHELE
MORGAN
PAUL
HENREID

IN

Joan of Paris

WITH
THOMAS MITCHELL • LAIRD CREGAR
MAY ROBSON

Produced by DAVID HEMPSTEAD • Directed by ROBERT STEVENSON

Screen Play by Charles Bennett and Ellis St. Joseph

ASCAP Law Blow To Music Users

Theatres, Ballrooms, Broadcasters Deal Direct with Composers in Nebraska

by CAPTAIN BARNEY OLDFIELD in Lincoln

A Broadway songwriter named Charlie Tobias has inaugurated an uneasy time in Nebraska in all music using circles—theatres, ballrooms, broadcasting stations and elsewhere. Charlie wrote and is publishing the current hit song, "Rose O'Day," and owns all rights to handle it in Nebraska because of his release from the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers for that state. The Society released all its members, some 1,100, for Nebraska, due to the demands of the state's anti-ASCAP law, which says only copyright owners themselves can do business in Nebraska, individually and not collectively, as they had been doing through ASCAP.

Mr. Tobias was the first to file with the secretary of state, and pay the 25-cent filing fee to have his tune properly recorded for business.

To do business in Nebraska now, a songwriter or copyrightist, must file his tune or arrangement, must state under signature on the sheet filed that it's his alone, and must also print on such composition all the charges for public performance.

Data Unrecorded

But Mr. Tobias slipped on two counts. He did not make the statement that rights were his, and he didn't specify prices. It set public music users in a whirl. Ballroom men banned the number from all their orchestra libraries, and theatre managers began checking their films to see whether "Rose O'Day" was in.

The secretary of state is making up a form letter to be sent to all who file, if they do not at first comply with all the paragraphs of the law. Since an infringement fine can be $250, plus legal fees and court costs, no exhibitor or other public music user wants to take any chances.

All music intended for Nebraska in the future will probably be stamped with directions for Nebraska users. Over signature of the holder of the rights, it will state that only after statement of the type of use the music will be put to, and payment of the price for that use, can such music be used without legal recourse. Falsification will be prosecuted, and the buyer, if a public performer for profit, will have to get himself a receipt for the amount of money expended to protect himself if lawyers check. It will be up to each music publishing house to collect for the author now. Their lawyers will police such collection. ASCAP formerly did this in the state.

Directions of prices will probably be listed like this for example:

- "Private use: 25c
- "Orchestra: $3
- "Hotel, Ballroom, Night Club: $3
- "Theatre, in musical film: 1c per seat.
- "Commercial radio: $15."

If there are several authors of music in a single film, this will mean the exhibitor will have to pay for the film, and a certain fraction of a cent per seat to each of the covered authors. It will result in book-keeping about as devious as that radio has had to resort to to protect itself under a different kind of ASCAP fight.

At first, the film business in Nebraska thought it was in the clear, that there would be no way to clock a theatre, but this opinion has been changed in the last few days. It would be very simple for a film score, or as much of it as any author had anything to do with, either composing or arranging, to be filed with the state house, and stipulation of that price made.

Nebraska ballrooms are in a quandary, as are hotels. Just because a band, playing for a dance in any one spot, has bought and paid for the music, it will have to also be bought by the ballroom and be present in the library, or the ballroom will be in trouble. The Nebraska law-makers would not allow the assignment of copyrights by individuals to ASCAP, so it's hardly possible the thinking can be readjusted so an orchestra can be considered assigned all rights in the handling of music just because it has complied with its payment. The band leader's profit and the ballroom, night club, or hotel profit, are seen as two different things.

After a good fight by ASCAP's members this year, legislators next year probably will come to the state house in Lincoln instructed by his constituent public music users to repeal the ASCAP law. Most of the state wishes that the anti-ASCAP law wasn't on the books now.

Armand Schenck Joins PRC

Leon Fromkess, executive vice president of Producers Releasing Corp., has announced the appointment of Armand Schenck as supervisor of branch operations. Mr. Schenck has been active in the motion picture industry since 1921.

For the past five years Mr. Schenck has been associated with Pathe Laboratories, Inc., in an executive capacity.

Zanuck Sets School Fund

Darryl F. Zanuck, vice-president in charge of production at Twentieth Century-Fox, has established a fund through which a Central New York boy will be able to attend Colgate University in Hamilton, N. Y. The gift will be known as the Richard Llewellyn Fund in honor of the Welsh author, whose character, "Huw Morgan" in "How Green Was My Valley," inspired the donation.

Holland Transferred

A. C. Holland, RCA Photophone engineer, who has been located in the Memphis territory for the past several years, has been transferred to New Orleans and has taken up headquarters in the Jung Hotel in that city.

High Costs Bring Rise In Admissions

With the Government's defense program and military production drawing on all available man-power and resources, effecting a higher cost of living throughout the country, some theatres have been forced to raise their admission prices.

In Columbus, Ohio, at mid-January, a general increase in the admission scale, especially in theatres in the larger Ohio cities, was urged by Pete J. Wood, secretary of the ITO of Ohio, in an organization bulletin.

Commenting on the need for higher scales, Mr. Wood wrote: "All business analysts are agreed that we are in an inflationary period and we will all know that every type of commodity has gone up in price. We, however, are selling our merchandise at practically the same prices that we were a year ago." Mr. Woods cited President Roosevelt's budget message to Congress and pointed out that Congress would undoubtedly give thought to an increase in admission taxes, a tax on film rentals and a seat tax.

The Essaness Theatres Corporation advanced prices slightly at their Crown Theatre, Chicago, on Christmas Day. Week day admissions were adjusted from 22c to 25c and from 33c to 35c, including tax. Sunday prices went up from 39c to 40c. The move was made more to even out prices for convenience rather than to increase the revenue.

In Milwaukee, Fox's Wisconsin and Palace, first-run houses, have raised their admissions after six P. M. from 55 to 60 cents, including tax. The admission price from opening until six P. M. remains at 44 cents, including tax. The Warner and Standard's Riverside will retain their 33 cents early bird, including tax, until one P. M. and their 55 cent top price, including tax.

Balaban and Katz have increased their nightly admission price from 65 to 75 cents at the Loop United Artists theatre in Chicago.

Loew's Ohio and Broad, in Columbus, have advanced their weekly matinee deadline from 5 to 6 P. M., following similar action recently by the RKO Palace and Grand there. The change was made to enable store and office employees to avail themselves of the matinee rate of 40 cents, which is effective at 1 P. M. Otherwise, the scales at these four first runs are 30 cents until 1 P. M., and 50 cents evenings. This represents a three-cent increase in the evening scale previously in effect. The Sunday matinee deadline of 2 P. M. remains unchanged.

The Palace theatre in Chicago has raised admissions from 30 to 40 cents to one P. M., 40 to 50 cents to 6:30 P. M. and 60 to 68 cents to closing plus tax. The increase started with the engagement of "Ball of Fire" and "The Gay Falcon."

Martin Contract Sold

Ken Dolan, of the Dolan and Doane, Inc., talent agency in Hollywood, has sold the managerial contract of Mary Martin to the Frank Vincent Agency for $20,000.

IN BRITISH STUDIOS

By AUBREY FLANAGAN

In London

War Themes

The war ashore and afloat, abroad and at home, features highly as a subject of British films now in current production. Although, at the moment of writing, only five pictures are in actual production throughout the range of British studios all of these deal with the present conflict, from one aspect or another. In only one instance is comedy, credited by MOTION PICTURE HERALD's Box Office Poll as a paramount feature of current entertainment taste, exploited by British producers. The instance is that of the Will Hay comedy on the floor at Ealing.

Will Hay, who earned fame on the vaudeville stage and radio as a schoolmaster comedian, despite his numerous disguises, is still regarded as a comic in cap and gown by his innumerable fans, and goes back to the role of schoolmaster once more in his new Ealing production "The Goose Steps Out".

The film is not devoid of propaganda, despite its comedy flavour, and Hay has, in fact, a dual role—that of a German spy and his double, an English schoolmaster. Most of the action unrolls against a wartime German background, with Hay, in cap and gown, teaching a class of would-be spies destined for espionage work in Britain.

This will be Hay's first dual role production and he has already finished sequences in which he appears in two forms on one screen. The film is, however, his second co-directorial effort; he has collaborated in this direction with Basil Deardon, who made with him "The Black Sheep of Whitehall".

Working as a still photographer on this film is Joan England, who is declared to be the first woman still photographer to operate in a British studio. She was previously in charge of her own portrait studios in London's West End.

▽

Delivery of another Ealing production, "The Big Blockade", has been held up for a short while, so that producer Cavalcanti can incorporate sequences dealing with the entry of Japan into the war, a matter for which provision had not been made in the original film.

The war in more dramatic form is, of course, being dealt with by Paul Soskin whose "The Day Will Dawn" is nearing its final stages at Denham. A factor, fortunate from the point of view of producer and exhibitor, is the prophetic use of the Commandos theme in the film. Though made before the recent Commando raids were registered the production deals considerably with such incursions by British troops on the Norwegian coast. The script, written many months ago, to some extent anticipated forthcoming events, even prophesying to the last detail some of the recent Commando actions. The fact that British troops and

Leslie Howard as "R. J. Mitchell", designer of the Spitfire, and co-star David Niven as "Crisp", his test pilot, in character for the feature being produced at Denham about the development of the R.A.F. mainstay.

Norwegian sailors themselves appear in the film adds some realism to it. British troops from a famous Guards Regiment, armed with rifles, Bren guns, tommy guns and hand grenades, played their scenes, it is stated, with both realism and gusto.

The film, which has been directed by Harold French, has leading players Deborah Kerr, Ralph Richardson and Hugh Williams and is in its final weeks of shooting. It will be released by General Film Distributors.

▽

Another war subject, "Unpublished Story," made by Two Cities Films for Columbia release, has suffered something of a setback by the accidental burning of the only completed copy, which was due for despatch to the U. S.

Some weeks will necessarily be occupied by Reginald Beck in reassembling the film in the final form designed for it.

This film also was directed by Harold French and was produced by Anthony Havelock-Allan.

▽

Not yet ready for the shooting stage is another war subject, the Noel Coward drama of the Navy at war, "In Which We Serve". Through arrangements have, to some extent, been finalised for shooting, and details of locations, exteriors, etcetera, arranged, it is not certain when the film will actually go on the studio floor.

▽

Though not directly a war film, something of a contemporary flavour is necessarily struck in the Leslie Howard production, "The First of the Few", still on the floor at Denham. It deals with the creation of the Spitfire and the life and career of its inventor, Reginald Mitchell.

This film is reaching its closing stages under the direction of Leslie Howard, who has David Niven to back him up as a personal attraction in the cast list.

▽

The adventurous side of war is also a factor in "Rendezvous for Convoy", which Leslie and Elizabeth Hiscott are making at Teddington under the British National banner for release by Anglo-American.

▽

Another British National unit is in full swing at the Rock Studios, where producer Richard Vernon and director Lance Comfort are making "These Our Strangers", a subject dealing with evacuation and evacuees, one of the greatest problems on the Home Front.

Finished Product

Into "They Flew Alone", the Herbert Wilcox production dealing with the life of Amy Johnson and Jim Mollison, the war also comes, though only in the final stages of the story of the lives of these two British fliers. The film will have been finished by the time this reaches print and will be released by RKO-Radio, who will trade show it in the near future.

Anna Neagle and Robert Newton have the leading roles as Amy and Jim respectively.

No direct reference to the present war is, of course, found in "The Young Mr. Pitt", which has been completed this week at Shepherd's Bush Studios by 20th-Century Productions. On the other hand oblique references and pointed tilts at the war are made by sequences which parallel present day circumstances in many ways.

This ambitious film, the most ambitious to have been made in this country by 20th Century Productions and probably the most expensive ever made at the Gaumont-British Studios, has taken 23 weeks of shooting and has registered on the negative a broad panorama of Britain in Georgian days. The original House of Commons, the House of Lords, 10 Downing Street, the Admiralty, old Bond Street, the London Guildhall, Bellamy's "pie-shop", and the Queen's House (now Buckingham Palace), the Luxembourg in Paris, Nelson's "Victory" and Napoleon's armies at Calais have all been recreated for the production. Four decades of history have been packed into the film, the period of which is from 1768 to 1805, with Robert Donat, as William Pitt, heading the cast of 148 speaking roles.

Louis Levy and his orchestra now face two months' work in registering and recording the background music for the film.

No Sunday Shows for Mississippi; New N. Y. Bills

By a four-vote margin, the Mississippi House of Representatives, at Jackson, last week, turned down a bill that would have legalized Sunday picture shows in Mississippi. The proposal would have erased from the statute books an ancient law that prohibits most all kinds of Sabbath amusements in the state, including baseball. Most of the debate centered around soldiers in the military reservations of Mississippi, co-authors of the bill all having sons enlisted in the services of the country. It appeared certain, however, that in the face of the small-margined defeat of the measure, it would reach the floor of the House again under parliamentary procedure.

The short bill was showered with amendments both from pros and cons and at least a half dozen members of House, assertedly known to favor it, were absent. One of these amendments would have legalized shows within a 50-mile radius of a military reservation but this was defeated. A dozen or so members fought the bill on moral grounds. Representative J. D. Holder of Lee county shouted that the passage of the bill "would lead to other things that would bring this country of ours into moral decadence." Mr. Holder said at one time, "If you have your names on the church book and vote for this bill may God have pity on your poor souls."

Films in New York Legislation

Assemblyman Harold B. Ehrlich, Buffalo Republican, will again introduce legislation amending the education, penal and labor laws with relation to the theatrical and radio appearances of children under 16 years of age.

Last year's Ehrlich bill, passed by the legislature, was vetoed by Governor Lehman May 2, 1941. The new bill is intended as a modification of the present law, rigidly enforced upstate, which prevents any theatrical or even amateur radio program appearance of children under 16 years of age. As passed by the legislature in 1941, it authorized the education boards of the various communities to issue permits to children for theatrical exhibitions and amateur radio programs. Radio appearances would be limited to one hour per week and then would be licit only if made at the principal broadcasting studios of a station.

First anti-discrimination bill of the session to specifically mention theatres was one introduced by Senator William T. Condon of Westchester County, chairman of Labor and Industries Committee, making it a misdemeanor to exclude a citizen of the state by reason of national origin, as well as the present provision, i.e., race, color, or creed, from equal enjoyment of privileges by hotels, theatres, etc. Bill is intended to broaden anti-discrimination to also prevent its practice against persons by reason of their national origin.

Governor Herbert H. Lehman recommended a $5,000,000 reduction in appropriations and a 25 per cent reduction in personal state income taxes for both 1942 and 1943 in submitting his executive budget to the state legislature in Albany Monday night.

In addition to the abolition of the emergency one-per-cent tax on personal state income tax proposed successfully last year by Governor Lehman and effective now, the chief executive recommended a 25 per cent reduction in income taxes payable this spring. A similar 25 per cent reduction in state income taxes again in 1943

FROM READERS

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:

I have read the Arthur Mayer article on critics; it is well written and interesting. Perhaps he's too rough on the clan in general. Maybe New York critics are getting hypercritical in their old age but I don't believe that applies to us small towns.

For instance, all three critics here spoke of "How Green Was My Valley" as an exceptionally fine production—and it is held for its fifth week. All three praised "Babes on Broadway" considerably—it is in its fourth week now and maybe not finished. Same on "Sergeant York"—the critics agreed with the public exactly to the tune of six or seven weeks.

I, too, when I was starting in on this critic business more than forty years ago, thought it was smart, brilliant work to tear a play to pieces after a producer had invested a fortune in it and many players were dependent upon it for their living. Now I don't think so. I go a lot by what the audience thinks, so much so that I will not review pictures at previews.

The audience pays its money to see a stage or screen production—the critics don't. If an audience wants to like a picture, that's its God-given right and I don't see that it's the business of a critic to tell patrons that they don't like it. It's largely in the viewpoint. I like classical music, and swing to me is so much poison, but the oncoming generations love it—God knows why. But that's their privilege.

Same with pictures—if the dear public wants to jam in, week after week, to an Abbott and Costello picture in preference to such a superb study in acting as "All That Money Can Buy", more power to Abbott and Costello. They give the public what it wants. And that's what theatres are run for—the public. J. WILLIAM SAYRE was also suggested in the gubernatorial message.

Drama Editor Seattle Post-Intelligencer

Governor Lehman also recommended that state income taxpayers be given the privilege of paying in four equal quarterly installments commencing with tax payments due after Dec. 31, 1942, the change to coincide with a shift of the opening date of the state's fiscal year from July 1st to April 1st. Both moves are held by legislators to be nearly certain during the present session.

Universal Studio Staff Realigned by Blumberg

Shifts in the Universal studio staff, placing responsibility for all talent supervision under Dan Kelley, casting director, have been completed by Nate Blumberg, Universal president, now in Hollywood. Mr. Kelley is placed in charge of all creative talent, including performers, writers, directors, and artists. Martin Murphy's duties have been expanded to include supervision of all production and studio management.

Robert D. Speers, assistant to John Joseph, advertising and publicity director, becomes casting director under Mr. Kelley. Mr. Murphy and Mr. Kelley will work closely with Clifford Work, vice president and general manager of Universal production. Leonard Cripps, story editor, and Reginald Allen, scenario editor, join Mr. Kelley's staff. During Mr. Blumberg's stay on the coast Matthew J. Fox, Universal vice president, will remain at the home offices.

Approves 'Blues' License Transfer

Transfer of licenses for station WJZ, New York; WENR, Chicago and KGO, San Francisco, from RCA to the Blue Network Company was approved by the Federal Communications Commission in Washington last Friday. The stations, originally licensed to the National Broadcasting Company, were temporarily transferred to RCA when NBC decided to split the Red and Blue networks. Following approval of the transfer all three stations changed their sign-off and sign-on announcements to: "This station is owned and operated by the Blue Network Co., Inc."

Phillips Carlin, vice-president in charge of programs of the Blue Network, announced in New York last Friday appointment of seven division heads. Charles Barry was named Eastern division program manager; Harry Frazee, manager of production division; Ron Ferguson, script division manager; Samuel Chotzinoff, music division head; Ray Diaz, chief announcer; Reginald Stanborough, night announcing supervisor and Grace Gunderman, program booking chief. The following were appointed announcers for the Blue Network: William Abernathy, George Ansborough, Milton J. Cross, Jack Frazer, George Hayes, George Hicks, Jack McCarthy, Hugh James, H. Gilbert Martyn, Ray Nelson, Charlie Nobles, Glenn Riggs, Bill Spargrove and Bob Waldrop.

The Federal Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia upheld the right of the Federal Communications Commission to subpoena newspaper publishers and executives to testify at its hearings concerning joint ownership of radio stations and newspapers.

111,307 Attend Museum Films

The annual report released by the Museum of Modern Art in New York last week, showed that attendance at its film shows was 111,307 during the 1940-1941 fiscal year. The report also disclosed that 1,175 regular film programs and 42 special programs were circulated to 377 outside sources. In addition, there are in the film library circulation department nine programs of Douglas Fairbanks' pictures, 26 programs of American comedies produced during the past 40 years and 10 programs of D. W. Griffith films.

John Hay Whitney is chairman of the Museum's film library committee; John E. Abbott is Museum director, and Irish Barry, curator.

Among the feature pictures acquired by the film library during the year were: "It Happened One Night," "A Nous La Liberté," "Two Hearts in Waltz Time," "The President Vanishes," "Confessions of a Nazi Spy," "Ruggles of Red Gap," "Million Dollar Legs," and American, British, Canadian, Brazilian and Finnish documentary films.

Freeman Winners Announced

Gerry Germain, manager of the Strand theatre in Holyoke, Mass., and J. M. Jerauld, manager of the Garden theatre in Greenfield, won first and second positions respectively in the Western Massachusetts Theatres, Inc., Y. Frank Freeman Drive. Mr. Germain will receive $200 in defense bonds, and his staff will receive a week's salary. Mr. Jerauld and his staff will receive a half-week's salary.

FROM THE DEEP, ROMANTIC SOUTH COMES ANOTHER THRILLING DRAMA OF LOVE AND INTRIGUE!

Hers was a peerless beauty . . . a matchless charm . . . that won the raucous cheers of the showboat crowd
. . . and won the hearts of the proud aristocrats of the old South.

JOAN BLONDELL · JOHN WAYNE

in

“LADY FOR A NIGHT”

with

RAY MIDDLETON

PHILIP MERIVALE · BLANCHE YURKA · EDITH BARRETT

LEONID KINSKEY · THE HALL JOHNSON CHOIR

LEIGH JASON — Director

Original screen play by Isabel Dawn and Boyce DeGaw • Based on a story by Garrett Fort

A REPUBLIC PICTURE

★ BUY U. S. DEFENSE BONDS ★

Films Collect Thousands for 'March of Dimes'

With greater effort than ever, the industry in Hollywood, its management in New York, and distribution and exhibition in the field this week went all-out for the annual infantile paralysis "March of Dimes" campaign, climaxed by President Roosevelt's 60th birthday celebration on Friday. Theatres and circuits throughout the nation totaling 10,009 houses, participated in the drive.

The Hollywood Victory Committee for stage, screen and radio arranged for a special train to leave the film capital on Monday, taking Rosalind Russell, William Holden, Patricia Morison, Jackie Cooper, Bonita Granville, Gene Raymond, John Payne, Carol Bruce, Brenda Marshall and Ensign Wayne Morris to Washington for the President's birthday party. Betty Grable and Gene Autry left Hollywood on Tuesday, and other film stars who were in the East, joined the group in Washington on Thursday, including Mickey Rooney and his bride, Ava Gardner; Ruth Hussey, Edward Arnold, Judy Canova, Dorothy Lamour, Pat O'Brien, Michele Morgan, Jean Hersholt and Lieut. James Stewart.

Drive Extended to January 30th

In response to suggestions from exhibitors to Nicholas M. Schenck, national chairman of the "March of Dimes" drive, hundreds of theatres decided to extend the theatre campaign through January 30th, the date of the President's 60th birthday, instead of closing the drive on the 28th. Loew's and RKO, nationwide circuits, in addition to Brandt in New York and other circuits, continued their collections the two extra days.

The first day's collections from patrons, according to C. C. Moskowitz, co-chairman, were in excess nationally of any similar drive in theatres. He reported that Loew's theatres in Greater New York collected close to $12,000 for the first day, compared to $1,400 for the first day last year. Mr. Moskowitz also announced that Loew's houses collected $14,000 the first day and that reports from various sections indicated big increases. One theatre wired that collections were 40 per cent of box-office receipts; many houses reported collections of 10 per cent to 20 per cent of the box office.

Theatres were urged to return promptly at the close of the drive the campaign trailer to the National Screen Service exchange, from which they received trailers. The committee believes that it can reclaim several thousands of dollars worth of silver from the 10,000 trailers, totaling nearly 2,250,000 feet of film. Proceeds from this reclamation will be added to the industry's collections.

In New York, the motion picture division campaign of the "March of Dimes" was launched last Thursday, with a colorful parade along Broadway and official change of the name of Times Square to "Dimes Square." Approximately 1,000 marchers, including personnel of RKO, Skouras, Loew's, Brandt and Fabian circuits, participated. The parade was organized by Eddie Dowden, of Loew's publicity staff. C. C. Moskowitz, Marvin Schenck and Oscar A. Doob, in charge of ceremonies, were on the platform set up in Times Square for the occasion. Ed Sullivan, New York Daily News columnist, was master of ceremonies and Bernard Brandt supervised the collections. About 20,000 spectators heard the appeals for contributions and watched actress Patricia Dane

IN NEWS REELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 40, Vol. 24.—The war in Singapore, Russia and Libya....Torpedoed tanker safe....Collision at sea....War production board....New destroyer launched....Niagara Falls freezes...."March of Dimes"....Sports.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 41, Vol. 24.—Welles in Rio....Naval ensigns take oath....Study Jap sub....Link U. S.-Mexico defenses....Bomber forced down in Pennsylvania....Fashions....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 238, Vol. 13.—Singapore bombed....British drive in Libya....Eden sees German routed in Russia....War production board....Torpedoed tanker safe....Launch "March of Dimes" drive....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 239, Vol. 13.—Moscow celebrates....Sub survivors safe....DeWitt in Mexico....Balloon patrol....Charles McCarthy on military matters....Rio parley....Auto circus....Girl archers.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 43.—Illinois ski jump meet....Babe Ruth well again....The war in Singapore, Russia and Africa....Lt. Bulkeley pictures....Ships escape subs....Torpedoed tanker safe...."March of Dimes" drive.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 44.—Army gets biggest gun....Dempsey takes oath....Indians aid metal drive....Sea lions from Hawaii....Navy calls for radio men....Winter scene in Moscow....U. S.-Mexico link defenses....Volunteers clear Hawaii....Pan American conference....Survivors of U-Boat attacks.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 43, Vol. 13.—War in Singapore....British drive in Libya....Eden in Moscow....Torpedoed tanker safe....Crews locate wrecked airliner....Auto industry makes plane parts....Opera stars aid "Dimes" drive....Midwest ski jump....Sports.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 44, Vol. 13.—Welles in Rio....DeWitt in Mexico....Moscow celebrates....Sports....Charlie McCarthy on duty....Seals from Hawaii.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 52, Vol. 15.—The "March of Dimes"....War board meets....Lt. Bulkeley honored....Torpedoed tanker safe....Japs bomb Singapore....Eden in Russia....Libyan offensive....Cooper receives film award....Sports.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 53, Vol. 15.—Pan American conference....Army chief hailed in Mexico....Pearl Harbor report....Jap sub salvaged....Army defense on the alert....Rickenbacker to make award....Russia celebrates....Sports.

change the street signs. Among the top-ranking entertainers who participated were Jack Oakie, Olsen and Johnson, Sabu, Dick Powell, Benny Field, Dean Murphy, Benay Venuta and Jimmy Dorsey and his orchestra.

Radio, meanwhile, joined with the motion picture industry in extending greetings to the President, in the form of an hour-long broadcast heard on Thursday night, from 12 midnight to 1:00 A.M., over WOR-Mutual and the NBC Red and Blue networks. Eddie Cantor, as master of ceremonies, headed the all-star lineup which included Gertrude Lawrence, Maurice Evans, Danny Kaye, Walter Winchell, Bert Gordon, Dinah Shore, Kenny Baker, Ezra Stone, Carmen Miranda and Larry Adler. The music was furnished by Fred Waring, Glenn Miller and Edgar Fairchild. Other special programs also were planned.

National Decency Legion Classifies Fourteen Films

Of the fourteen motion pictures classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week, nine were approved for general patronage and five were found unobjectionable for adults. The pictures and their classifications follow:

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "Broadway Big Shot," "Cowboy Serenade," "Hayfoot," "North to the Klondike," "The Remarkable Andrew," "Right to the Heart," "Sealed Lips," "Thunder River," "West of Tombstone." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "I Killed a Man," "Joan of Paris," "Niagara Falls," "Wolf Man" and "Woman of the Year."

Argentine Courts Decide on Two Theatre Suits

by N. BRUSKI
in Buenos Aires

Argentina's motion picture industry was shaken this month by two court decisions in two of the most far-reaching lawsuits ever to effect the industry.

The first decision convicted the American distributors in Argentina for illicit association and violation of the anti-trust laws.

The suit, which was brought against the eight American major film distributors and Cinematografia Terra and Cinematografia Julio Joly eight years ago, by Hector J. Bini, owner of the Cine Goyena charged that the defendants had denied him the rental of their pictures until he had paid up the debts accumulated by the previous owner of the theatre, and that he had been prevented from showing pictures of any of the defendants. Because there was no domestic production of motion pictures at the time the suit was instituted, the defendants controlled all the film product in Argentina.

Following the decision of the court the defendants were to pay a fine of 20,000 pesos. The sentence, however, has been suspended with the understanding that the distributors will pay court costs.

Both sides have appealed the case to a higher court.

The second decision is the result of a suit brought by Positeo Fernandes against his partner, Clemente Lococo, one of the most powerful exhibitor combines in Argentina. Mr. Fernandez asked the court to dissolve the partnership, which operated five large theatres, alleging that the administration carried out by Mr. Lococo had been affected in a manner to prejudice the other cinemas owned by Mr. Fernandez and which did not belong to the partnership.

While on the defensive Mr. Lococo pointed out that Mr. Fernandez was inspired to bring the suit by a competitive organization who had designs of controlling the Argentine exhibition market.

In view of this fact the court revoked the previous sentence which it had handed down naming an intervenor and dismissed the charges against Mr. Lococo. Mr. Fernandez was ordered to pay all court costs.

Honor Jay Emanuel

Marking his 30th year in the industry and recognition of his help in organizing the Motion Picture Associates in Philadelphia, Jay Emanuel, independent exhibitor in the territory, and publisher, will be given a testimonial dinner by the local Associates on March 16th at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel. The sponsoring committee, headed by Alfred J. Davis, includes Albert M. Cohen, Ely J. Epstein, Sam Gross, William C. Karrer, Nat Levy, Edgar Moss, Earle W. Sweigert, George Beattie, Sam Blumberg and Frank McNamee, all members of MPA. It is expected that industry members from other parts of the east will turn out for the affair.

Altec Calls Managers

Altec Service has called a nationwide managers' convention to be held at the Park Central Hotel in New York February 3-5.

SHORT PRODUCT PLAYING BROADWAY

Week of January 24th

ASTOR

Rhapsody In Rivets.....Vitaphone
Whispers.....MGM
Feature: The Shanghai Gesture.....United Artists

CAPITOL

Main Street on the March...MGM
Field Mouse.....MGM
Feature: The Corsican Brothers.....United Artists

CRITERION

The Tell-Tale Heart.....MGM
Glimpses of Kentucky.....MGM
Feature: Mr. and Mrs. North...MGM

MUSIC HALL

March of Time, No. 6:
"When Air Raids Strike"...RKO Radio
Feature: Ball of Fire.....RKO Radio

PARAMOUNT

Superman in the Mechanical Monsters.....Paramount
March of Dimes.....Paralysis Fund
Feature: Louisiana Purchase...Paramount

RIALTO

The Riveter.....Disney-
RKO Radio
Life of a Thoroughbred....20th Cent.-Fox
March of Dimes.....Paralysis Fund
Feature: Call Out the Marines...RKO Radio

RIVOLI

A Good Time for a Dime...Disney-
RKO Radio
March of Dimes.....Paralysis Fund
Feature: Joan of Paris.....RKO Radio

ROXY

Flying Fever.....20th Cent.-Fox
Evergreen Playland.....20th Cent.-Fox
Feature: I Wake Up Screaming.....20th Cent.-Fox

STRAND

Monsters of the Deep....Vitaphone
Miracle Makers.....Vitaphone
Hop, Skip and a Chump...Vitaphone
Feature: All Through the Night.....Warner Bros.

Garden Ice Revue Draws 100,000

More than 100,000 persons witnessed the first six performances of Sonja Henie's Hollywood Ice Revue at Madison Square Garden in New York, it was estimated by Garden officials Saturday night, January 24th, after the six presentation.

It was estimated at the same time that last year's total of 134,000 for eight presentations would be equaled by Tuesday, January 27th, and a new record set for shows of this kind with the ninth performance on Wednesday. All proceeds from the Wednesday performance, without deductions, have been donated to the Red Cross War Fund.

Eyssell Elected to Rockefeller Board

Gus S. Eyssell, managing director of the Radio City Music Hall and the Center theatre, as well as president of the Radio City Music Hall Corporation, has been elected to the board of directors of Rockefeller Center, Inc.

Early last week Mr. Eyssell was elected director of the Music Hall and Center theatre, both in Rockefeller Center, New York, succeeding the late W. G. Van Schmus, who died on January 14th.

Increased Film Budget Planned for PRC Product

The board of directors of Producers Releasing Corporation has decided upon increased budget commitments for the remainder of the current program and for all product to be released during the 1942-43 season.

The decision was made at the annual meeting of the board held Saturday, January 24th, before the first of the four regional sales meeting which convened later that morning at the Hotel Astor in New York.

The new board of directors named at the meeting are: O. Henry Briggs, president; Leon Fromkess, vice-president; Robert Benjamin, of Phillips, Nizer, Benjamin and Krim, attorneys; Kenneth Young, chairman of the board of Pathe Laboratories, Inc.; George Bonwick, vice-president of Pathe Laboratories; Harry Asher, Boston franchise holder; George Gill, Washington franchise holder.

Mr. Fromkess will leave for Hollywood next week to implement the augmented plans and to coordinate studio activities on the west coast.

Following the board meeting the New York regional sales meeting got under way with franchise holders, branch manager, and salesmen from New York, Albany, Buffalo, Boston, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Washington attending. Arthur Greenblatt, general sales manager of the company, presided.

Following the preliminary session, an open forum was held in which production activities, the current program, general sales and sales policy on specials was discussed.

The second regional sales meeting is to be held in Little Rock, Ark., on January 31st and February 2nd, for the franchise holders, branch managers and salesmen of the Little Rock, Dallas, Atlanta, New Orleans, Oklahoma City and Charlotte exchanges.

The third meeting will be held in Chicago, February 7th and 8th at the Congress Hotel, with St. Louis, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit, Omaha, Kansas City and Minneapolis personnel attending.

Following the Chicago meeting Mr. Greenblatt will visit Kansas City, Indianapolis, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Detroit, Buffalo and Albany exchanges, before returning to New York.

PRC has contracted with Dixon Harwin to produce two pictures for 1942 release. The first is "The Ghost Train and the Guest," which goes before the camera in February. The second picture is now in preparation.

J. Stewart Silver, formerly in charge of motion picture advertising for the Philadelphia Evening Public Ledger, has joined the PRC staff in that city as a salesman.

Photographers' Ball Set

More than 100 stars of stage, radio and screen will make personal appearances at the annual dance and entertainment of the Press Photographers Association of New York, which will be held Friday evening, February 6th, at the Hotel Astor in New York.

EVERYBODY KISSED
THE BRIDE ... EXCEPT THE GROOM!

The LADY IS WILLING

MARLENE DIETRICH · MACMURRAY
"MITCHELL LEISEN'S
THE LADY IS WILLING

COLUMBIA PICTURES

Guard Against Losses!

Compiled
By THEODORE J. SULLIVAN

USE THIS SIMPLIFIED THEATRE ACCOUNTING SYSTEM

$2.00
POSTPAID

Simple . Complete . Accurate
Requires no bookkeeping experience!

ALL SECTIONS ARE DEVISED SO THAT FULL TAX INFORMATION IS READILY AVAILABLE

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, ROCKEFELLER CENTER, NEW YORK

Here is my check for $2.00. Send me "Theatre Management Record."

Name _____

Address _____

City and State _____

Theatre _____

MAIL COUPON ORDER TODAY

IATSE Meeting Takes up Fight of Cameramen

The jurisdictional dispute between the American Society of Cinematographers and Local 659, Cameramen, was one of the principal topics for discussion at the executive board meeting of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, held in mid-week at Miami. Richard F. Walsh, IATSE president, and other union officials were present.

Also discussed at the session was last week's successful consummation of negotiations with Hollywood studios by which some 10,000 workers of the ten IATSE studio craft locals get an average of 10 per cent wage increases, on a new contract promising peace to the Hollywood labor front for two years. Other subjects for consideration included the time and place for the next IATSE convention and a study of financial reports, particularly the two per cent assessment fund administered by George E. Browne, convicted former president.

Fred Jackman, president, and Len Smith, vice-president of American Society of Cinematographers, arrived in Miami on Monday to present their plea to the board in person. Local 659's delegation, including Herbert Aller, Burnett Guffey, Gus Peterson and Gilbert Warrenton, also were on hand to protect their charter. ASC membership recently voted to accept a separate charter but it was learned that the union was told the IATSE would not issue a dual charter and that the only alternative left for ASC was to go over to Local 659. The ASC vote was 117 for a separate charter and 21 for affiliation, out of 142 members who attended the meeting.

Also convening in Miami was the executive board of the American Federation of Musicians, with president James C. Petrillo, presiding and Joseph N. Weber, honorary AFM head, present for the sessions.

Chicago Union Rebels

Dissatisfaction with the present administration of the Chicago's operator's union allegedly put in office by convicted labor leaders George E. Browne and Willie Bioff, has resulted in the rebellious group organizing under the leadership of Frank Norte, an operator for 30 years. The dissenters have set up headquarters in the Brevoort Hotel and are campaigning for others to join them in ousting the incumbent officers in the annual elections on March 5th. Salaries paid the present officers are reported to be: $20,000, to business agent John Smith; $15,000, to president Peter Shayne, and $10,000, to vice-president Neal Bishop.

Reports from Chicago on Monday were that the union was expected to invest in defense bonds the $50,000 posted with the U. S. Fidelity and Guarantee of Baltimore to cover bail supplied for Browne, when and if his appeal in the Federal extortion case is denied. The union recently invested $10,000 in defense bonds.

Meanwhile, the local stagehands union in Chicago is reported developing a slate of officer-nominees in opposition to the current administration, it was learned this week. The election will be held May 1st. Some members of the union, it is said, are seeking an investigation by the IATSE.

Chicago Film Employees Union, Local B-45, IATSE, rejected a distributor proposal last week for a five per cent increase for top-salaried employees and 10 per cent for lower brackets. The union demands 10 per cent for first group, 15 per cent for assistants and 20 per cent for lower brackets. This action followed a meeting last Monday at the Blackstone Hotel attended by local exchange managers and home office representatives, including Allen Usher, Paramount district manager; J. S. McCloud, MGM home office, and Earl J. Dennison, United Artists home office. Salaries at present are: head shippers, $45; shippers, $28; assistant shippers, $23; night shippers, $31; night film inspectors, $25; film inspectors, $22; head film inspectors, $25; head poster clerks, $28, and poster clerks, $25.

No Mediation

An invitation of the New York State Labor Mediation Board extended to major companies to mediate with the Screen Publicists Guild on a bargaining contract was declined, it was learned in New York this week. Home office executives contend that there is no need for mediation as direct negotiations can still continue. The proposed move "has been postponed indefinitely," it was said by the Mediation Board, with no further explanation offered.

The SPG had asked the board to intercede but film firms are reported to have replied that there was no need for mediation until all efforts to arrive at a contract by direct negotiations had failed.

John Michon was elected president of Motion Picture Film Editors Guild for the third consecutive term at a general election held last Friday night, in New York. Other officers elected are: Marc Ash, vice-president; Joseph J. Vadala, secretary; Morris Roizman, treasurer; Oscar Canstein and Mike Prusch, sergeants-at-arms. James Molini, Bud Pollard and Max Rothstein were elected to the board of trustees. Committee-chairmen elections included Nathan Cy. Braunstein, membership committee; Daniel Heiss, public relations; Leonard Weiss, grievance; Harry Foster, wage and hour; Bud Pollard, bylaw, and Max Rothstein, placement. The union has 242 members on record.

J. Roy Price was elected president of the Warner Bros. Associated Office Employees Union in New York last week. Other officers are: Leo Haas, vice-president; Irving Klein, general secretary; Irving Reiner, recording secretary; Joseph H. Newman, treasurer; Arthur Allisot, sergeant-at-arms, and C. V. R. Tasker, financial secretary. Special meeting of the membership was held Monday, at the Capitol Hotel, for the purpose of discussion and approval of contract classifications.

Negotiations for higher wages and bonuses for cameramen shipped to war zones were opened this week between Local 64, Newsreel Cameramen, an IATSE union with headquarters in New York, and Pat Casey, labor relations representative for the producers.

Wallis in New York For Play Material

Hal B. Wallis, who recently signed with Warner Brothers as a unit producer, arrived in New York from Hollywood last week and is currently discussing the screen rights to "Watch on the Rhine," an anti-Nazi play by Lillian Hellman, now on Broadway. He is also considering "The Corn Is Green," in which Ethel Barrymore appeared, he disclosed.

The Warner studio announced on January 5th that the company had completed a deal whereby "Watch on the Rhine" would be brought to the screen under the guidance of Herman Shumlin, who produced the play.

Mr. Wallis arrived in New York accompanied by Casey Robinson and Philip G. Epstein, Warner writers. He said he planned four or five pictures a year and would begin production on his return in a few days. His first picture will be "Desperate Journey," with Errol Flynn and Ronald Reagan, which Raoul Walsh will direct.

She WENT OUT FOR A WALK... AND CAME HOME WITH A BABY!

And what a Wonder Baby
she adopts, BABY COREY!

The LADY IS WILLING

MARLENE DIETRICH · FRED MACMURRAY
in MITCHELL LEISEN'S
THE LADY IS WILLING

$5 Membership in Variety for Duration

Variety Clubs of America, in an effort to enlist, for membership, show-people throughout the country, has set a $5 annual membership fee, valid for the duration of the war. The reduced fee will entitle members to all Variety privileges except voting or holding office. At the end of the war, members affiliated under reduced dues will have the option of joining Variety at the regular membership rate.

National Chief Barker John H. Harris explained the plan this week in Pittsburgh, following initial announcement last week that Variety would take the lead in organizing a solid front of all persons connected with the film industry so that industry activity in the war effort and charity drives connected with war and defense may be more efficiently coordinated. As reported in MOTION PICTURE HERALD of January 24th, special attention will be directed at exchange staffs and theatre managers to join their local tents.

Committees are now being appointed by the chief barkers in each tent to organize membership drives. Variety aims to make its clubs 100 per cent representative of the amusement business including night clubs, sports, amusement parks, roller rinks, etc., by the time the "Hey Rube" drive closes on February 14th. Chief Barker Harris and assistant chief barker R. J. O'Donnell are conducting the campaign and will tour the country, organizing tents in various cities. Each local tent will create a "Hey Rube" board.

Applications for the special class of membership are now in the mails and will be in the hands of club members who will contact prospects immediately. A complete manual for organization of these membership drives is being prepared by Mr. Harris and Paul Short, assistant chairmen of the drive committee charged with handling of drives in the existing tents.

More than 200 Cleveland Variety Club members and guests turned out last Saturday night for the first big affair of the year, held at the Allerton Hotel. Lester Zucker, Columbia branch manager, was installed as chief barker of Tent No. 6 for 1942. Frank Boyd was given a testimonial of friendship upon resigning as local sales representative for American Seating Company to go into business for himself in New York. Other Variety Club officers installed were: first assistant barker, Harry H. Goldstein; second assistant, Charles Albert; treasurer, I. J. Schmertz; secretary, Edwin R. Bergman. Directors are: Jack Sogg, Frank Drew, Nat Lefton, Charles Rich, Nat Branch, Nat Wolf, M. B. Horowitz, Dave Miller and Jerome M. Friedlander.

A special brochure, headlined "The Variety Club of Texas, the Heart of Show Business, Joins Hands with Uncle Sam," was sent out this week from Dallas, by R. E. Griffith, chief barker of Tent No. 17, urging all members to co-operate in an "all-out campaign to sell more U. S. defense stamps in the 960 theatres of Texas."

Formal installation of officers for Detroit's Variety Club, was held last Monday night at the Book Cadillac Hotel, at which Dave Idzal, chief barker, announced that the Variety Club of Detroit has been changed in name to the

HERALD PEOPLE

By Staff Photographer

CHARLOTTE WALKER, born in Massachusetts and educated in New York City, came to Quigley Publications along with Motion Picture News. She is employed in the circulation department, where she works on the never-ending task of keeping Motion Picture Herald subscriptions up-to-date.

In her leisure hours she putters about the garden, sees occasional hockey games and can manage a horse as well as she can a subscription. She dreams about a castle in Maine, or at least a New England cottage, done in early American.

Variety Club of Michigan. Excepting the upper peninsula, the club will take in the entire state. Directors for 1942 include: Mr. Idzal and barkers Earl Hudson, Lew Wisper, Wade Allen, John McPherson, Ray Branch, Larry Becker, Ed Kirchner, Charles Perry, John Howard and David Newman.

A "reorganization" meeting was called by members of Omaha Variety Club for this Saturday night, January 31st, at the Hotel Paxton in that city, where new quarters are to be opened. The Omaha tent is planning to put the club on a "war basis" for the duration. Reorganization plans include: $6 a year membership fee; no initiation fee; "drafting" D. V. McLucas, United Artists branch manager, as chief barker; an extensive membership drive and the operation of the club on a "conservative basis."

Albany Variety tent is running a Monte Carlo Night for the benefit of the "March of Dimes" this Saturday night, January 31st, at the Hotel Ten Eyck. Chief Barker Louis H. Golding, Fabian divisional manager, turned over 600 dimes, or a dollar for each year of President Roosevelt's life, to the local "March of Dimes" headquarters this week in behalf of the tent.

Induction of officers of the Baltimore Variety Club, Tent No. 19, took place last week. J. Louis Rome, national canvasman, presided. Officers for 1942 are: Bernard Seaman, chief barker; Edward Perotka, first assistant chief barker; Rodney Collier, second assistant; Frank H. Durkee, treasurer; Barry Goldman, secretary and canvasmen W. C. Hicks, Lauritz Garman, Joseph C. Grant, Howard Burman and Leonard McLaughlin.

City Population 87% Filmgoers Survey Shows

A study of film-going habits of a cross-section of New York, largest metropolitan area in the country, disclose that 87.4 per cent of those interviewed attended motion picture theatres within one month preceding the interviews.

This and other movie factors relating to New Yorkers were reported Monday by the Motion Picture Research Bureau, Dr. Leo Handel, director, from a study undertaken in Manhattan, Brooklyn, Queens and the Bronx, during December, 1941, sponsored by the Office of Radio Research of Columbia University which is headed by Dr. Paul F. Lazarsfeld, psychologist.

The frequency of film attendance of those interviewed is as follows: two times monthly, 19.3 per cent; five times, 30.7; six to nine times, 17.7; over nine times, 9.7. The average movie attendance is three and a half to four times a month.

An equal number of men and women were questioned, it was reported, in an age, income and occupational cross-section. Dr. Handel pointed out, "Consideration should be given to the fact that, during the period covered by this investigation, many of the top productions of the year hit the large New York circuits."

The study revealed, "Two types of moviegoers: persons who, when they plan to go to a show, have a particular picture in mind and those who 'just want to go to the movies' and attend partly of their own volition and partly because someone else suggested it." Those who said they went to the movies at least once a month were classified as follows, their latest movie visit being considered:

36% had a particular show in mind when they attended
50% just felt like going to see any picture
11% attended because someone else suggested it
3% had miscellaneous other reasons

The time factor in film attendance and other determinants in the study are detailed, according to results, as follows:

Free at this particular time.....	30%
Nothing else to do, to pass time.....	21%
Go usually this day.....	12%
Had the opportunity.....	9%
Just felt like going.....	8%
To see picture in time.....	6%
Particular picture in neighborhood.....	5%
For relaxation.....	4%
Other.....	5%
No particular reason.....	4%

The extent to which radio programs compete with movie attendance was tested. Interviewees were asked whether it had ever happened that they had had to choose between going to see a picture and listening to a radio program; 25 per cent said "Yes."

The bureau currently has in work a study to determine how the attendance of persons who are hard of hearing can be increased. It is expected that these results will be announced early in February.

Fox Conference Opens

A week of preparatory conferences on the 1942-43 product began Tuesday in Los Angeles at the Twentieth Century-Fox studios. Sidney R. Kent, T. J. Connors and Herman Wobber are conferring with Joseph M. Schenck, Darryl F. Zanuck and William Goetz. Following the studio conferences Mr. Connors will visit several of the company's western exchanges before returning to New York.

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Columbia

BLONDE FROM SINGAPORE: Florence Rice, Lief Erickson—This is one of the first of the new year's crop. Not bad for a filler. The usual action stuff. Boy chases girl. Crooks chase girl. Boy gets crooks and girl. It will do if nothing else is to be had. Running time, 69 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

HERE COMES MR. JORDAN: Robert Montgomery, Claude Rains—A fairly good comedy that did no business here. We cannot get our patrons excited over Montgomery anymore. This feature was exceptionally well made and doubtless would do better elsewhere. Running time, 93 minutes. Played January 7, 8.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small town patronage.

HERE COMES MR. JORDAN: Robert Montgomery, Claude Rains, Edward Everett Horton—This fantastic offering did not go over here, even though it had been highly advertised by the city near us just two weeks previous. Those who did come said, "What's it all about," and I am wondering the same thing. Now I have less faith than ever in so-called critics. They must be just as nutty as the fellow who conceived this goofy story. Running time, 93 minutes. Played January 17-18.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

HERE COMES MR. JORDAN: Robert Montgomery, Claude Rains—Not outstanding as a box office attraction. However, it gave universal satisfaction to those that were present and produced some word of mouth advertising. The public does not know what the title stands for and consequently is hard to put across. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 14, 15.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

LADIES IN RETIREMENT: Louis Hayward, Ida Lupino—You will do well if you can keep the men in there on this one. Women will like it if you can get them in to see it, but don't look for too many. They won't bring the husband or boy friend and he won't stay if they do. If you can eliminate, do so. Played December 21, 23.—D. E. Burnett, State Theatre, Larned, Kansas. General patronage.

LADIES IN RETIREMENT: Ida Lupino, Louis Hayward—A picture well produced with excellent acting, but it is "dated" and too heavy for small towns.—Raymon Paul, Seabreeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town patronage.

MEN IN HER LIFE: Loretta Young, Conrad Veidt, Dean Jagger—Like "Ladies in Retirement" it is a good picture but will not go over in small towns. A picture like this brings patrons in that come about once in six months, but it drives the regular customers away. We very seldom have walkouts, but we had plenty on this.—Raymon Paul, Seabreeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town patronage.

OUR WIFE: Melvyn Douglas, Ruth Hussey—A fair romantic comedy that brought universal satisfaction and returns at the box office. The tempo is slowed down considerably by long passages of dialogue which tends to place it in the adult rating, rather than mixed audience. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 11, 12.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

SING FOR YOUR SUPPER: Jinx Falkenburg, Charles Buddy Rogers—A good title, and good names for the marquee on top of double bill picture pleased all and is more entertainment than many of the super-dupers. Played January 1.—D. E. Burnett, State Theatre, Larned, Kansas. General patronage.

TEXAS: William Holden, Glenn Ford, Claire Trevor—They don't come any better. Business fair for this time of the year. No kicks so it must be good. Played December 15, 17.—M. Bailey, Strand Theatre, Dryden, Ontario, Can. Small town patronage.

THIS THING CALLED LOVE: Rosalind Russell, Melvyn Douglas, Binnie Barnes—Everybody said they liked it. Business good, although weather very cold. Played January 1, 3.—M. Bailey, Strand Theatre, Dryden, Ontario, Can. Small town patronage.

TWO IN A TAXI: Anita Louise, Russell Hayden, Noah Beery, Jr.—I have yet to see a picture that was so bad that there wasn't at least one good point of interest. But this one doesn't even have that. Why producers waste their time, our money and the public's interest is beyond me. Who wants to sit and see a very uninteresting story about the troubles of a hack driver? I don't and neither do my patrons. They

This is the original exhibitors' reports department, established October 14, 1916. In it the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box-office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address your reports to— come to be entertained and relax; not to sit and be reminded of their troubles. As a box office attraction, this is definitely not. Running time, 62 minutes. Played January 2, 3.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

TWO LATINS FROM MANHATTAN: Joan Davis, Jinx Falkenburg, Joan Woodbury—This one was a real surprise to us. We expected just another low-bracket musical comedy, but as it turned out, it was good. Joan Davis has never been better and the patrons said the same. The comedy in this one is really smart and humorous. If your patrons don't go for slap-stick and they like good, smart comedy, then this one is it. A standard story, good musical numbers, comedy and good acting make this one good for any Sunday playdate. Running time, 65 minutes. Played January 9, 10.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

VOICE IN THE NIGHT, THE (Distributed in Canada under the title, WILHELMSTRASSE 110): Clive Brook, Diana Wynyard—A very fine propaganda picture. Did only average business.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE: Spencer Tracy, Lana Turner, Ingrid Bergman—Metro seems to believe that they can remake any feature and sell it to the trade. Our patrons seem to have a different idea as a double Western bill on the previous night outgrossed this Sunday program. Miss Bergman deserves the honors in this feature as Tracy benefited by the makeup staff's assistance. Running time, 123 minutes. Played January 4, 5.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small town patronage.

DOWN IN SAN DIEGO: Bonita Granville, Ray McDonald, Dan Dailey, Jr.—A program picture that just barely paid the film rental. Played January 13, 15.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

H. M. PULHAM, ESQ.: Hedy Lamarr, Robert Young, Ruth Hussey—Good picture all the way. Fine story and the ladies were right on top of their roles, giving out. But those, but the most literate of our patrons, were not familiar with the title, or the book. Hence, we had a lot that asked what it was all about. Most of them took a chance, but some didn't, so I don't think that it grossed as much as it should have done.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

HONKY TONK: Clark Gable, Lana Turner—We really did very well at the boxoffice on this one, thank goodness. I think the picture is too slow in its mid-section for the type of person that was attracted by the cast and title. However, he first and last parts are honeys. I don't care what a picture is like as long as it will continue this kind of business. Well, we can run another week now, anyway. Running time, 105 minutes. Played January 16, 17.—W. V. Nevins III, Alfred Co-op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

LIFE BEGINS FOR ANDY HARDY: Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, Ann Rutherford—Good picture. Ranks among the best of the Hardy series. The new star, Patricia Dane, should be mentioned as good and Mickey and Judy are always good. Played January 10, 12.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

RINGSIDE MAISIE: Ann Sothern, George Murphy—I should have played this on a Sunday; how was I to know it was good? Although we had the coldest weather in years, 10 degrees below, those that came to see it enjoyed it very much. A little long for this type of picture, but nevertheless, good. If you haven't already played it, don't skip it; you won't be sorry. Running time, 95 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

SMILIN' THROUGH: Jeanette MacDonald, Brian Aherne, Gene Raymond—Very fine story and film in color. New version with more music makes a very good entertainment. I would recommend this for any spot. Running time, 100 minutes. Played January 17.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

WHISTLING IN THE DARK: Red Skelton, Ann Rutherford—Placed on the same schedule with "The Pittsburgh Kid" with just fair returns; consider it a top ranking comedy that gives universal satisfaction. Red Skelton should be a close second to Bob Hope if he does not pass him on the home stretch. Running time, 76 minutes. Played January 9, 10.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

Monogram

SIGN OF THE WOLF: Michael Whalen, Grace Bradley—What can be done with a good story and a low budget is an example of this picture. Everyone was interested and enjoyed it very much. Had some very favorable comments. It's very well done and shows good taste. It's a Jack London story about two dogs, a group of fur thieves and a beautiful Canadian woods background. Comedy and humor are evident and the acting is also good. For a program picture that will please our patrons, this one is it. Running time, 68 minutes. Played December 31, January 1.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

TOP SERGEANT MULLIGAN: Nat Pendleton, Carol Hughes—I should have been drafted rather than play this turkey. My western was better than this goose egg. If this is an example of the kind of army pictures we are to expect in the future, then I'll join the Marines. Someone told me that this was a good picture. I wish I could find him now. Maybe seeing so many pictures has spoiled my viewpoint, but I wouldn't waste the time to see this or anything like it. Running time, 69 minutes. Played January 16, 17.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

Paramount

NEW YORK TOWN: Fred MacMurray, Mary Martin—This picture is not good enough for preferred time, and too high priced for weekend. If you play mid-week, use it there. Two good stars get a bump in this vehicle. Played, December 24, 25.—D. E. Burnett, State Theatre, Larned, Kansas. General patronage.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH: Bob Hope, Paulette Goddard—It is the truth, that this picture will do business for you, and it looks like Bob Hope is going out after the big dough at the boxoffice this year. Played December 14, 17.—D. E. Burnett, State Theatre, Larned, Kansas. General patronage.

ROAD TO ZANZIBAR: Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour—It has been said that Crosby and Hope are the smoothest working team Hollywood has ever produced and this film certainly proves it. A continuous flow of comic situations and wisecracks keeps the audience in convulsions of laughter that never cease until the picture ends. Beauteous Dorothy Lamour not only adds eye-appeal; she also sings charmingly. Una Merkel joins in the fun, too, and the result is one swell comedy. Want to make your patrons forget the war, taxes, etc.? Then give 'em "Road to Zanzibar." Running time, 92 minutes. Played January 17.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS, THE: John Wayne, Betty Field, Harry Carey—Did nice business on week—end, second run. No complaints.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.
(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

WIDE OPEN TOWN: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, Andy Clyde—Played to average business. We haven't been playing the "Hoppy's," so can't tell whether this is better or worse than the other ones. It's a good, shoot-'em-up western. Running time, 78 minutes. Played January 10, 11.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazelton, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

Producers Releasing

GAMBLING DAUGHTERS: Cecilia Parker, Roger Pryor—No business on this one. Played with "Alexander's Ragtime Band."—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Republic

COUNTRY FAIR: Eddie Foy, Jr., June Clyde—This was O. K. as a filler, but had no draw here. Running time, 74 minutes. Played January 5, 7.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

DOWN MEXICO WAY: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Fay McKenzie—Good Autry picture. Played to good business on Friday-Saturday.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

DOWN MEXICO WAY: Gene Autry—This was a special but was not as good as the regulars, and surely did not justify the additional rental. Republic made two Autry specials and both were below in entertainment. However, they still draw above average.—Raymon Paul, Seabreeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town patronage.

DOWN MEXICO WAY: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Fay McKenzie—Gene Autry always goes over big here. This one has special appeal to the older patrons and brings out a good-sized crowd. This one has lots of music, action, comedy and story. I don't think there was anyone who didn't enjoy this one. Had some nice comments on it and I enjoyed it very much. It's not just a western. It's a musical travelogue with beautiful scenery and lots of everything that goes to make up a good picture. We used it as our feature. It rates it. Running time, 75 minutes. Played January 9, 10.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

FRIENDLY NEIGHBORS: Weaver Brothers and Elviry—GAY VAGABOND, THE: Roscoe Karns, Ruth Donnelly, Ernest Truex—I expected a loss on this date. I got it. But this double-bill did surprisingly well against terrific odds. Why? I dunno; I quit trying to figure 'em. I just report 'em. They liked the latter picture the better. Played December 29, 31.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

HURRICANE SMITH: Ray Middleton, Jane Wyatt—Good picture, with a little different twist, which did average business on Friday and Saturday. Both stars were good, also supporting cast. Played January 16, 17.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

LADY FOR A NIGHT: Joan Blondell, John Wayne—Good picture which failed to draw even average business. Running time, 87 minutes. Played January 14, 15.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

MELODY RANCH: Gene Autry, Jimmy Durante, Ann Miller—Gene Autry hasn't been doing the business he used to do.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

MELODY RANCH: Gene Autry, Jimmy Durante—Republic bent over backward to make this—then something ripped. Not nearly as good as some of the less pretentious of this series. The print and sound were bad. Played January 16, 17.—Eddie OrNSTein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

NEVADA CITY: Roy Rogers—If your customers like westerns, this will satisfy. Played on dual bill with "San Antonio Rose." Business good.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

PITTSBURGH KID, THE: Billy Conn, Jean Parker—This needs strong support and especially so the further you are from Pittsburgh, Billy Conn's home town. The plot is the old chestnut type of the pug and his moll, and is not entertaining any more in this day and age. Running time, 76 minutes. Played January 9, 10.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

POISON PEN: Flora Robson—Republic should be ashamed.—Raymon Paul, Seabreeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town patronage.

RED RIVER VALLEY: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes—Good western which pleased the Friday-Saturday fans. Running time, 56 minutes. Played January 16, 17.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

SUNSET IN WYOMING: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—See review on "Dance Hall." Played January 9, 10.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small town patronage.

I receive so much value from your "What the Picture Did for Me", I thought that I should send in a few reports.—M. BAILEY, Strand Theatre, Dryden, Ontario, Canada.

RKO Radio

CYCLONE ON HORSEBACK: Tim Holt, Marjorie Reynolds—Very good western. Holt well liked here. Business under par due to sub-zero weather. Played January 10, 11.—Eddie OrNSTein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

CYCLONE ON HORSEBACK: Tim Holt—Filled the bill on the second half of our program. Business good.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

LADY SCARFACE: Dennis O'Keefe, Francis Neal, Judith Anderson—Here is a program picture that is above the second rating class. Although it's not a feature attraction, it is, however, a good picture. It has a fairly good story with some good acting and the action is well divided between the comedy scenes. If you have an attraction that is not top-rating then book this with it. It will bring your program up to a better rating. Running time, 66 minutes. Played January 25, 27.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

VIVACIOUS LADY (Reissue): Ginger Rogers, James Stewart—I made a deal with RKO for this one in place of using "Tom, Dick and Harry," and while the same terms were used—what a sweet deal it proved to be. Business was excellent, while some remarked they had seen it before. Most everyone enjoyed seeing it again so there was universal satisfaction all the way around. Running time, 99 minutes. Played January 18, 19.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

ALEXANDER'S RAGTIME BAND: Tyrone Power, Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Ethel Merman—No business. Can't explain why. Played second run.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

CADET GIRL: Carole Landis, George Montgomery—Good little musical show which pleased average business. Running time, 69 minutes. January 11, 12.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

CHARLIE CHAN IN RIO: Sidney Toler, Mary Beth Hughes—See review on "Law of the Tropics." Running time, 62 minutes. Played January 20.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

DANCE HALL: Carole Landis, Cesar Romero—This is a gay, fast-moving comedy that pleased all. Did very good mid-week business. Wish some of the Fox specials had this much entertainment in them. Played January 14, 15.—Eddie OrNSTein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

DANCE HALL: Cesar Romero, Carole Landis—We double billed this feature with "Sunset in Wyoming" and was grateful for the business that Autry brought in. Running time, 75 minutes. Played January 9, 10.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small town patronage.

GREAT GUNS: Laurel & Hardy—Among the best Laurel & Hardy pictures, and will do a nice gross on the week-end. Plenty of corny comedy that will roll 'em in the aisles. Played December 14, 17.—D. E. Burnett, State Theatre, Larned, Kansas. General patronage.

LAST OF THE DUANES: George Montgomery, Lynn Roberts—See review on "Submarine D-1." Running time, 57 minutes. Played January 16, 17.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

MARRY THE BOSS'S DAUGHTER: Betty Joyce, Bruce Edwards—Little program picture which just got by on Family Night. Will not stand alone. Running time, 60 minutes. Played January 13.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

MOON OVER MIAMI: Don Ameche, Betty Grable, Robert Cummings—Very good. Customers like these color musicals. Charlotte Greenwood stole part of the picture with her comedy. Give us more of these. Played January 5, 7.—Daniel Korman, Palace Theatre, Englehart, Ontario, Can. Small town patronage.

PRIVATE NURSE: Brenda Joyce, Robert Lowery—See review on "Smiling Ghost." Running time, 61 minutes. Played January 13.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

SWAMP WATER: Walter Brennan, Walter Huston, Ann Baxter—They don't come out into the lobby to smoke on this one, and they all like it, too. Plenty of suspense, action and drama in this one, and you'll like the figures at the boxoffice, too. Preferred timesell hard.—D. E. Burnett, State Theatre, Larned, Kansas. General patronage.

WEEKEND IN HAVANA: Alice Faye, Carmen Miranda, John Payne—Ran this with "Niagara Falls" to average returns (and average these days is none too good). Nice color, good music. But inclined to be slow except when Carmen Miranda is on the screen. She really has a good part in this one and does a good job of it. However, your audience will like it if it like others of these color musicals. Played January 15.—W. V. Nevins III, Alfred Co-op Theatre, Alfred, New York. Small college town patronage.

United Artists

LYDIA: Merle Oberon, Alan Marshal—In spite of a good story, and good acting, 104 minutes of straight dialogue can get very tiresome. There was no action, no comedy, just a tangle of Oberon's loves. Much too arty and highbrow for the general run of patrons. As such, it will appeal to the higher class of clientele. That is not where the money is made. But it is still a better bet than some of the cheap program pictures.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

NIAGARA FALLS: Tom Brown, Marjorie Woodworth, Slim Summerville—Made a real vacation of it by running this with "Weekend in Havana" to average returns. The odd length is handy here where I have to think of getting the students back to the dormitories at certain times. It is quite funny and the folks seemed to be enjoying themselves. That's enough for me. Running time, 43 minutes. Played January 15.—W. V. Nevins III, Alfred Co-op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

PALOOKA: Jimmy Durante, Lupe Velez, Stuart Erwin—On the strength of Durante's comeback I brought this old one back. I wasn't sorry. If they go for Durante, then this one is a natural. Even though it's old, it's still good and so are the gags that he uses. Palooka is all right for an open spot. Running time, 73 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

SCARFACE: Paul Muni, Ann Dvorak, George Raft—Here is an old one that has always brought in a crowd. This time is no exception. If you want something to fill those empty seats then book this. Of course it will bring in a lot of rough trade that you never see, but it brings them in. The print was a new one, but kind of washy. It's the same as when it first came out. With the exception of a few cuts. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 11, 13.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich.

Universal

MAN WHO LOST HIMSELF, THE: Brian Aherne, Kay Francis—Business very bad on this one. Have yet to do business on Kay Francis in any theatre.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

NICE GIRL?: Deanna Durbin, Franchot Tone, Robert Stack, Robert Benchley—Although played late, had very many satisfactory comments. Good picture all through. Deanna's singing most thoroughly enjoyed. Played January 12, 14.—Daniel Korman, Palace Theatre, Englehart, Ontario, Can. Small town patronage.

SAN ANTONIO ROSE: Jane Frazee, Robert Paige, Eve Arden—Plenty of entertainment in this, a cheaply produced musical, that satisfies everyone.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Warner Bros.-First National

DEVIL DOGS OF THE AIR (Re-issue): James Cagney, Pat O'Brien—Despite the worst print I've ever run, this was O. K. Business above average. Played January 11, 12.—Eddie OrNSTein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

DIVE BOMBER: Errol Flynn, Fred MacMurray—This super production has a lot of airplanes, beautiful color, and a good story. I think they could have done the same thing in a shorter version, and then we all could have gone home earlier. The patrons enjoyed it, some thought there were too many airplanes. Although I didn't see all of it I don't think I missed anything of importance. Running time, 132 minutes. Played January 18-20.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

INTERNATIONAL SQUADRON: Ronald Reagan—A natural. Just what the doctor ordered, and what the head office likes, because it has B. O. Play it, brother, by all means.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

LAW OF THE TROPICS: Constance Bennett, Jeffrey Lynn—Doubled with "Charlie Chan in Rio" from Fox, to fair business considering a strong opposition at the High School Gym, where they were conducting a benefit entertainment for the local draftees. There was nothing particularly exciting about either feature to attract or entertain. Running time, 76 minutes. Played January 20.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

MEET JOHN DOE: Gary Cooper, Barabara Stanwyck, Edward Arnold—A real good picture that did nice business. Tie-up with the American Pad and Textile Co. Gave away a gross of gloves.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

MILLION DOLLAR BABY: Priscilla Lane, Jeffrey Lynn, Ronald Reagan, May Robson—This was a very good program picture and very much enjoyed by my audience. Kind of down-to-earth entertainment. The only disappointment was that the orchestra in the night club scene did not play long enough and the song, "Who Was In Your Dreams Tonight," should have been sung all through. Running time, 100 minutes. Played January 10.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

NAVY BLUES: Ann Sheridan, Jack Oakie, Martha Raye, Jack Haley—For the New Year's crowd this was right down their alley like a cached bottle of Scotch, and it stood up nicely for three days, which gives it a slight edge over a few of the "first-nighters." It's very light stuff geared strictly for laughs. Martha Raye's prominent part is worthy of particular note inasmuch as it is subdued to the point where even her severest critics were moved to favorable comment. Running time, 108 minutes. Played January 1-3.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

OUT OF THE FOG: Ida Lupino, John Garfield, Thomas Mitchell—I'm still in a fog, after playing this one. Very little draw. Too bad to use such stars in such a picture. Played January 16, 17.—Daniel Korman, Palace Theatre, Englehart, Ontario, Can. Small town patronage.

SMILING GHOST: Brenda Marshall, Wayne Morris—A program offering used with "Private Nurse" from Twentieth Century, which proved to be a boxoffice attraction. The kids turned out to see the ghost, and the adults followed to get a glimpse at the nurse. Running time, 71 minutes. Played January 13.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

SUBMARINE DI: Pat O'Brien, Wayne Morris—This re-issue has been hanging fire for a year or more, at last on account of what's happening, decide to set it in as the top half of a double bill along with "Last of the Duanees," from Fox. It proved its worth at the boxoffice and did an excellent job. If you are able to get a print I would advise you to use it at this time. Very instructive to the younger generation. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 16, 17.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

HOOLA BOOLA: Madcap Models—Weakest of this series. Running time, 8 8minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

MARINE ROUND-UP: Grantland Rice Sportlights—Real good.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

NOTHING BUT NERVES: Benchley Comedies—Average Benchley comedy. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

QUIZ KIDS SERIES, THE: Quiz Kids—Radio has pre-sold this subject. Cash in on it with a little publicity of your own; it will build business. You'll do enough extra business that this short will not cost you a cent.—D. E. Burnett, State Theatre, Larned, Kan. General patronage.

RHYTHM IN THE RANKS: Mapcap Models—This is really a business-building short subject. Don't use as a fill-in, but exploit it; you will be surprised at the number of people that appreciate knowing when you are playing good short subjects.—D. E. Burnett, State Theatre, Larned, Kan. General patronage.

SNOW DOGS: Spotlight—Here's a short that won the unanimous approval of our entire audience. Everyone had a good word for it and it is our belief that it will be enjoyed anywhere. The dogs are wonderful and it is thrilling to watch the huskies at work amid beautiful winter surroundings. The antics of the Saint Bernard pups are sure to win many "ah's" and "oh's" from your patrons. Don't miss this one! Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

RKO Radio

APPLE IN HIS EYE: Edgar Kennedy—Of all the Kennedy comedies, this one is about the best. There isn't much in it, but the patrons eat it up, and how. It's an old-time pie-slinging comedy. Everybody throws pies and everybody gets hit. The patrons laugh themselves sick. I didn't. Running time, 14 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

DOG OBEDIENCE: Sportscope—This shows how dogs are trained and will amaze your audience as well as get a couple of good laughs out of them. Well worth playing. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

FIRE MAN, THE: Leon Errol Comedies—For those of us who have been in this business for any length of time, we've seen this before. For the patrons it's not bad. They laugh and some like it. It's passable comedy fare. Leon is the man the boss always fires to please the customers. They get into a little trouble. It's funny. So-so. Running time, 19 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

IT HAPPENED ALL NIGHT: Edgar Kennedy—This one is a little above par. It has more story than the usual run of this series. My patrons liked it very much. Edgar is a constable in a small rural town. Nothing ever happens. At least, not that he can see. The town has a run of gangsters, right under his nose, but he doesn't see them. Running time, 18 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

MARCH OF TIME, NO. 5: "Our America At War"—This one, "America At War," is really a shortened version of "The Ramparts We Watch," so the title is misleading. People thought they would see scenes of this war, not the last one. Although it is well put together, my folks resented seeing things over again. Running time, 20 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

MARCH OF TIME, NO. 5: "Our America At War"—Very good issue. Keep getting better with each new issue and are very timely. Early release.—Daniel Korman, Palace Theatre, Englehart, Ontario, Can. Small town patronage.

MARCH OF TIME SPECIAL: "Battlefields of the Pacific"—Again Time comes through with a timely issue. Received early release on same. Issue very good and interesting.—Daniel Korman, Palace Theatre, Englehart, Ontario, Can. Small town patronage.

PICTURE PEOPLE, NO. 2: Hollywood Sports—A perfect example of a filler (and I don't mean dentist). Running time, 9 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

PICTURE PEOPLE, NO. 7: When these subjects first came out they were very poorly recorded and filmed. But since then, they have improved a lot. This one is good. It has a variety of subjects ending with Jack Benny and Rochester. All in all, fairly good. Running time, 10 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

PRAIRIE SPOONERS: Ray Whitley Comedies—Good two-reel musical western. Running time, 20 min.—(Continued on following page)

Short Features

Columbia

NO CENSUS, NO FEELING: Stooges—This always brings them in and I know they like them for they stay until the comedy is played the second time.—H. M. Gerber, Roxy Theatre, Hazleton, N. D. Small town and rural patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

ALLEY CAT, THE: Technicolor Cartoon—Here is what I call a real cartoon. It's not silly or slapstick. It runs a full single reel and does a good job of that. It's just what the title says. The story of an alley cat that goes up into society. Cat society. With a very good musical background, this one will please everyone. Running time, 10 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

FANCY ANSWERS: Pete Smith Specialties—Clever and humorous Pete Smith quiz reel, although some of the questions are old standbys. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

INSIDE PASSAGE: FitzPatrick Traveltalk—Very good travelogue in color and interesting. Running time, 10 minutes.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

SCENIC GRANDEUR: FitzPatrick Traveltalks—Another travel talk in color. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

Paramount

BOB CHESTER AND ORCHESTRA: Headliners—One of the best of its type. It went over big here, and deservedly so, for the music and vocal numbers are exceptionally well done. Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

BUYING A DOG: Sportlights—Good sport reel. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

DELHI: Fascinating Journeys—Very timely.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

—and when he woke up he was Married

The LADY IS WILLING

MARLENE DIETRICH • FRED MACMURRAY
"MITCHELL LEISEN'S"
THE LADY IS WILLING

COLUMBIA PICTURES

(Continued from preceding page)

utes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

PUT-PUT TROUBLES: Walt Disney Cartoons—When the patrons laugh all the way through, it must be good. If you buy Disney, don't miss this one. Donald goes fishing and the fun starts. You'll enjoy it and so will your patrons. Running time, 7 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

VILLAGE SMITHY, THE: Walt Disney Cartoons—As usual, Disney hands us a laugh-crowded color cartoon. Very good. Running time, 8 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

MOVIETONE NEWS: We used it for six years and like it.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Universal

BLACKSMITH DENTIST: Stranger Than Fiction—Our patrons don't like this series. Just something to kill time. Running time, 10 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

DOIN' THE TOWN: Musical—Boy, oh, boy, is this unfunny. Nothing to it. Universal better start putting something in these two-reelers. Running time, 18 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

IN THE GROOVE: Musicals—Here is a peppy group of entertainers and an orchestra that really put on a good show. The audience complimented it on the way out. Running time, 16 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

RHYTHM REVEL: Musical—Play this one; it's packed full of entertainment.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Vitaphone

CARNIVAL OF RHYTHM: Technicolor Specials—Warning, Mr. Exhibitor! Do not play this; it will kill your show. Never had so many complaints.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

RHAPSODY IN RIVETS: Merrie Melodies Cartoon—You might call this a partial burlesque of Fantasia. No matter what you call it, it is a very, very clever cartoon showing the building of a skyscraper to the Second Hungarian Rhapsody music. My audience laughed a great deal and praised it afterward. Running time, 9 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

SIOUX ME: Merrie Melodies—As is with most of these cartoons, they are good. Everyone enjoyed this one. It has some good gags and is up to standard. Running time, 7 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

SNIEFLES BELLS THE CAT: Merrie Melodies—Enjoyed by the kiddies and grown-ups alike. Good colored cartoon. Running time, 9 minutes.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

Serials Columbia

IRON CLAW, THE (Chapter 13): Charles Quigley, Walter Sande, Joyce Bryant—Why we ever played this one is beyond me. It gets worse every chapter. Well, only two more to go. Each chapter is the same, two reporters fight a game of fifteen men, a girl screams too much, secret doors fly open, a couple of nuts run in and out and then they call it action and drama. This one had all of its story in the first episode. Running time, 18 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

IRON CLAW, THE (Chapter 14): Charles Quigley, Walter Sande, Joyce Bryant—As I write this, the chapter is just starting on the screen. It sounds like a four alarm fire, everyone was running out. We can hardly wait until next week. It's the last chapter. The only good thing about this one is the closing of the 15th episode; it says "The End." I bet I'll get a lot of cheers on that. Running time, 18 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

IRON CLAW, THE (Chapter 15): Charles Quigley, Walter Sande, Joyce Bryant—At last. I never thought I'd live to see the day when this goose would come to an end. Boy! what a relief! If you haven't yet started this, then don't. Anything else is better than 15 weeks of this. Ask anyone who's seen it. As a rule, serials go over here, even with the adults, but not this one. Running time, 17 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

Pennsylvania Asks Licenses For 'Jukes'

Coin-operated movie machines, now being increasingly used in Pennsylvania, may be operated only if the necessary amusement permit is procured. A notice to that effect was sent out by the Pennsylvania State Liquor Control Board to all licensees. The Panoram Soundies are the only movie machines distributed in Pennsylvania, and the board, in its notice, identified such machines by name as "a mechanical musical device with a moving picture attachment."

No amusement permit is required for the record juke-boxes if dancing is prohibited. However, the showing of a sound movie through a coin machine places the machine in another class of entertainment, construed as being a regular moving picture exhibition, subject to the State Beverage Law making it unlawful to permit "in any licensed premises a moving picture exhibition of any sort, unless the licensee shall have first obtained from the board a special permit to provide such entertainment." The special amusement permit is issued by application to the State Liquor Board.

Injunction Asked

Following this proclamation by the State Liquor Board the Dauphin County Court has directed the board to show cause why an injunction should not be granted Harrisburg Soundies, Inc., distributors of Panoram, restraining the Board from demanding amusement permits in connection with movie machine operation in bars and taverns.

The Pittsburgh city license fee for amusement coin machines was increased from $25 to $50 per year. With approximately 3,000 coin games and machines in the city it is estimated that this year's revenue will be about $150,000.

A coin phonograph is being used in the City Council building in Pittsburgh, to boost the sale of defense stamps. When a person buys a defense stamp at the booth in the public building where the machine is located, an attendant asks the buyer's request and then plays it. The machine was installed by an operator who also handles amusement games whose tax was doubled.

From Washington, D. C., the Treasury Department acknowledged receipts of $4,708,696 from pinball and slot for the last three months of 1941. It did not disclose particulars on the payment. A $10-a-year tax on pinball games and movie machines and a $50 tax on slot machines went into effect October 1st, 1941. In some states the machines are illegal.

In Albany, N. Y., Senator Edward Coughlin has reintroduced a measure to amend the tax law relative to imposing a tax on operation of vending machines for unemployment relief purposes. The tax would be on a sliding scale according to the worth of the machine used from $1 a year up to $100.

Norwich Theatre Acquired

Loew-Poli division has added the 800-seat Broadway, Norwich, Conn., to its roster in that territory, and changed its name to the Loew-Poli. The lease which Warner's have held on this old Poli house for over ten years, expired January 1, 1942, and the house is now closed until after February 1st, for reseating, new marquee, painting and decorating, and other repairs. The first run policy will be continued, but no other details of policy have been announced.

MURDER IN THE DEATH HOUSE!

★ Surprise hit of the year!
The sensation-packed story
...of a murder committed right before the eyes of a roomful of crime experts and reporters!

A MONOGRAM PICTURE

"I Killed THAT MAN"

Produced by MAURICE KING
Associate Producer FRANKLIN KING
Directed by PHIL ROSEN
Screenplay by BENNY BANCROFT - Original Story
by LEONARD FIELDS and DAVID SILVERSTEIN

WITH
Joan WOODBURY • Pat GLEASON
George PEMBROKE • Iris ADRIAN

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

An international association of showmen meeting weekly in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

A-MIKE VOGEL, Chairman and Editor

GERTRUDE MERRIAM, Associate Editor

WHAT TO DO?

Last week's news section carried advices from Lowell Mellett, Coordinator of Government Films, that Hollywood's chief service for duration is to "stay right here on the job making pictures".

We refer the same sound advice to theatremen wondering what they can do to help the American war cause, in these words, "Stay right there on the job at the theatre and exploit the theatre possibilities to sell stamps and bonds; tie in wherever possible to publicize and glamourize air raid precautions; ensure that the theatre's importance in maintaining public morale is fully realized."

What Round Tablers are now doing in these directions, and reporting to this department, seconds the value of the above suggestions. Promotions, carried in last week's issue and in this, point to an unlimited field of defense cooperation, in many instances at no expense to the boxoffice, with other hookups paying off in unsolicited publicity and added prestige.

For the guidance of theatremen "seeking to do" are offered the previews for air raid wardens and defense leaders of appropriate screen subjects by Lou Hart and Morris Rosenthal. The features were timely and inspiring. The managers were applauded by press and public. Tied to a herald by Charlie Pincus on a recent attraction was a detailed listing of official air raid instructions. On a following page is reproduced an ad layout from Tom Jefferson, the copy and layout tying in ingeniously with a test blackout recently held in Miami.

* * *

Sales of stamps and bonds are being pushed vigorously with such splendid promotions as reported in this issue by Don Alldritt, Boyd Scott and Tom Soriero. Alldritt arranges a series of stamps shows with newspaper and merchant cooperation. Scott gives penny folders to encourage stamp-buying. Soriero gets a whale of a break by donating the theatre for a newspaper stamp-drive. New Year's Eve was made more stamp-conscious by "Bic" Bickerstaff who tied stamps to balloons let loose at the height of his midnight party. And bond-selling socialites seeking a popular center to offer their wares might locate in the theatre, as they did in Rochester on Les Pollock's invitation.

* * *

The field of civic activities makes another flexible springboard for the duty-conscious. Participation in club programs places the manager in a strategic spot to lend himself and his theatre. In Houston, Texas, Francis Deering was recently

All hail, Arnold Stoltz, manager of Warners Avon, Utica, New York.

And all hail, Frank Bickerstaff, manager of the Lucas & Jenkins Palace in Athens, Georgia.

Voted the 1941 Quigley Silver and Bronze Grand Awards by the Judging Committee, at the Hotel Astor, on Tuesday, the Round Tablers selected for the year's showmanship honors may well be proud of their inspiring accomplishments.

Details of the judging and photos of the ceremonies are carried in the news section of this issue. It all makes the finest of reading.

elected to the presidency of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. A member for years, Deering gave himself unsparingly to aid community progress. Editorial applause in the Houston press on his election indicates that the Round Tabler will be continuing to give himself for the war cause.

The instances here noted are current trickles swelling to a raging flood of leadership by theatremen taking their places in the front line of defense. They are not preoccupied with wonder on what to do. They are too engaged to have any time at all to wonder.

▽ ▽ ▽

A MAN AND HIS JOB

The rise of Gus Eyssell is no Horatio Alger story. It does follow the old-fashioned thinking that a man who sets himself to do a job, continues to do it honestly with judgment and skill while earning the respect and affection of those with whom he labors, like as not winds up with as heavy an assignment as his shoulders can carry.

There is only one Radio City Music Hall. There are many other situations relatively as important to theatremen giving everything for the boxoffice with the same sincerity and hard-hitting which Eyssell exemplifies.

A-Mike Vogel

ROUND TABLE IN PICTURES

Indirect lighting high-lighted lobby display created by Fred Curtice at the Uptown, in San Francisco, for "Weekend in Havana". Simulated terrace on which principals were dancing, together with palm trees and artificial leaves, added to the atmospheric effect.

Cutout figures of Rooney and Garland, manipulated on strings attached to turntable, featured the display utilized by Francis Deering for his date on "Babes on Broadway" at Loew's, in Houston.

Giant cutout falcon was used for lobby setpiece by S. G. Gillespie ahead of "Maltese Falcon" at the Marks Theatre, in Oshawa, Ontario. Two small bulbs planted in eyes of bird and installed on flasher provided animation, title and cast imprinted on wing-spread.

Another example of potent "relax" copy is the giant poster by Maury Ashmann, Interboro circuit zone manager, placed conspicuously in the lobby of the Trylon, Forest Hills, Long Island.

Street-stopper that attracted, for Marty Burnett's date on "They Died With Their Boots On" at Loew's Penn, Pittsburgh, was tepee planted at side wall of theatre. Usher in full Indian regalia was seated outside.

LATE EXPLOITATION FLASHES

JUNIOR LEAGUERS SELL BONDS ON "BUGLE CALLS"

Planned by Les Pollock for "The Bugle Calls" at Loew's, Rochester, was a Junior League tiein wherein the socialites would sell Defense Bonds in the lobby for a week ahead. Booth was to be set up and decorated with action stills and tiein copy, and those who bought could look forward to being rewarded by a "kiss from a beautiful debutante". Recruiting offices were also set to cover bulletin boards with picture stills and credits.

For "Johnny Eager", Pollock stressed contests, newspaper tiein offering guest tickets for those naming 10 pictures in which Taylor played. Radio hookup offered star photos of Taylor and Turner to those who would send in a card telling why they would like to have one of the pictures.

TEXANS FROM BENCHLEY SEE BENCHLEY SHORT

Discovering there was a town called Benchley, nearby to Austin, Texas, and too small to possess a theatre, Louie Novy, Interstate city manager, and Tom McKean, Paramount field exploiteer, decided to bring the hamlet's population of 115 to Austin to see the new Benchley short, "Nothing But Nerves". This was done to the accompaniment of assistance from the Governor of Texas, the mayors of both cities, the star and the Paramount home office in New York—all amounting to a lot of publicity. The townsfolk, arriving in a motorcade headed by state police, were greeted by the Texas University band to parade to the theatre. After the show Novy put on a Texas barbecue for his guests which also landed for additional photos and stories.

Additional "shorts" ammunition from another Interstater is reported by Manager A. D. Deason, Tyler, Texas, who did the unusual by promoting a co-op page to publicize his date on FHA's technicolor short, "We Americans". Building, hardware, insurance companies and others in allied businesses took sizeable space to plug the showing.

BOSTON PICKS HUSBAND FOR "LYDIA" FOR PRIZES

For the Boston Loew's State and Orpheum date on "Lydia", Joe Longo planted a contest with the American to invite readers to select a husband for Merle Oberon, the hookup running a number of days and publicized with a series of multi-column stories and cuts. Reference to the picture's background was carried in the buildup, noting that Lydia had four admirers in the picture, and thus the contest. Answers were required to be no more than 50 words, with cash for the best six and guest tickets for the next 25.

BONDS AS PRIZES IN "BOROUGHES" DRIVE

First patron contest in Paramount's metropolitan Loew's theatres' "Battle of the Boroughs" for cash prizes to managers and public offered $50 defense bonds from Paulette Goddard for best 50-word letters on type of role fans prefer her to play—comedy or adventures. Contest copy carried in Loew's newspaper ads was tied to current dates on recent Goddard pictures of both types, "Hold Back the Dawn" and "Nothing But the Truth".

"MOST POPULAR TEACHER" ATTRACTS ON "DAWN"

Working the school teacher background of "Hold Back the Dawn" to tie public attention on the date at the Rapids, Rock Rapids, Iowa, Manager Roy H. Metcalfe sold the P.T.A., newspaper, students and merchants on a "most popular teacher" contest to bring the spotlight upon "our hard-working, unselfish legion of youth leaders," to use Ray's selling pitch. The parents association accepted the sponsorship of the two-week promotion in advance, by acting as judges and tabulating each day's voting.

The daily was induced to run voting ballots and to publicize the idea. Ballot boxes were placed in the lobby and around town. Extra ballots were given with each theatre admission. Daily results were announced at the theatre and high school, with attractive girl students on hand to push the stunt. On opening night of the picture, the entire high school attended in a body with the school band. Merchants contributed gifts in keeping and carried posters in windows to build the contest and date. Final tabulation took place in the foyer with the P.T.A. president awarding the prizes to the winner.

"CAVALCADE" TROPHY OFFERED IN CONTEST

The Silver Airline Trophy recently awarded by Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, First World War ace and Eastern Airlines head, to Universal for the company's featurette, "Cavalcade of Aviation", has been put up as a prize for the best exploitation on the added attraction, Bernie Kreiser, featurette manager, announces. Contest closes on March 15, and entries also will be eligible for the Quigley Awards.

OFFERS GUEST TICKET ON HOURLY NEWSCAST

Consistent publicizing of the theatre's attractions is effected by Manager E. G. Warren, at the Tivoli, Hamilton, Ontario, on a tiein with CHML wherein the station opens its hourly news flash with an announcement of the theatre's current program, in exchange for which Warren offers one pass to a resident whose name is picked at random from the 'phone directory. Those so called are required to 'phone the theatre within five minutes to secure the pass given the following day. At the day's end, the station 'phones the names of those selected, which are checked by the theatre against the list of those calling in to guard against error.

The news broadcasts run from 9:00 to 6:00, which commits Warren to 54 passes a week. This is the only expense to the theatremen who has so far to give out the full quota of nine on any one day's promotion. The word-of-mouth received is tremendous, he reports, with more admissions sold as a result.

L. A. FENCERS COMPETE FOR "CORSICAN" CUPS

Members of a local fencing club under the guidance of a former international champion were promoted to appear in the forecourt of the Chinese, Los Angeles, for a three-night competition hooked to the date on "Corsican Brothers." Trophies were given in the name of Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., the picture lead. Fencers worked on a raised 30-foot platform elaborately bannered, before large crowds. Through a loud speaker, the audience was kept informed of the proceedings.

In Toledo, at Loew's Valentine, Jack Lykes also made a fencing tiein with the Y.W.C.A., and fencing schools, where picture displays were posted and fencing art carried by the papers. Lykes also cracked added publicity by tying the date to the local "mountain of books" campaign for men in the armed forces.

HOLLYWOOD PREMIERE HONORS LOCAL BOY

Discovering that a former resident of Norristown, Pa., was featured in "A Man At Large", Dave Sablosky built his date at the Garrick with an elaborate "Hollywood Preview", with floodlights and other props, the guests of honor being the player's family and presented with orchids supposedly forwarded from the studio. Friends of the star turned out in numbers, the ceremonies pepped up with a speech of appreciation from the mother. Sablosky liberally posted the area on the premiere, increased his ad campaign, and received further support from the local papers,

Managers Push Defense Stamps

As to be expected, Round Tablers are in back of local projects to push the sale of Defense Bonds and Stamps, as noted currently in reports from the field on this activity. Among the outstanding cooperations is the representative job in Salina, Kan., by Manager Don H. Aldritt, of the Fox Strand, in working out a Defense Stamp Show with the County Civilian Defense Board and one of the papers.

One of the newspapermen and a member of the Board visited the merchants to explain the plan, in which each merchant was asked to contribute to a fund, one-third of which went to the theatre for expenses on the Stamp Show, another third to the paper for outside expenses, and the remaining third to the committee to be used for other similar shows that Aldritt plans to put on at six-week intervals. In exchange, the paper ran a full-page ad explaining the promotion and including names of all cooperating merchants, approval of the Defense Committee. The daily also printed window cards and tickets, the latter given to the stores for free distribution to children. For admission to the Stamp Show, the children were required to show, in addition, a stamp book carrying at least one ten cent stamp. During the performance, the youngsters, told that a contest would soon be started for prizes of stamps and also bonds, were encouraged to purchase more stamps to be eligible.

Bonds Given for Most Stamps

The money remaining for the Committee at the first show plus a similar sum to be raised for the second is to go for defense bonds of small denominations. At the second performance, the children will be asked to present their stamp books, and the one showing the largest number of stamps or books of stamps is given a defense bond, as a gift of the merchants, whose names are mentioned in the announcement. The same procedure is planned for the shows to come.

Sales of defense stamps in Racine, Wisc., were also stimulated with aid of the theatre, Stanley Lambert giving a free Saturday morning show at Warners Venetian for those presenting stamps bought at the box-office instead of tickets. The films were donated and the personnel gave their services. Enthusiastic cooperation was had from the local post office where signs were carried plugging the show. The papers got behind the party with stories and, ahead and after, radio stations also coming in to spread the word.

Scott Distributes Folders

At the Broadway, in Lubbock, Texas, "Scotty" Scott is distributing defense stamp penny folders at the boxoffice, with pennies given in change inserted in the folders by small slots. Top of front cover reads, "Fill this card with your extra pennies and buy a 10 cent defense stamp. Buy stamps at the boxoffice." At the bottom: "Defense Begins at Home. Keep 'Em Smiling." The space between is rubber-stamped with the theatre name and coming attraction, which of course is changed with each show. Each folder holds 10 pennies, creating a "nest egg" for the first stamp. Scotty says his patrons are going for the idea.

In Los Angeles, Tom Soriero broke a

THE AWARDS—

The mails continue to bring in Quigley Awards endorsements from the men in the field, and set down here is what others have to say on the value of the Competitions to the box-office and to the personal fortunes of the theatremen.

DEAR MIKE:

There is no denying the definite value and worth of the Quigley Awards both as a box-office stimulant and the builder of personal prestige for the manager. I have been fortunate enough to win both Silver and Bronze Plaques and numerous Mentions, and I am confident that this has helped my prestige immensely.

Hot Springs is a resort, and numbers of showmen come here from all parts of the country, and most of them call on me, stating that they know me through Quigley Award Competitions and Round Table activities.

I have had several advancements with my company, and I want to give credit to the Quigley Awards. Those Quigley Awards will just naturally bring out the best in a manager. W-CLYDE SMITH, City Mgr., Malco Theatres, Hot Springs, Ark.

▽

DEAR MIKE:

Equal in importance to the Academy Awards is the presentation of Awards to another branch of our vast industry—the exhibitor, who through showmanship efforts has also contributed his share to be worthy of recognition brought to the surface by your Quigley Awards.

Your Round Table section plays an important part especially during the present emergency by offering many ideas for live wire theatremen in keeping up public morale.—E. D. HARRIS, Glendale Theatre, Glendale, Cal.

▽

DEAR MIKE:

I have been trying for years to cop one of the top Awards and although as yet I have not been successful, I will keep trying. The Awards keep a man on his toes, keep him from growing stale. I also believe that my superiors are well aware of the fact that the theatre under my management can be found in the columns of your listed activities and that I am among those taking an active part in the Quigley Awards.—FRANK K. SHAFFER, Manager, Warners' Dixie, Staunton, Va.

four-column layout and story in the Evening Herald to help the date on "Dumbo" at the United Artists, by donating the theatre for an early Saturday morning gathering to speed up the paper's defense stamp drive. Newsboy carriers attended to pledge their services in selling stamps to their customers, they posed outside for the picture, which included the front of the theatre and marquee billing.

The stamp sale via newsboy carriers, which Soriero indicates may be adapted for theatre-newspaper cooperation in other sectors, requires the youngsters to solicit for regular purchases, working with the local stamp committee. Headquarters may be maintained at the theatre for early Saturday morning meetings from time to time, programs including pep talks by government heads and local leaders.

"Heaven" Hits Via Botwick

One of those broadside Harry Botwick campaigns, this time for "One Foot In Heaven" at the M&P State, Portland, Me., covered about every possible approach, stressing radio tie-ins, newspaper publicity and an unusual advance screening to a lot of local importants. The theatre's two weekly air programs were directed to the date, particularly Botwick's "Recess Time," famed children's program over WCSH, with a large audience all over the state. The Maine Council of Churches plugged the attraction on two programs, as did other church hours and the local Picture Council's radio committee.

The preview was handled by a special advisory committee set up for the occasion and whose efforts brought forth a favorable reaction rarely obtained for a picture locally, according to the Round Tabler. At the conclusion, each clergyman in attendance received a folder containing material on the picture. This brought announcements from many pulpits and notices on church bulletin boards. At the annual dinner of the Portland Motion Picture Council in advance of the date, the board of directors voted for an extensive publicity buildup for the date, turning over every resource of the Council to spread the word.

Featured newspaper was an editorial, a first-time for a picture in Portland, notes Botwick. Publicity was far above the average. In his ads and announcements, Harry de-emphasized the church angle in favor of the "father" slant for general boxoffice appeal.

Clergy Aid Krolick

At the Century, Rochester, N. Y., Arthur Krolick realized much on advance screenings, one before a group of clergymen and another for newspapermen, radio heads and educators. The superintendent of schools wrote to the principals of all local schools recommending the picture and asking that the letter be posted on school bulletin boards. Radio programs sponsored by church groups were obtained over leading stations, letters addressed to the different churches, and sermons based on the picture conducted in a number of the churches in advance. Krolick also planted windows in three department stores, distributed book marks in all libraries and promoted a display in the downtown public library, a first-time, he reports.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Basketball Pep Rally Held on Stage by Abbott

A first-time locally and reported as signally successful by J. H. Abbott was the recent basketball pep rally put over by the high school students at the Grand, in Georgetown, Ohio, Abbott selling the idea initially to a group of leading students who cooperated to put over the event.

Rally got underway with a huge bonfire with the high school band playing several selections and then leading the crowd in a parade up the main street to the theatre, where the team and coach were introduced from the stage. Abbott put on some extra features for the unusual program and reports an extra adult attendance of over 400.

Anniversary, By Goldstein

The first anniversary of Schine's Webster, Rochester, N. Y., was celebrated by Joe Goldstein with some neat baby stuff built around a display of the famed National Screen infant. Poster carried notice that parents whose babies would also celebrate their first birthdays during the anniversary week were invited to be guests of the "Schine baby" at the show. Cutout of the NSS cherub was decked with a top hat to bear out the catchline: "We're all dressed up now", stressing the many improvements made in the theatre since the Schine acquisition.

Followed through for the entire campaign, in trailers, programs and newspaper publicity was the "baby" theme, again in the lobby with another poster calling attention to the celebration, that refreshments would be served and prizes given to lucky winners registering their names and addresses in the first anniversary book. The names of course were put to good use in the theatre's mailing list. The book was placed in the mezzanine where promoted coffee and cookies were served. As patrons gathered, Goldstein seized the opportunity of getting acquainted and to point out the many changes that had been made. The prizes, also promoted, were given away on final day of celebration.

Wide attention during the Week was had with a lobby "talking doll" controlled from a concealed position by an usher who welcomed patrons as they entered, announced the refreshments and prize-registering. Whenever possible, names of patrons were communicated to usher who suprised a lot of customers with personal greetings appearing to come from the doll.

Kalberer "Gifts" First Baby

"Baby" exploitation also clicked for "Kal" Kalberer, at the Switow's Indiana and Liberty, Washington, Ind., the Round Tabler joining with other leaders in a page co-op offering cash and a lot of gifts for the first baby born in the surrounding area in 1942. Requirements were a physician's certificate attesting to exact minute, hour and date of birth. Kalberer's copy stressed the "relax" slant for entertainment in featuring the theatre's gift to the new arrival, a term pass to the lucky parents.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Plane Drops Tickets For Cotter on "Flyin' "

Advertised well in advance by Jack Cotter ahead of "Keep 'Em Flyin'" at the Colonial, in Erie, Pa. was the fact that a plane would fly over the city at stipulated hours dropping leaflets, some of which contained passes. In addition, inserts were placed in Liberty magazine and radio announcements made two Sundays before and during run.

Full co-op page was promoted with various names scattered throughout ads, guest tickets went to those finding their names listed. Classified ad page contest also brought tickets to those placing ads. Also running weekly is a "typster" contest, where local daily offers guest tickets to those phoning in an exclusive story to the paper, which is published together with proper credits.

THE "FORTNIGHTS"

Second "Fortnight" listing in the first Quarter of the 1942 Quigley Awards finds a gratifying number of entries in the running, with 63 Appointments voted on 60, the three extras, as usual, for double credits on single contributions. Regulars and newcomers make up the list, who and from where set down as follows:

H. M. ADDISON Paramount, Glens Falls, N. Y.	W. D. GALLIGAN JOHN W. SHAFFER Commercial, Chicago, Ill.	M. H. PARKER Strand, Erie, Pa.
DON H. ALLDRITT Fox Strand, Salina, Kans.	S. G. GILLESPIE Marks, Oshawa, Ont., Canada	RAY PARKER Shady Oak, St. Louis, Mo.
MAUREY ASHMANN Trylon, Forest Hills, L. I.	JOE GOLDSTEIN Schine's Webster, Rochester, N. Y.	ROY PEEFFLEY Paramount, Middletown, Ohio
FRANK BICKERSTAFF L. & J. Palace, Athens, Ga.	PHIL GRODY Embassy, Brooklyn, N. Y.	LES POLLOCK Loew's, Rochester, N. Y.
MEL BLIEDEN State, Anderson, Ind.	WALTER R. HALL Majestic, Johnstown, Pa.	W. W. POWELL Rex, Miami, Fla.
LIGE BRIEN Belmar, Pittsburgh, Pa.	ED HARRIS Fox Glendale, Glendale, Calif.	CARL ROGERS Loew's Granada, Cleveland, Ohio
BILL BURKE Capitol, Sarnia, Ont., Canada	GUY W. HEVIA Empire, Syracuse, N. Y.	MORRIS ROSENTHAL Majestic, Bridgeport, Conn.
ROBERT BUSCH Jeffery, Chicago, Ill.	BILL JOHNSTON Smalley, Dolgeville, N. Y.	WILLIAM K. SAXTON GEORGE AVIS Loew's Century, Baltimore, Md.
IRVING CANTOR Schine's Palace, Syracuse, N. Y.	MEL JOLLEY Columbia, St. Thomas, Ont., Can.	BOYD F. SCOTT Broadway, Dubbock, Tex.
BEN COHN Frolic, Chicago, Ill.	A. J. KALBERER Switow's Indiana Washington, Ind.	SID SCOTT Capitol, Sudbury, Ont., Canada
MARLOWE CONNER Capitol, Madison, Wis.	JACK KEITH Rialto, Baltimore, Md.	FRANK SHAFFER Warner's Dixie, Staunton, Va.
CLAYT CORNELL Schine's State, Tupper Lake, N. Y.	ARTHUR KROLOCK Century, Rochester, N. Y.	CHUCK SHANNON State, State College, Pa.
E. E. CRABTREE L. & P., LaSalle, Ill.	STANLEY LAMBERT Venetian, Racine, Wis.	W-CLYDE SMITH Paramount, Hot Springs, Ark.
FRED CURTICE Uptown, San Francisco, Calif.	JOE LONGO Loew's State, Boston, Mass.	HARRY STEARN SI MONEN Schine's Manring, Middlesboro, Ky.
A. D. DEASON Tyler, Tyler, Tex.	JACK LYKES Loew's Valentine, Toledo, Ohio	RICHARD STODDARD Rocket, Rock Island, Ill.
A. EASSON Oakwood, Toronto, Ont., Canada	BILL McCLAIN Virginia, Carrollton, Ohio	JOE STRIBLING Dunkin, Cushing, Okla.
BILL ELDER Loew's, Indianapolis, Ind.	DAVE MARTIN Fox Redondo Redondo Beach, Calif.	DAN TERRELL Loew's, Washington, D. C.
FRANCIS J. FAILLE Paramount, North Adams, Mass.	JACK MATLACK Craterian, Medford, Ore.	FELIX H. TISDALE Ga-Ana, Georgiana, Ala.
DICK FELDMAN Schine's Paramount, Syracuse, N. Y.	ROY H. METCALFE Rapids, Rock Rapids, Ia.	E. G. WARREN Tivoli, Hamilton, Ont., Canada
JOE FEULNER Des Plaines, Des Plaines, Ill.	PAT NOTARO Columbia, Sharon, Pa.	J. R. WHEELER Granada, South Bend, Ind.

With the results of the 1941 Grand Awards judging, the story of which is carried in the news section of this issue, all attention is to be directed to this year's competitions. The 1942 Awards started in high and, as noted in the Fortnights, continue their fast pace in the direction of the first Quarter-Master Awards.

BRIEF REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

Six pairs of free tickets to each week's show are given by the Paramount Theatre, San Francisco, through the medium of a classified ad stunt worked with The Call-Bulletin, Hearst evening paper. A two column, eight inch ad, appears daily in the classified section, plugging the picture and asking questions, whose answers are found elsewhere on the same page. First six persons sending correct answers to the newspaper's classified department get the ducats.

Newspapers and radio fell into line when Manager George Bole pulled a special campaign for appearance of Duke Ellington's orchestra at the Golden Gate Theatre, which supplements its weekly RKO picture billing with vaudeville. College interest was engendered through interviews with editors of the Stanford Daily and Daily Californian. The 'Frisco Chronicle gave page and one-half on Sunday, featuring pictures and story. Other papers cooperated, and KPO-KGO gave time for interviews.

In a contest sponsored jointly with the Wilkes-Barre Record, Round Tabler Paul Tighe of the Penn Theatre in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., gave away three $25 defense bonds in connection with "Kathleen." Letters from the title of the Shirley Temple film were inserted in eight advertisements of local merchants. Contestants had to list the ads in which the letters appeared and also write a statement of not more than 25 words on "Why I Should Buy United States Defense Bonds and Stamps."

Some extraordinary publicity was the result of "Blossoms in the Dust" stencils used by Bill Arts, Earle, Carroll, Ia., on the steps of the City Hall. He arranged to have the local newspaper run a picture of him scrubbing the stencil from the steps while the mayor and chief of police looked on.

Front page break was accorded Burgess Waltmon's date on "Sergeant York" at the Princess, in Columbus, Miss., since the theatremen located two residents who had served with the war hero in France. In addition one of the gentlemen had a book on the All-America Division, which he loaned to Burgess for display purposes.

Through the efforts of Dick Feldman at Schine's Paramount, in Syracuse, the Board of Education cooperated by having the Department of Public Instruction send out letters from their own office to every English class in each high school urging that students attend "York." Woman commentator gave the picture a nice plug on her matinee show and bookstores and libraries were covered with counter and bulletin cards.

FROM READERS

DEAR MISS MERRIAM:

I don't have to tell you the situation the world is in today—you probably feel it more than I do in the city of New York, where black-outs and air-raids are already in practice—everyone doing what he or she can, to not only protect themselves, but "our country."

In other words, what are we theatre employees throughout the country doing to help the cause? True enough, we are taking up collections for various causes such as Infantile Paralysis and Red Cross. Is there any reason why the theatres throughout the country could not purchase a "Bomber"? With 16,000 theatres throughout the country, and the number of employees employed in said theatres, there is no reason why we could not purchase not only one but two bombers.

My plan is this—that every theatre owner, manager, assistant, doorman, usher, cashier, and janitor donate a day's wages to this worthy cause. The office set-up for this drive should be held by the MOTION PICTURE HERALD.—GEORGE PAPPAS, Manager, Rialto, Beaver Falls, Pa.

Cashing in on the erection of a new building in Danvers, Mass., Alfred G. Swett, plastered the construction work with copy reading: "Watch developments on this spot and be sure to see Jimmy Cagney and Bette Davis in 'The Bride Came C.O.D.' at the Orpheum" etc. Banner remained on building eight days ahead of opening at an entire cost to the Round Tabler of a pair of passes to the foreman.

Round Tabler Paul Burle of the Orpheum Theatre, in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., invited all local sailors on leave to be his guests during run of "Sailors on Leave". Local recruiting officers cooperated considerably by posing with Burke in front of his house along with some of the gobs, pictures later used in both local daily papers.

Making up several pairs of oversize shorts from flour sacks, Barney DeVietti at the Huish Theatres, in Price, Idaho, ahead of "Caught in the Draft", planted these in vacant store windows with copy "1000 pair of free tickets to see Caught in the Draft given to the guy who can wear these draftee drawers."

Indeed effective was the full page of copy ads promoted by Les Preston of the Capitol, in St. Thomas, Ontario, right before Christmas and more specifically for "Rise and Shine". Page featured a giant Christmas tree on which were outlines of large electric bulbs, center of each carried store ad and contest was brought in through offer of tickets to those best coloring the lights on the tree.

Ahead of "Texas," at Schine's State, in Tupper Lake, N. Y., Clayt Cornell featured a three-way contest on the subject of the State of Texas. One was a map drawing slant tied in with the geography class, a review of the picture for the English class and a quiz in a history class. Cost of stunt was three passes, one to each of the winners.

Night before opening of "Pittsburgh Kid" at the Globe, in Bridgeport, Harry Rose held a special screening for sports writers, fight and wrestling promoters and athletic celebrities. Comers were good and netted the Round Tabler some nice newspaper breaks. Numerous window displays were secured and a 12-foot banner was planted at local fight arena five days ahead.

Effected by Bill Elder at Loew's, in Indianapolis is tieup with local daily whereby theatre ad is run and paper offers guest tickets to the tune of 10 a week to those whose names, chosen at random from the city director, are scattered through the want ad section.

For his "Chamber of Horrors" show at the Strand, in Atmore, Ala., Mack Jennings used window cards profusely and as a reported first-timer received permission to banner backs of fleet of taxi cabs. Faint checks were distributed at the door and heralds house-to-house. Special effects trailer was used ahead and spook lobby display built for the occasion.

A contest asking readers to identify Clark Gable's former leading ladies, and posting of signs at the city limits reading: "This is no Honky Tonk town, but be sure to see," etc., were features of the "Honky Tonk" campaign put over by Jack Matlack, Craterian, Medford, Ore.

Defense Bonds were awarded readers of a Wilkes-Barre newspaper for assembling the letters in the title "Kathleen," which were scattered over different pages and submitting the best essay on why we should purchase Defense Bonds and Stamps.

For making inexpensive pictorial displays at Schine's Russell, in Maysville, Ky., Ed. May takes all his used window cards and one sheets and paints the reverse side with kalsomine. This gives a firm board and May reports proves an attractive and effective advertising medium when made up with proper lettering, etc.

In connection with the 10th anniversary of the Capitol Theatre, in St. Thomas, Ontario and his date on "Honky Tonk", Les Preston proudly displayed congratulatory wires received from Clarke Gable and Lana Turner. Week ahead, cooperating baker displayed birthday cake in his window which was later moved to theatre, guessing contest offering cake and tickets to those coming closest to guessing correct weight of the confection. All persons celebrating birthday during the week of the celebration were hosted at the theatre by Preston.

KEEP 'EM COMING! BY USING EACH WEEK

$8 per 100 Dated JUMBO CARDS 22X28

3 COLORS - FULL PICTORIAL

WRITE FOR SAMPLES STATE PRODUCT USED

CENTRAL SHOW PRINTING COMPANY

REPRESENTATIVE LAYOUTS

... they applauded!

Last night a large audience saw a great movie. They saw Fredric March, as a small town preacher, turn in one of the best performances of his career. And as the chimes from a great carillon rang out in the closing scenes; they applauded, and applauded.

Only once in a blue moon does spontaneous applause break out in a movie theatre now days, but it was in sincere appreciation for a really great movie.

SEE IT TODAY... the last day at the DUNKIN THEATRE.

FREDRIC MARCH — MARTHA SCOTT
in
"ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN"
Today is the LAST DAY
DUNKIN Theatre

(Right) To tie in with the recent Miami sector test blackout and to emphasize theatre safety plus continuity of performance was the purpose of this ingenious 140 lines on 2 col. combination for the Paramount Miami houses, the work of Tom Jefferson, ad head, Jack Murray, art director, cooperating with the managers. Engraver's proof, here reproduced, illustrates the timeliness of reverse head and borders, the layout commended by the local defense council.

HURRY!

now 3rd and FINAL WEEK!

UNITED ARTISTS
BAGLEY at CO. CHURCH PK. - 4231 - A UNITED DETROIT THEATRE

MICKEY ROONEY
JUDY GARLAND
"BABES ON BROADWAY"

Rooney the Bronx Bombshell!

Plus
36c til 6 p.m. plus tax
BARGAIN PARKING!

Robert PRESTON and Ellen DREW in
"The Night of January 16th"

(Left) As an added stimulator for "One Foot In Heaven" at the Dunkin, Cushing, Okla., Joe Stribling used some extra space to note the unusual reception accorded the picture at the first night showing. All-type, with due allowance for white space, the 60 lines on 2 col. got results.

(Right) In keeping with the holiday spirit, Dan Terrell put together this hand-lettered cartoon-illustrated 65 lines on 2 col. to note the New Year's week attractions at the Loew's Washington theatres. Bright, light copy was aimed for, says Dan.

Paramount Theatres ARE PREPARED!

To co-operate fully with Dade County Defense Council during tonight's test blackout. Remember---It is your patriotic duty to co-operate with DCDC.

THERE IS NO BETTER PLACE TO BE DURING A BLACKOUT THAN IN A THEATRE! Relax and enjoy yourself! Performances Will Continue During Blackout!

OLYMPIA
A. E. LINDY DOLBY • 715 N. W. 10th St. - 10th St. - 10th St.

Be Sure your lights are OUT at home!

Stay OFF the STREET during blackout!

DON'T light matches during blackout!

Give all officials your 100% co-operation!

PARK your car and turn off lights!

DON'T become alarmed---BE CALM!

THIS IS A TEST BLACKOUT DCDC. We Are Ready!

OLYMPIA
ON THE SCREEN
EDWARD G. ROBINSON
"UNHOLY PARTNERS"
LARAINE DAY (Lynch) - 10th St. - 10th St.

CINEMA
1235 WASHINGTON AVE. - 10th St. - 10th St.

MICKEY ROONEY - JUDY GARLAND
"BABES ON BROADWAY"

NEW GABLES (AT BOTH THEATRES) BOULEVARD
BOB HOPE JANET MARCUS
"LOUISIANA PURCHASE"
Music and Lyrics by IRVING BERLIN • IN TECHNICOLOR

REX
MARCH-SCOTT
"ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN"

COLONY

TIVOLI	CORAL	DADE
ROXY	REGENT	HYALEAH

(Left) To stress the three-week holdover of "Babes" at the United Artists, Detroit, the Hendricks-Turner ad duo used the giant outline "hurry" atop against benday background to balance but not blanket the theatre and title panel below. Size: 100 lines on 2 col.

(Right) The all-out screwball atmosphere of "Hellzapoppin" was aimed for in this holdover 145 lines on 2 col. at the Broadway, Portland, Ore., by Manager Bill McCurdy. Type boxes, top and bottom, were used to tie the layout together and spotlight the center reverse.

LOEW'S
CAPITOL "SKYLARK"
F. St. at 14th

CLAUDETTE COLBERT
loves RAY MILLAND
... but goes sailing with BRIAN AHERNE
Plus on stage MITZI MAYFAIR • CARDINI

LOEW'S
PALACE "BABES ON BROADWAY"
F. St. at 13th

MICKEY ROONEY
JUDY GARLAND
- M & M'S
Musical Fun-Fest
(Rooney and Garland's Best) - CRAIG (News)

LOEW'S
COLUMBIA "TWO FACED WOMAN"
F. St. at 12th

GARBO
one-shit
MELVYN DOUGLAS
(Swell-Fun)
4th F. ST. WEEK!
(DOORS OPEN 11 A.M.)

BEACON 7343
BROADWAY
J. J. PARKER'S

WOW! WHAT A RIOT
2ND ROARING WEEK
Starts Tomorrow!
★★★
COME AND LAUGH YOURSELF SILLY!
"HELLZAPOPPIN'" 11, 1:30, 4:10, 7:30, 10:10.
"S. L." 12:45, 3:35, 6:25, 9:15.

OLSEN & JOHNSON
with
MARTHA RAYE
HUGH HERBERT • MISCHA AUER
JANE FRAZEE • ROBERT PAIGE
30 CONGROOS

HELLZA POPPIN'

AND... MYSTERY AND THRILLS TO ROUND OUT A SWELL PROGRAM!
"SEALED LIPS"

MEET SOME NEW MEMBERS

DON ALLDRITT
(above)
Fox Uptown
Salina, Kans.

L. EHRLICH
(below)
State Theatre
Brooklyn, N. Y.

JOHN HAMILTON
(above)
Schine's Empire
Syracuse, N. Y.

WILLIAM B. LININGER
(below)
Welden Theatre
St. Albans, Vt.

MILFORD PARKER
(above)
Warner's Strand
Erie, Pa.

HAROLD SIMONS
(below)
Palace Theatre
Antigo, Wis.

JIM BARNES
Warner Theatre
Memphis, Tenn.

JAMES ESTES Park Theatre
Iowa Park, Ia.

BILL MCCLAIN
Virginia Theatre
Carrollton, Ohio

HAROLD HELLER
RKO Dyker Theatre
Brooklyn, N. Y.

JACK PROUDLOVE
Arlington Theatre
Winnipeg, Man.

ALBERT SUNDERLAND
Chandler Theatre
Quebec, Canada

ARTHUR BOWDEN
Strand Theatre
Floral, Ala.

W. D. GALLIGAN
Commercial Theatre
Chicago, Ill.

E. G. JACKSON
Lee Theatre
Bluefield, Va.

HOWARD MCGHEE
Roxy Theatre
Kennéwick, Wash.

SEYMOUR SAMUELS
Capitol Theatre
Niagara Falls, N. Y.

PAUL E. SWEENEY
State Theatre
Sandwich, Ill.

JACK COOPER
Warner Theatre
Franklin, West Va.

JOHN J. GILDEA
State Theatre
Ozone Park, L. I.

RAYMOND LANGFITT
State Theatre,
St. Peter, Minn.

PETE NICHOLAS
Tralia Theatre
Chicago, Ill.

JIM SHRAKE
Capitol Theatre
Cleveland, Ohio

HARRY THOMS
Glencoe Theatre
Glencoe, Ill.

Fox to Pay $1,180,000 To End Suits

William Fox, bankrupt motion picture executive, testified before the three special masters of the Federal district court in Philadelphia on Wednesday, January 21st, that he would settle a $4,900,000 income tax claim by the Government by payment of $295,000, and that he expected to settle his $70,000,000 bankruptcy case by paying $885,000—a total payment of $1,180,000.

Mr. Fox, appearing as a witness in an investigation of the professional conduct of Morgan S. Kaufman, of Scranton, an attorney, said that the $4,900,000 included penalties and interest on an original claim of $2,866,203 by the Government when he filed a petition in bankruptcy in May, 1936. The entire amount, he said, had been compromised by the offer of $295,000.

Mr. Fox, who became ill the day previous while testifying in the bar investigation of Mr. Kaufman, resumed the stand the following afternoon to bare more details of how he gave the Scranton attorney $15,000 in 1936 to be turned over to J. Warren Davis, retired judge of the third district court of appeals, at the time when the Fox bankruptcy matters were pending before the jurist.

On Friday, January 23d, Mr. Kaufman testified Mr. Fox "told a deliberate lie" when he said that the attorney general arranged a loan of $15,000 from Fox to former Judge Davis. Asked why Mr. Fox would tell such lies, Mr. Kaufman said he had no idea unless it was to "protect his wife and daughters in his bankruptcy." The answer later was stricken out. Mr. Kaufman said he was at his summer home in Towanda at the time Mr. Fox testified he was arranging the loan in Atlantic City. In this he was supported by Morris J. Rosenthal, an architect, with whom he said he was conferring on a real estate deal.

Charles E. Stokely, second cousin of Judge Davis, appearing as a witness for Mr. Kaufman, described a deal by which Kaufman lent him $10,000, taking a deed to a Florida orange grove as collateral. That deal is the only one acknowledged by Judge Davis and Mr. Kaufman and both insist it had nothing to do with pending litigation.

The testimony, in general, followed the lines of that at the two trials. Both trials ended in jury disagreements. Mr. Fox, a prosecution witness, was sentenced to a year and day.

Ask Court Liquidation

Represented by three of their number, 31 stockholders of the Victoria Amusement Enterprises, Inc., of Shamokin, Pa., asked the Federal Court in Lewisburg, Pa., to liquidate the firm or reorganize it with a receiver. The stockholders claim the company had lost money and paid no dividends since L. J. Chamberlain, general manager and administrative officer, acquired 10 shares in the Victoria firm from his wife in September, 1938, and gained control of the management.

Dietrich Trial Set

The trial for an alleged breach of contract by Marlene Dietrich was set for March 16th in the Federal court in New York. Judge John C. Knox overruled a claim that an early trial would force Universal to rush production of "The Spoilers," which stars Miss Dietrich. The plaintiffs are a French producing company, Forester Parant, who claims Miss Dietrich was supposed to make a French film in Paris for them.

Gable Sole Heir

Clark Gable, actor and husband of Carole Lombard, has been named sole heir and executor of her estate, it was announced this week.

Owners File Suit Against Executor

A suit to enjoin W. P. Hamblen, executor of the late Will Horwitz estate, from assuming the management of the three theatres operated by the Horwitz-Texan Theatres, Inc., was filed January 19th in district court at Houston, Texas.

The plaintiffs contend that Mr. Hamblen "has since the death of Mr. Horwitz taken over management of all four theatres operated by the deceased although he is not an officer nor a director of the company which controls three of the theatres." They assert that they are the joint owners of the three houses mentioned in Mr. Horwitz' will but that they have no claim on the Uptown.

The petition set forth that on January 16th, 1942, the directors held a special meeting and elected R. J. O'Donnell, former vice-president and general manager of the company, president to succeed Mr. Horwitz, who died on December 25th.

Milstein Claims $60,000 As Profits from Small

Seeking $60,000 as a share of the profits allegedly due under an employment contract, Jacob J. Milstein, formerly eastern representative for Edward Small Productions, has filed a suit in the United States district court in New York.

Mr. Milstein charged breach of a contract made in December, 1938, which expired last September, when he left the Small organization. His complaint said that under the contract he was to receive five per cent of the profits, in addition to salary, but that Mr. Small did not fulfill the profit arrangement. Mr. Small realized $1,200,000 profit during the period of Mr. Milstein's employ, according to the complaint.

Court Delays Theatre Sale

Under the terms of an order signed by Judge William C. Coleman in the Federal court in Baltimore, Md., the sale of Keiths theatre was held up. Judge Coleman granted the Maryland Theatrical Corporation, owners of Keiths, the right to attempt reorganization of the corporation under the Chandler Act and appointed James Piper trustee under $50,000 bond to handle the business of the debtor.

OBITUARIES

M. J. Buckley

M. J. Buckley, employe of the American theatre in Pittston, Pa., and one of the oldest IATSE members in the area, succumbed to a heart attack Sunday, January 18th, as he was leaving the theatre. He is survived by one daughter and a son.

Mrs. John F. Royal

Mrs. Anne Kenny Royal, wife of John F. Royal, vice-president in charge of international relations for the National Broadcasting Company, died after a long illness Monday, January 26th, at her home in New York. Surviving are her husband, a son and daughter, two sisters and one brother.

Lou Meinenger

Funeral services were held in Philadelphia Monday for Lou Meinenger, dean of the local stage electricians, who died last Thursday, January 22nd. He was employed for many years at Warners' Earle theatre in that city.

Vess Ossman

Vess Ossman, St. Louis theatrical agent for many years and one-time vaudeville and musical comedy musician, died Thursday, January 22nd. Mr. Ossman, who was 39, is survived by his widow and two daughters.

Harry Larsen

Funeral services were held Wednesday, January 21st, at Our Lady of Mercy Church for Harry Larsen, 47, Chicago radio organist and song writer, who died of a heart ailment on Sunday, January 17th.

Mrs. Theresia Perlewitz

Funeral services were held January 16th for Mrs. Theresia Perlewitz, 76, mother of Harry H. Perlewitz, business manager of the ITPA of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan, Inc., and a Milwaukee exhibitor, who died on Monday, January 12th, in Milwaukee.

TELEGRAMS

are feature length stories in short subject form

CLASS OF SERVICE DESIRED		CLASS OF SERVICE DESIRED
TELEGRAM	DAY	TELEGRAM	DAY
TELETYPE	NIGHT	TELETYPE	NIGHT
SPECIAL	SERVICE	SPECIAL	SERVICE

WESTERN UNION

ACCOUNTING INFORMATION
TIME FILED

EVERY SHOW PLACE NEEDS CORRECT TIME.
THEATRE-GOERS APPRECIATE IT. WESTERN UNION CORRECT TIME SERVICE IS A NATIONAL STANDARD OF ACCURACY AND IS AVAILABLE
FOR AS LITTLE AS 4¢ A DAY. DON'T BE SATISFIED WITH ANYTHING BUT THE BEST.

WESTERN UNION
Everywhere

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

*the great national medium
for showmen*

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City

THEATRES

WANTED TO BUY OR LEASE THEATRE IN Minnesota, over 400 seats. BOX 1492, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MOVIE THEATRES, NORTHERN CALIFORNIA. A. SHEUERMAN, 25 Taylor Street, San Francisco.

WANT TO BUY, LEASE OR RENT THEATRE running or closed, equipped or otherwise, located anywhere. State full details in reply. BOX 1489-A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FOR SALE THEATRES IN SEVERAL STATES now operating. Have several for lease as well. Let me know what size and where you desire to operate. BOX 1490-A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

POSITION WANTED

DESIRE PERMANENT CONNECTION CHAIN OR independent. Eight years in executive capacity, buying, booking, publicity, stage shows, etc., thoroughly experienced. Not subject to draft. BOX 1493, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BUSINESS BOOSTERS

BINGO CARDS. DIE CUT, 1 TO 100 OR 1 TO 75 $2.00 per thousand. $17.50 for 10,000. BOX 1434, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BUY YOUR BINGO CARDS DIRECT FROM THE world's largest manufacturer of theatre bingo cards. Write us today for samples and prices. BOX 1477, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PRINTING SERVICE

THEATRE BLOWERS, SAME QUALITY, LOW prices. STITES ART, Shelbyville, Indiana.

USED GENERAL EQUIPMENT

SOME THEATRE CAN USE YOUR OLD EQUIPMENT. A little ad here will reach thousands of potential customers. Only ten cents a word to tell the world what you have to sell. Try it today. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

FOR QUICK SALE: COMPLETE EQUIPMENT and chairs from 400 seat theatre. Exceptional bargain. MOVIE SUPPLY COMPANY, 1318 So. Wabash, Chicago.

BUY BLOWERS, WASHERS, VARIABLE SPEED pulleys, motors now. New and used. You'll be disappointed later. SOUTHERNAIRE, 145 Walton, Atlanta, Ga.

FOR SALE: 450 THEATRE SEATS, MARQUEE letters, etc. H. LEVY & SON, 1245 Broadway, Brooklyn, New York, Glenmore 5-5587.

AFTER INVENTORY SALE—GRAB THESE quick! Portable sound projectors, 16mm., 35mm. from $59.50; rear shutters for Simplex, $29.50; film cabinets, $1.49 section; factory rebuilt Series II lenses, any size, $33.95; soundheads, $9.95; amplifiers, $4.95; powers mechanisms, $39.50; cushion seats, 39c. Free bargain bulletins. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

NEW GENERAL EQUIPMENT

BUY NEW SOUNDScreens NOW WHILE material's available, 23½ sq. ft.; complete stage setting, $66.60; fully automatic curtain controls, $75.95; heavy duty track, $2.19 ft. Immediate deliveries. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

BOOKKEEPING SYSTEM

THEATRE MANAGEMENT RECORD AND TAX Register. This new accounting system is the finest book of its kind ever made available to an exhibitor. In addition to being complete in every respect, it is simple—so much so that it is not necessary to have had bookkeeping experience in order to keep an accurate, complete and up-to-the-minute record of the business of your theatre. The introductory price is only $2.00 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE SOUND ENGINEERING—547 pages; illustrated; covers every practical method and process in present-day sound engineering. Leading engineers explain every detail of apparatus and its arrangement, with diagrams, tables, charts and graphs. This manual comes straight from the workshops of the studios in Hollywood. It is indispensable to everyone working with sound equipment. Price $6.50 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 567 PAGE BOOK ON AIR CONDITIONING by Charles A. Fuller, authority on the subject. Available for theatre owners contemplating engineering changes. Book is cloth bound with index and charts and covers every branch of the industry as well as codes and ordinances regulating installation. Order now at $4.00 a copy postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION. A second revision of the Sixth Edition of Richardson's Bluebook of Projection with a complete section on Sound Trouble-shooting Charts as well as a host of additional up-to-the-minute text on the latest equipment. Price $7.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

JUST PUBLISHED: 1942 EDITION OF FAME. Edited by Terry Ramsaye. The class annual of the screen, radio and stage. Recognized by executives and talent agents as the guide book to box office champions. Send your order today with check or money order for $1.00. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 1941-42 MOTION PICTURE ALMANAC Edited by Terry Ramsaye. The industry's most complete "Who's Who." More than 11,000 biographies and over 1,100 pages, chock full of reference information. Everyone in the motion picture industry should have a copy. Be sure to send in your order today. $3.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK, U. S. A.

PRODUCT DIGEST

THE RELEASE CHART

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

The Lady is Willing (Columbia)

La Dietrich Entertains

Marlene Dietrich departs from recent patterns, and from her less recent ones as well, to entertain with success as a comedienne, as an eye-ful in raiment rare and, finally, as a dramatic actress portraying a stricken mother. She ranges the scale, as does the picture, from the height of the frivolous to the brink of tragedy, in a display of talent commanding admiration.

Fred MacMurray in the role opposite and Aline MacMahon at the head of a matched supporting cast acquit themselves with distinction.

The scene is New York, later Boston, and Miss Dietrich portrays a Broadway star, impractical in personal matters, who finds an abandoned baby which she decides to make her own. When authorities arrive to take it from her she learns that she could adopt it if she were married, wherefore she effects a marriage of convenience with a doctor more intent upon research than romance. Ultimately the marriage becomes real, then breaks up in a quarrel, finding reinstatement when illness of the baby brings its foster parents together again at the bedside. This switch to the solidarity of a realistic situation follows abruptly upon entirely humorous proceedings to provide a contrast beneficial to both elements.

Produced in the grand manner and with something in it for all varieties of theatregoers, it is a film for entertainment only and with no allusions of any kind to contemporary distresses afflicting public happiness.

A "package deal" fabricated by Charles Feldman, the production was directed by Mitchell Leisen from a script by James Edward Grant and Albert McCleery based on a Grant story. Apart from its value as an exhibition attraction, it is a demonstration of the practicability of the Feldman plan of procedure.

Previewed at the Alexander theatre, Glendale, to a midweek audience attracted by "Louisiana Purchase." One of those give-away proceedings, which depress everybody in the auditorium except the winners, of whom there were none this time, preceded the previewing. Under this unfavorable circumstance the picture gave excellent account of itself in terms of audience response.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER

Release date, Feb. 12, 1942. Running time, 91 min. PCA No. 7822. General audience classification.

Elizabeth Madden.....Marlene Dietrich
Dr. Corey McBain.....Fred MacMurray
Buddy.....Aline MacMahon
Stanley Ridges, Arline Judge, Roger Clark, Marietta Canty, David James, Ruth Ford, Sterling Holloway, Harvey Stephens, Harry Shannon, Elizabeth Risdon, Charles Lane, Murray Alper, Kitty Kelly.

Reviews

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public.

Brooklyn Orchid (United Artists - Roach)

Streamlined Feature

Producer Hal Roach foregoes use of the slapstick, this time, in favor of the full dress type of drawing room comedy at which, back in his two-reeler days, he was equally if not more successful.

This tale, by Earle Snell and Clarence Marks, has to do with the insistence of a young woman, thwarted in an attempt to commit suicide, who insists upon placing her life and destiny in the hands of the two men who are her rescuers. These are the rich but rough and ready owners of a taxicab company whose socially ambitious wife and fiancée, respectively, they try to keep in ignorance of their unwanted guardianship of the blonde young rescuee.

William Bendix, a stage and radio actor appearing here in his first film, is the outstanding member of the cast, a character comedian whose skill is as that of a veteran.

Principal settings are a Park Avenue apartment and a country resort, both of which are used for purposes of that humour which stems from discomfiture of the well-dressed. Incidents and development are novel and hold interest continuously.

Direction by Kurt Neumann is topnotch.

Previewed at studio.—W. R. W.

Release date, not set. Running time, 50 min. PCA No. 8003. General audience classification.

Tim McGuerin.....William Bendix
Eddie Corbett.....Joe Sawyer
Lucy Gibbs.....Marjorie Woodworth
Grace Bradley, Skeets Gallagher, Florine McKinney, Rex Evans, Jack Norton.

Snuffy Smith, Yard Bird (Monogram)

Farce

Replete with unique exploitation features which few pictures have been accorded, Monogram's "Snuffy Smith, Yard Bird," based on the King Features comic strip, comes to the screen as a topical funfest. Taken from one of America's most popular newspaper features, the picture utilizes all of the current characters of the strip, with the exception of "Barney Google," the story being that of "Smith," a hillbilly from the Big Smokey Mountains who joins the army as a "Yard Bird" in order to escape the "Revenoores" seeking his mountain dew still.

Edward Gross' production does not make the mistake of attempting to tell on film the story of a comic strip in terms of the comic strip. It is a separate cinematic plot, with "Smith," played by Bud Duncan, aided by "Lowizie," his wife, played by Sarah Padden, foiling the attempt by spies to obtain an artillery range sight invented by one of the hill folk and at the same time enabling their "white army" to overcome the "blues" in practice maneuvers.

Edward Cline, long associated with the comedy of the screen, directed the film with a view to giving every characterization its fullest expression. The introduction of scenes of actual army maneuvers into the story of the picture is a distinct credit to Cline, producer Gross and the latter's associate producers Jack Dietz and Dan Keefe.

Edgar Kennedy as the vitriolic "Revenoor" turned army sergeant, J. Farrell MacDonald as an army general, Doris Linden, Jimmie Dodd, Pat McVeigh, Andraia Palmer and Frank Austin complete the cast.

Four writers, Jack Grey, Jack Henley, Lloyd French and Doncho Hall, do a creditable job of the original screenplay, which is based on the Billy DeBeck characters.

Previewed at a Hollywood projection room to a press and professional audience which gave every indication of enjoying the picture thoroughly, even to the extent of registering surprise at the efficacy of the production.—VANCE KING.

Release date, Jan. 16, 1942. Running time, 67 minutes. PCA No. 8012. General audience classification.

Snuffy Smith.....Bud Duncan
Sergeant Cooper.....Edgar Kennedy
Lowizie.....Sarah Padden
Cindy.....Doris Linden
Andraia Palmer, J. Farrell MacDonald, Pat McVeigh, Frank Austin, Jimmie Dodd.

Riders of the Badlands (Columbia)

Western

Devotees of the art of Charles Starrett, who attained fourth position in MOTION PICTURE HERALD's poll of Western Money-Makers, will have the pleasure of seeing him doubly in "Riders of the Badlands," for he appears as both a ranger and outlaw.

The plot revolves around the element of mistaken identity with Starrett the Ranger being accused of the charges of highway robbery and murder, perpetrated by Starrett the outlaw. The ranger is convicted and sentenced to death, but before the execution the maze of misunderstanding is dispelled and justice triumphs.

Mr. Starrett does a good job as both a good man and bad, and Cliff Edwards appeared to amuse the audience particularly as a singer, in his peculiarly individual comedy style. Russell Hayden is stalwart enough as the ranger who helps to convict Starrett and then is instrumental in saving his life.

William Berke produced and Howard Bretherton directed.

Reviewed at the New York Theatre in New York, where the audience, particularly the men, seemed to have a good time.—IRENE SMOLEN Release date, Dec. 18, 1941. Running time, 57 minutes. PCA No. 7812. General audience classification.

Steve Langdon	Charles Starrett
Mac Collins
"Lucky" Barton	Russell Hayden
Bones Malloy	Cliff Edwards
Flo	Irene Brewer
Celia	Kay Hughes
Roy Barcroft, Rick Anderson, Edith Leach, Ethan Laidlaw, Harry Cording, Hal Price.

Man from Headquarters

(Monogram)

Melodrama

The story of how a brash young crime reporter matches fists and wits with criminals and brings them in almost singlehandedly to the chagrin of the police department is told in Monogram's "Man from Headquarters."

Opening with Frank Albertson being honored by the police for capturing a much wanted criminal, the story has him losing his job and being "shanghaied" to a neighboring city by the criminal's henchmen in order to prevent him from testifying.

He immediately gets another reporting job and then proceeds to capture the same criminal that he had captured before.

Albertson, Joan Woodbury, John Maxwell and Mel Ruick carry the major burden of the picture, managing to overcome the dialogue that handicaps them and the remainder of the cast. Aply directed by Jean Yarbrough, the film was produced by Lindsley Parsons.

Previewed at Monogram Studio's new projection room for the press where consensus was that it was entertaining.—V. K.

Release date, Jan. 23, 1942. Running time, 67 minutes. PCA No. 8015. General audience classification.

Larry Doyle	Frank Albertson
Ann	Joan Woodbury
Jonas	Dick Elliott
Hotel Manager	Byron Foulger
John Maxwell, Robert Kellard, Mel Ruick, Gwen Kenyon, Jack Mulhall, Christine McIntyre, Max Hoffman, Jr., Paul Bryar, Arthur O'Connell, Maynard Homes, Charles Hall.

Six Gun Gold

(RKO Radio—1940-41)

Musical Western

Tim Holt, Ray Whitley and Lee "Lasses" White resume their search for adventure in this presentation. Like many of the predecessor films of this series "Six Gun Gold" contains sufficient action, comedy, romance and music to satisfy the most discriminating fan.

Adapted to the screen by Norton S. Parker from an original story by Tom Gibson, the plot and theme concerns the three adventurers who return to a town and find a pseudo-marshal who, behind his guise of law and order, heads a bandit ring operating against the gold miners of the district.

Produced by Bert Gilroy and directed by David Howard, "Six Gun Gold" is on a par with many of the current westerns from other companies. Fred Rose and Ray Whitley wrote the words and music to the numerous songs interspersed throughout.

Reviewed at the RKO Alhambra theatre in New York's Harlem where an afternoon audience found moments of enjoyment in the film.—GEORGE SPIRES.

Release date, Aug. 8, 1941. Running time, 57 minutes. PCA No. 7437. General audience classification.

Don Cardigan	Tim Holt
Smoke	Ray Whitley
Penny Blanchard	Jan Clayton
Whooper	Lee "Lasses" White
Marshal	LeRoy Mason
Eddy C. Walker, Davison Clark, Harry Harvey, Slim Whitaker, Lane Chandler, Jim Corey, Fern Emmett.

SHORTS SYNOPSES

BILLION DOLLAR LIMITED (Par.)

Superman Cartoon (Color) (W1-3)

When the world's largest shipment of gold is announced in the headlines of the Daily Planet, Lois Lane is dispatched to cover the story. Clark Kent sees her off at the station. When he returns to the office he learns the gold train is out of control. Clark changes to his Superman outfit and speeds to where the careening train is about to be taken over by armed bandits. Superman foils their every attempt to steal the gold. Nothing is impossible for Superman and when the train goes over a precipice he hauls it back onto the tracks. The bandits flee in terror.

Release date, January 9, 1942 8½ Minutes

THE VILLAGE SMITHY (RKO)

Disney Color Cartoon (14,116)

Donald Duck, blacksmith, has his first battle with a wheel rim. A bump pops out on the rim and Donald tries to nail it in place only to have bumps pop in other places. Don loses his temper and gives the wheel a terrific blow, but the wheel turns on Don, chases him, and finally flattens him on the ground. Jenny, a little burro, enters Donald's shoe shop, but she is stubborn and doesn't like any of the shoes shown to her. Donald, exasperated, decides to shoe her, anyway. Finally in desperation, after several unsuccessful attempts, Don fills the bellows with smoke and shoots it in the burro's face. As the burro sneezes, Don tries to grab its foot and is promptly knicked out of the scene.

Release date, January 16, 1942. 7 Minutes

BETTER BOWLING (Par.)

Sportlight (R1-6)

Bowling has been streamlined with modern equipment, electric foul line detectors, score casters and brakes to keep the heavy balls from bruising careless fingers. All help to popularize the sport. Ned Day of Santa Monica, Cal., world's match play champion, demonstrates that proper footwear, footwork and the right ball are requisites of good bowling. Andy Varipapa, trick and fancy bowler, throws sharp-shooting, bull-eye hooks, with either hand. Colonel Lemuel Q. Stoopnagle, radio comedian, at his home, Wilton, Conn., proves that bowling is also a laughing matter. He creates his own foul line—with a piece of tape.

Release date, January 23, 1942 10 Minutes

KICKIN' THE CONGA 'ROUND (Par.)

Popeye Cartoon (E1-4)

Popeye and his rival, Bluto, are in the navy. Hardly does their battleship drop anchor in a Latin-American port, than the two gobs are vying with each other for the attentions of Olivia Oylia, a conga-loving Latinette, but in reality none other than Olive Oyl with long eyelashes and a mantilla. Popeye demurs when Olive wants to dance the conga, but Bluto snatches up Olive and the two dance off. Popeye, in a blue funk, orders a fancy sounding dish and when it is served learns that it is nothing more than good old-fashioned spinach. He downs it with zest and begins to conga, taking Olive away from Bluto. The two sailors then set at each other still in conga rhythm.

Release date, January 16, 1942.

EVERGREEN PLAYGROUND (20th-Fox)

Sports Review (Color) (2304)

This subject, one of Ed Thorgersen's Sports Reviews, pictures the vacation wonders of British Columbia. Picturesque mountains and rivers, scenes of wild game, a visit to an Indian encampment, a cruise and a fight by a fisherman for an eight-pound trout are included in the subject. There are also some scenes of skiing.

Release date, January 30, 1942 10 Minutes

MEN FOR THE FLEET (20th-Fox)

Adventures of Newscameraman (2204)

Here is pictured the steps that a young enlistee to the United States Navy goes through during his training period. The rookie blue-jacket starts by getting the regulation haircut and is issued his supply of clothing. From there he is followed step by step through the training period until he leaves on a battle ship as the band plays "Anchors Aweigh."

Release date, January 16, 1942 9 Minutes

HOLLYWOOD MATADOR (Univ.)

Color Cartune (6246)

The great matador, Woody Woodpecker, shows off before the crowd where he is to fight a vicious bull. The bull, seeing Woody through a knothole in the fence can stand no more and dashes into the arena. Woody is equal to the emergency and does some fancy flag waving. The bull charges Woody so hard that he eventually makes a shambles of the arena. Catching Woody off guard he tosses him over the grandstand—but Woody bounces right back with a new bag of tricks and a new lease on life. The bull has to give up and the crowd gets "bullburgers" to chew on.

Release date, February 9, 1942 7 Minutes

POPULAR SCIENCE, No. 3 (Par.)

(Color) (J1-3)

In this issue of the series are the "skiddooler," a ski-tow that climbs mountain slopes without effort; a frosted foods farm comprising 25,000 acres in Bridgeton, New Jersey, and a visit to Randolph Field in Texas to follow the cadets through the vigorous training ordeal for the Army Air Corps. Professor Cakes, the wily wizard of Waukesha, acts out for the ladies his newest invention which is supposed to cure women of forgetting their handbags and gloves.

Release date, January 30, 1942. 11 Minutes

KEYS TO ADVENTURE (Univ.)

Variety Views (6357)

In this Variety Views subject in sepia, the cameraman leaves Miami with a fishing fleet and visits the Florida "Keys," where strange vegetation makes the land look like some weird nightmare. Then follows a visit to Biscayne Bay, the famous "Causeway" and the noted Quarterback Club where Miami bathing girls and aquaplane. The subject ends with scenes showing the prescribed method for catching crawfish (Florida lobster) and shark fishing.

Release date, February 16, 1942 9 Minutes

RHUMBA RHYTHMS (Univ.)

Musical (6227)

Carlos Molina and his orchestra here play Latin American compositions that have inspired new dance crazes all over the country. Luis Del Campo is the vocalist. Featured are the Guadalajara Trio, Mexican radio and stage headliners, who appeared in "Down Argentine Way" and "Week End in Havana"; Marina Koshetz, singer; Herrera Twins, Mexican radio and stage headliners, who appeared in "Down Mexico Way"; Igor and Poggi, dancers from Earl Carroll's theatre-restaurant in Hollywood, and Inesita, Spanish dancer.

Release date, February 4, 1942 15 Minutes

JASPER AND THE WATERMELONS (Par.)

Madcap Model (Color) (U1-2)

This is a fantasy about a little colored boy, Jasper, whose desire for big ripe watermelons leads him into the fabulous watermelonland, where he meets with adventures that make him happy to be back again in the security of his mammy's arms.

Release date, February 27, 1942. 10 Minutes

ADVANCE SYNOPSSES and information

ROXIE HART (20th Century-Fox)

Drama, Romance

PRODUCER: Nunnally Johnson. Directed by William Wellman. The screen play by Mr. Johnson is based on the play, "Chicago".

PLAYERS: Ginger Rogers, Adolphe Menjou, George Montgomery, Lynne Overman, Nigel Bruce, Phil Silvers, Sara Allgood, William Frawley, Spring Byington.

SYNOPSIS

Walter Howard (George Montgomery), a newspaperman, covering a murder case, is reminiscing at a bar. He mentions the murder case in Chicago involving Roxie Hart (Ginger Rogers). The bartender perks up, asks for details. . . . It is 1927 in a cheap, garish flat. The police are there, the body of a man lies dead on the floor. A theatrical agent and a newspaperman convince Roxie that she should confess to the murder. They reason that Roxie will be free, that she will be front page news and that she can clean-up on the vaudeville circuit. All this happens with the addition that Walter, then a cub reporter, falls in love with her. He runs her errands and discovers the identity of the real murderer but no one will hear him at the trial. . . . The scene dissolves back to 1941. Walter leaves the bar, returns home and awakens his wife—Roxie Hart. He tells her happily that the dream prince that she has periodically reminded him of for the past 15 years is nothing more than a bartender.

THE MAYOR OF 44TH STREET (RKO Radio)

Melodrama, Romance

PRODUCER: Cliff Reid. Directed by Alfred E. Green.

PLAYERS: George Murphy, Anne Shirley, Richard Barthelmess, Rex Downing, Freddy Martin, William Gargan.

SYNOPSIS

When Ed Kirby (Richard Barthelmess) went to prison for racketeering, his former assistants, Joe Jonathan (George Murphy) and Jessie Lee (Anne Shirley), took over the scattered pieces of his shakedown business and turned it into a legitimate and thriving enterprise. Joe takes Bitz McHarg (Rex Downing), an enterprising youngster with gangster ideas, in hand and has him under control when Kirby is paroled. Bitz looks upon Kirby as a hero and when the gangster forms a rival organization, Bitz goes with Kirby. Joe confronts Kirby for a showdown. When Kirby tricks Joe and calls in his henchmen, Bitz becomes disgusted with Kirby and calls up his own legion of young but husky followers to the rescue.

SONG OF THE ISLANDS (20th Century-Fox)

Music, Romance (Technicolor)

PRODUCER: William LeBaron. Directed by Walter Lang.

PLAYERS: Betty Grable, Victor Mature, Jack Oakie, Thomas Mitchell, George Barbier, Billy Gilbert, Hilo Hattie, Lillian Porter, Hal K. Dawson.

SYNOPSIS

Jeff Harper (John Payne) and Rusty Smith (Jack Oakie) land on Dennis O'Brien's (Thomas Mitchell) beach on Ami Ami, one of the smaller Hawaiian Islands. Son of an American cattle king who owns the adjoining ranch, Jeff and his pal Rusty are in Hawaii to inspect Jeff's father's ranch. Eileen O'Brien (Betty Grable), just returned to her father's ranch after three years of school on the mainland, meets them. Jeff and Rodney find that the foreman of the vast Harper ranch runs it with irritating efficiency, whereas O'Brien refuses to allow any modern "improvements" that would spoil the islanders' paradise. Jeff and Rusty spend most of their time on the O'Brien ranch. This state of affairs brings Jeff's father to the island and he, in his blunt manner, irritates O'Brien. Jeff patches things up.

SPECIAL REMARKS

The musical score include "Down on Ami, Ami, Oni, Oni Isle," "O'Brien Has Gone Hawaiian," "Sing Me a Song of the Islands," "Maluna, Malolo, Mawaena," "Blue Shadows and White Gardenias," "What's Buzzin' Cousin."

ON THE SUNNY SIDE (20th Century-Fox)

Drama

DIRECTOR: Harold Schuster. Suggested by the story, "Fraternity", by Mary C. McCall, Jr.

PLAYERS: Roddy McDowall, Jane Darwell, Stanley Clements, Katharine Alexander, Don Douglas, Freddie Mercer, Ann Todd.

SYNOPSIS

Hugh (Roddy McDowall), a 12-year-old English lad, because of the war, is sent to the Andrews' home in Ohio. Don (Freddie Mercer), the Andrews' 11-year-old son, eagerly accepts the English boy and is gratified when the other boys in his school are impressed by the visitor. However, he is not quite so happy when his father foregoes their evening game of Chinese checkers to play chess with Hugh. Don is pushed further in the background as Hugh shows himself a formidable scholar and proves pretty impressive to Betty Randall (Ann Todd), Don's girl friend. For Don, Hugh's popularity is almost too much of a good thing. Don becomes a sullen boy and decides to run away. Hugh tries to dissuade him. Then word comes that Don has attacked Tom Sanders, the school bully and is taking a terrible beating. Hugh rushes to the rescue and together they stand.

THE NIGHT BEFORE THE DIVORCE (20th Century-Fox)

Comedy, Romance

PRODUCER: Ralph Dietrich. Directed by Robert Siodmak.

PLAYERS: Lynn Bari, Mary Beth Hughes, Joseph Allen, Jr., Nils Asther, Truman Bradley, Kay Linaker.

SYNOPSIS

George Nordyke (Joseph Allen, Jr.) is possessed of the perfect wife—and is unhappy about it. Lynn Nordyke (Lynn Bari) is so competent that George's masculine ego never has a chance for exercise. In this frame of mind, he is a setup for the coy approach of Lola May Wayne (Mary Beth Hughes). George tells Lynn about Lola May and a divorce is arranged to Lynn's extreme regret. On the eve of the trial an orchestra leader, who long has admired Lynn, is murdered. She deliberately draws suspicion on herself. George comes a-running. He takes her to their yacht, planning to get her to Canada but the yacht is de-commissioned. Lola May follows, reporting Lynn's whereabouts to the police. George and Lynn escape. They are picked up next day but by that time the murder has been solved. George and Lynn decide to forget about the divorce.

THE BASHFUL BACHELOR (RKO Radio)

Small Town Drama, Comedy

PRODUCER: Jack Votion. Directed by Mal St. Clair.

PLAYERS: Lum and Abner, Zasu Pitts, Oscar O'Shea, Louise Currie, Constance Purdy, Irving Bacon.

SYNOPSIS

Lum (Chester Lauck) is annoyed with Abner (Norris Goff), his partner in the Jot-'em-down store in Pine Ridge, because Abner has swapped their delivery car for a racehorse. Lum is also too timid to propose to Geraldine (Zasu Pitts). He compels Abner to be a stooge for a "daring" rescue which he hopes will have the proper effect on her. The attempt nearly gets them both killed. They try again, and this time Lum saves Abner from being kidnapped by a gang of desperadoes. Geraldine is impressed. Lum gives Abner a written proposal to deliver to her. By mistake Abner gives the proposal to the Widder Abernathy (Constance Purdy), who has wanted to marry for years. This causes considerable trouble until the sheriff appears with the Widder's long-lost husband.

CODE OF THE OUTLAW (Republic)

Western

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER: Louis Gray. Directed by John English. Based on characters created by William Colt MacDonald.

PLAYERS: Bob Steele, Tom Tyler, Rufe Davis, Weldon Heyburn, Bennie Bartlett.

SYNOPSIS

When the Sam Hardin gang robs the Billings Mining Company of its $98,000 payroll, Billings announces that he will shut down his mines if the money is not recovered. The Three Mesquiteers, Stony (Tom Tyler), Tucson (Bob Steele) and Lullaby (Rufe Davis) are deputized. They besiege the gangsters' hideout, and, in the gun battle, Sam Hardin is killed. They take Hardin's 10 or 11-year-old son, Tim (Bennie Bartlett) with them. They show every kindness to the youngster and he is on the verge of telling them where the payroll is hidden when interference by Sue Dayton (Melinda Leighton) turns the boy against them. The boy tells a renegade member of the gang where the money is. The Mesquiteers overtake the renegade who is escaping in a stage coach.

SYNCOPIATION (RKO Radio)

"Pop" Music, Drama

PRODUCER-DIRECTOR: William Dieterle.

PLAYERS: Adolphe Menjou, Jackie Cooper, Bonita Granville, George Bancroft, Frank Jenks, Robert Benchley, Walter Catlett, Mona Barrie.

SYNOPSIS

This is a story of typical American syncopated music that at various times has been called "Rag-Time," "Jazz," "Swing" and "Boogie-Woogie." It covers a quarter-century, a time that saw the first World War, the prohibition era and the stock market crash. The changes in the times are commented on by Doakes (Robert Benchley) and Spelvin (Walter Catlett) through the course of the story. The story has to do with Kit Latimer (Bonita Granville), from New Orleans, and Johnny Schumacher (Jackie Cooper), principally. They share each others ideas on rhythm and are both musicians.

THE RELEASE CHART

Index to Reviews, Advance Synopses and Service Data in PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION

Dot (•) before the title indicates 1940-41 product.

Release dates and running time are furnished as soon as available. Advance dates are tentative and subject to change.

Consult Service Data in the PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION for Legion of Decency Rating, Audience Classification and Managers' Round Table Exploitation.

All page numbers on this chart refer to pages in the PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION of MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

Short Subject Release Chart with Synopsis Index can be found on pages 478-479.

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in order of release, on page 466.

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	— REVIEWED —
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section	Advance Synopsis	Service Data
ADVENTURES of Martin Eden	Col.	...	Glenn Ford-Claire Trevor	Feb. 26, '42	...	...	...	p476	....
All American Co-Ed	UA	...	Frances Langford-Johnny Downs	Oct. 31, '41	49m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p308	....
All Over Town	Rep.	Reissue	Olsen & Johnson	Oct. '41	60m	Aug. 28, '37	p330	....	....
All That Money Can Buy (formerly Here is a Man)	RKO	205	Edw. Arnold-W. Huston-Anne Shirley	Oct. 17, '41	106m	July 19, '41	p251	p197	p386
All Through the Night	WB	116	Humphrey Bogart-Conrad Veidt	Jan. 10, '42	105m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
Always in My Heart	WB	...	Kay Francis-Walter Huston	Not Set	...	...	...	p464	....
Among the Living	Para.	4108	Albert Dekker-Susan Hayward	Dec. 19, '41	68m	Sept. 6, '41	p260	p235	p288
Apache Kid	Rep.	171	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 12, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p277	....
Appointment for Love	Univ.	6007	Margaret Sullivan-Charles Boyer	Oct. 31, '41	89m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p277	p452
Arizona Bound (formerly Rough Riders)	Mono.	....	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	July 19, '41	57m	July 25, '41	p249	p172	p210
Arizona Cyclone	Univ.	6063	Johnny Mack Brown	Nov. 14, '41	57m	...	...	p230	....
Arizona Terrors	Rep.	174	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Jan. 6, '42	56m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p408	....
BABES on Broadway	MGM	216	Mickey Rooney-Judy Garland	Jan. '42	118m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	p363	p452
Bad Lands of Dakota	Univ.	6013	Ann Rutherford-Robert Stack	Sept. 5, '41	74m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p207	p421
• Bad Man of Deadwood	Rep.	058	Roy Rogers-"Gabby" Hayes	Sept. 5, '41	61m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p277	..
Bahama Passage	Para.	4111	Madeleine Carroll-Stirling Hayden	Not Set	82m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	p320	p452
Ball of Fire	RKO	252	Gary Cooper-Barbara Stanwyck	Jan. 9, '42	111m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	....	....
Bandit Trail (formerly Outlaw Trail)	RKO	281	Tim Holt	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	....
Bashful Bachelor, The	RKO	...	Lum and Abner	Mar. 20, '42	...	...	...	p487	....
Bed Time Story	Col.	3004	Loretta Young-Fredric March	Dec. 25, '41	85m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p363	....
Belle Starr (color)	20th-Fox	207	Randolph Scott-Gene Tierney	Sept. 12, '41	87m	Aug. 23, '41	p250	p161	p386
Below the Border	Mono.	...	Rough Riders	Jan. 30, '42	...	...	...	p464	....
Billy the Kid Wanted	Prod.	257	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Oct. 24, '41	64m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p299	....
Billy the Kid's Roundup	Prod.	258	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Dec. 12, '41	58m	...	...	p376	....
Billy the Kid Trapped	Prod.	259	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Feb. 20, '42	...	...	...	p467	....
Birth of the Blues	Para.	4109	Bing Crosby-Mary Martin	Nov. 7, '41	86m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	p452
• Blonde Comet, The	Prod.	116	Virginia Vale-Barney Oldfield	Dec. 26, '41	67m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	....	....
Blonde from Singapore	Col.	3041	Florence Rice-Lief Erickson	Oct. 15, '41	65m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	....	....
Blondie Goes to College	Col.	3017	Penny Singleton-Arthur Lake	Jan. 15, '42	...	...	...	p409	....
Blue, White and Perfect	20th-Fox	227	Lloyd Nolan-Helene Reynolds	Jan. 6, '42	75m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p408	....
Blues in the Night	WB	110	Priscilla Lane-Richard Whorf	Nov. 15, '41	88m	Nov. 1, '41	p343	p308	....
Body Disappears, The	WB	111	Jeffrey Lynn-Jane Wyman	Dec. 6, '41	70m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
Bombay Clipper	Univ.	6031	William Gargan-Irene Hervey	Feb. 6, '42	61m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p432	....
Borrowed Hero	Mono.	....	Alan Baxter-Florence Rice	Dec. 5, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p407	p364	....
Born to Sing	MGM	...	Virginia Weidler-Ray McDonald	Not Set	82m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p442	....
Broadway Big Shot	Prod.	207	Ralph Byrd-Virginia Vale	Feb. 6, '42	59m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	....	....
Brooklyn Orchid	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-William Bendix	Not Set	50m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	....	....
Bugle Sounds, The	MGM	220	Wallace Beery-Marjorie Main	Jan. '42	101m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p387	....
Bullet Scars	WB	...	Regis Toomey-Adele Longmire	Not Set	...	...	...	....	....
Bullets for Bandits	Col.	...	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Feb. 12, '42	...	...	...	p364	....
Burma Convoy (formerly Half Way to Shanghai)	Univ.	6035	Charles Bickford-Evelyn Ankers	Oct. 17, '41	60m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	p137	....
Buy Me That Town	Para.	4102	Lloyd Nolan-Constance Moore	Oct. 3, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p262	p208	p210
CADET Girl	20th-Fox	220	Carole Landis-George Montgomery	Nov. 28, '41	69m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p351	....
Cadets on Parade	Col.	3035	Freddie Bartholomew-Jimmy Lydon	Jan. 22, '42	...	...	...	p409	....
Call Out the Marines	RKO	217	Victor McLaglen-Edmund Lowe	Feb. 13, '42	67m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p443	....
Camp Nuts	Col.	...	Jackie Gleason-Jack Durant	Mar. 12, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Canal Zone	Col.	...	Chester Morris-John Hubbard	Mar. 19, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Captains of the Clouds	WB	122	Jas. Cagney-Dennis Morgan-Alan Hale	Feb. 21, '42	115m	Jan. 24, '42	p473	p308	....
Castle in the Desert	20th-Fox	234	Sidney Toler-Arleen Whelan	Feb. 27, '42	62m	...	...	p476	....
Charley's Aunt	20th-Fox	201	Jack Benny-Kay Francis	Aug. 1, '41	82m	July 26, '41	p262	p172	p288
Charlie Chan in Rio	20th-Fox	206	Sidney Toler-Mary Beth Hughes	Sept. 5, '41	62m	Aug. 23, '41	p262	p172	p260
Chocolate Soldier, The	MGM	208	Nelson Eddy-Rise Stevens	Nov. '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p289	p452
Citizen Kane	RKO	201	Orson Welles	Sept. 5, '41	119m	Apr. 12, '41	p249	p61	p367
Close Call for Ellery Queen	Col.	3031	Bill Gargan-Margaret Lindsay	Jan. 29, '42	...	...	...	p463	....
Code of the Outlaw	Rep.	164	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Jan. 30, '42	...	...	...	p487	....
Come On, Danger	RKO	285	Tim Holt	Not Set	58m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
Common Touch, The (British)	Anglo-Amer.	...	Greta Gynt-Geoffrey Hibbert	...	95m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	....	....
Confessions of Boston Blackie	Col.	3028	Chester Morris-Harriet Hilliard	Jan. 8, '42	65m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	....	....
Confirm or Deny	20th-Fox	222	Don Ameche-Joan Bennett	Dec. 12, '41	73m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	....
Coriscan Brothers	UA	...	Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.-Akim Tamiroff	Dec. 25, '41	110m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	p299	p452
Country Gentlemen, The	Rep.	Reissue	Olsen & Johnson	Oct. '41	60m	Oct. 31, '41	p330	....	....

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section	Advance Synopsis	Service Data
Courtship of Andy Hardy, The	MGM	...	Mickey Rooney-Lewis Stone	Not Set	...	...	...	p476	...
Cowboy Serenade	Rep.	144	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Jan. 23, '42	66m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p443	...
DANGEROUSLY They Live	WB	121	John Garfield-Raymond Massey	Feb. 14, '42	78m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	...	...
• Dangerous Lady	Prod.	115	Neil Hamilton-June Storey	Oct. 3, '41	64m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p219	...
Date with the Falcon	RKO	213	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Jan. 16, '42	63m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	...
Day in Soviet Russia, A	Artkino	...	Documentary	Not Set	60m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	...	...
Death Valley Outlaws	Rep.	172	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 29, '41	56m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	...	...
Design for Scandal	MGM	213	Walter Pidgeon-Rosalind Russel	Dec. '41	82m	Nov. 15, '41	p361	p351	...
Devil Pays Off	Rep.	111	Margaret Tallichet-William Wright	Nov. 10, '41	70m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p343	...
Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde	MGM	201	Spencer Tracy-Lana Turner	Sept. '41	123m	July 26, '41	p248	p134	p367
Dr. Kildare's Victory	MGM	217	Lew Ayres-Lionel Barrymore	Jan. '42	92m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	...
Don't Get Personal	Univ.	6037	Hugh Herbert-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 2, '42	60m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p343	...
Double Trouble	Mono.	...	Harry Langdon	Nov. 21, '41	63m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p332	...
• Down Mexico Way	Rep.	042	Gene Autry	Oct. 15, '41	78m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p277	p421
Down in San Diego	MGM	203	Bonita Granville-Ray McDonald	Sept. '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p250	p207	p353
Dressed to Kill	20th-Fox	202	Lloyd Nolan-Mary Beth Hughes	Aug. 8, '41	74m	July 26, '41	p249	p149	p236
• Driftin' Kid	Mono.	...	Tom Keene	Oct. 17, '41	55m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	p277	...
Dude Cowboy	RKO	282	Tim Holt	Dec. 12, '41	59m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	...	p260
Dudes Are Pretty People	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-Jimmy Rogers	Dec. 25, '41	...	...	...	...	...
Dumbo (Color)	RKO	293	Disney Feature Cartoon	Oct. 31, '41	64m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	...	p452
Duke of the Navy	Prod.	206	Ralph Byrd-Veda Ann Borg	Jan. 23, '42	...	...	...	p409	...
ELLERY Queen and Murder Ring Col.		3030	Ralph Bellamy	Nov. 18, '41	70m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	...	...
FANTASIA (color) (Revised)	RKO	292	Disney-Stokowski	Apr. 3, '42	82m	Nov. 16, '40	p262	p2	p286
Father Takes a Wife	RKO	204	Adolphe Menjou-Gloria Swanson	Oct. 3, '41	79m	July 19, '41	p262	p197	p236
Feminine Touch, The	MGM	207	Rosalind Russell-Don Ameche	Oct. '41	95	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p386
Fiesta	UA	...	Armida-Antonio Moreno	Nov. 28, '41	45m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	...	...
Fighting Bill Fargo	Univ.	6065	Johnny Mack Brown	Dec. 19, '41	...	...	...	p364	...
Fleet's In, The	Para.	...	Dorothy Lamour-William Holden	Not Set	93m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	...
Fly By Night	Para.	...	Nancy Kelly-Richard Carlson	Not Set	68m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p376	...
Flying Cadets	Univ.	6028	Wm. Gargan-Peggy Moran	Oct. 24, '41	60m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p161	...
Forbidden Trails	Mono.	...	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Dec. 26, '41	59m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p396	...
Forgotten Village, The	Mayer-Burstyn	...	Documentary	Sept. 16, '41	67m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	...	...
Four Jacks and a Jill	RKO	214	Ray Bolger-Anne Shirley	Jan. 23, '42	68m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	...
Freckles Comes Home	Mono.	...	Johnny Downs-Gale Storm	Jan. 2, '42	...	...	...	p396	...
Frightened Lady (British)	Hoffberg	...	Marius Goring-Helen Hays	Nov. 7, '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	...	...
'Frisco Lil	Univ.	...	Irene Hervey-Kent Taylor	Mar. 20, '42	...	...	...	p467	...
GAUCHOS of Eldorado	Rep.	162	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Oct. 24, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p308	...
Gay Falcon, The	RKO	206	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 24, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p218	...
General Suvorov	Artkino	...	Documentary	Sept. 19, '41	100m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	...	...
Gentleman at Heart, A	20th-Fox	228	Carole Landis-Cesar Romero	Jan. 16, '42	66m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p432	...
Gentleman from Dixie	Mono.	...	Jack LaRue-Marian Marsh	Sept. 5, '41	63m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	p206	...
(formerly Li'l Louisiana Belle)
Ghost of Frankenstein, The	Univ.	...	Lon Chaney-Sr. Cedric Hardwicke	Mar. 13, '42	...	...	...	p463	...
Girl from Leningrad (Russian)	Artkino	...	Zoya Fyodorova	Dec. 19, '41	92m	Dec. 27, '41	p431	...	...
Girl Must Live, A (British)	Univ.	6045	Lilli Palmer-Margaret Lockwood	Sept. 19, '41	69m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	...	p367
Girls Town	Prod.	202	June Storey-Edith Fellowes	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	p476	...
Glamour Boy	Para.	4110	Susanna Foster-Jackie Cooper	Dec. 5, '41	80m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	...
Gold Rush, The	UA	...	Chaplin—Words and Music	Not Set	...	...	...	...	...
Go West, Young Lady	Col.	3015	Penny Singleton-Glenn Ford	Nov. 27, '41	70m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	p289	...
Great Guns	20th-Fox	212	Laurel and Hardy	Oct. 10, '41	73m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	...
Great Man's Lady, The	Para.	...	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Not Set	...	...	...	p396	...
Gunman from Bodie	Mono.	...	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Sept. 26, '41	62m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p263	...
(formerly Bad Man from Bodie)
HARD GUY	Prod.	205	Jack LaRue-Mary Healy	Oct. 17, '41	68m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p263	...
Harmon of Michigan	Col.	3023	Tommy Harmon-Anita Louise	Sept. 11, '41	66m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p263	p386
Harvard Here I Come	Col.	3039	Maxie Rosenbloom-Arlene Judge	Dec. 18, '41	...	...	...	p376	...
Hatter's Castle (Paramount-British)	...	...	Robert Newton-Deborah Kerr	Not Set	100m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	...	...
Hayfoot	UA	...	William Tracy-James Gleason	Dec. 12, '41	48m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	...	...
He Found a Star (British)	Gen. Film	...	Vic Oliver-Sarah Churchill	...	89m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	...	...
Hellzapoppin	Univ.	6046	Olsen & Johnson-Martha Raye	Dec. 26, '41	84m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	...	...
Henry Aldrich for President	Para.	4104	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Oct. 24, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p210
Henry and Dizzy	Para.	...	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Not Set	...	...	...	p443	...
Here Comes the Marines	Mono.	...	Wallace Ford-Toby Wing	Dec. 26, '41	...	...	...	p432	...
Hi, Gang (British)	General Film	...	Bebe Daniels-Ben Lyon	Not Set	100m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	...	...
H. M. Pulham, Esq.	MGM	212	Hedy Lamarr-Rob't Young-Ruth Hussey	Dec. '41	117m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	p452
Hold Back the Dawn	Para.	4103	Charles Boyer-Olivia de Havilland	Sept. 26, '41	116m	Aug. 2, '41	p251	p208	p452
Honky Tonk	MGM	204	Clark Gable-Lana Turner	Oct. '41	105m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p235	p452
Honolulu Lu	Col.	3024	Bruce Bennett-Lupe Velez	Dec. 11, '41	...	...	...	p364	...
How Green Was My Valley	20th-Fox	224	Roddy McDowall-Walter Pidgeon	Jan. 23, '42	118m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p320	p452
Hurricane Smith	Rep.	108	Ray Middleton-Jane Wyatt	July 20, '41	69m	July 26, '41	p249	p197	p236
INTERNATIONAL Lady	UA	...	Ilona Massey-George Brent	Sept. 19, '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p277	p367
International Squadron	WB	106	Ronald Reagan-Olympie Bradna	Oct. 11, '41	87m	Aug. 16, '41	p262	p196	p452
(formerly Flight Patrol)
Invaders, The (British)	Col.	...	Howard-Massey-Olivier	Not Set	123m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	...	...
(formerly 49th Parallel)
It Started with Eve	Univ.	6005	Deanna Durbin-Charles Laughton	Sept. 26, '41	90m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	p205	p452
(formerly Almost an Angel)
I Killed That Man	Mono.	...	Ricardo Cortez-Joan Woodbury	Nov. 28, '41	71m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	...	...
I Thank You (British)	General Film	...	Arthur Askey-Richard Murdoch	...	81m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	...	...
JAIL House Blues	Univ.	6032	Nat Pendleton-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 9, '42	62m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p396	...
Jessie James at Bay	Rep.	151	Roy Rogers-"Gabby" Hayes	Oct. 17, '41	56m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	...	...

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
I Wake Up Screaming (formerly Hot Spot)	20th-Fox	216	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Nov. 14, '41	82m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p299	p421
Joan of Paris	RKO	218	Michele Morgan-Paul Henried	Feb. 20, '42	91m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	p442	....
Joe Smith, American	MGM	221	Robert Young-Marsha Hunt	Feb. '42	62m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p409	....
Johnny Eager	MGM	218	Robert Taylor-Lana Turner	Jan. '42	107m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p363	....
Juke Box Jennie	Univ.	....	Ken Murray-Harriet Hillard	Mar. 27, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Juke Girl	WB	....	Ann Sheridan-Ronald Reagan	Not Set	....	....	....	p464	....
Jungle Book, The	UA	....	Sabu	Jan. 30, '42	....	....	....	p396	....
•Jungle Man	Prod.	126	Buster Crabbe	Oct. 10, '41	63m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	....	....
KATHLEEN	MGM	215	Shirley Temple-H. Marshall-Laraine Day	Dec. '41	85m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	p452
Keep 'Em Flying	Univ.	6001	Abbott and Costello	Nov. 28, '41	80m	Nov. 22, '41	p386	....	p452
Kid from Kansas, The (formerly The Americanos)	Univ.	6051	Dick Foran-Andy Devine	Sept. 19, '41	60m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p221	....
King, The (French)	Trio Film	....	Raimu	Oct. 27, '41	90m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	....	....
King of Dodge City	Col.	3209	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Aug. 14, '41	63m	Aug. 9, '41	p250	p220	....
Kings Row	WB	....	Ann Sheridan-Robert Cummings	Not Set	130m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	p320	....
LABURNUM Grove (British)	Anglo Film	....	Edmund Gwenn-Cedric Hardwicke	Dec. 1, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	....	....
Ladies in Retirement	Col.	3309	Ida Lupino-Louis Hayward	Sept. 18, '41	92m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p263	....
Lady Be Good	MGM	202	Ann Sothern-Robert Young	Sept. '41	110m	July 19, '41	p248	p146	p421
Lady for a Night	Rep.	101	Joan Blondell-John Wayne	Jan. 5, '42	88m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p351	....
Lady Has Plans, The	Para.	....	Paulette Goddard-Ray Milland	Not Set	75m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p464	....
Lady Is Willing, The	Col.	3007	Marlene Dietrich-Fred MacMurray	Feb. 12, '42	91m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p351	....
Lady Scarface	RKO	203	Dennis O'Keefe-Francis Neal	Sept. 26, '41	66m	July 26, '41	p248	p160	p236
Land of the Open Range	RKO	284	Tim Holt	Apr. 10, '42	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
Last of the Duanes	20th-Fox	209	Geo. Montgomery-Lynn Roberts	Sept. 26, '41	57m	Sept. 13, '41	p260	p247	....
Lawless Plainsman	Col.	....	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Mar. 12, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Law of the Jungle	Mono.	....	Mantan Moreland	Feb. 6, '42	....	....	....	p476	....
Law of the Timber	Prod.	215	Marjorie Reynolds-Monte Blue	Dec. 19, '41	64m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p364	....
Law of the Tropics	WB	105	Jeffrey Lynn-Constance Bennett	Oct. 4, '41	78m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	....
Let's Go Collegiate	Mono.	....	Frankie Darro-Manton Moreland	Sept. 12, '41	62m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p209	....
Lone Rider and the Bandit	Prod.	263	George Houston	Jan. 16, '42	....	....	....	p409	....
•Lone Rider Fights Back	Prod.	168	George Houston	Nov. 7, '41	64m	Dec. 27, '41	p431	p320	....
Lone Rider in Cheyenne	Prod.	264	George Houston-Al St. John	Mar. 13, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Lone Star Law Men	Mono.	....	Tom Keene-Betty Miles	Dec. 5, '41	....	....	....	p387	....
Lone Star Ranger	20th-Fox	....	John Kimbrough-Sheila Ryan	Not Set	....	....	....	p443	....
Lone Star Vigilantes, The	Col.	3211	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Jan. 1, '42	58m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
Look Who's Laughing	RKO	209	Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy	Nov. 21, '41	79m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p221	....
Louisiana Purchase (Color)	Para.	4136	Bob Hope-Vera Zorina-Victor Moore	Dec. 25, '41	98m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	p332	p452
Love on the Dole (British)	UA	....	Clifford Evans	Dec. 12, '41	100m	Apr. 19, '41	p418	....	....
Lydia	UA	....	Merle Oberon-Alan Marshall	Sept. 26, '41	104m	Aug. 23, '41	p262	....	p452
MAD Doctor of Market Street	Univ.	....	Una Merkel-Claire Dodd	Feb. 27, '42	61m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	....
Magnificent Ambersons, The	RKO	....	Joseph Cotton-Dolores Costello	Mar. 13, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Major Barbara (British)	UA	....	Wendy Hiller-Robert Morley	Sept. 12, '41	115m	May 10, '41	....	p85	p353
Male Animal, The	WB	....	Henry Fonda-Olivia De Havilland	Not Set	....	....	....	p464	....
Maltese Falcon, The	WB	107	Humphrey Bogart-Mary Astor	Oct. 18, '41	100m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	....	p452
Man at Large	20th-Fox	210	Marjorie Weaver-Geo. Reeves	Sept. 26, '41	69m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p247	p353
Man from Cheyenne	Rep.	153	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Jan. 16, '42	60m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p431	....
Man from Headquarters	Mono.	....	Frank Albertson-Joan Woodbury	Jan. 23, '42	67m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p443	....
Man from Montana	Univ.	6061	Johnny Mack Brown	Sept. 5, '41	56m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	p276	....
Man Trap	Prod.	210	Neil Hamilton-June Lang	Feb. 27, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Man Who Came to Dinner	WB	117	Monty Woolley-Bette Davis	Jan. 24, '42	105m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	p332	....
Man Who Returned to Life	Col.	3034	John Howard-Roger Clark	Feb. 5, '42	....	....	....	p476	....
Man Who Seeks the Truth	Dome (French)	....	Raimu	Oct. 7, '41	80m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	....	....
Married Bachelor	MGM	205	Ruth Hussey-Robert Young	Oct. '41	81m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p247	p452
Marry the Boss's Daughter	20th-Fox	221	Betty Joyce-Bruce Edwards	Nov. 28, '41	60m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p289	....
Masked Rider, The	Univ.	6062	Johnny Mack Brown	Oct. 24, '41	58m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p276	....
Maxwell Archer, Detective (British)	Mono.	....	John Loder-Leueen MacGrath	Not Set	....	....	....	p476	....
Mayor of 44th St.	RKO	....	George Murphy-Anne Shirley	Apr. 10, '42	....	....	....	p487	....
Melody Lane	Univ.	6029	The Merry Macs-Baby Sandy	Dec. 19, '41	60m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p376	....
Men in Her Life	Col.	3005	Loretta Young-Dean Jagger	Nov. 20, '41	89m	Oct. 25, '41	p321	p277	....
Mercy Island	Rep.	110	Ray Middleton-Gloria Dickson	Oct. 10, '41	72m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	....	....
Mexican Spitfire's Baby	RKO	210	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Nov. 28, '41	70m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p247	....
Mexican Spitfire at Sea	RKO	220	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Mar. 6, '42	72m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p443	....
Miracle Kid, The	Prod.	213	Tom Neal-Carol Hughes-Vicki Lester	Nov. 14, '41	69m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p320	....
Missouri Outlaw, A	Rep.	173	Don "Red" Barry	Nov. 25, '41	58	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p364	....
Miss Polly	UA	....	Zasu Pitts-Slim Summerville	Nov. 14, '41	45m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	....	....
Mob Town	Univ.	6021	Dick Foran-Anne Gwynne	Oct. 3, '41	62m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p289	....
Moonlight in Hawaii	Univ.	6025	Mischa Auer-Jane Frazee	Nov. 21, '41	61m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p149	....
Moon Over Her Shoulder	20th-Fox	215	John Sutton-Lynn Bari	Oct. 24, '41	68m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	....
Mountain Moonlight	Rep.	107	Weaver Brothers and Elvira	July 12, '41	68m	July 19, '41	p250	p149	p236
Mr. Bug Goes to Town (color)	Para.	4114	Fleischer Feature Cartoon	Not Set	78m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p376	....
•Mr. Celebrity	Prod.	114	Doris Day-Buzzy Henry	Oct. 31, '41	67m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	....	....
Mr. Dist. Attorney in Carter Case	Rep.	112	James Ellison-Virginia Gilmore	Dec. 18, '41	68m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	p409	....
Mr. Wise Guy	Mono.	....	East Side Kids	Feb. 20, '42	....	....	....	p475	....
Mr. and Mrs. North	MGM	219	Gracie Allen-William Post, Jr.	Jan. '42	67m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	p387	....
Musical Story, A	Artkino	....	Sergei Lemeshev	Oct. 10, '41	84m	Oct. 25, '41	p331	....	....
Mystery Ship	Col.	3040	Paul Kelly-Lola Lane	Sept. 4, '41	65m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p194	p220
NAVY Blues	WB	103	Jack Oakie-Ann Sheridan	Sept. 13, '41	108m	Aug. 16, '41	p249	p205	p452
Never Give a Sucker an Even Break	Univ.	6016	W. C. Fields-Gloria Jean	Oct. 10, '41	70m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p299	p452
New York Town	Para.	4105	Fred MacMurray-Mary Martin	Oct. 31, '41	75m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p236
New Wine	UA	....	Ilona Massey-Binnie Barnes	Oct. 10, '41	87m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p157	p452
Niagara Falls	UA	....	Marjorie Woodworth-Tom Brown	Oct. 17, '41	43m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	....
Night Before the Divorce, The	20th-Fox	235	Lynn Bari-Joseph Allen, Jr.	Mar. 6, '42	....	....	....	p487	....

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	(REVIEWED)		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
Night of January 16	Para.	4106	Robert Preston-Ellen Drew	Nov. 28,'41	80m	Sept. 6,'41	p261	p235	....
Nine Lives Are Not Enough	WB	104	Ronald Reagan-Joan Perry	Sept. 20,'41	63m	Sept. 6,'41	p245	p235	....
No Hands on the Clock	Para.	4113	Chester Morris-Jean Parker	Not Set	76m	Dec. 13,'41	p406	p364	....
North of the Klondike	Univ.	....	Brod Crawford-Lon Chaney, Jr.	Jan. 23,'42	58m	Jan. 24,'42	p475	p396	....
Nothing But the Truth	Para.	4101	Bob Hope-Paulette Goddard	Oct. 10,'41	90m	Aug. 2,'41	p250	p206	p421
OBLIGING Young Lady	RKO	215	Joan Carroll-Edmond O'Brien	Jan. 30,'42	80m	Nov. 8,'41	p349	p332	....
Old Mother Riley's Circus (British)	Anglo-Amer.	....	Arthur Lucan-Kitty McShane	Not Set	70m	Nov. 29,'41	p385	....	....
On the Sunny Side	20th-Fox	232	Roddy McDowall-Jane Darwell	Feb. 13,'42	70m	....	....	p487	....
One Foot in Heaven	WB	108	Fredric March-Martha Scott	Nov. 1,'41	103m	Oct. 4,'41	p297	p206	p421
Outlaws of Cherokee Trail	Rep.	161	Three Mesquiteers-Tom Tyler	Sept. 10,'41	56m	Sept. 20,'41	p276	p263	....
Outlaws of the Desert	Para.	....	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	66m	Sept. 27,'41	p287	....	....
PANAMA Hattie	MGM	....	Ann Sothorn-Red Skelton	Not Set	....	....	....	p396	....
Pacific Blackout	Para.	4115	Robert Preston-Martha O'Driscoll	Jan. 2,'42	76m	Dec. 13,'41	p406	p364	....
(formerly Midnight Angel)	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....
Parachute Battalion	RKO	202	Robert Preston-Nancy Kelly	Sept. 12,'41	75m	July 19,'41	p249	p196	p421
Pardon My Stripes	Rep.	122	Bill Henry-Sheila Ryan	Jan. 26,'42	....	....	....	p442	....
Paris Calling	Univ.	....	Randolph Scott-Elizabeth Bergner	Jan. 16,'42	95m	Dec. 6,'41	p407	p320	....
Perfect Snob, The	20th-Fox	223	Lynn Bari-Cornel Wilde	Dec. 19,'41	62m	Nov. 15,'41	p374	p351	....
Pimpernel Smith (British)	UA	....	Leslie Howard	Not Set	122m	July 5,'41	p450	....	....
Pittsburgh Kid, The	Rep.	133	Billy Conn-Jean Parker	Aug. 29,'41	76m	Sept. 6,'41	p246	....	p353
Playmates	RKO	212	Kay Kyser-John Barrymore	Dec. 26,'41	96m	Nov. 8,'41	p349	p332	....
Powder Town	RKO	....	Victor McLaglen-Edmond O'Brien	Apr. 17,'42	....	....	....	....	....
• Prairie Stranger	Col.	2208	Charles Starrett	Sept. 18,'41	57m	Jan. 31,'42	p486	p387	....
Prime Minister, The (British)	WB	....	John Gielgud-Diana Wynyard	Not Set	94m	Aug. 23,'41	p249	....	....
Private Nurse	20th-Fox	204	Brenda Joyce-Robert Lowery	Aug. 22,'41	61m	July 26,'41	p250	p197	p236
Public Enemies	Rep.	121	Philip Terry-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 30,'41	66m	Nov. 1,'41	p342	....	....
QUIET Wedding (British)	Univ.	6044	Margaret Lockwood-Derek Farr	Nov. 21,'41	80m	Feb. 15,'41	p386	....	....
RAIDERS of the West	Prod.	252	Bill "Radio" Boyd-Lee Powell	Feb. 13,'42	64m	....	....	p432	....
Reap the Wild Wind	Para.	....	Ray Milland-Paulette Goddard	Not Set	....	....	....	p408	....
Red River Valley	Rep.	152	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Dec. 12,'41	62m	Dec. 20,'41	p418	p409	....
Remarkable Andrew, The	Para.	....	William Holden-Ellen Drew	Not Set	80m	Jan. 24,'42	p473	p443	....
Remarkable Mr. Kipps (British)	20th-Fox	....	Michael Redgrave-Diana Wynyard	Not Set	112m	Apr. 12,'41	....	....	....
Remember the Day	20th-Fox	226	Claudette Colbert-John Payne	Dec. 26,'41	86m	Dec. 20,'41	p417	p408	p452
Report from Russia	Artkino	....	Documentary	Not Set	45m	Jan. 17,'42	p462	....	....
Ride 'Em Cowboy	Univ.	....	Abbott and Costello	Feb. 20,'42	....	....	....	p464	....
Riders of the Badlands	Col.	3202	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Dec. 18,'41	57m	Jan. 31,'42	p485	p387	....
• Riding the Sunset Trail	Mono.	....	Tom Keene	Oct. 31,'41	56m	Dec. 6,'41	p395	p320	....
Riding the Wind	RKO	283	Tim Holt	Feb. 13,'42	60m	Sept. 6,'41	p246	....	....
Riders of the Purple Sage	20th-Fox	213	Geo. Montgomery-Mary Howard	Oct. 10,'41	56m	Sept. 13,'41	p275	p247	....
Riders of the Timberline	Para.	....	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	59m	Sept. 27,'41	p286	....	....
Right to the Heart	20th-Fox	229	Brenda Joyce-Cornel Wilde	Jan. 23,'42	74m	Jan. 10,'42	p451	p432	....
Riot Squad	Mono.	....	Richard Cromwell-Rita Quigley	Dec. 12,'41	60m	Dec. 13,'41	p420	p364	....
Rise and Shine	20th-Fox	219	J. Oakie-Walter Brennan-Linda Darnell	Nov. 21,'41	92m	Nov. 15,'41	p361	p351	p452
Road Agent	Univ.	....	Leo Carrillo-Andy Devine-Dick Foran	Dec. 19,'41	60m	Dec. 13,'41	p407	....	....
Road to Happiness	Mono.	....	John Boles-Mona Barrie	Jan. 9,'42	83m	Jan. 10,'42	p450	p396	....
Roaring Frontiers	Col.	3210	Bill Elliott	Oct. 16,'41	60m	Aug. 30,'41	p234	....	....
Rock River Renegades	Mono.	....	Corrigan-Kane-Terhune	Feb. 27,'42	....	....	....	....	....
Roxie Hart	20th-Fox	233	Ginger Rogers-George Montgomery	Feb. 20,'42	74m	....	....	p487	....
Royal Mounted Patrol	Col.	3201	Chas. Starrett-Russell Hayden	Nov. 13,'41	59m	Dec. 20,'41	p419	p289	....
SABOTEUR, The	Univ.	....	Robert Cummings-Priscilla Lane	Mar. 6,'42	....	....	....	....	....
Saddle Mountain Roundup	Mono.	....	Range Busters	Aug. 29,'41	60m	Jan. 17,'42	p462	p299	....
Sailors on Leave	Rep.	109	Wm. Lundigan-Shirley Ross	Sept. 30,'41	71m	Oct. 11,'41	p305	p299	p432
Salute to Courage	MGM	....	Conrad Veidt-Ann Ayars	Not Set	82m	Jan. 24,'42	p474	....	....
(formerly Out of the Past)	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....
Sealed Lips	Univ.	6038	Wm. Gargan-June Clyde-John Litel	Dec. 5,'41	62m	Dec. 6,'41	p395	....	....
Secrets of the Lone Wolf	Col.	3026	Warren William-Ruth Ford	Nov. 13,'41	67m	Nov. 22,'41	p373	p289	....
Secrets of the Wasteland	Para.	....	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	70m	Sept. 27,'41	p287	....	....
Sergeant York	WB	101	Gary Cooper-Joan Leslie	Sept. 27,'41	134m	July 5,'41	p250	p111	p421
Shadow of the Thin Man	MGM	210	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Nov. 1,'41	97m	Oct. 25,'41	p329	p308	p452
Shanghai Gesture, The	UA	....	Gene Tierney-Walter Huston	Jan. 15,'42	105m	Dec. 27,'41	p442	....	p452
Shed No Tears	Mono.	....	Edward Norris	Mar. 13,'42	....	....	....	....	....
Ships With Wings (British)	UA	....	John Clements-Leslie Banks	Not Set	....	Dec. 20,'41	p419	....	....
Shut My Big Mouth	Col.	....	Joe E. Brown-Adele Mara	Feb. 19,'42	....	....	....	p476	....
Sierra Sue	Rep.	143	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov. 12,'41	64m	Nov. 15,'41	p362	p343	....
Sing Another Chorus	Univ.	6030	Johnny Downs-Jane Frazee	Sept. 19,'41	63m	Sept. 13,'41	p259	p137	....
Sing for Your Supper	Col.	3022	Jinx Falkenburg-Buddy Rogers	Dec. 4,'41	65m	Dec. 6,'41	p394	p331	....
Sing Your Worries Away	RKO	219	Bert Lahr-Buddy Ebsen	Feb. 27,'42	71m	Jan. 10,'42	p450	p442	....
Siren of the South Seas	Mono.	....	Movita-Warren Hull	Nov. 7,'41	57m	Jan. 31,'42	p486	p218	....
• Six Gun Gold	RKO	186	Tim Holt	Aug. 8,'41	57m	Jan. 31,'42	p486	p218	....
Skylark	Para.	4107	Claudette Colbert-Ray Milland	Nov. 21,'41	93m	Sept. 13,'41	p257	p235	....
Small Town Deb	20th-Fox	217	Jane Withers-Cobina Wright, Jr.	Nov. 7,'41	72m	Oct. 18,'41	p318	p299	....
Smiling Ghost, The	WB	102	Brenda Marshall-Wayne Morris	Sept. 6,'41	71m	Ang. 16,'41	p262	p207	p452
Smilin' Through (color)	MGM	206	Jeanette MacDonald-Gene Raymond	Oct. 1,'41	100m	Sept. 13,'41	p257	p247	p421
Snuffy Smith, Yard Bird	Mono.	....	Bud Duncan-Edgar Kennedy	Jan. 16,'42	67m	Jan. 31,'42	p485	p408	....
Song of the Islands (color)	20th-Fox	236	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Mar. 13,'42	....	....	....	p487	....
Son of Fury	20th-Fox	230	Tyrone Power-Gene Tierney	Jan. 9,'42	98m	Jan. 10,'42	p449	p432	....
Sons of the Sea (British)	WB	119	Michael Redgrave-Valerie Hobson	Feb. 7,'42	108m	July 5,'41	p430	....	....
(formerly Atlantic Ferry)	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....
South of Tahiti	Univ.	6020	Brian Donlevy-Brod Crawford	Oct. 17,'41	75m	Oct. 25,'41	p330	p308	....
Soviet Power	Artkino	....	Documentary	Sept. 6,'41	112m	Sept. 27,'41	p287	....	....
Spooks Run Wild	Mono.	....	Bela Lugosi-Leo Gorcey	Oct. 24,'41	64m	Oct. 11,'41	p306	p277	....
Stage Coach Buckaroo	Univ.	6064	Johnny Mack Brown	Feb. 13,'42	....	....	....	....	....

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	— REVIEWED —
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section	Advance Synopsis	Service Data
Steel Against the Sky	WB	112	Lloyd Nolan-Alexis Smith	Dec. 13, '41	68m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p376	....
Stick To Your Guns	Para.	....	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	63m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
Stolen Paradise (formerly Adolescence)	Mono.	....	Leon Janney-Eleanor Hunt	Oct. 10, '41	62m	Oct. 19, '41	p319	p263	p386
Stork Pays Off, The	Col.	3036	Maxie Rosenbloom-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 6, '41	68m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p308	....
Strangler, The	Prod.	229	Judy Campbell-Sebastian Shaw	Mar. 27, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Sullivan's Travels	Para.	4112	Joel McCrea-Veronica Lake	Not Set	91m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p320	p452
Sundown	UA	....	Gene Tierney-Bruce Cabot	Oct. 31, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
Sun Valley Serenade	20th-Fox	205	Sonja Heine-John Payne	Aug. 29, '41	86m	Aug. 22, '41	p251	p137	p367
Suspicion (formerly Before the Fact)	RKO	208	Cary Grant-Joan Fontaine	Nov. 14, '41	99m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p158	p452
Swamp Water	20th-Fox	218	W. Huston-Walter Brennan-Ann Baxter	Dec. 5, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	p452
Swamp Woman	Prod.	230	Ann Corio-Jack LaRue	Dec. 5, '41	68m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p331	....
Swing It Soldier	Univ.	6033	Frances Langford-Ken Murray	Nov. 7, '41	66m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p331	p452
Syncopation	RKO	....	Adolphe Menjou-Jackie Cooper	Mar. 27, '42	....	....	....	p487	....
TANKS a Million	UA	....	William Tracy-Elyse Knox	Sept. 12, '41	50m	Aug. 9, '41	p250	....	p220
Target for Tonight (British)	WB	109	Documentary	Nov. 8, '41	48m	Aug. 16, '41	p318	....	p421
Tarzan's Secret Treasure	MGM	214	Johnny Weissmuller-Maureen O'Sullivan	Dec. '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p375	p289	p451
Texas	Col.	3008	William Holden-Glenn Ford	Oct. 9, '41	94m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p181	p421
Texas Man Hunt	Prod.	251	Bill (Radio) Boyd	Jan. 2, '42	60m	....	....	p409	....
They Died with Their Boots On	WB	114	Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland	Jan. 1, '42	137m	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p308	p451
This England (British)	World	....	Emlyn Williams-John Clements	Nov. 17, '41	80m	Mar. 8, '41	p406	....	....
Three Cockeyed Sailors (British)	UA	....	Tommy Trinder-Claude Hulbert	July 4, '41	77m	June 21, '41	p248	....	p288
Three Girls About Town	Col.	3016	Joan Blondell-John Howard	Oct. 23, '41	72m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p263	p367
Thunder River Feud	Mono.	....	Range Busters	Jan. 9, '42	....	....	....	p443	....
Thundering Hoofs	RKO	286	Tim Holt	Not Set	61m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
To Be or Not to Be	UA	....	Carole Lombard-Jack Benny	Feb. 15, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Today I Hang	Prod.	214	Walter Woolf King-Mona Barrie	Jan. 30, '42	....	....	....	p467	....
Tonto Basin Outlaws	Mono.	....	Ray Corrigan-John King	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p320	....
Top Sergeant Mulligan	Mono.	....	Nat Pendleton-Carol Hughes	Oct. 17, '41	70m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p308	....
Torpedo Boat	Para.	....	Richard Arlen-Jean Parker	Not Set	70m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	....
Tragedy at Midnight, A	Rep.	114	Margaret Lindsay-John Howard	Feb. 2, '42	....	....	....	p476	....
Treat 'Em Rough (formerly Panama Kid)	Univ.	....	Peggy Moran-Eddie Albert	Jan. 30, '42	61m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p408	....
Turned Out Nice Again (British)	UA	....	George Formby	Not Set	81m	July 12, '41	....	....	....
Tuxedo Junction	Rep.	113	Weaver Brothers	Dec. 4, '41	71m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p343	....
Twilight on the Trail	Para.	....	Bill Boyd	Not Set	58m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	....
Twin Beds	UA	....	George Brent-Joan Bennett	Jan. 15, '42	....	....	....	p442	....
Two-Faced Woman (formerly The Twins)	MGM	211	Greta Garbo-Melyvn Douglas	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p299	p451
Two Latins from Manhattan	Col.	3020	Joan Davis-"Jinx" Falkenburg	Oct. 2, '41	65m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Two Yanks in Trinidad	Col.	....	Pat O'Brien-Brian Donlevy	Mar. 26, '42	....	....	....	....	....
UNDERGROUND Rustlers (formerly Bullets and Bullion)	Mono.	....	Range Busters	Nov. 21, '41	....	....	....	p331	....
Unexpected Uncle	RKO	207	Anne Shirley-Charles Coburn	Nov. 7, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p218	....
Unfinished Business	Univ.	6004	Irene Dunne-Robert Montgomery	Sept. 12, '41	96m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p172	p451
Unholy Partners	MGM	209	Ed. G. Robinson-Laraine Day-Ed. Arnold	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
VALLEY of the Sun	RKO	216	Lucille James-James Craig	Feb. 6, '42	84m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	p442	....
Vanishing Virginian, The	MGM	223	Frank Morgan-Kathryn Grayson	Feb. '42	97m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	....
WEEKEND in Havana (color)	20th-Fox	214	Alice Faye-C. Miranda-J. Payne	Oct. 17, '41	80m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p421
Weekend for Three	RKO	211	Dennis O'Keefe-Jane Wyatt-Philip Reed	Dec. 12, '41	66m	Oct. 25, '41	p343	p332	....
We Go Fast	20th-Fox	208	Lynn Bari-Alan Curtis	Sept. 19, '41	64m	Sept. 13, '41	p260	p247	....
We Were Dancing	MGM	....	Norma Shearer-Melvyn Douglas	Not Set	94m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p443	....
Western Mail	Mono.	....	Tim Keene-Jean Trent	Feb. 13, '42	....	....	....	....	....
West of Cimarron	Rep.	163	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Dec. 15, '41	56m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p396	....
West of Tombstone	Col.	3203	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Jan. 15, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Wild Bill Hickok Rides	WB	118	Constance Bennett-Bruce Cabot	Jan. 31, '42	82m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	p408	....
Wild Geese Calling	20th-Fox	203	Henry Fonda-Joan Bennett	Aug. 15, '41	78m	July 26, '41	p249	p196	p367
Wings of Victory	Artkino	....	Vladimir Belokurov	Nov. 14, '41	95m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	....	....
Wolf Man, The	Univ.	6015	Claude Rains-Dick Foran	Dec. 12, '41	70m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	....	....
Woman of the Year, The	MGM	222	Spencer Tracy-Katharine Hepburn	Feb. '42	112m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p376	....
Workers, Let's Go (Czech)	Trans-Oceanic	....	Jan Werich-Jiri Voskovec	Dec. 12, '41	71m	Dec. 20, '42	p420	....	....
YANK in the R.A.F.	20th-Fox	211	Tyrone Power-Betty Grable	Oct. 3, '41	97m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p149	p451
Yank on the Burma Road, A (formerly China Caravan)	MGM	224	Laraine Day-Barry Nelson	Feb. '42	66m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p432	....
You Belong to Me	Col.	3003	Henry Fonda-Barbara Stanwyck	Oct. 30, '41	97m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p289	p451
•You'll Never Get Rich	Col.	2004	Fred Astaire-Rita Hayworth	Sept. 25, '41	88m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	p421
You're in the Army Now	WB	113	Jimmy Durante-Jane Wyman	Dec. 25, '41	79m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
Young America	20th-Fox	231	Jane Withers-William Tracy	Jan. 2, '42	73m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	....
ZIS—Boom—Bah	Mono.	....	Grace Hayes-Peter Lind Hayes	Nov. 7, '41	62m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p332	....

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in Order of Release on page 466.

---

NINE OUT OF "TEN"

---

NINE out of the Ten Best Pictures, selected in the Film Daily's critics poll for 1941, were made on Eastman Negative Films. This record reflects the strong preference for these high-quality films shown by leading directors and cameramen. Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, N. Y.

J. E. BRULATOUR, INC., Distributors

Fort Lee

Chicago

Hollywood

---

PLUS-X

for general studio use

SUPER-XX

when little light is available

BACKGROUND-X

for backgrounds and general exterior work

EASTMAN NEGATIVE FILMS

PILE IT ON! and Sell More Seats!

★ Don't whisper . . . shout.
Don't wait until the last minute
. . . plan. Don't be a pennypincher . . . be a dollar-maker.

★ No business this world has ever seen flourishes so well as motion pictures under the guiding hand of advertising.

★ And that's natural because Advertising is show business
. . . it's got to be.

★ Flamboyant...glamorous... colorful . . . attention-arresting
. . . selling stuff . . . Trailers
. . . Standard Accessories . . .
Special Accessories.

★ Use them, you lucky stiff, and make money doing it . . .

SELL MORE SEATS

with NATIONAL Screen SERVICE
PRIZE BABY OF THE INDUSTRY

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

Better Theatres

EQUIPMENT • FURNISHINGS • DESIGN • PHYSICAL OPERATION

Materials Available for Theatre Remodeling

Air-Conditioning with Self-Contained Units

Emergency Care of Critical Projector Parts

—and submitting an idea for Checking That Gum-Wad Evil

FEBRUARY 7, 1942

Just as the address of an after-dinner speaker must sparkle if he is to hold the attention and interest of his listeners, so too, must the pictures on your screen sparkle to hold patronage.

It must Sparkle!

To secure the desired screen brilliancy with present dense black and white and colored films, twice as much light is required as is possible to project by any low intensity lamp.

This necessary doubling in light is possible at an increased combined current and carbon cost of LESS THAN 2c PER HOUR, with the low cost Strong Utility High Intensity Projection Arc Lamp.

Without the snow-white light such as is secured by this lamp it is impossible to show colored films satisfactorily. The light of your old low intensity will appear a dim, muddy yellow by comparison.

Increase your business by installing Strong Utility One-Kilowatt Arc Lamps now. Theatregoers readily recognize good projection and go where it is offered.

FREE DEMONSTRATION

Write your Independent Theatre Supply Dealer today for literature, or have him arrange a demonstration in your theatre without obligation. Strong products for years have been recognized as the most dependable guide to best projection.

Complete details will be sent on request by The Strong Electric Corporation, 2501 Lagrange St., Toledo, Ohio. Export office: 90 Gold St., New York City.

There's never a dull moment in the theater with a Pittco Front

THEATER activity zooms when you remodel with a modern Pittco Front. Old patrons renew their allegiance and new ones swell your box office total—attracted by the smart appearance of your Pittco Front. Strangers in your community choose your theater as a matter of course — because the shining Pittco Front tells them that your programs, your attendants, and your prices will please.

In small towns and cities all over the country, owners and operators of theaters are finding Pittco Fronts the way to increased revenue. Fill out and mail the coupon below. You will receive, absolutely free, an illustrated booklet describing in detail some of the many Pittco Fronts which are proving good business-getters today.

When you build, we recommend that you consult an architect to make sure of an economical, well-planned job. Our experts will cooperate with him gladly in planning a Pittco Front to suit your needs. If you wish, you can pay for your Pittco Front on the Pittsburgh Time-Payment Plan — just 20% down and the balance in payments out of profits. A similar plan can usually be worked out satisfactorily with the cooperation of local banks.

A BUSIER THEATER results when you install a new Pittco Front. You can see by this theater in Lees Summit, Mo., how an inviting Pittco Front can improve the appearance of a theater and increase its popularity. Architect: L. P. Larson.

PITTCO STORE FRONTS
PITTSBURGH PLATE GLASS COMPANY
"PITTSBURGH" stands for Quality Glass and Paint

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company
2215-2 Grant Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Please send me, without obligation, your new, illustrated booklet, "Pittco Store Fronts — and Their Influence on Retail Sales."

Name.....

Street.....

City..... State.....

MARKET NOTES

Q News reports concerning equipment and materials, and those who make them

Many New Items Added

AN IMPRESSIVE list of new articles of equipment and supplies has been issued by the National Theatre Supply Company as additions to their line and now available through all branches.

Among them is a new line of lighting fixtures for fluorescent lamps. They include ceiling luminaires, wall brackets and cove units and strips.

Another major addition is a line of milk bars and soda fountains designed for theatres, which is now joined with Columbus candy cases, recently taken over for theatre field distribution, to form a complete catalog of candy display and refreshment booth equipment.

Other additions include Helene Curtis chrome furniture, fortune-telling weighing scales, McGill coin changers, Velso soap tissues for toilet and cosmetic rooms, which are soft tissues impregnated with mildly scented soap which, upon being wet and rubbed, develops a lather.

Yet another acquisition for applications of fluorescent lamps is a diffusing and color correction unit of plastic material, available in a number of color combinations.

Wood-Standard Chair

A NEW MODEL auditorium chair, incorporating the essential features of standard chairs in the line, but with wood end standards, has been brought out by Heywood-Wakefield. Development of the chair, it is pointed out, is in response to the Government's request that manufacturers take every means to conserve materials necessary to accelerated war production.

The standards of this model, called the "Victory," are of hardwood which lends itself to clear-lacquer finish, creating a so-called blond wood effect in the modern style, with the beauty of the wood grain readily apparent. These standards may be lacquered, however, in colors. Aisle boxes are of metal.

The back panel of this model is also of wood, shaped to form a protective edge for the fabric. All remaining units and construction are of steel.

Rear Fold Included

AN ANNOUNCEMENT has just been issued by Vallen, Inc., Akron, Ohio, manufacturers of curtain tracks and controls, that its rear fold feature, especially desirable in connection with cyclorama effects, can be specified at no extra cost if the order is for 45 feet or more of Vallen track No. 152.

Handling Theatre Sales

MORTON L. CLARK, president of the Arkraft Sign Company, Lima, Ohio, manufacturers of marquees and attraction panels and changeable silhouette type letters, has appointed W. R. Stich (famously known as "Bill"), of Carrolltown, Pa., sales manager of the theatre letter division of the company.

Mr. Stich was Pennsylvania state manager for Arkraft for a number of years, and for the last two years national account executive. He is a member of the Variety Club.

Mr. Stich, it is announced, will concentrate on sales of Arkraft changeable letters as an item of the line separate from Arkraft marquees and attraction panel equipment. Emphasis will be placed on the 9 3/4-inch embossed baked wrinkle-finish letter, although other types and sizes will remain available, states Mr. Clark.

W. R. STICH

"MUST BE THAT NEW CELOTEX SOUND-CONDITIONING JOB!"

This Modern Acoustical Treatment Makes Good Entertainment Sound Better

YOU MAY INSTALL the most expensive sound equipment. You may show only the best pictures. But if acoustics are not right, your patrons can't enjoy the entertainment they have paid for. That is why so many theatres have invested in Celotex Sound Conditioning to gain maximum benefit from good equipment and good pictures.

Plenty of theatre operators can tell you that Celotex Sound Conditioning does make a difference in attendance. And they know they have taken no risk, because Celotex Sound Conditioning Representatives guarantee satisfactory results.

When you deal with Celotex Sound Conditioning Representatives, you are sure of (1) Proved engineering practice, (2) Uniformly dependable sound-conditioning products, and (3) Guaranteed results.

Write for complete details!

CELOTEX
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
SOUND CONDITIONING

In Canada: Dominion Sound Equipments, Ltd.

THE CELOTEX CORPORATION • CHICAGO

Why Did 000,000* Stay Away?

000,000* wives stayed away from movies last week because they could not pry husbands out of fireside chairs.

Grumpy husbands are easily irritated. Jumping up to let others pass is not their idea of entertainment.

When their view is blocked by the row in front standing to let someone enter or leave, they glower.

Why irritate them? End all these exasperating moments. How? Install Kroehler Push-Back Theater Seats and watch your box office go up.

This sensational seat keeps grumpy husbands and all other patrons luxuriously seated throughout the entire show. No stepped-on toes. No interrupted vision. Write today for latest facts on this revolutionary theater seat.

**Use your own figure, but you know it's big!*

Kroehler Mfg. Co., Public Seating
Division, 1248 South Wabash Avenue,
Chicago, Illinois

206 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y.

2013 S. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles,
California

24 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco,
California

Standard Theatre Supply Corporation,
78 Broadway, Boston, Massachusetts

Elliott Film Co., 72 Glenwood Avenue,
Minneapolis, Minnesota

L. T. Rockenstein, 3327 Locust St.,
St. Louis, Missouri

(Export) Roy Chandler, 505 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York

KROEHLER Push-Back SEATS

PATENTED
MADE BY WORLD'S LARGEST FURNITURE MANUFACTURER

Conserve Copper

It has come to our attention that several of the Locals of I.A.T.S.E. are rendering a very commendable and patriotic service in metal conservation by stripping the copper plating off the butt ends of used copper plated projector carbons and saving the copper drippings which accumulate in their projector lamp houses.

The copper thus saved is turned over to local salvage organizations or sold to regular metal scrap dealers where it in turn can find its way back into use for War purposes. At least one Local uses the money thus derived to purchase Defense Bonds or gives it to the U.S.O.

Immediate and concerted action on the part of all exhibitors and projectionists throughout the country is necessary. Practically all of the copper used on projector carbons can be salvaged thereby, without which, continuance of production of copper coated carbons is questionable.

---

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

How to Strip the Copper Plating from Carbon Stubs

1 Slit a short angular cut in the copper plating with knife.

2 Raise the copper plating at this slit with a knife blade.

3 Peel the plating off in a spiral with fingers.

---

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

NATIONAL CARBON COMPANY, INC.

Unit of Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation

CARBON SALES DIVISION: CLEVELAND, OHIO

GENERAL OFFICES: 30 East 42nd Street, New York, N. Y.    BRANCH SALES OFFICES: New York, Pittsburgh, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco

Getting What Theatres Need Means Conserving What They Get

MOTION PICTURES have been authoritatively acknowledged in recent weeks to be an important cog in the nation's military machinery, and accordingly, the theatre business is likely to be given soon the priority rating it has been seeking.

Many months ago the motion picture industry, noting its absence from lists of activities which were being granted priority privileges, pointed somewhat diffidently to the potential significance of the film theatre to the war effort, largely as an instrument of healthy morale. It appears that those showmen who referred to their functions in this manner were indulging in no selfish pretense. In addressing a meeting of the Association of Motion Picture Producers and others in Hollywood in January, Lowell Mellett, U. S. Co-ordinator of Films, is reported to have said:

"Unless the Army, Navy or some other Government agency calls upon you for a specific task, your greatest war service will be to stay right here on the job in Hollywood making pictures. . . . Not only has the industry contributed greatly to national morale in keeping people happy with pictures, but it has accomplished a great educational feat."

Subsequently Quentin Reynolds, magazine writer and press correspondent who had been residing for some time in London, told diners at a New York affair in his honor that motion pictures were regarded in England, by now a veteran in present-day war operations, as quite as important as planes, guns, tanks and factories in the pursuit of victory.

Nobody Asked for So Much

Well, few in the industry itself would have gone quite that far. Most of us would have been content with recognition of the fact that our business represents an investment of several billion dollars and at the same time is in a position to render some measure of service on the home front. Reasonable protection of this investment, plus an opportunity to serve in the war effort, is all that has been asked for, and granting of the latter fulfills the essential requirements of the former.

That this opportunity will be granted now appears more likely than at any time since restrictions upon industry began to be threatened. The efforts of production and exhibition executives, more recently working with and through Mr. A. Julian Brylawski in Washington, have now effected a consideration of theatre needs for the purpose of formulating a basis on which a priority rating can be determined. Executives and technicians have been asked to submit data indicating the requirements of theatres for continued and effective operation, and it is the opinion of those thus in close contact with these explorations that a fairly high priority rating will be asked for and probably issued.

Conservation Is Necessary

No priority rating, however, no matter how favorable to the efficient operation of theatres, will eliminate the necessity to conserve equipment. In some classifications—for example, projectors, motors, generators, compressors—production will be drastically limited, if not altogether prohibited, if not in consequence of the Government's requisition of all necessary materials, then as a result of the diversion of plant facilities to the manufacture of military supplies.

Vigilant, intelligent, informed maintenance (which has always been a good idea) is being pointed out by theatre managements and equipment interests alike as a first rule of wartime theatre operation.

At the same time, no necessity is seen for fear that basic supplies will not continue to be available in adequate quantity. Such fears, it is pointed out among equipment dealers, have already brought about a measure of hoarding, threatening depletion of supplies from which many theatres could be serviced later on, as their immediate need arose.

The tendency to stock up is of course partly due to the absence of the assurances that a priority rating would have given the theatre business. With the needs of theatres officially recognized and constructively dealt with in the measures now being prepared in Washington, there will be no reason to seek parts and supplies until required for use and normal spares.

There are no grounds, according to the National Carbon Company, for anxiety over the continued supply of projection carbons. While the company has already restricted its shipments, this has been to regulate supplies rather than to indicate a threatened shortage.

Even should a shortage of standard carbons occur—and none is anticipated—this would be due to the unavailability of copper rather than of carbon, and there is a possibility that a fairly suitable substitute might be found for copper.

Salvaging Carbon Copper

A substantial amount of carbon copper can indeed be returned to the nation's stocks of the metal. This is an interesting development of wartime operation that is likely to become regular practice should the peacetime price of copper warrant it. For the duration, of course, salvaging of the copper plating on carbons, and of copper drippings, is the patriotic thing to do. The procedure is illustrated in an advertisement of the National Carbon Company in this issue.

Local 143 of the IATSE in St. Louis recently urged its members to follow this practice, and it has been taken up by other organizations since. The copper saved is turned over to a patriotic salvage unit or sold to scrap metal dealers.

Incidentally, the mystery of those "750 projectors per year," reportedly allotted by the late OPM, is solved in some knowing circles as really 750 per quarter. However, theatre allotments are not likely to be so loosely measured. Theatres most probably will get tons or nothing.—G. S.

FEATURES OF THIS ISSUE

	Page
Plenty of Materials for Remodeling . . . . .	8
Good Today and Any Day . . . . .	10
Plaza Theatre, Charlotte, N. C. . . . .	12
Applying Unit Air-Conditioners . . . . .	14
Allen: Warranty Against Equipment Defects . . . . .	16
Schlanger: Gum Disposal Devices . . . . .	18
Maintaining Critical Projector Units . . . . .	20
Refinishing Side Walls . . . . .	23
F. H. Richardson's Comment . . . . .	25
About People of the Theatre . . . . .	32

A section of Motion Picture Herald devoted to the physical theatre, published by the Quigley Publishing Company, Inc., Rockefeller Center, New York, every fourth week. Martin Quigley, publisher and editor-in-chief. George Schutz, editor. Colvin Brown, general manager. Ray Gallo, advertising manager. C. B. O'Neill, Western advertising manager, 624 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago.

In Wood, Glass, Fibre, Fabric and Plastics there are—

Plenty of Materials for Theatre Remodeling

Q There are many ways of refurbishing, even modernizing, a theatre with the products that are now and are likely to remain available. They provide an ample and varied supply for theatre remodeling

By GEORGE SCHUTZ

FORMICA PLASTIC SHEETS

Staff Photo

FABRON COATED FABRIC

FLEXGLASS

WOOD VENEER

WHEN THE motion picture theatre business of America—and of Canada as well—began some six or seven years ago a program of modernization which was continued consistently well into the year of Pearl Harbor, it was preparing itself, however inadvertently, for its wartime job in the face of wartime restrictions. Hundreds of new theatres were constructed, thousands were remodeled. Compared with conditions in the early 1930's, the exhibition plant today is highly competent, in geographical distribution, equipment and environmental character, to provide wholesome, stimulating recreational gathering places for all the people.

With its operating essential supplied, the motion picture theatre business can "carry on" without pampering. Architectural, decorative remodeling was never necessary to the fundamental function of the theatre, which is merely to reproduce motion picture films. But motion picture exhibition is a business even in wartime; men with investments in theatre properties still must consider competition and the accumulating charges of continued deterioration. Also, when war finally did come, there remained many hundreds of theatres in need of substantial renovation.

About these, or about any of those needs for minor refurbishing which are so constantly arising among motion picture theatres, nothing could be done for the duration were they to be subjected to arbitrary prohibition without reference to the availability of suitable materials. Thus far the only word from Washington has been "no remodeling," but this has come prior to completion of an official wartime formula for the motion picture industry. It is possible that by remodeling Washington has meant major structural changes involving large amounts of metals and other "critical" materials, whereas the theatre business characterizes the veneering of fronts, interior refinishing and such revisions as remodeling, and that is of course the sense in which the word is used here.

WHAT THE MARKET AFFORDS

For remodeling of this sort there are plenty of materials which are not only readily obtainable today, but likely to remain so indefinitely. That is to say, their manufacture requires neither raw materials nor plant facilities of significance to the war effort. Many of these materials are well established in the theatre field as products peculiarly suited to theatre architecture and decorative treatment. The following is by no means an exhaustive examination of these materials, but it does indicate their range and variety.

Glass Products:

The theatre has taken advantage of the remarkable developments in glass building and decorative materials in many ways. Widespread has been the use of opaque structural glass tiles, such as Carrara and Vitrolite, for veneering fronts, to give the facade a striking pattern in contrasting tones or brilliant colors, at the same time effecting a finish that is permanent and sound architecturally. There appears to be an excellent inventory of the metallic members used to apply these tiles, and even were these to be converted for war production, it is likely that substitutes (wood, for example) or another method of application could be employed.

Glass block is another material that the theatre has effectively used both inside and outside, and it remains obtainable.

Reeded, beaded and other translucent decorative glass is available for doors and interesting partition effects—not to mention Herculite and Tuflex for all-glass entrance doors.

Then there is Flexglass, which theatres have recently been finding so peculiarly suited to their requirements for finishing off, in colorful and brilliant fashion, structural columns, fountain recesses and all sorts of rounded surfaces.

And any reference to glass materials should include mention of mirrors, which are readily available in any shape and size, to give a dash of new interest here and there, or to produce an impressive spectacle in a panel from floor to ceiling, often eliminating more expensive and less durable ornamentation.

Plastic Veneers

Well known as a material of many applications in theatres is Formica, which has undergone minor revision to eliminate from its composition certain "critical" chemicals, with the change actually bringing about unexpected improvement. Wall panels and borders in colorful patterns, ticket booth and door finishes—these are some notable applications of Formica, which comes in dull and gloss finishes, a great variety of solid shades, and in wood-grain and fabric-texture effects. Impervious to moisture, material of this kind is not only easily cleaned, but provides absolutely water-tight finishing for doors and ticket booths. It makes perfect splash panels and cosmetic shelves.

PLASTIC FLUORESCENT FIXTURES

Plastics for architectural and decorative use are taking ever new forms, suited to built-in light troughs, luminous plaster inserts, etc., etc.

Another product for wall panels, door finishes and so on is Marlite, which is available in a wide choice of colors and in wood-grain and pattern types (a recent application of Marlite is pictured on page (11)).

Wood and Fibre Boards

Theatre operators and designers are of course familiar with wood veneers as a convenient and effective means of covering existing interior walls; they are available in dark and light finishes of the common woods, and additionally in such imported grains as Prima Vera and zebra-wood. At least in the common woods, there has appeared as yet no threat to the availability of authentic wood veneers.

Fixtures in top picture are typical of those for two 100-watt lamps; type immediately above contains four 40-watt fluorescent lamps. (Photos courtesy General Electric.)

Then there are the fibre boards, of which the types marketed under the name of Celotex are notable examples. These, as well as many of the mineral tiles and boards in the Celotex line, are now and promise to remain obtainable, providing, as they so long have done, material for auditorium acoustical correction as well as redecoration, and also for the construction of new partitions and the attractive finishing of walls in lounges and similar areas.

Fabrics and Other Wall Coverings

The variety of coated, woven and flexible composition materials for finishing of walls and wall-like structures, such as standee rail fascias, is too great for more than a few to be named here. In the coated type we have, for example, Wall-Tex, with which colorful patterns, formal or gay, may be applied as easily as applying wallpaper, but in a coated cotton fabric that may be washed down repeatedly without injury for years.

A new product highly suited to theatre walls is Di-Lon, which comes in a variety of patterns and is applied like wallpaper to plaster or other sufficiently smooth surfaces. Relatively new also is Fabron, another coated fabric for the decorative finishing of walls and available in many patterns and colors suited to all parts of the theatre.

Materials like wall linoleum and the lighter weights of simulated leather offer less certainty for the duration than the

(Continued on page 31)

CARPETING

Bigelow-Sanford Lokweave

Alexander Smith Crestwood Velvet

Good Today— and Any Day!

Q While materials for remodeling and repairs involving basic structural changes are drastically restricted for the duration, many materials are available for refurbishing and modernization of appearance. Here are recent applications of a number of such materials.

STRUCTURAL GLASS and PLASTIC VENEER

■ Front of the Colonial theatre in Elmira, N. Y., owned and operated by Fred Schweppe. The entire facade and entrance area is faced with Carrara structural glass in cadet blue, beige and ivory. Entrance doors are finished with Formica laminated plastic in blue and beige. The marquee, carrying Wagner attraction display equipment, is painted red and blue. Architect, Michael J. DeAngelis.

"BLACK LIGHT" FOR AUDITORIUM MURALS

■ One of the overall "black light" luminous murals which extend along each side wall of the recently remodeled Arlington theatre in Arlington Heights, Chicago suburb. The house is owned and operated by the B. A. Lucas Theatre Corporation of Chicago; D. N. Sandine was the architect. A composition of the signs of the Zodiac, each mural is executed in Conti-Glo luminous paints that glow in special shades of green and coral, and in a tone almost white. The regularly painted ground is dark blue. Conti-Glo mercury "black light" units. Actuation of the murals is by Conti-Glo "black light" units spaced along each side of the ceiling, and while actually exposed, they are obscured by the decorative treatment of the ceiling (cameras catch near-ultraviolet light, hence the picture shows light issuing from the units, whereas it is really invisible). The seating—800 Kroehler retracting-seat chairs—have coral corduroy backs and dark blue Fabricoid seats, maroon and white standards.

■ Above is shown a section of the lobby of the remodeled Empire theatre in Cincinnati, owned and operated by Charles Fine in association with two sons, Arthur and Eugene. Lobby, foyer and toilet areas were completely refinished in Marlite, a tempered presdwood material with permanently integrated glazed surface and available in a full range of solid colors, and many wood and marble effects.

■ At right is foyer wall at entrance doors, with Marlite panels in green and ivory and the doors covered with pre-finished wall paneling of similar material. Application of Marlite can be made directly on plaster or wallboard surfaces, and existing walls are as adaptable as new so long as they are rigid, flat and impervious to moisture. A special mastic is used to affix Marlite permanently to the wall.

A Small Theatre Design Following Modern Plan Studies

■ The general plan and architectural details of the new Plaza theatre in Charlotte, N. C., so well exemplify the newer approach to the problems of motion picture theatre design that this little theatre may be fairly regarded as important. Important it is especially as a modern consideration of the problem of the small theatre, and particularly that in a small town or community of modest homes. The Plaza, owned and operated by the Midwood Theatre Corporation under the presidency and management of A. B. Craven, is situated in a community of industrial workers and small merchants. Mr. Craver reports the total investment, including land and equipment, as $65,000. The architect was M. R. Marsh of Charlotte. The property includes a 100x200-foot parking lot at the rear of the theatre, paved with crushed stone, illuminated with eight 300-watt lamps, provisions of which include a rack accommodating 60 bicycles. The building is of brick wall construction with concrete floors and wood roof. In the front treatment, the brick is painted white, architectural interest being derived from a unification of pylon (housing ticket booth and supporting sign), marquee (swirling from the pylon), and window-like display cases. The trim color throughout is light green, ticket booth details are executed in glass blocks and Carrara structural glass. The Plaza employs the turnstile system of admission-recording, with entrance controlled by a chromium rail.

■ Location of the Plaza in a quiet neighborhood permitted elimination of an intervening lobby, so that the full effect of being inside the theatre is attained upon entrance into a foyer, which has been given the benefit of available footage to create an atmosphere of leisure and luxury. Walls of the foyer (shown below) are coral wall linoleum, interrupted by Pittsburgh mirrors and flower-pot niches lined with Chinese red linoleum. Illumination throughout (including niches) is by downlight consisting of filament lamps in cylindrical recesses. Splayed end walls, semi-circular terrazzo floor space in front of the mirror between doors to the auditorium, and various circular details introduce a curvilinear character which is expressed in the carpeting, a Wilton fabric of pale green figures on a rich brown ground. Furniture is metallic covered in coral and ivory leatherette.

■ Finished in fibre board, the walls present a band formation graded in blue from medium to light, with gilt wood mouldings. The plaster ceiling is light buff, the natural color of the sand employed in the matrix. The rear wall (above standee rail) is Acousti-Celotex. Walls of the standee area, also the rail, is linoleum in mottled pompeian red and gold. The rail has a birch crown. In the rear view of the auditorium will be noted round windows on either side; one is in the manager's office, the other in a cry-room. The rear view also clearly indicates the seating plan, with "reverse slope" and stagger in center bank from eighth row back, the method being that of variable-widths throughout each row to allow an even aisle line without recourse to 30-inch end chairs. Chairs, which have coral mohair backs and coral leatherette seats, are spaced 37 inches back to back. Illumination is from coves rimming coffers spaced down the middle of the ceiling, incorporating Anemostat air diffusers. The coves contain filament lamps on four-color dimmer circuits. The Plaza is air conditioned by mechanical refrigeration. (See Outline of Equipment and Furnishings and picture of projection room on page 24.)

Applying Self-Contained Units To Theatre Air-Conditioning

How to Fit Unit Conditioners into Your Cooling Requirements

By CARL F. BOESTER

ONE OF THE PRIME advantages of the use of self-contained cooling plants in theatre air-conditioning is that derived from the fact that they are made on a mass production basis, hence you get about as low a cost per ton of capacity of air-conditioning equipment as it is possible to get. Another distinct advantage is that because you put in multiples of these units, as a rule you have greater flexibility in satisfying your load requirements. If you have a theatre only half full of people, you only need to run half of your equipment, therefore you get maximum operating economies.

These self-contained air-conditioning units consist of a steel cabinet, the dimensions of which vary with the size and capacity of the unit. To illustrate, however, a 3-ton unit is from 6 to 6½ feet high, 3 to 4 feet wide, and 2 to 3 feet in the other dimension; the 5-ton unit would not be any wider or higher, but it might be slightly larger in the third dimension. Of course, the 10- and 15-ton units are substantially larger, but the 10-, 15-, and 25-ton units are more or less custom-built jobs rather than mass production units, and they come in more or less special dimensions rather than in a standard size.

All of the units, however, contain a motor of the required horse-power, and a starter for the motor. This motor in turn belts a compressor having a capacity of the required tonnage or rate of refrigeration. The condenser, or the device to which the heat that is picked up out of the air by the conditioning unit is finally rejected, is in all cases a water-cooled unit, and this condenser therefore surrenders this heat to water, and water therefore is required as the medium for finally rejecting the heat that is absorbed in the theatre.

The conditioning unit also contains a finned cooling coil over which air is passed, whereby the air is cooled and dehumidified; and a blower is also in the unit, operated by a small motor which circulates the air through the unit. The units usually contain filters for filtering the air, and placed in the unit are return air grilles, and also grilles for supplying the filtered and dehumidified air to the area adjacent to the location of the unit.

All of these various pieces of equipment are properly piped up in the factory and the complete system charged with the refrigerant; so, then, the only connections to make are those for supplying water to the condenser, electricity to the two motors, the connection from the thermostat to the motor starter, and a connection to a sewer or rather drain for draining away the moisture that is condensed in the process of dehumidification. Some of the units have the thermometer already mounted on the cabinet of the unit, in which case this phase of the wiring is complete.

General Electric Conditioner

CARL F. BOESTER

simply have to divide the number of seats in your theatre by fifteen to find out the maximum horsepower required to do your cooling job. Then divide the horsepower of the unit into this figure in order to determine how many of these units you will need. You would, of course, need more of the 3-horsepower units than you would 5-horsepower units, and so on.

LOCATION OF UNITS

The location of these units in the auditorium depends on a number of things. Of course, there are no two theatres in the country identical in floor area, and therefore there can be no particular rule to follow for the location of the units. However, the important thing to remember is this—that an air-conditioning installation satisfactory to the patrons is all-important, therefore the air that comes out of these self-contained units must be so distributed that you do not get drafts or any sensation of chill in the immediate area where these units are placed. Do not place them so they blow a blast of cold air on the back of patrons' necks, for to do so will cause considerable discomfort. If you must place one or more units at the rear of the theatre, particularly back of the standee rail, then you must adjust the grilles of the units so that the air passes over the heads of the occupants, settles down, and sort of returns in their faces. People do not normally mind the movement of air if it is face-ward.

Now if you place some of these units along the sides of your theatre, try also to adjust the grilles in such a way that the air blows into patrons' faces. Of course, where you can place these units at the floor, down along the proscenium wall, it is no difficult task to get the grilles adjusted so that you get even diffusion out towards the patrons, and at a level to provide maximum comfort.

Some attention should be given to the problem of how the air returns to your theatre. For instance, if the self-contained units are mounted along the proscenium wall, you might have a short length of ductwork run behind the proscenium wall, and have the return air come into a grille

NUMBER OF UNITS

Now a safe rule-of-thumb to employ in selecting the number of these units that you require is this: For each horsepower of capacity of these self-contained units you will find that they will handle the cooling requirements for fifteen people; so you placed in the proscenium wall above the supply grille from the unit. This is quite important if the return air grille is in the center section of the unit; otherwise there would be a certain amount of short circuiting and you wouldn't get the desired distribution.

MOUNTING ON BRACKETS

Many theatres do not have space for the location of these units along side walls, and this can be accomplished by mounting these units on brackets placed about seven feet above the side aisle. In this case the return air can come in through the bottom of the unit, and the supply air, of course, being discharged from the grille in the top and face of the unit. In the case of those units placed back of the standee rail, it would probably be best to build a small stack above the unit, connected to the return air grille, and take the air in there, rather than allow it to return in the center section or bottom of the unit, because this might create a draft around the feet of those patrons nearest the unit.

WESTINGHOUSE UNIT

In a theatre where you have a large number of these units, you of course have a greater installation expense than if you have one or two of them. When you have a number—say, six or eight—of these self-contained units placed around the auditorium, you have the problem of running condenser water and electrical wiring to the units, and also drains for the condensate, unless you can arrange for a receptacle to be built into these self-contained units, that can be emptied once a day by the theatre janitor. This would save you the cost of putting in condensate drains. It is much like the old days, when the ice refrigerator was used and you had to empty daily the pan of melted ice water. While this is somewhat of a nuisance, it is probably cheaper than digging up the floor to put in some drains. The amount of water needed is rather small, and probably 1/2- or 3/4-inch water pipe to the units and back to some convenient drain can be run along the floor without tearing it up. Likewise, armored cable for electrical wiring connections.

OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

It seems as though it would be quite desirable to have each individual unit operated by a separate thermostat, placed in the area adjacent to these units, so that they can be operated according to the requirements of that particular area. By doing this you would simplify the control problem of having one master thermostat trying to operate a group of such units.

Like all pieces of machinery, these units must be given a reasonable amount of maintenance, but they do require considerable less maintenance than the tailor-made installations do. About the only attention is oiling the electric motors. Nothing else need be worried about, other than probably a careful check to see that the unit has an adequate refrigerant charge. You must of course frequently examine the air filters to see that they are free of dirt, so that they do not cut down on the amount of air circulated.

The mounting of these units is more or less important because there cannot help but be a certain amount of vibration, and if not properly mounted this vibration is amplified into annoying noises. As a matter of fact, when buying this equipment you certainly ought to have some kind of a guarantee as to the noise the units are liable to make. However, this need not be any matter of serious concern, because most of the manufacturers have pretty well insulated these cabinets for sound, and mounted the equipment in such a way as to dampen the vibration.

WATER SUPPLY

Since all of these units use water for absorbing the heat that is picked up by them, the matter of the water is all-

U. S. AIR-CONDITIONING UNIT

important. If you have extremely hard water you certainly should have a condenser of the cleanable type, because in a very short time they will lime up to the point of where you can't get sufficient water, and your capacity falls off. As a matter of fact, when they do lime up the head pressure goes up, which means an

usAIRco

calling all

EXHIBITORS

WAR HAS ADVANCED
"BOOKING DATES" ON
Kooler-air

If you plan to install comfort cooling in time for next summer's business, "book" your equipment now — before prices and deliveries become less favorable. Write USAIRCO today.

UNITED STATES AIR CONDITIONING CORP.
 MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

ARTKRAFT

(Patented)

Embossed 18-Gauge Steel
9 1/4" Oversized
CHANGEABLE LETTERS

- Simple
- Snug fit
- Inexpensive
- The strongest made
- Most modern letter made
- Easily removed and replaced
- Beautiful black baked wrinkle finish
- Readable at greater distance by actual test
- Mounting lugs welded on before plating
- Copper plating makes letters and lugs rustproof.

Quarter-Inch Drawn Galvanized Hanging Rods for *Artkraft Letters. The finest, safest, strongest method. No sag. No rust. No rattle.

Signs of Long Life  Artkraft Is Delivering For Defense And You!

Write for Free Catalog
THE *ARTKRAFT SIGN CO.
 LIMA, OHIO, U.S.A.

*Trademarks Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

Micro-Switch

REWIND

3000 ft. capacity

Improved Micro-Switch and patented Reel Drive Dog guarantee smoother, non-clinching operation. Specify GoldE Model "H" for trouble-free, truly automatic rewinding.

V belt drive
Available Now!!

ASK YOUR DEALER—OR WRITE

GoldE Mfg. Co.

Model "H" Automatic Enclosed Rewind, with improved Micro-Switch.
 Underwriters' Laboratory Approved

1214 W. Madison St.
 Chicago

increased load on the electric motor, even to the point of where it might be overloaded; so that it is very important to pay attention to the condition of the condenser in these units. It is quite important also that consideration be given to the cost of water for condensing, for in some communities the cost for water is quite high. In that case it would be an exceedingly smart investment to purchase a cooling tower having the capacity for cooling the condenser water equal to the combined capacity of all the units.

A cooling tower is that device which uses the condenser water over and over again, and therefore materially saves on the amount of water required for this purpose. The cooling tower cools the water by evaporating a small portion of it; therefore, a certain amount of water is needed to make up for that evaporated. In cases where cooling towers are required there unfortunately is no rule of thumb whereby they may be selected, because the capacity of a cooling tower of a given size is affected by the prevailing wet bulb temperature of the air in the various localities, and therefore if you elect to use a cooling tower be sure that the firm selling you the self-contained units avails itself of a reliable make of cooling tower and thereby the services of a competent engineer in the selection of such a cooling tower.

CARRIER UNIT CONDITIONER

The amount of electricity that you consume per ton of refrigeration developed in these self-contained units depends very much on the temperature of water that is supplied to the condensers of the conditioning units. Therefore, the colder you can get the condenser water the lower your operating costs are going to be. If well water is available for this purpose you are indeed fortunate, because as a rule well water is as cold a water that you can get in the summer time for condensing.

Self-contained unit air conditioning equipment may be about the only way you can acquire air-conditioning facilities this year; some manufacturers have a number of these units in stock, and if you order early enough you will find them still available. Therefore, if you plan on equipment of this kind you should purchase it early. All in all, it makes one of the most practical ways of doing a job of theatre cooling at low first-cost.

A LINE O' LAW OR TWO

Warranty Against Equipment Defects

By RUDOLPH ALLEN

Member, New York Bar

IN THE PURCHASE OF equipment, either new or used, an exhibitor should protect himself by insisting on a written warranty covering the quality of the merchandise purchased. In this way he creates insurance for the eventuality that should the merchandise purchased be defective, he will have recourse against the manufacturer or distributor.

Sometimes a written warranty cannot be obtained, or if given, it is limited to cover a specific period of time. Even then all may not be lost should defects appear in the quality of the goods, for the law, constantly on the alert to protect the innocent and unwary, has promulgated the principle of "Implied Warranty." This simply means that in some instances, the law will create a warranty where none was given either orally or in writing.

CASE OF "IMPLIED WARRANTY"

Thus, in the case of East End Amusement Co., Inc., vs. Atmospheric Screen Co., reported in 171 N. Y. Sup. 283, an action was brought by an exhibitor to recover the sum of $260.00 which he paid for a motion picture screen. He claimed that the screen was defective and wanted his money back. It appears that the manufacturer sold the screen under a written agreement which contained the following language:

"If screen is not satisfactory, same will be renewed without liability to East End Amusement Co.," also, "If at the end of seven days the screen is not satisfactory, all moneys paid by East End Amusement Co. will be refunded."

The screen was installed by the defendant and used by the exhibitor in its business for about six weeks when some spots appeared on the screen which affected its reflective qualities. The defendant promised to remedy the defects and failed to do so, and plaintiff thereupon refused to pay certain installments due under the contract amounting to $50.00. The defendant then promised to furnish a new screen if the plaintiff would pay his installments. This he did, but the defendant refused to furnish a new screen. The facts in the case were not disputed and the only point urged by the defendant was to the effect that there was no warranty with the sale of the screen and also since the exhibitor had used it for a period longer than the seven days set forth in the agreement, he was precluded from returning the screen, nor could he expect to be compensated for any possible defect which might have occurred after the restricted period.

LAW OF "IMPLIED WARRANTY"

The Court, however, decided in favor of the exhibitor and set the law to be as follows:

"The defendant is the manufacturer of the screen and knew the purpose for which it was to be used. Irrespective of any contract, there was an implied warranty against latent defects and of the fitness of the screen for its intended use. In addition, the contract itself expressly provided, as noted, for the replacement of the screen if not satisfactory. The provision of the contract relating to a refund of the moneys paid within seven days obviously would not apply to latent defects not discoverable within the time limited. It appears that defendant was obligated under the original contract to replace the screen."

From this decision, there is but one conclusion to be reached, namely that a manufacturer cannot hide behind limited guarantees where there may arise latent defects. It is, however, preferable to obtain a written warranty.

■ For major displays of coming attraction advertising, a sure-to-be-seen location is often hard to find. No location could be more directly in the eye of outgoing patrons than one in the standee directly opposite an aisle head. Here, then, is a place to use the new star-photo transparencies and interior type panels with the colored plastic letters that mount on rods or clip to the panels, either at bottom or top. Many convenient and effective schemes are possible for such applications.

announcing heywood's new

VICTORY

... a smart style that saves vital materials

V----

HERE is Heywood's newest, smartest design . . . the VICTORY . . . a stylish chair that solves your seating problems perfectly and economically. Will it add flash, color, and sparkle to your house interior? Well, just take another look at the view above. Isn't that a real "showman's" chair? Is it comfortable? You bet it is . . . and with the famous Heywood comfort; the kind that pays at the box-office. Will it stand up . . . will it wear? Only for a lifetime or two, but by then, either you or your grandsons will probably want to reseat! Is it attractive and colorful? Yes, the Victory is available in stunning colors . . . or for that ultra smart house, you can get the Victory in the new, Blond Modern furniture finishes. These bring out the full beauty of its close grained, hardwood. aisle ends. The Victory is a chair that will win your admiration . . . a chair that will win patronage for your theatre. Why not ask your Heywood Sales Representative NOW, to give you full details on this amazing chair . . . the Victory?

HEYWOOD-WAKEFIELD
Theatre Seating Division
GARDNER, MASS.

DESIGNS and DEVICES

By BEN SCHLANGER

Theatre Architect & Consultant

Here's a Way to Check That Gum Evil

ALTHOUGH THEATRE managers have long had to contend with the chewing gum disposal problem, no serious effort seems to have been made to solve it. Considerable carpeting is destroyed by gum wads carelessly dropped by patrons; used gum also gets stuck to concrete floors and the underside of auditorium seats. Gum wads on the undersides of seats and of arm blocks are a nuisance and take their toll in annoyance and maintenance.

An educational program of some kind would be appropriate, but the use of the screen for it is not particularly desirable because of psychological objections. Suggestion is a better way; the patron must be educated subtly to do his part. He should not be made to feel that his actions are being criticized and that he is being embarrassed into carrying out the theatre management's request.

It has been the practice in many motion picture theatres to avoid the sale of any chewing gum; but of course people will chew gum and will bring it into the theatre. This situation has suggested the devices presented here. They consist in small built-in boxes, their faces semi-flush with the wall, and their interiors illuminated with low-wattage lamps. It is proposed that these boxes be placed at strategic points in such areas as the foyer, standee promenade and other traffic channels where they are sure to be seen by patrons.

These boxes may be divided into two types. Some of the boxes would be designed to allow for the disposal of gum, and some of them would make it very simple and easy for the patron to take out a small slip of paper to be used for gum disposal.

Actually, the idea is not so much to make the patron dispose of the wrapped up gum in a designated box as it is to get the patron to realize that the important thing is to wrap the used gum in a piece of paper before disposing of it. It would be comparatively easy, in cleaning the theatre, to sweep up used gum which is wrapped in paper. The message suggested for each of these types of boxes would imply that the actual disposal of the wrapped gum is optional; it is likely, however, that a certain percentage of people would dispose of the wrapped gum in convenient designated boxes.

It is advisable that a container for the paper slips, and a container for the wrapped gum, be separate from each other. These boxes should be built into the wall at a height above the floor for easy reach, and should be used in as large a quantity as feasible, the amount being determined chiefly by the number of desirable locations in any one theatre. The boxes themselves can be very small, and since their illumination is entirely internal, and of a very low level, they would not interfere in any way with projection light or with the decorative scheme.

It is quite possible that large manufacturers of chewing gum might see fit to participate in a campaign of this sort since it would be very much to their advantage to make gum chewing as inoffensive as possible.

and here's how to make 'em

[All rights reserved by the author except that it is expressly provided that production of gum disposal devices according to the accompanying designs and directions is permitted to bona fide operators and managers of motion picture theatres, for their own use.]

GUM DISPOSAL BOXES

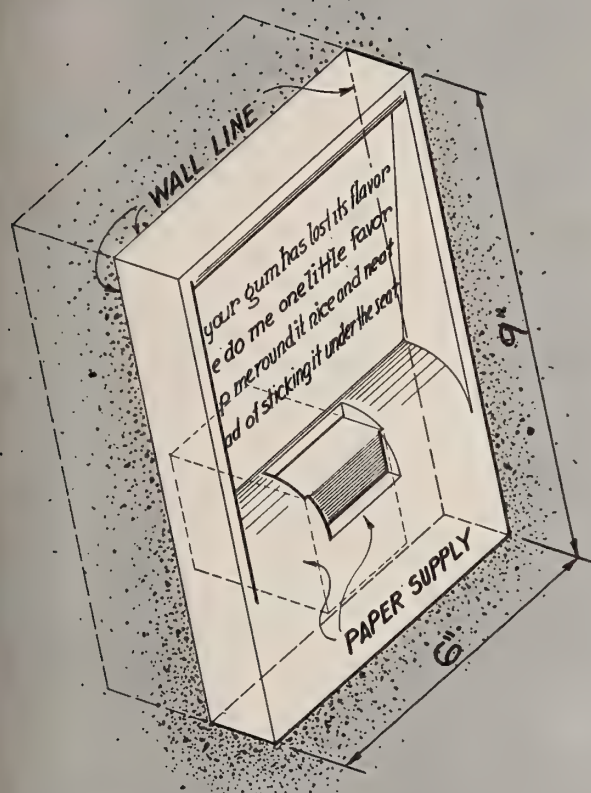

FIGURE 2

Two views of the gum disposal boxes. It is constructed very much the same as the paper dispensing box. The disposal chamber should have a paper bag lining, to be discarded along with the gum wads. On the glass should be attractively lettered this jingle:

When your gum has got to go.
Drop it in the slot below.

or some other jingle answering the purpose.

SECTION

SECTION

FIGURE 1

Two views of the dispensing box. A 7-watt standard electric bulb is used behind a sheet of colored diffusive glass. On the glass would be attractively lettered this jingle:

When your gum has lost its flavor
Please do me one little favor.
Wrap me 'round it nice and neat
Instead of sticking it under the seat.

or some other jingle found to be appropriate. The front face of the box would be hinged so as to open, to allow for relamping and paper refill. A disposal box should be placed from 3 to 4 feet away from each of the paper dispensing boxes installed.

— Export Office —
330 W. 42nd Street, New York City
Attention: J. E. ROBIN

*We provide the services of Registered Architects.

World's Largest Pop Corn Producers
AMERICAN POP CORN CO., SIOUX CITY, IOWA

John J. Seeling's

WAYS & MEANS

in operation, installation, maintenance

John J. Sefing is a graduate mechanical engineer and has long specialized in theatre work

q Wartime Care of Critical Projector Units

NOWADAYS theatre-goers take for granted that the picture on the screen will be clear, steady and properly lighted. And in view of the amazing development and advancement of projection technics, they are justified in criticizing the theatre whenever anything is visibly wrong with the projection. Even in these troubled times, an exhibitor cannot tell his side of the story, that certain parts for the equipment are difficult to obtain, and that repairs cannot be made at a moment's notice. It is therefore up to the exhibitor to enforce proper and intelligent maintenance of his projection equipment, so as to give dependable operation at the lowest possible cost, and to avoid emergency measures so far as he can.

Present-day projector mechanisms are built with precision and accuracy, but they require regular attention if the exhibitor is to get the full benefit of their "built-in" durability and to assure himself first-class performance over a long period of time. The projector must be serviced and maintained in a manner consistent with its particular demands and requirements. For the general upkeep of the projector head, a theatre projectionist usually is competent to handle the necessary maintenance; however, there are certain methods that should be followed in the daily routine operation, maintenance and servicing of the projector head that, as a rule, neither the projectionist nor the exhibitor is quite familiar with. To meet conditions presented by wartime operation, knowledge of these methods ought to be available in every theatre.

SERVICING INTERMITTENT

A part of the projector mechanism that does hard and yet delicate work is the intermittent movement. This movement requires occasional removal and replacement for servicing. On the non-operating side, remove the main drive gear by first releasing the two thumb screws and take off the cover plate. Then depress the ratchet spring and turn the gear retaining screw counter-clockwise. Care should be taken that the spot sight box is removed first and the film gate is opened on the operating side. Then with a long screwdriver inserted through the hole in the front of the case, remove the intermediate gear shaft retaining collar.

The intermittent clamp screws should be loosened on the operating side of the head and the clamps pushed toward the sprocket shaft and then tightened lightly in this position. The framing knob should be turned by hand until the bent end of the oil tube or the movement is turned to the left of the intermittent flywheel on the non-operating side of the head. Then by holding the intermittent gear with the left hand, the flywheel with the right hand, push out the movement gently.

Checking and Replacement

After the movement is serviced, or a new one is ready for installation, check the position of the intermittent movement aligning pin in the frame on the non-operating side and also note the pin hole in the movement case. Before inserting the movement into the head, check the clamps and make sure that they are not loose or protruding, otherwise insertion will be difficult. Never force the movement in place, as it will fit the head easily if all is set correctly.

In meshing the flywheel gear with the intermediate gear, make sure that the white mark on the latter is adjacent to the mark on the intermittent flywheel. With these two gears in mesh, push the movement gently into the head, and also the intermediate gear shaft into its bearing. While inserting the movement, make sure that the pin hole in the intermittent case is in alignment with the holes in the projector head, and that the intermediate gear does not mesh with the vertical shaft gear at this time. At this point, turn the vertical shaft gear with the shutter shaft so that the synchronizing mark on this vertical shaft gear faces straight toward the non-operating side of the head. With the intermittent in mesh with the intermediate gear, turn this gear until the white mark, which was adjacent to the mark on the intermittent flywheel, is now in alignment with the synchronizing mark on the vertical shaft gear. Then enter the pin into the pin hole in the movement, after gently meshing the intermediate gear with the vertical shaft gear.

On the operating side of the head, set and tighten the clamps on the movement and replace the retaining collar on the intermediate shaft. Before tightening the set screw on this shaft, make sure that there is a little end play.

Replacing Main Drive Gear

In replacing the main drive gear, place this gear on the shaft and push forward while someone rotates the shaft from the operating side in order to engage the half-collar. Then turn this gear by hand until the internal teeth mesh with the lower sprocket internal gear teeth, and also the external teeth mesh with the intermediate gear. Press the main drive gear as far as it will go and insert the lock spring and the retaining screw. Tighten this screw until it stops under normal turning of the screwdriver, making sure that the pawl on the spring is properly engaged with the ratchet on the screw.

Before switching on the projector motor, make sure that the mechanism turns easily and freely by hand, otherwise damage might result.

Oiling Intermittent Movement

To oil the intermittent movement, use the oil tube on the non-operating or gear side of the head. A narrow spout oil can should be used so as not to block tight the oil tubes and create an air pocket inside. Oil slowly, and only with first-grade projector oil, until the marks on the sight glasses (at the operating side of the head) are reached. The oil level should be checked daily, especially at the start of the day's run. However, never oil the movement while the projector is in operation—or any other parts of the mechanism, for that matter.

Checking Alignment After Replacement

In case there is noise in the movement after it is installed, run the projector without any film, and while it is running, press the hand against the flywheel shaft. If the noise stops or is lessened, loosen the flywheel shaft screws and pull or pry the flywheel shaft toward the non-operating side of the head a little, then tighten the screws. If when the projector is restarted there is still some noise, press again against the flywheel shaft. If this helps reduce the remaining noise, repeat the procedure. Do not push the flywheel shaft too much at first, so as to stop the noise all at once; move it just a little at a time until the noise disappears or the shaft resists further pulling or prying. When the above procedure does not eliminate the noise or reduce it to a negligible amount, the movement should be removed entirely from the head. In this case the movement should be repaired by a reliable service man, or, if possible, be sent to the manufacturer.

Whenever the intermittent sprocket

POINTERS ON PROJECTION

1. FOR PROJECTION ARCS use Cat. 217283 Tungar Bulbs in rectifiers designed for use with 15-ampere bulbs. Use 99X46 Tungar Bulbs in larger rectifiers specifically designed for 20-ampere bulbs. Do not interchange. These types provide high efficiency, low power consumption and steady, uniform output.

99X46 Tungar Bulb
20 amperes

2. FOR EXCITER LAMPS use 99X44 Tungar Bulbs. Their outstandingly uniform output and low loss characteristics are particularly desirable in low voltage rectifier operation.

99X44 Tungar Bulb
6 amperes

For more information on bulbs for better projection, just write Section A-2552, Appliance & Merchandise Dept., General Electric Co., Bridgeport, Conn.

GENERAL  ELECTRIC

$7.25 Postpaid

UP-TO-THE-MINUTE

with

SOUND TROUBLE CHARTS AND ALPHABETICAL INDEX

The second revision of the sixth edition of F. H. Richardson's Bluebook of Projection. 700 pages of the most advanced data on sound reproduction and projection.

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
ROCKEFELLER CENTER, NEW YORK

Theatre Owners are saying . . .

"Be sure to see

AMERICAN
Bodiform
RESTFUL CHAIRS

and AMERICAN
Avion
THEATRE CHAIRS

before you buy any theatre seating"

No other theatre seating offers you such beauty, comfort, safety and housecleaning economy. Investigate NOW!

American Seating Company
GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN

NO INDEED

WE CAN'T PUT THIS OFF

Neither can you put off re-dressing your stage, nor replacing worn-out or defective curtain tracks and controls.

We stand ready to serve you with the best.

VALLEN, INC.

Mfrs. of
ValLEN Noiseless All-Steel Ball-Bearing Tracks and Floating Curtain Controls
AKRON, OHIO

SUPER-LITE LENSES
PRO-JEX SOUND UNITS

It pays to install the best—
Your patrons will appreciate it!

A TRY-OUT WILL CONVINCE YOU

PROJECTION OPTICS CO. INC.
330 LYELL AVE., ROCHESTER, N.Y., U.S.A.

needs changing—and it will after some length of time in use—there are certain steps that must be taken if the repair must be made in the projection room. First remove the main drive gear as explained before, then get the "feel" of the mechanism by turning the shutter shaft knob by hand. This "feel" or turning effort should be remembered for comparison when the repaired movement is reinstalled. Remove the movement from the head by the process explained. Drain the movement by unscrewing the screw marked "oil-drain." Rotate the flywheel on the movement until the sprocket is locked midway in the stopped position, and unscrew the clamping screws as well as the retaining screws.

SERVICING INTERM'T. SPROCKET

Slowly remove the cover, star wheel and sprocket from the casing, with the pull carefully in line with the center axis of the sprocket. Pull off the gasket carefully and clean it if it is dirty, and if it is deteriorated, replace it with a new one.

The locating pin on the casing should be noted in its relative position to the hole in the cover. The two set screws should be loosened on the shaft and the collar removed. The movement should be set in place so that the center of the intermittent sprocket near the pins is rigidly held in place by a small block shaped like a "V." With the assembly held in place, the large ends of the pins should point downward and clear the bottom of this block by about  $\frac{1}{8}$  inch. While in this rigid position, the pins should be driven out with a small drive punch and a light-weight hammer. When this is done, the star shaft can be pulled out of sprocket and cover bearing.

Cleaning and Oiling

Before installing the new sprocket, clean it carefully and oil it with light projector oil. The star shaft should also be cleaned. Then run it back and forth inside the sprocket a few times to make sure of a proper fit.

Replacing the Sprocket

Do not force the sprocket on the shaft by hammer blows; it should work freely by hand. Insert the shaft into the cover bearing, then into the sprocket bore and finally through the out-board bearing. Carefully line up the large holes on the sprocket with the large holes on the shaft. Choose a hole that lines up best and ream it slightly with a special Taper Pin Reamer until it looks clear through and through. Tap a new pin securely in the reamed hole, then follow the same process for the second hole and pin.

Set the collar on the end of the shaft and allow a slight clearance before tightening the set screw. This clearance will allow enough end play for the movement while in operation. If a pin extends beyond the finished surface, cut it or file it off smoothly so as not to offer any interference with the film stripper.

Pick up the movement case in the left hand, with the oil tube in a vertical position and the cover pin at the left side. Install the cleaned or new gasket on the face of the case, making sure that all holes fit. Then turn the flywheel until the pin or the cam is in the well at the bottom.

Assuring Proper Position

With the right hand pick up the cover of the sprocket assembly and turn the star toward the case until the pin hole in the cover lines up with the pin on the case. Then bring the two together and contact one of the curved sides of the star with the curved surface of the cam, all the while inserting the cover pin into the hole in the cover. Close the cover completely. Put in place all the retaining and clamp screws and tighten them evenly all around.

At this point the movement case should be filled with fresh projector oil to the marked "level" on the glass sight windows. Also oil the outboard bearing of the sprocket shaft. Move the oil in the case by spinning the flywheel so all parts are oiled.

Checking for Backlash

Check the star in the movement so that no back-lash is present in the locked position and also that it is not too tight.

Make necessary adjustments to insure the flywheel turning freely and that no back-lash is transmitted to the sprocket when in this locked position. To do this adjusting turn the flywheel until the star is in the locked position, all the while holding the movement so that the oil sight windows are level horizontally, then loosen all of the cover retaining screws a little to permit the cover to settle down by its own weight and make better contact between the star and cam. After this, tighten the retaining screws on the cover.

Finally the movement is to be installed in the head, as explained. However, turn the projector by hand before putting on the main drive gear to feel the turning effort. If it "grabs" or binds, especially when the sprocket begins to revolve, the movement must be removed and re-serviced.

As can be seen from the above, this work cannot be done carelessly as complications will surely result. The main idea is to understand thoroughly the type of head you have and then to proceed cautiously and intelligently in servicing and maintaining it. Any experienced projectionist can be competent enough to do the necessary minor repairs in an emergency, especially now when work must be done on the job.

TIMING REAR SHUTTER

Another bit of information that may be helpful to some exhibitors and projectionists concerns the timing of the rear shutter. The following data covers the timing of vertical type rear shutters.

First turn by hand the shutter adjusting knob until the shutter adjustment stop screw—operating side of head and near the pad roller adjusting screws—is about halfway in the slot. Then take off the rear shutter light shield cap from the guard by simply pulling it away from the shutter.

With a screwdriver, loosen the two screws on the hub of the shutter. Reach down to drivemotor and turn the projector by hand in the normal operating direction until the intermittent sprocket stops turning, then turn very slowly by hand until this sprocket begins to turn and advances two teeth. Stop there and adjust the loose shutter with one of the blades at mid-point, lining up with the thumb nut stud on the left side of the rear shutter guard. Leave in this position and screw tight the clamp screws on the hub with the shutter forced back away from the end of the shaft.

Finally put on the cap on the rear shutter guard and test the adjustment with some film threaded in the projector. If any additional slight adjustments are necessary for better timing, use the shutter adjusting knob. A warning seems proper at this time about mounting the projector head, which if done improperly will cause trouble in operating and in any future removal from the base. When the head is set and ready for fastening, use a heavy screwdriver, never put a wrench on it, as too much tightening will hack the slot in the mounting bolt heads and even may knock the mechanism base out of alignment.

This warping of the base may also result when the shims used in lining up the drive shaft hole with the "floating" shaft in the sound drive, are placed too far away from the mechanism mounting holes. Always place these shims as close as possible to the mounting holes in order to have all the working parts of the head in perfect alignment.

Q Refinishing Side Walls

IN KEEPING UP the inside of the theatre we often give our attention to mere appearance to the neglect of structural conditions. Sometimes an exhibitor is not in a position to investigate thoroughly for himself, or he does not know exactly what to do when a problem arises. A lot of times the trouble can be overcome easily and cheaply if done the right way and at the right time.

Let's take, for example, a case where the exhibitor had constant trouble with the side walls of his theatre, at the wainscot, or what is known as the chair rail area. This particular chair rail area was finished off with light-gauge metal up to a height of about 4 feet off the floor. After this metal was in place for a number of years, it began in many spots to show signs of corrosion and general deterioration.

The theatre operator spent considerable time and money in trying to touch up the bad spots with paint, and where the metal was broken, either by chemical action or by mischievous boys, patches were put on; however, in spite of the money spent in repairs, the trouble kept recurring. In this case, the only advice that could be given the exhibitor was that he should rip off

PUT SMASHING POWER—COLOR— AND PICTORIAL VALUE IN YOUR MARQUEE

- WITH
- WAGNER SLOTTED ALUMINUM LETTERS
  - COLORED PLASTIC LETTERS
  - AND
  - TRANSPARENCY FRAMES

As shown in the above illustration of the Orpheum Theatre (Omaha) marquee, all Wagner's Letters, Aluminum and PLASTIC, as well as Wagner Transparency Frames, are slotted to fit the standard Wagner Frame.

Send for illustrated literature

WAGNER SIGN SERVICE, Inc.

218 S. Hoyne Ave.
CHICAGO

706 E. Hancock Ave.
DETROIT

123 W. 64th Street
NEW YORK

A SIMPLIFIED ACCOUNTING SYSTEM FOR EXHIBITORS!

COMPLETE • ACCURATE • EASY
REQUIRES NO BOOKKEEPING
EXPERIENCE WHATSOEVER

SPECIAL SECTIONS FOR ALL OPERATING DATA

Holiday and Date Record
Film Clearance Chart
Insurance Record
Equipment Purchase Record
Fixed Expense Apportionment
Income (Ticket Numbers, Prices,
Cash, Taxes, Costs of Features,
Shorts)
Payroll and Check Record, Bank
Record, Social Security Tax Deductions by Individual and complete listing of all expenses
Profit & Loss, weekly and cumulative
Summary Sheet
Contract Record for each exchange

$2.00

POSTPAID

NO OTHER SYSTEM HAS THESE FEATURES

Running Times Entire Week's Transactions on one page
Complete Contract Information
Complete yearly and departmental summaries
Vari-colored stock throughout for speedy reference
DuPont Fabbkote Cover
Hammermill Paper
Special "Wire-o" Binding that holds sheets firmly and keeps them absolutely flat
Size of Book is 13" x 10"
Entire book a miracle of convenience and simplicity

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
ROCKEFELLER CENTER ■ NEW YORK

the metal all around the auditorium and to install a finish of more substantial material.

MOISTURE PENETRATION

When this metal was ripped off, it was found that moisture had continuously penetrated through the walls, causing rapid corrosion of the metal and creating a swell breeding place for all kinds of bugs, which thrive in dampness. Most of the wood furring strips, backing up the metal, were completely rotted away, leaving the metal hanging loosely with hardly any support. The exhibitor was astonished to find that such a bad condition existed and no doubt would not have tolerated it for a minute had he known beforehand what was in back of his chair rail.

To correct a condition of this sort, especially in a theatre, the first thing to do is to make the walls impervious to moisture. As a rule, any wall not properly waterproofed, and especially areas below or near the outside grade or ground line, will permit moisture to leak gradually through its surface.

MOISTURE-PROOFING

An old way, and still a very good one, to waterproof walls, floors, roofs, etc., is to use mastic-asphalt; however, in the case under consideration the mastic-asphalt had to be put on very carefully in order not to leave any untreated seams through which dampness could penetrate. A mastic-asphalt waterproof job is good if applied by a competent and experienced workman.

Alum Solution Wash Method

A method of damp-proofing that has been used a great deal in treating walls consists in special washes which, applied to finished or unfinished brick walls, render them impervious to moisture. These washes consist of an alum-solution made by dissolving one pound of alum per gallon of water, and a soap-solution made by dissolving 2 1/5 pounds of pure hard soap per gallon of water.

Before applying such washes make sure that the brick walls are wiped dry and clean where the dampness appeared, and that they are not colder than 50° Fahrenheit. The soap wash should be made boiling hot, then applied on the walls at from 60° to 70° Fahrenheit. One such wash should be applied and allowed to dry for about 24 hours, after which another wash is put over it. However, where aluminum sulphate can be substituted for the alum, the cost of the damp-proofing will be cheaper, as only about two-thirds as much sulphate as alum is required and the results will be somewhat better.

PLASTER FINISHING

After the damp-proofing is finished and it is dry, either Keen's patented cement, or plain cement plaster can be applied over wire lath rigidly fastened in place. Only a hard plaster should be applied for this chair rail, to a height of about 4 feet from the floor, as ordinary gypsum plaster is too soft to withstand kicks, scratching, etc.

Keen's cement is generally used with considerable lime-putty or hydrated lime. For a good job in using Keen's cement plaster, use equal parts of hydrated lime and Keen's cement. The main advantage in using this particular plaster is that there is less likelihood of the so-called "sounding-board" effect which is noticed in other hard-wall plasters when tapping it with the knuckles of the hand after it sets on the wall.

When plain cement plaster is used as a finish for the chair rail all around the theatre, care should be taken that it is thoroughly dry before paint is applied. It should set and dry for at least a week before painting. The main difficulty in doing a good paint job on cement plaster is that it is strongly alkaline and even caustic when new. If the paint job must be done immediately—and usually this is the case—a good practice is to wash the new cement surface several times with a strong solution of zinc-sulphate, the sulphuric acid of which unites with the free lime, leaving the zinc in the pores as an oxide or hydrate. In applying this solution, care must be taken in handling and applying it. There are also several other preparations for this purpose on the market.

In finishing off a chair rail, a half-round or bead moulding of wood can be installed at the top of it. This can be painted white, aluminum or any other color desired to match the colors in the auditorium. When fabric is used to cover up the rest of the walls, a good practice is to install a wood ground at the top of the plaster into which the fabric can be fastened, and over this the moulding.

Outline of Equipment And Furnishings

PLAZA THEATRE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

[Pictured and Described on pages 12-13]

Marquee and theatre name sign: Charlotte Sign Company, Charlotte, N. C.

Attraction boards and letters (Adler), display frames (Wiggins): Charlotte Sign Company, Charlotte, N. C.

Turnstile: Perey Manufacturing Company, New York City.

Proscenium curtain and drapes: Novelty Scenic Studios, Inc., New York City.

Coin changer (Brandt), projectors (Century), projection lamps (Ashcraft), rectifiers (Benwood Linze), rewinders (Golde), film cabinets (Neumade), changeovers (Weaver), sound equipment (RCA), lenses (Projection Optics), curtain control equipment (Vallen), spotlights (Kliegl), public address system (RCA): Dixie Theatre Supply Company, Charlotte, N. C.

Dimmers: Ward Leonard Electric Company, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Compressors, coils, cooling tower (York): W. A. Brown & Sons, Salisbury, N. C.

Oil burner (Williams): E. P. Nisbet Company, Charlotte, N. C.

Auditorium chairs (American Seating): Bryant Theatre Supply Company, Charlotte, N. C.

Lounge and foyer furniture (Lloyd): National Theatre Supply Company, Charlotte, N. C.

Projection room of the Plaza theatre in Charlotte, N. C., described elsewhere in this issue. The room is of unusual dimensions, being 20x28 feet, with projectors towards one side. On the opposite side are toilet facilities. Equipment includes Century projectors with Ashcraft "Suprex" lamps supplied by Benwood Linze rectifiers, RCA Photophone sound system, Projection Optics lenses, Golde rewinder, Neumade film cabinets, and Weaver changeovers.

COMMENT on PROJECTION

How the Army Provides Film Entertainment

A MOST interesting description of Army projection has been prepared for these columns by W. E. Limmroth, now a corporal in the 3rd Armored Division, Headquarters Company, Camp Polk, La. "Last week," he writes, "a friend of mine in the camp public relations office sent a photographer up to take a picture of the projection room and yours truly. I now have managed to find time to write a hasty article on our movie setup here at Camp Polk. My subscription to the HERALD and BETTER THEATRES ran out a short time ago, but I plan to renew it again in the very near future—that is, providing Uncle Sam does not decide to send me on a little ocean voyage.

F. H. R.

"There are two theatres here at Camp Polk to accommodate soldiers of the 3rd Armored (Bayou Blitz) Division. Both are of semi-permanent construction and are well equipped. (The seats, by the way, were purchased as the result of an inquiry sent to a company that had an advertisement in BETTER THEATRES.) Motion pictures are the chief form of entertainment at Polk and all performances are well attended.

"Two shows are run each weekday night, with a matinee on Saturday and Sunday. In addition, the No. 1 theatre is equipped for stage productions and at present U.S.O. stage shows play on the average of two per month.

"The equipment, all new, consists of Simplex E-7's with heavy-duty Super Simplex bases, RCA PG-140 sound, Peerless Magnarcs, a 65-130 Hertner Transverter, and an RCA gradually perforated screen. The projection room provides plenty of space, being 8 feet high, and 14x20. A rewind room, 6 feet, 7 inches by 14 feet, contains the work bench, film cabinet, and the transverters.

"Lamp house gases and foul air are removed by a very efficient forced draft system which is so constructed that a film fire cannot reach the fan motor. Fresh air is obtained through a 28x34-inch window in the projection room and two windows of the same dimensions in the rewind room. Both rooms are lined with Transite fire-proof board.

"Army camp projection has many interesting features and presents its own problems. One of the most important of these is the system for distributing the film between the two theatres. Only one print is used for both of the shows. No. 2 theatre opens at 6 p.m. with the feature, and No. 1 theatre at 6:30 p.m. with the shorts. The theatres are located approximately two miles apart and the film carrier must stay within the 25-mile speed limit in traveling between them. Special care must be taken so as to avoid interruptions at one house in order to prevent any program stoppages at the other house.

"Two projectionists are on duty at all times. Each man stands by his machine while it is in operation, and each rewinds his own film. All film is carefully inspected and repaired, if necessary, before exhibition. All equipment is kept scrupulously clean and in a good state of repair. An engineer from the Army Motion Picture Service makes regular service calls at about five-week intervals.

"All employees at both theatres work six nights a week and this work is in addition to their regular soldier duties. The two exceptions are Corp. W. G. Hudson, house manager, and Pvt. Ben Joyner, projectionist (he was chief projectionist of the Court theatre in Huntington, Tenn.). These men are assigned to work with Capt. Vernon Boyd and are on full time duty at the theatres. Extra pay is received for this night projection work.

"My career in the army might serve as an example of the type of work other projectionists could do. I left my job as chief projectionist at the Ritz theatre in Sweetwater, Tex., June 15, 1941, and reported to Fort Bliss in El Paso for induction. I received three weeks of basic training at the reception center there and was shipped down to Camp Polk and assigned to the 40th Armored regiment. Here my basic training was completed and I was given a GEI (general electrical intelligence) test and assigned to the communications section of the regiment.

Mr. Limmroth in his camp theatre projection room.

"Attendance of a six-weeks' course in

IN TIMES LIKE THESE keeping your equipment in tip-top condition is more important than ever! Guard against a dark house and lost box-office by calling on RCA's Nation-Wide Service Organization for periodic check-ups. Remember, it's far better to prevent breakdowns than to fix breakdowns!

Only RCA Theatre Service Offers You All These Advantages!

- Frequent, scheduled check-ups
- Prompt emergency service
- Sound and projection parts
- RCA Magicote Lens Service
- Laboratory, engineering and manufacturing coordination
- Projection engineering service
- Acoustic engineering service
- Emergency portable sound system
- Emergency parts stocks

THEATRE SERVICE

PHOTOPHONE DIVISION

RCA Manufacturing Company, Inc., Camden, N. J.
A Service of the Radio Corporation of America
In Canada: RCA Victor Company, Ltd., Montreal

Catalog Bureau — Page 33

IT MUST SPARKLE

SEE SECOND COVER

ECONOMY

—the Nation's Watchword

DROLL PROCESSED CARBONS

cut your carbon costs

10% to 25%

Now used in hundreds of theatres. Burn every inch of every carbon.

Each carbon is processed to provide a milled male end and a drilled female end.

Process patented in U. S. and Canada.

You simply join two of these ready-for-use carbons and clip them with a sleeve of pure copper, which matches exactly the copper coating on the carbon and which is consumed without altering light quality or intensity.

When a carbon is burned to about 3 inches it is fitted onto the next carbon. No dirt, delay, work, or machine to buy.

Available for the following trims:

Negatives	Positives
6 mm x 9"	6 mm x 12"
6.5 mm x 9"	7 mm x 12" x 14"
7 mm x 9"	8 mm x 12" x 14"

and High Intensity 13.6 mm x 22" (machined for adapters) which provide 20 minutes more burning time per trim. Low intensity carbons are not processed. Shipped f.o.b. Chicago at regular carbon list prices plus 75c per hundred for milling, drilling and clips; less 5%, 10 days.

DROLL THEATRE SUPPLY CO.

351 East Ohio Street

Chicago, Ill.

READ THE ADS — they're news!

IT MUST SPARKLE

SEE SECOND COVER

radio maintenance came next, conducted by the signal corps in this camp. Upon completion of this I attended a radio operators' course of similar duration in the 40th. On September 8th, I was given a fourth-class specialist rating as a radio technician, and on December 12th was promoted to corporal.

"My company duties consist of installing and maintaining radio equipment. The experience I had gained as a projectionist gave me the fundamentals for this work, which by the way, is very interesting. Projectionists entering the service will do well to try for this type of work. Moreover, there seems to be relatively few projectionists within the draft age and the chances for obtaining a position in an army theatre are good.

"This old globe is certainly in a terrible mess isn't it! I believe that those of us who return after having given Hitler and his stooges a terrific thrashing, will find a vastly changed world. I only hope that Mr. and Mrs. U. S. A. will soon awaken to the fact that we must all pitch in and pull together to protect our country, our loved ones and the ideals which we all hold dear."

I know all who read Brother Limmroth's informative account of Camp Polk's theatre facilities will join me in thanking him for his thoughtfulness. Good luck, soldier!

Fast Motor Start Cure From an "Old-Timer"

DISCUSSION IN recent issues of changeover problems due to fast-starting motors, has brought John M. Jones, chief projectionist of the Silverton theatre in Thomaston, Ga., back to life so far as these columns are concerned. Jones used to be a frequent contributor. (And what's become of Evans and Rau up in Canada? Haven't had a line since the old "Bluebook School" days. And Dentlebeck of Toronto, merely writes when a daughter gets married! Nelson of Texas seems to have evaporated too—and so it goes.) Brother Jones says:

"It is a long while since I last wrote. In fact, it was when I invented the rectangular projection carbon, which bounced off the industry like water off a duck's back. I was then and still am a small town 'operator'.

"I began messing around 'booths' at the tender age of eleven years; incidentally, I have been working in my present one for eleven years. I was educated as an electrical engineer, after which I worked in a power plant in my home town, but finally succumbed to the lure of the movies and went to work as a projectionist. One thing leads to another, and projection led to management and, later, to ownership. Meanwhile, I had invented a disc sound equipment (this in my High School days) and I decided to adapt it to handle the 33 1/3 r.p.m. discs. Presto! Suddenly I became a manufacturer, equipping a number of theatres in the Carolinas. Later I brought out a sound-on-film device to

NOW MORE THAN EVER
YOU NEED THE DEPENDABLE

autodrape

CURTAIN MACHINE

- Lower operating cost
- 32% more power capacity
- Automatic overload protective breaker
- Operates with push-button simplicity

AUTOMATIC DEVICES CO.

1033 Linden Street - Allentown, Pa.

Export Office: 220 West 42nd Street, New York City

Also Manufacturers of Steel Curtain
Track and Projection Motor Generators

NEW, improved

RECT-O-LITE A BETTER RECTIFIER

FOR 1 KILOWATT ARC

RECT-O-LITE Rectifier No. 45-T (3-phase) is the latest development in Rectifiers and produces Clear, Bright, Flickerless pictures. No moving parts; no servicing; saves enough current to pay for itself. 1 YEAR GUARANTEE.

$14800

ASK FOR BULLETIN 90

BALDOR ELECTRIC COMPANY

4367 DUNCAN AVE.

ST. LOUIS, MO.

TRY THE MAGIC EYE COLORTONE SHUTTER

at our expense!

Brightens low intensity, removes high intensity glare! SIMPLEX front or rear (state which).....$19.75 ea. Reduced prices on POWERS (front only).... 17.25 Ask for details on 3-DAY TRIAL, absolutely free! SOS-Cinema Supply Corp., 636 Eleventh Ave., New York

THE 4 ADVANTAGES OF BUYING

Simplex
HIGH

ONE-KILOWATT PROJECTION ARC LAMPS

1

You double the brilliance of your projected picture with only slightly higher over-all operating costs.

2

You get the snow-white light so necessary for the projection of colored pictures.

3

You get the utmost in value at low original cost.

4

You get equipment backed by the largest, most dependable theatre equipment distributors.

● See the Simplex High in your own theatre and see the difference.

DISTRIBUTED BY NATIONAL THEATRE SUPPLY COMPANY
THERE'S A BRANCH NEAR YOU

GROUND CREW

BACK of every airplane pilot, so they say, is a ground crew of men in grease-stained overalls.

There's very little glamor about these men. The public rarely sees them. Yet you couldn't get an airplane off the ground without them. That's how important they are.

Picture business, like every other industry, has its ground crews that the public never sees. In your theatre it's the projection and sound, for without them you couldn't sell a ticket at the boxoffice.

Today, more than ever, Simplex Projection, Simplex Sound and National Theatre Supply Company make the best ground crew for any theatre.

Simplex

PROJECTION & SOUND

NATIONAL THEATRE SUPPLY COMPANY

Catalog Bureau—Page 33.

IT MUST SPARKLE

SEE SECOND COVER

which the name 'Projectophone' was attached, and still later I joined the DeForest company in the capacity of both salesman and engineer.

"Finally, having added a wife to my 'holding', I decided to settle down, came here, took a position as projectionist and went to work. But having the inventor's complex and having collected several bushels of ideas during the previous years, I got busy.

"My pay as projectionist has been doubled through the years and, F.H., I have tried the best I know how to deserve it. I can truthfully say I have never, with two or three exceptions, asked for parts or materials that were not ordered cheerfully and no questions asked, so it has been a pleasure to work with this company and I have honestly tried to give more than value received. (I did ask for bell-drops once and was told that a man who could build amplifiers and soundheads could certainly make bell-drops, so I made my own!).

"When one has seen every conceivable type of film mutilation purporting to be helps to the art of projection, but which too often are atrocities, one is moved to say, 'Coming events cast their shadows before', for I know that by the mutilations viewed on the screen a change is rapidly approaching. I am wholly unable to understand why any 'operator' (whom you have very rightly differentiated from projectionist) will punch or scratch a new print having perfectly visible cue marks with his own too often atrocious markings by using a punch, china marking pencil or what have you.

"In cases where the motor starts too fast, may I suggest the installation of an overhang flywheel. In the days when I was manufacturing, we often encountered problems of this kind which I remedied in that way. I enclose a sketch showing how to make it, pulley and all. Everyone who has used this flywheel approves of it and says it has taken a load off their minds as well as their equipment.

"The idea is to provide both pulley and flywheel on the short motor shaft. The weighted rim overhangs the bearing box. Any wood shop will be able to turn out the wood pattern. The pattern should be made separable—that is, the pulley part should be in the form of a round boss attached to the flywheel part with a dowel-pin so as to pull off while removing the pattern from the moulder sand. It may be roughly machined and the motor shaft hole bored while in the lathe, set screw hole drilled and tapped, then placed on a mandrel in the lathe and finished all over for balance. Fine grey iron should be used for casting as 'blow-holes' are less likely to occur, to unbalance it."

Projection room of the new Wilson theatre in Miami, W. Va., owned and operated by Dave Wilson. Seating 500, the theatre has a picture 16 feet wide. The projection room is 16 feet wide, 10 feet deep. Equipment includes Motiograph projectors and bases and Motiograph-Microphonic sound system (installed by Altec); Strong Utility (one-kilowatt) lamps and rectifiers (supplied by Charleston, W. Va., Theatre Supply). Jack Wilson is projectionist.

A Projectionist Suggests: On Cues and Other Things

AND NOW the slant on cues of a young man from Iowa, who prefers to have his name withheld. The letter reads, in part as follows:

"First, a few words about film mutilation. H. K. Whitaker calls those who cause it film butchers. That is not strong enough, but people can be put in jail for using words such I have in mind. I think last week I received the tops in such marks. Some 'operator' had taken strips of glued paper and pasted them over the number of frames he wanted to cue. Top that if you can! I feel the film exchange should fine the man or men who does these things by forcing him to pay the cost of such damage as he inflicts. I know if I had a fine tool that had cost me a lot of money, I would hate to rent it out to those I know would intentionally damage it.

"Personally, I have, for a small sum, purchased a cue marker that does a neat job and I only cue one frame and then only if there is no cue at all. On dark scenes I just watch the screen a little closer and in the last two years I have only missed a cue twice, and then because I was watching so closely I was able to cover up and keep my screen dark until my other projector had run in.

"And speaking of 'run in,' you fellows that thread your projector so far ahead of where you plan on starting from, then starting the projector to run it down where you want it to be, better think of what extra wear you are putting on the gears. Try threading closer to your start position, then turn by hand until it's where you want it. Try it, because those gears are getting plenty of wear anyway, and in the near future they may be very hard to get at any price.

"One thing I do I know is not right, though I get results, is this: When I get a green print, I take a small cloth and dampen it with 3 in 1 oil and making sure my film is rewound smoothly, I lay the film down and run this cloth over the edge of the film on both sides. Because of this I never get emulsion piled up on my film trap or aperture gate. After every reel, green or otherwise, I wipe the entire film track with a small cloth, and I believe this helps in preventing scratches.

"The exhibitor reporting rowdism recently in BETTER THEATRES really has a headache. Can't visualize such a thing in this theatre. In order to get in my projection room one almost needs an act of Congress—and this includes other employes of the theatre. Permission must be received from both the manager and myself, and we co-operate on this 100%.

"A good union is swell, providing the members of this union do not take unfair advantage just because they happen to feel they can get away with it. Under any condition, union or non-union, men should do as good a job as their equipment will permit, or else. We have a great many good projectionists in this U. S. A., and they keep their jobs because of their skill and ability to do the job and do it right. Many, unfortunately, are working for hardly more than coffee and cake, but they work hard and put in many hours a day, besides doing their own service work on equipment that should have been outlawed long ago. We can't all be perfect, of course, but each and every one of us can learn—and must—even the men who are holding the big jobs. Some day the unions will get on to these men that are pulling the wise-guy stuff and they will be out where it's darned hard to get back in, and believe me it is better to be on the inside looking out when this happens.

"I believe Local 224, Washington, D.C., has about the best arrangement I have heard of in some time. Too bad there are not more like it. More power to you L. U. 224 men!

Add Cures for Speed-Up

"The projectionist that is having trouble with his projectors picking up speed too fast may find that it is also running too fast during the entire reel. This helped for me: If using a flat wheel drive, loosen your drive belt a little, or maybe a different size of pulley on the motor will help. Men that use flat drive belts will find that by having them taken to the cleaners once in a while they will not only keep them white, but will lengthen their lives. I have two pairs that have been in use 2½ years. They are still in good shape and will last a long time yet.

"A short time ago I read somewhere an article in which a projectionist said most Iowa theatres were fire traps for the projectionist. He may be right, but there are some darned nice projection rooms in Iowa and I have been in some of them. Possibly in very small towns where no one seems to want to put up extra money to make them fireproof, you will find bad ones, but they are few and far between.

"A few months ago a projectionist and his wife were burned to death in a projection room fire that took place after the show was over for the evening. No one

Confidence Rides with the Dawn Patrol

WHEN the bombers of the Atlantic Patrol thunder into the dawn, their pilots look ahead with confidence—confidence—born of faith in their machines and the fuel that drives their motors. American fuels, like American planes, are built to bring back safely those who fly.

Somewhere, in an American refinery, one of America's great army of behind-the-scenes workers, with a Bausch & Lomb Refractometer, is doing his part in making American oils and gasolines so efficient and safely dependable. Modern refractometric methods of control speed refining operations and maintain a greater uniformity and higher quality than ever before.

Here, again, optical science—with Bausch &

Lomb instruments—is at work helping to strengthen America's front lines of defense. Today, American manufacturers—like the nation's forces of defense—turn to precision optical methods for critical analysis, precise measurement, quality control. Bausch & Lomb's Contour Projectors, Metallographic Equipment and microscopes for inspection and control take their place alongside range finders, gun sights and binoculars in contributing to the vital needs of national defense.

BAUSCH & LOMB

OPTICAL CO. • ROCHESTER, NEW YORK

ESTABLISHED 1853

AN AMERICAN SCIENTIFIC INSTITUTION PRODUCING OPTICAL GLASS AND INSTRUMENTS FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE, EDUCATION, RESEARCH, INDUSTRY AND EYESIGHT CORRECTION

USE BETTER THEATRES PERSONAL SERVICE—

Free Counsel on Remodeling and Maintenance.

A Big HIT!

Sold thru THEATRE SUPPLY DEALERS Exclusively

Ask your Dealer

GOLDBERG Automatic FILM REWINDER

GOLDBERG BROS. DENVER, COLO.

IT MUST SPARKLE

SEE SECOND COVER

La Vezzi
SUPER SERVICE
"The World's Finest Projector Parts"

LaVezzi Machine Works
180 North Wacker Drive Chicago, Illinois

"BEST" PORTHOLE
FIRE SHUTTERS
and SHUTTER CONTROL APPARATUS

Prevent smoke and fire from spreading into auditorium.
Protect you against projection room emergencies.
Meet all inspection laws.

Made to last—Heavy No. 10 gauge back plates.

1/4" Drop Plates—WILL ALWAYS DROP!

Grooves for drops are bent and welded to back plate—
All-Welded construction—No Screws—No Rivets—
No Soldering.

Come complete and ready to install.

Control apparatus sold separately if desired.

Write for descriptive literature or see your dealer today.

Estimate gladly given on your particular job—no obligation.

BEST DEVICES COMPANY
10516 Western Ave. Cleveland, Ohio

Sound Trouble Shooting Charts . . . $1.00 postpaid

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
Rockefeller Center - New York

knows how the fire started, but it is known that this projectionist had not the necessary experience to be handling the equipment by himself—only six months of 'picking it up'! I, myself, only had a few days' experience when the manager put me up there alone. I now realize how foolish a thing it was to do, for I knew just enough to get by and no more.

"I had a film fire after about three months, and had it been worse than it was I would have been cornered in the projection room. As luck would have it, I was running Powers projectors, and though I don't yet know where I got the brains to do it, when the film broke at the aperture gate and started to burn, I was able to break the film where it came out of the magazine, so all I lost was my leader. No man should be asked to risk his life where a little extra money would help protect him.

"In the case of the fire I mentioned, where the projectionist and his wife burned, the film was supposed to have exploded. Will film explode without a spark or some such thing to ignite it? These two experiences, one direct and the other indirect, have taught me one thing: It is safer and easier to have two men on a shift, but with one or two men you can't run a show sitting in a chair in the back of the room.

"This theatre in which I work is one of the finest in the State of Iowa, and the equipment all through the theatre is the best money can buy. I have my employer's complete co-operation, and if any repair parts are needed all I have to do is tell him and they are ordered that very day. We also try to keep a supply of repair parts and tubes on hand just in case anything should go wrong.

Projectors Covered Each Night

"At night before I leave the theatre, my projection room and equipment are cleaned thoroughly and the projectors are covered with hoods to keep the dust off from them overnight. While at work I wear a white uniform. Maybe no one will see me, but just in case they do they can leave saying that both projectionist and the room are clean. I feel that dirt and grease are a good percentage of the cause of trouble in any kind of equipment; also, the projectionist keeping himself clean will cause favorable remarks about the theatre.

"Now, don't any of you guys get the idea that my job is all sugar and honey, because it isn't. I have not been boasting, either; but I do love my work and I do hate to see anyone cheapen it. No matter how many apples come off a tree, there are bound to be some bad ones. So, fellows, let's try and do the job as near right as we can or get out and let someone else do it who will. After all, most of us are trying to get the results that the motion picture industry asks of us, and that is to present their pictures to the public in the best possible manner. That's what we are paid for, isn't it? And we must have had an interest in projection in the first place or we wouldn't be in it now. Well, here's to more and better changeovers."

He's Become Boss But Still Takes His Turn

WORD HAS come from another "long lost brother" in a letter from Walter R. Pyle, Dreamland theatre, Rock-glen, Sask. He writes:

"While it is many years since I have written you, I have followed your writings.

"Two years ago I quit projecting for the 'other fellow' and purchased a small theatre. Though I have a regular projectionist, I still go up every once in a while and give him a night off because there is nothing I like better than putting on a show and trying to do it right, so the greatest entertainment value possible is given the audience. I have a pair of Holmes 'Educator' projectors with Holmes sound and two-way horn system and, Dad, I want to tell you that is the sweetest little outfit that it has ever been my pleasure to work with. I know to my own knowledge that many have never even heard of this equipment. Up to a 500-seat house, it is fine, especially for spots like mine, where current is d.c. and not too stable, because the governors give perfect regulation anywhere from 80 to 130 volts.

"I was interested in the pictures of projection rooms which we were privileged to view in the January issue of BETTER THEATRES and am certainly going to send a picture of mine. That one from Piedmont is (due apologies) the damndest mess I've ever seen. How one of our Canadian inspectors would go to town on it! It needs a projectionist [Ha, I smell a fight coming up!—F. H. R.] in there a few days to clean it up. Don't they ever trip over the cables and stop the show? For goodness sake, send a man out to wire it in conduit and make it neat. I do not doubt the quality of the equipment, but there is no excuse for hanging it on the floor like that."

Excessively Bright Pilot Lamp at Changeover

AN INQUIRY concerning the cause of an excessively bright pilot light at changeover recently came from Ken Pascol, Nordic theatre, Marquette, Mich. Since it involved Simplex equipment, I referred the inquiry to the International Projector Corporation; here is their reply:

"The fact that the pilot lamp is extremely bright on changover indicates a loose connection or broken wire in the exciter lamp circuit from the volume control amplifier to the soundhead. This pilot lamp is connected through a fuse to terminals 'DC' and 'Com' in the volume control amplifier, and the exciter lamp circuit is connected to terminals through the changeover switch circuit.

"We suggest that in addition to cleaning all of the contacts of the exciter lamp and the exciter lamp bracket, you examine very carefully the exciter connections to terminals 'Exciter Lamp 1' and 'Exciter Lamp 2' in the sound mechanism, the screw connections to the exciter lamp base (SH-2034) also in the sound mechanism, and the connections to terminals '1' and 'Com.' in the volume control amplifier.

"You should also check for a broken wire in this circuit between the volume control amplifier and sound mechanism, and also in the exciter lamp bracket. You should also examine the exciter lamp bracket to make sure that both upper and lower contacts are being made, particularly with reference to any pitting of the studs on the exciter lamp base (SH-2034)."

Plenty Materials For Remodeling

(Continued from page 9)

others mentioned. Ordinarily these are used in theatres only for limited areas, such as standee rails. Even should their manufacture be curtailed or halted, present inventories may be sufficient for such restricted applications for some time to come.

Woven Floor Coverings

The situation in the carpeting industry is one of definite restriction in manufacture, with the use of wool reduced 50%, and plant facilities desired by the Government for the making of military supplies. The extent to which the latter will restrict the manufacture of carpeting—at any rate, that suited to institutions like theatres and hotels—will determine what theatre operators will be able to do, as time goes on, to maintain and renew their carpeted floors.

Inventories of weaves and patterns suited to theatres are substantial, however. Choice from stocks are somewhat limited, of course, selection in some cases depending upon yardage required. But weaving on order, still possible, may well be continued indefinitely, especially in certain types, styles and patterns.

And Then There Are—

Terra Cotta for front refinishing, and architectural brick, stucco, concrete in blocks or poured.

You can modernize your lighting, too—not just the way you might do it otherwise, perhaps, but effectively. Certainly new fixtures can be installed—the plastic ones, let us say, with the more efficient fluorescent lamps.

There is "black light" decoration to consider for the auditorium. Replace the old treatment with a simple wall scheme pointed with luminous murals. A thing not difficult to do, definitely modern, and something to talk about.

If to apply such materials as have been reviewed in these paragraphs, means to remodel, then surely theatres can be remodeled without interference with the nation's war effort. At any rate, these materials and others of similar purpose, are available today in good measure, most of them without restriction or threat of shortage. Hundreds of theatres need to be remodeled, every theatre requires a bit of refurbishing now and then. There are plenty of materials with which to do the job well.

You've never seen

an audience thrilled

unless your theatre has

MIRROPHONIC SOUND

and MOTIOGRAPH PROJECTORS

See Your Leading

independent theatre supply dealer

MOTIOGRAPH INC.
ESTABLISHED 1896

Conserve Equipment!—Read John J. Sefing's Maintenance Articles in Better Theatres

GOLDBERG BROS.
DENVER COLO.

"no draft"
CASHIERS
Speaking tube

$6.00 anywhere in the United States

IT MUST SPARKLE

SEE SECOND COVER

about People of the Theatre

NEWS OF THEIR ACTIVITIES REPORTED FROM ALL SECTIONS AND BRIEFLY TOLD

DICK REMS' Orinda theatre at Orinda, Calif., had a gala opening recently, attended by Guy Kibbee, Jean Parker, Doug Dawson, George Fisher, and Eddy Norris.

FRANK J. HOMESHER, formerly Altec inspector in the Philadelphia area, has been commissioned a lieutenant in the U. S. Navy, as a specialist in radio.

Two Nebraska theatres reopened with the new year—the Grand in Grand Island, operated by HARRY SCHILLER; and the Stuart in Lincoln, operated by J. H. COOPER.

A new theatre is scheduled for opening soon at Churubusco, Ind., by ALEX KALAFAT. The front will be of Colonial design, and the house will seat 376.

The Elite Amusement Company of Columbia, S. C., will erect a new theatre for colored trade at a cost of $16,800. MRS. FLOYD BRATTON will operate it.

STANLEY LEVINE of the Stanley Theatre Supply Company, Chicago, has enlisted in the Navy.

WALTER E. GREEN, president of the National Theatre Supply Company, has returned to New York after meeting with branch managers in Chicago, Kansas City and Dallas.

Two San Francisco theatres closed during the first week of blackouts, have reopened after remodeling. One is the 2,000-seat Verdi, the other Fox-West Coast's California, which has been renamed the State.

KURT LAEMMLE has sold his 330-seat Ritz at Lowell, Ind., to Mr. and Mrs. PAT BYRNES, formerly Chicago exhibitors. He is a nephew of the late Carl Laemmle of Universal fame.

The Westport theatre in Kansas City, Mo., has reopened as the Glen, with RALPH KIEFFER as manager. Extensive improvements have been made, including new acoustical treatment, a remodeled front, and the addition of 150 seats.

GEORGE LOCKHEART, formerly connected with the Rex theatre in Toronto, Ohio, has reopened the Grand theatre in West Lafayette.

The Roxy theatre in Aberdeen, Wash., has been opened after remodeling, by JAMES STONE and associates.

S. E. BOWER, who owns and operates the Desert theatre in Hawthorne, Nev., has awarded contracts for the erection of an addition to increase the seating capacity.

The 700-seat Broadway theatre in Norwich, Conn., has been taken over by Loew's, Inc., and closed for renovation. Plans include an enlarged seating plan, the

1942 CINEMAID

Snappily uniformed, armed with a winning smile, Miss Joy Kranz is one of the many girls who are adding charm to service in the nation's theatres, and increasingly so, as more and more young chaps turn in their usher's regalia for olive drab and navy blue. The times suggest such attention as this to the young women of our theatre staffs—but when was a war necessary to warrant a picture of a good-looking gal? And we expect there'll be many another in these pages, of both usherettes and cashiers; in fact, contributions of this very kind (clear kodak snap-shots are okay) are respectfully solicited. . . . Our opener is an usherette at the Trylon theatre in Forest Hills, a fine residential section of New York City's Borough of Queens. Miss Kranz is one of five girls on the staff of this beautiful Interborough Circuit house. Nearly all of Interborough's staff misses are "home girls" living with their parents; Miss Kranz is still in High school. Her manager, S. J. Davidson, is convinced that most patrons like attractive young women on theatre staffs. "In handling the public," he comments, "they can do more with a 'Please' accompanied by a smile than the best-trained young man. Additionally, they contribute to the homey atmosphere that a neighborhood house especially should have."

elimination of the third balcony and boxes, new carpeting and lighting, a new heating system, and modern lounges. The house will be renamed the Loew-Poli.

The Northtown theatre has been opened in Tampa, Fla. It is operated by B. E. GORE, who also runs the State and Broadway theatres.

Two members of the staff of the Roger Sherman theatre have enlisted in the armed services—JULES RUSKIN, chief usher, now in the Army; and RAY HUGHES, assistant to the manager, now in the Navy. MURRAY HOWARD is the new assistant manager.

The new 1,500-seat Franklin theatre in Evansville, Ind., has been opened by HARRY KORNBLOM and FINE BROTHERS.

T. IRVING MARTIN, manager of six theatres operated by the Pitts interests, has been elected president of the Culpeper, Va., Chamber of Commerce.

DEWITT DAVIS has closed his theatre in Windham, Ohio, and has moved the equipment to a small theatre in West Farmington.

■ ■ ■

The new Ridge theatre in Glen Park, Ind., has opened with FRED GIROUX as manager.

WILLIAM E. GARRETT, who was engaged in the theatre and amusement business in Greensboro, N. C. for a number of years, died recently at the age of 64.

Unable to obtain quick delivery on new seats, the management of the Victory theatre in Chicago had new blue corduroy spring seats installed on the old standards, repainted coral. Redecoration was under the direction of JOE GOLDBERG, Chicago supply dealer. IRVING GARMON is the manager.

JAMES B. LANSING, vice president of Altec Lansing Corporation, has been in New York, coming from the Coast for company conferences.

HARRY SHERESKY of New York, has leased the Drury Lane theatre in Louisville, Ky., and plans alterations costing $15,000. New name will Scoop.

The Lo-Net theatre, owned by WALTER STEUVE of Findlay, Ohio, has been closed for three weeks for extensive remodeling. L. P. LANGFORD of the Oliver Theatre Supply Company, is installing new RCA sound equipment, Brenkert lamps and a Da-Lite screen.

WILLIAM FOREMAN has added the State theatre in Salem, Ore., to his Pacific Northwest chain.

Among the National Theatre Supply Company men leaving for active service

CATALOG BUREAU

Authentic information on equipment, furnishings and materials will be sent theatre executives, architects and projectionists indicating their interests in the coupon below. Refer to item by number from following list whenever possible; otherwise explain in the space indicated for numbers in the coupon.

ADVERTISING

- 101—Advertising projectors
- 102—Cutout devices
- 103—Display frames
- 104—Flashers
- 105—Lamps, incand. reflector
- 106—Lamps, incand. flood
- 107—Letters, changeable
- 108—Marquees
- 109—Reflectors, roundel type
- 110—Signs, theatre name
- 111—Neon transformers

AIR SUPPLY

- 201—Air Cleaners, electrical
- 202—Air washers
- 203—Blowers & fans
- 204—Coils (heat transfer)
- 205—Compressors
- 206—Control equipment
- 207—Cooling towers
- 208—Diffusers
- 209—Filters
- 210—Furnaces & boilers
- 211—Grilles, ornamental
- 212—Heaters, gas unit
- 213—Humidifiers
- 214—Insulation
- 215—Motors
- 216—Oil burners
- 217—Ozone generators
- 218—Radiators
- 219—Stokers
- 220—Temperature indicators
- 221—Well water pumps

ARCHIT'RE & DECORATION

- 301—Decorating service
- 302—Drapes
- 303—Fabric, wall
- 304—Fibre boards & tiles
- 305—Glass blocks & tiles
- 306—Glass murals
- 307—Leatherette for walls
- 308—Luminescent paints
- 309—Mirrors
- 310—Paint, lacquers, etc.
- 311—Porcelain enamel
- 312—Roofing
- 313—Terrazzo
- 314—Wood veneer

GENERAL MAINTENANCE

- 401—Brooms & brushes
- 402—Carpet shampoo
- 403—Cleaning compounds
- 404—Detergents
- 405—Disinfectants
- 406—Gum remover
- 407—Ladders, safety
- 408—Perfumes
- 409—Polishes
- 410—Sand urns

- 411—Snow melting crystals
- 412—Soap, liquid
- 413—Vacuum cleaners

FLOOR COVERINGS

- 501—Asphalt tile
- 502—Carpeting
- 503—Carpet, fluorescent
- 504—Carpet lining
- 505—Concrete paint
- 506—Linoleum
- 507—Mats, rubber

LIGHTING

- 601—Black-light equipment
  - 602—Cove strips & reflectors
  - 603—Dimmers
  - 604—Downlighting equipment
  - 605—Fluorescent lamps
  - 606—Lumiline lamps
  - 607—Luminaires
- (See also Advertising, Stage)

LOUNGE FURNISHINGS

- 701—Ash trays
- 702—Chairs, sofas, tables
- 703—Cosmetic tables, chairs
- 704—Mirrors
- 705—Statuary

OFFICE

- 801—Accounting systems
- 802—Communicating systems

PROJECTION

- 901—Acoustic materials
- 902—Acoustic service
- 903—Amplifiers
- 904—Amplifier tubes
- 905—Cabinets, accessory
- 906—Cabinets, carbon
- 907—Cabinets, film
- 908—Changeovers
- 909—Condenser lenses
- 910—Effect projectors
- 911—Exciter lamps
- 912—Fire extinguishers
- 913—Fire shutters
- 914—Hearing aids
- 915—Lamps, projection arc
- 916—Microphones
- 917—Mirror guards
- 918—Motor-generators
- 919—Photoelectric cells
- 920—Projectors, standard
- 921—Projectors, 16-mm.
- 922—Projector parts
- 923—Projection, rear
- 924—Public address systems
- 925—Rectifiers
- 926—Reel end alarms
- 927—Reels

- 928—Reflectors (arc)
- 929—Renovators, film
- 930—Rewinders
- 931—Rheostats
- 932—Safety devices, projector
- 933—Screens
- 934—Speakers & horns
- 935—Splicers
- 936—Soundheads
- 937—Stereopticons
- 938—Tables
- 939—Voltage regulators
- 940—Waste cans, self-closing

SEATING

- 1001—Ash trays (chair back)
- 1002—Chairs
- 1003—Chair covers
- 1004—Chair refinishing
- 1005—Expansion bolts
- 1006—Fastening cement
- 1007—Latex cushions
- 1008—Upholstering fabrics

SERVICE & TRAFFIC

- 1101—Directional signs
- 1102—Drinking cups
- 1103—Drinking fountains
- 1104—Uniforms

STAGE

- 1201—Curtains & drapes
- 1202—Curtain controls
- 1203—Curtain tracks
- 1204—Lighting equipment
- 1205—Rigging & hardware
- 1206—Scenery
- 1207—Switchboards

TICKET SALES

- 1301—Box offices
- 1302—Changemakers
- 1303—Signs, price
- 1304—Speaking tubes
- 1305—Tickets
- 1306—Ticket choppers
- 1307—Ticket holders
- 1308—Ticket registers

TOILET

- 1401—Fixtures
  - 1402—Paper dispensers
  - 1403—Paper towels
  - 1404—Soap dispensers
- (See also Maintenance)

VENDING

- 1501—Beverage Dispensers
- 1502—Candy counters
- 1503—Candy machines
- 1504—Popcorn machines
- 1505—Phonographs, automatic

BETTER THEATRES CATALOG BUREAU COUPON

Mail to Better Theatres, Rockefeller Center, New York. Write in numbers.

_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____	_____	_____

Name ..... Theatre .....

Address .....

about People of the Theatre

(continued)

in the armed forces, is BERT BROWN of the general office in New York, who is joining the Air Corps.

ALLEN E. KING, owner of the Moulin Rouge theatre and a pioneer exhibitor of Oakland, Calif., recently died.

GEORGE BOLE, for the past ten years manager of the RKO Golden Gate theatre in San Francisco, has accepted a position with Universal Studios in Hollywood. He will be associated with CLIFF WORK, a former theatre manager in San Francisco, and now vice president and general manager at Universal.

HARRY CORBETT, formerly assistant manager of Warner Brothers' Beverly theatre in Chicago, is now manager of the Bay theatre in Green Bay, Wis.

Switow Theatres, Inc. of Louisville, Ky., has contracted for Altec service in twelve theatres in Indiana and Kentucky. WARREN CONNER negotiated for Altec Service.

The Coral Theatre, an addition to the Lucas chain in Chicago, is scheduled to open soon with GEORGE C. RICE as manager.

EDWARD ALBIN's Del Paso theatre in North Sacramento, Calif., was destroyed by Fire recently.

L. T. TAYLOR has given up his post as manager of the Rylander theatre in Americus, Ga., to JOE LUTHER, who will also manage a new 1,500-seat theatre being erected there.

The Strand Amusement Company, operators of a group of neighborhood theatres in and around Bridgeport, Conn., have purchased the Capitol and Colonial theatres from LOU ANGER, who has taken over their West End theatre, operated by JACK SCHWARTZ.

ROBERT B. WILBY, president of the Wilby-Kincey Service Corporation, large Southeastern circuit, has been elected a director of the Citizens and Southern National Bank in Savannah, Ga.

CARROLL BRADLEY has joined Indiana-Illinois Theatres, in Chicago, as manager of their Hoosier theatre in Whiting, Ind.

L. W. CONROW, Altec Service president, has returned to New York after a swing through the South and Middle West.

Fox West Coast Theatres are planning a theatre for Richmond, Calif., in view of the great increase in shipbuilding there.

MRS. L. C. MOORE, owner of the Ritz theatre in Enterprise, Ala., expects to complete a new 1,000-seat house there within the next five months.

SAM HALPER, operator of the Irving theatre in Chicago, has taken over the Jeff theatre in that city from the GCS Circuit.

The Orinda theatre in Orinda, Calif., has been opened under the management of A. RANDALL. The new 825-seat house is the first film theatre in that town.

CHANDLER GILCHRIST, who has managed a theatre in Tabor City, N. C., will be in charge of the new Carolina theatre in Sumter, S. C.

Rendering of the front design for a new theatre being built by Mrs. F. B. Allen in Farmington, N. Mex., to replace the Allen theatre destroyed last fall by fire. Designed by Walter S. Simon, Denver architect, the new Allen will be of concrete construction with front in stucco and tile. Seating 500, it will cost $40,000, including equipment. Mrs. Allen's son, Russell P. Allen, who managed the former theatre, is now in the army and is chief projectionist of a camp theatre at Fort F. E. Warren, Cheyenne, Wyo.

ROBERT DAME, manager of Shea's Niagara theatre in Buffalo, N. Y., is instructing staff employees in theatre offices and film exchanges for two hours a week on first aid.

ROBERT TAMPLER, formerly manager of the GCS circuit's Drake theatre in Chicago, is now manager of the Annetta theatre in Cicero, Ill.

Fox West Coast Theatres has leased part of the Tapscott Building in Oakland, Calif., and will remodel it for a 560-seat newsreel theatre.

HARRY HOLDSBURG, manager of Tri-States LeClaire theatre at Moline, Ill., has been named manager of the Paramount theatre in Omaha, with BORGE IVERSON succeeding him at the LeClaire.

C. J. REDMOND will remodel a building in Augusta, Wis., into a theatre to be operated by the Miner Amusement Company.

INDEX of ADVERTISERS

American Pop Corn Co. ....	20	Goldberg Bros. ....	29, 31	Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. ....	3
American Seating Co. ....	22	GoldE Mfg. Co. ....	15	Projection Optics Co., Inc. ....	22
Artkraft Sign Co., The.....	15	Heywood-Wakefield Co. ....	17	RCA Manufacturing Co., Inc.
Automatic Devices Co. ....	26	Ideal Seating Co. ....	20	Fourth Cover, 25
Baldor Electric Co. ....	26	International Projector Corp.		S. O. S. Cinema Supply Corp. ...	26
Bausch & Lomb Optical Co. ....	29	Third Cover		Strong Electric Corp., The
Best Devices Co. ....	30	International Seat Corp. ....	26	Second Cover, 25, 26, 28, 29, 31
Celotex Corp., The.....	4	Kroehler Mfg. Co. ....	5	Union Carbide & Carbon Corp. ..	6
Droll Theatre Supply Co.....	26	LaVezzi Machine Works.....	30	U. S. Air Conditioning Corp.....	15
F & Y Building Service, The....	20	Motiograph, Inc. ....	31	Vallen, Inc. ....	22
General Electric Co., Appliance &		National Carbon Co., Inc. ....	6	Wagner Sign Service, Inc. ....	23
Merchandise Div. ....	21	National Theatre Supply Co.,
		Inc. ....	27, 28

Nothing Finer in all the World!

The NEW
METRO COPACABANA

RIO de JANEIRO, BRAZIL equipped with

THREE E 7 PROJECTORS

FURTHER EVIDENCE OF

Simplex

DEPENDABILITY

SUPERIOR PROJECTION and GENERAL EFFICIENCY

COMPLETE SOUND AND VISUAL PROJECTION EQUIPMENT

Simplex

INTERNATIONAL PROJECTOR CORPORATION
36 GOLD STREET, NEW YORK, N.Y.

SOMETHING HAPPY'S GOING TO HAPPEN!

For a box-office builder that "takes the cake," choose the RCA Photophone Magic Voice of the Screen!

fashioned  but MODERN.  It's MATCHED to the modern

RCA Photophone Recording Equipment used by so many  Hollywood producing companies. It means better sound for your theatre.

That's why over 6000  theatres have installed it. Call your RCA Photophone representative for details.

THEATRE EQUIPMENT

Complete Sound Systems...Screens...Theatre Record Players...Brenkert Projectors and other Brenkert products... Sound Reinforcing Equipment... Inter-Communication Systems... Hearing Aids... Service and Maintenance. See your RCA Photophone Representative or affiliated theatre supply dealers. Photophone Division, RCA Manufacturing Co., Inc., Camden, N. J. In Canada, RCA Victor Co., Ltd., Montreal. A Service of the Radio Corporation of America.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

REVIEWS

(In Product Digest)

Roxie Hart
Song of the Islands
On the Sunny Side
Night Before the Divorce
Castle in the Desert
Code of the Outlaw
The Big Blockade
A Tragedy at Midnight
Ferry Pilot

U. S. Attacks the Majors' Circuit
Expansions, Demands Divorcement

Back to Horse-and-Buggy Selling
When Travel Priorities Pinch

Majors Start Talking About Their Product Plans for Next Season

Showing of Films of Ally Russia
Up 60%; Large Circuits Booking

U. S. at War Spurs Exhibitors in Canada to Take Raid Precautions

-in

Better Theatres

Wartime Privileges and Obligations

VOL. 146, NO. 6

In Two Sections—Section One

FEBRUARY 7, 1942

Entered as second-class matter, January 12, 1931, at the Post Office, at New York City, U. S. A., under the act of March 3, 1879. Published weekly by Quigley Publishing Co., Inc., at 1270 Sixth Avenue, Rockefeller Center, New York. Subscription prices: $5.00 a year in the Americas, $10.00 a year Foreign. Single copy, 25 cents. All contents copyright 1942 by Quigley Publishing Company.

INTRODUCING "WOMAN OF THE YEAR" TO THE BOYS!

"They were comparing me with 'Boom Town'."

"They were calling me
the 'Honky Tonk' of 1942."

"They were discussing my 325% business at Louisville and my big success since then."

"I just broke into the headlines with GWTW Business
in Lynchburg!
Big everywhere!"

"BOYS, YOU'RE ALL GREAT - BUT HERE'S MY NEW SWEETHEART!"

"Sorry to take the spotlight away,
fellows!"

"Now, we'll unpack
for a long visit to Radio City
Music Hall."

KINGSPROW

at the Astor, N.Y.

WARNERS!

Now that

ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT

is topping "Maltese Falcon" and holding over everywhere...

KINGS ROW

is turning 'em away at the Astor...

CAPTAINS OF THE CLOUDS

is set for its record three-world premiere on Thursday...

we've got time to remind you that

SERGEANT
YORK

is still the industry's biggest money-maker...

THEY DIED WITH THEIR BOOTS ON

is still the biggest grossing Errol Flynn hit we've ever had...

THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER

is still cleaning up in extended engagements...

YOU'RE IN THE ARMY NOW

is still "terrific", according to Variety...

and

WARNERS

IS still THE ONLY COMPANY DELIVERING

HIT AFTER HIT AFTER HIT!

J. L. Warner, Vice-president in Charge of Production

IT'S A

FEBRUARY

Su	Mo	Tu	We	Th	Fr	Sa
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
"SON OF FURY"
HOLDS OVER IN
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28

FEBRUARY

Su	Mo	Tu	We	Th	Fr	Sa
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
"SON OF FURY"
HOLDS OVER IN
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28

FEBRUARY

Su	Mo	Tu	We	Th	Fr	Sa
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
"SON OF FURY"
2nd WEEK IN
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28

POWERFUL

FEBRUARY

Su	Mo	Tu	We	Th	Fr	Sa
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
"SON OF FURY"
HOLDS OVER IN
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28

FEBRUARY

Su	Mo	Tu	We	Th	Fr	Sa
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
"SON OF FURY"
2nd WEEK IN
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28

FEBRUARY

Su	Mo	Tu	We	Th	Fr	Sa
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
"SON OF FURY"
2nd WEEK IN
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28

FEBRUARY!

TYRONE POWER
SON OF FURY
The Story of Benjamin Blake
with
GENE TIERNEY
GEORGE SANDERS • FRANCES FARMER
RODDY McDOWALL
Produced by DARRYL F. ZANUCK
Directed by JOHN CROMWELL

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 146, No. 6

February 7, 1942

The Code Mystery

THE motion picture industry's most curious and contrary secret is its Production Code—the self-regulative document and plan by which it seeks to orient the moral standards of its pictures and keep them attuned to the requirements of common American decency.

It is one of the contradictory unbelievables that this Code should have been held for more than a decade in a sort of custody of concealment, confused the while by intricate devices of expression concealing the concealment.

A fireside thumbing of a yard-high pile of files and publications, dating back to before the adoption of the Production Code in March of 1930 and covering the adventures and mal-adventures of the screen and its mores since, has been a toiling progress through a jungle of misunderstanding which only a naïve reader could consider a product of mishap or chance.

This annoying excursion was precipitated this wintry week-end by a slender pamphlet, entitled "Film Facts, 1942", issued by the industry's trade association, otherwise the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., and presenting among its features what purports to be "The Production Code".

The fact is that it is not the Production Code and is a derivative document, most ineptly related to the instrument which it is alleged to be.

Far from unique, this latest version is but the latest of a series which began long ago, progressively contributing to the confusions which have beset, invaded and sometimes thwarted the working of the Code and, of consequence, deeply impairing its service to the motion picture industry.

FOR reasons best known to the trade association, or some part thereof, at the time of the adoption of the Code a summary was released as the Code. Then, in a remarkable maneuver in 1934, when certain crises brought some application and implementation, this same trade association made allegedly and almost available, an unsigned, unlabeled, unidentifiable mimeographed document called "reasons" for the Code, which was the Code itself. Few saw it then, and few have read it since. It was a presentation that was not presented and came into existence with apparent reluctance.

The assorted rewrites of the summary, which has in general purported to be the Code, would require, for complete annotation and reference to deviations and origins, a volume of considerable bulk. Each may be traced to influences of transient expediency and propinquity having no relation to the basic document and purpose of the Code save to evade or afford evasions, or at times to escape from prior absurdities and contradictions, all inevitable in the process involved, and all of which might have been rendered unnecessary by the forthright promulgation of the Code itself. In an appendix—and thus separately from the Code itself—such policy regulations could be useful from time to time.

Conspicuous in the summaries which have masqueraded as the Code is an apparent effort at mere vagueness and pleasant generalities. The reasoning, the justification and the support of principle and procedure are altogether lacking, to the end that the stated prohibitions and injunctions are left to appear arbitrary and capricious. The interpretation of moral principle in its application to motion picture production is to be had only from the Code itself. Experience has proven that in the absence of the Code itself confusion, misunderstanding and neglect automatically follow, both in the studios and in the public mind.

PERHAPS one might well set down now, again, the fact that the Code is in substance a restatement of the purposes of the Ten Commandments, which are generally viewed with some acceptance and at least no prejudice in Western civilization, with an injunction to the art of the screen to avoid advocating or influencing the breaking of the Commandments. It is that simple—and there seems no warrant for devices of making it a secret.

Human nature being what it is, and divergences of culture being what they are, in any event, and under any treatment, the application of the Code might well have been expected to produce criticism and controversy in the production community. But the Code itself, presented without the artificialities and intricacies of misrepresentation by a superstructure of mislabeled "summary" would have come into less conflict.

THE devices and versions used have offered opportunity to the purposeful evaders and exploiters of the immoral and the unmoral, and have challenged the intelligence of more sincere men.

The current "Film Facts" version, for instance, is so presumptuous as to say:

"The use of liquor in American life, when not required by the plot or for proper characterization, will not be shown."

This might perhaps be an injunction of policy with respect to the nation's dry minority, but it is not a part of the Code and not an issue of basic moral law. To many, if not most, such a prohibition can only tend to make the Code appear as absurd as many motion picture censorships often are.

Then again, this alleged Code gets painfully specific on the subject of profanity and strictly forbids, for instance, such utterances as "damn" and "hell". Obviously, the Code proper forbids the promulgation of blasphemy, which is rather another matter. Meanwhile, a hell of a state of affairs in misconcept

[Continued on following page, column 1]

This Week

in the News

Percentage Troubles

PARAMOUNT, which began selling to Loew's circuit in New York only after extended negotiation; which encountered opposition to its terms by Minnesota exhibitors; and which has been employing an exhibitor relations director this week found itself at odds with two strong New York circuits, the Skouras and Century.

These, playing after Loew's and RKO's first run, were unable to agree with Paramount, it is reported, over percentages demanded on certain pictures; and last week, Paramount began selling away from them.

Fred Schwartz, of Century, deprecated the squabble by remarking that negotiations were still on, and some negotiations took as long as "nine months." A Paramount spokesman said the two circuits could buy product any time they wanted to, but that in the meanwhile the company would sell to buyers more amenable. George Skouras could not be reached for comment.

Paramount feature contracts sold last week totalled 2,476, a new weekly high under decree selling, exceeding by 45 per cent the season's record scored the previous week, Neil Agnew, Paramount sales chief, announced Wednesday.

THE CODE MYSTERY

(Continued from preceding page)

of the Code is promoted by cluttering it with attempts at the regulation of taste, which is quite distinct from morality—even if they are so often and tediously confused in the issues of Hollywood.

The Production Code was not written to educate motion picture production in matters of taste. The function of the Code ever has properly been the protection of the screen and its patrons against immoral influences, no matter what the levels of taste may be.

Experience as well as reason proves that the interlacing of rules of policy and expediency—such as the treatment of drinking, the use of "hell," "damn," etc.—lays the whole procedure open to criticism and attack.

These "orders of the day" which necessarily are subject to change from time to time should be kept in a separate classification and not mixed into the body of the main document which is permanently rooted in unchanging moral principles.

Taste is the picture maker's business. Morality is the nation's business.

—Terry Ramsaye

BOOKINGS of films from ally Russia up 60 per cent in U. S. Page 12

DIVORCEMENT of theatres demanded by U. S. under decree clause Page 13

HORSE and buggy may return but film selling will go on Page 15

PRODUCT for 1942-'43 discussed while '41-'42 is still coming Page 16

OCD gets St. Louis theatres, industry ready for raids Page 17

UNITY committee still seeks formula for trade peace Page 22

ARBITRATION enters second year with but one new case Page 28

INDIANA exchanges shut down in "out-law" walkout Page 29

ASSESSORS value 32 New York theatres at $75,392,000 Page 35

ACADEMY banquet restored; Willkie may hand out Oscars Page 43

SERVICE DEPARTMENTS

Asides and Interludes Page 33 Managers' Round Table Page 57

Hollywood Scene Page 40 What the Picture Did for Me Page 52

PRODUCT DIGEST, including Reviews and Release Chart Page 67

Trust Busting Truce?

A TRUCE on anti-trust suits for the duration of the war will be wangled from the Department of Justice, if the War Productions Board can possibly do so, without making an on-the-record request. Such is the unofficial word from a meeting between Donald Nelson, war production chief and his staff of lawyers, and Thurman Arnold, Department of Justice trust buster, his assistant Hugh Cox and their staff of lawyers.

The Wall Street Journal reported that the prosecution of pending anti-trust suits during the war was the subject of much dickering at the conference on Tuesday. Officials insisted that the WPB did not formally ask the Justice Department to ease up on anti-trust action. The WPB is said to feel that postponement of trust actions would prevent diversion of industry's attention from the war effort. Mr. Arnold made no statement, but indicated he felt such requests should be formal, on-the-record, and from the proper authorities.

Conservation Warning

THE Government's efforts to conserve materials have been somewhat defeated in the motion picture theatre business, it appears, by failure to act sooner upon the needs of theatres. An editorial in the accompanying issue of Better Theatres asserts that the buying of parts and supplies far beyond normal needs has gouged into some critical stocks which will be necessary for operations generally later on.

Optimism prevails in important theatre and equipment circles, especially those now in close contact with the office of A. Julian Brylawski in Washington, which is developing an authoritative compilation of theatre requirements, that a priority rating for theatres will be granted shortly. It is felt that it may well be a high one. At the same time, it is pointed out that a policy of strict conservation will have to be followed by all theatre managements so that operations may stay consistently within the necessary limitations of materials.

"War Time" Begins

CLOCKS throughout the United States must be advanced one hour Sunday night. At two o'clock Monday morning the country goes on "war time," under a Congressional act enabling the President to order a maximum of two hours national daylight saving time. "War time" is President Roosevelt's name for the new time.

PICTURES ADVERTISED THIS WEEK

"Babes on Broadway," MGM, 2nd cover
 "The Woman of the Year," MGM, 2nd cover
 "Johnny Eager," MGM, 2nd cover
 "The Bugle Sounds," MGM, 2nd cover
 "The Vanishing Virginian," MGM, 2nd cover, Page 39
 "Kings Row," Warners, Page 3
 "Son of Fury," 20th-Fox, Page 6
 "Sullivan's Travels," Paramount, Pages 19, 20
 "Bahama Passage," Paramount, Pages 19, 20
 "Mr. Bug Goes to Town," Paramount, Pages 25, 26
 "Storm," Paramount, Pages 31, 32
 "Roxie Hart," 20th-Fox, Pages 36, 37
 "The Lady Is Willing," Columbia, Pages 41, 42
 "Lady for a Night," Republic, Pages 46, 47
 "Shanghai Gesture," United Artists, Page 51

The Douglas Matter

MONDAY it was announced in Washington that Melvyn Douglas had been appointed director of information for the Office of Civilian Defense. The announcement, attributed to James M. Landis, executive of the OCD, said that Mr. Douglas would be in charge of relations with the press, radio, magazines, films and all other outlets.

TUESDAY Leland Ford, Republican representative from California, made a one-minute speech at the opening of the House, in which he protested: "... This is the man that public sentiment in California kept from taking a commission in the National Guard on account of his pink and red activities and his close association with subversive Communist groups..." Charles L. Gifford, Republican, Massachusetts, added "... we are all familiar ... it comes by the selection of persons who are favorites in high place..." Then Jerry Voorhis, Democrat, California, urged that Mr. Douglas "is not and never was a Communist... nobody could do the OCD job any better."

A New York Herald reporter saw Mr. Douglas, who was quoted: "Two months ago anybody who was engaged in fighting the Nazis was liable to be charged with being a red by the isolationists. And the same charge was raised when we defended the Spanish Republicans... although now we know their fight was ours..." Mr. Douglas has been active with the Save America by Defending the Allies and the Fight for Freedom committees.

ALSO TUESDAY MOTION PICTURE HERALD's Washington Bureau wired: "The Office of Civilian Defense today corrected an erroneous announcement that Melvyn Douglas had been appointed director of information. Mr. Douglas, OCD officials said, would be director of the arts council a branch of the information division, but would not be information chief, a post that has not yet been filled."

Off to Rio

ORSON WELLES, of radio, Mars and the RKO studio, accompanied by Phil Reisman, RKO foreign manager, took a plane on Tuesday for Rio de Janeiro, where Mr. Welles will make "It's All True," a feature production, with the blessing and active backing of the film section of Nelson Rockefeller's U. S. Office of Inter-American Affairs. Mr. Reisman, also of the OIA, is going along to assist Mr. Welles in setting up production and to iron out details of the distribution system which the RKO foreign chief has been setting up for the Rockefeller-John Hay Whitney office.

The Welles picture, a departure, in four parts, from ordinary feature technique, was described in MOTION PICTURE HERALD on January 24th. Following the Brazilian venture Mr. Welles will go to Mexico to produce another picture for RKO distribution.

Strategists, also Hays, to Hollywood—Pettijohn out

Militant movements, realignments and a new pattern of public relations and operations for the organized motion picture industry were beginning to become apparent at midweek after a series of executive sessions of a new board of strategy made up of industry lawyers of east and west meeting in New York.

Only one official development became known—the acceptance of the resignation of Charles Clyde Pettijohn, general counsel of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., for twenty years. Mr. Pettijohn was long principally concerned in representing the industry in legislative matters, through the states and at Washington.

Intimations were about, without confirmations, that there was a project, or were projects, that contemplated an endeavour to enlist the services of Wendell L. Willkie for some post in a program of public and assorted other relations for the screen.

Meanwhile, Will Hays, president of the MPPDA from its beginning in 1922, accompanied westward the Hollywood triumvirate of lawyers, en route to Hollywood laden with the affairs of their councils in New York, in a series of meetings which ranged from a suite at the Hotel Pierre to the Hays office at 28 West 44th Street. The drawing rooms of the Union Pacific flyer were busy with the conferences and considerations of Mr. Hays and the lawyers. They expected to arrive in Hollywood at weekend with a lot of things on paper—about the Production Code Administration, about war time priorities, about labor policies, about publicity policies, taxes, war activities, the Consent Decree and its sequels, about publicity and exploitation.

The members of this lawyer-board of strategy are:

For Hollywood

Mendel Silberberg, Columbia Pictures
Maurice Benjamin, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer
Herbert Freston, Warner Brothers

For New York

J. Robert Rubin, Loew's, Inc.
Austin C. Keough, Paramount
Joseph Hazen, Warner Brothers

These six attorneys first functioned as a group on the defense of the motion picture industry at the recent Senatorial inquiry in Washington, employing Mr.

Willkie as chief of counsel for the hearings.

Special attention was given to the subject of motion picture publicity, in the course of the New York meetings. A gathering of the advertising and publicity men of the major companies was addressed and consulted at the Hays office.

Mr. Pettijohn went to the staff of the Hays office within a few weeks of its formation. In the years before when Mr. Hays had been active in the Republican politics of Indiana, Mr. Pettijohn, an Indianapolis lawyer, was an active member of the Thomas Taggart Democratic organization. His first contact with the motion picture industry began in 1915 when he became attorney for the late Frank Rembush, an exhibitor leader and organizer from Shelbyville, Ind.

When Mr. Hays arrived in New York to operate, as chairman of the Republican National Committee, the campaign for the election of Warren G. Harding, Mr. Pettijohn became his contact with the motion picture industry, which gave Mr. Harding considerable screen attention.

Mr. Pettijohn had had some years in the motion picture business of New York, chiefly in the Lewis J. Selznick organization. Mr. Pettijohn and Mr. Selznick launched the movement which resulted in the formation of the MPPDA and the drafting of Mr. Hays to its presidency, taking him from the position of postmaster-general in the Harding cabinet.

Mr. Pettijohn's departure from the Hays office is dated officially for March 5, precisely twenty years from the date of its opening. It was said he would return to private practice of law.

George J. Schaefer, president of RKO, was to leave New York for Hollywood before this weekend to take over operation of the company's studio for a month in the absence of Joseph I. Breen, vice-president in charge of production, who was to leave for a vacation in Mexico.

There were reports in Hollywood and New York of discussions bearing on Mr. Breen's return to the head of the Production Code Administration.

■ ■ GENE AUTRY autographs defense stamp albums purchased at his urging by citizens of Berwyn, Oklahoma, at the ceremonies which officially changed the town's name to Gene Autry. Republic turned the picture over to its advertising department to be made into a one sheet to promote stamp sales.

This Week

■ ■ ■ the Camera observes

By Staff Photographer

NEW YORK visitor, Steve Broidy, general sales manager for Monogram, on a trip east from Hollywood, confers with Norton V. Ritchey, foreign sales chief.

HOLLYWOOD attended, in these days of curtailed public functions, a testimonial dinner last week for Herbert J. Yates, of Consolidated Film and Republic. The Masquers Club was the official host. Above are the guest of honor, Alan Mowbray, Y. Frank Freeman and E. J. Mannix. Other guests and speakers included Jesse Lasky, Hal Roach, Hugh Herbert, J. R. McDonough, and Jock Lawrence.

INDUCTION. Dave Idzal, right, takes office as chief barker of the Variety Club of Michigan and is congratulated by John Howard, 1941 chief barker, at the formal installation of officers of the club.

■ WARNERS opened "Kings Row" at the New York Astor last Monday with notables but without searchlights and with black ties instead of white on account of the war. At right, in the lobby, are Mort B. Blumenstock, director of advertising and publicity, and E. L. Alperson, RKO Theatres executive. Below are Mr. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, Jr.

By Cosmo-Sileo

By Metropolitan

DRIVE LEADERS. Back from a tour of exchanges in the interests of RKO's Ned Depinet Drive are Walter Branson, western sales manager; Harry Michalson, short subjects sales manager; Nat Levy, captain of the drive, and Harry Gittleson, editor of the company's house organ.

NEWLY ELECTED officers of Motion Picture Operators Local 325 in Wilkes Barre, Pa., are Edward Parsons, vice-president; William Piatt, business agent. Standing, Robert Piatt, Jr., recording secretary; Raymond Conrad, president; Joseph Malloy, financial secretary; Peter Klem, sergeant-at-arms.

■ THE WINNERS of the Quigley Awards, selected last week by a jury of executive showmen at the annual judging in New York, are Arnold Stoltz, above left, Silver Plaque, manager of the Warner Avon theatre, Utica, N. Y., and Frank Bickerstaff, Bronze Plaque, manager of the Lucas & Jenkins Palace in Athens, Ga.

FILM SHOWINGS OF SOVIET ALLY UP 60% IN U.S.

Artkino Finds New Deals Opening; Documentary Cut, Edited in Hollywood

Circuit and independent distribution of Russian motion pictures in the United States was up 60 per cent in January.

Warner Bros., Wometco, Florida States and Interstate are among key circuits now booking Soviet films for the first time in history.

Communist dominated Russia, as an ally of America and Great Britain has effected a temporary new deal for Soviet pictures, with increased interest on the part of U. S. exhibitors in its features, newsreels and documentaries.

Nicola Napoli, president of Artkino, American distributor of Russian films, attributes the unprecedented interest to the fact that exhibitors here are responding to the public's curiosity about Russia's blitz against the Nazis.

Before December 7th, Artkino estimated a distribution increase here at 30 per cent since Hitler's attack in June against his erstwhile pact-partner, as reported in MOTION PICTURE HERALD of December 13th. The advent of Uncle Sam into the war arena has increased American interest in Russia to new heights, according to Mr. Napoli.

As a result, pictures showing the struggle of the Russians to fight off Nazi invasion are good business.

On Warner Circuit

Warner Brothers for example, put "One Day in Soviet Russia," a documentary, into its Philadelphia house, the Capitol, a first-run, where it was held over for a second week. Wometco, Florida State and Interstate circuits all booked "One Day" for their theatres. The Pix in Washington, played "Girl from Leningrad," a feature based on experiences of Russian nurses at the front. This was the first Soviet film to open in the Capitol for four years.

At New York's Stanley, "Girl" is in its eighth week, breaking the house record and the eight-week, longest-run Russian film record in New York, set by "Chapayev" in 1935 at the former Cameo. "Girl" also opened simultaneously at the Esquire in Hollywood and the Grand, Los Angeles. It is currently showing at the Fine Arts, Boston, and other bookings for this feature are being arranged.

An American version of "Girl" will be made in Hollywood. Artkino sold the story and background rights to United Players Productions, headed by Eugene Frenke, producer and director. Mr. Frenke reported last week that he would use American actors in his version, utilizing background scenes and general theme of the story. He said negotiations were under way with a major company for distribution.

Another film about Russia, this one made in Hollywood, is causing a flurry in distribution circles in the U. S. "Our Russian

NEW RUSSIAN FILM CYCLE AT THALIA

"Russian Victory Month" was inaugurated by the Thalia Theatre in New York, with presentation of a cycle of 21 Soviet films, beginning January 8th and ending February 16th. The program was arranged to "celebrate the heroic resistance of the Red Army", and includes, with each showing of Russian pictures, an American, British or French film. Programs for February 1st to 10th are: "Gypsies" and "Power"; "Peter the First" and "Scarface"; "Conquest of Peter the Great" and "Crime et Chatiment"; "We Are from Kronstadt" and "The Girl Was Young"; "Baltic Deputy" and "To the Victor"; and "Childhood of Maxim Gorky" and "Grand Illusion".

Front," a documentary, produced by Lewis Milestone and Joris Ivens from approximately 20,000 feet of recent Soviet newsreels, was made under the auspices of Russian War Relief. It opens at the Rialto, New York, on Lincoln's Birthday. A number of industry leaders, including Barney Balaban and Jack Warner, are reported to have seen it, liked it and indicated "they would help to push it along in their respective theatres when it is distributed."

Currently, three major companies are negotiating with Russian War Relief which now owns the picture, for distribution deals—Paramount, Columbia and Universal. MGM offered to put the film into the Criterion theatre, New York, on a test run. The film runs 40 minutes and it is planned to book it as a feature, for showing in double-bill houses. If circuit deals fail, the relief agency will release it through an independent distributor.

"Our Russian Front" was cut and edited in the cutting room of Twentieth Century-Fox in Hollywood. Darryl Zanuck contributed the working space, Elliot Paul, novelist, wrote the commentary and Walter Huston, screen and stage star, delivered it. Thornton Delehanty, Hollywood correspondent for the New York Herald Tribune, described it, in the February 2nd issue of the Tribune, as follows:

"It is not merely the content which makes the picture striking. The use of the material in a high degree of technical skill puts it in the front rank of documentary films. It has rhythm and an amazingly effective change of pace. . . . The producers whittled out a graphic and galvanic capsule of the Russian war effort."

"What makes the picture remarkable is its avoidance of the obvious martial trappings, its dwelling instead on the struggle of the individual in terms of spiritual values. One gets from it a true sense of the Russian struggle, a sense of the preciousness of the land and the home and the family."

According to Artkino, Soviet films are finding favor these days in Canada as well as the U. S. "Chapayev" already has been approved for showing in Montreal, and "One Day in Soviet Russia," opened recently in Montreal, breaking the ban of Quebec, with proceeds going to the Canadian Red Cross. "Wings of Victory," is slated for a debut in Toronto at the Eaton Auditorium, with Canadian Government and defense officials expected to attend.

In England, reports Mr. Napoli, the British Ministry of Information "considers Soviet pictures as defense films." One of the biggest draws is "Our Russian Allies," for which J. B. Priestly wrote the commentary and which has been distributed through circuit and independent houses. The film is now being cleared at the U. S. Customs office before being turned over to Artkino for American distribution. The company also expects to get from England a dubbed version of "In the Rear of the Enemy," Soviet war film. "Three in a Shell Hole," another story of Soviet nurses at the front, is now being distributed in England and will be released to Artkino here by the British Library of Information.

Writer Promotes Soviet Films

Further indication of new-found favor of Soviet motion pictures in Britain, is evidenced by the article which Louis Jackson, British exhibitor, wrote in the January issue of the Daily Renter, British film trade paper. Mr. Jackson forecasts:

"Now that the Red mist has lifted and we can view the Soviet without prejudice, with, in fact, admiration, I believe we are going to have a boom in Soviet pictures, not only because of our admiration for the fight the Russian Armies are putting up, but because their films can bring us something fresh, because they give entertainment, new faces and new directors and yes, if I must say it, because it's just plain, darned good business."

Gaumont British Picture Corp., in association with the Soviet War News Film Agency, film section of the Press Department of the Soviet Embassy in England, had an Anglo-Soviet film season at the Tatter Theatre in London during November and December, playing all-Soviet picture programs with full program notes on the entertainment fare. The Soviet War News Film Agency also prepared a pamphlet listing features, shorts, war films, music and art pictures, cartoons and war newsreels, giving brief descriptions, running time and other information, for theatrical and non-theatrical distributors in England. The pamphlet was circulated widely throughout the British Isles.

Concerning Russian newsreels, the latest shipment of 3,000 feet of Soviet war-news footage arrived in America last week. All U. S. newsreel companies used three subjects of the reels in their last week's issues.

CIRCUIT EXPANSIONS HIT BY U.S., ASKING DIVORCEMENT

Motions Ask Federal Court To Order Paramount Fox To Dispose of Theatres

Consent decree settlement or no, the United States Government gave formal notice this week that it still favored the theatre divorcement asked in its New York anti-trust case and it did not intend that the decree waiver should allow the majors to continue acquiring theatres contrary to the original understanding under the decree.

An action to compel the divorcement of theatres acquired by Paramount and 20th Century-Fox since the signing of the consent decree, just 14 months ago, was begun at New York last Thursday by the U. S.

The motion picture section of the Department of Justice's anti-trust division in motions filed with Judge Henry W. Goddard on January 29th sought an injunction ordering Paramount to divest itself of 16 of 197 new houses, and asking divorcement of 28 of the 40 theatres acquired by 20th Century-Fox since the decree was signed. The complaint charged that the two companies had entered on a program of general expansion of theatre holdings contrary to Section XI of the consent decree.

Followed Report

The move to force divorcement of theatres operated by consent decree signatories followed by a week the Department of Justice's first annual report on decree operation. In the report, published in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for January 31, page 17, Robert L. Wright, head of the Department of Justice film unit, forecast the action to halt expansion of affiliated circuits.

The actions were filed with Judge Goddard, who signed the consent decree, by Mathias F. Correa, U. S. Attorney for New York. They will be heard at 3 P. M., February 18th, in Room 906 of the U. S. Court House on Foley Square, New York City.

Four causes of action were cited in the complaint. They involved theatres in towns where the defendant distributors previously had no theatre interest; where the acquisitions eliminated all competition; where the theatres involved had previously filed arbitration proceedings; and where they had filed complaints of discrimination with the Department of Justice.

Charges Similar

The two injunction petitions were similar as to charges, with the exception of the theatres and companies named. The Government asks Judge Goddard to order Paramount and 20th Century-Fox to halt all further theatre expansion, and to divest themselves, under court supervision, of the theatres listed in the complaints.

Section XI of the consent decree, under which the action was filed, was designed to keep the affiliated theatre holdings of the Big Five in status quo. It required monthly reports on changes in theatre holdings. From these reports, filed with the Department of Justice at Washington, the Government compiled the present divorcement charges.

The charges against 20th-Fox and its theatre operating subsidiary, National Theatres, declared that since the decree was approved on November 20, 1940, the companies acquired 40 theatres and relinquished 10.

Paramount, the Government asserts, acquired 87 theatres directly, 43 by purchase and 47 on lease. Additionally the company on June 20, 1941, acquired operating control of the Sparks' Circuit's 110 theatres in Florida. During the year Paramount relinquished 21 theatres, all held on leases.

The complaint against 20th-Fox listed the following:

Theatres acquired in towns where the distributor previously did not have any theatre interests:

Theatre	Town	State	Date Acquired
Orpheum	Kenosha	Wis.	August, 1941
Oshkosh	Oshkosh	Wis.	August, 1941
Strand	Oshkosh	Wis.	August, 1941
Village	Claremont	Calif.	Sept. 1, 1941
Kerridge	Hancock	Mich.	Nov. 1, 1941
Orpheum	Hancock	Mich.	Nov. 1, 1941
Lode	Houghton	Mich.	Nov. 15, 1941

Unaffiliated theatres "which prior to acquisition competed with a theatre or theatres in which defendants were interested, which acquisition eliminated all theatre competition in each town where such acquisition occurred":

Theatre	Town	State	Date Acquired
Rialto	Marinette	Wis.	Dec. 3, 1940
State	Fort Collins	Colo.	Dec. 22, 1940
Times	Jacksonville	Ill.	Apr. 21, 1941
America	Sterling	Colo.	July 25, 1941
Apollo	Janesville	Wis.	Aug. 1, 1941
Jeffris	Janesville	Wis.	Aug. 1, 1941
Longmont	Longmont	Colo.	Sept. 4, 1941
Monrovia	Monrovia	Calif.	Sept. 26, 1941
Bell	Bell	Calif.	Oct. 31, 1941

Acquisition in a single transaction on August 1, 1941, of an entire theatre circuit (Saxe Amusement Company, Milwaukee) composed of the following theatres:

Garfield, Uptown, Princess, Modjeska, Mirth, Tivoli, and Parkway theatres in Milwaukee; Oshkosh and Strand, in Oshkosh and the Orpheum, in Kenosha.

Unaffiliated theatres acquired, in each case following "the receipt by said defendants of a complaint from the Department of Justice with respect to competitive discrimination in licensing films in favor of a competitive theatre in which the defendants were interested, against said unaffiliated theatres":

Theatre	Town	State	Date Acquired
State	Fort Collins	Colo.	Dec. 22, 1940
Liberty	Sedalia	Mo.	May 12, 1941
Sedalia	Sedalia	Mo.	May 12, 1941
America	Sterling	Colo.	July 25, 1941
Longmont	Longmont	Colo.	Sept. 4, 1941

Paramount theatres, which the Government asks the company be ordered to relinquish, include the following:

In towns where the company had no previous interest:

Theatre	Town	State	Date Acquired
Firemen's	New Hampton, Ia.		Jan. 1, 1941
Richmond	Rockingham	N. C.	Feb. 14, 1941
Little	Rockingham	N. C.	Feb. 14, 1941
Oil City	Falls City	Neb.	June 25, 1941
Rivoli	Falls City	Neb.	June 25, 1941
Jay	Dardanelle	Ark.	July 13, 1941
Plaza	Donna	Tex.	July 19, 1941

Unaffiliated theatres previously competing with Paramount affiliates:

Theatre	Town	State	Date Acquired
U-Ark	Fayetteville	Ark.	January, 1941
Colonial	Buford	Ga.	May 2, 1941
Gibson	Greenville	Mich.	July 22, 1941
Isis	Preston	Ia.	July 31, 1941
Vogue	Orlando	Fla.	Sept. 5, 1941
Camden	Camden	Ark.	Sept. 16, 1941
Seville	Owensboro	Ky.	Nov. 18, 1941

Theatres acquired subsequent to their filing arbitration actions for some run or clearance under the consent decree:

Theatre	Town	State	Date Acquired
Camden	Camden	Ark.	Sept. 16, 1941
Lyceum	Duluth	Minn.	Oct. 28, 1941
Portage	Chicago	Ill.	November, 41

The prayer asks that the court (1) "Order, adjudge and decree that the defendants have entered upon a general program of expanding their theatre holdings in violation of section XI" (5) of the consent decree, and

(2) "That each of the defendants, under the direction and supervision of the court, be ordered and directed to divest itself of all interest and ownership, both direct and indirect, in each theatre listed."

The order applies only to the theatres specifically cited as acquired in violation of the decree. The other holdings acquired during the year, including the 110 Sparks theatres taken over by Paramount are not affected by the present suit.

Decree Cited

Section XI of the decree, under which the injunction is sought, reads:

"For a period of three years following the entry of this decree, no consenting defendant shall enter upon a general program of expanding its theatre holdings. Nothing herein shall prevent any such defendant from acquiring theatres or interests therein to protect its investment or its competitive position or for ordinary purposes of its business. Proceedings based on a violation of this subdivision shall be only by application to the court for injunctive relief against the consenting defendant complained against, which shall be limited to restraining the acquisition, or ordering the divestiture, of the theatres or interests therein, if any, about to be acquired, in violation of this section."

At New York attorneys for the industry generally regarded the motions as trial bal-

(Continued on following page)

U. S. Demands Divorcement of Theatres

(Continued from preceding page)

loons which might presage wholesale action by the Department of Justice to reopen the question of affiliated relationship between distribution and exhibition.

Mr. Wright's report on the decree last week commented:

"It has not yet demonstrated that film licensing discriminations inherent in the ownership of theatres by distributors may be effectively remedied by measures short of divorcement."

Paramount and 20th Century-Fox, it is reliably reported, are the only distributors who have reported substantial changes in their theatre holdings during the decree's term. Metro is said to have reported a net change of "minus one or two theatres." RKO sold "four or five and acquired two or three theatres." Warners monthly reports to the Government are also said to have read, consistently, "No theatre changes to report."

Dwight, Harris, Koegel and Caskey are attorneys for 20th Century-Fox. Paramount is represented by the firm of Simpson, Thacher and Bartlett.

Postpone Schad Trust Trial

Final hearing at Philadelphia in the anti-trust suit of Harry J. Schad, Reading, Pa., exhibitor, was continued until April 6, 1942, on Thursday, after a two-day session, before Judge J. Cullen Ganey in U. S. District Court for eastern Pennsylvania.

The suit charges conspiracy and seeks triple damages of $750,000 from 20th Century-Fox, Warner Brothers, the Warner theatre circuit and the Wilmer & Vincent circuit. A preliminary hearing was held before Judge Ganey in September, 1941. The complaint was filed on August 20, 1941.

Mr. Schad charges the defendants conspired to have 20th Century-Fox give the franchise for 50 per cent of its product, held by the Astor theatre in Reading, to Wilmer & Vincent's Embassy and State theatres there, which already had the other 50 per cent. The conspiracy resulted, it is alleged, when the Astor reverted back to Mr. Schad in April, after operating on a lease to the Warner circuit.

During the Thursday and Friday sessions, the plaintiffs called as witnesses Samuel Gross and Alfred J. Davis, branch and sales managers, respectively, of 20th Century-Fox, to explain their selling in Reading, and Jay Emanuel, who operates Schad's Astor and Strand on a pooling deal with his Park theatre. Mr. Emanuel spent the entire second day of the trial on the stand, explaining his theatre deals in Reading. He is not party, however, to the complaint, the alleged conspiracy having taken place before Mr. Emanuel entered into the pool with Mr. Schad.

Judge Ganey advised that he had set aside only two days for testimony. The defense stated it would take at least two weeks to present its case.

In setting the April 6th date for continuance of the hearing, Judge Ganey cautioned that he would sit in the case for the April 6th week only, and if the attorneys could not finish in that time, he would continue the case until the 1942-43 term of the court.

In addition to the three witnesses already

Independents' Talks with Majors Seen Forestalling Minnesota Product Jam

In New York this week a delegation of Minnesota exhibitors, led by Fred Strom, executive secretary of Northwest Allied and champion of the state's anti-blocks-of-five law, met sales executives of Paramount, Warners, MGM, RKO and 20th-Fox in an attempt to solve current product difficulties in Minnesota and Wisconsin. A solution of differences over price, availability and product shortage in the area due to the anti-blocks-of-five measure was said to have been promised by the discussions. Mr. Strom said that the danger of theatres in the state having to close for lack of product had passed.

A resolution was sent to Minnesota exhibitors by Allied last week calling upon them not to abuse cancellation privileges and to exercise their 20 per cent option with regard to the best interests of public, distributors and exhibition.

Harold Field, Ben Friedman, Clarence Kaake, William Frank, and Sidney Volk accompanied Mr. Strom to New York.

Trial at Minneapolis of the injunction suit filed by the Big Five to halt enforcement of Minnesota's anti-decree selling law was postponed until March 1st. Last week, Judge Albin Pearson adjourned the case to allow time for state and film attorneys and intervening exhibitor organizations to file briefs. He accepted in evidence testimony presented in January at the criminal prosecution of three consenting companies for alleged violation of the state law. The statute's constitutionality is at issue in both civil and criminal suits. A verdict in the criminal case will probably be held up until the civil action is completed and both suits decided simultaneously.

heard, the plaintiffs plan to present testimony by Frank McNamee, associate of Mr. Emanuel, Mr. Schad, and Leonard Stallings, manager of the Schad houses. He formerly managed them for the Warner circuit. The defense is planning on at least eight witnesses.

State Senator Harry Shapiro and William Rudenko are the attorneys for Mr. Schad. Former State Attorney-General William A. Schnader and Bernard G. Segal are the attorneys for 20th Century-Fox, Benjamin M. Golder for Warner Brothers, Morris Wolf and Morris Pfaelzer, 3rd, for the Warner Theatres, and Charles H. Weidner and Stephens and Lee of Reading for the Wilmer & Vincent circuit.

The Schine Enterprises anti-trust trial date at Buffalo was postponed Tuesday by Judge John Knight from March 3rd to April 28th. He denied a motion to dismiss the Government complaints in whole or part.

'Little Three' Trust Hearing

Judge Henry W. Goddard on Thursday was to hear motions by Columbia Pictures for an immediate decision by him on a Department of Justice petition to strike out 15 interrogatories filed against the Government by Columbia. Louis D. Frohlich of the firm of Schwartz and Frohlich, attorneys for Columbia, denied charges that the interrogatories were designed to delay the anti-trust suit against Columbia, Universal and United Artists. He pointed out that Columbia sought a ruling on the motions two weeks ahead of the February 18th date set by the Government.

It is expected that the Government will set a trial date for the Little Three within a few weeks. This may be done Thursday, or following the hearing of divorcement petitions against Paramount and 20th-Fox before Judge Goddard on February 18th.

Burke Aids Richards

Gibbons Burke, New Orleans attorney, has been named assistant to E. V. Richards, president of the Paramount-Richards circuit.

Testimonials for Mahan, Marcus, Eisele, Blofson

Representatives of exchanges, theatres and allied industries in the New Haven, Conn., territory will attend a farewell testimonial dinner in honor of J. Roger Mahan, recently promoted from New Haven Vitagraph manager to manager of the New York office, on Monday, February 9th, at the Hotel Taft. Philip Sherman, new manager of the New Haven office, will also be welcomed. Mr. Sherman was formerly manager of the Toronto office.

Nat Marcus, formerly Columbia's salesman in the Syracuse, N. Y., territory, but now with Warners in the Pittsburgh area, was feted last week at a testimonial dinner at the Hotel Syracuse. Jim Fader, who succeeds Mr. Marcus, was introduced at the dinner.

More than 60 fellow employees of Twentieth Century-Fox assembled last week at the Hotel Woodward, New York, to attend a luncheon in honor of George Eisele's 25th anniversary with the company.

Mr. Eisele, assistant to Edgar Hollander, ad sales manager, joined the company in January, 1917, as student salesman under Julius Schwartz, at the time New York salesman. When the ad sales department was founded, 20 years ago, Mr. Eisele joined that branch of the business, and has remained there.

Al Blofson, head of National Penn Printing Company, and former Star of the Showmen's Club in Philadelphia, will be given a testimonial dinner by the club on February 23rd. Meyer Adelman of the New Jersey Messenger is chairman of the sponsoring committee.

Sam Lefkowitz, recently named Warner's New York metropolitan district manager, was honored Friday, January 30th, in New York by the local branch members.

Ebert with RKO

Otto Ebert, formerly of the Servaas circuit, is the new office manager of the Indianapolis RKO branch.

John Joseph Aide Named

George Thomas, a member of Universal's publicity department in Hollywood, has been appointed assistant to John Joseph, director of advertising and publicity for the company.

'BACK TO HORSE & BUGGY WHEN PRIORITIES PINCH'

Changes in Territories, Selling Methods May Be War Result

The horse and buggy may stage a comeback among film salesmen. When, as expected, war-and-defense priorities and scarcities restrict travel by automobile and train, the industry can and will turn back to the selling methods of several decades ago, according to one prominent sales executive.

A survey of principal home office sales divisions indicates that they feel they will not be stymied when imminent travel priorities, rubber rations, gasoline shortages and other war measures clamp down on present methods of reaching the nation's exhibitors. Theatres will still need pictures and salesmen find a way of covering their territory to peddle them, the consensus held.

Territories May Be Changed

Changes in routes and territories may result. Perhaps it will be necessary to re-allocate quotas. The number of calls which a salesman may make at any given theatre during the year may be decreased. Selling costs, along with other expense may increase slightly. More contracts will be signed at one visit. But the buying and selling of motion pictures to the nation's 17,900 odd theatres will not be greatly affected, according to distribution heads.

All of the major distributors are guarding sales statistics on the "new order" more than ever. For policy, and trade reasons all of the sales heads and assistants interviewed asked that their names and companies be withheld from publication.

"Theatres will keep right on showing pictures, Hollywood will make them, and we'll sell them," one sales chief said.

"I've walked the ties to the next town plenty of times," a top sales executive said.

Another recalled many jaunts on a dawn milk train in order to get to his next account. Other sales chiefs, citing their days on the road, many of which date back to long before the advent of selling by automobile, voiced confidence that salesmen would find ways to cover their territory.

The distributors generally indicated that the ways and means of reaching accounts would be the responsibility of the individual salesmen and branch or district managers.

"If a film salesman is a good one and depends on reaching the exhibitors for a livelihood he'll do it," one exchange supervisor predicted.

When dobbin whinnies to a halt under his theatre marquee the exhibitor may expect another visit from a film salesman one contract chief, half in humor, commented.

No lessening in the demand for pictures is seen in any quarter and several home office sales managers predicted a "sellers market" if travel is seriously restricted or priorities cut into the total number of Hollywood productions during the forthcoming year. Public interest in motion picture entertainment reaches a peak in wartime one

FILM DELIVERIES HIT BY RATIONS

Film delivery companies, upon whose trucks, operating out of the country's 30 odd exchange centers, the majority of the U. S. theatres depend for product are being hard hit by the tire rations. A survey in New York, where routes are comparatively short, showed that all of the delivery services are carefully conserving available tire stocks and purchasing all available recapped or retreaded tires.

Delivery services have sought classification as interstate common carriers, individually and through trade associations, but have as yet received no ruling. In Springfield, Mass., last week the Film Exchange Transfer Company filed one of the first formal tests of the rationing machinery when it appealed refusal of a local board to approve tire allocations. The appeal, to the state rationing board is being closely watched. The company claims interstate common carrier status.

Consolidation of film delivery routes may become necessary, it was said by one deliveryman at New York.

manager said, citing the boom market that has been reported from England.

The number of visits which a salesman makes on his accounts in the course of a year will probably be reduced materially. More pictures will be sold on each visit it was predicted.

Since the inauguration of blocks-of-five consent decree selling in mid-summer the number of calls paid by the average salesmen has doubled, and in many instances trebled it was reported by distributors who signed the consent decree. Sales agents for other distributors are also making more calls. The ratio of salesmen's calls to sales is leveling off however, according to one sales department statistician. Exhibitors are now buying as much product as has been tradeshow up to the time of the salesman's call it was said.

Monthly Visits

One distributor reported that its salesmen were expected, and always had been expected to contact a customer on an average of once a month. It was asserted that the salesman's tour of his territory was considered as much a part of exhibitor relations as it was of selling. Other distributors indicated that their salesmen visited most accounts every four to six weeks.

The large number of special pictures, or pictures sold singly, during the past few months has increased the number of calls which a salesman was required to make, it was said. It is possible that these special pictures will be tradeshowed earlier than at present, to allow for more selling time among early runs. Sales to subsequent accounts should not be delayed by new travel methods.

One distributor's sales manager pointed out that in the case of calls on subsequent run theatres, and rural exhibitors, the salesman is now able to offer several blocks-of-five, or single pictures, or whatever special package his company uses. There is still considerable divergence among the Big Five in the type and frequency of packages available to theatres in the field. But most salesmen are carrying contracts for a dozen or more pictures.

Only one company admitted that it was not offering the latest block until earlier packages had been disposed of. If an exhibitor wishes to sign contracts for more than one group of pictures he is accommodated, it was said. Its salesmen have been instructed not to push more than one package at a time. This policy will be relaxed soon, it was predicted, however, to permit sales of all pictures, which have been tradeshowed.

One-third in Centers

Reaching key city accounts and major first-run outlets will not present a problem it was said. In most instances these are in, or within easy reach of, the 30 odd exchange cities. Booking combines and circuit purchasing offices located in exchange cities will continue to represent almost a third of the theatres in the country.

Consolidation of sales territories, the elimination of routes, or other major sales reorganizations are not immediately contemplated by any distributor. Some borderline routes may be switched from one sales district to another but these changes are not expected to be important or frequent.

Mail order selling, never a large factor in the industry, is not contemplated at present. Despite war and travel hardships the majority of film deals still will be concluded by a personal visit to the exhibitor, the sales managers unanimously agreed.

"On the spot" sales at trade shows are practically non-existent, it was reported. Without exception the consenting distributors asserted that the trade shows required by the consent decree are a failure in so far as closing deals are concerned. Most trade shows are attended only by exchange help, the projectionist, and maybe an exhibitor or two who happens in. Few operators are making special visits to exchanges to see pictures it was reported.

Only in the case of special "A" pictures do exhibitors turn out in any number at trade shows it was said. Even then they are not particularly interested in signing contracts at the trade showing. In the larger cities bookers and agents for larger circuits attend the trade showings but they are generally without power to buy. Deals are still concluded in the operator's office.

MAJORS ARE TALKING '42-43 WHILE WASHING UP '41-42

New Plans Discussed as Full Programs for 1942 Are Announced

Completing films on their 1941-42 schedule, the major distributors are beginning to disclose numbers, titles and other specifications of films they plan for the 1942-43 season. Additionally, they are taking final inventory and telling exhibitors how many pictures definitely will be in the 1941-42 program.

Universal will release 53 in the new season, according to William Scully, its general sales manager.

Warners will release 45 to 50, said Joseph Bernhard, the company's general manager.

Herman Wobber, Twentieth Century-Fox sales manager, said the company would deliver a total of 50 pictures this year.

53 from Universal, Scully Promises

William A. Scully, Universal's vice-president in charge of sales, announced this week 53 pictures would be on the company's 1942-43 release sheets, three of them to be made by outside producers.

Mr. Scully, who returned to New York headquarters last week from conferences with studio heads, promised additional information about the 53 pictures, shortly.

He added that the Coast conferences also concerned promotion of remaining releases this year, dates of which he announced as follows:

February 13th, "Ride 'Em Cowboy," with Abbott and Costello.

February 20th, "What's Cookin'," starring the Andrew Sisters and Gloria Jean.

March 6th, "Ghost of Frankenstein," starring Lon Chaney.

March 20th, "The Saboteur," starring Robert Cummings and Priscilla Lane.

April 3rd, an Irene Dunne picture.

April 17th, "The Spoilers," with Marlene Dietrich and Ralph Scott.

Pictures in production, he said, are "Broadway," with George Raft; "Pardon My Sarong," with Abbott and Costello; "The Mystery of Marie Roget," with Patric Knowles and Maria Montez; "Butch Minds the Baby," with Virginia Bruce; and "The Invisible Spy," a Frank Lloyd production.

Releases have not been arranged on the foregoing, he said.

Bernhard Predicts 45 to 50 Pictures

Joseph Bernhard, Warners' general manager, this week predicted the company would produce between 45 and 50 films on its 1942-43 programs, adding that the production budget would be increased to $8,000,000.

The pictures made will be of "quality," emphasizing anew the company's abandonment of "B" films. He said Warners would concentrate on making four of every five films "tops."

The company will not depart from its usual policy of production; that is, while having unit producers such as Hal Wallis, it does not plan a general policy of building that type of production, Mr. Bernhard said.

Herman Wobber, Twentieth Century-Fox general sales chief, said in Hollywood last week his company would deliver 50 films this year, its first under the consent decree. He noted 27 are released, three were trade-shown and are awaiting release, and 10 are in work.

Republic Sales Meetings Set

Republic's three regional sales meetings this month, set for the studio, Chicago and New York, are dated as follows:

Studio meeting, North Hollywood, February 16th and 17th; Chicago meeting, Congress Hotel, February 19th and 20th; New York meeting, New York Athletic Club, February 25th and 26th.

James R. Grainger, president, will preside at all assemblies.

The meeting at the studio will be attended by J. T. Sheffield, Northwestern franchise owner; Ed Walton, Seattle branch manager; F. A. Bateman, Los Angeles branch mgr., and Sid Weisbaum, San Francisco branch mgr. Also studio executives headed by M. J. Siegel.

The Chicago meeting will be attended by franchise owners R. F. Withers of Kansas City and Gilbert Nathanson of Minneapolis. Also branch managers F. R. Moran, Des Moines; C. F. Reese, Omaha; Will Baker, Chicago; J. G. Frackman, Milwaukee; L. W. Marriott, Indianapolis; Nat Steinberg, St. Louis; Lloyd Rust, Dallas; Sol Davis, Oklahoma City; J. H. Dillon, Charlotte; M. Davis, Atlanta; W. M. Snelson, Memphis; L. V. Seishnaydre, New Orleans, and H. Laird, Tampa.

The New York meeting will be attended by franchise owners J. H. Alexander and S. A. Fineberg, Pittsburgh, and Jake Flax, Washington, D. C. Also branch managers Arthur Newman, Albany; Jack Bellman, Buffalo; M. E. Morey, Boston; Sam Seletsky, New Haven; Morris, Epstein, New York; Max Gillis, Philadelphia, and Sam Seplovin, Detroit. Also George Flax of Washington, D. C., and home office executives.

PRC To Meet In Chicago

Producers Releasing Corporation's Chicago meeting was to be held at that city's Congress Hotel Saturday and Sunday, presided over by Arthur Greenblatt, sales manager, and Leon Fromkess, vice-president and general manager. To attend are the franchise holders and sales staffs of the Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Detroit, St. Louis and Milwaukee exchanges.

The company announced that Martin Mooney will produce an "exploitation special," "Men of San Quentin," and that the directors have voted an increased budget for the picture, which begins work in March, for release late May.

Franchise holders of Monogram Pictures will gather at the Ambassador Hotel, Hollywood, May 11th, 12th and 13th, W. Ray Johnston, president, announced last week. The session will thus immediately precede the three-day annual meeting of the national Variety Clubs of America, scheduled for the same hotel.

Mr. Johnston asserted sales on the 1941-42 program are 40 per cent more than those of the 1940-41 program.

Columbia's awarding of Defense Bonds to its sales staff in its "Victory Sales Campaign" has received applause from many exhibitors, affiliated and independent.

Wire Congratulations

Some of those who wired congratulations to the New York home office are Milt Arthur, Los Angeles; Tracy Barham, Salt Lake City; E. C. Beatty, Detroit; Joe Blumenfeld, San Francisco; Carl Buermele, Detroit; H. R. Falls, Oklahoma City; R. E. Griffith, Dallas; Jack Hattem, New York; Ed Hinchy, Philadelphia; M. A. Lightman, Memphis; George MacKenna, Buffalo; R. A. McNeil, San Francisco; Lou Metzger, Los Angeles; Victor Meyer, New Orleans; W. T. Murray, Atlanta; Harry Nace, Phoenix; Frank Newman, Seattle; T. B. Noble, Jr., Oklahoma City; John Nolan, Scranton; Rick Ricketson, Denver; H. B. Robb, Dallas; Jules Rubens, Chicago; Charles Skouras, Los Angeles; Ralph Talbot, Tulsa, Oklahoma; J. Von Herberg, Seattle; R. B. Wilby, Atlanta.

Columbia is substituting about $50,000 in Defense Bonds, for money prizes, in its Victory sales campaign, which has opened, and ends in June. It has received praise not only from the industry, but from United States Treasury officials.

Close New York Burlesque Shows

License Commissioner Paul Moss of New York City cracked down on two Times Square area burlesque shows, operating under the title of "follies" Saturday night when he refused to renew their licenses. The Eltinge Theatre, at 236 West 42nd Street, managed by Harold Minsky, and the Republic Theatre, 209 West 42nd Street were closed at midnight by police. A stage show license application by the City Theatre, 114 East 14th Street was denied at the same time.

Commissioner Moss said the theatres were denied new licenses because they had not lived up to the code agreed upon by the Variety Revue Theatres Association in 1937, when the city closed all burlesque shows and banned the use of that word, or the name "Minsky."

'OCD' GETS ST. LOUIS READY IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

Midwest Theatres Receive Specific Instructions on Role in Emergency

Circuits and independent theatre owners this week continued rounding out precautions in event of air raids. In most communities, instructions have been drawn by the owners, and issued to staffs; and in many communities, theatre owners know what their task is as an important sector of the community acting in concert with other sectors.

The Office of Civilian Defense at Washington appears this week to have hit its stride, and is including theatres in its overall survey of the nation's defense needs. Specifically, and the latest community this week to be instructed in detail by the OCD, St. Louis was a target, with theatre owners receiving the following from the OCD "Amusement Defense Bureau":

(a) Letter regarding Amusement industry mass meeting.

(b) General function of Individual Amusement units.

(c) Amusement Bulletin No. 1.

(d) Personnel Sheet of Amusement Bureau Executive Committee.

(e) Functions of Amusement Defense Bureau.

(f) Detailed Organizational Plan for each unit.

(g) Captain's Instruction Sheet for each unit.

Philadelphia staged its first "blackout" Tuesday evening, with theatres continuing to operate, albeit with darkened marquees even as they are expected to operate in actual air raids.

From Washington came hints from the Federal Power Commission that Broadway, the "Great White Way" might be that no longer when power restrictions begin hitting the Northeast.

Raid and war instructions to St. Louis exhibitors were issued last week at an emergency mass meeting at the Fox Theatre, duplicating meetings in scores of other cities these past weeks in which entire local amusement industries have heard what they are to do in war action.

Defined as the "general functions" of the city's OCD amusement bureau units were protection of patrons, education and information of patrons, and morale, meaning "entertainment of citizens—keep them normal, their minds clear," and also the promotion of patriotic reels, sale of defense denominations, and enforcement of the singing of the national anthem.

The city's OCD amusement bureau, writing to theatre men, remarked, "Aside from rules and regulations, the Amusement Industry has a moral obligation that cannot be dodged. There is a job of morale maintenance which can only be done by our industry . . . we cannot afford to fail—either as an industry or as individuals."

CAMERAMAN WITH A.E.F. IN IRELAND

Howard Winner, cameraman who previously covered the New England territory for Pathe News, is with the American Expeditionary Force in Ireland. Several weeks ago Pathe assigned Mr. Winner to war coverage but the words "destination unknown" were stamped on the written order. Editor Walton C. Ament has received word that Mr. Winner has landed in Ireland with General Cheney's forces.

Mr. Winner is a veteran war cameraman, having covered the Ethiopian struggle from its inception until Haile Selassie's surrender.

Heading the executive committee of the bureau are Edward B. Arthur, chairman; J. L. Kaufman, vice-chairman; and under them are Ben Reingold, George Rafferty, Tom Canavan, Jack Siepker, Paul Beisman, William Dewitt, Ralph McGowan, James Arthur, Herb Washburn, Leroy Upton, Alfred Weisman, Harold Koplar, George Sisler, Harry Feuser, Lou Ansell, Fred Wehrenberg, Tom Graham, Percy Gash, Tony Scarpelli, Matt Schuler, David G. Arthur.

Philadelphia Blackout

The first practice blackout in the Philadelphia metropolitan area on Tuesday night, from 10:30 to 10:45, found the theatres well prepared for the test. Special air raid precaution booklets had been distributed earlier to all theatres in the territory, and some house managers had already conducted test drills on their own account.

While executives admitted that the blackout had a depressing effect on attendance, especially in the neighborhood houses, the late hour for the test found all box-offices dark anyway by the time the signal warning was sounded. All theatre fronts were blacked out and light locks at entrances and exits kept light from escaping to the outside. While shows were permitted to continue as usual, no patrons were allowed to leave the theatres until the all-clear signal was sounded. In addition to the city proper, seven adjoining counties, including three in New Jersey, participated in the blackout.

In its newspaper advertisements on Tuesday for the downtown houses, Warner theatres inserted an air raid slug reading: "Civilian Defense Rules Requires Audiences to Remain in the Theatres During the Period of Blackout Tonight. Performances Will Be Continuous As Usual."

Radio stations in the area did not go off the air during the test, although they will during an actual air raid.

In Brockton, Massachusetts, representatives of all the theatres in the city met with Manager Joseph J. Cahill of the M & P Brockton last week to consider steps to be taken in case of air raids and blackouts.

City officials and Manager Cahill, Assistant Manager Horace Beals and Chief of Staff Frank S. Carroll told in detail all the steps taken at the Brockton, including the placing of sandpails, hose line and other fire fighting equipment at strategic points, emergency duties of each employee, covering of exit lights at top, installation of blackout curtains on doors, and plans for instruction of patrons through messages on screen in case of a real air raid.

Managers attending included Ernest Fitzgerald of Interstate Colonial, Max Pearlstein of Modern, Leon Task of Keith and Thomas Kelley of Rialto, with numerous of their employes. Morris Ralby's Park was also represented.

Normal in Northwest

Pacific Northwest patronage has returned to normal, Frank Newman, division manager for National Theatres circuit in Seattle, said last week. The darkened marquees have not prevented patrons from knowing what pictures were playing, nor from finding their way to the theatres, he commented.

Joseph Buxton, British exhibitor, has been appointed advisor to the Los Angeles Theatre Defense Bureau.

Newly appointed chairman of the civilian protective committee of the Motion Picture Industry War Activities Committee is John J. Payette, general zone manager for Warner Bros., with offices in Washington. Serving with him are John Ebersson, Edmund Plohn, Hardie Meakin, Sidney Lust, H. G. Barbee, Jr., Robert Weitman, S. H. Fabian and Nat N. Browne, secretary.

The Federal Power Commission hinted from Washington last week that Broadway's signs might be darkened soon when it becomes necessary to restrict power in the New York area, habitat of many defense industries.

The New York State Power Commission reported to Governor Herbert Lehman virtually the same thing, noting also the needs of upstate communities for power, and the almost complete present utilization of power supplied by Niagara Falls.

Priorities Close

Fox Shop

The pinch of priorities has forced Twentieth Century-Fox to close the studio forge and prompted Fred Metzler, studio manager, to issue a bulletin to employees asking their ideas on substitute materials which can be used in place of the restricted materials. The studio had several barrels of crude rubber for use in making props but the Priorities Administration called them in.

RCA's manufacturing plant in Indianapolis, where making of sound equipment for film studios and theatres is centered, is "more and more engaged in fulfilling the Government's war-time needs in sound

(Continued on following page)

Theatres Aid Campaigns for Stamp Sales

(Continued from preceding page)

equipment of all kinds, to the exclusion of commercial business," Major-General James G. Harbord, RCA's board chairman, has announced.

As a precautionary measure to conserve electric light bulbs, the Warner theatre management in Chicago has darkened all vertical signs on their theatres which contain lamps. The ruling went into effect on the night of January 30 and will continue for the duration of the war.

Bond and Stamp Drives Continue

For the present at least, the Treasury Department does not contemplate changing the name of its war bond issue to the "Carole Lombard Victory Bond." Under Secretary of the Treasury Bell so advised Rep. Louis Ludlow, of Indiana this week, declaring that the Government has given "extensive advertising to the present name and we had better leave it alone for the present." Congressman Ludlow proposed the change in honor of the screen actress who was killed in a plane crash following a tour through Indiana on behalf of defense bond and stamp sales.

Reuben E. Cohen, Philadelphia exhibitor and president of B'rith Sholom, fraternal organization, announced this week that his lodge would sponsor a "Carole Lombard Night," February 10th, at which defense bonds will be sold in the name of the late star.

Mack Amusement Company, operating the Mac, Strand and Apollo theatres in Chester, Pa., reported this week that it would match all defense stamp and bonds purchased by its 50 employees in the interests of national defense. Patrons were asked to join in the campaign by taking their change in stamps.

In this connection, Arthur Mayer, operator of New York's Rialto theatre and assistant to Francis S. Harmon of the Motion Picture War Activities Committee, reported this week that his theatre had been giving defense stamps in change for some time.

Approximately 960 theatres in Texas are participating in the state-wide campaign, for bond and stamp sales, under direction of the Variety Club of Dallas, headed by R. E. Griffith, chief barker.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa. operator unions, in addition to exchange employees union, are doing their share in the defense effort. The operators local in W-B purchased more than $5,000 and operators in Scranton bought $1,500 in defense bonds. The local exchange union invested in $1,500 in bonds and at the beginning of each quarter gives $1 in stamps to each member in good standing.

Exhibitors throughout the land responded with praise to Columbia Picture's recent announcement that it will give upwards of $50,000 in bonds in lieu of cash awards in its Victory Sales campaign. Carl W. Buermele of the Cooperative Theatres, Michigan, wired the company, "You can rely upon me to help the Detroit office put over your campaign." The ITO of Southern California sent a telegram commending the firm's "patriotism in giving defense bonds for prizes." Jules J. Rubens, Public Great States general manager, Chicago, said the move was "a most patriotic and constructive idea which will be followed by many other picture distributors as well as other lines of business."

34 War Films Approved

Thirty-four war-and-defense short subjects and trailers have been approved to date by the War Activities Committee of the Motion Picture Industry for circulation by the distributors to theatres, rental free. More are to come.

Made under direct order for, or by official Governmental or related agencies, these special reels are apart from certain war-training films which Hollywood is making for U. S. service departments, through the Academy and by individual studios, and apart from other subjects of war and patriotic nature which are rented by distributors to theatres in regular routine.

The 34 subjects approved to date by the industry's War Activities Committee are as follows, listed in order of release dates:

TANKS—a ten-minute film, narrated by Orson Welles, shows the production in one of America's arsenals of the M-3 medium tank for the armored forces of the United States and its Allies, testing and maneuvering on the firing range, and the final shipment to theatres of war. Made by Office for Emergency Management Film Unit. (Released 1/23/42)

SAFEGUARDING MILITARY INFORMATION—a nine-minute subject, made by Lt. Col. Darryl F. Zanuck at Twentieth Century-Fox studio as one of the series of training films made at cost for the War Department under auspices of the Research Council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, depicts the consequences of innocuous revelation of military secrets. (Released 1/16/42)

RED CROSS TRAILER—a two-and-a-half-minute trailer, narrated by Lowell Thomas and exhibited for the purpose of augmenting a nationwide campaign to raise $50,000,000 for the Red Cross War Fund. It shows the relief work carried on by the Red Cross in war. (Released 12/24/41)

WOMEN IN DEFENSE—a ten-minute film, narrated by Katharine Hepburn, with commentary written by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, which covers three principal phases of women's activities in the defense program—women in science, industry and voluntary services. Made by Office for Emergency Management. (Released 12/24/41)

FOOD FOR FREEDOM—a three-minute trailer made by OEM. The film uses British illustrations and emphasizes the necessity for an all-out agricultural program both to maintain the health of American citizens and as further aid to the British. (Released 12/9/41)

POTS TO PLANES—a three-minute film which shows the method of reclaiming scrap aluminum for use in airplane manufacture as a result of the scrap aluminum campaign carried on last summer. Made by OEM. (Released 11/22/41)

BOMBER—a ten-minute subject with commentary written by Carl Sandburg, reporting on the production of a leading type medium bomber used by the United States Army. Made by OEM. (Released 10/3/41)

ARMY IN OVERALLS—a three-minute trailer summarizing the activities of the Civilian Conservation Corps in preparing landing fields, artillery ranges, etc. Made by Office of Production Management. (Released 6/5/41)

AMERICA BUILDS SHIPS—a four-minute trailer portraying activities in U. S. shipyards in building a merchant marine. (OPM) (Released 6/5/41)

BITS AND PIECES—a three-minute trailer on the importance of sub-contracting defense orders, using the 12,000 parts in an airplane engine as an illustration. (OPM) (Released 6/5/41)

WHERE DO WE GO?—a 170-foot trailer made by the United Service Organizations to promote the drive for funds for improved recreational facilities for soldiers, sailors and defense workers. (Released 5/28/41)

SEVEN TAGS—ranging in length from 26 feet to 65 feet, each calling attention to Defense Bonds and Savings Stamps; each tag attached to the end of a feature picture. (Treasury Department) (Released 6/6/41)

AMERICA PREFERRED—a four-minute trailer made by MGM for the Treasury Department with reference to the sales campaign for Defense Bonds and Savings Stamps. (Released 5/20/41)

CALLING ALL WORKERS—a 155-foot trailer produced by the Social Security Board and National Screen Service in connection with the Federal Government census of unemployed employables. (Released 4/9/41)

TWELVE one-minute recruiting trailers calling attention to the need for men of special skills in air force, field artillery, infantry, cavalry, etc. (War Department films) (Released 2/18/41)

POWER FOR DEFENSE—a ten-minute subject showing how the power developed in the Tennessee Valley is being used today to turn the wheels of defense industries. (National Defense Commission film) (Released 2/18/41)

ANY BONDS TODAY—a two-minute trailer in color, produced by Warner Brothers for the Treasury Department, in which the cartoon character, Bugs Bunny and his "playmates", sing this patriotic song against a background of the Spirit of '76. (Released 2/2/42)

Red Cross Drive Supported

Greater New York's theatre division of the Red Cross war fund appeal, has more than doubled its quota of $10,000 to date, according to Brock Pemberton, chairman. Sonja Henie's recent benefit performance at Madison Square Garden added $17,700 to the fund, going toward the New York total goal of $7,330,000, and the American Theatre Wing contributed $3,174 in collections, he reported.

Herman G. Place, chairman of the executive committee of 20th Century-Fox, is now serving as chairman of the motion picture division of the Red Cross fund's theatre group. Edward Klauber, executive vice-president of Columbia Broadcasting System, is chairman of the radio division, reported to have realized more than 20 per cent of its quota.

More Shows for Soldiers

Hollywood's first show under the camp entertainment program of U.S.O.-Camp Shows, Inc., with Joe E. Brown and Linda Darnell heading the cast, made its bow last Friday night at the Indiantown Gap, Pa., military reservation. Called "The Sunshine Revue," assembled in Hollywood under the direction of the Fanchon and Marco office, the show was staged in War Department Theatre, Number One, located on Service Road in the infantry area.

Not open to civilians and offered only to the military personnel at the reservation, more than 1,000 soldiers attended the initial performance. The two-hour show included songs, dances and humor well mixed with pretty girls in attrac-

(Continued on page 21)

U.S. POST OFFICE

WHY DON'T WE DO THIS MORE OFTEN, DADDY!

WE WILL, BABY!
THIS IS JUST THE TAKE FROM
PARAMOUNT'S FIRST
TWO BLOCKS - WAIT'LL
YOU SEE WHAT THE THIRD BLOCK DOES!

FOR DEFENSE

BUY
UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS AND STAMPS

HERE!

IT'S STARTING ALREADY ➔

SEE WHAT I MEAN?
IT'S STARTING ALREADY!
"SULLIVAN" IS OFF AT A SPRINT!

INTER-COMMUNICATION

DATE JAN. 28

FROM HOME OFFICE

TO DADDY

DEAR DADDY:

YOU'RE IN THE CHIPS! That Paramount Third Block is hotter than an incendiary bomb, and we're getting figures every day to prove it! For instance--

"SULLIVAN'S TRAVELS" HAS SMASHED EVERY HOUSE RECORD in its first date, at the Michigan Theatre in Detroit! For three days running! Critics and public are turning handsprings about Preston Sturges' newest, like the trade papers said they would! And--

"BAHAMA PASSAGE" IS GROSSING FROM 15 TO 50% ABOVE "VIRGINIA" AND "ALOMA" in date after date! Samples? At the Fox, Atlanta, it's running 30% above "Aloma of the South Seas" and 23% above "Virginia". At the Los Angeles Paramount it's fifteen per cent above both WITHOUT A STAGE SHOW, and both played WITH a stage show! In six New England dates it ran 15 to 50% above these top grossers, and at the Paramount, Montgomery, Ala., it rolled up the BIGGEST SUNDAY OPENING GROSS IN FIVE YEARS!

I'LL LET YOU KNOW THE FIGURES on the rest of the block soon as the pictures hit release. But they're in the bag; the "Reporter" calls "MR. BUG GOES TO TOWN" "SUREFIRE BOXOFFICE," and says "Pacific Black-out" is "SOLID ENTERTAINMENT THAT'LL PAY A HEALTHY PROFIT." Says "NO HANDS ON THE CLOCK" will click solidly, too!

Yours Ever Loving
PARAMOUNT

YEAH, DADDY
AND LOOK HOW "BAHAMA" IS PASSING THOSE TOP
GROSSERS "ALOMA"
AND "VIRGINIA"!

P.S. Don't miss the screenings for Paramount's FOURTH block--it's all fun and a mile wide! Sheer entertainment; solid boxoffice!

STUDIOS STRESS WAR THEMES

(Continued from page 18)

tive costumes. The soldiers cheered when Miss Darnell said she regarded them as the "swellest" audience and howled at the antics of Joe E. Brown.

RKO's regional director in Philadelphia, James M. Brennan, and John Bodley, manager of the Gaiety theatre of that city, are representing the Trenton, N. J., theatres in the Red Cross drive, while Abe Einstein, executive of Warner theatres in Philadelphia, was named to the local drive committee.

A "cabaret canteen," providing a floor show and actresses serving as hostesses for visiting men in the armed forces, will be opened shortly in the Times Square, New York, by the American Theatre Wing War Service. The philanthropic organization, formed originally as part of British War Relief and now acting solely in behalf of America's war effort, reported in New York on Monday that leases for the cabaret already have been signed and that location of the spot will be revealed shortly. Purpose is to provide something more than the usual clubhouse facilities for soldiers and sailors on leave. A $100,000 fund is now being raised to finance this and other Theatre Wing activities.

Ray Bolger, screen and musical comedy star, headlined "Thumbs Up," the USO-Camp Show touring unit playing for enlisted men at Fort Monmouth, Red Bank, N. J., on Tuesday night. The dancing comedian appeared as guest star for this one show. Bolger was one of the troupe of Hollywood and Broadway stars who recently went on an entertainment tour of Caribbean bases under the auspices of USO.

Britain Bans Film Stills

War's restrictions squeezed tighter in Britain again this week. Wednesday the Board of Trade halted all public display of cinema stills beginning March 1st. The ban covers exhibition, production and showrooms. It allows the use of stills in "business negotiations" however. Paper shortage is understood to be the chief reason for the ban. Similar action on posters, bills and programs is considered likely.

Thorough parliamentary discussion soon on the film activities of the Ministry of Information was foreseen Tuesday when a member of the House of Commons inquired about a documentary reel ridiculing the German army and deprecating its strength. Another member reported an agreement from Brendan Bracken, Minister of Information, to further propagate British newsreels and documentaries in Russia. Several Russian documentaries have been shown in London.

Censorship of newsreel commentaries by the MOI may soon be ordered, London circles reported. Pictures have been clipped since the start of the war but newsreel companies were free to write their own commentary.

War Themes Keep Coming

Paramount announced in New York over the weekend that "Channel Port," Leonard Lee's story of Commando exploits, will be filmed by the company in England. David Rose, managing director for Paramount in Great Britain, it was learned, hopes to obtain either Laurence Olivier or David Niven for the male lead.

"The Big Blockade," production at the Ealing Studios in London, to be released here by United Artists, has been completed, according to a UA announcement. Robert Morley, Leslie Banks, Michael Redgrave, Will Hay, Basil Sydney, Alfred Drayton and others are prominently cast. Quentin Reynolds, prominent foreign correspondent, will be seen in the picture playing a "real-life" role. Reynolds, meanwhile, was signed by Walter Wanger last week, according to a Universal report from Hollywood—to do the foreword and commentary for "Eagle Squadron."

"VACATION CITY" DRIVE SPURRED

Robert K. Christenberry, president of the Broadway Association in New York, declared in his annual message to members that the nationwide campaign to "Make New York Your Vacation City" would be continued during 1942, despite the war situation.

Mr. Christenberry, general manager of the Hotel Astor, said the campaign should be continued as the Association's contribution to national defense. He declared that the construction of buildings in the theatrical district and the trained personnel made the zone one of the safest places, and pointed to the evidence of the public's confidence in such safety when more than a million persons thronged Times Square on New Year's Eve.

"Thunder Birds," aviation film in Technicolor, Twentieth Century-Fox production, will be directed by William Wellman, it was announced last week in Hollywood. Shooting will start late this month, it is said, on the Thunder Bird air field, training school for pilots which was established before America's entry in the war. The school is reported to have been financed by Darryl F. Zanuck, Henry Fonda, Cary Grant and other Hollywood people interested in aviation.

Monogram announced from Hollywood last week news of its acquisition of "Shadows of the Underworld," British picture, for American distribution. A Pinebrook production, "Shadows" stars Valerie Hobson and Barry K. Barnes.

A film comedy of Army life, called "Spare Time in the Army," written by some soldiers at Fort Monmouth, N. J., has been acquired by Columbia Pictures, it was learned at the home office this week. Some of the writers are recruits from Hollywood, including Privates Bob Churchill and Franklin Cohen who wrote, produced and acted in the film. The picture is slated for February 12th release.

Comedy, mystery, Westerns and other "escapist" themes in the order named, are the choice of soldiers in Army camp hospitals. That's what a survey of the hospital motion picture service of the American Red Cross disclosed, it was learned at Red Cross headquarters in Washington on Monday. More than 200,000 soldiers are shown the most recent films through this service, in 67 camps with equipment costing $300,000. Approximately 169 different features are in the Red Cross film library at present, it was reported. Theatres in the camps accommodate from 145 to 500. Bed-ridden soldiers are wheeled into theatres by their Red Cross nurses.

Lieut. Colonel Darryl F. Zanuck, head of the Research Council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, said in Hollywood over the weekend that acquisition by the Army Signal Corps of the former Paramount Astoria, L. I. studios would not affect production of training films by the council. Mr. Zanuck said the War Department had informed him that the Signal Corps did not intend to establish elaborate production facilities in the East.

New Radio Stations Barred During War

Construction of new broadcasting stations and improvement of existing stations was brought to a virtual halt by the Federal Communications Commission in Washington, last Friday. Meanwhile, a few blocks distant, the Office of Price Administration froze manufacturers' prices on radio receivers and television sets, electric phonographs and radio tubes and parts, as a step to halt price advances resulting from production curtailments previously ordered.

The FCC order provided that no further grants for the construction of new standard broadcast stations or changes in existing transmitting facilities will be issued for localities where all or a substantial part of the primary area already receives good primary coverage from one or more other stations.

It was emphasized, however, that the order will not apply to authorizations already issued. The move was made at the request of the Defense Communications Board, pending adoption of a specific policy by that agency and the War Production Board with respect to curtailment of radio construction to meet material requirements of the military services.

Similar orders were expected shortly to be issued for FM, television and other radio construction.

The Price Administration order will take effect February 9th and aims to stabilize retail prices for radio sets. If this is not achieved, Leon Henderson, Price Administrator declared that price ceilings will be extended to both wholesale and retail markets. The order provides that manufacturers may charge the highest net prices received last October 15th, or in the 90-day period then ended, on any current models, tubes or other parts. Prices on models placed on the market since October 15th and before February 9th must be filed for approval of the OPA, and no new models can be marketed after the 9th unless Henderson approves the offering price.

Networks Plan War Shows

The five leading radio networks in the U. S. are planning a series of factual programs designed to dramatize and interpret the wartime resources and activities of the nation to the American people and the world, it was learned in New York Monday. The White House is reported to have "gratefully accepted" the plan worked out by National Broadcasting Company, Columbia Broadcasting System, Mutual Broadcasting System and the Blue Network, which will be executed jointly in terms of responsibilities and operating expenses by the big four with cooperation of the Office of Facts and Figures.

The Government agency, headed by Archibald MacLeish, will work with the production staff in obtaining and correlating information.

Distinguished authors and screen and radio stars are expected to contribute their services. Norman Corwin and H. L. McClinton will head the program production unit.

UNITY CHIEFS STILL SEEKING TRADE PRACTICE FORMULA

Committee Recesses After "Thorough Discussion" of Industry Problems

No new trade practice program has developed as yet from the United Motion Picture Industry's subcommittees to examine all aspects of such a program and agree upon as much as practicable at this time. Instead, the committees recessed Friday, January 30th, until February 17th. In its own words, "no attempt was made to go further than to thoroughly discuss" the five points allotted to it earlier last week by the UMPI committee as a whole.

Those points are:

1. The finding of a better method of selling than the five-picture plan.
2. The finding of ways and means within the United Motion Picture Industry to prevent forcing of shorts and feature, if found true.
3. The setting up of machinery whereby proper and thorough investigation can be made of territorial disagreements and ways and means of correcting the same.
4. A method and a source through which individual complaints can be investigated and a determination made.
5. If the present method of arbitration is unsatisfactory a substitute plan evolved.

While in effect a system suggested by the subcommittee would be a new trade practice program, the official purpose of the group, as advanced by the UMPI, is to "consider formation of a program providing for the adjustment, if possible, or modification of the policies or practices of one branch or member thereof (of the film industry), which are opposed by any other branch or a substantial portion thereof."

The subcommittee excused its inaction, thus: "It must be realized that all points require more than ordinary consideration before solution can be found."

It added that a wide variety of ideas were submitted on point one; and that "all elements were appreciative of the problem" noted by point two. The only specific action to come out of discussion was that the distributors agreed to send their exhibitor customers a form letter similar to the following:

"Dear Sir:

"The Consent Decree forbids the forcing of shorts, newsreels, etc. Prior to the Decree the policy of this company forbade such forcing. Of late, in the trade press, and more recently, in the conferences of the U. M. P. I. it has been stated that nevertheless the forcing of shorts has been practiced by some Distributors, which might include the undersigned.

No specific complaint of such forcing has been made to the Sales Manager or President of this company. The Exhibitor leaders attending the U. M. P. I. conferences have frankly stated that we have done our best to prevent forcing of shorts and agree with us that we can do no more unless an Exhibitor with a justifiable complaint calls it to our attention.

PESSIMISTIC ON UNITY MEETINGS

"I am not over optimistic that anything of real and lasting benefit to the exhibitor will come from the United Motion Picture Industry organization dominated by the brains and talent of the producers and distributors," Robert T. Barton, Jr., counsel to the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Virginia, told members of the unit at the mid-winter meeting Thursday, January 29th, in Richmond. Mr. Barton added that objection to the consent decree by the organization, and criticism of it by him, were confirmed by the survey of the Department of Justice, issued two weeks ago.

"We renew our previous statements, that in addition to our being bound by the Consent Decree, we are opposed as a matter of policy to the forcing of shorts and will grant relief to any Exhibitor who has been so forced by our representatives.

"We therefore request that our customers notify us and give us, through our Home Office, the facts of any forcing or attempted forcing and we assure you that no such complaint, no matter what the determination thereof, will in any way affect the relations between us."

The subcommittee admitted it was considering a suggestion on point three, that existing exhibitor organizations be utilized by the UMPI "to act as contact for it in the solution of these individual problems—and where no exhibitor organization is available," to see that the three exhibitor groups designate contact points.

It was said no agreement was reached on point four, adding that a neutral fact-finding committee from outside the affected territory was suggested.

Of point five—on arbitration—the group said members were expected to send suggestions to chairman Jack Kirsch during the two-week recess on how the existing machinery might be expanded to become "a more vital part in the solution of industry problems."

The UMPI subcommittee said, "The American Arbitration Association has done a creditable job, and attracted a very fine type of manpower in its first year of exploration service."

The UMPI subcommittee Friday emphasized no agreements were reached during "five days of long deliberation," and that the recess would "serve to crystallize many vital points."

Members of the subcommittee are: Mr. Kirsch, president of the Illinois Allied, chairman; Edward Kuykendall, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America; Joseph R. Vogel, Loew's; Max A. Cohen, New York Allied-MPTO; William Crockett, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Virginia.

Also, Robert White, chairman of the board of the Independent Theatre Owners of Oregon; Sidney Samuelson, business manager of the Eastern Pennsylvania Allied; H. A. Cole, head of the Texas Allied; and Robert Poole, executive secretary of the Pacific Coast Conference of Independent Theatre Owners, substituting for Leo Wolcott, head of the Allied Theatre Owners of Iowa and Nebraska.

The Department of Justice last week confirmed that the exhibitors meeting in New York had asked a conference with Robert L. Wright, special Assistant to the United States Attorney General. It was Mr. Wright who issued his report on working of the decree two weeks ago, and upset the deliberations of the New York industry leaders, who had thereupon to draw up trade practices with an eye on his recommendations (which revealed the Department still wanted divorcement). Also a factor was the persisting Department anti-trust prosecution of the three majors not in the consent decree, Columbia, United Artists, and Universal.

The Washington spokesmen for the Department added no comment to the confirmation that the New York conferees wished to meet with Mr. Wright.

Harry Brandt, UMPI co-trustee, and president of the Independent Theatre Owners Association of New York, conferred Tuesday with Mr. Wright. Milton Weisman, ITOA attorney, accompanied him.

Department spokesmen said a number of exhibitors had been dropping in on Mr. Wright since the issuance of his decree report.

More Taxes Feared By Ed Kuykendall

Increased taxes, inevitable in a long war, were forecast by Edward L. Kuykendall, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America, and a guest speaker at the annual convention of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Virginia, in Richmond, Thursday, January 29th.

Mr. Kuykendall also saw the consent decree not too bad in entirety, but certainly necessary to change. A participant in the unity meetings in Chicago and New York, Mr. Kuykendall praised the spirit of the conferees at both meetings.

No new tax legislation by Virginia may be expected, Robert Barton, organization counsel, said, pointing at the state's surplus of $13,000,000.

There will be no mid-summer conventions during the war, the Virginia unit voted.

Other speakers were: David Palfreyman, Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America; Claude Lee, Paramount's director of exhibitor relations; Morton Thalheimer, Roy Rowe.

The unit asked the decree be vacated, and in its place be established a "method of booking

Exhibitor Units Debate Taxes and Grievance

(Continued from opposite page)

with adequate cancellation provisions fair to distributor and exhibitor; a formula for determining rentals, based upon actual returns; a method of adjusting differences and complaints, to be administered by persons familiar with the industry."

It sent a copy of its resolution to the Department of Justice.

Reelected were William F. Crockett, president; Ben Pitts, vice-president; Harold Wood, secretary; Sam Bendheim, Jr., treasurer.

Pennsylvania Allied Units Hear Reports

Eastern and Western Pennsylvania Allied units, in Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh, last week heard reports from their delegates to the Allied board and national unity meetings in New York two weeks ago. Sidney Samuelson, business agent of the Eastern unit, was its delegate; M. A. Rosenberg, president of the Pittsburgh unit, was its delegate, and also elected National Allied president.

Things accomplished at the New York unity meeting were also outlined last week by Harry Brandt, the United Motion Picture Industry's co-trustee, to the organization of which he is president, the Independent Theatre Owners Association, New York.

The Eastern Pennsylvania Allied reelected Mr. Samuelson, and also elected Ben Fertel, treasurer; E. B. Gregory, secretary; David Milgram, national director, and Joseph Conway, alternate national director.

The board of directors for the new year comprises Harry Chertcoff, Joseph Conway, Ben Fertel, Harry Fried, J. H. Greenberg, E. B. Gregory, George Ickes, Tom Lazarick, David E. Milgram, Milton Rogasner, Henry Sork, Harry Perelman, Morris Wax and Charles Stiefel with Dave Brodstein, Charles Moyer and William Spiegel as alternates.

Marshall Field Acquiring Chicago's Station WHIP

Marshall Field III is acquiring radio station WHIP, with studios in Chicago and Hammond, Indiana, and following transfer of ownership it is expected to become the official outlet of The Chicago Sun. Although Sun officials could not be reached for confirmation, Dr. G. F. Currier, president of WHIP, verified reports that Mr. Field had purchased stock of the station.

The Federal Communications Commission has already authorized the station to increase its power from 5,000 to 50,000 watts, which will give the station power output equal to the Chicago Tribune's station WGN. It is said that Mr. Field is seeking the call letters WSUN, now being used by the municipally owned station of St. Petersburg, Florida, but it is problematical that the resort city will relinquish them.

W. W. Charters To Retire

W. W. Charters, director of the Ohio State University's Bureau of Educational Research, in Columbus, among which studies are included motion pictures and radio, given financial support by national foundations, will retire next August 31, 1942, to devote his time to writing. Dr. Charters is responsible for the establishment of the annual Institute of Education by Radio, which since 1930 has met at the University, and attended by keymen in the industry.

FROM READERS

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD:

The motion picture is without question an art—but from the viewpoint of the box office it becomes strictly a commodity, governed by the usual rules of supply and demand.

Contrary to opinion expressed by Arthur L. Mayer in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for January 17, the salability of films is therefore unaffected by the writings of newspaper critics. Thus Mr. Mayer's argumentative premise that "Critics' Curse Is Gold at the Box Office" is not founded in fact.

I have served as a critic, movie manager and film fan during my adult career—but mostly as a newspaper critic on The Hartford Times. As such, may I say without undue modesty, that I do not believe any printed criticism of mine has, in itself, affected the box office gross of any motion picture more than one or two per cent.

Many exhibitors take the viewpoint that critics are wonderful when they praise, but terrible when they pan. Mr. Mayer, I think, shows good sense when he cites evidence that rave notices do not necessarily build box office grosses. Likewise he reveals that unfavorable comment does not hinder the success of any film that the public really wants to see. A film is neither a good one or a bad one, just because the critics choose to call it so.

Critics Flattered

But the assiduousness with which exhibitors have sometimes pursued critics to wheedle a good notice out of them quite naturally flattens the gentry from the amusement pages into exaggerated estimation of their own importance. It is my opinion, however, that the only time that a criticism affects a box office gross is when the exhibitor chooses to use it in his display advertising. Four stars on a printed page of The News does not pack the punch delivered by four stars on the marquee. Again and again it has been proven that the success of a motion picture depends not on artistic excellence, but on public demand. Consistent advertising creates that demand!

If a critic's rave can be quoted in advertising, it has merit, but it carries no more weight than the endorsement of a next door neighbor who liked a picture but doesn't give a hoot if it does any business or not, now that she has seen it. Most critics dismiss the factor that industry prosperity plays indirectly in determining their salaries. They are paid to write to entertain newspaper readers, not picture-goers—so that's what they try to do. Very few critics have recognized the value of reporting general audience reaction along with their own personal estimate. Right there is something constructive that might be added to modern theatrical criticism to make it more vital unto itself and to readers and exhibitors alike.

When an exhibitor like Mr. Mayer attacks the critics, he is actually coddling them. Even adverse comment flatters a critic silly, and makes him think that his utterances may have some contemporary merit after all.—GEORGE JULIAN ANDERSON

Neufeld Leases Chadwick Studio

Sigmund Neufeld, producer of western productions for Producers Releasing Corporation, has leased a unit of the Chadwick Studios in Hollywood, according to an announcement by O. Henry Briggs, president of PRC. A new building is currently being constructed for Mr. Neufeld's exclusive use.

The PRC westerns now being made by Mr. Neufeld comprise three series of six productions each: "Adventures of Billy the Kid," starring Buster Crabbe with Al (Fuzzy) St. John; "Frontier Marshal" series, with Bill (Cowboy Rambler) Boyd, Lee Powell and Art Davis; and "The Lone Rider" series.

Paramount to Observe 30th Anniversary

Commemorating the company's 30th anniversary, Paramount Pictures has designated Cecil B. DeMille's color production "Reap the Wild Wind" as its Thirtieth Anniversary Picture, Adolph Zukor, founder of the company and chairman of the board of Paramount Pictures, has announced.

Based on Thelma Strabel's Saturday Evening Post serial of the same name, "Reap the Wild Wind" co-stars Ray Milland, John Wayne and Paulette Goddard with Raymond Massey, Robert Preston, Susan Hayward, Lynne Overman and Charles Bickford in supporting roles.

As the initial step in laying out his sales campaign on this picture, Neil Agnew last week screened "Reap the Wild Wind" in Chicago for a number of Paramount's theatre associates. Among the Paramount partners who attended the special screening were Karl Hoblitzelle, Bob O'Donnell, Bob Wilby, Sam Pinanski, Marty Mullin, John Balaban, Abe Blank, Ralph Branton and Walter Immerman.

In making the announcement of the Thirtieth Anniversary Picture, Mr. Zukor said: "In ordinary times the 30th birthday of Paramount . . . would be signalized by banquets and broadcasts, speeches and memorials, but this is no time for such things. Paramount should commemorate its Thirtieth Anniversary in the film business by delivering to the motion picture theatres of the world the best pictures it has ever made.

"I believe that Paramount has made a good start in that direction with 'Louisiana Purchase,' 'The Fleet's In,' 'Bahama Passage,' 'Sullivan's Travels' and 'The Remarkable Andrew'—the pictures that are now released or about to be," Mr. Zukor continued. "But as good as these films are, Paramount will deliver even better pictures in the months to come. This I can safely predict, for I have just returned from the studio where I saw 'Holiday Inn,' 'My Favorite Blonde,' 'Mr. and Mrs. Cugat,' 'Take a Letter Darling' and 'Tombstone'—excellent entertainments high in showmanship and big in box-office.

"Of all the productions that I looked at, however, there was one that stood head and shoulders above the rest. This was Cecil B. DeMille's 'Reap the Wild Wind.' It is so outstanding that I have asked to have it named Paramount's Thirtieth Anniversary Picture."

James Allen Choice for Mellett Coast Agent

Lowell Mellett, U. S. Coordinator of Government Films, was understood to have decided upon James Allen, former Department of Justice Attorney, as his west coast representative. Wednesday, Mr. Mellett's office refused to comment. From Hollywood it was reported, however, that Mr. Allen had resigned as executive secretary of the new independent producers' society. Mr. Allen was in Washington.

Warners Open 'Captains', 'Row' and 'Heart'

Three world premieres in three weeks will have been held for Warner pictures before the middle of February.

The company's "Always in My Heart" opened at the Queen Theatre, Wilmington, Delaware, Friday night, January 30th, with state Governor Walter Bacon in attendance as well as the city's mayor; Gloria Warren, starred in the film, and a native of Wilmington; and others. The opening was accompanied by various receptions for 15-year-old Miss Warren, a parade, radio broadcasts, and entertainment of soldiers in nearby Fort Dupont.

Premiere at Astor

Warners' presented its "Kings Row" to an invited audience at New York's Astor Theatre, Monday evening, and to the general public the following day. Celebrities Monday night came from the military, publishing, political, screen, and social worlds. No klieg lights spotted the marquee and huge electric sign atop the theatre because of conservation, and fear of air raids. However, there was the customary great crowd in front of the house, and the notables came in volume. Among those representing the company, were Benjamin Kalmenson, general sales manager; Mort Blumenstock, national advertising executive; Leon Schlesinger, short subject producer; Sam Morris, home office executive; David Lewis, associate producer.

The company's "Captains of the Clouds" will be shown as simultaneously as possible, next Thursday, in New York, London, Ottawa, Cairo, Toronto, Winnipeg, Vancouver. A picture featuring the Royal Canadian Air Force, it was deemed worthy of such premiere display in all territories in which the aviators of that force are now fighting and training.

The New York premiere will be at the Strand, attended not only by the city's notables, but also by those of Washington, and of Canada; the latter headed by Air Marshal Billy Bishop.

Two hundred members of the RCAF will also visit New York for the opening. This include the force's Ottawa Central band.

The picture's Philadelphia premiere next Sunday will feature handing of proceeds to the "Buy a Bomber" fund sponsored by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Fox's Florida Openings

Twentieth Century-Fox opened its color feature "Song of the Islands" at the Lincoln Theatre, Miami Beach, Thursday night, and at the Surf, Miami, and Mayfair theatres in the same city, in addition, on Friday. The opening was preceded by "one of the most intensive promotion campaigns in many years," the company stated.

Columbia's "49th Parallel" opened in 15 Canadian cities last week. It had been awaited there since 1940. Made in England and Canada by Michael Powell, and starring Laurence Olivier and Leslie Howard, the film is known in this country as "The Invaders."

Independent Essaness Buys Paramount Product

The Independent Essaness Theatres in Chicago announced Tuesday that the circuit had signed for all available Paramount features for its 27 houses. The deal is said to be the first important one in Chicago since independent exhibitors in that city refused to buy Paramount product this season.

U.A. Appoints District Heads

The appointment of Edward Schnitzer as the company's eastern district manager was announced this week by Carl Leserman, general sales manager of United Artists. Mr. Schnitzer's activities will center around the New York metropolitan district, the Philadelphia territory and the Washington territory. His headquarters will be in New York.

Mr. Leserman announced at the same time the appointment of T. R. Thompson, Jr., as the district manager for the territory involving United Artists exchanges in the Kansas City, Omaha, and St. Louis and Des Moines, with headquarters in Kansas City.

Mr. Schnitzer's film career goes back 20 years, during which time he held a number of important posts in the sales divisions of various companies, among them Columbia, Producers Distributing Corporation and Republic. His most recent position prior to joining United Artists, was as eastern district manager for Warner Brothers with whom he became associated in 1938.

Mr. Thompson has been a branch manager for RKO for the past ten years. At one time he was United Artists branch manager in Milwaukee.

With these appointments, Mr. Leserman said the nation-wide setup of districts and district managers had been completed.

Under the direction of Harry L. Gold, eastern division manager, and Bert M. Stearn, western division manager, the United Artists district managers, in addition to Mr. Schnitzer and Mr. Thompson are John J. Dervin—Boston, New Haven, Buffalo; Jack Goldhar—Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Detroit; C. E. Peppiatt—New Orleans, Dallas, Atlanta, Charlotte; Charles Stern—Chicago, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Minneapolis; William E. Callaway—Denver, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, San Francisco, Seattle.

Seven Film Theatres Damaged by Fire

In recent weeks seven motion picture theatres have been partly or completely destroyed by fire.

The Princess theatre in Hopkinsville, Ky., was completely gutted by fire on January 9th, while the Dudley theatre in Flemingsburg, Ky., and the Evarts in Evarts, Ky., have been both badly damaged in recent weeks.

In Salida, Colo., fire caused approximately $10,000 damages to the Salida theatre, operated under lease to the Atlas Theatre Corp. The Ellen Terry in Buffalo, N. Y., was damaged to the extent of $5,000 and the projectionists severely burned when a fire originated in the booth.

The 800-seat Queen theatre in New Orleans was damaged with the loss estimated at $26,000 on January 16th. On January 24th a fire, estimated at $200,000, gutted the Boyd theatre in Bethlehem, Pa.

Lesser Leaving RKO Studio

Sol Lesser, executive producer at the RKO studio, has resigned and is said to plan independent production. He will leave his RKO post sometime in March, when "The Tuttles in Tahiti," now shooting, is completed. He has a commitment to produce "Strange Victory" for UA, which he sidetracked in order to accept the RKO post.

James R. McDonough has resigned as a producer, also from RKO. Mr. McDonough, who has been in several executive capacities at the studio, was made head of the low budget unit several months ago.

Joseph I. Breen, vice-president in charge of production, indicated he would reorganize the entire unit setup on small budget pictures.

Lou Ostrow has been named assistant to Mr. Breen. Mr. Ostrow was formerly a producer at Twentieth Century-Fox and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Mr. Breen will leave shortly for a vacation in Mexico.

George J. Schaefer, RKO president, has arrived in Hollywood and will stay at the studio during Mr. Breen's absence.

Prior to Mr. Schaefer's arrival it was announced that Howard Benedict, RKO associate producer, had resigned. He was formerly in charge of studio publicity.

Charles W. Koerner, general manager of RKO Theatres, announces that the RKO Film Booking Department of which Edward Alperson is director, will function in the future with Max Fellerman in charge of Metropolitan New York bookings, and Harold Mirisch supervising all out-of-town theatre bookings.

Altec Reports 32 Service Deals

An increase in new business activities in theatre servicing is revealed in a current round-up of service contracts reported from Altec district offices throughout the country. Service contracts have been signed with the following theatres:

Lincoln, Charleston, Ill.; Lake, Detroit Lakes, Minn.; Roxy, Erskine, Minn.; Durand, Wisc.; Senate, St. Louis, Mo.; Lexington, Cleveland, Ohio; Lyric, Fairport, Ohio; Lake, Painesville, Ohio; McHenry, McHenry, N. D.; Hollywood, Montevideo, Minn.; Hollywood, Sioux Falls, S. D.

Seville, Owensboro, Ky.; Elbert, Elbert, W. Va.; Regal, St. Joseph, Mo.; Palace, Snyder, Texas; Crescent and Vogue, Cincinnati, Ohio; Missouri, Columbia, Mo.; Pines and State, Tulsa, Okla.; Civic, Brookfield, Mo.

James, Goldsboro, N. C.; Rustic, Parsons, Tenn.; Hill and Boro, Paulsboro, N. J.

Downtown, San Francisco, Cal.; Federal, Oriental, Egyptian, Denver, Colo.; Cover, Fort Morgan, Colo.; Orpheum, Plentywood, Mont., and Vita, Spearfish, S. D.

Callahan Transferred

Jerry Callahan has joined the Monogram exchange in Philadelphia as salesman. He came from Boston, where he was with Monogram, Warners and Universal as booker.

Schine Acquires Two

The Schine circuit in Gloversville, N. Y., has acquired two theatres—the Diamond in Shelbyville, and the Globe in Berlin, Md.

DON'T SWAT THAT FLY...

SWAT — The Fly... finger-man for the Bugville Boss!

BOOK HIM!

HE'LL LEAD YOU TO HEAVY BOXOFFICE SUGAR!
He's an advance man for the FIRST REALLY NEW kind of full-length Technicolor cartoon feature to come out of the industry in a decade...not really a "cartoon feature" at all—but a top-flight adult FEATURE PICTURE in cartoon!

IT'S A TOP-MONEY HONEY PACKED WITH ADULT APPEAL!

Not a "kid special," but a full-fledged box-office attraction for grownups, with laughs...suspense...excitement...romance...and hit parade tunes they can whistle and dance to! Peopled with characters so real that columnists have tried to "spot" the flesh-and-blood stars they're patterned after!

C. BAGLEY BEETLE . . . Master-mind of the insect underworld . . . poses as a philanthropist while cooking up trouble!

SWAT — The Fly...Many a professional mugg in Hollywood claims the honor of inspiring this fingerman of the Bugville mob!

HONEY and HOPPITY . . . Try your hand at "casting" this team! Are they patterned on Bob Hope and Madeleine Carroll?

SMACK — The Mosquito . . . He's the killer, the dirty-work specialist, for Beetle!

JUKES ARE JUMPING NETWORKS HUMMING with these top tunes!

Hoagy Carmichael and other top writers contributed the hit songs of "MR. BUG GOES TO TOWN"; Glenn Miller and other hit parade bands are recording and featuring them! Listen for:

"WE'RE THE COUPLE
IN THE CASTLE"

"BOY, OH BOY"

"KATY DID, KATY DIDN'T"

"BEE MY LITTLE BABY BUMBLE BEE"

"I'LL DANCE AT YOUR WEDDING"

ADULT APPEAL

"Children and adults rejoice . . . grand entertainment for any audience songs should go far!"

—Showmen's Trade

"Sock favorite for the trade and a delightful treat for adults . . . songs worth a note!"

—Film

"Destined to find plenty of favor . . . adults will like it!"

—Daily

" . . . a new world of music to believe . . . an amusing fable for young and old alike . . . so to have the former humming!"

—Motion Picture

Paramount Presents
MR. BUG GOES TO TOWN
IN TECHNICOLOR!

Produced by
MAX FLEISCH

Directed by
DAVE FLEISCH

President writes to Harris, Morgenthau to Exhibitors

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

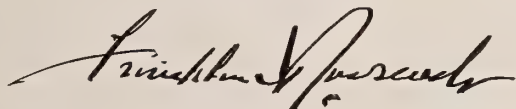

January 20, 1942

My dear John Harris:

"Variety" has made for itself in the space of a few years a unique place in our national life. It has come to stand for unselfish service.

I, therefore, like the spirit which is back of the wholehearted pledge of support embodied in your fine letter of January seventeenth. You ask for an immediate assignment. I cannot think of a better suggestion just now than to ask you to continue those good deeds in behalf of the underprivileged which have pointed your activities in other times. The underprivileged we shall always have with us and we must not forget their needs in this time of national crisis.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. John Harris,
President,
The Variety Clubs of America,
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON

January 28, 1942

To the Moving Picture Exhibitor Addressed

Dear Sir:

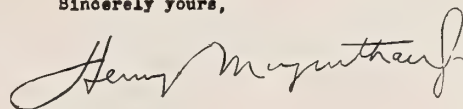

Very soon you will be offered a new Donald Duck picture in technicolor entitled "The New Spirit" which is very entertaining. It was made especially for the United States Treasury by Walt Disney as a contribution to the nation's war effort. It carries a patriotic message to every American, showing through the medium of Donald Duck how each citizen can do his or her bit by paying his income tax promptly.

This picture will have widespread publicity, and I believe your patrons will be looking for it eagerly. It will be offered to you free and I hope that you will elect to show it.

Since its greatest effectiveness will be between now and March 16, I further hope that you will show it as soon as you can get it, and then send it along without delay so that the next exhibitor may show it promptly.

I shall appreciate very much your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

WASHINGTON SPEAKS. To John Harris, Pittsburgh theatre owner, as president of the Variety Clubs of America goes word from the President of the United States acknowledging a pledge of support in the war and assigning to the Variety Clubs the task of continuing their efforts in behalf of the needy.

To exhibitors of the country went word, last week, from Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., urging them to show the Walt Disney income tax subject, "The New Spirit". Special permission was granted by Mr. Morgenthau to exhibitors to reproduce the letter above, with signature, in any promotions or advertisements in connection with defense bond drives.

The Disney defense short is being distributed through 25 exchanges of National Screen Service. To expedite its showing before March 15th in all theatres throughout the country, the War Activities Committee in New York Thursday requested that, in addition to waiving clearance on this subject; as has been done on all previous Government shorts, the exhibitors also waive setting their own playdates and permit them to be set by National Screen.

One thousand prints of the subject have been made upon request of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Set Release for Lombard Picture

Carole Lombard's last picture, "To Be or Not To Be," will have its world premiere February 19th at the Loew's State, Grauman's Chinese, and Carthay Circle, Los Angeles; and its national release March 6th. This was announced Tuesday by Gradwell Sears, vice-president in charge of sales for United Artists.

With the cooperation of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors, the distributors have agreed to forego reissuing old Lombard pictures.

MGM Booker Shifted

Don Eckman, formerly of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Milwaukee office, has been added to the booking department of the Chicago branch.

Pittsburgh Changes

Max Silverman, formerly manager of the Ritz theatre in Pittsburgh, has been transferred to the Squirrel Hill theatre replacing Ernest Lieberman, who has joined the Universal sales staff in Philadelphia. William Warrington, formerly assistant manager at the Stanley, has taken over the Ritz.

Will Yolán Promoted

An exploitation division headed by Will Yolán has been set up in the Warner publicity department in New York, it has been announced by Mort Blumenstock. The new division will be under the direction of Mitchell Rawson.

McCarthy with United Artists

B. J. McCarthy, former RKO exchange manager in Denver, has resigned to become United Artists Denver exchange manager.

Ohio Tax Gross Is $1,820,904

Admission tax collections in Ohio for 1941, based on three per cent of gross receipts, amount to $1,820,904, compared with $1,694,120 in 1940, and $1,645,147 in 1939.

The state collected $194,624 for censorship fees in 1941, while in 1940 the collections were $190,710 and $195,083 in 1939.

Miller, Exchange Chief

J. N. Jovaney, president of Superior Pictures, announced in Chicago on Monday that he has placed Charles H. Miller in charge of the company's mid-West exchanges.

Rivkin Back in Army

Norman Rivkin of the Universal publicity staff in Hollywood, who was released by the Army because of the age limit, has been called back to active duty as a sergeant.

ARBITRATION GOES INTO 2ND YEAR WITH BUT 1 NEW CASE

Three Consent Awards, Two Dismissals and Only One New Action in a Week

Three consent awards, two dismissals and only one new action were reported from local arbitration tribunals this week as the motion picture arbitration system entered its second year.

As arbitration ended its first twelve-month on January 31st, only 168 cases were on the register of the American Arbitration Association for the entire U. S. In January, eight new actions were started while almost twice that number were concluded by awards, withdrawals, or the increasingly popular consent awards.

Two consent awards entered at Detroit this week by Ferris D. Stone, arbitrator of the tribunal seventh and eighth cases, readjusted the clearance scales for approximately 30 theatres in the Grand Rapids area.

Mr. Stone approved the settlements between the Galewood theatre, operated by Alyce Cornell and MGM, Warners, Paramount and 20th Century-Fox and, in case number eight between R. G. Taylor's Southlawn theatre and RKO, Warners, MGM and 20th-Fox. The Butterfield (Paramount affiliate) and Michigan Cooperative circuits were involved in both clearance actions.

The consent agreements establish a clearance of 45 days between first and second runs, seven days for second over third runs, seven days for Cooperative's Savoy theatre and one day for the Savoy over the subsequent Galewood and Southlawn. The complainants in any case are granted availability of not more than 21 days behind third run.

The award reduces the playing time of the complainants from 80 to 60 days behind Grand Rapids first runs.

Buffalo

Michael Catalano, arbitrator of Buffalo's fifth case, clearance action of the Bailey theatre granted a reduction in clearance on Friday. He found that the clearance of the Shea circuit Kensington over the Bailey was "unreasonable and the demand for arbitration was also too broad, but sufficient under Section VIII" to secure relief.

Therefore he cut clearance of the Kensington to three days. Costs were divided equally. All five consenting distributors were involved.

The Cuba theatre in Cuba, N. Y., won a consent award from the five consenting distributors this week when Edward W. Hamilton, arbitrator, entered a reduction in clearance of the State, Haven and Palace theatres, in Olean, N. Y. The parties agreed on a 14-day maximum.

Kansas City

Wendell Cloud, arbitrator of Kansas City's second complaint, on Monday cut in half the 58 day clearance held by Kansas City, Mo., first runs over the suburban Dickinson theatre, in Mission, Kan. All five distributors were ordered to grant a maximum of 28 days clearance to the Newman, Midland, Orpheum, Esquire and Uptown theatres and one day to the

KEN THEATRE USES ANTI-TRUST LAWS

An arbitration complainant, denied relief in a clearance action under the consent decree, turned to the anti-trust laws for the first time this week.

The Ken theatre, operated by Ben Banovitz in Chicago, Ill., on Monday filed an action in the U. S. District court there, seeking $300,000 damages under the Sherman anti-trust law from RKO, 20th Century-Fox, Universal, Columbia, United Artists and the Schoenstadt circuit. Conspiracy to prevent the Ken from obtaining pictures within a reasonable time after their release is alleged.

The Ken was the second Chicago theatre to file an arbitration demand. Its clearance complaint, filed in February 1941 was dismissed by Charles P. Megan in March. The Appeal Board in its first decision on June 11th upheld Mr. Megan's ruling that he lacked jurisdiction and it declared that no clearance existed between the Chicago system's designated subsequent runs.

Alvin Landis, counsel for the Ken, in filing the anti-trust suit asserted that the Consent Decree as construed by the Appeals Board does not give the Chicago independent exhibitor any relief as it pertains to the Chicago system of release. The suit alleges that the Schoenstadt houses, particularly the Pix and Shakespeare theatres involved in the arbitration action, obtain unfair clearance by reason of the buying power of the chain's 23 theatres.

competing neighborhood Aztec theatre. Costs were divided between the complainant and distributors.

Pittsburgh

At Pittsburgh, Arbitrator Samuel W. Pringle on Friday dismissed the complaint of David N. Green, owner and operator of the Beacon theatre, Pittsburgh, against Warners, 20th Century-Fox, Paramount, Loew's and RKO.

Mr. Pringle's award declared that "The complaint as to Vitagraph, Inc., is dismissed for the reason that said defendant owned a financial interest at all times material to this proceeding by stock ownership in the Squirrel Hill Theatre and the Arbitrator was therefore without jurisdiction to entertain this complaint as to Vitagraph, Inc., under Section XVII of the Consent Decree."

"The defendants, 20th Century-Fox, Paramount, Loew's and RKO, have not arbitrarily refused to license their respective features or the features of any of them for exhibition on the run requested by complainant in the Beacon Theatre in violation of Section X of the Consent Decree entered in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, on November 20, 1940, in the matter of the United States vs. Paramount Pictures, Inc., et al.

"The remaining defendant, Vitagraph, Inc., has not arbitrarily refused to license its features for exhibition on the run requested of complainant in the Beacon Theatre in violation of Section X and is entitled to a dismissal of this complaint on the merits as well as for the reason given in the first paragraph hereof."

Costs of the proceeding were assessed half on the complainant and half on the defendants except Vitagraph, which defendant shall pay no costs."

The basic reason for refusing the complaint, he said, was that the Squirrel Hill Theatre was able to return a better revenue to the distributors than the Beacon Theatre, which had asked for the same run.

Cincinnati

The fourth, and only pending Cincinnati case, was dismissed this week. J. C. Dempsey arbitrator ruled that the clearance charges filed by the Olentangy Theatre, Columbus, O., against MGM, Warners, RKO and 20th-Fox did not establish an unreasonable situation in favor of the Hudson Theatre. The Central States Corporation operator of the Olentangy had asserted that a 14-day margin in favor of the Hudson delayed pictures until 66 days after first run.

New Orleans

The only new case filed this week was entered at New Orleans by the Lakeview Theatre against RKO, Warners and Paramount. The theatre, a new house, asks some run from Paramount, RKO and Warner Brothers. It is scheduled to open soon. It is understood that the complainant charges the three consenting distributors with refusing to delay product because the Paramount Richards-Saenger circuit is building a house in opposition to the Lakeview.

New Haven

First hearing was held Tuesday at New Haven on the clearance complaint of J. Lewis Cannon, Jr., asking a maximum clearance for the Grand Theatre, New Haven, of seven days after the Pequot. The complaint was brought against Loew's, 20th-Fox, Warners and RKO. Harry L. Lavietes has intervened for the Pequot, but the Dreamland, also a party in interest, has not filed as intervenor.

Chicago

Following weeks of motions, answers and brief filings, the resumption of hearings in the Oriental Theatre, Chicago clearance case has been set for February 17th. Hayes McKinney, arbitrator, has ruled that all motions to dismiss the case shall be deferred until the conclusion of the hearing. They then will be judged on the merits of the case. It is case No. 6.

The Annetta Theatre, Cicero, Ill., case has been postponed indefinitely.

Cleveland

J. Virgil Cory, Cleveland attorney, has been appointed arbitrator of the second complaint in that city. He held the first hearing on the some run action of the Deuber Theatre, Canton, O., on Tuesday.

Albany

Hearing of Albany's third complaint by the Smalley theatre, Sidney, N. Y., was postponed this week to February 11th.

INDIANAPOLIS EXCHANGES IN "OUTLAW WALKOUT"

Territory Serviced from Other Centers; Walkout Followed Contract Fight

Indiana theatres serviced ordinarily by the Indianapolis exchanges, are this week receiving film from exchanges in Cincinnati, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis and Memphis, because the workers in Indianapolis exchanges were discharged last week, after their local, B-35, had submitted allegedly unreasonable demands in contract negotiations, and struck to enforce those demands.

The International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, with a declared policy, through its new president, Richard Walsh, of no strikes for the duration of the war, suspended Local B-35 for staging an "out-law walkout."

The workers discharged, the "back rooms" of the exchanges at mid-week were still empty and the union, 103 of its members idle, went to court with a flock of suits against the companies.

Employees who lost their jobs by the strike, suspension and discharge, were offered jobs in exchanges of other cities by George Dailey, Indianapolis attorney retained by the companies.

Called off this week were trade screenings in Indianapolis, of Twentieth Century-Fox's "Roxy Hart," "On the Sunny Side," "Castle in the Desert," "Song of the Islands," and "Night Before the Divorce." The state fire marshal had refused to allow use of film in the exchanges unless inspected; and there were no inspectors.

James Watson, union lawyer, said Tuesday the City Council would receive an ordinance shortly compelling exchanges to inspect film. This would require inspectors' reemployment.

Company officials in the city declared Monday they would not negotiate with the local until the IATSE reinstated it.

Bargaining Election in New York

In New York, the employees in the home offices of Columbia, Loew's, and the Marcus Loew Booking Agency anticipate voting shortly for proper bargaining agency, under an order for such election issued last week by the National Labor Relations Board.

The Screen Office and Professional Employees Guild, CIO Local 109, petitioned the NLRB for certification as such agency, not only in the above companies, but also in Twentieth Century Fox and RKO.

The Warner home office workers are ready to submit a working contract through their representative, the Warner Brothers Associated Office Employees, duly elected under NLRB auspices.

Local 109 will hold a "victory dance" for the war relief fund of the parent CIO union, the United Office and Professional Workers of America, on February 21st.

The local last week assailed the Dies Congressional Committee to Investigate Un-American Activities as "a political tool for the enemies of the President," and asked Congress to refuse further funds for it.

INDIANA STRIKE RAISING COSTS

The strike by Indianapolis exchange workers, and consequent suspension of inspection, shipping, and poster departments by the city's exchanges, will increase the cost of film to exhibitors. They are this week receiving it from out of state exchanges. Costs of transportation, however, may be raised from $3 to $12 and $18 per week for an average theatre with three changes per week, requiring six trips to and from the theatre. The Indianapolis transit companies had charged exhibitors a flat rate of $3 for three deliveries per week.

In California, the American Union Alliance has been formed "against the domineering tactics of the AFL and the CIO," and is headed by Richard Franklin.

New York projectionists' local, 306, will hold its 10th annual sick benefit next Wednesday.

In the same city, it was rumored Joseph Basson, defeated some weeks ago for reelection to local 306 presidency, might become an IATSE special representative; and that the convention of Alliance leaders in Miami, last week and this, was considering the appointment.

Philadelphia Local Elects

H. J. Brown was elected president of the Allentown, Pennsylvania, projectionists' union, Local 585, succeeding Harold A. Bortz, projectionist at the Cinema Theatre, president for 18 years. Retirement was voluntary and Mr. Bortz was named honorary president.

Newsreel cameramen assigned to war zones will receive $25 weekly bonus, and will be covered with disability and other insurance, carried by the companies, it was agreed last week, following conferences between Pat Casey, producers' labor representative, and officials of Local 644, cameramen's union.

Negotiations over wage increases continue. Mr. Casey will confer with the producers on the Coast, over the union's demand for a minimum wage of $125 weekly. They have been offered the same 10 per cent increase given other unions in the recent two year contract between the producers and IATSE studio unions.

Trial of Nick Circella and Louis Kaufman, former Chicago Alliance special representative, and Newark business agent, respectively, in New York Federal Court, was postponed Monday, to February 16th. The men are charged by a Federal grand jury indictment with extorting more than $1,000,000 from the film companies in conspiracy with George E. Browne and Willie Bioff, late IATSE leaders now serving terms for similar extortion.

Films are War Necessity, Says 'No. 1 Consumer'

The American consumer expects to depend greatly on motion pictures "for entertainment and much-needed relaxation in this war."

This sentiment was expressed last week by Mrs. Clarence C. Cox of Greenville, S. C., selected "Mrs. Typical Customer of 1942," in the nationwide essay contest sponsored annually by the National Retail Dry Goods Association. Mrs. Cox was in New York at the Hotel Pennsylvania for three days as guest of the association. During that time her consumer needs and desires were plumbed by the press and she embarked on a round of sight-seeing, shopping tours, cocktail parties, a banquet and other functions arranged in her behalf.

Mrs. Cox believes, "The movies are going to be the principal means of relaxation for us now that America is in the war."

Mother of two children, home-owner and wife of a textile mill executive, "Mrs. Typical Customer of 1942" was enthusiastic in expressing her opinions about "the movies."

"I just love them," she said. "They are our principal means of relaxation, outside of home parties arranged by our friends. There's nothing else to do in Greenville. We go to the movies on an average of once a week, but when there's a run of good pictures that my husband and I want to see, we go more often. My husband and I don't dance and there are no shows to see. Occasionally a play or concert will come to town, but for the most part our entertainment consists mainly of the movies."

Greenville, Mrs. Cox said, "is a movie-going town." With a population of 35,000, it has five theatres. The Carolina is the largest, seating about 1,000.

Tay Garnett Inaugurates National Radio Program

Tay Garnett, motion picture producer and director, will enter the radio field through the formation of Tay Garnett Radio Productions, which will make its debut with "Three Sheets to the Wind," starring John Wayne, over the NBC-Red Network Saturday evening, February 15th. Helga Moray, English stage and screen actress, will play the feminine lead in this half-hour series, which will deal with romantic adventure against a world cruise background.

Mr. Garnett will produce and direct the shows on the program, which is based upon his original idea. During a recent world cruise, made before the start of the world conflict, Mr. Garnett shot 30,000 feet of film.

Yeager Rejoins RKO

Sol Yeager, recently with Universal, has rejoined the RKO sales staff in Omaha. He replaces Irving Gillman, who has returned to Minneapolis.

Support Voted Schenck Regime At Loew's

Nicholas M. Schenck and his associates in the leadership of Loew's, on Tuesday received a vote of "confidence and gratitude" from the stockholders gathered in New York that day for the annual meeting—which also resulted in reelection of all directors, who thereupon reelected all officers. There were no dissenters and there were no other nominations.

Elected vice-presidents by the board were C. C. Moskowitz, in charge of theatre operations; Joseph Vogel, in charge of out-of-town theatres; and Howard Dietz, director of advertising and publicity for the distributing company.

The meeting disclosed monies paid officials of the company during 1940, in accordance with their contracts. This information was given in response to a stockholder, by J. Robert Rubin, vice-president and general counsel, who presided. He reported receiving $100,308; and that David Bernstein received $122,522; Mr. Schenck, $204,204; Ben Thau, $60,989; Al Lichtman, $91,484; Hunt Stromberg, $77,409; Sam Katz, $121,979; E. J. Mannix, $121,979; Louis B. Mayer, $548,425; Lawrence Weingarten, $30,494; Harry Rapf, $30,494, and B. H. Hyman, 30,494.

The Browne-Bioff case was not allowed to be discussed, company officials deeming comment improper while the case is still in the courts.

Walt Disney, Inc. Reelect Officers

Stockholders of Walt Disney Productions, Inc., at the annual meeting in Hollywood on Wednesday reelected all directors of the company. The directors renamed the officers.

Directors are Walter E. Disney, Roy Disney, Gunther Lessing, George E. Morris, Jonathan B. Lovelace. Officers are: Walt Disney, president; Roy Disney, executive vice-president; Lessing, vice-president; Mr. Morris, treasurer; Oliver B. Johnson, assistant secretary-treasurer; Franklin Waldheim, assistant secretary.

Mr. Morris reported a balance of $80,804 for 14 weeks of the current fiscal year up to January 3rd, after all charges except income tax and subject to year end adjustment. This compares with a balance for the entire fiscal year ended September 27th of $210,702 before provision of $1,000,000 for excess cost of features over estimated net income.

Windsor Benefit Nets $1,400

In excess of $1,400 was raised at the Palace theatre, Windsor, Ont., on Saturday, January 31st, for the benefit of the Queen's Canadian Fund for Air Raid Victims, according to Manager Cem Merriitt. American musicians and performers from Detroit theatres participated in the benefit. Earl Hudson, manager of United Detroit Theatres, a member of the committee, donated the union guarantee.

New FWC Prizes Set by Skouras

Charles P. Skouras, head of Fox West Coast, announced that district managers, bookers and theatre managers would be awarded five per cent of added business above the advance quotas originally set in the current circuit drive. Already, a total of $18,500 in prizes are available for the first quarter in 1942.

California's division of 10 districts are required to exceed the cumulative quota for the first 13-week period to divide the first prize of $11,100, and the additional five per cent will be given for further bonus distribution.

Three special three-week business drive sections during the campaign will provide special awards totaling $2,500 for each, with five district prizes ranging from $800 to $200 apiece.

Special prizes under the heading "Personality Contest" have been set up with three theatres of each district to get $75, $50, and $25 for house staffs, outside of the manager Contest will be judged on deportment and personality of staffs in relation to patrons, maintenance, and cleanliness of the theatre, and degree of cooperation by the staff with civilian defense units. The campaign ends on March 28th.

McCarthy Mentioned as Whitney Press Aid

Charles E. McCarthy, former publicity and advertising director of 20th Century-Fox, at midweek was reported in conversation with John Hay Whitney in respect to the handling of press relations for the films section of the office of Inter-American Affairs. It was reported Mr. McCarthy might join the Whitney staff as an aide to Mr. Whitney.

Mr. McCarthy, a former New England and New York newspaper man, headed 20th-Fox public relations from 1932 to 1941. Previously he was advertising and publicity head of Paramount and publicity manager for Famous Players-Lasky.

KOA Votes a Dividend; RKO Elects a Director

The board of directors of Keith, Albee, Orpheum Corporation declared a dividend, out of operating surplus, of $1.75 per share of the seven per cent cumulative convertible preferred stock for the quarter ended March 31, 1942, payable April 1st, 1942, to the holders of record at the close of business on March 16th, 1942.

At the board meeting, George Schaefer, president of RKO, announced that DeWitt Millhauser was elected a director of the corporation to serve out the unexpired portion of the term of General James G. Harbord who has resigned.

Directors of Famous Players Canadian have declared a quarterly dividend of 25 cents per share, payable February 27th, to shareholders of record February 14th.

Defense Reopens Theatre

Hamrick-Evergreen Theatres, Inc., are again attempting to accommodate heavy week-end patronage in the Seattle defense area by reopening their Music Hall Theatre for extended run engagements every Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The policy was attempted last fall but was not successful, inasmuch as the programs offered at that time were return engagements of older pictures. The present plan calls for moving of current attractions from the circuit's regular houses into the Music Hall for week-end runs. Regular admission rates of 30 cents, 42 cents and 58 cents prevail.

Hellinger to Quit Fox

Mark Hellinger, Twentieth Century-Fox producer, announced in Hollywood on Tuesday that he would leave the company next month following completion of his current production "Moon-tide."

Majors Report Many Holdovers

Holdover reports from several companies this week indicated more box office winners and healthy business for several current releases. Here are the records:

"Hellzapoppin," Universal: Earle, Allentown, opened January 21st; Rialto, Denver, opened January 13th; Senate, Harrisburg, January 21st; Omaha, Omaha, January 22nd; Orpheum, San Francisco, January 21st; Eckels, Syracuse, January 22nd; Fox, Atlanta, January 29th, and Keith, Baltimore, January 29th.

"Paris Calling," Universal: Woods, Chicago, opened January 17th.

"Wolf Man," Universal: Woods, Chicago, opened January 26th; Allen, Cleveland, opened January 24th; Vogue, Los Angeles, January 30th.

"Sullivan's Travels," Paramount: Paramount, New York, opened January 28th.

"Bahama Passage," Paramount: Denham, Denver, opened January 29th; Paramount, Los Angeles, January 17th.

"Louisiana Purchase," Paramount: Lincoln, Lincoln, opened January 21st; Rialto, Butte, opened January 28th; Beverly, Beverly Hills, January 27th; Egyptian, Hollywood, January 31st; California, Huntington Park, January 23rd.

"Johnny Eager," MGM: State, Cleveland, opened January 23rd; State, New Orleans, opened January 22nd; Loew's, Louisville, February 2nd; Loew's, Akron, January 23rd; Loew's, Dayton, January 21st.

Moveovers

Moveovers were: "Johnny Eager," opened January 16th, Penn to Warner in Pittsburgh; opened January 14th, Fox to St. Francis, San Francisco; opened January 23rd, Court to Virginia in Wheeling; opened January 18th, Smoot to Strand in Parkersburg; opened January 22nd, Poli to Palace in Hartford and opened January 22nd, Poli to College in New Haven. "Louisiana Purchase": opened January 22nd, Alexander to California in Glendale; opened January 21st, Academy to U. A. Theatre in Inglewood, and opened January 22nd, U. A. Theatre to Strand in Pasadena.

"Ball of Fire" RKO: held over at Radio City Music Hall for third week; also held for sixth week in Keith's, Boston; Palace, Chicago; Albee, Providence, and Keith's, Washington. Fifth week engagements at the Orpheum, Kansas City, and Golden Gate, San Francisco.

"Joan of Paris," RKO: in its second week at the Rivoli, New York.

"Call Out the Marines," RKO: held for a second week at the Rialto, New York.

"All Through the Night," Warners: held for a second week at the Strand, New York.

"The Eternal Gift," in its fourth week at the Squire, New York.

"The Corsican Brothers," United Artists: Capitol, New York, in its third week.

Preston Sturges' new film for Paramount, "Sullivan's Travels," at the Paramount, New York, grossed an estimated $75,000 for its first week, reaching $31,000 for last Saturday and Sunday. Another box office winner was "Son of Fury," 20th Century-Fox, at New York's Roxy, where it rolled up an estimated $43,200 for the first four days beginning last Thursday; its Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and Springfield, Ill., grosses also good. RKO's "Ball of Fire" drew an estimated $54,000 from last Thursday to Sunday at Radio City Music Hall, New York.

AMPA "Navy" Luncheon

Associated Motion Picture Advertisers held an "AMPA's Date with the Navy" luncheon on Thursday, at the Hotel Edison, New York. Lieutenant Commander John T. Tuthill was to be the principal speaker. Guests of honor who were to attend included Bert Lytell, Jackie Cooper, Bonita Granville and Patricia Peardon.

ONE OF THE MOST REMARKABLE STORIES EVER WRITTEN!"

(Liberty Magazine, Jan. 24)

"Storm"

By GEORGE STEWART

5,548,066 READERS
OF JAN. 24 "LIBERTY" SAW A CONDENSED VERSION!

5,000,000 READERS
OF "THE READER'S DIGEST" WILL READ IT IN MARCH!

200,000 COPIES
SOLD BEFORE PUBLICATION!

BEST-SELLER LISTS FROM COAST-TO-COAST!

BOOK-OF-
THE-MONTH
CLUB CHOICE!

PARAMOUNT
GRABS ANOTHER RUN-AWAY
BEST-SELLER!

Storm

TAKES ITS PLACE IN THE INDUSTRY'S BIGGEST LINEUP OF TOP BOXOFFICE PROPERTIES!

"BOTANY BAY"

The famous Saturday Evening Post serial by James Norman Hall and Charles Nordhoff, set for early filming.

"LADY IN THE DARK"

Broadway musical hit by Moss Hart, about a lady and her dreams . . . and psychoanalysis.

"THE GOOD FELLOW"

Famous George S. Kaufman and Herman J. Mankiewicz play set for an early production.

"MR. & MRS. CUGAT"

Ray Milland and Betty Field will have the stellar roles in the film version of this best-seller by Isabel Scott Rorick.

"FRENCHMAN'S CREEK"

Another best-seller by the author of "Rebecca," Daphne Du Maurier, set for early production.

"THE FOREST RANGERS"

Cosmopolitan novelette by Thelma Strabel, author of "Reap the Wild Wind"; to be screened with a top cast.

"THE HOUR BEFORE DAWN"

W. Somerset Maugham's new novel, set for early production, with an important cast of stars.

"MANHATTAN AT MIDNIGHT"

A story inspired by the widely-publicized radio program bearing this title.

"FOR WHOM THE BELL TOLLS"

Sam Wood will direct the film production of this latest and greatest best-selling novel by Ernest Hemingway, author of "Farewell to Arms." All-star cast being selected.

"TOMBSTONE"

(The Town Too Tough to Die)

Rip-roaring action adventure story by Walter Noble Burns, to be produced with a cast headed by Richard Dix, Frances Gifford and Edgar Buchanan. A "big production" outdoor drama.

"MISS SUSIE SLAGLE'S"

Augusta Tucker's best-seller based on boarding house life. In preparation.

"OVER THE HILL"

(Title to be changed)

I. A. R. Wylie's timely magazine story in preparation for casting and production.

"THIS GUN FOR HIRE"

Veronica Lake and Robert Preston will be co-starred in the picture based on the Best-selling Graham Greene novel.

"SUNRISE IN MY POCKET"

Edwin Justus Mayer's best-seller; an American classic . . . for early production.

"THE PASSIONATE WITCH"

(I Married a Witch)

Hilarious novel by Thorne Smith, author of the "Topper" stories, set for an early production.

"OUT OF THE FRYING PAN"

William Holden, Susan Hayward, Eddie Brackley, Robert Benchley are cast in the screen version of this Francis Swann stage success.

READY FOR RELEASE...

"REAP THE WILD WIND"

Thelma Strabel's great Saturday Evening Post serial filmed by Cecil DeMille with an all-star cast—in Technicolor . . . Paramount's great 30th Anniversary Picture and DeMille's finest production.

"THE REMARKABLE ANDREW"

based on the laugh-filled novel by Dalton Trumbo—one of the smash hits of Paramount's fourth block, with Brian Donlevy, William Holden, Ellen Drew

ASIDES and INTERLUDES

By JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM

Many a motion picture worker spends many a long hour after dark learning about air raids and air raid precautions, in classes being conducted at home offices to develop valuable potential aid and aides, just in case.

Mixed with the grimness of the job and many of its subjects there occasionally trickles a bit of humor—if one can see humor in the study of different kinds of poison gases. The nickname given Mustard Gas, is "hot stuff," in the 'timetable' of gasses and their actions, issued to the workers in the Paramount home office classes. Lewisite Gas is merely a 'mustard imitator,' and Ethyl-dichlorasine is known as 'enemy's delight.'

Adamsite Gas is 'dirty mixture,' Diphenyl-chlorasine is 'dopey ache.' Phosgene Gas is 'choky gas' and Chlorpierin is 'puking stuff.' Chloracetophenone has been nicknamed 'cry now.'

The workers are taught how to detect the various types of gases by odor. Mustard Gas smells like garlic, Lewisite, like geraniums, and Phosgene has an odor like fresh cut hay. Both Chlorpierin and Chloracetophenone Solution Gases smell like flypaper. Plain Chloracetophenone has an aroma like apple blossoms.

The Screen Actors Guild, in Hollywood, is warning its actor members that Guild contracts provide that no player is to appear in any scene wearing a fur coat at a wage of less than $16.50 per day. They say that some producers have been paying fur coat wearers only $10.50, the daily rate without fur coats.

James Wong Howe, noted Hollywood movie cameramen, conducts a little sideline—selling chop suey at his own restaurant on Ventura Boulevard.

The Army at West Point has, by arrangement with Walt Disney, taken a sequence from Disney's "Reluctant Dragon" cartoon, for use in classroom study by the student body. It's titled "How to Ride a Horse."

Grim Humor was seen in RKO's New York circuit double billing, last week, of: "You're in the Army Now" with "One Foot in Heaven."

Surprises in these days happen every day. Now comes University Film Productions, Inc., with the announcement of a new motion picture, entitled "Hitler's Children." We never knew that Hitler was married.

Twentieth Century-Fox announces a new motion picture, "The Meanest Man in the World," with Jack Benny.

Warner Brothers will be host, next Thursday, to 200 Royal Canadian Air Force pilots, in New York, at the world premiere of "Captain of the Clouds." One of the guests will be Canadian Air Marshal Billy Bishop. He merely shot down 72 German planes in the last war.

Jonas Perlberg, of Filmack Laboratories, Chicago, style-consciously reports this sign on the front of a Harrisburg, Illinois theatre: "HE DIED WITH HIS BOOTS ON" AND SELECTED SHORTS."

To the son of a motion picture exhibitor, Alexander R. Nining, Sr., goes the honor of receiving, posthumously, the first Congressional Medal of Honor in this war. Lieutenant R. Nining, Jr., in "conspicuous gallantry," was killed in action in the Philippines on January 12th, after single-handedly penetrating far into the ranks of the invading Japs to cap an exploit in which he killed a flock of enemy soldiers.

The father has been in the theatre business in Florida, and will receive the medal for his soldier son at Fort Lauderdale.

Chicago courts are getting pretty tough with theatre patrons who refuse to behave patriotically. Local Judge Edward Luczak fined two young theological students, Viola Lingblade and Robert Moore, $200, because they did not stand during the playing of "The Star-Spangled Banner" at the Avalon Theatre.

New York World-Telegram drama critic John Mason Brown tours the country lecturing, answering culture questions. Of all the slips of paper sent up to him by audiences during his "question period," Brown's favorite is one, submitted at the end of a particularly high-brow discourse, that read, "Will the speaker be so good as to give me Carmen Miranda's telephone number?"

U. S. Naval Reserve Lieutenant Robert Montgomery, of Hollywood, walked into the lobby of Washington's spacious Mayflower Hotel, encountered a force of pen-waving ladies with autograph books. Unmolested, unnoticed nearby stood another, alone—Herbert Hoover.

New York air raid officials really didn't mean to tell the populace to fill their bathtubs with water when and if the air raid siren blows. They take it all back, figuring if everybody filled their tubs with water in a raid, there mightn't be any water left for the air raid.

RKO's new star, Michele Morgan, is not Michele Morgan at all. She's Simone Roussel.

Jean is a popular name with Scranton, Pa., young girls who have hitched their wagons to star-studded careers.

First of all there was Jeanne Madden who appeared in several Hollywood pictures. Then Gloria Jean (Schoonover) made a hit as a singing starlet in the film capital. Finally, another Jean, Beverly Jean Saul received word she is now under contract to M-G-M and will soon be in the movies, too.

But names have not been the only attributes the girls have in common. All three Scranton Jeans have broken into films as a result of singing talent.

Altec Sound Service Corp. reports a big business boom—the U. S. Army defense officials and the studios in Hollywood are swamping Altec with war orders for theatre sound horns and amplifiers, for air raid warning placements. The studios will use them over the broad expanses of their lots, to screech warnings to players and workers off in some remote corner of the filming fields—when, as and if.

Hollywood studios are flourishing with a new aroma of ham—real ham.

By wire and special courier Wide World flashes word from the California coast about how dirt-farmer film stars not only have heeded President Roosevelt's plea for national stepped-up crop production during the war emergency but have turned studio stages into colorful trading posts, where they swap hams for turkeys, eggs for apples, and barter for other agricultural products.

Actors bring produce from their country estates while waiting between pictures. George Murphy lugs chunks of bacon and ham to the RKO "trading post" for Ann Shirley; Joel McCrea exchanges milk and butter for Joan Carroll's rabbits; George Tobias trades turkeys for John Litell's apples and walnuts, and Victor McLaglen swaps Brahma hens for green vegetables raised by Marion Martin. Errol Flynn, Oliver Hardy, Lucille Ball and her husband, Desi Arnaz, and Marjorie Rambeau are among the leading egg distributors.

Many other players have turned to the soil through purchase of farms like those of some of the early "settlers," such as the Taylor-Stanwyck combination. Ginny Simms has bought land near Fresno; Ginger Rogers and Tim Holt are increasing crops on their sprawling ranches; Bette Davis plans to get her new Sugar Hill, N. H., farm into production this spring, and Jimmy Cagney has arranged for a huge potato crop on his Martha's Vineyard estate.

Jack Trop has launched a new producing company in New York, called Pro and Con, Inc.

You won't be seeing any champagne-whacking of new ship launchings in the newsreels any more. Illinois Representative Jessie Sumner had a clause injected into the new twenty-billion-dollar Naval Appropriations Bill prohibiting the use of bottles of the bubbly stuff on the bows of new boats. It's a war measure.

The RKO management in New York announces that Jon Hall, RKO actor, "learned this morning that his last picture, 'Aloma of the South Seas,' has grossed more than two million dollars," and, so, "Jon gets a $10,000 bonus."

With guns and gunfire in western pictures tabooed by war order, Hollywood western film heroes now get the villain by lasso.

Paramount Pictures announces that it has struck an innovation in changing the title of "My Favorite Blonde" to "Paramount Presents Bob Hope Who Calls Madeleine Carroll My Favorite Blonde." That, insists Paramount, is what's going on the main title.

The Academy of Motion Picture Arts, in Hollywood, may have its 'Oscar' annual award to the best actor, actress, director, writer and other talent for the best creative work of the year. But Movie-Radio Guide has 'Elmer,' to be awarded for similar accomplishments. Besides, says the newsstand magazine's publishers, their Elmer is all-American, being made of wood, instead of metal, as with Oscar.

Mexico Approves Plan for All Possible Aid

by LUIS BECERRA CELIS in Mexico City

New assurances that the Mexican Government intends to render all possible aid to the motion picture industry was given representatives of organized producers by President Manuel Avila Camacho in an interview in his offices in Mexico City. During the meeting the producers advised the President that it was an imperative necessity that official help be given the industry, especially with regard to facilities for distribution in the United States and leading Latin American countries, and to assist this business to gain and maintain a firm foothold after the war.

This assurance has satisfied the producers. Some time ago the President told the producers and distributors that the Mexican Government was deeply concerned about advancing the Mexican film industry. The nature of the promised governmental aid was not revealed, but the Federal film censoring and supervision department has been ordered to accord the business all possible assistance.

▽

The Federal film censoring and supervision department in Mexico is operating to the limit of its powers. Paramount's "Hold Back the Dawn" was the first American picture of 1942 to meet objections. Before passing the film for exhibition the department insisted that there be deleted from it the sequence of an Austrian girl refugee, about to become a mother, being smuggled into the United States from a Mexican border hamlet where she had found a home so that her child could be born on American soil. The censors ruled that this sequence was derogatory to Mexico's dignity.

▽

La Gia di Golconda, a Mexican of Italian extraction, who was a silent film star in Mexico 25 years ago, died there recently. After a long stay in Argentina she had returned to Mexico penniless and sought work again in motion pictures. However, her voice was not suited to sound and she died in poverty. She was 59 years old.

▽

Frank Fouce, California theatre executive, is arranging for the production of a film starring Laurel and Hardy, borrowed for this one production from Twentieth Century-Fox which is allowing the comedians to make one picture a year for independent producers.

▽

A special welcome was accorded to James FitzPatrick and his corps of technicians when they arrived in Mexico recently for the production of another color film of the country, "Mexico Monumental." The government's tourist department and the Ministry of the Interior have granted the producer all possible cooperation for the production of this film which is to be widely distributed. The government expects that "Mexico Monumental" will stimulate the American tourist business, a traffic which the country very much requires now.

Producers Name Year's Officers

At the annual meeting of the Association of Motion Picture Producers in Hollywood on Monday all officers were unanimously re-elected for a third term. Re-elected were Y. Frank Freeman, president; E. J. Mannix, first vice-president; Cliff Work, second vice-president; Fred W. Beetson, executive vice-president and secretary-treasurer. Members of the board of directors were also re-elected.

The directors approved the forthcoming appointment of a Hollywood coordinator to work with Francis S. Harmon, coordinator of the War Activities Committee of the Motion Picture Industry, and heard a report by Mr. Beetson on war aid activities.

The board also voted to return the studios to a 9 A.M. to 6 P. M. work day scheduled under Daylight Saving time, which goes into effect Monday, February 9th.

William S. Holman was authorized to make a survey on possible utilization of studio machine shops, when available, for defense production.

1,055 Theatres Operating in N. Y.

According to the New York Film Board of Trade in its theatre directory which was released to members this week, there is a total of 1,055 theatres in operation in the New York-New Jersey metropolitan territory.

The report shows that affiliated circuits in the territory dropped seven houses in the area, leaving a total of 190, while unaffiliated circuits gained 28, bringing their total to 590. Independent theatres decreased from 449 to 414.

The seating capacity of theatres now operating is greater by 1,356 than that of last year in spite of the drop in the number of houses, indicating the construction or reopening of theatres larger than those which ceased operation.

The combined total of theatres both opened and closed is listed at 1,194, which is a drop of 14 from last year. Of the 139 houses dark, 128 are equipped for sound while the remaining 11 are silent.

Paramount Has Sponsored Short

Paramount Pictures Educational Film Division, a production unit for sponsored films, has completed a 10-minute short entitled "American Anniversary" for the National Association of Manufacturers. It is the seventh of a series of films portraying the cause of "free enterprise" as the backbone of the American way of life. The shorts are distributed without charge to theatres throughout the country, as well as to churches, clubs and civic organizations. They have been shown in 4,000 theatres, including key houses of most of the principal circuits, although Balaban and Katz, Paramount-controlled Chicago chain, has refused to run them.

Universal Signs Cline

Eddie Cline has been signed to a director's contract by Universal the studio has announced from Hollywood. His first production will be "Wake Up and Dream."

Raynor Joins Navy

William E. Raynor, studio publicity director for Producers Releasing Corp., has resigned to join the Navy.

Mothers Want Shorts for Children

Increased use of short subjects in theatre programs for children under six is being requested by parents in New York. The Schools Motion Picture Committee, an independent organization which promotes better films for youngsters, reported through its secretary, Mrs. Irving A. Heyman, that analysis of the committee's information service revealed more parents were becoming interested in shorts, including cartoons, for their theatre-going children.

Mrs. Heyman reported that in addition to the committee's regular program of listing recommended films for children in the age bracket of eight to 14 years, which is published regularly by the New York Herald Tribune, New York Times, PM and Cue magazine, the information service functioning at the committee's New York office answers queries daily, advising and suggesting program fare to parents for their youngsters.

Current project of the Schools Motion Picture Committee is a questionnaire which has been sent out to 42 Better Film Councils throughout the United States.

Mrs. Heyman reported that 300 theatres in the New York area were cooperating with the committee in arranging week-end programs suitable for children. The committee inaugurated its plan seven years ago. Theatres working with it supply advance outlines of programs scheduled for Friday, Saturday and Sunday. From these outlines, programs are checked and recommendations made which are then listed in the newspapers.

Edward Golden Acquires "Education for Death"

Edward A. Golden, president of University Film Productions, Inc., New York City, has acquired the motion picture rights to Gregor Ziemer's "Education for Death," published by the Oxford University Press. A condensation of this book, which tells how Hitler's educational machine trains boys and girls to become fanatical fighters for the Nazi regime, appears in the current issue of Reader's Digest.

"Education for Death" is to be made into a motion picture under the title "Hitler's Children."

Mr. Ziemer was born in Michigan in 1899, served in the United States Army during the first World War and later taught in this country. He then founded the American Colony School in Berlin under the auspices of the American Embassy and the American Chamber of Commerce. He also became a Berlin correspondent for the London Daily Mail and the Paris edition of the Chicago Tribune, and obtained his Ph.D. from the University of Berlin. Mr. Ziemer is now a commentator for station WLW in Cincinnati.

Two Join 'Movie-Radio Guide'

Gordon Swarthout has been named editor of Movie-Radio Guide, and Dick Dorrance, general manager of Frequency Modulation Broadcasters, Inc., has been engaged to head a recently inaugurated section devoted to the latest news and developments in Frequency Modulation. Major Curtis Mitchell, former editor of the publication, will write a weekly column covering the Washington radio news front.

NEW YORK VALUES 32 FILM THEATRES AT $75,392,000

Criterion at $6,625,000 Is Highest; Roxy Second at $3,950,000

Thirty-two key theatres in New York's Manhattan and Brooklyn are worth a total of $75,392,000, on the municipal taxable real estate assessment books, the city fathers reported on Monday. The Manhattan houses singled out as among the city's most valuable theatre properties represent the largest concentration of theatre wealth in the world.

Loew's Criterion Theatre on Broadway, again heads New York's highest theatre real estate valuation, with $6,662,000, according to the 1942-43 assessment rolls released by the city's Tax Commission this week. The amount is a reduction of $100,000 from last year.

The Criterion seats only 1,700, but because of its direct Times Square position and the fact that it has other amusement, restaurant and commercial tenant-rentals, the assessment figure again tops the rolls of theatre property, compared with the Roxy, further up the street, which is more than three times larger, seating 5,880, with an assessment of only $3,950,000, second highest on the theatre list.

Assessment for Radio City Music Hall, seating 6,200, was included in the tentative valuation of the RKO Building in which it is housed, at $11,700,000. The Paramount Theatre, seating 3,664, also is included in the building assessment, listed at $10,900,000. Loew's State, seating 3,300, is evaluated at $3,795,000; the Strand, seating 2,750, at $3,200,000.

Radio City $92,600,000

On the tentative assessment rolls the Equitable Building at 120 Broadway, still is recorded as the most valuable office building in New York City, at $28,750,000, which is only $250,000 more than that of the RCA Building, tentatively assessed at $28,500,000, as compared with $26,750,000 for the Empire State Building and $15,000,000 listed for the Chrysler Building, the world's tallest structures. The 12 buildings of Radio City are assessed in the aggregate for $92,600,000.

Other film theatre tentative assessments are: Rialto, $2,825,000; Capitol, $2,245,000; Gaiety, $2,150,000; Winter Garden, $2,125,000; Astor, $1,700,000; Mayfair, $1,690,000; Rivoli, $1,425,000; Times Apollo, $1,315,000; Al Jolson, $1,300,000; Palace, $1,275,000; Hollywood, $1,000,000; Booth-Shubert, $1,100,000; Ziegfeld, $1,000,000; Globe, $1,000,000; Lincoln Square, $925,000, and the New Amsterdam, $920,000.

In Brooklyn, the Paramount Theatre and office building is evaluated at $3,070,000, as compared with some of the borough's large office buildings; 16 Court Street, $2,754,000; 26 Court Street, $2,400,000 and the Temple Bar, $1,215,000. The Fox Theatre is listed at $3,000,000; Albee, $1,675,000; Loew's Kings, $1,040,000; Loew's Metropolitan, $950,000; Strand, $525,000; Tivoli, $350, 000; Majestic, $225,000; Star, $205,000 and St. George, $187,000.

Bronx theatre assessments include Loew's Paradise, $1,257,000; Grand, $975,000; Keith Fordham, $815,000 and Valentine, $600,000. In Queens, the Valencia, Jamaica, is listed at $1,060,000; Merrick, Jamaica, $885,000; Keith, Flushing, $750,000; Madison, Ridgewood, $615,000 and Alden, Jamaica, $430,000. The Lasky Famous Players Studio in Long Island City is assessed at $665,000. Richmond theatre evaluations are the St. George film house and office building, $590,000, and the Paramount, $350,000.

Stage Theatres Lower

Assessments for Broadway's legitimate theatres include:

Forty-fourth Street, $835,000; Empire, $830,000; Guild, $655,000; Majestic, $640,000; Imperial, $638,000; St. James, $580,000; Martin Beck, $575,000; Music Box, $550,000; Forty-sixth Street, $530,000; Barrymore, $525,000; Morosco, $525,000; Belasco, $505,000; Ambassador, $500,000; Lyceum, $500,000; Fulton, $465,000; Royal, $440,000; Henry Miller, $430,000; Broadhurst, $430,000; Mansfield, $415,000; Windsor, $410,000; Cort, $400,000; Forrest, $390,000; Playhouse, $350,000; Biltmore, $340,000; Vanderbilt, $295,000; John Golden, $290,000. The Metropolitan Opera House is assessed at $4,600,000, and Carnegie Hall at $1,900,000.

Philadelphia Assessment

Realty assessment of four houses in downtown Philadelphia were reduced for 1942, allowances made for depreciation. The Fox Theatre was reduced from $1,459,000 to $1,451,000; Mastbaum Theatre, from $1,226,200 to $1,239,700; Erlanger Theatre from $605,700 to $567,800 and the Stanley Theatre, from $685,000 to $677,000. Both the Erlanger and Maustbaum are dark.

Fox Releasing Eight Musicals

Eight musical films, the largest number in the past few years, will be released by Twentieth Century-Fox as part of the company's 1942 program, it was announced in New York last week.

The eight features which are in the various stages of production are "Iceland," the Sonja Henie-Tyrone Power co-starring film; and William LeBaron's production of "Springtime in the Rockies," music for both is now being written by Mack Gordon and Harry Warren; "Strictly Dynamite" and "Coney Island," which will feature songs by Leo Robin and Ralph Rainger, Academy Award winning tunesmiths; "Hello, Frisco, Hello," "Melody Man," "Campus in the Clouds" and "Orchestra Wife."

Paul Peters Joins Fox

Paul Peters, associate editor of Life magazine and editor of its film, book and theatre department since 1937, has resigned to join the story department of 20th Century-Fox.

Film Censors Reject One, Pass Two

After refusing a permit for the exhibition of one of Republic's western pictures, Chicago last week issued a general permit for showing the film.

The Pennsylvania censor board has granted a license to Howard Hughes' "The Outlaw," but for a second time refused the state seal of approval to "Shanghai Gesture."

Reversing their decision of several weeks back in rejecting Republic's "Jesse James at Bay," the Chicago Police Censor Board issued a general permit for the picture when it was rescreened last week, and the film will be released in the Chicago territory next month. When the board refused a permit on November 25, 1941, their report said the film was rejected by a vote of the board because it "portrays the exploits of a bandit and killer who is made heroic and whose crimes are condoned because he had a good motive."

"The Outlaw," after being turned down by the Pennsylvania State Board of Motion Picture Censors on being submitted for review a number of times in past months, was finally given the seal of approval last week. According to Mrs. Edna R. Carroll, chairman of the censor board, the proper deletions had been made. No opening is scheduled by 20th Century-Fox for the picture as yet.

On the same day, and for a second time, the censor board withheld its seal of approval for "Shanghai Gesture." The board had suggested changes and deletions to United Artists, and after reviewing the film for a second time, Mrs. Carroll said that the picture was "still not satisfactory." Following the board's disapproval, Harry Buckley, UA executive from the home office, went there to confer with Mrs. Carroll on the picture.

The Chicago Censor Board reviewed 103 pictures, a total of 505,600 feet of film, during the month of January and made no rejections. Twenty cuts were ordered. Four films received "pink permits" or adults only classification. These were "The Shanghai Gesture," "Roxie Hart," "The Last Atlantis," or "The City of Sin" and "The Love Wanga."

Elrod Succeeds Gilliam

Ben Elrod, country salesman for Paramount Pictures, Chicago, has succeeded to the city territory formerly handled by Tom Gilliam, who left the company to become sales manager of the Chicago RKO office. Sam Tishman, former operator of the Paramount theatre, Wheaton, Ill., took over Mr. Elrod's territory.

The low down story of a high-class gal!

GINGER ROGERS

Your 1942
boxoffice
sweet-hart!

as

ROXIE HART

Just a lonely little girl in the great big city... and Heaven help the wolves!

Watch
GEORGE MONTGOMERY
...he's on his way to stardom!

with

ADOLPHE MENJOU GEORGE MONTGOMERY

Lynne OVERMAN • Nigel BRUCE
Phil SILVERS • Sara ALLGOOD
Wm. FRAWLEY • Spring BYINGTON
Ted NORTH • Helene REYNOLDS

Directed by William A. Wellman

*Produced and Written for the screen by Nunnally
Johnson • Based upon the Play "Chicago" written by Maurine Watkins and produced by Sam H. Harris Dances staged by Hermes Pan*

Totals Added On Industry's Dimes Drive

With almost 11,000 theatres participating in the infantile paralysis drive Si Fabian, national treasurer for the motion picture industry's March of Dimes drive, reported Monday that checks from theatres were beginning to arrive at the Hotel Astor in New York, national headquarters. Half the amount sent in by theatres, less expenses, will be returned to the community from which it was raised.

Miller, Donaldson Co., public accountants, have volunteered to handle the auditing and certifying of the March of Dimes monies, without charge.

Theatres are urged to return their March of Dimes trailers to the National Screen Service exchanges from which they were received. The Warner film salvage plant in New York has volunteered to reclaim the film and turn the proceeds over to the infantile paralysis fund.

Managers of theatres are urged to make prompt reports to the Theatre Staff Committee at the Hotel Astor, on the usher, projectionist, etc., who had filled the greatest number of Birthday coin cards. The leaders in this activity will be awarded defense bonds. The drive for funds ended Friday, January 30th.

12,540 Parties

There were 12,540 birthday parties for President Roosevelt held Friday, January 30th. In scores of these, film, radio and stage players, besides those from the concert and opera worlds participated. In New York the principal event was held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, with a ball at which 14 of the popular bands and orchestras performed, in addition to numerous players from stage, screen and radio.

The most important of all birthday balls, of course, was held in Washington, D. C. An all-star banquet at the Hotel Willard, besides dinner dances at the Hotels Mayflower, Shoreham, Wardman Park and Hamilton, were held. Edward Arnold, president of the Screen Actors Guild, was the master of ceremonies at the banquet, assisted by Art Brown. Film stars, accompanied by studio representatives, members of the Washington Variety Club, drama and film critics and Washington newspaper correspondents made appearances at the various functions.

First County Return

The first complete county returns received at March of Dimes headquarters in New York, came from Matt Saunders, county chairman of Fairfield County, Conn. Only one theatre in the county failed to collect. The grand total reported from the county was $11,018, with Loew's Poli theatre in Bridgeport, leading with $2,594.

Vastly increased theatre collections in the city of Albany, N. Y., netted the March of Dimes infantile paralysis drive a sum of $4,882, more than $1,000 in excess of last year. Louis R. Golding, Fabian Theatres district manager and chief barker of Albany Variety Tent, turned over the check to Walter T. Brown, state chairman of the infantile paralysis funds campaign.

Seven of the 14 film houses in Greater Little Rock, Ark., have raised $951.45 during the past seven days in the March of Dimes campaign. Other theatres will report their progress next week.

During the first four days of collections on

War and Blackouts and Shipping Difficulties Hit Films in Alaska

by NAT TANCHUK
in Los Angeles

"Alaska as America's outpost on the North American continent is the most likely primary U. S. battlefield in the present conflict." This is the observation, brought back from Alaska by Ben F. Shearer, operator of a group of theatres in the Pacific Northwest, of two Alaskan houses, and the B. F. Shearer Equipment Company, on his arrival last week in Los Angeles to buy films and confer with the Los Angeles office of B. F. Shearer Equipment Company.

He declared Alaska would be one of the blackest spots in the business map for motion picture exhibition or any other industry.

Alaska, he added, is even more remote than Hawaii. There is no method of transportation other than steamship. By this method it takes approximately five weeks to ship film to Alaska. Films now shown there are from seven months to one year behind release date.

Business has fallen off 25 percent at Mr. Shearer's theatres, the Revilla in Ketchikan and the Capitol in Juneau. Admission at both houses is 50 cents.

Contrary to popular conception, soldiers in Alaska have not aided business. Their camps are situated far from the cities and there are no transportation facilities for them. The army, furthermore, supplies its own movies.

Because of Alaska's position, the wives and children of all soldiers and a majority of civilians are being moved from Alaska. Cities, themselves, are being bastioned to fend off possible attacks. Blackouts are a daily occurrence, starting at four in the afternoon. Since this is Alaska's winter season, there is a minimum of daylight.

Transportation costs are soaring, and recently Governor Gruening scathingly attacked the U. S. Maritime Commission's raising of steamship freight rates 45 per cent. This, naturally, affects the cost of bringing in film. Governor Gruening pointed out that the cost of living, even before this raise, ranged from a low of 35.52 per cent higher in Ketchikan than in New York, to a maximum of 116.16 per cent higher in Fairbanks than in New York.

the infantile paralysis drive in California, a total exceeding all previous years had been collected. Based on these days, it is expected that $150,000 would be collected. Last year about $87,000 was collected in southern California.

In San Antonio, Tex., the President's Birthday Ball was celebrated at the Municipal Auditorium on January 31st, with E. E. Collins, city manager of Interstate Circuit, in charge of the affair. Local managers from all theatres were present.

Capital Return Estimated

Although proceeds have not yet been totaled, Washington's contribution to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is expected to exceed $100,000, thanks mainly to the galaxy of film stars who came to Washington to assist in the celebration.

In addition, more than $25,000 was realized in the local March of Dimes campaign, according to a preliminary estimate by Carter T. Barron, chairman for the District of Columbia and Loew's territorial manager. Largest fund raisers were the Warner houses, with $10,800; Loew's, $8,700; Trans Lux Theater, $2,000; RKO-Keith's, $1,400; Lichtman Theaters, $1,400, and Gayety Theater, $336.

Mr. Barron reported that the 10 theaters in his eastern division, located in Pennsylvania, Virginia, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia, raised $21,000 for the March of Dimes.

Red Cross Fund Doubled

The theatre division of the Greater New York Red Cross War Fund appeal has more than doubled its quota of $10,000 to date, Brock Pemberton, division chairman, reports.

The Sonja Henie benefit performance at Madison Square Garden January 28th added $17,700 to the proceeds of the appeal, going toward the Greater New York total goal of $7,330,000. Other returns for the theatre division include $3,174.80 collected by the American Theatre Wing, $700 from the firm and staff of Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse and $250 from Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Warburg.

The $50,000 quota of the radio broadcasting division has been 20 per cent realized to date, under the chairmanship of Edward Klauber, Executive Vice President of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The motion picture division of the entertainment group is working toward its quota of $100,000, under the chairmanship of Herman G. Place, Chairman of the Executive Committee of Twentieth Century Fox Film Corp.

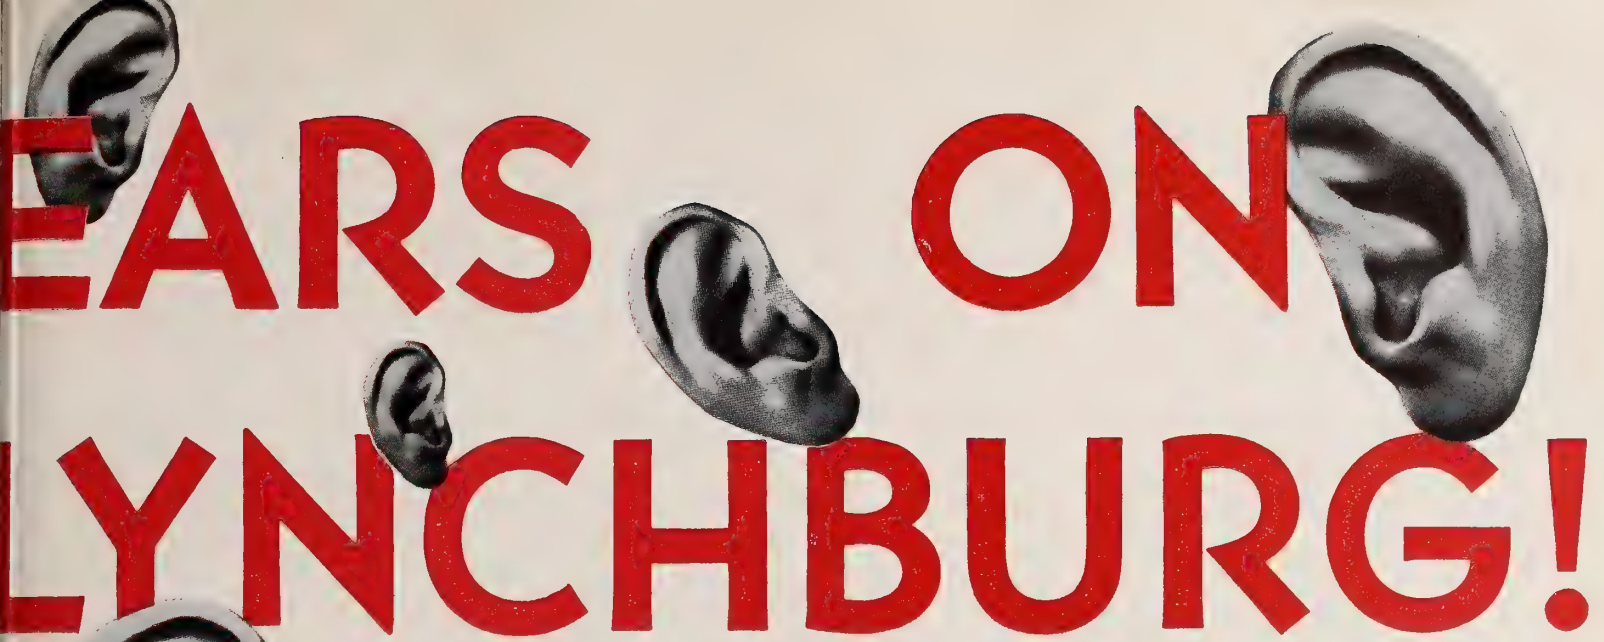

Sherrill Cohen has been named chairman of the Red Cross Training Committee for theatres in Los Angeles, Bowen McCoy, Los Angeles head of the Red Cross announced this week. This committee will train all theatre staffs in defense and Red Cross work.

Dodge Reports on Theatre Building

Theatre building contracts for the month of December, 1941, are evaluated at $938,000, according to figures released in New York last week by Dodge Reports, statistical research service. Dodge declared the figure represents a sharp drop from totals of preceding months in 1941, due to curtailment of contract awards for theatre construction principally in 37 states ease of the Rockies when war broke out between the U. S. and Axis.

Dodge service also cites the $938,000 figure as an "impressive sum" considering that outbreak of the war affected construction operations the greater part of December and also because theatre contracts for that month in any year usually are below average. According to the service, the sum represents less than nine per cent under that of December, 1940.

EARS ON LYNCHBURG!

LISTEN!

Biggest Premiere since Atlanta's "Gone With The Wind"! Lynchburg (5th day as we go to press!) equals "GWTW" and trebles best previous gross of other pictures!

A GREAT PICTURE DID IT!

"THE

VANISHING VIRGINIAN"

The picture with a heart and soul! Put yours into your campaign. GET FROM M-G-M BRANCH COMPLETE MANUAL OF LYNCHBURG'S MASTERFUL SHOWMANSHIP!

"THE VANISHING VIRGINIAN" with FRANK MORGAN • KATHRYN GRAYSON • Spring Byington
Natalie Thompson • Douglass Newland • Mark Daniels • A FRANK BORZAGE PRODUCTION • Screen
Play by Jan Fortune • Based on the Book by Rebecca Yancey Williams • Directed by Frank Borzage Produced by Edwin Knopf • A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

By WILLIAM R. WEAVER
Hollywood Editor

ESTEEMED EDITOR:

Your communicant helped himself to a busman's holiday one night last week and attended a screening of short subjects for the Academy Awards Committee.

Over-exposed as he is to the A, B and Z feature-picture output of the studios, he had in mind a bit of catching-up on the year's short product which, as you know, comes rarely to commercial exhibition in this home town of the dual bill.

He got that and a deal more.

He returned from the outing convinced that there's something wrong with a show business in which no exhibitor avails himself of the opportunity to package for his customers a program so richly stocked with entertainment as had been put together for the Academy judges.

Nine subjects were shown.

They had been selected by their sponsors as possible bests in two classifications and, specifically, without regard for the niceties of programing as practiced by the exhibitor in behalf of audience satisfaction.

House lights were turned on between subjects, so that the judges could see to mark their ballots, and there was of course no exercise of showmanship or preferential treatment in the manner of timing of presentation.

The screening was held in a standard type theatre and lasted a little more than two hours.

Within that space of time the program took its witnesses into nine different fields of interest, and out again each time into the here and now, produced and dissolved nine different moods, delivered nine different emotional impacts, ranging from the shock of ruthless murder to the upsurge of Yuletide spirit, and sent them away feeling as if their emotions had been run through a wringer.

No feature picture or pair of them produced by the studios within ready recall has matched this arbitrarily assorted collection of shorts in point of stimulation, fascination, intensity of interest—all the things which people go to the theatre to get.

No exhibitor worthy of the name could fail to select from the whole available supply of short subjects, exercising the prerogatives of programing not utilized in this case, an evening's entertainment superior in auditorium value to anything he's normally able to get together under the prevailing scheme of things.

To be sure, he'd have to sell his show without benefit of self-selling marquee names, but in selling one such he'd be going far toward selling, by force of remembered experience, the next and those which would follow.

And he'd have to shop around a bit, too, by way of building up a collection of shorts balanced and routinized to fit his own requirements, but something's being done toward lightening that chore.

The Messrs. Pete Smith, Gordon Hol-

FOX IN LEAD

Twentieth Century-Fox was leading the production parade at weekend with seven pictures on its stages. Completion of eleven and starting of nine reduced the over-all total of the community from 43 to 41.

Thus:

COMPLETED

MGM
Tarzan Against the World
PARAMOUNT
Wildcat
My Favorite Blond
RKO RADIO

STARTED

COLUMBIA
Ellery Queen and the Living Corpse
Hello, Annapolis
MONOGRAM
Klondike Victory
PRC
Dawn-Express
PARAMOUNT

SHOOTING

COLUMBIA
Highly Irregular
Gentlemen Misbehave
MGM
Sunday Punch
Mokey Delano
Tortilla Flat
Ship Ahoy
Mrs. Miniver
Her Cardboard Lover
MONOGRAM
Black Dragons
PARAMOUNT
Palm Beach Story
Black Curtain
RKO RADIO
Journey Into Fear
My Favorite Spy
Tuttles of Tahiti
Scattergood at the Races
REPUBLIC
Affairs of Jimmy Valentine

Magnificent Ambersons
REPUBLIC
Stagecoach Express
Yokel Boy
Dusk on the Painted Desert

My Heart Belongs to Daddy
RKO RADIO
Mexican Spitfire No. 3
REPUBLIC
Riders of the Range
Girl from Alaska
UNIVERSAL
Eagle Squadron

20TH-FOX
Tales of Manhattan
Moontide
My Gal Sal
This Above All
Ten Gentlemen from West Point
Whispering Ghosts
Million Dollar Ghost
UNIVERSAL
Spoilers
Sheltered Lady
Saboteur
What's Cookin?
Butch Minds the Baby
WARNERS
Gay Sisters
Shadow of Their Wings
Escape from Crime
Yankee Doodle Dandy

lingshead and Jule White have undertaken, as a committee, to establish a system of monthly tradeshowings of short product.

That will take a bit of doing, and doubtless the business of getting exhibitors to attend the first such tradeshowing will take some more, but the merit of the project is inherent in the character of the product, and entertainment worth while has a record of making a place for itself in the world.

▽

Although Southern California has had no daylight-saving since that other war, approach of the new time regulation has spread no panic among exhibitors.

This is at variance with a history in which showmen have campaigned with vigor, many times and oft, to defeat bills in the State Legislature which would have implemented the type of sunshine-reclamation projects adopted elsewhere.

It has been reasoned that the area's otherwise exploitable and profitable climate would be more effective than most in keeping people out of the theatres, and that the incidentally resultant crop of tennis champions was not an adequate offset.

Up to now no expedients for circumventing the effects of the regulation have been improvised.

Equanimity born of the emergency is one explanation.

Booming business is another.

Third and key reason is that people who can do so have been going to the theatres early, not that they're frightened, but because they think it's just as well to get home before the Japs come over if they're coming, and the extra hour of daylight is therefore quite likely to prove something of a bonanza.—W. R. W.

▽

Jack Benny's next picture for Twentieth Century-Fox will be "The Meanest Man in the World." It will be based on the play produced by George M. Cohan in 1920. William Perlberg will produce and Morrie Ryskind is preparing the adaptation.

▽

Producer Sam Bischoff signed a new term contract with Columbia Pictures in Hollywood. Terms of the deal were not disclosed in the announcement made by the home office. Mr. Bischoff's most recent production for the company was "Two Yanks in Trinidad." Other films produced by him for Columbia include "Texas," "Three Girls About Town" and the Fred Astaire-Rita Hayworth picture, "You'll Never Get Rich."

▽

Republic has set a production budget of $800,000 for "The Commandos," formerly titled "Commando," according to a report from the studio in Hollywood. John Wayne and Ray Middleton will be co-starred and the picture will go into production shortly. Edmund Grainger is associate producer.

▽

Edward G. Robinson, featured player in Rinso's air show, "Big Town," received during his broadcast Thursday night, January 28th, a scroll emblematic of his being named "Most Effective Film Player on the Air," in Motion Picture Daily's annual radio pole conducted on behalf of Fame.

▽

T. J. Connors, executive assistant to S. R. Kent of Twentieth Century-Fox, and Herman Wobber, general distribution manager, have left the Fox studio for a tour of the company's exchanges throughout the country. Mr. Kent will remain in Hollywood for about two weeks.

▽

Howard Benedict, who resigned as an associate producer at RKO last week, has joined the Universal production staff in Hollywood.

—and when he woke up
he was

Married

The Gayest Merry-Go-Round Of Love And Laughter That Ever Made Audiences Roar!

Introducing the screen's most blessed event!

Marlene
Dietrich Fred
Mac Murray
in Mitchell Leisen's

THE
LADY IS WILLING

with ALINE MacMAHON • STANLEY RIDGES • ARLINE JUDGE • ROGER CLARK

DIRECTED BY MITCHELL LEISEN • A COLUMBIA PICTURE

Screen play by James Edward Grant and Albert McCleery • A CHARLES K. FELDMAN GROUP PRODUCTION

VOTING ON FOR THE OSCARS, WILLKIE TO HAND 'EM OUT

Banquet Plan Restored; Informal Affair To Be $10 Instead of $25

The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences will hold its annual awards banquet after all, having obtained a release from the U. S. Army orders prohibiting "mass public concentration" in the Pacific war zone. The banquet will be held on February 26th at the Biltmore Bowl in Hollywood. Wendell L. Willkie has been asked to be the No. 1 guest of honor, principal speaker, and official "Oscar" bestower.

Walter Wanger, president of the Academy, announcing over the weekend that the Army had withdrawn its objections to the meeting, said the affair was being planned with an eye to war economy. Tickets will be $10 each, instead of the customary $25. "There will be no white ties or black ties; men will wear business clothes. There will be no formal evening gowns and no dancing," Mr. Wanger decreed.

The banquet is the 14th annual affair given by the Academy to announce winners of the coveted Oscars for motion picture production, direction, acting and writing of the year. Voting on nominations for the awards was to be completed on Wednesday and the names of nominees are expected to be made public on February 9th.

There are 200 pictures in competition for the accolade of "best picture of the year." There are a total of 444 leading roles from which will be chosen the best actor and actress performances. Of this figure, 185 are women and 258, men. There are 1,092 supporting players listed, with men again far outnumbering the women.

The 200 films of more than 400 features selected as being eligible for the award of "best picture of the year," to be voted on by members of the screen Actors, Directors and Writers Guilds, and all members of the Academy, are as follows (listed alphabetically):

COLUMBIA

Adam Had Four Sons, Adventure in Washington, Here Comes Mr. Jordan, Ladies in Retirement, Our Wife, Penny Serenade, She Knew All the Answers, Texas, The Men in Her Life, The Runaways of St. Agil, They Dare Not Love, This Thing Called Love, You Belong to Me and You'll Never Get Rich.

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER

Andy Hardy's Private Secretary, The Bad Man, Barnacle Bill, The Big Store, Billy the Kid, Blonde Inspiration, Blossoms in the Dust, The Chocolate Soldier, Come Live With Me, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, Dr. Kildare's Crisis, Dr. Kildare's Wedding Day, Down in San Diego, The Feminine Touch, Flight Command, Free and Easy, Gallant Sons, The Get-Away, H. M. Pulham, Esq., Honky Tonk, I'll Wait for You, Keeping Company, Lady Be Good, Life Begins for Andy Hardy, Love Crazy, Maisie Was a Lady, Married Bachelor, Men of Boys Town, The Penalty, The People vs. Dr. Kildare, Rage in Heaven, Ringside Maisie, Shadow of the Thin Man, Smilin' Through, The Stars Look Down, They Met in Bombay, The Trial of Mary Dugan, Two-

OSCARS FOR 1941 ACHIEVEMENTS

At the Academy banquet in Hollywood, February 26th, Oscars will be awarded for achievements in 1941 in the following classifications:

Most outstanding picture of the year; best performance by an actor; best by an actor in support; best performance by an actress; best by an actress in support; best in directing; best written screenplay; best original; best art direction of a black-and-white production; best of a color production; best photography in black-and-white; best for color; best achievement by a studio sound department.

An award will be given jointly for the outstanding shorts selected in three classifications: cartoons, 1,000-subjects, and shorts between 1,000 and 3,000 feet.

Other awards: film editing; outstanding work in music in motion pictures: (a) best scoring of a musical picture; (b) best scoring of a dramatic film, and (c) best original song; best achievement in special effects.

Faced Woman, Unholy Partners, Washington Melodrama, When Ladies Meet, Whistling in the Dark, The Wild Man of Borneo, A Woman's Face and Ziegfeld Girl.

MONOGRAM

Bowery Blitzkrieg, King of the Zombies, Murder by Invitation, Roar of the Press, and Top Sergeant Mulligan.

PARAMOUNT

Aloma of the South Seas, Among the Living, Birth of the Blues, Caught in the Draft, Hard Boiled Canary (There's Magic in Music), Hold Back the Dawn, I Wanted Wings, Kiss the Boys Goodbye, The Lady Eve, Louisiana Purchase, The Night of January 16th, Nothing But the Truth, One Night in Lisbon, The Parson of Panamint, Reaching for the Sun, Road to Zanzibar, The Shepard of the Hills, Skylark, Texas Rangers Ride Again, Victory and Virginia.

PRODUCERS RELEASING CORP.

Billy the Kid's Round-Up, Desperate Cargo, The Lone Rider Ambushed, Mr. Celebrity, Paper Bullets and South of Panama.

RKO RADIO

All That Money Can Buy, Ball of Fire, Citizen Kane, Dumbo, Fantasia, The Little Foxes, The Devil and Miss Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, My Life with Caroline, The Reluctant Dragon, Sunny and Tom, Dick and Harry.

TWENTIETH CENTURY-FOX

Belle Star, Blood and Sand, Blue, White and Perfect, Cadet Girl, Charley's Aunt, The Great American Broadcast, Great Guns, Hot Spot, How Green Was My Valley, Man Hunt, Michael Shayne, Private Detective, Moon Over Her Shoulder, Moon Over Miami, Remember the Day, Rise and Shine, Sun Valley Serenade, Swamp Water, Tall, Dark and Handsome, That Night in Rio, Tobacco Road, A Very Young Lady, Week-end in Havana, Western Union, Wild Geese Calling and A Yank in the R.A.F.

UNITED ARTISTS

Blackout, Cheers for Miss Bishop, Hay Foot, Lydia, Major Barbara, Pot o' Gold, So Ends Our Night, Son of Monte Cristo, Sundown, Tanks a Million, That Hamilton Woman and That Uncertain Feeling.

UNIVERSAL

Appointment for Love, Back Street, Badlands of Dakota, The Black Cat, Buck Privates, The Flame of New Orleans, Hold That Ghost, The Invisible Woman, Keep 'Em Flying, The Lady from Cheyenne, The Man Who Lost Himself, Model Wife, Nice Girl, San Antonio Rose, Sing Another Chorus, This Woman is Mine, Tight Shoes and Unfinished Business.

WARNER BROTHERS

The Bride Came C.O.D., Dive Bomber, Footsteps in the Dark, The Great Lie, High Sierra, International Squadron, the Maltese Falcon, Manpower, Meet John Doe, Million Dollar Baby, Navy Blues, One Foot in Heaven, Out of the Fog, The Sea Wolf, Sergeant York, The Strawberry Blonde, They Died With Their Boots On, Underground and The Wagons Roll at Night.

FOREIGN

The Devil is an Empress, French; 40,000 Horsemen, S. S. Krellberg, Australian; La Charette Fantome, French; Of Human Passions, French; Pepe Le Moko, French; Personal Column, French; Proud Valley, Associated British, University; Quiet Wedding, British; They Met on Skis, French and Volga-Volga, Artkino, Russian.

The Academy announced the following productions were nominated for the black-and-white art direction award: Citizen Kane, Flame of New Orleans, Hold Back the Dawn, How Green Was My Valley, Ladies in Retirement, The Little Foxes, Sergeant York, Sis Hopkins, Son of Monte Cristo, Sundown and When Ladies Meet. The following for the color direction award: Blood and Sand, Blossoms in the Dust and Louisiana Purchase.

SHORT SUBJECTS

Twenty-two cartoons and shorts were entered in three divisions for short subject Academy awards, last week in Hollywood. They are Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy of Company B, Universal; Hiawatha's Rabbit Hunt, Warners; How War Came, Columbia; The Night Before Christmas, M-G-M; Rhapsody in Rivets, Warners; The Rookie Bear, M-G-M; Rhythm in the Ranks, Paramount, Superman No. 1, Paramount; two Walt Disney films as yet unnamed.

One reel entries: Army Champions, M-G-M; Beauty and the Beach, Paramount; Forty Boys and a Son, Warners; Kings of the Turf, Warners; Of Pups and Puzzles, M-G-M; Sagebrush and Silver, 20th-Fox; Down on the Farm, Paramount.

In addition, British and American Government-produced shorts were entered in the race for the best documentary film, a new classification presented by the Academy this year.

P. L. Waters, who sold First Films, Dies

Started Exchange in 1897 with Norman C. Raff; Later Headed Triangle

Percival Lee Waters, known to the motion picture industry more familiarly as Percy Waters, died at Columbia Presbyterian Medical Center in New York last Saturday. He had been in failing health for several years. He was 74 years old.

Mr. Waters was among the few and real founders of the motion picture industry. His first connection was in the service of the firm of Raff & Gammon, which in 1894 introduced the motion picture to the world and Broadway in the peep show Edison Kinetoscope, and subsequently in 1896 to the screen with the Armat Vitascope, first competent projector.

Probably the first of all film exchanges was established by Mr. Waters, in association with Edson Raff, step-son of the late Norman C. Raff, of Raff and Gammon, in 1897-8.

Mr. Waters left the motion picture and New York after that and returned in 1901. He discovered the preparations for the memorable Tammany campaign of that year. He was a Republican and he had a notion that the films could be used to draw street crowds. He waited at Republican headquarters for three days and did not get a hearing. He went into a Fourteenth street carvansarie to wet down his impatience and met a Tammany man who observed: "Percy, you're playing with the wrong outfit. Come with me and see the Chief."

So it happened that Mr. Waters and Richard Croker went into conference.

Received Tammany Contract

When Mr. Waters emerged he had an unprecedented contract for a hundred projection machines, operators and films, to cover the Tammany speaker's stands.

The Edison plant went into a twenty-four-hour schedule to make the machines and Percy Waters set up a training school for operators, taking any sort of manpower he could collect. He got into a special sort of tangle by drafting the elevator men employed in the Edison offices in Fifth Avenue.

Mr. Waters got 80 machines into service for Tammany. One of them was located in the second floor over Charlie Murphy's saloon in East 21st Street. The operator dropped a cigar into the film bag—there were no take-up reels then—and burned the front off Mr. Murphy's saloon.

Tammany lost that election. Mr. Waters had as a profit the biggest single stock of projection machines in the world on his hands. He cut the price from $125 to $85 and scattered them over the world, considerably accelerating the dissemination of the motion picture.

In that campaign, by the way, New York saw the rise of William Travers Jerome, anti-Tammany, then a justice of the court of special sessions, destined to the Thaw case in years to come and ultimately to the presidency of the Technicolor film project, then long in the future.

Mr. Waters' renewed motion picture activities brought him presently into intimate relation with Jeremiah J. Kennedy, the iron-handed boss of Biograph and the Motion Picture Patents Company and its subsidiary and marketing arm, the General Film Company. When Mr. Kennedy fell out with the Patents Company and its curious interne-cine quarrels and stupidities, he decided to see what might be done about taking over the film business and formed the Kinetograph Company, in which Mr. Waters was his chief lieutenant. That came to nothing, but Mr. Waters acquired status as an executive.

PERCIVAL LEE WATERS

Then the Triangle Film Corporation, a promotion of 1915, came to grief and reorganization, at the end of Harry E. Aitken's Griffith-Ince-Sennett project, Mr. Waters was chosen to take over. He liquidated.

Present at Hays Dinner

For the while, though, it was not known as a liquidation, and one discovers that when Charles C. Pettijohn was in 1919 engaged in his arrangements to introduce his confrere from Indiana, Will H. Hays, to the cinema, Mr. Waters was one of the "who's who" guests invited to that luncheon at the Claridge May 5, to meet him. Just to be remembering, the other guests were William Fox, Saul Rogers, Robert H. Cochrane, Gabriel Hess, Samuel Goldfish and Harry Berman. December 2, 1921, two years later, the luncheon bore fruit with a roundrobin inviting Mr. Hays, then postmaster general in the Harding cabinet, to head a trade association signed by the leaders of the industry and yet among them, Percy L. Waters.

Triangle faded fast away and Mr. Waters was not to be heard of again in the major circles of the screen. His last and declining years were spent in an emeritus connection with the Wilmer & Vincent circuit.

Mr. Waters is survived by a sister, Mrs. E. A. Park, resident at the Hotel Wolcott, New York, where he lived in his later years. He was born in Hagerstown, Md.

Maurice M. Davis Dies in Montreal

Maurice M. Davis, 48, a motion picture figure in Montreal for many years, died Sunday, February 1st, at the Jewish General Hospital in that city. He was supervisor of the Amherst and Belmont theatres for United Amusements.

A native of London, Mr. Davis went to Montreal about 25 years ago. Starting with Malone Enterprises, he later formed Davis Amusements. He was associated with Equity Pictures and Regal Films. Surviving are his wife, two sons, and his mother.

William Daly, Film Exhibitor, Dies

Funeral services for William J. Daly, 75, an exhibitor for many years, who died Sunday, February 1st, were held Wednesday at the Sacred Heart Church in Bayside, Long Island.

Mr. Daly had been associated with the William Morris theatrical agency in New York for a number of years. He became an exhibitor in the nickelodeon era. During the last ten years he had been with the Skouras circuit. Surviving are a widow, two sisters and two daughters.

Taylor, "Voice of Experience," Dies

Marion Sayle Taylor, radio's "Voice of Experience," who gave listeners and studio audiences advice on domestic and marital problems, died of a heart attack in Hollywood Sunday, February 1st. He was 52 years old.

The background of the "Voice of Experience" included lectures on the Chautauqua circuit and a varied career as an organist, school superintendent, lecturer on sex problems, health department employee and a student of juvenile delinquency. In 1928, Mr. Taylor originated the radio program which brought him his fame.

His third wife, Mrs. Mildred Taylor, survives.

David C. Teague

David C. Teague, 29 years old, a member of the Columbia Broadcasting System's publicity department in New York, was found dead in his home, Monday, February 2nd. A former newspaper man, associated with the Chicago Times, Mr. Teague had been with CBS six months. Surviving is his wife.

William E. Garrett

William E. Garrett, aged 64, who was engaged in the theatre and amusement business at Greensboro, N. C., for a number of years, died Thursday, January 29th, at a local hospital after a brief illness. He is survived by his widow and two children.

Paul T. Stockdale

Paul T. Stockdale, 45, production manager of Ross Roy, Inc., in Detroit, producers of sound slides, died in that city Wednesday, January 28th. He is survived by his widow.

Thomas W. Stevens

Thomas W. Stevens, 62, dramatist and head of the dramatic arts department of the University of Arizona, died Friday, January 30th, at his home in Tucson, Ariz.

William H. Cline

William H. Cline, 73, formerly an executive of the Orpheum Theatre, Los Angeles, died on January 23d at his home. Funeral services were held on January 26th. He is survived by three brothers.

Stephen L. Burwell

Stephen L. Burwell, 63-year-old chief of amusement tax division of the Mississippi state tax commission, died at a Jackson hospital following a week's illness, January 27th.

BRITISH RADIO A 24-HOUR PROPAGANDA MACHINE

43 Tongues Used Through 54 Listening Hours a Day on World Broadcasts

by AUBREY FLANAGAN
in London

Whatever be the criticisms levelled against the Government for its alleged indifference and indecisions in regard to the motion picture industry during time of war, there would seem to be no two views about the wholehearted way in which, over the past twenty-eight months, it has made use of its broadcasting machine, developed it from a source of innocuous entertainment and mild enlightenment to a propaganda force, which is surely without parallel in the history of radio.

When war broke out in 1939 only one national program was provided, with some seven regional variations. The B. B. C.'s service lasted 14 hours a day and reached a potential audience of 17,000,000.

Today, through its Home and Overseas network, it presents 79 program transmissions in 43 languages every day, reaches daily, over a listening total of 54.50 hours, an audience throughout the whole civilized world, and elsewhere, of incalculable millions.

Total Propaganda

Inevitably the work of the British Broadcasting Corporation, an organization for many years directed under Government charter, is, despite the provisions of entertainment and broad education, primarily, constantly and intensely propagandist.

That its propaganda is sometimes in the form of entertainment, of news reporting, or in the purely human field of radio links between soldiers and civilians in Britain and abroad, between evacuees and relatives, refugees and Nazi-governed victims, does not, even in the B. B. C.'s own admission, alter the fundamental and insistent propaganda fact. British broadcasting has consistently been inspired by the one thing which matters in Britain today—Victory.

Constructive organization and careful development of foundations laid before the war have now extended the work of British radio into every continent of the world, made the voice of Britain and her Allies audible in North and South America, in the Colonies and the Dominions, in Asia and Antarctica, and provided a constant link between occupied France, Norway and Greece, for instance, and their Government representatives in London—and without so much as a whisper of advertisement of somebody's toothpaste, or anybody else's jelly crystals.

A development of the use of radio in warfare today has been the reporting and recording of news from the battlefield itself. B. B. C. microphones and reporters have been, and are, constantly in the front line of battle.

On the home front, activities of the B. B.

U. S. AND BRITISH NETWORKS LINKED

There is constant cooperation and exchange of matter between the British Broadcasting Company and the American networks. Representatives of Columbia, Mutual and National Broadcasting use the BBC facilities and reciprocal facilities are given from the U. S. organizations to the British body. Every night seven and a half hours are devoted by BBC to the North American Service, a short wave transmission designed for the U.S. and Canada, including news bulletins, on the spot recordings, interviews with men and women in the forces and the factories, sound snapshots of the war and performances by leading British bands and vaudeville stars.

C. are less obviously propagandist than on the foreign and overseas fronts. Today but two programs are given, a Home Service and a Forces Program. The former is a little less light than the latter which they originally provided for the entertainment of men and women in the Services and which probably reaches a higher listening total with the civilian listeners as well as those in uniform.

When propaganda is aimed at by the B. B. C. and its Ministry of Information guardians, it is mainly achieved through talks and cunningly devised features. It is the Corporation's insistence that its news bulletins are entirely unbiased reporting.

Entertainment, however, still makes up the bulk of the B. B. C.'s British programs. The range extends from symphony concerts by the B. B. C. Symphony Orchestra and other combinations, through radio plays, vaudeville shows, to "swing" broadcasts.

Studios Decentralized

Instead of, as previously, being centered in Broadcasting House, London, the entertainment sections of the B. B. C. are now spread over various distant points throughout the country, mainly, though not always, in those places which were originally regional centers of the organization. It is no secret that the B. B. C.'s own building in Portland Place, London, was bombed on more than one occasion during last year's blitz; it is no secret that it is one of Goering's principal targets.

Entertainment is provided not only to the Forces, but directly for workers in the factories. Special broadcasts are made of light music at various times during the day under the heading of "Music While You Work," and B. B. C. units and front rank artists go to the factories for a regular feature, "Workers' Playtime," is broadcast over the network.

A check-up is made on the taste of the listening public by the "Listener Research Department," which every day sorts out the views of 800 people who are interviewed by a staff of part-time field workers.

It is on the more direct wartime front, however, that the expansion of the B. B. C.'s activities has been so considerable. One of the most active of its sections is the "Monitoring Service" which keeps a watchful eye on all broadcasts in all languages throughout the world and uses them as a basis for its broadcasts back in foreign languages. Its staff alone numbers over 500 and at present is dealing with 300 broadcasts a day in 30 different languages. Its personnel includes refugees from Nazi Germany and at least one blind listener who works in Braille.

With this foundation the B. B. C.'s foreign service "talks back" in no less than 39 different languages, transmits 300,000 words of news over a daily total of 36 broadcasting hours. The extent of this section can be gauged from the fact that 75 editors and sub-editors deal with the stream of news constantly flowing in. The news bulletin alone occupies 90 per cent of the broadcasting time of the service.

11 Programs to Nazis

Over Nazi Germany alone 11 different B. B. C. transmissions, totaling 245 minutes of broadcasting, go out every day. The programs include dramatic features, monologues, dialogues, music, and are aimed at specific sections of the German public—Service men, business people, domestics, intellectuals. Refugees from Germany and British newspaper men contribute to the programs. To Italy eight broadcasts go out every day, again with news intermingling with features and dramatist programs.

Probably most considerable of all these activities is that devoted to France. More time is given to French programs than any other foreign programs emanating from Broadcasting House. A group of Free Frenchmen in this country, working under General de Gaulle and the Croix de Lorraine, have built up and are maintaining what is virtually a Free French broadcasting organization in London. Every day between 6:15 A. M. and midnight eight French news bulletins go over the air and every two hours program material not strictly news.

They reach France and Syria, and, by the short wave network, the Near East, Africa, Canada, and Central and western Europe. Letters received from France are read out over the radio and messages are sent back to families in France from soldiers, sailors and airmen here.

Reaching its hands farther afield, over the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, British Broadcasting, still in the sacred cause of National Defense, clasps hands with the United States, with Canada and Australia, India, South Africa, and the Dominions and Commonwealths of Empire.

The Trade Press RAVES!

WILL WIN MANY TOP DATES

Again Republic comes to the forefront with a pretentiously made production. And one that will win many top play dates throughout the land. The show holds excellent interest and suspense. Joan Blondell gives a highly effective portrayal.

HOLLYWOOD MOTION PICTURE REVIEW

BIG-TIME IN EVERY RESPECT
The production by Albert J. Cohen is big-time in every respect and certainly stacks up with major attractions of like calibre as a solid piece of entertainment.
HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

MAJOR-CALIBRE PRESTIGE
Republic's newest major bid for prestige, "Lady For A Night," bears many the caps of the cast ducers.
THE IN

SMART BLEND OF MUSIC, DRAMA, COMEDY, GOOD PERFORMANCES

The story is a smart blend of music, drama, comedy and good performances enhanced by a production background that gives every indication of a liberal hand on the purse strings.

BOXOFFICE

INVITED AUDIENCE CATED ENTHUSIASTIC APPROVAL

There is much warmth, and appealing of the story. at the Studio City an invited audience the theatre and in siastic approval MOTION PICTURE

A TOP PRODUCTION

It is a matter of common knowledge that Republic turns out consistently good entertainment for the great masses of American movie-goers. But in offering you "Lady For A Night," officials of the company believe — and rightfully so — that they have a top production, one that is above their usual output, and one that will please and delight audiences.

SHOWMEN'S TRADE REVIEW

CAPABLE OF ING MOVIE

Republic has solidly entertained masses in the gambling queue wherever John Middleton are

PRODUCTION LAYOUT, HIGH BUDGET

This is one of the Republic specials for the current budget obvious in various production factors. Miss assignment in fine fashion, with Wayne close political boss. Ray Middleton does well as the union tion layout and high budget are apparent.

Joan BLONDELL • John
"LADY FOR A NIGHT"

RAY MIDDLETON

PHILIP MERIVALE • BLANCHE YURKA • EDITH BARRETT • LEONID KINSKEY
LEIGH JASON — Director • Original screen play by Isabel Dawn and Boyce DeGaw

ENTERTAIN-MASSSES capable of movie - going a Memphis

ould do well
oin and consideration.
FILM DAILY

NT with upped
dles the top mbling and
nd. Produc-

Y VARIETY

WAYNE GHT"

ALL JOHNSON CHOIR
a story by Garrett Fort

A
REPUBLIC
PICTURE

BUY U.S. DEFENSE BONDS

Progress Made in Expanding Variety Clubs

The decision of the management of the National Variety Clubs to establish a tent in every key film center in the country, a formal move launched last weekend, brought substantial results by mid-week.

After several unsuccessful attempts in the past by others to establish a Variety Club tent in Chicago, Henri Elman, Monogram head in the midwest city, has been successful in obtaining support from most of the prominent exhibiting and distributing executives there and has applied for a charter. Quarters will be established and an election of officers held on Mr. Elman's return from Hollywood in two weeks.

Chicago Charter Members

Among those listed as charter members of the Chicago tent, besides Mr. Elman, are John Balaban, president Balaban & Katz; Walter Immermann, general manager Balaban & Katz; Jules Rubens, president Great States Circuit; James R. Coston, Midwest Warner theatre head; Alex Halperin, film buyer Warner's theatres; J. J. Donahue, Paramount branch manager; Allen Usher, Paramount district manager; J. E. Flynn, MGM Central Division manager; Sam Shirley, MGM district manager; W. E. "Doc" Banford, MGM branch manager.

Also Barney Rose, Universal manager; Charles Stern, district manager United Artists; Phil Dunas, district manager Columbia; Nate Platt, Balaban & Katz booking manager; Henry Sticklemeyer, assistant to Jules Rubens; Dave Wallerstein, Balaban & Katz district manager; Joe Kaufman, Chief booker Balaban & Katz; Eddie Grossman, theatre owner; Hal Halperin, Variety magazine; Sydney Stern, Essaness Theatre circuit; Harris Silverberg, manager National Screen Service; Clyde Eckhardt, Twentieth Century-Fox branch manager.

Also Sam Gorelick, RKO branch manager; Jack Osserman, district manager RKO; Sydney Rose, Warner branch manager; Jack Rose, Illinois-Indiana theatres; Rud Lohrenz, Warner district manager; Irving Mack and J. Charles Hirsch, motion picture accountant.

In Des Moines, E. J. Tilton is chairman of a committee composed of D. C. Kennedy, Claude Pratt, Marvin Godwin and Wayne Dutton, which is working on plans for revival of the city's Variety Club. The organization ceased functioning in that city about two years ago. A luncheon meeting was held at the Savery Hotel in that city Monday where the discussion of plans and organization took place.

Connecticut Tent Planned

Plans are being made to establish a Connecticut tent of the Variety Club in New Haven and a preliminary meeting was recently called at the office of I. J. Hoffman, Warner theatre department zone head.

A luncheon to which every film man in the state will be invited is planned for the near future.

The Variety Club of Detroit has disappeared under the greater organizational setup of the Variety Club of Michigan. With the exception of Upper Michigan, which falls into the exchange territory of Wisconsin, the new development will include membership from the entire state.

Rodney Collier has been appointed general chairman of the Fourth Annual Dinner Dance to be given at the Lord Baltimore Hotel by the Baltimore Variety Club with Bernard Seamon, chief barker of the tent, as ex-officio.

The Baltimore tent has also donated a fund

Altec Managers Wrestle with Problems of Material Priorities

By Cosmo-Sileo

Conservation of vital war materials in the projection rooms was the keynote of the Altec Managers' Conference, meeting at the Park Central, February 3rd, 4th and 5th. The nationwide call for Altec men to foregather in New York was met by (left to right around table) Bert Sanford, W. W. Simons, D. A. Peterson, A. J. Rademacher, P. F. Thomas, E. O. Wilschke, B. W. Ardell, F. C. Dickely, E. Z. Walters, L. J. Hacking, R. Hilton, L. W. Conrow, president; G. L. Carrington, vice-president and general manager; E. C. Shriver, C. S. Perkins, G. E. Wiltse, H. M. Bessey, secretary-treasurer; R. C. Gray, J. B. Lansing, H. B. Moog, Stanley Hand, S. M. Pariseau, W. Conner, D. L. Turner, A. Fiore; (standing, left to right) M. G. Thomas, A. L. Rubinstein, H. S. Morris, Harold Wengler.

In opening the conference Mr. Conrow said: "The complete preparedness of our organization to help the exhibitor make projection and sound mechanisms and parts operate at their highest efficiency level through their entire service life, makes our engineers an essential factor in the exhibitor's present-day performance of this patriotic duty."

The methods by which technical research, set in motion over a year ago, has produced substitute materials and new electronic and mechanical techniques for prolonging the life of projection and sound equipment and parts, were demonstrated to the conference.

The conference closed Thursday with a dinner.

to Sinai Hospital to establish a room in the memory of Dr. Edward L. Israel, Rabbi of Har Sinai Temple and one of the chaplains of the club. A check was presented to Sidney M. Berman, the hospital's superintendent, and Mrs. Edward L. Israel, widow of the Rabbi by Mr. Seaman and J. Louis Rome, welfare committee.

The Cincinnati Variety Club has designated every Friday night as "Performer's Night," when stars and members of traveling companies playing local houses are guests of the club.

The Pittsburgh Variety is considering establishment of a new insurance plan for members, Joseph Hiller, chief barker of the tent, has announced.

The Variety Club of Southern California in Hollywood will open its Ambassador Hotel headquarters February 12th with a house-warming.

Other Clubs Elect

New officers of the Film Booker's Club of Chicago, elected at a meeting last week at the Congress Hotel are: Irving Perlman, Essaness Theatres, president; George Topper, Producers' Releasing Corporation, vice-president; Al Tep-litz, Sam Meyers' Theatres, treasurer; Charles Davidson, Balaban & Katz secretary, and Max Facter, Universal, sergeant-at-arms.

David Moliver, Edward Leven and James A. Dalton were appointed to fill vacancies on the board of directors of the Philadelphia Showmen's Club. Moe Verbin, new president of the club, appointed the following committee heads: Membership—David Moliver, Allen Lewis; Publicity—James A. Dalton; House—Edward Leven; Entertainment—Benjamin Biben; Welfare Fund—Meyed Adelman; Ways and Means—Al Blofson; Special Activity—Dave Rosen. Plans of the club are progressing under dinner chairman Myer Adelman for the testimonial dinner to be given February 23rd, in honor of Al Blofson, a past president of the club.

O'Connor Named to Universal's Board

John J. O'Connor, vice-president of Universal, has been elected to the board of directors of the company, and Anthony Petti and Adolph Schimmel have been elected assistant secretaries of that company and of Universal Corporation, the parent company, it was revealed Monday in the company's annual report.

Johnstone Named News Head of NBC-Blue

G. W. (Johnny) Johnstone, director of radio for President Roosevelt's 1940 re-election campaign and more recently chairman of the radio division of the Committee for the Celebration of the President's Birthday, has been appointed director of news and special features of the Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company in New York.

Salute to WALT DISNEY for "THE NEW SPIRIT"

The Donald Duck U. S. Treasury Department picture, which every exhibitor in America will be proud to play, and which will help gross billions of dollars for Uncle Sam.

RKO RADIO PICTURES

Distributed under the auspices of the War Activities Committee, Motion Picture Industry, by National Screen Service, Herman Robbins, president.

© Walt Disney Productions

ASCAP Sets Decentralized Field System

The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, in New York, has completed reorganization of its branch office set-up so that all ASCAP branch offices are now directly managed by the home office under John G. Paine, general manager.

The Society now has 20 branch offices in the U. S. divided into four geographical divisions with a supervisor in charge of each division. In eliminating the last of the remaining lawyer-representative offices, ASCAP made a number of promotions and transfers of personnel. Some of the territories were reallocated in the reorganization. The new set-up is as follows:

1. Western District—supervisor Robert J. Powers, who supervises four branch offices as follows: Denver branch, manager Harry O. Bergkamp, covers Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming; Portland, manager Herman Kenin, covers Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana; San Francisco, manager Harry A. Levinson, covers northern California and Nevada; Hollywood, manager R. J. Powers, covers southern California and Arizona.

Mid-west Offices

2. Mid-western District — supervisor R. W. Rome, who supervises six offices as follows: Minneapolis branch, manager Dwain M. Ewing, covers Minnesota and South Dakota; Detroit, manager Grosner & Burak, covers Michigan; St. Louis, manager Frank H. Hamby, covers southern Illinois and Missouri; Chicago, manager R. W. Rome, covers northern Illinois, northern Indiana and Wisconsin; Cleveland, manager Edward A. Sherwood, covers northern Ohio; Des Moines, manager John C. Wooden, covers Iowa.

3. Southern District—supervisor I. T. Cohen, who supervises four offices as follows: Dallas branch, manager Philip O. Alexander, covers Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas; New Orleans, manager Stanley Shepard, covers Louisiana and Mississippi; Cincinnati, manager Samuel Feldman, covers southern Ohio, southern Indiana and Kentucky; Atlanta, manager I. T. Cohen, covers Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

4. Eastern District—supervisor F. C. Erdman, who supervises six offices as follows: Boston branch, manager Samuel Berkett, covers Massachusetts, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and Rhode Island; Philadelphia, manager H. A. Brown, covers eastern Pennsylvania, southern New Jersey and Delaware; New York, manager F. C. Erdman, covers Connecticut, the district surrounding New York City and northern New Jersey; Pittsburgh, manager Wm. J. O'Brien, Jr., covers western Pennsylvania; Baltimore, manager Arthur Rothkranz, covers Maryland and the District of Columbia; Rochester, manager Lawrence B. Schlums, covers northern New York State.

The following changes have been made in territories:

The territory of the Cincinnati office cov-

HERALD PEOPLE

By Staff Photographer

JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM is the news editor of Motion Picture Herald, so there is something happening in his life every few minutes, dealing with a far flung staff of reporters and correspondents. To fill in the chinks between the hours he writes, purloins and compiles his page entitled "Asides and Interludes" which appears weekly, barring accidents and the peaks of the fishing season. Mr. Cunningham has grown up with the industry, starting with the early period of Film Daily, which he served in several capacities, going thence to Motion Picture News and coming to The Herald as news editor when the News was absorbed by Quigley Publications. His special concerns are family, food and fishing. Before submarines became prevalent his idea of a week-end was Montauk Point. For the coming season he contemplates the hills of interior Connecticut.

ered by Samuel Feldman was increased by all of Kentucky and southern Indiana.

Frank H. Hemby, formerly manager of Dallas office, now in charge at St. Louis.

Samuel Berkett, promoted to managership of the New England district with office located at Boston, replacing Mr. Rome who was made supervisor of the midwest.

Edward A. Sherwood, transferred from Baltimore to Cleveland.

Philip O. Alexander, formerly of Atlanta, promoted to managership at Dallas.

Stanley Shepard, formerly manager for the district of Puerto Rico, promoted to the managership at New Orleans.

Territory covered by Philadelphia office, manager H. A. Brown, increased by southern New Jersey, and Delaware.

Arthur L. Rothkranz, assistant to F. C. Erdman in New York, promoted to managership at Baltimore.

Monogram 26-Week Net Profit, $86,802

Monogram Pictures Corp., and subsidiaries, on Thursday, January 29th, reported a net profit of $86,802.07 for the 26 weeks ending December 27th, 1941. This was after a deduction of $55,814.09 for Federal income taxes.

Four Majors Sign Cuban Circuit Deal

by RAMON PEON
in Havana

Universal, RKO, Paramount and Columbia have signed contracts for 1942 with United Circuits operated by Smith and Valcarcel in Havana. The four remaining companies, Warner Brothers, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, United Artists and Twentieth Century-Fox, however, have not signed as yet.

Amado Trinidad, president of the RHC, Blue Seal Radio Circuit, the largest competitor of CMQ in Havana, has recently signed a contract to open the Campoamor theatre there in a move to help Cuban stage actors and actresses. Mr. Trinidad will show pictures in conjunction with vaudeville, featuring local and foreign talent in his stage presentation.

The Cuban "Alice Faye Contest" closed with a successful tieup campaign with the Twentieth Century-Fox picture "Weekend in Havana." Miss Teddy de la Torre won first prize for her resemblance to Miss Faye.

Miss Pituka de Foronda, known as one of the most promising motion picture actresses in Cuba, has been signed by a Mexican producer to star in "The Passion Island" and two other forthcoming features, as yet unannounced.

The Chic Studios in Havana have begun production on "The Girl from Guatemala," dealing with the episodes of the romantic life of Jose Marti. Under the direction of Jean Angelo, the film will be financed by Anibal Graupers, Cuban publicist of the film trade.

National Decency Legion Classifies Ten Pictures

Of the ten motion pictures classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week, six were approved for general patronage, three were classified as unobjectionable for adults and one was condemned. The pictures and their classifications follow:

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "Billy the Kid Trapped," "Bullets for Bandits," "Frisco Lil," "Mississippi Gambler," "Torpedo Boat" and "Yank on the Burma Road." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "Fly by Night," "Strange Case of Dr. X" and "Man Who Returned to Life." Class B, Objectionable in Part: "The Lady Has Plans."

Vogue Theatre First Run

Because Universal has a heavy backlog of product, some four months behind national availability, the Vogue theatre in Hollywood, is now a first run house. The theatre is being operated on a dual "B" picture policy at an admission ranging from 35 to 55 cents.

Pearson on Canada Board

Lester B. Pearson, assistant under Secretary of State for External Affairs in Canada, has been appointed a member of the National Film Board by order in Council. His term expires August 31st, 1944.

WHAT A HOLD
THEY HAVE ON THE PUBLIC
TOO!

The screen's dramatic thunderbolt proves the year's great romantic hit as it sweeps the crowds off their feet and into theatres from coast to coast! It opens big and stays big. A world famous stage play has been transformed into an outstanding money attraction!

6 BIG WEEKS AT THE ASTOR, NEW YORK CITY!

LOS ANGELES . . . Day-and-Date in Loew's State and Grauman's Chinese. Opening week-end gross tops U.A. record holders for the past year!

MEMPHIS . . . Loew's opening day—on a Thursday—equals the Christmas Day holiday gross. Showmen are really sizzling with "Shanghai Gesture"!

SYRACUSE . . . Loew's first four days piles up receipts equal to average week's gross. "Shanghai Gesture" is the S.R.O. gesture!

MIAMI BEACH . . . Day-and-date at Lincoln and Surf. Opening day a record. First week grosses 212% of average. Moves over to the Miami and Mayfair!

ARNOLD PRESSBURGER presents

THE SHANGHAI GESTURE

National Release Date
FEBRUARY 6th

From the celebrated play
by JOHN COLTON

starring

GENE TIERNEY

WALTER HUSTON · VICTOR MATURE · ONA MUNSON

with PHYLLIS BROOKS · ALBERT BASSERMAN · MARIA OUSPENSKAYA

Directed by JOSEF VON STERNBERG

RELEASED THRU

UNITED ARTISTS

TAXES TO BEAT THE AXIS! Play Walt Disney's Treasury Department Short, "The New Spirit," starring Donald Duck!

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Columbia

BED TIME STORY: Loretta Young, Fredric March—Rather silly comedy—just Young's type of film, but March deserves better parts than he has been receiving lately. Let's have more "One Foot in Heaven" roles for him.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

GO WEST, YOUNG LADY: Penny Singleton, Glenn Ford—Good entertainment, but Singleton is a better drawing card as "Blondie."—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

LADIES IN RETIREMENT: Ida Lupino, Louis Hayward—A little too heavy for the majority of our customers. They ask for pictures more pleasant to sit through. Running time, 91 minutes. Played January 23-24.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. Neighborhood patronage.

MYSTERY SHIP: Paul Kelly, Lola Lane—Pleased everyone—was exciting story of a shipload of convicts being deported.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

OUR WIFE: Melvyn Douglas, Ruth Hussey, Ellen Drew—We double billed this with "Nevada City" but did only fair business. The work of the entire cast was good and the picture was enjoyed by all present. Running time, 99 minutes. Played January 16-17.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

OUTLAWS OF THE PANHANDLE: Charles Starrett, Frances Robinson—Seemed to fill the bill for western lovers. Played with "Caught in the Draft," Paramount.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

THEY DARE NOT LOVE: George Brent, Martha Scott, Paul Lukas—Although a well produced picture, our small town folks don't go for love, and business suffered.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

YOU BELONG TO ME: Henry Fonda, Barbara Stanwyck—A real good picture that did not do sell-out business, but brought many favorable comments.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

YOU'LL NEVER GET RICH: Fred Astaire, Rita Hayworth—Well, we were not disappointed in this picture. Astaire is really a dancer and certainly Rita does a swell job of assisting him as well as providing plenty of glamour for the movie fans. Running time, 88 minutes. Played January 4-5.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Nebraska. Small town patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

ANDY HARDY'S PRIVATE SECRETARY: Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone—Booked this picture to offer our patrons a Christmas show and the box office jingled with gratifying results. Mickey Rooney is still definitely good. Played December 24-25.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Rural and small town patronage.

BAD MAN, THE: Wallace Beery—Despite other exhibitors' reports of Beery on the box-office decline, we enjoyed a 25 per cent increase and hundreds of satisfied customers. Let's hope Metro's great staff can find suitable material for one great guy—Wally Beery. Played December 19-20.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

DESIGN FOR SCANDAL: Rosalind Russell, Walter Pidgeon—Light, pleasing comedy. Pidgeon and Russell a good pair. Let's see more of them together.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

DOWN IN SAN DIEGO: Bonita Granville, Ray McDonald—We were surely surprised that MGM would make a picture like this. Was well liked by those who enjoy ordinary melodrama with many impossible situations from which the kids were always able to remove themselves without any trouble. Was more like a second rate western than anything else. Running time, 73 minutes. Played December 26-27.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Nebraska. Small town patronage.

FEMININE TOUCH, THE: Rosalind Russell, Don Ameche—Not for our kind. Fair comedy but decidedly not for small town rural patronage. Believe this picture should play only as second feature on city duals. Running time, 93 minutes. Played January 14-15.—

This is the original exhibitors' reports department, established October 14, 1916. In it the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box-office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address your reports to—

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Nebraska. Small town patronage.

H. M. PULHAM, ESQ.: Hedy Lamarr, Robert Young, Ruth Hussey—Good entertainment, but rather slow-moving and drawn out. Hedy is still not an A1 actress.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

I'LL WAIT FOR YOU: Robert Sterling, Marsha Hunt, Paul Kelly—A sleeper which should be in a top bracket. This story was made several years ago by MGM under the title of "Hideout," starring Robert Montgomery and Maureen O'Sullivan. Director Sinclair made very few changes and brings this picture back just as good as it ever was. Metro's sleepers are a heck of a lot better than all their big stuff put together.—Let's have more of these sleepers. Played January 9-10.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

KATHLEEN: Shirley Temple, Laraine Day, Herbert Marshall—Just as big a boxoffice flop as we expected it to be, and we really expected it to be. We dug down in our pocket to pay Metro for this experiment, which was against exhibitors' judgment. Pictures apparently made for sole purpose of demonstrating Shirley's ability as the story is slow, very talky and uninteresting. Metro should get down to earth with their pictures. Played January 18-20.—S. L. George, Mountain Home Theatre, Mountain Home, Idaho. Small town patronage.

RINGSIDE MAISIE: Ann Sothorn, George Murphy, Robert Sterling—This little star speaks the language that Mr. and Mrs. Average American can understand and besides turning in a crack performance on each and every occasion. We of the smaller localities believe that "Maisie" gives "Leo" much more reason to roar than some of the bigger names that are definitely on the down-grade. Running time, 96 minutes. Played January 14-15.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

SMILIN' THROUGH: Jeanette MacDonald, Gene Raymond, Brian Aherne—We passed this once but could get nothing else for Christmas date so had to take it. It flopped for us as all of this star's pictures do, and we want no more of her. Played December 24-25.—S. L. George, Mountain Home Theatre, Mountain Home, Idaho. Small town patronage.

SMILIN' THROUGH: Jeanette MacDonald, Brian Aherne, Gene Raymond—You might call this a sleeper, because it really is a surprisingly good picture. By far a better picture than we really expected. Beautiful colors and well produced and directed. Gene Raymond did a wonderful job and we want to see more of him in the future. Running time, 100 minutes. Played January 18-20.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

TARZAN'S SECRET TREASURE: Johnny Weissmuller, Maureen O'Sullivan—We did not think this was as good as other Tarzan pictures, but it pleased.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

TWO-FACED WOMAN: Greta Garbo, Melvyn Douglas—We played this picture before it was revised as we had it all advertised when censors started banning it. Our audiences were unanimous in saying that they had been a good many pictures with scenes as risque as in T.-F. W. and which were not banned.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

Monogram

SIGN OF THE WOLF: Michael Whalen, Grace Bradley—Business was very good, as I had not had a dog and snow picture in a long time. Pleased the action fans. Running time, 69 minutes. Played January 20.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

Paramount

BAHAMA PASSAGE: Madeleine Carroll, Stirling Hayden—Beautiful color, fair business, and a feature that moves slower than relief from high taxes. It never got anywhere. Business we did do on this is due entirely to Paramount's advertising this feature in every magazine in the last month. Thanks, Paramount.—Al Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Small town and rural patronage.

BIRTH OF THE BLUES: Bing Crosby, Mary Martin, "Rochester"—There was considerable disappointment over this picture it has an abundance of good music and little else. "Rochester's" part was very unfunny to those who came especially to see him. I should have played it on the first of the week. Running time, 85 minutes. Played January 15-17.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

BUY ME THAT TOWN: Lloyd Nolan, Constance Moore, Sheldon Leonard—Good. If you have something to get them into your theatre, this gangster comedy will please them. Running time, 70 minutes. Played January 18-19.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. Neighborhood patronage.

CAUGHT IN THE DRAFT: Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour, Lynne Overman—An up-to-the-minute comedy with many amusing situations created by Bob Hope. Running time, 105 minutes. Played January 3-4.—W. J. Overstreet, Director of Motion Pictures, Florida State Prison, Raiford, Fla. Prison patronage.

CAUGHT IN THE DRAFT: Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour, Lynne Overman—Nice business. Played its second run and was satisfied.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

FORCED LANDING: Richard Arlen—This was terrible. So amateurish. And they had to sacrifice Richard Arlen on such poor material. Don't let 'em do you that way, Dick. You're better than that. Played January 16-17.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Tex. General patronage.

GLAMOUR BOY: Jackie Cooper, Susanna Foster—Had fair draw and was liked by those who saw it. Played on Bank Night.—Al Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

HOLD BACK THE DAWN: Charles Boyer, Olivia de Havilland, Paulette Goddard—Very well done. Comments were all favorable. Direction and photography excellent. Running time, 114 minutes. Played January 23-24.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. Neighborhood patronage.

NEW YORK TOWN: Fred MacMurray, Mary Martin—Fair picture, but long on talk and short on action. Mary Martin tries hard but is no draw for us. Picture not up to the classification. Paramount not so good this year. Played January 2-3.—S. L. George, Mountain Home Theatre, Mountain Home, Idaho. Small town patronage.

NIGHT OF JANUARY 16TH, THE: Robert Preston, Ellen Drew—Just an average mystery story with few chills and a bit of comedy. You won't remember it after you leave. Played to poor business on a cash night. Played January 8.—S. L. George, Mountain Home Theatre, Mountain Home, Idaho. Small town patronage.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH: Bob Hope, Paulette Goddard, Edward Arnold—There's plenty of entertainment value in this. Some people don't care for Bob on the screen, but some people don't like ice cream. We'll take him every week, and you, too, Paulette. Played January 18-19.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH: Bob Hope, Paulette Goddard—Very entertaining especially if you are looking for nothing but fun. Certainly there's nothing here to make you go home and think about all night. Did not draw like it should, however. Aply supporting Hope, Miss Goddard surely does not hurt the picture either from an acting standpoint or just to look at. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 18-20.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Nebraska. Small town patronage.

(Continued from opposite page)

ONE NIGHT IN LISBON: Madeleine Carroll, Fred MacMurray—An excellent picture. Lots of good laughs, fast romance and comes to a fast and glorious finish. Running time, 97 minutes. Played January 7-8.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

OUTLAWS OF THE DESERT: William Boyd, Brad King, Andy Clyde—Good picture and good business. "Hopalong" always pleases on Friday-Saturday. Running time, 65 minutes. Played January 23-24.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

PIRATES ON HORSEBACK: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, Andy Clyde—A "Hopalong Cassidy." Played this with "One Night in Lisbon" on Christmas. Ran a "Hopalong Cassidy" contest and line formed one block long a half-hour before opening. Don't know whether it was the picture or the prizes. Running time, 64 minutes. Played December 25.—Albert Montefalco, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

ROAD TO ZANZIBAR: Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour—A good comedy with wise-cracking Bob Hope keeping the audience laughing with his clever gags. Everyone liked this one. Running time, 116 minutes. Played December 27-28.—W. J. Overstreet, Director of Motion Pictures, Florida State Prison, Raiford, Fla. Prison patronage.

SKYLARK: Claudette Colbert, Ray Milland, Brian Aherne—Very pleasing to average business. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 11-12.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Tex. Small town patronage.

Republic

HIT PARADE OF 1941, THE: Kenny Baker, Frances Langford, Ann Miller—A smooth-running musical comedy with songs by Kenny Baker and Frances Langford and some superb dancing by Ann Miller. The picture was well received here. Running time, 86 minutes. Played December 13-14.—W. J. Overstreet, Director of Motion Pictures, Florida State Prison, Raiford, Fla. Prison patronage.

ICE-CAPADES: Dorothy Lewis, James Ellison, Jerry Colonna—As fine a musical comedy as you will ever see on the screen. The scenes on ice were grand. Don't fail to run or see it. Give your patrons a real treat. Running time, 88 minutes. Played January 21-22.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

NEVADA CITY: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes, Sally Payne—Played as a double bill with "Murder Among Friends," 20th Century-Fox. Good program. Played to only fair business. Played January 16-17.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

SIS HOPKINS: Judy Canova, Jerry Colonna—Used this one as an exchange of product that previously had been paid for and not used. It gave universal satisfaction on giveaway nights to a large and appreciative audience in fact, it outgrossed a number of the newer releases used on the same night. Running time, 98 minutes. Played January 21-22.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

SUNSET IN WYOMING: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—Good picture, but not enough of the usual routine of music and little Mary Lee failed to appear. Better get her back and put in more music. After all this is what sells Gene Autry. Running time, 65 minutes. Played January 16-17.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

SUNSET IN WYOMING: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—Autry is definite box office in both Tilbury and Chatham theatres. Although some say they don't like him, he does business.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

RKO Radio

ALL THAT MONEY CAN BUY: Edward Arnold, Walter Huston, Simone Simon—They either thought this was very good to very poor. No happy medium. Business only fair. Running time, 106 minutes. Played January 25-26.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. Neighborhood patronage.

ALL THAT MONEY CAN BUY: Edward Arnold, Walter Huston, Anne Shirley—Very good. Different from ordinary run of pictures. Huston perfect in his role.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

BANDIT TRAIL: Tim Holt—Best Friday-Saturday business in several months on this, and very unexpected, too, as the last Holt we played was terrible. Pleased, and everyone was well satisfied. That includes me too.—Al Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Small town and rural patronage.

FANTASIA: Walt Disney, Leopold Stokowski—I have just seen "Fantasia" for the second time and have the following to report: As a roadshow, this film triumph was indeed the greatest that I have ever seen. Of course, this was due to the marvel of "Fantasound." However, in its general release, it has lost almost all of its original beauty and splendor. Not because of its loss of "Fantasound," but because of the necessary cutting which has been done. I hardly think that this was done by the Disney studios, but by RKO. Of course, I might be wrong, but in my estimation, it has been cut in the wrong places. Time has been eliminated by cutting, to the bone, the commentary of Deems Taylor. Without his explanation of the musical stories, it is almost impossible to follow them. Not for me, but for the average patrons who know very little, if anything, about classical music. Whole sections which are uninteresting have been left, time which could have been used for other parts. As a whole, I hardly think this has much to offer in its present form. Running time, 83 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtranc, Mich. General patronage.

JUNGLE CAVALCADE: Animal feature—Had this set in for mid-January in anticipation of a nice blizzard that failed to materialize. Did a very nice business on Sun.-Mon.-Tues., but it didn't draw my regulars. It did bring in lots of strangers. Glad I played it, but I'm through speculating on future weather. It will come when it comes, and my bookings won't help keep it away.—Al Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Small town and rural patronage.

JUNGLE CAVALCADE: Frank Buck commentator—After a temporary delay in playing this subject, I set it in with "Riders of the Purple Sage" from Fox to better than usual business for end of the week. The audience was well pleased in reviewing the highlights of former exploits by this adventurer. Running time, 77 minutes. Played January 23, 24.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

LOOK WHO'S LAUGHING: Edgar Bergen, Charlie McCarthy, Fibber McGee and Molly—This kept them laughing all the time. Scenes featuring McCarthy minus Bergen were a change from the inseparable team. I think the McGee family and their radio friends should have stayed on the radio. Running time, 79 minutes.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

MEN AGAINST THE SKY: Richard Dix, Wendy Barrie—A good trailer of this action picture clicked good at our B. O. After all, that's what counts. Played December 26-27.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Rural and small town patronage.

PINOCCHIO: Walt Disney—Brought this back on New Year's Day to a swell house. The kids came in droves, as if we were playing first run on release. It's the best Walt Disney, so play it again. Running time, 83 minutes. Played December 31-January 1.—Albert Montefalco, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

REPENT AT LEISURE: Wendy Barrie, Kent Taylor—A program picture. We doubled with "Blood and Sand," 20th Century-Fox, to nice business.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

SUNNY: Anna Neagle, Ray Bolger, John Carroll—Good picture and average business. Running time, 98 minutes. Played January 18-19.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

SUSPICION: Cary Grant, Joan Fontaine—Fine entertainment with excellent acting by Fontaine and Grant.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

BELLE STARR: Randolph Scott, Gene Tierney—Well liked by our patrons. Did not draw very well but was not entirely unsatisfactory. Gene Tierney looks like she will some day cut quite a figure in pictures. Running time, 87 minutes. Played January 16-17.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Nebraska. Small town patronage.

BLOOD AND SAND: Tyrone Power, Linda Darnell—Juggled dates on this one several times, fearing another "Suez." Lo and behold, the box office gave a mighty fine account for the film and I personally enjoyed it. Played January 1-3.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Rural and small town patronage.

BLOOD AND SAND: Tyrone Power, Linda Darnell, Rita Hayworth, Nazimova—Played this second run first of week and did nice business.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

CHARLEY'S AUNT: Jack Benny—We were somewhat disappointed in this picture. True, it did keep the patrons in jitters from the moment Jack appeared as Charlie's aunt but it just didn't seem to have all that the old silent version had to offer. Running time, 81 minutes. Played December 31-January 1.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Nebraska. Small town patronage.

CONFIRM OR DENY: Don Ameche, Joan Bennett, Roddy McDowall—Good picture which failed to draw. Title was meaningless. Running time, 73 minutes. Played January 21-22.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

DRESSED TO KILL: Lloyd Nolan, Mary Beth Hughes—Fair mystery comedy that brought in a few, who left without expressing much of an opinion. Played January 21-22.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

GREAT AMERICAN BROADCAST: Jack Oakie, John Wayne, Alice Faye—Surprising how the old timers enjoyed this one. Wish the trailer had incorporated a little more factual material rather than playing on star value. Am sure it would have helped the grosses everywhere. Played December 21-23.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Rural and small town patronage.

GREAT GUNS: Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy—This picture was very silly at times but my patrons seemed to enjoy it lots. Business was only fair. Played January 12-13.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

I WAKE UP SCREAMING: Betty Grable, Victor Mature—I am the one screaming. A good picture in

(Continued on following page)

TELEGRAMS

are feature length stories in short subject form

CLASS OF SERVICE SELECTED		CABLE
DOMESTIC	TELEGRAM	DOMESTIC	TELEGRAM
DAY LETTER	NIGHT LETTER	DAY LETTER	NIGHT LETTER
SPECIAL SERVICE		SPECIAL SERVICE

WESTERN UNION

ACCOUNTING INFORMATION

TIME FILED

TELEGRAMS DO NOT BUTT IN WHEN YOU ARE ENGROSSED IN YOUR WORK
OR IN AN IMPORTANT CONFERENCE.
IN AN ORDERLY FASHION, THEY CAN BE READ AND CONSIDERED.

WESTERN UNION

Everywhere

(Continued from preceding page)

top bracket worth about one-half. Betty Grable better in color. She isn't big time yet. Running time, 78 minutes. Played January 18-19.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Tex. Small town patronage.

MAN HUNT: Walter Pidgeon, Joan Bennett, George Sanders—A well produced and well acted picture that did about as well here as could be expected. Fervent hopes were expressed by members of the audience when the show ended that Pidgeon might get another shot at Mr. Shickelgruber. Running time, 101 minutes. Played January 11-12.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

MOON OVER MIAMI: Don Ameche, Betty Grable, Robert Cummings, Charlotte Greenwood—We thought this picture cute and amusing. We recently replaced our Mazda lamps with reflector arcs; perhaps the last theatre in New Mexico to change over, and the coloring reproduced with the arcs was simply dazzling. Played January 8-10.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

MURDER AMONG FRIENDS: Marjorie Weaver, John Hubbard, Cobina Wright, Jr.—See review on "Nevada City," Republic.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

RETURN OF FRANK JAMES, THE: Henry Fonda, Gene Tierney, Jackie Cooper—Didn't do the business that "Jesse James" did, but although picked it up late, it packed plenty of box-office wallop.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE: George Montgomery, Mary Howard—A good western that we double billed with United Artist's "Miss Polly" and made a good program. A good cast for a small picture and we are sorry to see Montgomery graduate from westerns. Some complaint that the picture was shown as in Arizona instead of Utah. Believe "Miss Polly" was the drawing card as they got a great kick out of it and the second nighters asked about it. Played January 16-17.—S. L. George, Mountain Home Theatre, Mountain Home, Idaho. Small town patronage.

RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE: George Montgomery, Mary Howard—Double featured along with "Jungle Cavalcade" to good business and a satisfied audience. The juveniles liked this show and the adults came along for company. Running time, 56 minutes. Played January 23-24.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

SUN VALLEY SERENADE: Sonja Henie, John Payne—This proved to be an outstanding hit and a wonderful box office attraction way beyond expectations; any company could feel proud for delivering this class of entertainment as well as the exhibitor for being able to present it to his audience. Good for any situation any time. Running time, 87 minutes. Played January 25-26.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

SUN VALLEY SERENADE: Sonja Henie, John Payne, Glenn Miller and his Orchestra, Milton Berle—After months of patient expecting, interspersed with periods of considerable pain, Fox finally gave birth to a box office baby that I really took pride in showing off. If it hadn't been for the snowbound roads, I might have done almost as well as the salesman promised me. I used colored slides on the picture finale with pleasing effect. Running time, 87 minutes. Played January 8-10.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

SWAMP WATER: Walter Brennan, Walter Huston, Dana Andrews—This picture drew fine the first night and was enjoyed by all. The blackout hurt me the second night. I am sure that because this was a Georgia made picture, I had customers in my house that had never been before. Lots of good comments. This was a true pictureization of those who live in and around Okefenokee Swamp. Played January 14-15.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

WEEKEND IN HAVANA: Alice Faye, John Payne, Carmen Miranda—Very good musical with comedy and swell color. Just the picture for this date, but did a third less business than an identical picture on the same date a year ago. Our business is off twenty per cent since the war started. Incidentally, Cesar Romero was the star of the picture. Played December 31-January 1.—S. L. George, Mountain Home Theatre, Mountain Home, Idaho. Small town patronage.

WILD GEESSE CALLING: Henry Fonda, Joan Bennett—A little better than average picture with good action and dialogue and too many dark scenes. Did average business, and we think the patrons liked it. Played January 9-10.—S. L. George, Mountain Home Theatre, Mountain Home, Idaho. Small town patronage.

WILD GEESSE CALLING: Henry Fonda, Joan Bennett, Warren William—I wasn't liking this picture, but refused to pass judgment until several customers walked out and said "phooey" as they passed me, so I must have been right. However, Fox didn't give it top allocation, but people who had read the book were disappointed. Played January 21-22.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Tex. General patronage.

YANK IN THE R.A.F.: Tyrone Power, Betty Grable—Doubled this with "It Started With Eve" and brought out a very good crowd. This picture has exceptional airplane fights in it with snappy direction

NEW CONTRIBUTORS TO DEPARTMENT

Two new contributors reported to the What the Picture Did For Me Department this week, and another resumed after an absence of some time. The new contributors are:

DONALD W. ROSS, New Strand Theatre, Long Beach, Calif.

ALBERT MONTEFALCO, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn.

The contributor who resumed after a lapse is:

M. BAILEY, Strand Theatre, Dryden, Ontario, Can.

Read the reports from these and other contributors in the adjoining columns.

and good comedy. The crowd ate it up and really must have recommended it to give me such a good second night. Running time, 97 minutes. Played January 23-24.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

YANK IN THE R.A.F.: Tyrone Power, Betty Grable—Good picture to good business. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 15-16.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Tex. Small town patronage.

United Artists

CORSICAN BROTHERS: Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Akim Tamiroff—Exceptionally fine entertainment. Good acting and plenty of excitement. Douglas Fairbanks superb in dual role.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

MADE FOR EACH OTHER: Carole Lombard, James Stewart—Played this second run in place of "Intermezzo" and found many who hadn't seen it. Severe weather kept gross down considerably. Played December 17-18.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

MISS POLLY: Zasu Pitts, Slim Summerville—See review on "Riders of the Purple Sage." Played January 16-17.—S. L. George, Mountain Home Theatre, Mountain Home, Idaho. Small town patronage.

MY SON, MY SON: Madeleine Carroll, Brian Aherne, Louis Hayward—An interesting melodrama of paternal love and sacrifice. Everyone liked this one. Running time, 117 minutes. Played December 20-21.—W. J. Overstreet, Director of Motion Pictures, Florida State Prison, Raiford, Fla. Prison patronage.

REBECCA: Laurence Olivier, Joan Fontaine, Judith Anderson—We have juggled this picture for some unknown fear and, playing it, find we were only 50 per cent correct. Many people had read the book and saw the picture here but all were not pleased. I did not like the picture myself. Played January 11-13.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

SCARFACE: Paul Muni, Ann Dvorak—Played only two days and wished I could run it a week. As old as it was, it sure packed them in. Print was fair, sound shaky in parts, but who cares? They walked out saying "swell show." That's all I care. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 11-12.—Albert Montefalco, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn. Neighborhood patronage.

SO ENDS OUR NIGHT: Fredric March, Margaret Sullivan, Frances Dee, Glenn Ford—This is pretty somber stuff for a small town, but is well done and drew slightly better than average. I believe it will draw better now than it would have some months ago. Running time, 120 minutes. Played January 12-14.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

SO ENDS OUR NIGHT: Fredric March, Margaret Sullivan, Frances Dee, Glenn Ford—A real fine picture, but it didn't do business. Played it in two houses.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Universal

BOSS OF BULLION CITY: Johnny Mack Brown—Coupled this with "A Dangerous Game," Universal. See that review. Played January 15-17.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

DANGEROUS GAME, A: Richard Arlen, Andy Devine—We coupled this picture with "Boss of Bullion

City," Universal, but receipts fell a little short for some unexplainable reason. The "Dangerous Game" print we received was photographically hazy. Why? The western was usual with sound and photography excellent. Played January 15-17.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

DON'T GET PERSONAL: Hugh Herbert, Anne Gwynne—Poor. Without Herbert it would have been terrible and he didn't contribute very much to this. Business average. Advertising expenses way up, as we plastered this community with throwaways on this one telling 'em it was good for their war jitters.—Al Eliason, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

FIGHTING BILL FARGO: Johnny Mack Brown—Poor business, fair western. Brown is going to be O.K. in time here.—Al Eliason, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

GENTLEMAN FROM DIXIE: Jack La Rue, Marian Marsh—Surprising amount of entertainment. It had no outstanding acting, but held your interest. Played three days and did a fair business. Played November 25-27.—Donald W. Ross, Strand Theatre, Long Beach, Calif. General patronage.

HELLO, SUCKER: Hugh Herbert, Tom Brown, Peggy Moran—A light comedy that seemed to go across all right. Played it week-end with Gene Autry western to good business.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

IN THE NAVY: Abbott and Costello—This Abbott-Costello not as good as "Buck Privates." However, receipts good; customers entertained. Played January 4-6.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

IT STARTED WITH EVE: Deanna Durbin, Charles Laughton, Robert Cummings—After the first twenty minutes, this settled down into a very funny comedy with musical moments by Deanna. A very good crowd that came to see this doubled with "Yank in the R.A.F." enjoyed it thoroughly. Charles Laughton steals the show in one of his best parts. The volume varied a lot in my print so I had difficulty keeping it even. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 23-24.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

KEEP 'EM FLYING: Abbott and Costello—Lots of hokum, but it paid off O.K. Everyone pleased. Played January 18-19.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

MASKED RIDER, THE: Johnny Mack Brown—Second of this star's appearance. Business better than first picture. All favorable comments. Played January 23-24.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

MODEL WIFE: William Powell, Joan Blondell—At last! A "B" Universal picture that did good business despite pre-Christmas slump. Played December 14-16.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: Irene Dunne, Robert Montgomery, Preston Foster—Not a really big picture; but not bad, either. It has lots of humor, a good plot, and some serious moments. It drew quite well and they seemed to like it. Nothing there to complain about. The last two reels of the print I had jiggled quite a little on the screen; slightly strained sprocket holes, no doubt. I asked some of the audience, but no one had noticed it except me. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 22.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

Warner Brothers-First National

ADVENTURES OF ROBIN HOOD: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland—A good reissue which should do business.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

ALL THOUGHT THE NIGHT: Humphrey Bogart, Conrad Veidt—Good spy picture. Interesting right through. Timely.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

BLUES IN THE NIGHT: Priscilla Lane, Richard Whorf—Just fair.—Leon Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

HERE COMES THE NAVY (REISSUE): James Cagney, Pat O'Brien, Gloria Stuart—O.K. picture a few years back. Timely as return engagement, but not timely enough. War details, ships, planes too old-fashioned. Too much slapstick comedy and arguing between Cagney and O'Brien and not enough about the Navy. Pass it up. Running time, 96 minutes. Played January 21.—Albert Montefalco, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn. Neighborhood patronage.

MANPOWER: Edward G. Robinson, Marlene Dietrich, George Raft, Alan Hale—A realistic, down-to-earth story of the derring do of powerline workers; a story that combines lusty humor with heart-gripping pathos. It has a great cast and the direction is excellent. We believe it one of the best films of its type we have played this season. Dramatic, witty and breath-taking, this is a picture your patrons will want to see. Running time, 105 minutes. Played January 24.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

NAVY BLUES: Jack Oakie, Ann Sheridan—There isn't a great deal to this picture but it moves right along with plenty of laughs, and seems to be the kind they want. It gave us the best Friday-Saturday business we have had in two months. Guess this is because the critics said it was bad. We watch the reviews with care as we find the pictures that get the best reviews are not the best at the box office. We wish the critics would review for the theatre public and not the highbrows. Played December 26-27.—S. L. George, Mountain Home Theatre, Mountain Home, Idaho. Small town patronage.

NAVY BLUES: Ann Sheridan, Jack Oakie, Martha Raye, Jack Haley—The musical comedy laff riot of the season. This picture is the best comedy and musical we have seen in a good many months. We have seen them all. We need more pictures like this and can do nicely without the classics. Comedy is good medicine for any case of blues. It is worth playing anytime. Running time, 108 minutes. Played January 11-13.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

NINE LIVES ARE NOT ENOUGH: Ronald Reagan, Joan Perry, James Gleason—Good Saturday crowd enjoyed this little action film. Running time, 60 minutes. Played January 17.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Tex. Small town patronage.

ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN: Fredric March, Martha Scott—Ah, there's a picture! And how it drew even a class of patrons we didn't think would cross our threshold for a picture of this type. And the funny part about it is that everyone said it was grand, entertainment, some even returning the second night. Let's have more pictures like this, that is, down-to-earth human interest stories. Running time, 108 minutes. Played December 28-29.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Nebraska. Small town patronage.

SERGEANT YORK: Gary Cooper, Joan Leslie, Walter Brennan—One great picture! Many men expressed themselves, "It was much better than 'Gone With the Wind.'" Many people here failed to see it due to outrageous prices Warner Brothers made us charge. We hope to justify ourselves by returning this excellent picture at popular prices soon. Played December 28-31.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Rural and small town patronage.

SHINING VICTORY: James Stephenson, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Donald Crisp—Interesting. Running time, 86 minutes. Played January 14-15.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

THEY DIED WITH THEIR BOOTS ON: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland—Very good! Big outdoor picture which pleased the action fans.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

YOU'RE IN THE ARMY NOW: Jimmy Durante, Jane Wyman—Personally, we thought this was terrible. The kids laughed a few times.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

Short Features

Columbia

AWFUL GOOF, THE: Charley Chase—A good comedy that kept them laughing. Running time, 17 minutes.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

AERONAUTICS: Pete Smith Specialties—Another excellent short in the ala Smith manner. Full of good wholesome belly laughs. Running time, 10 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

ALLEY CAT, THE: Technicolor Cartoons—Good cartoon in color. Running time, 7 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

FLYING BEAR: Technicolor Cartoons—Very funny, very clever and very timely; this color cartoon is one of the best from MGM in a long time. Running time, 9 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

GHOST TREASURE: Miniatures—An exceptionally fine subject. However, we should not have played it with "Bad Man."—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

HISTORIC MARYLAND: FitzPatrick Traveltalks—Average traveltalk. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

HOW TO HOLD YOUR HUSBAND—BACK: Pete Smith Specialties—Entertaining one-reeler. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

NEWS OF THE DAY: No. 228, Vol. 13.—Not bad. It is improving a little. Running time, 9 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

NEWS OF THE DAY: No. 230, Vol. 13.—A review of the year's happenings up to this day. An excellent reel. Running time, 9 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

SHORT PRODUCT PLAYING BROADWAY

Week of January 31st

CAPITOL

Main Street On the March. MGM
Field Mouse ..... MGM

Feature: The Corsican

Brothers ..... United Artists

CRITERION

A Quiet Fourth. .... RKO Radio

New Spirit ..... Disney-

RKO Radio

More Worlds to Conquer.. Government

Reel

Feature: A Yank on the

Burma Road ..... MGM

MUSIC HALL

New Spirit ..... Disney-

RKO Radio

Feature: Ball of Fire..... RKO Radio

PARAMOUNT

Jaspar and the Watermelons. Paramount

Feature: Sullivan's Travels... Paramount

RIALTO

New Spirit ..... Disney-

RKO Radio

The Riveter ..... Disney-

RKO Radio

Life of a Thoroughbred.... 20th Cent.-Fox

Feature: Call Out The

Marines ..... RKO Radio

RIVOLI

New Spirit ..... Disney-

RKO Radio

A Good Time for a Dime.. Disney-

RKO Radio

Feature: Joan of Paris..... RKO Radio

ROXY

New Spirit ..... Disney-

RKO Radio

Feature: Son of Fury..... 20th Cent.-Fox

STRAND

Monsters of the Deep.... Vitaphone

Miracle Makers ..... Vitaphone

Hop, Skip and a Chump... Vitaphone

Feature: All Through the Night ..... Warner Bros.

ROBOT WRECKS: Our Gang—Just as good as preceding comedies. Running time, 10 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

ROOKIE BEAR, THE: Color Cartoon—Best cartoon from Metro in some time. This really is good. Running time, 9 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

STRANGE TESTAMENT: Passing Parade—Another swell subject from MGM's Passing Parade. Do not believe we've ever played a poor one. Running time, 10 minutes.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

TELL-TALE HEART, THE: Two Reel Specials—Here is a subject we advertised as something extra fine. Well, it was from an artistic point of view and from the standpoint of acting. But for entertainment as a short! No! No! It did not go over with our patrons at all. Wish some of you other exhibitors would report your audience reaction on this. Running time, 20 minutes.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

WEDDING WORRIES: Our Gang Comedies—Average Our Gang comedy. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

Paramount

HANDS OF DESTINY: Headliner—Seemed to satisfy.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

KICKIN' THE CONGA ROUND: Popeye The Sailor—Very amusing Popeye cartoon with Popeye doing the Conga in grand style. Running time, 7 minutes.

—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

OLIVE'S SWEEPSTAKE TICKET: Popeye The Sailor—Just a fair cartoon. Poor animation. Running time, 8 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

PARAMOUNT NEWS: Our last issue contained the appalling shots of our Pacific disaster and highlights of historical 1941. Here's hoping the newsreels continue their good work.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

POPEYE MEETS WILLIAM TELL: Popeye The Sailor—Average Popeye cartoon. Running time, 7 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

PROBLEM PAPPY: Popeye The Sailor—Average for this series. Running time, 8 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

SPEAKING OF ANIMALS: Animated Antics—A real good filler.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS: No. 3—Always interesting.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

VITAMIN HAY: Color Classic Cartoon—Interesting and instructive.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Republic

MEET THE STARS: No. 3—Everybody seemed to like these.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

RKO Radio

DONALD'S VACATION: Walt Disney Cartoons—This has demonstrated to me for the sixth consecutive time that if the kids aren't sure they will like the feature, they won't risk a thin dime to come in and see Donald Duck. Running time, 8 minutes.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

LITTLE WHIRLWIND, THE: Walt Disney Cartoons—Average Disney cartoon. Running time, 8 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

MARCH OF TIME, No. 6: "When Air Raids Strike"—This issue should be run everywhere as it shows how to extinguish incendiary bombs and how to act in a raid. Very interesting and educational. Advertise it. Running time, 20 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

PICTURE PEOPLE: No. 5—We prefer "Screen Snapshots". This was all right and entertaining.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

(Continued on following page)

M-G-M TRADE SHOW CORRECTION!

(Indianapolis Territory Only!)

"THIS TIME FOR KEEPS" "COURTSHIP OF ANDY HARDY"

will be screened at 9 A.M. on Tuesday, Feb. 10, at The Talbot
Theatre, 2145 North Talbot Street, Indianapolis, (instead of 20th Century-Fox Screening
Room as previously advertised).

(Continued from preceding page)

QUAIL QUEST: Sportscope—Nice sport reel.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

RIVETER, THE: Walt Disney Cartoon—Disney's subjects, as we have oft' times stated, are strictly adult entertainment and are produced from that angle, making this subject average or slightly below.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

TRUANT OFFICER DONALD: Walt Disney Cartoons—Very funny. Aren't they all? Running time, 8 minutes.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. Neighborhood patronage.

TUGBOAT MICKEY: Walt Disney Cartoons—Usual high-class Disney reel.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

DOG'S DREAM, A: Terrytoons—Just give the children cartoons and they always find a laugh.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

FROZEN NORTH, THE: Terrytoon—Very poor. The black and whites in this series are too silly to be good. Don't say I didn't warn you. Running time, 7 minutes.—Albert Montefalco, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn. Neighborhood patronage.

GOOD OLD IRISH TUNES: Terrytoons—Very good musical cartoon.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

HORSEFLY OPERA: Terry-Toon—One patron remarked, "Good for kids." These Terry-Toons shadow on the "grind 'em out" side of short subject production.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

SAGEBRUSH AND SILVER: Magic Carpet—An interesting travogue with good photography that pleased. Running time, 10 minutes.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

TRAINING POLICE HORSES: Adventures of the Newsreel Cameraman—Strictly excellent adult entertainment where people like horses.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

United Artists

MICKEY'S ELEPHANT: Mickey Mouse—Yes, I know you ran it before, but run it again; it's darn funny and you have a new crop of customers that will enjoy seeing it. Running time, 8 minutes.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. Neighborhood patronage.

Universal

ANDY PANDA'S POP: Color Cartoon—Amusing, but they are getting too much "alike."—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

DIZZY DOINGS: Musicals—Real good. Universal has some real fine two reelers.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

GOING PLACES: No. 92: Good.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Rural and small town patronage.

GOING PLACES: No. 94: Good subject. Worthy of running time.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

STRANGER THAN FICTION: No. 90: Excellent subject for adult entertainment, if booked with the proper feature.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

TRAIL OF THE BUCCANEERS: Variety Views—This series just fillers. Running time, 10 minutes.—

Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

$21 A DAY ONCE A MONTH: Color Cartoon—Very good Color Cartoon. This series is better than average. Running time, 8 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL: Our last issue contained the appalling shots of our Pacific disaster and highlights of historical 1941. Here's hoping the newsreels continue their good work.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

WHAT'S COOKIN'?: Color Cartoon—Fair cartoon that pleased the children.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

WOODY WOODPECKER: Color Cartoon—Slightly "woody." The guy that laughs in this reel ought to scare the Japs away.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

Vitaphone

ALL THIS AND RABBIT STEW: Merrie Melody—I played this on the coldest Saturday of the year and my patrons said the laugh they got out of it was all that kept them warm. Don't miss it.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

BRAVE LITTLE BAT, THE: Merrie Melodies Cartoons—One of the cutest cartoons we have played in many months. Running time, 7 minutes.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

HAL KEMP AND HIS ORCHESTRA: Melody Masters—Excellent. These Melody Masters are all good and this one is exceptionally so. Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

SPORT CHUMPIONS: Merrie Melody—This is not up to the Merrie Melodies standard. There are very few laughs in this one and nothing makes sense. They've made better ones than this. Running time, 7 minutes.—Peter Kavel, Campau Theatre, Hamtramck, Mich. General patronage.

TANKS ARE COMING, THE: Service Special—Play it. Very timely and impressive. It is your duty to book this one.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

WABBIT TWOUBLE: Merrie Melodies Cartoon—Well, Bugs Bunny is in it, so I had extra attendance and a hilarious audience. I billed this on almost equal terms with the feature. Elmer is back again with Bugs Bunny in this one and it helped a lot. Running time, 8 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

WABBIT TWOUBLE: Merrie Melodies Cartoons—Good color cartoon. Running time, 7 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

WEST OF THE ROCKIES: Broadway Brevities—Good two-reel musical western. Play it. Running time, 20 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

Miscellaneous

BATTLE FOR OIL: Canadian Government Series—Best one yet. Anyone will enjoy seeing a picture like this one.—M. Bailey, Strand Theatre, Dryden, Ontario, Can. Small town patronage.

WAR CLOUDS OVER THE PACIFIC: "Canada Carries On"—A "Canada Carries On" feature that took well.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. Good patronage.

Serials

Columbia

HOLT OF THE SECRET SERVICE: Jack Holt, Evelyn Brent—This continued piece looks like good adult entertainment here, but the usual over-emphasis at the close of each episode.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

WHITE EAGLE: Buck Jones, Raymond Hatton—Playing Chapter 15. December 19-20, 1941 and despite the usual production impossibilities at the end of each chapter, the following was good and "White Eagle" justified itself at the B. O.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

Universal

JUNIOR G-MEN: Dead End Kids, Little Tough Guys—I started this to help build my Monday and Tuesday business, but I have only thrown away the price of it. Does not interest anyone. I don't believe I have one patron keeping up with it. Never again.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

IN NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 42, Vol. 24:—War news from Russia....Rio parley ends....Honor for MacArthur....Notice to aliens....Beauty queen picked....President's birthday cake....Axis medals junked....Hollywood aids defense workers....Sports.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 43, Vol. 24:—Honor President on birthday....Britain at war....Boys aid forces....Quadruplets celebrate birthday....Snow fashions....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 240, Vol. 13:—Timber-topping for victory....19 nations sever Axis ties....Junk Axis medals....President's birthday cake....Fashions....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 241, Vol. 13:—Air battle in Mediterranean....President's birthday....Churchill in London....Prison aids production....War widows aid defense....Sports.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 45:—Skating championship....Junk Axis medals....Dartmouth knits for Britain....Alien registration....America's minute men....Skyscraper basketball....Poland aids Russia....Russians rout Germans....Jerry Smith goes to Washington.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 46:—President's birthday....The tire problem....Prison aids war effort....Pearl Harbor widows aid defense....Torpedoed tanker safe....Sub victims safe....Lt. Ninninger honored....Turkey prepares....Churchill in England....Convoy battle.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 45, Vol. 13:—Russians rout Germans....Poland aids Russia....Alien registration....Dartmouth knits....Sugar rationing....President's birthday cake....Airmen patrol coast....Skating championship.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 46, Vol. 13:—President's birthday....Convoy battle....Churchill home....War widows aid defense....New Zealand minister in U. S....Prison aids production....Fashions....Sports.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 54, Vol. 15:—MacArthur inspires America....Rio conference ends....Russians rout Nazis....Atlantic patrol....Novel stretcher for air raids....Alien instruction....Beauty queen picked....Sports.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 54, Vol. 15:—Roosevelt honored....Convoy battle....Churchill home....New Zealand envoy arrives....Torpedoed freighter repaired....Prison aids production....War widows in defense...."Quads" celebrate birthday....Sports.

Separate Deals for "Reap the Wild Wind"

"Reap the Wild Wind," Cecil B. DeMille production, which has been designated Paramount's "30th Anniversary Picture," will be sold on separate contracts, Neil F. Agnew, vice-president in charge of distribution, announced Tuesday. He did not reveal percentage terms. Premieres are being scheduled for New York and Hollywood.

Loew-Poli Acquires Theatre

The 800-seat Broadway theatre in Norwich, Conn., has been taken over by the Loew-Poli circuit and will be reopened as a first-run house early in February. The theatre has been under lease by the old Poli circuit to Warner Brothers. The lease expired January 1st and the theatre has reverted to the original operators.

Central Casting Data

Hollywood motion picture extras during 1941, collected a total of $3,118,087.43, for production work, with the average daily rate, including overtime payments, standing at $11.50, according to Central Casting Corp. The total for 1941 was materially higher than in the preceding year, the 1940 wage aggregate hitting $2,529,766.10. The average daily rate in 1940 was $11.08.

Autry On Tour

Gene Autry, Republic's singing cowboy star, will open a tour of his own rodeo in Houston, Tex., February 6th. The rodeo will tour for about four months and at the end of that time Mr. Autry will return to Hollywood to make a new series of pictures.

Century

"THE PROJECTOR OF THE CENTURY"

THE GIRL WHO DIDN'T MARCH IN THE "MARCH OF DIMES"

Somewhere in the industry there may be a spot for a courageous girl who has won her fight against infantile paralysis. Age 26, young, pretty and cheerful. She has worked her way through college in a wheelchair. She has done writing, research, reference, indexing, filing, typing; at all of which she is skilled. Do you know of a job for her? Box 100, MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

*An international association of showmen meeting weekly
in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress*

A-MIKE VOGEL, Chairman and Editor

GERTRUDE MERRIAM, Associate Editor

Security—What They Think About It

The telephone shrilled, and it was from a newly appointed assistant manager entering showbusiness after many years of successful selling in other lines. Despite his accomplishments in merchandising, war priorities had done him in, as they have others. Since his background, his temperament, and instinctive feel for showmanship qualified him quickly for a theatre post, the ex-salesman is now able to enter upon a new career with every expectation that his talents will open a reassuring road to the future.

"This is a great outfit," he said. "More than anything else, these folks impart a definite sense of security. I feel that I've belonged here for years. That's more than I can say about a lot of bigger jobs in my experience in the past."

* * *

In the recent mails is a letter from one of the more active members who has been with his circuit for 14 years. He was somewhat disturbed to hear a brother-manager confide that after 12 years in one post the brother would like to "get out of showbusiness into something secure".

Our correspondent points out that in all the years with his circuit he has witnessed many business depressions when "secure" business houses crashed, turning out employees with years of loyal service. Yet, in these periods of turmoil and fear the Round Tabler notes he never lost a day's time or pay. He finishes in saying:

"If security means one town or one job the rest of our lives, we haven't any. But if it means working every day and paid each week, then we have got it. Showmen jump around. Sure, because of new theatres, better jobs. They are not the only ones who do. They just happen to be the ones we know about."

* * *

Following which came a visit from one of the Round Table's good friends, a circuit head who, by his personality, understanding and sympathy, leads an operation known for ace showmanship and contented workers. And one of the main reasons, he was cajoled into admitting, was his process of salvaging manpower.

For instance, if a good man became too involved with outside financial obligations, the practice was to lend the unhappy theatreman a hand to pull him out. If an able manager was heaved out of a job because of his carelessness with the petty cash, and not with deliberate intent, our friend, like as not, would take on the lad and keep him in line by keeping his carelessness under control. For the most part, the showmen given this unexpected opportunity are grateful enough to pay off like a slot machine. They know they have security if they deliver. And they do.

Not all the cheers are for Arnold Stoltz and Frank Bickers-staff. The 1941 Quigley Grand Awards winners would be among the first to lead the applause for the many theatre-men, active up to the last minute in the yearly Competitions and making it very hard for the judges to decide.

Congratulations are indeed in order for the scores of hard-hitters who helped to make the 1941 Awards the biggest and best yet in the eight years of this showman's project.

* * *

Another communication from a former Round Tabler, for some time now engaged in outside labors, after a number of years with one of the better-held circuits. As far as it goes, the job is satisfactory, he notes, working conditions not hard to take, and so forth. However, some executive changes made recently are not too reassuring, and the homesick showman sums up his grievances in saying, "It's not the showbusiness."

It is apparent that economic conditions have great influence on job-longevity in general business, affecting those of especial and long-experienced skills as well. It is also apparent that the able showman finds a steady demand for his talents, even stimulated in times when otherwise highly paid hands are grateful for bread-and-butter shelter.

At its best, theatre business is a process of personal contacts, long hours, quick changes and operational procedure apart from conventional endeavors. It makes for loyalties, intimacies, jealousies and other aspects perhaps described best as the "family" characteristic. Headache or no, that same family aspect undoubtedly has much to do with a security that outside businesses fail to convey.

A-Mike Vogel

Round Table in Pictures

Boy picketed the front of the Fox Theatre, in Winnipeg, Manitoba, as part of Bernie Beach's date on "Love Crazy". Copy on card was self-explanatory.

Street ballys of no mean proportions seem to be the order of the day in Nagpur, Malay, as witness float illustrated below for date on "Thief of Bagdad" at the Regent Cinema. Driven by oxen, the float was preceded by native boys beating drums.

Target practice machine was planted in front of the State, Springfield, Ohio, by M. H. Chakeres ahead of his date on "Target in the Night".

Plastic cowboys, lassos, guns, etc., against a sky effect background was used for lobby display on "Badlands of Dakota" by Ben Cohn at the Frolic in Chicago.

Giant cartoon lobby display was created by Round Tabler Maurice Druker for his date on "The Corsican Brothers" at Loew's State, in Memphis.

LATE EXPLOITATION FLASHES

CANADIAN AIRMEN GUESTS AT "CLOUDS" PREMIERE

Since the picture, made in Canada last summer, shows how Royal Canadian Air Force flyers are produced, 200 members of the organization, including precision drill squadron and band, are among the features arranged for the opening of "Captains of the Clouds" at the New York Strand. The airmen will parade to the theatre where an exhibition drill will be given before the opening. Plans have also been made for the Canadians to present an air force flag to Mayor LaGuardia.

GLAZER TIES "CONFIRM" TO NEWS TIP CONTEST

Using the war correspondent background of "Confirm or Deny" at the Paramount, in Boston, Martin Glazer, ad head, arranged with one of the dailies to give cash and theatre tickets to readers furnishing news tips of local happenings. Promotion ran for a full week, during which time the paper ran two and three column action shots from the picture to build up interest in the tie-in. In all, over 1,000 free lines were landed on the stunt on which Manager Ben Rosenberg cooperated.

LYKES DISTRIBUTES DIAPERS FOR ADDED PLUGS ON "BABES"

Full-size diapers, imprinted with theatre copy and mailed to columnists, radio commentators and other publicity sources were utilized by Arnold Gates to introduce "Babes on Broadway" at Loew's Park, in Cleveland, the unusual novelty proving successful in garnering some extra plugs for the date.

The tie-in line on the didy read: "The prize baby of the year"; picture and theatre copy followed.

JOHNSON TIES SUGAR LACK TO "DESIGN FOR SCANDAL"

When the Dolgeville, N. Y., grocers temporarily ran out of sugar recently, Bill Johnson hooked into the publicity by rounding up some cartons of lump sugar and small coin envelopes lettered: "Valuable, rare, priceless. Do not destroy, open now, handle with care". One lump was placed in each envelope, together with a small mimeographed slip carrying "sugar" tie-in copy for "Design for Scandal" at the Smalley Theatre.

LIVE ALLIGATOR GAG SELLS FOR HAMMITT

The live alligator pressbook suggestion on "Swamp Water", used successfully by Guy D. Hammitt for the date at the Strand, in Crawfordsville, Ind., brought a half-column story, plus theatre credits, from the local papers' drama editor.

STOLTZ DISTRIBUTES SUGAR RATION CARDS

The timeliness with which Arnold Stoltz makes his novelty tie-ins is again indicated in the sugar ration card for "The Vanishing Virginian" at Warner's Avon, Utica, N. Y. Picture copy occupied other side, plus merchant tie-in which paid for the promote.

SCOTT TIES THEATRE TO PARALYSIS DRIVE

For his contribution to the Round Table, J. R. Scott, manager of Schine's Liberty, in Pikeville, Ky., forwards a front-page smash secured by the new member as a result of tie-in with the local committees for the Infantile Paralysis Drive.

Learning that the festivities were called off due to lack of suitable ballroom, Scott sold the idea of a theatre benefit on "Pulham" for which a generous portion of the grosses were turned over to the fund. In appreciation, the committee put over a strong drive to fill the house.

TIES "VALLEY" DRIVE TO SNEAK PREVIEW

The familiar device of a sneak preview used for the first time at the Bonham, in Fairbury, Neb., in advance of "How Green Was My Valley" is reported by Jimmie Redmond to have added immeasurably in selling the picture. Two weeks ahead, postcards to the mailing list announced that the preview would be held, withholding the title of the attraction. Invitations to clergymen were also extended. On the preview day two girls called every number in the city phone book to further spread the word. At the showing, comment cards were handed out, the favorable response made up into mammoth lobby display.

CHARLIE McCARTHY 'PHONES "LAUGHING" GUEST TICKETS

Folks in Sarnia, Ontario, were offered an opportunity to see "Look Who's Laughing" at the Capitol, "for free", in a newspaper tie-in made by Bill Burke who hooked it to the classified page. The daily ran display ads of Charlie McCarthy holding a telephone, with a tag line: "Is Charlie McCarthy calling your number today?" Each day different phone numbers were listed, with those identifying themselves receiving guest tickets to the show.

Burke also took advantage of the radio names in the picture to tie in with leading equipment shops for large co-op ads featuring star cuts.

CANADIAN ARP HEADS PLUG MARCH OF TIME

Situated on the Canadian west coast, where blackouts are in order, the Capitol, in Nanaimo, British Columbia, was given an extra publicity splurge on Manager Mel Gow's promotion behind MOT's "When Air Raids Strike". Leaders of the Air Raid Precautions organizations were contacted by the FPC theatreman for mention in daily air raid columns. Supervisor of Schools also got behind the date, as did local army heads.

ORIGINAL MOVIE SCRIPT OFFERED ON "VALLEY"

For "How Green Was My Valley" at Loew's Poli, in Hartford, Manager Lou Cohen promoted himself a copy of the script used in production, offering it as a prize in a newspaper essay contest which, he notes, brought a response far above anything he has used lately in the way of publicity competitions.

Entrants were invited to send in essays running from 50 to 100 words on the subject: "What incident or time of your youth can you recall most clearly?" Paper got behind it for quite a spread, spotlighting it with a series of box announcements.

CANDID CAMERA STUNT HELD BIG BY COTTOM

Worked successfully for some time by Manager Bob Cottom at the Fox West Coast Nile, in Bakersfield, Calif., is a candid camera stunt in which the Round Tabler takes shots of people along the streets, aimed particularly at women. Photos are displayed at the boxoffice, one at a time, and changed daily. Accompanying copy read: "Is this a photograph of you? You are invited to be our guest absolutely free today to see," etc. Small photos are printed purposely, so that folks will come up close to the boxoffice to identify their likenesses.

Schiners Greet "Valentine Day"

"It's not as big as some holidays, but what possibilities. Married folks and sweethearts. Oldsters and youngsters. Confectioners and florists. Get 'em all."

That's the premise on which the Schine managers are working in their campaigns for "St. Valentine's Day," the sound advice given in the Seymour Morris manual to get the most of the holiday. The theme of the circuit promotion is "Take your sweetheart to the movies for Valentine's Day," this being stressed in all advertising. Band shorts as added attractions are being booked generally.

Flowers and candy are the most popular tie-ins for giveaways, co-op ads and window displays. Dance spots are also considered in an advance contest wherein large imprinted cutout hearts, numbered, are suspended from the ceiling. At a signal, dancing stops and a number called out. Couple standing under the heart with the corresponding number receives guest ticket. Number slants are also being used at the theatres, with those holding cards corresponding to numbers displayed in lobby, invited to bring their sweethearts to see the show "on the house." Flowers with imprinted tags attached lead in florist tieups, and free corsages to the first 50 or 100 women patrons attending the evening "Valentine's" show are also popular.

Feature Kiddie Shows

Numbered boy-and-girl card is another dependable. Here, two sets of differently colored cards, each set carrying a controlled amount of duplicate numbers. One set is distributed to high school boys, the other to girls and those who find the matching cards attend the show together. Special seats may also be reserved as a "Sweethearts' Row."

Since this year's holiday comes on a Saturday, kiddie shows will be featured, such as "Valentine Day Revue" tie-in with dancing school for stage presentation with prizes promoted and free candy to all. Amateur kid shows and kiddie costume carnival are also being planned.

While at the Lex, Chicago, last year, Ray Wheeler put on a Valentine Candy Gift Night centered around the drawing for 25 two-pound boxes of fine candies promoted from a neighborhood confectionery. Advertised widely and included in the marquee copy, the extra attraction drew very well in added business. The candy man was pleased with the results crediting the tie-in for his increased sales for the holiday.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Old Bannered Jalopy Sells "Blues" for Smith

Used one day in advance and during run of "Birth of the Blues" was Clyde Smith's special street bally for the date at the Malco Paramount, in Hot Springs. Five piece band rode about town in an old model Ford touring car bannered in keeping with the picture, theatre credits prominently displayed. The ballyhoo made all schools, tourist camps, hotels, theatres, etc. Newspaper included announcement ads and teasers five days in advance with special art and story one day ahead. Entire staff wore title arm bands, numerous window cards were planted.

That's Heflinger, Second from Left

Twin Premiere By Heflinger

What he termed a "Twin Western world premiere" on "The Singing Hill" and "Man from Montana" was put across by Manager John Heflinger at the Lafayette, in St. Louis, the celebration aimed largely in honor of Gene Autry to whom a giant postcard signed by 1,500 patrons was addressed. Featured lobby display was made up of the star in Hollywood receiving the postcard along with wire from Autry expressing his thanks and congratulations on the coming show.

Merchant cooperation was built around a "lucky number" calendar with which Heflinger flooded the surrounding area. Cards were paid for by merchants who displayed sets of numbers in their windows which was called to attention in the card copy, winners receiving merchandise prizes. At the theatre, during the run of the previous Autry picture, heralds were distributed. The neighborhood newspapers tied in to the event with co-op pages in which the merchants also participated.

The featured outside event was a giant western show with full-blooded Indian chief in costume, trained horses and old-time cowboys. This was put on at noon immediately before the opening with hundreds gathered to witness the bally and to crowd into the theatre immediately afterwards. To further emphasize the background, Heflinger put on a rodeo night, the entire personnel in full western regalia for added color. An idea of the costuming is noted in the photo above which shows some of the cowhand theatre-men with Heflinger second from the left.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Police and Traffic Agents Aid Dinny on "Sundown"

In cooperation with E. V. Dinerman, advertising and publicity chief of the RKO division offices in Cincinnati, the Police Department and Traffic Safety Council there, who have adopted a slogan of "Slow Down after Sundown," for the occasion, are awarding admission tickets to "Sundown," playing the RKO Grand theatre week of Jan. 23, to safety-minded automobile drivers. Officers in the police courtesy cruiser, which regularly traverses the downtown streets to maintain traffic regulations, cite for awards such drivers as they observe performing some unusual act of safety.

What's Poppin'— "Hellzapoppin'"

For his campaign on "Hellzapoppin'" at the RKO Palace, in Rochester, N. Y., City Manager Jay Golden divided the promotion into two parts, particularly aimed at a stage party on the opening night and fashioned to resemble as closely as possible the stage show where the gag gifts were presented to the audience. Three gifts valued at twenty-five dollars each were promoted in addition to cake of ice, live chickens, corsages for men and two plants.

The show opened with an organ solo, singing of the national anthem and raising of the American flag. The master of ceremonies then came upon the stage shooting guns and presenting himself as an ambassador of Olsen and Johnson and reading a telegram from the stars to announce that a sealed envelope would be delivered at the theatre by Western Union during the evening. The audience was then told to seek under their seats for special tags which would be exchanged for dollar bills. A plant in the audience sold peanuts and popcorn and the "Mrs. Jones" gag from the stage show was also used.

Stars Donate Ring

Contributing to the confusion was the house porter who worked the aisles with a squeaky wheel-barrow. The promoted gifts were also given away on a lucky number stunt, the audience given numbered pieces of stage money. Climax of the evening came with the delivery of the message from the stars in New York, the prize being a wedding ring to be given to some engaged couple in the audience. Golden played up the gift by having the ring presented by one of the leading citizens for further publicity.

The general campaign included a record made in New York announcing the coming of the picture and used over local radio stations. Since the Red Cross was in the midst of its drive at the time, much was made of the fact that Olsen and Johnson had made a deposit of ten dollars in a Rochester bank ten years ago to be delivered with compound interest at the end of 150 years to the then mayor for charitable purposes. For the occasion, the money was released by the stars and presented to the Red Cross with an extra gift, all of which was elaborately detailed by the press.

In Providence, the French-Morton due stirred up interest in the date at the RKO Albee with an audience stunt at a local ice show. At the height of the activities, cards previously distributed each carrying one letter of the title were held before the audience to spell out picture and title. In advance a "Hellzapoppin'" party was held at a popular night spot with giveaways and prizes in keeping.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Clergy Aids on "Heaven"

Syd Poppay, manager of Warners' State and Majestic theatres in Gettysburg, Pa., got full co-operation from the local ministerium for "One Foot in Heaven" by personally appearing before a meeting of the group. It became almost compulsory for the high school students to see the picture when Poppay arranged with the English teacher to have the students write essays.

SOMETHING ON AD COPY THAT SELLS TICKETS

Set down on this page and illustrated are thoughts on newspaper advertising by Pat Patchen, the reproductions in these instances on pictures played by the Round Tabler at his former post, the Mesa, in Grand Junction, Colo. Pat credits Bedell's "How To Write Advertising That Pays" for some of his ideas which he has adapted here and on which he will dwell further in next week's issue.

by E. A. "PAT" PATCHEN
Manager, Chief, Pueblo, Colo.

Motion picture advertising today has become a pretty routine affair. Ads are being written to fill so much newspaper space rather than so many theatre seats. They are beautiful, they are flashy, they are big—but they fall flat on their face when it comes to selling because they lack the guts of hard-hitting copy to send their message home.

Most press sheets are filled with attractive ad layouts, but unfortunately that's about as far as they go. It is unfortunate because most of them find their way onto the amusement page without any changes at all. Word for word, credit for credit, they go to work in a paper crowded with competitive ads and news, all screaming for attention.

Of course, the ads have attention value through good art, typography and engraving—no doubt they get the reader's attention. But, it's what the salesman says after he rings your doorbell that makes the sale. And, here is where the manager can make his most important and telling contribution to his theatre advertising—putting in copy that sells.

Ad Must Stop Reader

The first job of any ad is to stop the reader. If the ad isn't even seen, it can't sell. Tricks for getting attention are as limitless as your own ingenuity in making layouts and writing catchlines. But be careful your "attention hook" is a legitimate one, something that definitely stops the reader, then leads him on into the ad.

A three-column "HELP" across the top of a theatre ad would certainly catch the eye. But isn't the reader let down when the follow-up reads something like this, "our ushers can't handle the crowds coming to see. . . .?"

If you are using a tricky attention hook to catch your readers, be sure they don't get away after you've caught them. Lead them immediately into your ad, start selling from scratch.

Watch "Clever" Ads

In the examples illustrating the legitimate use of a trick "attention hook" (center column) note how the copy goes to work almost as soon as the eye stops. They arouse curiosity, then lead the reader into the ad instead of letting him lose interest to turn

CORRECTION

This ad on "Affectionately Yours" was written before we saw the picture! After last night's preview we wanted to stop the presses, write it over and really tell you what a swell show it was . . . but it was too late! All we can say now is—ask someone who was there! We never saw so many people laugh so hard before! And if we know you—here's where you'll find your fun today!

UNFAIR!

NOTICE:

The Chief Theatre has 364 other days in the year besides ours to put on a big show like this. Organized Turkeyes are not getting their proper attention today because everyone in Pueblo is talking about this swell movie!

(Signed) TOM TURKEY,
Secretary Local 00

P. S.—What really burns us up though is that they even added a DONALD DUCK cartoon and MARCH OF TIME to that feature! They must be c-r-a-z-y!

Patchen "Attention-Hook" Copy

the page, thus losing him completely.

Start your copy with a bang, but follow through. Don't let the reader down. Promise something in your headline, then show that you weren't kidding. The old school of "Hell, said the duchess" headline writers got attention, but that was all. You want to sell tickets.

When you start getting comments on your "clever" ads—watch out! You're selling your ads, not your show. Don't make them conscious of your ad. Make them say "that for me" and get up and go. You haven't sold a ticket until your reader says "Let's go." And, the burden of your selling load rests on the copy in your ad, what it says to the customer.

One of the most common faults in writing copy that sells is forgetting the reader—omitting the "you attitude." Don't think of your ad only. Think of the person it is going to talk to, and the "you attitude" will mean a lot more than merely sticking the letters y-o-u into your copy. For example, take these catchlines:

"You Will Find This the Best Show in Town!"

"You'll Think They Made This Just for You!"

Although the first one says "you," it obviously isn't thinking of "you." It is thinking of the show only. The second one has a very definite "you" slant to it. It flatters you and makes you want to read on.

Also the "you attitude" can be carried on into your copy, for example, to follow up the second headline above:

"It's gay and lighthearted the way you like romances . . . filled with songs you know and like . . . dances you've dreamed about. It's packed with just the kind of fun you like best."

Remember this, there is no one (no one, but you) standing by, waiting breathlessly for the evening paper so he can gaze fondly upon your theatre ad for the day. And there is no one (no one, but you) who is going to spend precious reading time embracing every word again and again.

Your ad must earn every sale it makes, and it has a hard job to do. Make certain that it is right—down to the last 6-point line of type, see that every word sells. It's not easy, but as General Bedford Forrest said, you've got to "Git thar fustest with the mostest men." You've got to get to your reader first, with the most selling ideas, and if you do, you've made a sale.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Letter Writing Contest Aids "Citizen Kane"

Manager Mildred Bishop of the Liberty Theatre, Lewiston, Idaho, tied-in with the local paper and station KRLC for a letter writing contest as the highlight of her campaign on "Citizen Kane." The paper sponsored the contest in which readers were asked to write a 50-word letter on the "Best Value in Homes for Sale" in the Suburban Property Columns of the paper. Tickets were awarded winners whose names were listed daily on the ad page.

The Liberty Theatre arranged for the distribution of 10,000 gag heralds in out-of-town situations and ads were arranged to appear in the Lewiston Shopping News which is distributed through the neighboring towns with this, scene and fashion art on the picture also appeared.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Alldritt Hosts Localites At Theatre Anniversary

In celebration of the theatre's 25th anniversary, Don Alldritt of the Strand, Salina, Kansas, arranged an effective stunt by inviting as his guests ten local residents who had attended the original opening of the house. These were interviewed in lobby broadcasts. His anniversary picture was "Unholy Partners," and as a sensational lobby display Don secured front pages from newspapers throughout the country and mounted them on a board.

BRIEF REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

Two weeks prior to the opening of "One Foot In Heaven," Carl Hermann, manager of the Capitol Theatre, Pottsville, Pa., held a special showing for the clergy and the press with the clergy carrying announcements of the show in their weekly church pamphlets. For "Keep 'Em Flying," Hermann arranged for the mayor to issue a proclamation on "Keep 'Em Flying Week." The American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, auxiliaries of both organizations and the local high school band paraded prior to the picture's opening.

In conjunction with the opening of "How Green Was My Valley," George Balkin, manager of Warners' Aldine Theatre, Philadelphia, presented 15 copies of the book to the free library system of Philadelphia.

To exploit "Look Who's Laughing," C. Harry Schreiber, manager of the RKO Palace in Columbus, Ohio, is awarding two tickets to the person submitting the best slogan for defense during the run of the picture this week.

A pair of lovebirds were given to two youngsters in Mt. Vernon, Ind., at the conclusion of a coloring contest in the Daily Democrat there as part of the exploitation campaign for "Tarzan's Secret Treasure" at the Vernon. The birds were sent to Mt. Vernon by Maureen Sullivan, star in the film. The stunt was arranged by Manager Louis Davis and Irv Waterstreet, M-G-M field exploitation man.

A contest asking readers to name the feminine stars of former Clark Gable productions was one of the publicity angles of the "Honky Tonk" campaign put over by John Mitchell, Genesee, Waukegan, Ill., for guest ticket prizes.

A "Hoe Down" dance contest at a local ballroom was one of the highlights of Ed Fitzpatrick's "Babes on Broadway" campaign for its Loew's Poli, Waterbury, engagement.

Much was made locally over Clay Cornell's date on "Down Mexico Way," since the Round Tabler sold his opening at Schine's State, Tupper Lake, N. Y., as "Gene Autry Day". Lobby streamers of Autry song title covers were used, telegram from the Western star featured in advance and merchant windows sniped with "Shop now and see how. It's Gene Autry Day". Using this selling line, Clay prepared a story to the effect that it was the first time the theatre had ever honored a single star that way and also stressed the giveaway of Autry photos at matinee.

KEEP 'EM COMING! BY USING EACH WEEK

$8 per 100 Dated JUMBO CARDS 22X28

3 COLORS - FULL PICTORIAL

WRITE FOR SAMPLES STATE PRODUCT USED

CENTRAL SHOW PRINTING COMPANY WASHINGTON, D. C.

"INSTITUTIONALS"

BY ED HARRIS

Inaugurated two years ago by Ed Harris, at the Glendale, Glendale, Calif., an institutional slogan campaign, in ads, lobby and on screen, is credited by the Round Tabler for steadily increasing grosses. Aimed to sell the habit of attendance, the copy is changed weekly, the following being some of the shots used to keep the theatre in the public eye.

For That Tired Feeling..Enjoy a Movie Tonic... It'll Pep You Up.

If This Picture Brought You Happiness, Please Tell Your Friends, so They Can Enjoy It, Too.

Feel Run Down?... A Movie Tune-up Will Give You the Added Zip.

A Good Investment in Happiness... Treat the Family to the Movies.

If You Feel Upset..Enjoy a Movie at This Theatre... It'll Relax Your Nerves

The Best Health Tonic... Get the Glendale Movie Habit.

Health Prescription.. Enjoy a Movie Tonic at Least Once a Week... It's Good for What Ails You.

"A Good Laugh Now and Then Is Relished by Best of Men"... Let's Go to the Movies.

Throw Away Your Pills... A Movie Tonic Will Cure Your Ills.

Movie Relaxation Is Healthy and Lots of Fun... Treat the Family... They'll Enjoy It.

For Best Living..It's Democracy... For Best Relaxation..It's the Movies.

After Dinner..Treat Your Guests to the Movies... Relax in Comfort While You Are Entertained.

After a Good Day's Work..Give Your Body a Rest with a Movie Tonic..It's Healthy Relaxation.

An excellent library tie-up proved highly effective during Ed Fitzpatrick's "H. M. Pulham, Esq." campaign for its Loew's, Waterbury, engagement. He virtually took possession of the Bronson Library, which devoted almost its entire theatre section to "Pulham" displays. A life-size standee of Robert Young, a 40x60 card, a 6-foot book cut-out and three still display boards were spotted around the reading room. All tables displayed playdate announcements in special holders.

To help build "Hudson's Bay" at the Columbia, St. Thomas, Ontario, Mel Jolley ran a contest in local daily called a Muni Quiz, asking readers to name five hits in which Muni had starred. Six-sheet was planted at side theatre wall ten days ahead and letter went out over the theatremen's signature to all public schools advising them of the historical angle of the picture.

Sporting good stores came through solidly for T. Teschner's date on "The Pittsburgh Kid" at the Loew Poli-Bijou, in New Haven with one shop located in the heart of the University featuring montages of world heavyweight champions from Sullivan to Joe Louis with appropriate tien copy. Press-book stunt was used with pug dressed in trunks followed by another lad with a gong, team shadow boxing as crowds gathered. Lads dressed in heavy sweaters would trot down the streets with back signs reading "I'm in training to be in the best of condition to see", etc., etc.

The wallpaper herald was used ahead of "Look Who's Laughing" by Mel Blieden for that date at the State, in Anderson, Ind. Distributed some days ahead, copy read, "We are tearing the wallpaper off our walls to make room for the crowds to see", etc.

To sell his date on "Sergeant York" at the Ohio, in Mansfield, Ohio, Bill Harwell featured a reserve-seat premiere with the American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps appearing on the stage as a prologue. For a week in advance, Harwell used a shadow box under his screen, the entire width of the screen, reading, "Coming Soon. 'Sergeant York'". This was done in beaverboard cut-out letters with green tissue paper pasted on and lighted from behind with electric lights.

Readers of the Meriden Record were asked by Joe Samartano, Loews Poli-Palace, Meriden, Conn., to find hidden figures of Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland in a "Find the 'Babes on Broadway'" contest. Tie-ups with practically every music shop in the city; taxi bumper strips, soda fountain displays and dress and millinery shop tie-ups also were used with great effectiveness during the campaign.

Max Korr, operator of the Earle Theatre, Allentown, Pa., arranged for a big parade of bands, uniformed Boy Scouts and other organizations preceding the opening of "Keep 'Em Flying." In addition, he arranged for a squadron of army planes flying overhead and dropping thousands of leaflets on the picture.

Round Tabler Leo Trainor, manager of the Rialto Theatre, Allentown, Pa., arranged a contest with the local newspapers providing for tie-ups with eight advertisers on the opening day of "Kathleen." Three winners received three $25 defense bonds, as well as one such bond to the newsboy who sold the most stamps during the week in advance of the picture. All the bonds were given on behalf of Shirley Temple.

SOME RECENT AD IDEAS

TODAY RKO TEMPLE

SEE CONFISCATED NAZI TERROR FILMS

THE PICTURE EVERY AMERICAN SHOULD SEE

SEE THE STARTLING EVENTS THAT LED TO TWO WORLD WARS

AMERICA AT WAR 1917-1941

AS DEPICTED IN "RAMPARTS WE WATCH"

Plus GEORGE RAFT ANN SHERIDAN
IDA LUPINO MUMPHREY BOGART

"THEY DRIVE BY NIGHT"

(Below) Reverse panels and circles to aid the copy slant on "Lady For A Night" at the Palomar, Seattle, were tied to star silhouettes, second feature and vaudeville units to sell the show as a whole. Size: 180 lines on 3 col.

PALOMAR
VAUDEVILLE

Starts TOMORROW

Meet JENNIE BLAKE... A "JEZEBEL" OF THE SOUTH WHO WANTED TO BE A LADY... IF ONLY FOR AN EVENING!

SHE CAME OUT OF THE SHADOWS TO BE A...

LADY FOR A NIGHT

starring JOAN BLONDELL
JOHN WAYNE
(STAR OF "SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS")

AND SUPPORTED BY THE FAMED BROADWAY PLAYERS
PHILIP MERIVALE • BLANCHE YURKA
and THE HALL JOHNSON CHOIR

A REPUBLIC TRIUMPH
Directed by LEIGH JASON

ON STAGE
Nation's Headline
VAUDEVILLE
LLOYD & WILLIS
"HOLLYWOOD'S FAVORITE TUNE TAPPERS"

DU BARRIE'S | BURNETTE & HUGHES | KITTY MULLIGAN
BIRDLAND | "MAGICAL GLAMOUR" | "SONG NOVELTIES"
VAL SETZ "THE JUGGLING JESTER"

*20¢
TILLS 8 P. M.
42¢
EVENINGS (Plus Tax)
EXCEPT SATURDAYS SUNDAYS & HOLIDAYS

(Left) Timeliness of M.O.T.'s "Ramparts We Watch" decided Lou Mayer to top his billing at the RKO Temple, Rochester, as noted in this reverse 70 lines on 2 col. engraver's proof, retabbing the feature as "America At War".

(Right) The "prescription tonic" slant layout for the Washington Loew's houses did the trick, according to Dan Terrell, emphasized in the "A B C D" vitamins. Size: 75 lines on 2 col.

(Below) "Sleeper" copy, illustrated with bordering cuts, was selected by Paul O. Klinger to stimulate interest in "Joe Smith" at the Rialto, Lewis-ton, Pa. Size: 150 lines on 3 col.

Let's talk about a "SLEEPER!"

A "SLEEPER," in show business parlance, is one of those pictures that comes along at most any time, unheralded, and without a big advance build-up and is destined to be one of the biggest shows of the year.

SUCH a great picture is "JOE SMITH, AMERICAN," which has its Pennsylvania premiere at THE RIALTO starting Thursday.

YOU may have heard little about "JOE SMITH, AMERICAN," but believe you us, you'll be hearing plenty after it "breaks" in Lewis-town. And you'll be hearing a lot more about this outstanding entertainment long after it leaves Lewistown.

WE'VE seen it. We know.

WE'LL stake our reputation in show business that you'll come out and say "There's one of the best shows I've ever seen at THE RIALTO!"

YES, "JOE SMITH, AMERICAN" is a "sleeper," but it will surely open YOUR peepers!

"JOE SMITH, AMERICAN"

Starring ROBERT YOUNG and MARSHA HUNT

"The Story of an American Hero in Overalls"

PENNSYLVANIA PREMIERE

Rialto

Starts THURSDAY

(Below) The high value of his accompanying shorts program at Loew's, Harrisburg, Pa., was indicated by Sam Gilman, in giving equal ad space and position to the extra units, as noted, topped by "Main Street On the March". Size: 55 lines on 2 col.

NOW!

EXTRA!

All-out America!
MAIN STREET ON THE MARCH!

Narrated By JOHN NESBITT

A Vivid Vital Report of U. S. Defenses!

AND FOR MORE ENJOYMENT
PETE SMITH
NOVELTY
"HOW TO HOLD YOUR HUSBAND BACK"

plus Greta GARBO
MELVYN DOUGLAS
in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's
TWO-FACED WOMAN
with CONSTANCE TAYLOR and ROLAND BENNETT

Gay, Warm Laughing

LOEW'S

Rx NOT AN "ESCAPE" BUT A TONIC!

Loew's CAPITOL Fat 14th
NOW ... Doors Open 10:45
"The BUGLE SOUNDS"
with WALLACE BEERY
MARJORIE MAIN • LEWIS STONE
Stage GEORGE BANCROFT
CROSS & DUNN • PAUL GERRITS

A-venture
B-oy-Meets-Girl
C-omedy
D-rama

Loew's PALACE Fat 13th
NOW ... Doors Open 10:45
"HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY"
Walter PIDGEON • Maureen O'HARA

A-B-C-D
A-B
C-D

Loew's COLUMBIA Fat 12th
NOW ... Doors Open 10:45
Mickey ROONEY • Judy GARLAND
"BABES ON BROADWAY"

GET YOUR ENTERTAINMENT VITAMINS!

(Below) Strong selling to introduce the new star in "Joan of Paris" at the New York Rivoli was centered in a series of full reverse plate art shots, represented in this 160 lines on 3 col., balanced by critic quotes and theatre copy.

"A rigidly exciting and tenderly moving film" —N. Y. Times

"Michele Morgan is the best thing that's happened to Hollywood in years" —N. Y. World-Telegram

MICHELE MORGAN PAUL HENREID

Joan of Paris

THOMAS MITCHELL LAIRD CREGAR MAY ROBSON

Directed by Robert Florey

Produced by Royal Hemphill

DOORS OPEN 9:30 A. M. UNITED ARTISTS RIVOLI Broadway at 49th Street Midnite Shows

personalities

FRANCIS ANDERSON

has been named manager of the RKO Palace, in Rochester, with JAMES McALLISTER, formerly of Keith's Memorial in Boston, as assistant. Other changes announced by Jay Golden, city manager, include: ARTHUR KROLICH becomes manager of the Century and HAROLD MARTZ moves from the Capitol to succeed Krolich at the Regent. To the Capitol goes WALLACE P. FOLKINS, formerly with Schine, HARRY PARTRIDGE, chief of service at the Regent, goes to the RKO Temple as acting assistant manager. Partridge succeeds ED BURTON, recalled to the army.

▽

WILBUR GRANT

is now managing Warner's Manor, in Philadelphia, replacing FRED BOAS, who was elevated to the managerial helm at the Vernon Theatre, in Germantown. ANDREW SCHECHTMAN, former manager of the Vernon, moved up to a similar post at the Allegheny Theatre where he replaced BILL WOLF, who was promoted as manager of the Diamond Theatre.

▽

HAROLD MIRISH

associated with Warner's for the past 15 years, most recently in Milwaukee, has joined the RKO Theatres film booking department.

▽

EDWARD A. SMITH

has been appointed city manager of the Springfield, Mass., houses of Western Massachusetts Theatres.

▽

ED WHALEY

manager of the closed Madrid, in Kansas City has moved to the Gladstone holding down CHARLEY MORRILL'S post while the latter is in the hospital.

▽

HOWARD SHAVER

assistant manager at the Feeley Theatre, in Hazelton, Pa., has been named assistant manager at the Capitol, succeeding EDWARD KRAPE, who joined the U. S. Army.

▽

JACKSON T. ECHENRODE

assistant at the Orpheum, in Wilkes Barre, has been promoted to assistant at the Penn Theatre, filling the vacancy left when FRANK ALEXANDER enlisted in the army. GEORGE WALSH, doorman at the Irving Theatre has been promoted to assistant manager at the Orpheum.

▽

CLIFF GIESSEMAN

manager of the RKO Uptown, in Highland Park, Mich., will replace GEORGE BOLE as manager of the RKO Golden Gate, San Francisco. Bole has resigned to join Universal Studio. NORMAN ELK, manager of the RKO 105th Street Theatre, Cleveland, will replace Giessman.

▽

SOL SHAFER

manager of Schine's Liberty, in Rochester, leaves for a three months vacation in the south. KEN WOODWARD of the West End takes over in his absence, and HERBERT GORDON of the Lake goes to the West End.

WILLIAM ALLISON—7 pounds 10 ounces—on Wednesday, January 7th, to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Elder. Dad manages Loew's Theatre in Indianapolis, Ind.

▽

FRED ANTHONY—weight, seven pounds—on Tuesday, January 6th, to Mr. and Mrs. Gus Morris. Proud daddy is assistant manager at the Sierra Theatre, in Stockton, Calif.

▽

VICKI LEE—weight, six pounds—born January 21st to Mr. and Mrs. Burgess Waltmon. Pop manages the Princess Theatre, in Columbus, Miss.

▽

MALCOLM WILLIAM—weight, 7 pounds 5 ounces—on Sunday, January 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Deitch. Pop is the manager of Warner's Lincoln, in Union City, N. J.

▽

CHARLES ELLSWORTH—weight, 5 pounds 11 ounces—on Wednesday, January 28th, to Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Dillenbeck. Father manages the Rialto Theatre, in Bushnell, Ill.

BIRTHDAYS

Leonard Allen
Stan Andrews
Frank Austin
Walter Bennett
Harry Black
C. J. Bolender
Dave Borland
George Bronson
Claud D. Burrows
John Capano
C. C. Coates
Ted R. Conklin
Charles C. Coolbroth
Ben A. Dyer
James A. Field
Eddie Forester
Malcolm Gilbert
Saul L. Goldstein
Floyd L. Gray
H. T. Grissom, Jr.
Basil R. Hall
Edgar B. Hands
Roy Hanson
Russell Hardwick
Milton S. Harris
Lou S. Hart
Russell V. Hupp
Murray Keillor
Herman Kopf
Martin S. Lane
Raymond C. Langfitt
Harold C. Lee

Otis V. Lloyd
Jerry Lynch
Edward C. McGovern
John J. Maloney
Robert V. Marchbank
Charles Martin
Ralph G. Maser
Walter Murphy
Bill Nelson
Roy L. Patterson
Murray Peck
J. P. Perry
F. Mallory Pittman
Gerald S. Raines
W. Horace Reese
Truman Riley
Gene E. Scott
Robert K. Shapiro
John D. Shultz
Alfred L. Singer
Ted Smith
Mark Solomon
Spencer Steinhurst
Bernie J. Stone
Larry Stone
Ted Stump
David Wald
Thomas Wall
Samuel R. Walter
Leon Webb
Abe P. Werbner
Rodney White

MONTY SALMON

for years manager of the Skouras Beacon Theatre has shifted to the circuit's Park Plaza, in the Bronx, succeeding JACK BOXER, who in turn shifts to the Tuxedo. Salmon is succeeded by CLAYTON CORUM. Other changes include: STURGESS PERRY from the Tivoli, Jersey City, to the Englewood, at Englewood, N. J., and JOE SEMARCO as manager of the Pilgrim in the Bronx.

▽

PAUL BINSTOCK

has replaced GEORGE DEBER as manager of the Sheepshead Theatre, in Brooklyn, J. BRODY succeeds Binstock at the Tuxedo.

▽

DAN MAINWARING

has resigned from the Warner Bros. home office publicity department and has left for the coast.

▽

T. IRVING MARTIN

skipper of six of the Pitts' chain of theatres in Virginia, has been elected president of the Culpeper (Va.) Chamber of Commerce.

▽

L. T. TAYLOR

who has been manager of the Rylander Theatre, Americus, Ga., has returned to Fitzgerald, Ga., where he was manager of the Martin Theatre for several years. New skipper of the Rylander is JOE LUTER, who will also become manager of the new house being erected at Americus by the Martin interests.

▽

C. B. DORTCH

formerly of the Dixie, in Picayune, Miss., has been transferred to the Dixie and Variety Theatres, in Ruston, La.

▽

FRED BOAS

manager of Warner's Manor, in Philadelphia has been transferred to the Vernon; ANDREW SCHECHTMAN switches from the Vernon to the Allegheny and WILLIAM WOLF goes from the Allegheny to the Diamond.

▽

JACK HARROWER

has been appointed West Coast publicity representative for Producers Releasing Corp. to work under Joseph O'Sullivan. Harrower succeeds WILLIAM E. RAYNOR, who has been called into service.

▽

JIMMY KLOS

has been named manager of the Harris-Newsreel, in Pittsburgh succeeding WALTER GOODE, who joined the army. Klos is succeeded at the William Penn by J. O. HOOLEY.

▽

SAMMY ROEN

of Warner's publicity department in Pittsburgh has resigned to become press agent for Baron Elliott's band.

Court Upholds Right of Press Radio Ownership

The right of newspaper publishers to own radio stations was affirmed last week by the United States Court of Appeals. The decision may halt for a time the investigation by the Federal Communications Commission into alleged press-radio control.

The Court ruled that the commission's "investigation was solely for the purpose of the consideration or adoption of a hard and fast rule or policy, as the result of which newspaper owners may be placed in a proscribed class and thus made ineligible to apply for or receive broadcast licenses."

The ruling further said "Such an investigation would be wholly outside of and beyond any of the powers" with which Congress, through the Communications Act, gave to the FCC. The court held there was nothing in the Act which either prevented or prejudiced the right of a newspaper, as such, to apply for and receive a license to operate a radio broadcast station. The ruling limited the FCC's powers "in inquiry" to ascertaining facts "for its guidance in making reasonable and proper public rules."

In Washington, Arthur Garfield Hays, counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union, testifying at the FCC investigation of newspaper-radio relationships, declared last Friday, that discrimination against newspapers in licensing of radio stations would "be a first step away from sound democratic principles," and that restrictions against the press in radio ownership would be "an interference with free speech."

Representative E. E. Cox of Georgia, introduced a resolution in Congress on Monday, asking for a thorough investigation of the Federal Communications Commission by a select House committee. The proposed inquiry, the resolution declared, "is to determine whether or not such Commission, in its organization, in the selection of personnel, and in the conduct of its activities has been, and is, acting in accordance with law and the public interest."

Congressman Cox told members of the House that Chairman James L. Fly was imposing regulations far beyond what was necessary for the regulation of broadcasting and were "in line with Mr. Fly's efforts to dominate the industry."

Compromise License Suit

As a culmination of the law suit brought in 1940 by the Allied Theatre Owners of Indianapolis against the city, contesting the collection of the $100 city license fee, theatre owners are saving approximately $5,600. This saving is due to a compromise settlement with the city whereby they waived the payment of the fee for 1940 upon payment of the fee for 1941 and 1942.

RKO Contract Suit

A $25,000 breach of contract suit by Beatrice D. Mindlin, as assignee of E. R. Conne, against RKO was revealed Monday when the action was transferred to the federal court from the New York supreme court. The plaintiff claims that RKO failed to use its best efforts in the distribution of "A Family of Nations" in British territories.

IN THE COURTS

ASCAP Seeks Stay In Austrian Action

An application to stay all proceedings in the $150,000 recovery suit of Henry M. Propper as receiver of A. K. M. (Gesellschaft der Autoren, Componisten und Musikverleger) until the end of hostilities between the United States and Germany, was filed in the New York supreme court Thursday, January 29th, by the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

Mr. Propper, representing A. K. M., the Austrian affiliate of ASCAP, seeks to recover the money allegedly due the Austrian organization in behalf of its expatriate members. ASCAP claims that it is unable to obtain the necessary information on which to make the payment since the A. K. M. books have been removed to Berlin and that no suit can be brought here for any enemy alien.

Schenck Sues Steuer Estate for $75,000

The estate of Max D. Steuer, New York attorney, was sued for $75,000 and interest from August 21st, 1940, in the New York Surrogate's court January 28th, by Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation.

Mr. Schenck in his petition, declared he had retained Mr. Steuer to defend him at his income tax evasion trial, and had paid the attorney $75,000 on account, but that Mr. Steuer died before the trial started and he had to engage other counsel.

Theatre Owner Fined On Lottery Charges

Ricardo Montiel, manager of the Saenger theatre, Mobile, Ala., paid $248.30 in accumulated fees to courts of Alabama last week when it was decided not to appeal a circuit court conviction of operating a lottery in conjunction with operation of Bank Night at the Saenger in 1939. Mr. Montiel was originally fined $25 in the criminal court of Mobile last March 14th but in seeking to establish validity of Bank Night the manager appealed to the higher court. When this appeal was abandoned there was a $150 fee added for the privilege of dismissal of the court, to which was further added the original $25 fine and $73.30 in lower court costs.

Legal advisors had prolonged hearing of the case in a countersuit against the county sheriff on the charge that Mr. Montiel was being discriminated against since bingo games were flourishing in the Alabama city. Bingo games continue to operate over Mobile and motion picture houses in other Alabama cities continue Bank Nights.

Portland Names Censor

Appointment of William B. McCurdy, manager of J. J. Parker theatres, as an alternate for Ted R. Gamble, member of the Portland, Ore., censor board is announced by Mrs. Josephine Forney, secretary. The change was made because of Mr. Gamble's appointment as special adviser of the treasury department.

NVA Benefit Set

The 26th annual benefit of the National Variety Artists will be held Sunday evening, February 15th, at the Imperial theatre in New York. For the past three years George M. Cohan was executive chairman, but this year Fred Allen is handling the affair.

Boyer Named Producer

Universal has signed Charles Boyer as a producer and star under a term contract. No assignments have been made as yet but he will produce an undisclosed number of films.

Court Reaffirms Fox Sentence

For the third time, Judge Guy K. Bard, in the U. S. District Court in Philadelphia, refused to make any change in the year-and-a-day jail term and $3,000 fine he imposed on William Fox. This time, Mr. Fox's counsel, Martin W. Littleton, Jr., went into court Wednesday, January 28th, and argued that "the basic requirement" of a conspiracy conviction had been "destroyed" by the Government's decision to nolle prosequere charges against former Federal Circuit Court Judge J. Warren Davis and attorney Morgan S. Kaufman.

Mr. Fox had pleaded guilty to conspiring with these two to obstruct justice, but the Government failed to convict either of the two defendants in two trials in Philadelphia which ended in hung juries. Since the two men are now free, Mr. Littleton maintained that Mr. Fox could not be guilty in the eyes of the law.

Judge Bard, however, refused to accept that line of reasoning and cited numerous Federal decisions which held that one person can be sentenced for a conspiracy even if the other defendants are not "concurrently or precedently convicted" with him.

In his first effort to sidetrack the sentence, Mr. Littleton asked that Mr. Fox be permitted to withdraw his plea of guilty. On the second try, he unsuccessfully appealed for leniency on the ground that Federal prosecutors promised Mr. Fox not to oppose withdrawal of his guilty plea in event Judge Davis and Mr. Kaufman were not convicted.

Mr. Fox still has pending an appeal to the U. S. Circuit Court from Judge Bard's refusal to let him change his plea of guilty and stand trial. In the meantime, he is free in bail pending decision on this appeal.

Monogram Sued in Contract Action

Louis Solkoff and Hugo Maienthau, who do business as Metropolitan Film Distributors in New York, filed a $100,000 breach of contract suit in the New York supreme court Monday, February 2nd, against Jam Handy Picture Service, Inc.; Monogram Pictures Corp., and Monogram Distributing Corp.

Metropolitan claims that it had a contract for distribution of Jam Handy pictures but that Monogram induced Jam Handy to breach its contract and turn over the distribution to Monogram.

Opera Sues CBS

The Opera Theatre filed suit in the New York federal court Monday against Young & Rubicam, Inc., Columbia Broadcasting System, Management Charles L. Wagner, Inc., Celanese Corp. of America, Frederic W. Wile, Jr., Charles L. Wagner, Edward W. Snowdon, Camille Dreyfus, George Sebastian and Jean Tennyson. The complaint alleges that in March of last year the plaintiff created an original idea for the presentation of opera in a half-hour radio program and that on January 26th, 1942, a series was started over WAAF, Chicago. On the next day, "Great Moments in Music" was started over CBS under the sponsorship of the Celanese Corp. The plaintiff claims a "conspiracy" to deprive it of its rights and seeks an injunction and an accounting of profits.

Drive-In Decision Rendered

The Board of Interference Examiners of the United States Patent Office has rendered a decision in favor of the patent application of S. H. Taylor, Jr., controlled by Park-In Theatres, Inc., Camden, N. J., and against Louis P. Nosserand of Houston, Tex. Effect of this decision is to award to Park-In Theatres a patent on the "drive-over" feature now being used generally in drive-in theatres licensed by Park-In Theatres, Inc.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

*the great national medium
for showmen*

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City

THEATRES

MOVIE THEATRES, NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.
A. SHEUERMAN, 25 Taylor Street, San Francisco.

WANT TO BUY, LEASE OR RENT THEATRE running or closed, equipped or otherwise, located anywhere. State full details in reply. BOX 1489-A,
MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FOR SALE THEATRES IN SEVERAL STATES
now operating. Have several for lease as well. Let me know what size and where you desire to operate.
BOX 1490-A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FOR SALE: PART INTEREST FLOURISHING business seven movie theatres. Address: MEREN-DONI, Teatro Rex, Barranquilla, Colombia.

HAVE CASH TO LEASE OR BUY SMALL town theatre Illinois, Michigan, Indiana or Wisconsin.
BOX 1494, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

POSITION WANTED

PROJECTIONIST, MINNESOTA OR WISCONSIN
preferred. OPERATOR, 313 East Main, Wabasha, Minnesota.

MOTION PICTURE OPERATOR. EIGHTEEN
YEARS EXPERIENCE. BOX 1495, MOTION PIC-TURE HERALD.

BOOKKEEPING SYSTEM

THEATRE MANAGEMENT RECORD AND TAX
Register. This new accounting system is the finest book of its kind ever made available to an exhibitor.
In addition to being complete in every respect, it is simple—so much so that it is not necessary to have had bookkeeping experience in order to keep an accurate, complete and up-to-the-minute record of the business of your theatre. The introductory price is only $2.00 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

USED GENERAL EQUIPMENT

BUY BLOWERS, WASHERS, VARIABLE SPEED
pulleys, motors now. New and used. You'll be disappointed later. SOUTHERNAIRE, 145 Walton, Atlanta, Ga.

FOR SALE: 450 THEATRE SEATS, MARQUEE letters, etc. H. LEVY & SON, 1245 Broadway, Brooklyn, New York, Glenmore 5-5587.

AFTER INVENTORY SALE—GRAB THESE quick! Portable sound projectors, 16mm., 35mm. from $59.50; rear shutters for Simplex, $29.50; film cabinets, $1.49 section; factory rebuilt Series II lenses, any size, $33.95; soundheads, $9.95; amplifiers, $4.95; powers mechanisms, $39.50; cushion seats, 39c. Free bargain bulletins. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP.,
New York.

SOME THEATRE CAN USE YOUR OLD EQUIPment. A little ad here will reach thousands of potential customers. Only ten cents a word to tell the world what you have to sell. Try it today. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

COMPLETE THEATRE EQUIPMENT AND chairs for 300 seat house. Low price for quick turnover.
MOVIE SUPPLY COMPANY, 1318 South Wabash,
Chicago.

NEW GENERAL EQUIPMENT

BUY NEW SOUNDSCREENS NOW WHILE material's available, 23½c sq. ft.; complete stage setting, $66.60; fully automatic curtain controls, $75.95;
heavy duty track, $2.19 ft. Immediate deliveries.
S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

BUSINESS BOOSTERS

BINGO CARDS. DIE CUT, 1 TO 100 OR 1 TO 75
$2.00 per thousand. $17.50 for 10,000. BOX 1434,
MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BUY YOUR BINGO CARDS DIRECT FROM THE world's largest manufacturer of theatre bingo cards.
Write us today for samples and prices. BOX 1477,
MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PRINTING SERVICE

THEATRE BLOWERS, SAME QUALITY, LOW prices. STITES ART, Shelbyville, Indiana.

BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE SOUND ENGINEERING—
547 pages; illustrated; covers every practical method and process in present-day sound engineering. Leading engineers explain every detail of apparatus and its arrangement, with diagrams, tables, charts and graphs.
This manual comes straight from the workshops of the studios in Hollywood. It is indispensable to everyone working with sound equipment. Price $6.50 postpaid.
QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 567 PAGE BOOK ON AIR CONDITIONING
by Charles A. Fuller, authority on the subject. Available for theatre owners contemplating engineering changes. Book is cloth bound with index and charts and covers every branch of the industry as well as codes and ordinances regulating installation. Order now at $4.00 a copy postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION
A second revision of the Sixth Edition of Richardson's Bluebook of Projection with a complete section of Sound Trouble-shooting Charts as well as a host of additional up-to-the-minute text on the latest equipment. Price $7.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
Rockefeller Center, New York.

JUST PUBLISHED: 1942 EDITION OF FAME,
Edited by Terry Ramsaye. The class annual of the screen, radio and stage. Recognized by executives and talent agents as the guide book to box office champions. Send your order today with check or money order for $1.00. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 1941-42 MOTION PICTURE ALMANAC.
Edited by Terry Ramsaye. The industry's most complete "Who's Who." More than 11,000 biographies and over 1,100 pages, chock full of reference information. Everyone in the motion picture industry should have a copy. Be sure to send in your order today, $3.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK, U. S. A.

PRODUCT DIGEST

THE RELEASE CHART

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

Roxie Hart

(20th Century-Fox)

Chicago, 1927, for Laughs

Life, law and the pursuit of publicity as conducted in Chicago in 1927 and thereabouts are treated with candor and exclusively for laughs in this richly cast and ripely dialogued version of "Chicago," the Maurine Watkins stageplay which followed "The Front Page" in that cycle of ribald presentations of journalism on the loose a few years ago.

Ginger Rogers portrays the fame-seeking wife whom a headline-hungry reporter and a theatrical agent persuade to stand trial for a murder, which her husband has committed, in the interests of publicity which will profit them and a career, to come afterward, for herself. It differs from anything she's done and she immerses herself in the doing.

It will be recalled that the play stressed the capitalization of crime for personal notoriety in behalf of judge, prosecutor, defense counsel, the press and so forth, and that the then virtual impossibility of convicting a pretty woman of any wrong-doing in Chicago was the phenomenon, treated humorously, on which the plot was founded. The script by Nunnally Johnston, who also produced the picture with William A. Wellman directing, retains the outline of the original but fills it in with many a deft helping of additional comedy and gives the whole a lighter, faster and funnier handling than it has had previously.

The cast, all portraying character parts and tending to overstatement as a matter of policy, yields Miss Rogers a support so generously competent as to obscure her for intervals after which she pops back into central attention gainer by the temporary effacement.

At bottom, of course, the tale is as incredible as were the factual conditions in Chicago in 1927 on which it is based. A lot of people around the world didn't believe that such a place and such practices as the newspapers reported existed, nor will believe it now, but few people anywhere failed to find the reports engrossing and stimulating reading. It would seem to follow that a parallel attitude must turn out to prevail with respect to this picturing of the same.

It's a rapid, rowdy and outspoken film, fabricated solely for laughs, and contains of course some items which were not inserted for the entertainment of the kiddies present.

Previewed for the trade press at the Village theatre, Westwood, Cal., where an audience which had just laughed itself out at "Louisiana Purchase" discovered that it could laugh some more without resting and did so, in about equivalent measure, at "Roxie Hart."—WILLIAM R. WEAVER

Release date, Feb. 20. Running time, 74 minutes. PCA No. 7882. Adult audience classification.

Roxie Hart.....Ginger Rogers
Billy Flynn.....Adolphe Menjou

Reviews

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public.

Homer Howard.....George Montgomery
Jake Callahan.....Lynne Overman
Nigel Bruce, Phil Silvers, Sara Allgood, William Frawley, Spring Byington, Ted North, Helene Reynolds, George Chandler, Charles D. Brown, Morris Ankrum, George Lessey, Iris Adrian, Milton Parsons.

Song of the Islands

(20th Century-Fox)

La Grable Goes Hawaiian

Filmed for the public which has supported its musicals in the past, and designed as if to furnish something for every department of it, this confection in Technicolor contains just about everything in the cookbook.

It offers Betty Grable in Hawaii, in song, in several varieties of Hula, in ample display of both talents and charms and in and out of love.

It presents Victor Mature as the young man attracted to and by Miss Grable, Jack Oakie as his pal who tries to prevent the match and Thomas Mitchell and George Barbier as their respective parents who fight about everything else but its suitability.

It furnishes the radio-popular Harry Owens and his Royal Hawaiians in six musical numbers written by himself and Mack Gordon and it supplies a large number of Hula girls, under direction of Hermes Pan, to dance them when Miss Grable isn't soloing or singing them or both.

It adds Hilo Hattie, herself and in her ample person, as a special and unique disciple of the Hula and also as a comedienne who shares with ponderous Billy Gilbert the burden of native comedy which is counterpoint to Mr. Oakie's American brand.

There is also a story, collaborated by Joseph Schrank, Robert Pirosh, Robert Ellis and Helen Logan, which has to do with Hawaiian ranching, but it serves principally as background. Production by William Le Baron and direction by Walter Lang are in the interest of humor, music, dance and display, which are what the film's for.

Previewed for the trade press at the Alexander theatre, Glendale, Cal., on a Friday night, it collected a nice total of laughs.—W. R. W.

Release date, March 13. Running time, 75 minutes. PCA No. 7963. General audience classification.

Eileen O'Brien.....Betty Grable
Jefferson Harper.....Victor Mature
Jack Oakie, Thomas Mitchell, George Barbier, Billy Gilbert, Lillian Porter, Hal K. Dawson, Hilo Hattie.

The Big Blockade

(Ealing Studios - United Artists)

War Documentary

Though treated with fictional embellishments, with passages of attempted comedy, and performances by front rank actors, this is patently a persuasive documentary aimed not only at telling the tale of Britain's blockade of the Axis powers, but also at pleading the case in its favor. On two counts the exhibitor will thus assess its commercial values, as entertainment and as reporting. Whatever be the former quality, many on both sides of the Atlantic will regret its facetious flavors, doubt whether its complacency, near at times to smugness, is on the soundest psychological lines. Indeed its timing is not necessarily apt: it was previewed the day after the cheese, butter and sugar rations were cut!

Made with the approval of the Ministry of Economic Warfare its cast includes cabinet ministers and government officials; it also includes comedian Will Hay. Sometimes realist, sometimes fantasy, it covers the war at sea and in the air, re-creates the Navy's "Navicert" processes and the bombing of German factories, pictorially suggests that British bombing has crippled German industry and that Nazi industrialists are glad to have their factories destroyed in order to dodge official reprimand for decreased output. Russian officials seem designed in the pattern of the days before they came into the war and the Pacific problem is dismissed with surprisingly sudden complacency.

A public is assured, however, for the film because of its subject, for British audiences are avid for documentary treatment of war, and the names of Leslie Banks, Michael Redgrave, John Mills, Will Hay and others, whilst confusing on the realist character, should attract some patronage.

The bombing sequences are obviously imitative of "Target for Tonight," but offer little competition.

Technically the film is very competent though its meaning is often obtuse. Camerawork is lucent, sets are convincing and editing often fluent. Charles Frend directed.

Previewed to a press and paying audience in London, the film never lagged in its interest though it seemed at times not to convince. Criticism was made of the confusion between fiction and realistic reporting.—AUBREY FLAN-AGAN Release date, not set. Running time, 77 minutes. General audience classification.

Will Hay, Leslie Banks, Morland Graham, Quentin Reynolds, Cyril Chamberlain, Michael Redgrave, Robert Morley, Alfred Drayton, Frank Cellier, Austin Trevor, Marius Goring, Bernard Miles, John Stuart, John Mills, Michael Rennie, Elliot Mason, Percy Walsh, George Merritt, Joss Ambler, Albert Lieven, The Rt. Hon. Sir Ronald Cross, Bt. M. P., The Rt. Hon. Hugh Dalton, M. P., and The Hon. David Bowes-Lyon.

Night Before the Divorce

(20th Century-Fox)

Marital Mix-Up

Based on the play by Gina Kaus and Ladislaus Fodor, with the screen play by Jerry Sackheim, "Night Before the Divorce" emerges as another scrambled comedy about a marriage that reaches the divorce courts and proceeds on to remarriage.

The picture starts out sprightly and promising with the deflation confronting a husband's ego when his wife is too efficient in all undertakings. When he discovers that she can probably beat him in golf too, the marital crisis is reached—a situation that seemed to be peculiarly understood and appreciated by the men in the audience.

At this opportune moment, the husband meets a blonde who has all the womanly virtues, minus efficiency. To soothe her own ruffled ego, the wife has a romance with an orchestra leader. From this point on, the film is a series of slapstick episodes devoted to the attempts of the wife to win her husband back. She does.

Lynn Bari is the attractive and too efficient wife, Mary Beth Hughes is the very womanly "other woman," and Joseph Allen, Jr., is the husband whose ego is the cause of it all.

Although the picture falls into the routine category, it does present an amusing problem, has some gay dialogue, and enough slapstick for those who care for that sort of thing. The subject matter obviously limits the picture to adult audiences.

Ralph Dietrich produced and Robert Siodmak directed.

Previewed at the company projection room before an audience of exhibitors and trade-press reviewers who laughed a number of times but gave no further evidence of reaction.—IRENE SMOLEN.

Release date, March 6, 1942. Running time, 67 minutes. PCA No. 8085. Adult audience classification.

Lynn Thorndyke.....Lynn Bari
Lola May.....Mary Beth Hughes
George Thorndyke.....Jos. Allen, Jr.
Victor Roselle.....Nils Asther
Bruce Campbell.....Trumey Bradley
Hedda Smythe.....Kay Linaker
Mary Treen, Thurston Hall, Spencer Charters, Leon Belasco, Tom Sadden, Alec Craig.

On the Sunny Side

(20th Century-Fox)

Junior Hands Across the Sea

This is a pleasant little story about an English boy welcomed into an American home for the duration, his associations and adventures with boys and girls of his own age in the United States and the effect of their association upon him and them. It is a treatment, in terms of juniors, of the hands-across-the-sea theme, and it attains its peak of interest in one of those transoceanic broadcasts wherein children over here converse with parents over there.

Roddy McDowall, famed overnight for his performances in "How Green Was My Valley," plays the English lad with conviction and Stanley Clements gives equal value to his performance of the American boy into whose home he is taken. These and other juniors carry the burden of the narrative.

The script by Lillie Hayward and George Templeton, from a story by Mary McCall, Jr., tells a simple tale of schoolboys in their relations with each other, including the discomfiture of the school bully, and terminates with the English boy and the American boy declaring themselves brothers.

Produced by Lou Ostrow and directed by Harold Schuster, the film is an effective piece of family entertainment and makes its point without over-indulgence in flag-waving.

Previewed at studio.—W. R. W.

Release date, Feb. 13, 1942. Running time, 69 minutes. PCA No. 7885. General audience classification.

Hugh Aylesworth.....Roddy McDowall
Annie.....Jane Darwell
Tom Sanders.....Stanley Clements
Katharine Alexander, Don Douglas, Freddie Mercer, Ann Todd, Jill Esmond, Freddie Walburn, Leon Tyler, Billy Benedict.

"FANTASIA" REVISED FOR GENERAL RELEASE

"Fantasia," produced by Walt Disney and released by RKO, has been revised for general release. The running time has been cut from 135 minutes to 82 minutes by several eliminations, the principal ones being the Bach "Toccata and Fugue" and many of the intercut shots of Mr. Stokowski conducting the orchestra. The intermission has been omitted. The rest of the picture stays the same, with only occasional bars of the score being eliminated—except in the Beethoven Sixth Symphony where a whole sequence is cut—and further tightening of the animated designs. The picture has a national release date of April 3, 1942. See Product Digest page 262 for review.

Castle in the Desert

(20th Century-Fox)

Farewell to Charlie Chan

For its final item in its long series of Charlie Chan melodramas the studio which gave the Earl Derr Biggers character its screen career offers one of the most fascinating films in the sequence.

Scene of the screenplay by John Larkin is a castle in the Mojave Desert where a descendant of the Borgias is suspected of a series of murders. Chan, his Number Two son, and many others arrive at the scene, which is without phone connection or other means of communication with civilization, and everybody is under suspicion, also in danger of death, for most of the picture. Chan's solution of the mystery leaves a number of story threads hanging loose, but satisfies the requirements as to surprise.

Production is by Ralph Dietrich and the direction by Harry Lahman, both adequate to the job in hand.

Previewed at studio.—W. R. W.

Release date, Feb. 27, 1942. Running time, 63 minutes. PCA No. 7821. General audience classification.
Charlie Chan.....Sidney Toler
Brenda Hartford.....Arleen Whelan
Carl Detheridge.....Richard Derr
Douglas Dumbrille, Henry Daniell, Edmund MacDonald, Sen Yung, Lenita Lane, Ethel Griffes, Milton Parsons, Steve Geray, Lucien Littlefield.

A Tragedy at Midnight

(Republic)

Comedy-Mystery

This is another film in the "Thin Man" tradition. Republic's associate producer Robert North and director Joseph Santley have concocted 68 minutes of laughs and thrills, aided and abetted by personable Margaret Lindsay and John Howard, two marquee attractions. Despite the worn plot-pattern worked around the central figures of a private detective-husband harassed by the police and his scatter-brained but loyal, clue-following wife, it's good entertainment.

A young radio detective, given to solving crimes on his sponsored program before the city's police have cracked the case, wakes up one morning to find a dead woman in the bed his wife ordinarily occupies. The wife, just returned from an all-night visit to the hospital where her sister has given birth to a baby, walks into the room.

On her way out to buy a divorce, she meets a police detective, discovers the woman is dead and her husband suspect. She pitches in to help absolve her mate. Between them, they discover the identity of the woman, her checkered career, her friends and enemies and eventually track down the killer. There's a time element to hold the audience's suspense. The husband must solve the crime on his next radio broadcast before the police nab him as the alleged murderer. There are plenty of laughs worked in with the chills in the interim and until the final windup. Over a national hookup, while the police are on their way to arrest the husband for the crime, the radio-detective solves it to the delight of his wife, his sponsor, his valet, the police and everybody else involved.

It's fun for those in the audience who like their detective stories spiced with comedy situations and wise-cracks.

Previewed in Republic's home office projection room for the trade press.—J. E. SAMUELSON

Release date, Feb. 2, 1942. Running time, 68 minutes. PCA No. 8018. General audience classification.
Gregg Sherman.....John Howard
Beth Sherman.....Margaret Lindsay
Cassidy.....Roscoe Karns
Mrs. Wilton.....Mona Barrie
Keye Luke, Hobart Cavanaugh, Paul Harvey, Lilian Bond, Miles Mander, William Newell, Wendell Niles, Archie Twitchell.

Code of the Outlaw

(Republic)

Western

Those stalwart "Three Mesquiteers," Bob Steele, Tom Tyler and Rufe Davis, whose popularity is attested by the fact that they achieved eighth position in MOTION PICTURE HERALD's Western poll, bring their joint talents to "Code of the Outlaw," a western that meets the requirements demanded of this type of film.

With the original screen play by Barry Shipman and based on characters created by William Colt MacDonald, the story is a rather interesting one, and opens with the Three Mesquiteers being called upon to capture the bandits who have stolen a very large payroll. This brings them into contact with Bennie Bartlett, a tough youngster, who knows of the whereabouts of the stolen money since his father, now slain, was the bandit leader. The young outlaw finally begins to defrost under the benign influence of kindness, and the stolen money is restored.

The sequences dealing with the transition of character and the conflict in young Bennie Bartlett are well done, for they are handled with understanding without resorting to maudlin sentimentality. Bennie acts the part with naturalness and should appeal, without difficulty, to the men and boys in the audience.

Horses, stage-coaches, hold-ups, shooting and action are satisfactorily in evidence and music, too, makes its appearance in the song, "Rootin' Shootin' Terror of the West," which has a little more spirit than most songs of this genre.

The Three Mesquiteers and "Code of the Outlaw" aim to please, and they should.

Louis Gray was the associate producer and John English directed.

Previewed at the company projection room before an audience of trade-press reviewers who seemed to be interested in the proceedings.—I. S.

Release date, Jan. 30, 1942. Running time, 57 minutes. PCA No. 8016. General audience classification.
"Tucson" Smith.....Bob Steele
"Stony" Brooke.....Tom Tyler
"Lullaby" Joslin.....Rufe Davis
Sam Hardin.....Weldon Heyburn
Tim.....Bennie Bartlett
Sue Dayton.....Melinda Leighton
Donald Curtis, John Ince, Ken Duncan, Phil Dunham, Max Waizman, Chuck Morrison, Carleton Young.

Ferry Pilot

(Crown Film Unit - A.B.F.D.)

War Documentary

Acting on the thesis that direct realist treatment of war is sounder box-office than fictional composition, the M. O. I. sponsored Crown Film Unit has again turned out a documentary which is excellent propaganda and tip top entertainment. "Ferry Pilot," which cinematically tells the story of the men and women who ferry Spitfires, Whitleys, Ansons, etc., from factory to airfield, is one of those films which will please the technician and enthrall the audience. Better flying sequences have probably never been made and the camerawork, cutting and direction are the work of men of zeal and imagination.

The film more or less depicts a day in the life of a bunch of ferry pilots, from the first pulling back of the blackout curtains in the duty office, to the delivery of the last Whitley in the clouded sunset. The routine is interesting and the nonchalant atmosphere of office and aerodrome typical. Americans as well as Britishers are featured.

Highspot of the picture is a battle between Spitfires and Heinkels, ending in the destruction of one of the bombers. Through it all the Whitley pilot handles his "kite," unaware of the danger at his rear. It is a stirring passage, with some camera gun shots of actual combat giving it added conviction. No less rousing, however, is a brilliantly shot sequence in which a test pilot tries out a new Spitfire through all the tricks and aerobatics in the flier's armory. The camerawork in this passage, as well as in some lustrous cloud flying sequences, is superb.

There is a painfully patrician English flavour about some of the young men in the duty office, but it hardly mars the general note of nonchalant virility.

Ian Dalrymple produced, direction was by Pat Jackson, and to Chick Fowle goes credit for the camerawork.

Seen at a private press review the film roused considerable enthusiasm both as a technical achievement and as entertainment, and was rated a worthy successor to "Target for Tonight."—A. F.

Running time, 27 minutes. General audience classification.

FAR EAST COMMAND (RKO)

March of Time (23,107)

With the war in the Pacific sharing front-page headlines with the war in Europe and Africa, the editors of March of Time this month continue their coverage of the Far East battle zones with a film study of Malaya and Singapore and the important role being played by the Australian and New Zealand people. The film for the most part is a pictorial survey of the Pacific situation bringing to the fore the preparations and precautions currently being taken by the Allied countries in the Pacific.

The film depicts the abundance of herds and dairy products in Australia and New Zealand, the excellent industrial facilities, the modern hospitalization and conveniences of an educated people, the part the Anzacs, the Australian, and New Zealand Army Corps, are playing and will play in the Pacific war, and the facilities and transportation for basing American troops in those countries. In conclusion the film stresses the imperative necessity for an all-out effort of the United States to reinforce these nations in the face of their imminent danger—Japan. Like many previous issues on the war from March of Time, this film is complete, concise and to the point.—G. S.

Release date, February 13, 1942. 17 Minutes

WAR CLOUDS IN THE PACIFIC (MGM)

Special (X-310)

Completed by the Canadian government just prior to the Japanese declaration of war, "War Clouds in the Pacific" has been taken for distribution by Metro Goldwyn Mayer because of the film's prophetic depiction of Japanese policies. Accompanied by a documented commentary, similar to that used by March of Time, the film reveals the immense volume of Trans-Pacific commerce, with Japan in sixth place among the trading nations of the globe; the degree of Nazi infiltration in Nippon's factories, shipyards, laboratories and governmental chambers; the key figures in the Nazi inspired strategy of the New Japan, and the indicated tactics of the Japanese sea and land forces. Also shown are the critical spots for possible attacks in Pacific waters and along the Asiatic mainland from central China to the Philippines; the challenging question of direct bombing routes through the Aleutian Islands to the Pacific Northwest, and the part which may be assumed by the Soviet Union in the current crisis. The film also shows, and the commentary does not hesitate to explain, somewhat anachronously how well Pearl Harbor, Wake Island, Guam and other strategic points in the Pacific are fortified and prepared for any attack.—G. S.

Release date, December 24, 1941 21 Minutes

ADVANCE SYNOPSSES AND INFORMATION

THIS TIME FOR KEEPS (Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer)

Romance, Comedy

PRODUCER: Samuel Marx. Directed by Charles Riesner.

PLAYERS: Ann Rutherford, Robert Sterling, Guy Kibbee, Irene Rich, Virginia Weidler, Henry O'Neill.

SYNOPSIS

Young Lee White (Robert Sterling), not long married to Katherine Bryant (Ann Rutherford), anticipates a pleasant vacation from marital responsibilities when his wife leaves town to a friend's wedding. Actually, he becomes bored and gladly accepts the hospitality of his father-in-law (Guy Kibbee) and mother-in-law (Irene Rich). Lee soon finds himself a partner with his father-in-law in the real estate business. Lee is so continually harassed by the well-meaning interference of his in-law that domestic squabbles result between him and Kit. An offshoot of the main story has Bryant's youngest daughter, Harriet (Virginia Weidler), a forthright tomboy, trying to discourage the romance of her sister, Edith (Dorothy Morris).

ALONG CAME MURDER (Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer)

Melodrama

PRODUCED by Jack Chertok. Directed by Fred Zinnemann.

PLAYERS: Van Heflin, Marsha Hunt, Lee Bowman, Samuel S. Hinds, Cliff Clark, Eddie Quillan.

SYNOPSIS

Van Heflin and Marsha Hunt, a police chemist and his laboratory assistant, are interrupted in their work on a murder case by Lee Bowman, Van's old friend, who has helped elect a reform mayor. The mayor is murdered while investigating Bowman, and Van and Marsha take up the search. Bowman's underworld connections are gradually uncovered, while laboratory tests prove his direct connection with the crime. Marsha, who had thought herself in love with Bowman, turns to Van.

MAN WITH TWO LIVES (Monogram)

Melodrama

PRODUCER: A. W. Hackel. Directed by Phil Rosen.

PLAYERS: Edward Norris, Frederick Burton, Addison Richards, Edward Keene, Hugh Southern, Eleanor Lawson.

SYNOPSIS

Phillip Bennett (Edward Norris) and Louise Hammond (Eleanor Lawson) are engaged to be married. Phillip is apparently killed in an auto accident. Dr. Clarke (Edward Keene), who claims to have brought animals back to life, is called upon to perform the same act for Phillip. Dr. Clarke performs his magic at the same hour that a noted criminal is being electrocuted. Phillip is led instinctively to the criminal's haunts and assumes leadership of the criminal's gang. A vicious crime wave breaks out in the city. The police trap Phillip but he avoids the trap only to be killed by Dr. Clarke. A transition to the hospital finds Phillip coming out of a four-day coma in which he dreamed these adventures.

SERVICE DATA

Sergeant York (WB)

Audience Classification—General

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2

Round Table Exploitation—Oct. 11, '41, Pages 51, 66; Nov. 1, '41, Pages 54, 61; Nov. 22, '41, Page 82; Nov. 29, '41, Page 78; Dec. 13, '41, Pages 50, 54; Dec. 20, '41, Pages 74, 75; Jan. 10, '42, Page 60; Jan. 17, '42, Pages 60, 61; Jan. 24, '42, Pages 49, 52, 53; Jan. 31 '42

Shadow of the Thin Man (MGM)

Audience Classification—General

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2

Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 29, '41, Page 75; Dec. 13, '41, Pages 50, 54; Dec. 20, '41, Pages 70, 74; Dec. 27, '41, Page 76; Jan. 3, '42, Page 50; Jan. 10, '42, Page 57; Jan. 17, '41, Page 65

Smilin' Through (MGM)

Audience Classification—Adult

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1

Round Table Exploitation—Oct. 18, '41, Page 66; Oct. 25, '41, Page 88; Nov. 8, '41, Page 63; Nov. 15, '41, Page 64; Dec. 6, '41, Page 60; Dec. 13, '41, Page 50; Dec. 20, '41, Page 75; Jan. 10, '42, Page 62; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65; Jan. 24, '42, Page 52

Target for Tonight (WB)

Audience Classification—General

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1

Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 29, '41, Page 74; Dec. 6, '41, Page 62; Dec. 20, '41, Page 71; Jan. 24, '42, Page 49

Tarzan's Secret Treasure (MGM)

Audience Classification—General

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1

Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 1, '41, Page 55; Dec. 6, '41, Page 58; Dec. 13, '41, Page 52; Dec. 27, '41, Page 70; Jan. 3, '42, Pages 57, 58; Jan. 10, '42, Page 62; Jan. 17, '42, Page 58; Jan. 24, '42, Page 52

Texas (Col.)

Audience Classification—General

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2

Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 6, '41, Page 59; Dec. 13, '41, Page 52; Jan. 24, '42, Page 48; Jan. 31, '42, Page 72

They Died with Their Boots On (WB)

Audience Classification—General

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1

Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 27, '41, Page 76; Jan. 10, '42, Pages 56, 57; Jan. 31, '42, Page 68

Weekend in Havana (20th-Fox)

Audience Classification—Adult

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2

Round Table Exploitation—Oct. 18, '41, Page 63; Dec. 6, '41, Page 63; Dec. 13, '41, Page 54; Dec. 20, '41, Page 73; Jan. 10, '42, Page 62; Jan. 31, '42, Page 68

We Go Fast (20th-Fox)

Audience Classification—General

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1

Round Table Exploit—Jan. 10 '42 Page 61

Yank in the R.A.F., A (20th-Fox)

Audience Classification—General

Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1

Round Table Exploitation—Oct. 4, '41, Page 68; Oct. 18, '41, Page 63; Oct. 25, '41, Pages 85, 86, 88; Nov. 1, '41, Page 60; Nov. 18, '41, Page 67; Nov. 15, '41, Page 66; Nov. 22, '41, Pages 78, 82; Nov. 29, '41, Page 74; Dec. 6, '41, Pages 63, 64; Dec. 13, '41, Page 54; Dec. 20, '41, Page 75; Dec. 27, '41, Page 76; Jan. 3, '42, Page 57; Jan. 10, '42, Page 57; Jan. 17, '42, Page 60

FEATURE SERVICE DATA

To aid showmen in checking
Round Table Exploitation;
Audience Classification;
Legion of Decency Rating

All That Money Can Buy (RKO)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 22, '41, Page 79; Jan. 24, '42, Page 48

Babes on Broadway (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 13, '41, Page 52; Jan. 3, '42, Page 50; Jan. 10, '42, Pages 57, 62; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65; Jan. 24, '42, Pages 50, 52; Jan. 31, '42, Page 68

Bugle Sounds, The (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 31, '42, Page 69

Chocolate Soldier (MGM)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Oct. 18, '41, Page 66; Nov. 8, '41, Page 67; Nov. 15, '41, Pages 62, 63, 66; Nov. 29, '41, Page 78; Dec. 20, '41, Page 71; Dec. 27, '41, Page 76; Jan. 10, '42, Page 62; Jan. 17, '42, Pages 59, 65; Jan. 24, '42, Page 52

Corsican Brothers, The (UA)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 3, '42, Page 57; Jan. 31, '42, Page 69

Down Mexico Way (Rep.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 17, '42, Page 65

Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde (MGM)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Sept. 20, '41, Page 72; Sept. 27, '41, Page 61; Oct. 11, '41, Pages 51, 56; Oct. 18, '41, Pages 66, 67, 68; Oct. 25, '41, Page 88; Nov. 1, '41, Pages 60, 61; Jan. 24, '42, Page 52;

Dumbo (RKO)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 13, '41, Page 53; Dec. 27, '41, Pages 70, 75; Jan. 3, '42, Page 50; Jan. 10, '42, Page 57; Jan. 24, '42, Pages 48, 53

Feminine Touch, The (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 8, '41, Page 63; Nov. 15, '41, Page 66; Dec. 20, '41, Page 72; Jan. 24, '42, Page 52

H. M. Pulham, Esq. (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 13, '41, Page 52; Dec. 27, '41, Page 74; Jan. 24, '42, Page 49

Feature Service Data is indexed in The Release Chart starting on Page 500.

How Green Was My Valley (20th-Fox)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 8, '41, Page 62; Dec. 6, '41, Page 59; Jan. 3, '42, Page 59; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65

International Lady (UA)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 1, '41, Pages 58, 59; Jan. 24, '42, Page 50

It Started with Eve (Univ.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 22, '41, Page 83; Nov. 29, '41, Page 77; Dec. 6, '41, Page 62; Dec. 20, '41, Page 74; Jan. 10, '42, Pages 57, 62; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65

Johnny Eager (MGM)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 31, '42, Page 69

Kathleen (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 3, '42, Page 58; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65; Jan. 31, '42, Page 72

Keep 'Em Flying (Univ.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 29, '41, Page 75; Dec. 20, '41, Page 72; Dec. 27, '41, Page 75; Jan. 17, '42, Page 58; Jan. 31, '42, Page 71

Lady Be Good (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Oct. 11, '41, Page 53; Oct. 18, '41, Pages 68, 69; Nov. 22, '41, Pages 78, 82; Dec. 6, '41, Page 63; Dec. 13, '41, Page 54; Dec. 20, '41, Page 75; Jan. 10, '42, Page 62; Jan. 17, '42, Page 61

Lydia (UA)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Oct. 11, '41, Page 53; Oct. 25, '41, Page 88; Jan. 3, '42, Page 59; Jan. 31, '42, Page 69

LEGION of DECENCY Ratings

Class A-1 Unobjectionable
Class A-2 Unobjectionable for Adults
Class B Objectionable in Part
Class C Condemned

Maltese Falcon, The (WB)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 20, '41, Page 72; Jan. 10, '42, Page 60; Jan. 31, '42, Page 68

Man At Large (20th-Fox)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Oct. 25, '41, Page 83; Jan. 31, '42, Page 69

Man Who Came to Dinner (WB)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class B
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 24, '42, Page 50

Married Bachelor (MGM)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 1, '41, Page 59; Dec. 20, '41, Page 72; Jan. 24, '42, Page 50

Mr. Bug Goes to Town (Par.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 24, '42, Page 49

Never Give a Sucker an Even Break (Univ.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 3, '42, Page 58; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65

Nothing But the Truth (Par.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Oct. 25, '41, Page 87; Nov. 22, '41, Pages 78, 82; Nov. 29, '41, Pages 75, 78; Dec. 6, '41, Page 62; Dec. 13, '41, Pages 51, 55; Jan. 10, '42, Page 62; Jan. 24, '42, Page 53

One Foot in Heaven (WB)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Nov. 22, '41, Page 82; Nov. 29, '41, Page 75; Dec. 6, '41, Page 58; Dec. 13, '41, Page 55; Dec. 20, '41, Pages 73, 75; Jan. 10, '42, Pages 61, 62; Jan. 31, '42, Page 70

Pacific Blackout (Par.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 17, '42, Page 59

Rise and Shine (20th-Fox)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 20, '41, Page 71; Jan. 3, '42, Page 57; Jan. 24, '42, Page 50; Jan. 31, '42, Page 72

SHORTS

advance synopses and information

SOLDIERS IN WHITE (WB)

Technicolor Special (7002)

This Warner Brothers' short subject was produced in cooperation with the United States Army and deals with the important Medical Corps branch. The subject was filmed at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., and describes the work of the corps. William T. Orr is cast as a young interne, who is disgruntled about being drafted and placed in the medical corps as a buck private. He is injured, and, while in the hospital, John Litel, enacting a major, explains how Army doctors made important advances in medical science. Orr is inspired and promises to become a good soldier. The romantic interest is centered around Eleanor Parker, who joins the Army nursing corps and becomes Orr's superior officer.

Release date, February 7, 1942

20 Minutes

KEEP SHOOTING (RKO)

Ray Whitley (23,502)

In the badlands of the Mexican borderland, Ray Whitley and his boys are riding along, singing, when they hear gunshots. They are just in time to frustrate a holdup of the stagecoach to Guadalupe and to save Senorita Carlos and her little sister Nita. Ray and the boys accompany the party to the Carlos ranch. They are just in time for the fiesta, and in gratitude, Senor Carlos invites Ray and the boys to attend. Ray is secretly suspicious of Pecos Joe and when he sees Joe sneak into Senor Carlo's private office, Ray follows and a fight occurs. Pecos Joe calls for help and as his henchmen enter through a window they are rendered harmless by the persuasive powers of Handlebar Hank, a friend of Ray's.

Release date, January 30, 1942

17 Minutes

WE DO IT BECAUSE (MGM)

Passing Parade (K-382)

John Nesbitt in this Passing Parade subject investigates some anachronistic tendencies of everyday life. The subject first looks into the origin of the hand shaking custom, which, it is explained, originated with the Vikings. To the Vikings the best proof of peaceful intentions was the offer of an unarmed right hand. Other habits that Nesbitt covers are the tipping of hats to women, the custom of shaving, the clinking of wine glasses, the origin of the wedding ring, the custom of kissing, cutting meat with a blunt knife, and the launching of a ship. The last is played for comedy, with the ship sinking as it slides down the ways.

Release date, January 24, 1942

10 Minutes

INFORMATION PLEASE, No. 4 (RKO)

(24,204)

John Gunther, foreign correspondent and novelist, is the guest expert in this issue of the series. The first question placed before the panel asks for the names of popular queens as represented by different pieces of wearing apparel making up the costume of a model. Well known lines of poetry are then acted out in pantomime and answered by experts Adams and Kieran with a musical poser missed by expert Levant. Kieran and Adams easily identify well known illustrations found in today's display ads. Mr. Gunther comes through with a perfect score in identifying various countries in South America.

Release date, January 16, 1942

10 Minutes

Synopses Indexed

Page numbers on short subject synopses published in Product Digest are listed in the Shorts chart, Product Digest Section, pages 498 and 499.

THE TANGLED ANGLER (Col.)

Fable Cartoon (3752)

Petey Pelican, in the role of fisherman, happily ambles along the river bank on his way to his favorite fishing haunt. Avoiding noises that might scare the fish, Petey casts his line, and then sits down to wait. A saucy fish, attracted by the can of worms, hops upon the bank behind Petey, who gives chase, and catches Mr. Fish. He prepares the sly fish for a feast. Plucking a flower, the fish pleads with the sentimental Petey to accept it as a last remembrance. Then after winning the sympathy of the pelican, the fish tosses a bee from the flower into Petey's pouch. The irate pelican loses his fish.

Release date, December 26, 1941

8 Minutes

THE GREENIE (MGM)

Miniature (M-332)

Taking the thesis that the United States always has been a refuge for those seeking respite from poverty and bigotry, this Miniature tells of a Polish boy just arrived in New York. Although unable to speak English the boy leaves his lower east side apartment to play. Passing an open field he sees an unfamiliar, to him, sight. A group of boys are playing baseball. When the boys drop their bats and gloves to jump on a passing ice wagon, the Polish lad walks over to the diamond and inspects the equipment. When the boys return, they set upon him but learning he is unable to speak English they give him an opportunity to show his stuff. The Greenie comes through at bat.

Release date, January 24, 1942

10 Minutes

MELODIES, OLD AND NEW (MGM)

Our Gang Comedy (C-394)

Our Gang stage a musical comedy to raise money for the gang's football uniforms. Darla opens the first act by singing "When Mama Wore a Bustle," accompanied by a dance chorus of eight boys and eight girls. Froggy and his brother do a routine titled "The People's Choice." The third act has a quartet, Spanky, Mickey, Buckwheat and Froggy, rendering "Songs of Long Ago." The finale presents "Dances, Old and New," contrasting the dances of mother's day with the latest terpsichorean creations.

Release date, January 24, 1942

11 Minutes

KALTENBORN EDITS THE NEWS

Newsreel Distributors (Series)

H. B. Kaltenborn, news analyst, in this series answers questions pertinent to the war and especially as it concerns the United States. Released by Newsreel Distributors, the subjects appear weekly—on Fridays. The questions are submitted by theatre patrons, the three outstanding being used in the subject.

Released weekly.

Average 6 Minutes

AQUA ANTICS (MGM)

Pete Smith Specialty (S-364)

This is the second of two short subjects showing the tricks performed by water-skiers. The first was "Water Bugs." For his first demonstration, Pete Smith shows Pete Peterson using his feet to turn the prow of a free-board completely to the rear, while being towed at a speed of more than 50 miles per hour. Other performers are Bob Butts, who slides down the Ocean Park shoot-the-chutes standing up; Windy MacDonald, who, with the aid of a blimp, travels through the waves at better than 50 miles an hour on one ski, and Carey Loftin, who drives a motorcycle over the pier with Peterson following behind on skis.

Release date, January 24, 1942

10 Minutes

FRAIDY CAT (MGM)

Technicolor Cartoon (W343)

Tom Cat is listening to a creepy mystery program on the radio. Jerry Mouse sizes up the situation and proceeds to play upon the cat's mood. First, he lets the shade fly up, the noise so startling the cat that he hides behind the radiator. Then the mouse turns on the valve and live steam burns Tom's tail. To relieve his suffering, the mouse almost drowns the cat with the contents of a seltzer bottle. Jerry has particular success with a vacuum cleaner which sucks eight lives out of the cat. Tom finally discovers that the mouse is the cause of all his troubles and there follows a hot chase which wrecks the house and leaves cat and mouse exhausted.

Release date, January 17, 1942

9 Minutes

YOUR RINGSIDE SEAT WITH TEX McCRARY

Newsreel Distributors (Series)

In this weekly series for Newsreel Distributors, Tex McCrary discusses personalities, trends and other matters as they concern world affairs. Titles of the subjects released since December 5th are: "Free France Is Charles De Gaulle," "Our War—Round One," "The Bite of a Bomber," "Turkey on the Spot," "Franklin D. Roosevelt the Man," "U. S. Censorship," "Union Now."

Released weekly

Average 8 Minutes

A HOLLYWOOD DETOUR (Col.)

Color Rhapsody (3504)

This is a burlesqued tour of Hollywood in which a narrator takes the audience on a merry trip around the town and shows Hollywood Boulevard, the Brown Derby, Malibu Beach, Beverly Hills, Santa Anita Race Track, and Grauman's Chinese theatre. A running gag throughout has Barrymore being mobbed by autograph hounds.

Release date, January 23, 1942

8 Minutes

WEST POINT ON THE HUDSON (MGM)

FitzPatrick Traveltalk (T-316)

Here is a picturization of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York. Shown are the grey stone buildings of the historic institution, the oldest of which is the library, modeled on the lines of a castle; the arrival of new cadets and the training they receive; the West Point air field; athletic fields, Flirtation Walk, and the cadets on full dress parade.

Release date, January 10, 1942

9 Minutes

SHORTS CHART

Production Numbers
Release Dates
Running Time

COLUMBIA

Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page
INTERNATIONAL FORUM (Two Reels)
1941-42
3451	Dorothy Thompson	2-22-41	142
3452	Will England Be Invaded?	5-27-41	199
3453	Will Democracy Survive?	10-17-41	365

RAYMOND GRAM SWING— HISTORICAL REELS (8 Minutes)
1941-42
3981	Broken Treaties	8-1-41	290
3982	How War Came	11-7-41	411

ALL STAR COMEDIES (Average 17 Min.)
1940-41
2438	Host to a Ghost	8-8-41	211
(Clyde)
1941-42
3421	Love in Gloom	8-15-41	236
(Youngman-Radio Rogues)
3401	An Ache in Every Stake	8-22-41	265
(Stooges)
3422	Half Shot at Sunrise	9-14-41	322
(Karns)
3423	General Nuisance	9-18-41	322
(Keaton)
3424	The Blitzkiss	10-2-41	333
(El Brendel)
3402	In the Sweet Pie and Pie	10-16-41	322
(Stooges)
3425	Lovable Trouble	10-23-41	352
(Clyde)
3409	Mitt Me Tonight	11-6-41	375
(Glove Slingers)
3426	She's Oil Mine	11-20-41	397
(Keaton)
3403	Some More of Samoa	12-4-41	453
(Stooges)
3427	Sweet Spirits of Nighter	12-25-41	453
(Brendel)
3110	The Kink of the Campus	12-25-41	477
(Glove Slingers)
3404	Loco Boys Make Good	1-8-42	465
(Stooges)
3428	Three Blonde Mice	1-22-42	..
(Mowbray)
3429	Sappy Birthday	2-5-42	..
(Clyde)
3411	Glove Birds	2-12-42	..
(Glove Slingers)
3405	Cactus Makes Perfect	2-26-42	..
(Stooges)

COLOR RHAPSODIES (7 Minutes)
1941-42
3501	Who's Zoo in Hollywood	11-15-41	397
3502	The Fox and the Grapes	12-5-41	397
3503	Red Riding Hood Rides Again	12-25-41	477
3504	A Hollywood Detour	1-23-42	497
3505	Wacky Wigwags	2-22-42	..
3506	Concerto in B-Flat Minor	3-20-42	..

PHANTASIES CARTOONS (Average 8 Min.)
1940-41
2707	The Merry Mouse Cafe	8-15-41	265
1941-42
3701	The Crystal Gazer	10-10-41	352
3702	Dog Meets Dog	3-6-42	..

FABLES (8 Minutes)
1940-41
2758	Playing the Pied Piper	8-8-41	226
1941-42
3751	The Great Cheese Mystery	11-1-41	397
3752	The Tangled Angler	12-26-41	497
3753	Under the Shedding Chestnut Tree	2-22-42	..

CINESCOPES (Average 9 Min.)
1941-42
3971	Exploring Space	8-8-41	265
3972	From Nuts to Soup	9-5-41	290
3973	The World of Sound	10-3-41	352
3974	Women in Photography	11-7-41	377
3975	Strange Facts	12-6-41	411

For short subject synopses turn to the Product Digest Section pages indicated by the numbers which follow the titles and release dates in the listing. Product Digest pages are numbered consecutively and are separate from Motion Picture Herald page numbers. For 1940-41 short subject releases prior to August, 1941, see page 227.

Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page
COMMUNITY SING (Series 6) (10 Minutes)
1941-42
3651	No. 1 (Don Baker)	8-15-41	251
3652	No. 2 (Current Hits)	9-5-41	309
3653	No. 3 (College Songs)	10-1-41	323
3654	No. 4 (Popular Songs)	12-1-41	..
3655	No. 5 (L. White)	12-19-41	..
3656	No. 6 (D. Baker)	1-23-42	..
3657	No. 7	2-22-42	..

QUIZ REELS (Average 10 Min.)
1941-42
3601	So You Think You Know Music, No. 1 (Series 2)	8-22-41	236
3602	Kitchen Quiz, No. 1	9-12-41	290
3603	Kitchen Quiz, No. 2	12-12-41	435
3604	Kitchen Quiz, No. 3	2-6-42	..

PANORAMICS (10 Minutes)
1941-42
3901	A City Within a City	8-8-41	265
3902	The Gallup Poll	10-17-41	352
3903	New York's Finest	12-11-41	477
3904	Spare Time in the Army (Private Potts)	2-12-42	..

TOURS (10 Minutes)
1941-42
3551	Journey in Tunisia	8-15-41	264
3552	Buenos Aires Today	10-10-41	323
3553	Alaska Tour	11-7-41	375
3554	The Great American Divide	2-12-42	..

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS (Series 21) (10 Minutes)
1941-42
3851	No. 1	8-15-41	322
3852	No. 2	9-12-41	290
3853	No. 3	11-7-41	377
3854	No. 4	12-5-41	411
3855	No. 5	1-2-42	..
3856	No. 6	2-12-42	..

WORLD OF SPORTS (9 Minutes)
1941-42
3801	Tee Up	8-1-41	238
3802	Show Dogs	9-12-41	265
3803	Jungle Fishing	10-10-41	322
3804	Polo Champions	11-11-41	397
3805	Rack-em Up	12-19-41	477
3806		1-23-42	..

M-G-M

CRIME DOES NOT PAY (Average 20 Min.)
1940-41
P-206	Sucker List	9-27-41	224

TWO REEL SPECIALS (20 Minutes)
1941-42
A-301	The Tell-Tale Heart	10-25-41	352
A-302	Main Street on the March	1-10-42	477

SPECIAL SUBJECT (21 Minutes)
1941-42
X-310	War Clouds in the Pacific	12-24-41	495

FITZPATRICK TRAVELTALKS (Color) (9 Minutes)
1941-42
T-311	Glimpses of Florida	9-6-41	353
T-312	The Inside Passage	10-4-41	333

Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page
T-313	Georgetown, Pride of Penang	11-15-41	397
T-314	Scenic Grandeur	12-13-41	477
T-315	Historic Maryland	12-27-41	477
T-316	West Point on the Hudson	1-10-42	497
T-317	Minnesota, Land of Plenty	1-31-42	..

PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES (10 Minutes)
1940-41
S-270	Water Bugs	8-16-41	225
S-271	Football Thrills of 1940	9-20-41	323
S-272	Flicker Memories	10-4-41	333

1941-42
S-361	Army Champions	10-11-41	322
S-362	Fancy Answers	11-1-41	377
S-363	How to Hold Your Husband—Back	12-13-41	433
S-364	Aqua Antics	1-24-42	497

PASSING PARADE (10 Minutes)
1940-41
K-288	Of Pups and Puzzles	9-16-41	225
K-289	Hobbies	9-20-41	309

1941-42
K-381	Strange Testament	11-15-41	433
K-382	We Do It Because	1-24-42	497
K-383	Flag of Mercy	1-31-42	..

MINIATURES (10 Minutes)
1940-41
M-238	Ghost Treasure	8-2-41	225
M-239	Triumph Without Drums	10-18-41	333
M-240	Viva Mexico	11-1-41	377

1941-42
M-331	Changed Identity	11-8-41	365
M-332	The Greenie	1-24-42	497

OUR GANG COMEDIES (Average 11 Min.)
1941-42
C-391	Helping Hands	9-27-41	322
C-392	Come Back Miss Pippis	10-25-41	352
C-393	Wedding Worries	12-13-41	477
C-394	Melodies, Old and New	1-24-42	497

TECHNICOLOR CARTOONS (9 Minutes)
1940-41
W-251	Little Cesario	8-30-41	309
W-252	Officer Pooch	9-6-41	309
W-253	Flying Bear	11-1-41	377

1941-42
W-341	The Night Before Christmas	12-6-41	435
W-342	The Field Mouse	12-27-41	477
W-343	Fraidy Cat	1-17-42	497

PARAMOUNT

ANIMATED ANTICS (7 Minutes)
1940-41
HO-12	The Wizard of Arts	8-8-41	226
HO-13	Twinkletoes in Hat Stuff	8-29-41	309

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS (Color) (11 Minutes)
1940-41
LO-6	No. 6	8-1-41	225
1941-42
LI-1	No. 1	10-3-41	323
LI-2	No. 2	12-5-41	411
LI-3	No. 3	2-27-42	..

BENCHLEY COMEDIES (10 Minutes)
1941-42
SI-1	How to Take a Vacation	10-10-41	323
SI-2	Nothing But Nerves	1-9-42	433

Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page
FASCINATING JOURNEYS (Color) (10 Minutes)
1941-42
MI-1	Road in India	10-24-41	377

SUPERMAN COLOR CARTOONS (8 Minutes)
1941-42
WI-1	Superman	9-26-41	251
WI-2	Superman in the Mechanical Monsters	11-21-41	435
WI-3	Superman in the Billion Dollar Limited	1-9-42	486

GABBY COLOR CARTOONS (7 Minutes)
1940-41
GO-8	It's Hap-Hap Happy Day	8-15-41	224

HEDDA HOPPER'S HOLLYWOOD (10 Minutes)
1941-42
ZI-1	No. 1	9-12-41	290
ZI-2	No. 2	12-5-41	411
ZI-3	No. 3	2-20-42	..

HEADLINERS (10 Minutes)
1941-42
AI-1	Beauty and the Beach	9-26-41	322
AI-2	The Copacabana Revue	11-28-41	397

COLOR CLASSIC CARTOON (7 Minutes)
1940-41
CO-1	Vitamin Hay	8-22-41	309

Product Digest Section 499

THE RELEASE CHART

Index to Reviews, Advance Synopses and Service Data in PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION

Dot (•) before the title indicates 1940-41 product.

Release dates and running time are furnished as soon as available. Advance dates are tentative and subject to change.

Consult Service Data in the PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION for Legion of Decency Rating, Audience Classification and Managers' Round Table Exploitation.

All page numbers on this chart refer to pages in the PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION of MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

Short Subject Release Chart with Synopsis Index can be found on pages 498-499.

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in order of release, on page 466.

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
ADVENTURES of Martin Eden	Col.	...	Glenn Ford-Claire Trevor	Feb. 26, '42	...	...	...	p476	....
All American Co-Ed	UA	...	Frances Langford-Johnny Downs	Oct. 31, '41	49m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p308	....
All Over Town	Rep.	Reissue	Olsen & Johnson	Oct. '41	60m	Aug. 28, '37	p330	....	....
All That Money Can Buy (formerly Here is a Man)	RKO	205	Edw. Arnold-W. Huston-Anne Shirley	Oct. 17, '41	106m	July 19, '41	p251	p197	p496
All Through the Night	WB	116	Humphrey Bogart-Conrad Veidt	Jan. 10, '42	105m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
Along Came Murder	MGM	...	Van Heflin-Marsha Hunt	Not Set	...	...	...	p495	....
Always in My Heart	WB	...	Kay Francis-Walter Huston	Not Set	...	...	...	p464	....
Among the Living	Para.	4108	Albert Dekker-Susan Hayward	Dec. 19, '41	68m	Sept. 6, '41	p260	p235	p288
Apache Kid	Rep.	171	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 12, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p277	....
Appointment for Love	Univ.	6007	Margaret Sullivan-Charles Boyer	Oct. 31, '41	89m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p277	p452
Arizona Bound (formerly Rough Riders)	Mono.	...	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	July 19, '41	57m	July 25, '41	p249	p172	p210
Arizona Cyclone	Univ.	6063	Johnny Mack Brown	Nov. 14, '41	57m	...	...	p230	....
Arizona Terrors	Rep.	174	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Jan. 6, '42	56m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p408	....
BABES on Broadway	MGM	216	Mickey Rooney-Judy Garland	Jan. '42	118m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	p363	p496
Bad Lands of Dakota	Univ.	6013	Ann Rutherford-Robert Stack	Sept. 5, '41	74m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p207	p421
Bahama Passage	Para.	4111	Madeleine Carroll-Stirling Hayden	Not Set	82m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	p320	p452
Ball of Fire	RKO	252	Gary Cooper-Barbara Stanwyck	Jan. 9, '42	111m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	....	....
Bandit Trail (formerly Outlaw Trail)	RKO	281	Tim Holt	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	....
Bashful Bachelor, The	RKO	...	Lum and Abner	Mar. 20, '42	...	...	...	p487	....
Bed Time Story	Col.	3004	Loretta Young-Fredric March	Dec. 25, '41	85m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p363	....
Belle Starr (color)	20th-Fox	207	Randolph Scott-Gene Tierney	Sept. 12, '41	87m	Aug. 23, '41	p250	p161	p386
Below the Border	Mono.	...	Rough Riders	Jan. 30, '42	...	...	...	p464	....
Big Blockade, The (British)	Ealing-UA	...	War Documentary	Not Set	77m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	....	....
Billy the Kid Wanted	Prod.	257	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Oct. 24, '41	64m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p299	....
Billy the Kid's Roundup	Prod.	258	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Dec. 12, '41	58m	...	...	p376	....
Billy the Kid Trapped	Prod.	259	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Feb. 20, '42	...	...	...	p467	....
Birth of the Blues	Para.	4109	Bing Crosby-Mary Martin	Nov. 7, '41	86m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	p452
•Blonde Comet, The	Prod.	116	Virginia Vale-Barney Oldfield	Dec. 26, '41	67m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	....	....
Blonde from Singapore	Col.	3041	Florence Rice-Lief Erickson	Oct. 15, '41	65m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	....	....
Blondie Goes to College	Col.	3017	Penny Singleton-Arthur Lake	Jan. 15, '42	...	...	...	p409	....
Blue, White and Perfect	20th-Fox	227	Lloyd Nolan-Helene Reynolds	Jan. 6, '42	75m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	....	....
Blues in the Night	WB	110	Priscilla Lane-Richard Whorf	Nov. 15, '41	88m	Nov. 1, '41	p343	p308	....
Body Disappears, The	WB	111	Jeffrey Lynn-Jane Wyman	Dec. 6, '41	70m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
Bombay Clipper	Univ.	6031	William Gargan-Irene Hervey	Feb. 6, '42	61m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p432	....
Borrowed Hero	Mono.	...	Alan Baxter-Florence Rice	Dec. 5, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p407	p364	....
Born to Sing	MGM	...	Virginia Weidler-Ray McDonald	Not Set	82m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p442	....
Broadway Big Shot	Prod.	207	Ralph Byrd-Virginia Vale	Feb. 6, '42	59m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	....	....
Brooklyn Orchid	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-William Bendix	Not Set	50m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	....	....
Bugle Sounds, The	MGM	220	Wallace Beery-Marjorie Main	Jan. '42	101m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p387	p496
Bullet Scars	WB	...	Regis Toomey-Adele Longmire	Not Set	...	...	...	....	....
Bullets for Bandits	Col.	3212	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Feb. 12, '42	...	...	...	p364	....
Burma Convoy (formerly Half Way to Shanghai)	Univ.	6035	Charles Bickford-Evelyn Ankers	Oct. 17, '41	60m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	p137	....
Buy Me That Town	Para.	4102	Lloyd Nolan-Constance Moore	Oct. 3, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p262	p208	p210
CADET Girl	20th-Fox	220	Carole Landis-George Montgomery	Nov. 28, '41	69m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p351	....
Cadets on Parade	Col.	3035	Freddie Bartholomew-Jimmy Lydon	Jan. 22, '42	...	...	...	p409	....
Call Out the Marines	RKO	217	Victor McLaglen-Edmund Lowe	Feb. 13, '42	67m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p443	....
Canal Zone	Col.	...	Chester Morris-John Hubbard	Mar. 19, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Captains of the Clouds	WB	122	Jas. Cagney-Dennis Morgan-Alan Hale	Feb. 21, '42	115m	Jan. 24, '42	p473	p308	....
Castle in the Desert	20th-Fox	234	Sidney Toler-Arleen Whelan	Feb. 27, '42	63m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p476	....
Charley's Aunt	20th-Fox	201	Jack Benny-Kay Francis	Aug. 1, '41	82m	July 26, '41	p262	p172	p288
Charlie Chan in Rio	20th-Fox	206	Sidney Toler-Mary Beth Hughes	Sept. 5, '41	62m	Aug. 23, '41	p262	p172	p260
Chocolate Soldier, The	MGM	208	Nelson Eddy-Rise Stevens	Nov. '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p289	p496
Citizen Kene	RKO	201	Orson Welles	Sept. 5, '41	119m	Apr. 12, '41	p249	p61	p367
Close Call for Ellery Queen	Col.	3031	Bill Gargan-Margaret Lindsay	Jan. 29, '42	...	...	...	p463	....
Code of the Outlaw	Rep.	164	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Jan. 30, '42	57m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	....
Come On, Danger	RKO	285	Tim Holt	Not Set	58m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
Confessions of Boston Blackie	Col.	3028	Chester Morris-Harriet Hilliard	Jan. 8, '42	65m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	....	....
Confirm or Deny	20th-Fox	222	Don Ameche-Joan Bennett	Dec. 12, '41	73m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	....
Corsican Brothers	UA	...	Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.-Akim Tamiroff	Dec. 25, '41	110m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	p299	p496
Country Gentlemen, The	Rep.	Reissue	Olsen & Johnson	Oct. '41	60m	Oct. 31, '41	p330	....	....

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	(REVIEWED)		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
Courtship of Andy Hardy, The	MGM	...	Mickey Rooney-Lewis Stone	Not Set	...	...	...	p476	...
Cowboy Serenade	Rep.	144	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Jan. 23, '42	66m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p443	...
DANGEROUSLY They Live	WB	121	John Garfield-Raymond Massey	Feb. 14, '42	78m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	...	...
• Dangerous Lady	Prod.	115	Neil Hamilton-June Storey	Oct. 3, '41	64m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p219	...
Date with the Falcon	RKO	213	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Jan. 16, '42	63m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	...
Death Valley Outlaws	Rep.	172	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 29, '41	56m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	...	...
Design for Scandal	MGM	213	Walter Pidgeon-Rosalind Russel	Dec. '41	82m	Nov. 15, '41	p361	p351	...
Devil Pays Off	Rep.	111	Margaret Tallichet-William Wright	Nov. 10, '41	70m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p343	...
Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde	MGM	201	Spencer Tracy-Lana Turner	Sept. '41	123m	July 26, '41	p248	p134	p496
Dr. Kildare's Victory	MGM	217	Lew Ayres-Lionel Barrymore	Jan. '42	92m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	...
Don't Get Personal	Univ.	6037	Hugh Herbert-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 2, '42	60m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p343	...
Double Trouble	Mono.	...	Harry Langdon	Nov. 21, '41	63m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p332	...
• Down Mexico Way	Rep.	042	Gene Autry	Oct. 15, '41	78m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p277	p496
Down in San Diego	MGM	203	Bonita Granville-Ray McDonald	Sept. '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p250	p207	p353
Dressed to Kill	20th-Fox	202	Lloyd Nolan-Mary Beth Hughes	Aug. 8, '41	74m	July 26, '41	p249	p149	p236
• Drifftin' Kid	Mono.	...	Tom Keene	Oct. 17, '41	55m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	p277	...
Dude Cowboy	RKO	282	Tim Holt	Dec. 12, '41	59m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	...	p260
Dudes Are Pretty People	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-Jimmy Rogers	Dec. 25, '41	...	...	...	...	...
Dumbo (Color)	RKO	293	Disney Feature Cartoon	Oct. 31, '41	64m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	...	p496
Duke of the Navy	Prod.	206	Ralph Byrd-Veda Ann Borg	Jan. 23, '42	...	...	...	p409	...
ELLERY Queen and Murder Ring Col.		3030	Ralph Bellamy	Nov. 18, '41	70m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	...	...
FANTASIA (color) (Revised)	RKO	292	Disney-Stokowski	Apr. 3, '42	82m	Nov. 16, '41	p494	p2	p286
Father Takes a Wife	RKO	204	Adolphe Menjou-Gloria Swanson	Oct. 3, '41	79m	July 19, '41	p262	p197	p236
Feminine Touch, The	MGM	207	Rosalind Russell-Don Ameche	Oct. '41	95m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p496
Ferry Pilot (British)	ABFD	...	War Documentary	Not Set	27m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	...	...
Fiesta	UA	...	Armda-Antonio Moreno	Nov. 28, '41	45m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	...	...
Fighting Bill Fargo	Univ.	6065	Johnny Mack Brown	Dec. 19, '41	...	...	...	p364	...
Fleet's In, The	Para.	...	Dorothy Lamour-William Holden	Not Set	93m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	...
Fly By Night	Para.	...	Nancy Kelly-Richard Carlson	Not Set	68m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p376	...
Flying Cadets	Univ.	6028	Wm. Gargan-Peggy Moran	Oct. 24, '41	60m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p161	...
Forbidden Trails	Mono.	...	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Dec. 26, '41	59m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p396	...
Forgotten Village, The	Mayer-Burstyn	...	Documentary	Sept. 16, '41	67m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	...	...
Four Jacks and a Jill	RKO	214	Ray Bolger-Anne Shirley	Jan. 13, '42	68m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	...
Freckles Comes Home	Mono.	...	Johnny Downs-Gale Storm	Jan. 2, '42	...	...	...	p396	...
Frightened Lady (British)	Hoffberg	...	Marius Goring-Helen Hays	Nov. 7, '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	...	...
'Frisco Lil	Univ.	...	Irene Hervey-Kent Taylor	Mar. 20, '42	...	...	...	p467	...
GAUCHOS of Eldorado	Rep.	162	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Oct. 24, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p308	...
Gay Falcon, The	RKO	206	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 24, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p218	...
General Suvorov	Artkino	...	Documentary	Sept. 19, '41	100m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	...	...
Gentleman at Heart, A	20th-Fox	228	Carole Landis-Cesar Romero	Jan. 16, '42	66m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p432	...
Gentleman from Dixie	Mon.	...	Jack LaRue-Marian Marsh	Sept. 5, '41	63m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	p206	...
(formerly Li'l Louisiana Belle)
Ghost of Frankenstein, The	Univ.	...	Lon Chaney-Sr. Cedric Hardwicke	Mar. 13, '42	...	...	...	p463	...
Girl from Leningrad (Russian)	Artkino	...	Zoya Fyodorova	Dec. 19, '41	92m	Dec. 27, '41	p431	...	...
Girl Must Live, A (British)	Univ.	6045	Lilli Palmer-Margaret Lockwood	Sept. 19, '41	69m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	...	p367
Girls Town	Prod.	202	June Storey-Edith Fellowes	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	p476	...
Glamour Boy	Para.	4110	Susanna Foster-Jackie Cooper	Dec. 5, '41	80m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	...
Gold Rush, The	UA	...	Chaplin—Words and Music	Not Set	...	...	...	...	...
Go West, Young Lady	Col.	3015	Penny Singleton-Glenn Ford	Nov. 27, '41	70m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	p289	...
Great Guns	20th-Fox	212	Laurel and Hardy	Oct. 10, '41	73m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	...
Great Man's Lady, The	Para.	...	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Not Set	...	...	...	p396	...
Gunman from Bodie	Mono.	...	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Sept. 26, '41	62m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p263	...
(formerly Bad Man from Bodie)
HARD GUY	Prod.	205	Jack LaRue-Mary Healy	Oct. 17, '41	68m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p263	...
Harmon of Michigan	Col.	3023	Tommy Harmon-Anita Louise	Sept. 11, '41	66m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p263	p386
Harvard Here I Come	Col.	3039	Maxie Rosenbloom-Arlene Judge	Dec. 18, '41	...	...	...	p376	...
Hatter's Castle (Paramount-British)	...	...	Robert Newton-Deborah Kerr	Not Set	100m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	...	...
Hayfoot	UA	...	William Tracy-James Gleason	Dec. 12, '41	48m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	...	...
Hellzapoppin	Univ.	6046	Olsen & Johnson-Martha Raye	Dec. 26, '41	84m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	...	...
Henry Aldrich for President	Para.	4104	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Oct. 24, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p210
Henry and Dizzy	Para.	...	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Not Set	...	...	...	p443	...
Here Comes the Marines	Mono.	...	Wallace Ford-Toby Wing	Dec. 26, '41	...	...	...	p432	...
Hi, Gang (British)	General Film	...	Bebe Daniels-Ben Lyon	Not Set	100m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	...	...
H. M. Pulham, Esq.	MGM	212	Hedy Lamarr-Rob't Young-Ruth Hussey	Dec. '41	117m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	p496
Hold Back the Dawn	Para.	4103	Charles Boyer-Olivia de Havilland	Sept. 26, '41	116m	Aug. 2, '41	p251	p208	p452
Honky Tonk	MGM	204	Clark Gable-Lana Turner	Oct. '41	105m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p235	p452
Honolulu Lu	Col.	3024	Bruce Bennett-Lupe Velez	Dec. 11, '41	...	...	...	p364	...
House of Spies	MGM	...	Conrad Veidt-Ann Ayars	Not Set	82m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	...	...
(formerly Salute to Courage)
How Green Was My Valley	20th-Fox	224	Roddy McDowall-Walter Pidgeon	Jan. 23, '42	118m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p320	p496
Hurricane Smith	Rep.	108	Ray Middleton-Jane Wyatt	July 20, '41	69m	July 26, '41	p249	p197	p236
INTERNATIONAL Lady	UA	...	Ilona Massey-George Brent	Sept. 19, '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p277	p496
International Squadron	WB	106	Ronald Reagan-Olympe Bradna	Oct. 11, '41	87m	Aug. 16, '41	p262	p196	p452
(formerly Flight Patrol)
Invaders, The (British)	Col.	...	Howard-Massey-Olivier	Not Set	123m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	...	...
(formerly 49th Parallel)
It Started with Eve	Univ.	6005	Deanna Durbin-Charles Laughton	Sept. 26, '41	90m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	p205	p496
(formerly Almost an Angel)
I Killed That Man	Mono.	...	Ricardo Cortez-Joan Woodbury	Nov. 28, '41	71m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	...	...

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
I Thank You (British)	General Film	.....	Arthur Askey-Richard Murdoch	.....	81m	Oct. 11,'41	p306	.....	.....
I Wake Up Screaming (formerly Hot Spot)	20th-Fox	216	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Nov. 14,'41	82m	Oct. 18,'41	p317	p299	p421
JAIL House Blues	Univ.	6032	Nat Pendleton-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 9,'42	62m	Jan. 17,'42	p462	p396	.....
Jessie James at Bay	Rep.	151	Roy Rogers-"Gabby" Hayes	Oct. 17,'41	56m	Oct. 18,'41	p319	.....	.....
Joan of Paris	RKO	218	Michele Morgan-Paul Henried	Feb. 20,'42	91m	Jan. 10,'42	p463	p442	.....
Joe Smith, American	MGM	221	Robert Young-Marsha Hunt	Feb. '42	62m	Jan. 10,'42	p449	p409	.....
Johnny Eager	MGM	218	Robert Taylor-Lana Turner	Jan. '42	107m	Dec. 13,'41	p405	p363	p496
Juke Box Jennie	Univ.	.....	Ken Murray-Harriet Hillard	Mar. 27,'42	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....
Juke Girl	WB	.....	Ann Sheridan-Ronald Reagan	Not Set	.....	.....	.....	p464	.....
Jungle Book, The	UA	.....	Sabu	Jan. 30,'42	.....	.....	.....	p396	.....
•Jungle Man	Prod.	126	Buster Crabbe	Oct. 10,'41	63m	Oct. 11,'41	p307	.....	.....
KATHLEEN	MGM	215	Shirley Temple-H. Marshall-Laraine Day	Dec. '41	85m	Nov. 15,'41	p362	p351	p496
Keep 'Em Flying	Univ.	6001	Abbott and Costello	Nov. 28,'41	80m	Nov. 22,'41	p386	.....	p496
Kid from Kansas, The (formerly The Americanos)	Univ.	6051	Dick Foran-Andy Devine	Sept. 19,'41	60m	Sept. 20,'41	p276	p221	.....
King, The (French)	Trio Film	.....	Raimu	Oct. 27,'41	90m	Nov. 8,'41	p350	.....	.....
King of Dodge City	Col.	3209	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Aug. 14,'41	63m	Aug. 9,'41	p250	p220	.....
Kings Row	WB	120	Ann Sheridan-Robert Cummings	Not Set	130m	Dec. 27,'41	p429	p320	.....
LABURNUM Grove (British)	Anglo Film	.....	Edmund Gwenn-Cedric Hardwicke	Dec. 1,'41	65m	Dec. 6,'41	p395	.....	.....
Ladies in Retirement	Col.	3309	Ida Lupino-Louis Hayward	Sept. 18,'41	92m	Sept. 13,'41	p258	p263	.....
Lady Be Good	MGM	202	Ann Sothern-Robert Young	Sept. '41	110m	July 19,'41	p248	p146	p496
Lady for a Night	Rep.	101	Joan Blondell-John Wayne	Jan. 5,'42	88m	Jan. 3,'42	p441	p351	.....
Lady Has Plans, The	Para.	.....	Paulette Goddard-Ray Millan	Not Set	75m	Jan. 24,'42	p475	p464	.....
Lady Is Willing, The	Col.	3007	Marlene Dietrich-Fred MacMurray	Feb. 12,'42	91m	Jan. 31,'42	p485	p351	.....
Lady Scarface	RKO	203	Dennis O'Keefe-Francis Neal	Sept. 26,'41	66m	July 26,'41	p248	p160	p236
Land of the Open Range	RKO	284	Tim Holt	Apr. 10,'42	60m	Dec. 13,'41	p407	p387	.....
Last of the Duanes	20th-Fox	209	Geo. Montgomery-Lynn Roberts	Sept. 26,'41	57m	Sept. 13,'41	p260	p247	.....
Lawless Plainsman	Col.	.....	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Mar. 12,'42	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....
Law of the Jungle	Mono.	.....	Mantan Moreland	Feb. 6,'42	.....	.....	.....	p476	.....
Law of the Timber	Prod.	215	Marjorie Reynolds-Monte Blue	Dec. 19,'41	64m	Dec. 20,'41	p419	p364	.....
Law of the Tropics	WB	105	Jeffrey Lynn-Constance Bennett	Oct. 4,'41	78m	Sept. 6,'41	p245	p235	.....
Let's Go Collegiate	Mono.	.....	Frankie Darro-Manton Moreland	Sept. 12,'41	62m	Sept. 20,'41	p274	p209	.....
Lone Rider and the Bandit	Prod.	263	George Houston	Jan. 16,'42	.....	.....	.....	p409	.....
•Lone Rider Fights Back	Prod.	168	George Houston	Nov. 7,'41	64m	Dec. 27,'41	p431	p320	.....
Lone Rider in Cheyenne	Prod.	264	George Houston-Al St. John	Mar. 13,'42	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....
Lone Star Law Men	Mono.	.....	Tom Keene-Betty Miles	Dec. 5,'41	.....	.....	.....	p387	.....
Lone Star Ranger	20th-Fox	.....	John Kimbrough-Sheila Ryan	Not Set	.....	.....	.....	p443	.....
Lone Star Vigilantes, The	Col.	3211	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Jan. 1,'42	58m	Sept. 27,'41	p286	.....	.....
Look Who's Laughing	RKO	209	Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy	Nov. 21,'41	79m	Sept. 20,'41	p273	p221	.....
Louisiana Purchase (Color)	Para.	4136	Bob Hope-Vera Zorina-Victor Moore	Dec. 25,'41	98m	Nov. 29,'41	p385	p332	p452
Love on the Dole (British)	UA	.....	Clifford Evans	Dec. 12,'41	100m	Apr. 19,'41	p418	.....	.....
Lydia	UA	.....	Merle Oberon-Alan Marshall	Sept. 26,'41	104m	Aug. 23,'41	p262	.....	p496
MAD Doctor of Market Street	Univ.	.....	Una Merkel-Claire Dodd	Feb. 27,'42	61m	Jan. 10,'42	p451	p432	.....
Magnificent Ambersons, The	RKO	.....	Joseph Cotton-Dolores Costello	Mar. 13,'42	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....
Major Barbara (British)	UA	.....	Wendy Hiller-Robert Morley	Sept. 12,'41	115m	May 10,'41	.....	p85	p353
Male Animal, The	WB	.....	Henry Fonda-Olivia De Havilland	Not Set	.....	.....	.....	p464	.....
Maltese Falcon, The	WB	107	Humphrey Bogart-Mary Astor	Oct. 18,'41	100m	Oct. 4,'41	p298	.....	p496
Man at Large	20th-Fox	210	Marjorie Weaver-Geo. Reeves	Sept. 26,'41	69m	Sept. 13,'41	p258	p247	p496
Man from Cheyenne	Rep.	153	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Jan. 16,'42	60m	Jan. 17,'42	p462	p431	.....
Man from Headquarters	Mono.	.....	Frank Albertson-Joan Woodbury	Jan. 23,'42	67m	Jan. 31,'42	p486	p443	.....
Man from Montana	Univ.	6061	Johnny Mack Brown	Sept. 5,'41	56m	Oct. 11,'41	p306	p276	.....
Man Who Came to Dinner	WB	117	Monty Woolley-Bette Davis	Jan. 24,'42	105m	Dec. 27,'41	p429	p332	p496
Man Who Returned to Life	Col.	3034	John Howard-Roger Clark	Feb. 5,'42	.....	.....	.....	p476	.....
Man Who Seeks the Truth	Dome (French)	.....	Raimu	Oct. 7,'41	80m	Oct. 11,'41	p307	.....	.....
Man with Two Lives	Mono.	.....	Edward Norris	Mar. 13,'42	.....	.....	.....	p495	.....
Married Bachelor	MGM	205	Ruth Hussey-Robert Young	Oct. '41	81m	Sept. 13,'41	p258	p247	p496
Marry the Boss's Daughter	20th-Fox	221	Betty Joyce-Bruce Edwards	Nov. 28,'41	60m	Nov. 15,'41	p374	p289	.....
Masked Rider, The	Univ.	6062	Johnny Mack Brown	Oct. 24,'41	58m	Oct. 11,'41	p305	p276	.....
Maxwell Archer, Detective (British)	Mono.	.....	John Loder-Leueen MacGrath	Not Set	.....	.....	.....	p476	.....
Mayor of 44th St.	RKO	.....	George Murphy-Anne Shirley	Apr. 10,'42	.....	.....	.....	p487	.....
Melody Lane	Univ.	6029	The Merry Macs-Baby Sandy	Dec. 19,'41	60m	Dec. 20,'41	p417	p376	.....
Men in Her Life	Col.	3005	Loretta Young-Dean Jagger	Nov. 20,'41	89m	Oct. 25,'41	p321	p277	.....
Mercy Island	Rep.	110	Ray Middleton-Gloria Dickson	Oct. 10,'41	72m	Oct. 11,'41	p306	.....	.....
Mexican Spitfire's Baby	RKO	210	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Nov. 28,'41	70m	Sept. 6,'41	p261	p247	.....
Mexican Spitfire at Sea	RKO	220	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Mar. 6,'42	72m	Jan. 10,'42	p450	p443	.....
Miracle Kid, The	Prod.	213	Tom Neal-Carol Hughes-Vicki Lester	Nov. 14,'41	69m	Jan. 17,'42	p462	p320	.....
Missouri Outlaw, A	Rep.	173	Don "Red" Barry	Nov. 25,'41	58	Nov. 22,'41	p373	p364	.....
Miss Polly	UA	.....	Zasu Pitts-Slim Summerville	Nov. 14,'41	45m	Nov. 8,'41	p350	.....	.....
Mister V (British) (formerly Pimpernel Smith)	UA	.....	Leslie Howard	Not Set	122m	July 5,'41	p450	.....	.....
Mob Town	Univ.	6021	Dick Foran-Anne Gwynne	Oct. 3,'41	62m	Oct. 11,'41	p307	p289	.....
Moonlight in Hawaii	Univ.	6025	Mischa Auer-Jane Frazee	Nov. 21,'41	61m	Oct. 11,'41	p305	p149	.....
Moon Over Her Shoulder	20th-Fox	215	John Sutton-Lynn Bari	Oct. 24,'41	68m	Oct. 18,'41	p318	p299	.....
Mountain Moonlight	Rep.	107	Weaver Brothers and Elviry	July 12,'41	68m	July 19,'41	p250	p149	p236
Mr. Bug Goes to Town (color)	Para.	4114	Fleischer Feature Cartoon	Not Set	78m	Dec. 13,'41	p405	p376	p496
•Mr. Celebrity	Prod.	114	Doris Day-Buzzy Henry	Oct. 31,'41	67m	Oct. 4,'41	p298	.....	.....
Mr. Dist. Attorney in Carter Case	Rep.	112	James Ellison-Virginia Gilmore	Dec. 18,'41	68m	Dec. 27,'41	p430	p409	.....
Mr. Wise Guy	Mono.	.....	East Side Kids	Feb. 20,'42	.....	.....	.....	p475	.....
Mr. and Mrs. North	MGM	219	Gracie Allen-William Post, Jr.	Jan. '42	67m	Dec. 20,'41	p418	p387	.....
Musical Story, A	Artkino	.....	Sergei Lemeshev	Oct. 10,'41	84m	Oct. 25,'41	p331	.....	.....
Mystery Ship	Col.	3040	Paul Kelly-Lola Lane	Sept. 4,'41	65m	Aug. 2,'41	p248	p194	p220
NAVY Blues	WB	103	Jack Oakie-Ann Sheridan	Sept. 13,'41	108m	Aug. 16,'41	p249	p205	p452
Never Give a Sucker an Even Break	Univ.	6016	W. C. Fields-Gloria Jean	Oct. 10,'41	70m	Oct. 11,'41	p305	p299	p496

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	— REVIEWED —
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section	Advance Synopsis	Service Data
New York Town	Para.	4105	Fred MacMurray-Mary Martin	Oct. 31, '41	75m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p236
New Wine	UA	...	Ilona Massey-Binnie Barnes	Oct. 10, '41	87m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p157	p452
Niagara Falls	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-Tom Brown	Oct. 17, '41	43m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	...	...
Night Before the Divorce, The	20th-Fox	235	Lynn Bari-Joseph Allen, Jr.	Mar. 6, '42	67m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	...
Night of January 16	Para.	4106	Robert Preston-Ellen Drew	Nov. 28, '41	80m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	...
Nine Lives Are Not Enough	WB	104	Ronald Reagan-Joan Perry	Sept. 20, '41	63m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	...
No Hands on the Clock	Para.	4113	Chester Morris-Martha Parker	Not Set	76m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p364	...
North of the Klondike	Univ.	...	Brod Crawford-Lon Chaney, Jr.	Jan. 23, '42	58m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p396	...
Nothing But the Truth	Para.	4101	Bob Hope-Paulette Goddard	Oct. 10, '41	90m	Aug. 2, '41	p250	p206	p496
OBLIGING Young Lady	RKO	215	Joan Carroll-Edmond O'Brien	Jan. 30, '42	80m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	p332	...
Old Mother Riley's Circus (British)	Anglo-Amer.	...	Arthur Lucan-Kitty McShane	Not Set	70m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	...	...
On the Sunny Side	20th-Fox	232	Roddy McDowall-Jane Darwell	Feb. 13, '42	69m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	...
One Foot in Heaven	WB	108	Fredric March-Martha Scott	Nov. 1, '41	103m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	p206	p496
Outlaws of Cherokee Trail	Rep.	161	Three Mesquiteers-Tom Tyler	Sept. 10, '41	56m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p263	...
Outlaws of the Desert	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	66m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	...	...
PANAMA Hattie	MGM	...	Ann Sothorn-Red Skelton	Not Set	...	...	...	p396	...
Pacific Blackout	Para.	4115	Robert Preston-Martha O'Driscoll	Jan. 2, '42	76m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p364	p496
(formerly Midnight Angel)
Parachute Battalion	RKO	202	Robert Preston-Nancy Kelly	Sept. 12, '41	75m	July 19, '41	p249	p196	p421
Pardon My Stripes	Rep.	122	Bill Henry-Sheila Ryan	Jan. 26, '42	...	...	...	p442	...
Paris Calling	Univ.	...	Randolph Scott-Elizabeth Bergner	Jan. 16, '42	95m	Dec. 6, '41	p407	p320	...
Perfect Snob, The	20th-Fox	223	Lynn Bari-Cornel Wilde	Dec. 19, '41	62m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p351	...
Pittsburgh Kid, The	Rep.	133	Billy Conn-Jean Parker	Aug. 29, '41	76m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	...	p353
Playmates	RKO	212	Kay Kyser-John Barrymore	Dec. 26, '41	96m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	p332	...
Powder Town	RKO	...	Victor McLaglen-Edmond O'Brien	Apr. 17, '42	...	...	...	...	...
Prime Minister, The (British)	WB	115	John Gielgud-Diana Wynyard	Not Set	94m	Aug. 23, '41	p249	...	...
Private Nurse	20th-Fox	204	Brenda Joyce-Robert Lowery	Aug. 22, '41	61m	July 26, '41	p250	p197	p236
Public Enemies	Rep.	121	Philip Terry-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 30, '41	66m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	...	...
QUIET Wedding (British)	Univ.	6044	Margaret Lockwood-Derek Farr	Nov. 21, '41	80m	Feb. 15, '41	p386	...	...
RAIDERS of the West	Prod.	252	Bill "Radio" Boyd-Lee Powell	Feb. 13, '42	64m	...	...	p432	...
Reap the Wild Wind	Para.	...	Ray Milland-Paulette Goddard	Not Set	...	...	...	p408	...
Red River Valley	Rep.	152	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Dec. 12, '41	62m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	p409	...
Remarkable Andrew, The	Para.	...	William Holden-Ellen Drew	Not Set	80m	Jan. 24, '42	p473	p443	...
Remarkable Mr. Kipps (British)	20th-Fox	...	Michael Redgrave-Diana Wynyard	Not Set	112m	Apr. 12, '41	...	...	...
Remember the Day	20th-Fox	226	Claudette Colbert-John Payne	Dec. 26, '41	86m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p408	p452
Report from Russia	Artkino	...	Documentary	Not Set	45m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	...	...
Ride 'Em Cowboy	Univ.	...	Abbott and Costello	Feb. 20, '42	...	...	...	p464	...
Riders of the Badlands	Col.	3202	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Dec. 18, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p387	...
• Riding the Sunset Trail	Mono.	...	Tom Keene	Oct. 31, '41	56m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p320	...
Riding the Wind	RKO	283	Tim Holt	Feb. 13, '42	60m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	...	...
Riders of the Purple Sage	20th-Fox	213	Geo. Montgomery-Mary Howard	Oct. 10, '41	56m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	...
Riders of the Timberline	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	59m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	...	...
Right to the Heart	20th-Fox	229	Brenda Joyce-Cornel Wilde	Jan. 23, '42	74m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	...
Riot Squad	Mono.	...	Richard Cromwell-Rita Quigley	Dec. 12, '41	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	p364	...
Rise and Shine	20th-Fox	219	J. Oakie-Walter Brennan-Linda Darnell	Nov. 21, '41	92m	Nov. 15, '41	p361	p351	p496
Road Agent	Univ.	...	Leo Carrillo-Andy Devine-Dick Foran	Dec. 19, '41	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	...	...
Road to Happiness	Mono.	...	John Boles-Mona Barrie	Jan. 9, '42	83m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p396	...
Roaring Frontiers	Col.	3210	Bill Elliott	Oct. 16, '41	60m	Aug. 30, '41	p234	...	...
Rock River Renegades	Mono.	...	Corrigan-Kane-Terhune	Feb. 27, '42	...	...	...	...	...
Roxie Hart	20th-Fox	233	Ginger Rogers-George Montgomery	Feb. 20, '42	74m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	p487	...
Royal Mounted Patrol	Col.	3201	Chas. Starrett-Russell Hayden	Nov. 13, '41	59m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p289	...
SABOTEUR, The	Univ.	...	Robert Cummings-Priscilla Lane	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	...	...
Saddle Mountain Roundup	Mono.	...	Range Busters	Aug. 29, '41	60m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p299	...
Sailors on Leave	Rep.	109	Wm. Lundigan-Shirley Ross	Sept. 30, '41	71m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p299	p432
Sealed Lips	Univ.	6038	Wm. Gargan-June Clyde-John Litel	Dec. 5, '41	62m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	...	...
Secrets of the Lone Wolf	Col.	3026	Warren William-Ruth Ford	Nov. 13, '41	67m	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p289	...
Secrets of the Wasteland	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	70m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	...	...
Sergeant York	WB	101	Gary Cooper-Joan Leslie	Sept. 27, '41	134m	July 5, '41	p250	p111	p495
Shadow of the Thin Man	MGM	210	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Nov. '41	97m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p308	p495
Shanghai Gesture, The	UA	...	Gene Tierney-Walter Huston	Jan. 15, '42	105m	Dec. 27, '41	p442	...	p452
Ships With Wings (British)	UA	...	John Clements-Leslie Banks	Not Set	...	Dec. 20, '41	p419	...	...
Shut My Big Mouth	Col.	...	Joe E. Brown-Adele Mara	Feb. 19, '42	...	...	...	p476	...
Sierra Sue	Rep.	143	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov. 12, '41	64m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p343	...
Sing Another Chorus	Univ.	6030	Johnny Downs-Jane Frazee	Sept. 19, '41	63m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	p137	...
Sing for Your Supper	Col.	3022	Jinx Falkenburg-Buddy Rogers	Dec. 4, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p331	...
Sing Your Worries Away	RKO	219	Bert Lahr-Buddy Ebsen	Feb. 27, '42	71m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p442	...
Siren of the South Seas	Mono.	...	Movita-Warren Hull	Nov. 7, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p218	...
• Six Gun Gold	RKO	186	Tim Holt	Aug. 8, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p218	...
Skylark	Para.	4107	Claudette Colbert-Ray Milland	Nov. 21, '41	93m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p235	...
Small Town Deb	20th-Fox	217	Jane Withers-Cobina Wright, Jr.	Nov. 7, '41	72m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	...
Smiling Ghost, The	WB	102	Brenda Marshall-Wayne Morris	Sept. 6, '41	71m	Ang. 16, '41	p262	p207	p452
Smilin' Through (color)	MGM	206	Jeanette MacDonald-Gene Raymond	Oct. '41	100m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p247	p495
Snuffy Smith, Yard Bird	Mono.	...	Bud Duncan-Edgar Kennedy	Jan. 16, '42	67m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p408	...
Song of the Islands (color)	20th-Fox	236	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Mar. 13, '42	75m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	p487	...
Son of Fury	20th-Fox	230	Tyrone Power-Gene Tierney	Jan. 9, '42	98m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p432	...
Sons of the Sea (British)	WB	119	Michael Redgrave-Valerie Hobson	Feb. 7, '42	108m	July 5, '41	p430	...	...
(formerly Atlantic Ferry)
South of Santa Fe	Rep.	154	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Feb. 20, '42	...	...	...	...	...
South of Tahiti	Univ.	6020	Brian Donlevy-Brod Crawford	Oct. 17, '41	75m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p308	...
Soviet Power	Artkino	...	Documentary	Sept. 6, '41	112m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	...	...
Spooks Run Wild	Mono.	...	Bela Lugosi-Leo Gorcey	Oct. 24, '41	64m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	p277	...
Stage Coach Buckaroo	Univ.	6064	Johnny Mack Brown	Feb. 13, '42	...	...	...	...	...

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	— REVIEWED —
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section	Advance Synopsis	Service Data
Steel Against the Sky	WB	112	Lloyd Nolan-Alexis Smith	Dec. 13, '41	68m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p376	....
Stick To Your Guns	Para.	....	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	63m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
Stolen Paradise (formerly Adolescence)	Mono.	....	Leon Janney-Eleanor Hunt	Oct. 10, '41	62m	Oct. 19, '41	p319	p263	p386
Stork Pays Off, The	Col.	3036	Maxie Rosenbloom-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 6, '41	68m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p308	....
Strangler, The	Prod.	229	Judy Campbell-Sebastian Shaw	Mar. 27, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Sullivan's Travels	Para.	4112	Joel McCrea-Veronica Lake	Not Set	91m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p320	p452
Sundown	UA	....	Gene Tierney-Bruce Cabot	Oct. 31, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
Sun Valley Serenade	20th-Fox	205	Sonja Heine-John Payne	Aug. 29, '41	86m	Aug. 22, '41	p251	p137	p367
Suspicion (formerly Before the Fact)	RKO	208	Cary Grant-Joan Fontaine	Nov. 14, '41	99m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p158	p452
Swamp Water	20th-Fox	218	W. Huston-Walter Brennan-Ann Baxter	Dec. 5, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	p452
Swamp Woman	Prod.	230	Ann Corio-Jack LaRue	Dec. 5, '41	68m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p331	....
Swing It Soldier	Univ.	6033	Frances Langford-Ken Murray	Nov. 7, '41	66m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p331	p452
Syncopation	RKO	....	Adolphe Menjou-Jackie Cooper	Mar. 27, '42	....	....	....	p487	....
TANKS a Million	UA	....	William Tracy-Elyse Knox	Sept. 12, '41	50m	Aug. 9, '41	p250	....	p220
Target for Tonight (British)	WB	109	Documentary	Nov. 8, '41	48m	Aug. 16, '41	p318	....	p495
Tarzan's Secret Treasure	MGM	214	Johnny Weismuller-Maureen O'Sullivan	Dec. '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p375	p289	p495
Texas	Col.	3008	William Holden-Glenn Ford	Oct. 9, '41	94m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p181	p495
Texas Man Hunt	Prod.	251	Bill (Radio) Boyd	Jan. 2, '42	60m	....	....	p409	....
They Died with Their Boots On	WB	114	Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland	Jan. 1, '42	137m	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p308	p495
This England (British)	World	....	Emlyn Williams-John Clements	Nov. 17, '41	80m	Mar. 8, '41	p406	....	....
This Time for Keeps	MGM	....	Ann Rutherford-Robert Sterling	Not Set	....	....	....	p495	....
Three Cockeyed Sailors (British)	UA	....	Tommy Trinder-Claude Hulbert	July 4, '41	77m	June 21, '41	p248	....	p288
Three Girls About Town	Col.	3016	Joan Blondell-John Howard	Oct. 23, '41	72m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p263	p367
Thunder River Feud	Mono.	....	Range Busters	Jan. 9, '42	....	....	....	p443	....
Thundering Hoofs	RKO	286	Tim Holt	Not Set	61m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
To Be or Not to Be	UA	....	Carole Lombard-Jack Benny	Feb. 15, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Today I Hang	Prod.	214	Walter Woolf King-Mona Barrie	Jan. 30, '42	....	....	....	p467	....
Tonto Basin Outlaws	Mono.	....	Ray Corrigan-John King	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p320	....
Too Many Women	Prod.	210	Neil Hamilton-June Lang	Feb. 27, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Top Sergeant Mulligan	Mono.	....	Nat Pendleton-Carol Hughes	Oct. 17, '41	70m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p308	....
Torpedo Boat	Para.	....	Richard Arlen-Jean Parker	Not Set	70m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	....
Tragedy at Midnight, A	Rep.	114	Margaret Lindsay-John Howard	Feb. 2, '42	68m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p476	....
Tramp, Tramp, Tramp	Col.	....	Jackie Gleason-Jack Durant	Mar. 12, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Treat 'Em Rough (formerly Panama Kid)	Univ.	....	Peggy Moran-Eddie Albert	Jan. 30, '42	61m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p408	....
Tuxedo Junction	Rep.	113	Weaver Brothers	Dec. 4, '41	71m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p343	....
Twilight on the Trail	Para.	....	Bill Boyd	Not Set	58m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	....
Twin Beds	UA	....	George Brent-Joan Bennett	Jan. 15, '42	....	....	....	p442	....
Two-Faced Woman (formerly The Twins)	MGM	211	Greta Garbo-Melynn Douglas	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p299	p451
Two Latins from Manhattan	Col.	3020	Joan Davis-"Jinx" Falkenburg	Oct. 2, '41	65m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Two Yanks in Trinidad	Col.	....	Pat O'Brien-Brian Donlevy	Mar. 26, '42	....	....	....	....	....
UNDERGROUND Rustlers (formerly Bullets and Bullion)	Mono.	....	Range Busters	Nov. 21, '41	....	....	....	p331	....
Unexpected Uncle	RKO	207	Anne Shirley-Charles Coburn	Nov. 7, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p218	....
Unfinished Business	Univ.	6004	Irene Dunne-Robert Montgomery	Sept. 12, '41	96m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p172	p451
Unholy Partners	MGM	209	Ed. G. Robinson-Laraine Day-Ed. Arnold	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
VALLEY of the Sun	RKO	216	Lucille James-James Craig	Feb. 6, '42	84m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	p442	....
Vanishing Virginian, The	MGM	223	Frank Morgan-Kathryn Grayson	Feb. '42	97m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	....
WEEKEND in Havana (color)	20th-Fox	214	Alice Faye-C. Miranda-J. Payne	Oct. 17, '41	80m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p495
Weekend for Three	RKO	211	Dennis O'Keefe-Jane Wyatt-Philip Reed	Dec. 12, '41	66m	Oct. 25, '41	p343	p332	....
We Go Fast	20th-Fox	208	Lynn Bari-Alan Curtis	Sept. 19, '41	64m	Sept. 13, '41	p260	p247	p495
We Were Dancing	MGM	....	Norma Shearer-Melvyn Douglas	Not Set	94m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p443	....
Western Mail	Mono.	....	Tim Keene-Jean Trent	Feb. 13, '42	....	....	....	....	....
West of Cimarron	Rep.	163	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Dec. 15, '41	56m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p396	....
West of Tombstone	Col.	3203	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Jan. 15, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Wild Bill Hickok Rides	WB	118	Constance Bennett-Bruce Cabot	Jan. 31, '42	82m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	p408	....
Wild Geese Calling	20th-Fox	203	Henry Fonda-Joan Bennett	Aug. 15, '41	78m	July 26, '41	p249	p196	p367
Wings of Victory	Artkino	....	Vladimir Belokurov	Nov. 14, '41	95m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	....	....
Wolf Man, The	Univ.	6015	Claude Rains-Dick Foran	Dec. 12, '41	70m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	....	....
Woman of the Year, The	MGM	222	Spencer Tracy-Katharine Hepburn	Feb. '42	112m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p376	....
Workers, Let's Go (Czech)	Trans-Oceanic	....	Jan Werich-Jiri Voskovec	Dec. 12, '41	71m	Dec. 20, '42	p420	....	....
YANK in the R.A.F.	20th-Fox	211	Tyrone Power-Betty Grable	Oct. 3, '41	97m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p149	p495
Yank on the Burma Road, A (formerly China Caravan)	MGM	224	Laraine Day-Barry Nelson	Feb. '42	66m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p432	....
You Belong to Me	Col.	3003	Henry Fonda-Barbara Stanwyck	Oct. 30, '41	97m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p289	p451
• You'll Never Get Rich	Col.	2004	Fred Astaire-Rita Hayworth	Sept. 25, '41	88m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	p421
You're in the Army Now	WB	113	Jimmy Durante-Jane Wyman	Dec. 25, '41	79m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
Young America	20th-Fox	231	Jane Withers-William Tracy	Jan. 2, '42	73m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	....
ZIS—Boom—Bah	Mono.	....	Grace Hayes-Peter Lind Hayes	Nov. 7, '41	62m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p332	....

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in Order of Release on page 466.

---

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Eastman Motion-Picture Film Cans and Cores MUST BE RETURNED

---

WAR requirements have sharply curtailed the supply of metal and plastics needed to manufacture 35-mm. motion-picture film cans and cores. Consequently, the Eastman Kodak Company urges the prompt return of these essential supplies. They must be used over and over again.

Help maintain the supply of motion-picture film by seeing to it that all Eastman cans and cores are kept in good condition, collected, and shipped to the Kodak Park Works, Rochester, N. Y.

By doing your part in this emergency, you help yourself and everyone connected with the motion-picture industry—as well as all those who depend more than ever on the screen for vital information and entertainment.

Write for prices and detailed shipping information.

---

Motion Picture Sales Division
EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

At Your Service, Uncle Sam!

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON

January 28, 1942

To the Moving Picture Exhibitor Addressed
Dear Sir:

Very soon you will be offered a new Donald Duck picture in technicolor entitled "The New Spirit" which is very entertaining. It was made especially for the United States Treasury by Walt Disney as a contribution to the nation's war effort. It carries a patriotic message to every American, showing through the medium of Donald Duck how each citizen can do his or her bit by paying his income tax promptly.

This picture will have widespread publicity, and I believe your patrons will be looking for it eagerly. It will be offered to you free and I hope that you will elect to show it.

Since its greatest effectiveness will be between now and March 16, I further hope that you will show it as soon as you can get it, and then send it along without delay so that the next exhibitor may show it promptly.

I shall appreciate very much your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

Henry M. Vignuth

Please accept the Play-date designated.
Thanks for your co-operation.

COMING TO YOU FROM OUR NEAREST EXCHANGE

NATIONAL Screen SERVICE
PRIZE BABY OF THE INDUSTRY

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

REVIEWS

(In Product Digest)

Ride 'Em, Cowboy
Courtship of Andy Hardy
This Time for Keeps
Pardon My Stripes
Mr. Wise Guy
Duke of the Navy
Nine Bachelors

Arbitration Order Curbs Special Privileges for Majors' Theatres

Carolina & Connecticut Owners Demand New Film Buying System

No Strikes in This Industry for the Duration, Definitely: IATSE

AAA Names 156 New Arbitrators for Decree Panels in the Field

British Navy and Air Force Rush Films to Neutrals to Block Nazis

VOL. 146, NO. 7

FEBRUARY 14, 1942

Entered as second-class matter, January 12, 1931, at the Post Office, at New York City, U. S. A., under the act of March 3, 1879. Published weekly by Quigley Publishing Co., Inc., at 1270 Sixth Avenue, Rockefeller Center, New York. Subscription prices: $5.00 a year in the Americas, $10.00 a year Foreign. Single copy, 25 cents. All contents copyright 1942 by Quigley Publishing Company.

"Get the 3<sup>d</sup>
one ready, Leo.
I've just started!"

3

"When M-G-M gets topped, there's only one company can do it!"

2

WOMAN OF THE YEAR

WATCH THIS LINE OF 1942 TROPHIES GROW!

Play "THE NEW SPIRIT," U. S. Treasury short — it's

"WOMAN OF THE YEAR" IS FILM OF THE YEAR—This is well-nigh the perfect picture any you look at it." Lee Mortimer, DAILY MIRROR

"Delightful comedy . . . fresh and screamingly funny . . . leaves the audience weak from laugh-
er." Kate Cameron, DAILY NEWS

"SUPERB MOVIE. IT SHOULD BE CALLED FILM OF THE YEAR. Seldom have I seen a more freshly written, gayer, wiser, more beautifully acted and directed entertainment than this one." William Boehnel, WORLD-TELEGRAM

"Into a gloomy world comes a bright spot, a picture called 'Woman of the Year'."
Eileen Creelman, SUN

"If 'Woman of the Year' is not one of the best pictures of the year, than this department is calling its shots very badly. Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy play the leading roles with such skill and gusto that it becomes irresistibly entertaining." Howard Barnes, HERALD TRIBUNE

"The first honest-to-God Number 1, Class A smash of 1942. 'Woman of the Year' is one of those things everybody will see sooner or later. It would be best, of course, to see it at once."
Leo Mishkin, TELEGRAPH

"'Woman of the Year' is the movie comedy of the year." John T. McManus, PM

"For the first time in months, this critical spectator feels like tossing his old hat into the air and weaving a joyous snake dance in celebration of Metro's triumphant 'Woman of the Year'."
Bosley Crowther, TIMES

"Sure to be one of the pictures of the year...Both principals perfectly cast . . . Their hugely amusing performances, slick lines and situations add up to delightful entertainment. You'll find it grand fun."
Rose Peliswick, JOURNAL-AMERICAN

"THE WOMAN OF THE YEAR" HAS A MARK TO SHOOT AT!

The 'Sergeant'

NOW

in NEW YORK
LONDON
CAIRO
OTTAWA
TORONTO
VANCOUVER

rk' of 1942!

JAMES

CAGNEY

and the Royal Canadian Air Force in

CAPTAINS OF
THE CLOUDS

IN TECHNICOLOR

with

DENNIS MORGAN • BRENDA MARSHALL

ALAN HALE • GEORGE TOBIAS • REGINALD GARDINER • REGINALD DENNY

Directed by MICHAEL CURTIZ

Screen Play by Arthur T. Horman, Richard Macaulay, Norman Reilly Raine
From a Story by Arthur T. Horman and Roland Gillett • Music by Max Steiner

WARNER BROS.

are deeply grateful to the R.C.A.F. for making the picture and its gala opening possible!

ROXIE IS EVERYONE'S SWEET HART!

Just read these signed valentines from the trade-paper lads!

"'Roxie Hart' uproarious boxoffice hit! Will prove a lusty boxoffice baby! Ginger Rogers scores a resounding personal hit in the title role!
Adolphe Menjou sells a glorious role joyously!"

— Hollywood Reporter

"'Roxie Hart' looks like a boxoffice hit for any location. Sure-fire entertainment that exhibitors and fans will relish! There's a treat in store for the Ginger Rogers fans!"

— Showmen's Trade Review

"'Roxie Hart' unfolds with excitement, suspense, but above all, great comedy! It's a show for almost any type audience and will garner big business!"

— Daily Variety

"'Roxie Hart' colorful, forceful, rowdy! William A. Wellman and Nunnally Johnson appear to have enjoyed the assignment immensely and that enjoyment comes through to the audience!"

— Motion Picture Daily

AND HERE'S ONE
FROM 20TH . . . TO YOU!

FOR SHOWMEN SMART
"ROXIE HART"
WILL TEAR RECORDS APART
RIGHT FROM THE START!

Watch the boxoffice reports from the first big opening at RKO Palace,
Rochester! Roxie is rocking the town!

GINGER ROGERS in "ROXIE HART" with Adolphe Menjou • George Montgomery
and Lynne Overman • Nigel Bruce • Phil Silvers • Sara Allgood • William Frawley • Spring Byington • Ted North Helene Reynolds • Directed by William A. Wellman • Produced and Written for the Screen by Nunnally Johnson • Based upon the Play "Chicago" Written by Maurine Watkins and Produced by Sam H. Harris • Dances Staged by Hermes Pan

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 146, No. 7

February 14, 1942

PUBLIC RELATIONS

THE newly organized committee of advertising and publicity directors of the New York home offices of the picture industry, set up by and through the lawyers "Committee of Six," is a promisingly constructive arrangement to put new forces behind representation of the motion picture to the public.

It has been the occasional comment on this page that vast energies and resources have ever been put into the competitive selling of the wares of the screen, but relatively little into the selling of the screen.

The destiny of the screen is inevitably made up of the component performances of its pictures, but there is a place for an order of publicity and institutional functioning which maintains the interests of the whole. Every competent picture supports the cause of the screen, every great picture advances it; but there may well be precautions taken to be sure that the public is aware that it is being served, handsomely, generously and at a price empowered by the pooled buying power of the many.

ENTIRELY TECHNICAL

NOW that the causes of war are swelling the floods of publicity and adding to the press organizations many an unskilled worker, it becomes perhaps of service to suggest that:

Blue, especially in the lighter hues, against a white ground, as in the White House letterhead, does not reproduce in ordinary line cuts for black-and-white printing. Obviously, this also applies to blue ink signatures.

"Mats", meaning stereotype matrices, are useful only for the newspaper reproduction of line drawings and coarse screen halftones, not to exceed 85 lines to the inch. They are entirely useless for most periodical publications on finished paper like, for instance, this page.

Electrotypes, commonly called "electros", are heavy, expensive of both metal and transportation. As publicity vehicles they are handicapped and incur the displeasure of editors generally because they do not permit any elasticity of treatment of the material concerned. Electros broadcast for publicity commonly go direct to the bell-box, which is print shop vernacular for the scrap heap.

Also while we are on the subject, it may be well to add once again that the fine screen—120 line—halftones used by THE HERALD will not reproduce in newspapers.

LANDLORD MANAGERS

STUPIDLY greedy theatre managers, rather than the motion picture, brought the decline of the American stage, so Miss Eve Le Gallienne told an audience at the University of Cincinnati the other day.

That "certain type of theatre manager," she observed, "is not a theatre worker but a real estate agent, who doesn't know the theatre and doesn't know the country. He simply wants money and thinks that anything can go 'in the sticks'.

The people rebelled, so these men killed the goose that laid the golden egg. I'm glad they did. They were dishonest."

That is a shade reminiscent of some observations on this page a while ago about selling methods calculated to make the local picture showman into a landlord, too.

Incidentally Miss Le Gallienne now would have a government subsidy for "at least six drama centers throughout the country, with free schools for training. Libraries, museums, orchestras and opera companies are subsidized, but the theatre is the only great cultural institution left to the mercy of commercialism."

One might remind the gifted Miss Le Gallienne of that remarkable politico-artistic and red enterprise known as the Federal Theatre of aromatic memory. It was subsidized.

"ESSENTIAL"

PROGRESS is had for the interest of the motion picture in the ruling of General Louis B. Hershey, draft chief, that this is an "essential industry" not to be unduly invaded by military requisitioning of "essential workers."

This is satisfactory documentation of the Administration's various expressions concerning the vital service that the screen can render the nation-at-war.

This is, however, an industry of machines as well as men, and the makers of theatre equipment and supplies are yet to have the official assurances and allotments that will guarantee or even promise continued operation at standards of efficiency.

DOUGLAS CHURCHILL

THE passing of Mr. Douglas Churchill, recorded in this issue, removes from the Hollywood scene one of its most competent journalists. He was a native son of California, as rare in journalism as native New Yorkers are in New York. Newspapermen mostly come from somewhere else.

Mr. Churchill brought to his labors in the motion picture community a full equipment of attainment and experience in newspaper work, and held steadfastly to the better standards of the daily press in his picture writings. His style was pleasant but direct, clear. His copy stood in marked contrast and sharp focus against a field of much confusion. His contributions to the New York Times were among the most cogent reports that came out of Hollywood. Interestingly he persisted in being objective, refused to be a "columnist."

It is to be said of Douglas Churchill that he was a good reporter—which in the newspaper world is the best that can be said of a man.

FURTHER news on submarine operations; the infernal muskrats which infest the backwaters of our Tinker's Dam in the Silvermine valley of Connecticut are now working under the ice and eating up the editor's imported lotus roots. He is considering mines and poison gas. The spring fiction of the seed and nursery catalogues floods this desk with propaganda which one would like to believe—but doesn't.

—Terry Ramsaye

This Week

in the News

Where to Ask

PRIORITY applications from the motion picture industry are moving through the Washington mills with dispatch. A. Julian Brylawski, in charge of film priorities for the War Production Board, reported "My desk is clear" this week, following an intensive effort to speed action on requests by theatres, producers and film manufacturers.

Proper routing to the proper place at Washington will insure continued quick handling of film priority requests, he said. Applications should be addressed to "A. Julian Brylawski, Second Wing, Third Floor, Temporary Building E," at Washington.

Mr. Brylawski reports that so far all industry requests have been approved.

Berlin Says

BERLIN, in a German language broadcast via short-wave last Saturday, 8:15 A. M., to North and South America, "discovered" through the reports of "Swedish correspondents in Los Angeles and San Francisco" the existence of a "critical situation in the United States film industry in Hollywood."

The productions of the "film trust" are getting poorer and poorer and the public is tiring of propaganda pictures, said Berlin. The movie stars are being used to sell war bonds and Hollywood actresses have volunteered as blood donors. "However, the Red Cross declared that these young ladies were far too slim."

Berlin also reported the wild west movie business shot to pieces. "The Army has already confiscated the best cowboy horses and sent the film cowboys to its training camps."

Lorentz Finds His Man

NOW it can be told. Pare Lorentz, documentary film producer, privately, and for the Government ("The River," "Plow That Broke the Plains," "Fight for Life"), and who for months has been an RKO producer, but apparently without assignment, will produce "Name, Age and Occupation."

The news blossomed via release from the home office publicity department, Tuesday. It said Mr. Lorentz insisted for the past five months his main "concern was the discovery of a leading man whose traits would combine those of Thomas Meighan in his younger days, and Gary Cooper"; and that "the search ended some weeks ago in New York City, where Lorentz found his man." He was not identified.

"Name, Age and Occupation" is a "dramatic story of America, told in personal, rather than in cavalcade or newsreel terms." Depicted is the life of an American man from 1919 to 1942.

SPECIAL privileges to affiliated theatres curbed by AAA award Page 13

NO STRIKES for the duration is definite pledge by IATSE Page 14

CENSORING of films for export begun by U. S. under 1917 Act Page 16

WASHINGTON has pattern for standard code of theatre protection Page 20

DOUGLAS, Dancer and Disney's Donald Duck get the axe Page 24

REPUBLIC, United Artists, PRC set new release blocks Page 26

ESSENTIAL rating given industry by Army, permitting deferments Page 27

BRITISH Navy, Air Force deliver their own and U. S. films to world Page 33

REVISED 'buying methods demanded by units in Carolina, Connecticut Page 34

AAA names 156 new arbitrators to panels in the field Page 40

PERCENTAGE deals cover 50 per cent of receipts in Canada Page 42

NO TRIAL DATE in sight for U. S. case against Little Three Page 46

SERVICE DEPARTMENTS

Asides and Interludes Page 37 Managers' Round Table Page 55

Hollywood Scene Page 38 What the Picture Did for Me Page 48

PRODUCT DIGEST, including Reviews and Release Chart Page 65

Says Mr. Wilkerson

THE FIRST that William Richard Wilkerson, publisher of The Hollywood Reporter, heard of "Lord Haw Haw" was when he saw the name in his own paper, he testified for deposition in Los Angeles last Saturday in the million dollar libel suit instituted by Jimmy Fidler, radio commentator, who has legally objected to being called "The Lord Haw Haw of Hollywood."

According to the Los Angeles Herald Express, Mr. Wilkerson also deposed that he had not heard of the name since, either, and that he did and does refuse a retraction. He attributed the story and reference to a Washington correspondent of The Reporter.

"I seldom read what goes into the paper until after it is published," he was quoted.

It was also the publisher's quoted judgment that Mr. Fidler's appearance before the Senatorial committee investigating the motion picture industry was "unfair and hurtful" to Hollywood, but that despite that he felt the studios were still operating at a profit.

Salvaging for War

A TEN-POINT theatre program for the conservation and salvage of materials vital for defense, has been formulated by the IATSE, to help the government's war effort, Richard Walsh, president of the IATSE, announced in New York Wednesday.

The program resulted from conferences held by union officials with the motion picture industry's War Activities Committee, headed by Chairman George J. Schaefer and co-ordinator Francis S. Harmon. While this plan applies only to theatre operation, similar programs are now being evolved for both the distribution exchanges and the producing studios.

The program will be distributed to every IATSE projectionist, maintenance man and stagehand in the U. S.

The program basically, follows:

1.—Keep projection rooms and equipment clean, avoiding wear and tear; 2.—Lubricate properly all equipment; 3.—Make only necessary replacements to conserve spare parts; 4.—Burn carbons at minimum current; Use carbon savers; 5.—Clean lenses, protect condensers and reflectors; 6.—Service regularly all electric current distribution points; 7.—Allow sufficient warming-up period for all vacuum tubes; 8.—Inspect, thread and rewind film carefully; 9.—Handle reels and film containers with care, they cannot be replaced. 10.—Do not throw anything away, keep all worn-out parts.

PICTURES ADVERTISED THIS WEEK

"Woman of the Year," MGM, 2 cover, Page 3

"Captains of the Clouds," Warners, Pages 4, 5

"Roxie Hart," 20th-Fox, Page 6

"Kings Row," Warners, Pages 15, 17, 19

"Song of the Islands," 20th-Fox, Pages 22, 23

"Mr. V," United Artists, Page 31

"Mr. Bug Goes to Town," Paramount, Pages 35, 36

"Lady for a Night," Republic, Page 39

Filming Pearl Harbor(s)

NEWSREELS were busy with war this week. Over the weekend they carried, after two months, the pictures which their cameramen filmed during the attack on Pearl Harbor, December 7th. The Navy Department now releases 625 feet of the film which had been withheld for study by the Pearl Harbor Commission, and other officials.

Al Brick, 20th Century-Fox studio cameraman, on location in Hawaii, made the only film record of the actual attack on December 7th. The scenes released included burning hangars, planes on the ground smashed by Jap bombs, the roaring fire that enveloped the battleship Arizona, and pictures of the capsized Oklahoma, targetship Utah, and wreckage of the destroyers Cassin and Downes. The Navy deleted all pictures of actual combat, wounded or dead, and its forces in action. None of the scenes matched the action of the historic films of the Japanese bombing of the Yangtze gunboat Panay in 1937.

Within stone's throw of their Manhattan decks on Monday newsreel editors again had spot war news when the French liner Normandie, being converted by the U. S. Navy as the USS. Lafayette, burned at its North River pier. More than 20 camera crews covered the blaze for the five newsreels from the shore, river and air. The reels were not permitted to use flares or searchlights after dark and did not have pictures of the vessel capsizing.

Remembering Edison

THE NINETY-FIFTH anniversary of the birth of Thomas Alva Edison, February 11, was honored this week nationally by presidential proclamation suggesting display of the flag and exercises in schools and churches.

In New York the Museum of Science and Industry in Rockefeller Center, presented a display of Edison inventions represented by models, with a program of lectures. The museum also presented three historic motion pictures including "The Execution of Mary Queen of Scots," produced in 1894 for the peep-show kinoscope with which Mr. Edison, through Raff & Gammon, first marketed his invention of the motion picture. The program included excerpts from "The Great Train Robbery," of 1903, the first "story picture" which so largely shared in the rise of the nickelodeon, and "The Dream of a Rarebit Fiend," made in 1906, one of the early specimens of "trick" or process photography in the United States, following upon the methods of Melies in France.

The films shown were from the archives of the Film Library of the Museum of Modern Art, which now holds the most completely representative collection of historically significant motion pictures in the world.

Steps in the Big Industry Makeover

THE MACHINERY for weaving a new pattern of public relations and operations for the organized industry started to function, formally, on Wednesday, in New York. There, nine advertising-publicity executives of the Big Eight, and Republic met, at headquarters of the MPPDA, to start formulating policy and procedure for their part of the project which came out of the recent New York meetings of the "committee of six" motion picture lawyers.

The three Hollywood members of this strategy committee—Mendel Silberberg, Columbia; Maurice Benjamin, MGM, and Herbert Freston, Warners, returned to Hollywood, were reporting to production and executive managements on the drafts of their New York industry policy making, concerning the Production Code Administration, war-time priorities, labor, publicity, taxes, press and public relations, and other matters.

The three New York members—J. Robert Rubin, Loew's; Austin Keough, Paramount, and Joseph Hazen, Warners, were similarly reporting to home offices, preparatory to formal presentation to company directorates of the blue print for effecting some militant movements and realignments in industry institutional conduct.

In personnel shufflings, official announcement came last Friday of the resignation of Charles Clyde Pettijohn, general counsel of the Hays Organization some 20 years; the name of Henry Schreiber, attorney in the New York office, was unofficially mentioned as Mr. Pettijohn's successor, likewise that of Jack Bryson, now the industry's legislative contact in California. Out of half-a-dozen names nominated for a new post of special labor counsellor, that of Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra was mentioned the most prominently. He is president of the University of Wisconsin, and his appointment, or that of any other in the position would be in line with the lawyer-strategists' recommendation that labor relations, under Pat Casey, be extended. In this connection, Victor Clarke has already been appointed a labor assistant to Mr. Casey. Mr. Clarke held a similar post up to a year ago.

Added this week to those already mentioned as successor to Bert New, until recently MPPDA Washington legislative contact, was the name of Kyle Palmer, Capitol writer for the Los Angeles Times.

Last week there were intimations that there was another part of the project afoot which would enlist the services of Wendell L. Willkie. By telephone, late Wednesday, from his private law offices at 15 Broad Street, New York, Mr. Willkie told MOTION PICTURE HERALD he had received no bid from industry lawyers for his services, and that he had not been discussing any motion picture posts.

Judge Stephen Jackson, of New York City's Children courts, is another mentioned for a post in the realignment, a post in the Production Code Administration.

Other designations are in the making, among them those of an official industry spokesmen on each coast, considered necessary by the lawyers' "committee of six," it is said, because the old organized industry policy of making no official statements on anything controversial was considered detrimental to the industry's relations and position with press and public.

At Wednesday's meeting of the New York Advertising and Publicity Directors, there were discussions on methods of cooperating with the industry's new exhibitor-distributor "Unity" program, on selection of a permanent secretary, and on using the committee as a clearing house for interchange of information about trade and press functions, among other matters. David Lipton of Columbia, presided under a policy of rotating chairmanships among the nine members of the committee.

AMPA Honors Showmen

PUBLIC manifestation of industry approval for the work of the men in the field will be climaxed in early March at a "Theatre Showmanship Show," now being arranged by the Associated Motion Picture Advertisers in New York. Vincent Trotta, president, announced the plan following a meeting of the executive committee of leading circuit heads at the Astor Hotel in that city Wednesday. On the committee are Spyros Skouras, National Theatres; Joseph Vogel, Loew's; Charles Koerner, RKO; Harry Kalmine, Warner Bros. and Leon Netter, Paramount.

The program will include presentation of the 1941 Quigley Grand Awards to Arnold Stoltz, manager of Warner's Avon Theatre, Utica, N. Y., and Frank Bickerstaff, of the L & J Theatres, Athens, Ga. The winners will be brought to New York by, and the guests of, the MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

Also to be featured is an exhibit of outstanding exploitation material entered in the Awards' competition during 1941 and arranged especially for the attention of the many theatre managers in the metropolitan area expected to attend.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD, published every Saturday by Quigley Publishing Company, Rockefeller Center, New York City. Telephone Circle 7-3100. Cable address "Quigpubco, New York." Martin Quigley, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher; Colvin Brown, Vice-President and General Manager; Watterson R. Rothacker, Vice-President; Terry Ramsaye, Editor; James P. Cunningham, News Editor; Chicago Bureau, 624 South Michigan Avenue, C. B. O'Neill, manager; Hollywood Bureau, Postal Union Life Building, Leon Friedman, manager; William R. Weaver, editor; Toronto Bureau, 242 Millwood Road, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, W. M. Gladish, representative; Montreal Bureau, 265 Vitre St., West, Montreal, Canada, Pat Donovan, representative; London Bureau, 4, Golden Square, London W. 1, Hope Williams Burnup, manager; cable Quigpubco London; Melbourne Bureau, The Regent Theatre, 191 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia, Cliff Holt, representative; Sydney Bureau, 17 Archbold Rd., Roseville, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia, Lin Edean, representative; Mexico City Bureau, Apartado 269, Mexico City, Luis Becerra Celis, representative; Buenos Aires Bureau, Corrientes 2470, Buenos Aires, Argentina, Natalio Bruski, representative; Rio de Janeiro Bureau, Caixa Postal 3358, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, L. S. Marinho, representative; Montevideo Bureau, P. O. Box 664, Montevideo, Uruguay, Paul Bodo, representative, cable Argus Montevideo. Member Audit Bureau of Circulations. All contents copyright 1941 by Quigley Publishing Company. Address all correspondence to the New York Office. Other Quigley Publications: Better Theatres, Motion Picture Daily, International Motion Picture Almanac, and Fame.

NEW STUDIO for Monogram Pictures. Above are shown W. Ray Johnston, president (right), and Trem Carr, production chief (seated), completing deal with Ralph Like for the latter's production plant. Besides these studio and office facilities, Monogram also acquired former Charles Ray lot. At right is a view of the studio building, looking along "President's Row", where the offices of Mr. Johnston and Steve Broidy, sales manager, are located.

By Staff Photographer

APPOINTED executive secretary of United Motion Picture Industry—Leon Bamberger, formerly with RKO handling sales promotion and direct mail advertising, who assumed his new post Monday, with offices at Hotel Astor, New York.

FILM SET EXHIBIT is now drawing large crowds to the Baltimore Museum of Art. At right one of the displays is shown being examined by Jean James, Warner starlet; Hugh Reticker, John Hughes, Carl Jules Weyl, art directors; and Bert Teitelbaum, supervising director. The models have been taken from "Smiling Ghost", "Great Lie" and "Male Animal".

This Week

■ ■ ■ the Camera observes

ON COAST to launch Columbia's "Victory Sales Campaign for Columbia's Greatest Year"—Lou Astor, sales executive, and A. Montague, general sales manager, as they arrived in Los Angeles. Campaign prizes will be Defense Bonds—$50,000 worth.

By Staff Photographer

FILM PLAYERS AT AMPA luncheon in New York joined in urging support for the Navy Relief Society. Shown on the dais are Lieut. John J. Casey, Patricia Reardon, Vincent Trotta, president of AMPA; Bonita Granville and Paul Henreid.

By Staff Photographer

OPPOSITION TO STRIKES in wartime was voiced by Richard Walsh (left), president of the IATSE, after Miami meeting of executive board (see page 14).

FILM FOLK GO PARTYING. Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. Mike Kukhart, Mrs. Domini Frisina, Mr. Frisina (of Frisina circuit of Springfield, Ill.), Mr. Kukhart, Vogue theatre, Chicago; and Mr. Young, office manager of United Artists branch in Chicago, at dinner-dance of the Reelfellows Club at the Congress Hotel in the Midwestern metropolis.

AT VIRGINIA OWNERS' MEETING: Above, William F. Crockett, MPTOVA head, receiving autographed copy of "The Vanishing Virginian" from its author, Mrs. Rebecca Yancey Williams. Below, William Sussman, Fox sales executive; Ed Kuykendall, MPTOA chief; Claude Lee, Paramount director of exhibitor relations.

VISITING the Herald's Round Table department was Charles Schlaifer (left) when this picture was taken. Mr. Schlaifer was recently placed in charge of special promotion for Samuel Goldwyn.

TEXAS SHOWMEN greet Gene Autry as he arrived in Houston for ten-day appearance at Coliseum in connection with his rodeo, feature of annual Fat Stock Show. Greeters are Fred Cannata, general manager, and Dick Stout, vice-president, of Horwitz-Texan Theatres.

THEATREMEN FETED BY FELLOW TOWNSMEN. Harry Arthur, Sr., of the Fox theatre in Anaheim, Calif., cutting the cake at the party given him by the Anaheim Fusileers, local businessmen's club, celebrating his 78th birthday. At his left is Milt Arthur, Long Beach showman, and at his right George King, a son-in-law and Santa Ana exhibitor.

ON TOUR of Army camps for the USO, Joe E. Brown, star of Columbia's "Shut My Big Mouth", is shown (above) chatting with U. Hollingsworth, Washington exhibitor, at Fort Belvoir party arranged by Columbia for Washington showmen.

NEXT HONOR GUEST of the AMPA will be Lieut.-Col. Melvin E. Gillette (above) who is in charge of the Army's training film laboratory at Fort Monmouth, N. J. At the luncheon, to be held at Hotel Edison in New York, he will speak on the use of films in the Army.

CURB SPECIAL PRIVILEGES FOR AFFILIATED HOUSES

Arbitrator Rules Owner Companies Must Submit to Clearance Changes

Distributors' claims that Section XVII of the consent decree frees them of responsibility in clearance cases in which their affiliate theatres are involved were swept aside last week by a Kansas City arbitrator in one of the broadest interpretations of the consent decree yet written in a motion picture arbitration case.

Section XVII protects the right of distributors to license affiliated houses upon such terms and conditions as suit the distributor.

Wendell H. Cloud, Kansas City lawyer, ruling as arbitrator on the clearance demand of the Dickinson theatre, in Mission, Kan., declared that Section VIII meant, "Any and all complaints by an exhibitor that the waiting time applicable to his theatre by contract is unreasonable shall be subject to arbitration."

He ordered all five consenting distributors, four with Kansas City affiliates, to reduce from 56 to 28 days the clearance held by Kansas City first runs over the suburban Dickinson theatre at Mission. A one day margin was set for the Aztec theatre, intervening competitive house in Shawnee, Kan.

New Light on Decree

The ruling may, in effect, give new life to the clearance provisions of the consent Decree and restore Section VIII as one of the paramount clauses in the document.

"Section XVII must be read in connection with every other section of the decree which affords any relief by way of arbitration," Mr. Cloud wrote. "... The language of Section VIII authorizes the arbitrator to determine whether clearance is reasonable or unreasonable, regardless of the fact that a theatre involved is affiliated with a distributor." Section VIII, he said, gives an arbitrator full power to set clearances in future contracts while Section XVII applies only to existing franchises.

If distributors were completely exempted from arbitration by reason of affiliation with theatres it "would vitiate and render utterly futile all of the provisions of the decree with reference to the arbitration of clearance controversies," the arbitrator wrote. Section XVII has been widely used as an escape clause by distributors during the first year of arbitration.

In the Kansas City area it would be hard to imagine a controversy in which theatres owned by or affiliated with the consenting distributors were not involved, he said.

In the Dickinson case four distributors, Loew's, Paramount, RKO and 20th Century-Fox were interested in the operation of four out of the five first run houses cited by the complainant. They control the Midland, Newman, Orpheum, Esquire and Uptown theatres respectively. Additionally, 20th-Fox, through National Theatres, operates the second run Plaza theatre and a large circuit run by the Fox Kansas City Corporation.

"The Decree is nothing more nor less than a judgment entered in a court of competent jurisdiction upon the agreement of the parties to the action then and there pending. The action was one brought by the United States against the defendants named therein, complaining of certain monopolistic activities in violation of the laws of the United States dealing particularly with trade and commerce and unlawful restraints and monopolies," Mr. Cloud said.

Its purpose was to grant "relief to independent distributors from alleged monopolistic practices by the distributors," he commented. "Furthermore, I consider the decree to be remedial in nature."

"If the decree is to be construed in the manner contended for by the defendants in this proceeding, then there is nothing to prevent the distributors from imposing or granting to an exhibitor such as the complainant a clearance of one year, or five years," Mr. Cloud said. "Regardless of whether such a clearance was reasonable or unreasonable, not only would he be without remedy by way of arbitration, but it is possible that the entering of the decree might be considered to be a legalizing of such a practice."

Clearly this was not the intent of the decree, he commented. Mr. Cloud cited rulings by the Appeal Board in the "Earle Theatre vs. Loew's, Inc." case at Philadelphia in support of his stand. He likewise cited Appeal Board distinctions between the terms clearance and run to dismiss claims by the defendants that an earlier availability for the Dickinson would necessitate a change in the theatre's run.

28-Day Limit Set

In the light of the evidence and the intent of the consent decree Mr. Cloud said that he saw no reason why clearance over the Dickinson should be longer than the 28 days held by Kansas City first runs over theatres in Independence, Mo., the Aztec in Shawnee, and other towns in the Kansas City exchange area.

Mr. Cloud's 43 page decision was the longest, and one of the most exhaustive, studies of clearance written by a motion picture arbitrator. Four pages were devoted to a detailed description of the characteristics and growth of Kansas City and all the suburban areas involved in the action. Five pages described the theatres in the case.

Community Growth Cited

Testimony on admission prices in the area was followed by a five page description of the growth and business and residential character of the Mission suburban section. Mr. Cloud cited Post Office revenue statistics and the testimony of the town greeter to show the rapid growth of Mission since 1939.

The latter, employed by the Shawnee-Mission Cooperative Club as official greeter for new families moving into the area, testified "that she had personally greeted and welcomed to the community approximately 3,000 families in the last three years."

Glen W. Dickinson, operator of the Dickinson theatre, and of four other houses, "appears to be an experienced motion picture theatre operator, having been in the business quite extensively over a period of 20 years," Mr. Cloud remarked.

"Give-aways, 'Bank Nights' and other inducements were found to have been used by both the complainant and other theatres in the controversy. Mr. Cloud said that he did not attach great significance to this and held that the complainant "was not guilty of any great impropriety, which should be charged against him in deciding the clearance controversy, by his use of stimulants to develop a new district."

Considerable importance was attached by Mr. Cloud to plans on the part of the Fox Kansas City company to build a new house at Fairway, between Mission and downtown Kansas City. He regarded this as evidence of new audiences in the area and of the fact that the suburban theatres were not serious competitors of the downtown houses. Elsewise, he observed, Fox would not build a new house to compete with its established theatres.

Managers Should be Rewarded

Distributor contentions that historical clearances should not be changed "does not recognize progress in communities" nor "aggressiveness and far-sightedness as to the location of theatres by exhibitors," Mr. Cloud asserted. If independent exhibitors show enterprise in developing new territory they should be rewarded, he said.

"Availabilities of the theatres involved have been determined and fixed by the distributors" the evidence showed, according to Mr. Cloud. He said the independent exhibitor had "little if any influence" in this determination. Mr. Cloud quoted letters from E. C. Rhoden, divisional manager of Fox Midwest Theatres, Inc., to Ward Scott and Mr. Fuller of the Fox Film Corporation, written in 1934 and 1935, which discussed clearance scales in the area.

"It would appear that the product of all the companies had been sold largely on the plans set out in the Ward Scott letter," Mr. Cloud declared. He added that it also appeared that the distributors had freely sold early first runs to towns outside of the Kansas City metropolitan area, with the exception of Mission.

"One is led to the conclusion that the whole pattern of distribution may be somewhat arbitrary and not founded upon sound and reasonable deductions, and as highly favorable to the Fox affiliate exhibitors and other affiliated exhibitors" Mr. Cloud commented.

"Were all the theatres on a comparable basis as to availability of pictures," Mr. Cloud said, "rental terms, license fees and revenues should be strongly determinative factors in such a controversy as this. In the absence of a comparable basis, however, in my opinion these factors should not be considered, and have not been considered to be determinative."

NO STRIKES IN THIS INDUSTRY, DEFINITELY, SAYS IATSE

Walsh Says Offending Locals Will Be Suspended

"No strikes" by the IATSE in the motion picture business so long as the war lasts. And the IATSE says it means it. It will suspend offending locals; and it has reiterated its previous pledge of labor peace.

That reiteration came last week from Richard F. Walsh, president, who returned from the annual executive board meeting in Miami, called newspaper men to his office, and told them the board had endorsed his viewpoint that there be no striking during the war; a viewpoint expressed by him at a meeting in Washington recently, of the American Federation of Labor officers. He is an AFL vice-president.

Referring to the Indianapolis situation, Mr. Walsh pointed out that the local had been suspended. It had presented demands patently unreasonable, and not in its contract with employing exchanges, he said. The International union respected that contract. Hence, it suspended the local.

He explained that the local had demanded limitation of the number of reels to be inspected daily. The practicability of this method is still to be demonstrated. The exchanges refused the request, advanced as a condition for a new contract. The local's members refused to work. The exchanges closed. And the IATSE suspended the local. Mr. Walsh cited it as an example of the situations which may confront and confound the union periodically despite its wish to avoid strife.

Cites Local Autonomy

The Local 306-Loew circuit dispute in New York, which Herman Gelber, Local 306 president, asserted might develop into a strike if the circuit did not comply to union demands that film be transported by union men, and not be delivered by MGM to non-union theatres, was brought to Mr. Walsh's attention. He replied that the dispute began before the war, and before the Local 306 elections, that it probably would not become a strike, and that it was entirely local.

He stressed he was continuing the policy of local autonomy, which calls upon the international officers only in urgency.

The exchange workers' negotiations for new contracts have been stalled by inadequate wage advances offered by the distributors, Mr. Walsh said, adding the negotiations appeared to him the normal bargaining, and that agreements would certainly be reached.

Two appointments at the Miami meeting were disclosed: that of Carl Cooper, West Coast representative, to a vice-presidency; and that of Joseph Basson, defeated for reelection as Local 306 president, as special representative.

Mr. Walsh said it was difficult to find a site for the June 1st convention; but that he and Lou Krouse, executive secretary, had been made to choose a convention city.

Indianapolis Local Hopes To Force Film Inspection; Protests Suspension

The Indianapolis City Council will vote Monday whether to enforce inspection of film in the city's exchanges. It will vote specifically on an ordinance introduced by the Film Exchange Employees Union, Local B-35, suspended by the IATSE, and barred from employment by closed exchange "back rooms". Theatres are being serviced by out-of-town exchanges; Richard Walsh, IATSE president, is endeavoring to settle the dispute, and affix responsibility for the incident which caused the union's suspension; and the union, with members idle, is backing the ordinance in the hope it will force reemployment by reopened exchanges. The ordinance makes it unlawful to receive a film not inspected and subsequently sealed; and a duty for the distributor to inspect "for any tears, flaws, or conditions in the film."

The local is also protesting its suspension by the IATSE, Indianapolis attorney James Watson asserting a local must be notified of charges, and given a date for hearing, before it can be suspended. He added: "Mr. Walsh gave no advance notice whatsoever, of this suspension."

Meanwhile, it has also asked Indiana fire marshal Glen Smith to compel film inspection; and Mr. Smith gave both sides this week to file briefs. He will then issue a ruling, which may be appealed in Marion County Superior Court, Indianapolis.

"Front of the house" employees are presently the object of renewed interest by the international union, Mr. Walsh remarked. It has 180 locals for such workers. Of competition for membership of such, by the CIO, and the Building Service Employees international, he dismissed the former, and commented of the latter that the IATSE holds the only applicable charter from the AFL.

Mr. Walsh added the Paramount Long Island laboratory would be organized shortly; that the IATSE problem whether to give a charter to the American Society of Cinematographers, might be resolved; that his union would continue supporting the AFL office workers' union drive to organize white collar film workers.

The IATSE will shortly issue to all projectionists, a special bulletin on priorities, for posting in booths.

CIO in Hollywood

From Hollywood this week, it was reported the CIO's Local 9, of the United Office and Professional Workers of America, was recruiting among the industry's white collar workers, marking the first open membership drive since 1939, and opposing the AFL Screen Office Employees Guild, Local 852.

Returning to Hollywood from the Miami IATSE meeting, Fred Jackman, president of the American Society of Cinematographers, told members the rival Alliance Studio Photographers Local 659 would meet shortly to consider a separate charter for the ASC men.

In New York, Tuesday night, the representative council of the Screen Publicists Guild met "to establish campaign activities"; the campaign referred to being the effort to persuade the motion picture companies to agree to and negotiate quickly the long argued closed shop contract with the Guild, affecting advertising and publicity workers in the majors' New York home offices.

The Guild again accused the companies of "stalling," in pamphlets distributed Monday in front of offices.

It added, for public digestion, that the Newspaper Guild was supporting it, and had telegraphed to home offices and Coast executives, asking "immediate agreement."

Meetings were held last week between the Guild officials and those of the Newspaper Guild, and of the CIO Screen Office and Professional Employees Guild, Local 109.

Home Office Unions

New fields are opened to the Guild by the order, Tuesday, from the National Labor Relations Board, that Loew circuit and Marcus Loew Booking Agency writers elect a proper collective bargaining agency. The Screen Publicists Guild thus reaches into circuit and other advertising and publicity departments.

Loew's and Columbia home office white collar workers voted Wednesday, under National Labor Relations Board auspices, whether to be represented by the CIO Local 109 of the Screen Office and Professional Employees Guild.

Negotiations between the Local, representing the Screen Readers Guild, and the majors collapsed. The companies rejected demands for increases.

The Theatrical Managers and Agents Union, New York, has changed its name to "Association of Theatrical Agents and Managers," the name under which it was chartered by the AFL in 1928.

Harold Bortz has retired after 18 years as president of the Allentown, Pennsylvania, projectionists' local 585. H. J. Brown succeeds him. Other officers are John Spankovitch, vice-president; Harold Conrad, secretary; Walter Wehr, financial secretary; Richard Hartman, treasurer.

Talking About "KINGS ROW"...

(and everybody is!)

heard daily over 165 stations of the Mutual Broadcasting System

says

"I am nominating 'KINGS ROW' as the first picture of 1942 to be among the ten best of the year. It is one of the greatest milestones in motion picture history. You'll find yourself going to see it more than once."

ANN SHERIDAN
ROBERT CUMMINGS
RONALD REAGAN
BETTY FIELD

in
"KINGS ROW"

with
CHARLES COBURN
Claude Rains • Judith
Anderson • Nancy Coleman
KAAREN VERNE
MARIA OUSPENSKAYA
HARRY DAVENPORT
Directed by SAM WOOD
Screen Play by Casey Robinson
From the Novel by Henry Bellman
Music by Erich Wolfgang Korngold

ADD THAT TO
RED BOOK
which labels it "The Picture of the Month"!

LIBERTY
which hails its "Undeniable Fascination" . . .

TIME
which calls it "Potent, Artful Cinema" . . .
52,367 MOVIEGOERS who have thus far seen it at the Astor, New York and applauded
'KINGS ROW' and...

WARNER BROS!

U. S. CENSORING ALL FILMS FOR SHIPMENT ABROAD

Inspection of Reels for Export Begun under Law Passed in 1917

Rigid inspection of all motion pictures exported from the United States was instituted this week as the U. S. Customs Service began enforcement of the 1917 Trading with the Enemy Act.

All prints of both newsreels and feature pictures again became subject to inspection at ports of departure under the terms of the law passed in 1917 and never repealed. Motion pictures were only one item on a comprehensive list of export articles which the act makes subject to license and inspection by the Customs Service.

The Treasury Department in invoking the law ordered that all pictures leaving the country be shown to a customs inspector and stamped before shipment. Customs spokesmen insisted that the measure was designed to insure that material licensed for export does not contain anything which might be injurious to the welfare of the country.

Initial confusion among industry foreign departments over the order this week appeared to be clearing up as foreign managers and the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc., acting in behalf of the industry, discussed the most efficient method of clearing pictures for foreign trade. It was reported Wednesday that conferences with Washington and local port officers in New York and Los Angeles had about completed arrangements for customs scrutiny and license procedure.

Viewed at Home Offices

Meanwhile at New York customs inspectors were viewing all pictures ready for shipment in the projection rooms of the home offices. In the case of features it was understood that one print would be viewed by a customs officer and licenses for additional prints issued by title on presentation of affidavits that the cans contained the film named on the license application, and that the print was identical with that screened for the inspectors. Newsreels were being subjected to the closest scrutiny it was said and reports persisted that several deletions had been ordered at the request of Army, Navy or other government officials.

Irving Fishman, assistant to the deputy Collector of the Port at New York who is in charge of film licenses said that no eliminations had been ordered.

The industry, through Carl E. Milliken, acting foreign manager for the MPPDA is understood to have requested designation of New York and Los Angeles as official inspection points. This will permit speedier examination of pictures and eliminate delays at border stations or other exit ports from which prints actually leave the U. S. by sea or air.

Prints for Canada are not currently subject to the rigid inspection imposed on pictures headed for all other countries, it was reported. Technically, however, it was said that the law applied to those pictures, too. A license is required.

Customs spokesmen, members of film company foreign departments and film shipping brokers reported on Monday that cooperation between the industry and the Customs Service had been excellent. Both groups, they said, earnestly seek a solution of the screening problem which would not overburden customs personnel or tie up exports. The industry pledged full cooperation in preventing pictures inimical to national interest from leaving the country.

No specific list of tabooed subjects has been submitted to the film industry by customs officials as yet. A customs officer at New York declared that it was up to the film companies to know what may and may not be sent for exhibition on foreign screens.

It is understood however that approval by the Army and Navy of newsreels and feature picture scenes affecting their services will be the principal criterion of customs inspection. In Washington however there were reports that the State Department, the Coordinator of Information, the office of the chief press censor, Byron Price, and the Coordinator of Inter-American affairs have listed topics which should be closely scrutinized by customs men before they grant export approval.

The first invocation of the Trading with the Enemy Act occurred several weeks ago when the Treasury Department warned all business houses that export of goods to countries dominated by Germany would subject them to $10,000 fines. Hungary, Bulgaria and Rumania were typical of the nations listed. With Nazi bans on American films home office foreign managers indicated that the curb was academic insofar as motion pictures were concerned. The extension of the act last week however covered exports to England, the Far East, Australia, South America and all other overseas markets for Hollywood product.

Nazi War Films

Widely Shown

Nazi propaganda films "continue to penetrate into some parts of the world not yet formally lined up in the war, notably Spain, Sweden and Turkey," and therefore "the importance of effective action by the American motion picture industry in screening the argument for democracy and bringing it to the far corners of the world is clearly shown." This declaration was made in the February bulletin of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, issued in New York last week, following a study of Nazi film efforts during late 1941.

The bulletin asserts that "Nazi motion pictures and Nazi-subsidized films produced in France are still being used to 'prepare' countries psychologically" for the German invasion. According to the study, "Although Germany formerly supplied less than 10 per cent of the films in Turkey, the quantity is rapidly increasing. U. S. film companies have apparently had little success in weakening the Axis influence as they now find it necessary to ask increased prices for yearly production contracts. The sums required are in fact more than doubled."

In Sweden, the League reported, "UFA newsreels are increasing in quantity. A recent regulation intends to limit war propaganda by forbidding the accompaniment of newsreels with comment. However, Nazi propaganda manages to find its way into the UFA newsreels and is spread in this way throughout Sweden. Mechanical equipment all over the country is largely of German manufacture."

Despite Germany's costly war effort, said the bulletin, "heavy government subsidies to the state-controlled motion picture industry for propaganda purposes" insure continued production and distribution of Nazi films not only to Europe, but to South America, Asia and Africa.

New Zealand Offers

Monetary Quotas

Monetary withdrawals to the same amount permitted last year have been offered again by the government of New Zealand it was reported this week. The agreement which expired in December permitted distributors to withdraw approximately $300,000 plus allowances for the amount spent on British production. Renewal of the agreement is under consideration by the monetary committee of the MPPDA.

Discussions with the Australian government on renewal or replacement of the financial agreement which expires March 1st are continuing. No agreement has been reached as yet. It was reported that Australian officials have indicated that they can grant no withdrawals in 1942 in excess of the $3,000,000 permitted last year.

Free Japanese Payment

The State Department has notified the foreign managers of major distributors that payments on 1937 Japanese revenue, frozen by the government in the Yokohama Species Bank at San Francisco on December 8th may be withdrawn on application. The majority of the distributors were reported to have received only half of the Japanese payments on the blocked revenues. An installment was due on December 8th the day after the attack on Pearl Harbor.

Mexico Deletes "Dawn"

Mexico's federal Film Censoring and Supervision Department last week ordered the elimination of one sequence from "Hold Back the Dawn", a Paramount Picture, before granting a license. It was the first change for 1942 ordered for an American film.

Here's A Sure Bet on "KINGS ROW"!

An inside tip from

LOUIS SOBOL

whose column appears in the N.Y. Journal-American and papers throughout the country.

"YOU MAY WAGER THAT IT IS A HIT!"

...which is exactly what TIME, LIFE, REDBOOK, LIBERTY, and the Astor's paying customers have said.

... And WARNERS are mighty happy about the whole thing!

ANN SHERIDAN
ROBERT CUMMINGS
RONALD REAGAN
BETTY FIELD

in

"KINGS ROW"

with

CHARLES COBURN
Claude Rains • Judith
Anderson • Nancy Coleman
KAAREN VERNE
MARIA OUSPENSKAYA
HARRY DAVENPORT

Directed by SAM WOOD
Screen Play by Casey Robinson
From the Novel by Henry Bellaman
Music by Erich Wolfgang Korngold

$1,314,410 is Spent by Five on Advertising

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Paramount, RKO Radio Pictures, Twentieth Century-Fox and Warner Bros. spent $1,314,410 in magazine, radio and farm paper advertising in 1941, as compared with $1,218,314 in 1940. According to a Printers' Ink annual compilation of the nation's leading advertisers with more than $100,000 expenditures in these three media, excluding newspapers, MGM led the film companies last year with expenditure of $520,215 on combined magazine and farm press advertising, $252,501 on magazines and $67,714 in farm press. In 1940, the total amount of advertising in these classifications spent by the company was $641,147, with $574,979 on magazines and $66,168 on farm journals.

A total of $392,919 was spent by Paramount in 1941 on the three media, compared with $236,820 in 1940. The 1941 figure included $379,649 in magazines, $7,070 in radio and $6,200 in farm newspapers. RKO spent $163,937 for magazine advertising in 1941, as compared with $77,497 the previous year, with no expenditures for radio or farm paper last year.

Twentieth Century-Fox spent $125,750 in 1941 on magazines as compared with $143,045 in 1940, with no radio or farm paper expenditures last year. Magazine expenditures only in 1941 by Warner Bros. amounted to $111,589, compared with $119,805 in 1940.

Eastman Kodak spent $501,060 last year as against $539,365 in 1940 with the full expenditure last year placed on magazines. Agfa Ansco Corp., manufacturers of film, spent $232,619 in 1941 compared with $124,750 the year before, both figures representing magazine expenditures. A total of $453,815 was spent by RCA in 1941, including RCA Communications, RCA Mfg. Co., and the National Broadcasting company, compared with $367,777 in 1940. The company spent $433,962 on magazines and $19,853 on farm papers last year.

Of the 21 advertisers whose expenditures in radio for 1941 reached the $1,000,000 mark and over, Procter & Gamble Company led the list with $9,401,353 spent on airline advertising. Printers' Ink estimated that 401 advertisers spent a total of $103,729,951 in radio last year as compared with 360 advertisers in 1940 with a total expenditure of $93,019,074. The 21 companies' expenditures totaled $69,372,036.

A four-year comparison of total expenditures of more than $100,000 in 1941, and media breakdown of motion picture companies, as compiled by Printers' Ink, follows:

TOTAL EXPENDITURES
Company	1941	1940	1939	1938
MGM ..	$520,215*	641,147*	474,539*	153,899
Par. ...	392,919	236,820	285,556	369,454
RKO ..	163,937	77,497	.....	.....
20th-Fox	125,750	143,045	307,233†	174,482
W.B. ..	111,589	119,805	202,047	251,302

*Includes farm paper expenditure in 1941 of $67,714; 1940, $66,168, and 1939, $29,294.

**Includes farm paper expenditure of $6,200 and radio network expenditure of $7,070 in 1941; and radio expenditure of $14,189 in 1940, and $13,022 in 1939.

†Includes radio network expenditure of $13,083 in 1939.

MAGAZINE EXPENDITURES IN DOLS.
Company	1941	1940	1939	1938
MGM ..	$452,501	$574,979	$445,245	$153,899
Par. ...	379,649	222,631	272,534	369,454
20th-Fox	125,750	143,045	294,150	174,482
W.B. ..	111,589	119,805	202,047	251,302

The separate magazine expenditure for RKO was not given.

Fox Bankruptcy Claims Paid

Six years of litigation over the bankruptcy of William Fox ended at New York on Tuesday. Claims of $55,000,000 against his bankrupt estate were settled for approximately $895,000.

Checks in final settlement of claims against the former film magnate were handed out by Allen B. Endicott, Jr. of Atlantic City, bankruptcy referee in a conference room of the Guaranty Trust Company. The United States government was the largest creditor, receiving $295,000 on a $4,900,000 claim for income taxes, penalties and interest.

The Capital Company settled for $287,500 on claims of $5,000,000 for rentals on the Fox Theatre, San Francisco. The Chicago Title and Trust Company received $125,000 on a $1,250,000 debt. The Fox Theatre Corporation settled a $30,000,000 claim for $25,000 and a release from a counter demand by Mr. Fox for $1,500,000.

Atlas Stock in RKO Increased

The Atlas Corporation at the end of 1941 owned 44 per cent of RKO stock, common and preferred, it was disclosed by its annual report and portfolio statement, issued in New York Tuesday. In 1940, the corporation owned 39 per cent of RKO voting stock. Its total investment in the picture company, at the end of 1941, was $6,556,588.

Other dealings of the finance house, were reported as follows: acquisition of 3,500 shares of Twentieth Century Fox preferred, amounting to $65,188 in the market December 31st last; disposition in 1941 of its entire holdings in General Theatres Equipment, 7,000 shares of common; likewise, in the same year, of its holding in Keith-Albee-Orpheum Corporation, 7,000 shares of preferred; increase of investments in Paramount common, Walt Disney preferred, all RKO issues, Madison Square Garden stock, Hearst Consolidated Publications stock.

Kent Returns East; Death in Family

Sidney R. Kent, president of 20th Century-Fox, curtailed his stay on the West Coast where he was to remain another month, to return East by plane on Tuesday, when news of the death of Mrs. Kent's mother reached him in Hollywood. Mr. Kent was accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Kane. Mrs. Kane also is a daughter of the deceased, Mrs. John Higginbotham. Mr. Kent is expected to return west in a week.

Schaefer to Get New RKO Contract

George J. Schaefer, president of RKO, shortly will sign a new five-year contract with the company, it was learned in Hollywood this week. Mr. Schaefer has been on the West Coast for studio conferences. He will remain to supervise operations during the forthcoming absence of Joseph I. Breen, studio head, who is expected to leave soon for a vacation in Mexico.

McCaughin Heads Censor Board

E. F. McCaughin, of Roanoke, Va., has been appointed chairman of the Division of Motion Picture Censorship by Attorney General A. P. Staples. Mr. McCaughin succeeds Colonel Peter Saunders, who returns to his old position as secretary to Virginia's new Governor Colgate Darden. The attorney general has also asked the General Assembly, now in session for an increase of $1,450 for supplies and equipment for the Censor Board, making a total appropriation of $43,865.

Exhibitor Wins First Award on Specific Run

An exhibitor won specific run for the first time at Detroit Wednesday when former governor Wilbur H. Brucker ordered all five defendant distributors to grant second run after downtown to Erving A. Moss's Parkside theatre. Mr. Moss in his Section X complaint filed on September 12th demanded a run equivalent to that held by four second run United Detroit, and Michigan Cooperative theatres. He asserted that the Admiral, Rivola, and Aloma theatres enjoyed better run because of the circuit affiliations.

Governor Brucker ruled that distributors could not grant exclusive run to affiliate houses under the protection of Section XVII of the consent decree. He described the Parkside as one of Detroit's most important neighborhood houses, in a growing area, and ruled that public policy in line with the consent decree requires prompt showing of motion pictures in populous neighborhoods.

New Orleans

An award by Philip B. James, arbitrator of New Orleans fourth case on Wednesday granted a clearance reduction from 60 to 10 days to the Ashton theatre, operated by W. A. Fonseca and Sons. The arbitrator ordered all five distributors to cut the margin of the intervening Poplar theatre but declared that he did not have authority to rule on a request by the complainant that the Ashton be designated as a first run theatre in a suburban zone. Costs were divided among the intervenor and defendants.

[SEE ALSO PAGE 40]

Get $350,000 In Dimes Drive

Theatres have collected $350,000 up to this week, for the March of Dimes drive to aid the Warm Springs, Georgia, infantile paralysis sanatorium, it was reported Tuesday by Si Fabian, circuit head, and national treasurer of the film industry committee promoting the drive. It was further estimated that when the check from RKO for $70,000 and the Loew circuit check for twice that amount are received, the total will be more than $500,000.

Among large circuit checks received, are those of $33,000 from Mullin and Pinanski; $24,000 from Paramount-Richards; $12,000 from Randforce; $24,000 from Tri-States. Broadway legitimate theatres are expected to add about $20,000 to the industry total.

RCA Plans New Tube Plant

Plans for the erection of a new radio tube manufacturing plant at Manheim Township, Lancaster, Pa., by the RCA Manufacturing Company, have been disclosed with the announcement that a large tract of land from the Frank McGrann properties adjacent to the Pennsylvania Railroad main line had been purchased by the radio company.

It is estimated that the new manufacturing activity on special purpose radio and electronic tubes, which is being undertaken in cooperation with the U. S. Navy, will ultimately provide employment for upward of 1800, of whom an estimated 80% will be female workers.

A Difference of Opinion about "KINGS ROW..."

JOHN CHAPMAN

Syndicated
Hollywood columnist of the N. Y. Daily News

says

"'KINGS ROW'

will certainly be one of the Ten Best Pictures of 1942."

RUSSELL MALONEY

writing on films in
The New Yorker magazine

says

"'KINGS ROW'

is plainly too good for the Ten Best Pictures of 1942."

ANN SHERIDAN
ROBERT CUMMINGS
RONALD REAGAN
BETTY FIELD
in
"KINGS ROW"
with
CHARLES COBURN
Claude Rains • Judith
Anderson • Nancy Coleman
KAAREN VERNE
MARIA OUSPENSKAYA
HARRY DAVENPORT
Directed by SAM WOOD
Screen Play by Casey Robinson
From the Novel by Henry Bellman
Music by Erich Wolfgang Korngold

...And, best of all, the paying customers at the Astor Theater,
New York, think it's terrific!
And so do WARNERS!

WASHINGTON GETS PATTERN FOR THEATRE PROTECTION

Los Angeles Submits Its Plan, Now Operating, as Model for Country

Civilian defense officials in Washington have in hand a plan for placing air raid and war protection of motion picture theatres and other places of public amusement on a national pattern, first of its kind.

The Los Angeles Theatre Defense Bureau, though John Helms, director of the local Ninth Area, Office of Civilian Defense, has submitted the scheme to Washington officials.

On record as lauding the bureau which has set up a protective and public service system for theatres, bowling alleys, dance halls and night clubs is California's Governor Culbert L. Olsen.

First to be formed in the United States, the bureau was organized shortly after the December 7th attack on Pearl Harbor, and immediately coordinated defense, patriotic and safety activities of all places of amusement.

Members of the bureau, representing executives in all fields of the local amusement industry, are: B. V. Sturdivant, director; Tom W. Baily, L. E. Behymer, Maurice M. Cohen, Sherrill C. Cohen, Benjamin Decker, Marco Wolf, Louis J. Halper, Nat Holt, Clayton T. Lynch, Rodney A. Pantages, S. D. Perkins, Robert H. Poole, Charles F. Prickett, Charles P. Skouras and Gene Towne.

One of the primary purposes of the bureau was the keeping open of all amusement centers, provided, of course, they are safe, and of Class A construction. As a result, no theatre or amusement place was closed during the initial war hysteria, heightened on the Pacific Coast by blackouts and air raid alerts.

Education of all theatre, ballroom and bowling alley employes in measures for the complete safety of audiences was under way shortly after the organization's formation, and the public was educated in emergency measures.

A central committee was formed to pass on all requests for the use of theatre screens or auditoriums for benefit performances or worthwhile charities, or for use by authorities. Of 60 such requests, only 10 were approved.

The screens were thrown open to recruiting trailers for the armed forces, one of the results of which was the aiding of Los Angeles' Navy recruiting center to top the nation in enlistments.

The Army had to call upon the theatres to ask them to stop showing a trailer asking for air raid warning service recruits, because so many women volunteered that facilities for training them were overloaded.

Other accomplishments of the bureau include:

Preparation of a manual covering every possible emergency has been completed and

AFM BUYS $600,000 BONDS, STAMPS

The American Federation of Musicians and its Locals have notified the United States Treasury Department in Washington that its purchase of Government Defense Bonds and Stamps has amounted to approximately $600,000, according to a survey conducted by the A. F. of M., Fred W. Birnbach, secretary of the organization, has announced.

is now undergoing final examination for approval by the Los Angeles Fire Department executives who are cooperating in the work. Every amusement operator will be given a copy, which covers the duties, in an emergency, of all employes. Periodic rehearsals and drills are being called in all amusement centers.

Every employe is being trained. Every manager is an official fire warden, in charge of his own theatre or center, and has been instructed in fire work. All assistant managers, usherettes and projectionists are being given the standard Red Cross training.

Every theatre is prepared for impromptu entertainment, in case of trouble. If lights go out, each house has emergency equipment.

Every amusement center is displaying the American flag and is showing films or trailers with patriotic appeals.

Los Angeles has been divided into 26 zones, each of which is in charge of a captain with several lieutenants, whose duties are to check all amusement places, every drill and every phase of the bureau's instructions.

Using the same zoning system, a complete telephonic network has been set up, whereby amusement places will be notified within three minutes of trouble; or, if civilian or military authorities wish information to be disseminated, this can be done immediately.

The bureau also is making films to educate the public in safety at home or in crowded places.

Every theatre is equipped with a radio for the pickup of presidential broadcasts, and all programs are arranged so that they may be interrupted for these broadcasts.

There are a total of 700 theatres and other amusement places in the Los Angeles area.

Massachusetts Issues Orders; Others Act

An air raid defense "Manual for Theatres" has been issued by the amusement industry division of the Massachusetts Committee on Public Safety, for the particular use of theatre managements, so that they may: Condition theatre buildings, grounds, and auxiliary equipment; organize and train personnel to operate the Air Raid Precautions Services according to plan.

Officers of the MCPS amusement division are: Samuel Pinanski, chairman; M. J. Mullin, executive director; Joseph H. Brennon, executive secretary; Arthur Howard, secretary.

Their manual is divided as follows: Duties of management; state and local ARP organization, and relation to theatres; emergency theatre protection; how to organize theatre ARP services; how to plan an ARP scheme.

Manager Determines Duties

Management duties are determined by the theatre's vulnerability, degree of risk, and physical characteristics. Considering these, its duties specifically are to: Organize and train ARP services; inform and train personnel; plan orderly evacuation and protection of patrons; meet and rigorously observe all ARP local, state, and national regulations; cooperate, and know, all local ARP units; plan physical alterations where necessary, and for blackout participation; secure all materials necessary for protection of persons and property, and for equipment of ARP services.

The section on emergency protection of theatres marks the following problems: Air raid damages; causes of casualties and damage; fire.

And, in suggesting inspection and precaution against fire and accidents, this section mentions the roof, roof space, booth, auditorium, dressing rooms, stage, basement, fire doors, exits and fire escapes, hot water heaters, boilers, fire alarm boxes, hand rails, steam pipes, elevators, automatic sprinklers, housekeeping, electrical elements, lighting, fire extinguishers, sidewalk, blackout, utilities, ARP services and communications, first aid premises, exit lighting, auxiliary lighting, white paint in alleyways—as factors for the management to consider.

New York State Prepares Plans

New York state's air raid precautions during wartime, as formulated by Governor Lehman's state defense council and offered on behalf of the joint Legislative Committee on Interstate Cooperation is expected to be enacted speedily.

As introduced last week by Senator Roy Page, of Binghamton, and Assemblyman Edmund J. Delany, Manhattan, the bill apparently would also provide immunity from liability for concerns complying with rules and regulations for blackouts, air raids or other activities in connection with protection of the civilian population.

The question of immunity from liability has been one considered by theatre owners in view of the obvious implications of theatres being used as places of shelter and refuge from blackouts, practice or real.

New York City, is of course, as a separate defense entity under Mayor LaGuardia, is not included in the statewide provisions.

Penalties set-up, with a misdemeanor as a re-

Standard Code for Air Raids Discussed

(Continued from opposite page)

sult, are for persons or corporations who "willfully violate or disobey any duly promulgated rule, regulation or order" concerning things which might menace or endanger the security and safety of the civilian population.

Ordinary disobedience on rules concerning screening or extinguishment of lights, lighting devices and appliance would be an "infraction" with a $25 fine or five days in jail or both as the maximum penalty.

Chicago Sets Up Defense Group

Under the temporary chairmanship of Walter Immerman, Balaban and Katz executive, the first meeting of Division 7 of the Chicago Civilian Defense, which comprises all theatres in the downtown district, was held in the Balaban & Katz screening room, atop of the Chicago Theatre, last week.

A theatre committee, consisting of Abe Cohen, Shubert Theatres; William Holden, Chicago Theatre; Frank Smith, Palace, and James Trinz, Clark Theatre, was named Tuesday by John Balaban, head of Division 7. The group will formulate rules and regulations for protecting audiences in wartime emergencies.

Seattle Has Defense Bureau

Formation of a theatre defense bureau to co-operate with the Seattle municipal defense commission was announced there this week. The bureau will be headed by Clarence R. Innis, Seattle attorney, and will be composed of representatives of theatres, ballrooms, night clubs and other amusement and entertainment places.

Other members of the bureau are James M. Hone, executive secretary of the Independent Theatre Owners; Bill Hamrick, Leroy V. Johnson, Guy Navarre, Neil Walton, Joe Rosenfield, Hugh Beckett, Ted Harris, Jack Fasso and Basil Grey. Attorney Melville Monheimer will be liason between the new bureau and the municipal defense group.

Exhibitors Warned On Priorities

Warnings on conservation of materials, and also of shortages, were issued this week to exhibitors by two organizations, the Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio, and the Allied of Eastern Pennsylvania.

The latter noted, "The old way of handling supplies and equipment is out for the duration of the war," and listed its available priority information, thus:

"Repairs and Alterations: General and extensive alterations will not be permitted. Only alterations required for the safety of the public will be allowed. Machinery should be repaired now and put in first-class condition.

"Projectors and Sound Equipment: Unless damaged beyond repair no new equipment will be available. Keep your equipment in good condition by constant vigilance.

P. J. Wood, secretary of the Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio, in his current service bulletin, admonishes exhibitors to complete any contemplated alterations soon as possible, due to the impending Government restrictions on this type of work. He also lists supplies and materials which will likely be difficult to obtain due to shortages, and suggests that exhibitors check their equipment regularly, that it may last.

The PRESIDENT SPEAKS:

"The American Motion Picture is one of our most effective media in informing and entertaining our citizens. The Motion Picture must remain free insofar as national security will permit. I want no censorship of the Motion Picture: I want no restrictions placed thereon which will impair the usefulness of the film other than those very necessary restrictions which the dictates of safety make imperative."

From President Roosevelt's Letter Appointing the Co-Ordinator of Government Films During the War Emergency

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT's recent tribute to the motion picture and declaration for a free screen is being presented in theatre lobbies of the great mid-continent industrial centers by this poster. It was evolved and prepared by Earl Hudson for the houses of the United Detroit Theatres Corporation. The Co-operative Theatres of Detroit and the Butterfield Circuit are also showing the poster, and some midwestern Paramount affiliated houses are ordering it. It is the first institutional poster in behalf of the motion picture theatre of the war period.

From Miami to the Millions!

Lincoln Theatre, Miami Beach, sold out for premiere (Thursday) many days in advance! Proceeds went to Navy Relief Fund! Surf Theatre in Miami and Lincoln, Miami Beach, opened simultaneous runs following day!

Betty Grable and Jack Oakie appearing in person were mobbed by admirers and reporters, culled countless columns of photos and publicity!

Grable and Oakie also guest-starred on Kate Smith's Hour . . . first major broadcast from Florida! Together with noon hour broadcasts . . . air-balloo reached estimated 70 million listeners!

UPER-SHOWMANSHIP TELLS 20TH'S "SONG OF
THE ISLANDS" TO THE NATION!
HERE ARE PHOTO-HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 8.30 WORLD PREMIERE IN MIAMI THAT WAS RADIO-BALLYHOOD FROM COAST-TO-COAST!

Airplanes, sailboats, Hialeah Park races, special spot broadcasts, ballyhooed event! Costumed Hawaiian orchestra entertained in front of theatre! Drum and Bugle Corps paraded!

A force of foot policemen augmented by mounted officers patrolled premiere! Air cadets as guard of honor for Betty Grable! Front was flooded with 50,000 watts of light!

U. S. Navy officials in Southeastern division turned out en masse! Also many State officials — Mayors of Miami and Miami Beach—social celebrities — stars! Premiere was most colorful and spectacular event of Miami season!

20th
CENTURY
FOX

DOUGLAS, DANCER, DISNEY'S DONALD DUCK GET AX

Congressional Inquiry of OCD Expected as Result of Appointments

by FRANCIS L. BURT
in Washington

Appointment of Melvyn Douglas, Hollywood actor; a blonde dancer, Mayris Chaney, protegee of Mrs. Roosevelt; and persons who, it is alleged, have had ties with Communist and other subversive organizations, this week, created a tempest in Congress which may lead to a Congressional investigation of the U. S. Office of Civilian Defense and a reorganization of its activities to soft-pedal the esoteric and bear down more heavily on the practical aspects of preparing the nation to withstand enemy attack.

In Washington circles, Actor Douglas is seen as the innocent springboard from which critics of the OCD took off, rather than the primary objective of criticism. His, it is pointed out, merely happened to be an appointment well publicized, because anything to do with Hollywood and the picture industry is considered newsworthy, and it was noticeable that once the attack was launched, it was largely directed to other personalities who have been associated with the defense agency, the chairmanship of which New York's fiery Fiorello La Guardia promised to relinquish only the day before Congressional fire was placed under OCD. The Mayor did step out Tuesday at the height of the fireworks.

James M. Landis, new director of the OCD, Wednesday in Washington, said he had appointed Mr. Douglas. The actor's job will be to "funnel" the entertainment industry's aid to the defense agency, he said.

Dean Landis lauded the film industry for what it has already done to bolster Government campaigns to sell bonds and for other purposes. Explaining what might be accomplished by Mr. Douglas, he said that films and radio could arouse the nation to awareness of the need for such measures as sugar rationing.

Congress Questions Move

It is pointed out that Mr. Douglas' post as head of an arts council might be one devoted to publicizing the protective program of the OCD, and so criticism there was not heavy. On the other hand, members of Congress questioned vociferously just how civilian protection was to be achieved by having an actor and a dancer provide amusement for children in air-raid shelters which have not been built.

Roughly, the debate in the House has been based on the question of whether it was not more important to provide protection for the civilian population in vulnerable areas than to outline amusements and body-building programs.

Several days of House criticism of the OCD came to climax Monday in passage of the OCD appropriation with a rider prohibiting any expenditures for "fan dancing, theatricals" or other forms of entertainment, and the question of the propriety of the agency's civilian-defense-by-amusement program then shifted to the Senate. The House vote was a voice vote, and so no record of individual sentiment was obtainable.

The House, in another deficiency bill action, also refused to approve the Treasury's expenditure of $80,000 for the making of the Donald Duck income-tax cartoon by Walt Disney. An idea of the sentiment of the body toward what some members term "boondoggling" was given in the vote of 125 to 82 by which the fund was turned down.

Senate Takes Up Fight

As the Senate prepared to take up the deficiency bill, in which $100,000,000 is carried for OCD's civilian defense, the appointment of Actor Douglas became a debating point in that Upper Chamber.

Senator Sheridan Downey, of California, defended the actor, declaring that he was sacrificing a "fabulous" income to serve on the OCD and sharply attacking House members who had called him a communist.

The California Senator also gave a warm endorsement to the industry for its efforts to forward the war program. Referring specifically to the many pictures produced for training and other purposes, he reminded the Senate that "to the making of these films have gone the talents of Hollywood's foremost directors, artists, producers, writers and technicians—free."

Over the week-end, Mr. Douglas issued a statement explaining that he was working at OCD without compensation.

Defends Job

"I don't mind being criticized," he said. "But what began as a personal attack upon me has grown into an attack upon a job which needs to be done—a job which is an essential part of the civilian defense program."

That job, he said, was to meet the requests of actors, writers, playwrights, radio stars, song writers, band leaders and singers demanding that they be given a part in the war effort.

"The people in the entertainment world can contribute their talents and abilities to the civilian defense program," he pointed out. "They can dramatize defense; they can dramatize the war effort; they can bring home, to communities all over our land, the meaning of America at war."

The attack by Congress, Mr. Douglas asserted, has broadened into a generalized attack on a fundamental issue: Whether or not thousands of loyal Americans who work in the creative or entertainment world shall, because of their profession, be denied the privilege of helping to win the war.

Earlier, the Office of Civilian Defense had cited an $8,000-a-year salary for Actor Douglas, but only to be paid for time actually devoted to his work. This, together with disclosure that Miss Mayris Chaney, professional dancer and friend of Mrs.

Roosevelt, had been given a $4,600 post, promptly brought the 'rumpus', as Walt Disney later described it, to the specific House provision in the OCD appropriation allotment that none of the $100,000,000 was to teach physical fitness by "fan dancing, street shows, theatricals or other public entertainments."

The nature of Actor Douglas's participation in the national war-and-defense effort assumed a different shade Wednesday in the "Washington Merry-Go-Around" newspaper syndicated column of Drew Pearson-Robert Allen, reporting as "Inside Fact," that: "Douglas has been promised a job as assistant to Harry Hopkins, handling lend-lease matters . . . It is doubtful whether Douglas knows much about shipping artillery, planes, shells, bombsights and tanks to Russia, Britain and China."

And a political flavor was injected by the New York Herald-Tribune, which reported that, "Some of Mr. Douglas's backers charge that his enemies are more hostile to him for his strong support of the New Deal than for any other reason."

In defense of the actor, the Screen Actors Guild, in a statement issued in Hollywood, Tuesday, sharply protested "the insulting remarks" of Congressmen.

Disney Fund Refused

In the Disney matter, the House refused to vote reimbursement of $80,000 to the Treasury for already having paid Mr. Disney that sum for actual production costs of the "New Spirit" income tax cartoon.

At New York, Tuesday, just before departing for California, Mr. Disney said he had received no payment from the Treasury, to his knowledge, for "The New Spirit". Questioned about Washington reports that the Treasury Department had issued a check for production costs, he said that it might be in the mail to his Hollywood studio or New York office but that he had not heard of its receipt.

Washington described Treasury Secretary Mongentha as "being unusually belligerent" in his attack on the Congressional critics.

Disney Says He'll Lose $56,000

"The Government told me it was important. So we hopped to it and turned out 'The New Spirit' in six weeks," Walt Disney declared in New York, on Monday. The creator of Donald Duck and Mickey Mouse explained how he had been recruited by the Treasury Department to produce the special short subject explaining how to pay the Federal income tax. He expressed surprise and disappointment over Congressional criticism of the project, which, he estimated, would entail a personal loss of at least $56,000.

In Congress last week a deficiency bill appropriation for $80,000 to pay the costs of the Disney-Treasury picture was harpooned by a minority group of Representatives in the course of an attack on Office of Civilian Defense and other wartime appointments and expenses. They attacked the employment of entertainment personnel and media by the Government to boost the war effort and eliminated a Treasury request for money to pay for the Disney film.

Walt Disney Asks Payment for the Exhibition Loss

(Continued from preceding page)

The picture originated in the Treasury Department, Mr. Disney said. He reported that Secretary Henry A. Morgenthau, Jr., had sought the aid of the Disney studio in publicizing the part that payment of the income tax plays in the war effort. More than 12,000,000 persons will pay income taxes for the first time this year, according to official estimates, Mr. Disney said.

Disney Statement

"The Treasury wanted the public to know that the income tax was important, simple to calculate under the new form, and part of the war effort," Mr. Disney told reporters. "A Treasury official thought that a film, featuring a character the public knows and likes would be a direct way of publicizing and explaining the new income tax regulations."

"They asked me to do the job. I took my most valuable character, Donald Duck, and set aside all other work to produce a regular length short subject on the tax in less than six weeks," Walt Disney explained.

The $80,000 requested from Congress by the Treasury Department is to pay original estimates of costs of film, labor, and prints, Mr. Disney said. Actually, he reported, the picture also would cost him between $6,000 and $7,000 in out-of-pocket expenses for production. Additionally, he estimated, that he would lose upward of $50,000 in cancelled bookings of other Donald Duck short subjects.

Cites Example

As an example he cited cancellation by the Radio City Music Hall of one of two weeks' booking of a Donald Duck. Elsewhere theatres also lack the screen time to play two Donald Duck shorts and are cancelling the regular Disney distribution to play the Government film. This playing time can never be recovered, he said.

Payment of the $80,000 by the Treasury Department will not reimburse Mr. Disney for his own services. Likewise the picture has been widely publicized without cost, is being distributed without charge by the National Screen Service for the War Activities Committee, and is being played during donated screen time in more than 12,000 theatres. This time, and distribution, could never be purchased, Mr. Disney observed. Mats, stills and other campaign material were all donated to the Government. Prints were made by Technicolor, Mr. Disney said, at its lowest possible rate. In addition, work on other color pictures was held up to rush 1,100 prints of "The New Spirit" through the laboratories in four days.

Disney Rushed Production

"I would have made the picture for nothing if it could have been done on a regular schedule," Mr. Disney said. "On the 18th of December we were asked for delivery of the picture by February 1st so it could be circulated before March 15th. Ordinarily production of a short subject extends over six months."

Mr. Disney told how story editors, artists, animators and all divisions of his studio worked overtime to make the picture at unprecedented speed. Actual production took only two weeks.

DONALD DUCK TRAVELS FAST

Film distribution history is being made with the circulation of "The New Spirit", Walt Disney's Donald Duck short on how to pay your income tax. The film, made at the request of the Treasury Department, is scheduled to play more than 12,000 engagements before March 15th.

National Screen Service, which is distributing the picture without charge through its 31 exchanges, started the first of 1,100 prints to key situations last week. The War Activities Committee, sponsoring the short, expected it to have played first runs in every key city by the end of this week.

The 11,530 theatres which signed the industry defense pledge are receiving the picture first, after which it will be distributed free to any other theatre requesting it. Film carriers are transporting the picture without charge. Also, 100 16mm. versions have been made.

However, it entailed large overtime payrolls and special expenses, Mr. Disney said. Union agreements required that technicians and artists be paid time and a half and double time. Additionally, he said, it would not have been fair to ask his staff to work one to two weeks without pay on the project.

Started Without Contract

He revealed that he started the picture without a contract and was half way finished before a letter from the Treasury Department formally promised to assume production costs. Otherwise, he said, it would have been impossible to circulate the picture in time.

"I'm not running the war. The Treasury asked me to do a job, and I did it. We put everything aside, and beat the six weeks deadline," he said.

Mr. Disney was emphatic in insisting he was merely doing his bit in an all-out war effort. He said he is working on other films for the Treasury Department, the War and Navy departments, and the Coordinator of Inter-American affairs. These take priority over everything else, he said, and are being made on contract at cost. The 20 Navy pictures, he said, are being made for approximately $4,500 apiece.

Sure Expenses Will Be Paid

Mr. Disney voiced confidence that the Government would fulfill its agreement and pay the estimated expenses. The congressional critics, he said, were a minority seeking to embarrass the administration. "But they sure can raise one hell of a fuss."

Among the features the production of which at the Disney studio has been delayed by the Government work are "Bambi," set for Spring release, "Wind in the Willows," "Peter Pan," "Alice in Wonderland," "Cinderella" and "Bongo," an animal story by Sinclair Lewis.

Ritter Tour Extended

Tex Ritter, Columbia cowboy star, who, with Slim Andrews, has been making personal appearances in Georgetown, Ohio, has extended his itinerary to take in several additional towns in Maryland. Additional bookings for the cowboy stars include dates in West Virginia, North Carolina, Virginia, Delaware and Pennsylvania, taking the tour up to February 18th.

SEC Reports Heavy Dealing in Film Stocks

A large number of transactions, some of them sizable, in an even dozen film corporations were reported Wednesday by the Securities and Exchange Commission at Washington, in its first summary for December.

The most important transactions were a series of buys which added 144,500 shares of common stock and 2,000 shares of preferred to Albee Corporation's holdings in Radio-Keith-Orpheum and 16,700 shares of common to its American Company's portfolio.

At the year-end, Atlas held 981,323 shares of common and 51,071 shares of preferred direct, and 284,930 shares of common through the American Company.

In another deal in RKO, L. Lawrence Green, New York, director, disposed of 2,000 shares of common stock, leaving him with 250 shares.

In a series of transactions in Warner Brothers common, Albert Warner acquired 28,100 shares, giving him a total of 102,648, and Jack L. Warner acquired 19,000 shares and sold 29,400 shares, leaving him with 133,460 shares. The only other transaction in the company was the disposition of 400 shares of common by Samuel Carlisle, New York, director, leaving him with 600 shares.

Year-end settlements in Universal Corporation saw 5,000 common voting trust certificate warrants going to Nathan J. Blumberg, president, as compensation, giving him a total of 20,000; 5,000 to J. Cheever Cowdin, representing his entire interest in that class, and 3,000 to Charles D. Prutzman, giving him a total of 9,000. Preston Davie, director, acquired 100 voting trust certificates, making his interest 5,000.

In the subsidiary Universal Pictures, Charles D. Prutzman sold 20 shares of preferred.

Stromberg Resignation Made Official

Further shufflings of Hollywood personnel were highlighted this week by the departure of Hunt Stromberg on Tuesday from the MGM lot after 17 years as a producer at the sign of the lion. Metro accepted his resignation, tendered December 13th, at a conference this week between Louis B. Mayer and Sol A. Rosenblatt, Mr. Stromberg's attorney, with Nicholas Schenck and J. Robert Rubin participating by telephone. Mr. Stromberg's contract had three years to run.

Hollywood reports at midweek were that Mr. Stromberg would join David O. Selznick, producing one or two pictures a year for United Artists distribution. The deal was said to include a $2,500 weekly salary and a percentage of profits. Discussions between Mr. Stromberg and Murray Silverstone for formation of an independent production unit for United Artists release are also reported at New York.

Sam Wood on Tuesday signed with Warner Brothers for a three-year term in which he will direct at least one picture a year. The deal reportedly contains a profit-sharing clause. His first Warner assignment will be "The Corn Is Green," following completion of "Pride of the Yankees" for Sam Goldwyn and "For Whom the Bell Tolls" at Paramount.

Upheavals among the RKO production staff were also reported to have sent Gabriel Pascal and Sol Lesser back to United Artists, through which they released prior to signing RKO contracts last Spring.

REPUBLIC, UNITED ARTISTS, PRC SET NEW RELEASES

Budgets Increased on Spring Features; War, Comedy Stressed

New product plans were announced this week by more producers. Republic announced that an estimated $4,500,000 would be spent by the company to complete 22 of the 66 films on the 1941-42 schedule. United Artists reported that eight major productions would be released during the next 14 weeks. Producers Releasing Corp. announced a "materially increased budget" for "Men of San Quentin."

Last week, Motion Picture Herald reported that Universal would release 53 pictures in the new season; that Warner Bros. would release 45 to 50 and that Twentieth Century-Fox would deliver a total of 50 films this year.

Following a series of production conferences between Herbert J. Yates, Republic's chairman of the board, and M. J. Siegel, company president, it was announced in New York that more than $3,000,000 would be spent in producing 11 features, ten westerns and one serial included in the 66 pictures scheduled for the company's 1941-42 program. Estimates for the productions are as follows: "Flying Tigers," co-starring John Wayne and Ray Middleton, to be made at a cost of $750,000; "Lazy Bones," a Judy Canova comedy, at $500,000; "Remember Pearl Harbor," feature presenting Republic's western star, Don Barry, budgeted at $450,000; "Moonstruck," a musical, starring Betty Kean, Broadway player, at a cost of $350,000, and "Road to Mandalay," an adventure story, to cost more than $250,000.

Other Republic features scheduled are: "Suicide Squadron," "Yukon Patrol," "Secret Agent No. 39," "Big Top," "Roaring Timber" and "Ten Nights in a Barroom."

During the next three months, the company plans to make three Gene Autry pictures: "Bells of Capistrano," budgeted at approximately $500,000, "Sing, Ranger, Sing," and "South of Rio Grande," which three films will fill out the Autry program of eight productions. "Sons of the Pioneers" and "Sunset Serenade" are the two Roy Rogers westerns to be made. "Phantom Plainsmen" and "Frontier Days," two Mesquiteer pictures slated for production, along with two Don Barry action series, "Bad Men of Butte" and "Code of the Desert," round out the western schedule.

United Artists Has 8 Ready

Carl Leserman, general sales manager for United Artists, announced in New York this week that the company would release eight major productions during the period from February 6th to May 15th. Mr. Leserman said these films represented the largest production investments in the history of the company. Beginning with last Friday, and release of "The Shanghai Gesture," the schedule is as follows:

February 27th: "Heliotrope Harry," an Edward Small production featuring Brian Donlevy, Miriam Hopkins and Preston Foster.

March 6th: "To Be or Not To Be," Carole Lombard's last picture in which she co-starred with Jack Benny; produced and directed by Ernst Lubitsch and presented by Alexander Korda.

March 20th: "Mister V," produced and directed by Leslie Howard, who also stars in the film, which is presented by Edward Small in association with United Artists.

April 3rd: Rudyard Kipling's "Jungle Book," produced in Technicolor by Alexander Korda with Sabu in the stellar role.

April 17th: Charlie Chaplin in "The Gold Rush," with music and words; produced, written and directed by Mr. Chaplin.

April 24th: "Twin Beds," Edward Small's production featuring George Brent, Joan Bennett, Mischa Auer, Una Merkel, Glenda Farrell and Ernest Truex.

May 15th: "Ships With Wings," an adventure film based on the exploits of an aircraft carrier, with John Clements, Leslie Banks, Jane Baxter, Ann Todd and Basil Sydney in leading roles.

PRC Preparing Comedy Themes

Producers Releasing Corp. will gear its product to meet the demand for action and light comedy films during the war, it was announced by O. Henry Briggs, company president, upon his return to New York this week from regional conventions of PRC in Little Rock and Chicago. Mr. Briggs declared, "Entertainment and relaxation are the prime requisites for maintaining the movie-going public's daily work and that PRC is going to do its part in supplying that need." He predicted that the war would prove a box office stimulant in the U. S. as it did in England.

At the second of four regional sales meetings called by Arthur Greenblatt, PRC's general sales manager, held at Little Rock, Ark., last week, Mr. Briggs announced that a materially increased budget would go into effect for "Men of San Quentin," the Martin Mooney production now in preparation. This film is being produced with full cooperation of the California State Parole Board and Warden Clinton Duffy of the San Quentin prison. William Beaudine will direct, and Max King is associate producer with Mr. Mooney. It is scheduled for release May 8th.

One of the most difficult problems facing distributors today is the matter of automobile transportation for their country salesmen. Mr. Greenblatt told delegates at the third regional convention of the company held at the Congress Hotel, Chicago, last Saturday and Sunday. MOTION PICTURE HERALD reported on this and related problems of distributors in these war times, on page 15, February 7.

Unless the government gives the film companies priorities on tires so salesmen can cover their territories properly, selling costs will increase considerably, not only because of the higher rail rates, but of the time lost waiting for connections between towns, many of which could be reached more conveniently and more economically by means of the automobile.

Columbia Holds Sales Meeting

Last Friday, Columbia's Southern division branch managers met in a two-day conference at the Ainsley Hotel, Atlanta, with Rube Jackter, assistant sales manager, presiding. The meeting was called in connection with the company's sales drive, in which it has posted approximately $50,000 in defense bonds as prizes. Among those scheduled to attend were: Sam Moscow, Southern division manager, and the following branch managers: R. J. Ingram, Atlanta; Joseph Gins, Charlotte; J. B. Underwood, Dallas; J. J. Rogers, Memphis; C. A. Gibbs, Oklahoma City, and H. Duvall, New Orleans.

Freeman Contest Winners Named

Winners of the Y. Frank Freeman drive, conducted by the Balaban & Katz circuit in Chicago, were announced last Friday by Walter Immerman, general manager. The drive, which began on October 31st and ended December 31st, 1941, was for the most efficiency shown in the general and economic operation of houses in the circuit. Theatres were divided into different classes. Loop prizes were given on effort and expense control, while outlying classes were based on the greatest spread between expense and profits over the same period the previous year. Film rents were not involved in the contest.

In the Loop the result was a tie between William Holden and Charles Cottle, managers of the Chicago and Roosevelt theatres respectively. In the "A" class, George Grandt, Tivoli Theatre, won. Harry Oden-dahl, of the Congress, and Charles Nesbit, Tivoli, took the "B" class honors. Waldo Bail, LaGrange Theatre, LaGrange, Ill., and Jerome Winsberg, Senate Theatre, Chicago, were "C" class winners, and Al Leonard, Lakeside Theatre, was highest in the houses showing first week of general release in Chicago.

As originally announced, winners were to be given trips to Hollywood, with all expenses paid for them and their wives, but due to national conditions this was changed and all winners received $500 in Defense Bonds, except in the Loop, where the prize was split between Mr. Holden and Mr. Cottle.

FILMS ESSENTIAL, SAYS ARMY, ALLOWING DEFERMENTS

Local Boards Will Have Discretion in Selecting "Irreplaceable" Men

Motion pictures are "essential".

This opinion was given at weekend by Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, USA, with a notation that the film industry is . . . "essential in certain instances to the national health, safety and interest, and in other instances to war production."

The granting of an "essential" rating to the industry allows deferment to its irreplaceable workers most of whom are in production, and are actors, writers, directors, and technicians.

The ruling by General Hershey, National Director of Selective Service, was officially called to the attention of General Donovan, State Director of Selective Service, at Sacramento, California, for application if deferment is sought by studios in behalf of men "who cannot be replaced because of the shortage of persons of their qualification and skill, and whose removal would cause a serious loss of effectiveness."

It was also the subject of a direct communication from General Hershey to Lowell Mellett, Coordinator of Government films, and liaison officer of the Federal Government with the industry.

Assailment of the ruling, however, and as a corollary of the industry, came from Congressmen who sought to convict the industry last Autumn of propagandizing for war.

Senator Clark Objects

Senator D. Worth Clark, Idaho, chairman of the special Senate subcommittee which investigated propaganda in films and radio, called General Hershey's decision "little short of outrageous." Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Montana, chairman of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee, of which the Clark subcommittee was a component, limited political pressure.

George J. Schaefer, president of RKO, and chairman of the film industry's War Activities Committee, issued the following statement over the weekend, in New York, before departing for Hollywood:

"This recognition by our Government of the essential nature of motion pictures in wartime which is in line with the position taken in the last war, should encourage every person in the industry to feel that he or she is doing a necessary job and is sharing in the drive for total victory.

"As for deferments from military service, determination of necessary men is one for the local draft boards and appeal agencies. Each case will be taken up on its merits. . . . The motion picture industry would not think of asking for blanket deferments, but this ruling does give us the right to apply for the retention of the services of indispensable individuals from time to time. In my opinion, deferment will be sought only for a negligible number of persons engaged in motion picture production.

"The industry will endeavor to carry out

"ESSENTIAL" NOT FOR RADIO, PRESS

The office of Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey told the New York Daily Mirror representative in Washington, Monday, that there were "no plans now" to put an "essential" rating on the stage, radio, newspaper, and magazine fields. The "essential" rating given the film industry was understood this week to apply only to production.

the letter and spirit of our national policy which is that every citizen and every pound of strategic materials should be utilized in the way deemed by the Government to be most helpful to the winning of the war."

Freeman Lauds Ruling

Y. Frank Freeman, head of production for Paramount, and chairman of the Hollywood branch of the committee, said there Monday:

"By this ruling, the Government has not only recognized, but has assigned as a duty, the continuation of the American motion picture's activities in the production of films which, by their entertainment value, have contributed much to maintaining morale for the public and Armed Forces, as well as the continuation of the production of educational, informational, and Army Training films.

"Thus, the Government has assigned to the motion picture industry an essential role in the total War Effort.

"It therefore becomes incumbent upon each of us at all times to remain aware of the responsibility placed upon us by the Government, through the ruling by General Hershey and the statements by Mr. Lowell Mellett. It shall be an obligation imposed upon each of us in motion pictures to safeguard that responsibility by careful action here in Hollywood in relation to deferments requested.

Film Workers Needed

"Determination of those men whose work is indispensable to our activities in carrying out the duties assigned to us by the Government in the total war effort, therefore will be carefully made in each individual case. There can be no thought of requesting categorical deferments.

"If I may voice the sentiments of all of us who work in motion pictures in Hollywood, I would say that every one of us is proud of this recognition of our activities by the Government and I would further say that there is not a group of people in the entire United States who will more zealously attempt to carry out their essential job for our country."

Mr. Mellett told Hollywood studio workers in January that unless asked by the armed forces for specific tasks, their greatest war service would be to stay, and he added, "Your motion pictures are a vital contribution to the total defense effort."

Writing to General Hershey February 2nd, Mr. Mellett declared:

"I wish to offer my opinion that the continued effective operation of the motion picture industry is essential to the national war effort and that certain persons engaged in the industry, being essential to it, should receive special consideration in the administration of the Selective Training and Service Act. I am therefore asking that cognizance be taken of these facts and that the motion picture industry be protected, as far as it is possible, against the disruption of its operation through the calling of such essential men into the armed services."

Essential for Morale

General Hershey, in his reply to Mr. Mellett, February 4th, said:

"In view of the statements contained in your letter with respect to the essential character of the motion picture industry, I shall inform the agencies of the Selective Service System that the continuance of motion picture production is in certain aspects essential to the national health, safety and interest, and in other phases essential to war production."

General Hershey told newspapers over the weekend that the decision was "definitely" not a "blanket deferment," and that local boards would not be impeded in sending men to the Army if they saw fit.

U. S. Sets Policy for Stars' Appearances

The Hollywood Victory Committee received a communication from the Treasury Department in Washington on Tuesday purporting to establish policy for the Department and Hollywood on all matters relating to the industry's volunteer work for the Government.

Signed by Carlton Duffus, in charge of special activities of the Defense Savings staff of the Treasury, the letter urged the Committee to make certain that stars and players who volunteer for activities in connection with bond and stamp sales "fulfill" their "legal and contractual obligations" first, so that the Treasury Department "may not be calling upon any star or player at a time when he or she is obligated in Hollywood as a business contract.

Clarifies Status

"We think," Mr. Duffus declared, "that this clarification is necessary for your records and for ours in order to prevent any occasion wherein the national emergency might be used by any individual to their own advantage in any matter which may have to do with commitments or contracts. In other words, we are eager to see the motion picture industry continue in business as per the newspaper report of the statement by Mr. Lowell Mellett."

Meanwhile, the Committee issued a "must call" for a special meeting scheduled on Thursday night at which committee members were

(Continued on page 30)

U. A. SCOOPS Th

Showmanship will go into action to scoop all opposition in showing these amazing high-voltage shorts!

There'll be 12 . . . and the first 3 are ready right now! They are "Churchill's Island", "The Battle for Oil" and "This is Blitz".

Camera crews are busy in every corner of today's action-charged world securing the material for this most timely of all screen entertainment!

See the

they're

Industry's Most Extraordinary Shorts!

THE WORLD IN ACTION

Book them immediately! Sell them aggressively! And remember,

RELEASED THRU UNITED ARTISTS

STARS MOBILIZE FOR U. S.

(Continued from page 27)

to meet with Lieut. Commander Walter Winchell and his commanding officer, Lieut. Commander John T. Tuttle, Jr., public relations director of the Third Naval District, New York, the two newly appointed liaison officers to the industry from the Army and Navy.

Stars Touring In Army Shows

On Tuesday, the Hollywood Victory Committee announced a new series of Army camp shows under way. Constance Moore was to open a three-week tour at Salt Lake City on Wednesday; the Ritz Brothers were to leave Hollywood on Friday for Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri to begin another tour, and Charles Butterworth was scheduled to leave the West Coast on Thursday for Indianapolis.

Rosalind Russell, Deanna Durbin, Jackie Cooper and Phyllis Brooks joined Hollywood players touring Army camps and Naval training stations last week for USO-Camp shows. Miss Russell toured five Texas camps with "Funzafire," her first appearance was at Camp Bowie on Tuesday. Beginning at Camp Edwards that same day, Miss Durbin toured six camps in the second corps area. Mr. Cooper and Miss Brooks began a two-week tour with the "All American Girl Revue" at Camp Livingston, La., last Thursday. Linda Darnell and Joe E. Brown added Fort Eustis and Fort Story, Virginia, to their itinerary with "Sunshine Unit" along the Atlantic seaboard.

Theatrical Agents Help

USO-Camp Shows announced in New York on Monday that 21 leading theatrical agents and artists' representatives volunteered to serve as a committee to assist USO in recruiting free talent for special entertainment of enlisted men in the New York area. It is planned to have committee members accompany actors and units wherever possible to cooperate with military officials in presenting the shows.

Herman Citron is chairman and committee members include: Abner Greshlar, Jack W. Miller, Emil Lowe, Mark J. Leddy, Harry Lenetska, Lester Laden, Phil Coscia, David Jonas, Harry Ames, Herman Fialloff, Matty Rosen, Arthur Shields, Sam Rausch, Veto Melfi, Dick Henry, Charles Rapp, Nat Dunn, Fred Martens, Harry Green and Roger Murrel.

Meanwhile, the Associated Actors and Artists of America, parent body of all the entertainer unions of the A.F. of L. set up a talent co-ordinating committee to handle camp entertainment. Purpose was to guard against exploitation of amusement talent. The AAAA notified its five talent unions of this action and established branch offices in the East, middle west and on the West Coast.

Networks Launch War Program

Robert Montgomery, screen star and Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy, heads the all-star cast assembled for the first program which America's four networks, NBC, CBS, Mutual and the Blue, launch this Saturday, February 14th. Archibald MacLeish will broadcast a special message from President Roosevelt. Under the general heading of "This Is War," the programs will have separate titles, the first of which is "America At War," and was written by Norman Corwin who also serves as director for all the radio shows. Top-ranking screen, stage and radio stars, and authors have pooled their talents to execute the programs which will be heard over 500 American stations and throughout the world.

"VICTORY" CHAIRS AVOID PRIORITIES

"Victory" chairs are the answer of auditorium seating manufacturers to the Government's demand for conservation of critical materials. These new models, already announced by the American Seating Company, Heywood-Wakefield Company, and the Ideal Seating Company, use wood for end standards and other structural or finishing members regularly made of cast iron or steel.

Basic construction remains essentially the same, however; so that in hinge action, springs and general design the "Victory" models are essentially standard. The use of wood for the end standards and one or two other components, while not reducing strength or comfort, does effect a substantial reduction in the total amount of metal required per chair.

The United States Treasury Department reported this week that six major film companies have adopted its payroll savings plan for defense bond and stamps purchases. The companies are Columbia, MGM, Paramount, RKO, 20th Century-Fox and Warner Bros. The film firms have set up plans whereby employees may subscribe to bond purchases and pay through weekly reductions from salary.

More Screen Stars Aid

Fred W. Beetson, chairman of the Hollywood Victory Committee, announced on the West Coast last Thursday that a project was under way whereby stars or feature players who travel across country would place themselves at the disposal of the Treasury Department to aid in bond sales. Edward G. Robinson was the first star to enlist for the plan. He left Hollywood by plane for New York last Friday and made stops en route.

The Technicolor trailer, "Any Bonds Today," originally set for release February 2nd, has been delayed, it was reported in New York by the industry's War Activities Committee last Friday. No new release date has been determined.

Dorothy Lamour and Sabu made personal appearances in Chicago last week to aid defense bond sales in that area.

Reports from Montreal on Tuesday disclosed that entire receipts of every theatre in the United Amusement Corp. circuit during the next three weeks will be used to purchase bonds of the new $600,000,000 Canadian victory loan.

Ted Schlanger, Warner theatres' zone chief in Philadelphia, announced this week that all circuit houses in and around the city will institute sales of defense stamps and where such requests are made by patrons, stamps will be given in place of change by theatre cashiers.

Hollywood Group Aids Canada

At the request of the Canadian Government, the Hollywood Victory Committee will cooperate in launching Canada's new victory loan drive, it was reported from the film capital on Tuesday. Janet Gaynor was to inaugurate a series of star appearances in Toronto on Friday. Other star appearances are slated for February 20th, 27th and March 6th.

In addition to the five mobile film and recreational units currently operating on the Atlantic Coast under sponsorship of USO, ten trucks, now being constructed at the Ford plant in Detroit, which will be donated by Edsel Ford to USO are scheduled for tours along the West Coast in California, Oregon and Washington. Men in isolated Army and Navy posts along the coastlines will have motion pictures and other recreational facilities brought directly to them by these mobile trucks, it was reported at USO headquarters in New York on Monday.

Off to the War

Frank Capra, film director, announced in Hollywood on Monday that he had received word to leave on Wednesday for Washington to take up active duty as a major in the Army Signal Corps. Mr. Capra was notified of his commission two months ago but had received permission to remain on the West Coast until he had completed work on his latest picture, "Arsenic and Old Lace."

The director served as a private in the first World War. He won two Academy awards for his directorial achievements, in 1935 for "It Happened One Night," and in 1936 for "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town." He is a past president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

National Screen Trains Marines

National Screen Service has placed its complete facilities for instructions in camera animation at the disposal of the U.S. Marine Corps Photographic Section, Marine Schools, Marine headquarters in Washington approved a plan suggested by Captain W. M. Nelson, of the Quantico School, whereby National Screen will train three specially selected enlisted men working on detached duty. One of the marines is a cameraman, the other two are artists. They are making their headquarters at the company's home office.

Radio Parts Needs Studied by Board

Conservation orders halting construction of new broadcasting stations or expansion of existing facilities in areas already receiving satisfactory primary service will be followed in the near future by the promulgation of similar restrictions on television and FM stations, it was learned this week in Washington.

Officials of the Defense Communications Board, however, would not disclose whether the orders now under consideration would stop television and FM development. An order halting construction in areas receiving primary service would be without meaning, since neither television nor FM have progressed to a point where national coverage is provided.

More in the immediate future, the possibility of action to provide for the pooling or exchange of repair and maintenance parts by broadcasters was seen in questionnaires sent out by the board asking for detailed information on spare parts in the hands of the industry.

The suggestion of pooling, it was said, came from broadcasters who were fearful of having to go off the air in the event they used their last tubes or needed immediately other spare parts or which they required priority ratings.

DCB officials would not say what action they planned to take on the basis of the information now being compiled.

TWICE THE DRAMATIC PUNCH OF ANY PICTURE YOU'LL PLAY THIS YEAR !!

Watch Its Two-Coast Premiere on Lincoln's Birthday at the Rivoli, New York City, and the Four Star, Los Angeles!

This is the first ad to appear in the trade papers on "Mister V" . . . but you've probably heard a lot about it already. It's getting the most amazing word-of-mouth build-up in months . . . a build-up that started with the first exhibitor who saw it! Watch "Mister V" pack dynamite into every box-office engagement. It's the most romantic, exciting role Leslie Howard ever played!

EDWARD SMALL
presents

LESLIE
HOWARD
his greatest role since "PYGMALION"

as

"Mister V"

with

MARY MORRIS • FRANCIS SULLIVAN • HUGH McDERMOTT

Directed and Produced by LESLIE HOWARD

RELEASED THRU UNITED ARTISTS

NATIONAL RELEASE DATE MARCH 20, 1941

IN BRITISH STUDIOS

By AUBREY FLANAGAN

In London

Steady Theme

The war still dominates British film production as a theme and a background. Of seven films actually on the floor at the time of writing six are directly war subjects. Most of the others due immediately to follow those in current production in the Greater London studios have a similar inspiration or theme. Though the vast majority have a serious note, comedy finds its way into others. Will Hay's "The Goose Steps Out," now in production at Ealing, is directly comedy, despite its serious subject, and "These Our Strangers" has as many laughs as heart throbs in its script.

At Gainsborough the latest war subject is now in full swing. "We Shall Rise Again", which Anthony Asquith is directing, takes for its inspiration and subject matter the story of "La Libre Belgique", the Free Belgian newspaper produced in the Low Countries during the Nazi occupation.

Based on Oscar E. Millard's "Uncensored", "We Shall Rise Again" has been adapted by Wolfgang Wilhelm.

Eric Portman, stage actor who leapt to screen prominence in "49th Parallel", plays Andre, Brussels' cabaret artist whose underground work is that of a contact man between editor and printer. Phyllis Calvert, fresh from her co-starring role with Robert Donat in "The Young Mr. Pitt", is Julie, daughter of the newspaper's editor Lanvin, played by Frederick Culley. Others in the cast include: Raymond Lovell, Walter Hudd, Peter Glenville, Irene Handl, Josephine Wilson, Aubrey Mallalieu, Ben Williams, John Slater, Karl Jaffe, Philip Godfrey, Arthur Goulet and Alan Jeayes.

Background of the film is Brussels, 1939 and onwards, the panorama of a European city under the invader. Invaluable data and assistance is being given to the Gainsborough production by the Belgian Embassy in London.

Director Anthony Asquith has commenced production at Shepherd's Bush with scenes in Editor Lanvin's office at the outbreak of war; a war which makes the veteran editor decide to revive the secret paper that inspired his countrymen 25 years before.

Maurice Ostrer plans to follow this with a film of which the story will deal with the work of the Commandos.

The first Technicolor feature to be produced since the outbreak of war, a new film based on the life of the composer Handel, is on the floor at Denham, with Norman Walker directing. Walker, who claims to have spent a year on research, intends to use in the film some sort of the more famous works of the composer, including "The Messiah", with the London Philharmonic Orchestra recording the music.

Walker has gone to the prints and paintings of Hogarth for inspiration, and sequences will have as backgrounds the Courts of King George the First, King George the Second, Vauxhall Gardens, the King's Playhouse in the Haymarket, and old Covent Garden Opera House. Many of these settings have been based on Hogarth prints.

Wilfrid Lawson is playing Handel and Elizabeth Allan returns to the screen in the role of Mrs. Cibber, the Prima Donna.

Corona Films Ltd. started production this week at Gainsborough's Islington Studios on "Alibi", which is for British Lion release. Adapted from the French story "L'Alibi" by Marcel Achard, the film is being produced by Josef Somlo and directed by Brian Desmond Hurst.

For this subject, Somlo has assembled a cast including Margaret Lockwood as Helene, hostess in a Parisian night club who becomes involved in a murder case; Hugh Sinclair in the part of Calas, suave French detective.

The story of "Alibi" is laid in the Paris of 1937, and many of the chief scenes in the film take place at a night club where, before the fall of France, gangsters from America and the Parisian underworld conducted their struggle against the forces of law and order.

"First of the Few"

About the end of January Leslie Howard will call "Cut" for the last time on his big film biography of the late R. J. Mitchell, the man who gave Britain the "Spitfire". Commenced at the Denham studios in October—exteriors at a fighter station and in Cornwall started a month earlier—"The First of the Few" will, with months of preparation, have taken nearly a year to reach the screen. Howard, co-starring with David Niven as well as producing and directing the film, is confident that exhibitors will not be disappointed with it.

Some of the more spectacular sequences have just recently been filmed, notably Britain's Schneider Trophy Win at Venice in 1927, when the Mitchell designed Supermarine Seaplane won at a speed of 281.49 miles an hour.

Howard was occupied for three days with this scene. Denham's biggest stage housed a huge set comprising a hangar, slipway, waterway with floating pontoons and boats, and a many-tiered grandstand built in the modern style and decorated with the flags of all nations.

Filippo Del Giudice, General Manager of Two Cities Film Company and a refugee from Fascism, makes a screen appearance in "The First of the Few". Facing the business end of the cameras for the first time in a career that has associations with such films as "Freedom Radio", "French Without Tears" and the recently completed "Unpublished Story" Del Giudice gave a hearty account of himself in an important if light-hearted scene.

The Commandos

Probably by the time this reaches print Paul Soskin will have concluded work on his Commando subject, "The Day Will Dawn", which has proven such a slick piece of commercial foresight on his part. Two at least of Denham's major stages have for some weeks resounded to the lilting accents of Norwegian sailors and peasants, and the crackle of Bren gun and rifle fire from British Guardsmen re-enacting, under studio lights, roles they had already played in the rugged Fjords of Western Scandinavia. Sequestered harbours, fish oil refineries, snowcaked quaysides, village halls, and British invasion barges have provided a realistic background. The "Altmark" incident has been recreated during the past week.

Harold French directs a cast which includes Hugh Williams, Ralph Richardson, Deborah Kerr, Francis Sullivan and Griffiths Jones.

General Film will distribute.

Alexander Shaw, documentary film producer, has returned from India where he has been advisor to the Indian Government on films for the past year, and has resumed his position as Director of Production to the Strand Film Company.

During the time he was in India Alexander Shaw produced 25 films (most of them in six languages) about India's war effort, in addition to training a unit of young Indians in the making of propaganda films.

Says Shaw: "Until the war the India studios, obsessed with the idea of films running at least two hours, had left the short film severely alone. Then Government propaganda needed the film weapon and eight short films were produced.

"We made films on armament production, on A.R.P., and on the work of the Indian Forces; Indian cameramen have been mine-sweeping with the Navy, dive-bombing with the Air Force." "At the same time", Mr. Shaw added, "films have been made of the new India, on the great Indian built and controlled industries and on the India of science and art. The part played by the women of India in modern life has been filmed, as well as the India of tradition.

"The first batch of these films have already been shown with success in New York, Singapore, Cairo, Sydney and London and are taking their place beside short films from all over the Empire."

British National is probably the busiest British producing company at the moment, with two subjects, "One of Our Aircraft Is Missing" and "Let the People Sing", almost ready for trade showing; two more, "These Our Strangers" and "Sabotage at Sea", actually in production; and "Mr. Bunting at War" and a new Flanagan and Allen comedy in course of preparation.

BRITISH NAVY, RAF DELIVER OWN, U.S. FILMS TO WORLD

Entertainment as Well as Propaganda Pictures Go to Neutral Countries

by AUBREY FLANAGAN
in London

Inspired probably by the ancient principle, "If I can't have it nor will you," British propaganda, as engineered and manifest through the Ministry of Information, has taken a new line, additional to, rather than substitute for its more direct processes. It is to crowd Nazi films off the screens of the few remaining neutral territories by distributing non-propaganda films from the studios of Britain and Hollywood.

Together with its own exclusively propagandist efforts the Ministry of Information is speeding forth over the five oceans of the world, to Reykjavik and Istanbul, Tierra del Fuego, Lisbon and the Leeward Islands, by airmail and by surface craft, and by RAF bomber, such inoffensive and seemingly irrelevant opera as "Tudor Rose" and "Kiss the Boys Goodbye."

Shortage of Product

This newer development in the processes of propaganda by prevention is inspired by the product shortage, from which neutral as well as friendly territories are currently suffering. To the exploitation of this cinematic drought Herr Doktor Joseph Goebbels' propaganda machinery is well alive, and has been using every effort to flood the starved screens with films aimed to ballyhoo the Axis cause and war purpose.

That it is no less aimed at freezing out films from the democracies is a strong and natural reason for the counter offensive from the Ministry of Information's Film Division. Every fifteen minutes during which Nazi films can be crowded out of Sweden and Portugal, the South American countries and Turkey, is, ipso facto, a quarter of an hour gained by Allied propaganda.

The record of the Ministry's Overseas Film Dispatch is a record of considerable achievement, one which suggests that though the Films Division, despite the criticisms to which it has been open since its inception, is not prone to shout its own odds, it would seem to have been doing valuable work in the cause of Allied victory. It would probably not be inaccurate to say that in the battle for the neutral cinema screen the MOI is putting up as good a show as its Nazi opponents; in many instances it has probably already scored a victory.

50 Territories Covered

Taking an average week, it is a fact that, through the machinery operated by the MOI's Overseas Films Section, at least 160 reels of film are despatched to over 50 territories. The geographical range of these territories is almost unlimited—so far as neutral and friendly countries are concerned at any rate.

In one week, detailed statistics for which are before us as we write, that ended Aug-

BRITISH THEATRES OFFERED TO ARMY

"No single action probably has been more effective in demonstrating the British exhibitor's zeal for the national cause than the recent CEA gesture offering the War Office and the Civil Defense forces of the country the free use of all British picturehouses for film shows. Despite reiterated criticism of many of the Government's gestures to the industry, since the outbreak of war, British exhibitors have been both enthusiastic and unanimous in regard to the new scheme.

"If the War Office and Civil Defense organizations avail themselves of the exhibitor offer, every picturehouse will, for a set time every week—in some cases every day—become part of the military and civil defense machine. The CEA has offered the gratuitous use of the cinemas all over the country for the screening of training films to the armed forces, to the Home Guard and the Civil Defense bodies. The shows would be given "out of hours" when the cinemas are not normally open to the public, would be open only to military, Home Guard, and C.D. groups, would be staged in the largest metropolitan supers and the most remote small halls in Great Britain.

"Additionally, it is the CEA plan to get all projectionists into the Home Guard and to establish their work in the box during these shows as part of their service. It is suggested also that they could be of further service by using their technical knowledge and equipment in direct training of appropriate sections of the Home Guard and the Army itself." —A. F.

ust 30th, 1941, 309 reels of film were sent to 53 different territorial points. Naturally the vast majority of the films despatched are the Ministry's own offspring. Probably Number One Box Office Hit among them all has been "Target for Tonight."

Other titles, selected at random, include "Road to Victory," "Ordinary People," "Ack Ack," "South Africa Marches," "Fighter Pilot" and "Citizens' Advice Bureau."

Newsreels are a regular issue, and commentaries in Arabic, Turkish, French and Brazilian are added for appropriate territories. The polyglot talents of the Ministry's official Babel are further lent to the compilation of commentaries or dialogue in, for instance, Persian, Dutch, Spanish and Portuguese. The dubbing of films into foreign languages has included such subjects as

"Contraband," "Q. Planes" and "Drake of England."

Of 60 titles on one departmental list of films sent overseas with the MOI stamp of approval thereon, at one sitting, a schedule reveals that of all the copies, despatched at that time, seven were superimposed with translatable sub-titles, two were re-edited specially for the country whither it was sent, 28 were given particular editorial and other treatment, and the rest dubbed with commentaries specially devised and recorded in the appropriate languages.

In one schedule organized around one pivotal port, films were despatched in groups to Aden, Australia, Batavia, Cairo, Cyprus, Duala, Gambia, Gold Coast, Iran, Iraq, Kenya, Leopoldville, Malaya, New Hebrides, New Caledonia, Nyasaland, Northern Rhodesia, Syria, Turkey, Tanganyika, Uganda. The chart of distribution pays silent tribute to the ways and communications kept open by the British Navy and the Royal Air Force, and its Dominion brethren, and to the solution they have offered the problem of film distribution in a world at war.

Organization, Guile Necessary

To reach the farthest, and, though nearer, least accessible objectives, a great deal of organization and guile has been necessary. It would seem that it has been forthcoming. Though the normal airmail services are used for such locations as India, Portugal and the Dutch East Indies, convoyed surface craft have taken British and American films to Australia, the Cameroons, Fiji and the Windward Isles. On this service, too, legitimately, since it is all in the cause of propaganda, the Royal Air Force has played a prominent part, taking cans of films, duped negatives, lavenders and black and whites to regions so far afield that to reach them means crossing enemy territory. The Embassies, the Consulates, the MOI's own foreign offices, and, in at least one outpost, the offices of one of the U. S. majors, are at the receiving end, thence distributing product to the neutral and friendly screens.

Currently the MOI is offering the widest and most wholehearted collaboration to both U. S. and British organizations who seek to get their product distributed throughout neutral territories. Efforts are made over and above the mere mechanical matter of despatch to see that the films do reach the screens when they arrive on foreign soil.

Films Recently Transported

Indications of the catholicity of subject matter handled is contained in a list of films sent to one particular territory during the space of a fortnight. They included: "International Lady," "Lydia," "Thief of Baghdad," "Down Argentine Way," "That Night in Rio," "Man at Large," "Yank in the RAF," "Skylark," "Great Man's Lady," "Gone With the Wind," "Look Who's Laughing," "Tom, Dick and Harry," "Suspicion," "Flying Down to Rio," "My Life With Caroline" and "49th Parallel."

The MOI has long and ceaselessly asked the industry to give the nation service. It seems that now the MOI is in some degree giving service to the industry.

CAROLINA, CONNECTICUT FOR REVISED BUYING

Straw Votes Continue Trend Toward Demand for Decree Changes

Possibly foreshadowing the attitude of the parent organization, and that of all the units when the votes are counted, Connecticut Allied Monday voted unanimously for a selective method of film buying, to replace the present method by which films are offered in blocks of five.

The vote was the first on three proposals submitted by the National Allied board to units; and it approved the first of these proposals. The others are, that the distributors return to the selling of a full season's product at one time, allowing a cancellation of 20 per cent in each price bracket; and, that they return to the same, allowing the cancellation up to 20 per cent of the total film rental value of the contract.

Meanwhile, from the Carolinas, it is reported the exhibitor organization of those two states persists in its condemnation of the consent decree, and awaits its reformation or elimination so that it can "return to the old block buying, which would carry with it reasonable cancellation on all groups of pictures."

It was recalled that at the recent convention in Charlotte, N. C., of the Theatre Owners of North and South Carolina, the decree was assailed because of the following:

- 1—The lack of cancellation privileges of the forced buying in blocks of five.
- 2—The necessity of waiting until after pictures have been screened for their purchase and presentation, thereby increasing costs to the producer which in turn are being passed on to the exhibitor and,
- 3—Interference with the bookings of theatres by reason of delays occasioned in negotiations for pictures.
- 4—A steadily increasing demand for increased admission prices, preferred and extended playing time, and other exhibition conditions detrimental to the exhibitor welfare.

The Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America is advising its board of directors of the proceedings in the industry unity meetings up to the time they adjourned January 30th, asking reactions to certain proposals and soliciting suggestions.

In special bulletin to members, Ed Kuykendall, president, commented thus: "The proposals for selective buying and 20 per cent cancellations, as well as for changes in arbitration procedure that will give the average exhibitor his day in court, have made much progress. Most of these proposals have been outlined in the trade press accurately with the exception that the proposals from the exhibitor representatives are the result of cooperative effort on the part of all exhibitors in attendance and not from any one organization.

"This is not the time to seek credits and with a sincerity of purpose on the part of all I have every reason to hope for results in the fight to eliminate 'block of five' selling

BAMBERGER NAMED UMPI SECRETARY

Leon Bamberger has been appointed executive secretary for the United Motion Picture Industry, assisting William F. Rodgers, its permanent chairman. Mr. Bamberger will have temporary headquarters in the Hotel Astor, New York, until more suitable offices are found. He has been, for the ten years past, RKO's sales promotion manager. He was appointed by Harry Brandt and Ned Depinet, the UMPI's co-trustees. He takes office Monday.

and a fair general sales policy that will enable us to have mutual understanding and removal of friction in this industry. M.P. T.O.A. will go the limit to attain this."

The Connecticut Allied vote for purely selective buying had been preceded by one for a return to block booking with the 20 per cent cancellation privilege; but this method is opposed by the Government, Department of Justice officials have indicated.

The selective method is based upon the supply to the exhibitor, by the producer, of the fullest possible information about star, story, and director. It is said to be virtually the method prescribed by the defunct Neely Bill.

Poll Substitute Methods

The poll of units on substitute methods of selling was decided upon by the Allied directors, meeting in New York three weeks ago. It coincided with the Department of Justice report on one year's working of the decree; a report which criticized some aspects.

The New Jersey Allied discussed the new proposals Monday, at Trenton, but took no vote. Members are expected to mull them, then return opinions on a poll card handed out at the meeting. The unit also considered several bills in the state legislature, thought to affect their interests directly or indirectly.

Presiding was Harry Lowenstein, president. Chief speaker was A. N. Stackhouse, Burlington County Assemblyman. He praised the industry as a supporter of national morale.

Expect Action from "Unity" Committee

Further action on industry "unity," which embraces many aspects of business and public relations, is expected to come out of the second meeting of the United Motion Picture Industry's subcommittee on trade practices and adjustment of disputes, scheduled for next Tuesday, again in New York.

A specific trade practice program, to supplant or implement the current consent decree, may come out of that meeting. Distributors and exhibitors at the first meeting, with reports of subcommittees on taxation, goodwill, the industry's good name, and priorities heard from, had settled down to form a trade practice program considering all aspects now troubling the industry—when the Department of Justice released its report on the decree's first year.

Thereupon ensued caution, in view of the Department's reiterated desire for theatre-distributor divorcement, and the still pending New York, Buffalo and Oklahoma City anti-trust suits; and the business of setting up machinery and practices to end squabbles in the industry was shifted to the special subcommittee, which talked for an additional week and then adjourned without acting.

UMPI Seeks Permanent Office

Tuesday begins more talk, and it is anticipated something may occur. Meanwhile, temporary offices of the UMPI are at New York's Hotel Astor, and permanent offices are being sought. Proponents of industry unity assert the organization known as UMPI may become virtually the "Hays office" of the "whole" industry: adjusting its disputes, forming its particular laws, handling its public relations, performing its research, interceding with public authorities, seeking necessary legislation, performing the myriad tasks the industry as a whole needs.

The Independent Theatre Owners of Washington, Idaho, and Alaska will meet Tuesday at the New Washington Hotel, Seattle. Some exhibitors from Oregon will attend. James Hone, executive secretary, said the usual banquet would not be held.

Mahan Is Honored in New Haven, Albany

More than 100 Connecticut and out-of-state film men gathered for the testimonial dinner to J. Roger Mahan Monday night, February 9th, at the Hotel Taft in New Haven. Mr. Mahan, recently promoted to manager of the New York Warner exchange after two years as New Haven manager, was presented with a farewell gift.

At the same time the guests welcomed Philip Sherman, new manager for New Haven, who has spent three years as manager in Montreal for the company. Barney Pitkin, RKO manager, was chairman of the dinner, Harry F. Shaw, Loew-Poli division manager, was toastmaster, and Samuel Seletsky, Republic manager, treasurer.

Attending from the Warner home office were: Roy Haines, Arthur Sachson, Sam Lefkowitz, Harry Decker, Gus Solomon, Leo Jacobi, Irving Rothenberg, Lee Mayer, George Waldeman and Joseph Vergesslich.

Talks on Advertising

Jean Benoit Levy, French film writer and director, spoke on "The Role of the Motion Picture in Advertising" Tuesday evening at the New School for Social Research in New York, as part of his series of lectures on "The Motion Picture, Is Present and Its Future." Scenes from four films, "Metamorphose," "A Child Went Forth," "L'Amienata" and "Fascinating Yosemite" were used to illustrate the talk.

FOLLOW THAT BEE-LINE TO A BOX-OFFICE HONEY!

THE WHOLE INDUSTRY'S BUZZING

about Paramount's new kind of full-length Technicolor cartoon feature — a film packed with solid entertainment FOR GROWNUPS!

A TOP FLIGHT! FEATURE PICTURE-In Cartoon!

Laughs... suspense... excitement... romance... melody—a new kind of cartoon slanted for solid adult appeal! Hit parade tunes by Hoagy Carmichael and other top composers... characters so real your patrons will try to guess the flesh-and-blood stars they're based on! A story filled with comedy and suspense—the kids will have to wait their turn in line for "Mr. Bug"!

THE NETWORKS ARE HUMMING WITH THESE SWELL TUNES!

Glenn Miller, Sammy Kaye and others have recorded 'em; top bands everywhere are featuring them on the air. Listen for:

"WE'RE THE COUPLE
IN THE CASTLE"

"BOY, OH BOY"

"KATY DID, KATY DIDN'T"

"BEE MY LITTLE BABY BUMBLE BEE"

"I'LL DANCE AT YOUR WEDDING"

ADULT APPEAL.

"Children and adults alike will rejoice... grand entertainment for any audience... songs should go far!"

—Showmen's Trade Review

"Sock favorite for the juvenile trade and a delightful novelty for adults... songs worthy of note!"

—Film Daily

"Destined to find plenty of favor... adults will like it!"

—Daily Variety

"... a new world of make-believe... an amusing fable for young and old alike... songs to have the customer humming!"

—Motion Picture Daily

C. BAGLEY BEETLE... Master-mind of the insect underworld... poses as a philanthropist while cooking up trouble!

HONEY and HOPPITY... Try your hand at "casting" this team! Are they patterned on Bob Hope and Madeleine Carroll?

SMACK—The Mosquito... He's the killer, the dirty-work specialist, for Beetle!

SWAT—The Fly... Many a professional mugg in Hollywood claims the honor of inspiring this fingerman of the Bugville mob!

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

Mr. BUG GOES TO TOWN

Produced by Max Fleischer • Directed by Dave Fleischer
Copyright 1941 by Paramount Pictures, Inc.

IN TECHNICOLOR

Book it NOW—and grab your share of the heavy Boxoffice suga

ASIDES and INTERLUDES

By JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM

For four weeks Life Magazine carried on formal negotiations with His Majesty's Ministers of the Royal Yugoslav Government in London for permission to take pictures of His Majesty, King Peter, at college, in England. At last came a call from M. Knezevic, Minister of the Court: Would Life's representatives please call at the Yugoslav Legation, 41 Upper Grosvenor Street, London? Life's representatives would. And, so Life's Lael Laird hotfooted over to the Legation and was ushered into an ornate living room where an open fire burned in the grate. There he heard read a formal declaration of an appointment with the young King for the following day, at Claire College, Cambridge. There he found the King, a King with a coat lapel carrying a little gold trademark: "Twentieth Century-Fox."

Gene Autry, of radio and screen, is hoarding horse-meat. He just bought six more bronchos, for a total of 196.

Motion picture people, like all others of the land, can have one comforting thought this U. S. income-tax pay day. Since March 15th, the regular deadline, falls on a Sunday, all will get one extra day to pay up.

Ohio independent exhibitor leader Pete Wood, visiting the office of William Evatt, state tax commissioner, at Columbus, the other day, noticed an old-fashioned print under which appeared the following: "The Art of Taxation consists in so Plucking the Goose as to procure the largest quantity of Feathers with the least amount of Hissing. . . ."

What might at first glance appear to be timely exploitation of the nation's new "war time" are the two current newspaper advertisements of Keith's and RKO Palace theatres, respectively, standing side by side in Cincinnati newspapers, with titles boldly shouting: "Remember"—"All Through the Night."

Movie press agent Lynn Farnol, of Broadway and Hollywood Boulevard, and now Air Corps Captain in charge of press relations at Mitchel Field, on Long Island, tells the story of the tough Master Sergeant who was aloft with a young flying cadet on the latter's first piloting trip which was proceeding quite smoothly until the fledgling suddenly noticed that his oil gauge registered zero. He turned to his crew chief, a grizzly old Master Sergeant, and moaned: "Guess we'd better bring her down quick, we're in for trouble." "Hell no," bellowed the sergeant, "she's running alright, ain't she?" The pilot agreed but confessed he was appalled by the gauge. Whereupon the Sergeant handed him a pair of pliers, told him to break the glass on the gauge, pull up the indicator to "full" and keep on flying.

The Nelson Rockefeller-John Hay Whitney Museum of Modern Art, in New York, with its film library and other media engaged in spreading things cultural, has started a campaign of its own to furnish our soldiers in camp with books—on ART!

Film folk down Mexico way are 'chipping-in' to buy a thousand of Mexico's best cigars for Winston Churchill in London.

ON the afternoon of last Monday, when fire was burning destruction through the giant steamship Normandie, tied for two years to a berth in New York's North (Hudson) River, there was being screened more or less privately, for the first time, at the Rockefeller-Whitney Museum of Modern Art less than a mile away, a new war-and-defense picture showing how ship sabotage might be perpetrated and how precautions might be taken against it.

"Safeguarding Military Information" was the subject. It is one of the army training films made at 20th Century-Fox studio in California, under the supervision of Lieutenant Colonel Darryl F. Zanuck and in behalf of the Research Council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. Prints are now being distributed to more than 12,000 theatres by the War Activities Committee of the motion picture industry, to warn all the public, as well as the soldier, against careless chatter in wartime.

The burning of the S.S. Normandie at New York makes the reel more than timely, of course. The picture opens with a glimpse of furtive figures aboard a passenger liner at her dock. The watchman turns his back and the pair slip overboard. A few minutes later the watchman punches his time clock. There is an explosion. Subsequent shots, clipped from newsreels, show the disaster of a burning ship. An even more horrible, and timely, example of the ruin of sabotage could have been added to the picture Tuesday with the insertion of newsreels of the burning French liner at its pier in New York.

The marquee of the Miami Theatre on New York's Sixth Avenue told a lurid tale, last Friday, with this billing: SEE THE WHITE SLAVERS LURE GIRLS TO VICE ALSO CHARLES CHAPLIN.

With great graveness, the Red Networks of National Broadcasting in New York solemnly reports that its recording division has suffered its "first loss through enemy action during World War II." It discloses that a shipment of Thesaurus recordings on the way to Amalgamated Wireless, Ltd., New Zealand had gone down on the ship.

Time was when Sophie Tucker insisted to us that she was to be known as "The Last of the Red Hot Mamas." Then came vitamin pills, or something and new quick-stepping comebacks for Sophie around Broadway. Now she calls herself "The Life of the Red Hot Mamma," which appellation she has appended to her autobiography, to come out in the Spring with the flowers.

Walter Cameron, accredited with being the man who played the gun-totin' hero in the screen's first motion picture story, "The Great Train Robbery," is still in the movies, though now 73. He rents horses and donkeys to Hollywood studios, for picture-taking.

This Want Ad appeared the other day in the Golconda (Ill.) Herald-Enterprise:

WANTED—Single man, too old for military service, to take care of my place while I go Jap hunting.—Ralph Cox, Renshaw, Illinois.

Corinne Luchaire, called the "heart-stopping heroine" of the French film industry a few years ago, has been charged in London with being France's No. 1 woman 'Quisling' and friend of Otto Abetz, Hitler's Ambassador to occupied France.

Miss Luchaire will best be remembered in the motion picture "Prison Without Bars," an Alexander Korda production of 1938, released in the U. S. by United Artists.

London's Daily Mirror said, "She has become the great lady among the French Quislings. At her parties are to be found the most notorious collaborationists and most members of the Paris press. La Luchaire's father is Jean Luchaire, pro-Nazi editor of Le Nouveau Temps."

Comedy isn't the 'correct thing' to insert into a story concerning the rescue of the survivors of an American boat torpedoed off the Atlantic Coast, but in accord with the order, "Keep 'em Laughing," here goes:

The night couldn't have been colder and the survivors were gathered around their portable radio in a lifeboat. Alone in the blackness of the cold night they were able to get one station, faintly. The station was WOR and the program was Jerry Lawrence's "Moonlight Saving Time," echoing songs until a commercial cut in with, "There is no need for you to be uncomfortable these winter days, for a few dollars a week you can own a . . . fur coat."

Up Halifax way, in the Canadian Province of Newfoundland, there's a Chinese sailor, a ship's steward, who thinks he has something for some Hollywood producer. He is Ma Ming, once an actor in his native China, who was on a steamer torpedoed by an Axis submarine about 150 miles off the Canadian coast. The ill-fated ship was manned almost entirely by Chinese. Over 100 died in open lifeboats and on rafts alone, drifting for days, in extreme cold, in pain, without food.

The cast of "Refugees of China," written, produced and directed by Ming, was composed entirely of the few survivors from that sea attack, who gave some extra special attention to the funeral episode at sea. The climax has a melodramatic incident, conceived by Ming, showing a big Jap army general on the floor, lifeless, of course, with his shaggy head dangling about on the sword of a bigger Chinese general.

Those spot announcements promoting Navy recruiting which you have been hearing on your radio these many weeks, are a brain-child of U. S. Navy officials. Advertising agency radio personnel is intrigued with the copy calls like: "Men, will you allow your families to be enslaved by the Fascist tyrants as they are in Italy? No, of course you won't! You must fight back at them and destroy the savage beasts who want to role the world with bloody hands!" Or this one: "America! we've got a job on our hands—the job of smashing an insolent and depraved Axis," to cite but two examples.

Radio writers opine that if such emphasis on "horror" had been written by them, the admirals would have fire broadsides.

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

By WILLIAM R. WEAVER
Hollywood Editor

ESTEEMED EDITOR:

Out of the commotion which came in the wake of the war declaration the Town has acquired an accumulation of committees so vast and varied that few who don't have to, can keep them distinguished, one from the other, much less remember their names.

It is in Hollywood as it was in Washington, and of course still is, save that Hollywood has not acquired the Washington habit of initialing its agencies at birth for ready reference.

Thus the HVCSSR is not as yet a symbol recognized by the headline reader.

But the HVCSSR is a power in the affairs of the community, the industry and the nation's war effort.

HVCSSR is what the initialers would have to call the Hollywood Victory Committee for Stage, Screen and Radio if they adhered to precedent.

Fortunately, they do not.

More fortunately, the HVCSSR doesn't either.

For if it did, the Victory Committee would have turned out by now to be no more than another link in the chain of Hollywood's failures in the field of public relations.

In point of fact the Victory Committee, under executive directorship of Fred W. Beetsen, has lifted bodily and a bit gloriously out of chaos the intricate and mine-strewn matter of fulfilling requests for the free services of talent in behalf of a multiplicity of public interests.

Fruits of the Victory's Committee's endeavors since its formation following outbreak of war have been many and are beginning to be identified by the public at large as just what they are, flowerings of a cooperation and singleness of purpose such as are not to be found in all the annals of the entertainment profession.

Spread of this realization that the democracy of entertainment has coalesced, pooled its armaments and set up a High Command to direct its forces, will expedite the functioning of the Committee and swell the flow of the munitions of morale.

Requests for the services of talent have come, in the past, from all varieties of petitioners to all varieties of Hollywood agencies—to studios, to guilds, to actors, agents, industry executives, civic authorities, to branch offices of national organizations and to merely happenstance residents of the community.

All varieties of results, including some inadvertent neglects and some unwarranted refusals, some tangibles injurious to all parties and some intangibles estranging important groups, have eventuated.

What was everybody's business was nobody's business and didn't get done.

How much goodwill was lost cannot be reckoned.

Some of the illwill sustained is of record.

But establishment of the Victory Committee put an end to all of that.

LOAD SPREAD

The production load of 40 pictures in shooting stage was spread evenly over the studio scene at weekend with Universal shooting six, Warners and Columbia five each, MGM, 20th Century-Fox, Paramount, RKO Radio and Republic four each, Monogram two and PRC one.

The titles:

COMPLETED

MGM
Mokey Delano
Tortilla Flat
MONOGRAM
Black Dragons
PRC
Dawn Patrol
PARAMOUNT
Palm Beach Story

STARTED

COLUMBIA
Just Another Dame
MONOGRAM
Man with Two Lives
PRC
Gun Shy
PARAMOUNT
Forest Rangers
Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch

SHOOTING

COLUMBIA
Hello Annapolis
Highly Irregular
Gentlemen Misbehave
Ellery Queen and the Corpse
MGM
Sunday Punch
Ship Ahoy
Mrs. Miniver
Her Cardboard Lover
PARAMOUNT
My Heart Belongs to Daddy
Black Curtain
RKO-RADIO
Journey Into Fear
My Favorite Spy
Tuttles of Tahiti
Mexican Spitfire and the Ghost

RKO-RADIO
Scattergood at the Races
20TH-FOX
Whispering Ghosts
Tales of Manhattan
Million-Dollar Ghosts
UNIVERSAL
What's Cookin'

REPUBLIC
Shepherd of the Ozarks
SMALL Friendly Enemies
UNIVERSAL
Unseen Enemy
WARNER
Desperate Journey

REPUBLIC
Riders of the Range
Girl from Alaska
Affairs of Jimmy
Valentine
20TH-FOX
Moontide
My Gal Sal
This Above All
Ten Gentlemen from West Point
UNIVERSAL
Eagle Squadron
Spoilers
Saboteur
Butch Minds the Baby
Lady in a Jam
WARNER
Gay Sisters
Shadow of Their Wings
Escape from Crime
Yankee Doodle Dandy

Constituents of the Committee are empowered representatives of the Screen Actors Guild, Actors Equity Association, Theatre Authority, Federation of Radio Artists, Artists Managers Guild, Association of Motion Picture Producers, all radio networks, Radio Writers Guild, Screen Directors Guild, Screen Publicists Guild and the Screen Writers Guild.

It's a strange and far-fetched request for talent that doesn't land in custody of one or another of the constituent bodies, which transmits it at once to the Committee, and even that kind of request gets transmitted nowadays because everybody in the community knows where it belongs.

A good many of the other committees formed since outbreak of war are still committees on paper only.

Some others, by reason of their nature, are functioning silently, well or otherwise as the case may be.

But there is no secret about the success of the HVCSSR.

It gets things done—a March of Dimes airshow, a Red Cross benefit in New Orleans, a President's Birthday Ball broadcast from Hollywood, the list is long and lengthening—and gets on about its business of doing the next thing on its laden agenda.

It works.

▽

Erasure of Jimmy Fidler's daily column by the Los Angeles Times last week went unnoticed by many members of a community which had been unanimously Fidler-conscious a few months back when the columnist was telling the Congressmen his version of Hollywood as was and as should be.

At that point, you'll recall, the Times ignored pressures of many kinds, including the persistent and the implemented, which had as their objective the abatement of the Fidler copy.

Between then and now the name of Fidler has been in the news headlines as well as atop his column on a number of occasions, and the investigations which took him to Washington and the witness stand has vanished into the ages.

But none of these matters have bearing upon the Times' decision to discontinue publication of the Fidler column.

No, indeed.

Managing Editor L. M. Hotchkiss of the Times says the reason for the discontinuance was "a matter of space."

Whether "a matter of space" in time or in the Times is not specified.—W. R. W.

▽

Warner Brothers announced last week that the company had signed Norman Krasna to a long-term contract under which he will write his own original stories and direct them. The first will be "Princess O'Rourke." A former junior member of the press department in the first World War, Mr. Krasna entered show business as author of "Louder, Please," a Broadway play, which he followed with "Small Miracle," and other plays. Among his recent screen stories were "The Devil and Miss Jones" and "Flame of New Orleans."

▽

Ben Hecht was signed to a long-term contract as writer, director and producer by Twentieth Century-Fox, the company announced this week in New York. Mr. Hecht will work directly with Darryl F. Zanuck.

▽

Universal has closed a deal under which it will share Jon Hall's contract with Samuel Goldwyn, and will be featured in Walter Wanger's "Eagle Squadron" for Universal.

FROM THE DEEP, ROMANTIC SOUTH COMES ANOTHER
THRILLING DRAMA OF LOVE AND INTRIGUE!

REPUBLIC
PICTURES

presents

Joan BLONDELL • John WAYNE

"LADY FOR A NIGHT"

with

RAY MIDDLETON

Philip Merivale • Blanche Yurka • Edith Barrett
Leonid Kinskey • The Hall Johnson Choir

Leigh Jason — Director

Original screen play by Isabel Dawn and Boyce DeGaw
Based on a story by Garrett Fort

BUY U.S. DEFENSE BONDS

AAA NAMES ARBITRATORS FOR PANELS IN THE FIELD

New Appointments To Be Permanent, Replacing Last Year's Panels

Panels of arbitrators for the 31 motion picture arbitration tribunals are now being revised and augmented by the American Arbitration Association, administrator of the consent decree's arbitration system. The first three new panels, for Washington, Chicago and Cleveland, were announced this week.

Last year the panels were appointed for one-year terms. The new lists of business men, educators, attorneys and professional men are being set up as a permanent panel. Many members of the original lists have accepted continuing service. The majority of those who served on cases during the first year of arbitration are also on the new panels. Lists for other cities will be announced this month.

Changes in the first three panels amount to about ten per cent of the membership. Arbitrators have left the panels chiefly because of calls to government or military service during the past year. Only a few have resigned because of new connections with the motion picture industry. These include real estate men and lawyers. The consent decree precludes service as an arbitrator by any person financially or otherwise associated with motion pictures.

Members of the panels are:

Washington

Edwin M. Bayly; William G. Buchanan, professor of business administration, Georgetown University; Harvey T. Casbarian, controller, University of Maryland; Leon Chatelain, Jr., architect; A. S. Donaldson, Lansburgh Bros.; Proctor L. Dougherty, consulting engineer; Professor H. F. Harding, George Washington University; Al. Philip Kane, law professor, Georgetown University; Wayne Kendrick, C.P.A.; F. H. Kenworthy, Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co.; Corneal J. Mack, general manager, Mayflower Hotel; Thomas P. Morgan, Jr., Mutual Life Insurance Company; Edgar Morris, sales executive; Henry S. Owens, accountant; John E. Parker, broker; Benjamin Regardie, C.P.A.; Vincent Saccardi, district manager, Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.; R. Strunk, insurance; Major General Kenzie W. Walker and Lawrence E. Williams, vice president, Fries, Beall & Shark Co.

The attorneys on the Washington panel are:

Judge Bolitha J. Laws, U. S. District Court; Charles S. Baker, H. Russell H. Bishop, J. Edward Burroughs, Jr.; Edmund D. Campbell, Joseph A. Cantrell, John J. Carmody, Brice Claggett, Robert F. Cogswell, Oscar Coolican, G. Bowdoin Craighill, Sefton Darr, L. M. Denit, Nugent Dodds, Charles D. Drayton, Ben S. Fisher, Norman B. Frost, Colonel Christopher B. Garnett, Leo P. Harlow, Nelson T. Hartson, Francis W. Hill, Jr., president, Bar Association of D. C.; Woodson P. Houghton, Edmund L. Jones, H. C. Kilpatrick, Milton King, John E. Laskey, Paul E. Lesh, Joseph C. McGarraghy, Louis H. Mann, G. Kibby Munson, Kenneth N. Parkinson, Julius I. Peyser, Stanley I. Posner, E. Barrett Prettyman, Joseph A. Rafferty, Elwood H. Seal, A. K. Shipe, Harry S. Weender, and John J. Wilson.

Chicago

William Bachrach, vice president, The Dearborn Co.; Roger K. Ballard, president, Roger K. Ballard & Co.; Charles S. J. Banks, C.P.A.; Joseph B. Costello, C.P.A. James A. Cunningham, secretary and assistant treasurer, Peoples Gas Light and Coke Co.; H. E. Devereaux, Lake Shore Trust and Savings Bank; Cyrus J. Dunachie, Stein, Hall Mfg. Co.; George P. Ellis, C.P.A.; Alexander Eulenberg, David Himmelblau & Company; John L. Griffith, Commissioner of Athletics, Big Ten Conference; Charles Z. Henkle, vice president, Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Co.; Kenneth R. King, George Rosseter & Co. Adolph Kroch, Kroch's Bookstores, Inc.; William M. Layman, M. S. Kuhns & Co.; Arthur R. Martin, Brad-

DON'T WASTE WAR TIME

"Gentlemen, we are at war" were the opening remarks of a motion picture arbitrator as he began a hearing last week.

At New Haven, Leonard S. Horner, executive of the Hartford firm of Niles, Bement & Pond, and arbitrator of the clearance complaint of the Grand theatre, New Haven, served notice to attorneys, distributors' representatives and theatremen at the hearing that he would allow them to waste no time. The starting time for hearings was advanced to 9:15 A.M. from 11:30 and the arbitrator kept the sessions moving swiftly through three days of hearings.

ner Smith & Company; John W. McClure, secretary-treasurer, National Hardwood Lumber Association; Harry C. McCluskey, treasurer, Kellogg Switchboard & Supply Co.; Joseph A. Maloney, Barrow, Wade, Guthrie & Co.; Charles Melvoin, Altschuler, Melvoin and Glasser; W. A. Patterson, president, United Air Lines; Sidney L. Parry, vice president, Chicago Stock Exchange; Paul W. Pettengill; Raymond E. Rickbeil; George V. Rountree; Lewis J. Ruskin, president, Ford Hopkins Co.; Walter Dill Scott, Northwestern University; Harry E. Snyder, Howard F. Spurgeon, president, Spurgeon Mercantile Co.; H. H. Stevens, H. L. Stevens & Co.; W. T. Sunley, vice president, American Academy of Accountancy; Russell Winslow, Stevenson-Jordan & Harrison.

The Chicago attorneys are: Harold J. Clark, Samuel G. Clawson, George E. Frazer, Wilbur A. Giffen, Arthur J. Goldberg, Jacob I. Grossman, Richard F. Kuhns, John S. Lord, Albert G. McCaleb, Thomas C. McConnell, Hayes McKinney, William A. McSwain, Leo T. Norville, E. Milton Pashkow, Drennan J. Slater, James A. Sprowl and Benjamin Wham.

Cleveland

Charles G. Arbuthnot, professor of business and Economics, Western Reserve University; W. E. Atkinson, assistant treasurer, Cleveland Trust Company; Percy W. Brown, partner, Hornblower & Weeks; Lawrence A. Cordrey, assistant cashier, The Union Bank of Commerce Company; C. Herbert Cox, accountant; Walter A. Coy, accountant; Louis D. Cull, general manager, Cleveland Chain and Manufacturing Company; Professor William W. Dawson, Western Reserve University; Walter T. Dubmore, Dean of Law, Western Reserve University; Walter A. Goldsmith, president, Walter A. Goldsmith Company; Albert P. Gram, credit manager, Eaton Manufacturing Company; James H. Herron.

Ralph B. Hunter, assistant manager, Equitable Life Assurance Company; E. H. Jaynes, secretary, Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company; J. W. Lerner, Harshaw Chemical Company; William J. P. Noonan, partner, Scovel, Wellington and Company, accountant; J. A. Schabel, Credit and office manager, Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company; Earl L. Shaner, president, The Penton Publishing Company; Professor Earl L. Shoup, department of political science, Western Reserve University; L. W. Stolte, Fairbanks, Morse & Company; Birkett L. Williams; Lewis Wintermute, accountant.

Attorneys on the Cleveland panel are: Charles M. Buss, J. Virgil Cory, Dan B. Cull, Leonard H. Davis, William R. Fairgrieve, Hal H. Grisold, Marvin C. Harrison, H. B. Howells, A. N. Jappe, John H. Kapp, Judge George Kerr, Abraham Kollin, Paul E. Lees, James C. Logue, John D. Marshall, L. L. Marshall, Harry F. Pattie, Harry F. Payer, Frank H. Pelton, George M. Roudebush, Robert H. Sanborn, Clare M. Vrooman, Sidney N. Weitz, William B. Woods, Otto J. Zinner and Howard Burns.

New York

The Liberty theatre, Freehold, N. J., won a reduction in clearance on Friday from two theatres in Asbury Park while the margins held by three other Asbury Park theatres were maintained in an award by John K. Watson, New York lawyer serving as arbitrator. It was Case No. 16. Mr. Watson ordered RKO and Warners to reduce their respective 12 and 14 day clearances to the Savoy theatre over the Liberty to one day and to the Lyric over the Liberty to three days. The margins held by the Walter Reade circuit's Mayfair, and the St. James and Paramount theatres in Asbury over the Liberty was judged reasonable.

Des Moines

The first three Des Moines arbitration cases, filed simultaneously in mid-January (Motion Picture Herald, January 24, page 18) were withdrawn together on Monday when the complaining exhibitors reached settlements with the distributors.

Lee and William Tiermeier, operators of the Avon theatre, Burlington, Ia., who filed cases two and three on clearance against Warners and RKO respectively withdrew on Friday.

Jack Kuech, operator of the Gem theatre, Charles City, Iowa, withdrew his some run demand, Des Moines first case, against Paramount.

Chicago

Two new cases were filed with the Chicago arbitration tribunal last Friday.

A clearance complaint was made by the Sun Theatre Corporation headed by George T. Valos operating the Wheaton Theatre, Wheaton, Ill., against Paramount, 20th Century-Fox, RKO, Warners, and Loews, Inc. It charges that the clearance given the Arcadia Theatre, St. Charles, Ill., which is operated by the Fred Anderson circuit, is unreasonable.

The Rio Theatre Corporation, Hammond, Indiana, in a complaint signed by J. J. Cooney, vice-president, against the five consenting companies says that the clearance granted the Parthenon, Paramount, Orpheum, and Calumet theatres, all in Hammond, is unreasonable. It asks that a maximum clearance be set between all theatres involved, in all future contracts. It is case No. 14.

Buffalo

A twelfth arbitration complaint was filed at Buffalo on Friday by M. M. Konczakowski, independent operator who asks a reduction in clearances granted by 20th-Fox, RKO and Loew's to the Apollo theatre. Mr. Konczakowski asserted that the seven day margin held by the Apollo, operated by Basil Brothers was unreasonable. Both Basil Brothers and Mr. Konczakowski have had previous arbitration complaints. Both were withdrawn and settled.

New Haven

The three-day hearing of the arbitration complaint of J. Lewis Cannon, Jr., operator of the Grand's pictures 75 to 200 days. Harry L. 20th-Fox RKO and Warners, asking maximum clearance of 7 days after the Pequot theatre and the elimination of the Dreamland theatre's clearance, completed the fifth hearing in the territory.

John Cannon testified that he was unable to operate his 750-seat Grand successfully because the 1269-seat Pequot, intervenor, which enjoys a 14 to 30 day clearance, actually holds up the Grand's pictures 75 to 200 days.

Cleveland

Hearings on the some run complaint of the Park theatre, operator of the new Deuber theatre, Canton, Ohio, have been postponed until February 18th at the request of the complainant.

[ALSO SEE PAGE 18]

NEW "VICTORY" THEATRE CHAIR SAVES 75% CRITICAL METALS

It's comfortable, beautiful, durable

Made of materials, thoroughly tested and approved by American Seating Company's Experienced Engineers

The "Victory" Theatre Chair is here

This war-born product saves 75% in critical metals; but in beauty, comfort, and durability, it ranks with the best prewar theatre chairs.

Look it over carefully. Study its design. Test its comfort. On every point you will say, "O. K."

By replacing your present obsolete chairs now you will release many more pounds of critical metals than we will require to install modern "Victory" Chairs. The scrap iron and steel thus made available will help build planes, ships, guns, and tanks.

Yes, we'll build them as swiftly as possible so that you may have new chairs, serve your patrons, and contribute to America's Victory Program.

Dual Purpose "Victory" Chair—Dewitt Moore, member of the War Production Board (at left), sits in the new "Victory" chair, while Julian Brylawski, consultant for the motion picture industry, and H. M. Taliaferro, President of the American Seating Company, Grand Rapids, Mich., inspect the new chair.

American Seating Company

GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN

World's leader in public seating. Manufacturers of Theatre, School, Church, Auditorium, Stadium and Transportation Seating

Branch Offices and Distributors in 73 Principal Cities

50% OF CANADIAN DEALS ARE FOR PERCENTAGE

Industry Forms Advisory Council on New Price Ceiling Order

by W. M. GLADISH
in Canada

Canadian exhibitors, 20 officials of circuit and independent theatreowners, met in Toronto on Monday to organize the exhibitor section of the advisory council on price ceilings under R. G. McMullen, Administrator of Theatres and Films in Canada's Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The meeting was called by the Toronto Board of Trade. Nat Taylor, president of the Independent Theatres Association of Ontario, and head of the Twentieth Century Theatres, presided as chairman. The press was not admitted to the lengthy session.

Tuesday, composition of the council's exhibitor section was disclosed: Henry Falk, Thomas Watson, B. C. Salamis and B. E. Laxer, representing independent exhibitors; Clarence Robson of Odeon and Morris Stein of FPC, representing circuits; J. P. O'Loughlin of Twentieth Century-Fox, Louis Rosenfeld of Columbia, N. L. Nathanson of MGM, for distributors. Mr. Laxer is president of the new independent Motion Picture Exhibitors Association.

Meanwhile a few primary facts support the contention that the motion picture business in Canada, now under consideration by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board for the purpose of maintaining a price ceiling on film rentals for the war period, is unlike the operation of any other industry.

Of importance for the study of film trade conditions by the government board, it has been pointed out, is the fact that approximately 50 per cent of rental transactions is arranged on a percentage basis with the result that film distributors do not know the revenue from a picture, or even a group of pictures, until playing dates have been practically completed.

No Sure Film Guide

In many trades, the result of supply and demand can be determined to a considerable degree because of previous experience and trends, with physical commodities being handled in conformity with recognized practices and prices being marked up for a definite degree of profit. Stocks are acquired by wholesalers with an eye on retail absorption. The turnover is relatively mechanical and the revenue to be derived has a ratio with the quantity of goods released while gross profits can be controlled with a measure of business judgment.

The argument has been advanced that no development in the motion picture business provides a sure guide for future business and that the cash volume for the next year cannot be anticipated on the basis of results in the past 12 months. The opinion has been offered that a basis particularly cannot be established during the war period because of migration of workers to cities and towns with war industries, the withdrawal of men from civilian life through enlistment and economic fluctuations in other districts.

The suggestion has been thrown out that film distributors in Canada do not secure more than a reasonable share of theatre revenue when various industries are examined. It has been revealed that, over a period of 10 years, the film exchanges have received appreciably less than 30 per cent of the aggregate gross of the theatres in return for supplying the entertainment product. Because of the whims of the public, changing tastes and war conditions, there can be no guarantee that the revenue to the film exchanges at the end of 1942, or any future year, will be either above or below the 10-year average.

At the exhibitor meeting in Toronto on Monday, meanwhile, an announcement was made that a distributor's section of the advisory board already had been formed with eight general managers as members and with the independents reportedly invited to organize a nationwide association to provide central representation.

It was indicated during the discussions that the Canadian Government would take no steps to freeze film rentals until the advisory board was formed. No final decision was reached at the meeting, it was said, pending approval by several independent groups at subsequent meetings with regard to suggested developments.

Many Exhibitors Attend

Exhibitors from Montreal, Halifax, St. John, Winnipeg, Brampton and Prince Albert were represented at Monday's conference. Morrow Stein and Ben Geldsaler were present for Famous Players Canadian, and Clarence Robson and T. J. Bragg for the Odeon Circuit. The new Independent Motion Picture Exhibitors Association was represented by Barnett Laxer, president; L. E. Farrow and Henry Falk. It was expected that the conferees were scheduled to meet again next Tuesday.

One of the problems admittedly facing the the Dominion Government, it is reported, is that of applying higher levies for war financing on business operations without disrupting price ceilings, in connection with the new taxation to get under way around the close of the fiscal year, March 31st. Canadian people have been told repeatedly not to "pay more than what you paid during the period from September 15th to October 11th."

Three New York Film Companies

New York's Secretary of State has chartered the Lindenhurst Theatre Company, Bay Shore, Long Island; International Artists, Inc., New York City; and Park-Circle Theatre, Inc., also New York.

Fred Greenberg Promoted

Fred Greenberg, office manager of the Indianapolis branch of Warner Brothers for the past several years, has been made manager of the Los Angeles exchange. Claude McKean succeeds him in Indianapolis.

Majors Report On Holdovers

HOLDOVERS of current releases were reported this week by several companies:

"Bedtime Story," Columbia: Loew's Theatre, Hartford, opened January 30th.

"Johnny Eager," MGM: Century, Baltimore, opened January 21st; State, Houston, January 21st; Loew's, Akron, January 23rd, opened January 29th; United Artists, Portland.

"Sullivan's Travels," Paramount: Paramount, New York, opened January 28th; Paramount, Newark, opened February 4th; Allyn, Hartford, opened January 29th.

"Nothing But the Truth," Paramount: Palace, Milwaukee, opened January 31st.

"Louisiana Purchase," Paramount: Paramount, Springfield, opened February 4th; Capitol, Worcester, opened February 6th; Strand, Providence, February 5th; Paramount, New Haven, February 5th.

"Bahama Passage," Paramount: Denham, Denver, opened January 29th; Paramount, San Francisco, opened January 29th.

"Hellzapoppin'," Universal: Strand, Altona, opened February 3rd; Fox, Atlanta, opened January 29th; Keith's, Baltimore, January 31st; Lafayette, Buffalo, February 4th; Orpheum, New Orleans, February 5th; Stanley, Philadelphia, February 4th; Fox, St. Louis, February 5th, and Orpheum, San Francisco, January 21st.

"Wolf Man," Universal: Woods, Chicago, opened January 25th; Vogue, Los Angeles, January 23rd.

"Paris Calling," Universal: Globe, New York, opened January 17th.

Moveovers were: "Johnny Eager," MGM: opened January 14th, Fox to St. Francis, San Francisco; opened January 29th, Ohio to Broad, Columbus; January 22nd, Criterion to Tower, Oklahoma City; January 29th, Poli to Elm, Worcester; January 22nd, Poli to Palace, Hartford; January 22nd, Poli to College, New Haven. "Louisiana Purchase," Paramount: Paramount to El Rey, San Francisco, opened February 8th; "Bahama Passage," Paramount: opened February 6th, Orpheum to Paramount, Omaha.

"Woman of the Year," MGM, held over a second week at Radio City Music Hall.

"Citizen Kane," RKO, now in its 17th week at the Hawaii, Los Angeles.

"Dumbo," RKO, in its seventh week at Carthay Circle, Los Angeles.

"Look Who's Laughing," RKO, held a second week at Paramount, Los Angeles.

"Joan of Paris," RKO, held a third week at the Rivoli, New York.

"Woman of the Year," MGM, did an estimated $64,000 at the Music Hall, New York, from last Thursday to Sunday. "Sullivan's Travels," Paramount is reported to have grossed $28,000 last Saturday and Sunday at the Paramount, New York. "Son of Fury," 20th Century-Fox, took in an estimated $34,800 from last Thursday to Sunday at the Roxy, New York.

Fox and Warners Hold Premieres for New Films

With the customary fanfare and exploitation Warner Brothers on Thursday night were to present their latest aviation picture, "Captains of the Clouds." Meanwhile, one week previous on Thursday, February 5th, Twentieth Century-Fox opened "Song of the Islands" at the Lincoln theatre in Miami Beach, Fla.

Leighton McCarthy, Canada's Minister to the United States, was to be guest of honor at a luncheon for the men of the Royal Canadian Air Force who arrived in New York this week for an official visit over Lincoln's birthday and to help open "Captains of the Clouds."

The RCAF delegation was led by Air Marshals L. S. Breadner, Chief of Air Staff, and W. A. "Billy" Bishop, Canada's famous ace of the first World War. Included in this group was the air force's famous Precision Drill Squadron and the RCAF Central Band from Ottawa.

Airmen Attend Ceremonies

On Thursday morning, the 200 air force men who make up the group were to participate in ceremonies at the Eternal Light in Madison Square Garden and at City Hall, where an official RCAF ensign was to be presented by Mayor LaGuardia. A luncheon was to be held in the early afternoon at the Waldorf-Astoria. In the evening they were to attend the world premiere at the Strand theatre of "Captains of the Clouds," which was filmed recently with the cooperation of the RCAF in Canada.

Last week Twentieth Century-Fox held the world premiere of "Song of the Islands" at the Lincoln Theatre in Miami Beach and the opening night's receipts were donated to the Navy Relief Fund. Betty Grable and Jack Oakie, stars of the film, attended the premiere.

In attendance from New York were A. M. Botsford, director of advertising and publicity for Fox; Harry Ballance, southern district manager; Paul Wilson, Atlanta branch manager, and Rodney Bush, exploitation manager from the home office.

Others who attended were Harry H. Buxbaum, John Harris, Sidney Meyer, Ted Schlanger, Harry Brandt, Orson Welles, Kate Smith, Lou Holtz, Harry Richman, Lou Costello, Phil Reagan and Benny Fields.

The premiere ceremonies were broadcast from the lobby of the theatre over station WKAT.

On the following day, Friday, the picture opened simultaneously at the Lincoln, Surf, Miami and Mayfair theatres for an indefinite run.

U.A. Greets Circuit Heads

United Artists was host to circuit officials and exhibitors at a luncheon in the New York home office Thursday, February 5th, which was followed by a screening of Charlie Chaplin's new issue of "The Gold Rush."

Among those present were: Eugene Picker, John Murphy and Oscar Doob of Loew's; Harry Rosenquest, Clayton Bond and Harry Kalmine of Warners; Leonard Goldenson, Leon Netter, Sam Dembow and Edward Hyman, Paramount; Edward Alperson, Charles W. Koerner, Max Fellerman and Harold Mirisch, RKO; Spyros Skouras and William Powers, National Theatres; George Skouras and John Benas, Skouras Theatres; Sam Rinzler, Randforce; Fred Schwartz, Century Circuit; E. C. Grainger and A. J. Kearney, Shea Chain; Walter Reade and Leo Justin, Walter Reade Enterprises; Morris Jacks, Henry Rosen, Lowell Calvert and Ed Peskay.

Hartshorn Winner In FPC Campaign

Al Hartshorn, manager of the Orpheum theatre in Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., was the grand prize winner in the nine week contest, based on individual theatre profits of Famous Players Canadian Corp. Among the key theatres Tom Daley, manager of the Toronto Imperial, won the group prize; Fred Trebilcock of Shea's, Toronto, was second and Maynard Joiner of the Capitol in Vancouver, was third.

Other group winners included Manager Paul Valliere of the Capitol Theatre, Quebec City; Isser Singerman, Imperial Theatre, Ottawa; G. Hamilton Bowes, Brant Theatre, Brantford, Ont.; and Al Hartshorn, Orpheum. Winner of the Western Canadian district was Les Puglsey, manager of the Empress, Edmonton.

Advance Film Row Plans

The anticipated widenings of Vine Street sector in Philadelphia, which would mean the demolition of buildings housing the film exchanges and associated business enterprises moved a step forward this week. An ordinance under which the street would be widened into a six-lane approach to the Delaware River Bridge has been approved by the City Council's public works committee. The project will cost about $8,000,000 and is part of the $50,000,000 city-State highway improvement program for Philadelphia.

Curtis Manages Rivoli

Milt Arthur has selected Gene Curtis, formerly connected with the Schine, Famous Players Canadian and other circuits, to manage the Rivoli theatre in Long Beach, Cal. Mr. Curtis recently was publicity representative for Sally Rand on her recent Pacific tour.

Mexico Plans to Consolidate Film Material

Consolidation of Latin America with regard to closer cooperation of her picture interests, including players and workers, is the objective of an organization that is being organized here by Producer Luis Manrique and Director Julio Bracho. This enterprise has the sympathy of the Mexican government and is intended to have practical benefits, such as mutually reducing customs rates on films, as well as the fostering of film fraternity between Mexico and such great Latin American countries as Cuba, Colombia, Venezuela, Chile and the Argentine.

This organization is expected to be completed early in 1942. The national cinematographic workers union is active in this plan.

A Technicolor revival with an English version of "Alla en el Rancho Grande" ("Way Down on the Rancho Grande"), one of the most successful of Mexican films, is being prepared for release shortly by Fernando de Fuentes, its producer and director. While almost the entire original cast will be used, the revival is to have entirely new songs and music, but its theme song, "Alla en el Rancho Grande" popular in the United States, will be retained.

Sr. de Fuentes for some years managed the Cine Olimpia here when it was Paramount's display house. He quit to become a director. Then he became a producer. He is a graduate, with honors, of Tulane University and is a master of English.

Stage Shows Increasing In Popularity

In recent weeks there has been a noticeable trend to bring back stage shows, name bands presentations and legitimate plays.

In a city that goes overboard for musical shows, the Nixon theatre in Pittsburgh anticipates a prosperous six weeks with a schedule of attractions set until the end of February. Following the runs of "Arsenic and Old Lace" and the current run of "Hellzapoppin," such legitimate stage shows as "Pal Joey," "Panama Hattie" and "Louisiana Purchase" have been booked into the Nixon. Also expected are Helen Hayes in "Candle in the Wind," Katharine Cornell in "The Smiling Visitor," and a dance recital by Volez and Yolanda.

The Lyric theatre in Bridgeport, Conn., early in January inaugurated a part-week vaudeville plan, according to Harry F. Shaw, division manager. Films only will be shown Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, while vaudeville will be used during the rest of the week.

The RKO Shubert, in Cincinnati, which recently discontinued stage shows in favor of a straight film policy, has resumed its combination policy, with Martha Raye as the initial attraction.

40 in Pittsburgh

More than 40 theatres in the Pittsburgh suburbs and other nearby cities will play stage shows when traveling name bands are available, according to Joseph Hiller, head of Pittsburgh's Variety Club.

During 1941, orchestras that were booked into motion picture theatres in this territory for one-night stands or longer, were: Phil Spitalny, Tommy Dorsey, Ted Lewis, Abe Lyman, Erskine Hawkins with the Ink Spots, Cab Calloway, Artie Shaw, Bob Chester, Alvino Rey, Johnny Long, Paul Whiteman, Charlie Barnett, Ted Weems, Vincent Lopez, Jack Little, Herbie Kay, Sammy Kaye, Gene Krupa, Jan Savitt, Ella Fitzgerald, George Hall, Gus Arnheim, Grey Gordon, Lang Thompson, Mal Hallett, Russ Morgan, Teddy Powell, Fatts Waller, Johnny Davis, Tony Pastor, Jan Garber, Raymond Scott, Tommy Tucker, Shep Fields, Vaughn Monroe, Frankie Masters, Jack Teagarden, Ina Mae Hutton, Blue Barron, Maurice Spitalny and Baron Elliott.

Long established bands are usually the best box-office draws, Mr. Hiller said.

Shea's Buffalo theatre has returned to stage and musical attractions, according to Vincent R. McFaul, general manager of the Shea circuit in Buffalo, N. Y. For the opening program Cab Calloway and his Cotton Club orchestra was the feature attraction.

Vaudeville has been resumed Saturdays only at the Colonial theatre in Portsmouth, N. H.

Other theatres have found the policy of presenting stage shows not quite as successful as they had hoped and have dropped this phase of the program.

The Post Street in Spokane, Wash., has eliminated vaudeville and has contracted for second-run showings of Universal, RKO, Columbia and United Artists. The Rex in that city has also abandoned its stage show policy and now has a straight film policy, with three changes weekly.

In Columbus, Ohio, the RKO Palace, which several weeks ago adopted a stage show and film policy, has reverted to straight pictures at the previous scale of 30 and 47 cents admission for matinee and evening, respectively.

Throckmorton, Shannon Promoted at RCA

George K. Throckmorton, for the past five years president of the RCA Manufacturing Company, Inc., of Camden, N. J., was elected chairman of the executive committee of that company on Friday, February 6th. Robert Shannon, former executive vice-president, was elected president.

The promotion of RCA's two senior manufacturing executives was announced by David Sarnoff, president of the Radio Corporation of America and chairman of the board of the RCA Manufacturing Company.

Membership of the executive committee of the manufacturing company, as announced by Mr. Sarnoff, is composed of the following members of the company's board of directors; G. K. Throckmorton, chairman; Gano Dunn, J. G. Harbord, DeWitt Millhauser, David Sarnoff, O. S. Schairer and Robert Shannon.

The company operates five large manufacturing plants in the United States—at Camden and Harrison, N. J.; Indianapolis and Bloomington, Ind., and in Hollywood. The construction of a new radio tube plant at Lancaster, Pa., was recently announced.

Chicago Amusement Machines Permitted with Licensing

The operation of "Soundies" or "Panorams" in the city of Chicago, was clarified last week when Assistant Corporation Counsel Martin H. Foss informed Police Commissioner Allman that such devices might be installed legally in Chicago taverns and other places of business on payment of a fourth class amusement license at a cost of $200 a year.

In accordance with the opinion rendered by Mr. Foss, Sergt. Joseph H. Healy, in charge of the police motion picture censor board, notified owners of the 14 machines, operating in the city, that they must purchase the licenses. Films for the machines are subject to the same censorship as regular films and permits are issued by the police department at a cost of $3.00 per 1,000 foot reel, the same as other pictures.

In Harrisburg, Pa., a hearing last week in the petition of Harrisburg Soundies, Inc., to enjoin the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board from requiring amusement permits for the use of automatic panoram machines in licensed premises was postponed until Monday, February 9th.

The counsel for the Liquor Control Board contends that the machines, which have small screen motion picture action of orchestras playing music, are motion pictures prohibited under the Liquor Act on premises where beer and liquor are sold.

The proposed licensing of film machines in Milwaukee, dormant for the last several months, has been revived with a suggestion for a fee of $10 per year for operators and $25 a year for up to 25 machines for distributors with $2 for each additional machine.

Film Course Opens

The Institute of Film Technique of the City College of New York has enrolled students for three basic courses to be given during the spring term. "Film At Work," a course in the use of fact film, "Fundamentals of Film Production," and "Trends in Film Progress," a film history course, are the three subjects being conducted at the Institute.

Robb-Rowley Meeting

The managers' convention of the Robb & Rowley Circuit in Corpus Christi, Tex., was held Tuesday and Wednesday, February 10th and 11th, at the Plaza Hotel.

Comedies Lead Long-Run Shows

Of the 11 long-run legitimate plays currently on Broadway, four are comedies heading the list, with musicals next and only one drama in the longest-run field.

"Life With Father," now in its third year, is first, having opened November 8th, 1939. Next is "My Sister Eileen," which opened December 26th, 1940, now in its second year. "Arsenic and Old Lace," January 10th, 1941 and "Claudia," February 12th, 1941, are both in second year runs. "Watch on the Rhine," the drama by Lillian Hellman, opened April 1st, 1941.

Other long-run shows are the musicals: "Lady in the Dark," September 2nd, 1941; "Best Foot Forward," October 1st, 1941; "Let's Face It," October 29th, 1941; "High Kickers," October 31st, 1941; and "Blithe Spirit," November 5th, 1941, and "Spring Again," November 10th, 1941.

"Claudia," chalked up its 426th showing on Thursday. John Golden, producer, became the first Broadway showman to have sponsored six plays each of which ran for more than 425 performances. "Claudia," the Rose Franken comedy adapted from Miss Franken's series of short stories, is playing at the Booth Theatre. Golden's other productions were "Lightnin'," 1,291 performances; "The First Year," "Seventh Heaven," "Three Wise Fools" and "Turn to the Right." George Abbott, the late Sam. Harris and the Shuberts each had five plays which ran on Broadway for 425 showings or more.

Two new plays entered the boards this week while four others closed over the weekend. "They Should Have Stood in Bed," a farce by Leo Rifkin, Frank Tarloff and David Shaw, opened on Friday at the Mansfield Theatre. Produced by Sam H. Grisman and Alexander H. Cohen, the newcomer presents Tony Canzoneri in the role of a prizefighter. Gilbert Miller brought "Heart of a City," to the Henry Miller Theatre on Thursday night. Written by Leslie Storm, this play is about backstage life in a London music hall during an air raid.

The four shows which closed were "Brooklyn, U. S. A.," the play which told the story of Murder, Inc., and had only 56 performances; "Flowers of Virtue," written and directed by Marc Connelly, representing his return to Broadway after a four-year absence, which had only four showings; "Clash by Night," the Clifford Odets play which ran 49 shows, and "Hedda Gabler," which closed after 12 performances.

Putz Named Branch Salesman In MGM Minneapolis Shift

Alfred C. Putz has been moved up from office manager to the newly created post of sales manager of the Minneapolis MGM branch, with Arthur Zuelch promoted from head booker to succeed Mr. Putz.

At the same time it was announced that L. H. Coan had resigned from the sales force. Other changes include the appointment of R. W. Wilson in the South Dakota territory, the promotion of Raymond Haberland from the shipping department to booker and Le Roy Smith to the position of head booker succeeding Mr. Zuelch.

Publish Paramount Songs

In an unprecedented step, Paramount has announced that two companies will publish the seven songs which are featured in "The Fleet's In." Famous Music Corp. will publish four of the numbers, and the Paramount Music Corp. will publish the remaining three.

IN NEWS REELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 44, Vol. 24.—Jap diplomats in Washington....Pearl Harbor films....Marines receive commissions....Girl machinists in training....Sports.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 45, Vol. 24.—"Normandie" fire....AEF in Ireland....Pacific defenses....U. S. Submarine disaster....British take Bardia....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 242, Vol. 13.—Pearl Harbor films....Pacific fleet moves....New marines at Quantico....Jap aliens rounded up....Girls train for war jobs....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 243, Vol. 13.—"Normandie" fire....AEF in Ireland....San Francisco landslide....Labor Board in Washington....Pacific defenses....Submarine disaster....British in Africa....Sports.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 47.—Skating at Madison Square Garden....Girl life guards....Congressman's victory suit....Pearl Harbor films.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 48.—"Normandie" fire....New York Millrose games....Protest Congress pension....Action in Singapore....Action in Libya....AEF lands in Ireland.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 47, Vol. 13.—Pearl Harbor films....Gas masks issued in Hawaii....Victory suit modeled....Soldiers' musical show....Sports.

RKO-PATHE NEWS—No. 48, Vol. 13.—"Normandie" fire....Millrose Meet....AEF in Ireland....Pacific defenses....Singapore films....Labor Board meets....Melvyn Douglas in Washington.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 56, Vol. 15.—Pearl Harbor films....Jap aliens rounded up....Welles in Rio....Soldiers' musical show....Sports.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 57, Vol. 15.—"Normandie" fire....AEF in Ireland....Coast defense preparations....32 lost on Submarine....On the Libyan front....Two die in air crash....War labor board sees FDR....Scout anniversary celebrated....Police hit bulls-eye....Sports.

National Decency Legion Classifies 12 Pictures

Of the 12 motion pictures classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week, five were approved for general patronage, three were found unobjectionable for adults, and four were classified as objectionable in part. The pictures and their classifications follow:

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "Man from Headquarters," "The Prime Minister," "Ride 'Em Cowboy," "Snuffy Smith, Yard Bird" and "Song of the Islands." Class A-2: Unobjectionable for Adults: "Fiesta," "The Fleets In," and "Sing Your Worries Away." Class B, Objectionable in Part: "Confessions of a Cheat," "The Lady is Willing," "Roxie Hart" and "We Were Dancing."

Chicago Classifies Films

Of the 14 films reviewed during the month of January, the Better Films Council of Chicago in its monthly report lists seven as "family" entertainment and finds seven as "mature."

"One Foot in Heaven" is listed as a "must see." "Exceptional" is the rating given "Sundown." "Night of January 16th" is regarded as "well worked out into a mystery drama," and "How Green Was My Valley" "gives one a sense of artistic whole and leaves them with a finer appreciation of the deeper emotions of life."

"Lady Scarface" is regarded as a "nip and tuck detective-gangster film of mediocre quality" and "Shadow of the Thin Man" draws the comment "A mediocre vehicle for this team. Judging from it, it would seem time to stop the 'Thin Man' series." "Three Girls About Town" got "one wonders why such pictures are inflicted on a suffering public."

Among the "family" group are, "Babes On Broadway," "Birth of the Blues," "How Green Was My Valley," "Kathleen," "Melody Lane," "One Foot in Heaven," and "They Died With Their Boots On." Regarded as "mature" film fare are, "Ball of Fire," "Lady Scarface," "The Gay Falcon," "Shadow of the Thin Man," "Sundown," "The Night of January 16th," and "Three Girls About Town." The Better Films group will hold its February meeting on the 20th of the month at the Chicago Lighting Institute.

Mississippi Defeats Sunday Film Shows

The Mississippi legislature by a three-vote margin turned down a second effort to repeal the 120-year-old ban on Sunday amusements, to provide more recreation for soldiers. This was the last time the measure can come before the present legislature, which is near adjournment.

In Williamsburg, Va., Sunday film showings received legal sanction when Vernon M. Geddy, vice-president of the Williamsburg Restoration, was dismissed in a court trial of charges of operating motion pictures in violation of the state's blue law.

Sackett Buys "Last Frontier"

Mort Sackett, president of Guaranteed Pictures Co., Inc., announced in New York this week acquisition of world rights to "The Last Frontier," featuring Lon Chaney, Jr., and formerly released through RKO. Guaranteed will release the 12-episode serial nationally through its affiliated independent exchanges.

Marx Paintings Exhibited

The Metropolitan Museum accepted the water color paintings of Milt Marx, Warner Brothers home office artist, for exhibition in a show called "On the Bright Side." The show opened Monday, February 9th, and includes 100 water colors from Mr. Marx.

Pep Club Sponsors Loans

Under a plan ratified by the board of governors of the Paramount Pep Club in New York, short term loans will be made to club members in deserving circumstances. No interest will be charged.

Films Foster Public Music

Hollywood has fostered the ingenuity of American composers working in pictures who have developed new forms to fit the product, and the motion picture of today is a most important medium for helping to better the public's taste in music. This is the contention of Aaron Copland, composer, who lectured on "Music and the Film" last Sunday night at the Museum of Modern Art, New York, under the auspices of the League of Composers.

He declared that the Hollywood film in its use of music as a background for the story had been a tremendous influence in "raising the cultural level of music for the people. Hollywood," Mr. Copland pointed out, "is a place where composers are actually needed. As a large part of music heard by the American public is heard in the film theatre—even though the audience that goes to the film doesn't think about the music—nevertheless, unconsciously the cultural level of music is certain to be raised if better music is written for films."

To illustrate his point, Mr. Copland showed excerpts of "Ladies in Retirement," Columbia; "Citizen Kane," RKO; "So Ends Our Night," United Artists; "Of Mice and Men," United Artists; "Juarez," Warner Bros., and "The General Died at Dawn," Paramount. Scenes from these pictures, cut and prepared for this special showing with the cooperation of the respective film companies, were presented to depict the force of music in heightening dramatic effects.

NO TRIAL DATE IN SIGHT FOR THE 'LITTLE 3' SUIT

Federal Court Calendar Indicates June Deadline Will Not Be Met

The Department of Justice's key anti-trust suit against Columbia, United Artists, and Universal, in New York appears headed for more delay.

Federal Judge Henry Warren Goddard said last week in that city that he did not know when the case would come to trial and he added it was not certain there would be a Spring trial. The present calendar date is Monday February 16th.

A deadline for the trial was established by the decree. On June 1st, says the decree's "escape" clause, the five major's in the decree may free themselves of its trade showing and block of five selling provisions, if by that date the Government has not prosecuted the "Little Three" majors successfully, i. e., made them enter the decree.

Judge Goddard's opinions came after hearing on a motion by Columbia to expedite consideration of Government objections to interrogatories filed by that company. Louis Frohlich, Columbia lawyer, withdrew the motion, saying he would attempt agreement on the interrogatories, with Government attorneys, before February 18th.

Possible Adjournment Seen

Judge Goddard then remarked he might not be able to consider the Government objections on that date, and also that he might find it necessary to adjourn the Government's recent motion to compel Paramount and Twentieth Century-Fox to rid themselves of certain houses acquired since the decree. The motion was to be heard that day.

The Judge has been presiding in espionage cases.

Mr. Frohlich, finding no certainty about date for trial, said last week he and Benjamin Pepper, representing Universal and United Artists, would confer with Department lawyers in Washington, for an agreement on the interrogatories.

He added that his client would be satisfied if provided with an exact list of situations in which the Government contends it violated the anti-trust laws.

It was noted that the interrogatories served by Mr. Pepper were almost identical with those from Mr. Frohlich, and therefore amenable to the same Governmental objections.

Government Move Foiled In Schine Trust Case

The Department of Justice was denied permission, Friday, February 6th, in Buffalo Federal Court, to inspect certain documents alleged to be in possession of the Schine circuit, defendants in an anti-trust suit, along with subsidiaries, Columbia, United Artists, and Universal.

The Department had asserted these documents vital to prosecution. Without specifying, it had asked to examine all inter-office memoranda, and correspondence with majors about negotiations over nine years concerning theatre openings and closings, operations, purchases, remodeling, demolition, and construction.

Judge John Knight said: "The documents purported to be sought are not sufficiently designated, and it is not made to appear that any such documents are in the possession of the defendants, or are in existence . . . and the requests are too broad."

He granted the Government "the right to renew motion upon further showing."

And he added: "The plaintiff, of course, still has the remedy, through subpoena of the records, to require the production of documents sought. It further has the recourse to depositions."

Ask Limitations Apply To Momand Trust Suit

Federal Judge Charles Wyzanski, Boston, took under advisement last week a motion to have the statute of limitations apply on the anti-trust suit brought in 1937 by A. B. Momand against Universal Film Exchange, Inc., and other distributors. A ruling on the motion is expected shortly.

The suit, and another by Loretta L. Momand, was filed in the Federal District Court of Boston. Both cases are similar in nature.

The complaint alleges unfair practices on the part of the defendants. The plaintiff, Loretta L. Momand, is a resident of Shawnee, Okla., and since July 15, 1931, has operated the Odeon Theatre in that city.

According to the brief, during or before 1931, in violation of the anti-trust statutes, the Griffith Circuit and its subsidiaries entered into an "unlawful combination and conspiracy to restrain and to monopolize interstate trade and commerce in motion picture films and particularly the right to contract for and exhibit said films."

Sues on Contract

The plaintiff alleges that the defendants refused to contract for any first run films and refused to contract to supply an adequate number of second run films. It is also claimed the producers and distributors refused to contract for a supply of films to the plaintiff until six months or more after the release of the product.

In April, 1933, according to the brief, the Griffith Company acquired a third house in Shawnee although the "population was insufficient to support or require another theatre." And, "in 1935, still another house was added by this company."

The defendants had moved for change of venue, but this was denied in a ruling April, 1937, by Federal Judge Elisha Brewster, who said under the anti-trust statutes the plaintiff may sue in any district the defendants reside, or are found, or have agents.

Under this clause, Judge Brewster found no cause for dismissing the action due to want of jurisdiction.

The arguments heard were relative to the application of the statute of limitation.

Hollingsworth Trust Suit Ends

The two-year argument of Frank E. Hollingsworth, manager of the Pix and Rialto in Beatrice, Neb., and Fox Midwest Amusement Co., which has the Rivoli, ended last week when Mr. Hollingsworth asked the case dismissed from Federal Court, Omaha, with prejudice.

Mr. Hollingsworth brought the action months ago, claiming the major distributors and Fox Midwest conspired to keep him out of business, offering him film if he acquired the second theater, then refusing to sell him after he had it.

For 1940 damages he asked $234,300, and the jury awarded him $7,788. The suit dismissed was the one to recover for 1941. It is only possible to sue for one year's damage at a time.

It is understood Fox Midwest settled, rather than go through another trial.

Johnson's Suit Against Majors

Art Johnson's suit against the distributors, and the Minnesota Amusement and Welworth circuits, was to begin in Sioux Falls Federal Court this week. Mr. Johnson, owner of the Granada, in that city, is asking $1,670,500 damages, alleging conspiracy to force him out of business, and to keep product away from another house, in Aberdeen, South Dakota, in which he is also interested.

Eastman Directors Promote Stuber

Promotion of Adolph Stuber from assistant vice president to vice president of Eastman Kodak Company was voted on Wednesday by the company directors at Rochester. They also named Thomas J. McCarrick assistant comptroller. The Kodak directors declared a $1.50 quarterly dividend on the common and preferred stock. Mr. Stuber joined Eastman Kodak in 1912 and is former manager of the camera works. Since 1930 he has been assistant vice president in the sales and advertising department. Mr. McCarrick joined the comptroller's staff in 1935.

Rodgers to Rockefeller Group

William F. Rodgers, general sales manager of MGM, is understood to be headed for the post of advisor on motion picture distribution of the Rockefeller-Whitney U. S. Office of Inter-American Affairs, on a part time basis, as a "dollar a year man." Mr. Rodgers would arrange for the distribution of films in the U. S., about and from Latin America.

Variety Pushes New Clubs in 'Hey Rube' Drive

There are five Variety tents established in line with the national organization's plan to put a tent in every key city, it was announced this week by Paul Short, executive assistant to John H. Harris and R. J. O'Donnell, general chairman of the "Hey Rube" drive being executed by Variety.

According to a survey just completed by Mr. Short, there are 5,345 members in the 25 existing Variety Clubs of the country. The campaign, which terminates February 28th, was designed to increase membership of these clubs to 8,800. The five new tents being organized in key distribution centers including New York and Chicago, are expected to provide an added roster of 1,200 members and to bring the general Variety membership to 10,000, Mr. Short reported.

To Represent 15,000 Theatres

Of the present membership, 4,579 are actively engaged in the film industry; 3,702 represent actual theatre operation; 877 represent production and distribution, and 766 represent allied interest, including theatre supply, advertising accessories, radio, orchestras, arenas, and other amusement fields. The total membership, following completion of the current drive, is expected to represent 15,000 theatres, in addition to bookers, branch managers, film distributing companies, producing companies and others in the film and allied industries.

Mr. Short announced on Monday that he would visit New Orleans during the week to help organize the New Orleans tent. He also reported that clubs were being developed in Seattle and New Haven, and that as a result of the drive, the Omaha tent had taken on "a new lease of life," with over 50 new members already added to the rolls. The Omaha club is being reorganized with new quarters just opened in the Paxton Hotel. Don V. McLucas, United Artists exchange manager, is chief barker.

Baltimore's tent is sponsoring the drive for new members and has named a local committee to plan their campaign activities, including Bernard Seaman, chief barker and Lauritz Garman as co-chairman; William Myers, H. P. Rome, Gordon Contee, Morton Rosen; Sam Soltz and J. Lawrence Schanberger. Godron Contee and Morris Oletsky were named co-chairmen of a Maryland state membership committee. The Baltimore tent, meanwhile, has set March 28th as the date for its annual banquet. J. Louis Rome is in charge of a special arrangements committee.

Variety Club of Kansas city reports it aims to obtain 100 per cent membership in the tent during the current drive. At a meeting held last Monday, exchange managers and salesmen were present and planned to spread the drive for exhibitor-memberships to the exchange area. H. J. Griffith, chief barker and president of H. J. Griffith Theatres, Inc., is making his own office headquarters for the club's campaign.

Variety Elections

Lester Zucker has taken office as chief barker of the Cleveland Variety Club, succeeding Bert Stearn, who left recently after promotion by United Artists. Harry H. Goldstein and Charles Albert, first and second assistant barkers respectively; Edwin R. Bergman, secretary, and I. J. Schwartz, treasurer, are other officers.

New officers of the Omaha Variety Club are:

Don V. McLucas, United Artists, chief barker; Ching Allen, RKO, first assistant; S. J. Francis, Monogram, second assistant; Meyer Stern, PRC, treasurer; and Edward Shafton, secretary.

Kenneth T. Collins, chief barker of the Indianapolis Variety Club, has completed appointment of 1942 committees, it was announced this week. The committee chairmen are: Larry Shubnell, films for shut-ins; Wade Willman, heart fund; Carl Niesse, publicity, and Harry Hayes, entertainment. The club's annual banquet, to be held late this month, will be arranged by L. H. McGinley.

Other Club Activities

A Valentine party was to be held by Cincinnati's Variety Club, this Saturday. Admission to the affair was to be one or more valentines which will be sent to children at local institutions. Arthur Frudenberg, division manager, and Joe Goetz, assistant division manager of RKO, in Cincinnati, were hosts at a dinner at the club this week for members and guests. Laurel and Hardy, playing the RKO Shubert in that city, were guests of honor.

Michigan's Variety Club will hold its first pioneers dinner on February 19th, to honor 12 pioneers of the film industry. The event is expected to be an annual affair. James J. Walker, ex-Mayor of New York City, will be toastmaster and Senator Claude Pepper, the principal speaker.

More than 450 people were present at the second annual dinner-dance held by the Reelfellows Club of Chicago last Friday at the Congress Hotel. Most of the proceeds were to go to the club's charity fund for relief of destitute film people in Chicago, and the balance was donated to the American Red Cross. Eddy Howard's orchestra provided music for dancing and a 10-act floor show, headed by Morton Downey, was a feature of the evening.

Cinema Club Inducts

The Cinema Club of Cincinnati, a social group of film and accessory salesmen, will hold its annual installation dinner February 20th when the following officers will be inducted: Rudy Kneppfle, president; Albert Kolitz, first vice-president; L. J. Bugie, second vice-president, and Peter Niland, treasurer. Trustees are: Irving Sochin, Milton Gurian, Joseph McKnight, William Devaney, J. E. Eifert and Ross Williams.

Irving Perlman, of the Essaness Circuit, was elected president of the Film Bookers' Club of Chicago, it was reported last Thursday. Other officers are: George Topper, PRC, vice-president; Al Teplitz, Meyers' Theatres, treasurer; Charles Davidson, Balaban & Katz, secretary, and Max Facter, Universal, sergeant-at-arms.

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Columbia

BLONDIE IN SOCIETY: Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake—Ran this with "Texas." People laughed so hard they missed part of the lines and it received more comments than "Texas," which is also above program average. Running time, 77 minutes. Played January 9-10.—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col. Farming and mining patronage.

BLONDIE TAKES A VACATION: Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake—A good Blondie. Good second for a heavy bill. Running time, 68 minutes.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

OUR WIFE: Melvyn Douglas, Ruth Hussey—Not meant for a small town. Would advise it passed up if you have a selective contract. Did very well with it in Chatham.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

RIDERS OF THE BADLANDS: Charles Starrett, Russell Hayden—Big Saturday crowd enjoyed this average western. Running time, 59 minutes. Played January 24.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Texas. Small town patronage.

SING FOR YOUR SUPPER: Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Jinx Falkenburg—This one was liked and should go well at a small neighborhood theatre. The "Mad Russian" received laughs from our audience. This is just another small programmer. Running time, 66 minutes. Played January 8-14.—Robert Berezin, Elgin Theatre, Ottawa, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

TEXAS: William Holden, Claire Trevor—This is one for a public who go for westerns. It is a good picture and entertaining, but comments went both ways on it. Played double bill. Small neighborhood theatres should do well with it. Running time, 94 minutes.—Robert Berezin, Elgin Theatre, Ottawa, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

TEXAS: William Holden, Glenn Ford—See report on "Blondie in Society."—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col. Farming and mining patronage.

THREE GIRLS ABOUT TOWN: Joan Blondell, Binnie Barnes—Funny and entertaining in a way but our audience liked the other feature on the same program with this. Running time, 75 minutes.—Robert Berezin, Elgin Theatre, Ottawa, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

THREE GIRLS ABOUT TOWN: Joan Blondell, Binnie Barnes—Swell picture. Every patron well pleased. Running time, 73 minutes.—D. P. Thomas, Garrettsville Theatre, Garrettsville, Ohio. General patronage.

THREE GIRLS ABOUT TOWN: Joan Blondell, John Howard—A swell comedy that is good for any day in the week.—Raymon Paul, Sea Breeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town patronage.

THUNDERING FRONTIER: Charles Starrett, Iris Meredith—What can I say for these Starretts but just fair. And that's all. Running time, 57 minutes.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

YOU'LL NEVER GET RICH: Fred Astaire, Rita Hayworth—One of the best from Columbia in the past year.—Raymon Paul, Sea Breeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BABES ON BROADWAY: Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland—Very good musical. Judy and Mickey A-1 entertainers.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

DESIGN FOR SCANDAL: Rosalind Russell, Walter Pidgeon—We ran this on our best time and didn't do but a little over half of our normal take, with decent weather. The picture is good but just isn't big enough for your best time. Pidgeon and Russell did fine work and Guy Kibbee was okay, but there were spots that dragged and put the picture right back to one room and a lot of dialogue, right where talkies started.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

DESIGN FOR SCANDAL: Rosalind Russell, Walter Pidgeon, Edward Arnold—Somewhere along the line the director is losing the deft touch on these pictures. They have not the old belly laughs that were formerly in them. This was true of "The Feminine Touch," also. Right now, I could use comedies of that type after the run of heavy pictures that have come through recently.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE: Spencer Tracy, Ingrid Bergman, Lana Turner—I thought Tracy would bring them in but they stayed away in droves. Tracy's acting was great, but it didn't cut any ice, as far as the box office was concerned. Played January 16-18.—Otto W. Chapek, New Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Small town patronage.

DR. KILDARE'S VICTORY: Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore—The poorest of the Kildares. We missed Laraine Day. Ann Ayers cannot take her place.—Leon C. Balduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

DR. KILDARE'S WEDDING DAY: Lew Ayres, Lionel Barrymore—The Kildare pictures are always liked and they are always good. Public hasn't been disappointed in any of them yet, and I have run them all. Played January 13-14.—Otto W. Chapek, New Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Small town patronage.

FEMININE TOUCH, THE: Rosalind Russell, Don Ameche—We got quite a kick out of parts of this picture, especially when it got down to the slapstick angle and it pleased a mid-week crowd at bargain night prices. Hardly worth your best time, even with the excellent cast of name actors, but worth a playdate. If you can buy it right, but who can, then play it, but watch the allocation.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

FEMININE TOUCH, THE: Don Ameche, Rosalind Russell—A very nice comedy which played to average business. All four stars turned in good performance and honors going to Rosalind Russell. The story wasn't much, but the high type performance turned in by the entire cast made this a pleasing picture. The Pete Smith Short Army Champions played with the above feature was instructive as well as entertaining. Played January 20-22.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

FEMININE TOUCH, THE: Rosalind Russell, Don Ameche—This was a swell picture and enjoyed by all. Two men remarked that it was better than a three-ring circus. Running time, 97 minutes.—D. P. Thomas, Garrettsville Theatre, Garrettsville, Ohio. General patronage.

H. M. PULHAM, ESQ.: Hedy Lamarr, Robert Young, Ruth Hussey—This is one of those slow-moving things, where two actors get in one room, have a lot of lines to speak and don't get out until they get the job done. There is some excellent acting, but it takes time and my people just don't like to sit still and wait for something to happen; they crave action. It's way out of line in the top allocation, so be very careful where and when you play it.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

HONKY TONK: Clark Gable, Lana Turner—Very good picture worthy of the best playing time. Clark Gable turns in one of his best performances and Lana Turner is at her best. The rest of the cast, which are too numerous to mention, are also very good. We would very much hate to see Gable quit the screen. Business very much above average. Our Gang comedy, "Helping Hands," played with above feature, was good. Played 24-26.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

HONKY TONK: Clark Gable, Lana Turner—Everything they say it is except that it is not as good as

(Continued from opposite page)

"Boom Town." Raymon Paul, Sea Breeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town patronage.

KATHLEEN: Shirley Temple—Not up to expectations, but pleased the majority.—Leon C. Balduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

LADY BE GOOD: Eleanor Powell, Robert Young, Ann Sothorn—Good musical with some very good numbers in it. Berry Brothers pleased the crowd the most. Played January 27-28.—Otto W. Chapek, New Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Small town patronage.

LADY BE GOOD: Eleanor Powell, Robert Young—Exceptionally good picture and everyone certainly enjoyed it.—D. P. Thomas, Garrettsville, Ohio. General patronage.

SHADOW OF THE THIN MAN: William Powell, Myrna Loy—Nothing wrong with this picture except the rental that Metro tacked on to it that left us holding the sack. "Nick" solves the murder but has a lot of fun doing it. Maybe it was the weather, but this was the poorest draw and the highest rental of any "Thin Man" picture we ever ran.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

SMILIN' THROUGH: Jeannette MacDonald, Brian Aherne, Gene Raymond—We did average business but not on our best night, playing the picture on a mid-week date. Its not in a class with former filming of the same story and the color was really cruel in spots. Metro priced the picture way out of line and we lost considerable on the engagement. Played the picture with a serial but didn't get any extra business, just the regulars, maybe a few old-timers who hadn't missed it, anytime.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

TARZAN'S SECRET TREASURE: Johnny Weissmuller, Maureen O'Sullivan—The best bet Metro has turned out since "Honky Tonk" and that's a long time between hits. The "Tarzan" pictures have always been good here and they could carry some of the punks, but Metro has them allocated in the top bracket. The picture is like the others, with the animals, the swimming, the native attack and full of entertainment for small town. Buy it right.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

TARZAN'S SECRET TREASURE: Johnny Weissmuller, Maureen O'Sullivan—This type of picture still has the ability to put them in. It is the usual "Tarzan" material with the monk, smart, too, elephants—all the trappings that "Tarzan" pictures have, with fair story. But it has action and that is what the people want; pictures that move and don't depend upon dialogue alone to put them over.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

UNHOLY PARTNERS: Edward G. Robinson, Edward Arnold, Laraine Day—A good picture, well cast and well mounted, that did average business on a mid-week playdate. Might possibly stand up alone on a Sunday, but doubtful, because of the theme. It was just priced too high for our possibilities and the run was not so good, financially.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

Monogram

GENTLEMAN FROM DIXIE: Jack La Rue, Marian Marsh—Good B feature. Excellent family entertainment. Played December 7-9.—Charles N. Bell, Centro Theatre, Los Angeles, Calif. General patronage.

Paramount

ALOMA OF THE SOUTH SEAS: Dorothy Lamour, Jon Hall—This picture was in color and the scenes are beautiful beyond description. Had a good crowd and everyone liked it. One of my Ten Best Draws of 1941. Running time, 77 minutes. Played November 30-December 2.—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col. Farming and mining patronage.

BIRTH OF THE BLUES: Bing Crosby, Mary Martin—Good picture where Bing is popular. Our patrons always want more of Rochester when he is in a cast. Business only fair. Running time, 85 minutes. Played January 15-17.—C. A. Smith, Regent Theatre, Chapleau, Ont., Canada. Small town patronage.

BUY ME THAT TOWN: Lloyd Nolan, Constance Moore—This picture got some laughs, but not much to it. I paid too much for it; so what? Played January 20-21.—Otto W. Chapek, New Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Small town patronage.

BUY ME THAT TOWN: Lloyd Nolan, Constance Moore—See report on "Tanks a Million."—C. A. Smith, Regent Theatre, Chapleau, Ont., Canada. Small town patronage.

CAUGHT IN THE DRAFT: Bob Hope, Dorothy Lamour—This one brought the crowd in. They like Hope fine. Lamour not so good. Running time, 82 minutes. Played January 2-3.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

FORCED LANDING: Richard Arlen—The picture was okay for the lower half of a double bill and not too long. Air pictures draw fairly good here and while some thought they had seen it, the draw was average with "Prairie Law." Good for the action half of a double feature or for bargain night.—Mayme

P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

GREAT MCGINTY, THE: Brian Donlevy, Akim Tamiroff—Just fair. Plot on this one is about politics. Will do for a lower end of a bill.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

HIDDEN GOLD: William Boyd, Russell Hayden—Story fair. Nothing to cry about.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

KISS THE BOYS GOODBYE: Mary Martin, Don Ameche, Oscar Levant—This one fooled everyone present, but it pleased anyway. Running time, 82 minutes. Played December 19-20.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

LAS VEGAS NIGHTS: Bert Wheeler, Constance Moore—Would suggest you cancel this if possible. Met some folks a few days later and they told me how they disliked the picture. Running time, 86 minutes. Played December 19-20.—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col. Farming and mining patronage.

NEW YORK TOWN: Fred MacMurray, Mary Martin—Nothing to it. Just a fair program. Not near worth extra rental or preferred time. Not near up to Paramount's standard. Running time, 75 minutes. Played January 25-26.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH: Bob Hope, Paulette Goddard—A great many laughs and that solves the box-office problem here. That's what my patrons want, and Bob Hope is the answer. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 22-24.—C. A. Smith, Regent Theatre, Chapleau, Ont., Canada. Small town patronage.

PIRATES ON HORSEBACK: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, Andy Clyde—Good western to good business. Running time, 68 minutes. Played January 30-31.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

ROUND-UP, THE: Richard Dix, Patricia Morison, Preston Foster—Pleased the western fans and the others liked it, too. Running time, 90 minutes. Played November 21-22.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

SHEPHERD OF THE HILLS: Betty Field, John Wayne, Harry Carey—A beautiful picture and worth the extra money spent for it. Running time, 95 minutes. Played December 5-6.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

SKYLARK: Claudette Colbert, Ray Milland, Brian Aherne—Good picture which pleased average business. Not a small town picture. Running time, 94 minutes. Played January 28-29.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

TEXAS RANGERS RIDE AGAIN: John Howard, Ellen Drew, Akim Tamiroff, May Robson—A nice western, old, but better than a lot of new ones. Running time, 80 minutes. Played October 31-November 1.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

WIDE OPEN TOWN: William Boyd, Russell Hayden—We ran this late, on bargain night and didn't do a thing, so am getting a return, later. One of the best of the "Hopalong Cassidy" westerns that we have ever run and worth a date on any week-end program.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

Producers Releasing

REG'LAR FELLERS: Billy Lee—Pass this one up. No business, no draw, poorly produced.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Republic

COWBOY SERENADE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Fay McKenzie—Good picture and good business. Autry always pleases the Friday-Saturday crowd. Running time, 66 minutes. Played January 30-31.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

ICE-CAPADES: James Ellison, Jerry Colonna, Dorothy Lewis—We played this picture on Friday and Saturday, late, but could have run it on our best time because it has oodles of entertainment of the kind that really pleases. If you haven't played the picture, try to buy it right and give your patrons a treat; it's okay.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

MOUNTAIN MOONLIGHT: Weaver Brothers and Elviry—Not as good as the rest of this series. Patrons came expecting to hear some good hill-billy music, but got a lot of society "mush."—Raymon Paul, Sea Breeze Theatre, Beaufort, S. C. Small town patronage.

PUDDIN' HEAD: Judy Canova, Francis Lederer—Our week-end customers ate this one up. And box office was most satisfactory.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

PUDDIN' HEAD: Judy Canova, Francis Lederer—Used on a double bill with "Target for Tonight" at bargain prices to better than average business. It is not very convincing and nowhere near as good as "Sis Hopkins." Credit for the business done is due principally to the twin bill and close proximity to Judy's Sis Hopkins, used the week previous. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 27.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

RED RIVER VALLEY: Roy Rogers, Gabby Hayes—The best Roy Rogers yet. Gabby Hayes' comedy is always good. Gale Storm is nice and Sally Payne is good. Roy Rogers has a good voice and assisted by the Sons of the Pioneers makes very nice entertainment. The close-up shots of the musicians were good, especially the one of the violin player. That boy has certainly got "it." Would love to see all of the coming Rogers' pictures made with the Sons of the Pioneers. He would certainly hit around the top at the end of the year with such a cast. Give us some more pictures like this. Played January 23-24.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

SIERRA SUE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—On a par with the other Autry's and did about the same amount of business. We don't stand them out but do average or better and they seem to like the singing and comedy. The picture moves right along and the kids whoop and holler, so what more could we ask for except some extra business, when we pay extra rental.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

RKO Radio

DEVIL AND MISS JONES, THE: Jean Arthur, Robert Cummings, Charles Coburn—This was a nice picture. Almost all liked it. Running time, 90 minutes. Played November 14-15.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

DUMBO: Disney Feature Cartoon—It goes without saying that this is a dandy, cute little cartoon showing Disney at his best. The crowd loved it. "Snow White" broke all our records, "Pinocchio" was just slightly less, "The Reluctant Dragon" was quite a little lower, but not bad by any means. "Dumbo" shows an upswing into a position just below "Pinocchio." If I could only do business like this once a month, I could stop worrying. It was excellent. I know some of you cannot sell feature cartoons, but this is one town where I could use them often. Running time, 63 minutes. Played January 30-31.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

LITTLE FOXES, THE: Bette Davis, Herbert Marshall, Teresa Wright—This is a splendid picture that did not draw. The cast all were perfect in their roles. It had a good story, and finely drawn characterizations. A little hand to Teresa Wright, too. We may be feeling the effect of the tire rationing which is something that may later become serious.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

LITTLE MEN: Kay Francis, Jack Oakie, George Bancroft—Old, but pleased the crowd. Running time, 88 minutes. Played December 26-27.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

LOOK WHO'S LAUGHING: Edgar Bergen, "Charlie McCarthy," Fibber McGee and Molly They

This is the original exhibitors' reports department, established October 14, 1916. In it the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box-office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address your reports to—

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

turned out quite well for this one, although the picture is nothing big. However, it features people the audience wanted to see and it is quite entertaining. It should do business for you. They seemed to be enjoying themselves while it was running so I guess we can't ask for more than that. Running time, 76 minutes. Played January 29.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

MEXICAN SPITFIRE'S BABY: Lupe Velez, Leon Errol, Charles "Buddy" Rogers—Just so much film thrown together. Fit only for the lower half of a double bill, and that we do not practice. So hence we suffer in order to fill bookings.—A. E. Hancock, Columbia Theatre, Columbia City, Ind. General patronage.

MY LIFE WITH CAROLINE: Ronald Colman, Anna Lee—Good sophisticated comedy, but my patrons steer clear of these like the chicken pox. Don't blame them. Hollywood has turned out so many Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 19-21.—C. A. Smith, Regent Theatre, Chapeau, Ont., Canada. Small town patronage.

PRAIRIE LAW: George O'Brien—A very good western that pleased an average week-end crowd. This O'Brien boy has always had a following here and we pick up these old westerns in place of some new punk that don't mean a thing. The print we had from Kansas City was in excellent condition and the sound good. Played January 30-31.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

RELUCTANT DRAGON: Disney Feature Cartoon—The cartoons are not so good in small towns. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 16-17.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

RELUCTANT DRAGON, THE: Robert Benchley—As expected, it rates as one of ten worst for the year. It would have made a nice one reeler at those same rentals. But not as a top bracket feature on preferred playing time. I tried to save it by using "Battlefields of the Pacific," a special March of Time subject along with it but found out to my sorrow this was nothing more or less than a rehash from previous issues. A field day for the kids; adults walked out or went sound asleep. Running time, 73 minutes. Played February 1-2.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

SIX GUN GOLD: Tim Holt—We didn't buy these when RKO put this new star in place of O'Brien, so have been using them in place of other pictures that didn't mean a thing. The week-end crowd seem to like them okay and the kids just eat them up, so we can't complain. A good series of westerns and every one has held up fine.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

TRIPLE JUSTICE: George O'Brien—Not the draw that Rogers "Cassidy" or Autry is.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

BELLE STARR: Randolph Scott, Gene Tierney—Very interesting and beautiful subject in color following the tradition of the Old South. Slow in tempo but exceedingly good in character acting and performance, done an excellent job midweek business. Very sad and impressive ending. Running time 87 minutes. Played January 28-29.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

CHARLEY'S AUNT: Jack Benny, Kay Francis—Good drawing power in Benny. Francis not as popular, but it made us money. Running time, 82 minutes. Played November 7-8.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

CHARLEY'S AUNT: Jack Benny, Kay Francis—A fair crowd laughed long and loud at this. Deserves better business. Running time, 72 minutes. Played January 22-23.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Texas. Small town patronage.

CONFIRM OR DENY: Don Ameche, Joan Bennett—A real surprise package. Personally I thought it an average picture, but it drew a big crowd and all liked it. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 25-26.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Texas. Small town patronage.

DOWN ARGENTINE WAY: Don Ameche, Betty Grable—A good feature with beautiful color.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

DRESSED TO KILL: Lloyd Nolan, Mary Beth Hughes—Here is a very good mystery-drama that pleased and drew some business on the "Michael Shayne," detective angle. There was something doing all the time and our patrons were pleased and admitted as much. Book it on your bargain night or on a double bill.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

HERE I AM A STRANGER: Richard Greene, Richard Dix, Brenda Joyce—A feature which pleased all. Surprised me. Title doesn't sound convincing. Will do for a lower end of a bill.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY: Walter Pidgeon, Roddy McDowell—I saw this in advance in the Fox screening room, and although it is about the saddest picture to date, it practically hypnotizes everyone who sees it. I have never seen a more dramatic and gripping picture in all my twenty-five years in the theatre business.—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col.

PERFECT SNOB, THE: Lynn Bari, Charlotte Greenwood, Charlie Ruggles—Good little picture which pleased on family night. Played January 27.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

SUN VALLEY SERENADE: Sonja Henie, John Payne, Glenn Miller and his Orchestra, Milton Berle—This one hit the spot. Not even one complaint. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 9-10.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

TIN PAN ALLEY: Alice Faye, Betty Grable, Jack Oakie, John Payne—Played late to great advantage. World War I songs and American entry very timely. Recording excellent and print in good condition. Jack Oakie turns in his best performance ever and the rest of the cast perfect. Good picture for any situation.—W. R. Pyle, Dreamland theatre, Rockglen, Sask., Can. Small town patronage.

WILD GEESSE CALLING: Henry Fonda, Joan Bennett—A nice picture but the print we had was too dark. Quite a few kicks on that. Running time, 80 minutes. Played December 12-13.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

YESTERDAY'S HEROES: Jean Rogers, Robert Sterling, Ted North—Played it on a dual bill with "One Night in Lisbon", to poor business. This type of picture is very spotty.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

United Artists

BLACKOUT: Conrad Veidt—The only good thing about this was Veidt's acting. When I run United Artists' picture I don't expect much and generally find that I am right. Played January 6-7.—Otto W. Chapek, New Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Small town patronage.

CHUMP AT OXFORD: Stan Laurel, Oliver Hardy—A hilarious second feature.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

CORSICAN BROTHERS, THE: Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Akim Tamiroff—A swell picture not to be missed. Will draw anywhere and receive the best comments. Fairbanks in double role gives a good performance. Akim Tamiroff also very good. Played it two weeks with good business. Pictures like this keep us going so let us have more like it. Running time, 113 minutes. Played January 15-28.—Robert Berezin, Elgin Theatre, Ottawa, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

INTERNATIONAL LADY: Ilona Massey, George Brent—A showman's puzzle. Everyone who saw this did a rave—should have more like this. Yet the box office starved. Running time, 110 minutes. Played January 12-14.—C. A. Smith, Regent Theatre, Chapeau, Ont., Canada. Small town patronage.

NEW WINE: Ilona Massey, Alan Curtis—Picture good but it did not draw the masses. Alan Curtis is very good in this, in fact it is the best performance I have seen him give. Played it double bill and did nice business even though it was the week before Christmas. Running time, 84 minutes.—Robert Berezin, Elgin Theatre, Ottawa, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

SON OF MONTE CRISTO: Louis Hayward, Joan Bennett—A good action feature which pleased all. Running time, 104 minutes.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

SUNDOWN: Gene Tierney, Bruce Cabot—Do not pass this one up. It is real entertainment and the patrons told me so. Tierney lovely as ever and when she appears on the screen you hear "ahs" from audience. Story good, cast good. Played two weeks and we can use more like it. Running time, 95 minutes.—Robert Berezin, Elgin Theatre, Ottawa, Ont., Canada. General patronage.

SUNDOWN: Marvelous picture, many favorable comments. Business off, but this is a spot where it is almost 100% railroad patronage. Men are so in demand, no mileage limits, they have no time for shows. So the theatre man has to take it on the chin. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 29-31.—C. A. Smith, Regent Theatre, Chapleau, Ont., Canada. Small town patronage.

TANKS A MILLION: William Tracy, James Gleason, Noah Beery, Jr.—This is a nice streamlined comedy that kept them laughing and interested while they were waiting for "Dumbo" to come on the screen. I like the idea of these shorter features. They help program scheduling a great deal. I cannot say whether this has any drawing power as "Dumbo" was the main attraction. Running time, 50 minutes. Played January 30-31.—W. Varick Nevins, III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

TANKS A MILLION: William Tracy, Elyse Knox—Double-billed with "Buy Me That Town". Business terrible. Weather very cold. But those that did see this, didn't seem impressed. Personally I thought "Tanks a Million" very funny, "Buy Me That Town" a programmer. Running time, 50 minutes. Played January 8-10.—C. A. Smith, Regent Theatre, Chapleau, Ont., Canada. Small town patronage.

THAT HAMILTON WOMAN: Vivien Leigh, Laurence Olivier—Business away above average, many favorable comments, but this is a situation where the class picture does the business. "Major Barbara" was the exception to this rule. Railroaders actually "booked off" to see this one. Running time, 180 minutes. Played January 26-28.—C. A. Smith, Regent Theatre, Chapleau, Ont., Canada. Small town patronage.

YOUNG IN HEART, THE: Janet Gaynor, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.—A boresome drag from U. A. If you haven't shown it don't. Length of this feature was not required due to its weak plot. Running time, 91 minutes.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

Universal

BUCK PRIVATES: Bud Abbott, Lou Costello—A good feature. Nothing to rave about.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

HELLZAPOPPIN': Martha Raye, Olsen and Johnson, Mischa Auer—The wise boys said it wouldn't do any business, but we had a good enough Sunday, and while it isn't a picture and admits the fact in a word, my patrons were laughing almost continuously. The comments were all favorable, many saying that they hadn't laughed so hard for a long, long time. Selling terms were pretty rough, but if we please them, nowadays, that's something. Buy it right, it's okay. Played February 1-3.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

HOLD THAT GHOST: Abbott and Costello—A box office natural. Have had bigger grossers, but they did all right.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

IN THE NAVY: Abbott and Costello, Dick Powell—Again those irresistible funnymen, Abbott and Costello, convulsed our audience with laughter. A bit shopworn though their "gags" may be, these two comedians have a way of their own that really puts them across. Added attractions are the Andrews Sisters, good as always, and Dick Powell in a pleasing singing role. If your customers have a taste for humor they will go for this film in a big way. Running time, 85 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

IT STARTED WITH EVE: Deanna Durbin, Charles Laughton—We didn't break any records with the picture, but those who did see it, were satisfied. There is some comedy and Laughton does a good job with a good part. We ran the picture on our best time, but ran into cold weather, war and whatever else it is that keeps people at home.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

SEALED LIPS: William Gargan, June Clyde—Excellent prison picture, fast-moving, snappy dialogue, altogether making up good entertainment. This picture had a great deal more entertainment than some of the big ones. Running time, 62 minutes. Played January 28-29.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Margo, Ind. Small town patronage.

SING ANOTHER CHORUS: Johnny Downs, Jane Frazee—It did all right as the second half of a double bill. Didn't cost much, didn't expect much, didn't get much, so am satisfied, in a way. Some good musical numbers and some comedy, but, all in all, just another picture that you can run or get along without.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

THIS WOMAN IS MINE: Franchot Tone, Walter Brennan, John Carroll—Just another picture from the company that promises you so much and gives you so little. It rates as a class B program offering only; business dropped 25 per cent below average.

SOUTH OF SUEZ: George Brent, Brenda Marshall, George Tobias—Business very poor on this. Played just before Abbott and Costello, which may account for such poor receipts.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

TARGET FOR TONIGHT: Documentary—Played on the same bill with "Puddin' Head" from Republic to better than average business for bargain night. Instructive and interesting sidelight on air raid on a German military objective by the R. A. F. Running time, 48 minutes. Played January 27.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

THIEVES FALL OUT: Eddie Albert, Joan Leslie—Used on a double bill (either that or pay for and shelve) and heard no unfavorable comment. The only trouble is that such features must be double billed and the exhibitor cannot stop double billing as long as the producers turn out this type of picture. Running time, 72 minutes. Played January 23-24.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

UNDERGROUND: Jeffrey Lynn, Karen Verne—I thought this should draw but it didn't. However, weather was bad. People said they were glad they saw it, but did not seem to be entertained much by it. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 4-6.—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col. Farming and mining patronage.

YOU'RE IN THE ARMY NOW: Jimmy Durante, Jane Wyman—Good comedy and good business. Will please small town audiences. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 25-26.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

Warner Bros.-First National

AFFECTIONATELY YOURS: Merle Oberon, Dennis Morgan—We pushed this around for a couple of months, then finally dated it in on a bargain night. We drew average business and pleased our hardest critics, the bargain hunters. Worth a date, if you can buy it right.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT: Humphrey Bogart, Conrad Veidt—There is action and how they love it. Old Bogy gets tougher and tougher. They burn more and more powder and the cash customers pour in to see it well done. Action or comedy. That's what gets them. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 27-30.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Texas. Small town patronage.

BODY DISAPPEARS, THE: Jeffrey Lynn, Jane Wyman—Fair comedy.—Leon C. Balduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

BROTHER ORCHID: Edward G. Robinson, Ann Sothern—A good feature. But definitely for second which I found out, but too late.—George S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

DIVE BOMBER: Fred MacMurray, Errol Flynn—This was a great picture of what goes on in the inside. Shows the public of the men who work hard to perfect the planes we have in the air today. This picture was a little too long though, and patrons complained the air plane buzzing got them down. Played January 9-11.—Otto W. Chapek, New Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Small town patronage.

FIGHTING 69TH, THE: James Cagney, Pat O'Brien—Another old one that is timely now, and as it is packed with laughs was well received here. As long as I can get good prints as lately these old ones are tops as far as I am concerned.—W. R. Pyle, Dreamland Theatre, Rockglen, Sask., Can. Small town patronage.

INTERNATIONAL SQUADRON: Ronald Reagan, Olympe Bradna—This picture did slightly above average for us and brought many favorable comments from the audience. Running time, 86 minutes. Played January 21-22.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

INTERNATIONAL SQUADRON: Ronald Reagan, Olympe Bradna—A fine picture you should advertise big. It will draw a crowd and will be enjoyed by all. Running time, 86 minutes. Played December 30-January 1.—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col. Farming and mining patronage.

MALTESE FALCON, THE: Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor—Here's a real smart mystery picture. It didn't break a house record but brought a lot of fine comments.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

MALTESE FALCON: Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor—This was a good picture, but failed to make expenses, Bogart very good. Played January 30, 31.—Otto W. Chapek, New Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Small town patronage.

MEET JOHN DOE: Gary Cooper, Barbara Stanwyck—The poorest Capra picture to date. Some liked it, others didn't. Capra again shows the influence of "big business" and politicians in regulating the public to their choosing. Barbara Stanwyck's acting not impressive in my opinion. Played January 11-13.—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col. Farming and mining patronage.

MILLION DOLLAR BABY: Priscilla Lane, Jeffrey
(Continued on following page)

You've got to be
WIDE-AWAKE
to catch a
SLEEPER!

BIG WEEKS

"A SLEEPER!"

says Variety

A "MUST"

says Boston Traveler

"PULLS NO PUNCHES"

says Danton Walker,
N. Y. Daily News

"BRISTLES WITH SUSPENSE"

says Pittsburgh
Sun-Telegraph

"A LARGE-SCALE THRILLER"

says Baltimore Sun

AT THE
NEW YORK
GLOBE
THEATRE

PARIS CALLING
DEFYING THE NAZI HEELS!

A Charles K. Feldman
Group Production starring
ELIZABETH BERGNER
RANDOLPH SCOTT
with
BASIL RATHBONE
GALE SONDERGAARD
EDWARD CIANNELLI
CHARLES ARNT LEE J. COBB
Directed by EDWIN L. MARIN
Produced by BENJAMIN GLAZER

A UNIVERSAL PICTURE

(Continued from preceding page)

Lynn, Ronald Reagan, May Robson—This one pleased almost everyone. Running time, 95 minutes. Played November 28-29.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

NAVY BLUES: Jack Oakie, Ann Sheridan—Business was about normal on this picture. The audience found a great many occasions to laugh and did not seem critical regarding the film's shortcomings. It seemed the producers made an all-out attempt to create entertainment and they should be credited for their efforts. Running time, 108 minutes. Played January 18-19.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

NURSE'S SECRET: Lee Patrick, Regis Toomey—Used this on a double bill and found it suitable for this type of program since it is necessary to either run such features on double bills or pay for and shelve. Running time, 63 minutes. Played January 23-24.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

SERGEANT YORK: Gary Cooper, Joan Leslie—Weather and admission prices hurt our business on this picture, but it is as good a picture as we will get this year from anyone. The build-up to the war angle is swell, the cast is great and the story well known, so know that we will do plenty of business on it when they let the bars down and sell it right, and let us charge what we know we can get.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

SERGEANT YORK: Gary Cooper, Joan Leslie—One of the greatest pictures I have ever run. An exhibitor can feel proud that he can show such a great picture to his public. If you haven't got it bought you owe it to your public to buy it and run it. But I am sorry to report it failed to do business. The high admissions kept them away. Played January 23-25.—Otto W. Chapek, New Annex Theatre, Anamoose, N. D. Small town patronage.

SERGEANT YORK: Gary Cooper, Joan Leslie—Very fine picture though depressing. Admission too high where regular price is 20c. Did nice business but reaction is bad. Running time, 130 minutes. Played February 1-2.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Texas. Small town patronage.

Short Features

Columbia

COMMUNITY SING SERIES: These used to be our favorite short, but since they have replaced living characters with an animated background, they are not worth anything. My patrons used to sing, but now they make fun of the reel.—Raymon Paul, Sea Breeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town and rural patronage.

FOX AND THE GRAPES, THE: Color Rhapsodies—This is an unexpectedly good color cartoon of the belly-laugh type. The audience will eat it up as it is very funny. Running time, 8 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

M-G-M TITLE CHANGE!

New Title:

"NAZI AGENT"

(Trade-shown under the title of "Salute to Courage")

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS: No. 2—Always take. This one good.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

CHANGED IDENTITY: Miniature—This prize-winning short story with a surprise ending is well done and seemed to hold interest. However, some people did not get the point until half-way through the next reel. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

FLAG OF MERCY: Passing Parade—Entertaining, tells how and why the Red Cross was organized. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

FLYING BEAR, THE: Technicolor Cartoons—A dandy cartoon.—Raymon Paul, Sea Breeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town and rural patronage.

HELPING HANDS: Our Gang Comedies—Our Gang comedy, "Helping Hands," played with "Honky Tonk" was good.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

MRS. LADYBUG: Color Cartoon—Good color cartoon.—W. R. Pyle, Dreamland Theatre, Rockglen, Sask., Can. Small town patronage.

Paramount

BREEZY LITTLE BEARS: Paragraphics—A dandy Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

GENE KRUPA AND ORCHESTRA: Headliner—Seen better bands. Little overdone. Maybe I'm getting old.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

HAND OF DESTINY: Headliner—Very instructive, but did not please the kids at all. Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

YOUR FAVORITE PROGRAM—THOSE WE LOVE: Headliners—A good short. Running time, 10 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

Republic

BABY STARS: Meet the Stars—One of the best, of this type, in a long time.—Raymon Paul, Sea Breeze Theatre, Beaufort, N. C. Small town patronage.

RKO Radio

EARLY TO BED: Walt Disney Cartoons—A very funny cartoon that had them laughing from start to finish when Donald got tangled up with a folding bed and an alarm clock.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

GROUCHO SPORTS: Sportscope—Argentina's seen ery and cowboys put together an interesting reel with a few laughs near the end. Worth playing. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

GOLDEN EGGS: Walt Disney Cartoons—A real treat.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Canada. General patronage.

HOCKEY CHAMP, THE: Walt Disney Cartoons—O. K. in every way. Why can't all the cartoons be as good? Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

ROLLING RHYTHM: Sportscope—Very good; good for any situation.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

UGLY DUCKLING, THE: Walt Disney Cartoons—As usual, a fine picture. Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

BRINGING HOME THE BACON: Terrytoons—A nice black and white cartoon. Not up to the colors. Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

FISHING MADE EASY: Terrytoon—A black and white that is better than a lot of colored ones.—W. R. Pyle, Dreamland theatre, Rockglen, Sask., Can. Small town patronage.

HIGHWAY OF FRIENDSHIP: Adventures News-cameraman—Interesting ride down the new highway through Mexico and into Central America. Will be plenty useful, soon.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

MOVIETONE NEWS: The well arranged departments or sections of this news makes a complete unit of dandy entertainment. It makes an excellent introduction for any program.—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Ft. Lupton, Col. Farming and mining community patronage.

OLD OAKEN BUCKET, THE: Terrytoon—This one was perfect. Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

ONE MAN NAVY, THE: Terrytoons—A good one. Pleased kids big and little. Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

SOLDIERS OF THE SKY: Adventures News-cameraman—A very timely picture. Everyone should play it. Running time, 10 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

Universal

BOOGIE, WOOGIE BUGLE BOY OF COMPANY B: Color Cartune—An exceptionally funny cartoon and worth a date on any program.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

DOIN' THE TOWN: Musical—Ozzie Nelson's band in a nice reel with Helen Parrish and Butch and Buddy thrown in for good measure. Running time, 16 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

GOING PLACES: No. 88—About deserts in America. Several favorable comments. Running time, 10 minutes.—C. A. Smith, Regent Theatre, Chapleau, Ontario, Can. Small town patronage.

IN THE GROOVE: Musicals—Pretty good vaudeville acts and can be spotted anywhere.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

Vitaphone

BIRD CAME C. O. D., THE: Merrie Melodies Cartoons—Good cartoon in color. Running time, 7 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

CALLING ALL GIRLS: Broadway Brevities—Good two reel musical show. Running time, 20 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

CAT'S TALE, THE: Merrie Melody—A good cartoon. Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

FORTY BOYS AND A SONG: Melody Master—Nice singing from a group of youngsters. All types of music are done so it ought to appeal to everyone. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

GAY PARISIAN, THE: Technicolor Special—Good dancing act in color, but will not please in a small town. Running time, 20 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

HOP, SKIP AND A CHUMP: Merrie Melodies Cartoons—Two Laurel and Hardy crows try to catch a grasshopper, with humorous results. Very good, but others in this series are better. Running time, 8 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

Serials

Columbia

GREEN ARCHER, THE: Victor Jory, Iris Meredith, James Craven—Everyone was glad when it was over, and many told me so. There are plenty of serials, so don't let Columbia try to convince you this is good because the public will surely convince you otherwise!—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col. Farming and mining community patronage.

TERRY AND THE PIRATES: William Tracy, Granville Owen, Joyce Bryant—This serial from Columbia surprised me. It was fairly good. Majority of their serials lack story and direction. But this didn't, except in a few places the director could have used more effort on his characters. This serial will attract both children and adults.—G. S. Caporal, Yale Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. Neighborhood patronage.

Republic

JUNGLE GIRL: Frances Gifford, Tom Neal—People liked it but anything on the "Tarzan" order always pleases. It's worth playing and will draw both children and adults.—E. K. Menagh, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Col. Farming and mining community patronage.

JUNGLE GIRL: Frances Gifford, Tom Neal—One of the best serials ever played. Has held up fine all the way. Hate to see it end. Running time, 20 minutes.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Texas. Small town patronage.

Universal

RIDERS OF DEATH VALLEY: Dick Foran, Leo Carrillo, Buck Jones, Charles Bickford—This serial has a good cast of known names, but they just go round in circles, pretty much patterned after the inevitable chase in every western. Running a serial here has hurt our midweek business and this one will be our last.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

Warners Net $2,079,601 in 13 Weeks

Warner Bros. and subsidiary companies, according to a financial report issued on Monday in New York, showed a net operating profit for 13 weeks ended November 29th, 1941, of $2,079,601 after deducting all charges including amortization, depreciation and normal Federal income taxes. This compares with a net operating profit of $1,276,316 for the same period the previous year. No provision was made for excess profits taxes.

During the 13 weeks ended November 29th, 1941, there was an additional provision for contingencies in the amount of $300,000, representing net assets of subsidiaries operating in foreign territories. As a result of war conditions, the company reported, accounts of these subsidiaries operating in enemy or enemy occupied countries are no longer consolidated. Consequently, the investments in and advances to such subsidiaries, amounting to $187,719, have been charged against reserve for contingencies.

Net profit for the period, before charges for amortization, depreciation of properties and Federal income taxes, was $4,383,092. The gross income, after eliminating intercompany transactions, was $28,586,534, as compared with $24,934,448 for the corresponding period in 1940. Cash in the United States at November 29th, 1941, amounted to $9,064,967, as against $7,431,248 at August 30th, 1941.

The $2,079,601 net operating profit is equal after 13 weeks' dividend requirements on $3.85 preferred stock, (on which unpaid dividends on December 1st, 1941, amounted to $33.69 per share), to 53 cents a share on 3,701,090 shares, (par $5) of common stock, excluding 100,254 shares held by the company.

Balance sheet items of Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc., and subsidiaries as of November 30, 1941, compare as follows:

	Nov. 29, '41	Nov. 30, '40
Total assets	$174,425,723	$166,024,775
*Ld. bldgs. eq., etc.	124,343,561	127,499,529
Cash	9,064,967	8,452,922
Inventories	20,425,259	15,086,910
Current assets	31,172,504	25,651,177
Notes and loans payable	1,239,754	1,190,619
Current liabilities	17,093,057	15,278,969
Fund & other long-term debt	56,186,402	60,200,479
Earned surplus	11,221,797	5,733,289
Capital surplus	57,316,562	57,316,562
$3.85 pfd. shares	99,617	99,617
Common shares	13,701,090	3,701,090
* After depreciation and amortization. † Excludes 100,255 treasury shares. ‡ Excludes 3,400 treasury shares.

Keith Reduces Capital

B. F. Keith Corp. filed a certificate with the Secretary of State in Albany on Monday, for reduction of its capital stock. The corporation plans to eliminate 6,000 shares of 8 per cent convertible preferred stock amounting to $600,000, it was reported, reducing its authorized capital to $19,400,000 represented by 194,000 shares of $100 par value common stock.

Samuel Goldwyn, Inc., it was reported in Albany this week, filed a certificate for "change of purposes and eliminations of provisions," in its original 1924 incorporation, permitting the company to widen its operations.

Farnsworth, Mutual Report

Farnsworth Television and Radio Corp. reported this week in New York a net profit for the six months ended October 31st, 1941, of $205,944, compared with a net loss of $94,592 in the same period the previous year.

Mutual Broadcasting System's monthly bill-

HERALD PEOPLE

By Staff Photographer

SADIE MADDEN owns the voice that greets you at Circle 7-3100. Born and educated in Brooklyn, she came to Quigley Publications in 1930, and she has been chief operator ever since. Most of the time she can tell you, not ask you, who is calling. She loves to bake, is very adroit with a pair of knitting needles, and has an ambition to travel, especially to see America first.

ings exceeded the $1,000,000 mark for the first time in the chain's history, it was announced, when billings for January, 1942, totaled $1,024,512. The previous high was $958,935 in November, 1941. January, 1942 billings represent an increase of 102.8 per cent over the same month last year when billings totaled $505,231.

RCA Dividends

Following the regular board of directors' meeting of Radio Corporation of America in New York last Friday, David Sarnoff, company president, announced that quarterly dividends had been declared on the outstanding shares of RCA $3.50 first preferred stock and outstanding shares of "B" preferred stock. The dividend on the first preferred stock is 87½ per share and dividend on the "B" stock is $1.25 per share. These dividends are for the period from January 1st, 1942 to March 31st, 1942, and will be paid on April 1st, 1942 to stockholders of record at the close of business March 6th, 1942.

Paramount Contracts Mount

Neil F. Agnew, general sales manager of Paramount, last week reported a new weekly record in new contracts for the company. A total of 1,738 contracts on current product were forwarded to the home office by salesmen, he said. It was the largest number of deals in any week since the advent of blocks-of-five selling. Mr. Agnew said that contracts on all Paramount blocks, as well as the "Louisiana Purchase" special and Hopalong Cassidy western blocks showed a decided gain.

Award Universal Short

The Universal short subject, "Doin' the Town," has been awarded a silver plaque by the editors of the University of Pennsylvania's Daily Pennsylvanian as the outstanding band subject of the year.

ANOTHER REPUBLIC
FAN MAGAZINE
AD

11th HOUR NEWS about a BIG PICTURE

WHEN you see
"A TRAGEDY AT MIDNIGHT,"
YOU'LL be seeing one of the most UNUSUAL and

INTRIGUING mystery melodramas
OF the year... We defy you to DETERMINE the murderer of BEAUTIFUL Evelyn Dennis, the girl
WHO lived two secret lives and WHOSE romantic escapades were
THE talk of the town... that is,
UNTIL all the clues
ARE woven into a
WEB that entraps
THE killer by GREG SHERMAN,
THE radio sleuth
WHOSE habit of BEATING the cops
AT their own game
WILL have you
IN stitches... As GREG, you'll meet
HANDSOME JOHN

HOWARD... and the role of his WIFE and helpmate (?) is played by YOUR favorite for this sort of role—
MARGARET LINDSAY... In the SPLENDID supporting cast, you'll FIND such top-notchers as MENACING KEYE LUKE,
UPROARIOUS ROSCOE KARNS,
BEWITCHING MONA BARRIE,
AND Republic's newest young
DISCOVERY, MARILYN HARE...
FOR excitement, action,
COMEDY—you'll find
"A TRAGEDY AT MIDNIGHT"
ONE of the year's best!
DON'T miss it! It's

A REPUBLIC PICTURE

FINAL 'OSCAR' NOMINATIONS UP FOR ACADEMY COUNT

61 Pictures Mentioned in Classifications from Act- ing to Technical Work

Ballots were mailed this week to some 10,000 industry workers eligible for the final voting of the 14th annual competition of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences whose annual awards dinner February 26 will be marked by simplified dignity because of war-time conditions.

Achievements of 61 pictures were entered in the various classifications of the awards, from creative to technical.

Of these 61 pictures, United Artists led with ten releases placed in nominations; RKO was second with nine releases; Paramount and Warners next, with seven releases each.

Twentieth Century-Fox, Universal and M-G-M had six apiece; Columbia had five; Republic, four; and Monogram, one.

"York" in 11 Classifications

Of the pictures themselves, the achievements of Warners' "Sergeant York" were entered in 11 classifications. Twentieth Century-Fox' "How Green Was My Valley" was entered in ten; Mercury-RKO's "Citizen Kane" in nine; Goldwyn-RKO's "The Little Foxes" in eight; Columbia's "Here Comes Mr. Jordan" in seven; "Hold Back the Dawn," Paramount, six; Goldwyn-RKO's "Ball of Fire" and M-G-M's "Blossoms in the Dust," four each.

Entered in three achievement classifications were "The Maltese Falcon," Warners; "Suspicion," RKO; "Sundown," Wanger-U.A.; "The Chocolate Soldier," M-G-M; "That Hamilton Woman," Korda-U.A.; "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," M-G-M.

Work of nine pictures were entered in two classifications each, and the remaining 38, in one, each.

RKO and Warners each had three pictures nominated for the outstanding production "Oscar." RKO's were "Citizen Kane" (Mercury), "The Little Foxes" (Goldwyn), and "Suspicion." Warners' were "The Maltese Falcon," "One Foot in Heaven," and "Sergeant York."

The other four named in this classification were "Blossoms in the Dust," M-G-M; "Here Comes Mr. Jordan," Columbia; "Hold Back the Dawn," Paramount, and "How Green Was My Valley," 20th Century-Fox.

Welles in Three Divisions

Personal triumphs were numerous in the nominations. Greatest was that of Orson Welles.

His production work nominated for the outstanding production statuette, Welles was named in the best actor, best direction and best original screenplay divisions, the latter with Herman J. Mankiewicz.

"Citizen Kane," the first picture radio-stage figure Welles had ever worked in, on and with, was also nominated in the black and white art direction, sound recording, black and white cinematography, best scoring of a dramatic picture and film editing sections.

Bette Davis, twice winner of the coveted statuette, was nominated again for the best actress award, by virtue of her work in "The Little Foxes."

Walter Brennan, the only actor to win an Academy award three times, is in the running for the supporting actor award, for his performance as the backwoods preacher in "Sergeant York."

Supporting Players

Robert Montgomery's role in "Here Comes Mr. Jordan," for which he was nominated for the best actor award, was his last before becoming lieutenant commander with the U. S. Navy. Last year's award winner is James Stewart, now Lieutenant Stewart.

Making their film debut in "The Little Foxes" were Patricia Collinge, stage veteran, and Teresa Wright, a novice. Both were nominated for the supporting actress accolade, marking the first time in Academy nominations that two roles from the same picture are contending for the same award.

Also making his film debut, and subsequently his debut in the Academy nominations, is Sydney Greenstreet, who plays the role of the rotund fortune hunter in "The Maltese Falcon." He's from the stage.

John Ford, now in the Navy, has won the Academy award for direction twice. He's nominated again for his work on "How Green Was My Valley."

Screen Writers Nominated

Unusual, in the extreme, are the writing feats of John Huston.

Mr. Huston collaborated with Abem Finkel, Harry Chandler and Howard Koch on the original screenplay of "Sergeant York," which was nominated in that division, and his solo screenplay on "The Maltese Falcon" is up for the screenplay award. In addition, he directed "The Maltese Falcon" as his first directorial assignment at Warners. The picture is a nominee for the outstanding production award.

Charles Brackett and Billy Wilder's screenplay for "Hold Back the Dawn" is named for the best written screenplay. Wilder and Thomas Monroe's original, "Ball of Fire," is up for the best original motion picture story honors.

Harry Segall's original story, "Here Comes Mr. Jordan," is competing for the best original motion picture story trophy; Sidney Buchman and Seton I. Miller's adaptation of it is up for the best written screenplay award.

One English Entry

The only English entry this year in the Academy accolade lists is "Night Train," distributed by 20th Century-Fox. Gordon Wellesley's original story has been nominated in that section.

Of the eight pictures nominated for the special effects award, four of them deal with aviation backgrounds.

None of the writers nominated in the three writing awards groups have ever won an Academy statuette.

It is interesting to note the outline of achievements nominated in the individual pictures.

Various Honors Cited

"Sergeant York" is nominated in eleven classifications:

Outstanding production, best actor (Gary Cooper), best supporting actor (Walter Brennan), best supporting actress (Margaret Wycherly), best direction (Howard Hawks), best original screenplay (Abem Finkel, Harry Chandler, Howard Koch and John Huston), black and white art direction, sound recording, black and white cinematography, best dramatic picture musical scoring, and film editing.

Runner-up in the "sweepstakes" is "How Green Was My Valley." Its nominations are as follows:

Outstanding production, best supporting actor (Donald Crisp), best supporting actress (Sara Allgood), best direction (John Ford), best screenplay (Philip Dunne), black and white art direction, sound recording, black and white cinematography, best dramatic picture scoring, and film editing.

"The Little Foxes" has a chance at eight statuettes and plaques. They are for:

Outstanding production, best actress (Bette Davis), best supporting actress (two nominees, Patricia Collinge and Teresa Wright), best direction (William Wyler), best screenplay (Lillian Hellman), black and white art direction, best dramatic picture scoring, and film editing.

Eight divisions list achievements in "Here Comes Mr. Jordan." They follow:

Outstanding production, best actor (Robert Montgomery), best supporting actor (James Gleason), best direction (Alexander Hall), best screenplay (Sidney Buchman and Seton I. Miller), best original story (Harry Segall), and black and white cinematography.

More Nominations

Work in "Hold Back the Dawn" finds itself in six divisions, as follows:

Outstanding production, best actress (Olivia de Havilland), best screenplay (Charles Brackett and Billy Wilder), black and white art direction, black and white cinematography, best dramatic picture scoring.

Although nominated for the outstanding production trophy, Warners' "One Foot in Heaven" is listed in no other classification of the awards, a rather unusual occurrence.

"Blossoms in the Dust," the only picture in Technicolor to be nominated for outstanding production, is listed also in the following divisions: best actress (Greer Garson), color art direction, and color cinematography.

"Suspicion," nominated for outstanding production honors, is nominated in two other divisions, that of outstanding actress (Joan Fontaine) and best dramatic picture scoring.

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

*An international association of showmen meeting weekly
in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress*

A-MIKE VOGEL, Chairman and Editor

GERTRUDE MERRIAM, Associate Editor

REASON FOR PRIDE

Why does your manager take up with showbusiness as a career? His temperament, his talents fit him for it. He likes the kind of work the theatre calls for. More than not, he is proud of his part in it. Beyond that, your theatreman is too busy on the job to be preoccupied with any philosophy of motion picture values, too near the target to realize the deep significance of the motion picture in the life of the nation.

Now attending the Officers Training School at Fort Sill, Okla., Round Tabler Francis Gillon is able to judge the terrific impact of the screen upon the consciousness of the man in service. Away from his boxoffice, the former manager of Tri-States LeClaire in Moline, Ill., sees more clearly the vital need the motion picture fills in supplying happiness, in maintaining precious morale.

Gillon dwells upon the subject in an interesting communication to this department. He notes the reasons for his pride in being associated with the "finest business in the world". Here is Francis:

"The fact is that I have been able to formulate a more definite opinion of the value of motion pictures. Before leaving the theatre for this 'short vacation', I only knew that the theatre was the place where my particular ability seemed fitted. I found an amiable association with a fine employer, a pleasant relation with the public—and, in general, a job that I liked and that seemed to like me. Beyond that I had not made any observation.

"However, during these few months in the army I have discovered many reasons that convince me that the motion picture business is the finest in the world, that I am proud to have had a small association with it, and am more determined than ever to return to that business when Uncle Sam has put Adolf, Benito and Hirohito in their respective places. The reason for that determination is not the pure and simple fact that I'll be looking for a job, but because of the inestimable value of the motion picture that I've been able to observe while here in the army.

"The motion picture has advanced far beyond the classification of a luxury in the army. It is as necessary as the soldier's three meals a day. When taken at regular intervals, the movies are the greatest single morale at work in the army today. The army has its Service Clubs, libraries and dances, but the combination of all can't come close to equalling the force of the motion picture.

"Within the walls of any post theatre, you can find several hundred young men enjoying a few hours of complete relaxation—so important to them. Forgotten in the make-believe of a light-hearted musical, a story-book classic come to life or a Hopalong Cassidy are any and all cares that may be on the soldier's mind. Spontaneous laughter—in fact, all emotions—are unharnessed. The girl, the job and the folks he misses so all slip into another world. Even the sergeant who barks those commands is forgotten. When the show is over, a completely new, exhilarated young man emerges from the theatre. A determination to attack his new job with greater vim is radiated in his actions.

"Likewise, army training is stimulated by the use of the motion picture. Otherwise complex and tedious explanations are simplified, made clear and enjoyable by well-made training reels.

"Impressive, too, is the influence of the lives of the stars on all persons. These people who are the characters on the screen aren't strangers to the public—but intimate friends. A few days ago—Carole Lombard died. The shock, the profound sympathy and feeling of personal loss is something indescribable. Tears as sincere as those of Clark Gable were shed in the hearts of millions of moviegoers. A business that establishes itself in such a manner is most certainly a vital force in the lives of Americans.

"For these reasons I have come to realize why the motion picture field is one with which I shall always want to be associated. I know I can work hard in a business that has so much to give the public and asks so little in return."

ROUND TABLERS will be pleased with the news of Charlie Schlaifer's appointment to the Sam Goldwyn promotional forces, announced last week. Now in the field, hard at it, Charlie returns to these parts after long and fruitful service in San Francisco, of which these pages have had frequent occasion to note and in which the Schlaifer endeavors will continue to be told.

A-Mike Vogel

Round Table in Pictures

For the background of his "Sun Valley" lobby display, Lester Kolste at the Van Der Vaart, Sheboygan, used an old 40 by 60 and, from still another, a 4 foot cutout of Henie. This was placed on turntable for animation.

Measuring 36 feet in length by 11 feet in height and reported by Homer Harman, ad head, was the lobby display created for the New York Roxy consisting of four transparencies backed by double flasher, which projects light on the face of the transparency.

Ahead of "Bahama Passage" at the L. & J. Palace, Athens, Ga., Frank Bickerstaff cut out three and one sheets and mounted them on table in outer lobby covered with sand. Background featured cloth sign painted to resemble a sea scene.

Offering season pass to anyone joining up during date on "Keep 'Em Flying" at the Regent, Sudbury, Ontario, Round Tabler Vernon Burns set up recruiting station in his lobby for the purpose. The recruiting advertising was carried out week ahead in cooperating paper, co-op page paid for by army headquarters.

Honored by the Utica, N. Y., Advertising Club for his Quigley Awards successes, Arnold Stoltz of Warner's Avon Theatre receives his 1941 Quartermaster Plaque at a luncheon of the organization. Hon. Vincent Corrou, mayor, makes the presentation while Frank M. Davis, Ad Club president, looks on.

SWAMP WATER

Planted at strategic spots around the foyer of the Fox, in St. Louis, by Manager Clyde Brown were atmospheric displays similar to one illustrated at right. Promoted from local taxidermist were various mounted species of birds, which were placed on moss covered floor together with scene stills and tie-in copy.

For the engagement of "Sundown" at Loew's State, in Newark, a manikin of Gene Tierney was landed by Manager Pete Argyris in window of leading department store 10 days in advance.

Four signs similar to the one above were planted by Jack Matlack of the Craterian, Medford, Ore., on main highways ahead of "Honky Tonk".

Tying to the tire rationing news, Manager Ray Parker, F&M Shady Oak, St. Louis, equipped his staff for this shot which he planted in the downtown dailies. That's Parker, second from left.

LATE EXPLOITATION FLASHES

DUPLICATES CONCERT AD TO SELL RISE STEVENS

Playing "Chocolate Soldier" day-and-date with the concert appearance of Rise Stevens in nearby Toronto, Manager W. G. McGeachie tied the star to his showing at the FPC Algoma, Sault Sainte Marie, Ontario, with a newspaper ad that duplicated the layout used in the Toronto papers to announce the concert date and reserved seat prices. Then, below, and in italics, Mac ran the following note:

"Music lovers of Sault Ste. Marie and district will not have to pay $3.00 to see and hear this great new singing discovery. Rise Stevens is at the Algoma today, Thursday and Friday with Nelson Eddy in," etc.

Though at first glance, readers assumed the ad was plugging the concert, the subsequent copy helped to build the star draw in the picture, especially among what Mac terms the local "three-dollar crowd."

VETERAN UNDER CUSTER INTERVIEWED FOR "BOOTS"

Discovering that a local resident had served under General Custer and was present at the Little Big Horn battlefield shortly after the fatal engagement, Dick Feldman succeeded in persuading the veteran to be interviewed by one of the papers in advance of "They Died With Their Boots On" at the RKO-Schine Paramount, in Syracuse. The old soldier told of his service under Custer, describing in detail many of the backgrounds screened in the picture and dwelt upon the fighting qualities of both the American soldiers and the Indians.

The experiences were found of sufficient interest by the daily to be made up into a four-column feature in which, of course, the theatre and picture were duly mentioned.

OFFER LOVE LESSONS ON "JOHNNY EAGER"

Calling attention to the coming date on "Johnny Eager" at the Tri-States Omaha, Ted Emerson describes a novelty stunt of a guest ticket offer on an audience-participation slant. It started with a three-frame trailer which read: "Want to know how to start a love affair with a strange guy or gal? . . . Well, look under your seat and see if there's a message from Robert Taylor." "Find one? Then you are to be his guest while he love-blitzes Lana Turner in" etc., etc.

Cards with tie-in copy were fastened to the bottom of a number of seats at each performance covering the auditorium, mezzanine and balcony floors. About 20 were used at each show and caused a lot of buzzing, according to the Tri-State ad head.

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

KEEP SMILING
M. Grundenker....

★ CHIN UP, AMERICA!
There's a job to be done and the motion picture industry rises to the emergency with a cheerful and united front. Great entertainments are available to keep the morale of our people high for the effort ahead. We dedicate our resources to making your theatre a place where needed relaxation will be assured.

★ In the presentation of these bigger and better shows the Rockland Theatre is thoroughly prepared for any emergency. Our well trained staff has been drilled to maintain the safety of its patrons at all times.

The New
HUNT'S Rockland THEATRE
BROAD & ROCKLAND STS.

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

To "personalize" his five-by-seven berald to the mailing list of Hunt's New Rockland, Philadelphia, Manager Bill Gerst letters patron's name on cover, as noted above.

FEULNER OFFERS THEATRE FOR CLUB PRIZE DRAWING

Learning that a model home was being raffled by the Lions Club of a neighboring community, Joe Feulner of the Des Plaines, in Des Plaines, Ill., worked his way into the promotion by offering the use of the theatre for the drawing. Since local facilities were limited, the committee accepted the offer and cooperated by assisting in the sale of tickets for a special midnight show where the prize was to be awarded. The local papers came in accordingly, the extra publicity spotlighting the theatre in the surrounding area.

MARCH ALSO HAS A "FRIDAY, 13TH"

Suggested for adaptation on Friday, the 13th of March, is the stunt featured by Herman Addison at Schine's Paramount, in Glens Falls, ahead of "Woman of the Year", which opened there on February 13th. Gaily tinted 5½ by 3½ inch cards were distributed by the Round Tabler, with copy in bold type reading: "Friday the 13th is your lucky day. See the happy-go-lucky hit of the year starring Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn in . . .", etc., etc.

ROXY CREATES BROCHURE ON COMING ATTRACTIONS

Following the buildup of coming attractions and personalities as illustrated in the giant wall background reproduced in this issue, and reported by Homer Harmans, is the four-page brochure now being distributed at the New York Roxy calling attention to the theatre's entertainment "for the recreation of Americans winning the war," the latter comprising the front cover copy.

Inside spread is headed "Yes, the Roxy Theatre, through the cooperation of the great 20th Century-Fox Studios will help keep Americans' chins up." Following are brief descriptions of coming attractions including listings of the stars and featured players. Back page of brochure publicizes the stage shows.

SIMULATED COIN ROLLS CATCH ON FOR "RICH"

Lots of excitement in Toronto, Canada, recently, when Allan Eason at the FPC Oakwood Theatre used a rolled money gag on "You'll Never Get Rich." Small wooden rolls sized to fit inside of regulation coin wrappers were imprinted with title, rolled in wrappers and dropped on main streets, in front of banks and other spots where traffic was thick. The many "finders" spread the word widely for the benefit of the date.

Eason secured the wrappers from his bank, the wood obtained from a lumber yard in long pieces and then cut to fit. The staff imprinted the rolls and handled the wrapping.

TRANSPARENCIES BRING CLERGY ENDORSEMENT

Continuing his success in the display of illuminated transparencies made up by a local company, Tom Soriero recently concluded the showing of a series of religious paintings, the transparencies copied from famous masterpieces and displayed in the large foyer of the United Artists Theatre, in Los Angeles. Postcards were mailed to clergymen and other community leaders calling attention to the display and brought to the notice of the public by a newspaper article by a leading clergyman. Soriero featured the unusual display with dignity to fit in with his campaign on "Dumbo," which was his screen attraction.

GUNS FOR SALVAGE DISPLAYED AT THEATRE

Learning that First World War cannons used as memorials at the City Park in North Bay, Ontario, were to be removed by the local Salvage Committee, Jack Nelson arranged to have them paraded to the Capitol theatre lobby for a four-day display. The dailies carried the news in a page-one story in which the theatre was duly credited.

Klingler Reports On "Joe Smith"

The newspaper copy reproduced in last week's issue for Paul Klingler's campaign on "Joe Smith, American" at the Rialto, in Lewistown, Pa., was an indication of the spirited promotion effected by the Round Tabler with the assistance of Charlie Barron, MGM exploiter and represented by a series of page one stories to emphasize the Pennsylvania premiere of the date. Among other slants was a classified tie-in, wherein all persons in the county by the name of "Joe Smith" were invited to be guests on presentation of their driver's licenses.

Radio was employed for lobby broadcast on opening night, to televise the appearance of the VFW band, which gave a concert in front of the theatre. The premiere was also plugged in the theatre's daily program. The VFW band led a parade through the business district, the procession composed of Boy Scouts, Sea Scouts, veterans units, among others. Theatre front was decorated with flags and bunting and lighted by flares, spotlights, etc. Featured front decorations was a nine-foot cutout of the "hero in overalls" figure with silhouette of uniformed soldier in background. Further atmosphere was added by cutouts of bombers working on a flasher circuit and top of the box-office was decorated to resemble the dome of the nation's capitol.

The many factories in the area were contacted for cooperation and consented to publicize the premiere in bulletins and announcements. Adopted by one of the largest plants was a small imprinted blotter with cut of Uncle Sam placed in pay envelopes, the copy reading: "He salutes you for the great work you are doing in National Defense, the same as you will salute 'Joe Smith, American,'" etc.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Modern Slang Contest Highlights "Ball of Fire"

Ed Vaughn of the Mesa Theatre, Grand Junction, Colo., with the cooperation of RKO Radio field representative T. Bidwell McCormick, staged a modern slang contest as the highlight of his campaign for "Ball of Fire." Audiences were asked to submit lists on up-to-the-minute slang with a committee of students from Mesa College acting as judges. Cash prizes and theatre tickets were awarded the winners. Vaughn also tied-in with the Daily Sentinel, which ran feature stories publicizing the contest and crediting the attraction, theatre and play-date well in advance of the opening.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

'Strange Playmates' Contest Held by Waltmon on 'Playmates'

Burge Waltmon of the Princess Theatre, in Columbus, Miss., cooperated with his local daily for an odd pictorial contest tied in with Kay Kyser's "Playmates". The basis of the contest was a picture series of strange playmates, such as a pigeon riding on a dog's back, a kitten and a dog and chickens and a cat eating out of the same plate. The strange playmates in the picture are Kyser and John Barrymore.

THE "FORTNIGHTS"

The Third Fortnight of the First Quarter of the 1942 Competitions discloses a total listing of 67 Appointments among 70 entrants, the extra three for double credit entries. The Third Fortnight results also incorporate promotions from Round Tablers outside of the United States, particularly from Yorkshire in England and Mexico City, D. F.

H. M. ADDISON
Schine's Paramount
Glens Falls, N. Y.

STAN ANDREWS
Broadway, Timmins, Ont., Canada

BOB BEREZIN
Elgin, Ottawa, Ont., Canada

HERBERT BERMAN
Norbury, Ellenville, N. Y.

FRANK BICKERSTAFF
L. & J. Palace, Athens, Ga.

MEL BLIEDEN
State, Anderson, Ind.

LIGE BRIEN
Belmar, Pittsburgh, Pa.

CAROLINA BRUNSON
Rialto, Phoenix, Ariz.

BILL BURKE
Capitol, Sarnia, Ont., Canada

VERNON BURNS
Regent, Sudbury, Ont., Canada

JACK CAMPBELL
Capitol, Brampton, Ont., Canada

IRVING CANTOR
Schine's Palace, Syracuse, N. Y.

JAMES CATTELL
Park, Mansfield, Ohio

A. J. CLARKE
Majestic, Providence, R. I.

L. A. COHEN
Loew's Poli, Hartford, Conn.

CLAYT CORNELL
Schine's State, Tupper Lake, N. Y.

JACK COTTER
Colonial, Erie, Pa.

GEORGE C. CRONIN
Strand, Portland, Me.

FRANCIS DEERING
Loew's, Houston, Tex.

LEWIS DREISBACH
Ora, Freeport, Tex.

A. EASSON
Oakwood, Toronto, Ont., Canada

PETE EGAN
Palace, Calgary, Alta., Canada

BILL ELDER
Loew's, Indianapolis, Ind.

TED EMERSON
Omaha, Omaha, Neb.

JAMES "DOC" ESTES
Park, Iowa Park, Tex.

JACK A. FARR
L.-G. Jewel, Texas City, Tex.

DICK FELDMAN
Paramount, Syracuse, N. Y.

ED FITZPATRICK
Loew's Poli, Waterbury, Conn.

JOE FEULNER
Des Plaines, Des Plaines, Ill.

ARNOLD GATES
Loew's Park, Cleveland, Ohio

S. G. GILLESPIE
Marks, Oshawa, Ont., Canada

MARTIN GLAZER
BEN ROSENBERG
Paramount, Boston, Mass.

EDGAR GOTH
Fabian, Staten Island, N. Y.

J. MELGOW
Capitol, Nanaimo, B. C., Canada

ED HARRIS
Glendale, Glendale, Calif.

JOHN HEFLINGER
Lafayette, St. Louis, Mo.

GUY W. HEVIA
Empire, Syracuse, N. Y.

BILL JOHNSON
Smalley, Dolgeville, N. Y.

BOB JOHNSON
Aubert, St. Louis, Mo.

MEL JOLLEY
Columbia, St. Thomas, Ont., Can.

A. J. KALBERER
Switow's Indiana
Washington, Ind.

C. B. KING
Ritz, McGehee, Ark.

PAUL KLINGLER
Rialto, Lewistown, Pa.

LESTER KOLSTE
Van Der Vaart, Sheboygan, Wis.

ARTHUR KROLOCK
Century, Rochester, N. Y.

JOE LONGO
Loew's, Boston, Mass.

W. McGEACHIE
Algoma, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Can.

ROY METCALFE
Rapids, Rock Rapids, Iowa

CHARLIE MOYER
State, Hanover, Pa.

EDDIE NOONAN
Cine Teatro Olympia, Mexico, D. F.

PAT NOTARO
Columbia, Sharon, Pa.

HUGH O'CAMP
RKO Jefferson, New York City

H. T. RASTETTER
Warner, Erie, Pa.

TOMMY READ
Fox, Atlanta, Ga.

JIMMIE REDMOND
Bonham, Fairbury, Neb.

REYNOLDS ROBERTS
Elite, Middlesbrough
Yorkshire, England

KEN ROCKWELL
Steuben, Hornell, N. Y.

J. A. SANDERS
Colonial, Junction City, Kans.

J. R. SCOTT
Liberty, Pikeville, Ky.

FRANK SHAFFER
Dixie, Staunton, Va.

JOHN W. SHAFFER
W. D. GALLIGAN
Commercial, Chicago, Ill.

CLYDE SMITH
Paramount, Hot Springs, Ark.

HARRY STEARN
SI MONEN
Schine's Manring, Middlesboro, Ky.

ARNOLD STOLTZ
Avon, Utica, N. Y.

AL SWETT
Orpheum, Danvers, Mass.

FELIX TISDALE
Ga-Ana, Georgiana, Ala.

DOC TWEDT
Lido, Manly, Iowa

BRIEF REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

To create interest in the timely picture "Keep 'Em Flying," Frank Bickerstaff at the L&J Palace, in Athens, Ga., had his utility man cut out display of title and stars from 24-sheet and placed it in the outer lobby week before playdates. Toy planes, bombers, etc., along with statues of soldiers were placed on miniature airport. Special balloons printed with title and playdate were made up and tossed from tallest building in the city. Some of the balloons were carried to a civic club and 100 distributed at a basketball game with the University of Georgia and Southern Carolina.

▽

For "Tarzan's Secret Treasure," Joe Humphries, manager of the Palace Theatre, Lansford, Pa., distributed animal crackers to the children in town, informing them that the biscuits were patterned after the animals to be seen in the picture.

▽

For the purpose of selling "Let's Go Collegiate," Pop Graver, manager of Warner's Grove Theatre, Willow Grove, Pa., had a boy posted at the local high school with a card heralding the picture and inviting the students to the theatre. A tie-up with a local gown shop was arranged for "Week-End In Havana," featuring the gowns worn in the picture. Moreover, local dance bands were successfully persuaded to play the song hits from the picture.

▽

Bob Kessler, manager of Warners' Benn Theatre, Philadelphia, tied up with the Philadelphia Inquirer for 2,000 Dick Tracy joke books and G-men guns to give away at the opening of his new serial, "Dick Tracy vs. Crime." Masks also came with the tie-up.

▽

Walter Leach, manager of Warner's State Theatre, Chester, Pa., for "You'll Never Get Rich," promoted 500 song title sheets, 1,000 post cards, 15 window store tie-ups, 1,000 autographed photos of Rita Hayworth and truck displays from a local bakery firm.

▽

An attractive window display was used by Syd Poppay, manager of Warners' Majestic Theatre, Gettysburg, Pa., to sell "It Started With Eve." A local food store placed a huge bowl of apple sauce in the window and decorated it with stills and catch lines from the picture.

▽

Herman Comer, manager of Warners' Capitol Theatre, Philadelphia, arranged a striking nautical front for his engagement of "Sailors on Leave." Oars and life-preservers gave the impression that the Capitol's facade was just waiting to go out to sea.

FROM READERS

In the issue of January 31 was printed a letter from George Pappas, manager of the Rialto Theatre, in Beaver Falls, Pa., suggesting that theatre owners, managers, assistants, doormen, ushers and cashiers donate a day's wages toward purchasing bombers. Among the early responses is the following from Mario Battiston, owner and manager of the Ritz Theatre, in Export, Pa., who said:

"In looking over my MOTION PICTURE HERALD, I ran across the news that Mr. Pappas wrote and I thought it would be a good idea if I wrote and let you know that I have already begun my drive towards the 'Bomber Fund.' In fact, I am the first in these parts and now there is another theatre doing the same."

Mr. Battiston enclosed clipping from his local paper stating that a benefit show would be held at his theatre, all films being donated by the various distributors, while the owner was donating his service and theatre for the cause.

Lee Kline, manager of Warners' Orpheum Theatre, Philadelphia, tied in with the American Red Cross in arranging for an auction of copies of "One Foot in Heaven." Kline arranged for Fredric March to autograph the book during the star's appearance in the city. For "Stars Look Down," Kline conceived the following card idea. Measuring 3x5½ and appended with this copy: "The Stars Look Down at the foot of this page. If the number on this leaflet corresponds to one posted in the lobby of our theatre, you will receive a pass to, etc."

▽

Lana Turner, MGM star, has been selected by the National Association of Beauticians and Cosmetologists as the girl with the finest complexion in America. Miss Turner's latest picture, "Johnny Eager," in which she is co-starred with Robert Taylor, is a current release.

▽

"Romantic T. N. T." was the copy on barrels on Norfolk street corners as one of the features of the "Johnny Eager" campaign put over by Joel Margolis, Loew's.

▽

Capitalizing on the popularity of the J. P. Marquand novel, Loewmen Bill Elder, Indianapolis, and Bill Reisinger, Evansville, used giant walking books to ballyhoo "H. M. Pulham, Esq."

▽

A four-page tabloid on "Johnny Eager" was distributed through downtown streets and in A. & P. markets by Martin Burnett, Loew's, Pittsburgh, as a highlight of his campaign for the film.

Artie Cohn, manager of Warners' Roosevelt Theatre, Philadelphia, arranged for a string band from a neighborhood music school to serenade in front of the theatre every night during the showing of "Aloma of the South Seas," providing appropriate hula costumes for the musicians. For "Texas," he used a novelty teaser. Shaped like a bone, the teaser carried the imprint: "We're making no bones about it—but—" On his inside attraction sign for "Navy Blues," Cohn used a red, white and blue gelatin behind the title. As an eye-catching novelty, he put a flasher button behind the "V" in the "Navy," providing for animated V for Victory flashes on and off.

▽

Street bally that attracted for Cass Smith's date on "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" at the Annex Theatre in Detroit was usher dressed as Hyde covering downtown area with "see" copy on his back.

▽

In connection with Navy Day celebration, Gil Green, manager of the Riviera, in Detroit secured the cooperation of radio station WJLB for a special stage show and broadcast carrying patriotic acts. Guests included enlisted men, all of whom participated in the celebration which was followed by a luncheon attended by entire house staff and members of the stage show.

▽

Contacting the local British Ambulance Corps, Phil Grady at the Embassy Theatre, in Brooklyn for his date on "Yank" promoted bombs, ambulances and mobile kitchens which were parked outside the theatre, Scotch bag pipers in full regalia and girls in theatre lobby selling R.A.F. insignias. In addition Grady also promoted from the British Library of Information R.A.F. literature which was distributed to patrons.

▽

Effective was the teaser calling card distributed by C. B. Dortch of the Dixie, in Ruston, La., with just the words "Sergeant York" imprinted in the center. In addition, Dortch mailed government postcards to special list, correspondence side carrying cut of Cooper together with cast and playdates.

▽

Novelty herald which attracted for Arnold Gates of Loew's Park, in Cleveland carried copy on one side reading: "Vital statistics announcement. See other side." Reverse carried cut of the stars appearing in Birth of the Blues, together with picture plug, cast and playdates.

▽

A search for a local Tarzan by Carl Rogers, Loew's, Cleveland, was good for front-page stories as part of his publicity campaign for "Tarzan's Secret Treasure."

▽

Jack Weber, manager of the Colonial Theatre, Lebanon, Pa., sent 1,000 postal cards to local patrons in advance of "Week-End in Havana." The copy read: "Just returned from Cuba, had a lovely time—a gorgeous trip. You'll appreciate it when you see 'Week-End in Havana.'"

KEEP 'EM COMING! BY USING EACH WEEK

$8 per 100 Dated JUMBO CARDS 22X28

3 COLORS - FULL PICTORIAL

WRITE FOR SAMPLES
STATE PRODUCT USED

CENTRAL SHOW PRINTING COMPANY
MAISON, IOWA

Ads Must Work Hard To Bring Them In

This, the second and final installment, completes what Patchen has to say right now on his advertising slants. The Round Tabler's comments in last week's Round Table had to do with "attention hooks" in advertising and the proper emphasis upon the "you attitude".

by E. A. "PAT" PATCHEN
Manager, Chief, Pueblo, Colo.

It would take from five to twelve hours for the average reader to cover every word of an ordinary metropolitan daily. A recent survey gives, as a conservative estimate, about 15 minutes as the actual time spent by the average reader on his daily paper.

This means your ad must work hard and fast. Imagine it blown-up and on a billboard. It's got about as much chance stopping traffic on the highway as it has stopping the average newspaper reader. Take time to make it crisp and brief and to the point.

Cut out all outmoded exaggerations and overstatements. "The Year's Best" is the trademark of a lazy copywriter. "Biggest and best . . . most exciting . . . most thrilling . . . most hilarious . . . most mysterious"—such phrases appear so regularly in some theatre ads that you can't blame the reader for turning the page—quickly.

Use Reader's Language

Although your ad may be read by many persons, they are reading it as individuals, not as a group. Then remember to talk to each reader as an individual. Be specific, informal—use his kind of language. You're not talking to an audience in a packed auditorium—you're selling to one person, one alone, and one at a time.

In the example illustrated (center column) note this catchline: "Here's YOUR Kind of Fun." It promises you, the reader, something you will like—something special and just for you. And you read on!

Give your copy life and animation by the use of well chosen, active words. Note the robust, physically active words in copy:

"You'll roar and roar . . . then just when you think you've got a hold of yourself . . . WHAM it smacks your funny bone and you're off again."

Give Ad Fighting Chance

"Don't sell the steak, sell the sizzle," an oft quoted slogan for advertising men, goes double for movie ad writers. You are selling "effects"—not causes. Most press sheet copy consistently and regularly violates this principle. An example, selected at random, of press sheet selling the "steak" is this:

THEIR BIGGEST HIT! . . . The fiery outcasts of "Sea Wolf" meet again! . . . Out of the bay . . . in the shadows of a fog bound harbor, a great drama is born!

Such copy is obviously selling the show, the steak—not the effect the show will have on you, or the sizzle. Selling the "sizzle," such copy could be revised as:

Here's YOUR Kind of Fun!

Something smooth, smart and sophisticated . . . BUT FUNNY! You'll roar and roar . . . then just when you think you've got a hold of yourself—WHAM it smacks your funny bone and you're off again! But, Oh Boy, how you'll love it!

25c Today 1 to 2 P. M.
Then 25c and 40c (Plus Tax)

MESA
A WESTLAND THEATRE

COMING SOON—
Fred Astaire
Better Than Ever Before with Rita Hayworth
Sensational as a Dancer in
"You'll Never Get Rich"

An Example of Patchen "You" Copy

A THRILLER THAT TAKES YOU PLACES!
... Drama that lifts you out of the everyday world . . . and takes you to an exciting, romantic one . . . of strange places and fascinating people!

Can you not feel one more than the other? Doesn't one very definitely promise you something more for your money?

Put that personal touch into your ad—make it get under the reader's skin. Be careful to include the customer in your catchline. A current 24-sheet bills a star combination as "having the time of their lives, in the hit of their lives." Wouldn't you rather spend your cash on a show if the stars were "having the time of their lives, showing you the time of yours."

Above all, don't be afraid to write and rewrite your copy. Remember it carries the burden of the actual selling job. It has to stand up by itself and coax the reader away from his fireside, his easy chair and his radio. It has a hard job to do. Don't let it down. Give your ad a fighting chance, get it there first with the most selling ideas—and it will sell tickets for you.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Tisdale's Atmospheric Front

In connection with his run of "Aloma of the South Seas," Felix Tisdale at the Ga-Ana, in Georgiana, Ala., through his public address system on the front and screen amplifier played recordings of Dorothy Lamour from the picture. Front was painted with a South Sea Island background including the volcanic eruption with the title and star's name riding the waves of water in the scene.

Community Victory Rally Featured by Addison

Reported as highly effective was the Victory Rally held by Herman Addison for his date on "Sergeant York" at Schine's Paramount, in Glens Falls, and which netted the theatreman excellent newspaper breaks, a "first-timer" for theatrical endeavors to crash other than the amusement pages.

Reminiscent of the Liberty Loan drives, the rally was conducted on stage opening night of picture, with American Red Cross general field director in that area a speaker, and Mayor John Bazinet, honorary chairman of the committee, in charge of the rally. Percentage of the proceeds was turned over to the fund which such groups as American Legion, VFW, Boy and Girl Scouts, etc., participating in the event.

Giant parade to theatre was featured, each contingent carrying banners, bands performing out front. Program opened up with an organ recital of patriotic songs, music furnished by American Legion Fife and Drum Corps. This was followed by speakers, the massing of the colors, pledge of allegiance, everybody singing the Star Spangled Banner and then into the picture.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Coloring Contest Highlights Newman's "Dumbo" Campaign

Frank Newman of the Orpheum Theatre, Portland, Ore., staged a six-day coloring contest as the highlight of his campaign for "Dumbo." The contest ran in the Portland Journal and was sponsored by the Journal Juniors, an organization for youth activities with an active membership of five thousand. The contest, held on alternate days, received daily publicity breaks in all Journal editions up to and including opening day. Forty prizes, cash and theatre passes, were awarded the winners.

Spot announcements over the local radio stations featured the Dumbo records a week in advance of the opening. The music and book departments of local department stores carried elaborate Dumbo displays featuring stills from the picture and crediting the theatre, attraction and playdate. Newman also stepped up his newspaper advertising with the Journal, using a generous allotment of art and feature material.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Man-On-Street Broadcast Sells "Kane" for Goldberg

In connection with the opening of "Citizen Kane" at the Broadway, in San Diego, Cal., Manager Herb Goldberg highlighted his campaign with a novel radio stunt over the popular man-on-the-street program in which two dollar bills were sold for fifty cents. Slant attracted wide-spread attention and received daily radio plugs week ahead.

Another phase of the campaign was a telegram gag, whereby all social clubs were reached by wire. The telegram was to be accepted at the boxoffice for two admissions thus allowing the club to award same as a doorprize and obtain an announcement for the theatre to the membership. Street stunt included 12 attractive girls who distributed rosebuds with appropriate tie-in copy on stems, on busy intersections of downtown district.

personalities

HAROLD BELL

editor of the Comerford Reporter, house organ of the Comerford circuit has been named manager of the Roosevelt Theatre, in Scranton, Pa., succeeding HAROLD MASON, who resigned to accept a civil service post in Philadelphia.

▽

IRVING REFOWICH

is now managing the Refowich Theatre, in Freeland, Pa., succeeding HERMAN HIRSCHBORN, resigned to manage a house near Philadelphia.

▽

NORMAN MYERS

former treasurer of the RKO Palace, in Cleveland has been stepped up to the management of the RKO Keith's 105th Street Theatre succeeding NORMAN EK, who was shifted to the RKO Uptown, in Detroit. GEORGE ROSSMAN as a result of the changes was made assistant to Ken Means at the Palace, Cleveland.

▽

GEORGE FRASER

who managed Warner's Columbia, in Portsmouth, Ohio, has replaced JOHN LA DUE as manager of the Palace, in Lorain, Ohio. PAUL JACOBS has been shifted to the Portsmouth house from the Lyric in the same town, where JAMES TRACY succeeds him.

▽

T. R. THOMPSON, JR.

has been appointed United Artists manager for Kansas City, St. Louis, Omaha and Des Moines with headquarters in Kansas City. Thompson, who resigned last week from his post as Kansas City branch manager for RKO is succeeded by JAMES W. LEWIS.

▽

CHARLES FREEMAN

former manager of the Century Theatre, in Rochester is now in Cleveland with the Universal exchange.

▽

FRANK FLYNN

is the new manager of the Sheridan Theatre, in Indianapolis.

▽

JOE GOLDSTEIN

formerly at Schine's Webster, in Rochester, has been transferred to the circuit's Liberty Theatre there.

▽

PAUL PHILLIPS

manager of North Carolina Theatres, Inc., in Salisbury, N. C., has been elected president of the Chamber of Commerce.

▽

HARVEY HARNICK

manager of the Columbia branch office in Regina, Saskatchewan, has been moved to the head office in Toronto. JACK KOHN, western salesman, replaces him.

▽

ROY ROWE

of Burgaw, N. C., was elected president of the Theatre Owners of North and South Carolina.

▽

BILL STEIN

stage manager of the Tower Theatre, in Kansas City, has been inducted into military service.

Theresa Frances Lamm to Richard Joseph Bandler, on Sunday, January 25th. Bride is daughter of Julius Lamm, manager of Warner's Uptown Theatre, in Cleveland.

▽

JOSEPH WEISS

formerly general manager of the GCS Circuit, in Chicago, has been appointed general manager of Jack Kirsch's group of four houses. Weiss succeeds CHARLES COOPER, who has enlisted in the Army Air Corps.

▽

JACK PROUDLOVE

has been promoted from manager of the Arlington Theatre, in Winnipeg, Manitoba, to the Osborne Theatre there.

▽

CHARLOTTE McGUIGAN

secretary to Harry Shaw, Loew-Poli division manager for the past eight years and with the Poli regime for about 10 years prior to that time, has resigned following her marriage several months ago to William Sitzer. FLORINE BOUER succeeds Miss McGuigan and JACK CREAGAN is new on the staff as secretary to Lou Brown, publicity chief and Morris Menlesohn, attorney.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

Rockefeller Center, New York

Name .....

Position .....

Theatre .....

Address .....

City .....

State .....

Circuit .....

Absolutely No Dues or Fees

GEORGE BOLE

has resigned as manager of the Golden Gate Theatre, San Francisco, to take a post with Universal. CLIFF GIESSEMAN, manager of the RKO Uptown, Highland Park, Mich., has been named to the coast house.

▽

E. W. SMITH

is managing Shea's Theatre, Jamestown, N. Y., during a leave of absence granted R. C. HORNING.

▽

JOSEPH HOCKENBURY

former assistant at Shea's, Jamestown, has been inducted into the army.

▽

STEVE RODNOK, JR.

manager of the Oaks, in Oakmont, Pittsburgh, Pa., has enlisted in the army air corps.

▽

DEAN DAVIS

manager of the New Northwood theatre, at Northwood, Ia., has left to take over management of Edward Federer's State theatre at Lincoln, Neb. ROBERT DUNNOCK, formerly manager of the Our Theatre at Hawarden, Ia., has been appointed as manager of the Northwood.

▽

ROBERT E. SMITH

and GUY P. SPICUZZA have opened the new Lakeview in New Orleans with the latter managing the house.

▽

JACK VITTELO

artist at Loew's in Rochester, has joined the Army Air Corps.

▽

JOSEPH S BOYLE

formerly assistant manager of Loew's State Theatre, in Syracuse, has been appointed manager of the Loew-Poli Broadway, in Norwich, Conn.

▽

MAURICE M. DAVIS

supervisor of the Amherst and Belmont Theatres in Montreal, passed away last week.

▽

G. A. SCHMIDT

theatre operator of Pass Christian, Miss., has been elected president of the Chamber of Commerce.

▽

ROBERT E. RUSSELL

has just celebrated his 23rd anniversary with the Poli Theatres, in New Haven. Russell, now manager of the Loew-Poli, New Haven, has been with the present Loew regime for the past eight years.

▽

LARRY GRABURN

formerly manager of the Ritz Theatre, in Regina, Saskatchewan, has joined the R.C.A.F. and is stationed in Trenton, Ontario.

▽

MAX SILVERMAN

formerly manager of the Fitz Theatre, in Pittsburgh, has been transferred to the Squirrel Hill Theatre, replacing ERNEST LIEBERMAN, who has joined the Universal sales staff in Philadelphia. WILLIAM WARRINGTON, formerly assistant manager at the Stanley, has taken over the Ritz.

D. W. Churchill, 'Times' Film Writer, Dies

Douglas W. Churchill, since January 1st, 1932, Hollywood motion picture correspondent for the New York Times, died at a desert resort near Phoenix, Ariz., Saturday, February 7th, of a heart ailment after an illness of more than a year. He was 42 years old.

Mr. Churchill, who was born in Los Angeles and was graduated from the University of Southern California, began his career as a reporter on the Los Angeles Times. He later became editor and publisher of three western daily newspapers and also had written motion picture scenarios.

As well as his daily report of motion picture news for the film capital, Mr. Churchill wrote a weekly article for the Sunday motion picture section of the New York Times and conducted the Picture of the Month department in Red-book Magazine. He also contributed many articles on motion pictures to other periodicals.

Mr. Churchill was associate publisher with Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., when the Los Angeles Daily Illustrated News was founded. He also was at one time editor of a newspaper in Phoenix. He was intimately acquainted with scores of stars, featured players, directors and executives in the cinema capital.

Funeral services for Mr. Churchill were held in Los Angeles Monday afternoon at the Cunningham & O'Connor Chapel, with Frank Whitbeck, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio executive, speaker. Burial was in Rosedale Cemetery.

Pallbearers at the funeral were Hubbard Keavy, Associated Press Hollywood correspondent; Andrew Hervey of MGM; John Joseph of University, Gabe S. Yorke of Twentieth Century-Fox, D. A. Doran of Columbia, Perry Lieber of RKO, Carlisle Jones of Warner Brothers and George Penney, attorney.

He is survived by his wife, the former Lillian Templeton, and a brother, Fred Churchill of Los Angeles.

Oscar F. Gould

Oscar F. Gould, 82, former theatre operator in Fort Worth, Tex., died there Tuesday, February 3rd, of influenza.

DOUGLAS W. CHURCHILL

H. D. McIntosh, Promoter and Theatre Owner, Dies

Hugh D. McIntosh, Australian sports promoter, newspaper publisher and theatre owner, who made and lost half a dozen fortunes in as many enterprises, died Wednesday, February 4th, in a London hospital. He was 65 years old. After a career as a sports promoter Mr. McIntosh entered the theatrical business and became the owner of five Australian legitimate stage houses, one in each state of Australia, and imported Harry Lauder, Gaby Deslys and other international stage celebrities.

Ross M. Lewis

Ross M. Lewis, who started his career at the old Grand Theatre, in Columbus, Ohio, and later became a vaudeville star, in addition to heading his own musical comedy company, died at the home of his sister in Columbus Thursday, February 5th. His wife and three sisters survive.

James Hanley, 49; Wrote Song Hits

James F. Hanley, who wrote the music for many song hits, some of which were used in motion pictures, died of a heart attack at his home in New York Sunday, February 8th. He was 49 years old.

During his song writing career Mr. Hanley composed such musical numbers as "Back Home in Indiana," which sold more than 2,000,000 copies; "Rose of Washington Square," used as the basis for the Twentieth Century-Fox picture of the same title; "If You Knew Susie Like I Knew Susie," "Honeymoon Lane," "Song of My Heart" which he wrote for John McCormack's only motion picture, and many others.

Mr. Hanley is survived by a widow and five children.

Irving Kahal, Song Writer, Dies at 40

Irving Kahal, who wrote such songs as "Moonlight Saving Time," "By a Waterfall," "Nobody Knows What a Red-Head Mama Can Do" and "The Night Is Young and You're So Beautiful," died of uremic poisoning at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York Saturday, February 7th. For the past two years, since finishing the lyrics to the Ed Wynn show now on a road tour, "Boys and Girls Together," Mr. Kahal wrote but two songs because of his illness. He is survived by a widow and a daughter.

Harry J. Corbett, Theatre Head, Dies

Harry J. Corbett, former theatre manager, died in Chicago on February 1st and was buried there at the Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. He was formerly a district manager for the Warner circuit in Chicago and was one of the organizers of the Standard Theatres, Inc., of Wisconsin, seven years ago. For some time he managed the Gateway theatre, Kenosha, Wisconsin. He sold out two years ago and was in the paint business in Chicago at his death. He is survived by his wife, a son Harry M., present manager of Warner's Bay theatre, Green Bay, Wis., and a sister.

Happy Landing

Your approach to a pleasant visit in New York is a stay at the St. Moritz overlooking Central Park. Convenient to all midtown. 1000 rooms with bath and radio—from $4 single. $6 for 2 persons. New York's only truly Continental hotel.

ST. MORITZ
ON-THE-PARK
50 Central Park South
NEW YORK
Direction: S. Gregory Taylor

TELEGRAMS

are feature length stories in short subject form

CLASS OF SERVICE DESIRED		CABLE
TELEGRAM	ORDINARY	URGENT	DATE
DAY LETTER	DEFERRED	DEFERRED	DEFERRED
NIGHT LETTER	NIGHT LETTER	NIGHT LETTER	NIGHT LETTER
SPECIAL SERVICE	SPECIAL SERVICE	SPECIAL SERVICE	SPECIAL SERVICE

WESTERN UNION

ACCOUNTING INFORMATION
TIME FILED

TELEGRAMS NEVER FORCE YOU TO GUESS. EVERY FIGURE . . . FRACTION
. . . TRADE TERM IS THERE IN FULL
FOR YOUR ORDERLY CONSIDERATION.

WESTERN UNION
Everywhere

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

*the great national medium
for showmen*

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City

THEATRES

MOVIE THEATRES, NORTHERN CALIFORNIA. A. SHEUERMAN, 25 Taylor Street, San Francisco.

WANT TO BUY, LEASE OR RENT THEATRE running or closed, equipped or otherwise, located anywhere. State full details in reply. BOX 1489-A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FOR SALE THEATRES IN SEVERAL STATES now operating. Have several for lease as well. Let me know what size and where you desire to operate. BOX 1490-A, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FOR SALE: PART INTEREST FLOURISHING business seven movie theatres. Address: MEREN-DONI, Teatro Rex, Barranquilla, Colombia.

HAVE CASH TO LEASE OR BUY SMALL town theatre Illinois, Michigan, Indiana or Wisconsin. BOX 1494, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MOVIE THEATRE SALE OR RENT, CROWDED section New York's East side. Present occupant drafted. BOX 1496, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

INDEPENDENT EXHIBITOR DESIRES RENT or buy first or subsequent run theatre New York or surroundings. Submit detailed offer. BOX 1497, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

POSITIONS WANTED

PROJECTIONIST, MINNESOTA OR WISCONSIN preferred. OPERATOR, 313 East Main, Wabasha, Minnesota.

AT LIBERTY A-NO. 1 THEATRE MANAGER. Age 37. Married. One child. Have been in theatre business since twelve years of age. Have operated my own houses, sign writer, display man. At present managing two theatres. Would like to make change first of March. Call, write or telephone. JACK COOPER, Warners Theatre, Franklin, West Virginia.

PERMANENT POSITION WITH CHAIN OR INDEPENDENT. 15 years management, supervision experience, booking, publicity, stage shows. Not subject to draft. Now employed. BOX 1498, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MANAGER, 10 YEARS EXPERIENCE, DESIRES change. A-1 reference. BOX 415, Orangeburg, S. C.

PRINTING SERVICE

THEATRE BLOWERS, SAME QUALITY, LOW prices. STITES ART, Shelbyville, Indiana.

USED GENERAL EQUIPMENT

FOR SALE: 450 THEATRE SEATS, MARQUEE letters, etc. H. LEVY & SON, 1245 Broadway, Brooklyn, New York, Glenmore 5-5587.

AFTER INVENTORY SALE—GRAB THESE quick! Portable sound projectors, 16mm., 35mm. from $59.50; rear shutters for Simplex, $29.50; film cabinets, $1.49 section; factory rebuilt Series II lenses, any size, $33.95; soundheads, $9.95; amplifiers, $4.95; powers mechanisms, $39.50; cushion seats, 39c. Free bargain bulletins. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

SOME THEATRE CAN USE YOUR OLD EQUIPMENT. A little ad here will reach thousands of potential customers. Only ten cents a word to tell the world what you have to sell. Try it today. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

COMPLETE THEATRE EQUIPMENT AND chairs for 300 seat house. Low price for quick turnover. MOVIE SUPPLY COMPANY, 1318 South Wabash, Chicago.

NEW GENERAL EQUIPMENT

BUY NEW SOUNDSCREENS NOW WHILE material's available, 23 1/4 sq. ft.; complete stage setting, $66.60; fully automatic curtain controls, $75.95; heavy duty track, $2.19 ft. Immediate deliveries. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

BUSINESS BOOSTERS

BINGO CARDS. DIE CUT, 1 TO 100 OR 1 TO 75, $2.00 per thousand. $17.50 for 10,000. BOX 1434, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BUY YOUR BINGO CARDS DIRECT FROM THE world's largest manufacturer of theatre bingo cards. Write us today for samples and prices. BOX 1477, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE SOUND ENGINEERING—547 pages; illustrated; covers every practical method and process in present-day sound engineering. Leading engineers explain every detail of apparatus and its arrangement, with diagrams, tables, charts and graphs. This manual comes straight from the workshops of the studios in Hollywood. It is indispensable to everyone working with sound equipment. Price $6.50 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 567 PAGE BOOK ON AIR CONDITIONING by Charles A. Fuller, authority on the subject. Available for theatre owners contemplating engineering changes. Book is cloth bound with index and charts and covers every branch of the industry as well as codes and ordinances regulating installation. Order now at $4.00 a copy postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION. A second revision of the Sixth Edition of Richardson's Bluebook of Projection with a complete section of Sound Trouble-shooting Charts as well as a host of additional up-to-the-minute text on the latest equipment. Price $7.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

JUST PUBLISHED: 1942 EDITION OF FAME. Edited by Terry Ramsaye. The class annual of the screen, radio and stage. Recognized by executives and talent agents as the guide book to box office champions. Send your order today with check or money order for $1.00. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 1941-42 MOTION PICTURE ALMANAC. Edited by Terry Ramsaye. The industry's most complete "Who's Who." More than 11,000 biographies and over 1,100 pages, chock full of reference information. Everyone in the motion picture industry should have a copy. Be sure to send in your order today. $3.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

BOOKKEEPING SYSTEM

THEATRE MANAGEMENT RECORD AND TAX Register. This new accounting system is the finest book of its kind ever made available to an exhibitor. In addition to being complete in every respect, it is simple—so much so that it is not necessary to have had bookkeeping experience in order to keep an accurate, complete and up-to-the-minute record of the business of your theatre. The introductory price is only $2.00 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK, U. S. A.

PRODUCT DIGEST

THE RELEASE CHART

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

Ride 'Em Cowboy

(Universal)

Abbott & Costello Ride Again

Comedians Abbott & Costello ride again—this time literally, horseback and otherwise—to the roars of laughter which wafted them into Number Three Spot in the Motion Picture Herald-Fame poll of exhibitors designating the Money-Making Stars of 1941.

Exploitation reference to their rank among the Top Ten attractions in show business is of course a first order of showmanly procedure in promoting their first offering since circulation of this news.

A second line of procedure grounded in exhibitor experience is to let the customers know that, in line with findings expressed by showmen in the HERALD's "Exhibitor Has His Say" survey, the comedians who used the war as background for their "Buck Privates" and "In the Navy" leave the conflict strictly alone this time and devote themselves to satirizing the ancient and thriving institution of "horse opry."

It is as a broad satire on the Western type of picture that "Ride 'Em Cowboy" gives the comedians their most telling moments, according to audience response on the occasion of its Coast previewing. The satire varies from the subtle to the slapstick, with the slapstick predominating, and allows plenty of opportunity for the comedians to dip back into their past and bring up gags and routines which served them long ago and serve them again now as refurbished and dry-cleaned for the picture public.

It can be told to the customers also that steps have been taken to back up the comedians this time with more supporting personalities and production values, and it can be left for the customers to decide whether this is an improvement. In any case, it supplies some additional material for exploitation.

Six songs by Don Raye and Gene de Paul are worked into the proceedings. Dick Foran, the Merry Macs and Ella Fitzgerald participate variously in the singing of these. A seventh musical number is Miss Fitzgerald's "A Tisket, a Tasket," and there is a finale, a la musical comedy, with everybody singing a number named for the picture's title. Staging of these numbers by Nick Castle is of the best, and they serve their purpose as separating the comedy sequences performed by the comedians, but some of those present at the preview appeared to regard them as a bit invasive of the principal business in hand.

The Messrs. Abbott and Costello portray a pair of New York peanut and hot-dog vendors who get caught up in a rodeo at Madison Square Garden and are shipped west to a dude ranch where everything predictable and much else happens. There's a conflict with Indians, a background romance involving the saving of the dear old ranch, a counterplot involving gamblers who try to sabotage a rodeo, and chases and escapes and rescues and all the familiars of the Western picture plot, all treated for laughs and most of them with explosive success.

Production is by Alex Gottlieb, direction by Arthur Lubin, screenplay by True Boardman and John Grant from a story by Edmund L. Hartman adapted by Harold Shumate.

Previewed at the Alexander theatre, Glendale, Calif., which was also the house of preview for all of the previous Abbott & Costello pictures, the film was greeted with rafter-shaking applause as its title flashed upon the screen. Again and again as the picture unreeled, laughter reached peak proportions, repeatedly obliterating dialogue. There was some letdown of enthusiasm during some of the musical numbers and the footage devoted to sketching a plot, but perhaps no more than is to be expected at any time when the Messrs. Abbott and Costello absent themselves from the screen for an interval during one of their pictures. Foyer comment was to be effect that "Ride 'Em Cowboy" is just about what the Abbott-Costello public is in the market for at this point in their and the world's careers.—

WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Release date, Feb. 20, 1942. Running time, 86 min. PCA No. 7968. General audience classification.

Duke.....	Bud Abbott
Willoughby.....	Lou Costello
Bob.....	Dick Foran
Anne.....	Anne Gwynne
Alabam.....	Johnny Mack Brown
The Merry Macs, Ella Fitzgerald, Samuel S. Hinds, Douglass Dumbrille, Morris Ankrum, the Hi-Hatters.

The Courtship of Andy Hardy

(Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer)

Comedy with a Message

Motion picture fans of the "Hardy's" are taken on another film trek into the private lives of this typical American family to share with them, more than in any previous episode, the domestic heartaches, sacrifices, romance and comedy that colors the life of nearly every member of a household.

Lewis Stone and Mickey Rooney again head the cast as "Judge Hardy" and his son "Andy,"

Reviews

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public.

in characterizations created by Aurania Rouverol. Cecilia Parker, Fay Holden and Sara Haden return as the remaining members of the domicile. With this tried and proven cast George B. Seitz has taken the screen play by Agnes Christine Johnston, and under his directorial guidance has put the members of the cast through their thespian manifestations with the ease and grace with which he has been identified in presenting previous "Hardy Family" films.

Unlike the preceding installments in the life of this family, "The Courtship of Andy Hardy" is also a message film, bringing to the fore the evils of excessive drinking, supported by the home-spun philosophical sermon of the judge in exemplifying the evils to his son; utilizing the plot of a daughter's social plight and inhibitions as a result of her parents' continuous court actions and unhappy home life, and emphasizing the importance of parental advice and rulings despite the lamentations of their offspring. With all this drama and pathos there is also an abundance of comedy supplied for the most part by Mickey Rooney who directly climaxes the heavier moments with a comedy situation.

Supporting the "Hardy Family" are Donna Reed, starlet who captures the attention of the audience with her performance as the daughter of the divorced parents, Ann Rutherford, appearing only momentarily as the familiar "Polly Benedict," and William Lundigan, Frieda Inescort and Harvey Stephens, all of whom extract the utmost from the roles they've been assigned.

*Previewed at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer projection room in New York at a screening for the trade press. Those in attendance audibly expressed their enjoyment of the many comedy scenes and remained attentively silent during the more dramatic parts.—*GEORGE SPIRES.

Release date, March, 1942. Running time, 93 minutes. PCA No. 8042. Adult audience classification.

Judge Hardy.....	Lewis Stone
Andy Hardy.....	Mickey Rooney
Marian Hardy.....	Cecilia Parker
Mrs. Hardy.....	Fay Holden
Polly Benedict.....	Ann Rutherford
Aunt Milly.....	Sara Haden
Melodie Nesbit.....	Donna Reed
Jeff Willis.....	William Lundigan
Stewart Dwight.....	Steve Cornell
Olivia Nesbit.....	Frieda Inescort

Pardon My Stripes

(Republic)

Comedy

This is a screwball comedy. The plot is on the thinnish side but audiences escaping from war headlines won't care. There are comic situations aplenty plus the antics of such old hands at getting the most out of a gag as Edgar Kennedy, double-talker Cliff Nazarro and Paul Hurst. Bill Henry, that likeable juvenile, shares top billing with Sheilla Ryan, remembered for her part in "The Gay Gaballero." Miss Ryan is pert, eye-filling and acts as though she'd know what to do with a fat part if it came along one of these days.

The story concerns a football player, "Hendy Platt," played by Bill Henry, who mistakes a helmet for a football in his zeal to make a touchdown's during a critical game. His error earns him the accolade of "Dope of the Year," and results in his employment by a notorious gambler, played by Harold Huber. There's the incident of $117,000 winnings of the gambler's syndicate on the same game which Henry is ordered to bring to Chicago. On the way the bag containing the loot falls out of an airplane and lands in the state penitentiary. The remainder of the picture involves Henry's efforts to retrieve the money and clear himself of an embezzlement charge, aided by Miss Ryan in the role of a newspaper girl. Edgar Kennedy as the prison warden adds to the general merriment.

Association producer Albert J. Cohen and director John H. Auer at the helm, set the cast through rollicking paces for 64 minutes.

Previewed at Republic's home office projection room for the trade press and others. Frequent laughter indicated they enjoyed the film.

—J. E. Samuelson.
Release date, Jan. 26, 1942. Running time, 64 minutes. PCA No. 8005. General audience classification.
Hendy Platt.....Bill Henry
Ruth Stevens.....Sheila Ryan
Warden Bingham.....Edgar Kennedy
Harold Huber, Paul Hurst, Cliff Nazarro, Tom Kennedy, Edwin Stanley, Dorothy Granger, George McKay, Maxine Leslie.

Duke of the Navy

(Producers Releasing Corp.)

Romantic Adventure

Probably one of the few films of Navy life without the background and familiar scenes of battleships and naval training stations, "Duke of the Navy" is, rather, a story of a sailor and his bunk mate on a pirate treasure hunt.

Based on an original story and screen play by Gerald D. Adams and William Beaudine, who also directed the picture, Ralph Byrd heads the cast with Veda Ann Borg and Stubby Kruger in supporting roles. The plot of the story concerns two sailors on leave with one of them posing as the wealthy son of a candy magnate having the same name. Under this guise the two gobs are feted and feasted by a resort society and eventually come in contact with a jovial old swindler who has planted a phony treasure on a distant island. Enlisting the aid of a young girl to pose as his daughter the swindler takes the sailors on the hunt for fame and fortune but only after most of their buddies have put up the money for the sailors' share of the expenses. On the island a real treasure is uncovered but it is lost at sea when the Navy men try to escape the swindling ring. The boys are compensated for their efforts by collecting the reward for the capture of the ring. Others in supporting roles include Herbert Corthell as the swindler, Margaret Armstrong as the society matron, and Sammy Cohen, who returns after a protracted exile as "Murphy," a role similar to his portrayal in "The Fighting 69th."

Produced by John T. Coyle the picture, though lagging in parts, since it has been produced within the confines of its production budget, will lend a few moments of comedy, romance and adventure to a not too discriminating audience.

Reviewed at the New York theatre on Broadway by an afternoon audience who remained silent except for an occasional chuckle.

—G. S.

Release date, Jan. 23, 1942. Running time, 65 minutes. PCA No. 7968. General audience classification.
Breeze Duke.....Ralph Byrd
Maureen.....Veda Ann Borg
Cookie.....Stubby Kruger
General Courtney.....Herbert Corthell
Margaret Armstrong, Val Stanton, Paul Bryar, Sammy Cohen, Red Knight, Lester Towne.

This Time for Keeps

(Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer)

Domestic Comedy

Using three of the cast of "Keeping Company," a previous picture, and some of the characters therefrom, MGM has built another domestic comedy of the younger set's marital problems. This time the young man goes into business with his father-in-law who manages to interfere in all his activities and thus cause strife at home.

Ann Rutherford as the young matron, Irene Rich as her mother and Virginia Weidler as the young sister who complicates things are the cast holdovers. Other players are Robert Sterling, Guy Kibbee, Henry O'Neill, Dorothy Morris, Richard Crane, Joseph Strauch, Jr., and Connie Gilchrist.

The screenplay by Muriel Roy Bolton, Rian James and Harry Ruskin, based on the characters created by Herman J. Mankiewicz, is a deftly turned piece of comedy, and the direction by Charles Riesner extracts a maximum of entertainment from the situations and the players.

Sam Marx performed a creditable job as producer.

Shown to a press audience at MGM's studio, Culver City, where unanimous opinion was that the picture was an excellent example of good, clean, homey entertainment of wide appeal.—Vance King.

Release date, March, 1942. Running time, 71 minutes. PCA No. 8032. General audience classification.
Katherine White.....Ann Rutherford
Lee White.....Robert Sterling
Harry Bryant.....Guy Kibbee
Mrs. Bryant.....Irene Rich
Harriett Bryant.....Virginia Weidler
Henry O'Neill, Dorothy Morris, Richard Crane, Joseph Strauch, Jr., Connie Gilchrist.

Mr. Wise Guy

(Monogram)

Metropolitan Melodrama

The East Side Kids continue their roughhousing in behalf of comedy and ultimately on the side of justice in this story of life and crime as conducted in New York slums, with a detouring of this locale for an exposition of right and wrong ways of conducting a reformatory.

Produced by Sam Katzman and directed with vigor by William Nigh, the film is from a Martin Mooney story by way of a screenplay by Sam Robins, Harvey Gates and Jack Menley, Barney Sarecky serving as associate producer.

The tale picks up the band of tough youngsters in their usual playful conflicts with law and order, places them in unknowing connection with escape of a convict and, finally, puts them into position to effect his capture and thus prevent execution of an innocent man, brother of one of the kids, who has been convicted of a murder committed by the convict.

Leo Gorcey is seen as leader of the hard-boiled juveniles and Billy Gilbert as a comedy gangster who provides a different variety of humor for the customers.

Previewed at the Studio City theatre, near Hollywood, to a mixed audience which seemed to receive the attraction favorably.—W. R. W.

Release date, Feb. 20. Running time, 70 min. PCA No. 8025. General audience classification.
Muggs.....Leo Gorcey
Duke Manning.....Guinn Williams
Bill Collins.....Douglas Fowley
Bobby Jordan, Huntz Hall, Billy Gilbert, Gabriel Dell, Benny Rubin, David Gorcey, Sid Miller, Sunshine Morrison, Bill Lawrence, Ann Doran, Joan Barclay, Jack Mulhall, Warren Hymer, Bobby Stone.

Nine Bachelors

("Ils Etaient Neufs Celibataires")

(French—Joseph Bercholz)

Gallic Comedy of Manners

France's one-man film maker, Sacha Guitry, wrote, directed and acted in this satirical, and typical French, study of characters in pre-war Paris. It was his last production before the war and reaches New York, with the producer, Joseph Bercholz, after nine months in London and more than a year in Paris. The latter run ended with a Nazi ban.

The story is a cynical chronicle of a sharp-witted Parisian confidence man who founds a home for aged bachelors. His ulterior purpose is to provide husbands, in name only, and citizenship for wealthy alien women living in Paris. He collects a stiff fee for the marriage of seven of the nine derelicts who come to the home, and by a ruse he marries himself to a wealthy and beautiful Polish lady.

This treatment of marriage marks the picture as adult entertainment, and it would seem to be limited to the "little" theatres. It should do well among them, however.

M. Guitry's camera concentrates chiefly on character—the cynic, played by himself, the nine bachelors, and the seven wives. The ravellings of plot are merely incidental to an entertaining study of their doings. Even so, the manifold tale at times becomes confusing and could be further trimmed.

The principal characters are enacted by a group of top French stage and screen players, led by M. Guitry himself. Each provides a skilled and often memorable characterization.

This is entertaining, though facetious, and sometimes biting satire. It does not match "The Story of a Cheat" or "Champs Elysees," M. Guitry's best known productions.

Reviewed at the World Theatre, New York, where the opening night audience gave evidence of delight at many scenes and of being generally entertained.—JOHN STUART, JR.

Release date, Feb. 7, 1942. Running time, 85 minutes. Adult audience classification.

A Cynic.....Sacha Guitry
Nine Bachelors.....Max Dearly,
Victor Boucher, Andre Lafour, Saturnin Fabre, Aimos, Gustave Libeau, Gaston Dubose, Georges Grey, Cremieux.
Seven Brides.....Elvire Popesco,
Betty Stockfield, Marguerite Moreno, Genevieve Guitry, Marguerite Pierry, Marguerite Deval, Princess Ohio.

ADVANCE SNYOPSIS

JUKE BOX JENNY

(Universal)

Comedy, Music

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER: Joseph G. Sanford. Directed by Harold Young.

PLAYERS: Ken Murray, Harriet Hilliard, Iris Adrian, Don Douglas, Marjorie Gateson.

SYNOPSIS

Roger Wadsworth (Don Douglas) supplies juke boxes with music in the classic tradition. Mrs. Horton (Marjorie Gateson), chief stockholder of the company, abhors swing music. Because of that and the fact that she is the mother of his fiancée, Genevieve (Harriet Hilliard), Roger sits by and watches his competitors coin money by supplying the juke boxes with jive music. Some of Rogers' cronies play a joke on him by getting a swing orchestra to make a recording, which is offered to Roger's customers. They also get Jinx Cory (Iris Adrian) to tell the newspapers that she and Roger are married. Roger sends Malcolm (Ken Murray) to fix things up with Genevieve and he promptly falls for her. He tricks Genevieve into making a recording and releases it for her under the name of "Jukebox Jennie." Genevieve is a sensation but she resents Mal's trickery and it isn't until Mal is losing a lawsuit over the recording that she comes to court to prove that she is "Jennie."

ADVANCE SYNOPSSES

and information

THE MAGNIFICENT AMBERSONS (RKO Radio)

Romance, Drama

PRODUCER-DIRECTOR: Orson Welles.

PLAYERS: Joseph Cotten, Dolores Costello, Anne Baxter, Tim Holt, Agnes Moorehead, Ray Collins, Richard Bennett, Donald Dillaway.

SYNOPSIS

In love with Eugene Morgan (Joseph Cotten), Isabel Amberson (Dolores Costello) marries Wilbur Minafer (Donald Dillaway) while in anger. Eugene leaves town. Eighteen years later he returns, a widower with a daughter, Lucy (Anne Baxter) and starts a factory for the manufacture of horseless carriages. Isabel's son George (Tim Holt) in his conceited fashion, decides he may marry Lucy some day. Wilbur dies and soon afterward Isabel and Eugene, who have loved one another all these years, quietly discuss marriage. George, furious, upbraids Isabel for her conduct and takes her to Europe. When they return, Isabel has not long to live. George discovers that the Amberson fortune has disappeared and that Eugene has thrived financially. George is hurt in an automobile accident. He changes and is sorry for the wrong he has done his mother and Eugene.

SPECIAL REMARKS

Adapted from Booth Tarkington's delineation of the midwestern scene of 20 years ago, "The Magnificent Ambersons" is Orson Welles' second production. The first being "Citizen Kane."

WHAT'S COOKIN' (Universal)

Musical Comedy

DIRECTED BY Edward F. Cline.

PLAYERS: The Andrews Sisters, Gloria Jean, Woody Herman and Orchestra, Jane Frazee, Leo Carrillo, Robert Paige, Billie Burke, Charles Butterworth, Grace McDonald, Franklin Pangborn.

SYNOPSIS

A musical comedy this concerns the efforts of Marvo the Great (Leo Carrillo), Anne Payne (Jane Frazee), radio songstress; the Andrews Sisters, Woody Herman and his orchestra, Sue (Gloria Jean), all representing popular music to supplant Prof. Bistell (Franklin Pangborn) and his symphonic orchestra on the Courtney radio program. Courtney (Charles Butterworth) doesn't have much to say about it as his wife, Agatha (Billie Burke) is the final authority in the matter of the radio program and she is addicted to the classics exclusively. Through a bit of sabotage, Prof. Bistell and his orchestra find themselves unable to play and the other side takes over.

BLACK DRAGONS (Monogram)

Melodrama

PRODUCER: Sam Katzman. Associate Producer: Barney Sarecky. Directed by William Nigh.

PLAYERS: Bela Lugosi, Joan Barclay, Clayton Moore, George Pembroke, Robert Frazer, Stanford Jolley.

SYNOPSIS

Dr. Melcher (Bela Lugosi), a plastic surgeon, is sent by the Nazis to Japan to transform six Japanese into identical likenesses of six prominent American industrialists. All the industrialists are done away with. Melcher is thrown in jail so that his secret will die with him. In his cell is Colomb, shortly to be released. Melcher changes places with him and is freed. Melcher, now Colomb, follows the six Japanese to America, where they have assumed the positions of the industrialists and are causing sabotage in defense plants. One by one Colomb kills the Japanese. The FBI places the last of the Japanese under heavy guard and use him as bait for Colomb. Colomb kills the Japanese but before he can escape, FBI agents shoot him down.

I MARRIED AN ANGEL (Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer)

Musical Comedy

PRODUCER: Hunt Stromberg. Directed by W. S. Van Dyke II. Based on the Broadway stage success produced by Dwight Deere Wiman.

PLAYERS: Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, Edward Everett Horton, Binnie Barnes, Reginald Owen, Douglass Dumbrille, Mona Maris, Janice Carter, Inez Cooper, Leonid Kinskey.

SYNOPSIS

Anna Zador (Jeanette MacDonald), a drab creature, arrives early at the bank where she works as a stenographer. Her boss is Count Willie Palaffi (Nelson Eddy). His secretary, Marika (Mona Maris), maliciously invites Anna to a birthday party for the count, suggesting she come as an angel. Anna does, in a cheesecloth dress. The Count is forced to dance with her. After the dance he excuses himself, goes to his room, falls asleep and dreams that a beautiful angel, Anna glorified, comes through the window on a cloud. He realizes that he must marry the angel. In fantasy the two are off on their honeymoon, and the Count discovers that an angel can be trying. She will not tell a falsehood and causes him no end of trouble with customs officials. They return post-haste to Budapest when it is rumored there will be a run on the bank. The count decides to dispel rumors and prove he is married to a wonderful woman by giving a banquet. At the banquet, Anna adheres to the truth and tells her husband's business secrets. There is a run on the bank. At this juncture, the Count awakes and heaves a sigh of relief.

SOUTH OF SANTA FE (Republic)

Western

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER-DIRECTOR: Joseph Kane.

PLAYERS: Roy Rogers, George "Gabby" Hayes, Linda Hayes, Paul Fix, Arthur Loft.

SYNOPSIS

Whittaker City is in the doldrums. The two leading citizens, Roy Rogers and Mayor Whittaker (George "Gabby" Hayes) work out a plan to obtain financial backing for the operation of an undeveloped gold mine belonging to Carol Stevens (Linda Hayes), Roy's sweetheart. For this purpose, they invite three prominent financiers to the town to take part in the annual 10 day ride of the Vaqueros, the community's far famed vigilante organization. An uninvited stranger, Joe Keenan (Paul Fix), also shows up. He kidnaps the financiers and convinces the townspeople that Roy is the kidnaper. Roy rides into town, is attacked by a posse but escapes. He trails "Gabby" who is taking the ransom money to the meeting place and corners the criminals.

SPECIAL REMARKS

The musical score consists of "The Vaquero Song," "South of Santa Fe," "Yodel Your Troubles Away," "Trail Dreamin'," "We're Headin' for the Home Corral," "Open Range Ahead," "Down the Trail."

MYSTERY OF MARIE ROGET (Universal)

Melodrama

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER: Paul Malvern. Directed by Phil Rosen.

PLAYERS: Patric Knowles, Marie Montez, Nell O'Day, Maria Ouspenskaya, John Litel, Lloyd Corrigan, Eddie Norris.

SYNOPSIS

All Paris is excited over the disappearance of Marie Roget (Maria Montez), popular musical comedy star. When Inspector Gobelin (Lloyd Corrigan) sees the mangled body of a woman, fished out of the Seine, he believes it is Marie. With Dr. Dupin (Patric Knowles), police medical officer, he goes to Marie's grandmother, Mme. Roget (Maria Ouspenskaya) and Maria's sister, Camille (Nell O'Day), with the news. Marie is there. She refuses to explain. Later Mme. Roget overhears Maria and Marcel (Eddie Norris), engaged to Camille, plotting to get rid of Camille so they can share a large inheritance Camille is soon to receive. Mme. Roget privately employs Dr. Dupin to watch over Camille. At the appointed time, Marie gets cold feet and again disappears. Her body is fished from the river. Gobelin and Dupin apprehend Marcel before he can reach Camille.

TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP (Columbia)

Service Comedy

PRODUCER: Wallace MacDonald. Directed by Charles Barton.

PLAYERS: Jackie Gleason, Jack Durant, Florence Rice, Bruce Bennett, Hallene Hill, Billy Curtis, Mabel Todd, Forrest Tucker.

SYNOPSIS

Hank (Jackie Gleason) and Jed (Jack Durant), who run a barber shop and pool room in Bellville, close up shop when Tommy Lydell (Bruce Bennett) and a thousand other Bellville boys are called to military service at Camp Horton. They follow the selectees to Camp Horton but are rejected by the army doctors. They evolve the idea of a Home Defense Army and when they try to put it to a test, are arrested as spies. Tommy gets them out. The home defense army, however, develops into an important organization. A gangster and a half dozen henchmen get the idea that this private army would be a swell place to hide in. Hank and Jed get wise to the gangsters, capture the mob and hold them for the police.

LONE RIDER IN CHEYENNE (Producers Rel. Corp.)

Western

PRODUCER: Sigmund Neufeld. Directed by Sam Newfield.

PLAYERS: George Houston, Al St. John, Dennis Moore, Ella Neal, Roy Barcroft.

SYNOPSIS

Smoky Moore (Dennis Moore) catches Dick (Lynton Brent) and an accomplice robbing the Pecos City bank but is overpowered and seriously wounded. Tom Cameron (George Houston), the Lone Rider, prevents further damage. Tom condemns the sheriff for negligence and decides to oppose him in the coming elections. Smoky, meanwhile, is made the goat and dragged to jail for the murder of the bank watchman. Tom succeeds in making one of the gang talk, which leads to the capture of all the gang and the freeing of Smoky.

ADVANCE SYNOPSSES AND INFORMATION

HELIOTROPE HARRY (Small - United Artists)

Drama

PRODUCER: Edward Small. Directed by Edwin Marin.

PLAYERS: Miriam Hopkins, Brian Donlevy, Preston Foster, Philip Reed, Harold Huber, Gloria Holden, Sharon Douglas, Douglass Dumbrille.

SYNOPSIS

On New Year's Eve, 1923, Heliotrope Harry (Brian Donlevy) steals a fifty-thousand dollar bracelet. Then he goes to the hospital, where his wife, Flo (Miriam Hopkins), is about to have a baby. He is trailed to the hospital by Detective Gaynor (Preston Foster), his childhood friend. Harry avoids arrest by slipping the jewels to Flo. When the child, Diana, is born, Harry decides to go straight. Eddie (Philip Reed), a confederate of Harry's, secretly long in love with Flo, suggest to her that they team up and dispense with Harry. Harry, in rage, kills Eddie. He spares Flo on condition she stays out of his life and Diana's. Then he gives himself up to Gaynor on condition that Gaynor raise Diana for him. Harry goes to prison. The years pass and Gaynor, now a justice of the state supreme court, is blackmailed by Flo in lieu of not suing for custody of Diana, now 18. Harry learns this and escapes from jail. He confronts Flo and she panicky with fear backs against a window and falls to her death. Harry returns to prison.

YOU'RE TELLING ME (Universal)

Comedy

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER: Ken Goldsmith. Directed by Charles Lamont.

PLAYERS: Hugh Herbert, Anne Gwynne, Robert Paige, Ernest Truex, Edward Ashley, Esther Dale, Elaine Morey, Linda Brent.

SYNOPSIS

Busy Aunt Fanny (Esther Dale) and her milquetoast husband, Handley (Ernest Truex), have been trying for forty years to get a job for their nephew, Hubert (Hugh Herbert). They finally get him a job in Handley's advertising firm—in the mimeograph room. Hubert is soon fired but a stenographer gives him the wrong notice and Hubert instead gets an order to sign up Glen Curtis (Edward Ashley), intrepid wild game hunter, returning from the jungles with his associate, Burns Walker (Robert Paige). After a series of vagaries, Hubert gets the "contract" signed. Then it turns out that Burns is the author of the best-seller credited to Glen. The advertising firm thinks it has been stuck with a contract. Hubert becomes a hero when it is discovered Glen's name was signed to the fly-leaf of the book and not a contract.

SABOTEUR (Universal)

Melodrama

PRESENTED by Frank Lloyd Productions. Associate Producer: Jack Skirball. Directed by Alfred Hitchcock.

PLAYERS: Priscilla Lane, Robert Cummings, Norman Lloyd, Vaughan Glaser, Murray Alper, Ann Shoemaker, Margaret Moffat.

SYNOPSIS

Barry Kane (Robert Cummings) and Kenneth, Glendale, Cal., aircraft workers, collide with a man inside the plant and, helping to retrieve the scattered contents of his wallet, they notice the name "Fry" and the address, "Deep Springs Ranch, Bridgeport," on an envelope. Later the plant burns and they notice Fry (Norman Lloyd) fleeing from the building. Ken dies in the fire. Barry learns that the police suspect him of complicity in Ken's death. He heads for Deep Springs Ranch. There he meets the owner, who summons the police. Barry escapes. He makes friends with Patricia Martin (Priscilla Lane) who agrees to help him. They locate a shack containing a telescope and boxes of dynamite. When two of the saboteurs arrive, Barry pretends to be one of the gang. They take him with them to New York. There he is slugged and imprisoned but escapes. Newspaper headlines about a battleship launching at the Kearney yards remind Barry that he had heard "Kearney" mentioned by the saboteurs. Reaching the yards, Barry spots Fry inside a newsreel truck. He attacks Fry.

SPECIAL REMARKS

The story "fade" is being kept secret by Director Hitchcock because of its dramatic nature, according to Universal.

TWO YANKS IN TRINIDAD (Columbia)

Service Drama

PRODUCER: Sam Bischoff. Directed by Gregory Ratoff.

PLAYERS: Pat O'Brien, Brian Donlevy, Frank Sully, Roger Clark, Donald MacBride, Frank Jenks, Veda Ann Borg, Janet Blair, Dewey Robinson.

SYNOPSIS

Vince Barrows (Brian Donlevy), one of New York's most notorious racketeers, learns that his lieutenant and best friend, Timmy (Pat O'Brien), has been hoodwinking him in a number guessing game. He tells the mob that it is curtains for Timmy. Timmy gets wind of the plot and enlists with a regiment bound for Trinidad. Not to be outdone, Vince also enlists. At Trinidad, Timmy is entrusted with the job of mine-laying. The discipline of the army irks Vince and he decides to desert. He contacts Hagen (John Emery), who supplies fuel to enemy submarines. Hagen agrees to help Vince escape if he will arrange a conference with Timmy. Vince agrees. Hagen demands a map of the mines from Timmy, who refuses to divulge the information. Vince sides with Timmy. Both are made captive by Hagen but they escape. Vince helps Timmy incapacitate mines which had been floated into the harbor entrance by Hagen. They round of the mines in time to save ships of the U. S. fleet from destruction.

TOUGH AS THEY COME (Universal)

Melodrama

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER: Ken Goldsmith. Directed by William Nigh.

PLAYERS: Billy Halop, Bernard Punsley, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell, Paul Kelly, Helen Parrish, Ann Gillis, John Gallaudet.

SYNOPSIS

In this Billy Halop is desirous of a law apprenticeship with the Legal Aid Society, which is fighting to better slum conditions in New York, where Billy lives. Instead he winds up in the employ of a loan shark outfit, which makes his neighbors its particular usury victims. He soon loses the friendship of his neighbors and even the young toughs of the district who had previously looked up to him as their leader. Finally, after an incident which almost results in tragedy, Billy obtains incriminating evidence from the files of the finance company and turns them over to the Legal Aid Society. Tommy reinstates himself with his friends.

LAWLESS PLAINSMEN (Columbia)

Western

PRODUCER: Jack Fier. Directed by William Berke.

PLAYERS: Charles Starrett, Russell Hayden, Luana Walters, Cliff Edwards, Raphael Bennett, Gwen Kenyon, Frank LaRue.

SYNOPSIS

Steve Rideen (Charles Starrett) has the double assignment of looking after Bannon's ranch and keeping an eye on Lucky Bannon (Russell Hayden), the rancher's devil-may-care son. Lucky accompanies Steve into town on a cattle deal and is wounded when McBride (Raphael Bennett), a gambler, starts a fight in a saloon. Bill Mason (Frank LaRue), former ranger pal of Steve's, is heading for Tucson with a wagon train packed with $60,000 worth of goods to go into business. McBride attaches himself to the train, planning to have it ambushed by Indians and salvage the goods himself. Steve and Lucky go along. Indians attack the train but are driven off. Steve is captured by the Indians but with Lucky's help escapes. Another Indian attack is broken up by U. S. Cavalry troops.

CANAL ZONE (Columbia)

Air Melodrama

DIRECTED by Lew Landers.

PLAYERS: Chester Morris, John Hubbard, Harriet Hilliard, Stanley Andrews, Forrest Tucker, Eddie Laughton.

SYNOPSIS

Harley Ames (John Hubbard), conceited, reckless society playboy but a capable flyer, arrives at Ginger Bar, a former banana shipping station on the outskirts of the Canal Zone and now a relay station for army bombers being flown from the United States to Africa, for additional training. He immediately incurs the enmity of "Hardtack" Hamilton (Chester Morris), training officer, because of his recklessness and because Ames makes a play for Susan (Harriet Hilliard), the commander's daughter. "Tack" is in love with Susan. Ames gets drunk when Susan fails to keep a date and the next day on combat flying crashes his ship, killing another pilot. Ames redeems himself by rescuing "Tack" and another pilot from the jungle where they crashed, then leaves "Tack" a clear field with Susan.

TOO MANY WOMEN (Producers Rel. Corp.)

Comedy

PRODUCED and directed by Bernard B. Ray.

PLAYERS: Neil Hamilton, June Lang, Joyce Compton, Barbara Read, Matt McHugh, Fred Shurman, Marlo Dwyer.

SYNOPSIS

Richard Sutton (Neil Hamilton) is secretly engaged to Linda (Barbara Read) but they postpone marriage because of financial insecurity. When a crooked promoter offers him a job, Richard tells the man he has inherited a fortune and does not have to work. The rumor travels fast and Richard soon finds himself being pushed into an engagement with Gwen (June Lang). Then Barbara (Joyce Compton), daughter of the town's richest man, tricks Richard into an engagement. Linda walks out on Richard. Another girl, Lorraine (Marlo Dwyer) is added to the list before the wealthy bauble bursts and the girls walk out on Richard. He patches things up with Linda.

SHORTS

advance synopses and information

THREE BLONDE MICE (Col.)

All Star Comedy (3428)

A wrong telephone number starts plenty of trouble for Elmer Smith, married to a very jealous wife. When the wife hears a girl's voice on the wire, she has a fit, packs up and goes home to mother. Elmer enlists the aid of his pal, Joe, and together they start out to effect a reconciliation. A cop stops them for speeding. Joe says he is a doctor and is hurrying home to Elmer's wife who is having a baby. The cop promises to forget about the ticket if they show him the new baby. Hilda, a neighbor, is drafted to help out. Elmer solves the baby problem by kidnapping the organ grinder's monkey. Meanwhile Joe has rounded up two more girls to help. Just as Elmer's wife is returning home, the monkey bites one of the girls. The three strange girls dash past Elmer's wife. She takes it out on Elmer. The cast includes Alan Mowbray, Dorothy Appleby, Monty Collins and Bud Jamison.

Release date, January 22, 1941 16 Minutes

CAT MEETS MOUSE (20th-Fox)

Terry-toon (Color) (2558)

The cat of this cartoon has slyly plotted a campaign to capture and hold his little victims in a "concentration camp." At the outset he succeeds in seizing and confining one little mouse, but the agile captive persists in escaping. The cat finally confines several of the mice in his camp. Then a threefold alarm is sounded, in the best military, naval and aviaional style, and squads of other mice rush headlong from various directions to the rescue. Carried on with a succession of strange weapons found in the kitchen, the battle waxes complex and furious and reaches a climax disastrous to the cat.

Release date, February 20, 1942 7 Minutes

THE GAY NINETIES (Univ.)

Musical (6228)

Songs popular in the "Gay Nineties" era are played and sung in this two reel musical and some are acted out by the cast. Johnny Downs is featured and he has in support, Clyde Cook, comedian, who appears with Yvonne Davis and Sandra Gould in "The Gay Nineties" number; Chester Conklin, Snub Pollard and Heinie Conklin (Keystone Kops); Susan Miller, singer; The Rhythm Rascals, and Gertrude Pedlar and Earle C. Kenton. One of the principal numbers is enacted to the tune "The Man on the Flying Trapeze."

15 Minutes

EAT ME, KITTY, EIGHT TO THE BAR (20th-Fox)

Terry-toon (2508)

The usual cat and mouse fight is dispensed with here and in its place is the unusual cordiality a cat and a mouse greet each other. An old dog who is witness to this display of friendship between traditional enemies is rather befuddled. The dog seeks out a goat and endeavors to introduce to him the new idea of mutual good will. Disaster besets the dog and he returns to the presence of the cat and the mouse to take appropriate action. However, the two strange friends deal with the dog in their own adequate fashion.

Release date, March 6, 1942

7 Minutes

34 War Films Approved

Thirty-four war-and-defense short subjects and trailers have been approved to date by the War Activities Committee of the Motion Picture Industry for circulation by the distributors to theatres, rental free. More are to come.

Made under direct order for, or by official Governmental or related agencies, these special reels are apart from certain war-training films which Hollywood is making for U. S. service departments, through the Academy and by individual studios, and apart from other subjects of war and patriotic nature which are rented by distributors to theatres in regular routine.

The 34 subjects approved to date by the industry's War Activities Committee are as follows, listed in order of release dates:

POWER FOR DEFENSE—a ten-minute subject showing how the power developed in the Tennessee Valley is being used today to turn the wheels of defense industries. (National Defense Commission film) (Released 2/18/41)

TWELVE one-minute recruiting trailers calling attention to the need for men of special skills in air force, field artillery, infantry, cavalry, etc. (War Department films) (Released 2/18/41)

CALLING ALL WORKERS—a 155-foot trailer produced by the Social Security Board and National Screen Service in connection with the Federal Government census of unemployed employables. (Released 4/9/41)

AMERICA PREFERRED—a four-minute trailer made by MGM for the Treasury Department with reference to the sales campaign for Defense Bonds and Savings Stamps. (Released 5/20/41)

WHERE DO WE GO?—a 170-foot trailer made by the United Service Organizations to promote the drive for funds for improved recreational facilities for soldiers, sailors and defense workers (Released 5/28/41)

AMERICA BUILDS SHIPS—a four-minute trailer portraying activities in U. S. shipyards in building a merchant marine. (OPM) (Released 6/5/41)

ARMY IN OVERALLS—a three-minute trailer summarizing the activities of the Civilian Conservation Corps in preparing landing fields, artillery ranges, etc. Made by Office of Production Management. (Released 6/5/41)

BITS AND PIECES—a three-minute trailer on the importance of sub-contracting defense orders, using the 12,000 parts in an airplane engine as an illustration. (OPM) (Released 6/5/41)

SEVEN TAGS—ranging in length from 26 feet to 65 feet, each calling attention to Defense Bonds and Savings Stamps; each tag attached to the end of a feature picture. (Treasury Department) (Released 6/6/41)

BOMBER—a ten-minute subject with commentary written by Carl Sandburg, reporting on the production of a leading type medium bomber used by the United States Army. Made by OEM. (Released 10/3/41)

POTS TO PLANES—a three-minute film which shows the method of reclaiming scrap aluminum for use in airplane manufacture as a result of the scrap aluminum campaign carried on last summer. Made by OEM. (Released 11/22/41)

FOOD FOR FREEDOM—a three-minute trailer made by OEM. The film uses British illustrations and emphasizes the necessity for an all-out agricultural program both to maintain the health of American citizens and as further aid to the British. (Released 12/9/41)

RED CROSS TRAILER—a two-and-a-half-minute trailer, narrated by Lowell Thomas and exhibited for the purpose of augmenting a nationwide campaign to raise $50,000,000 for the Red Cross War Fund. It shows the relief work carried on by the Red Cross in war. (Released 12/24/41)

WOMEN IN DEFENSE—a ten-minute film, narrated by Katharine Hepburn, with commentary written by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, which covers three principal phases of women's activities in the defense program—women in science, industry and voluntary services. Made by Office for Emergency Management. (Released 12/24/41)

SAFEGUARDING MILITARY INFORMATION—a nine-minute subject, made by Lt. Col. Darryl F. Zanuck at Twentieth Century-Fox studio as one of the series of training films made at cost for the War Department under auspices of the Research Council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, depicts the consequences of innocuous revelation of military secrets. (Released 1/16/42)

TANKS—a ten-minute film, narrated by Orson Welles, shows the production in one of America's arsenals of the M-3 medium tank for the armored forces of the United States and its Allies, testing and maneuvering on the firing range, and the final shipment to theatres of war. Made by Office for Emergency Management Film Unit. (Released 1/23/42)

ANY BONDS TODAY—a two-minute trailer in color, produced by Warner Brothers for the Treasury Department, in which the cartoon character, Bugs Bunny and his "playmates", sing this patriotic song against a background of the Spirit of '76. (Released 2/2/42)

FEATURES

*in order of releases, as set,
also others to come*

(Chart published monthly)

COLUMBIA

Prod. No.	Title	Release Date
3209	King of Dodge City.....	Aug. 14, '41
3040	Mystery Ship .....	Sep. 4, '41
3023	Harmon of Michigan.....	Sep. 11, '41
3009	Ladies In Retirement.....	Sep. 18, '41
3020	Two Latins from Manhattan.....	Oct. 2, '41
3008	Texas .....	Oct. 9, '41
3041	Blonde from Singapore.....	Oct. 15, '41
3210	Roaring Frontiers .....	Oct. 16, '41
3016	Three Girls About Town.....	Oct. 23, '41
3003	You Belong to Me.....	Oct. 30, '41
3036	The Sterk Pays Off.....	Nov. 6, '41
3026	Secrets of the Lone Wolf.....	Nov. 13, '41
3201	Royal Mounted Patrol.....	Nov. 13, '41
3030	Ellery Queen and Murder Ring.....	Nov. 18, '41
3005	Men In Her Life.....	Nov. 20, '41
3015	Go West Young Lady.....	Nov. 27, '41
3022	Sing for Your Supper.....	Dec. 4, '41
3024	Honolulu Lu .....	Dec. 11, '41
3202	Riders of the Badlands.....	Dec. 18, '41
3039	Harvard Here I Come.....	Dec. 18, '41
3004	Bedtime Story .....	Dec. 25, '41
3211	Lone Star Vigilantes.....	Jan. 1, '42
3028	Confessions of Boston Blackie.....	Jan. 8, '42
3203	West of Tombstone.....	Jan. 15, '42
3017	Blondie Goes to College.....	Jan. 15, '42
3035	Cadets on Parade.....	Jan. 22, '42
3031	Close Call for Ellery Queen.....	Jan. 29, '42
3034	Man Who Returned to Life.....	Feb. 5, '42
3007	The Lady Is Willing.....	Feb. 12, '42
3212	Bullets for Bandits.....	Feb. 12, '42
3021	Shut My Big Mouth.....	Feb. 19, '42
...	Adventures of Martin Eden.....	Feb. 26, '42
...	Lawless Plainsman .....	Mar. 12, '42
...	Tramp, Tramp, Tramp.....	Mar. 12, '42
...	Canal Zone .....	Mar. 19, '42
...	Two Yanks in Trinidad.....	Mar. 26, '42
...	North of the Rockies.....	Apr. 2, '42
...	Alias Boston Blackie.....	Apr. 2, '42
...	The Devil's Trail .....	Not Set
...	Highly Irregular .....	Not Set
...	Down Rio Grande Way.....	Not Set
...	The Gentlemen Misbehave.....	Not Set
...	He Kissed the Bride.....	Not Set
...	Prairie Gunsmoke .....	Not Set
...	Blondie's Blessed Event.....	Not Set
...	Salute to Tobruk .....	Not Set
...	Destroyer .....	Not Set
...	The Invaders .....	Not Set
...	Just Another Dame.....	Not Set
...	Ellery Queen and the Living Corpse .....	Not Set
...	Hello Annapolis .....	Not Set
...	Blondie for Victory.....	Not Set
...	The Commandos .....	Not Set

MGM

201	Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.....	Sep. '41
202	Lady Be Good .....	Sep. '41
203	Down in San Diego.....	Sep. '41
204	Honky Tonk .....	Oct. '41
205	Married Bachelor .....	Oct. '41
206	Smilin' Thru .....	Oct. '41
207	The Feminine Touch.....	Oct. '41
208	Chocolate Soldier .....	Nov. '41
209	Unholy Partners .....	Nov. '41
210	Shadow of the Thin Man.....	Nov. '41
211	Two-Faced Woman .....	Nov. '41
212	H. M. Pulham, Esq.....	Dec. '41
213	Design for Scandal.....	Dec. '41
214	Tarzan's Secret Treasure.....	Dec. '41
215	Kathleen .....	Dec. '41
216	Babes on Broadway.....	Jan. '42
217	Dr. Kildare's Victory .....	Jan. '42
218	Johnny Eager .....	Jan. '42
219	Mr. and Mrs. North.....	Jan. '42
220	The Bugle Sounds.....	Jan. '42
221	Joe Smith, American.....	Feb. '42
222	Woman of the Year.....	Feb. '42
223	The Vanishing Virginian.....	Feb. '42

Prod. No.	Title	Release Date
224	A Yank on the Burma Road.....	Feb. '42
225	We Were Dancing.....	Mar. '42
226	Born to Sing.....	Mar. '42
227	Salute to Courage .....	Mar. '42
228	This Time for Keeps.....	Mar. '42
229	Courtship of Andy Hardy.....	Mar. '42
...	Panama Hattie .....	Not Set
...	I Married an Angel.....	Not Set
...	Mrs. Miniver .....	Not Set
...	Tortilla Flat .....	Not Set
...	Rio Rita .....	Not Set
...	Tarzan's Secret Treasure.....	Not Set
...	Kid Glove Killer.....	Not Set
...	Fingers at the Window.....	Not Set
...	Ship Ahoy .....	Not Set
...	Then There Were Two.....	Not Set
...	Mokey Delano .....	Not Set
...	Tarzan Against the World.....	Not Set
...	Salute to the Marines.....	Not Set
...	Girl Crazy .....	Not Set
...	Just Between Us.....	Not Set
...	The Cardboard Lover.....	Not Set
...	Sunday Punch .....	Not Set
...	Crossroads .....	Not Set

MONOGRAM

...	Arizona Bound .....	July 19, '41
...	Saddle Mountain Roundup.....	Aug. 29, '41
...	Gentleman from Dixie.....	Sep. 5, '41
...	Let's Go Collegiate.....	Sep. 12, '41
...	Gun Man from Bodie.....	Sep. 26, '41
...	Stolen Paradise .....	Oct. 10, '41
...	Tonto Basin Outlaw.....	Oct. 10, '41
...	Top Sergeant Mulligan.....	Oct. 17, '41
...	Spooks Run Wild.....	Oct. 24, '41
...	Zis Boom Bah.....	Nov. 7, '41
...	Siren of the South Seas.....	Nov. 7, '41
...	Double Trouble .....	Nov. 21, '41
...	Underground Rustlers .....	Nov. 21, '41
...	I Killed That Man.....	Nov. 28, '41
...	Borrowed Hero .....	Dec. 5, '41
...	Lone Star Law Men.....	Dec. 5, '41
...	Riot Squad .....	Dec. 12, '41
...	Here Come the Marines.....	Dec. 26, '41
...	Forbidden Trails .....	Dec. 26, '41
...	Freckles Comes Home.....	Jan. 2, '42
...	Thunder River Feud.....	Jan. 9, '42
...	Road to Happiness.....	Jan. 9, '42
...	Snuffy Smith, the Yard Bird.....	Jan. 16, '42
...	Man from Headquarters.....	Jan. 23, '42
...	Below the Border.....	Jan. 30, '42
...	Law of the Jungle.....	Feb. 6, '42
...	Western Mail .....	Feb. 18, '42
...	Mr. Wise Guy .....	Feb. 20, '42
...	Rock River Renegades.....	Feb. 27, '42
...	Black Dragons .....	Mar. 6, '42
...	Arizona Roundup .....	Mar. 6, '42
...	Man with Two Lives.....	Mar. 13, '42
...	Klondike Victory .....	Mar. 20, '42
...	Ghost Town Law .....	Mar. 27, '42
...	She's in the Army .....	Apr. 3, '42
...	Aunt Emma Paints the Town.....	Apr. 17, '42
...	I Am an American.....	Apr. 24, '42
...	Where the Trail Ends.....	May 1, '42

PARAMOUNT

(No release dates set since December)

Block 1
4103	Hold Back the Dawn.....	Sep. 26, '41
4102	Buy Me That Town.....	Oct. 3, '41
4101	Nothing But the Truth.....	Oct. 10, '41
4104	Henry Aldrich for President.....	Oct. 24, '41
4105	New York Town.....	Oct. 31, '41
Block 2
4109	Birth of the Blues.....	Nov. 7, '41
4107	Skylark .....	Nov. 21, '41
4106	Night of January 16th.....	Nov. 28, '41
4110	Glamour Boy .....	Dec. 5, '41
4108	Among the Living .....	Dec. 19, '41

Prod. No.	Title	Release Date
...	Block 3
4111	Bahama Passage .....	Not Set
4112	Sullivan's Travel .....	Not Set
4113	No Hands on the Clock.....	Not Set
4114	Mr. Bug Goes to Town.....	Not Set
4115	Pacific Blackout .....	Not Set
...	Block 4
...	Torpedo Boat .....	Not Set
...	The Remarkable Andrew .....	Not Set
...	The Lady Has Plans.....	Not Set
...	Fly by Night.....	Not Set
...	The Fleet's In.....	Not Set
...	SPECIAL
4136	Louisiana Purchase .....	Dec. 25, '41
...	Block 1 (Westerns)
...	Secrets of the Wasteland.....	Not Set
...	Outlaws of the Desert.....	Not Set
...	Riders of the Timberline.....	Not Set
...	Stick to Your Guns.....	Not Set
...	Twilight on the Trail.....	Not Set
...	▽
...	Reap the Wild Wind.....	Not Set
...	Sweater Girl .....	Not Set
...	Beyond the Blue Horizon.....	Not Set
...	Great Man's Lady.....	Not Set
...	Henry and Dizzy .....	Not Set
...	American Empire .....	Not Set
...	Night in New Orleans.....	Not Set
...	Mr. and Mrs. Cugat.....	Not Set
...	This Gun for Hire.....	Not Set
...	No Time for Love.....	Not Set
...	For Whom the Bell Tolls.....	Not Set
...	Sky Over China .....	Not Set
...	Triumph Over Pain.....	Not Set
...	True to the Army.....	Not Set
...	Dr. Broadway .....	Not Set
...	Bad Man of Arizona.....	Not Set
...	Palm Beach Story.....	Not Set
...	Take a Letter, Darling.....	Not Set
...	I Live on Danger.....	Not Set
...	Out of the Frying Pan.....	Not Set
...	Holiday Inn .....	Not Set
...	My Favorite Blonde.....	Not Set
...	Satan Plays the Piano.....	Not Set
...	Merton of the Movies.....	Not Set
...	Wildcat .....	Not Set
...	I Married a Witch.....	Not Set
...	Henry Aldrich, Editor.....	Not Set
...	Road to Morocco .....	Not Set
...	Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch	Not Set
...	Wake Island .....	Not Set
...	My Heart Belongs to Daddy.....	Not Set
...	Channel Port .....	Not Set
...	Black Curtin .....	Not Set
...	Silver Queen .....	Not Set
...	Washington Escapade .....	Not Set
...	Listening Post .....	Not Set
...	The Forest Rangers .....	Not Set
...	The Glass Key.....	Not Set

PRODUCERS REL. CORP.

205	Hard Guy .....	Oct. 17, '41
257	Billy the Kid Wanted.....	Oct. 24, '41
213	The Miracle Kid .....	Nov. 14, '41
230	Swamp Woman .....	Dec. 5, '41
258	Billy the Kid's Round Up.....	Dec. 12, '41
215	Law of the Timber.....	Dec. 19, '41
251	Texas Man Hunt.....	Jan. 2, '42
263	Lone Rider and the Bandit.....	Jan. 16, '42
206	Duke of the Navy.....	Jan. 23, '42
214	Today I Hang .....	Jan. 30, '42
207	Broadway Big Shot.....	Feb. 6, '42
252	Raiders of the West.....	Feb. 13, '42
259	Billy the Kid Trapped.....	Feb. 20, '42
210	Too Many Women.....	Feb. 27, '42
202	Gees Town .....	Mar. 6, '42
270	Rodeo Rhythm .....	Mar. 13, '42
264	Lone Rider in Cheyenne.....	Mar. 13, '42
209	The Mad Monster.....	Mar. 20, '42

RKO

Prod. No.	Title	Release Date
229	The Strangler .....	Mar. 27, '42
211	Dawn Express .....	Apr. 3, '42
208	Gun Shy .....	Apr. 10, '42
201	Men of San Quentin .....	May 8, '42
...	Block 1
201	Citizen Kane .....	Sep. 5, '41
202	Parachute Battalion .....	Sep. 12, '41
203	Lady Scarface .....	Sep. 26, '41
204	Father Takes a Wife.....	Oct. 3, '41
205	All That Money Can Buy.....	Oct. 17, '41
...	Block 2
206	The Gay Falcon .....	Oct. 24, '41
207	Unexpected Uncle .....	Nov. 7, '41
208	Suspicion .....	Nov. 14, '41
209	Look Who's Laughing.....	Nov. 21, '41
210	Mexican Spitfire's Baby.....	Nov. 28, '41
...	Block 3
211	Week End for Three.....	Dec. 12, '41
212	Playmates .....	Dec. 26, '41
213	A Date with the Falcon.....	Jan. 16, '42
214	Four Jacks and a Jill.....	Jan. 23, '42
215	Obliging Young Lady.....	Jan. 30, '42
...	Block 4
216	Valley of the Sun.....	Feb. 6, '42
217	Call Out the Marines.....	Feb. 13, '42
218	Joan of Paris.....	Feb. 20, '42
219	Sing Your Worries Away.....	Feb. 27, '42
220	Mexican Spitfire at Sea.....	Mar. 6, '42
...	Block 5
...	The Magnificent Ambersons.....	Mar. 13, '42
...	The Bashful Bachelor.....	Mar. 20, '42
...	Syncope .....	Mar. 27, '42
...	Mayor of 44th St.....	Apr. 10, '42
...	Powder Town .....	Apr. 17, '42
...	Block 6
...	Tuttles of Tahiti.....	Apr. 24, '42
...	Falcon No. 3.....	May 1, '42
...	My Favorite Spy .....	May 8, '42
...	Mexican Spitfire and the Ghost .....	May 15, '42
...	Army Surgeon .....	May 22, '42
...	SPECIAL
293	Dumbo (Disney) .....	Oct. 31, '41
252	Ball of Fire (Goldwyn).....	Jan. 9, '42
292	Fantasia (Disney).....	Apr. 3, '42
...	Bambi (Disney) .....	Not Set
...	Block 1 (Westerns)
281	Bandit Trail .....	Oct. 10, '41
282	Dude Cowboy .....	Dec. 12, '41
283	Riding the Wind.....	Feb. 13, '42
...	Block 2 (Westerns)
284	Land of the Open Range.....	Apr. 10, '42
285	Come on Danger.....	Not Set
286	Thundering Hoofs .....	Not Set

...	Growing Pains .....	Not Set
...	The Gilded Pheasant .....	Not Set
...	Bombardiers .....	Not Set
...	It Came Up Love.....	Not Set
...	Journey into Fear.....	Not Set
...	Scattergood at the Races.....	Not Set
...	Angel Face.....	Not Set

REPUBLIC

107	Mountain Moonlight .....	July 12, '41
108	Hurricane Smith .....	July 20, '41
133	The Pittsburgh Kid.....	Aug. 29, '41
161	Outlaws of the Cherokee Trail.....	Sep. 10, '41
171	The Apache Kid .....	Sep. 12, '41
172	Death Valley Outlaws.....	Sep. 29, '41
109	Sailors on Leave .....	Sep. 30, '41
110	Mercy Island .....	Oct. 10, '41
151	Jesse James at Bay.....	Oct. 17, '41
162	Gauchos of Eldorado.....	Oct. 24, '41
121	Public Enemies .....	Oct. 30, '41
111	Devil Pays Off .....	Nov. 10, '41

Prod. No.	Title	Release Date	Prod. No.	Title	Release Date	Prod. No.	Title	Release Date	Prod. No.	Title	Release Date
143	Sierra Sue	Nov. 12, '41	229	Right to the Heart	Jan. 23, '42	...	Brooklyn Orchid	Feb. 20, '42	...	Dr. RX	Not Set
173	A Missouri Outlaw	Nov. 25, '41	230	Son of Fury	Jan. 30, '42	...	Heliotrope Harry	Feb. 27, '42	...	There's One Born Every Minute	Not Set
113	Tuxedo Junction	Dec. 4, '41	231	Young America	Feb. 6, '42	...	To Be or Not to Be	Mar. 6, '42	...	Drums of the Congo	Not Set
152	Red River Valley	Dec. 12, '41	Block 8			...	Dudes Are Pretty People	Mar. 13, '42	...	The Mystery of Marie Roget	Not Set
163	West of Cimarron	Dec. 15, '41	232	On the Sunny Side	Feb. 13, '42	...	Mister V	Mar. 20, '42	...	The Spoilers	Not Set
112	Mr. District Attorney in the Carter Case	Dec. 18, '41	233	Roxie Hart	Feb. 20, '42	...	Kipling's Jungle Book	Apr. 3, '42	...	Eagle Squadron	Not Set
101	Lady for a Night	Jan. 5, '42	234	Castle in the Desert	Feb. 27, '42	...	The Gold Rush (Chaplin—with words and music)	Apr. 17, '42	...	Juke Box Jennie	Not Set
174	Arizona Terrors	Jan. 6, '42	235	Night Before the Divorce	Mar. 6, '42	...	Twin Beds	Apr. 24, '42	...	Unseen Enemy	Not Set
153	Man from Cheyenne	Jan. 16, '42	236	Song of the Islands	Mar. 13, '42	...	Ships with Wings	May 15, '42	...	Lady in a Jam	Not Set
131	Cowboy Serenade	Jan. 22, '42	▽			...	Love on the Dole	Not Set	...	Butch Minds the Baby	Not Set
122	Pardon My Stripes	Jan. 26, '42	...	Lone Star Ranger	Not Set	...	Friendly Enemies	Not Set	WARNER BROS.
164	Code of the Outlaw	Jan. 30, '42	...	The Outlaw	Not Set	...	The Keys of the Kingdom	Not Set	102	The Smiling Ghost	Sep. 6, '41
114	A Tragedy at Midnight	Feb. 2, '42	...	Tales of Manhattan	Not Set	...	Cobana	Not Set	103	Navy Blues	Sep. 13, '41
154	South of Santa Fe	Feb. 17, '42	...	Highway to Hell	Not Set	...	Strawfoot	Not Set	104	Nine Lives Are Not Enough	Sep. 20, '41
102	Sleepytime Gal	Mar. 5, '42	...	Remarkable Mr. Kipps	Not Set	...	About Face	Not Set	101	Sergeant York	Sep. 27, '41
175	Stage Coach Express	Mar. 6, '42	...	Moon Tide	Not Set	UNIVERSAL			105	Law of the Tropics	Oct. 4, '41
144	The Heart of Texas	Mar. 11, '42	...	To the Shores of Tripoli	Not Set	6061	Man from Montana	Sep. 5, '41	106	International Squadron	Oct. 11, '41
115	Yokel Boy	Mar. 13, '42	...	Ten Gentlemen from West Point	Not Set	6013	Badlands of Dakota	Sep. 5, '41	107	The Maltese Falcon	Oct. 18, '41
...	Affairs of Jimmy Valentine	Not Set	...	My Gal Sal	Not Set	6004	Unfinished Business	Sep. 12, '41	108	One Foot in Heaven	Nov. 1, '41
...	Riders of the Range	Not Set	...	This Above All	Not Set	6051	Kid From Kansas	Sep. 19, '41	109	Target for Tonight	Nov. 8, '41
...	Girl from Alaska	Not Set	...	Rings on Her Fingers	Not Set	6045	A Girl Must Live	Sep. 19, '41	110	Blues in the Night	Nov. 15, '41
...	Shepherd of the Ozarks	Not Set	...	Not for Children	Not Set	6030	Sing Another Chorus	Sep. 19, '41	111	The Body Disappears	Dec. 6, '41
...	Jesse James, Jr.	Not Set	...	A Tommy in the U.S.A.	Not Set	6005	It Started with Eve	Sep. 26, '41	112	Steel Against the Sky	Dec. 13, '41

20TH CENTURY-FOX

Block 1

201	Charley's Aunt	Aug. 1, '41
202	Dressed To Kill	Aug. 8, '41
203	Wild Geese Calling	Aug. 15, '41
204	Private Nurse	Aug. 22, '41
205	Sun Valley Serenade	Aug. 29, '41

Block 2

206	Charlie Chan in Rio	Sep. 5, '41
207	Bella Star	Sep. 12, '41
208	We Go Fast	Sep. 19, '41
209	Last of the Duanees	Sep. 26, '41
210	Man at Large	Sep. 26, '41

Block 3

211	A Yank in the R.A.F.	Oct. 3, '41
212	Great Guns	Oct. 10, '41
213	Riders of the Purple Sage	Oct. 10, '41
214	Weekend in Havana	Oct. 17, '41

Block 4

215	Moon Over Her Shoulder	Oct. 24, '41
216	Small Town Deb	Nov. 7, '41
217	I Wake Up Screaming	Nov. 14, '41
218	Swamp Water	Dec. 5, '41

Block 5

219	Rise and Shine	Nov. 21, '41
220	Cadet Girl	Nov. 28, '41
221	Marry the Boss' Daughter	Nov. 28, '41
222	Confirm or Deny	Dec. 12, '41
223	Perfect Snob	Dec. 19, '41

Block 6

224	How Green Was My Valley	Dec. 26, '41
226	Remember the Day	Jan. 2, '42
227	Blue, White and Perfect	Jan. 9, '42

Block 7

228	A Gentleman at Heart	Jan. 16, '42
-----	----------------------	--------------

UNITED ARTISTS

...	Three Cockeyed Sailors	July 4, '41
...	Major Barbara	Sep. 12, '41
...	Tanks a Million	Sep. 12, '41
...	International Lady	Sep. 19, '41
...	Lydia	Sep. 26, '41
...	New Wine	Oct. 10, '41
...	Niagara Falls	Oct. 17, '41
...	Sundown	Oct. 31, '41
...	All American Co-Ed	Oct. 31, '41
...	Miss Polly	Nov. 14, '41
...	Corsican Brothers	Nov. 28, '41
...	Fiesta	Dec. 19, '41
...	Hayfoot	Jan. 2, '42
...	Shanghai Gesture	Feb. 6, '42

SHORTS SYNOPSIS AND INFORMATION

JEWEL OF THE PACIFIC (20th-Fox)

Magic Carpet (2106)

The "Jewel of the Pacific" of the title is Hawaii and the scenes contained herein were filmed before the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. Photographed in sepia, Hawaiian points of interest, the shopping center, beach homes, swimming pools, the making of leis and the hula dancers are shown. The commentary was written after the Pearl Harbor attack and draws its theme therefrom.

Release date March 27, 1942

9 Minutes

COMMUNITY SING, No. 4 (Col.) (3654)

Currently popular songs are featured in this issue of the series. The songs are $21 a Day Once a Month, "The Things I Love," "A Romantic Guy I," "My Last Cigarette" and "Daddy." As usual the audience is asked to cooperate and join in the singing.

Release date, December 1, 1941 10½ Minutes

Synopsis Indexed

Page numbers on short subject synopses published in Product Digest are listed in the Shorts chart, Product Digest Section, pages 498 and 499.

MINNESOTA, LAND OF PLENTY (MGM)

FitzPatrick Traveltalk (Color) (T-317)

The FitzPatrick camera here photographs the many points of interest in Minnesota. The subjects covers all the elements that go to make a state great, the principal cities, the lakes and other scenic wonders as well as the human element, including the chief executives of the state.

Release date, January 31, 1942

9 Minutes

SCREEN SNAPSHOTS, No. 6 (Col.)

Series 21 (3856)

Alan Mowbray is the master of ceremonies in this issue of the series. The first stop is a doughnut shop where several stars are discovered dunking doughnuts. Then to Siapsie Maxie's where stars are seen watching the floor show, and finally to a charity baseball game between comedians and leading men. About two score stars appear at one time or another.

Release date, February 12, 1942

9 Minutes

COMMUNITY SING, No. 5 (Col.) (3655)

Another in the Community Sing series, this one asks the audience to sing the hit tunes "From Taps 'Til Reveille," "The Strawberry Blonde," "Yours" and "I Don't Want to Set the World on Fire."

Release date, December 19, 1941 10½ Minutes

THE RELEASE CHART

Index to Reviews, Advance Synopses and Service Data in PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION

Dot (*) before the title indicates 1940-41 product.

Release dates and running time are furnished as soon as available. Advance dates are tentative and subject to change.

Consult Service Data in the PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION for Legion of Decency Rating, Audience Classification and Managers' Round Table Exploitation.

All page numbers on this chart refer to pages in the PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION of MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

Short Subject Release Chart with Synopsis Index can be found on pages 498-499.

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in order of release, on pages 510-511.

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	— REVIEWED —		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
ADVENTURES of Martin Eden	Col.	...	Glenn Ford-Claire Trevor	Feb. 26, '42	...	...	...	p476	...
All American Co-Ed	UA	...	Frances Langford-Johnny Downs	Oct. 31, '41	49m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p308	...
All Over Town	Rep.	Reissue	Olsen & Johnson	Oct. '41	60m	Aug. 28, '37	p330	...	...
All That Money Can Buy (formerly Here is a Man)	RKO	205	Edw. Arnold-W. Huston-Anne Shirley	Oct. 17, '41	106m	July 19, '41	p251	p197	p496
All Through the Night	WB	116	Humphrey Bogart-Conrad Veidt	Jan. 10, '42	105m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	...
Along Came Murder	MGM	...	Van Heflin-Marsha Hunt	Not Set	...	...	...	p495	...
Always in My Heart	WB	...	Kay Francis-Walter Huston	Not Set	...	...	...	p464	...
Among the Living	Para.	4108	Albert Dekker-Susan Hayward	Dec. 19, '41	68m	Sept. 6, '41	p260	p235	p288
Apache Kid	Rep.	171	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 12, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p277	...
Appointment for Love	Univ.	6007	Margaret Sullivan-Charles Boyer	Oct. 31, '41	89m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p277	p452
Arizona Bound (formerly Rough Riders)	Mono.	...	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	July 19, '41	57m	July 25, '41	p249	p172	p210
Arizona Cyclone	Univ.	6063	Johnny Mack Brown	Nov. 14, '41	57m	...	...	p230	...
Arizona Terrors	Rep.	174	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Jan. 6, '42	56m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p408	...
BABES on Broadway	MGM	216	Mickey Rooney-Judy Garland	Jan. '42	118m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	p363	p496
Bad Lands of Dakota	Univ.	6013	Ann Rutherford-Robert Stack	Sept. 5, '41	74m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p207	p421
Bahama Passage	Para.	4111	Madeleine Carroll-Stirling Hayden	Not Set	82m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	p320	p452
Ball of Fire	RKO	252	Gary Cooper-Barbara Stanwyck	Jan. 9, '42	111m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	...	...
Bandit Trail (formerly Outlaw Trail)	RKO	281	Tim Holt	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	...
Bashful Bachelor, The	RKO	...	Lum and Abner	Mar. 20, '42	...	...	...	p487	...
Bed Time Story	Col.	3004	Loretta Young-Fredric March	Dec. 25, '41	85m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p363	...
Belle Starr (color)	20th-Fox	207	Randolph Scott-Gene Tierney	Sept. 12, '41	87m	Aug. 23, '41	p250	p161	p386
Below the Border	Mono.	...	Rough Riders	Jan. 30, '42	...	...	...	p464	...
Big Blockade, The (British)	Ealing-UA	...	War Documentary	Not Set	77m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	...	...
Billy the Kid Wanted	Prod.	257	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Oct. 24, '41	64m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p299	...
Billy the Kid's Roundup	Prod.	258	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Dec. 12, '41	58m	...	...	p376	...
Billy the Kid Trapped	Prod.	259	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Feb. 20, '42	...	...	...	p467	...
Birth of the Blues	Para.	4109	Bing Crosby-Mary Martin	Nov. 7, '41	86m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	p452
Black Dragons	Univ.	...	Bela Lugosi-Joan Barclay	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	p507	...
•Blonde Comet, The	Prod.	116	Virginia Vale-Barney Oldfield	Dec. 26, '41	67m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	...	...
Blonde from Singapore	Col.	3041	Florence Rice-Lief Erickson	Oct. 15, '41	65m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	...	...
Blondie Goes to College	Col.	3017	Penny Singleton-Arthur Lake	Jan. 15, '42	...	...	...	p409	...
Blue, White and Perfect	20th-Fox	227	Lloyd Nolan-Helene Reynolds	Jan. 6, '42	75m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p408	...
Blues in the Night	WB	110	Priscilla Lane-Richard Whorf	Nov. 15, '41	88m	Nov. 1, '41	p343	p308	...
Body Disappears, The	WB	111	Jeffrey Lynn-Jane Wyman	Dec. 6, '41	70m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	...
Bombay Clipper	Univ.	6031	William Gargan-Irene Hervey	Feb. 6, '42	61m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p432	...
Borrowed Hero	Mono.	...	Alan Baxter-Florence Rice	Dec. 5, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p407	p364	...
Born to Sing	MGM	226	Virginia Weidler-Ray McDonald	Mar. '42	82m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p442	...
Broadway Big Shot	Prod.	207	Ralph Byrd-Virginia Vale	Feb. 6, '42	59m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	...	...
Brooklyn Orchid	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-William Bendix	Feb. 20, '42	50m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	...	...
Bugle Sounds, The	MGM	220	Wallace Beery-Marjorie Main	Jan. '42	101m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p387	p496
Bullet Scars	WB	...	Regis Toomey-Adele Longmire	Not Set	...	...	...	...	...
Bullets for Bandits	Col.	3212	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Feb. 12, '42	...	...	...	p364	...
Burma Convoy (formerly Half Way to Shanghai)	Univ.	6035	Charles Bickford-Evelyn Ankers	Oct. 17, '41	60m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	p137	...
Buy Me That Town	Para.	4102	Lloyd Nolan-Constance Moore	Oct. 3, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p262	p208	p210
CADET Girl	20th-Fox	220	Carole Landis-George Montgomery	Nov. 28, '41	69m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p351	...
Cadets on Parade	Col.	3035	Freddie Bartholomew-Jimmy Lydon	Jan. 22, '42	...	...	...	p409	...
Call Out the Marines	RKO	217	Victor McLaglen-Edmund Lowe	Feb. 13, '42	67m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p443	...
Canal Zone	Col.	...	Chester Morris-John Hubbard	Mar. 19, '42	...	...	...	p508	...
Captains of the Clouds	WB	122	Jas. Cagney-Dennis Morgan-Alan Hale	Feb. 21, '42	115m	Jan. 24, '42	p473	p308	...
Castle in the Desert	20th-Fox	234	Sidney Toler-Arleen Whelan	Feb. 27, '42	63m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p476	...
Charley's Aunt	20th-Fox	201	Jack Benny-Kay Francis	Aug. 1, '41	82m	July 26, '41	p262	p172	p288
Charlie Chan in Rio	20th-Fox	206	Sidney Toler-Mary Beth Hughes	Sept. 5, '41	62m	Aug. 23, '41	p262	p172	p260
Chocolate Soldier, The	MGM	208	Nelson Eddy-Rise Stevens	Nov. '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p289	p496
Citizen Kane	RKO	201	Orson Welles	Sept. 5, '41	119m	Apr. 12, '41	p249	p61	p367
Close Call for Ellery Queen	Col.	3031	Bill Gargan-Margaret Lindsay	Jan. 29, '42	...	...	...	p463	...
Code of the Outlaw	Rep.	164	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Jan. 30, '42	57m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	...
Come On, Danger	RKO	285	Tim Holt	Not Set	58m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	...
Confessions of Boston Blackie	Col.	3028	Chester Morris-Harriet Hilliard	Jan. 8, '42	65m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	...	...
Confirm or Deny	20th-Fox	222	Don Ameche-Joan Bennett	Dec. 12, '41	73m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	...
Corsican Brothers	UA	...	Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.-Akim Tamiroff	Nov. 28, '41	110m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	p299	p496
Country Gentlemen, The	Rep.	Reissue	Olsen & Johnson	Oct. '41	60m	Oct. 31, '41	p330	...	...

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
Courtship of Andy Hardy, The	MGM	229	Mickey Rooney-Lewis Stone	Mar. '42	93m	Feb. 14, '42	p505	p476	....
Cowboy Serenade	Rep.	144	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Jan. 23, '42	66m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p443	....
DANGEROUSLY They Live	WB	121	John Garfield-Raymond Massey	Feb. 14, '42	78m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	....	....
• Dangerous Lady	Prod.	115	Neil Hamilton-June Storey	Oct. 3, '41	64m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p219	....
Date with the Falcon	RKO	213	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Jan. 16, '42	63m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	....
Death Valley Outlaws	Rep.	172	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 29, '41	56m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	....	....
Design for Scandal	MGM	213	Walter Pidgeon-Rosalind Russel	Dec. '41	82m	Nov. 15, '41	p361	p351	....
Devil Pays Off	Rep.	111	Margaret Tallichet-William Wright	Nov. 10, '41	70m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p343	....
Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde	MGM	201	Spencer Tracy-Lana Turner	Sept. '41	123m	July 26, '41	p248	p134	p496
Dr. Kildare's Victory	MGM	217	Lew Ayres-Lionel Barrymore	Jan. '42	92m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	....
Don't Get Personal	Univ.	6037	Hugh Herbert-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 2, '42	60m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p343	....
Double Trouble	Mono.	....	Harry Langdon	Nov. 21, '41	63m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p332	....
• Down Mexico Way	Rep.	042	Gene Autry	Oct. 15, '41	78m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p277	p496
Down in San Diego	MGM	203	Bonita Granville-Ray McDonald	Sept. '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p250	p207	p353
Dressed to Kill	20th-Fox	202	Lloyd Nolan-Mary Beth Hughes	Aug. 8, '41	74m	July 26, '41	p249	p149	p236
• Drifftin' Kid	Mono.	....	Tom Keene	Oct. 17, '41	55m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	p277	....
Dude Cowboy	RKO	282	Tim Holt	Dec. 12, '41	59m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	....	p260
Dudes Are Pretty People	UA	....	Marjorie Woodworth-Jimmy Rogers	Mar. 13, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Dumbo (Color)	RKO	293	Disney Feature Cartoon	Oct. 31, '41	64m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	....	p496
Duke of the Navy	Prod.	206	Ralph Byrd-Veda Ann Borg	Jan. 23, '42	65m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p409	....
ELLERY Queen and Murder Ring Col.	3030	Ralph Bellamy	Nov. 18, '41	70m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....	....
FANTASIA (color) (Revised)	RKO	292	Disney-Stokowski	Apr. 3, '42	82m	Nov. 16, '40	p494	p2	p286
Father Takes a Wife	RKO	204	Adolphe Menjou-Gloria Swanson	Oct. 3, '41	79m	July 19, '41	p262	p197	p236
Feminine Touch, The	MGM	207	Rosalind Russell-Don Ameche	Oct. '41	95m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p496
Ferry Pilot (British)	ABFD	....	War Documentary	Not Set	27m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	....	....
Fiesta	UA	....	Armida-Antonio Moreno	Dec. 19, '41	45m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	....	....
Fighting Bill Fargo	Univ.	6065	Johnny Mack Brown	Dec. 19, '41	....	....	....	p364	....
Fleet's In, The	Para.	....	Dorothy Lamour-William Holden	Not Set	93m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	....
Fly By Night	Para.	....	Nancy Kelly-Richard Carlson	Not Set	68m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p376	....
Flying Cadets	Univ.	6028	Wm. Gargan-Peggy Moran	Oct. 24, '41	60m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p161	....
Forbidden Trails	Mono.	....	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Dec. 26, '41	59m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p396	....
Forgotten Village, The	Mayer-Burstyn	....	Documentary	Sept. 16, '41	67m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	....	....
Four Jacks and a Jill	RKO	214	Ray Bolger-Anne Shirley	Jan. 23, '42	68m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	....
Freckles Comes Home	Mono.	....	Johnny Downs-Gale Storm	Jan. 2, '42	....	....	....	p396	....
Frightened Lady (British)	Hoffberg	....	Marius Goring-Helen Hays	Nov. 7, '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	....	....
'Frisco Lil	Univ.	....	Irene Hervey-Kent Taylor	Mar. 13, '42	....	....	....	p467	....
GAUCHOS of Eldorado	Rep.	162	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Oct. 24, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p308	....
Gay Falcon, The	RKO	206	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 24, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p218	....
General Suworov	Artkino	....	Documentary	Sept. 19, '41	100m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Gentleman at Heart, A	20th-Fox	228	Carole Landis-Cesar Romero	Jan. 16, '42	66m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p432	....
Gentleman from Dixie	Mono.	....	Jack LaRue-Marian Marsh	Sept. 5, '41	63m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	p206	....
(formerly Li'l Louisiana Belle)	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....
Ghost of Frankenstein, The	Univ.	....	Lon Chaney-Sir Cedric Hardwicke	Mar. 6, '42	....	....	....	p463	....
Girl from Leningrad (Russian)	Artkino	....	Zoya Fyodorova	Dec. 19, '41	92m	Dec. 27, '41	p431	....	....
Girl Must Live, A (British)	Univ.	6045	Lilli Palmer-Margaret Lockwood	Sept. 19, '41	69m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	....	p367
Girls Town	Prod.	202	June Storey-Edith Fellowes	Mar. 6, '42	....	....	....	p476	....
Glamour Boy	Para.	4110	Susanna Foster-Jackie Cooper	Dec. 5, '41	80m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	....
Gold Rush, The	UA	....	Chaplin—Words and Music	Apr. 17, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Go West, Young Lady	Col.	3015	Penny Singleton-Glenn Ford	Nov. 27, '41	70m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	p289	....
Great Guns	20th-Fox	212	Laurel and Hardy	Oct. 10, '41	73m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	....
Great Man's Lady, The	Para.	....	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Not Set	....	....	....	p396	....
Gunman from Bodie	Mono.	....	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Sept. 26, '41	62m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p263	....
(formerly Bad Man from Bodie)	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....
HARD GUY	Prod.	205	Jack LaRue-Mary Healy	Oct. 17, '41	68m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p263	....
Harmon of Michigan	Col.	3023	Tommy Harmon-Anita Louise	Sept. 11, '41	66m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p263	p386
Harvard Here I Come	Col.	3039	Maxie Rosenbloom-Arlene Judge	Dec. 18, '41	....	....	....	p376	....
Hatter's Castle (Paramount-British)	....	....	Robert Newton-Deborah Kerr	Not Set	100m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	....	....
Hayfoot	UA	....	William Tracy-James Gleason	Jan. 2, '42	48m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	....	....
Heliotrope Harry	UA	....	Miriam Hopkins-Brian Donlevy	Feb. 27, '42	....	....	....	p508	....
Hellzapoppin	Univ.	6046	Olsen & Johnson-Martha Raye	Dec. 26, '41	84m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	....	....
Henry Aldrich for President	Para.	4104	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Oct. 24, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p210
Henry and Dizzy	Para.	....	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Not Set	....	....	....	p443	....
Here Comes the Marines	Mono.	....	Wallace Ford-Toby Wing	Dec. 26, '41	....	....	....	p432	....
Hi, Gang (British)	General Film	....	Bebe Daniels-Ben Lyon	Not Set	100m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	....	....
H. M. Pulham, Esq.	MGM	212	Hedy Lamarr-Rob't Young-Ruth Hussey	Dec. '41	117m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	p496
Hold Back the Dawn	Para.	4103	Charles Boyer-Olivia de Havilland	Sept. 26, '41	116m	Aug. 2, '41	p251	p208	p452
Honky Tonk	MGM	204	Clark Gable-Lana Turner	Oct. '41	105m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p235	p452
Honolulu Lu	Col.	3024	Bruce Bennett-Lupe Velez	Dec. 11, '41	....	....	....	p364	....
How Green Was My Valley	20th-Fox	224	Roddy McDowall-Walter Pidgeon	Jan. 23, '42	118m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p320	p496
Hurricane Smith	Rep.	108	Ray Middleton-Jane Wyatt	July 20, '41	69m	July 26, '41	p249	p197	p236
INTERNATIONAL Lady	UA	....	Ilena Massey-George Brent	Sept. 19, '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p277	p496
International Squadron	WB	106	Ronald Reagan-Olympe Bradna	Oct. 11, '41	87m	Aug. 16, '41	p262	p196	p452
(formerly Flight Patrol)	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....
Invaders, The (British)	Col.	....	Howard-Massey-Olivier	Not Set	123m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	....	....
(formerly 49th Parallel)	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....
It Started with Eve	Univ.	6005	Deanna Durbin-Charles Laughton	Sept. 26, '41	90m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	p205	p496
(formerly Almost an Angel)	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....	....
I Killed That Man	Mono.	....	Ricardo Cortez-Joan Woodbury	Nov. 28, '41	71m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	....	....
I Married an Angel	MGM	....	Jeannette MacDonald-Nelson Eddy	Not Set	....	....	....	p507	....

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
I Thank You (British)	General Film	.....	Arthur Askey-Richard Murdoch	.....	81m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	.....	.....
I Wake Up Screaming (formerly Hot Spot)	20th-Fox	216	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Nov. 14, '41	82m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p299	p421
JAIL House Blues	Univ.	6032	Nat Pendleton-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 9, '42	62m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p396	.....
Jessie James at Bay	Rep.	151	Roy Rogers-"Gabby" Hayes	Oct. 17, '41	56m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	.....	.....
Joan of Paris	RKO	218	Michele Morgan-Paul Henried	Feb. 20, '42	91m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	p442	.....
Joe Smith, American	MGM	221	Robert Young-Marsha Hunt	Feb. '42	62m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p409	.....
Johnny Eager	MGM	218	Robert Taylor-Lana Turner	Jan. '42	107m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p363	p496
Juke Box Jennie	Univ.	....	Ken Murray-Harriet Hillard	Mar. 27, '42	....	.....	.....	.....	.....
Juke Girl	WB	....	Ann Sheridan-Ronald Reagan	Not Set	....	.....	.....	p464	.....
Jungle Book, The	UA	....	Sabu	Apr. 3, '42	....	.....	.....	p396	.....
• Jungle Man	Prod.	126	Buster Crabbe	Oct. 10, '41	63m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	.....	.....
KATHLEEN	MGM	215	Shirley Temple-H. Marshall-Laraine Day	Dec. '41	85m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	p496
Keep 'Em Flying	Univ.	6001	Abbott and Costello	Nov. 28, '41	80m	Nov. 22, '41	p386	.....	p496
Kid from Kansas, The (formerly The Americanos)	Univ.	6051	Dick Foran-Andy Devine	Sept. 19, '41	60m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p221	.....
King, The (French)	Trio Film	.....	Raimu	Oct. 27, '41	90m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	.....	.....
King of Dodge City	Col.	3209	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Aug. 14, '41	63m	Aug. 9, '41	p250	p220	.....
Kings Row	WB	120	Ann Sheridan-Robert Cummings	Not Set	130m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	p320	.....
LABURNUM Grove (British)	Anglo Film	....	Edmund Gwenn-Cedric Hardwicke	Dec. 1, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	.....	.....
Ladies in Retirement	Col.	3309	Ida Lupino-Louis Hayward	Sept. 18, '41	92m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p263	.....
Lady Be Good	MGM	202	Ann Sothern-Robert Young	Sept. '41	110m	July 19, '41	p248	p146	p496
Lady for a Night	Rep.	101	Joan Blondell-John Wayne	Jan. 5, '42	88m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p351	.....
Lady Has Plans, The	Para.	....	Paulette Goddard-Ray Millan	Not Set	75m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p464	.....
Lady Is Willing, The	Col.	3007	Marlene Dietrich-Fred MacMurray	Feb. 12, '42	91m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p351	.....
Lady Scarface	RKO	203	Dennis O'Keefe-Francis Neal	Sept. 26, '41	66m	July 26, '41	p248	p160	p236
Land of the Open Range	RKO	284	Tim Holt	Apr. 10, '42	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	.....
Last of the Duanes	20th-Fox	209	Geo. Montgomery-Lynn Roberts	Sept. 26, '41	57m	Sept. 13, '41	p260	p247	.....
Lawless Plainsman	Col.	....	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Mar. 12, '42	....	.....	.....	p508	.....
Law of the Jungle	Mono.	....	Mantan Moreland	Feb. 6, '42	....	.....	.....	p476	.....
Law of the Timber	Prod.	215	Marjorie Reynolds-Monte Blue	Dec. 19, '41	64m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p364	.....
Law of the Tropics	WB	105	Jeffrey Lynn-Constance Bennett	Oct. 4, '41	78m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	.....
Let's Go Collegiate	Mono.	....	Frankie Darro-Manton Moreland	Sept. 12, '41	62m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p209	.....
Lone Rider and the Bandit	Prod.	263	George Houston	Jan. 16, '42	....	.....	.....	p409	.....
• Lone Rider Fights Back	Prod.	168	George Houston	Nov. 7, '41	64m	Dec. 27, '41	p431	p320	.....
Lone Rider in Cheyenne	Prod.	264	George Houston-Al St. John	Mar. 13, '42	....	.....	.....	p507	.....
Lone Star Law Men	Mono.	....	Tom Keene-Betty Miles	Dec. 5, '41	....	.....	.....	p387	.....
Lone Star Ranger	20th-Fox	....	John Kimbrough-Sheila Ryan	Not Set	....	.....	.....	p443	.....
Lone Star Vigilantes, The	Col.	3211	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Jan. 1, '42	58m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	.....	.....
Look Who's Laughing	RKO	209	Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy	Nov. 21, '41	79m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p221	.....
Louisiana Purchase (Color)	Para.	4136	Bob Hope-Vera Zorina-Victor Moore	Dec. 25, '41	98m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	p332	p452
Love on the Dole (British)	UA	....	Clifford Evans	Dec. 12, '41	100m	Apr. 19, '41	p418	.....	.....
Lydia	UA	....	Merle Oberon-Alan Marshall	Sept. 26, '41	104m	Aug. 23, '41	p262	.....	p496
MAD Doctor of Market Street	Univ.	6042	Una Merkel-Claire Dodd	Feb. 27, '42	61m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	.....
Magnificent Ambersons, The	RKO	....	Joseph Cotton-Dolores Costello	Mar. 13, '42	....	.....	.....	p507	.....
Major Barbara (British)	UA	....	Wendy Hiller-Robert Morley	Sept. 12, '41	115m	May 10, '41	.....	p85	p353
Male Animal, The	WB	....	Henry Fonda-Olivia De Havilland	Not Set	....	.....	.....	p464	.....
Maltese Falcon, The	WB	107	Humphrey Bogart-Mary Astor	Oct. 18, '41	100m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	.....	p496
Man at Large	20th-Fox	210	Marjorie Weaver-Geo. Reeves	Sept. 26, '41	69m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p247	p496
Man from Cheyenne	Rep.	153	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Jan. 16, '42	60m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p431	.....
Man from Headquarters	Mono.	....	Frank Albertson-Joan Woodbury	Jan. 23, '42	67m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p443	.....
Man from Montana	Univ.	6061	Johnny Mack Brown	Sept. 5, '41	56m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	p276	.....
Man Who Came to Dinner	WB	117	Monty Woolley-Bette Davis	Jan. 24, '42	105m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	p332	p496
Man Who Returned to Life	Col.	3034	John Howard-Roger Clark	Feb. 5, '42	....	.....	.....	p476	.....
Man Who Seeks the Truth	Dome (French)	....	Raimu	Oct. 7, '41	80m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	.....	.....
Man with Two Lives	Mono.	....	Edward Norris	Mar. 13, '42	....	.....	.....	p495	.....
Married Bachelor	MGM	205	Ruth Hussey-Robert Young	Oct. '41	81m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p247	p496
Marry the Boss's Daughter	20th-Fox	221	Betty Joyce-Bruce Edwards	Nov. 28, '41	60m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p289	.....
Masked Rider, The	Univ.	6062	Johnny Mack Brown	Oct. 24, '41	58m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p276	.....
Maxwell Archer, Detective (British)	Mono.	....	John Loder-Leueen MacGrath	Not Set	....	.....	.....	p476	.....
Mayor of 44th St.	RKO	....	George Murphy-Anne Shirley	Apr. 10, '42	....	.....	.....	p487	.....
Melody Lane	Univ.	6029	The Merry Macs-Baby Sandy	Dec. 19, '41	60m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p376	.....
Men in Her Life	Col.	3005	Loretta Young-Dean Jagger	Nov. 20, '41	89m	Oct. 25, '41	p321	p277	.....
Mercy Island	Rep.	110	Ray Middleton-Gloria Dickson	Oct. 10, '41	72m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	.....	.....
Mexican Spitfire's Baby	RKO	210	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Nov. 28, '41	70m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p247	.....
Mexican Spitfire at Sea	RKO	220	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Mar. 6, '42	72m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p443	.....
Miracle Kid, The	Prod.	213	Tom Neal-Carol Hughes-Vicki Lester	Nov. 14, '41	69m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p320	.....
Missouri Outlaw, A	Rep.	173	Don "Red" Barry	Nov. 25, '41	58	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p364	.....
Miss Polly	UA	....	Zasu Pitts-Slim Summerville	Nov. 14, '41	45m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	.....	.....
Mister V (British)	UA	....	Leslie Howard	Mar. 20, '42	122m	July 5, '41	p450	.....	.....
(formerly Pimpernel Smith)	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....	.....
Mob Town	Univ.	6021	Dick Foran-Anne Gwynne	Oct. 3, '41	62m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p289	.....
Moonlight in Hawaii	Univ.	6025	Mischa Auer-Jane Frazee	Nov. 21, '41	61m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p149	.....
Moon Over Her Shoulder	20th-Fox	215	John Sutton-Lynn Bari	Oct. 24, '41	68m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	.....
Mountain Moonlight	Rep.	107	Weaver Brothers and Elviry	July 12, '41	68m	July 19, '41	p250	p149	p236
Mr. Bug Goes to Town (color)	Para.	4114	Fleischer Feature Cartoon	Not Set	78m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p376	p496
• Mr. Celebrity	Prod.	114	Doris Day-Buzzy Henry	Oct. 31, '41	67m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	.....	.....
Mr. Dist. Attorney in Carter Case	Rep.	112	James Ellison-Virginia Gilmore	Dec. 18, '41	68m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	p409	.....
Mr. Wise Guy	Mono.	....	East Side Kids	Feb. 20, '42	70m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p475	.....
Mr. and Mrs. North	MGM	219	Gracie Allen-William Post, Jr.	Jan. '42	67m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	p387	.....
Musical Story, A	Artkino	....	Sergei Lemeshev	Oct. 10, '41	84m	Oct. 25, '41	p331	.....	.....
Mystery Ship	Col.	3040	Paul Kelly-Lola Lane	Sept. 4, '41	65m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p194	p220
Mystery of Marie Roget	Univ.	....	Patric Knowles-Marie Montez	Not Set	....	.....	.....	p507	.....
NAVY Blues	WB	103	Jack Oakie-Ann Sheridan	Sept. 13, '41	108m	Aug. 16, '41	p249	p205	p452

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	— REVIEWED —		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
Never Give a Sucker an Even Break	Univ.	6016	W. C. Fields-Gloria Jean	Oct. 10, '41	70m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p299	p496
New York Town	Para.	4105	Fred MacMurray-Mary Martin	Oct. 31, '41	75m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p236
New Wine	UA	...	Ilona Massey-Binnie Barnes	Oct. 10, '41	87m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p157	p452
Niagara Falls	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-Tom Brown	Oct. 17, '41	43m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	....
Night Before the Divorce, The	20th-Fox	235	Lynn Bari-Joseph Allen, Jr.	Mar. 6, '42	67m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	....
Night of January 16	Para.	4106	Robert Preston-Ellen Drew	Nov. 28, '41	80m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	....
Nine Bachelors (French)	Dome	...	Sacha Guitry	Feb. 7, '42	85m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	....	....
Nine Lives Are Not Enough	WB	104	Ronald Reagan-Joan Perry	Sept. 20, '41	63m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	....
No Hands on the Clock	Para.	4113	Chester Morris-Jean Parker	Not Set	76m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p364	....
North to the Klondike	Univ.	6023	Brod Crawford-Lon Chaney, Jr.	Jan. 23, '42	58m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p396	....
Nothing But the Truth	Para.	4101	Bob Hope-Paulette Goddard	Oct. 10, '41	90m	Aug. 2, '41	p250	p206	p496
OBLIGING Young Lady	RKO	215	Joan Carroll-Edmond O'Brien	Jan. 30, '42	80m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	p332	....
Old Mother Riley's Circus (British)	Anglo-Amer.	...	Arthur Lucan-Kitty McShane	Not Set	70m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	....	....
On the Sunny Side	20th-Fox	232	Roddy McDowell-Jane Darwell	Feb. 13, '42	69m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	....
One Foot in Heaven	WB	108	Fredric March-Martha Scott	Nov. 1, '41	103m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	p206	p496
Outlaws of Cherokee Trail	Rep.	161	Three Mesquiteers-Tom Tyler	Sept. 10, '41	56m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p263	....
Outlaws of the Desert	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	66m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
PANAMA Hattie	MGM	...	Ann Sothern-Red Skelton	Not Set	...	...	...	p396	....
Pacific Blackout	Para.	4115	Robert Preston-Martha O'Driscoll	Jan. 2, '42	76m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p364	p496
(formerly Midnight Angel)
Parachute Battalion	RKO	202	Robert Preston-Nancy Kelly	Sept. 12, '41	75m	July 19, '41	p249	p196	p421
Pardon My Stripes	Rep.	122	Bill Henry-Sheila Ryan	Jan. 26, '42	64m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p442	....
Paris Calling	Univ.	6014	Randolph Scott-Elizabeth Bergner	Jan. 16, '42	95m	Dec. 6, '41	p407	p320	....
Perfect Snob, The	20th-Fox	223	Lynn Bari-Cornel Wilde	Dec. 19, '41	62m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p351	....
Pittsburgh Kid, The	Rep.	133	Billy Conn-Jean Parker	Aug. 29, '41	76m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	....	p353
Playmates	RKO	212	Kay Kyser-John Barrymore	Dec. 26, '41	96m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	p332	....
Powder Town	RKO	...	Victor McLaglen-Edmond O'Brien	Apr. 17, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Prime Minister, The (British)	WB	115	John Gielgud-Diana Wynyard	Not Set	94m	Aug. 23, '41	p249	....	....
Private Nurse	20th-Fox	204	Brenda Joyce-Robert Lowery	Aug. 22, '41	61m	July 26, '41	p250	p197	p236
Public Enemies	Rep.	121	Philip Terry-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 30, '41	66m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	....	....
QUIET Wedding (British)	Univ.	6044	Margaret Lockwood-Derek Farr	Nov. 21, '41	80m	Feb. 15, '41	p386	....	....
RAIDERS of the West	Prod.	252	Bill "Radio" Boyd-Lee Powell	Feb. 13, '42	64m	...	...	p432	....
Reap the Wild Wind	Para.	...	Ray Milland-Paulette Goddard	Not Set	...	...	...	p408	....
Red River Valley	Rep.	152	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Dec. 12, '41	62m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	p409	....
Remarkable Andrew, The	Para.	...	William Holden-Ellen Drew	Not Set	80m	Jan. 24, '42	p473	p443	....
Remarkable Mr. Kipps (British)	20th-Fox	...	Michael Redgrave-Diana Wynyard	Not Set	112m	Apr. 12, '41	...	....	....
Remember the Day	20th-Fox	226	Claudette Colbert-John Payne	Dec. 26, '41	86m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p408	p452
Report from Russia	Artkino	...	Documentary	Not Set	45m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	....	....
Ride 'Em Cowboy	Univ.	6002	Abbott and Costello	Feb. 20, '42	86m	Feb. 14, '42	p505	p464	....
Riders of the Badlands	Col.	3202	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Dec. 18, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p387	....
• Riding the Sunset Trail	Mono.	...	Tom Keene	Oct. 31, '41	56m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p320	....
Riding the Wind	RKO	283	Tim Holt	Feb. 13, '42	60m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	....	....
Riders of the Purple Sage	20th-Fox	213	Geo. Montgomery-Mary Howard	Oct. 10, '41	56m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	....
Riders of the Timberline	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	59m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
Right to the Heart	20th-Fox	229	Brenda Joyce-Cornel Wilde	Jan. 23, '42	74m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	....
Riot Squad	Mono.	...	Richard Cromwell-Rita Quigley	Dec. 12, '41	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	p364	....
Rise and Shine	20th-Fox	219	J. Oakie-Walter Brennan-Linda Darnell	Nov. 21, '41	92m	Nov. 15, '41	p361	p351	p496
Road Agent	Univ.	6052	Leo Carrillo-Andy Devine-Dick Foran	Dec. 19, '41	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	....	....
Road to Happiness	Mono.	...	John Boles-Mona Barrie	Jan. 9, '42	83m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p396	....
Roaring Frontiers	Col.	3210	Bill Elliott	Oct. 16, '41	60m	Aug. 30, '41	p234	....	....
Rock River Renegades	Mono.	...	Corrigan-Kane-Terhune	Feb. 27, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Roxie Hart	20th-Fox	233	Ginger Rogers-George Montgomery	Feb. 20, '42	74m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	p487	....
Royal Mounted Patrol	Col.	3201	Chas. Starrett-Russell Hayden	Nov. 13, '41	59m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p289	....
SABOTEUR, The	Univ.	...	Robert Cummings-Priscilla Lane	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
Saddle Mountain Roundup	Mono.	...	Range Busters	Aug. 29, '41	60m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p299	....
Sailors on Leave	Rep.	109	Wm. Lundigan-Shirley Ross	Sept. 30, '41	71m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p299	p432
Salute to Courage	MGM	227	Conrad Veidt-Ann Ayars	Mar. '42	82m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	....	....
Sealed Lips	Univ.	6038	Wm. Gargan-June Clyde-John Litel	Dec. 5, '41	62m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	....	....
Secrets of the Lone Wolf	Col.	3026	Warren William-Ruth Ford	Nov. 13, '41	67m	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p289	....
Secrets of the Wasteland	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	70m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Sergeant York	WB	101	Gary Cooper-Joan Leslie	Sept. 27, '41	134m	July 5, '41	p250	p111	p495
Shadow of the Thin Man	MGM	210	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Nov. '41	97m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p308	p495
Shanghai Gesture, The	UA	...	Gene Tierney-Walter Huston	Feb. 6, '42	105m	Dec. 27, '41	p442	....	p452
Ships With Wings (British)	UA	...	John Clements-Leslie Banks	May 15, '42	...	Dec. 20, '41	p419	....	....
Shut My Big Mouth	Col.	3021	Joe E. Brown-Adele Mara	Feb. 19, '42	...	...	...	p476	....
Sierra Sue	Rep.	143	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov. 12, '41	64m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p343	....
Sing Another Chorus	Univ.	6030	Johnny Downs-Jane Frazee	Sept. 19, '41	63m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	p137	....
Sing for Your Supper	Col.	3022	Jinx Falkenburg-Buddy Rogers	Dec. 4, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p331	....
Sing Your Worries Away	RKO	219	Bert Lahr-Buddy Ebsen	Feb. 27, '42	71m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p442	....
Siren of the South Seas	Mono.	...	Movita-Warren Hull	Nov. 7, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p218	....
• Six Gun Gold	RKO	186	Tim Holt	Aug. 8, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p218	....
Skylark	Para.	4107	Claudette Colbert-Ray Milland	Nov. 21, '41	93m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p235	....
Small Town Deb	20th-Fox	217	Jane Withers-Cobina Wright, Jr.	Nov. 7, '41	72m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	....
Smiling Ghost, The	WB	102	Brenda Marshall-Wayne Morris	Sept. 6, '41	71m	Ang. 16, '41	p262	p207	p452
Smilin' Through (color)	MGM	206	Jeanette MacDonald-Gene Raymond	Oct. '41	100m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p247	p495
Snuffy Smith, Yard Bird	Mono.	...	Bud Duncan-Edgar Kennedy	Jan. 16, '42	67m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p408	....
Song of the Islands (color)	20th-Fox	236	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Mar. 13, '42	75m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	p487	....
Son of Fury	20th-Fox	230	Tyrone Power-Gene Tierney	Jan. 9, '42	98m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p432	....
Sons of the Sea (British)	WB	119	Michael Redgrave-Valerie Hobson	Feb. 7, '42	108m	July 5, '41	p430	....	....
(formerly Atlantic Ferry)
South of Santa Fe	Rep.	154	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Feb. 17, '42	...	...	...	p507	....
South of Tahiti	Univ.	6020	Brian Donlevy-Brod Crawford	Oct. 17, '41	75m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p308	....
Soviet Power	Artkino	...	Documentary	Sept. 6, '41	112m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Spooks Run Wild	Mono.	...	Bela Lugosi-Leo Gorcey	Oct. 24, '41	64m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	p277	....
Stage Coach Buckaroo	Univ.	6064	Johnny Mack Brown	Feb. 13, '42	...	...	...	....	....

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	— REVIEWED —
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section	Advance Synopsis	Service Data
Steel Against the Sky	WB	112	Lloyd Nolan-Alexis Smith	Dec. 13, '41	68m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p376	....
Stick To Your Guns	Para.	....	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	63m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
Stolen Paradise (formerly Adolescence)	Mono.	....	Leon Jannay-Eleanor Hunt	Oct. 10, '41	62m	Oct. 19, '41	p319	p263	p386
Stork Pays Off, The	Col.	3036	Maxie Rosenbloom-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 6, '41	68m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p308	....
Strangler, The	Prod.	229	Judy Campbell-Sebastian Shaw	Mar. 27, '42	...	...	...	...	...
Sullivan's Travels	Para.	4112	Joel McCrea-Veronica Lake	Not Set	91m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p320	p452
Sundown	UA	....	Gene Tierney-Bruce Cabot	Oct. 31, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
Sun Valley Serenade	20th-Fox	205	Sonja Heine-John Payne	Aug. 29, '41	86m	Aug. 22, '41	p251	p137	p367
Suspicion (formerly Before the Fact)	RKO	208	Cary Grant-Joan Fontaine	Nov. 14, '41	99m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p158	p452
Swamp Water	20th-Fox	218	W. Huston-Walter Brennan-Ann Baxter	Dec. 5, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	p452
Swamp Woman	Prod.	230	Ann Corio-Jack LaRue	Dec. 5, '41	68m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p331	....
Swing It Soldier	Univ.	6033	Frances Langford-Ken Murray	Nov. 7, '41	66m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p331	p452
Syncopation	RKO	...	Adolphe Menjou-Jackie Cooper	Mar. 27, '42	...	...	...	p487	....
TANKS a Million	UA	....	William Tracy-Elyse Knox	Sept. 12, '41	50m	Aug. 9, '41	p250	....	p220
Target for Tonight (British)	WB	109	Documentary	Nov. 8, '41	48m	Aug. 16, '41	p318	....	p495
Tarzan's Secret Treasure	MGM	214	Johnny Weissmuller-Maureen O'Sullivan	Dec. '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p375	p289	p495
Texas	Col.	3008	William Holden-Glenn Ford	Oct. 9, '41	94m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p181	p495
Texas Man Hunt	Prod.	251	Bill (Radio) Boyd	Jan. 2, '42	60m	...	...	p409	....
They Died with Their Boots On	WB	114	Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland	Jan. 1, '42	137m	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p308	p495
This England (British)	World	....	Emlyn Williams-John Clements	Nov. 17, '41	80m	Mar. 8, '41	p406	....	....
This Time for Keeps	MGM	228	Ann Rutherford-Robert Sterling	Mar. '42	71m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p495	....
Three Cockeyed Sailors (British)	UA	....	Tommy Trinder-Claude Hulbert	July 4, '41	77m	June 21, '41	p248	....	p288
Three Girls About Town	Col.	3016	Joan Blondell-John Howard	Oct. 23, '41	72m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p263	p367
Thunder River Feud	Mono.	...	Range Busters	Jan. 9, '42	...	...	...	p443	....
Thundering Hoofs	RKO	286	Tim Holt	Not Set	61m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
To Be or Not to Be	UA	...	Carole Lombard-Jack Benny	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	...	....
Today I Hang	Prod.	214	Walter Woolf King-Mona Barrie	Jan. 30, '42	...	...	...	p467	....
Tonto Basin Outlaws	Mono.	....	Ray Corrigan-John King	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p320	....
Too Many Women	Prod.	210	Neil Hamilton-June Lang	Feb. 27, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
Top Sergeant Mulligan	Mono.	....	Nat Pendleton-Carol Hughes	Oct. 17, '41	70m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p308	....
Torpedo Boat	Para.	...	Richard Arlen-Jean Parker	Not Set	70m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	....
Tough As They Come	Univ.	...	Billy Halop-Bernard Punsley	Not Set	...	...	...	p508	....
Tragedy at Midnight, A	Rep.	114	Margaret Lindsay-John Howard	Feb. 2, '42	68m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p476	....
Tramp, Tramp, Tramp	Col.	...	Jackie Gleason-Jack Durant	Mar. 12, '42	...	...	...	p507	....
Treat 'Em Rough (formerly Panama Kid)	Univ.	6039	Peggy Moran-Eddie Albert	Jan. 30, '42	61m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p408	....
Tuxedo Junction	Rep.	113	Weaver Brothers	Dec. 4, '41	71m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p343	....
Twilight on the Trail	Para.	....	Bill Boyd	Not Set	58m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	....
Twin Beds	UA	....	George Brent-Joan Bennett	Apr. 24, '42	...	...	...	p442	....
Two-Faced Woman (formerly The Twins)	MGM	211	Greta Garbo-Melvyn Douglas	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p299	p451
Two Latins from Manhattan	Col.	3020	Joan Davis-"Jinx" Falkenburg	Oct. 2, '41	65m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Two Yanks in Trinidad	Col.	...	Pat O'Brien-Brian Donlevy	Mar. 26, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
UNDERGROUND Rustlers (formerly Bullets and Bullion)	Mono.	...	Range Busters	Nov. 21, '41	...	...	...	p331	....
Unexpected Uncle	RKO	207	Anne Shirley-Charles Coburn	Nov. 7, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p218	....
Unfinished Business	Univ.	6004	Irene Dunne-Robert Montgomery	Sept. 12, '41	96m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p172	p451
Unholy Partners	MGM	209	Ed. G. Robinson-Laraine Day-Ed. Arnold	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
VALLEY of the Sun	RKO	216	Lucille James-James Craig	Feb. 6, '42	84m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	p442	....
Vanishing Virginian, The	MGM	223	Frank Morgan-Kathryn Grayson	Feb. '42	97m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	....
WEEKEND in Havana (color)	20th-Fox	214	Alice Faye-C. Miranda-J. Payne	Oct. 17, '41	80m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p495
Weekend for Three	RKO	211	Dennis O'Keefe-Jane Wyatt-Philip Reed	Dec. 12, '41	66m	Oct. 25, '41	p343	p332	....
We Go Fast	20th-Fox	208	Lynn Bari-Alan Curtis	Sept. 19, '41	64m	Sept. 13, '41	p260	p247	p495
We Were Dancing	MGM	225	Norma Shearer-Melvyn Douglas	Mar. '42	94m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p443	....
Western Mail	Mono.	...	Tim Keene-Jean Trent	Feb. 13, '42	...	...	...	...	....
West of Cimarron	Rep.	163	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Dec. 15, '41	56m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p396	....
West of Tombstone	Col.	3203	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Jan. 15, '42	...	...	...	...	....
What's Cookin'	Univ.	...	Andrews Sisters-Gloria Jean	Feb. 13, '42	...	...	...	p507	....
Wild Bill Hickok Rides	WB	118	Constance Bennett-Bruce Cabot	Jan. 31, '42	82m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	p408	....
Wild Geese Calling	20th-Fox	203	Henry Fonda-Joan Bennett	Aug. 15, '41	78m	July 26, '41	p249	p196	p367
Wings of Victory	Artkino	...	Vladimir Belokurov	Nov. 14, '41	95m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	....	....
Wolf Man, The	Univ.	6015	Claude Rains-Dick Foran	Dec. 12, '41	70m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	....	....
Woman of the Year, The	MGM	222	Spencer Tracy-Katharine Hepburn	Feb. '42	112m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p376	....
Workers, Let's Go (Czech)	Trans-Oceanic	...	Jan Werich-Jiri Voskovec	Dec. 12, '41	71m	Dec. 20, '42	p420	....	....
YANK in the R.A.F.	20th-Fox	211	Tyrone Power-Betty Grable	Oct. 3, '41	97m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p149	p495
Yank on the Burma Road, A (formerly China Caravan)	MGM	224	Laraine Day-Barry Nelson	Feb. '42	66m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p432	....
You Belong to Me	Col.	3003	Henry Fonda-Barbara Stanwyck	Oct. 30, '41	97m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p289	p451
•You'll Never Get Rich	Col.	2004	Fred Astaire-Rita Hayworth	Sept. 25, '41	88m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	p421
You're in the Army Now	WB	113	Jimmy Durante-Jane Wyman	Dec. 25, '41	79m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
You're Telling Me	Univ.	...	Hugh Herbert-Anne Gwyne	Mar. 27, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
Young America	20th-Fox	231	Jane Withers-William Tracy	Jan. 2, '42	73m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	....
ZIS—Boom—Bah	Mono.	....	Grace Hayes-Peter Lind Hayes	Nov. 7, '41	62m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p332	....

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in Order of Release on page 510.

Step into the Quigley Bookshop

COMPLETE THEATRE LIBRARY

Worldwide in scope. Completely covers every branch of the business. Who's Who section alone records over 11,000 biographies. The industry's most exhaustive reference manual. $3.25 POSTPAID

■ Here is a library of factual information that meets an urgent need. Authoritative manuals expressly prepared for theatremen as practical aids in their daily routine. Glance over the titles! There are books here that should be on your desk now—books that will save you time, effort and expense in the voluminous information they will put at your fingertips.

The second revision, sixth edition of the Bluebook. Supplemented with sound trouble shooting charts and alphabetical index. 700 pages. A quick trouble-shooter and a sure solution to all projection $7.25 problems. .... POSTPAID

Motion Picture Sound Engineering—the most advanced sound manual to date. Prepared by the country's leading sound engineers. 547 pages, explaining every detail of apparatus. Profusely illustrated with diagrams, tables, charts $6.50 and graphs. .... POSTPAID

Theatre Management Record is the most simplified book-keeping system yet devised for the exhibitor! No accounting experience necessary. Individual sections for all operating data. Full tax information always readily $2.00 available. .... POSTPAID

A practical treatise devoted to all the diverse elements of theatre air-conditioning and its operation, including codes and ordinances regulating installation. An indispensable manual that all theatremen will $4.00 welcome. .... POSTPAID

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP
ROCKEFELLER CENTER, NEW YORK

It's a laugh-loaded comedy of the WIDE-OPEN FACES!

TAXES TO BEAT THE AXIS

Play WALT DISNEY'S
TREASURY DEPARTMENT PICTURE

"The
NEW SPIRIT"

JOE E.
BROWN
in
Shut My Big Mouth

with
ADELE MARA • VICTOR JORY • FRITZ FELD
DON BEDDOE • LLOYD BRIDGES • FORREST TUCKER

Screen Play by Oliver Drake, Karen DeWolf, Francis Martin Directed by CHARLES BARTON • Produced by ROBERT SPARKS

A COLUMBIA PICTURE

RELEASED FEB. 19TH

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

REVIEWS

(In Product Digest)

What's Cookin'?

Shut My Big Mouth

'Frisco Lil

Lady In Distress

Her Melody

Lucky Ghost

LATE REVIEWS

(In News Section)

To Be or Not To Be

EXHIBITORS & DISTRIBUTORS pour proposals for a new selling system into "Unity" hopper at N.Y. Meetings.

SAME OLD STORY on trade practices, says Allied report from exhibitors, listing complaints on "continuing evils."

NO GENERAL ADMISSION increase contemplated at this time; Circuits to continue raising for specific runs.

HOLLYWOOD'S WAR EFFORT spreads over 23 units of executives, talent and workers enlisting for defense and relief.

CANADA TIGHTENS CONTROL, placing one-man board in War-charge of all distribution and exhibition.

PITTSBURGH
ADORES YOU!

DEVOTION
FROM PROVIDENCE!

WASHINGTON SENDS KISSES!

FOREVER AND EVER!
—UTICA

PHILADELPHIA
IS ALL YOURS!

YOU'RE THE TOPS!
—GREEN BAY

LANCASTER IS WILD ABOUT YOU!

CRAZY ABOUT YOU!
—AUBURN

WE'LL NEVER FORGET YOU!
—WATERTOWN

OUR BEST GAL!
—YORK

OUT OF THIS WORLD!
—SCRANTON

YOU'RE OUR SWEETIE!
—WILKES-BARRE

THE TOAST
OF LEXINGTON!

THE BELLE
OF AMSTERDAM!

PARKERSBURG
SALUTES
YOU!

WOMAN OF THE BOX-OFFICE, TOO!

"YOU'RE THE
SWEETHEART OF THE U.S.A."

"Radio City Music
Hall please, Leo!
3rd week and it's my address until further notice!"

M-G-M IS NUTS ABOUT YOU!

SPENCER TRACY
KATHARINE HEPBURN
"WOMAN OF THE YEAR"
A GEORGE STEVENS Production

with Fay Bainter • Reginald Owen • Original Screen Play by Ring Lardner, Jr. and Michael Kanin • Directed by GEORGE STEVENS • Produced by JOSEPH L. MANKIEWICZ • A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture

Play the U. S.
Treasury Short
"THE NEW SPIRIT"

MR. ASTOR'S HOARSE... from saying

"THERE'LL BE A SHORT WAIT FOR ALL SEATS
FOR 'KINGS ROW'"

... And There'll Be A Long Wait Until
Any Company Tops
Warner Bros

ANN SHERIDAN • ROBERT CUMMINGS • RONALD REAGAN • BETTY FIELD

in "KINGS ROW" with CHARLES COBURN • Claude Rains • Judith Anderson • Nancy Coleman Kaaren Verne • Maria Ouspenskaya • Harry Davenport • Directed by SAM WOOD

Screen Play by Casey Robinson • From the Novel by Henry Bellamann • Music by Erich Wolfgang Korngold

THIS, FRIENDS, IS HOW

SEE

R.C.A.F. pilots and band march through cheering mobs at Grand Central arrival.

ROYAL CANADIAN AIR FORCE CAPTAINS OF THE CLOUDS

Gigantic banner tells crowd what it's all about.

Newsreels cover ceremony for all America as fliers place wreath at Eternal Light.

Precision Drill in City Hall Park for Mayor LaGuardia and more crowds.

Luncheon for government officials of U. S. and Canada broadcast by Mutual Network.

Canada's Air Marshal Billy Bishop presents colors to New York's Little Flower.

Gala parade down Broadway to super-gala premiere.

And greatest 'blind date' in history with 200 Powers models dating (and every paper covering).

READ

NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE

TO OPEN A PICTURE....

GET

CAGNEY

in

"CAPTAINS OF the CLOUDS"

DENNIS

BRENDA

MORGAN · MARSHALL

ALAN HALE · GEORGE TOBIAS

REGINALD GARDINER · REGINALD DENNY

Directed by MICHAEL CURTIZ

Screen Play by Arthur T. Horman, Richard Macaulay, Norman Reilly Raine

From a Story by Arthur T. Horman and Roland Gillett

Music by Max Steiner • A Warner Bros. First National Picture

IN TECHNICOLOR

IT'S WARNERS ALL OVER AND OVER ALL!

first REPORTS ON "ROXIE HART" RATE IT AS GINGER ROGERS'
GREATEST! IN ZERO WEATHER
IN ROCHESTER, THE PREMIERE RUN IS OUT-GROSSING BOTH
"A YANK IN THE R.A.F." AND
"HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY".
IN SUN-BAKED MIAMI, A DUAL RUN IS DYNAMITING RECORDS!

first AT THE FOX, PHILADELPHIA, IS THE BIGGEST WEEK OF "SON OF FURY" RAGTIME BAND"! AND IT'S IN ITS THIRD WEEK IN DOWNTOWN
PHILADELPHIA, AS WELL AS AT
NEW YORK'S ROXY! FOURTH WEEKS COMING UP IN A DOZEN
KEY SPOTS!

first SHOWING OF "SONG OF
THE ISLANDS" AT MIAMI HAS BROUGHT AN AVALANCHE OF DEMANDS FOR PRE-RELEASE
ENGAGEMENTS! MEANWHILE,
RADIO-BALLYHOO CONTINUES
WITH EDDIE CANTOR, FRED
WARING, GUY LOMBARDO, AMONG OTHERS, ADDING TO EXCITEMENT
KATE SMITH STARTED!

first IN COIN, FIRST IN AT-TENDANCE, FIRST IN LENGTH OF RUN AT FULTON THEATRE, PITTS-BURGH, IS RECORD OF "HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY" AFTER A SENSA-TIONAL 6 WEEKS RUN! TYPICAL OF 20TH'S GREATEST-GROSSING
HOLDOVER SMASH AS IT CONTINUES ON ITS EPIC WAY!

first in the long runs!

20th CENTURY
FOX

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 146, No. 8

February 21, 1942

IN WAR TIME

ONLY at such a desk as this, with its flow of correspondence from all manner of showmen in all parts of the world, can one be aware of a certain oneness, a basic community of interest, which pervades our industry of entertainment—the more conspicuously, too, among the exhibitors, who stand at the box offices where all the money has to come in from the customers. Around the world they think alike, share problems that are identical from Dublin to Kansas City to Sydney.

In this issue is a news dispatch from an Australian correspondent that, for all the facts recited, might have been written from any one of several parts of America. Also, this issue presents a letter from Mr. Maurice Baum, independent exhibitor in Eire, whose problems can be duplicated in pattern by reports from any key city in the United States.

The question in those parts, as well as here, seems to be whether the market belongs to the retailer or to the manufacturer and jobber.

That issue is not new, either in this or other industries.

Just now it is only being made the more acutely apparent as the pressures of the war economy begin to become more manifest.

The indications are that the issues are not likely to be pressed toward any conclusion now.

THERE is increasing evidence the rising demands of war will tend toward policies of letting businesses function as they can and may. The high fervour that began and prosecuted, for a while, the Government suit which came to an armistice in the Consent Decree is not so noticeable now. Also, with the consequences of that Consent Decree unpleasing alike to all the factions, no one seems to care much what happens to it.

Meanwhile, with a certain unavowed nonchalance, the motion picture seems by such devices as the Committee of Six, the lawyers for the majors, now working on inter-industry and public relations, and the United Motion Picture Industry organization, to be proceeding with programs of adjustment and readjustment rather as though nothing had happened before. In none of these functionings is there evident design of belligerency, only considerable evidence of policies of peace-for-now.

There is perhaps a general encouragement in an increasing evidence that the motion picture is trying to attend to its own business, and with self-regulative arrangements rather than a running to the courts.

Plainly enough, no one seems to have profited much in going to law about the general conduct of the picture business.

EVERY now and then it has been suggested on this page that the motion picture industry, so much concerned with its problems of public relations, might have a better defined consciousness that the real public relations experts, always functioning, everywhere, are the exhibitors.

There are maybe about fifteen thousand places where a good word can be said for the motion picture. A lot of that is done, too, without an organized campaign, but directly out of the consciousness of the exhibitor that he has a community of interest with the institution of which he is a part.

Representative specimens come up in the flow of exhibitor mail. For instance, here's a tearsheet from the Evening Telegram of Rocky Mount, North Carolina. It appears that Mr. C. H. Arrington, of the Cameo theatre, and retiring president of the Theatre Owners of the Carolinas, told the editor of the Telegram what the motion picture had been contributing to USO, the Red Cross and other agencies. In consequence, the little town of Rocky Mount read a laudation of the screen in print, ending quaintly and colloquially with: "Our manners to the theatre industry."

Then comes a letter in which Mr. Leroy Dennis of Wabash, out in Indiana, would have us regard with excitement the way the Wabash Plain Dealer gave a hometown-boy-makes-good special edition to the honor of Johnny Olsen when "Hellzapoppin" opened there. While telling all that county that the greatest man in the world was Johnny, son of Gus, boiler maker for the Big Four railroad, there was also implication that the movies had a hand in making him so.

It is out yonder on the Wabash and down in Rocky Mount and the like of them that the real public relations job is done. That is where America makes up its mind, about a lot of things.

△ △ △

PRESS & RADIO

A SEEMING inconsistency appears in the testimonies of Mr. James G. Stahlman, publisher of the Nashville Banner, before the Federal Communications Commission, in the course of which he expressed opposition to sponsored news broadcasts.

Mr. Stahlman is quoted by Motion Picture Daily as observing that 99 out of 100 newspapers gave better presentation of news events than did radio stations. That is doubtless correct. It is also true that historians can and sometimes do give a more adequate representation of the affairs of the world than the daily press in its contemporary recordings. But we do not wait for that.

As to sponsorships and their influence: it can be observed that the newspaper is also a sponsored medium of expression. The radio program is sponsored commonly by a single advertiser, but the daily newspaper operates and prospers under the combined sponsorships of its several and perhaps many advertisers.

In the radio program there are interlardings of announcements and declarations about merchandise: in the newspaper the eye strays from reports and discussions of news events to columns of display in type and picture concerning merchandise, too.

It is also to be observed to Mr. Stahlman and other publishers that many, if not most, newspapers these days are conspicuously carrying in their alleged news columns a deal of

[Continued on following page]

This Week

in the News

U.S. Owns Agfa

THE UNITED STATES Government is now in the raw-film manufacturing and selling business. It owns Agfa.

The Treasury Department has taken control of 97 per cent of the stock of the General Aniline and Film Corporation, of which Agfa is a subsidiary. This is in line with the intention to make the company thoroughly American. Previously, the Treasury removed German officers; and the company's operations have been supervised by it since December.

The salient fact, as disclosed by the Treasury, is that 95 per cent of the common and preferred stock was owned by foreigners.

Current GAFC heads' appointed December 5th, are Julian Mack, president; William C. Bullitt, chairman of the board.

PRESS & RADIO

[Continued from preceding page]

material which ties with most pointed and obvious directness to the advertising columns.

Generally the motion picture and the theatre these many years have been paying special rates alleged to take cognizance of the fact that the newspaper expensively maintained columns and pages of special attention to the amusements. Meanwhile it is now to be discovered that the department stores are getting a rather kindred attention in many papers, but with no equivalent lineage rate.

THE current debated contention that the newspapers should not be permitted ownership and control of radio stations seems not to be well grounded in principle. The radio is a method and a machine, not something special and peculiar unto itself in either rights or functions. The newspaper press is concerned with, experienced in, and equipped for the gathering and dissemination of news, and there is no fundamental reason why it should not have available the instrument of the radio for the dissemination of the news. There is, one observes, no endeavour to say that the newspapers may not have the use of radio communications for the gathering of the news. It is not evident that they should not have the use of the same medium for sending it out.

—Terry Ramsaye

UNITY committee studies flood of proposals on revised buying Page 13

ALLIED "AID" reports complaints on "continuing evils" Page 14

NO INCREASE in general level of admissions for present Page 16

ALL INDUSTRY awaits word from capital on materials priority Page 17

HOLLYWOOD organizes for war, defense and relief Page 24

PUBLIC will force the truth in war propaganda films, says Grierson Page 28

TROUBLE brews for Chicago in local clearance disputes Page 33

INDEPENDENT wins first "specific run" award under Decree Page 34

RADIO gets three months to convert to arms manufacture Page 39

AUSTRALIAN grosses increase with mounting war fears Page 40

NEW YORK orders war changes in film theatre fronts Page 46

CANADA tightens film control; single administrator in charge Page 48

SERVICE DEPARTMENTS

Hollywood Scene Page 44 Managers' Round Table Page 55

Late Review Page 36 What the Picture Did for Me Page 51

PRODUCT DIGEST, including Reviews and Release Chart Page 63

Industry Gift in 16mm.

AMERICAN fighters overseas are to see "at once" the latest films, in some instances those not released here. In 16mm, they are accompanying expeditionary forces into the combat areas.

The news came Wednesday from the War Activities Committee in New York, where that afternoon, the 11 film companies presented General F. H. Osborne, chief of the War Department's special services branch with the first 80 films on 16mm. He was given four prints each of 20 different programs averaging 90 minutes, comprising one feature and one or two short subjects. Delivery to the combat units presumably began Thursday.

The presentation was a "gift" from the industry to the War Department, the majors paying print costs. It marks the first time some distributors have agreed to 16mm. prints of current features and short subjects. The General lauded industry service.

The shows abroad are the War Department's, separate from the United States Army Motion Picture Service, a self-liquidating organization. The latter is understood expanding from its present 400-odd theatres to 600 shortly.

Present at Wednesday's meeting were Francis Harmon, WAC director, who presented prints to General Osborne; Barney Balaban, Paramount; Joseph Hazen, Warners; Nate Blumberg and John O'Connor, Universal; Jack Cohn and Abe Montague, Columbia; O. H. Briggs, Producers Releasing Corporation; Carl Leserman, United Artists; Andy Smith, RKO; Norton Ritchey, Monogram; Nicholas Schenck, Loew's; W. C. Michel, Fox; Seymour Borus, Republic.

Newsreel clips featuring local figures in appeals for increased buying of defense bonds and stamps will be inserted in all newsreel releases starting this week under the auspices of the Treasury Department and the War Activities Committee. Newsreels will handle the clips from approximately 30 exchanges.

NSS-MGM Deals

PARAMOUNT, RKO and MGM. That's the score for National Screen Service, which Wednesday signed a long term contract with the film company, and will begin March 1st to make and sell MGM accessories to 12,000 accounts. The two companies will mutually absorb personnel. The move follows long negotiations. William F. Rodgers, sales manager of MGM, said he was confident customers would receive even greater cooperation on accessories under the new dispensation.

Willkie Didn't Say

WENDELL L. WILLKIE was fifty years old on Wednesday. He made the occasion memorable by telling the press at that milestone he had no advice and no messages. He put in a day's work at the office and expected to be home for dinner on time.

RKO Conclave

WITHDRAWN from Hollywood hubbub and hearsay to quiet La Quinta, deep in the Mojave Desert, RKO-Radio executives this week pondered and planned company affairs and future. Management—production, distribution and exhibition were represented at the sessions, scheduled to continue through Friday.

Accompanying president George Schaefer to the sessions were Joseph I. Breen, studio head; Ned Depinet, distribution chief; Charles Koerner, theatre executive, and Reginald Armour, assistant to Mr. Schaefer.

Assignment of William Holman to the post of studio manager last weekend, following some years of production management for Frank Capra, had the effect of putting at rest a variety of rumors regarding the ultimate status of the studio setup.

Dropped from Hollywood town talk for lack of formal confirmation or denial as the report that Mr. Breen might be on the point of leaving his studio post to resume his former industry niche as director of the Production Code Administration. Support was to be had, however, for the understanding that he would absent himself from the studio for a month's vacation following the present conferences, with Mr. Schaefer remaining in Hollywood to conduct studio affairs in his absence.

Leo on a Platter

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER is going into the phonograph record business in a big way, according to word from Hollywood this week, and unofficially admitted as being under consideration by MGM in New York. The Metro studio, it is said, will make its own records from musicians and artists in its fold and will use the record business to plug tunes from MGM pictures. Over $500,000 has been appropriated for the new subsidiary.

Jack Cummings, Metro producer and nephew of Louis B. Mayer, is reported to have presented the idea to the management. Tommy Dorsey, band leader, will record for the new venture, and with Mr. Cummings will hold 20 per cent of the stock. Harry Link, manager of Leo Feist Music Company, is also active in the phonograph disk project.

Rhode Island Organizes

THE STATE COUNCIL of Defense of Rhode Island has concentrated all Civilian Defense activities of the amusement industry within the state under a Coordinator, to which William E. Spragg has been appointed.

The order of the State Council of Defense certifies that the Amusement Industry Coordinator has been appointed under Protection Division of the State Council of Civilian Defense and authorizes him to direct the development and execution of all protection activities in the industry. He has charted the state into four sections and will appoint deputies for each division.

Mr. Spragg is an oldtime showman and is connected with M and P Theatres, supervising the Strand Theatre in Pawtucket; Strand Theatre in Newport, both in Rhode Island, the Stadium in Woonsocket and about ten others.

Papers Off, Readers Up

NEWSPAPER daily circulations in the U. S. went up in 1941 by 1,612,870, according to press reports from the new N. W. Ayer directory, with a daily average of 42,385,807. This happened in spite of the fact that the total number of dailies fell off by twenty-four to 1,974. Most of the circulation gain was by afternoon papers. Periodicals gained in number 241, reaching a total of 6,709 in 1941 and most of the gain came among the weeklies. It appears that more persons are reading less papers. There are no statistics to indicate if they are finding out anything.

"When Winter Comes.."

SPRING, and a new season for Drive-In theatres is not so far behind in the minds of Paramount theatre officials, it appears from the list of Paramount theatre acquisitions attached to the Government's theatre divorce motion now pending before Judge Henry W. Goddard at New York. Twelve Drive-In theatres have been acquired by Paramount since the decree was signed in November, 1940. The majority have been purchased in the last six months.

Paramount, according to its reports to the Department of Justice has acquired control, through purchase of Drive-In theatres in St. Petersburg, Florida; San Antonio; East St. Louis, Ill.; Jackson, Tenn.; Columbia, S. C.; Shreveport, La.; Pensacola; Jackson, Miss.; Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston. The Drive-Ins were not among the theatres which the Government wants Paramount to drop.

PICTURES ADVERTISED THIS WEEK

"Woman of the Year," MGM, 2nd cover, Pages 37, 38

"Kings Row," Warners, Page 3

"Captains of the Clouds," Warners, Pages 4, 5

"Son of Fury," 20th-Fox, Page 6

"Roxie Hart," 20th-Fox, Page 6

"Song of the Islands," 20th-Fox, Pages 6, 19, 20.

"How Green Was My Valley," 20th-Fox, Pages 6, 22, 23

"Mr. Bug Goes to Town," Paramount, Pages 29 to 32

"Adventures of Martin Eden," Columbia, Pages 42, 43

"A Tragedy at Midnight," Republic, Page 45

"A Gentleman After Dark," UA, Page 47

Censorship Tightens

FOREIGN communication was restricted further this week by the imposition of new regulations for the overseas telephone and cable and the application of the Trading with the Enemy Act of 1917 to motion picture advertising and publicity material.

Also, on Monday, Carl E. Milliken, MPPDA foreign manager, informed members of the film companies' foreign publicity committee that the Government had served notice that publicity photographs and copy and advertising material shipped abroad by film companies was subject to censorship. Last week MOTION PICTURE HERALD reported that the U. S. Customs service had started reviewing exported motion pictures. Kenneth Clark, of the Hays office, is chairman and Joel Swenson secretary of the committee of foreign publicity agents. It will be known as the International Publicity Managers' Committee.

Czar for England

AUBREY FLANAGAN cabled from London at mid-week that British film sources learned the Government was contemplating the appointment, probably in April, of a Controller of Kinematography. The rumor was unconfirmed, but it was understood that such a Controller or Director would officiate through the British Board of Trade, and that he would act to control raw materials, machinery and supplies in order to eliminate waste. Mr. Flanagan reported that it was understood the appointment had been discussed and the proposal considered, although no official confirmation could be obtained.

Who's Buying 'Wind'

"GONE WITH THE WIND"'S most consistent fans have been persons ranging from 12 to 17 years in age, a still uncompleted poll conducted for MGM and the producer, David Selznick, shows. First results of the poll were disclosed Tuesday in Hollywood. It also showed that the film received more money at higher admissions from those of moderate incomes, rather than those of large; and that the film has had better reception in West than elsewhere.

Tomorrow's Star Today

RONALD REAGAN, Number Five in the "Stars of Tomorrow" as chosen by the nation's exhibitors in the MOTION PICTURE HERALD poll (August, 1941), has been officially designated by Warners as having "full star ranking." "Washington Broadcast", according to the studio, will be his next vehicle. He was given star rating as the result of his work in "Kings Row," and is now working with Errol Flynn in "Desperate Journey."

This Week

■ ■ ■ the Camera observes

GENE TIERNEY, star of "Son of Fury" and touring the east in that picture's interest, is the guest of Carter Barron and the Washington Variety Club at a cocktail party for the press in the Capital. Sam Wheeler, 20th-Fox branch manager at left, and Tony Muto, Movietone News executive, on the right.

CLARENCE MARGON, Universal's Latin-American supervisor returned from there this week, reported new prosperity for American film companies. He saw no danger in Axis film propaganda, there being only two remaining outlets and those only for newsreels, Buenos Aires and Santiago.

DISTRICT MANAGERS of Warners heard the Spring campaign plans at a two-day sales meeting in New York last week. Across the bottom of the page are Henry Herbel, Sam Lefkowitz, Bob Smeltzer, Hall Walsh, Harry Seed, Rud Lohrenz, Roy Haines, Ben Kalmenson, Mort Blumenstock, Norman Moray, Arthur Sachson, Al Schwalberg, Norman Ayers and Fred Jacks.

RITA HAYWORTH and her fellow cast members of "Moon Tide" at the 20th Century-Fox studio at Westwood take time out for a visit of eastern executives. Standing are John Sutton, Sidney R. Kent, president; Victor Mature, and Tom Connors, executive assistant to Mr. Kent.

By Staff Photographer

J. J. MURDOCK, seated, former head of the B. F. Keith and Orpheum circuits, and Ben Piazza, former general manager of the B. F. Keith Enterprises, and now RKO talent chief, meet reminiscently in M. Piazza's office at the RKO studio.

By Cosmo-Sileo

JUDY CANOVA, campaigning for Republic and Defense Bonds, visits the 30th annual convention of the Theatre Owners of North and South Carolina at Charlotte. With her here are O. T. Kirby of Roxboro and Mrs. Runa Curtis of Liberty.

By Metropolitan

■ ■ AUSTRALIA is represented at a special showing of March of Time's "Far East Command" in New York by Randal Heymanson, Australian Newspaper Service; W. J. R. Wilcox, Director of the Australian Department of Information; William T. Albert, of the Bulletin, Sydney; R. McColl, director of Australian Government Broadcasting and David W. Bailey, Australian News and Information Bureau.

JOHN GRIERSON, Canadian Film Commissioner, outlining forcefully for the press his conception of the screen's wartime function, decries the obvious propaganda picture. See page 28.

By Staff Photographer

DEFENSE STAMP bonuses are given members in good standing of Local B-96, MPMO, of Wilkes Barre. Here Karl Thomas, treasurer and originator of the idea, gives the first dollar's worth to Daisy Miles. Watching is Margaret Smith, another member.

STEVE BROIDY, general sales manager of Monogram, and Harry Thomas at a trade press luncheon in New York at which Mr. Thomas' promotor to eastern sales manager was announced.

By Staff Photographer

The RCAF and Warners open a Picture

AIR MARSHAL W. A. Bishop presents the R.C.A.F. colors to Mayor LaGuardia during the ceremonies at City Hall.

REVERSING the location premiere idea which reached its zenith before the war, Warner Brothers last week brought the location to the premiere. For the opening of "Captains of the Clouds" at the Strand in New York the company produced as guests of honor 200 cadets of the Royal Canadian Air Force and two Air Marshals of the Force, W. A. "Billy" Bishop and L. S. Breadner.

The cadets, on Lincoln's Birthday, paraded to City Hall where they met Mayor LaGuardia and to the theatre where they met 200 Powers models who were their hostesses, after the showing, at a Waldorf Astoria Starlight Roof supper dance.

Other attendant ceremonies included a luncheon at which Marshals Bishop and Breadner, Canadian Minister Leighton McCarthy; S. L. de Carteret, the Dominion Minister of National Defense for Air, and Major Albert Warner were speakers.

The picture, incidentally, is built around the training plan operated by the R.C.A.F. and was filmed in part at the Uplands school. Excellent business is reported at the Strand, and in Philadelphia, Ottawa, Toronto and Montreal.

LEIGHTON MCCARTHY, Canadian Minister to the United States, addresses the Lincoln's Birthday luncheon at the Waldorf Astoria. S. L. de Carteret and Major Albert Warner at right.

R.C.A.F. CADETS in the dress parade and special drill which preceded the presentation of flags in City Hall Park.

THE PARTY at the Waldorf after the opening. Above, the girls match hearts with their partners. At left, Brenda Marshall, starred in the picture, sits one out with a cadet.

Pictures by Cosmo-Sileo

UNITY HEADS STUDY FLOOD OF PLANS FOR REFORMS

Subcommittees Delay Final Reports to Consider All Suggestions

The United Motion Picture Industry's subcommittee to formulate new trade practice programs convened for its second work session this week in New York. With some regard for the Department of Justice's guardianship of the consent decree, the Committee proceeded to consider the flood of proposals for new selling practices, arbitration and policy in general, and from them to evolve a concerted plan for trade practice revision.

The unit met in the office of its new executive secretary, Leon Bamberger, in the Hotel Astor.

Reconvention was Tuesday morning, 10:30. It was apparent immediately that the two weeks which intervened since the last meeting had produced many ideas. Chairman Jack Kirsch, president of the Illinois Allied reported at mid-day he had received so many suggestions, for instance, upon one facet of the program—expansion of arbitration—that adjournment at that time was necessary so that exhibitor members of the subcommittee might correlate the suggestions.

Wednesday morning's discussions again brought no commitments, it being decided the exhibitors on the subcommittee would meet that night to mull again as they did Tuesday night the arbitration factors they would like submitted to the whole committee, and to the distributors.

Agreement on Some

There appeared to be agreement of a sort on suggestions covering other facets of the program: forcing of shorts, adjustment of individual complaints, and adjustment of territorial complaints. A drafting committee received these ideas for presentation in polished form to the full meeting of the UMPI, when called.

On the drafting committee are I. Howard Levinson, Warners; Felix Jenkins, Twentieth Century-Fox; Colonel H. A. Cole, Texas Allied; Max A. Cohen, New York Allied (of the MPTOA).

On what observers believe the critical point of the new program aborning—a new sales policy to substitute for the blocks of five method of the decree—William F. Rodgers, UMPI permanent chairman, and spokesmen for the distributors, asked the subcommittee Tuesday for time, and indicated he would present the distributors' recommendations Wednesday or Thursday.

Then on Wednesday, just before the adjournment, he arrived to ask again for time, intimating the recommendations might still come before the week's end.

While the unity group discussed extension or arbitration, the American Arbitration Association, administrator of the consent decree system reported that it had not been approached by UMPI, formally or informally. An official pointed out that Section XX of the rules of arbitration in the con-

Halt Little Three Trust Trial, Hear Divorcement Through First

Trial of the Little Three—Columbia, Universal and United Artists—on the Government's anti-trust suit was postponed indefinitely on Wednesday at New York. The Department of Justice further announced that it had given up hope of meeting the June 1st deadline for obtaining a conviction, as prescribed in the consent decree settlement with the Big Five. Judge Henry W. Goddard, at a hearing called to consider interrogatories filed by the defendants, refused a request by Robert L. Wright, special assistant Attorney General, that the U. S. be permitted to confine the impending Little Three suit to the two issues of block booking and blind selling.

Following the court's ruling, Mr. Wright said it would be futile for the Government to attempt to try the whole anti-trust complaint before June 1st. He said it was undecided as to whether the Government would seek an extension of the June 1st deadline. Judge Goddard then postponed the case sine die.

For the Government to pick out certain issues from its complaint and try them over the objections of the defendants would be prejudicial to the defendants, Judge Goddard found. It "would mean not only a great expense but would besides result in other charges hanging over their heads," he ruled, after hearing the objections of Louis D. Frohlich, counsel for Columbia and Benjamin Pepper, representing U. A. and Universal.

Mr. Wright then consented to the court's dropping the Little Three case from the calendar. Questioned as to whether the U. S. would seek to extend the June 1st deadline he said it was possible the Big Five might not seek to abandon the trade showing and blocks-of-five sales provisions of the decree.

Prior to the ruling on the Little Three case Judge Goddard granted a preliminary hearing on the theatre divorcement motions filed by the Government against Paramount and 20th Century-Fox on January 29th. He adjourned until March 19th consideration of the Department of Justice's request that Paramount be ordered to divest itself of 16 of the 197 theatres acquired since the consent decree was signed, and 20th-Fox to drop 28 of 40 new houses.

Mr. Wright said that he was conferring with attorneys for Paramount and 20th-Fox and was hopeful that a stipulation of facts could be presented to the court.

sent decree already provided for the arbitration of other disputes, in instances where one of the parties is a consenting distributors and where both parties sign a submission to the award. The rules do not permit other distributors or exhibitors to intervene.

Discussed also Tuesday morning were methods of sending the distributors' letter on shorts forcing to exhibitors. That letter was agreed to at the last session, and puts in writing the distributors' opposition to such a practice, even if pushed by an employee. Tuesday, it was decided each company was to determine whether to send this policy letter to exhibitors individually or to exhibitor organizations.

It was agreed Wednesday that all proposals agreed upon by the subcommittee would then be submitted to the full committee of the UMPI, after which they would go to the executives and directors of participating film companies, and to directors and members of participating exhibitor organizations. Following this they will be presented by a special UMPI subcommittee to the Department of Justice. The latter's approval given, they will be bases for amendments to the consent decree, drawn by a special UMPI negotiating committee in cooperation with the Department of Justice.

The Department of Justice in the past two weeks has disclosed consultations with it by exhibitor leaders, presumably in connection with the UMPI discussions. It appeared to observers hardly possible for the UMPI to continue discussions on practices which might be rejected by the Department. They had in mind the trade practice program of three years ago, which died not merely because of Allied opposition but because the Department deemed it conspiratorial.

The Department of Justice report of several weeks ago caused some halt in the proceedings of the full UMPI committee at the Hotel Warwick. There followed appointment of the present subcommittee, which met for a week thereafter without acting, and agreed to meet again this week. Specifically delegated to the subcommittee were the five facets mentioned, and which in detailed recapitulation are:

1. The finding of a better method of selling than the five-picture plan.

(Continued on following page)

Unity Group studies new Proposals

(Continued from preceding page)

2. The finding of ways and means within the United Motion Picture Industry to prevent forcing of shorts and feature, if found true.

3. The setting up of machinery whereby proper and thorough investigation can be made of territorial disagreements and ways and means of correcting the same.

4. A method and a source through which individual complaints can be investigated and a determination made.

5. If the present method of arbitration is unsatisfactory a substitute plan evolved.

On the subcommittee are Ned Depinet, RKO sales manager, who was represented Tuesday by A. W. Smith; Mr. Kirsch; Edward L. Kuykendall, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America; Mr. Cohen; Fred Wehrenberg, president of the MPTO of St. Louis; William Crockett, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Virginia; Robert Poole, executive secretary of the Pacific Coast Conference of Independent Theatre Owners; Robert White of the Oregon Independent Theatre Owners; Sidney Samuelson, business agent of the Eastern Pennsylvania Allied; Colonel Cole; Henderson M. Richey, exhibitor relations director for MGM; Mr. Jenkins; Mr. Levinson; Harry Thomas, Eastern sales manager of Monogram; James R. Grainger, president of Republic; C. J. Scollard, Paramount; Abe Montague, general sales manager of Columbia.

It was rumored that among the added problems to be given arbitration under the decree, by the UMPI, would be overbuying, which at present is not arbitrated. Also possible of inclusion would be breaches of contract.

It is indicated the exhibitors, as always, want full identification of pictures, and also that they want block booking of a sort, presumably with cancellation. Observers pointed out the variation in exhibitor opinion, some organizations desiring straight selective buying, and others wanting full season output with 20 per cent cancellation, and said anything offered would be a compromise.

Return to block booking as before was regarded unlikely by all, in view of known Government opposition.

Observers noted, too, that formation of a sales policy now, in lieu of the decree method, and approval of an amendment to it, would obviate the need for the Government to press its key New York anti-trust suit against Universal, United Artists, and Columbia. The Government's impetus in that case is the decree's escape clause, which allows distributors freedom from selling films in blocks of five and trade showing them, if the Government does not successfully prosecute the "Little Three" by June 1st—a prospect at present increasingly doubtful.

Crescent Case Seen In Relation to UMPI

Universal and United Artists, non-participants in the UMPI meetings at New York's Hotel Astor, this week were believed ready to make their UMPI stand dependent upon the decision to be given shortly by a Nashville federal judge, in the Department of Justice's anti-trust suit against the two companies, the Crescent circuit, and affiliates.

The trial was completed in November. There

Named to Head Movietone

EDMUND REEK, general manager of the 20th Century-Fox Movietone Newsreel was made vice-president and producer on Wednesday, succeeding the late Truman Talley. Sidney R. Kent, president of 20th-Fox announced the appointment.

Mr. Reek has been with the Fox newsreel organization since its inception in 1919. He has been cameraman, news editor, assistant director of short features, and general manager. As a cameraman he won top company honors for three successive years for initiative and enterprise on assignments.

In 1927 he became news editor of Fox Newsreel and filled the same post with Movietone News in 1929. He was made general manager in 1938 and during Mr. Talley's illness during the last year had charge of the company's operations.

followed numerous briefs and frequent involved argumentation. The judge received the case in late December.

The two companies feel that because they are named as conspirators in the case, as well as accused of such in the New York case, previously mentioned, they should not act in concert with other distributors. That would be required of them in decisions made at the UMPI parleys.

It was noted, also, that the new selling system to be made by the latter, might not be acceptable to the two companies, under contracts with their numerous independent producers.

Seattle Meeting

The Northwest Independent Theatre Owners Association met in Seattle Tuesday. It was the annual convention. Theatre men from Washington, Alaska, and Northern Idaho attended.

The New England Allied (Independent Exhibitors, Inc.) will meet next Tuesday at the Statler Hotel, Boston. They will elect officers.

East, West to Cooperate on Publicity

Closer cooperation, east and west, between all publicity executives of the industry, in line with the patterns of institutional public and press relations as drawn recently by the "committee of six" lawyers, and discussed frequently of late, moved nearer reality this week as New York publicity and advertising directors pledged closer liaison with California.

Robert Gillham, chairman of the New York committee, was in California conferring with the Studio Publicity Directors Committee headed by John Joseph. Mr. Gillham indicated that the New York group was a permanent organization and that it intended appointing an executive secretary with experience and prestige. On Mr. Gillham's return to New York, Monday, he said no choice has been made.

Mr. Joseph, in Hollywood, was preparing a report on the studio publicity program for Mr. Gillham to take back to New York. Elimination of conflicts on screening dates and all-industry events was said to be on the joint agenda.

Meanwhile the New York directors, meeting on Thursday, with David Lipton acting chairman in Mr. Gillham's absence pledged close cooperation with the industry public relations program of the United Motion Picture Industry committee's public relations section, headed by Howard Dietz. This, it was said, will prevent overlapping of duties and functions, which are said to differ widely. All companies are represented in the Publicity committee.

War Insurance Plan Nears Completion

At midweek only a few wrinkles were still to be ironed out in a group public liability insurance protection plan to be offered in these wartimes to exhibitor members by the Wisconsin and Upper Michigan Independent Theatres Protection Association.

The association will pay premiums on $1,000,000 liability insurance of member theatres, collecting it from owners on a per seat pro-rating. A major insurance firm is said to have offered the group coverage at a rate which will effect substantial savings to independent theatre operators. The plan is expected to be a strong inducement to membership in the association.

Will Ainsworth, of Fond du Lac, president of the ITPA, Harry Perelewitz of Milwaukee, business manager, and Ben Marcus of Ripon are working out the plan.

Rosenberg Talks Prices

In his first public statement since assuming presidency of National Allied, in mid-January, M. A. Rosenberg, Pittsburgh, Wednesday declared for a 20 per cent general increase in admissions, which, he maintained, "would be sufficient to absorb the increased operating costs, and leave the average theatre owner with a slight profit."

Mr. Rosenberg cited theatre war service to the Government, and said "All face the problem of mounting operating costs."

STILL THE OLD STORY ON TRADE PRACTICES: ALLIED

New "Information" Report Quotes Bitter Exhibitor Complaints on Policies

Practices condemned by independent exhibitors before the consent decree, which were the subject of the defunct trade practice program of three years ago, and again the subject of trade practice program discussions in New York this week by the United Motion Picture Industry (see page 13), are still common, according to the latest report of the Allied Information Department, to members of the National Allied States Association.

Those practices are forcing of shorts and newsreels, the "play or pay" policy, exorbitant prices, unreasonable clearance. The AID report also implies that the companies have no standard code of business practices in the field.

The AID report is based upon "hundreds of returns" from exhibitors in 20 exchange centers. It covers companies in the consent decree, and not in it, separately. It has divided comments according to size of city and town from which they came.

It is seen by the first chart that Twentieth Century Fox, up to this month, has been leading sales, among consenting companies and that other companies rank in this order: MGM, Warners, RKO, and Paramount. Of the non-consenting companies, the report says their sales compare as follows: Columbia, Republic, Universal, United Artists, Monogram, and PRC.

Bases for the estimates are the theatres reporting, represented as 100 per cent. Taking them as bases, the non-consenting companies noted are rated in sales standing, as of the beginning of this month, at 75 per cent, 69, 64, 59, 35, and 12.

The report notes that the consenting companies "did not solicit exhibitors on the same proportion that they did not close contracts." And it adds, still dealing with the percentages of sales among consenting companies, that exhibitors criticized:

"The sliding scale method of selling, the unbearable prices demanded . . . and unfair clearance provisions."

Some quotations from exhibitor's comments: "All of the Big Five are asking 15 to 20 per cent more than last year. . . . Just try and buy a selective group. They do the selecting for you. . . . The five majors have lost their minds. . . . Guess they want to put all small exhibitors out of business. . . . No salesman would talk features until shorts were out of the way. . . ."

The companies not in the decree are guilty of "taking advantage of the sales situation created by the consent decree," the report represents exhibitors as feeling. Some of their comments, it said, were:

"No deal could be made . . . without taking all shorts and serials. . . . Compelled to purchase entire output of . . . including short subjects. . . . This is the most ruthless company in the business today, and their wings will have to be clipped. . . . Refused to sell features until shorts were bought."

It comments that figures indicate most pictures sold on percentage are in the "35 per cent bracket."

Other salient facts gleaned from the returns: that nearly 54 per cent of the total closed deals "paid the same or less for product, than during the 1940-41 season"; that "14 per cent paid more."

The AID report summary advises, in conclusion, that exhibitors study the charts "carefully" and keep it for "handy reference"; and it remarks that "the variations in sales policies of all companies definitely show that there is no rigid national sales policy to which the distributors adhere."

It also warns that exhibitors dislike the decree, want "prompt" relief, and that the comment of one exhibitor (noted here) may be "prophetic": "The situation gets worse all the time. We exhibitors should use the forum of the daily newspapers to bring our problems direct to the public, reciting all the money paid to those in control, the earnings of the film companies; also encourage the legislators to tax hell out of the industry. We are licked in this business and we expect to do everything we can to see that everyone else in the industry is licked too."

Allied Reports on Sales Standing of Distributors

(Figured in percentages, using total number of theatres reporting as 100%)

CONSENTING DISTRIBUTORS	MGM			PARA.			RKO			20TH FOX			WARNER
	Deals Not Solic- ited	Offered, Not Closed	Closed Deals	Deals Not Solic- ited	Offered, Not Closed	Closed Deals	Deals Not Solic- ited	Offered, Not Closed	Closed Deals	Deals Not Solic- ited	Offered, Not Closed	Closed Deals	Deals Not Solic- ited	Offered, Not Closed	Closed Deals
NATIONAL TOTALS	23%	9%	68%	37%	37%	26%	40%	18%	42%	12%	11%	77%	20%	13%	67%
SMALL TOWNS . . .	17%	12%	71%	28%	43%	29%	36%	17%	47%	10.5%	10.5%	79%	14%	12%	74%
MEDIUM CITIES . . .	40	2	58	66	15	19	51	11	38	17	9	74	34	15	51
LARGE CITIES . . . .	32	7	61	50	43	7	61	21	18	11	21	68	32	18	50

Non-Consenting Distributors	COL. A		COL. B		COL. C		COL. D
	All Theatres Reporting		TOTALS		TOTALS		Number of Pictures in Percentage Groups
	NO BUY	Total Deals Closed	Bought ALL	Bought Selective	Bought ALL FLAT	Bought Flat & Per- centage	Total Pic- tures on %	40%	35%	30%	35%	Other %
COLUMBIA . . . .	25%	75%	30%	70%	55%	45%	100%	21%	48%	21%	7%	3%
MONOGRAM . . .	65	35	23	77	89	11	100	0	13	37	50	0
P.R.C. . . . .	88	12	35	65	96	4	100	0	0	100	0	0
REPUBLIC . . . .	31	69	28	72	95	5	100	0	35	52	14	0
UNITED ARTISTS .	41	59	57	43	72	28	100	34	55	5	5	1
UNIVERSAL . . . .	46	64	33	67	50	50	100	18	49	16	7	10
ALL COMPANIES	41	59	35	65	72	28	100	20	48	18	7	7

Col. A—Sales Standing in percentages, using total theatres reporting as 100%. Col. B—Bought all or selective figured in percentages using total contracts sold as 100%. Col. C—Bought All Flat or Part Percentage figured in percentages, using total contracts sold as 100%. Col. D—Analysis of Percentage brackets, figured in percentages, using total number of percentage pictures sold as 100%.

NO GENERAL RISE AT PRESENT IN CIRCUIT ADMISSIONS

Affiliated Circuits Admit Scattered Increases but Disclaim General Policy

The large circuits are not contemplating any general increase in admissions, at least for the time being. There has been some sporadic price-lifting in many sections, but nothing widespread, by both large circuits and independent operators.

Spokesmen in New York for Loew's, Paramount, RKO, Warners, Fox, Skouras and Brandt theatres said this week they were not setting a general increased admission policy for the present.

Charles W. Koerner, head of RKO Theatres, observed: "Judicious increases have been made in certain situations, but the tendency has been to raise prices for specific pictures rather than on a permanent policy basis." Mr. Koerner reported that prices were increased from 55 to 65 cents for "Ball of Fire," a 20 per cent rise, at key situations and that similar increases in first-run RKO houses in metropolitan centers were effected for "How Green Was My Valley." He indicated that admissions probably would be raised for "Roxie Hart," "Captains of the Clouds," "Yankee Doodle Dandy," "Arsenic and Old Lace," and "The Magnificent Ambersons," Orson Welles' new film.

Increases Scattered

Warner Bros. announced, meanwhile, that no general increase was contemplated at the moment, but that wherever conditions warranted it, zone managers had made slight admission advances. Loew's reported similarly. Paramount disclosed there had been a "slight leveling off of prices to do away with odd pennies," but the increases had been spotty and not anything "that could be construed as a definite policy or company procedure." Paramount increased Friday, Saturday and Sunday admissions to its three downtown Detroit houses, the Michigan, State and United Artists, from 55 to 65 cents some weeks ago and also instituted increases in its Minneapolis theatres. Both Skouras and Brandt houses in New York reported that their tariffs remain at present levels, with no change contemplated yet.

Ohio ITO Urges Advances

Pete Wood, secretary of the Independent Theatre Owners of Ohio, in a recent organization bulletin, urged exhibitors, especially in the larger towns, to increase admissions generally. Mr. Wood declared, "We are in an inflationary period and we know that every type of commodity has gone up in price. I cannot see how we can much longer adhere to these lower scales," he said.

Reports from the field indicate the following price rises within the last two weeks:

The Palace, Chicago, starting with the "Ball of Fire" and "The Gay Falcon" engagement, raised admissions from 30 to 40 cents to 1:00 P.M., from 40 to 50 cents to 6:30 P.M., and 60 to 68 cents until closing, including tax. The Oriental in the same city raised its evening price 10 cents to 50, including tax. The Cine Theatre advanced its week-end prices to 35 cents.

Sunday Prices Up

In Hamilton, Ohio, the Paramount, largest of the three Northio houses in that city, advanced its Sunday lower price from 45 to 50 cents, with no change in weekday admissions. Sunday balcony admissions increased from 30 to 33 cents for matinees and from 33 to 40 cents evenings.

Minnesota Amusement Increases

Minnesota Amusement Company, Paramount affiliate, last week announced increases for its Twin City first-run theatres, bringing admissions to even figures, eliminating the "odd penny nuisance," tax included. John J. Friedl, circuit head, in announcing the advance, said, "Operating costs are increasing enormously and these costs must be met through additional revenue at the box-office." Twin City independent exhibitors followed the circuit's lead this week in admission raises ranging from one to three cents. Theatres charging 17 to 20 cents, advanced their scale to 25-30 cents. Houses with 33-39-cent scales advanced to 35-40 cents.

Minnesota Amusement houses' price increases were as follows: admissions previously at 44 cents went to 50; 17-cent admissions to 20; 28-cent to 30; 22-cent to 25; and 38-cent to 40. Children's admissions, however, remained at 10 cents plus one cent tax. The circuit reports that patrons expressed "satisfaction" that the "penny nuisance" had been eliminated. Whether or not Minnesota Amusement will institute increases similarly throughout the entire circuit will depend on how the advances work out in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Oklahoma Expects Rise

Circuit and independent exhibitors in Oklahoma report this week that a general policy of increased admission prices throughout the state is expected soon. Operators contend that increased costs of operation, probably additional film rental upswings and new taxes as well as new wage demands are the reasons for the forthcoming rise in theatre admissions. Recently, most first runs in Oklahoma raised prices from around 25 cents to as high as 56 cents on "Sergeant York," with little effect on attendance reported. Most houses in the state absorbed the last Federal admission charge by decreasing scales, so that the new admission prices and tax will equal the old scales, it is believed.

With the recently reopened Brin theatre in Menasha, Wis., operating under a 15-cent admission policy until 6:00 P.M., and 25 cents thereafter, Fox's Valley Theatre in the same city announced a new low price of 20 cents, plus 2 cents tax for any showing.

Local theatres in Spokane, Wash., have raised admissions five cents. Circuit first runs are now getting 50 cents at night and subsequent runs from 35 to 23 cents.

$750,000 for 'March of Dimes'

The industry's "March of Dimes" fund, as represented by checks actually received by Si Fabian, treasurer, New York, had reached over $750,000 Tuesday night. The spurt in the total is attributed to a check for $180,000 from Loew's theatre circuit—the largest single circuit contribution so far. A check for $11,000 was sent in by the Harry Brandt circuit.

Some 4,000 out of the more than 10,000 theatres enrolled have reported so far.

Lee Shubert, chairman of the legitimate theatre division, sent in a check for $30,000 covering collections in the legitimate theatres. The Loew circuit check, was boosted by an additional report of $9,000, making the total $189,000. The E. M. Loew circuit, New England, sent a check for $5,300. Several large circuits, including RKO (reported to have raised $80,000) and the West Coast group, are still unreported.

Total collection in Philadelphia was $100,000, compared to $60,000 last year. The Warner circuit collected $28,000 in its city houses, compared to $500 last year when no collection was attempted; independent city houses turned in $12,000 as against $5,500 last year; the legitimate theatres gathered $1,000 and film exchanges turned in $650.

At Allentown, Pa., Charles Bierbauer, manager of the Colonial Theatre, who headed the theatre division of the campaign, reported that the 19 theatres in Lehigh County turned in $3,300.

The fund was swelled by $4,063 in collections taken in the 52 theatres operated in Minnesota by Minnesota Amusement Company. The figure does not include receipts from theatres of the company in three other states, nor receipts from independent houses.

AMPA Honors U. S. Signal Corps

Lieutenant-Colonel Melvin E. Gillette, in charge of the Army Training Film Production Laboratory at Fort Monmouth, N. J., was to be guest at the luncheon held by the Associated Motion Picture Advertisers on Thursday, at the Hotel Edison, New York. The affair was arranged by AMPA as its "Salute to the Signal Corps."

Colonel Gillette spoke on "The Use of Motion Pictures in America's New Army." A delegation from Fort Monmouth, including film industry technicians, writers and personnel now in service, accompanied him to the luncheon.

The Fort Monmouth unit which Colonel Gillette inaugurated in 1937 with a staff of two enlisted men and one civilian employe, today comprises a staff of 275. Its 1942 schedule includes production of 125 reels exclusively for Army release. The Signal Corps recently acquired the Paramount Astoria studio where its Fort Monmouth laboratory will be moved shortly.

ALL INDUSTRY AWAITS WORD FROM CAPITAL ON MATERIALS

Official Orders on Priority, Raid Procedure Coming; Shows for Soldiers Set

Studio executives in Hollywood, home office managements in New York, exhibitors in the field and equipment manufacturers everywhere this week waited with some anxiety for orders due from the War Production Board, which in Washington has been studying the problem of film materials and the war.

First government approval of the use of war-essential materials for studio construction was granted Republic for a new sound stage, it was reported by Republic board chairman Herbert T. Yates, Tuesday in Hollywood, announcing a $2,500,000 expansion program for the studio.

A voluminous report on the over-all needs of the industry for essential materials was laid before War Production Board officials this week by the industry's War Activities Committee. The report was taken to Washington for discussion with A. Julian Brylawski, in charge of film priorities, by Donald Hindman, assistant to Francis Harmon, who also went to Washington to review the situation with war production chief Donald M. Nelson.

The committee report represents the results of some weeks of investigation of the situation by the industry committee, in the course of which the studios were asked to submit information regarding their needs for all of the many materials and commodities which are or may be subject to restriction.

As they await Government decision, which in some respects may have been forecast by General Hershey's ruling that the industry is "essential," producers have meanwhile urged economy; and, indeed, all sectors of the industry have been made aware of that need, by exhortation from other sources, latest of which was IATSE president Richard Walsh, who last week listed the things a projectionist should do to aid the war effort.

From the OCD Washington office last week came intimations it might shortly issue overall regulations for theatre action in blackouts. In the interim, theatres locally, cooperating with local defense organizations, and under the impetus of over-all instructions from circuit home offices, have in most instances drawn up conduct for air raids.

The industry committee in liaison in the capital, with the OCD, is headed by J. J. Payette, after whose perusal the instructions, probably in pamphlet form, will be given to every theatre.

Expected from Washington soon is an official limitation order for the motion picture industry, from the WPB.

The National Theatre Supply Company has issued a booklet, "What to Do—When to Do It," to aid theatre owners and projectionists maintain equipment at peak efficiency.

ENEMY ALIENS PLEASE NOTE

The Department of Justice, in a letter from Earl G. Harrison, special assistant to the Attorney General, asks the motion picture trade press, along with other media, to warn enemy aliens that they must register. All German, Japanese and Italian nationals are required to file applications for Certificates of Identification at their nearest postoffices.

Registration in eight Pacific coast states, has already been completed. In other states Germans, Italians and Japanese have until February 28th to register. Failure to do so subjects them to imprisonment for the duration. The current order supersedes the alien registration of 1940.

Measures for the evacuation, and strict limitation of travel by German, Italian and Japanese residents of California and other Pacific states meanwhile are under discussion by state and federal authorities.

Walter Green, the company's president, remarked this week, "The recommendations made are not intended to apply to any specific brand of equipment, but are written so that they can be used with all makes of equipment."

Warning Issued On Blackouts

Philadelphians were warned last week to prepare immediately for blackouts that may last "two, three or four hours" and perhaps all night. The warning was sounded by George W. Elliott, a field director of the defense council, which successfully staged a test blackout in the metropolitan Philadelphia area earlier in the month. The next blackout will be ordered by the Army, Mr. Elliot said, "and may be the real thing." Norristown (Pa.), the only community that did not join in the February 3rd test here, staged its test blackout last Sunday afternoon, as a "daylight blackout."

New Haven had its first blackout Tuesday night. Theatre business dropped 50 per cent.

War Activities Set for Ad-Publicity Men

Before leaving for Hollywood last Friday, Monroe Greenthal, director of advertising, publicity and exploitation for United Artists, and chairman of the publicity and advertising division of the War Activities Committee-Motion Picture Industry, reported that committee members for the division had been appointed and specific responsibilities assigned to them.

The line-up is as follows: Oscar Doob, Harry Mandel and Rodney Bush will handle publicity in out-of-town newspapers. Al Wilkie, assisted by Joseph Gould, will handle publicity for the trade press and New York papers, with Mr. Wilkie working in cooperation with Martin Quigley, chairman of the trade paper division of War Activities Committee. Mort Blumenstock will handle radio publicity and arrange for radio tie-ups. S. Barrett McCormick will handle publicity from the local division office for release to out-of-town papers and also will supervise photo handling. David Lipton will be in charge of release dates on defense films. Si Seadler will direct ad copy, slogans and trade paper layouts. Kenneth Clark and Charles Reed Jones will be liaison members with the Rockefeller Committee and the Donovan Office, both of which are cooperating with War Activities Committee.

Six Coast Unions Assail Deferment

Six American Federation of Labor studio unions last week wired protests to national director of Selective Service Brigadier General Lewis Hershey, against his ruling that the film industry may request, and the California selective service administration grant, deferments for essential workers in motion picture production.

Previously, the Screen Actors Guild directors had declaimed against the deferment ruling, also in a wire to the General, thus:

The "conference of studio unions" is headed by Herbert Sorrell, and is said to represent 6,000 studio workers. The unions are the Screen Office Employees Guild, the Moving Picture Painters Local 644 (Mr. Sorrell's), the Studio Machinists Local 1185, the Screen Cartoonists Guild, and the Film Technicians Local 683.

Frank Gillmore, head of the Associated Actors and Artistes of America, parent actors' international union, congratulated the Screen Actors Guild late last week, on its earlier wire of protest to General Hershey.

Committee members were reported angry over the film deferment.

Douglas, Disney, Fight Continues

Praise for the entertainment industry's aid in the war, was given by Dean James Landis, director of the Office of Civilian Defense, last week, in Washington.

The praise came after Congressmen had angrily questioned the employment, and pay, of Melvyn Douglas, actor, and Mayris Chaney, dancer, in his office, and payment of $80,000 to Walt Disney for his Treasury Department Donald Duck short subject, for showing in theatres and designed to make payments of taxes more palatable.

(Continued on following page)

FREE SOLDIER SHOWS SET

(Continued from preceding page)

Mr. Landis' comment came in his first press conference after succeeding New York's Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia as head of the OCD. He pointed out sacrifices of time and money made by entertainment industry stars in appearing at rallies, camps, and in selling bonds and stamps.

He accepted responsibility for the Douglas appointment, asserting the actor would coalesce the amusement world's contributions to civil defense. And he commented that one example of such contribution would be to arouse the public by amusement talent to the necessity for sugar and other rationing, and similar steps.

Mr. Landis opposed elimination of the OCD "arts" division, at a Senate Appropriations Committee hearing.

The result of the furor: the Senate Committee approved amendments forbidding any fund for the OCD to be used to pay salaries of entertainers. It also approved an amendment compelling confirmation by the Senate of all employees of the OCD, receiving more than $5,400 per year.

Mr. Douglas, meanwhile, was expected in Hollywood this week, to work on a new picture.

On Wednesday, Miss Mayris Chaney, dancer, submitted, and Mr. Landis accepted, her resignation from the $4,600-a-year post.

Walt Disney was assured of payment by the Treasury, regardless of Congress' attitude, the Washington understanding was, this week. Treasury officials said they would not press Congress for payment of the bill.

Servicemen Get Free Shows, Films

New York headquarters of USO-Camp Shows, Inc., reported on Monday that the organization had made a request to the War Department urging elimination of admission prices to camp shows for the armed forces. A decision from the Department was expected by USO executives late this week.

The request followed reports of many protests from soldiers and sailors against paying the 15 and 20-cent admissions charged for USO entertainment. Originally, the admissions policy was set by USO and the morale division of the United States Army on the contention that a nominal price would encourage greater receptivity for the shows on the part of the servicemen. At that time, it was felt the total revenue from admissions would amount to one-third the cost of Camp Shows' productions, which was estimated to be about $50,000 weekly for all show and vaudeville units. The original appropriations for USO-Camp shows was $850,000. If the admission charges are eliminated, it is understood that USO will have to appropriate additional sums to make up for the one-third production costs.

Meanwhile, at USO headquarters, it was reported on Monday that the organization was going ahead with plans for sending entertainers to Army and Navy bases in Iceland, North Ireland, Hawaii, the Caribbean and Alaska. On orders from the War Department, however, USO has refused to reveal how many talent troupes are being prepared, where they are going or how. USO disclosed that when the troupes land at their designated destinations, the organization will release complete information. It is believed, however, that troupes have been signed for USO-Camp Shows outside the U. S. for six-month periods, with stipulations for 21 days of travel to and from the point of entertainment, probably via convoys.

Expansion of free film showings for convalescent soldiers in twelve western Army camps, ranging from Arizona to Alaska and Honolulu, was forecast in San Francisco by Fred Kislingbury, Pacific Coast director of the hospital motion picture service of the American Red Cross.

Paid for by Red Cross

The films are booked at a nominal fee, paid by the Red Cross, through thirty-six regular exchanges in San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and Los Angeles, and shown in recreation buildings constructed by the Government adjacent to camp hospitals.

At each center, 35 mm. RCA projection equipment has been installed, each installation, for projector and screen, costing about $4,200. Projectionists now in the Army are hired to operate the machines, and are paid the union fee by the Red Cross.

Film deliveries are paid for through regular channels, mostly at regular prices, but The Gilboy Company of San Francisco is making deliveries in that area free, having offered use of the fleet of trucks with which it covers theatres in the central part of the state.

Brian Aherne, Greer Garson, Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Adolphe Menjou joined the roster of Hollywood stars who are contributing their services to aid Canada's Victory Loan campaign, it was reported in Los Angeles on Monday. They will broadcast from Toronto on successive weeks, according to Kenneth Thomson, chairman of the Hollywood Victory Committee.

Laurence W. Beilenson, Screen Actors' Guild attorney, and Victor Shapiro, Independent Publicists Association, chairman, were elected to Victory Committee membership this week.

Abbott and Costello announced in Hollywood this week they would start a personal appearance tour throughout the country in April which they plan to continue until proceeds of the tour equals the cost of a bomber. They said they would turn the money over to the Government.

Bing Crosby and Bob Hope did 30-minute shows for the soldiers of Camp Wallace and Ellington Field, Texas, following their Red Cross benefit golf exhibition at Houston last week. They also did a show at Fort Sam Houston. Rosalind Russell began a tour of various Army camps in Texas on a two-week junket under auspices of USO.

IATSE Waives Overtime

Following its recent 10-point program for conservation and salvage of theatre materials, the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees announced in New York on Monday waiving of all overtime pay for projectionists resulting from the screening of Government defense films in U. S. theatres. This decision was made known by a letter Richard F. Walsh, IATSE president, sent to George J. Schaefer, chairman of the War Activities Committee of the Motion Picture Industry.

Mr. Walsh declared that since the showing of Government short subjects and trailers was a wartime duty for the exhibitors, who received no remuneration for it, the projectionists of the country desired to carry their share of the load.

He also asserted that the IATE's general executive board voted the overtime waiver unanimously.

Theatre managers of Portland, Ore., are co-operating in arrangements currently being made to provide entertainment and recreation for navy recruits during their stay in that city, after induction into the service and before departure to their training stations. The Hamrick-Evergreen theatres, including the Hollywood, Liberty, Music Box, News Reel, Oriental, Orpheum, Paramount and Playhouse, will admit recruits free when accompanied by a responsible officer, it was reported this week. Similar plans have been made for groups of 25 to 50 recruits by the J. J. Parker theatres, including the Broadway, United Artists and Mayfair. In addition, Phil Carlin, independent operator, also agreed to the plan for his Lincoln, Taylor Street and Blue Hill houses.

The Orpheum Theatre of the Joseph Blumenfeld circuit, in downtown San Francisco, reported on Monday that 500 tax free tickets were given away weekly to servicemen. Tickets are distributed through American Red Cross centers.

Buy More Bonds, Give More to the Red Cross

Eight major film companies have adopted the payroll savings plan for Defense Bonds, John Whitney Richmond of the New York Defense Saving Committee announced Monday. The companies are Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, RKO Radio, Twentieth Century-Fox, Warner Bros., Paramount, Columbia, Universal and United Artists. The Minnesota Amusement Company, a large mid-west theatre group, was named as almost 100% signed up for the plan. Over 90% of the employees of Eastman Kodak are purchasing bonds regularly under this system.

"Stamp Out the Peril" shows will be featured on Washington's Birthday in 65 Skouras theatres in New York. Admission will be by Defense Stamps only, and the stamps, after being pasted on lobby representations of the "peril," will be turned over to the Treasury Department.

In Canada, Victory Loan bonds are being purchased with the gross receipts of all Famous Players Canadian houses during the current week, according to the plan of President J. J. Fitzgibbons. B. E. Lasker, President of the Independent Motion Picture Exhibitors Association last week turned over $520 from the Toronto Lodge of B'nai B'rith for the aid of war victims in Great Britain.

Ted R. Gamble, Portland theatre executive who has been Oregon administrator of the defense savings program, was named Consultant to the office of Secretary of the Treasury.

Red Cross Quota Near

Harry M. Warner, chairman of the motion picture division of the American Red Cross War Emergency Drive disclosed over the weekend that film personnel have contributed $400,000 of the half-million goal, and would continue their support for the duration.

Executives and employees of San Francisco theatres have contributed $6,200 to the Red Cross drive, A. M. Bowles, vice-president of West Coast Theatres and film division chairman, announced Sunday. In Chicago, $45,000 was raised by the Theatre Red Cross Committee under the direction of Van Nomikos. This doubled the industry's quota for that section.

The Twin City Variety Club is sponsoring a Red Cross midnight benefit show at the Orpheum Theatre in Minneapolis, on March 10th.

ALL THIS
AND GRABLE
TOO!

SH! SH!
SH!

It's nice like this-

But this is nicer!

TECHNICOLOR

Smash Song Hits

Native Dances

"Sing Me A Song of the Islands"

Beauty Chorus

TECHNICOLOR

Victor Mature

"Down On Ami, Ami, Oni, Oni Isle"

Harry Owens and his Orchestra

William LeBaron Production

TECHNICOLOR

A Great Story

Hilo Hattie

Tropical Glamor

Romance

Comedy

"Maluna, Malolo, Mawaena"

TECHNICOLOR

Gordon-Owens Songs

Hermes Pan Dances

Walter Lang's Direction

Thomas Mitchell

"O'Brien Has Gone Hawaii"

Billy Gilbert

Dazzling Costumes

TECHNICOLOR

Jack Oakie

"Blue Shadows and White Gardenias"

BETTY GRABLE • VICTOR MATURE • JACK OAKIE

in
SONG of the ISLANDS

IN TECHNICOLOR

with

THOMAS MITCHELL • GEORGE BARBIER
BILLY GILBERT • HILO HATTIE
HARRY OWENS and his ROYAL HAWAIIANS

Directed by WALTER LANG • Produced by WILLIAM LeBARON

Original Screen Play by Joseph Schrank, Robert Pirosh, Robert Ellis and Helen Logan Lyrics and Music by Mack Gordon and Harry Owens • Dances Staged by Hermes Pan

ALL THIS AND GRABLE
TOO

Unions Press Drive for Organization

The majors' New York home offices continue to be the object of intensive solicitation by film industry unions.

The CIO's Screen Office and Professional Employees Guild, Local 109, now seeks an election to choose a collective bargaining agent for office workers at Twentieth Century Fox and Movietone News. Elections in which it also is the only contestant, will occur next Wednesday at Loew's and Columbia.

Local 109 last week told Nicholas Schenck, MGM president, and Harry Cohn, Columbia president, that it would conduct its election campaign "with a minimum of friction and a maximum of harmony in the spirit of national unity."

The Screen Publicists Guild has resumed negotiations for a closed shop contract for the advertising and publicity workers in the distributors' home offices.

Campaign Committee Formed

Resumption of negotiations between the majors and the publicists' union on Thursday, was accompanied by formation by the Guild of a campaign committee authorized "to institute picketing, boycott, and any other economic measure necessary to secure an equitable contract." The committee comprises the Guild executive council and the committee which has been negotiating. Twelve subcommittees to pursue various factors of the campaign have also been set up. Picketing was feared.

The Guild recently drew fresh support from the American Newspaper Guild and the CIO's Greater New York Industrial Council. The former telegraphed the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America "to urge your members to sit down at conference and negotiate . . . without delay." The latter wired company executives that it stood ready to support the Guild "in any action."

The extortion trial of Nick Circella and Louis Kaufman, IATSE leaders, was again postponed in New York Federal Court Monday to March 2nd. Circella, Chicago representative, and Kaufman, Newark local business agent, are under indictment for extortion of more than $1,000,000 from film companies.

Try Indianapolis Settlement

Richard Walsh, president of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, was in Indianapolis last week, attempting to settle the dispute between the suspended Alliance exchange workers' local, and the exchanges; a dispute which started when the local, in the midst of negotiations over a new contract, demanded limitation of the number of reels to be inspected, and its members "slowed down" work, whereupon the exchanges fired them and closed offices.

Mr. Walsh is understood to have reprimanded the union men last week, upon arrival, advising them to return to work under a pledge that good behavior would reinstate them in his union. He assertedly said the return would have to occur before the Alliance would seek reconciliation between the local and employers.

Dublin Showman on How it is in Eire

Here from Eire is the latest response to that invitation of the HERALD to the exhibitors of the world to have their say about what concerned them most in the state of the industry. The cost of product in relation to the box office receipts seems again in Dublin to be as much the issue as in the United States. Each and all of the issues between buyer and seller common to the American market are found to be expressed here, with a shade higher accent, more dictation to the retailer. —THE EDITOR

TO MOTION PICTURE HERALD:

I have just received your issues of November 8th and 15th, 1941, in which your exhibitor readers have stated their candid views on what and how they would like to buy and sell, and whilst I must commend you on your foresight in opening such a controversial subject and providing such an interesting topical venue for discussion, it might be of interest to your readers to have the views of an independent exhibitor outside your territory and what is on his mind.

In reading over the various comments, the first and most forcible point that strikes me is the buying prices which exhibitors in America pay compared with the rentals paid in Eire together with the coupling of the films.

For example, one of your correspondents points out that there should be no sliding scale over 40 per cent, and another asks why he should pay 30 to 40 per cent for so-called big pictures which have no star value whatsoever. A further correspondent points out that double features such as "Here Comes Mr. Jordan" and "Belle Starr"—"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and "This Woman Is Mine" played on the one bill.

It will be rather interesting to examine my reaction to these statements so far as they appertain to this country. Taking the two statements together, let me point out that the population of Eire is just under 3 million with Dublin the capital city, with approximately 450,000 souls, catered to by nearly 50 cinemas in which there are eight established first runs. The first runs change, as a rule, every week, but owing to the shortage of product have to run any sort of a passable film for two, three or four weeks or even longer, and the subsequent city runs for six or seven days, whereas the smaller towns change as often as every two days.

During the last twelve months approximately 350-400 feature films—good, bad, indifferent and re-issues were imported which can readily be seen is not sufficient to go round for first run Dublin, hence the extended running time, and based on the old laws of supply and demand the renters are just reaping a harvest. Any possible film is offered to the exhibitor at 40 to 50 per cent very often on a solo basis with a host of "also rans" tacked on to the same deal, and sold as part and parcel of the one block, but this is not the worst because in addition to paying top price the exhibitor is called upon to give extended playing time.

I believe when I write that this extended playing time is a drastic 'bone of contention' which we exhibitors face, I do so from an entirely unbiased point of view because a film which we pay 50 per cent for and which does well for our usual running time often flops on the extended time for the simple reason that the picture-going population is too small to support the extra time, and the opposition who changes his program just sits back and gets the cream. Of course, his turn will probably come the following week when his picture is retained and all he is left with is the cheese. This sales policy is then reflected all around the territory, and the renters use the argument with the smaller man based on the running time of the first run.

The exhibitor in Eire is faced with a number of other points which are definitely only peculiar to this country. For instance, in addition to the excessive percentage we are called upon to pay, every scrap of film except news reels and "March of Time" is subject to a Government importation duty which is calculated in this way. Every film which is of American origin is dutiable to the amount of 3d. per foot, and every film of British origin 2d. per foot, which duty is imposed on the renter.

Additional 10%

This duty is then passed on by renter to the exhibitor and a clause is imprinted on every contract which reads "In Addition to the rental specified above the exhibitor agrees to pay to the renter as additional rental a sum of 10 per cent (six and two-thirds per cent in the case of British pictures) of the renter's said share of the net receipts above mentioned or guaranteed share of the net receipts whichever may be the greater."

Now, to take the four pictures mentioned above, each picture would probably be offered to us at a selling price of between 40 and 50 per cent which can easily be seen is an absolute impossibility to double-feature, as a figure of this nature is uneconomical. In addition most contracts carry a clause which reads "It is a condition of this contract that this film shall receive major billing and advertising," and also a further clause "The exhibitor shall not exhibit a program of more than 3¼ hours in length unless he has the renter's permission in writing to do so."

I read with interest, from time to time, your section on "What the Picture Did for Me" and I am quite envious of some of the programs screened and the playing time of these programs in America, double features that it would be impossible to pair as the selling stands in Eire today.

It is a well known fact that the entertainment tax—which on the receipts in my hall take between 25 and 27½ per cent of the gross and which are about 7 per cent higher than in England and considerably higher than in America—is a charge that in the opinion of every exhibitor in Eire has now reached the maximum capacity of the exhibitor's power to pay.

—MAURICE BAUM, Managing Director, Roxy Cinemas, Ltd.; General Manager, Dublin Cinemas, Ltd., Dublin, Eire.

Something blue* has been added!

This Award is given each month to the film receiving the highest number of votes by the members of the National Screen Council, whose selection is governed by outstanding merit and suitability of the film to whole-family entertainment. Members of the Council include motion picture editors of leading newspapers throughout the country, motion picture reviewing committee of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae, and state motion picture chairmen of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY

FIRST IN THE LONG RUN

NEW HONOR FOR THE FILM THAT HAS WON SO MANY!

8 WEEKS AT N.Y. RIVOLI!

6th WEEK IN PHILADELPHIA!

6th WEEK IN PITTSBURGH!

4 WEEKS IN WASHINGTON!

4th WEEK IN CHICAGO!

5 WEEKS IN BALTIMORE!

3 WEEKS IN DETROIT!

3 WEEKS IN CINCINNATI!

3 WEEKS IN BUFFALO!

3 WEEKS IN CLEVELAND!

3 WEEKS IN COLUMBUS!

3 WEEKS IN PROVIDENCE!

3 WEEKS IN ROCHESTER!

3 WEEKS IN LOS ANGELES!

3 WEEKS IN SAN FRANCISCO!

3 WEEKS IN ST. LOUIS!

4 WEEKS IN SEATTLE!

3 WEEKS IN DALLAS!

4 WEEKS IN DENVER!

3 WEEKS IN NEWARK!

3 WEEKS IN LONG BEACH!

4 WEEKS IN OAKLAND!

4 WEEKS IN PORTLAND!

Y
EY

HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY

with

WALTER PIDGEON • MAUREEN O'HARA

DONALD CRISP • ANNA LEE

RODDY McDOWALL

JOHN LODER • SARA ALLGOOD

BARRY FITZGERALD • PATRIC KNOWLES

Produced by DARRYL F. ZANUCK • Directed by JOHN FORD

Screen Play by Philip Dunno

HOLLYWOOD ORGANIZES FOR WAR, DEFENSE AND RELIEF

Nearly Every Studio Officer or Worker is a Chairman or Co-chairman

Before any of the belittling of this war effort was sounded from the floor of Congress for the public prints by unfriendly law makers, Hollywood completed, for industry guidance and organization purposes, a report disclosing that the production branch alone was participating in the war effort through no less than nine different channels and also had engaged in 14 campaigns, drives and whatnot for charity and relief for war-and-defense and other causes.

Its production of pictures, voluntarily and under direct government order, for purposes of defense, offense and public and servicemen's morale is still another story. But hardly a worker, an artist or executive of Hollywood is not actively connected with one or more branches of production's "all-out" effort for war through the National Coordinating Committee, the Hollywood Branch of the War Activities Committee, Hollywood Victory Committee of Stage, Screen and Radio, the Academy's Research Council, the Motion Picture Society for the Americas, the Hollywood Liaison Office of the Navy Department, the Office of the U. S. Coordinator of Films, Studio Publicity Directors Committee, Hollywood Writers Mobilization Committee, et al.

The report was conceived by Fred W. Beetson, of the Association of Motion Picture Producers, under date of January 1st. So far as is known, this is the first publication. Its actual compilation was conducted by the Studio Publicity Directors Committee, and was issued as a "Handbook of Motion Picture Industry Official Committees and Organizations." War and defense and charity and relief committees listed in the document, and their functions, are as follows:

I National Coordinating Committee, War Activities Committee, Motion Picture Industry.

This was formed and has operated as a means of coordinating efforts of industry as a whole toward the National Defense Program. Its main office is in New York, with George J. Schaefer, president.

Hollywood members are Y. Frank Freeman, Edward Arnold, Abe Lastfogel, Robert H. Poole.

II Hollywood Branch, War Activities Committee—Motion Picture Industry.

Formed as adjunct to and subcommittee of the national committee. Headed by George J. Schaefer. It is the official production body to which all requests, relating to national defense, from governmental and private agencies should go. It is also the coordinating body for cooperating with the Army, the Navy, the Treasury department and other governmental agencies insofar as Hollywood production problems are concerned.

Y. Frank Freeman, chairman; Lieut. Col. Darryl F. Zanuck, vice chairman, Jock Lawrence, secretary.

SAILORS LIKE ABBOTT, COSTELLO, SHERIDAN

Sailors at the Philadelphia Navy Yard this week voted Abbott and Costello as their male screen star favorites and Ann Sheridan as their female screen rage. The poll was conducted by Elsie Finn, movie editor of the Philadelphia Record.

Membership and fields or companies represented:

Art directors, Richard Day, 20th Century-Fox.

Association of Motion Picture Producers, Fred W. Beetson.

Camera, John Arnold, M-G-M.

Counsel, Mendel Silberberg.

Artists Managers Guild, Bert Allenberg, Charles K. Feldman, Abe Lastfogel, Adrian McCalm, Frank W. Vincent.

Screen Actors Guild, Edward Arnold, Kenneth Thomson.

Screen Directors Guild, Frank Capra, George Stevens.

Screen Writers Guild, Sheridan Gibney, Robert Riskin.

Industrial Relations, Charles Boren, Paramount; Fred Meyer, 20th Century-Fox.

Laboratory, John Nickolaus, M-G-M.

Producers, Sam Briskin, Columbia; William Koenig, 20th Century-Fox; Sol Lesser, RKO; E. J. Mannix, M-G-M; Hal Wallis, Warners; Walter Wanger, Universal.

Radio, Danny Danker, J. Walter Thompson Co.; William Forbes, Donald W. Thornburgh, CBS; Don Gilman, NBC.

Short Subjects, Jack Chertok, M-G-M; Gordon Hollingshead, Warners.

Sound, Col. Nathan Levinson, Warners; E. H. Hansen, 20th Century-Fox.

Theatre Authority, Inc., I. B. Kornblum, Actors Equity Assn.

Trade Press, Arthur Ungar, William R. Wilkerson.

III Hollywood Victory Committee for Stage, Screen and Radio.

Coordinates requests for free talent and offers protection to actors, studios and radio networks in Hollywood insofar as authentication of requests is concerned and insofar as accurate check of the officialness of the sources of requests for free talent. This body is charged with the approval or rejection of all requests for free talent in Hollywood.

Executive Committee: Fred W. Beetson, Association of Motion Picture Producers, chairman; Kenneth Thomson, Screen Actors Guild, vice chairman; Bert Allenberg, Artists Managers Guild, treasurer; Jock Lawrence, Association of Motion Picture Producers, secretary; Howard Strickling, Studio Publicity Directors Committee of the AMPP, assistant secretary; Charles K. Feldman, Artists Managers Guild, chairman of the Hollywood Talent Committee (a subcommittee of the Victory committee); Clark Gable, Screen Actors Guild, chairman, James Cagney, vice chairman, of the Actors Committee (another subcommittee); I. B. Kornblum, Actors Equity.

Members and their groups:

Actors Equity Assn., I. B. Kornblum (also Theatre Authority, Inc.)

American Federation of Radio Artists, True Broadman.

Artists Managers Guild, Bert Allenberg, Charles K. Feldman.

Association of Motion Picture Producers, Y. Frank Freeman, Jock Lawrence, E. J. Mannix, Howard Strickling.

Radio networks: NBC, Don Gilman; CBS, William Forbes; MBS, Lewis Allen Weiss.

Radio Writers Guild, John Boylan.

Screen Actors Guild, Edward Arnold, Kenneth Thomson.

Screen Directors Guild, Mark Sandrich.

Screen Publicists Guild, Jack Cooper.

Screen Writers Guild, Allan Scott, Dan James. Actors Subcommittee: Clark Gable, chairman; Jack Benny, Charles Boyer, James Cagney, Claudette Colbert, Gary Cooper, Bette Davis, Irene Dunne, John Garfield, Cary Grant, Bob Hope, Myrna Loy, Tyrone Power, Ginger Rogers, Rosalind Russell.

IV Research Council, Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences.

Has assumed, at the request of the Hollywood Branch, War Activities Committee, and of the War Department and the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army, the responsibility for the production of a number of Army Training films, produced at all the studios on a non-profit basis and in collaboration with the Signal Corps.

Lieut. Col. Darryl F. Zanuck, chairman; Col. Nathan Levinson, vice chairman; Capt. Gordon Mitchell, manager.

Directors: John Aalberg, RKO; Bernard B. Brown, Universal; Farciot Edouart, Paramount; E. H. Hansen, 20th Century-Fox; John Livadary, Columbia; C. L. Lootens, Republic; Thomas Moulton, Goldwyn; Elmer Raguse, Roach; Douglas Shearer, M-G-M.

V The Motion Picture Society for the Americas.

Formed in conjunction with the U. S. Coordinator of Inter American Relations and the director of the Motion Picture Division of the coordinator's office as a clearing house for information, facts and data on motion picture problems in the Western Hemisphere.

John Hay Whitney, director; Francis Alstock, assistant. Y. Frank Freeman, chairman; Walter Wanger, executive secretary.

Board of directors: Bert Allenberg, Edward Arnold, Fred W. Beetson, Sam Briskin, Frank Capra, Sheridan Gibney, Samuel Goldwyn, L. B. Mayer, George J. Schaefer, David O. Selznick, H. M. Warner, Cliff Work, Darryl F. Zanuck.

VI Hollywood Liaison Office, Navy Department.

Los Angeles office which is direct contact between industry and Navy and which in turn relays all requests for cooperation, script approvals and the like to the proper Washington authorities.

Motion Picture Liaison Officer, Lieut. Commander A. J. Bolton, USN, executive assistant, Lieut. Commander Eugene Zukor, USNR.

VII Hollywood Office, U. S. Coordinator of Films.

To be named shortly by Lowell Mellett, coordinator, as his assistant and Hollywood liaison.

VIII Studio Publicity Directors Committee of the AMPP.

Composed of publicity directors of studios which are AMPP members, this group was formed to function on behalf of the entire industry.

(Continued on opposite page)

The Stars report for Duty

THE Hollywood Victory Committee met liaison officers of the Army and Navy last week and heard praise of their efforts so far and plans for future entertainment, morale and public relations projects. At left are Charles Feldman, chairman of the Talent Subcommittee; Lieut. Commander A. J. Bolton, Navy liaison officer; James Cagney, and Col. E. A. Evans, Army liaison officer. Below left are Laurence Beilenson, attorney for the Motion Picture Division of USO - Camp Shows, Inc.; Y. Frank Freeman, president of the AMPP, and Charles Boyer. Below right are Fred W. Beetson, first chairman of the Committee; Lieut. Commander Walter Winchell, E. J. Mannix, Gary Cooper, Claudette Colbert and Kenneth Thomson, new chairman of the Committee.

The Hollywood Organization for Defense

(Continued from opposite page)

dustry in matters affecting the common good, and act as intermediary with the guilds and other branches of the industry on public relations problem affecting Hollywood. It is also the clearing house for all publicity work in connection with charity drives, patriotic endeavors and other matters concerning the industry in Hollywood.

Howard Strickling, MGM, chairman; Arch Reeve, secretary. Members: Harry Brand, 20th Century-Fox; George Brown, Paramount; Walter Compton, Republic; Alex Evelove, Warners; William Hebert, Samuel Goldwyn; John Joseph, Universal; Perry Lieber, RKO; Lou Smith, Columbia, Jock Lawrence, AMPP.

IX. Hollywood Writers Mobilization for Defense

Organization composed of representatives of various groups whose members have volunteered to assist all approved war and civilian defense efforts through their pens. It is guided by a Coordinating Council and a Steering Committee.

Coordinating Council members and their groups:

Robert Rossen, Screen Writers Guild, chairman; Jack Jungmeyer, Jr., Screen Writers Guild; Jerry Breitigam, Lesley Mason, Screen Publicists Guild; Al Levitt, Bill Bernal, Screen Readers Guild; W. W. Ferguson, Los Angeles Chapter, American Newspaper Guild (CIO); Paul Franklin, Roderick Mays, Radio Writers Guild; William Pomerance, Screen Cartoonists Guild.

Steering Committee members are Rossen, chairman; Franklin, Levitt, Mason and Jungmeyer.

X. The Permanent Charities Committee

Officially established body of the industry in Hollywood on all matters of charities, War Relief drives and money raising campaigns for charity organizations. All requests for cooperation must be referred to this committee for consideration and action. Its activities are governed by its executive committee which is composed of representatives of guilds, unions and other industry organizations, including exhibitors.

Executive committee: Edward Arnold, Screen Actors Guild, chairman; Bert Allenberg, Artists Managers Guild; Ralph Block, Screen Writers Guild; Samuel Goldwyn, Association of Motion Picture Producers; William Wellman, Screen Directors Guild.

Membership: Bert Allenberg, Edward Arnold, Fred W. Beetson, Charles Buckley, Frank Capra, Harry Cohn, Reeves Espy, Matthew Fox, Y. Frank Freeman, Sheridan Gibney, A. J. Gock, William Goetz, E. H. Goldstein, Will H. Hays, Frank Hodsoll, Alexander Korda, I. B. Kornblum, Abe Lastfogel, Jock Lawrence, Sol Lesser, E. J. Mannix, Lesley Mason, L. B. Mayer, J. R. McDonough, J. P. McGowan, Robert H. Poole, Joe Rosenberg, Joseph M. Schenck, David O. Selznick, M. J. Siegel, Charles P. Skouras, Jules Stein, Kenneth Thomson, J. K. Wallace, Walter Wanger, Harry M. Warner, Cliff Work, Alfred Wright, Lieut. Col. Darryl F. Zanuck.

XI. American Red Cross War Emergency Campaign Committee

In charge of Hollywood's part in the American Red Cross War Emergency Campaign.

Harry M. Warner, chairman.

Members and their "Territories" and organizations: Sam Katz, W. K. Craig, Harry Rapf, Carey Wilson, M-G-M; Bob Hope, Jacob H. Karp, Y. Frank Freeman, Henry Ginsberg, Paramount; E. H. Goldstein, Republic; Dan Winkler, Sol Lesser, RKO; A. H. McCausland, Universal; Jack L. Warner, Eddie Selzer, Warners; David O. Selznick, Selznick Productions, Inc.; Harold Hurley, Alexander Korda, George Babnall, United Artists and independent producers; Ted Thornton, Roach studios; Tom Walker, Edward Small productions; H. A. McDonell, Columbia; Marvin Ezzell, Goldwyn studios; Frank A. Davison, Technicolor; Gunther Lessing, Disney studio; Harry Maizlich, radio; Edward Arnold, Screen Actors Guild; William Wellman, J. P. McGowan, Screen Directors Guild; Ernest Pascal, Ralph Block, Screen Writers Guild; Arch Reeve, publicity; Fred W. Beetson and E. O. Blackburn, allied industries; Joseph Schnitzer, costume companies; Edwin Loeb, industry lawyers; C. J. Haggerty, Francis Carothers, unions; Stanley Bergerman, Bert Allenberg, Frank Vincent, agents, and William Koenig, 20th Century-Fox.

XII. Motion Picture Committee for the Celebration of the President's Birthday

Mobilization of Hollywood's studios, organizations and personnel for the drive to obtain funds for the fight against infantile paralysis.

Spencer Tracy, chairman; Al Speede vice chairman; Pat Somerset, vice chairman; Arch Reeve, Coordinator.

Members and their "territories": Ida Koverman, Frank Whitbeck, Fay Holden, Ann Rutherford, Fred Gabourie, Billy Grady, Ralph Wheelwright, M-G-M; Martin Martin, Joel McCrea, George Brown, Paramount; Bonita Granville, Marian Martin, Connie Krebs, RKO; James Cagney, Irene Manning, Carroll Sax, Mike McGreal, Warners; Sam Abarbanel, Binnie Barnes, George "Gabby" Hayes, Republic; Ann Gwynne, Helen Parrish, Hannah Dennis, Eugene Murphy, Universal; Jinx Falkenburg, Janet Blair, Ann Miller, Arthur Zellner, Columbia; Carole Landis, Jane Darwell, Jack Mulcahy, 20th Century-Fox; John LeRoy Johnston, United Artists and independent producers; Jules Seltzer, Roach studios; Gary Cooper, Jack Reynolds, Goldwyn studios; John Boles, Louis S. Lifton, Monogram; Jerry Dale, Korda studios; Al Vaughan, Small Productions; Janet Martin, Disney productions; Kenneth Thomson, Screen Actors Guild; Jane Murn, Screen Writers Guild; Artists Managers Guild, Sam Jaffe; Alan Marshall, Ray Clune.

(Continued on following page)

Studio Talent Sets Committees for Defense

(Continued from preceding page)

David Selznick Productions; J. P. McGowan, George Stevens, Richard Wallace, Ernst Lubitsch, Sam Wood, Mervyn LeRoy, Harold S. Bucquet, George Marshall, Ralph Murphy, Tay Garnett, Les Goodwins, Joseph P. Kane, Bernard Vorhaus, Henry Hathaway, Irving Pichel, William A. Seiter, Arthur Lubin, Lloyd Bacon, Reeves B. Eason, Kurt Neumann, Edwin L. Marin, Jean Yarbrough, S. Roy Luby.

XIII. British Consulate War Services Advisory Board

Official Body in charge of all British war relief activities. All requests and contacts regarding British War relief activities are referred to this office for clearance and check.

E. A. Cleaugh, M.V.O., honorary chairman; Lieut. Col. Frank Hodson, D.S.L., chairman; Martin Maas, honorary secretary.

Board members: Brian Aherne, Ronald Colman, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Miles Mander, Herbert Marshall, Basil Rathbone, R. C. Sheriff.

XIV. Motion Picture and Radio Division, Red Cross Blood Donor Service

Formed to aid Los Angeles fill its quota of 100,000 pints of blood for Red Cross "blood banks."

C. B. DeMille, chairman.

XV. China War Relief

Gathers funds for medical supplies, civilian relief, etc., for Chinese in war zones.

David O. Selznick, chairman.

XVI. The Motion Picture Relief Fund

In charge of aid to unfortunates within the industry itself. Virtually all film workers contribute one half of one percent of their earnings yearly to care for the industry's ill, indigent and helpless who are qualified for this aid.

Jean Hersholt, president; Ralph Block, first vice president; Ralph Morgan, second vice president; Walter F. Wanger, third vice president; Lucile Gleason, fourth vice president; George Bagnall, treasurer; Wilma Bashor, executive secretary, Ewell D. Moore, counsel; Mary Pickford, president emeritus.

Executive committee: Ralph Morgan, chairman; Fred W. Beetsen, Francis Edward Farago, Bertha Mann Griffith, John Larkin, Mitchell Lewis, Edwell D. Moore, George Murphy, Mary Nash, Irving Pichel, Irving Reis, George Stevens.

XVII. Theatre Authority, Inc.

Represents actors in all matters having to do with public appearances for charity. It is necessary to obtain the permission and approval of the group, which makes a complete check on all requests of this nature.

Lucile Gleason, Screen Actors Guild, chairman; I. B. Kornblum, Actors Equity Assn., executive secretary.

Members: Ken Carpenter, Cliff Nazarro, American Federation of Radio Artists; Ernest Charles, Helene Heller, American Guild of Variety Artists; Jean Hersholt, Motion Picture Relief Fund; Ralph Morgan, Screen Actors Guild; Joseph M. Schenck, Jack L. Warner, Association of Motion Picture Producers; Kenneth Thomson, Screen Actors Guild.

New "Fantasia" Campaign

Ted Wynn, former concert star, and Rodney Ames, publicity agent, have joined Terry Turner's field staff to do special work on Walt Disney's "Fantasia," which will soon be released at popular prices.

MUSEUM SHOWS DEFENSE FILMS

Five recent American documentary shorts have been added to the Museum of Modern Art's film library. One is a regular commercial short subject, "Eyes of the Navy", produced by MGM, two were produced for military instruction, and two are civilian morale films from the Office of Emergency Management.

"Safeguarding Military Information", produced for the War Department by the Research Council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, and "Fire—Prevention and Control", a special March of Time production for the aviation service schools of the U. S. Navy, were shown publicly for the first time at the Museum last week. "Bomber", OEM picture narrated by Carl Sandburg, and "Tanks", also an OEM picture, narrated by Orson Welles, are on the Museum program. The last two are being distributed to theatres by the War Activities Committee of the Motion Picture Industry, as is "Safeguarding Military Information".

National Decency Legion Classifies Eleven Films

Of the eleven motion pictures classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week, eight were approved for general patronage, two were listed as unobjectionable for adults and one was named objectionable in part.

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "Born to Sing," "Castle in the Desert," "Code of the Outlaw," "Invader," "Law of the Jungle," "On the Sunny Side," "Sons of the Sea" and "Wild Bill Hickok Rides." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "Gambling Daughters" and "A Tragedy at Midnight." Class B, Objectionable in Part: "Laburnum Grove."

Cooperation With Legion Proposed

The suggestion that Protestants "may well cooperate with our Roman Catholic friends of the Legion of Decency" is part of a statement released this week by the Council of Churches of Buffalo and Erie County.

"The motion picture industry is of great influence" continues the report. "In these days it offers a legitimate escape from the tensions of life. Because of this contribution to morale, it deserves to be kept on a high moral plane."

Kodak Declares Dividend

At a meeting of the board of directors of Eastman Kodak Company in Rochester last Wednesday, it was voted to declare a $1.50 quarterly dividend on the company's common stock. At the same meeting, Adolph Stuber was elected a vice-president of Eastman and Thomas J. McCarrick, assistant comptroller. Dividend on the common stock is payable April 1st to stockholders of record March 5th. The regular 1½ per cent quarterly dividend on the preferred stock, amounting to $1.50 per share, also was voted by the board, with the same dates applying.

$262,000 from Texas Variety

The Variety Club of Texas donated $262,000 during 1941, R. E. Griffith, chief barker, reported from Dallas this week.

In 1935, when the tent was organized, it contributed $3,728. The membership that year was 48; now, it is 480.

Committee chairmen named by Mr. Griffith include: defense stamps, John Adams; stamp honor roll, Herman Beiersdorf; Heart of Variety, William O'Donnell and Don Douglas; boys' camp, Claude Ezell; hope cottage, James O. Cherry; Freeman Clinic, W. G. Underwood; finance, W. G. Underwood; house, Charles Rader; purchasing, Clyde Hoover; new members, Jack Underwood; sick committee, Wallace Walthall; associate barkers, Jacob Lutzer; membership, Hiram Parks and F. W. Allen; golf, Burt King and Duke Evans.

Extend "Hey, Rube" Drive

The "Hey Rube" membership drive has been extended, and the campaign to make each of the Variety Clubs of America Tents 100 per cent representative of show business in their respective territories will continue until February 28th, it was announced this week from National Headquarters in Pittsburgh.

The St. Louis tent has begun a three point program to stimulate interest. Meetings will be twice a month instead of monthly. They will start promptly at noon, adjourn at 1:30 P. M. There will be guest speakers at alternate meetings. On the membership committee are James Arthur, chairman; Lou and Joe Ansell, J. Leslie Kaufman, Harry Crawford, Rex Williams, and Joe Smith.

The testimonial dinner planned by the Philadelphia Showmen's Club in honor of Al Blosson, ex-Star of the club, for next Monday, was postponed until April 13. The affair will be held at the club's quarters.

The Michigan Variety Club sponsored the banquet Thursday in the Book-Cadillac Hotel, Detroit, for the 12 industry pioneers, Paul Schlossman, Robert Peltier, Ray Branch, Oliver Brooks, Edward Kirchner, Fred De Lodder, Edward Beatty, James Ritter, Harlan Starr, Glenn Cross, Thomas Ealand and Jacob Stocker.

National Variety on Wednesday cancelled plans for the organization's eighth annual convention which was to have been held in Los Angeles May 15th to 17th. Defense work was the reason.

James J. Walker was to be toastmaster; Senator Claude Pepper, a guest speaker.

Eddy Heads Iowa Club

W. H. Eddy, theatre, Indianola, Iowa, is head of the Motion Picture Club of Iowa, organization of which was completed at a luncheon last week at Hotel Savery, Des Moines, attended by approximately 75 film exchange people, exhibitors and others.

Joe Ancher, Warner booker, is secretary-treasurer; and W. P. Grossman, exhibitor of Nevada, Iowa, Milton Goodman, Columbia salesman, Myron Blank, Tri-States circuit, Emil Franke, manager of the RKO Orpheum, J. T. Manfre, Paramount manager, and H. E. McKinney, head of the Iowa Film Delivery, were named as executive council for six months.

A committee that prepared procedure and by-laws consisted of A. M. Hill, RKO office manager, chairman; Harry Warren, general manager Central States theatre circuit; E. J. Tilton, Warner manager; Milton Goodman, Columbia salesman; Art Stolte, Tri-States district manager; William Currie, Paramount office manager and W. H. Eddy, theatre operator of Indianola, Iowa.

Legal Notice of Trade Showings of WARNER BROS. PICTURES

CITY	PLACE OF SHOWING	ADDRESS	"BULLET SCARS"		"THE MALE ANIMAL"		"THIS WAS PARIS"		"ALWAYS IN MY HEART"		"LARCENY, INC."
			Day and Date	Time	Day and Date	Time	Day and Date	Time	Day and Date	Time	Day and Date	Time
Albany	Warner Scr. Rm.	79 No. Pearl St.	Mon. 3/2	12:00 noon	Mon. 3/2	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	12:00 noon	Tues. 3/3	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:00 P. M.
Atlanta	20th Cent.-Fox Scr. Rm.	197 Walton St. N.W.	Mon. 3/2	10:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	2:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	11:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:00 P. M.
Boston	RKO Scr. Rm.	122 Arlington St.	Mon. 3/2	2:00 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	3:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:45 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:00 P. M.
Buffalo	Paramount Scr. Rm.	464 Franklin St.	Mon. 3/2	10:30 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	2:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	11:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:30 P. M.
Charlotte	20th Cent.-Fox Scr. Rm.	308 S. Church St.	Mon. 3/2	10:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	2:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	9:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	11:15 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:00 P. M.
Chicago	Warner Scr. Rm.	1307 S. Wabash	Mon. 3/2	11:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	2:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	11:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:30 P. M.
Cincinnati	RKO Scr. Rm.	Palace Th. Bldg. E. 6 St.	Mon. 3/2	7:00 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	8:15 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	4:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	7:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	8:15 P. M.
Cleveland	Warner Scr. Rm.	2300 Payne Ave.	Mon. 3/2	1:30 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	3:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	11:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:00 P. M.
Dallas	20th Cent.-Fox Scr. Rm.	1803 Wood St.	Mon. 3/2	10:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	2:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	9:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	11:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:00 P. M.
Denver	Paramount Scr. Rm.	21st & Stout Sts.	Mon. 3/2	8:00 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	9:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	7:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	9:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:30 P. M.
Des Moines	20th Cent.-Fox Scr. Rm.	1300 High St.	Mon. 3/2	12:45 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	2:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	2:15 P. M.
Detroit	Warner Scr. Rm.	2310 Cass Ave.	Mon. 3/2	9:30 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	11:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	9:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	11:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:00 P. M.
Indianapolis	Hamilton Theatre	2116 E. 10th St.	Mon. 3/2	1:00 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	2:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	12:00 noon	Tues. 3/3	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:00 P. M.
Kansas City	20th Cent.-Fox Scr. Rm.	1701 Wyandotte	Mon. 3/2	1:00 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	3:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:00 P. M.
Los Angeles	Warner Exch. Scr. Rm.	2025 S. Vermont Ave.	Mon. 3/2	10:30 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	2:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	2:30 P. M.
Memphis	Paramount Ex. Scr. Rm.	362 S. Second	Mon. 3/2	10:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	3:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:45 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:30 P. M.
Milwaukee	Warner Th. Scr. Rm.	212 W. Wisconsin Ave.	Mon. 3/2	9:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	10:30 A.M.	*Mon. 3/2	1:30 P. M.	*Mon. 3/2	3:00 P. M.	*Mon. 3/2	4:30 P. M.
Minneapolis	Warner Scr. Rm.	1104 Currie Ave.	Mon. 3/2	10:30 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	2:30 P. M.
New Haven	Warner Thea. Proj. Rm.	70 College St.	Mon. 3/2	9:30 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	11:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	9:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	11:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:00 P. M.
New Orleans	20th Cent.-Fox Proj. Rm.	200 S. Liberty St.	Mon. 3/2	10:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	2:45 P. M.
New York	Home Office	321 W. 44th St.	Mon. 3/2	10:30 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	2:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	12:00 noon	Tues. 3/3	2:30 P. M.
Oklahoma	20th Cent.-Fox Scr. Rm.	10 N. Lee Ave.	Mon. 3/2	10:30 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	2:30 P. M.
Omaha	20th Cent.-Fox Scr. Rm.	1503 Davenport St.	Mon. 3/2	1:00 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	2:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	11:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:30 P. M.
Philadelphia	Vine St. Scr. Rm.	1220 Vine St.	Mon. 3/2	10:30 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	2:15 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	11:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:15 P. M.
Pittsburgh	20th Cent.-Fox Scr. Rm.	1715 Blvd. of Allies	Mon. 3/2	1:30 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	3:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:00 P. M.
Portland	Star Preview Rm.	925 N.W. 19th Ave.	Mon. 3/2	10:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	11:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	10:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	2:30 P. M.
Salt Lake	20th Cent.-Fox Scr. Rm.	216 E. 1st South St.	Mon. 3/2	1:00 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	2:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:00 P. M.
San Francisco	Republic Scr. Rm.	221 Golden Gate Ave.	Mon. 3/2	1:30 P. M.	Mon. 3/2	3:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	10:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:00 P. M.
Seattle	Jewel Box Scr. Rm.	2318 Second Ave.	Mon. 3/2	9:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	2:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	9:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:30 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	3:00 P. M.
St. Louis	S'renco Scr. Rm.	3143 Olive St.	Mon. 3/2	10:00 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	11:30 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	10:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	1:00 P. M.	Tues. 3/3	2:30 P. M.
Washington	Earle Thea. Bldg.	13th & E. Sts. N.W.	Mon. 3/2	9:45 A.M.	Mon. 3/2	11:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	9:45 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	11:00 A.M.	Tues. 3/3	2:30 P. M.

PUBLIC WILL FORCE TRUTH IN PROPAGANDA:—GRIERSON

Canadian Commissioner Sees Entertainment Vital Factor in Production

The public will demand the truth in documentary or propaganda pictures about the war, whether they are government produced or made by the established industry, according to John Grierson, Canadian Film Commissioner and a veteran of two years production of official wartime films.

In New York last weekend Mr. Grierson reviewed his experiences in Canada and outlined his conception of some of the wartime problems which the motion picture industry and government screen agencies in the United States face.

"Truth Essential"

Truthful and accurate information about the war, both on the fighting front and at home, is essential, he said. Public demand for information is practically insatiable, he said, recalling the Canadian film program of more than 100 government subjects for the current year. The public is anxious for both screen reports on the facts of the war effort and for films discussing and interpreting the all-over aims of the victory program.

Moreover the public is able to view and digest all the harsh, and unpleasant realities of war as presented on the screen. Sugaring of information and propaganda films will not help the victory program, he indicated.

"The truth is still its own best propaganda," Mr. Grierson said. He added, very carefully, however, that the opinions expressed in the interview were his own.

"After all, I am a foreigner, and wouldn't dare presume to tell you what to," he said.

Entertainment values, however, should not be subordinated, he warned. The dictum that the public must not be bored applies to official screen messages just as rigidly as it does to entertainment feature pictures, he declared.

Messages which the government seeks to convey via the screen must use the media to its fullest possibility. In Canada the government has done this by utilizing the existing motion picture industry to convey its special war messages. Showmanship is used to the full, Mr. Grierson said.

"Mr. Grierson's comments recalled his message to the annual meeting of the National Board of Review meeting at New York on November 17th. At that time, three weeks before Pearl Harbor, and while Congress was still debating amendment of the Neutrality Act, Mr. Grierson outlined the development of the Canadian war film program. He described at that time the Canadian policy of building its screen messages around entertainment values.

The monthly war series, "Canada Carries On" produced by the National Film Board are, in fact, sold to approximately 90 per cent of the country's theatres, he reported this week.

SEES INTERNATIONAL PROPAGANDA

A vast store of wartime motion picture experience is available for use by the proper United States government authorities, John Grierson, Canadian film commissioner noted. He cited the experiences of the British Ministry of Information, Russia, Canada and other Dominions in forming Government propaganda film services. Many of their methods were learned by trial and error he recalled. This fund of knowledge should be fully exchanged by all the United Nations to coordinate their film work, the Canadian commissioner indicated.

Much American product could be used very profitably abroad, he said. There are also thousands of feet of film on civilian defense, industrial and military training, made in Britain or Russia or Canada which are available for use here.

"The screen must not be afraid to present the harshest reports on the war," Mr. Grierson said. The public wants news, without sugaring, he declared, and warned against cushioning the impact of actual facts.

"The United States can see war in all its toughness and intensity. There is a demand for realism which has not yet been met in official pictures," he said.

The "B" picture, Mr. Grierson said, has long been a fortunate example of the American "ability to take it." The popularity of westerns, gangster films and the knock-down drag-out type of picture is evidence that the public can face the harsh reality of war, he asserted.

On the screen, as in battle, the war is a "challenge to tough American courage and the ability to do things," he implied. The screen can well carry its war messages with this in mind.

In citing the experience of the Canadian film program Mr. Grierson laid emphasis on the importance of confining each picture to a direct message. "One or two messages a program are all that can be effectively presented," he said.

The Canadian film program currently calls for approximately 100 pictures a year. Eighteen of these, Mr. Grierson said, are regular short subjects for commercial distribution. Twelve trailers are also distributed to theatres. Additionally the program includes 52 special tags, newsreels, and local information pictures.

One of the most successful divisions of the Canadian film program, Mr. Grierson said, has been a series of localized newsreels from the army camps featuring boys from particular areas in their military training and other war duties. This personalized, local touch has been particularly successful, Mr. Grierson said.

It is used to answer questions by the mothers of soldiers who, he said, are most concerned with details of how their sons live, what they eat, wear, and do during spare time. All of these subjects provide interesting screen material.

Following his visit to New York Mr. Grierson went to Washington where, it is understood, he conferred with Lowell Mellett, Coordinator of Government Films, and with other officials. He refused to discuss this aspect of his current visit to the United States.

Money for State Department Films

The House of Representatives this week approved an appropriation of $25,150 for the motion picture program of the division of cultural relations of the State Department. It acted on the department's money bill for the fiscal year beginning July 1st, next.

Approval of the program was given after officials of the department explained their plans before the House Appropriations Committee. They declared that in the Latin American field they were working in cooperation with Nelson Rockefeller's Office of Inter-American Affairs.

In other areas, however, the State Department is carrying out its own individual plans. An outstanding project next year will be the distribution in Great Britain of American non-theatrical films. This is now being negotiated, with possible extension of the service later to Australia and Canada.

Three Soviet Films On Broadway

Artkino Pictures, Inc., official distributor of Soviet films in the United States reported in New York on Monday, "For the first time in the 15-year history of Soviet film distribution in the United States, three Russian pictures were playing simultaneously on Broadway in first run theatres."

The films are: "Girl from Leningrad," dealing with Russian nurses at the northern front, now in its ninth week at the Stanley Theatres; "Our Russian Front," documentary film produced by Lewis Milestone and Joris Ivens, in its second week at the Rialto where it will be held over for "an indefinite run," and "Defense of Moscow," a newsreel record of the Russian's defense and counter-attack of Moscow, currently playing at two newsreel theatres, the Embassy Broadway and 46th Street and the Trans-Lux, Broadway and 72nd Street.

National Theatres Heads Meet at Los Angeles

Spyros Skouras, president, and William T. Powers, and Aubrey Schenck, home office executives, left New York headquarters of National Theatres Tuesday, for the annual meeting of division managers, film buyers and other executives, in Los Angeles Thursday.

FOLLOW THAT BEE-LINE TO A BOX-OFFICE HONEY!

THE WHOLE INDUSTRY'S BUZZING

about Paramount's new kind of full-length cartoon feature,
"MR. BUG GOES TO TOWN!"
Solid adult entertainment—packed with laughs . . . excitement . . . swingable tunes!

LAUGHS... SUSPENSE... ROMANCE... A TOP FLIGHT FEATURE -

Danceable, swingable tunes by Hoagy Carmichael and others, now featured by top bands everywhere . . . characters so real that columnists try to "spot 'em" as takeoffs on flesh-and-blood stars . . . a comedy-and-suspense-packed story with surefire ADULT boxoffice appeal! *

C. BAGLEY BEETLE . . .
Master-mind of the insect underworld . . . poses as a philanthropist while cooking up trouble!

cial p.
The "E ng beer
"

SWAT — The Fly... Many a professional mugg in Hollywood claims the honor of inspiring this fingerman of the Bugville mob!

"Children and adults alike will rejoice . . . grand entertainment for any audience . . . songs should go far!"
—Showmen's Trade Review

"Sock favorite for the juvenile trade and a delightful novelty for adults . . . songs worthy of note!"
—Film Daily

"Destined to find plenty of favor . . . adults will like it!"
—Daily Variety

"... a new world of make-believe . . . an amusing fable for young and old alike . . . songs to have the customer humming!"
—Motion Picture Daily

FLODY...THRILLS Cartoon!

HONEY and HOPPITY . . . Try your hand at "casting" this team! Are they patterned on Bob Hope and Madeleine Carroll?

SMACK — The Mosquito . . . He's the killer, the dirty-work specialist, for Beetle!

JUKES ARE JUMPING NETWORKS HUMMING with these hits!

You're hearing them on the networks and on records everywhere . . . featured by Glenn Miller and other top-flight bands:

"WE'RE THE COUPLE
IN THE CASTLE"

•
"BOY, OH BOY"

•
"KATY DID, KATY DIDN'T"

•
"BEE MY LITTLE BABY BUMBLE BEE"

•
"I'LL DANCE AT YOUR WEDDING"

GO TO TOWN WITH...

PARAMOUNT PRESENTS

"MR. BUG
GOES TO TOWN"

IN TECHNICOLOR!

IT'LL LEAD YOU TO HEAVY
BOX-OFFICE SUGAR!

Produced by Max Fleischer • Directed by Dave Fleischer

Copyright 1941 by Paramount Pictures, Inc.

PRINTED
IN U.S.A.

TROUBLE BREWS IN CHICAGO LOCAL CLEARANCE CHANGES

Distributors Say Revision of Loop Run Custom Would Disrupt Service

With the filing of an anti-trust suit by Ken Theatre in U.S. District Court, Chicago, two weeks ago, and the resumption of the Oriental Theatre arbitration board case set for March 3rd, attention is again focused on Chicago's long troublesome system of release and clearance. Several attempts to change the system have been unsuccessfully made over a long period. Distributors say any change now would cause more confusion than the present setup and jeopardize their revenue and the servicing of accounts. For obvious reasons the distributor spokesmen insisted on anonymity.

Loop Runs Cited

They point out that Balaban and Katz, by their control of most of the deluxe Loop theatres and comparative outlying houses, are entitled to first consideration in the purchase of product. By their ability to pay higher prices and set a picture for several weeks, in both Loop and neighborhood houses, it is worthwhile to hold back a release until Balaban and Katz can play it in a downtown house. The Chicago release system is based on the conclusion of the Loop run. Independent exhibitors have charged the system was set up for the sole convenience of Balaban and Katz but distributors have claimed, time after time, that it would be impractical to operate it otherwise.

As the system is worked now a picture opens at a Loop house, in most cases after its national release date. The picture may run one week or it may run ten weeks but always there is a clearance, or waiting time, between the conclusion of the first loop run and the opening of second run, or "A" pre-release week, of 21 days. In many instances a film may run three weeks at the State-Lake Theatre and then be switched to another Loop house, also controlled by Balaban & Katz, for another week or two. The playing time at this second Loop run, or hold-over, is taken out of the three weeks waiting time.

Pre-Releases Designated

Thus if a film runs for two weeks more in the Loop, after its first Loop run, the picture is available for the second city run, or "A" pre-release, after one week's waiting time. The fourth, fifth and sixth weeks, following the conclusion of the first loop run, is designated "A" pre-release weeks and includes many of the larger neighborhood theatres and the McVickers Theatre, in the Loop.

The Oriental Theatre's clearance case is based on whether these three weeks are all one run or three separate runs, in their demand for a reduction in clearance. They contend that they should be permitted to buy in these weeks, by virtue of their capacity and earning power, and inasmuch as all houses in this classification, with the

DETROIT OWNER WINS INJUNCTION

The Federal Court, Detroit, Monday issued a temporary injunction to the Carmen Theatre, against the Co-operative circuit and all major distributors except Paramount, restraining them, and specifically the Circle and Warren theatres, from interfering with the rental or showing of films by the Carmen.

The injunction also orders delivery of film to the plaintiff theatre simultaneously with the circle and Warren, and with any other Cooperative house which claims protection over the Carmen. The injunction cuts across existing contracts, and prohibits making of new contracts which give any theatre preference over the Carmen.

The latter opened last Summer.

exception of McVickers, are neighborhood houses and thereby not competition. Attorneys for the defendants in the case say that the arbitrator cannot rule that these weeks are separate runs as he has no authority to change clearance and that such a move, if upheld, would disrupt the entire system as now set up.

There are two weeks of third run, or "B" pre-release. In this class are all outlying theatres except the Oriental. One week of "C" pre-release follows and the tenth week after the loop run is the first week of general release. From then on it is second week general release, third week general release, and so on down until the smallest houses are played.

Lack of Prints

It is in the "C" and first weeks of general release that the exchanges run into the most trouble in servicing the accounts. One branch manager said at a recent arbitration trial, that it was necessary to borrow as high as 35 prints from other branches to service the accounts. Even then, he said, a line had to be drawn somewhere and an exhibitor was sure to complain that someone else was being favored, when the whole trouble was the lack of prints.

The disgruntled exhibitor asked the manager why his branch didn't buy more prints and save trouble to which the manager pointed out that a print cost anywhere from $150 to $200, for a black and white, to $350 and more for a colored print and it would be folly to buy a print to service a few $17.50 and even $12.50 accounts.

Alvin Landis, counsel for the Ken Theatre, in filing the case said he was doing so because the Consent Decree, as applied to the Chicago system of release, offered no relief for the independent exhibitor. His statement was as follows:

"The Consent Decree, as it has been applied to the Chicago system of release, has been ineffective in its desired result of granting relief to the independent exhibitor. After the large theatres in the Chicago area have exhibited feature motion pictures, the Chicago system of release provides that theatres shall contract for features in certain designated weeks, from the first to seventh week of general release.

Attorney Quotes Decree

"Where a theatre has, for example, first week of general release, it endeavors to hold back its competitors to second week. This provision usually will be found under that portion of the contract which sets up 'clearance.' Under the Chicago system, this clearance is indefinite, because each week of release begins on a Sunday, and if a theatre in first week played the picture on Sunday and Monday, the theatre in second week would have to wait five days, or until the next Sunday, to play the picture. If the theatre in first week played the picture on Saturday, then, of course, the theatre in second week could, if it desired, play the picture the next day.

"Despite the fact that the theatre in first week has, by contract, prevented the distributor from selling the theatre in second week pictures in the first week of general release, the Appeals Board has said that this situation refers to successive runs and does not set up any clearance. This compels an independent exhibitor to seek relief under Section 10 of the Consent Decree, and an examination of said section discloses that relief under it is surmounted with so many obstacles that it is almost impossible to proceed.

"This decision permits the owner of a chain of theatres to contract for pictures for one of them in some distant week of release and hold back the independent to the next successive week—so far back that the independent cannot possibly operate at a profit. According to the Appeals Board, these would be successive runs and not clearance. It is evident, therefore, that the Consent Decree, insofar as it is applicable to the Chicago system of release, offers no relief to the independent exhibitor."

Johnson Testifies Against Distributors

Art Johnson's testimony in his $1,670,500 anti-trust suit against major distributors and the Minnesota Amusement and Welworth circuits, was interrupted last week by reading of a deposition taken from E. R. Ruben, of the latter chain. Mr. Johnson ascended the stand again this week, and was cross-examined by the defense.

The trial, in Federal Court, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, was halted Monday and resumed at mid-week.

Testimony Monday was by Mr. Johnson, and Mr. J. P. Hartman, of the Granada Theatre, about conversations and letters, with film company employees.

Defense counsel includes Joseph Finley, Matt Finley, T. M. Bailey, Benjamin Deinard, and Samuel Saliterman.

INDEPENDENT WINS THE FIRST 'SPECIFIC RUN' DECISION

Distributor Claims to Exemption for Affiliates Further Set Back

An independent exhibitor won an arbitration award in a Specific Run complaint, under Section X of the consent decree, for the first time this week. And distributors' claims for the exemption of affiliated houses from arbitration were again set back.

Wilbur M. Brucker, former governor of Michigan, arbitrating the sixth Detroit complaint found that all five consenting distributors had discriminated against Erving A. Moss' Parkside theatre in favor of United Detroit and Michigan Cooperative houses. He ordered that future licenses for four theatres, the Aloma, Rivola, Harmony and Alger, be by separate contract and without regard for their circuit affiliations.

Escape from arbitration by affiliate theatres through Section XVII of the decree, which permits distributors to license affiliates upon such terms and conditions as they wish was further curbed.

"Section XVII is a shield and not a sword," Governor Brucker wrote, in rejecting Paramount's motion for dismissal as owner of the United Detroit circuit and the respondent Alger theatre.

The distributor in effect sought an exclusive run policy "for the exhibition of its own pictures in its own theatre in the competitive area which includes the Parkside," Mr. Brucker said.

Cites Section XVII

"Section XVII preserves the right of each distributor defendant to contract with its own theatres for the exhibition of its own pictures without impairment or restriction, but it does not destroy the right of independent exhibitors to obtain pictures on the same run where such independent exhibitor is otherwise qualified to do so," he ruled.

"To uphold respondent's contention would permit a distributor defendant, either singly or in combination with other distributors, to destroy one of the fundamental purposes of the Consent Decree, which is to enable independent exhibitors to obtain pictures for exhibition in their theatres on a run which they merit, based upon all of the other considerations involved. If a distributor defendant could use Section XVII to delay Parkside six months in getting its product, it would destroy the usefulness of such product to Parkside just as effectually as though it arbitrarily refused to furnish any product altogether," he said.

Section X, of the New York decree, permitting an exhibitor to complain in arbitration that a distributor has arbitrarily refused to license features on the run requested was drafted, Governor Brucker wrote, "in order to assure that legitimate considerations alone should control the process of barter and trade between distributors and exhibitors, and to prevent the use of pressure or arbitrary discrimination in influencing the result."

SECTION XVII UNDER FIRE

The use of Section XVII as an "escape clause" for theatres affiliated with the Big Five, and named in arbitration proceedings, first came under serious attack last week in a decision by Wendell H. Cloud granting clearance reduction to the Dickinson theatre, Mission, Kansas. (Motion Picture Herald, February 14, page 13.) This week its use in Specific Run cases is under fire.

Section XVII protects distributor relations with affiliate theatres. It states, in part, "Nothing contained in this decree shall be construed to limit, impair, or restrict in any way whatsoever the right of each distributor defendant to license the exhibition, or in any way to arrange or provide for the exhibition in such manner, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as may be satisfactory to it, of any or of all of the motion pictures which it may at any time distribute. . . ."

The fundamental purpose of Section X, the arbitrator said, is "to afford a remedy in cases where a theatre is unable to secure features upon the run which it merits because its competitor is a member of a circuit theatre. Section X reflects an effort to correct situations where the free flow of competition is thwarted by the influence exerted by group buying power. It is a frank recognition that the economic attractiveness of supplying features to a single theatre may become eclipsed by the far greater economic attractiveness of supplying product to a buying combine of circuit theatres."

Names Licenses

In his findings of fact the arbitrator declared that the distributors had licensed features on the run requested by complainant to the Aloma, Rivola and Harmony theatres, which are members of the Cooperative Theatres of Michigan, Inc., a booking and buying combine of not less than 15 theatres and to the Alger theatre, a component of United Detroit Theatres Corporation, a Paramount subsidiary, of not less than 15 theatres, all in competition with the Parkside.

He found that the Parkside on the score of size, potential revenue, location in a new and expanding residential area, and in management and general attractiveness compared favorably with the houses which had been granted preferred run.

The Parkside is located adjacent to the new Parkside Federal Housing Project. At the hearings the chief of the Detroit Bureau of Buildings and Permits testified that the greatest activity in the construction of new homes and apartments had been in the northeast section of the city near the Parkside.

While the four intervening theatres nominally had a clearance of seven days over the Parkside, Governor Brucker noted from the evidence that they did not play pictures in many cases until latest availability which meant that Parkside actually followed them by from 14 to 28 days. The delay he said was caused by the fact that each of the theatres played behind different key houses, and that thus exhibition was staggered and reached each theatre at a different time.

"While this was the reason, it is scant excuse when considered from the standpoint of the public interest. It is my opinion," the arbitrator wrote, "that the public interest should be a strong determining factor in considering all the incidents of the consent decree, not the least among which is the promptness with which a picture is shown in populous neighborhoods, as well as the condition of the film itself."

Sharkey Testimony Quoted

The arbitrator quoted testimony by James F. Sharkey former RKO branch manager and now manager of the Parkside to show that the run which the Parkside received had been agreed upon between the distributors and competitive circuits even before Mr. Moss had sought pictures from the distributors. The arbitrator said there was support for Mr. Sharkey's testimony. Mr. Brucker recalled that despite falling revenue, disrepair and a general downhill course in the management of the Harmony over a year and a half, it continued to receive preferential run. The theatre eventually closed.

This, the arbitrator said, was convincing evidence that the playing positions of the theatres had been frozen; that they were not being determined by the free flow of economic competition; and that their group relationship was more important than individual status to the distributors.

Prior Court Ruling

To corroborate his findings Governor Brucker cited a ruling against Cooperative Theatres by the U. S. District Court for Eastern Michigan in which it was found guilty of conducting a monopoly in restraint of trade. The opinion, dated September 10, 1941 in the suit against Cooperative by Midwest theatres is not to be construed as decisive of every other case in which it is alleged that Cooperative enjoys a superior run because of group buying power, the arbitrator warned.

"Nevertheless the effect of that opinion is to disclose that Cooperative has indulged in certain practices in other instances which are identical with those being considered in our case" he said.

"After reviewing the whole record I am frankly impressed with the absence of any good reason why Parkside should not be placed on a parity with the other four theatres," Mr. Brucker concluded.

ARBITERS GET 2 NEW CASES, HAND DOWN 3 AWARDS

Buffalo and Chicago Cases Go to Appeals Board; 32nd Case in New York

The motion picture arbitration system, after marking the start of its second year on February 1st with an almost complete lapse in new actions, this week acquired two new cases, and three awards were carried to the Appeal Board by exhibitors.

At Buffalo the Dipson Theatre Corporation on Saturday appealed Michael A. Catalano's award on the clearance demand in behalf of the Bailey theatre. Mr. Catalano dismissed MGM and Paramount from the action on the ground that they were interested in the operation of the intervening Shea circuit's Kensington theatre. He reduced the Kensington margin over the Bailey to three days on the case of Warner, RKO, and 20th Century-Fox pictures. It was the 24th appeal.

Chicago case No. 9 also was appealed, on Monday, when William A. Pearl, operator of the Alcyon theatre, Highland Park, Ill., protested dismissal of his clearance action against RKO, Paramount, and 20th Century-Fox. It is the 25th appeal. The dismissal was reported in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for January 24th.

New York

New York's tribunal received its 32nd case on Monday when the Kant Amusement Corporation, Brooklyn, N. Y., filed a clearance case in behalf of the Crown theatre, 527 Empire Boulevard. It was the first complaint from Brooklyn.

The demand names all five distributors and the Randforce circuit's Carroll and Utica theatres. The Crown asks day and date, asserting that it is not in competition with the two houses.

Indianapolis

The third Indianapolis case was filed on February 11th when S. S. Stephens, operator of the Regal theatre in Indianapolis, named all five consenting distributors in a clearance action. The Regal demand named three Negro theatres, all operated by the Walker Theatre Company. The Regal now plays 30 days behind the Walker and the Park theatres. Mr. Stephens asked that the Regal be permitted to follow the Walker by seven days, the Park by one day and that it be granted 30 days' clearance ahead of the Lido Theatre.

Buffalo

Buffalo's seventh case was settled last week in a consent award entered with Richard H. Templeton, arbitrator, by the Ryan theatre, Ithaca, N. Y., all five distributors, and three Ithaca theatres. The complaint, demanding both clearance and some run relief, was filed on December 2nd by James, John and William Ryan.

Under the terms of the award the some run portion of the action was dropped and a maximum clearance of 30 days over the Ryan's Ithaca theatre was set for the

FORESEE IMPORTANT APPEAL BOARD TESTS

Motion picture attorneys and officials of the American Arbitration Association at New York this week foresaw as "inevitable", Appeal Board tests of recent decisions by local arbitrators attacking the refuge which the consenting distributors heretofore have found in Section XVII of the consent decree. Attorneys indicated that distributors with large holdings among theatre affiliates would not permit their right to license them to be restricted without a stiff battle. Decisions in the sixth Detroit case and the second Kansas City action in the last two weeks established precedential restrictions of the distributor affiliate's right to claim exemption from arbitration proceedings involving either clearance or run.

Strand, State and Temple theatres, all in Ithaca.

Hearings on Buffalo Case No. 10, clearance demand of the Playhouse, Clyde, N. Y., against the Big Five were postponed, following the first session Friday, until March 4th. At the opening hearing Mrs. Caroline Perriello of Naples, owner of the Playhouse, was the only witness.

Washington

The Washington arbitration docket was cleared Wednesday when John E. Laskey, arbitrator of the tenth complaint awarded a cut in clearance to the Bayne theatre, Virginia Beach, Va. Ruling against Warner Brothers and the Newport theatre in Norfolk, Mr. Laskey reduced clearance over the Bayne from 21 to five days.

Albany

The clearance demand of Smalley Theatres, Inc., Cooperstown, against 20th Century-Fox, Paramount, RKO Radio Pictures, Loew's, Inc., and Warner-Vitagraph, was further postponed last week until February 25th at Albany.

The action attacks the 14-day clearance now held by the Colonial Theatre, Norwich, a Schine house, over Smalley's theatre at Sidney, N. Y. Schine Realty Corp. has filed as an intervenor through Howard Antevil, Gloversville. Judge Joseph Rosch is arbitrator. Leonard L. Rosenthal represents the Smalley corporation.

Chicago

The Oriental Theatre case, Chicago No. 6, has been postponed from February 17th, until March 3rd, by request of Perry M. Chadwick, attorney for the theatre.

The Indiana-Illinois Theatre Circuit headed by Jack Rose, this week intervened in Chicago's 14th case, the clearance demand filed by the Rio theatre, Hammond, Ind., last week. The circuit lists the Indiana and Vic theatres, Indiana Harbor, the Hoosier and Capitol theatres, in Whiting, and the Vogue and Forsythe theatres, East Chicago, as interested parties to the case.

Cleveland

J. Virgil Cory, an attorney, on Wednesday commenced hearings of Cleveland's second case, of which he is arbitrator. The Deuber Theatre, Canton, seeks some run from all five distributors.

Fifty-one attorneys and businessmen have been appointed to the San Francisco panel of arbitrators of the motion picture arbitration system. The panel includes sixteen attorneys and thirty-five educators, professional and business men.

Members of the panel are: Julian H. Alco, Christian Science practitioner; Ian Alastair Armstrong, executive American Trading Company; Dr. Don Jose F. Aubertine, surgeon; Fred B. Bain, advertising counsel; D. Bosschart, president, Eng-Skell Company; B. R. Colkett, assistant secretary-treasurer, Fibreboard Products, Inc.; John S. Curran, vice president, The Anglo California National Bank; Ralph V. Dewey, export manager, Sunset Products Company; P. M. Downing, vice president, Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Eugene S. Elkus, president, Mangrum, Holbrook & Elkus; Adrien J. Falk, vice president, S. & W. Fine Foods, Inc.; William Fisher; Professor Evan Haynes, University of California Law School; F. J. Hellman, vice president, Wells Fargo Bank & Union Trust Company; S. G. Herzog, sales manager, Foster & Kleiser; Edward M. Hulse, H. S. Crocker Co., Inc.; J. H. Jones, W. P. Fuller & Co.; Professor A. M. Kidd, University of California Law School; Thomas E. Leach, assistant treasurer, Hawaiian Pineapple Co., Ltd.; Emil Leuenberger, assistant vice president, Wells Fargo Bank & Union Trust Company; Vincent F. Mead, secretary, San Francisco Real Estate Board; A. N. Nathan, The California Ink Co.

Benjamin J. Older, retired; Claude D. Painter, advertising; G. B. Peterson, general manager, Red Salmon Canning Company; Leslie F. Rice, insurance and estate adviser; Col. Robert A. Roos, Roos brothers, Inc.; Martin S. Rosenblatt, executive, S. & F. Gump Company; T. M. Shearman, retired; Herbert S. Shuey, secretary-treasurer, Merrill Company; Louis Slos, vice president, H. S. Crocker Co., Inc.; C. H. Sondhaus, executive, National Lead Company; R. S. Turner, oil broker; Albert J. Watson, partner, Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Company; and E. E. Young, executive, Leo J. Meyberg Company.

The attorneys on the panel are: Oscar T. Barber; A. Brooks Berlin; Bradford W. Bosley; John D. Costello; Murray Draper; Robert B. Gaylord; William P. Hubbard; Wallace E. Hyde; Rowland R. King; Bauer E. Kramer; Ira S. Lillick; Donovan O. Peters; Albert A. Rosenshine; Ralph Winfield Scott; John Selby; and Roger Sherman.

RKO Joins Swing To Russian Films

RKO Theatres this week joined other majors in booking Russian films. "One Day in Soviet Russia," a full-length documentary feature with Quentin Reynolds as commentator, is playing this week in RKO's Columbia at Far Rockaway, L. I., and the Jefferson, in New York.

LATE REVIEW

For other Showmen's Reviews see Product Digest Section, page 63

To Be Or Not To Be

(UA-Lubitsch)

Comedy Lampooning Nazis

An unprepared turnout of theatregoers drawn to the village theatre in Westwood by "H. M. Pulham, Esq." came to this picture following the Fox Movietone newsreel pictures of the Pearl Harbor disaster and laughed heartily and often after the first 10 or 15 minutes. On the basis of this somewhat trying test of the film it would appear to follow that any showmanly fears growing out of the tragic passing of Carole Lombard, or the fact that this treats humorously of the Nazis at a time when the war news is not funny, may turn out to be groundless as concerns the boxoffice.

It is a venture in more directions than one which producer-director Ernst Lubitsch, who also collaborated with Melchior Lengyel on the story, has delivered to exhibitors and their customers.

Warsaw, just prior to, during and after the German assault, is the scene of the narrative, yet the film is a comedy and played for laughs in all save a few momentary passages establishing a background of desolation and Nazi domination.

As a comedy, it deals with the Nazi soldiers and the Gestapo in a manner just short of the "Great Dictator" tone.

The story, scripted by Edwin Justus Mayer, concerns the operations of the Polish "Underground" and follows the contour of a thrilling, patriotic melodrama, rife with escapes, captures, some killings, but utilizes all of these materials for laugh purposes.

Miss Lombard portrays a Polish actress who pretends to fall in with Nazi plans by way of preventing capture of Polish patriots. Jack Benny portrays her husband, a Polish Shakespearean star, who outwits the Gestapo by a series of successful disguises and impersonations.

The picture drew its loudest laughs from the preview audience in the many situations dominated by the comedian which are, as, and of themselves, amusing in the extreme. A running gag, in which Benny is interrupted in his reading of Hamlet's soliloquy, registered solidly.

In two respects the picture is linked of necessity to happenings in the world of fact.

Individual audience reaction to the film is tempered, one way or another in all cases, by the fact of Miss Lombard's death.

Mass audience reaction is subject to variation with the tenor of the day's war news.

In locations where Polish people predominate it is well to test out specifically the local attitude toward a comedy which utilizes blitzed Warsaw as a background for humor.

Previewed as reported in detail above.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Release date, February 15, 1942. Running time, 100 minutes. P. C. A. No. 7825. General audience classification.

Carole Lombard .....	Maria Tura
Jack Benny .....	Joseph Tura
Robert Stack .....	Lieutenant Sobinski
Felix Bressar .....	Greenberg
Lionel Atwill .....	Rawitch
Stanley Ridges, Sig Ruman, Tom Dugan, Charles Halton, George Lynn, Harry Victor, Maude Eburne, Armand Wright, Erno Verebes, Halliwell Hobbs, Myles Mander, Leslie Dennison, Frank Reicher, Peter Caldwell and Wolfgang Zilzer.

33% of Film Companies Had Taxable Income

Less than one-third of the film producing corporations and only slightly more than half of exhibitor corporations of the country paid income taxes on their 1939 business, it was disclosed recently in Washington by Secretary of the Treasury Henry W. Morgenthau, Jr. Those that did pay taxes, however, contributed more than $10,000,000 to the Federal Treasury and distributed nearly $33,000,000 in dividends to their stockholders, it was disclosed.

Figures compiled by the Department showed that only 168 of 616 producing companies had taxable income. They reported aggregate receipts of $254,370,000 and net income of $26,615,000 on which they paid $3,818,000 income and $15,000 excess profits taxes, and paid dividends, other than in stock, of $10,000,000. Another 379 corporations had aggregate receipts of $118,657,000 but a deficit of $7,099,000. They paid dividends of $1,595,000. The remaining 69 corporations were inactive.

In exhibition, 2,056 of 3,995 corporations, with aggregate receipts of $442,279,000 and net income of $43,263,000, paid $6,399,000 in income and $38,000 in excess profits taxes and dividends of $22,812,000. Of the remainder, 832 corporations were inactive and the other 1,813, with aggregate receipts of $121,078,000, showed a deficit of $6,410,000. Only $242,000 was distributed in dividends by this group.

Kurt Ross with Pathe News

Appointment of Kurt Ross to RKO Pathe News was announced by the newsreel company in New York this week. Mr. Ross, who will be in charge of the commercial department, has been active for several years in technical and scientific presentation work for various industrial concerns. He gained recognition with his invention and development of the photoelectric film control for electric signs, as used in the Wilson Whiskey display on Times Square, New York. His work with RKO Pathe News will entail slidefilms and visual presentations of all kinds in addition to picture production.

Bergman to Universal

Maurice Bergman arrived in Hollywood last week on a special advertising assignment for John Joseph, Universal director of advertising and publicity. Mr. Bergman had recently been agent for Pierre Van Paassen, author; and before that, had been advertising manager for Twentieth Century-Fox.

Odendhal, of B. & K., Wins Award

Harry Odendhal, manager of the Balaban & Katz Congress Theatre, Chicago, was awarded the John Balaban trophy last week for best special showman efforts during the last quarter of 1941. Mr. Odendhal also was presented with a $100 cash prize for being a three-time consecutive winner of contests.

Inter-American Films Shown

The motion picture productions of the U. S. Government's Office of Inter-American Affairs became available, in selected part, for public and press inspection for the first time last week. MOTION PICTURE HERALD herewith presents the first report on four examples of the approximately two dozen 16 mm pictures actually completed and ready for shipment under the direction of John Hay Whitney's films division.

The four pictures were shown at New York by the Museum of Modern Art's Film Library, in its motion picture cycle, as examples of Government production.

Nelson Rockefeller, coordinator, formed the motion picture division in January, 1941, naming Mr. Whitney director. Mr. Whitney listed 42 titles in December as "the preliminary program of non-theatrical films" ready, or in final preparation, for shipment to South America. Kenneth MacGowan supervised their preparation from government, theatrical, commercial and documentary film material. The Museum handled the laboratory work and prepared Spanish and Portuguese narrations.

The four titles shown by the Museum were: "Energia y Poder de America," (Spanish), "Power for the Americas," one reel: This is compiled from Office of Emergency Management and other government film sources, libraries, and newsreels. Scenes of the country's leading hydro-electric dams and power projects are interspersed with views of military forces and American cities and industry. Vistas of tank and gun and shoe factories show the role of electricity in armament and industry.

"El Basketball," (Spanish), "Basketball Technique," one reel: A Spanish narration has been added to an MGM Pete Smith sports subject, distributed commercially in the U. S. Slow motion and standard speed illustrate the techniques and trick shots of basketball. It presupposes some knowledge of the game.

"Fish in Alaskan rivers" (Spanish), "Alaska's Silver Millions," 3 reels: This subject, which is overlong in three reels, is prepared from Alaskan exploration material by the Rev. Bernhard Hubbard, S. J. and from an American Can Company commercial reel on the Alaskan salmon fisheries.

"Soldados do Ar" (Portuguese) "Soldiers of the Sky," one reel: Is the most interesting and dramatic of the four pictures. Government and 20th Century-Fox short subject and news scenes depict the training and tactical use of U. S. Army parachute troops. It is an impressive study of the ability of the American soldier.—J. M. H. S.

Winners Named in B&K Circuit Drive

Winners of the three-month Y. Frank Freeman drive among managers of the Balaban & Katz circuit, Chicago, have been announced by Walter Immerman, general manager of the circuit. The contest was for the greatest business gain and general operation of the theatres.

William Holden and Charles Cottle, managers of the Chicago and Roosevelt theatres, respectively, tied for first place in the Loop division. The "A" house division was led by George Bryant, Tivoli; "B" houses, Harry Odendahl, Congress, and Charles Nesbitt, Tower; "C" houses, Waldo Bail, LaGrange Theatres, and Jerome Winsberg, Senate Theatre. Al Leonard of the Lakeside won in the first week general release class. All winners received $500 defense bonds as prizes, except in the Loop, where the prize was divided.

A black and white photograph of a hand pointing towards a typewriter. The hand is positioned in the upper right quadrant of the frame. The typewriter is a vintage model with a large, ornate metal body and a visible carriage and paper support mechanism. The background is dark and out of focus.

SPENCER TRACY KATHARINE HEPBURN
"WOMAN OF THE YEAR"
from
M-G-M

A GEORGE STEVENS
Production with
Fay Bainter • Reginald
Owen • Original Screen
Play by Ring Lardner,
Jr. and Michael Kanin
Directed by George Stevens • Produced by Joseph L. Mankiewicz
An M-G-M Picture

HAVING A WONDERFUL TIME!

RADIO GIVEN 3 MONTHS TO TURN TO MAKING ARMS

Manufacture of Civilian Sets to Cease April 22nd; No New Stations

No new radio stations, nor radio receivers. That is the prospect the radio industry, and the country, faced this week, reflecting the desire of the Government that industry be totally converted for war.

The Defense Communications Board, which on January 30 announced that no further authorization would be issued by the Federal Communications Commission for new stations or expansion of existing stations in any area receiving primary service from one or more stations, has recommended to the Commission and the War Production Board that outstanding authorization for new stations or changes in existing transmitters be cancelled.

The War Production Board, which previously had curtailed set production to 40 per cent below last year's total, called on the radio industry to accomplish its total conversion to war work within three months, and end civilian radio manufacture April 22nd.

Representatives of the four national networks met Tuesday with W. B. Lewis, Coordinator of Radio for the Office of Facts and Figures in Washington, for a discussion of problems arising from wartime conditions and the expansion of Government defense programs.

In other fields, the Coordinator of Information was said to be negotiating with the 11 international broadcasting stations for the lease of their facilities, and the FCC reported that following the outbreak of war programs in Japanese were dropped by American stations, but that, otherwise, there was little change in either the number of foreign language broadcasts or the languages used.

No Allotments

The Defense Communications Board made public the full text of its recommendations to the WPB and FCC regarding the construction and alteration of stations, as follows:

"1. No critical materials shall be allocated by the War Production Board or further authorization issued by the Federal Communications Commission for the construction of any new standard broadcast station where all or a substantial part of the proposed primary service area is already provided with primary service from one or more standard broadcast stations.

"2. No critical materials shall be allocated by the War Production Board or further authorizations issued by the Federal Communications Commission for construction in order to change the transmitting facilities of any existing standard broadcast station unless the change will result in a substantial new primary service area no substantial part of which is already provided with primary service from one or more standard broadcast stations.

Determination to convert the set-manufacturing industry to war production was

SEE NO REDUCTION OF RADIO AUDIENCE

With 55,000,000 radio receivers in use, and a normal replacement supply in stores, there should be no effect upon the medium's listening audience, even though the radio manufacturers are forced by Government order to end civilian set production April 22nd. That was the opinion, this week, of network officials in New York.

disclosed by R. R. Guthrie, assistant chief of the Bureau of Industry branches of the WPB, at a meeting with representatives of 55 manufacturers.

Mr. Guthrie said that, while no deadline had been set, it was expected the major part of the job would be done within three months along lines which would be laid down after conferences between industry representatives and Government officials.

Production Facilities Needed

Production facilities of the industry are badly needed for the manufacture of radio, signal corps, detection and similar equipment, he said, warning the manufacturers, "If, three or four months from now, conversion to war products is still not accomplished, it will be impossible to assume any longer that some kind of conversion of the type of organization of plant, equipment, labor and management which constitutes a radio factory is feasible.

Information regarding the reported plan of Col. William J. Donovan's office to secure time over the facilities of the international stations was sparse, largely because the project was still in the negotiating stage, but it was indicated that Government and station owners were rather far apart on the question of price.

FCC Reports on Radio

The FCC report on foreign language broadcasts shows that there were 6,776 such programs during the 30 days immediately following the Pearl Harbor attack compared with 6,843 in the 30 days immediately preceding.

Twenty-nine foreign languages were used, including Mesquakie, which is the language of the Sac and Fox Indians in Iowa.

Following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor there was an increase in the number of broadcasts in Italian and Polish, but a decrease in the number in German. There were no Japanese programs, compared with five during the period immediately preceding the war.

The greatest number of programs were in Italian, Polish and Spanish and those languages were used, but not in the same order, by the largest number of stations.

Two hundred stations were found by the Commission to be making foreign language broadcasts, but more than half of them were of 500 watts power or less.

Philco Backs Government

James T. Buckley, president of the Philco Corporation, radio set and part manufacturers of Philadelphia, said in that city last week that his company was "in entire accord" with the new action, and he noted its cooperation for many months with various types of defense demands.

He also asserted his company could produce Government radio equipment on an "all-out" basis at the rate of $160,000,000 a year.

The Wall Street Journal this week noted that the larger radio manufacturers with 80 to 90 per cent of their plants already doing work for the Government "should not find difficult" the new orders. It added the small companies might be hurt.

It said the radio program is in the tooling stage, and "is not expected to reach its production peak until the fall" of this year.

It summarized percentages of war work now being done by some companies, thus: Farnsworth, 70; Utah Radio Products, 30; Majestic, 50; General Electric, 80; Westinghouse, 98.6; RCA, 80, with 100 soon; Western Electric, 100; Bendix, 100; Zenith, 50; Crosley, 40.

The radio industry estimates it produced 10,000,000 radio sets the first nine months of 1941, compared with 11,800,000 in the 12 months of 1940; and that its radios in 1940 had a sale value of $177,000,000, and in 1941, of almost $200,000,000.

O'Malley Completes AMPA Fiscal Report

The relief fund of the Associated Motion Picture Advertisers at New York has grown to a cash balance of $1,638.71, according to a year end financial report from David A. O'Malley, treasurer. From April 24th to December 31, 1941, $922.50 was disbursed to aid needy members of the industry.

The AMPA fiscal report listed a bank balance of $475.21 for the organization with $827.50 in outstanding dues receivable from 95 out of a total of 149 members. Total assets amounted to $1,302.71 on December 31st. Disbursements from April 24th to December 31st amounted to $3,169.42, including $670 transferred to the relief fund.

PRC Closes Midwest Product Deals

Arthur Greenblatt, general sales manager of Producers Releasing Corporation, announced the closing of a deal with the Publix-Great States Theatres in Chicago this week for all 1941-42 product. Victor Bernstein and George Topper of the PRC Chicago exchange arranged the deal. Mr. Greenblatt also reported that the Fox circuit in Kansas City had purchased "Swamp Woman," an Ann Corio special.

Spires in Army

George Spires, 25, on MOTION PICTURE HERALD since 1936 as reporter and reviewer, joined the Army this week. He left New York for Camp Dix Friday.

AUSTRALIAN GROSSES JUMP WITH MOUNTING WAR FEARS

New Records Set at Box Offices as Public Reacts to Danger

Special interest, in view of the current state of the war and of the position of Australia among the allies of the United States, attaches to this latest and exclusive dispatch from MOTION PICTURE HERALD's correspondent in Sydney. Here are recorded some of the phases of internal adjustment which the pressures of the great conflict tend to produce within the industry of the motion picture. It is to be remembered, too, that Australia was in the early years of the motion picture a crucible of experiment and experience which brought the super-theatres of the cinema into existence. A considerable part of the origins of the once great First National Exhibitors' Circuit trace to the labours and experiences of the late J. D. Williams in that far country—far then, closer now.

—THE EDITOR

by LIN ENDEAN
in Sydney

With war's shadow cast over the nation and threatening to come to our shores for the first time in our young history, one views the future of motion pictures in a perspective without the guidance of precedent, so far as Australia is concerned.

The dominating impression is that screen entertainment is destined to occupy a major spot in the national pattern—the motion picture house is the people's choice as a rendezvous from the disturbing emotional and physical tension of the immediate swing from easy-going normalcy to full wartime preparedness. That fact was well demonstrated over the just ended Christmas period, when key centre houses throughout the continent racked up trade outstripping, by far, the money and patronage volume of former festive seasons.

The degree of strength was well instanced by Universal's Abbott and Costello comedy, "In the Navy," playing Sydney State. This one clicked to a £5,140 ($25,700 at par) gross for six days, including a Boxing Day take of £1,124 ($5,620 at par). The theatre's capacity is 2,700 and four shows a day the policy, with the admission price averaging to the equivalent of fifty cents.

Seen Executive Service

Experience of other war-torn lands has left no doubt regarding motion pictures' tremendous force in the sustenance of public morale and the creation of confidence, and the Australian Governments are expected fully to acknowledge the screen as an essential service. It is certain, however, that the present heavy plaster of taxation will be added to as the months go on.

First fear upon the outbreak of Pacific hostilities was a film shortage, consequent upon the disrupting of the normal shipping flow, but a survey reveals that most companies are set for many months yet; some with sufficient new releases to carry forward until next August. Nevertheless, no chances will be taken and there is every likelihood that the double-feature bill (the usual policy in all situations—with the single exception of M-G-M's first-run city houses) will be ousted.

With the public evidencing dependence upon screen entertainment in such emphatic manner, sufficient supply of film available and the industry already having impressed on the powers that it is geared to do a national job, all that remains is for co-ordination of exhibitor and distributor forces. Abortive efforts have been made in the last-mentioned direction, but wisdom must prevail when the leaders of both sections subscribe to the dictates of the inevitable.

Asks United Front

In a statement to the trade, F. McNeil Ackland, chairman of the Motion Picture Distributors Association of Australia, said: "Let us show a united front as we consolidate the position of the local film business as a virile, active, loyal and constructive unit, well worthy of a place beside other major industries giving of their best in contribution towards that ultimate victory to be won for the cause of freedom.

"There is no time for bickering," he continued, "or place for the desire of any section to progress at the expense of the other. Whether it be distributor of film or exhibitor of film, each must appreciate fully that there is an individual challenge to him to play his constructive part in placing the trade on a footing of smooth operation. The screen is fortunate in having authority's acknowledgment of its importance.

Cites England, U. S. A.

"Official appreciation, locally, parallels that of Great Britain, Canada and U.S.A., in which countries motion picture entertainment has a definite place in the wartime fabric. In England, more convincingly, have motion pictures emerged as an outstanding agency in sustaining morale and confidence by replacing emotional upset with a mood of relaxation and enjoyment. In the responsibility we must enthusiastically assume, in order to justify existence, plus the dislocation of established routine methods, it is far from mere idealism to voice a plea for complete co-operation of all sections of the industry."

Fever-heat interest has been held on developments in Hoyts Theatres (in which National Theatres Corporation hold controlling interest) following the arrival a few months ago of J. C. Graham, W. Powers and H. Stuart, representing the American shares. Their mission obviously was to bring about the merger of Hoyts and Greater Union Theatres, the major circuits operating in every capital of the Commonwealth, the linking of the two being a desire which has brought several ace U. S. personalities to our shores, including Dan Michelove who made two calls, but which, thus far, has never got beyond the on today—off tomorrow stage.

There's no likelihood of a deal being set now judging by signs, although the trio of Americans took a place on the directorate of Hoyts and created a major sensation by putting into train an executive shake-up which saw general manager Maurice Sloman resign to be replaced by Ernest Turnbull, who left 20th Century-Fox general sales managership to fill the post.

Hoyts' managing director, Charles Munro, to whom credit goes for the establishing of the company on a standing of unassailable theatre and financial strength, has been on the sick list for several months. His return to health presages further interesting activity. Although William Powers has returned to America, being out of West Point, with a high rank, J. C. Graham and H. Stuart have stopped on.

Propaganda films are having a great outing, both those made in England and locally registering strongly with patrons. . . . Petrol restriction and the introduction of Daylight Saving were viewed by pessimists as a potential knockout to the theatre trade, but, so far as the key centres are concerned, the judgment was well astray. . . . Business couldn't be better!

Academy Dinner Heads Named

Preparations for the annual awards dinner of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences to be held on Thursday, February 26th, in Hollywood, at which Wendell L. Willkie will be the principal speaker, were placed in charge of an arrangements committee headed by Rosalind Russell with Mervyn LeRoy as co-chairman, it was announced by the Academy last week.

Mail distribution of 10,000 ballots for all Academy awards' nominations started last Thursday and polls will close at midnight, next Monday, February 23rd.

Other committee members include: Frank Capra, James Hilton, Jane Murn, Henry Fonda, Bob Hope, Nat W. Finston, Y. Frank Freeman, David O. Selznick, E. J. Mannix, S. Charles Einfeld, Howard Strickling, Gordon Mitchell, John LeRoy Johnston and Donald Gledhill.

The Columbia Broadcasting System announced through its Los Angeles station KNX that it had been granted exclusive broadcast rights for the dinner. KNX will present Wendell L. Willkie's address from 10:00 to 10:30 P. M., Pacific War Time, and also will broadcast names of the Academy winners. Academy procedure in the past, barred early radio disclosures of the Oscar winners, but KNX has been granted permission to broadcast names in its 11:00 P. M. news spot and in station breaks thereafter.

Walt Disney's "Fantasia," RKO release, has been recommended for a special award by the Academy.

WARNERS, PARAMOUNT, RKO PROMOTE AND ELECT

Studio, Distribution Heads Shifted in Continuing Re- alignment of Personnel

The shuffling and reshuffling of industry personnel, which seemed to begin, in the current period at least, with the new management of United Artists, which took Gradwell Sears and Carl Lesser from Warner Brothers, continued this week and last, as many high sales executives, both in home offices and in the field, either changed their affiliation, or were elevated in executive positions or in corporation titles.

Thus, Warners, elected three new vice-presidents to Vitagraph, Inc., this week: Roy Haines, Arthur Sachson and A. W. Schwalberg. RKO named William Holman studio manager to succeed Sid Rogell; and extended contracts of six studio department heads. Monogram appointed Harry Thomas Eastern sales manager. Arthur Hornblow, with Paramount since 1933 as producer, is leaving.

Warner Elections

Benjamin Kalmenson, general sales manager of Warners, and president of Vitagraph, the distributing company, this week disclosed election of three vice-presidents of the latter: Roy Haines, Eastern and Canadian sales manager; Arthur Sachson, home office sales executive; and A. W. Schwalberg, supervisor of exchanges.

Another Warner appointment was that of Al Oxtoby, San Francisco salesman, as St. Louis branch manager. He had been formerly Seattle branch manager. He succeeds Hall Walsh, who has become manager of the "Prairie district," newly formed, which includes the Omaha St. Louis, Des Moines, and Kansas City offices.

The Warner sales executives held a two day meeting last week at the New York home office. Present were the above men, and Norman Ayers, Robert Smeltzer, Harry Seed, Rud Lohrenz, Fred Jacks, Henry Herbel, Sam Lefkowitz.

Holman RKO Studio Head

New manager of the RKO studio, succeeding the resigned Sid Rogell, is William Holman. Mr. Holman was Frank Capra's production manager for some years, and recently had been producers' representative on the Screen Actors Guild committee on extras.

The studio last week also extended the contracts of six department heads, as follows: Walter Daniels, production manager; John O. Aalberg, sound department; Constantin Bakaleinkoff, music department; Albert D'Agostino, art; Verne Walker, camera effects; Darrel Silvera, property.

Ben Y. Cammack, who has been the company's manager for the Argentine, Uruguay and Paraguay, and before that Phil Reisman's assistant in charge of RKO's foreign department, this week left New York for Dallas, where he became Southwestern District manager.

Mr. Cammack started in this business in Dallas. He was a poster clerk there with the General Film Company in 1916.

Monogram Lifts Thomas

Harry Thomas, who had been district manager for Monogram in New York, Philadelphia, and Washington, was appointed last week Eastern sales manager, and supervisor of operations in Cleveland, Detroit, Boston, New Haven, Albany, Buffalo, Atlanta, Charlotte, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, New Orleans and Memphis as well.

The announcement of the advance was made Friday, February 13th, at luncheon in a New York restaurant for the trade press. Host was Steve Broidy, general sales manager.

The company announced also last week it would spend about $250,000 improving the Ralph Like studio in Hollywood it recently bought. There will probably be new stages, a new administration and writers' building, new cutting rooms, new street sets, and special quarters for the craft departments.

Mr. Hornblow, Paramount producer, in indicating he would leave the company in May, after being with it since 1933, also intimated he would join another major after a short vacation.

Harold Johnson has become Universal branch manager at Omaha. He succeeds William Sherman, resigned. Mr. Johnson had been salesman, and former manager of the Minneapolis exchange.

Republic held a West Coast regional meeting in Los Angeles Tuesday and Wednesday, and is to hold an Eastern meeting in New York next Wednesday and Thursday after the Chicago meeting Thursday and Friday of this week.

Smith East for W. E.

Clifford W. Smith, western manager of Electrical Research Products, will leave Hollywood shortly to take up a new post at Western Electric's New York headquarters. K. F. Morgan, commercial superintendent in Hollywood, succeeds him.

According to T. K. Stevenson, W. E. vice-president, Mr. Smith's new duties will be concerned with the telephone end of the company's business, expanded to meet emergency communication demands. He will be associated with the distribution of telephone material through Western Electric.

Mr. Smith joined the Soci  t   de Mat  riel Acoustique, French distributors of W. E. sound motion picture equipment, in 1929. From his first W. E. post in Paris, he transferred to London in 1930 to become European manager for Erpi and, in later years, commercial director of Western Electric Company, Ltd.

He returned to the U. S. in 1936 as assistant general foreign and subsequently foreign manager in Erpi's export division. In 1938 he assumed the duties of Erpi's general manager of West Coast activities.

Mr. Morgan, the new western manager, entered the Bell System with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph, in December, 1921.

and transferred to the Southern California Telephone and Telegraph Company in July, 1927.

He became recording engineer with Erpi in Hollywood in August, 1928, and then recording manager, engineering manager, commercial relations manager and commercial superintendent.

As a member of both the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and the Society of Motion Picture Engineers, Mr. Morgan has made many technical contributions to sound picture recording.

Count Your Change Before Leaving

Almost as many people pay more income taxes than are due the Government as try to avoid payment, it was indicated in the annual report of the U. S. Treasury of refunds of taxes made during 1941, submitted to Congress last week. It showed that several thousand persons had excess payments returned to them, to a total of more than $54,000,000. Some of the refunds ran into six figures. Among motion picture actors and actresses who figured their taxes too generously, Ina Claire got a check for $98,205; the titled English star, Beatrice Lillie, received $3,733; Fred Astaire got a "kick back" of $721, and Mary Boland, $471.

Frank Packard, Author Of "Miracle", Dies

Frank Lucius Packard, 65, author of "The Miracle Man," the "Jimmy Dale" series and other screen and publishing successes, died Tuesday, February 17th, at his home in Lachine, near Montreal.

Mr. Packard, who was graduated from McGill University as an engineer, sold his first story to Robert H. Davis, editor of Munsey's Magazine, in 1909. His best known work in the screen world was "The Miracle Man," made into a motion picture in 1919 by Mayflower Productions for Paramount distribution. It was remade by Paramount in 1932. The original version starred Thomas Meighan, Betty Compton and Lon Chaney and was one of the screen's most spectacular successes.

The "Jimmy Dale" stories, whose world book sales topped 3,000,000 copies, were also made into a serial distributed by the Mutual Film Corporation in 1916. Mr. Packard traveled widely and was an expert on criminal psychology. He leaves his widow, the former Marguerite Pearl Macintyre of Montreal, three sons and a daughter.

Dale Is Mellett Aide

Dr. Edgar Dale, of Ohio State University, was this week appointed adviser on production and distribution of Government morale films. He will assist Lowell Mellett, Coordinator of Government Films. Dr. Dale headed the University's Bureau of Educational Research, and has written several books on the appreciation of motion pictures.

Allen L. McCormick Dead

Allen L. McCormick, 58, founder and president of Cinecolor, Inc., died in Hollywood, Monday. Surviving are his widow, Elsa; a son, Allen, Jr., of Akron, Ohio; and a daughter, Mrs. Hermine King.

POWERFUL, EXCITING ADS A POWERFUL, EXCITING

Created to help you thunder to your patrons the triumphant filming of Jack London's immortal story of fist-lashing adventure and heart-stabbing love!

Out of the thrill-teeming pages of a mighty novel... comes

The Year's Great Adventure Picture
...Hot-Blooded...
Lusty... Savage HUMAN!

JACK LONDON'S ADVENTURES OF MARTIN EDEN

GLENN FORD · CLARE
TREVOR
Screen play by W. L. River · A SAMUEL BRONSTON
Directed by SIDNEY SALKOW

EVELYN
KEYES · STUART
ERWIN
PRODUCTION · Produced by B. P. SCHULBERG
A COLUMBIA PICTURE

Powerful as the lash of a hurricane... this story of an indomitable spirit no man's fists could ever conquer... no woman's heart could ever hope to tame!

TAXES TO BEAT THE AXIS
Play WALT DISNEY'S
TREASURY DEPARTMENT PICTURE
The NEW SPIRIT

TO SELL PICTURE!

BIG AS LIFE!

IMMORTAL JACK LONDON'S BRAWLING, LUSTY, HOT-BLOODED MASTERPIECE!

JACK LONDON'S
ADVENTURES OF
MARTIN EDEN

Teeming with thrills!
Alive with the power and sweep of a mighty adventure romance... brought at last in all its flaming glory to the screen!...

Stuart
ERWIN
Directed by SIDNEY SALKOW
A COLUMBIA PICTURE

WOMEN YEARN FOR THESE ARMS!

Tempestuous... earthy... this tale of a man who beat his way, with bare knuckles and indomitable courage, into a world of grandeur and magnificence!

MARTIN EDEN

WITH EVELYN
KEYES
STUART
ERWIN
A COLUMBIA PICTURE
Produced by B. P. SCHULBERG

"I KNOW WHAT I WANT OF LIFE...
AND I'LL BREAK THE WORLD IN TWO TO GET IT!"

Out of ships, sea and waterfront come roaring a mighty whirlwind of thrills, a wild tempest of love, an overpowering harricane of excitement!

JACK LONDON'S
ADVENTURES OF
MARTIN EDEN

Glenn
FORD
Claire
TREVOR
Evelyn
KEYES
Stuart
ERWIN
Screen play by W. L. RIVER - A SAMUEL BRONSTON PRODUCTION - Produced by B. P. SCHULBERG
Directed by SIDNEY SALKOW - A COLUMBIA PICTURE

COLUMBIA'S VICTORY
AWARDS IN U.S. DEFENSE BONDS
SALES CAMPAIGN
FOR COLUMBIA'S GREATEST YEAR!

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

By WILLIAM R. WEAVER
Hollywood Editor

Mickey Mouse Grows Up

ESTEEMED EDITOR:

One day before Congress stepped into that matter of the Treasury Department's deal with Walt Disney your westernmost correspondent dropped into the cartoonist's place of business to inquire about another and less volcanic but just possibly more permanently interesting aspect of the Disney enterprises.

He'd been wondering why Mickey Mouse hadn't been appearing in many pictures lately and whether inquiry would reveal that the artist had outgrown his beginnings.

He has not, it turned out, but Mickey has grown up, in his fourteen years, to become something of a problem child.

"He's encountered adolescence," says Walt, which is what everybody from gateman to vice-president calls the informal boss of the vast Disney domain, and goes on to point out that the character in question is not immune to that aging which has figured in the fortunes of the screen's juvenile stars since Baby Marie Osborne, for instance, was a baby.

Walt relaxes in his chair, lets his gaze rove a room rife with manifestations of which, later on and in another connection, he refers to as the American "culture for use," and brings his inquirer up to date on the career of his famed first-born.

"Mickey established himself," says the man who established him, "in the period when sound and dialogue had just been added to motion pictures. At that point the spectacle of a cartoon figure not only moving as if alive but also talking was in itself fascinating enough to amuse and hold an audience.

"With the passage of time it became necessary to go beyond novelty, to provide a story with substance and some depth, a roundedness and warmth of feeling which comes from something more than ingenuity, facility, mechanical variations on a single emotion."

Walt needn't mention although he does so after a while, other factors which have conspired to limit the employment of Mickey in his films.

These are all about the office, lining the edge of a desk, smiling or scowling from atop a piano, distinguishing the executive sanctum from all others in Hollywood and the world.

They are the original models of the dozens of characters which have been born since Mickey was an only child, the characters seen in "Snow White," "Pinocchio," "Fantasia," "Dumbo," those to be seen in "Bambi" one day, and Donald Duck and Pluto and ever so many others who, in their number, have thrust the cartoon king into a sort of kinship with that old woman who lived in a shoe and had so many children—but Walt knows what to do.

He has many more stars, each with their fan mail as proof of public demand, than he has pictures in which to star them. So he's pairing them, grouping them, casting his productions in a fine freedom from talent agents and with such fairness to his players and such recognition of their indicated followings as the processes of story-telling permit.

Donald Duck is runner-up to Mickey in point of all-time, over-all popularity.

"PRIDE" STARTS

Babe Ruth, Billy Dickey and other diamond stars were among 45 baseballers in uniform last week on Los Angeles' Wrigley Field when Samuel Goldwyn's "Pride of the Yankees" went into production as first of nine pictures to start a week which witnessed completion of 11 others, bringing the community's production level to 38.

As follows:

COMPLETED

COLUMBIA
Ellery Queen and the Living Corpse
Hello Annapolis
MGM
Ship Ahoy
Mrs. Miniver
RKO-RADIO
My Favorite Spy

Tuttles of Tahiti
REPUBLIC
Riders of the Range
20TH-Fox
Moontide
This Above All
UNIVERSAL
Unseen Enemy
Butch Minds the Baby

STARTED

Meet the Stewarts
GOLDWYN
Pride of the Yankees
MGM
Dr. Kildare (untitled)
MONOGRAM
Arizona Roundup
Ghost Town Law

PRC
Shake Hands with Murder
REPUBLIC
Pal O' Mine
Jesse James, Jr.
UNIVERSAL
Broadway

SHOOTING

COLUMBIA
Just Another Dame
Highly Irregular
Three's a Crowd
MGM
Sunday Punch
Her Cardboard Lover
MONOGRAM
Klondike Fury
Man with Two Lives
PRC
Gun Shy
PARAMOUNT
Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch
Forest Rangers
My Heart Belongs to Daddy
Black Curtain
RKO-RADIO
Mexican Spitfire and
the Ghost
Journey Into Fear
REPUBLIC

Shepherd of the Ozarks
Girl from Alaska
Affairs of Jimmy
Valentine
SMALL Friendly Enemies
20TH-Fox
My Gal Sal
Ten Gentlemen from West Point
UNIVERSAL
Eagle Squadron
Spoilers
Lady in a Jam
Saboteur
WARNERS
Desperate Journey
Gay Sisters
Shadow of Their Wings
Escape from Crime
Yankee Doodle Dandy

Mickey is top man in the cartoon-strip field, his lead over Donald Duck slight but constant. It is a close race in which both entries pay off to the Disney stable. Does one newspaper in a given city contract for the Mickey Mouse strip, the opposition paper is hot after the Donald Duck strip instant. In many a case, the first newspaper on the scene contracts for both, by way of shutting out the competition. Mickey leads in the reader-interest polls however.

"Mickey's popularity built up over a long period, steadily, firmly," says Walt, "whereas Donald shot up quickly to a point about that close," and he parallels his palms to indicate roughly a margin of perhaps 10 per cent favoring Mickey.

Mickey and Donald appear together occasionally in a single short. One such is in the making. They are co-starred, so to speak, but Mickey is seen as the maturer, somewhat dignified and faintly adult personality, while Donald is all over the foreground of the action, antic and unpredictable, monopolizing the camera.

Donald was chosen to portray the first-time income-tax payer in "The New Spirit." He was right, as the casting directors say, for the volatile, impulsive, willing but frightened tax payer switching quickly from dilatory indifference to breakneck compliance.

Mickey would have been beneath his years in the role. He'd be the fellow to portray the income-tax payer who's been paying for years and knows all about how and why and when and where. He'll still be on hand to attend to that matter next year if, by then, it needs attending to.

But Mickey is going to be seen in some of the subjects which his parent has undertaken at behest of the Motion Picture Section of the Office of Inter-American Affairs. (MOTION PICTURE HERALD, January 10, 1942, page 14). For he's the understanding sort, capable of typifying the genuine American in a manner to make him understood and to typify him as understanding in turn. Mickey's maturity is a special asset which the junior members of his family do not as yet possess.

Walt and his men have been engaged, too, in plannings and discussions of some more shorts to be produced for the Treasury Department. The number and nature of these have not been determined, although several are in the talking stage and the talking is largely by telephone and with Washington.

Work on the fifth and last of a group of shorts for the Canadian government is nearing completion.

But the Disney plant has not beaten all its pens into swords, which is not to imply that it won't if need comes.

Enough of the staff is continuing at work on the production of "Bambi" and other strictly commercial films to keep the flow of Disney entertainment up to normal.

It's a vital and stimulating scene that Mickey Mouse surveys from his eminence as oldest resident.

He could be forgiven for basking a bit in whatever degree of retirement and ease may be his lot in this, his fourteenth year.

For this is the empire which, in an indirect but indispensable way, Mickey Mouse built.

W. R. W.

Mickey Mouse made his screen debut in "Steamboat Willie," at the Colony Theatre, New York, during October, 1928. On September 27th, 1941, he celebrated his 13th birthday. "Steamboat Willie" is still playing in theatres throughout the world.

United Artists began release of Mickey Mouse shorts in 1932. RKO's first release of Disney product was on September 24th, 1937, with "Hawaiian Holiday," starring Mickey and supported by Donald Duck, Pluto, Goofy, et al.

To date, 115 Mickey Mouse and other Disney shorts have been produced. In addition, two commercial films starring Mickey were made for National Biscuit Company and Standard Oil.

JOHN                      MARGARET
HOWARD · LINDSAY
KEYE LUKE · MONA BARRIE
ROSCOE KARNS

Joseph Santley—Director

Screen play by Isabel Dawn

Original story by Hal Hudson and Sam Duncan

BUY U. S. DEFENSE BONDS

N. Y. ORDERS WAR CHANGES IN FILM THEATRE FRONTS

New Rules Designed to Keep Building Fronts Clear in Raids

New restrictions on out-front and lobby advertising, decorative displays and signs as motion picture theatres in New York's five boroughs have been incorporated in the revised code of the city's Building Department in order to eliminate hazardous conditions in connection with possible air raids. Arthur Benline, building commissioner, declared last Friday that all regulations would have to be complied with before 1942 licenses were renewed on March 1st and that failure to do so would result in the Department of Licenses' refusal to issue renewals.

Theatres in the five boroughs are all involved. Frequently houses in other nearby communities in the metropolitan area are guided by New York's regulations. The New York Film Board of Trade reports there are a total of 1,055 theatres in operation in New York-New Jersey area. A considerable number of them in the city proper will be affected by the amended code, which is as follows:

Section 1. Section C26-752.0 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York is hereby amended by adding thereto a new sub-division to follow subdivision c to be subdivision d, to read as follows:

"d. In the case of any existing theatre on which there is at present display advertising in the nature of ground signs or false fronts beyond the building line, such display advertising shall conform to the provisions hereinafter enumerated or shall be removed, or removed and replaced by display advertising conforming with the provisions hereinafter enumerated.

Rules for Displays

"1. That the same does not extend at any point more than eight inches beyond the street wall of the building, that the same shall not extend above the bottom of the window sill of the second floor, and that no existing openings in the wall shall be covered by this construction, and that Siamese connections to the sprinkler and the standpipe (fire line) and ammonia Siamese connections shall be unobstructed.

"2. That the same is constructed of material at least 3/16-inch in thickness and adequately stiffened or attached directly to the street wall.

"3. That all of the provisions of article 2, title B, section B26-5.0 to B26-21.0 inclusive, shall apply so far as not inconsistent herewith.

"Section 1. Section C26-721.0 of the administrative code of the city of New York is hereby amended by adding thereto a new sub-division, to follow subdivision c, to be subdivision d, to read as follows:

"d. Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary in this article, combustible trim and decorations may be used in outer lobbies which open directly to the street, also in outer vestibules which are separated from the street by not more than two sets of doors and which are completely separated from the auditorium by fireproof doors and used solely for entrance and egress and which do not connect directly with rooms or stairways serving the auditorium provided:

"1. That the aggregate area and width of said lobbies and vestibules shall not be encroached upon nor reduced below legal requirements.

"2. That the said trim or decoration is closely attached to the masonry or plaster surface forming the enclosure of said lobbies or vestibules and that all spaces behind said trim or decoration are solidly filled with gypsum plaster or its equivalent.

"3. That no portion of said trim or decoration projects more than 12 inches in front of the enclosure walls of said lobbies or vestibules.

"4. That printed or painted advertising matter that may be displayed is kept behind tight glass enclosures or, if in the open, the same is not more than 3/16ths of an inch in thickness and is completely flame-proofed in accordance with rules of the board, and is placed so as not to obstruct free entrance or egress.

"Section 2. This local law shall take effect immediately.

Far East Film Losses Moderate

Al Daff, Far Eastern supervisor for Universal, who arrived in New York from Java late last week, declared that war losses of American film companies in the embattled zone were believed to be moderate, consisting mainly of prints which were in captured territory and including the blocked funds of American majors in Japan. Mr. Daff is the first U. S. film representative to return from the Far East since the outbreak of the war between the U. S. and the Axis. At the request of Federal officials, Mr. Daff declined to discuss his experiences in detail.

Mr. Daff reported that theatres were open throughout the Far East at the time of his departure and that they were doing business in Hong Kong and Shanghai when both cities were under fire. Business remained normal except when air raid alarms occurred during the theatre hour, he said.

He said film shipments to the Dutch East Indies were stopped at the beginning of the war in the Pacific, although some shipments were being made to Java, where, at last reports, Universal's office was operating. Bob Perkins, Universal's manager in Tokyo, was in Shanghai, and his father, James Perkins, of Paramount, in Manila, according to Mr. Daff. Universal's three offices in Japan are now being operated by Japanese Government agencies and it is assumed the same applies to branches of other American majors.

Western Electric Promotes Beal, Clifford

Henry C. Beal, manager of Western Electric Company's Kearny plant, will become engineer of manufacture at the New York office on March 1. He will be succeeded in Kearny by Reese F. Clifford, whose post as personnel director will be assumed by his assistant, Arthur B. Goetze. Mr. Beal, a native of Indiana, has been with Western Electric for 28 years, supervising plant methods and industrial relations in Illinois and New Jersey. Mr. Clifford and Mr. Goetze have had 32 and 25 years' service with the company, respectively.

'Wild Wind' Set for March 19th

Thursday, March 19th, has been set by Paramount for the world premiere of Cecil B. DeMille's "Reap the Wild Wind." The observance will also mark the opening of the new Hollywood Paramount Theatre. Part of the proceeds, which will inaugurate the 30th film anniversaries of both Paramount and Mr. DeMille, will be turned over to the U. S. Navy Relief Society.

Chambers of Commerce, the All-Year Club of Southern California, and other civic organizations will take part in the program, the first of its kind held within the framework of the Coast's wartime restrictions.

"Reap the Wild Wind," Mr. DeMille's 66th production, will be the producer-director's first "world premiere" held in Hollywood since "The King of Kings," which opened Grauman's Chinese Theatre, ran eight months and still holds the house record for receipts and length of engagement.

The DeMille saga goes back to 1912, when, in New York, he, Jesse L. Lasky and Samuel Goldwyn formed the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Corporation. It later combined with Adolph Zukor's Famous Players Corporation and eventually became the present Paramount.

"Kane" Finally In Philadelphia

"Citizen Kane," RKO-Orson Welles, which for more than a half year has been in-and-out again as far as exhibition in Philadelphia is concerned, is now definitely set to be shown there. Circumventing any possible litigations that may arise, the Warner theatre circuit will turn its Aldine Theatre over to the film's distributor, RKO-Radio Pictures, Inc., on a lease arrangement, for the first-run showing of the picture. Its last local booking was scheduled for January 15th at the Boyd Theatre, but was cancelled without cause at the last minute, though advance advertising had appeared in the Philadelphia newspapers.

Speculations have been rife as to the reason for its apparent ban in Philadelphia, and the January 15th booking was motivated by the fact that the picture was selected as 1941's outstanding by the New York film critics.

As a result of the lease arrangement made last Thursday between the Warner circuit and RKO, "Citizen Kane" will now definitely be shown some time in March, following the current run of "Dumbo" and "The Vanishing Virginian," which had been booked in earlier to follow the Walt Disney feature.

Newspaper advertisements announcing the opening of the picture will emphasize the fact that the Aldine Theatre will be managed and operated by RKO, not Warners, for the run of the picture. When the picture was cancelled last month at the Boyd Theatre, previously scheduled to open at the Stanton and then the Aldine theatres, it was reported then that RKO would seek to lease a downtown theatre for the showing of the picture. Since Warners operate all first-run houses in Philadelphia, only the long-dark Erlanger Theatre, owned by William Goldman, would have been available for such showing.

THEY GET ALONG LIKE DYNAMITE AND A BLOWTORCH!

Donlevy — he's the blowtorch to Hopkin's dynamite—is positively in line for honors-of-the-year for a magnificently exciting performance!

EDWARD SMALL presents
BRIAN DONLEVY • MIRIAM HOPKINS • PRESTON FOSTER in

A GENTLEMAN AFTER DARK

with Harold Huber • Philip Reed • Gloria Holden
Douglass Dumbrille • Sharon Douglas • Bill Henry

Directed by Edwin L. Marin • Screenplay by George Bruce
Based on the story "A Whiff of Heliotrope" by Richard Washburn Child

Released thru United Artists

RELEASED NATIONALLY FEBRUARY 27th

TAXES TO BEAT THE AXIS! Play Walt Disney's Treasury Department Short, "The New Spirit," starring Donald Duck!

CANADA PUTS FILM CONTROL IN HANDS OF ONE MAN

New Administrator Rules Distribution, Exhibition Through Price Control

Under new orders, effective last Thursday, James Stewart, Canadian Wartime Prices and Trade Board's Administrator of Services, of Toronto, virtually controls the supply, distribution and exhibition of motion pictures for the duration of the war. It was announced in Toronto on Monday that without the written authorization of Administrator Stewart, no premises that were not actually used for the public exhibition of films for profit on January 31st, 1942, might hereafter be used for that purpose.

The Administrator also is empowered to prescribe the terms and conditions under which motion picture films are distributed and exhibited. Exhibition of films was one of the services brought under a price ceiling in the price regulations of last December and placed under the jurisdiction of Administrator Stewart, which limited maximum prices to those charged in the basic period between September 15th and October 11th in 1941.

The new order also provides that the Administrator may require any person who owns or is in possession of a motion picture film to dispose of it to anyone at such time and on such terms as may be prescribed by Mr. Stewart. He is also authorized to fix the price or rate at which any film may be exhibited, rented, sold or supplied, and to prohibit any exhibition, purchase, sale, rental or supply at any price or rate which is not in accordance with the conditions fixed by him.

The Canadian Government has no intention of upsetting or re-organizing motion picture trade practices in the Dominion, it was intimated on Wednesday in Toronto, by R. G. McMullen, Administrator of Theatres and Films, who called the first meeting of the Film Advisory Council with the War Time Prices and Trade Board, for Monday in that city to formally present the new Government control order.

Tire, Gasoline Rationing

Exhibitor reaction regarding the rationing plan for tires and gasoline in Canada, similarly proposed in the United States, as reviewed in MOTION PICTURE HERALD of February 7th, was reported this week from Toronto.

Gasoline rationing, which goes into effect April 1st in Canada, will not halt film delivery services to theatres nor restrict the use of automobiles by film servicemen. The Government has made provision for a normal supply of gasoline for commercial truck systems based on past consumption, it was learned, but further gasoline rationing may be necessary in January, 1943. Film salesman traveling outside of exchange centers have been placed in a special category by the Canadian Gasoline Conservation Board and will receive a higher gasoline ration.

CANADIAN BANKER IS WARTIME FILM HEAD

James Stewart, Service Administrator of Canada's Price Board, who this week was given virtual control over the motion picture business in the Dominion, is a native of Scotland who has had many years' residence in Canada. His career has been in banking, where he was assistant general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, one of the largest chartered banks in the country.

As wartime administrator, Mr. Stewart has been given supervision over twelve diversified services ranging from undertakers, beauty parlors, plumbers, dry-cleaning establishments and restaurants to public utilities, where the motion picture industry is classed. He has never had direct connection with the film business.

Mr. Stewart is a resident of Toronto. He plays golf regularly in the nineties.

Theatre owners and managers, however, were placed in the class of pleasure drivers for whom only 300 gallons per year will be allowed.

Salesmen using automobiles covering local theatres have been classed as non-essential users and will receive the lowest quota of gasoline. District managers and supervisors of theatre circuits with houses in different cities and towns will receive an extra ration, according to present regulations, which are subject to change before ration coupons are issued, it was reported.

Esquire Forms Canadian Firm

Esquire Films, Ltd., Canadian distributor of British films, separated from Empire-Universal Films, Ltd., and on Monday opened its own branch offices in Canadian key cities, according to Archie Laurie, head of the firm. I. H. Allen, former general sales manager of Empire-Universal, was appointed manager of the new Esquire branch at Winnipeg. Larry Druxerman, Empire-Universal salesman at Montreal, was named manager of the new Empire office in that city.

It was also reported that Esquire acquired two more British franchises for the Canadian market and will continue to have distributing contracts with other British studios. The new deals are with Pathe Pictures of London and British National Films.

Harry O. Painter, who was recently appointed Canadian sales manager for Republic Pictures, will continue as Toronto branch manager for Empire-Universal Films, Ltd., it was announced in Toronto last Friday. Mr. Painter will direct the sales promotion work for Republic, it was said, and also will execute his duties for Empire-Universal. The latter company distributes Republic and Universal product in addition to British features.

Radio Used for Loan Campaign

by "PAT" DONOVAN in Montreal

Radio in Canada, from the biggest cities to the small outpost stations, will be organized to take part in the second Victory Loan campaign commencing the middle of this month. The most complete and extensive radio coverage ever attempted in Canada will be provided as the air wave background for the drive, according to the national radio plans made public by the Victory Loan provincial committee in Montreal, last Friday.

Commencing February 9th, six different radio series in English and an equal number in French were presented over individual stations and national networks for the duration of the campaign. The series included: popular music and special feature programs for a half hour every Monday night from February 9th to March 2nd; dramatic shows, Wednesday nights, a half hour program from February 11th to March 4th; music and variety shows, one hour program, Friday nights from February 13th to March 6th; special speaker presentations, bringing outstanding international figures to the Canadian public by radio, half hour programs, Sunday evenings from February 15th to March 1st; special loan addresses, 15 minutes to half an hour, Monday and Friday nights from February 16th to March 6th; dramatized spot announcements, Monday to Saturdays inclusive, from February 16th to March 7th. All programs in these series will be carried over 64 radio stations.

Urges "Right Kind" Of War Films

by VICTOR SERVICE
in St. Johns, N. B.

"Not too many war pictures—but, definitely, enough of the right kind," is the opinion of Mitchell Franklin, of St. Johns, N. B., secretary of the Franklin & Herschorn theatre circuit, it was reported this week from St. Johns. After a study of the situation, Mr. Franklin advocated co-operative production of all pictures relating to the war effort. He favors their production independently basically, but in agreement on the number and their types. "Do not treat this as escapism entertainment," he cautioned the producers, "or bait for the box office, but really as a duty and obligation."

Mr. Franklin said the people and the governments were fully aware of the propaganda value of studio output. "They do not want the profit motive underlying this effort," he maintained, and asked for, "factual backgrounds, constructive themes, intelligent stories, interspersed with clean humor." He cited that nothing "shoddy, cheap, or ridiculous," should be offered. "And, don't make this colossal or stupendous, please," he stipulated in approving stress on the spiritual and moral issues involved in the war. Pictures should be aimed at developing a common belief "in a better way of life for all after victory," and should be based on down-to-earth facts, said the young circuit executive.

Outsiders Add Film Stocks to Holdings

Wall Street this week pointed to a growing activity by outside stock holding companies and trusts in acquiring motion picture stocks. The Wall Street Journal reported "Today, holdings of picture stocks are found in nearly every well balanced portfolio."

The financial paper pointed out, "the industry has undergone important changes for the better in the past few years, and apparently the loss of foreign business stimulated these firms to more efficiency in production and fiscal affairs, so that the leaders are doing better than ever before, despite the loss of most of their foreign fields. Furthermore, leading companies are strong in cash and their balance sheets are the best showings in industry."

The Journal attributed improved domestic industry business, in part, to "widespread re-employment" which "has helped box-office receipts, but the companies have taken advantage of this increased income to improve their financial status." As an indication of the increasing interest in a leader like Paramount, the following tabulation shows the record of purchases of Paramount Pictures, Inc., common stock by some leading investment trusts:

Investment Trust	Shares Held Prior to Recent Purchases	Shares Recently Purchased	Total Now Held
Adams Express.....	5,400	*31,980	37,380
American Capital Corp....	3,000	3,000	6,000
American International.....		*10,500	10,500
Boston Fund, Inc.....	12,500	1,500	14,000
Capital Administration.....	1,700	1,000	2,700
Delaware Fund.....		800	800
General American Investors		2,500	2,500
General Shareholdings.....	9,300	800	10,100
Investment Co. of America	4,000	4,000	8,000
Lehman Corp.....	12,200	2,100	14,300
Mass. Investors 2nd Fund.	5,000	500	5,500
Mass. Investors Fund.....	29,700	8,400	38,100
Pacific Southern Investors.	3,000	3,000	6,000
Selected Industries, Inc.....	16,500	1,600	18,100
Tri-Continental .....	16,500	1,600	18,100
Atlas Corp.....	20,000	20,000	40,000

*Adams owned 36,500 shares of Paramount second preferred and American International 13,000 shares on June 30, 1941. Conversion of most of these shares accounts for the substantial increase in Paramount common held by these two trusts.

The Wall Street Journal further cited "improved credit status" of film companies by the "success of recent financing," pointing to Loew's, Inc., which sold $13,000,000 principal amount of 3 per cent 15-year debentures to nine insurance companies, and obtained a $5,000,000 2¼ per cent five-year serial bank loan from the First National Bank of Boston. "Loew's, of course," said the newspaper, "enjoys perhaps the highest credit standing in the industry, but Warner Brothers also recently borrowed $2,000,000 from leading banks at the rate of 2½ per cent. So far as Paramount is concerned, this company and its consolidated subsidiaries have retired a total of $12.6 million since the close of 1935, and that a larger amount of preferred stock has been retired and that surplus account has been increased from about $14,000,000 to nearly $145,000,000 during the period. Further debt retirement is an integral and active part of Paramount's policy."

Wall Street observers this week estimated that Paramount's net income for 1941 would be approximately $10,000,000, as against $6,400,000 earned in 1940. The company's position in production and theatre operations, it was said, seemed to warrant the belief that even larger earnings will be rolled up in 1942.

HERALD PEOPLE

By Staff Photographer

His hobby: visiting theatres—Saturdays, Sundays, weekday nights and, indeed, every other time in the week.

That's because DAVID HARRIS, this week appointed to head the circulation department of the Motion Picture Herald, has been visiting theatres continuously since 1936—in his own words, "seeking also to render the greatest possible service to the exhibitor."

The travel records of the circulation department indicate that Mr. Harris has been in some five thousand theatres, gathering there the data upon which the Product Digest, the Herald's living catalogue of the wares of the screen, has been evolved. The structure and content of the Digest section are based upon the desires and demands of the showmen who retail the nation's entertainment.

Mr. Harris was born in Brooklyn forty-eight years ago. He is married and a Mason. Like Winston Churchill, he has never in recent years been seen without a cigar, at a belligerent angle.

Before joining Quigley Publications, he had been theatre manager and owner in Utica, New York City and other places; before that, general manager of the Brooklyn Automobile Club; and, previously, in publicity and exploitation.

Albert Payson Terhune, Author, Dead

Albert Payson Terhune, 69, author and dog fancier, died at his home, Sunnybank, in Pompton Lakes, N. J., on Wednesday, February 18th. More than 30 of his stories, principally about dogs, were made into motion pictures. Mr. Terhune was born in Newark, N. J., and began his writing career on the staff of the New York Evening World. In 1909 he wrote the comic opera "Nero," which he produced at New York in collaboration with William C. de Mille. "Lad: A Dog," "Gray Dawn," "Treve" and many of his other dog stories were the basis of screen plays. "The Mighty Treve," produced by Universal in 1937, was his most recent motion picture.

Majors Report on Holdovers

Holdovers of current releases were reported this week by several of the major companies:

"Woman of the Year," MGM: Radio City Music Hall, New York, opened February 5th; Boyd Theatre, Philadelphia, opened February 5th.

"The Bugle Sounds," MGM: Stanton, Philadelphia, opened January 31st; Fox, San Francisco, opened February 5th; Palace, Cincinnati, January 29th.

"Louisiana Purchase," Paramount: Metropolitan, Boston, opened February 5th; Paramount, Springfield, Mass., opened February 4th; Capital, Worcester, Mass., February 6th, and the Paramount, New Haven, Conn., February 5th.

"Bahama Passage," Paramount: Newman, Kansas City, opened February 6th; Paramount, Portland, Ore., opened February 4th.

"Ball of Fire," RKO: held for seventh week, Keith Theatre, Washington; second week at the Varsity, Lincoln, Neb.; third week in Cincinnati, and second week in Dayton.

"Suspicion," RKO: held for a second week at the Golden Gate, San Francisco.

"Dumbo," RKO: second week at the Aldine, Philadelphia.

"The Corsican Brothers," United Artists: opened February 5th, Loew's in Jersey City; opened February 5th at Loew's, Newark.

"Ride 'Em Cowboy," Universal: opened February 11th, Strand, Hartford; opened February 13th, Rialto, Louisville; February 13th, Civic, Portland, Me., and February 13th, Granada, Spokane.

"Hellzapoppin," Universal: opened January 31st, Keith's, Baltimore; opened February 11th, Palace, Chicago; February 13th, Fox, Detroit; February 11th, Hawaii, Los Angeles; February 11th, Albee, Providence; February 6th, Centre, Salt Lake City; February 5th, Fox, St. Louis; February 11th, Capitol, Springfield, Mass., and February 6th, Rivoli, Toledo.

"It Started With Eve," Universal: opened February 5th, Hillstreet and Pantages, Los Angeles.

"Appointment for Love," Universal: opened February 12th, Keith's Syracuse.

"Wolf Man," Universal: opened January 23rd, Vogue, Los Angeles.

Warner Bros. "Captain of the Clouds," began its second week at the Strand Theatre, New York, this Friday, piling up an estimated gross of $33,000 for the first three days. Warner's report the film hit "a new all time record weekend business" as Shea's, Toronto, and is playing to capacity at the Midwest, Oklahoma City.

"Sullivan's Travels," Paramount, completed its third and final week at New York's Paramount Theatre. The picture chalked up an estimated $21,000 for last Saturday and Sunday, with a reported gross of $45,000 for the week.

"Woman of the Year," MGM, second week at the Music Hall, New York, will exceed the first week's draw of $100,500, according to G. S. Eyssell, managing director of the theatre. The Hepburn-Tracy picture drew $68,000, he reported, in the first four days of the second week, during which period, 95,441 persons saw the film, with many taking advantage of the Lincoln's Birthday holiday.

Twentieth Century-Fox, reporting on opening day business of "Roxie Hart," starring Ginger Rogers, announced that premiere day receipts ran an "average of 12 per cent" at the Palace Theatre, Rochester, over "A Yank in the R.A.F." and "How Green Was My Valley."

Anent "the hardest perennial of them all," says MGM, "Gone With the Wind," the David O. Selznick production, is now playing "third season" popular price return engagements in six cities, Cleveland, Houston, New Orleans, Cincinnati, Milwaukee and Buffalo, "with attendance right on a level with that of earlier record-breaking engagements in each situation."

IN THE COURTS

ASCAP Again in Court, Sued for $298,319

The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers is having more court headaches.

Damages totalling $298,319 are claimed against the Society this week, in Omaha Federal Court, by the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society, owner of radio station WOW in that city.

Co-defendant is Eugene Blazer, ASCAP representative in Omaha.

The amount named is three times that paid ASCAP by WOW for music from 1937, when the state's anti-ASCAP law passed. It is claimed under the law's triple damage provision.

Inasmuch as the WOW suit is brought in behalf of "all others similarly situated" in Nebraska, who may enter as intervenors, the amount may reach $1,000,000 observers predict.

The United States Supreme Court upheld the constitutionality of the state law last May.

Out in Nebraska

John Paine, general manager of the Society, said in New York Friday last, February 13th, that the organization was no longer in Nebraska; it has released all members there, urging them to make separate deals for music.

Meanwhile, state amusement circles predict a flood of counter suits by ASCAP members against users of their music, under national copyright law. They reported this week inspections made in theatres, ballrooms, hotels, radio stations with some using 40 or more ASCAP numbers in one evening. In each instance a separate infringement has been made. Each one means $250, plus legal fees and court costs. The total, these circles say, will be staggering, and if collected, will put some places out of business.

Theatres particularly are vulnerable, with contracts not covering music. Since the law's approval, they have been using music free.

The copyright infringement suit of Gene Buck, president of ASCAP and other musical societies against Harry L. Lavietes, filed before the Government suit against ASCAP but not previously pressed for hearing, was among the suits included in the docket for assignment by Judge Carroll C. Hincks at the opening of the February term of the U. S. District Court in New Haven. E. M. Loew's Enterprises, Inc., Hartford theatre operator, and Susan Palmer, owner of Palmer's Casino, Branford, have now been added as defendants, in addition to Mr. Lavietes, operator of the Pequot, New Haven, and total damages asked are $1,750.

Raise Canadian Copyright Fee

The Canadian Copyright Appeal Board disclosed Monday, in Ottawa, that the country's music copyright organizations will collect more radio fees in 1942. Taking as bases the number of receiving sets licensed, the Canadian Performing Rights Society, Ltd., may collect $116,337 in 1942, compared with the $107,612 it collect in 1940. BMI Canada, Ltd., may collect $14,547, compared with $13,451 in 1941. Broadcasters pay the fees.

Court Rules On Copyright

A composer or author is bound by his assignment of renewal rights to his original copyright, even though the composer's estate retains rights to the renewal if the composer dies during the original copyright's term, the United States Circuit Court of Appeals ruled in New York, this week. In the belief of film attorneys the decision affects stories and films as well as music, because the copyright question has been long moot.

The ruling supported the contention of M. Witmark and Sons, a Warner subsidiary, that George Graff, Jr., had no right to assign renewal of copyright to "When Irish Eyes are Smiling" to Fred Fisher, like Witmark music publishers. Mr. Graff assigned his rights in original copyright to Witmark. He also assigned his rights to renewal. When the copyright expired after 28 years, he gave the renewal, as noted, to Fisher; and Witmark sued for an injunction, upheld by the court by a vote of two to one.

Dissenting Judge Jerome Frank wrote that Congress' intention was to disallow transfer of renewal rights by a composer, until the first 28 year term expired.

Settle Becker Suit Out of Court

The contract suit of Jacob Becker, operator of the Roxy Theatre, Maple Shade, N. J., against Melvin Fox, Philadelphia exhibitor and owner of the house, has been pending in Philadelphia courts for several years, was settled out of court on a friendly basis, it was disclosed last week. Mr. Becker had operated the Roxy on a verbal arrangement with Fox upon expiration of the lease, and the out-of-court settlement gave him a new 10-year lease for continued operation.

Begin Baker Trial

Frankie Baker's $200,000 damage suit against Republic started in St. Louis Federal Court Tuesday. The 60 year old Negro woman contends the company's picture, "Frankie and Johnny" defamed her. She says she is the "Frankie" of legend and song.

Sue Loew's, Feist

The Sheldon-Mitchell Publishing Corporation sought an injunction last week in New York Supreme Court, to prevent Loew's, Inc., and Leo Feist, music publisher, from using the song, "You'll Never Know," asserting it owns right to it under assignment by William Mitchell, Henry Levinson, and Fred Wise.

Abbott-Costello Hearing

Arbitration hearings started in Hollywood Tuesday, on efforts by comedians Lou Costello and Bud Abbott to abrogate a contract with the William Morris agency.

Appeal Appeals Ruling

Samuel Shevin and Ben Cohn have filed a motion for reconsideration in the Detroit United States Circuit Court of Appeals. The motion concerns the Kramer Theatre case, involving rights to its occupancy, which the court recently assigned to the Kramer family. Messrs. Cohn and Shevin argue the ruling is inconsistent because it is based on both validity and invalidity of the lease from the Kramers to them.

Lombard Will Probated

The will of Carole Lombard, covering an estate "in excess of $10,000," was admitted to probate last week in Los Angeles. Miss Lombard's husband, Clark Gable, is the sole beneficiary.

OBITUARIES

Edwin Royle, Author, Playwright, Dies

Edwin Milton Royle, author of "The Squaw Man" and other plays, died at his home in New York, February 16th, at the age of 79. Born in Lexington, Mo., he studied law at Princeton and Edinburgh University, but turned to the theatre where he acted with Edwin Booth.

He was an obscure playwright until the success of "The Squaw Man" which was purchased for $5,000 by Jesse Lasky and filmed as the first feature-length picture ever made in the United States. Cecil B. DeMille produced it in Hollywood, with Dustin Farnum in the lead. After his first achievement, Royle wrote "The Winning of Barbara Worth," "The Unwritten Law," "Barberry Bush" and other stage triumphs.

He is survived by two daughters, Josephine and Selena Royle, both of the theatre.

"Mrs. Wiggs" Author Dies

Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice, author of the famous novel, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" died at her home in Louisville, Ky., February 10th. She was 72. She wrote many other books and articles but "Mrs. Wiggs," first published in 1901, brought her greatest fame. It was produced as a play and later was made into a film. Paramount first produced it in 1919 and brought "Mrs. Wiggs" back to the screen in 1934, with Pauline Lord and W. C. Fields in the principal roles. A third re-make of the story is being considered in Hollywood. She is survived by her husband, Cale Young Rice, poet and dramatist.

F. Raoul Cleaver

F. Raoul Cleaver, connected with motion pictures in Detroit for 30 years, died in Saginaw, Mich., February 11th, after a long illness. After managing several theatres in London, England, he was associated with Universal, Powers Pictures of Michigan and Imperial Pictures.

Edwin Mordant

Edwin Mordant, stage and screen actor for 50 years, died in Hollywood on Monday, February 10th at the age of 73. Among his latest appearances were those in "Outlaws of Sonora" and "Shadows Over Shanghai."

Jacob A. Israel

Jacob A. Israel, 51, a Warner checker in Milwaukee for many years, died at Soldiers' Home Hospital on Sunday, February 15th.

C. Ernest Walker

C. Ernest Walker, an exhibitor for more than 25 years, was stricken with a heart attack on Sunday, February 15th at the Capitol Theatre in Digby, N. S., which he had built and opened, and died before reaching his home.

Grover LaTarte

Grover LaTarte, manager of the M & P Paramount Theatre in Fort Fairfield, Me., died on Sunday, February 15th of a heart attack.

Albert H. Aldinger

Albert H. Aldinger, 65, construction superintendent of the United Artists Theatre in Detroit, died on Monday, February 16th after an illness of two weeks.

Gray Hoffman

Gray Hoffman, manager of the Clifton Theatre in Parkersburg, W. Va., died February 12th following an appendicitis operation.

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Columbia

BLAZING SIX SHOOTER: Charles Starrett—Another western. The farm lads seemed satisfied. We were at the box office.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

FUGITIVE AT LARGE: Jack Holt—A fair programmer with Jack Holt taking two parts. Running time, 66 minutes. Played January 15-17.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

RETURN OF WILD BILL, THE: Bill Elliott—One of the best western shows we have played in a long while. Good acting, photography and plenty of action. Running time, 58 minutes. Played January 5-7.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

WOMAN IS THE JUDGE, A: Frieda Inescourt—A good programmer that was well liked. Running time, 62 minutes. Played January 8-10.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BILLY THE KID: Robert Taylor, Brian Donlevy, Ian Hunter—Just a big western in color.—J. N. Wells, Wells Theatre, Kingsland, Ga. Small town patronage.

BUGLE SOUNDS, THE: Wallace Berry, Marjorie Main, Lewis Stone—Very good army picture, with a fine cast.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE: Spencer Tracy, Lana Turner, Ingrid Bergman—A good picture that was entirely too long for a picture of this type. The average patron of mine likes to have his hair settle back on his head after a while. I had the worst business with this I've ever had with these stars. Running time, 123 minutes. Played January 28, 29.—Felix H. Tisdale, Ga-Ana Theatre, Georgiana, Ala. Small town patronage.

DOWN IN SAN DIEGO: Bonita Granville, Ray McDonald, Dan Dailey, Jr.—This was only a fair program picture. Business fair. Played January 26-27.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

DOWN IN SAN DIEGO: Bonita Granville, Ray McDonald, Dan Dailey, Jr.—Just a program picture which failed to draw. Running time, 73 minutes. Played February 4-5.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

FEMININE TOUCH, THE: Don Ameche, Rosalind Russell—A good picture I know for a big town or at least one larger than mine. I simply can't do average business with pictures in this category. All that saw it enjoyed it, but they stayed away in droves. Played January 21, 22.—Felix H. Tisdale, Ga-Ana Theatre, Georgiana, Ala. Small town patronage.

LADY, BE GOOD: Eleanor Powell, Ann Sothern, Robert Young—Good musical show and good business. The three Berry Brothers, colored, are great. Running time, 112 minutes. Played February 1-2.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

LIFE BEGINS FOR ANDY HARDY: Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland—This one will suit any kind of patronage you have.—J. N. Wells, Wells Theatre, Kingsland, Ga. Small town patronage.

SMILIN' THROUGH: Jeanette MacDonald, Gene Raymond, Brian Aherne—This was a honey with Norma Talmadge in a silent version way back in 1922; it was also a boxoffice attraction with Norma Shearer in the "Talkies" in 1932. Now, with Jeanette MacDonald done in beautiful color, it proved to be an outstanding boxoffice bonanza, surpassing "Blossoms in the Dust" and "Belle Starr." If all reissues were as good, they should all be made over again. Running time, 100 minutes. Played January 4-5.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

SMILIN' THROUGH: Jeanette MacDonald, Brian Aherne—Well, now let's put this oldtimer away for a good long rest. Maybe in 20 or 25 years it could be brought back, but, please, not before then. We've played this picture with three different stars. It has been on the stage of our theatre with stock companies and the old chautauquas until we almost know

This is the original exhibitors' reports department, established October 14, 1916. In it the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box-office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address your reports to—

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

it by heart. But we'll have to admit this was a beautiful version, the first time with music, and well received by a pretty good attendance. Running time, 100 minutes. Played February 1-2.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

Paramount

BISCUIT EATER, THE: Billy Lee, Cordell Hickman—A swell feature; poor title. Running time, 79 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma. General and neighborhood patronage.

BORDER VIGILANTES: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, Andy Clyde—A good western that pleased the week-end trade. Business only fair. Played January 30-31.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

BUY ME THAT TOWN: Lloyd Nolan, Constance Moore—A nice little B programmer used with "The Bride Wore Crutches." A comedy drama from Fox for family night, results at the boxoffice were fair, but not outstanding; reason either picture did not have what it takes to get them in. Those that came were satisfied. Running time, 70 minutes. Played February 3.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

HOLD BACK THE DAWN: Charles Boyer, Olivia de Havilland—Good picture, many favorable comments. Good business in spite of severe weather. Played January 5-7.—Small town patronage.

I WANTED WINGS: Ray Milland, William Holden, Wayne Morris, Veronica Lake—Pulled out on first day. Bad isn't the word for it. I implore every exhibitor who hasn't played it not to. It seems that lately Paramount has been overdoing to a great extent immoral incidents in some of their product. Take a tip; junk it by all means. Weather good; business putrid.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

I WANTED WINGS: Ray Milland, William Holden, Wayne Morris, Veronica Lake—Just the right class of picture for my patrons. Plenty of action and right now everybody is interested in the schooling of our young aviators. Could recommend this production in any spot for good entertainment. Running time, 132 minutes. Played January 24.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

KISS THE BOYS GOODBYE: Mary Martin, Don Ameche, Oscar Levant, "Rochester"—A light musical that pleased the majority. Mary Martin is a charming actress with a good voice and it is a treat to hear her sing. The other attractions are Don Ameche, Oscar Levant and the one and only "Rochester." The story is quite humorous and should please those who enjoy this type of picture. Running time, 81 minutes. Played February 7.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

KISS THE BOYS GOODBYE: Don Ameche, Mary Martin—Good picture, business about average. Played January 17-19.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

NEW YORK TOWN: Fred MacMurray, Mary Martin, Akim Tamiroff, Lynne Overman—Nice program picture a little above average. Always like Tamiroff and Overman in supporting roles. Running time, 75 minutes. Played February 4-5.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH: Bob Hope, Paulette Goddard, Edward Arnold—A snow storm hurt receipts on this picture. Patrons' comments were not so good. Not nearly as good as "Draft." Running time, 90 minutes. Played February 1-2.—Eddie Arnstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

ONE NIGHT IN LISBON: Madeleine Carroll, Fred MacMurray—No business on this one. Played it second run with regrets.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

RIDERS OF THE TIMBERLINE: William Boyd, Brad King, Andy Clyde—Good picture and good business, with "Hopalong" as a lumber jack. Pleased on Friday-Saturday. Running time, 59 minutes. Played February 6-7.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

SECRET OF THE WASTELANDS: Bill Boyd—We're mighty sorry to see Paramount cheapen this Cassidy series of westerns with very ordinary supporting casts. They must not think that Boyd and Andy Clyde can hold up every picture without some help. And certainly they should not let the stories get so weak. Running time, 66 minutes. Played January 30-31.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

SECRETS OF THE WASTELAND: Bill Boyd, Andy Clyde—A nice weekend western that seemed to satisfy. Nearly as good as Autry.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

Producers Releasing

REG'LAR FEELERS: Billy Lee, Carl "Alfalfa" Switzer, Buddy Boles—Played with "Call a Messenger," Universal. This program brought out a record-breaking kid attendance, and a good average of adults. In the past we found that the Dead End Kids drew for us, so we picked up "Call a Messenger," which is rather old by now, but a picture that hasn't been seen by our patrons is still new to them. It must have been the combination that drew the children. It might be said this program was too much kid stuff for a Sunday and Monday playdate, but the adults also came up to a good average, and the program pleased them, old and young.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

Republic

DOWN MEXICO WAY: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—They didn't come quite as good for us on this as they usually come for an Autry picture. As far as being an Autry special, all the special that I saw about it was the extra rental charged for the specials. It was up to the Autry standard, which was good enough. It drew a good average, but it was a let-down from his other pictures.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

HURRICANE SMITH: Ray Middleton, Jane Wyatt—Here is a swell picture. This was doubled with "Down Mexico Way." Some of our patrons commented more on this than they did on the Autry picture. Ray Middleton has possibilities as a strong virile type. This is truly a fine picture, worthy of a place on any program.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

ICE-CAPADES: Dorothy Lewis, James Ellison, Jerry Colonna—Business very poor on this feature. Miss Lewis was not so much on looks or acting ability. The big skating sequences were too dark and we had difficulty getting enough light on them. Colonna and Barbara Jo Allen did much to fill in the lack of interest our audience showed towards the stars. Running time, 88 minutes.—Played January 28-29.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

MOUNTAIN MOONLIGHT: Weaver Brothers and Elvira—Good picture, business average Friday and Saturday. Played January 30-31.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

RHYTHM OF THE SADDLE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—Very good western. Good business, but a bad print. Played February 6-7.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

SIERRA SUE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—Good Autry picture, played to good business Friday and Saturday. Played February 6-7.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

SIERRA SUE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—Double featured with "Wild Geese Calling" from the Fox Studios to make up an excellent Friday and Saturday bill. The action fans turned out in droves and swelled the receipts to near capacity business. Everyone well pleased with results. Running time, 64 minutes. Played February 6-7.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

UNDER FIESTA STARS: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette—I know Frog was getting tired of drawing the crowd alone and Tadpole is a welcome newcomer. My Autry business really picked up with this picture and I think Tadpole and Frog was the big reason. They are tops with good possibilities for my situation. Running time, 64 minutes. Played February 7.—Felix H. Tisdale, Ga-Ana Theatre, Georgiana, Ala. Small town patronage.

RKO Radio

CITIZEN KANE: Orson Welles—Let the paid critics rave; if you run a small situation, you had better leave this one alone. I had 54 grown customers when the show started; when it ended I had 23; the most walk-outs since business started.—J. N. Wells, Wells Theatre, Kingsland, Ga. Small town patronage.

FATHER TAKES A WIFE: Adolphe Menjou, Gloria Swanson, Desi Arnaz—Fairly good comedy.—J. N. Wells, Wells Theatre, Kingsland, Ga. Small town patronage.

GAY FALCON, THE: George Sanders, Wendy Barrie, Allen Jenkins—Just something to fill out a commitment.—J. N. Wells, Wells Theatre, Kingsland, Ga. Small town patronage.

GUNGA DIN (Reissue): Cary Grant, Victor McLaglan, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.—A marvelous picture; still running strong. Running time, 117 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

IN NAME ONLY: Carole Lombard, Cary Grant, Kay Francis—One of the best. By all means, don't pass this one up. Running time, 94 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

LADY SCARFACE: Dennis O'Keefe, Judith Anderson—One of those mystery pictures that any theatre could do without.—J. N. Wells, Wells Theatre, Kingsland, Ga. Small town patronage.

MEXICAN SPITFIRE'S BABY: Lupe Velez, Leon Errol, Charles "Buddy" Rogers—A good slapstick, but almost like all other "Mexican Spitfire" pictures, some people thought that I was showing it for a repeat, it was so near like the first one.—J. N. Wells, Wells Theatre, Kingsland, Ga. Small town patronage.

THEY KNEW WHAT THEY WANTED: Carole Lombard, Charles Laughton—Used my cancellation privilege on this a year ago, but played it just after Miss Lombard's unfortunate demise. (Had one show to date from RKO to complete last year's contract.) From reports read in these columns I was led to believe it was cluck, but after seeing it can praise it most highly. A few didn't seem to care for it, but most of the fans thought it an exceptional fine picture.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

BELLE STARR: Gene Tierney, Randolph Scott—I'll be glad when we have southern girls with southern accents to play southern parts. Gene Tierney certainly was a flop as far as speech was concerned. Too many people told me about it. I had good business even if this was voted to be a sorry picture. I am a little tired of the war between the states, but to get a crowd give me anybody with a gun or plenty music. The rougher, the better. Running time, 87 minutes. Played February 4, 5.—Felix H. Tisdale, Ga-Ana Theatre, Georgiana, Ala. Small town patronage.

BRIDE WORE CRUTCHES, THE: Lynne Roberts, Ted North—See review on "Buy Me That Town," played February 3.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Penn. General patronage.

CHARLEY'S AUNT: Jack Benny, Kay Francis, James Ellison—We showed this production about 15 years ago in silent form and the same people (plus their children) who saw this version laughed just as heartily. Bad weather hurt our Sunday night business. Running time, 82 minutes. Played February 1-2.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

CHARLIE CHAN IN RIO: Sidney Toler, Mary Beth Hughes—Not as good as the old "Chan" pictures. Suitable for dual bills.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

CHARLIE CHAN'S MURDER CRUISE: Sidney Toler, Marjorie Weaves, Lionel Atwill—Fairly good thriller. Doubled with "Elsa Maxwell's Public Deb No. 1."—W. G. Clark, Alamo Theatre, Pine Bluff, Ark. Suburban patronage.

NEW CONTRIBUTOR TO DEPARTMENT

A new contributor reported to the What the Picture Did for Me department, and three others resumed after an absence of some time. The new contributor is:

CHARLES N. BELL, Centro Theatre, Los Angeles, Calif.

The contributors who resumed after a lapse are:

D. P. THOMAS, Garrettsville Theatre, Garrettsville, Ohio.

E. K. MENAGH, Star Theatre, Fort Lupton, Colo.

PETE S. CAPORAL, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla.

CHARTER PILOT: Lloyd Nolan, Lynn Bari—Very doubtful. Nolan isn't cut out for this type of stuff. Running time, 70 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

ELSA MAXWELL'S PUBLIC DEB NO. 1: George Murphy, Brenda Joyce, Elsa Maxwell, Mischa Auer—Pleasing comedy for mid-week. Average business. Played January 6-7.—W. G. Clark, Alamo Theatre, Pine Bluff, Ark. Suburban patronage.

I WAKE UP SCREAMING: Betty Grable, Victor Mature, Carole Landis—Here is a surprisingly good detective story with a really unusual ending. The acting is above average, too. It drew very well and, all in all, I am very satisfied with the receipts on it. Running time, 82 minutes. Played February 5.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

JENNIE: Virginia Gilmore, William Henry—This is one of the best programmers we have played. It was a big hit here. Well liked by everybody. Running time, 78 minutes. Played January 19-21.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

MICHAEL SHAYNE, PRIVATE DETECTIVE: Lloyd Nolan—I personally thought this an entertaining show, but somehow or other it did not click with our audience. Running time, 77 minutes. Played January 22-24.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

PRIVATE NURSE: Brenda Joyce, Jane Darwell, Sheldon Leonard—Nothing to it. If an independent company had produced it, I would have laughed the salesman out of the office. Played February 4-5.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

REMEMBER THE DAY: Claudette Colbert, John Payne—Miss Colbert perfect as the teacher, ably supported by a good cast. Pleased everyone.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE: George Montgomery—An excellent draft! The name Zane Grey evidently still has great boxoffice power. The picture is hardly more than average, but that was good enough. Best Saturday business for nearly a year.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wis. General patronage.

RISE AND SHINE: Jack Oakie, George Murphy, Linda Darnell—Played this with "Swamp Water," Twentieth Century-Fox. It managed to get plenty of laughs and is fast-moving all the way through. Business was fairly good. Would have been better, but blizzard hurt second night. Running time, 92 minutes. Played February 6-7.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

RISE AND SHINE: Jack Oakie, George Murphy, Linda Darnell—Fair picture and fair business. People said it was silly. Running time, 97 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

SMALL TOWN DEB: Jane Withers, Jane Darwell—A very good Jane Withers. Played January 5.—J. N. Wells, Wells Theatre, Kingsland, Ga. Small town patronage.

SUN VALLEY SERENADE: Sonja Henie, John Payne, Glenn Miller and His Orchestra, Milton Berle—This, in my opinion, is a swell chunk of entertainment. You could not ask anything better to take people's minds off of the war situation. This drew well, whether it was the picture as a whole, or Sonja Henie, or Glenn Miller, who drew terrific crowds in a personal appearance. No doubt but that it was a little of each that was responsible for the results.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

SUN VALLEY SERENADE: Sonja Henie, John Payne, Glenn Miller and his Orchestra, Milton Berle—Good musical picture; all comments good. Don't miss it. Box office only average, though, but I am always proud to hear my patrons tell someone who was not there that they missed a good show. Played January 28-29.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

SUN VALLEY SERENADE: Sonja Henie, John Payne—A picture that gave more than I expected. I gave it extra advertising and devoted my exploitation to Glenn Miller. I think he should have had top billing. They came back three times to this one. This should be a tip for somebody to make a few pictures featuring our real orchestras. I give all my credit to Glenn Miller for the good business I had. Give us more music in these times. Running time, 86 minutes. Played February 1-2.—Felix H. Tisdale, Ga-Ana Theatre, Georgiana, Ala. Small town patronage.

SWAMP WATER: Walter Brennan, Walter Huston, Dana Andrews—Played this one with "Rise and Shine." Business quite good, but hurt by blizzard the second night. This was well liked by some of the patrons, but bored others. It is certainly well done; but melodrama in general does not go over too well in this situation. It is quite slow-moving most of the time, so it is not quite fair to advertise it as a thriller. Those moments are far apart. It was so cold we almost had to change the title to "Swamp Ice." Running time, 90 minutes. Played February 6-7.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

THAT NIGHT IN RIO: Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Carmen Miranda—Too long for a second and not quite a first. Poor business. Weather good. Running time, 90 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

THAT NIGHT IN RIO: Alice Faye, Don Ameche—A grand musical that should go over in any spot. Good acting, singing and beautiful color that was appreciated by everybody that saw it. Running time, 90 minutes. Played January 12-14.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

WILD GESE CALLING: Henry Fonda, Joan Bennett, Warren William—I don't see how Fox came to put this in the Class "A" price allocation. It certainly did not belong there. The best that one can give it is to put it in the class of good average program pictures. There was no special draw in this for us.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

WILD GESE CALLING: Henry Fonda, Joan Bennett, Warren William—We did well on this feature in spite of bad weather. Another argument in favor of better pictures. Fonda is very popular here. By the time we can show a picture, its reputation is well known and in a case like this one, they need no encouraging to come out. They also stay away from the "clucks." Running time, 78 minutes. Played February 4-5.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small lumber town patronage.

WILD GESE CALLING: Henry Fonda, Joan Bennett, Warren William—An adventure melodrama that really needs a tonic of some kind to put it over. I used Gene Autry in "Siera Sue" from Republic to turn the trick. Results were satisfactory and my audience liked the combination. The picture is well produced, but lacks that something in order to put it across. Running time, 78 minutes. Played February 6-7.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Penna. General patronage.

YANK IN THE RAF, A: Tyrone Power, Betty Grable—The best business we have so far in 1942. Picture is very, very good from every standpoint and received a lot of praise. We didn't do anything to get this extra business either. Just our regular run of advertisement that we use on all programs. (news-papers, trailer, and the paper out in front.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wisconsin. General patronage.

United Artists

CHEERS FOR MISS BISHOP: Martha Scott, William Gargan—No good for small towns. Did not do business in Chatham or Tilbury. Very good picture, nevertheless.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

GREAT DICTATOR, THE: Charles Chaplin, Jack Oakie, Paulette Goddard—Didn't do the business anticipated. Played it second run.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

GREAT DICTATOR, THE: Charles Chaplin, Jack Oakie, Paulette Goddard—This timely picture did good business in competition with "Louisiana Purchase" and "Shepherd of the Hills." We had people in to see Chaplin never before in the theatre. The first part is funny and the latter more dramatic. It will disappoint a few, but is well worth showing. Chaplin is the show and brings back pleasant memories to the older folks.—Player January 11-12.—W. G. Clark, Alamo Theatre, Pine Bluff, Ark. Suburban patronage.

INTERNATIONAL LADY: Ilona Massey, George Brent—A miserable draw and gave us a big loss. Any title with the word "Lady" in it has always meant bad business for us. The story seemed to be liked by most of the few that came, but personally I was thoroughly bored except for a few minutes at the beginning and at the end.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wisconsin. General patronage.

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

KIT CARSON: Jon Hall, Lynn Bari, Dana Andrews—Seemed to satisfy the patrons, but not me. Weather cold. Running time, 97 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

NEW WINE: Ilona Massey, Alan Curtis—The best we have had from United Artists this season, but I made the mistake of running the trailer. This helped to keep them away. The younger element did not care for this but the older ones, in the higher levels, praised it very highly.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wisconsin.

NIAGARA FALLS: Slim Summerville, Zasu Pitts—This pair just don't seem as funny now as they did 10 years ago. This is the second of United Artists short features and truthfully can't say that I am very enthusiastic about the series. We pay a little more for these than our lowest priced features and they are certainly not worth it. Might be a fair buy on the lowest price level.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wisconsin. General patronage.

TANKS A MILLION: William Tracy, Elyse Knox—Was greatly disappointed in this. Made without the cooperation of the U. S. Army and consequently the cast was too scanty to be convincing. As any two reel comedy, this had a number of laughs, but who wants to pay future prices for elongated comedies? And where were the tanks?—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wisconsin.

THREE COCKEYED SAILORS: Tommy Trinder, Claude Hurbert—This is pretty bad. One customer remarked that the only English he could understand was when the German seaman spoke broken English. He wasn't far off. These English produced shows are just a total loss in the mid-west. Certainly wouldn't have played it if I had seen it first.—L. V. Bergtold, Westby Theatre, Westby, Wisconsin. General patronage.

ZENOBIA: Oliver Hardy, Harry Langdon, Billie Burke—Would have had the much needed punch if Stan Laurel instead of Langdon were in it. Running time, 71 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

Universal

CALL A MESSENGER: Dead End Kids, Little Tough Guys—See review on "Reg'lar Fellers," Producers Releasing.—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

FLYING CADETS: Edmund Lowe, William Gargan, Peggy Moran—This was a good little program picture and pleased the week-end trade. Business only fair. Played as a double bill. Player January 30-31.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

HIT THE ROAD: Gladys George, Barton MacLane—An action type of picture that we double billed with "Mutiny in the Arctic" to nice business.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

HIT THE ROAD: Gladys George, Barton MacLane—A mediocre picture which did under average business. Better use this mid-week where it should do fair. Played January 8-10.—W. G. Clark, Alamo Theatre, Pine Bluff, Ark. Suburban patronage.

IN THE NAVY: Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Dick Powell, Andrews Sisters—Big disappointment compared to "Buck Privates." Running time, 86 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

MUTINY IN THE ARCTIC: Richard Arlen, Andy Devine—A fine action picture that did business.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

SAN ANTONIO ROSE: Jane Frazee, Robert Paige, Lon Chaney, Jr., Eve Arden—An ideal feature. Plenty of comedy and songs. A sure-fire. Running time, 63 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

SANDY IS A LADY: Baby Sandy, Nan Grey—This is a good show for the kiddies but the adults would not come to see it. Running time, 63 minutes. Played January 26-28.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

Warner Bros.-First National

BRIDE CAME C.O.D., THE: James Cagney, Bette Davis—A very good comedy with plenty of action to suit any audience. Bette Davis quite a favorite with my audiences and Cagney very good in this one. Play it. Running time, 10 minutes. Played January 31.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

BROTHER ORCHID: Edward G. Robinson, Ann Southern, Humphrey Bogart—A fair picture for its type. Satisfied all. Weather fair. Running time, 91 minutes.—Pete S. Caporal, Mayflower Theatre, Oklahoma City, Okla. General and neighborhood patronage.

(Continued on following page)

Time's A-Wastin!

Waal... bust mah cacky
britches, Barney Google's side-kick is in the movies! That bodacious hill-billy ball o' fire will have them laffin' their punkin-haids off!

MONOGRAM
PICTURES
presents

"PRIVATE SNUFFY SMITH"

By BILLY DE BECK

WITH Bud DUNCAN
Edgar KENNEDY
Sarah PADDEN

Produced by
EDWARD GROSS

Directed by
EDWARD CLINE

Based on the Comic Strip
"Barney Google and Snuffy Smith"
Owned and Copyrighted by King Features
Original Screenplay by John Grey & Jack Henley, Lloyd French & Doncho Hall

"Lot of good laughs, should play well to all audiences.
Bud Duncan a natural—the way millions have come to know and like Snuffy."
Film Daily

"Bodacious fun... good for a first-rate series... a funny show that has a ready-made audience of delighted followers."
Hollywood Reporter

"Mixes laughs and thrills. Fine direction, good acting by quartet of top character players."
Showmen's Trade Review

(Continued from preceding page)

DEVIL DOGS OF THE AIR: James Cagney, Pat O'Brien—A re-issue that is well worth bringing back any time. I played this on bargain day to the best business I've had on that day. Everybody liked it and I liked the way they turned out. I had the chance to repeat those sweet words, "Sorry, you'll have to wait for the next show." Running time, 86 minutes. Played January 23—Felix H. Tisdale, Ga-Ana Theatre, Georgiana, Alabama. Small town patronage.

DIVE BOMBER: Fred MacMurray, Errol Flynn—A spectacle in color. A very good picture and very timely with a different slant on a story of aviation and dive bombing. The only bad comment was a little too much of the same thing. Business was good and naturally I liked it. Running time, 133 minutes. Played January 25, 26—Felix H. Tisdale, Ga-Ana Theatre, Georgiana, Alabama. Small town patronage.

INTERNATIONAL SQUADRON: Ronald Reagan—Real good picture. Most authentic to date. Packed them in.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

MANPOWER: Edward G. Robinson, Marlene Dietrich, George Raft—This did below average for a midweek playdate. We gave it the works, advertised it to the fullest extent, but somehow, our patrons did not warm up to this. This was doubled with "Private Nurse."—J. E. Stocker, Myrtle Theatre, Detroit, Mich. Neighborhood patronage.

MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER, THE: Bette Davis, Ann Sheridan, Manty Woolley, Jimmy Durante—Comedy with sparkling dialogue by Monty Woolley. Too much Woolley and not enough Davis; not for an audience who is looking for action.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

SERGEANT YORK: Gary Cooper, Walter Brennan, Joan Leslie—A truly great picture in which Cooper gave the finest performance of his splendid career. All the exhibitor's troubles disappear when a picture like this one comes along which cinches the argument in favor of better product to cure box office trouble. Running time, 134 minutes. Played January 25-26.—A. C. Edwards, Winema Theatre, Scotia, Calif. Small town patronage.

SERGEANT YORK: Gary Cooper, Joan Leslie—I want to salute the director, actors and every one connected in the making of this picture. Cooper could not be better, Joan Leslie was good and Walter Brennan is the grand old man. The picture moves off from the start and there is never a let down. Should take top honors for the year. Business was above average. Played January 31-February 2.—Melville Danner, Kozy Theatre, Granite, Okla. Small town patronage.

STRAWBERRY BLONDE, THE: James Cagney, Olivia de Havilland, Rita Hayworth—A real good picture. Played second run to only average business.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

THEY DIED WITH THEIR BOOTS ON: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland—A natural. Played to hold over business.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

IN NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 46, Vol. 24.—Normandie capsizes....Battle for Singapore....U. S. Fleet in Action....Auto plants make tanks....Uniforms for soldiers....Sports.

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 47, Vol. 24.—First films Navy attack on Jap islands....America all-out for war....Bomber crew honored....Cruiser launched.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 244, Vol. 13.—U. S. Navy in Far East....Auto industry's victory program....New chemical puts out incendiaries....California children fingerprinted....Normandie capsized....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 245, Vol. 12.—U. S. Navy batters Jap bases....Singapore's fall perils America....Willkie warns nation of Jap danger.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 49.—Hollywood's war effort....New York seizes pinballs....Human statues in Springfield....U. S. Pacific fleet....Industry converted for war....Consider Normandie salvage....Bamboo for Zoo's pandas.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 50.—New army repair corps....Fighting ships launched....Fall of Singapore....Sports....Americans register....Navy raids Marshall islands.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 49.—Loss of Normandie....Auto industry converted....U. S. and Brazil talk rubber....Hollywood Evacuation Corps....Anti-incendiary liquid....Sports....Airplane carrier in Pacific.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 50.—U. S. Fleet Raids Jap Bases....Men register in draft....Soldiers repair weapons....R.C.A.F. men stage drill....Sports.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 58.—U. S. Navy in Pacific....Normandie capsized....Auto industry makes weapons....Knudson a Lieut. General....Fashions....Sports.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 59.—Navy raids Jap islands....New draft begins....Twin destroyers launched....Medal for Nininger....R.C.A.F. cadets in N. Y....Dog show....Sports.

Short Features

Columbia

FOX AND THE GRAPES, THE: Color Rhapsodies—Good color cartoon. Running time, 10 minutes.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Texas. Small town patronage.

IN THE SWEET PIE AND PIE: Stooges—This rolled them in the aisles. I personally laughed so hard I threw the old backbone for a ten yard loss and had to go for the heating pad. Running time, 20 minutes.—M. D. Stewart, Texas Theatre, De Leon, Texas. Small town patronage.

YOU NAZTY SPY: Three Stooges—You can't beat the Three Stooges for real laughs. Here they satirize the world's most hated dictator and his aides, and it is needless to add they are a scream. Anyone who can't enjoy this comedy must lack a sense of humor. Running time, 17 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

TELL-TALE HEART, THE: Two Reel Specials—Joseph Schildkraut does a good job of his part and the direction and photography are fine in this serious psychological study. The audience was quite absorbed by it but afterward commented that they would not want a regular diet of this type of short. Running time, 18 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

Paramount

SUPERMAN: Color Cartoon—Kansas should adopt this for its state trademark. Such "corn". Even the kids thought it was terrible. How about matching Superman and Popeye? Running time, 11 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

SUPERMAN IN THE BILLION DOLLAR LIMITED: Superman Color Cartoons—Good cartoon which pleased the kids 100 per cent. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

RKO Radio

IT HAPPENED ALL NIGHT: Edgar Kennedy Comedies—A fair comedy that seemed O.K.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

MARCH OF TIME, NO. 6: "When Air Raids Strike"—This March of Time will probably create some interest along the coastal cities, but out here it didn't create much interest. We get all this stuff in the newsreels and the weekly picture magazines, so it's old stuff when it finally gets here.—Mayme P. Musselman, Princess Theatre, Lincoln, Kan. Small town patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

LIFE OF A THOROUGHbred: Sports Review—A short all lovers of fine horses will enjoy. The photography is marvelous, especially the scenes of the Bluegrass State. The film ends with some exciting shots of that champion of the turf, Whirlaway. Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison Patronage.

Universal

SALT WATER DAFFY: Color Cartoon—A clever and humorous color cartoon on life in the Navy.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

SKYLINE SERENADE: Musical—Best two reeler this year from Universal. The last number, "Concerto for Two," is beautiful. Running time, 20 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

Vitaphone

GAY PARISIAN, THE: Technicolor Special—Of all the nonsensical musical shorts we have ever shown, believe this was the worst. The only redeeming feature was the music which at times was much too loud. Several patrons said they thought it would never end. Running time, 20 minutes.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

GOOD NIGHT ELMER: Merrie Melodies—Very poor reel. Not up to the standard. Running time, 7 minutes.—A. L. Dove, Bengough Theatre, Bengough, Saskatchewan, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

Miscellaneous

Government

BOMBER: Office of Emergency Management—This one should please every crowd. It is a dandy. Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

NEW SPIRIT, THE: Walt Disney Cartoon—A very good cartoon in which Donald Duck makes out his income tax report. It is free; play it. National Screen Service is distributing it. Running time, 7 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

TELEGRAMS

are feature length stories in short subject form

CLASS OF SERVICE DESIRED		CABLE
TELEGRAM	DOMESTIC	TELETYPE	INTERNATIONAL
DAY	LETTER	NIGHT	DEFERRED
NIGHT	LETTER	NIGHT	DEFERRED
TELETYPE	DEFERRED	TELETYPE	DEFERRED

ACCOUNTING INFORMATION

TIME FILED

WESTERN UNION

YOU CAN TAKE TIME TO STUDY A TELEGRAM . . .
TO PONDER . . . TO DIGEST. NO ONE LIKES TO BE PRESSED FOR A HASTY ANSWER OR AN ORAL PRESENTATION. . . . TOO MUCH CHANCE FOR ERROR.

WESTERN UNION

Everywhere

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

*An international association of showmen meeting weekly
in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress*

A-MIKE VOGEL, Chairman and Editor

GERTRUDE MERRIAM, Associate Editor

SERVING BOTH ENDS

These are days when every theatremen everywhere is directly concerned and largely occupied with the war effort. He is constantly called upon for cooperation; his theatre has become a rallying point for much of community activity. In this spotlight of public regard the manager conducts himself with becoming community consciousness. Sooner or later arises the problem of how far he can afford to go in pushing these activities without taking it out on the boxoffice.

Happily, the problem is not too difficult. Since the theatremen's part in any plan is to attract attention, it remains only for the troubled to see any war or other worthy drive as another job of showmanship, to determine that the best way to do it is to sell it as a component of a theatre campaign aimed at the boxoffice. Thus, he serves both ends with no discredit to either.

* * *

Lately comes a well-wrought campaign from Australia on "I Wanted Wings" at the Prince Edward, in Sydney. Executed by Hermann Flynn and Mel Lawton, the proceedings featured a screening for officers of the R.A.A.F. This led to a series of windows of material loaned by the Air Force, a first-time in that sector that such cooperation was obtained, and to which was linked the Air Force recruiting campaign. While the military services undoubtedly benefited from all of this, the resultant publicity was obviously of advantage to the boxoffice.

* * *

The pages this week recount some of the promotions sprung by Round Tablers, in Atlanta, by Tommy Read, who turned his front and lobby into an unusual exhibition for the sale of Defense Stamps and Bonds centering around a branch office installed in the foyer for the purpose. It was artistic, elaborate, unusual. The papers made much of it in story and photo. The public came in large numbers. Once on the scene, a goodly number of spectators continued on to see the show inside on the screen.

Other defense promotions are told of Doc Twedt, Arnold Stoltz, Doc Estes, Kal Kalberer, Eddie Ornstein, Joe Feulner, all representative of applied showmanship as practised by discerning theatremen in spreading their boxoffice fire over these extended horizons. They prove that seasoned in-stock theatre showmanship, organized to sell tickets, is strong enough to carry the extra load of war-time promotion.

Plans for presentation of the 1941 Quigley Grand Awards are now in work. As announced in last week's issue, the ceremonies will be held early in March in New York by the Associated Motion Picture Advertisers where Arnold Stoltz and Frank Bickstaff will be the guests of honor.

The executive committee in charge of planning comprises Spyros Skouras, National Theatres; J. R. Vogel, Loew's Theatres; Charles Koerner, RKO Theatres; Harry Kalmine, Warners Theatres and Leon Netter, Paramount Theatres.

CIVIC LEADERS, TOO

In the conservative and progressive community of Hanover, Pa., the Kiwanis Club bows in the direction of the theatre in electing to the presidency Manager Charlie Moyer of Warners' State and Strand. It is to be noted that, for the first time, the Kiwanians have so honored a member less than a life-long resident of the city.

Across the border, in Penticton, British Columbia, the folks have found reason enough to endorse, by unanimous choice, the selection of Manager J. H. Black of the F. P. C. Capitol to the leadership of the Board of Trade.

In both instances the local press made much of it, as was richly deserved. The Round Tablers have enriched their positions as theatre heads by giving of themselves and their operations to the good of their neighbors.

▽ ▽ ▽

NOW that most of the returns are in, we are able to report that a comfortable majority of winners among Paramount theatre managers in the recent "Salute to Y. Frank Freeman" contest are active Round Tablers. That the members do so well in these competitions has long been noted here as much more than a coincidence.

A-Mike Vogel

For his lobby on "Yank in the R.A.F." at the Frolic, in Chicago, Ben Cohn promoted use of one-tenth size scale model of a TWA Stratoliner. Body of plane was seven feet.

Ahead of "Keep 'Em Flying" at the Malco Paramount, in Hot Springs, Clyde Smith promoted planes and pilots to fly over city dropping parachute cutouts of Abbott and Costello. Three planes flying in "V" formation created quite a stir locally.

Street-attractor ahead of "Shanghai Gesture" at Loew's Palace, Memphis, conceived by Manager Boyd Fry was girl wheeled about town on especially constructed rickshaw.

Round Table In Pictures

To aid in the sale of Defense Stamps in the lobby of the L. & J. Capitol, Atlanta, Round Tabler Earle M. Holden utilized display illustrated above. In addition, Holden distributed four by seven cards bearing the same emblem and tie-in copy.

To tie in with the local Victory campaign in Glens Falls, N. Y., Herman Addison at Schine's Paramount arranged his "Vanishing Virginian" title letters in "V" formation on stair risers.

LATE EXPLOITATION FLASHES

CAMPAIGN HIGHLIGHTS ON POLLOCK DATES

Attention-catchers for late attractions at Loew's, Rochester, as reported by Les Pollock, tell about a lobby display featuring miniature bed and doll set with copy: "Loretta Young is waiting for Fredric March to tell her a Bedtime Story." Miniature table with mirror and chair will be included and on wall a small framed picture of March.

Lobby for "Shanghai Gesture" is built around a rickshaw with a model in costume as a passenger. Local museum was contacted for Chinese Buddha, tapestries and other accessories. Life-size cutout of Gene Tierney indicated the mood of the picture. On the stage, usherettes as Chinese girls opened curtain at beginning of trailer, then stood in tormentors, spotted in green, until trailer end.

For "Woman of the Year," art students sit at easels in lobby sketching from stills on the picture. Later, a display of the sketches will be shown and papers will run some of the better drawings of the two stars in advance of the showing.

GILMAN TIRE IN LOBBY SELLS "VIRGINIAN"

With everyone talking about the tire rationing, Sam Gilman did something about it at Loew's, Harrisburg, Pa., aimed to call attention to his date on "Vanishing Virginian." Rigged up in the lobby resting on an easel was a rebuilt tire framing center copy reading: "The Vanishing Tire soon will be forgotten. . . . But you'll never forget Frank Morgan in," etc.

When the gag was moved out front during the run, Sam aimed for more attention by adding a chain and padlock as a precaution against thievery.

CELEBRATE SCOUT WEEK WITH STAGE TABLEAUX

To officially open National Boy Scout Week in Houlton, Me., Francis Gooch invited the local troops to present a series of tableaux on the stage of the Houlton, depicting the various phases of scout work. As the boys posed in the different settings, offstage voices described the usefulness of the training given the Scouts for emergencies. Much publicity was had as a result.

"CORSICAN BROTHERS" PROPS MAKE BOSTON PUBLICITY

With the local university fencing team reported to be short of foils due to the defense program, Joe Longo grabbed a lot of newspaper shots in advance of "Corsican Brothers" at Loew's State and Orpheum, Boston, by promoting some of the foils used in the picture and presenting them on behalf of Douglas Fairbanks.

POSTCARD SERIES SELLS "WOMAN"

The reliable "critic" of "TIME MAGAZINE" says—

It's the New York story that tops "The Philadelphia Story" for two-listed entertainment! The Stars of the Year . . . in The Picture of the Year!

May We Recommend

You arrange your Social calendar to include a visit to the Cathaum Theatre, either Mon., Tues., or Wed., 9-10 or 11th for the presentation of an excellent photoplay—"WOMAN OF THE YEAR," featuring Miss Katharine Hepburn and Mr. Spencer Tracy.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR ✓ FEBRUARY 9 ✓ 10 ✓ or 11 ✓

For on the above dates, it will give us great pleasure to present to you The Stars of the year in the picture of the year, Miss Katharine Hepburn and Mr. Spencer Tracy in "WOMAN OF THE YEAR"—an Excellent film achievement. We know you'll rave about it!

We Are Certain,—Fine People Like You—

will be interested to know, that the Conservative Saturday Evening Post has paid tribute to Miss Katharine Hepburn's greatness. In a recent series of articles on Miss Hepburn, they called attention to the versatility of her role in "WOMAN OF THE YEAR." It is different from anything in which she has appeared before. Mr. Spencer Tracy is the talented Co-Star in this great Photoplay. We know you will enjoy this PICTURE of the YEAR!—when it is presented at the CATHAUM THEATRE Mon., Tues., Wed., February 9-10-11.

To a hand-picked list of 500 names in State College, Pa., was mailed a series of four postcards, starting four days ahead, by Chuck Shannon for "Woman of the Year." Shown above, are reproduced the first three, dispatched one a day to the same names, the fourth, a "last reminder," mailed night before the opening.

ROSY OFFERS LESSONS IN "PARIS" DANCE

The "bumps-a-daisy" dance shown in the picture and detailed in the pressbook was tied in with his campaign on "Paris Calling" at Loew's Majestic, Bridgeport, Morris Rosenthal arranging with a leading night club to give lessons in the dance to patrons. Contests were held nightly for passes of theatre tickets, the club advertising the tie-in widely, plugging picture and theatre. Rosy planted additional stuff on the idea for further buildup.

DEFENSE STAMPS GIVEN ON "MR. V" CONTEST

For "Mr. V" at the New York Rivoli, a 10-day newspaper contest was devised with prizes of defense stamps given to readers identifying a "Mr. V" and accosting him with a copy of the current day's issue saying: "I understand you have something for me." Paper ran daily itineraries of the neighborhoods in which he would appear.

Winners were eligible for further prizes of defense bonds for letters of 100 words or less on "Why I am a Mr. V" and what the writers were doing in behalf of defense.

LANDS ON SEVEN PAGES FOR CAPITOL SHOWS

New publicity high for Jack Nelson and the Capitol, North Bay, Ontario, is noted in a recent issue of his daily, the Famous Players Canadian manager hitting on seven pages for different breaks, starting with an offer of 10 free tickets to any local enlistment at the theatre during the showing of "Sergeant York". Recruiting officers were on hand in the lobby to follow through for Nelson.

In addition to other plants on coming attractions, such as serializations, mentions by columnists, etc., Nelson was also prominent in a two-page spread of pictures of an "old timers" banquet in which Jack headed the committee of arrangements.

HORROR SOUND RECORDING ATTRACTS ON "WOLF MAN"

Pegging his campaign on "Wolf Man" to a lot of teaser chill "watch-out" copy, Ray Wheeler built up interest in advance to a giant lobby cutout, 10 feet high, and planted in the mezzanine, of the B. & K. Granada, South Bend, Ind. To give it more "life", Wheeler had a recording made of the werewolf's cries, playing it through a loudspeaker attached to the rear of the display. During the run the flash was placed out front with the speaker atop the boxoffice. "It sold tickets," says Ray.

PARAMOUNTEER GREETES CRITICS WITH NOVELTIES

Veteran Round Tabler, Max Joice, exploiting for Paramount in the Cleveland and Detroit sectors reports newspaper and radio attentions secured with novelties addressed to the editors, for instance, a salt gag for "Bahama Passage" and sugar for "Louisiana Passage." On the former a small bag of salt was pinned to a card reading: "I wouldn't have you believe this came from Salt Cay in the Bahamas but that's where Bahama Passage was actually filmed." Picture and theatre credits followed with playdates.

SHOWMEN'S LOBBY LAFFS Schiners Report Recent Doings

This cartoon from the brush of George Menelaws, Dominion Theatre, Victoria, B. C.

CLEANER: If I got an introduction to Wrigley, I'd simply ignore it!

Bowling Alley Ties in for "Strikes and Spares"

By posting a half-dozen guest tickets as prizes and no further expense or trouble, Round Tabler Bill Johnson at Smalley's Theatre, in Dolgeville, N. Y., turned his entire local bowling fraternity into publicity agents for his shorts subject, "Strikes and Spares."

Announcement of the awards, including a plug for the short and the feature which played on the same date, was posted on the bowling alley bulletin board before the start of the week's regular league matches. Awarding of the prizes was handled by the bowling secretary and announcement of the winners carried in the usual weekly publicity on the standing.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

"Fib" Contest Highlights Conners "Laughing" Date

Novelty gag ahead of "Look Who's Laughing" at the Music Box Theatre, in Tacoma, Wash., was a "fib" contest staged by Manager Bill Conner. Ladies in the audience were asked to submit "tall stories" told them by their husbands, contest sponsored by the Tacoma Times and ran for six days in advance of playdates. Ten dollars in defense savings stamps were awarded as first prize with runnersup receiving free tickets to the opening. Daily spot announcements also emphasized the radio audience appeal of the four stars in the picture.

Kelly Addresses Contest To Wives on "Laughing"

Joe Kelly of the Warners' Theatre, Aberdeen, Wash., tied-in with the Daily Washingtonian for a five-day "Look Who's Laughing" fib contest. Copy was addressed to patient wives and read as follows: "Has your husband told a better tall story than Fibber McGee told Molly? Every wife has a tall story in the back of her mind that her husband once told as an excuse for staying out late, being late for dinner or forgetting to put the cat out." Guest tickets were awarded for the best tall story. Kelly also scored with a drugstore tie-up based on stills depicting Bergen and Lucille Ball operating on Charlie McCarthy.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Rodeo Owner Cooperates On "Texas" Opening

Since the Capitol Theatre is located in Waverly, N. Y., the home of Col. Jim Eskew and his Rancho Rodeo and since Colonel Jim is a great lover of the state of Texas, T. J. Cary and Ned Kornblite contacted him to help exploit their date on "Texas". Colonel Jim made a personal appearance at the theatre on Saturday afternoon along with some of his boys from the ranch and their horses. A hitching post was built in front and the Texas flags loaned by the ranchman were draped around the boxoffice. Papers came through with story two days in advance on the special matinee and parade.

The steady promotional progress among Schine Circuit theatremen which gains comprehensive coverage in effective advertising and publicity directions is noted currently in recent reports by Schiners in the different zones, emphasized particularly in campaigns in such representative situations as Middlesboro, Ky., Syracuse and Amsterdam, N. Y.

As an instance, the unique slant, utilized by Harry D. Stearn and Si Monen for "Bedtime Story" at the Manning, in Middlesboro, had the cashier calling all telephone subscribers asking them if they would like to hear a "bedtime story." Girl then went into a pitch about the feature. In addition, teaser ads were run in the newspaper's want ad section plugging playdates and stars, copy read: "You have heard Bedtime Stories, now see one."

For "All Through the Night," the Round Tablers planted teaser cards in eating places with copy: "This restaurant is open All Through the Night." In addition, special heralds were distributed around the area plugging the gangland and gestapo battles in the picture. Ahead of "Playdates" a classified ad contest was planted, guest tickets going to those correctly assembling names of the Kay Kayser band members scattered throughout the ads.

Feldman Stresses Radio

Newspaper limerick contest was featured by Dick Feldman at the Paramount, in Syracuse ahead of "All Through the Night," guest tickets going to those submitting best last lines, two column cuts featuring each ad plugging the contest. All local radio stations were supplied with records of the hit tune from the picture, orchestra featuring the same at leading hotel week ahead of playdate. All music stores displayed records with appropriate credit cards and dancing academy advertised the show and music night preceding opening.

Inasmuch as Jack Oakie and Milton Milton Berle, starring in the picture, appeared on radio programs the day after his opening of "Rise and Shine," Dick promoted station WSYR for spot announcements during the week, mentioning the picture, stars, playdates and second feature on the bill.

Penny postcards were mailed to every fraternity and sorority at Syracuse University calling their attention to the football musical comedy.

O'Neil's Testimonial Postcard

Mounting a four by six-foot postcard on a truck, Larry O'Neil of the Schine Rialto in Amsterdam, N. Y., had it tour the city until card was covered with signatures in a testimonial to Bette Davis for her performance in "Little Foxes." Postcard was then placed on display outside the theatre for three days prior to the opening and later sent to Miss Davis at Hollywood.

Additional street stunt was trailer on which O'Neil placed a wheel of fortune. Attendants distributed slips of paper carrying numbers and to those holding numbers that came up on the wheel, guest tickets were awarded. Trailer was appropriately bannered with picture copy and playdates.

MANAGERS GO "WHOLE HOG" FOR BOND-STAMP SALES

L & J-men Give Over Lobby and Front for Display; Bomber Fund Aided

The zeal with which Round Tablers are plunging into cooperations to stimulate the defense effort, particularly the sales of bonds and stamps, is "hammered home" sensationally by the unusual and elaborate promotion at the L&J Fox, Atlanta, Ga., where in association with defense committee heads and civic officials, Manager Tommy Read confined the entire theatre front and lobby to display and copy to lead a citywide movement. Sponsored by Arthur Lucas, circuit head, and state defense bond chairman, the exhibit was put together to serve as a model for publicity potentialities. Newspaper stories and photos were numerous. Paramount News included the showing in a recent release.

The long view of the foyer, pictured below, shows all attraction frames covered by war drawings conceived by Read and executed by John Gomer, art department head, to include the attack at Pearl Harbor, the battle of Manila, marching soldiers, convoys at sea, scenes of defense plants in action—all drawings carrying bond slogans. Bonds and stamps were sold from the branch office established in the foyer by the banks and postoffice.

Giant Sign Covers Front

The front decorations were featured by a giant neon "buy defense bonds" flash in red, white and blue across face of building. One side of marquee carried a large soldier figure, the other a Red Cross nurse, both with tie-in copy. Further "buy" copy was bannered under the marquee and in front frames. When installed, the exhibit was dedicated with impressive civic ceremonies and bonds and stamps sales at the special booth have been gratifying.

Bond-stamp sales also proved the keystone of Doc Twedt's campaign for "Keep 'Em

LUDWIG COLLECTS LICENSE PLATES

Patrons in his area are accepting Manager Irving Ludwig's invitation to conserve metals by dropping old license plates in a barrel placed in the lobby of the Skouras Forest Hills, in Forest Hills, L. I. Sign explains the barrel and in the past month, over 200 plates have been turned in which go to the police who forward them to the government agency in charge of scrap.

Flying" at the Lido, Manly, Iowa, the Round Tabler having the mayor proclaim a special "week" for the date which was duly noted in the local papers. All ads and posters carried the "Buy U. S. Defense Bonds and Stamps" line, and merchants cooperated by running slugs in their newspaper advertising, both for the bonds and the "week." Stamps and bonds were sold in the lobby by prominent men and women. Twedt further plugged defense with the official "bond" cut in his monthly calendar heralds.

Co-op advertising for "Sergeant York" at Warners' Avon, Utica, by Arnold Stoltz, was given over to the back page of the tabloid herald, the top half carrying the bond copy: "Since Pearl Harbor, we'd all like to be 'Sergeant Yorks.' But even if we can't we can do our part by buying U. S. savings stamps and bonds." Bottom half was a taxi ad: "Also it's patriotic to save rubber and gasoline. Ride together and save in a Black & White taxi, to see," etc.

(Below) Front view of bond and stamp display in foyer of the L&J Fox, Atlanta, Ga., with special branch office in center.

The conservation slant also served for a neat herald by "Doc" Estes, at the Park, Iowa Park, Texas, the layout headed by cut of a new tire and copy: "Save Your Tires, says Uncle Sam. The best way to do this is to stop all unnecessary driving. You can buy the same brands of groceries and clothes in Iowa Park that you buy in nearby towns and cities. You may see the same show in Iowa Park at lower admission prices. Trade at home and 'keep 'em rolling.'" The week's program followed.

Defense stamps sales at the boxoffice are noted by Estes, as the first in the state to start the promotion. He has also persuaded every merchant in town to stock up on stamps for sale.

Picture tie-ins on the defense front are reported by Ed Harris, in Glendale, Cal., and Eddie Ornstein, Rialto, Marengo, Ind. Harris switching his bookings to show "Dive Bomber" to coincide with a "buy a bomber" newspaper promotion, in which children were invited to contribute pennies. Ed got out a pledge card blank with picture copy which were stuffed in all papers distributed in the theatre area. Pledges were given out at the schools and to youth organizations, the Round Tabler also taking up contributions at the theatre and receiving the school collections which he delivered to the paper on behalf of the Glendale youngsters.

Pennies for Defense

The penny promotion is given a new twist by Manager Eddie Ornstein, Rialto, Marengo, Ind., in building admissions as well as selling defense stamps. Tagged with a card reading: "Pennies for Defense," a glass jar is placed at the boxoffice window, patrons invited to drop pennies received in change. At regular intervals, the jar is emptied and the contents exchanged for stamps and bonds, given away on a "lucky ticket" contest. The idea has taken on well with the public, the papers running page-one notices to build further interest.

BRIEF REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

Stanley Schwam of the Jayhawker Theatre, Lawrence, Kansas, used a novel stunt centered around the title in his campaign on "Suspicion." For a street ballyhoo a man was dressed as an old-style detective, with double peaked hat and calabash pipe. He was labeled "I Am Suspicion" and nosed about stores and offices for three days before the opening.

▽

Bradley Suddith of the Ritz Theatre, Memphis, Tenn., used a number of the slang expressions in "Ball of Fire" as copy for a unique herald. Utilizing a film can for another novel stunt, Suddith placed the can in the lobby with a card carrying copy as follows: "This film can contains a Ball of Fire that will be opened on—." Playdate and credits followed.

▽

A Mickey Rooney-Judy Garland impersonation contest in city and rural schools, dancing schools and among 4-H Clubs highlighted the "Babes on Broadway" campaign executed by Melvin Miller, Fox Grand, Topeka.

▽

An ancient trunk, seemingly brimming with silver dollars, was displayed in a window by Leroy Nichols, Electric, Springfield, Mo., as a feature of his campaign for "Tarzan's Secret Treasure." Thousands of heralds were distributed in front of the window and an armed guard patrolled the scene to "protect" the money.

▽

To bolster morale of old age pensioners required to live on a restricted budget, Arthur P. Desormeaux, owner and operator of the Majestic theatre in Madison, Wis., has been giving 50 passes weekly to his theatre. Desormeaux gives the tickets to Atty. Glenn P. Turner, who distributes them among members of the United Old Age Pension league and the Madison Townsend club. The Capital Times, Madison daily, in one of its weekly open letters recently thanked Desormeaux for "this public service."

▽

As part of his "Parachute Battalion" campaign at the Ritz, in McGehee, Ark., C. B. King posted a large board in front of his theatre with actual army photographs of the U. S. Army parachute troops in action. Display of toy soldiers with parachute troops, bomber and fighter planes completed the atmospheric lobby.

▽

Thousands of cards asking Bedford, Ind., residents to "Vote for Rosalind Russell as Judge of the Entertainment Court" were distributed by C. R. Hughes in advance of the Von Ritz showing of "Design for Scandal."

▽

M-G-M's trade-paper caricature ads were used to excellent advantage in a contest promoting "Shadow of the Thin Man" by Harlan Croy, Roxy, Frankfort, Ind. Croy mounted them in the lobby and offered guest tickets to patrons correctly identifying the different stars and the productions.

ANIMAL CRACKERS SELL "TARZAN"

Some boxes of ordinary animal crackers colored with showcard paint did a heap of selling for "Tarzan's Secret Treasure" at the Bonham, in Fairbury, Neb., Jimmy Redmond attaching the crackers to cards and distributing them at club meetings and restaurants.

Tie-in copy on cards read: "Some folks see animals like this on their walls in the mornings. But they are nothing compared to those Tarzan sees in," etc.

Ed Muehleman, manager of Warners' Lindy Theatre, Philadelphia, placed cards on juke boxes plugging tunes from "Kiss the Boys Goodbye." Cards were distributed to each patron reading: "Present This Card and Get a Free Kiss."

▽

M. M. Connor of the Capitol Theatre, Madison, Wis., used a unique horse and buggy ballyhoo for his campaign on "Dumbo." The buggy was bannered with a large sign which read: "I'm not Dumbo—I traded my gas burner for a hay burner. No tire worries for me, I'm going to see 'Dumbo' at the Capitol."

▽

Added color for his campaign on "I Wanted Wings" at the Milwaukee, Milwaukee, Wisc., by Manager Edward J. Friedwald, was an actual demonstration of aircraft welding by a local school of aircraft engineering. Students were on hand to show how, using equipment including panels and plane parts, regulators and torches, acetylene tanks, oxygen tanks, plane fuselage and wing sections. All the larger pieces were placarded with theatre banners.

▽

Since going to Timmons, Ontario from Guelph, Stan Andrews at the Broadway Theatre, who has had great results planting fashion mats in the local dailies has been instrumental in selling the Fashion Editor on the idea of using these mats. Thus far Stan says he has received well over 2,000 free lines in publicity in the short time he has been there.

▽

Gag which sold "Babes on Broadway" for Jimmy Redmond at the Bonham, in Fairbury, Neb., was the distribution of five inch pieces of tinted cardboard cut to resemble a bone. Copy on outside read: "We're making no bones about it" reverse read: "You're sure to have the time of your life when you see," etc. These were distributed and placed at each plate at Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis, Women's Clubs luncheons, etc., week before opening, the balance were placed on store counters.

Circularizing the clergy in his neighborhood ahead of "One Foot in Heaven" at the Paramount, in North Adams, Mass., Francis J. Faille followed the letter up with a personal visit which resulted in excellent plugs from the pulpits. In addition one of the churches gave the picture special mention in their bulletin.

▽

Effective gratis newspaper space was accorded Bill McClain's date on "Tarzan's Secret Treasurer" at the Virginia Theatre, in Carrollton, Ohio. Paper devoted three-column cut of the leading characters in addition to story on the production of the film in Hollywood.

▽

For his campaign on "Great American Broadcast" at the Strand, in Florida, Ala., Arthur C. Bowden built two 16-foot radio towers from two by two strips and lathing. These were set 20 feet apart and a banner between carried title, cast and playdates.

▽

Of no mean proportions was the free newspaper space covering scene stills and classified ad contest which was landed by H. T. Rastetter ahead of "They Died With Their Boots On" at the Warner Theatre, in Erie, Pa. A special collection of army and Indian relics of the period was used for display purposes in advance of playdates and for his outside ballyhoo, Rastetter used an old horse and buggy appropriately placarded with two boys in uniform driving up and down main street.

▽

At a total cost of one dollar, Bill Johnson at Smalley's in Dolgeville, N. Y., tied up local baker on "Lady Be Good," for the insertion of slips measuring three by five in all packages leaving store three days ahead of opening. Copy on slip read: "Lady, Be Good to your family, order," etc., followed by box in center with copy "Be good to yourself as well, see," etc.

▽

With little or no advertising available on the old release, "Give Me a Sailor," Lester Kolste at the Van Der Vaart, in Sheboygan, Wis., constructed street bally of simulated sailboat on trailer. Sails carried picture copy, cast and playdates in addition to star cuts. For "This Woman of Mine," Les promoted from local travel bureau various ship models and then sold merchants on window displays of the models together with star stills.

▽

For his lobby display on "The Man Who Came to Dinner" at the Norbury, Ellensville, N. Y., Herbert Berman set up a dinner table with complete service for four. Alongside was planted a 40 by 60 of Monty Wooley and in addition coffee bar was set up with promoted coffee dispensed together with promoted cake.

▽

M-G-M has made available a special 2-color sticker as an added "Joe Smith, American" accessory. Blue on red, with title in white, copy reads "Everyone should see . . ."

"Mystery Week" by Alldritt

The latest in the series of special "week" promotions by Manager Don H. Alldritt, at the Fox Strand, Salina, Kan., was tagged "Mystery Week" stressing the detective slant and covering the two program changes, the first "Night of January 16" and "Ellery Queen and the Murder Ring"; the second, "Secrets of the Lone Wolf" and "I Killed That Man."

The advance trailer copy aimed to invite the audience to become sleuths during the week to discover who-did-it. Flashes from the various attractions followed. Teaser ads ahead started with one-column breaks, illustrated with black cats and owls, and finishing with a two-column display two days ahead introducing the first date of the period. Personal teaser copy was placed in the classified columns. Found effective since it had not yet been used in the area, was the stamping of guest checks in all leading restaurants. This was done since tire rationing makes impractical billing trips in the territory.

Noteworthy was Alldritt's lobby highlighted with green in all the fixtures. The staff added atmosphere by wearing black robes and eye-masks, as noted in cut, center column. Cashier wearing mask in the boxoffice brought a lot of the curious. The front received special treatment with a display made up of detective and mystery book covers.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Merchant Helps MacEachron Sell "Hold That Ghost"

Tying in with local auto concern, J. R. McEachron at the Paramount, in Jackson, Tenn., ahead of "Hold That Ghost" made arrangements whereby the first customer coming into the store received guest tickets. In exchange, the cooperating merchant plugged the show over their radio program. For street attention, lad dressed as ghost with back banner covered shopping districts.

On "Sun Valley," Mac tied up with the Fair Association for the award of passes to be given away in front of the grandstand during the races in connection with lucky program numbers. Stunt was also plugged over public address system.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Candid Camera Slant Aids on "Ball of Fire"

Highlight of Johnson Musselman's "Ball of Fire" campaign at the Rialto, in Louisville, Ky., was a candid camera stunt which included the distribution of 5,000 announcements to be on the watch for the cameraman and the award of tickets to those who found themselves in the group of pictures at the Camera Corner. Bogus passes were distributed by ushers with main line reading: "ADMIT ONE thing, that the funniest film is," etc.

New car patrolled the streets with copy "For sale cheap, must have money to see." And another novel stunt was man-on-street mind-reading program broadcasting from in front of the theatre with passes for all contestants.

Alldritt's Mystery Lobby and Staff

Women's Clubs Vote On "Woman of the Year"

In connection with the opening of "Woman of the Year" at Warners' Boyd Theatre, Philadelphia, district manager Maurice Gable had the various women's clubs associated with the Philadelphia Federation of Women's Clubs and Allied Organizations, Inc., vote on the most outstanding Philadelphia woman whose achievements in the past year make her the "Woman of the Year." A defense bond and scroll, designated as the Warner Brothers' Award, was presented to the winner in the lobby of the Boyd Theatre just prior to the evening performance on opening day. Harry Tarrante, manager of the house aided on the campaign.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Defense Bond Offered By Gilman on "Kathleen"

As part of Sam Gilman's "Kathleen" date at Loew's Regent, in Harrisburg, Pa., Shirley Temple donated a twenty-five dollar defense bond to the first baby girl born during the engagement. Five thousand heralds were distributed in schools in advance of playdate with copy reading: "Hey, Kids! Your pal Shirley is back!" Accompanied by a motorcycle escort, 40 girls of Shirley's age formed a bicycle parade through the downtown section, each vehicle carrying a banner.

Emerson's "Hellzapoppin" Lobby

"Hellzapoppin" Pops in Omaha

Some 14 gag stunts listed by Ted Emerson helped keep Omaha excited during the campaign ahead and current for "Hellzapoppin" at the Tri-States Omaha, starting with a flash pot in the foots going off to coincide with the explosion that opens the trailer. One audience stooge in wig and straw hat put on the growing plant stunt, calling for "Mrs. Jones"; another made up as a grey-haired woman called for "Oscar." Outside, a boy in donkey costume perched on a step ladder to which were tacked cards reading: "I may be a jackass but I am not coming down until," etc. Another stooge in gorilla costume worked corners in rush hours, his back banner saying: "All my family will be at the Omaha to see," etc. The "Oscar" plant was also used on the streets with "If you think I'm crazy" copy.

Freak gifts were sent to prominent citizens during lunch club meetings, each gift holding a card: "This is just a sample of the screwy things that will happen when," etc. One of the advance ads was run upside-down and the pressbook teasers planted on the woman's page. Trick stuff vied for lobby attention, particularly a cage with three monkeys borrowed from the park zoo. Cage was bannered with copy in keeping plus small cards that identified the monks with the names of the stars. (see cut center column)

Pulls "Live Baby" Stunt

Emerson reports a neat reception during the show when it was advertised that a live baby would be given away, which proved to be a kitten. The stunt was put on with appropriate ceremony, the kitten wheeled out on the stage in a baby carriage with all the trimmings. In advance, it was arranged for a little girl to win the "baby." Following the giveaway, other trick gifts were distributed in the audience.

At each opening of the feature, a stooge walked out on the stage and looked at the screen. When the title flashed, he threw up his hands in disgust, walked to the side of the stage where a bed was made up, undressed before the audience to his shorts, crawled into bed. At the ending of the showing, he got up, dressed, and walked off. Another stunt was tied to the Martha Raye close-ups during one of her numbers, when the sound would be cut off showing the star working her lips in silence. Fader would be raised and lowered for further laughs.

During another sequence showing the anxious lover smoking furiously, the camera pans down to cigarette snipes all over the floor. As the scene ended, the house porter walked out on the stage with dust pan and broom, going through the motions of sweeping up the smokes. This, too, proved a reliable laugh.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Reh Promotes "Rich" Window

Al Reh, manager of Warners' Stanley Theatre, Philadelphia, for "You'll Never Get Rich," made tie-ups with local department stores, calling for the window display to provide a bedroom setting as used in the picture.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

*the great national medium
for showmen*

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City

THEATRES

MOVIE THEATRES, NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.
A. SHEUERMAN, 25 Taylor Street, San Francisco.

FOR SALE: PART INTEREST FLOURISHING business seven movie theatres. Address: MEREN-DONI, Teatro Rex, Barranquilla, Colombia.

HAVE CASH TO LEASE OR BUY SMALL town theatre Illinois, Michigan, Indiana or Wisconsin. BOX 1494, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

MOVIE THEATRE SALE OR RENT, CROWDED section New York's East side. Present occupant drafted. BOX 1496, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

DUE TO DRAFT, GOING SOUTHERN INDIANA Theatre for sale. County Seat. Will stand rigid investigation. Cash talks. BOX 1502, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FOR LEASE: THEATRE. 700 SEATS, ALBANY Capitol district. Now rented. BOX 1499, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

NEW YORK STATE CAPITOL DISTRICT. TWO theatres now operating full time. Low overhead. Lease, option to buy. Small capital. BOX 1500, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

WINDOW CARDS

DEFENSE STAMP WINDOW CARDS WITH space for regular program. Good exploitation tie-up. $6.00 hundred. AMERICAN POSTER, 1012 Pacific, Dallas, Texas.

POSITIONS WANTED

PROJECTIONIST, MINNESOTA OR WISCONSIN preferred. OPERATOR, 313 East Main, Wabasha, Minnesota.

MANAGER, 10 YEARS EXPERIENCE, DESIRES change. A-1 reference. BOX 415, Orangeburg, S. C.

SEAT RECOVERING

WE RECOVER BACKS AND SEATS WITHOUT interfering with the operation of theatre. Write for sample materials and prices. We do the job for less. CHICAGO USED CHAIR MART, 844 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

FOR SALE: SUCCESSFUL FILM EXCHANGE in cool, comfortable Colorado. Well established, especially recommended for tired, rundown easterner. Climate will restore your health, business will make you nice living. Must sell because of other interests. Fraction of actual worth. BOX 1501, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

USED GENERAL EQUIPMENT

FOR SALE: 450 THEATRE SEATS, MARQUEE letters, etc. H. LEVY & SON, 1245 Broadway, Brooklyn, New York, Glenmore 5-5587.

AFTER INVENTORY SALE—GRAB THESE quick! Portable sound projectors, 16mm., 35mm. from $59.50; rear shutters for Simplex, $29.50; film cabinets, $1.49 section; factory rebuilt Series II lenses, any size, $33.95; soundheads, $9.95; amplifiers, $4.95; powers mechanisms, $39.50; cushion seats, 39c. Free bargain bulletins. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

SOME THEATRE CAN USE YOUR OLD EQUIPMENT. A little ad here will reach thousands of potential customers. Only ten cents a word to tell the world what you have to sell. Try it today. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

COMPLETE THEATRE EQUIPMENT AND chairs for 300 seat house. Low price for quick turnover. MOVIE SUPPLY COMPANY, 1318 South Wabash, Chicago.

FOR SALE: 35-MM. HOLMES SOUND PROJECTOR. RICHARD WHEELER, Greybull, Wyoming.

1,200 USED UPHOLSTERED HEYWOOD CHAIRS. Full upholstered metal back, box spring seat, metal bottom. A first class lot of chairs priced right. CHICAGO USED CHAIR MART, 844 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

THEATRE EQUIPMENT AND 200 CHAIRS. LETCHER THEATRE, Letcher, So. Dak.

NEW GENERAL EQUIPMENT

BUY NEW SOUNDScreens NOW WHILE material's available, 23 1/4 sq. ft.; complete stage setting, $66.60; fully automatic curtain controls, $75.95; heavy duty track, $2.19 ft. Immediate deliveries. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

BUSINESS BOOSTERS

BINGO CARDS. DIE CUT, 1 TO 100 OR 1 TO 75 $2.00 per thousand. $17.50 for 10,000. BOX 1434, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BUY YOUR BINGO CARDS DIRECT FROM THE world's largest manufacturer of theatre bingo cards. Write us today for samples and prices. BOX 1477, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

PRINTING SERVICE

THEATRE BLOWERS, SAME QUALITY, LOW prices. STITES ART, Shelbyville, Indiana.

BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE SOUND ENGINEERING—547 pages; illustrated; covers every practical method and process in present-day sound engineering. Leading engineers explain every detail of apparatus and its arrangement, with diagrams, tables, charts and graphs. This manual comes straight from the workshops of the studios in Hollywood. It is indispensable to everyone working with sound equipment. Price $6.50 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 562 PAGE BOOK ON AIR CONDITIONING by Charles A. Fuller, authority on the subject. Available for theatre owners contemplating engineering changes. Book is cloth bound with index and charts and covers every branch of the industry as well as codes and ordinances regulating installation. Order now at $4.00 a copy postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION A second revision of the Sixth Edition of Richardson's Bluebook of Projection with a complete section of Sound Trouble-shooting Charts as well as a host of additional up-to-the-minute text on the latest equipment. Price $7.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

JUST PUBLISHED: 1942 EDITION OF FAME, Edited by Terry Ramsaye. The class annual of the screen, radio and stage. Recognized by executives and talent agents as the guide book to box office champions. Send your order today with check or money order for $1.00. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 1941-42 MOTION PICTURE ALMANAC Edited by Terry Ramsaye. The industry's most complete "Who's Who." More than 11,000 biographies and over 1,100 pages, chock full of reference information. Everyone in the motion picture industry should have a copy. Be sure to send in your order today. $3.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

BOOKKEEPING SYSTEM

THEATRE MANAGEMENT RECORD AND TAX Register. This new accounting system is the finest book of its kind ever made available to an exhibitor. In addition to being complete in every respect, it is simple—so much so that it is not necessary to have had bookkeeping experience in order to keep an accurate, complete and up-to-the-minute record of the business of your theatre. The introductory price is only $2.00 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

HELP WANTED

OPERATORS AND MANAGERS—MOVIE CIRCUITS, Roshon, 2506 RKO Building, New York.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK, U. S. A.

PRODUCT DIGEST

THE RELEASE CHART

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

What's Cookin'?

(Universal)

Merry-Making to Music

Fabricated for purposes of diversion only, and fitted out with salespoints to interest amusement shoppers of all ages, this concoction of song, dance, mirth and miscellany had a downtown Los Angeles preview audience in good humor from start to finish.

Fourteen musical numbers are dispensed in the course of its 69 minutes, all of them informally and with telling effect, most of them in the swing tradition, some of them sung, some danced, many treated in turn by various members and groups of a large cast.

Billie Burke, Leo Carrillo, Charles Butterworth and Franklin Pangborn supply humor for the grownups in the interludes between predominant sequences in which the picture is pointed directly at the younger set.

Woody Herman and his orchestra supply a plenitude of hot licks for the dance crowd of all ages.

Jane Frazee and Robert Paige attend to a necessary romance which doesn't often interrupt the merriment which is the picture's principal business.

The Andrews Sisters are billed on top and sing several of the songs.

Gloria Jean's voice is a pleasant occasional concession to the classicists.

It is a 'teen-age group called The Jivin' Jacks and Jills which gives the picture momentum, zest and punch, however, in a varied display of song and dance ability. Headed by Grace McDonald, spokesman and principal entertainer for the group, this band of youngsters turns in an arresting brand of entertainment.

The script, written by Jerry Cady and Stanley Roberts from a story by Edgar Allan Woolf, is a variation of the tale about the out-of-work performers who get a job on the radio, but it serves.

Producer Ken Goldsmith, director Edward Cline, dance director John Mattison, musical director Charles Previn, art director Jack Otterson and the other off-screen talent represented are entitled to credit for combining a wide variety of values effectively in a film which seeks only to amuse and does so.

Previewed at the Hill Street theatre, Los Angeles, a downtown house well filled on a Thursday evening. The picture followed a newsreel steeped in war tidings, all bad, and soon had the audience laughing as if all were right with the world.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Release date, Feb. 13, 1942. Running time, 60 min. PCA No. 7967. General audience classification.

The Andrews Sisters.....Themselves
Anne.....Jane Frazee
Bob.....Robert Paige
Sue.....Gloria Jean
Angela.....Grace McDonald
Leo Carrillo, Billie Burke, Charles Butterworth, Frank Pangborn, Donald O'Connor, Woody Herman and orchestra, Jivin' Jacks and Jills, Tag-a-long.

Reviews

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public.

Lady in Distress

(Times Pictures, Inc.)

English Melodrama

With a story by Herbert and Maret and scenario by Ian Dalrymple and B. Cooper that is tantalizing because one doesn't know how it is going to develop or eventuate, and with direction by Herbert Mason that indicates a directorial flourish and flair, "Lady in Distress" is presented as a cleverly drawn melodrama that surpasses by far its budget expenditure.

If the exhibitor can lure the audience into the theatre in spite of the fact that the picture is English and not of too recent vintage, and the cast perhaps not of the first calibre, he need have no fear about its entertainment possibilities, for it is melodrama, it does have suspense, and there is a faint suggestion of the Hitchcock aura about the entire proceedings.

The picture opens with Michael Redgrave, a happily married young man, going to his job one morning, and en route witnessing what he thinks is a murder. Taking a policeman to the scene of the crime, he discovers that Paul Lukas and his wife, Sally Gray, magicians, have only been rehearsing. In consequence of the resultant publicity in the newspapers, the two magicians, really poverty-stricken, again secure a booking. But Redgrave and Sally Gray meet again and are attracted to each other, and her husband, Lukas, is extremely jealous and afflicted with a vicious temper. The plot begins to thicken.

The largest selling factor here is the story itself, and even though the "Lady" is in "Distress," the audience need not be. Because of the subject matter involved, the audiences should be limited to adult patronage.

Richard Norton was in charge of production and Josef Somlo produced.

Reviewed at the Glove Theatre in New York, where the audience appeared to be absorbed.—IRENE SMOLEN Release date, Feb. 14, 1942. Running time, 62 minutes. No PCA No. Adult audience classification.

Peter.....Michael Redgrave
Vivienne.....Sally Gray
Zoltini.....Paul Lukas
Max Preston.....Hartley Power
Pat.....Patricia Roc
Glen Alyn, Gertrude Musgrove, George Carney, Brian Coleman, Alf Goddard, Wilfred Walter, George Merritt, John Salew, Pamela Randell.

Shut My Big Mouth

(Columbia)

Joe E. Brown Out West

Joe E. Brown takes the traditional melodrama for a ride and makes it yield up a lot of laughs in this combination of satire, slapstick, parody and Joe E. Brown-ism.

It is a film for comedy purposes only and kept the youngsters in its preview audience immensely amused, also many of the adults, disappointing others in this group to the point of their leavetaking.

The picture starts out to be the one about the tenderfoot who comes West and gets elected sheriff by accident, then turns into a cow-town treatment of the "Charlie's Aunt" thing, producing a maximum of response in this phase. It winds up with the hero accidentally heroic after a series of chases, escapes, meetings with bad men and Indians, assorted complications, all fashioned solely to amuse.

Production by Robert Sparks and direction by Charles Barton center upon the star and his variety of comedy.

The script is by Oliver Drake, Karen DeWolf and Francis Martin, based on a Drake story.

Previewed at the Alex theatre in Glendale on a Friday night, which is the night when the stores are open and families come downtown, wherefore the audience contained a large quota of youngsters, who enjoyed the film in terms of uproarious laughter, although a good many of their elders were less responsive.—W. R. W.

Release date, Feb. 19. Running time, 70 mins. PCA No. 8006. General audience classification.

Wellington Holmes.....Joe E. Brown
Buckskin Bill.....Victor Jory
Conchita Montoya.....Adele Mara
Robert Oglethorpe.....Fritz Feld
Don Beddoe, Will Wright, Russell Simpson, Pedro de Cordoba, Joan Woodbury, Ralph Peters, Joe McGuinn, Lloyd Bridges, Forrest Tucker, Noble Johnson, Chief Thunder Cloud.

Frisco Lil

(Universal)

Crime Doesn't Pay

This story is in the groove of a thousand minor melodramas, but it travels smoothly. Although unostentatious to the point of patency, it has the dressing which can only be given by a studio with money, and its players move through roles standardized with the ease of practice sustained. Samuel Hinds is a father here: understanding, but with standards, upright but worldly—above all, appealing; he is the father of the boy, Kent Taylor, whom the girl, Irene Hervey, is to marry. It is a good role for him, played to the penultimate. Miss Hervey, too, does a good job.

The story has her the law student in love with Mr. Taylor, her instructor. Complication is her father, Minor Watson, co-owner of a gambling casino. The two live apart, and differently, but his status bothers Miss Hervey. When he is framed for murder, by his associates, then convicted, she enters his world, to clear him. She becomes "Frisco Lil," card dealer in his casino; she has left Mr. Taylor's and Mr. Hind's world, the world of upright citizens, for the underworld, where she rapidly charms her father's associates. Misunderstanding by Mr. Hinds becomes understanding; he acts as "bait" in her campaign to frame her father's enemies. They are framed and confessed and Miss Hervey goes back to law school, and Mr. Taylor.

Reviewed at the Rialto Theatre, New York. A predominantly male evening audience by frequent chuckle, snort and less frequent laughs, showed appreciation of the nuances of crime and crime detection.—FLOYD STONE.

Release date, March 13, 1942. Running time, 60 minutes. PCA No. 8013. General audience classification.

Lillian Grayson.....Irene Hervey
Pete Brewster.....Kent Taylor
Jeff Gray.....Minor Watson
James Brewster.....Samuel S. Hinds
Jerome Cowan, Milburn Stone, Matty Fain, Harry Strang, Tony Paton.

Lucky Ghost

(Consolidated National)

All-Negro Comedy

Following the success of "Mr. Washington Goes to Town," a feature picture, with an all-Negro cast, Jed Buell herewith delivers "Lucky Ghost," the second of seven scheduled films which he will make. Produced at a cost much below the production budgets set for some one and two reel subjects, "Lucky Ghost" is a gay and fanciful comedy of life in a Negro community with Manton Moreland, a comedian of some familiarity who has appeared in featured roles in other major productions, heading the cast of this endeavor.

Directed by William X. Crowley, the story concerns two free-spending gentlemen who enter a gambling house, break the house's bank and finally win the establishment on a roll of the dice only to relinquish the property and their winnings when the former owners return from the grave to drive sin and evil from their home.

Maceo B. Sheffield, the villain of previous Negro pictures, returns in a part with which he has become identified being also the associate producer of the feature. F. H. Miller is Moreland's partner and, with him, supplies most of the comedy, while Florence O'Brien lends the romance which continually complicates the situation.

Reviewed at the Victoria theatre in the heart of New York's Harlem, where an afternoon audience, most of whom were Negroes, audibly expressed their appreciation from the presentation by their numerous and hearty laughs.—GEORGE SPIRES.

Release date, Feb. 10, 1942. Running time, 68 minutes. Adult audience classification.

Washington.....Manton Moreland
Jefferson.....F. H. Miller
Blake.....Maceo B. Sheffield
Blackstone.....Arthur Ray
Hostess.....Florence O'Brien
Slickem Harold Garrison, Jessie Cryer, Nappie Whiting, Jessie Brooks, Ida Coffin, Nathan Curry, Millie Monroe, Louise Franklyn.

Hennes Melodi

("Her Melody")

(Swedish—Scandia Films, N. Y.)

Musical Romance in Sweden

Boy meets girl in Sweden too. This screen version produced about a year ago at the Europa studio, Stockholm, weaves the old theme, with music, into an entertaining picture. Smooth production and acting are combined with a slight but pleasant score into a thoroughly enjoyable film, which, with English subtitles, does much to overcome the language barrier.

The story involves a shopgirl, played by Sonja Wigert, and a young musician, Sture

Reviews received too late for this Section are printed in the regular news pages of the Herald and are reprinted the following week in Product Digest for their reference value.

Lagerwall. They are en route to a fashionable party, on errands, when their employers' limousines collide. The musician gives the dress model a lift. Each thinks the other is wealthy and conceals true identity.

Romance grows and although composer and mannikin live in adjoining apartments each conceals the modest circumstances of their life and plays a pretentious role. It gives opportunity for some amusing incidents, at ski clubs, fashionable hotels, the department store where she works and in the cabaret where he leads a band. Ski scenes, musical numbers, and romance are well knit and, of course, boy gets girl in the end.

Miss Wigert is a pert and vivacious Scandinavian blonde with skill in acting. She may well attract further attention. Other members of the cast are well chosen and act smoothly under Thor L. Brooks' direction.

In addition to the leading lady American producers might also note the design and dressing of the sets. "Swedish modern" styling is effectively translated into settings that have distinction as rooms, small and pretentious, and yet appear to be lived in and used.

Reviewed at the 48th Street Theatre, New York, where a scant audience appeared thoroughly to enjoy the picture. Its highspots seemed to please both those who did not know Swedish, as well as those who did.—JOHN STUART, JR.

Release date, February 7, 1942. Running time, 89 minutes. General audience classification.

Sonja Larsen.....Sonja Wigert
Curt Strange.....Sture Lagerwall
Gloria.....Margit Manstad
Wicander, Jr.....Hakan Westergren
Hilda Borgstrom, Gosta Cederlund, Dagmar Ebbesen, Marianne Aminoff.

HIDDEN HUNGER (Film Center)

Documentary on Nutrition

Between them, the Office of Defense Health and Welfare of the Federal Security Agency and the American Film Center, the latter an organization in which the Rockefellers are interested, muffed making "Hidden Hunger" a vital and entertaining motion picture on nutrition. Produced by the Center at the Fine Arts Studio in Hollywood, the film, starring Walter Brennan on loan from the Goldwyn studio, was written and directed by Joseph Krumgold and Henwar Rodakiewicz, authors of the short, "Adventure in the Bronx."

There's a semblance of plot, telling how a farmer, played by Brennan, starts a one-man crusade across-country to educate his fellow Americans in planning, buying and consuming nutritive foods in order to prolong their lives and help to build a better nation. The idea was a good one for a documentary, but "Hidden Hunger" doesn't foot the bill. It is interesting to ponder what Walt Disney would have done with the same assignment.

The camera work is good and so is Walter Brennan. But much of the scientific explanation of how and why vitamins taken from the good earth can be transformed to the dinner table without destroying their effectiveness as energy-builders for men, women and children, is not translated into good film technic.

The FSA, headed by Paul V. McNutt, plans to distribute the picture gratis to theatres as well as to educational groups, women's clubs and other organizations. Swift and Company provided the funds for its production. Others who appear are Lloyd Corrigan, Leonard Clark, Joyce Coyles and Willard Kent.—J. E. S.

19 Minutes

GANG BUSTERS (Universal)

War Against Crime Serial

Based on the radio serial of the same name, "Gang Busters" now comes to the screen with all its entertainment potentialities intact. Its motivating force is war against crime, it has plenty of action, suspense, shooting and thrills, in short, all the elements that make up a successful "cops and robbers" saga. With a good cast including Kent Taylor, Irene Hervey, Ralph Morgan and Robert Armstrong, and a directorial job by Ray Taylor and Noel Smith that is intelligent and definitely spells action, this serial should have no difficulty attracting patrons, both adult and juvenile, and keeping them coming back to the theatre each week to the final denouement.

The evil-doer in this instance is Ralph Morgan, who enacts "Professor Mortis," the leader of a gang known as the "League of Murdered Men," whose sole purpose is crime. The "Professor's" hold on his men is great, for he is apparently able to bring them back to life after they have ostensibly committed suicide by hanging, and keeping them alive by the use of certain capsules, the formula of which he alone knows. Kent Taylor plays the detective assigned to rounding up this vicious mob, Robert Armstrong is his assistant, Irene Hervey is a news photographer and the romantic interest and her reporter teammate is Richard Davies.

Running time of the first chapter, 27 minutes. Succeeding chapters will run twenty minutes.—I. S.

Release date, March 31, 1942.

DEFENSE OF MOSCOW (Artkino)

News Documentary

This is the first official Soviet film record of the Russian defense of Moscow against the Nazis, showing the Soviet cavalry, infantry, tank units and air force in action defending and then counter-attacking the enemy advance. The film depicts the Russian people behind the lines preparing defenses, the factories turning out tanks which go straight from the factory to the front and indicates the all-out effort of the Red Army and civilians in the war.

Scenes showing Russian aviators taking off from snow-bound airports, the anti-aircraft guns marking and bringing down Nazi planes, and the capture of German prisoners add to the news value of the film.—J. E. S.

Release date, February 12, 1942 12 Minutes

ADVANCE SYNOPSIS AND INFORMATION

THE HEART OF TEXAS

(Republic)

Western

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER: Harry Grey. Directed by William Morgan.

PLAYERS: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Fay McKenzie, Edith Fellows, Pierre Watkin.

SYNOPSIS

Gene Autry is made foreman of the Smoke River Ranch, which is being turned into a dude ranch until roundup time. A group of eastern girls from a swank school arrive at the ranch to spend the summer months. One of their number, Connie Lane (Edith Fellows), is a spoiled youngster, about fourteen, who resolves to make life miserable for her schoolmates, her teacher and hosts so that they will send her home. Autry lectures Connie on fairplay and sportsmanship. Connie takes a great liking to Gene. She even tries to help Gene win a bronc-busting wager by cutting the cinch on his opponent's saddle. Her act almost leads to disaster, and serves to change her character.

SPECIAL REMARKS

The musical score consists of "Deep in the Heart of Texas," "Dusk on the Painted Desert," "Rancho Pillow," "I'll Wait for You," "Rooky Canyon," "A Rumble Seat for Two," "Cimarron," "Rainbow in the Night" and "Oh Woe Is Me."

SHORTS

advance synopses and information

CAPTAIN MIDNIGHT (Col.)

Seria—15 Episodes (3140)

Major Steel (Joe Girard) is one of few aware of the fact that Captain Albright (Dave O'Brien), also is Captain Midnight, daring masked aviator and nemesis of the underworld. When terror results from bombing attacks on west coast munitions plants, Steel sends for Albright and asks him to assist the government track down a mysterious Ivan Shark (James Craven), mastermind behind the insidious bombings.

Albright agrees. In the meantime, Shark has learned about an ingenious range finder, invented by John Edwards (Bryant Washburn), and tries to obtain a model of the invention. Fearing such a move, Edwards instructs his daughter, Joyce (Dorothy Short), to bring the model to Albright for safekeeping in his mountain laboratory.

Shark attacks the Edwards home and succeeds in capturing the inventor, but Joyce makes good her escape. Dressing as Captain Midnight, Albright enlists the aid of his two buddies, Chuck (Sam Edwards) and Mudd (Guy Wilkerson), and sets out to find Shark's hideout.

From that moment on, the lives of Midnight and all his friends are fraught with danger as Shark resorts to fiendish schemes to throw his pursuers off the trail. Planes collide in mid-air, automobiles crash on the highways, pursuit ships burst into flames, men are tossed into circular saws, victims are hurled into whirling propellers and other similar events occur.

Finally, as a result of one of Midnight's cleverly laid traps, the villain is snared by government men as he tries to escape with the invention. Brushing against a screen of high-voltage electricity, which he himself had erected, the saboteur meets his death and the fifth column plot is smashed.

CAST

Captain Midnight.....	Dave O'Brien
Joyce .....	Dorothy Short
Ivan Shark.....	James Craven
Chuck .....	Sam Edwards
Ichabod Mudd.....	Guy Wilkerson
Edwards .....	Bryant Washburn
Fury .....	Luana Walters
Major Steel.....	Joe Girard
Borgman .....	Ray Teal
Dr. Jordan.....	George Pembroke
Martel .....	Charles Hamilton
Gardo .....	Al Ferguson

SPECIAL REMARKS

The story is based upon the radio serial "Captain Midnight." James W. Horne directed.

CHAPTER TITLES

Episode One—"Mysterious Pilot"
Episode Two—"The Stolen Range Finder"
Episode Three—"The Captured Plane"
Episode Four—"Mistaken Identity"
Episode Five—"Ambushed Ambulance"
Episode Six—"Weird Waters"
Episode Seven—"Menacing Fates"
Episode Eight—"Shells of Evil"
Episode Nine—"The Drop to Doom"
Episode Ten—"The Hidden Bomb"
Episode Eleven—"Sky Terror"
Episode Twelve—"Burning Bomber"
Episode Thirteen—"Death in the Cockpit"
Episode Fourteen—"Scourge of Revenge"
Episode Fifteen—"The Fatal Hour"

Release date, February 15, 1942

Synopses Indexed

Page numbers on short subject synopses published in Product Digest are listed in the Shorts chart, Product Digest Section, pages 498 and 499.

COLLEGE CHAMPIONS (Col.)

World of Sports (3806)

This reel is a cavalcade of intercollegiate sporting events. There is a track meet featuring Penn and Pitt, with Pitt the victor; the Poughkeepsie Regatta with the huskies of Washington winning the event for the seventh time; swimming and water polo at Michigan State; LaCrosse, played by the cadets and middies of West Point and Annapolis; basketball by the Long Island University Blackbirds; Dartmouth's winter festival with skiing competitions; ice-hockey in Yosemite National Park, and the football classic between Georgia Tech and Notre Dame. Bill Stern is the commentator.

Release date, February 12, 1942 9 Minutes

FUNNY BUNNY BUSINESS (20th-Fox)

Terry-toon (2507)

This is a tale of a hunter and his dog in pursuit of some bold and facetious-minded rabbits. The bunnies are neither meek nor helpless. The frantic huntsman and his faithful but not overbright dog are caught in a maze of violence and trickery most of the time. Besides all the trouble that the rabbits make for them, they make trouble for each other. Towards the end, objects which are strange to find in the woods, such as a walking coffee pot, help to completely demoralize the hunters.

Release date, February 6, 1942 7 Minutes

THE QUIZ KIDS, No. 3 (Par.)

(Q1-3)

Once again The Quiz Kids demonstrate their intelligence, charm and humor as they face a barrage of questions from Joe Kelly, the quizmaster. The kids are Cynthia Cline, 15; Richard Williams, 11; Van Dyke Tiers, 13; Joan Bishop, 14, and Gerard Darrow, 8. The high spot of the subject is a demonstration by Gerard of the Highland Fling and Cakewalk.

Release date, February 6, 1942 11 Minutes

ALOHA HOOEY (WB)

Merrie Melodie Color Cartoon (7711)

In this Leon Schlesinger Merrie Melodie cartoon a smart-aleck sea gull and a goofy crow decide to stowaway on a ship off to the South Sea Islands. There they are kept busy competing for favor of a saronged songstress, and not until the unheralded appearance of a gorilla does one best the other.

Release date, January 31, 1942 7 Minutes

KITCHEN QUIZ, No. 3 (Col.)

(3604)

The radio team, Ed East and Polly, in this, their third Kitchen Quiz subject, offer more hints for housewives—and house-husbands. The hints include the secret of making candy out of rose petals, how to keep bacon from curling and how to hide the taste of bad medicine.

Release date, February 12, 1942 9 Minute:

HOLLYWOOD WAR EFFORTS (RKO)

Picture People (24,406)

This subject shows what several of the stars are doing in the interest of national defense. Ida Lupino devotes several evenings a week learning radio communications, while John Howard reports each day for duty at a civilian observation post. Alan Marshal does his stint as studio air raid warden and Ralph Bellamy takes over similar duties in Beverly Hills. John Carradine patrols the California coast in his schooner as an auxiliary member of the Coast Guard. Dean Jagger and Eddie Norris have volunteered their services in the Civilian Defense Corps. Jane Withers, Jackie Cooper, Bnoita Granville and Virginia Weidler do their bit by autographing defense stamps for everyone who buys them.

Release date, January 30, 1942 9 Minutes

SPARE TIME IN THE ARMY (Col.)

Panoramic (3904)

A few of the boys at Fort Monmouth in New Jersey get together and film the lighter side of army life. They start with the feet that are too long for the blankets and the private who can't wake up as he dresses, still in a forty-wink-coma. The film then proceeds to other non-military pursuits, such as writing a letter to one's sweetheart with the rest of the camp peering over his shoulder and calling on a girl in the neighborhood, who he is surprised to learn is married—when her husband turns up.

Release date, February 12, 1942 12½ Minutes

HOP, SKIP AND A CHUMP (WB)

Merrie Melody (Color) (7709)

In this Leon Schlesinger Merrie Melody color cartoon, a grasshopper having the traits peculiar to Bugs Bunny becomes the center of interest of two crows. The crows have traits peculiar to Laurel and Hardy. The mixture of the three makes for comedy situations.

Release date, January 3, 1942 7 Minutes

TEN PIN PARADE (RKO)

Sportscope (24,306)

Bowling champions demonstrate their ability in this RKO Sportscope. Joe Norris, Harry Ledene and Ray Newton show their mastery of form, footwork and follow through. Ned Day, National Bowling Champion, and another performer, has bowled eighteen three hundred games in a sport where a score of three hundred is comparable to shooting a round of golf of eighteen holes-in-ones.

Release date, January 23, 1942 9 Minutes

PORKY'S PASTRY PIRATES (WB)

Looney Tune Cartoon (7605)

A little fly tries to get some food from Porky's Bakery, but Porky drives him away with a fly swatter. A bee comes along and tells the fly to disguise himself as a bee, as Porky is afraid of bees. The fly takes the advice and is having great success until the disguise comes off. Then fly takes his revenge on the bee.

Release date, January 17, 1942 7 Minutes

WHO'S WHO IN THE ZOO (WB)

Looney Tune Cartoon (7606)

This Looney Tune cartoon takes the audience on a tour of the zoo. The inhabitants of the zoo are burlesqued in comic fashion.

Release date, January 31, 1942 7 Minutes

THE RELEASE CHART

Index to Reviews, Advance Synopses and Service Data in PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION

Release dates and running time are furnished as soon as available. Advance dates are tentative and subject to change.

Consult Service Data in the PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION for Legion of Decency Rating, Audience Classification and Managers' Round Table Exploitation.

All page numbers on this chart refer to pages in the PRODUCT

DIGEST SECTION of MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

Short Subject Release Chart with Synopsis Index can be found on pages 498-499.

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in order of release, on pages 510-511.

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
ADVENTURES of Martin Eden	Col.	...	Glenn Ford-Claire Trevor	Feb. 26, '42	...	...	...	p476	...
All American Co-Ed	UA	...	Frances Langford-Johnny Downs	Oct. 31, '41	49m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p308	...
All Over Town	Rep.	Reissue	Olsen & Johnson	Oct. '41	60m	Aug. 28, '37	p330	...	...
All That Money Can Buy (formerly Here is a Man)	RKO	205	Edw. Arnold-W. Huston-Anne Shirley	Oct. 17, '41	106m	July 19, '41	p251	p197	p496
All Through the Night	WB	116	Humphrey Bogart-Conrad Veidt	Jan. 10, '42	107m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	...
Always in My Heart	WB	...	Kay Francis-Walter Huston	Not Set	92m	...	...	p464	...
Among the Living	Para.	4108	Albert Dekker-Susan Hayward	Dec. 19, '41	68m	Sept. 6, '41	p260	p235	p288
Apache Kid	Rep.	171	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 12, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p277	...
Appointment for Love	Univ.	6007	Margaret Sullivan-Charles Boyer	Oct. 31, '41	89m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p277	p452
Arizona Bound (formerly Rough Riders)	Mono.	...	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	July 19, '41	57m	July 25, '41	p249	p172	p210
Arizona Cyclone	Univ.	6063	Johnny Mack Brown	Nov. 14, '41	57m	...	...	p230	...
Arizona Terrors	Rep.	174	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Jan. 6, '42	56m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p408	...
BABES on Broadway	MGM	216	Mickey Rooney-Judy Garland	Jan. '42	118m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	p363	p496
Bad Lands of Dakota	Univ.	6013	Ann Rutherford-Robert Stack	Sept. 5, '41	74m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p207	p421
Bahama Passage	Para.	4111	Madeleine Carroll-Stirling Hayden	Not Set	82m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	p320	p452
Ball of Fire	RKO	252	Gary Cooper-Barbara Stanwyck	Jan. 9, '42	111m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	...	...
Bandit Trail (formerly Outlaw Trail)	RKO	281	Tim Holt	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	...
Bashful Bachelor, The	RKO	...	Lum and Abner	Mar. 20, '42	...	...	...	p487	...
Bed Time Story	Col.	3004	Loretta Young-Fredric March	Dec. 25, '41	85m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p363	...
Belle Starr (color)	20th-Fox	207	Randolph Scott-Gene Tierney	Sept. 12, '41	87m	Aug. 23, '41	p250	p161	p386
Below the Border	Mono.	...	Rough Riders	Jan. 30, '42	...	...	...	p464	...
Big Blockade, The (British)	Ealing-UA	...	War Documentary	Not Set	77m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	...	...
Billy the Kid Wanted	Prod.	257	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Oct. 24, '41	64m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p299	...
Billy the Kid's Roundup	Prod.	258	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Dec. 12, '41	58m	...	...	p376	...
Billy the Kid Trapped	Prod.	259	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Feb. 20, '42	...	...	...	p467	...
Birth of the Blues	Para.	4109	Bing Crosby-Mary Martin	Nov. 7, '41	86m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	p452
Black Dragons	Univ.	...	Bela Lugosi-Joan Barclay	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	p507	...
Blonde from Singapore	Col.	3041	Florence Rice-Lief Erickson	Oct. 15, '41	65m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	...	...
Blondie Goes to College	Col.	3017	Penny Singleton-Arthur Lake	Jan. 15, '42	...	...	...	p409	...
Blue, White and Perfect	20th-Fox	227	Lloyd Nolan-Helene Reynolds	Jan. 6, '42	75m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p408	...
Blues in the Night	WB	110	Priscilla Lane-Richard Whorf	Nov. 15, '41	88m	Nov. 1, '41	p343	p308	...
Body Disappears, The	WB	111	Jeffrey Lynn-Jane Wyman	Dec. 6, '41	72m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	...
Bombay Clipper	Univ.	6031	William Gargan-Irene Hervey	Feb. 6, '42	61m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p432	...
Borrowed Hero	Mono.	...	Alan Baxter-Florence Rice	Dec. 5, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p407	p364	...
Born to Sing	MGM	226	Virginia Weidler-Ray McDonald	Mar. '42	82m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p442	...
Broadway Big Shot	Prod.	207	Ralph Byrd-Virginia Vale	Feb. 6, '42	59m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	...	...
Brooklyn Orchid	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-William Bendix	Feb. 20, '42	50m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	...	...
Bugle Sounds, The	MGM	220	Wallace Beery-Marjorie Main	Jan. '42	101m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p387	p496
Bullet Scars	WB	...	Regis Toomey-Adele Longmire	Not Set	59m	...	...	...	...
Bullets for Bandits	Col.	3212	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Feb. 12, '42	...	...	...	p364	...
Burma Convoy (formerly Half Way to Shanghai)	Univ.	6035	Charles Bickford-Evelyn Ankers	Oct. 17, '41	60m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	p137	...
Buy Me That Town	Para.	4102	Lloyd Nolan-Constance Moore	Oct. 3, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p262	p208	p210
CADET Girl	20th-Fox	220	Carole Landis-George Montgomery	Nov. 28, '41	69m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p351	...
Cadets on Parade	Col.	3035	Freddie Bartholomew-Jimmy Lydon	Jan. 22, '42	...	...	...	p409	...
Call Out the Marines	RKO	217	Victor McLaglen-Edmund Lowe	Feb. 13, '42	67m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p443	...
Canal Zone	Col.	...	Chester Morris-John Hubbard	Mar. 19, '42	...	...	...	p508	...
Captains of the Clouds	WB	122	Jas. Cagney-Dennis Morgan-Alan Hale	Feb. 21, '42	113m	Jan. 24, '42	p473	p308	...
Castle in the Desert	20th-Fox	234	Sidney Toler-Arleen Whelan	Feb. 27, '42	63m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p476	...
Charley's Aunt	20th-Fox	201	Jack Benny-Kay Francis	Aug. 1, '41	82m	July 26, '41	p262	p172	p288
Charlie Chan in Rio	20th-Fox	206	Sidney Toler-Mary Beth Hughes	Sept. 5, '41	62m	Aug. 23, '41	p262	p172	p260
Chocolate Soldier, The	MGM	208	Nelson Eddy-Rise Stevens	Nov. '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p289	p496
Citizen Kane	RKO	201	Orson Welles	Sept. 5, '41	119m	Apr. 12, '41	p249	p61	p367
Close Call for Ellery Queen	Col.	3031	Bill Gargan-Margaret Lindsay	Jan. 29, '42	...	...	...	p463	...
Code of the Outlaw	Rep.	164	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Jan. 30, '42	57m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	...
Come On, Danger	RKO	285	Tim Holt	Not Set	58m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	...
Confessions of Boston Blackie	Col.	3028	Chester Morris-Harriet Hilliard	Jan. 8, '42	65m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	...	...
Confirm or Deny	20th-Fox	222	Don Ameche-Joan Bennett	Dec. 12, '41	73m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	...
Corsican Brothers	UA	...	Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.-Akim Tamiroff	Nov. 28, '41	110m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	p299	p496
Countrv Gentlemen The	Rep.	Reissue	Olsen & Johnson	Oct. '41	60m	Oct. 31, '41	p330	...	...
Courtship of Andy Hardy, The	MGM	229	Mickey Rooney-Lewis Stone	Mar. '42	93m	Feb. 14, '42	p505	p476	...

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	(REVIEWED)		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
Cowboy Serenade	Rep.	144	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Jan. 23, '42	66m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p443	....
DANGEROUSLY They Live	WB	121	John Garfield-Raymond Massey	Feb. 14, '42	77m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	....	....
Date with the Falcon	RKO	213	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Jan. 16, '42	63m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	....
Death Valley Outlaws	Rep.	172	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 29, '41	56m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	....	....
Design for Scandal	MGM	213	Walter Pidgeon-Rosalind Russel	Dec. '41	82m	Nov. 15, '41	p361	p351	....
Devil Pays Off	Rep.	111	Margaret Tallichet-William Wright	Nov. 10, '41	70m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p343	....
Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde	MGM	201	Spencer Tracy-Lana Turner	Sept. '41	123m	July 26, '41	p248	p134	p496
Dr. Kildare's Victory	MGM	217	Lew Ayres-Lionel Barrymore	Jan. '42	92m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	....
Don't Get Personal	Univ.	6037	Hugh Herbert-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 2, '42	60m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p343	....
Double Trouble	Mono.	...	Harry Langdon	Nov. 21, '41	63m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p332	....
Down in San Diego	MGM	203	Bonita Granville-Ray McDonald	Sept. '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p250	p207	p353
Dressed to Kill	20th-Fox	202	Lloyd Nolan-Mary Beth Hughes	Aug. 8, '41	74m	July 26, '41	p249	p149	p236
Dude Cowboy	RKO	282	Tim Holt	Dec. 12, '41	59m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	....	p260
Dudes Are Pretty People	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-Jimmy Rogers	Mar. 13, '42	...	....	....	....	....
Dumbo (Color)	RKO	293	Disney Feature Cartoon	Oct. 31, '41	64m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	....	p496
Duke of the Navy	Prod.	206	Ralph Byrd-Veda Ann Borg	Jan. 23, '42	65m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p409	....
ELLERY Queen and Murder Ring Col.		3030	Ralph Bellamy	Nov. 18, '41	70m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
FANTASIA (color) (Revised)	RKO	292	Disney-Stokowski	Apr. 3, '42	82m	Nov. 16, '40	p494	p2	p286
Father Takes a Wife	RKO	204	Adolphe Menjou-Gloria Swanson	Oct. 3, '41	79m	July 19, '41	p262	p197	p236
Feminine Touch, The	MGM	207	Rosalind Russell-Don Ameche	Oct. '41	95m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p496
Ferry Pilot (British)	ABFD	...	War Documentary	Not Set	27m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	....	....
Fiesta	UA	...	Armida-Antonio Moreno	Dec. 19, '41	45m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	....	....
Fighting Bill Fargo	Univ.	6065	Johnny Mack Brown	Dec. 19, '41	...	....	....	p364	....
Fleet's In, The	Para.	...	Dorothy Lamour-William Holden	Not Set	93m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	....
Fly By Night	Para.	...	Nancy Kelly-Richard Carlson	Not Set	68m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p376	....
Flying Cadets	Univ.	6028	Wm. Gargan-Peggy Moran	Oct. 24, '41	60m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p161	....
Forbidden Trails	Mono.	...	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Dec. 26, '41	59m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p396	....
Forgotten Village, The	Mayer-Burstyn	...	Documentary	Sept. 16, '41	67m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	....	....
Four Jacks and a Jill	RKO	214	Ray Bolger-Anne Shirley	Jan. 23, '42	68m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	....
Freckles Comes Home	Mono.	...	Johnny Downs-Gale Storm	Jan. 2, '42	...	....	....	p396	....
Frightened Lady (British)	Hoffberg	...	Marius Goring-Helen Hays	Nov. 7, '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	....	....
'Frisco Lil	Univ.	...	Irene Hervey-Kent Taylor	Mar. 13, '42	60m	Feb. 21, '41	p517	p467	....
GAUCHOS of Eldorado	Rep.	162	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Oct. 24, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p308	....
Gay Falcon, The	RKO	206	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 24, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p218	....
General Suvorov	Artkino	...	Documentary	Sept. 19, '41	100m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Gentleman at Heart, A	20th-Fox	228	Carole Landis-Cesar Romero	Jan. 16, '42	66m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p432	....
Gentleman from Dixie	Mono.	...	Jack LaRue-Marian Marsh	Sept. 5, '41	63m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	p206	....
(formerly Li'l Louisiana Belle)
Ghost of Frankenstein, The	Univ.	...	Lon Chaney-Sir Cedric Hardwicke	Mar. 6, '42	...	....	....	p463	....
Girl from Leningrad (Russian)	Artkino	...	Zoya Fyodorova	Dec. 19, '41	92m	Dec. 27, '41	p431	....	....
Girl Must Live, A (British)	Univ.	6045	Lilli Palmer-Margaret Lockwood	Sept. 19, '41	69m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	....	p367
Girls Town	Prod.	202	June Storey-Edith Fellowes	Mar. 6, '42	...	....	....	p476	....
Glamour Boy	Para.	4110	Susanna Foster-Jackie Cooper	Dec. 5, '41	80m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	....
Gold Rush, The	UA	...	Chaplin—Words and Music	Apr. 17, '42	...	....	....	....	....
Go West, Young Lady	Col.	3015	Penny Singleton-Glenn Ford	Nov. 27, '41	70m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	p289	....
Great Guns	20th-Fox	212	Laurel and Hardy	Oct. 10, '41	73m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	....
Great Man's Lady, The	Para.	...	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Not Set	...	....	....	p396	....
Gunman from Bodie	Mono.	...	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Sept. 26, '41	62m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p263	....
(formerly Bad Man from Bodie)
HARD GUY	Prod.	205	Jack LaRue-Mary Healy	Oct. 17, '41	68m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p263	....
Harmon of Michigan	Col.	3023	Tommy Harmon-Anita Louise	Sept. 11, '41	66m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p263	p386
Harvard Here I Come	Col.	3039	Maxie Rosenbloom-Arlene Judge	Dec. 18, '41	...	....	....	p376	....
Hatter's Castle (Paramount-British)	...	...	Robert Newton-Deborah Kerr	Not Set	100m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	....	....
Hayfoot	UA	...	William Tracy-James Gleason	Jan. 2, '42	48m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	....	....
Heart of Texas, The	Rep.	144	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Mar. 11, '42	...	....	....	p518	....
Heliotrope Harry	UA	...	Miriam Hopkins-Brian Donlevy	Feb. 27, '42	...	....	....	p508	....
Hellzapoppin	Univ.	6046	Olsen & Johnson-Martha Raye	Dec. 26, '41	84m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	....	....
Hennes Melodie	Scandia Films	...	Sonja Wigert	Feb. 7, '42	99m	Feb. 21, '42	p518	....	....
(Her Melody)
Henry Aldrich for President	Para.	4104	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Oct. 24, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p210
Henry and Dizzy	Para.	...	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Not Set	...	....	....	p443	....
Here Comes the Marines	Mono.	...	Wallace Ford-Toby Wing	Dec. 26, '41	...	....	....	p432	....
Hi, Gang (British)	General Film	...	Bebe Daniels-Ben Lyon	Not Set	100m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	....	....
H. M. Pulham, Esq.	MGM	212	Hedy Lamarr-Rob't Young-Ruth Hussey	Dec. '41	117m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	p496
Hold Back the Dawn	Para.	4103	Charles Boyer-Olivia de Havilland	Sept. 26, '41	116m	Aug. 2, '41	p251	p208	p452
Honky Tonk	MGM	204	Clark Gable-Lana Turner	Oct. '41	105m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p235	p452
Honolulu Lu	Col.	3024	Bruce Bennett-Lupe Velez	Dec. 11, '41	...	....	....	p364	....
How Green Was My Valley	20th-Fox	224	Roddy McDowall-Walter Pidgeon	Jan. 23, '42	118m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p320	p496
Hurricane Smith	Rep.	108	Ray Middleton-Jane Wyatt	July 20, '41	69m	July 26, '41	p249	p197	p236
INTERNATIONAL Lady	UA	...	Ilona Massey-George Brent	Sept. 19, '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p277	p496
International Squadron	WB	106	Ronald Reagan-Olympe Bradna	Oct. 11, '41	87m	Aug. 16, '41	p262	p196	p452
(formerly Flight Patrol)
Invaders, The (British)	Col.	...	Howard-Massey-Olivier	Not Set	123m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	....	....
(formerly 49th Parallel)
It Started with Eve	Univ.	6005	Deanna Durbin-Charles Laughton	Sept. 26, '41	90m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	p205	p496
(formerly Almost an Angel)
I Killed That Man	Mono.	...	Ricardo Cortez-Joan Woodbury	Nov. 28, '41	71m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	....	....
I Married an Angel	MGM	...	Jeannette MacDonald-Nelson Eddy	Not Set	...	....	....	p507	....
I Thank You (British)	General Film	...	Arthur Askey-Richard Murdoch	...	81m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	....	....
I Wake Up Screaming	20th-Fox	216	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Nov. 14, '41	82m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p299	p421
(formerly Hot Spot)

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
JAIL House Blues	Univ.	6032	Nat Pendleton-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 9, '42	62m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p396	....
Jessie James at Bay	Rep.	151	Roy Rogers-"Gabby" Hayes	Oct. 17, '41	56m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	....	....
Joan of Paris	RKO	218	Michele Morgan-Paul Henried	Feb. 20, '42	91m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	p442	....
Joe Smith, American	MGM	221	Robert Young-Marsha Hunt	Feb. '42	62m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p409	....
Johnny Eager	MGM	218	Robert Taylor-Lana Turner	Jan. '42	107m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p363	p496
Juke Box Jennie	Univ.	...	Ken Murray-Harriet Hillard	Mar. 27, '42	...	...	...	...	....
Juke Girl	WB	...	Ann Sheridan-Ronald Reagan	Not Set	...	...	...	p464	....
Jungle Book, The	UA	...	Sabu	Apr. 3, '42	...	...	...	p396	....
KATHLEEN	MGM	215	Shirley Temple-H. Marshall-Laraine Day	Dec. '41	85m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	p496
Keep 'Em Flying	Univ.	6001	Abbott and Costello	Nov. 28, '41	80m	Nov. 22, '41	p386	....	p496
Kid from Kansas, The (formerly The Americanos)	Univ.	6051	Dick Foran-Andy Devine	Sept. 19, '41	60m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p221	....
Kid Glove Killer (formerly Along Came Murder)	MGM	...	Van Heflin-Marsha Hunt	Not Set	...	...	...	p495	....
King, The (French)	Trio Film	...	Raimu	Oct. 27, '41	90m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	....	....
King of Dodge City	Col.	3209	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Aug. 14, '41	63m	Aug. 9, '41	p250	p220	....
Kings Row	WB	120	Ann Sheridan-Robert Cummings	Not Set	130m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	p320	....
Klondike Victory	Mono.	...	Edmund Lowe-Lucile Fairbanks	Mar. 20, '42	...	...	...	....	....
LABURNUM Grove (British)	Anglo Film	...	Edmund Gwenn-Cedric Hardwicke	Dec. 1, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	....	....
Ladies in Retirement	Col.	3309	Ida Lupino-Louis Hayward	Sept. 18, '41	92m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p263	....
Lady Be Good	MGM	202	Ann Sothern-Robert Young	Sept. '41	110m	July 19, '41	p248	p146	p496
Lady for a Night	Rep.	101	Joan Blondell-John Wayne	Jan. 5, '42	88m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p351	....
Lady Has Plans, The	Para.	...	Paulette Goddard-Ray Millan	Not Set	75m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p464	....
Lady In Distress (British)	Times	...	Michael Redgrave-Sally Gray	Feb. 14, '42	76m	Feb. 21, '42	p517	....	....
Lady Is Willing, The	Col.	3007	Marlene Dietrich-Fred MacMurray	Feb. 12, '42	91m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p351	....
Lady Scarface	RKO	203	Dennis O'Keefe-Francis Neal	Sept. 26, '41	66m	July 26, '41	p248	p160	p236
Land of the Open Range	RKO	284	Tim Holt	Apr. 10, '42	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
Last of the Duanes	20th-Fox	209	Geo. Montgomery-Lynn Roberts	Sept. 26, '41	57m	Sept. 13, '41	p260	p247	....
Lawless Plainsman	Col.	...	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Mar. 12, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
Law of the Jungle	Mono.	...	Mantan Moreland	Feb. 6, '42	...	...	...	p476	....
Law of the Timber	Prod.	215	Marjorie Reynolds-Monte Blue	Dec. 19, '41	64m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p364	....
Law of the Tropics	WB	105	Jeffrey Lynn-Constance Bennett	Oct. 4, '41	76m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	....
Let's Go Collegiate	Mono.	...	Frankie Darro-Manton Moreland	Sept. 12, '41	62m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p209	....
Lone Rider and the Bandit	Prod.	263	George Houston	Jan. 16, '42	...	...	...	p409	....
Lone Rider in Cheyenne	Prod.	264	George Houston-Al St. John	Mar. 13, '42	...	...	...	p507	....
Lone Star Law Men	Mono.	...	Tom Keene-Betty Miles	Dec. 5, '41	...	...	...	p387	....
Lone Star Ranger	20th-Fox	...	John Kimbrough-Sheila Ryan	Not Set	...	...	...	p443	....
Lone Star Vigilantes, The	Col.	3211	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Jan. 1, '42	58m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
Look Who's Laughing	RKO	209	Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy	Nov. 21, '41	79m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p221	....
Louisiana Purchase (Color)	Para.	4136	Bob Hope-Vera Zorina-Victor Moore	Dec. 25, '41	98m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	p332	p452
Love on the Dole (British)	UA	...	Clifford Evans	Dec. 12, '41	100m	Apr. 19, '41	p418	....	....
Lucky Ghost	Consolidated National	...	Mantan Moreland	Feb. 10, '42	68m	Feb. 21, '42	p518	....	....
Lydia	UA	...	Merle Oberon-Alan Marshall	Sept. 26, '41	104m	Aug. 23, '41	p262	....	p496
MAD Doctor of Market Street	Univ.	6042	Una Merkel-Claire Dodd	Feb. 27, '42	61m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	....
Magnificent Ambersons, The	RKO	...	Joseph Cotton-Dolores Costello	Mar. 13, '42	...	...	...	p507	....
Major Barbara (British)	UA	...	Wendy Hiller-Robert Morley	Sept. 12, '41	115m	May 10, '41	...	p85	p353
Male Animal, The	WB	...	Henry Fonda-Olivia De Havilland	Not Set	101m	...	...	p464	....
Maltese Falcon, The	WB	107	Humphrey Bogart-Mary Astor	Oct. 18, '41	100m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	...	p496
Man at Large	20th-Fox	210	Marjorie Weaver-Geo. Reeves	Sept. 26, '41	69m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p247	p496
Man from Cheyenne	Rep.	153	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Jan. 16, '42	60m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p431	....
Man from Headquarters	Mono.	...	Frank Albertson-Joan Woodbury	Jan. 23, '42	67m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p443	....
Man from Montana	Univ.	6061	Johnny Mack Brown	Sept. 5, '41	56m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	p276	....
Man Who Came to Dinner	WB	117	Monty Woolley-Bette Davis	Jan. 24, '42	112m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	p332	p496
Man Who Returned to Life	Col.	3034	John Howard-Roger Clark	Feb. 5, '42	...	...	...	p476	....
Man Who Seeks the Truth	Dome (French)	...	Raimu	Oct. 7, '41	80m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	....	....
Man with Two Lives	Mono.	...	Edward Norris	Mar. 13, '42	...	...	...	p495	....
Married Bachelor	MGM	205	Ruth Hussey-Robert Young	Oct. '41	81m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p247	p496
Marry the Boss's Daughter	20th-Fox	221	Betty Joyce-Bruce Edwards	Nov. 28, '41	60m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p289	....
Masked Rider, The	Univ.	6062	Johnny Mack Brown	Oct. 24, '41	58m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p276	....
Maxwell Archer, Detective (British)	Mono.	...	John Loder-Leueen MacGrath	Not Set	...	...	...	p476	....
Mayor of 44th St.	RKO	...	George Murphy-Anne Shirley	Apr. 10, '42	...	...	...	p487	....
Melody Lane	Univ.	6029	The Merry Macs-Baby Sandy	Dec. 19, '41	60m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p376	....
Men in Her Life	Col.	3005	Loretta Young-Dean Jagger	Nov. 20, '41	89m	Oct. 25, '41	p321	p277	....
Mercy Island	Rep.	110	Ray Middleton-Gloria Dickson	Oct. 10, '41	72m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	....	....
Mexican Spitfire's Baby	RKO	210	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Nov. 28, '41	70m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p247	....
Mexican Spitfire at Sea	RKO	220	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Mar. 6, '42	72m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p443	....
Miracle Kid, The	Prod.	213	Tom Neal-Carol Hughes-Vicki Lester	Nov. 14, '41	69m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p320	....
Missouri Outlaw, A	Rep.	173	Don "Red" Barry	Nov. 25, '41	58	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p364	....
Miss Polly	UA	...	Zasu Pitts-Slim Summerville	Nov. 14, '41	45m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	....	....
Mister V (British)	UA	...	Leslie Howard	Mar. 20, '42	122m	July 5, '41	p450	....	....
(formerly Pimpernel Smith)	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	....
Mob Town	Univ.	6021	Dick Foran-Anne Gwynne	Oct. 3, '41	62m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p289	....
Moonlight in Hawaii	Univ.	6025	Mischa Auer-Jane Frazee	Nov. 21, '41	61m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p149	....
Moon Over Her Shoulder	20th-Fox	215	John Sutton-Lynn Bari	Oct. 24, '41	68m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	....
Mountain Moonlight	Rep.	107	Weaver Brothers and Elviry	July 12, '41	68m	July 19, '41	p250	p149	p236
Mr. Bug Goes to Town (color)	Para.	4114	Fleischer Feature Cartoon	Not Set	78m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p376	p496
Mr. Dist. Attorney in Carter Case	Rep.	112	James Ellison-Virginia Gilmore	Dec. 18, '41	68m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	p409	....
Mr. Wise Guy	Mono.	...	East Side Kids	Feb. 20, '42	70m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p475	....
Mr. and Mrs. North	MGM	219	Gracie Allen-William Post, Jr	Jan. '42	67m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	p387	....
Musical Story, A	Artkino	...	Sergei Lemeshev	Oct. 10, '41	84m	Oct. 25, '41	p331	....	....
Mystery Ship	Col.	3040	Paul Kelly-Lola Lane	Sept. 4, '41	65m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p194	p220
Mystery of Marie Roget	Univ.	...	Patric Knowles-Marie Montez	Not Set	...	...	...	p507	....
NAVY Blues	WB	103	Jack Oakie-Ann Sheridan	Sept. 13, '41	108m	Aug. 16, '41	p249	p205	p452
Nazi Agent	MGM	227	Conrad Veidt-Ann Ayars	Mar. '42	82m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	....	....
(Formerly Salute to Courage)	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	...	....
Never Give a Sucker an Even Break	Univ.	6016	W. C. Fields-Gloria Jean	Oct. 10, '41	70m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p299	p496

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section	Advance Synopsis	Service Data
New Wine	UA	...	Ilona Massey-Binnie Barnes	Oct. 10, '41	87m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p157	p452
New York Town	Para.	4105	Fred MacMurray-Mary Martin	Oct. 31, '41	75m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p236
Niagara Falls	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-Tom Brown	Oct. 17, '41	43m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	....
Night Before the Divorce, The	20th-Fox	235	Lynn Bari-Joseph Allen, Jr.	Mar. 6, '42	67m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	....
Night of January 16	Para.	4106	Robert Preston-Ellen Drew	Nov. 28, '41	80m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	....
Nine Bachelors (French)	Dome	...	Sacha Guitry	Feb. 7, '42	85m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	....	....
Nine Lives Are Not Enough	WB	104	Ronald Reagan-Joan Perry	Sept. 20, '41	63m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	....
No Hands on the Clock	Para.	4113	Chester Morris-Jean Parker	Not Set	76m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p364	....
North to the Klondike	Univ.	6023	Brod Crawford-Lon Chaney, Jr.	Jan. 23, '42	58m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p396	....
Nothing But the Truth	Para.	4101	Bob Hope-Paulette Goddard	Oct. 10, '41	90m	Aug. 2, '41	p250	p206	p496
OBLIGING Young Lady	RKO	215	Joan Carroll-Edmond O'Brien	Jan. 30, '42	80m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	p332	....
Old Mother Riley's Circus (British)	Anglo-Amer.	...	Arthur Lucan-Kitty McShane	Not Set	70m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	....	....
On the Sunny Side	20th-Fox	232	Roddy McDowall-Jane Darwell	Feb. 13, '42	69m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	....
One Foot in Heaven	WB	108	Fredric March-Martha Scott	Nov. 1, '41	108m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	p206	p496
Our Russian Front (Formerly Front from Russia)	Artkino	...	Documentary	Feb. 11, '42	40m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	....	....
Outlaws of Cherokee Trail	Rep.	161	Three Mesquiteers-Tom Tyler	Sept. 10, '41	56m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p263	....
Outlaws of the Desert	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	66m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
PANAMA Hattie	MGM	...	Ann Sothorn-Red Skelton	Not Set	...	...	...	p396	....
Pacific Blackout (formerly Midnight Angel)	Para.	4115	Robert Preston-Martha O'Driscoll	Jan. 2, '42	76m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p364	p496
Parachute Battalion	RKO	202	Robert Preston-Nancy Kelly	Sept. 12, '41	75m	July 19, '41	p249	p196	p421
Pardon My Stripes	Rep.	122	Bill Henry-Sheila Ryan	Jan. 26, '42	64m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p442	....
Paris Calling	Univ.	6014	Randolph Scott-Elizabeth Bergner	Jan. 16, '42	95m	Dec. 6, '41	p407	p320	....
Perfect Snob, The	20th-Fox	223	Lynn Bari-Cornel Wilde	Dec. 19, '41	62m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p351	....
Pittsburgh Kid, The	Rep.	133	Billy Conn-Jean Parker	Aug. 29, '41	76m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	....	p353
Playmates	RKO	212	Kay Kyser-John Barrymore	Dec. 26, '41	96m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	p332	....
Powder Town	RKO	...	Victor McLaglen-Edmond O'Brien	Apr. 17, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Prime Minister, The (British)	WB	115	John Gielgud-Diana Wynyard	Not Set	94m	Aug. 23, '41	p249	....	....
Private Nurse	20th-Fox	204	Brenda Joyce-Robert Lowery	Aug. 22, '41	61m	July 26, '41	p250	p197	p236
Public Enemies	Rep.	121	Philip Terry-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 30, '41	66m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	....	....
QUIET Wedding (British)	Univ.	6044	Margaret Lockwood-Derek Farr	Nov. 21, '41	80m	Feb. 15, '41	p386	....	....
RAIDERS of the West	Prod.	252	Bill "Radio" Boyd-Lee Powell	Feb. 13, '42	64m	...	...	p432	....
Reap the Wild Wind	Para.	...	Ray Milland-Paulette Goddard	Not Set	...	...	...	p408	....
Red River Valley	Rep.	152	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Dec. 12, '41	62m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	p409	....
Remarkable Andrew, The	Para.	...	William Holden-Ellen Drew	Not Set	80m	Jan. 24, '42	p473	p443	....
Remarkable Mr. Kipps (British)	20th-Fox	...	Michael Redgrave-Diana Wynyard	Not Set	112m	Apr. 12, '41	...	....	....
Remember the Day	20th-Fox	226	Claudette Colbert-John Payne	Dec. 26, '41	86m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p408	p452
Ride 'Em Cowboy	Univ.	6002	Abbott and Costello	Feb. 20, '42	86m	Feb. 14, '42	p505	p464	....
Riders of the Badlands	Col.	3202	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Dec. 18, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p387	....
Riding the Wind	RKO	283	Tim Holt	Feb. 13, '42	60m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	....	....
Riders of the Purple Sage	20th-Fox	213	Geo. Montgomery-Mary Howard	Oct. 10, '41	56m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	....
Riders of the Timberline	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	59m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
Right to the Heart	20th-Fox	229	Brenda Joyce-Cornel Wilde	Jan. 23, '42	74m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	....
Riot Squad	Mono.	...	Richard Cromwell-Rita Quigley	Dec. 12, '41	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	p364	....
Rise and Shine	20th-Fox	219	J. Oakie-Walter Brennan-Linda Darnell	Nov. 21, '41	92m	Nov. 15, '41	p361	p351	p496
Road Agent	Univ.	6052	Leo Carrillo-Andy Devine-Dick Foran	Dec. 19, '41	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	....	....
Road to Happiness	Mono.	...	John Boles-Mona Barrie	Jan. 9, '42	83m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p396	....
Roaring Frontiers	Col.	3210	Bill Elliott	Oct. 16, '41	60m	Aug. 30, '41	p234	....	....
Rock River Renegades	Mono.	...	Corrigan-Kane-Terhune	Feb. 27, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Roxie Hart	20th-Fox	233	Ginger Rogers-George Montgomery	Feb. 20, '42	74m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	p487	....
Royal Mounted Patrol	Col.	3201	Chas. Starrett-Russell Hayden	Nov. 13, '41	59m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p289	....
SABOTEUR, The	Univ.	...	Robert Cummings-Priscilla Lane	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
Saddle Mountain Roundup	Mono.	...	Range Busters	Aug. 29, '41	60m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p299	....
Sailors on Leave	Rep.	109	Wm. Lundigan-Shirley Ross	Sept. 30, '41	71m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p299	p432
Sealed Lips	Univ.	6038	Wm. Gargan-June Clyde-John Litel	Dec. 5, '41	62m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	....	....
Secrets of the Lone Wolf	Col.	3026	Warren William-Ruth Ford	Nov. 13, '41	67m	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p289	....
Secrets of the Wasteland	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	70m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Sergeant York	WB	101	Gary Cooper-Joan Leslie	Sept. 27, '41	134m	July 5, '41	p250	p111	p495
Shadow of the Thin Man	MGM	210	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Nov. '41	97m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p308	p495
Shanghai Gesture, The	UA	...	Gene Tierney-Walter Huston	Feb. 6, '42	105m	Dec. 27, '41	p442	....	p452
Ships With Wings (British)	UA	...	John Clements-Leslie Banks	May 15, '42	...	Dec. 20, '41	p419	....	....
Shut My Big Mouth	Col.	3021	Joe E. Brown-Adele Mara	Feb. 19, '42	70m	Feb. 21, '42	p517	p476	....
Sierra Sue	Rep.	143	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Nov. 12, '41	64m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p343	....
Sing Another Chorus	Univ.	6030	Johnny Downs-Jane Frazee	Sept. 19, '41	63m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	p137	....
Sing for Your Supper	Col.	3022	Jinx Falkenburg-Buddy Rogers	Dec. 4, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p331	....
Sing Your Worries Away	RKO	219	Bert Lahr-Buddy Ebsen	Feb. 27, '42	71m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p442	....
Siren of the South Seas	Mono.	...	Movita-Warren Hull	Nov. 7, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p218	....
Skylark	Para.	4107	Claudette Colbert-Ray Milland	Nov. 21, '41	93m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p235	....
Small Town Deb	20th-Fox	217	Jane Withers-Cobina Wright, Jr.	Nov. 7, '41	72m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	....
Smiling Ghost, The	WB	102	Brenda Marshall-Wayne Morris	Sept. 6, '41	71m	Ang. 16, '41	p262	p207	p452
Smilin' Through (color)	MGM	206	Jeanette MacDonald-Gene Raymond	Oct. '41	100m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p247	p495
Snuffy Smith, Yard Bird	Mono.	...	Bud Duncan-Edgar Kennedy	Jan. 16, '42	67m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p408	....
Song of the Islands (color)	20th-Fox	236	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Mar. 13, '42	75m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	p487	....
Son of Fury	20th-Fox	230	Tyrone Power-Gene Tierney	Jan. 9, '42	98m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p432	....
Sons of the Sea (British) (formerly Atlantic Ferry)	WB	119	Michael Redgrave-Valerie Hobson	Feb. 7, '42	91m	July 5, '41	p430	....	....
South of Santa Fe	Rep.	154	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Feb. 17, '42	...	...	...	p507	....
South of Tahiti	Univ.	6020	Brian Donlevy-Brod Crawford	Oct. 17, '41	75m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p308	....
Soviet Power	Artkino	...	Documentary	Sept. '41	112m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Spooks Run Wild	Mono.	...	Bela Lugosi-Leo Gorcey	Oct. 24, '41	64m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	p277	....
Stage Coach Buckaroo	Univ.	6064	Johnny Mack Brown	Feb. 13, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Steel Against the Sky	WB	112	Lloyd Nolan-Alexis Smith	Dec. 13, '41	68m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p376	....
Stick To Your Guns	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	63m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
Stolen Paradise (formerly Adolescence)	Mono.	....	Leon Janney-Eleanor Hunt	Oct. 10, '41	62m	Oct. 19, '41	p319	p263	p386
Stork Pays Off, The	Col.	3036	Maxie Rosenbloom-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 6, '41	68m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p308	....
Strangler, The	Prod.	229	Judy Campbell-Sebastian Shaw	Mar. 27, '42	...	...	...	...	...
Sullivan's Travels	Para.	4112	Joel McCrea-Veronica Lake	Not Set	91m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p320	p452
Sundown	UA	...	Gene Tierney-Bruce Cabot	Oct. 31, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
Sun Valley Serenade	20th-Fox	205	Sonja Heine-John Payne	Aug. 29, '41	86m	Aug. 22, '41	p251	p137	p367
Suspicion (formerly Before the Fact)	RKO	208	Cary Grant-Joan Fontaine	Nov. 14, '41	99m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p158	p452
Swamp Water	20th-Fox	218	W. Huston-Walter Brennan-Ann Baxter	Dec. 5, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	p452
Swamp Woman	Prod.	230	Ann Corio-Jack LaRue	Dec. 5, '41	68m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p331	....
Swing It Soldier	Univ.	6033	Frances Langford-Ken Murray	Nov. 7, '41	66m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p331	p452
Syncopation	RKO	...	Adolphe Menjou-Jackie Cooper	Mar. 27, '42	...	...	...	p487	....
TANKS a Million	UA	....	William Tracy-Elyse Knox	Sept. 12, '41	50m	Aug. 9, '41	p250	....	p220
Target for Tonight (British)	WB	109	Documentary	Nov. 8, '41	48m	Aug. 16, '41	p318	....	p495
Tarzan's Secret Treasure	MGM	214	Johnny Weismuller-Maureen O'Sullivan	Dec. '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p375	p289	p495
Texas	Col.	3008	William Holden-Glenn Ford	Oct. 9, '41	94m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p181	p495
Texas Man Hunt	Prod.	251	Bill (Radio) Boyd	Jan. 2, '42	60m	...	...	p409	....
They Died with Their Boots On	WB	114	Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland	Jan. 1, '42	140m	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p308	p495
This England (British)	World	....	Emlyn Williams-John Clements	Nov. 17, '41	80m	Mar. 8, '41	p406	....	....
This Time for Keeps	MGM	228	Ann Rutherford-Robert Sterling	Mar. '42	71m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p495	....
Three Cockeyed Sailors (British)	UA	....	Tommy Trinder-Claude Hulbert	July 4, '41	77m	June 21, '41	p248	....	p288
Three Girls About Town	Col.	3016	Joan Blondell-John Howard	Oct. 23, '41	72m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p263	p367
Thunder River Feud	Mono.	...	Range Busters	Jan. 9, '42	...	...	...	p443	....
Thundering Hoofs	RKO	286	Tim Holt	Not Set	61m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
To Be or Not to Be	UA	...	Carole Lombard-Jack Benny	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Today I Hang	Prod.	214	Walter Woolf King-Mona Barrie	Jan. 30, '42	...	...	...	p467	....
Tonto Basin Outlaws	Mono.	....	Ray Corrigan-John King	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p320	....
Too Many Women	Prod.	210	Neil Hamilton-June Lang	Feb. 27, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
Top Sergeant Mulligan	Mono.	....	Nat Pendleton-Carol Hughes	Oct. 17, '41	70m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p308	....
Torpedo Boat	Para.	...	Richard Arlen-Jean Parker	Not Set	70m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	....
Tough As They Come	Univ.	...	Billy Halop-Bernard Punsley	Not Set	...	...	...	p508	....
Tragedy at Midnight, A	Rep.	114	Margaret Lindsay-John Howard	Feb. 2, '42	68m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p476	....
Tramp, Tramp, Tramp	Col.	...	Jackie Gleason-Jack Durant	Mar. 12, '42	...	...	...	p507	....
Treat 'Em Rough (formerly Panama Kid)	Univ.	6039	Peggy Moran-Eddie Albert	Jan. 30, '42	61m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p408	....
Tuxedo Junction	Rep.	113	Weaver Brothers	Dec. 4, '41	71m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p343	....
Twilight on the Trail	Para.	....	Bill Boyd	Not Set	58m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	....
Twin Beds	UA	....	George Brent-Joan Bennett	Apr. 24, '42	...	...	...	p442	....
Two-Faced Woman (formerly The Twins)	MGM	211	Greta Garbo-Melvyn Douglas	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p299	p451
Two Latins from Manhattan	Col.	3020	Joan Davis-"Jinx" Falkenburg	Oct. 2, '41	65m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Two Yanks in Trinidad	Col.	...	Pat O'Brien-Brian Donlevy	Mar. 26, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
UNDERGROUND Rustlers (formerly Bullets and Bullion)	Mono.	...	Range Busters	Nov. 21, '41	...	...	...	p331	....
Unexpected Uncle	RKO	207	Anne Shirley-Charles Coburn	Nov. 7, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p218	....
Unfinished Business	Univ.	6004	Irene Dunne-Robert Montgomery	Sept. 12, '41	96m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p172	p451
Unholy Partners	MGM	209	Ed. G. Robinson-Laraine Day-Ed. Arnold	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
VALLEY of the Sun	RKO	216	Lucille James-James Craig	Feb. 6, '42	84m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	p442	....
Vanishing Virginian, The	MGM	223	Frank Morgan-Kathryn Grayson	Feb. '42	97m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	....
WEEKEND in Havana (color)	20th-Fox	214	Alice Faye-C. Miranda-J. Payne	Oct. 17, '41	80m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p495
Weekend for Three	RKO	211	Dennis O'Keefe-Jane Wyatt-Philip Reed	Dec. 12, '41	66m	Oct. 25, '41	p343	p332	....
We Go Fast	20th-Fox	208	Lynn Bari-Alan Curtis	Sept. 19, '41	64m	Sept. 13, '41	p260	p247	p495
We Were Dancing	MGM	225	Norma Shearer-Melvyn Douglas	Mar. '42	94m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p443	....
Western Mail	Mono.	...	Tim Keene-Jean Trent	Feb. 13, '42	...	...	...	....	....
West of Cimarron	Rep.	163	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Dec. 15, '41	56m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p396	....
West of Tombstone	Col.	3203	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Jan. 15, '42	60m	Feb. 21, '42	p517	....	....
What's Cookin'	Univ.	...	Andrews Sisters-Gloria Jean	Feb. 13, '42	60m	Feb. 21, '42	p517	p507	....
Wild Bill Hickok Rides	WB	118	Constance Bennett-Bruce Cabot	Jan. 31, '42	82m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	p408	....
Wild Geese Calling	20th-Fox	203	Henry Fonda-Joan Bennett	Aug. 15, '41	78m	July 26, '41	p249	p196	p367
Wings of Victory	Artkino	...	Vladimir Belokurov	Nov. 14, '41	95m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	....	....
Wolf Man, The	Univ.	6015	Claude Rains-Dick Foran	Dec. 12, '41	70m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	....	....
Woman of the Year, The	MGM	222	Spencer Tracy-Katharine Hepburn	Feb. '42	112m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p376	....
Workers, Let's Go (Czech)	Trans-Oceanic	...	Jan Werich-Jiri Voskovec	Dec. 12, '41	71m	Dec. 20, '42	p420	....	....
YANK in the R.A.F.	20th-Fox	211	Tyrone Power-Betty Grable	Oct. 3, '41	97m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p149	p495
Yank on the Burma Road, A (formerly China Caravan)	MGM	224	Laraine Day-Barry Nelson	Feb. '42	66m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p432	....
Yokel Boy	Rep.	115	Albert Dekker-Joan Davis	Mar. 13, '42	...	...	...	....	....
You Belong to Me	Col.	3003	Henry Fonda-Barbara Stanwyck	Oct. 30, '41	97m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p289	p451
You're in the Army Now	WB	113	Jimmy Durante-Jane Wymen	Dec. 25, '41	79m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
You're Telling Me	Univ.	...	Hugh Herbert-Anne Gwynne	Mar. 27, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
Young America	20th-Fox	231	Jane Withers-William Tracy	Jan. 2, '42	73m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	....
ZIS-Boom-Bah	Mono.	...	Grace Hayes-Peter Lind Hayes	Nov. 7, '41	62m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p332	....

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in Order of Release on page 510.

THE FINEST ACCOUNTING BOOK EVER COMPILED FOR MOTION PICTURE THEATRE OWNERS!!

« NOTICE THE UTTER SIMPLICITY OF THESE SAMPLE PAGES »

INCOME

DATE	TOTAL TICKETS	PRICE	TOTAL CASH	TAX	FEATURE SUNDAY MONDAY TUESDAY WEDNESDAY THURSDAY
FRIDAY SATURDAY

PAYROLL & BANK RECORD

DATE	NAME	RATE	PER AMOUNT	CHECK NO.

PROFIT AND LOSS

RECEIPTS

Total for Week from Page B $

EXPENSES

Fixed Charges—Page A (Blue)—Item "A" $

Film Rental—Page B—Item "B" $

Payroll—This Page—Item "C" $

MISCELLANEOUS EXPENSES

Advertising $

Business $

Carriage $

Electricity $

Gas $

Insurance $

Interest $

Postage $

Telephone $

Travel $

Other $

TOTAL EXPENSES $

WEEKLY PROFIT $

CONTRACT RECORD

DATE	CLEARANCE	CONTRACT

FIXED EXPENSE APPORTIONMENT

(EXCEPTED KNOWN CHARGES ONLY)

Annual Rate $

License Fee $

Insurance Cost $

Legal Fees $

Misc. Tax $

Amortization of Mortgage $

Equipment $

Interest $

Depreciation of Buildings and Equipment $

(a) Total $

(b) No. of Weeks Theatre Is Open

"A"—Weekly Charge (Total (a) divided by weeks open (b)) $

PURCHASES OF EQUIPMENT

DATE PURCHASED	FROM WHOM	PRICE

INSURANCE RECORD

POLICY DATE	COMPANY	AGENT	POLICY NO.	POLICY AMOUNT	EXPIRATION DATE	PREMIUM

THEATRE MANAGEMENT RECORD AND ANNUAL TAX REGISTER

YOUR MONEY WILL BE IMMEDIATELY RE-FUNDED IF YOU DON'T FIND THIS TO BE A PRACTICAL, SIMPLIFIED BOOKKEEPING SYSTEM

$2.00
Postpaid

MAIL
COUPON
NOW
→

QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, ROCKEFELLER CENTER, NEW YORK

Here is my check for $2.00. Send me "THEATRE MANAGEMENT RECORD".

Name ..... Address .....
City and State ..... Theatre .....

FIRST AID

Advertising!

FOR THE BOXOFFICE IT'S

and here's why . . .

You book the picture. You set the play-date. You know the angles. Now, all you have to do is get the people in.

And when you've got your TRAILER...you're well on the way. That's advertising . . . that's first aid . . . the basis of most theatre advertising campaigns.

And now for the transients . . . the shoppers . . . the once-in-a-whiles. You've got a selling job to do there. You need help. So what do you do? You call for first-aid . . . outside advertising. The kind of advertising that will TOP walkers . . . talkers . . . people on the move.

Standard Accessories is that kind of first-aid advertising . . . Special Accessories is that kind of first-aid advertising . . .

STANDARD ACCESSORIES
SPECIALTY ACCESSORIES
TRAILERS

NATIONAL Screen SERVICE
UNITED FRONT OF THE INDUSTRY

IS that First-Aid to your Box-Office

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

REVIEWS:

(In Product Digest)

Adventures of Martin Eden

Man Who Returned to Life

South of Santa Fe

Below the Border

Professor Creeps

U. S. ADMITS FAULTS of DECREE SELLING, LOOKING for ANSWER

TIRE RATIONING HANDICAP TO TEXAS
COUNTRY THEATRE BECOMES FACTOR IN ARBITRATION CLEARANCE RULING

HOLLYWOOD WILL GET NO BLANKET
DRAFT DEFERMENT, SAYS GENERAL
HERSHEY OF THE SELECTIVE SERVICE

PRODUCERS HAVE 7,600 PRIORITY
PROBLEMS IN THIS WAR AND WANT TO KNOW WHAT TO DO ABOUT THEM

DISTRIBUTORS NOW SERVICE 8,488 TOWNS IN U. S.

VOL. 146, NO. 9

FEBRUARY 28, 1942

Entered as second-class matter, January 12, 1931, at the Post Office, at New York City, U. S. A., under the act of March 3, 1879.
Published weekly by Quigley Publishing Co., Inc., at 1270 Sixth Avenue, Rockefeller Center, New York. Subscription prices: $5.00 a year in the Americas; $10.00 a year Foreign. Single copy: 25 cents. 40 cents postpaid. Second-class postage paid at New York, N. Y.

THIS

MONEY TALK!

"Hits the box-office bullseye . . . a home-spun gem . . . delightfully renews acquaintance with worthy and valued screen friends . . . Another romp for the sure-fire Mickey Rooney." —HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

"Another sure-fire box-office success. The magic name of Mickey Rooney and the terrific financial achievements of previous Hardy films should attract plenty of customers...Audience howled with delight... Direction is masterful." —DAILY VARIETY

"Chock full of wide audience appeal . . . All elements which have made series popular entertainment are included . . . Mickey Rooney up to par with a splendid performance." —FILM DAILY

"Great audience picture, ranks with the best of its predecessors in the Hardy series . . . Mickey Rooney, Number One star of the Hollywood firmament, turns in fine portrayal . . . The Hardy family pictures have consistently rated among the biggest grossing pictures of each year, and the latest should be no exception."

—SHOWMEN'S TRADE REVIEW

"Rolls along with solid entertainment, to rate as best of the series released in two years . . . Strong box-office attraction to spread happiness among the theatre operators."

—VARIETY

"A sure winner at the ticket window."

—BOXOFFICE

BECAUSE OF THIS!

Your next hilarious hold-over will be M-G-M's

"THE COURTSHIP OF ANDY HARDY"

LEWIS STONE • MICKEY ROONEY
CECILIA PARKER • FAY HOLDEN

ANN RUTHERFORD • SARA HADEN and DONNA REED

Screen Play by Agnes Christine Johnston • A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture

Directed by GEORGE B. SEITZ

"KINGS ROW"

Now in its fourth week
at the Astor, N. Y. — and headed for plenty more!

"ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT"

The holdover sensation of the year! Beating "The Maltese Falcon" — and that's terrific!

"THEY DIED WITH THEIR BOOTS ON"

Well ahead of "Dive Bomber" from coast to coast! That's all, brother! And that's plenty!

The industrial to money

money

"CAPTAINS OF THE CLOUDS"

Topping "YORK" in New York,
Toronto, Oklahoma City and everywhere else!

"THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER"

A solid smash in every situation! Ask the man who's played it!

ARE MADE BY
WARNER BROS.

Sure we know —

the holiday weekend was terrific

and business was great everywhere

but  ROXIE HART did the bulk of it --- axe-ing a 10 year

record at New York's Roxy where it played to 87,147 persons from Thursday thru Monday

[ On Sunday! An all-time record
for receipts for one day! ]

and FIRST IN THE LONG RUNS everywhere!

MOTION PICTURE HERALD

MARTIN QUIGLEY, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher

Vol. 146, No. 9

February 28, 1942

In Prospect

THE retail map of the motion picture is being made over. Surface manifestations are only beginning to appear, but they will be coming more swiftly with the realignments under the war economy.

The over-all indications are in favour of more spending at the box office, with upturns in areas of concentrated population, down-turns where transportation involving gasoline and rubber is a factor.

The cross-roads competitions of dine-dance-drink-and-juke-box is certain to wane—is waning now.

The effects are likely to be somewhat in reversal of what happened to the motion picture with the rise of the motor car and the picture shopping habit some two decades ago.

As with many facts of the war, the information is disseminated slowly. We have heard only part of what's what about rubber. As the tankers are blasted one by one, the approach of gasoline rationing draws closer. The prior flurry on the gas rationing being what it was, the next move may be expected to come without warnings and preliminaries.

In the big industrial regions there are population shifts of enough weight now in progress to make differences in the patronage pattern of many a location. An example is afforded just now in the case of the little town of Westport, up on the Connecticut shore, where a great electrical company with adjacent plants has taken over every available residence leasehold. Some of the big industrial concerns are now operating large special departments concerned entirely with housing and the movements of whole armies of workers.

The box office has already noted the rising buying power of the less sophisticated customers. That is still under way.

It is clear, too, that the war is taking away millions of the young men and buyers of box-office entertainment. Many of the girls they leave behind them will be going alone, and spending money earned on the new job at the factory. It is more than probable that the buying power will be more preponderantly feminine than ever. In time that too will be reflected in the product.

AS for production, it would appear that the war economy and priorities are not to be expected to have a devastating effect. Within the abundant ingenuities of the production machine and its endless devices it may be anticipated that Hollywood will be meeting any problems without conspicuous sacrifice to ersatz.

There is also to be considered, in passing, the possibility that the pictures might well be improved by the imposition of some limitations. The art of picture making, in the opinion of many a critic, has not kept pace with its ever-expanding technology. Only the other day Mr. William Dieterle was quoted:

"It's too bad that in Hollywood—as in every field all over the world—technical advances ever outstripped ideas. Machinery develops faster than men's minds. Technique has remained young while the men in control have grown old. . . ."

Picture evolution may perhaps be well served by having to do more with less, and the process of catching up with itself.

A classic example, cited on this page before, was afforded years ago in the German production entitled "The Cabinet of Dr. Calagari". It was made entirely of ersatz and ingenuity, at a cost of about $3,000. It was driven to the use of closely limited sets, all done in sharply contrasting blacks and whites, because only a minimum of electric light was available. That picture has become one of the landmarks of screen development. It was a success by reason of limitation.

IN sum, it may be expected that the motion picture can adjust to and function under the war economy, continuing in the real service of its people, with far less disruption, loss and disturbance than most other great industries. Its function continues to be entertainment, escape, information of the business of living, the life that we fight for.

FILM FOR ECONOMY

THE roadshows of the speaking stage are in transportation trouble for both players and scenery, now that war is overloading the rails. Plans to move the shows by truck and bus, in view of the rubber rationing, and the gas rationing to come, can be at best only temporary expedients.

That gives special point to advantages enjoyed by the motion picture as a system of the distribution and delivery of entertainment. A typical twelve-reel show, including a ten-reel feature, a newsreel and a one-reel cartoon makes up a shipment in which the film and reels weigh sixty pounds and the shipping cans another twenty-one pounds, a total of eighty-one pounds, or considerably less than the weight of the leading lady. In addition the film takes a minimum of cubic footage.

All this pertains, too, you will be remembering, to factors that were important in the development of the motion picture, giving a theatre to millions to whom it had been unavailable before. The film well fits the limitations of a war economy.

BOOSTER COPY

A MAP of southern California and Los Angeles county, just issued by the Chamber of Commerce, and accompanying data inform us that the "county is bigger and safer than you think". It is indicated that it is 5,490 miles from Tokyo, 5,790 miles from Berlin, 6,340 miles from Rome and 6,260 miles from Dakar. It is as far across the county as it is from New York to Philadelphia, they boast, and Greater New York, from far eastern Queens to deep into New Jersey, would cover about half of it.

That was before, and presumably not relevant to, any question of how close Santa Barbara was to the war Monday evening.

Incidentally, examination of the mailing piece shows that the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce stencil list has not been revised for about seven years.

—Terry Ramsaye

This Week

in the News

How Much, How Many?

ALLOTMENT of strategic materials to the motion picture industry by the U. S. War Production Board still is being figured out in Washington on the basis of 1940 and 1941 consumption. The board is studying percentages to apply to the supply of film stocks, materials, metals and other critical materials, as listed in the report on past uses and current needs which was presented to WPB's Julian Brylawski, by Francis Harmon and Donald Hyndman, acting for the motion picture industry's War Activities Committee. There have been no indications of the extent to which motion picture consumption will be cut but assurances have been voiced that the industry's essential classification as a morale builder and wartime educational aid is being considered. Final decision rests with Donald Nelson, head of the WPB.

The WPB order when issued is expected to provide for an uninterrupted flow of product to screens but the utmost use of every foot of film will be required.

Theatres, distributors, the Hollywood studios and equipment makers will be covered in the WPB rulings. Hollywood, facing 7,600 priority problems, is already looking for substitute. See page 15.

Blackout

COMPOSURE in crisis characterized Hollywood Wednesday with studio workers, after a long night of anti-aircraft action, blackouts, alarms, arriving at their posts sleepy-eyed but punctually to continue their job of picture-making full of conversation but not of jitters. What the night had brought and the next might bring were topics of concern and conjecture throughout the area but cameras ground uninterruptedly.

Studios reported no overnight damage or disturbance of routine.

Recent efforts to lure studios to Arizona and elsewhere, which had netted no results previously, appeared to prosper no better after the Wednesday morning incident.

Executives of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences were continuing as of Wednesday twilight with final preparations for the awards banquet at the Biltmore Bowl on Thursday night.

Ultimate continuation of raids, blackouts and alerts were expected by showmen to result in a shifting of bulk patronage from downtown first run houses to neighborhood theatres.

In Washington, Secretary of the Navy Knox said, "It was a false alarm."

FAULTS in Decree selling system admitted; solution sought Page 12

IATSE annual fiscal report shows half million in treasury Page 13

HOLLYWOOD producers have 7,600 priority problems Page 15

SKOURAS, Katz, Orsatti sell candy with lobby "juke boxes" Page 16

WILLKIE lauds industry as "True American leader" Page 18

16,951 accounts in 8,488 towns serviced by distributors Pages 21-27

APPEALS BOARD recognizes competitive effect of tire rationing Page 28

FREE features given Army by distributors on 16mm. Page 36

NO BLANKET draft deferment for film industry, Hershey says Page 37

TELEVISION pulling in its belt for the duration of the war Page 47

SERVICE DEPARTMENTS

Asides and Interludes Page 33 Managers' Round Table Page 55

Hollywood Scene Page 40 What the Picture Did for Me Page 51

PRODUCT DIGEST, including Reviews and Release Chart Page 63

Hays and the Six

SHUFFLINGS of affairs, and among some of those who conduct them in the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, as suggested by the committee of six lawyer-strategists, are due for formal MPPDA membership consideration, on Friday, according to word in Hollywood. Directors of the Association of Motion Picture Producers are to meet with Will H. Hays and the six lawyers.

An inter-studio bureau to coordinate the use of critical materials and divide priority allotments may also be formed at the meeting. Endorsement of the new closer relations between studio and home office publicity committees is also expected.

The industry heard meanwhile that an assistant in command to Will H. Hays is being sought by the Committee of Six.

Appointment of John B. Bryson to succeed Charles C. Pettijohn as the MPPDA's legislative contact, although not officially announced, was generally accepted as fact at New York on Wednesday. Mr. Bryson, the lawyers' committee nominee, is not a lawyer, but has had experience as representative for Hollywood in dealings with the state Government at Sacramento.

The studio publicity directors' committee this week inaugurated a regular series of Hollywood communiques to more than 400 post newspapers published in Army and Navy training camps. The releases will be dispensed directly by the committee and will carry news of particular interest to the armed forces as well as general Hollywood news reports.

Morgenthau Agfa Boss

GENERAL MANAGER of Agfa, this week, is Henry Morgenthau, Jr.

He swells the list of American officers of General Aniline and Film Corporation, AGFA parent. Others are Julian Mack, president; William C. Bullitt, chairman of the board.

The Morgenthau designation is by Presidential order, under the Trading With The Enemy Act. It follows assumption by the Treasury, last week, of 97 per cent of GFAC stock. Ninety-five per cent of that is owned by foreigners. Investigation indicates those foreigners are German.

Communist Shows

EXHIBITION of a Soviet picture, the eight-minute newsreel, "Russia's Millions Mobilize," was the occasion of a Communist Party event last Friday night at the Irving Plaza theatre, New York. New Masses, Communist magazine, held a "war films program," at the Plaza, including showing of this newsreel and films dealing with the Japanese attack upon the United States, the Red Army in action, defense preparations in England and other pertinent subjects. Following the film portion of the program, William Blake, Communist writer, described by the Daily Worker, Red press organ in the U. S., "as a student of international affairs and a financial representative of European banking houses," spoke on "Behind the Nazi Lines," offering facts about the underground war in Germany. Mr. Blake is the author of "The Copperheads."

Wanger on Unity

UNITY of every group and every force in the industry must be attained at once to mobilize completely the forces of the screen in the country's war effort, Walter Wanger, president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, was to tell the Hollywood guests at the Awards dinner in Los Angeles Thursday night.

Before introducing Wendell Willkie, the guest of honor, Mr. Wanger in his prepared speech said, "Tonight we dedicate ourselves, our abilities, our talents and our resources to the country whose freedom and whose collective vision has made our progress possible."

"To make that dedication a thing of consequence," the speech read, "requires above all else complete unity—unity of effort, unity of spirit. We must bind every group and every force, from laborer to star, in a closer unity so that our service and our contribution may be complete and undivided."

Stressing the importance of the screen in the "psychological preparation" of the United Nations for the supreme effort required for victory, the speech continued:

"This is no time for recrimination but it is a time for complete mobilizing of our enormous resources. A veritable Niagara of resources of the imagination are present in this room. It is not only our obligation, it is our duty to harness all this talent, adjust it to new horizons and a new point of view and project it to the world . . .

"It is our business to justify our existence by making that which is required for these times. Certainly we need entertaining pictures, but we need other types as well—pictures made in some instances with other motives than commercial possibilities alone."

Mr. Willkie's prepared speech was to praise the industry as a "true leader of Americans" and as a "democratic process". See page 18.

Mellett Taking Over

A SWEEPING shake-up of all of the federal Government's motion picture activities is in the offing, Washington hears, with Lowell Mellett, now Coordinator of Government Films, mentioned as chief of all U. S. Government film activities.

The film programs of the Office of Emergency Management, of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, the Office of Facts and Figures, the Coordinator of Information, possibly the Army and Navy, (with the exception of censorship and strictly instructional pictures) and many other U. S. agencies, directly or indirectly involved in making war films are mentioned as likely candidates to go under a super film agency under direction of Mr. Mellett and his assistant Arch Mercey, formerly of the U. S. Film Service.

Recent additions to the Mellett staff include Doctor Edgar Dale, of the Ohio State University Bureau of Educational Research,

Sam Spewack, a film and stage writer, Harold Jacobs, former Associated Press newsmen as newsreel liaison, and others. Professor Dale, an author of books on visual education, is Mr. Mellett's consultant on non-theatrical films, at $5,600 per annum. Professor Dale also was once with the Motion Picture Research Council, which, some years ago, fought the industry and many of its practices, including block booking.

Leo Rosten, sociologist and writer about Hollywood, recently named to Archibald MacLeish's Office of Facts and Figures, will be his liaison with the film work. The appointment of Robert Allen, former Department of Justice attorney, as Mr. Mellett's west coast representative, reported in early February, still has to be officially confirmed or denied by Mr. Mellett.

The consolidated Government film bureau may also include a non-theatrical U. S. distribution system. The Latin American film division headed by John Hay Whitney, has been reported contemplating such a set-up to secure non-theatrical distribution, and some theatrical exhibition of some subjects, for films about and from Latin America. William F. Rodgers, general sales manager of MGM, has been mentioned as Mr. Whitney's choice for advisory head of such an organization.

Happy Holiday

A WASHINGTON's Birthday boom that in many instances approached New Year's levels was reported by theatre operators in many sections of the country at midweek as they tallied box-office returns for the holiday weekend. A radio report to the nation by President Roosevelt at 10 P.M. Monday, usually the occasion for a sharp drop in theatre business did not curb attendance in most instances, despite the fact that networks estimated that the President was heard by his largest radio audience. Most theatres interrupted programs for it.

PICTURES ADVERTISED THIS WEEK

"Courtship of Andy Hardy," MGM, 2nd cover, Page 3
 "Kings Row," Warner, Page 4
 "All Through the Night," Warner, Page 4
 "They Died With Their Boots On," Warner, Page 4
 "Captains of the Clouds," Warner, Page 5
 "The Man Who Came to Dinner," Warner, Page 5
 "Roxie Hart," 20th-Fox, Page 6
 "We Were Dancing," MGM, Pages 19, 20
 "Captain Midnight," Columbia, Pages 24, 25
 "The Lady Has Plans," Paramount, Pages 29, 30
 "Fantasia," RKO, Pages 34, 35
 "The Gold Rush," UA, Pages 36a, 36b
 "The Ghost of Frankenstein," Universal, Page 39
 "A Tragedy at Midnight," Republic, Page 41

Still Frying OCD

OCD, the Office of Civilian Defense, this week prepared for a full attack from Congress, led by Senator Harry Byrd, Virginia, whose Joint Committee on Reduction of Non-Essential Federal Expenditures began investigating the situation touched off by OCD employment of Mayris Chaney, dancer, and Melvyn Douglas, Hollywood actor.

Announcing he had invited Dean James Landis, OCD director, to explain activities of his agency, Senator Byrd declared it had set up eight branches with 30 sections and gave the appearance "of a highly complicated, costly organization, little of which actually goes to real defense."

P. S.—Mrs. Roosevelt resigned as OCD assistant director last week. She said: "No individual is more important than a good program."

P. P. S.—Miss Chaney, who previously resigned, said she was considering stage and radio offers.

Canada's "Alien" Film

BRITAIN has officially classified the propaganda films product of Canada as of "alien status" and hence not to be allowed free entry into England. This is made the more remarkable by the fact that the Canadian government film production is under the supervision of John Grierson, who, it will be remembered, was the producer of many official British propaganda documentary pictures, and long a leader in that field.

The tidings of this curious action are brought by the British Documentary News Letter, confirming earlier intelligence on the subject.

It is Mr. Grierson's contention that government films to be successful should be entertaining enough to sell. He has arranged commercial distribution for Canadian films in most of the United Nations, except Great Britain. United Artists is distributing some of his subjects in the United States.

Those War Taxes

DRAFTING of the new 1942 Federal tax legislation will begin next week with the opening of hearings March 3rd by the House Ways and Means Committee, at which Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau will be the first witness, disclosing the Department's recommendations for new taxes and increased rates.

It is believed that considerable of the committee's study of taxes will be devoted to consideration of a general sales tax, which might be so written as to cover motion picture rentals.

Federal admission tax collections in January fell off slightly from the record high of the previous month but still remained well above $11,000,000, the U. S. Internal Revenue Bureau reported on Tuesday.

MOTION PICTURE HERALD, published every Saturday by Quigley Publishing Company, Rockefeller Center, New York City. Telephone Circle 7-3100. Cable address "Quigpubco, New York." Martin Quigley, Editor-in-Chief and Publisher; Colvin Brown, Vice-President and General Manager; Watterson R. Rothacker, Vice-President; Terry Ramsaye, Editor; James P. Cunningham, News Editor; Chicago Bureau, 624 South Michigan Avenue, C. B. O'Neill, manager; Hollywood Bureau, Postal Union Life Building, William R. Weaver, editor; Toronto Bureau, 242 Millwood Road, Toronto, Ontario, Canada, W. M. Gladish, representative; Montreal Bureau, 265 Vitrine St., West, Montreal, Canada, Pat Donovan, representative; London Bureau, 4 Golden Square, London W. I, Hope Williams Burnup, manager; cable Quigpubco London; Melbourne Bureau, The Regent Theatre, 191 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia, Cliff Holt, representative; Sydney Bureau, 17 Archbold Rd., Roseville, Sydney, N.S.W., Australia, Lin Endean, representative. Mexico City Bureau, Apartado 269, Mexico City, Luis Becerra Celis, representative; Buenos Aires Bureau, J. E. Uriburi 126, Buenos Aires, Argentina, Natalio Bruski, representative; Rio de Janeiro Bureau, Caixa Postal 3358, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, L. S. Marinho, representative; Montevideo Bureau, P. O. Box 664, Montevideo, Uruguay, Paul Bodo, representative; cable Argus Montevideo. Member Audit Bureau of Circulations. All contents copyright 1942 by Quigley Publishing Company. Address all correspondence to the New York Office. Other Quigley Publications: Better Theatres, Motion Picture Daily, International Motion Picture Almanac, and Fame.

This Week

■ ■ ■ the Camera observes

FAMILY NIGHT at the studio. Executives of the production, distribution, and exhibition members of the 20th Century-Fox family gathered for dinner in Hollywood last week following the west coast convention of National Theatres and Fox West Coast. Above are Spyros Skouras, Joseph Schenck, Charles Skouras and Tom Connors.

CHATTING about Paramount's 30th Anniversary and the world premiere of "Reap the Wild Wind" over a luncheon table in Paramount's Continental Cafe at the Hollywood studio are (left to right) Cecil B. DeMille, producer of the picture, Martin Quigley, publisher of Motion Picture Herald, and Y. Frank Freeman, chief of the Paramount studio.

REPUBLIC LUNCHEON, a feature of the company's West Coast regional sales meeting last week in Hollywood. Here are Herbert J. Yates, chairman of the board; James Grainger, president and general sales manager; J. T. Sheffield, of Seattle, franchise holder; Francis Bateman, the Los Angeles manager; Hiram Brown, Jr., westerns and serials producer; Sid Weisbaum, San Francisco manager.

HARRY L. NACE, of the Publix-Rickards-Nace circuit, Arizona, is welcomed to the Paramount studio in Hollywood by Mary Martin.

ADOLPH STUBER, below, who has been with Eastman Kodak since 1912, last week was elected vice-president of the company. His father, William G. Stuber, former Eastman president and now chairman of the board, joined the company in 1894 as an expert on sensitized materials at the invitation of George Eastman. He had started photographic work under the tutelage of his father, Michael Stuber, who pioneered in the art before and during the Civil War.

By Sullivan

■ ■ PARAMOUNT officials headed by Barney Balaban, president, and Adolph Zukor, chairman of the board, opened new offices for the company's exchange in Washington, D. C., last weekend. The ceremonies were the first to mark the company's 30th anniversary. Above are Austin Keough; J. E. Fontaine; Stephen Early, secretary to President Roosevelt; Claude Lee; E. W. Sweigert; Robert M. Gillham, and a birthday cake.

By Staff Photographer

WAC TRIUMVIRATE. Plans of the industry's War Activities Committee are discussed by members Barney Balaban, Francis Harmon and Arthur Mayer at the Associated Motion Picture Advertisers luncheon in New York.

By Staff Photographer

NEW YORK LUNCHEON. William Thomas, Paramount producer, and A-Mike Vogel, Managers' Round Table chairman. In the background are David Lipton, Columbia Advertising and publicity director, left, and Al Rylander of the Columbia publicity department.

NEW OFFICERS of the Cinema Club of Cincinnati: Rudolph Knoepfle, Republic, president; Albert Kolitz, RKO, vice-president; Lev Bugie, 20th-Fox, vice-president, and Peter Niland, Columbia, treasurer. Mr. Knoepfle and Mr. Niland were reelected.

U. S. ADMITS DECREE FAULTS; OPEN FOR SELLING CHANGES

Justice Department Studies Many Complaints; No Plan Submitted

The U. S. government is open to suggestions for changes in the methods of selling motion pictures prescribed in November, 1940, by the consent decree between the Department of Justice and the Big Five.

"We have an open mind in respect to any proposals which may better the present system of selling motion pictures" a government spokesman admitted at Washington on Saturday.

Robert L. Wright, special assistant attorney general in charge of the motion picture activities of the Department of Justice's anti-trust division admitted that the Department had received many complaints since the blocks-of-five selling system was inaugurated in September. He said the Government, aware that the perfect selling method had not yet been found, was "receptive" to proposals for a change to a better system.

He denied however that any specific substitute plan had been submitted to the Department as yet. While conceding that a change from the blocks-of-five and trade showing provisions of the decree might come soon he indicated that the Government had made no commitments or decisive rulings on the issue.

No Plan Submitted

No specific selling plan for the industry has been submitted to the Department of Justice, he said, either by the consenting distributors, exhibitor organizations or the United Motion Picture Industry Committee, now sitting in New York.

The UMPI committee resumed closed sessions at New York's Warwick Hotel on Wednesday and was reported far from agreement on a new selling plan, reports persisting that exhibitors were charging distributors with delaying decisions on basic provisions.

William F. Rodgers, general sales manager of MGM, Joseph Hazen, chief counsel of Warner Brothers and other sales and legal chiefs of the Big Five have been reported in consultation with Mr. Wright and Government attorneys at Washington recently. An exhibitor committee from the UMPI sessions in New York journeyed to the capital on Friday.

These visits have been chiefly exploratory, Mr. Wright indicated. Both distribution and exhibition, he said, have been seeking to find out what the government's attitude would be toward concrete proposals for an all-industry selling plan. Inquirers have been told that the U. S. is receptive to any plan that would effect a general improvement for all parties.

"The Department will hardly approve a return to the the block booking or blind selling methods complained against in the original bill of complaint" one U. S. lawyer commented. He pointed out that the consent decree was by nature an experiment and compromise through which the Big

COURT MUST PASS ON DECREE CHANGE

While the Department of Justice will consider any suggested changes in the consent decree and its selling plan Robert L. Wright, chief of the films section of the anti-trust division pointed out at Washington that there was a strict limit to what could be done under the existing framework of the decree. Any major changes, such as a substitute selling plan, would have to be presented to Judge Henry W. Goddard in New York District Court for his approval. This would assure independent exhibitors and their organizations an opportunity for a public hearing on the merits of any proposed changes.

Five had agreed to abandon, for three years, the practices which the government had complained were monopolistic.

"The relief sought in the case against all the distributors will be insisted upon", Mr. Wright has declared on several occasions. He has consistently warned that if arbitration, the trade shows, blocks-of-five or other provisions of the decree fail and satisfactory substitutes are not devised there is no alternative to the Government's resumption of court prosecution for the alleged violations of the Sherman anti-trust laws.

Mr. Wright said that there was little likelihood of the Government case against the Little Three coming to trial before June 1st, following Judge Henry W. Goddard's ruling last Wednesday.

Quick Trial Refused

At that time Judge Goddard refused to permit the Government to seek a quick trial of Columbia, United Artists and Universal on the sole issues of block booking and blind selling. The court ordered that all issues, including the conspiracy charges against the Little Three be tried together. The case was set at the bottom of the calendar for the U. S. District Court at New York City, when Mr. Wright said the U. S. was not ready to try the entire case immediately.

It is still an open question whether the Government will seek an extension of the June 1st deadline, when under the escape clause of Section XII of the decree, the Big Five may ask freedom from the trade showing and blocks-of-five provisions of the decree.

The most widely mentioned substitute selling proposal has been block selling with cancellation privileges, similar to the 20 per cent law introduced in Minnesota by Northwest Allied. This has been advocated, with varying cancellation provisions by several exhibitor organizations. It was to discuss such a method that the UMPI exhibitor group went to Washington last week.

In the UMPI group which met with Mr. Wright were Jack Kirsch, chairman, Ed Kuykendall, Joseph R. Vogel, Max A. Cohen, William Crockett, Robert White, Sidney Samuelson, H. A. Cole and Leo Wolcott. They were advised of the Government's receptivity to changes, it was reported, and returned to New York to put their proposals into specific form, and to endeavor to secure distributor approval.

While admitting that the blocks-of-five selling method may have proved expensive to the distributors and perhaps unfair to exhibitors in many instances the Government is said to feel still that there is merit in the trade showing clause of the decree.

Advance Knowledge Requirement

One Washington attorney who has closely followed the motion picture activity of the Department of Justice said there had been several indications that the Government, would insist, in any selling changes, that exhibitors still have specific advance knowledge of the pictures which they buy, or are required to book.

"It seems to me, that despite all the complications in the blocks-of-five, the product for the first half of this season has been above average", this observer commented.

He said Government attorneys in some instances shared his view. The Department of Justice, it was reported, is not disturbed, either, by the scant attendance at trade shows. The mere fact that the Big Five have been required to show pictures before they screened them is considered to have been a protection for exhibitors it was said.

"The trade press has proved very important", the attorney said. "Even though exhibitors do not see pictures at the exchange screenings, is is my experience that they are following reports, in the press, and from first run engagements very closely."

He reported that he had found "very few" theatre operators who did not read at least one trade publication for information about pictures which they have not yet bought. Interest in key run performances of product has also been evidenced, he said, by the fact that subsequent run exhibitors are waiting, in many instances, until after release date, to buy blocks.

Defer Theatre Divorce Hearing at New York

Judge Henry W. Goddard in U. S. District Court at New York last Wednesday postponed hearings on the U. S. divorce actions against Paramount and 20th Century-Fox until March 19th. The deferment was granted at the request of all parties after Robert Wright, for the Department of Justice, indicated that the distributors and Government might be able to agree on a stipulation of facts. The U. S. charges Paramount acquired 16 theatres and 20th-Fox 22 houses in violation of the Section XI, paragraph 5 of the decree.

No divorce actions are contemplated against MGM, RKO, or Warners, the remaining consenting distributors, Mr. Wright indicated.

IATSE IS A HALF-MILLION DOLLAR A YEAR BUSINESS

Private Financial Report Shows $439,168 Balance; Legal Fees Unspecified

The International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees is big business.

It is as big as some of the smaller film companies. It certainly rates among the American Federation of Labor's wealthier international unions.

When Richard Walsh assumed its presidency in November, the IATSE had $439,168.43, in cash, as of July 31, 1941; it is shown in the Alliance's annual financial report, issued privately to locals.

The report throws no light upon the two per cent Browne "special assessment" still presumably an object of Government inquiry; nor does it state how much Willie Bioff and Browne forced the union to pay, for attorneys who failed to prevent them from going to jail for extorting almost $1,000,000 from the major film companies.

The IATSE cash balance mentioned above, of $439,168.43, includes a general fund of $342,837.61, and a convention fund of $96,330.82.

The cash balance in November also included $31,914.74, the remainder of the $50,000 fee approved by the general executive board June 19, 1941, for Bodkin, Breslin and Luddy, the legal firm which defended the now jailed Willie Bioff in his trial on extortion charges. The sum of $18,085.26 already was paid by July 31, 1941, when the fiscal year of the association, for which the auditor's report was rendered, ended.

Trustees Submit Report

On November 24, 1941, William C. Scanlan, R. E. Morris and George W. Brayfield, trustees of the association, submitted their report, declaring they had checked the audit, the books and other financial records of the organization and submitted the complete report to the organization, which subsequently was printed and sent to member locals.

The auditor's report, signed by C. P. Cregan, was dated November 29, 1941.

There is no mention in the report of any balance, or final disposition, of the now famous "President's fund," which was administered by Browne and which consisted of two per cent levies on all members' incomes. Browne had sole authority to use the fund. It is the subject of reported inquiries by federal officials.

Balances left at the end of the fiscal year were:

Total: $439,168.43.
General Fund: $294,844.41.
Class B Fund: $47,993.20.
Convention Fund: $96,330.82.

Although Browne and Bioff put through an amendment to the IATSE constitution requiring the union to furnish bail and pay legal fees for its officers in court cases, the report does not specify amounts.

Largest item in the administrative and

IATSE RECEIPTS $436,810 IN 1941

During the fiscal year from Aug. 1, 1940, to July 31, 1941, the last full year that President George E. Browne reigned, the IATSE's total cash receipts in all funds were $436,810.86.

For the same period, total disbursements amounted to $363,016.23.

The cash receipts were as follows:

General Fund.....	$329,806.20
Loans Repaid.....	350.00
Charter Fees.....	600.00
Interest Earned.....	471.08
Supplies.....	435.35
Emblems.....	561.10
Protested Checks Made Good..	619.00
Miscellaneous.....	16.50
Dividends on Investments.....	243.25
Income Sale of Securities.....	12.50
1939-40 Convention Receipts Collected.....	618.60
Refunded Financial Considerations.....	20.00
Convention Transportation and Per Diem Fund.....	81,044.62
Special Class B Fund.....	41,743.94
TOTAL.....	$436,910.86

Disbursements from the General Fund were $363,016.23 for the fiscal period; from the Class B Fund, $15,863.40, and from the Convention Transportation and Per Diem Fund, $5.40.

general expenses disbursements was the sum of $44,184.08 for legal fees. The report did not indicate for whom or what they were paid.

Browne's Salary, Expenses

Browne, for the last fiscal year in which he presided over the IATSE received, according to the report, a total of $26,349.73, which included $20,000 salary, $2,352 hotel expenses, $1,645.73 transportation charges, and $2,352 per diem expenses.

IATSE vice-presidents each receive $1,000 annual salary, with allowances for traveling and per diem expenses. During 1940-41, a total of $21,763.61 was given the seven vice-presidents, including the total of $7,000 for salaries. Felix D. Snow of Kansas City, seventh vice-president, received the largest individual total—$5,467.28. Richard Walsh, then third vice-president, got the next highest total—$4,426.10.

Louis Krouse, veteran international executive secretary, received $15,000 in pay, $904 in hotel charges, $1,509.02 in transportation fees, and $904 in per diem expenses, making a total of $18,377.02.

Willie Bioff, carried on the auditor's report as an "organizer" although he himself, Browne and other IATSE executives referred to him as "special representative of the president," for that year got a total of $15,549.61, according to the Cregan-certified report. Of this figure, $5,720 was in regular salary, $5,200 in added salary (presumably the "bonus" granted him at the IATSE convention in appreciation for "his negotiations on behalf of the studio unions"), $4,368 for hotel expenses, and $261.61 in transportation charges.

Other organizers and the amounts they received are:

Carl Cooper, $1,023.55; O. M. Jacobs, $6,999.95; A. W. Lyday, $110; Steve Newman, $8,170.13; W. P. Raoul, $12,982.52.

"Miscellaneous executives," unnamed, received a total of $40,332.53 of which Alliance locals refunded $8,827, leaving a balance of $31,505.53 borne by the International's coffers. Salaries were totaled as $22,237.99; hotel expenses as $12,588, and transportation costs, $5,506.54.

Cash in 12 Banks

IATSE cash is on deposit in some 12 banking institutions, one in Canada and the remainder in the East. They include the Royal Bank of Canada, the Riggs National Bank, the Pennsylvania Company, the Chase National Bank, the National Bank of Germantown, the Philadelphia National Bank, the Corn Exchange Bank, Peoples-Pittsburgh Trust Co., First National Bank of Pittsburgh, the City Bank of Washington, the Germantown Trust Co. and the Citizens Union Bank.

For each member, locals of the Alliance must buy from the International a $3 quarterly receipt stamp, proceeds of which go into the general and the convention funds. All fines collected as penalties for violation of the constitution and by-laws revert to the general fund.

Chicago in Hot Election Fight

Looming as one of the most bitter contests in the annals of Local 110, of the Chicago Moving Picture Operators Union, is the coming election of officers, trustees and delegates next month. Amidst charges and counter-charges, accusations and denials, both sides have drawn their battle lines for the struggle of votes on March 5th. The incumbents would like to retain their offices.

Those heading what they call the "Unity movement" are determined to oust the current administration, which they claim, is following in the footsteps of the local's most flamboyant personality, the late Thomas E. Malloy, who was shot-gunned to his death on Chicago's lake front in February, 1935. Both sides claim enough support to win the election.

Three weeks ago, Frank Korte, of the opposition group, opened the new conflict by accusing the present officials of being tools of George E. Browne and Willie Bioff and promised that his group would "clean house." Since the nominations on February 5th, Mr. Korte, while still an active member of the opposition, has withdrawn to the background in favor of other members. Several nominees, mostly among the candidates for trustees and delegates, have declined to run and substitutes are replacing them as fast as possible.

(Continued on following page)

CHICAGO OPERATORS REBEL

(Continued from preceding page)

As the "unity" slate appears at this time, there are three candidates for president, but it is expected that one, and perhaps two, will withdraw before the election. Presidential nominees are Herman Posner, State Theatre; Ora Babb, Highland Theatre, and George Laroi, Bertha Theatre. Currie C. Cull is up for vice-president; Phillip J. Kore, Telenews Theatre, for secretary-treasurer, and Herman H. Goldberg, projectionist of Warner Bros.' screening room, seeks the office of business manager.

Oppose Slate

They will be opposed by the current officials, Peter A. Shayne, president; Glenn Sweeney, vice-president, and John P. Smith, business manager. Neil C. Bishop, who was nominated for secretary-treasurer, has withdrawn in favor of Clarence Jalass, of the State-Lake Theatre.

Many of the men behind the insurgent movement are members who had punishment of some kind meted out to them, in Malloy's regime, in the way of fines, suspensions and other things. Herman Posner was vice-president under Malloy for six months in 1920 and claims that when he did not like the way things were being run by the local's late czar, charges of conspiracy were preferred against him and he was removed from office.

Purpose Cited

From their headquarters in the Brevoort Hotel, Mr. Posner, who seems to have assumed leadership of the "unity group," said last Saturday:

"The present officials of our local are all proteges of Thomas E. Malloy and are running the office by rules made by him, and which we hope to change. The purpose of our unity movement is to create a good, healthy and sound union spirit. We are not seeking office for selfish gains.

"We have a platform and if the present officials can subscribe to that platform, there is no opposition as far as we are concerned. One of the things we want is to curtail the power of the business agent in order to better serve the interests of the members. The office has been abused and misused. The conditions under which we now work are unbearable."

Election Chances Good

Mr. Posner estimates that his group has a 90 per cent chance of changing the present administration. Many members, he says, have given their secret pledges of support but do not attend the meetings for fear of retaliation if the present officers are re-elected. Mr. Posner said that when Browne was ready to turn back the union to its members, after he had seized it on the death of Malloy, he decided who was to be its officers and countered no opposition. The present movement is the first organized opposition since 1927.

Speaking for the present officers, Peter A. Shayne, president, said: "We have given the boys a good business administration and from what I gather by their conversations, the majority are satisfied with present conditions. The constitution and by-laws of the local give the members the privilege of changing things, as they want, and all officers must abide by the vote of the members. It's up to them. Our policy shall remain the same as it has since we've been in office. Personally, I don't think the rebels can muster enough support to their cause to oust the present administration. I don't think they have a chance. As to gangsterism in the local, that's all a lot of nonsense. There hasn't been any of that stuff since Malloy has been out of the picture.

Climax Nears on SPG Demands

Picketing of theatres and home offices; pressure by trade unions in every key city; and importunement by consumer groups, fraternal orders, and labor-social organization, faced the major film companies this week, as their negotiations with the Screen Publicists Guild reached a crescendo.

It was a prospect, at least, according to Guild bulletins, if negotiations over the closed shop contract again are stalled.

In New York, where negotiations are under way, subcommittees of the SPG Campaign Committee met over the weekend. The subcommittees concerned picket captains, West Coast affairs, literature, fund raising, publicity, publications, and trade unions.

The negotiations resumed Thursday, February 19th, after a hiatus during which the Guild charged "stalling" and threatened strike action.

Major points in the contract were discussed Friday, February 20th, it then being agreed producers' agents would relay what had occurred to their principals over the weekend.

Added support, meanwhile, continued to reach the Guild from sympathetic labor organizations. The Screen Cartoonists Guild and the Screen Office Employees Guild, Hollywood, telegraphed producers. Previous support had come from Phillip Murray, CIO president, the American Newspaper Guild, Local 109 of the CIO, and some West Coast studio unions.

Walsh at Union Affair

In Chicago, the Film Exchange Employees Union has asked aid from the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, parent union, in negotiating a new contract.

Richard Walsh, IATSE international president, and Louis Krouse, secretary-treasurer, were guests of honor at the 25th Annual-Silver Jubilee ball given by the Chicago Theatrical Protective Union, last week.

The ball was attended by over 6,500; and many stage and radio stars appeared during the evening. Frank Olsen, business manager of the local, reported that $1,000 worth of defense stamps were sold from a special booth at the into defense bonds.

In Hollywood, a court order was issued this week by Superior Court Judge Willis, in denying Otto Dyer's claim against Local 659, studio photographers, and restraining the local, and its parent, the IATSE, from continuing "an unlawful monopoly of all still cameramen jobs in the moving picture industry."

SOPEG Complaints

In New York, the Screen Office and Professional Employees Guild, Local 109, has complained to the Federal Communications Commission that the city's radio stations refused to broadcast a skit presenting the case for the film office worker. The local says the stations rejected the skit because it was controversial.

The New York legitimate theatres, represented by the League of New York Theatres, this week were considering the 15 per cent wage increase demands in the new contract offered by the city's stagehands' local 1.

Several officers of Local 329, IATSE, of Scranton, Pennsylvania, are in an equity action started by the Prestwood Speed Photo Service, Inc., of that city seeking an injunction to ban picketing of its establishment by the union. Defendants named in the action are: Percy Carr, president; Clayton Lees, treasurer; Sam Kessler, business agent; George R. Miles, assistant business agent, together with all members of the union.

Hearing was scheduled for Thursday.

The defendants are charged with violating an oral contract alleged entered into June, 1941, with Wallace Prestwood, president of the firm, whereby he was to be permitted to employ his own operators to present exhibitions of certain types of motion pictures.

The International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers studio local has asked the National Labor Relations Board for an election to determine whether studio electrical workers prefer it or the IATSE locals 728 (lamp operators) and 695 (sound men).

The Rochester musicians' local has chosen Leonard Campbell, Joseph Pennica, and Fred Menzer to represent it at the national American Federation of Musicians convention.

Avert Atlanta Walkout

A threatened walkout of motion picture operators in suburban Atlanta theatres was averted there Monday when both operators and theatre owners agreed to submit the wage dispute controversy to the Atlanta Mediation Board—a group of local business and labor leaders.

Owners of the theatres made the proposal to Mayor Roy LeCraw, who obtained the consent of IATSE No. 225 officials.

Marion Smith, prominent Georgia attorney and former chairman of the State Board of Regents, will serve as chairman of the panel mediating the dispute.

The controversy arose during renewal of a contract which the IATSE cancelled because of the war, although it still had two and a half years to run.

The new contract seeks to establish a pay scale of $97.50 a week for the suburban operators. At present they average between $65 and $75 a week, it was stated.

During the controversy the motion picture owners made an attack of the city's present system of examining and licensing operators and won from a City Council committee a right to hold a special examination for 13 applicants.

Dunn With Ad Service

Eddie Dunn, an employee of the Tri-States Theatre Corp. for seven years, the latter two as manager of the Paramount theatre at Des Moines, Iowa, has resigned to cover the northern Iowa territory for the United Ad-Service Co. of Kansas City, Mo. Harry Holdsborg, formerly manager of Tri-States Des Moines theatre at Des Moines, but the past few months manager of their Paramount at Omaha, has taken over the management of the Paramount in Des Moines and Gordon Greene, well known theatre manager from Minneapolis, will manage the Omaha Paramount.

Ben Pratt Resigns NBC

Ben Pratt, for many years connected with the radio publicity field, has resigned from the staff of the NBC Blue Network in New York to become active in the personal management field. Mr. Pratt has been associated with NBC for more than 10 years. He was previously a newspaperman in Chicago and the mid-West.

HOLLYWOOD STUDIOS HAVE 7,600 PRIORITY PROBLEMS

There Are That Many Items Used in Production; Substitutes Sought

Hollywood, like most of American industry, is looking around for substitute materials for use in production—replacements for the metals and rubber, plastics and for whatever else the war effort has first command.

The managements of this source of supply for the motion picture screens of this country, and elsewhere, are to hear any day as to just what war-essential materials will be allocated to the industry for production.

The priorities administration in Washington, has been given estimates of how much vital materials will be needed by Hollywood studios for 1942, and the amounts they used in 1940, the latter to be used as a basis for allotments.

Production and studio managers responsible for physical operations have taken heart at the recent pronouncement of the industry as an "essential war industry." But the supplies problem narrows down to the old adage, "you can't get blood out of a turnip," or, if there is no rubber available, there's no rubber.

The pinch is seriously being felt at present, with stocks of rubber, highly useful in making props, cables, and such items as paint brushes, becoming unavailable.

James Howie, liaison officer of the Association of Motion Picture Producers with the priorities administration, says the answers to the supplies questions are due shortly.

"When we are told how much material we'll be able to get," he said, "We can plan our production schedules accordingly."

"Certain types of pictures which require, for instance, large rubber props, will not be made. The studios are working on substitutes for various items, but some cannot be replaced."

"Aluminum is essential, for instance, in camera booms, where weight is a factor."

"Whatever we're allowed, we take and do the best we can."

Fox Closes Studio Forge

The shortages have caused 20th Century-Fox to close its forge, and its executives to appeal to its workers to propose substitute materials. Nails are being conserved on all lots, used ones being straightened and reused.

Making of props has been especially hard hit.

The task confronting the priorities chieftains in figuring out allotments for the studios is no small one. There are 7,600 different items, in varying numbers and sizes and quantities, which are required by each studio to carry on its production.

Some idea of the supplies problem in Hollywood is found in a report by the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, Inc. An estimate of ma-

MAKE THEATRE HORN OF WOOD

To avoid using steel, and thus to contribute to the war effort, the Radio Corporation of America's sound subsidiary, RCA Photophone, is making a new 12-cell high frequency horn entirely of wood, except for its throat. The company says much metal is saved, and the new horn's efficiency "is not impaired." Like its metal predecessor, the new horn is mounted atop the larger low frequency horn.

materials used in one year in Hollywood's studios includes:

Lumber and panels, 20,861,578 feet, 95 percent of which is used in production and five percent for maintenance.

Composition boards, 5,723,596 feet, all of which is used in production, in building and dressing of sets and making various props.

Iron and steel, 850 tons, 50 percent of which is used in production and the rest in maintenance. There are probably no sets constructed or photographed in any studio where there is not some iron or steel used. In addition, the metals are used in the construction of wind machines, cranes, camera booms.

Metals, Paints, Hardware

Steel and bronze gears and bearings, $10,-850 worth.

Assorted hardware, such as machine and carriage bolts, screws, netting, hardware cloth, wire rope, piano wire, black and galvanized wire, etc., $274,205 worth.

Nails, 12,462 kegs.

Aluminum, brass and copper and their alloys, 35,693 pounds.

Foundry metals, new and scrap aluminum, brass, copper, lead, zinc, tin, babbitt, 97,657 pounds.

Tools such as drills, taps, reamers 350 gross.

Welding rod, used in machine shops in construction and repair of tools, machinery and other equipment, 20,604 pounds.

Electric wire and cable, 2,022,500 feet.

Electric motors, batteries and accessories, $137,754 worth.

Paints, shellac, alcohol, lacquer and lacquer thinners, virtually all used in painting of sets and props, 158,740 gallons.

Dry color paints, aluminum and bronze powders and pastes, 254,620 pounds.

Paint brushes, 1,810 dozen.

Rope and fibre, 362,334 pounds.

Canvas, burlap, muslin, webbing denim, cotton tape, 576,478 yards.

Paper, mimeograph and bond, 153,807 reams.

Paper (Kraft), 57,891 pounds.

Building paper and roofing, 7,550 rolls.

Still photographic supplies, $235,000 worth.

Laboratory chemicals, acetone, carbon, tetrachloride, etc., $283,054 worth.

Freon Gas, used in studio refrigeration systems, 2,530 pounds.

Carbon paper, 18,062 boxes.

Stencils, 26,225 quires.

Ammunition, fireworks, liquid smoke, $73,-243 worth.

Rubber goods, $73,243 worth.

Oxygen and acetylene, 1,902 tanks.

Helium, 277 tanks.

Cotton gloves, 8,350 dozen pair.

Paper cups, towels and toilet paper, $33,-431 worth.

As reported in MOTION PICTURE HERALD last week, the first Government approval of use of war-essential materials for studio construction was granted Republic for a new sound stage, for which Republic board chairman Herbert T. Yates announced a $2,500,-000 building and expansion program. Mr. Yates told a Republic regional sales meeting that the studio already has material for a 175-by-200-foot sound stage and now had obtained permission to use it. Acquisition of a 1,000-acre location site where the "western city" will be erected for filming of outdoor action films also was announced, together with erection of a new garage and music department buildings on property already owned by the company.

Johnson's Trust Suit Near End

Art Johnson's $523,000 anti-trust suit against major distributors and the Welworth and Minnesota Amusement Company circuits, in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, Federal Court, moved into final stages this week.

Testimony by Mr. Johnson and supporters last week contended the defendants conspired to deprive plaintiffs of desired and timely pictures.

Mr. Johnson was on the stand most of the time. He presented daily cashier reports from his Aberdeen theatre, and attempted to introduce books and other records as evidence. The defense objected; Mr. Johnson admitted his books were not accurate, and the court ruled against them as evidence.

Co-Plaintiff is J. P. Hartman, Aberdeen.

In Valdosta, Georgia, the Southern Pictures, Inc., $50,000 damages suit against the Martin Amusement Company, Inc., may come to trial soon. It charges restraint of trade, and complains the Southern Pictures, Inc., attempted to operate a theatre in that city in competition with Martin theatres, and that that company prevented the plaintiff from obtaining films.

On Thursday, briefs will be filed in Chicago Federal Court, in Thomas Murray's $1,000,000 anti-trust suit against the Balaban and Katz circuit.

$2,000,000 Suit

The Minnesota Theatre, Minneapolis, has filed a $2,200,000 anti-trust suit against the Minnesota Amusement Company, the Singer Theatre Corporation, and the majors, in that city's Federal Court.

SKOURAS, KATZ, ORSATTI SELL CANDY WITH 'JUKES'

New Company Supported by Fox West Coast; Slide Films Used

by NAT TANCHUK
in Los Angeles

The United States Government recently computed a $13,600,000 annual gross from candy sold in motion picture theatres.

Sam Katz, Frank Orsatti, Charles Skouras, and others in Hollywood have a new idea of selling both candy and advertising in theatre lobbies.

With Fox West Coast throwing its support toward a new venture, Theatre Candy Box Corporation has been organized with a capital of $200,000 under California state permit, to issue 250 shares at $100 par value.

Ad Films for Foyers

The new company is an outgrowth of the Frank Orsatti Agency's Phono-Vision Company, organized about 18 months ago to make 16mm 'juke-box' films. The basic purpose is to show advertising films in theatre foyers in conjunction with the widespread candy sale policy which has proved extremely lucrative to the Chase Bank-Fox Film FWC circuit. Instead of using motion pictures for the ads; the Theatre Box equipment will use a series of slide-films, advertising various commodities.

The projected plan for advertising calls for a 16mm projector and slide-film machine in combination with a panel placed behind and above the candy counters now installed in all FWC houses. Rear projection will throw the image on a ground glass screen.

Listed as directors of the new company are Sam Katz, Metro Goldwyn Mayer studio executive; Frank Orsatti, talent agent; Lester W. Roth; W. Leeds; and Edward J. Klassen.

Both national and local advertisers will be solicited.

Under the present plan, FWC is to remodel 25 candy counters into which the projection equipment is to be built. This initial unit of 25 combination counters and 16mm projectors and screen will be used as a tryout for the entire system. Already 16mm pictures and slide-film frames have been shot by Harry McMahon advertising the various candy bars on sale. Among these are included three one-minute films and 54 slide-film frames. These will be used to gauge customer reaction and to attract potential advertisers.

Although the Orsatti Phono-Vision company originally found itself unable to proceed with its original plan to compete with Mills Soundies' machines because of governmental restrictions on material and equipment, the new Theatre Box company feels it will not have any difficulty in obtaining such material.

Physical and legal details of the organization were arranged by Charles Buckley, head of FWC's legal department, and John Bertero, also a FWC attorney. Both were originally listed as directors along with W. Leeds, Beatrice S. Rooney and Ann Kemp. After the legal details were arranged, Mr. Bertero said that both he and Mr. Buckley resigned. This is the usual procedure employed by FWC whenever a company in which it is interested is organized and incorporated. The attorneys usually are listed as directors and then resign.

ONLY MILLS LEFT IN "JUKE" FIELD

The announcement of the transfer of the activities of the Phono-Vision group to the new Theatre Box Corporation reveals that only the Mills company is in a position to continue in the 16 mm. "juke box" field. Mills' allied company, RCM Productions, which has been producing an average of six to ten three-minute musical shorts in Hollywood, reported that the Mills Company contracted for and received in its warehouse several hundred 16 mm. projectors before government restrictions were placed on this type of equipment.

Charles P. Skouras, president of Fox West Coast, has declared that he is putting money into the Theatre Box company; but would not reveal whether this was his own personal backing or that of FWC. He has, however, presented full details to Sidney R. Kent, head of 20th Century-Fox Film. Louis B. Mayer, head of MGM studio, has denied that he has any interest, financial or otherwise, in the new company, although Sid Weisman, Mr. Mayer's real estate consultant and close associate for many years, has been tentatively named general manager of production.

Try-out of 25 Boxes

The new advertising idea is entirely separate from the theatre advertising idea which Charles Skouras advanced last October or Fox West Coast Theatres. At that time, he made an announcement opening all FWC screens for regular 35mm advertising, pledging all money returns to the Los Angeles Tent of Variety Club.

The try-out of the 25 boxes will prove whether it is feasible to dim the lighting in all foyers; or if it would be more practical to use deep shadow boxes.

FWC executives said they realize that skilled mechanics will have to be on call to keep the machines in proper running order at all times.

Although the plan has not yet been examined by Los Angeles fire authorities, theatre men feel that the entire scheme has a chance of being vetoed by the fire department because of its ruling that patrons will not be permitted to congregate in foyers because of their tendency to block exits while other patrons are seated within the theatre.

'Profiteering' on Rentals Charged in Philadelphia

A mass meeting of all independent exhibitors in the Philadelphia area, to protest against "profiteering" on films by distributors, charged with discriminating on film rentals in the Eastern Pennsylvania area, has been called by Eastern Pennsylvania Allied at the Broadwood Hotel, Philadelphia, for Tuesday, March 3rd. The mass meeting is an outgrowth of a luncheon meeting sponsored last Tuesday by Eastern Pennsylvania Allied at the Hotel Warwick, Philadelphia.

Representing over 140 independent houses in the territory, the Tuesday luncheon, which ran four hours, was attended by 38 operators. The group constituted themselves as a committee of the whole to launch the mass meeting. At the luncheon session, presided over by Sidney E. Samuelson, Eastern Pennsylvania Allied business manager, figures were quoted showing film rentals demanded in Philadelphia were five to 15 per cent higher in the percentage group and that the number of percentage pictures were two to three times as many in the Philadelphia film zone as elsewhere.

Paramount Reports Deals in Chicago

Having faced the concerted refusal, for several weeks, of Chicago independent exhibitors to buy Paramount product, Allen Usher, Paramount district manager, now reports that the stalemate is breaking.

With the signing of the Lou Reinheimer, Si Grier, Bartelstein Brothers, and Joseph Stern circuits, Mr. Usher claims that Paramount now has contracts for 174 out of the 246 local independent possibilities, also the Warner circuit in Chicago. Added to this are the Balaban and Katz deals, numbering 45, giving the company 219 out of a possible 291 total Chicago accounts. He said all deals included percentage pictures and preferred playing time, points objected to by the independents on the premise that to give in to Paramount would invite similar deals from other distributing companies.

In the territory outside of Chicago circuits have been sold 100 per cent, he said. The Fred Anderson circuit of 10 small-town houses was the last of these to be sold.

Reinheimer houses contracted are the Parkway, Roseland, State, Alamo, Famous, Tiffin, Ridge, Chicago; York, Elmhurst, Ill., and Calumet, Hammond, Ind. Bartelstein Brothers' houses are the Annetta, Cicero, Ill., and Elmo.

New England Allied Elects Frank Lydon

Frank Lydon was elected president of the Independent Exhibitors of New England (Allied), at the annual convention, Tuesday, at the Statler Hotel, Boston. Other officers for 1942 are Warren Nichols, first vice-president; Lester Bendsler, secretary; Francis Perry, treasurer. The board remains as it was.

M-G-M TRADE SHOWINGS

DAY, DATE AND HOURS OF SCREENING

CITY	PLACE ADDRESS	(A) KID GLOVE KILLER and (B) I MARRIED AN ANGEL	(C) RIO RITA and (D) FINGERS AT THE WINDOW	(E) MOKEY
ALBANY	20th-Fox Screen Room 1052 Broadway	THUR. 3/12 11 A.M.	FRI. 3/13 11 A.M.	FRI. 3/20 11 A.M.
ATLANTA	RKO Screen Room 191 Walton St., N.W.	TUES. 3/10 10:30 A.M.	FRI. 3/13 10:30 A.M.	FRI. 3/20 10:30 A.M.
BOSTON	M-G-M Screen Room 46 Church Street	TUES. 3/10 10 A.M. & 2:15 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 10 A.M. & 2:15 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 10:30 A.M. & 2:30 P.M.
BUFFALO	20th-Fox Screen Room 290 Franklin Street	THUR. 3/12 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1:30 P.M.
CHARLOTTE	20th-Fox Screen Room 308 South Church Street	THUR. 3/12 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1:30 P.M.
CHICAGO	H. C. Igel's Screen Room 1301 South Wabash Ave.	TUES. 3/10 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
CINCINNATI	RKO Screen Room 1634 Central Parkway	TUES. 3/10 7 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 7 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 6:30 P.M.
CLEVELAND	20th-Fox Screen Room 2219 Payne Avenue	THUR. 3/12 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
DALLAS	20th-Fox Screen Room 1803 Wood Street	{ (A) only THUR. 3/12 10:30 A.M. (B) only THUR. 3/12 2:30 P.M.	{ (D) only FRI. 3/13 10:30 A.M. (C) only FRI. 3/13 2:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 2:30 P.M.
DENVER	Paramount Screen Room 2100 Stout Street	TUES. 3/10 1:15 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1:15 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1:15 P.M.
DES MOINES	20th-Fox Screen Room 1300 High Street	THUR. 3/12 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
DETROIT	Max Blumenthal's Sc. Rm. 2310 Cass Avenue	TUES. 3/10 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 11 A.M.
INDIANAPOLIS	Talbot Theatre 2145 North Talbot Street	WED. 3/11 9 A.M.	FRI. 3/13 9 A.M.	FRI. 3/20 9 A.M.
KANSAS CITY	Vogue Theatre 3444 Broadway	TUES. 3/10 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
LOS ANGELES	20th-Fox Screen Room 2019 South Vermont Ave.	{ (A) only THUR. 3/12 10:30 A.M. (B) only THUR. 3/12 2:30 P.M.	{ (C) only FRI. 3/13 10:30 A.M. (D) only FRI. 3/13 2:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 10:30 A.M.
MEMPHIS	20th-Fox Screen Room 151 Vance Avenue	THUR. 3/12 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
MILWAUKEE	Warner Screen Room 212 W. Wisconsin Ave.	TUES. 3/10 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1:30 P.M.	→ *FRI. 3/20 1:30 P.M.
MINNEAPOLIS	20th-Fox Screen Room 1016 North 8th Street
MINNEAPOLIS	Screen Room Warner Bldg. 1104 Currie Avenue	TUES. 3/10 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
NEW HAVEN	20th-Fox Screen Room 40 Whiting Street	THUR. 3/12 10 A.M.	FRI. 3/13 10 A.M.	FRI. 3/20 10 A.M.
NEW ORLEANS	20th-Fox Screen Room 200 South Liberty	THUR. 3/12 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1:30 P.M.
NEW YORK NEW JERSEY	M-G-M Screen Room 630 Ninth Avenue	TUES. 3/10 9:30 A.M. & 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 9:30 A.M. & 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 9:30 A.M. & 1:30 P.M.
OKLA'MA CITY	20th-Fox Screen Room 10 North Lee Street	THUR. 3/12 9 A.M.	FRI. 3/13 9 A.M.	FRI. 3/20 9 A.M.
OMAHA	20th-Fox Screen Room 1502 Davenport	THUR. 3/12 1:15 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1:15 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1:15 P.M.
PHILADELPHIA	M-G-M Screen Room 1233 Summer Street	{ (A) only TUES. 3/10 11 A.M. (B) only TUES. 3/10 2 P.M.	{ (D) only FRI. 3/13 11 A.M. (C) only FRI. 3/13 2 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 11 A.M.
PITTSBURGH	M-G-M Screen Room 1631 B'ld of Allies	TUES. 3/10 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1:30 P.M.
PORTLAND	B. F. Shearer Screen Room 1947 N.W. Kearney Street	TUES. 3/10 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
ST. LOUIS	S'Renco Screen Room 3143 Olive Street	TUES. 3/10 10 A.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
SALT LAKE CITY	20th-Fox Screen Room 216 East First Street, So	THUR. 3/12 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
S. FRANCISCO	20th-Fox Screen Room 245 Hyde Street	THUR. 3/12 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1:30 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1:30 P.M.
SEATTLE	Jewel Box Preview Theatre 2318 Second Avenue	TUES. 3/10 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.
WASHINGTON	20th-Fox Screen Room 932 New Jersey, N.W.	THUR. 3/12 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/13 1 P.M.	FRI. 3/20 1 P.M.

"Kid Glove Killer"—Van Heflin, Marsha Hunt, Lee Bowman • "I Married An Angel"—Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy
 "Rio Rita"—Bud Abbott, Lou Costello • "Fingers At The Window"—Lew Ayres, Laraine Day, Basil Rathbone
 "Mokey"—Dan Dailey, Jr., Donna Reed

Willkie Calls Industry 'American Leader'

Tells Guests at Academy Dinner Picture Making Is "Democratic Process"

Tribute to the motion picture industry for having been "among the first to appreciate fully, true American sentiment, and to offer pictures reflecting that sentiment," was paid profusely by Wendell L. Willkie, Thursday evening at the annual dinner of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, at which the annual "Oscars" for achievement in film arts, were to be awarded. The dinner was held at the Biltmore Hotel Los Angeles.

Last fall, Mr. Willkie represented the industry in the attack by a few Congressmen who criticized the screen for using war propaganda.

Americans, Mr. Willkie added, "badly needed warning" and he commented to the industry leaders around him:

"You understand that this is truly a total war."

More than 1,300 persons attended the function, for which reservations were sold out nine days in advance, for the first time.

There was no dancing this year.

Mr. Willkie was introduced by Walter Wanger, Academy president, as a man to whom the industry was "profoundly in debt, for his direct and gallant service" and one who "tore away false issues as he might strip the shucks from his Indiana corn."

"We were freed," he added, "from the hesitation, from doubt, from the confusion and from the cowardice of our first unguided steps. He placed our cause before the American people in all its honesty, in all its patriotism and based it upon its fundamental righteousness. He reduced purposely-confused issues to the simple one of the preservation of the American guaranty of the freedom of expression. He confounded our enemies with the simplicity and forthrightness of his presentation and of the principles on which he based our cause."

"With such a champion, with such a cause and with such presentation, we could not lose. American history will have a place to record the extent and importance of our victory."

Recalls Hearings

It seemed "incredible" to Mr. Willkie that scarcely six months ago he had defended the industry from the "extraordinary charge that it was engaged in propaganda against the totalitarian governments which threaten our very existence."

He noted, also, that the attacks against the industry were made "at the very moment" Japan planned the advance of her armies and the attacks against Pearl Harbor, Malaya and the East Indies, and "when Hitler was marching triumphantly toward Moscow."

Mr. Willkie, believer in leadership of public opinion, asserted the people saw before their representatives, some of whom preached isolation, that aggression "would sooner or later reach us."

He praised industry leaders for "the way they stood up behind their productions" and called the making of pictures a "democratic process" which has "stood the test of public approval."

Although critical of "confused administration," Mr. Willkie resented attacks upon amusement people in the Office of Civilian Defense controversy, adding he thought "those who understand the instincts of the people" peculiarly well equipped.

Mr. Willkie concluded with the warning the war would demand much. He declared: "If the victories of totalitarianism have taught us anything, it is that those who win strike first."

Seven Technical Awards

Seven scientific and technical achievements were to be given accolades by the Research Council of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences, at the annual dinner Thursday night, all of them dealing with improvement of film sound, sight and economies.

Receiving plaque in Class 2 award division were the Electrical Research Products Division of Western Electric Company and the RCA Manufacturing Company. Class 3 awards (honorable mention) went to Ray Wilkinson and the Paramount Studio laboratory; Charles Lootens and the Republic studio sound department; Wilbur Silvertooth and the Paramount studio engineering department; Paramount Pictures, Inc. and 20th Century-Fox Film Corp.; Douglas Shearer and the MGM studio sound department and Loren Ryder and the Paramount studio sound department.

New York Court Continues BMI Suit Against ASCAP

Justice Louis A. Valente of the New York supreme court on Tuesday refused to dismiss a suit by Broadcast Music, Inc., and Edward B. Marks Music Corporation against the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers. ASCAP sought dismissal of the case on the ground that it was a copyright issue which could be tried only in Federal court.

Judge Valente said the copyright question was only incidental to the case.

Visual Education Group Named

A seventeen-member subcommittee on Visual Education Projection Equipment was formed last week by the Bureau of Industry Advisory Committee of the War Production Board. The group, which includes representatives of equipment companies, laboratories and other interests, will advise on matters affecting visual education. Jesse L. Maury is the Government presiding officer.

Pass "Roxie Hart"

The Chicago censors have given Twentieth Century-Fox's "Roxie Hart" a permit for general showing, following submission of a new print. Previously, they had given it an "adults only" permit. The studio dubbed new dialogue into scenes termed objectionable.

Canada Getting Together Under War Regulation

Peace and unity in Canada between independents, the circuits and distribution appeared nearing a working reality this week under the pressure of government wartime regulation.

The All-Industry National Advisory Council, with all groups equally represented, met with R. G. McMullen, administrator of theatres and films for the wartime Prices and Trade Board, on Monday to establish basic principles of control on prices. The first meeting was devoted to a long discussion of the unique problems of the film industry. Further sessions appeared likely before a general price plan would be promulgated.

Independent exhibitors from coast to coast meanwhile were joining the newly formed National Council of Independent Exhibitors of Canada in substantial number according to Henry W. Falk, president.

Council to Be Set Up

In a bulletin to member associations Mr. Falk reported that many basic issues had been thrashed out in the meetings with the Government and distributors. Equal representation for independents is assured he reported and the bulletin predicted that the All-Industry Council and the Government would provide a means of adjusting grievances in respect to overbuying, delaying of product, and clearance.

Final decision on exhibitor grievances under the price control act or on other exhibition problems will be reserved for the Government's Wartime Prices and Control Board. In practice it is expected that the All-Industry Council will be able to settle amicably disputes by itself.

Distribution, circuits and independent exhibitors will each have three members on the All-Industry Advisory Council. Affiliated theatres will be classed with the circuits rather than with the independent group.

Membership on the council comprises, for the distributors: J. P. O'Loughlin, 20th-Fox; Henry Nathanson, MGM; and Mr. Rosenfeld. Circuit members are: Clarence Robson, of Odeon; Morris Stein, Famous Players; and B. C. Salamis, affiliated independents. Independent members are: Henry Falk, Thomas Walton, and B. E. Laxer, president of the Motion Picture Exhibitors Association.

To Serve "Best Interests"

Mr. McMullen and James Stewart, administrator of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, have assured the motion picture group that all Government wartime regulation of the motion picture industry in Canada will seek to serve the best interests of the public and those engaged in the business, it was reported from Ottawa.

Independent representatives on the national board will be responsible to the National Council of Independents. Each province is entitled to one delegate and one representative on the latter board.

In an address to a meeting of distribution, chain and independent representatives preceding formation of the national council Mr. Falk, speaking for the independents said:

"We wish to emphasize that we stand ready to cooperate through our own appointed representatives with the other facets of the industry to form the All-Industry National Council which will work with the Government to forge a new unity and authority in the motion picture industry of Canada."

FOR ITS LOVE

FOR ITS LAUGHTER

FOR ITS LOOKS

ORCHIDS for
NORMA SHEARER
MELVYN DOUGLAS
in
"WE WERE DANCING"

with GAIL PATRICK • LEE BOWMAN • MARJORIE
MAIN • REGINALD OWEN • ALAN MOWBRAY
FLORENCE BATES • Screen Play by Claudine West, Hans Rameau and George Froeschel • Based in Part on "Tonight at 8:30" by Noel Coward • Directed by ROBERT Z. LEONARD • Produced by Robert Z.
Leonard and Orville O. Dull • An M-G-M Picture

16,951 Theatre Accounts in 8,488 U. S. Towns

THE eleven motion picture companies distributing entertainment pictures nationally service 16,951 accounts in 8,488 cities, towns and villages in the United States. The accounts represent a total of 10,451,442 seats, one for every 12 and one-half men, women and children counted in the 1940 census. The half person pays full tax.

The U. S. Department of Commerce in the 1940 census counted 15,115 actual theatres operating in the United States. The total of 16,951 now arrived at by compilation of distributor service accounts is nearly 2,000 higher because of the inclusion of part-time resort theatres, occasional commercial showings in lodge and church halls and in other non-theatrical places. Army post theatres, drive-ins, so-called itinerants and closed theatres are excluded from the compilation, however.

Seventy per cent of the accounts are located in towns of less than 50,000 inhabitants and 86.5 per cent of them seat less than 1,000 persons. The bulk of exhibition revenue, however, comes from 30 per cent of the accounts in cities of more than 50,000 persons, where 46 per cent of the seating capacity is concentrated.

The compilation shows 5,041 accounts in cities of over 50,000 population and 11,910 in cities having less than that number of inhabitants. Some 5,545 theatres are in towns and villages of less than 2,500 persons, representing 33 per cent of the total given for the country.

There are only 112 theatres in the country seating 3,000 or more and only 2,299 seating more than 1,000.

The average seating capacity of all the accounts is 617. Indicative, however, of the concentration of seating capacity are the 2,374,108 seats in the 14 cities having more than 500,000 population, these representing one-fifth of the nation's total seating capacity. In these cities there are 2,301 accounts, only 12.9 per cent of the total.

The first of the two tables below compares the seating capacity of the accounts with a similar compilation for 1938; the second summarizes the location and the capacity of the accounts. On the following page is a breakdown of these totals by states.

Exhibition Accounts in the U.S. by Seating Capacities

Seating Capacity	—Number of Theatres—		—Cumulative Total—
	1941	1938*	1941	1938*
Over 3,000.....	112	117	....	....
2,000 to 3,000.....	319	374	431	491
1,500 to 2,000.....	556	689	987	1,180
1,000 to 1,500.....	1,312	1,646	2,299	2,826
500 to 1,000.....	4,689	5,500	6,988	8,326
200 to 500.....	7,854	7,303	14,842	15,629
200 and less.....	2,109	1,912	16,951	17,541

*Figures for 1938 include closed theatres.

Exhibition Accounts in the U.S. by Location

Population of Town	Towns With Theatres	Cumulative Total	No. of Theatres Operating	Cumulative Total	No. of Seats	Cumulative Total	Average Seats per Theatre
Over 500,000.....	14	....	2,301	....	2,374,108	....	1,031
500,000 to 200,000.....	29	43	1,099	3,400	962,770	3,336,878	877
200,000 to 100,000.....	49	92	743	4,143	685,674	4,022,552	923
100,000 to 50,000.....	107	199	898	5,041	808,872	4,831,424	901
50,000 to 20,000.....	304	503	1,278	6,319	1,072,839	5,904,263	841
20,000 to 10,000.....	550	1,053	1,405	7,724	991,773	6,895,636	706
10,000 to 5,000.....	937	1,990	1,715	9,439	1,016,366	7,912,002	593
5,000 to 2,500.....	1,398	3,388	1,967	11,406	924,676	8,836,678	470
2,500 to 1,000.....	2,736	6,124	3,075	14,481	1,021,051	9,857,729	332
1,000 and less.....	2,364	8,488	2,470	16,951	613,713	10,451,442	248

Locations of these accounts and towns by states are listed on the following pages.

STATE BY STATE STRUCTURE

State	(1) Over 500,000 Population		(2) 500,000 to 200,000 Population		(3) 200,000 to 100,000 Population		Population (4) 100,000 to 50,000 Population		(5) 50,000 to 20,000 Population		(6) 20,000 to 10,000 Population		(7) 10,000 to 5,000 Population
	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres
ALABAMA ..... (2,832,961)	0	0	1	30	0	0	2	18	4	15	7	18	17	21
ARIZONA ..... (499,261)	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	8	1	5	0	0	9	16
ARKANSAS ..... (1,949,387)	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	13	4	18	4	10	13	25
CALIFORNIA ..... (6,907,387)	2	299	2	65	2	43	8	72	15	73	34	79	54	98
COLORADO ..... (1,123,296)	0	0	1	39	0	0	1	8	1	6	5	19	9	18
CONNECTICUT ..... (1,709,242)	0	0	0	0	3	63	3	24	14	33	11	16	16	17
DELAWARE ..... (266,505)	0	0	0	0	1	12	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	2
DIST. OF COLUMBIA ..... (663,091)	1	61	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
FLORIDA ..... (1,897,414)	0	0	0	0	3	52	1	13	6	37	11	31	14	26
GEORGIA ..... (3,123,723)	0	0	1	42	0	0	4	33	3	12	11	29	19	34
IDAHO ..... (524,873)	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	6	6	19	3	5
ILLINOIS ..... (7,897,241)	1	325	0	0	1	12	7	52	19	79	30	62	54	86
INDIANA ..... (3,427,796)	0	0	1	55	3	37	4	36	11	53	15	44	32	67
IOWA ..... (2,538,268)	0	0	0	0	1	23	4	33	7	31	9	34	23	44
KANSAS ..... (1,801,028)	0	0	0	0	2	29	1	14	2	9	15	46	13	32
KENTUCKY ..... (2,845,627)	0	0	1	32	0	0	1	5	5	22	6	15	18	34
LOUISIANA ..... (2,363,880)	0	0	1	59	0	0	1	13	4	27	4	12	17	35
MAINE ..... (847,226)	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	10	2	8	7	16	16	24
MARYLAND ..... (1,821,244)	1	101	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	11	4	12	4	7
MASSACHUSETTS ... (4,316,721)	1	72	0	0	7	70	8	47	24	69	34	46	34	39
MICHIGAN ..... (5,256,106)	1	176	0	0	2	49	6	45	10	51	22	46	31	53
MINNESOTA ..... (2,792,300)	0	0	2	92	1	0	0	0	3	12	8	22	28	54
MISSISSIPPI ..... (2,183,796)	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	9	5	25	6	19	10	23
MISSOURI ..... (3,784,664)	1	99	1	50	0	0	2	18	5	16	13	34	24	41

[Table continued on page 26]

OF EXHIBITION IN THE U. S.

Seating Capacity—No. of Theatres
(8) 5,000 to 2,500 Population		(9) 2,500 to 1,000 Population		(10) 1,000 and less Population		(11) Totals		(a) 3,000 and over	(b) 2,000 to 3,000	(c) 1,500 to 2,000	(d) 1,000 to 1,500	(e) 500 to 1,000	(f) 200 to 500	(g) 200 and less	(h) Total
Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres
29	36	46	50	29	29	135	217	1	1	0	7	39	109	60	217
11	13	16	20	22	24	60	86	0	0	2	2	21	44	17	86
31	43	51	57	41	47	145	213	0	0	1	3	37	143	29	213
58	71	91	106	83	86	349	992	5	29	49	129	410	275	95	992
12	14	39	50	41	46	109	200	0	4	3	9	56	85	43	200
15	17	13	13	9	10	84	193	4	9	12	30	81	51	6	193
5	5	8	9	5	5	20	33	0	0	3	3	12	14	1	33
0	0	0	0	0	0	1	61	1	3	3	9	20	24	1	61
33	44	34	41	26	28	128	272	1	2	3	14	83	108	61	272
36	44	68	71	24	24	166	289	1	4	2	7	68	137	70	289
15	23	25	27	40	43	90	123	0	0	0	2	31	60	30	123
73	94	139	156	72	75	396	941	13	27	41	87	283	420	70	941
31	50	73	78	34	34	204	454	1	10	5	37	147	219	35	454
43	62	123	129	125	126	335	482	0	3	7	7	75	291	99	482
32	50	75	78	95	96	235	354	0	1	1	16	89	206	41	354
26	38	69	83	47	48	173	277	2	1	2	14	56	150	52	277
28	40	52	56	54	61	161	303	2	1	3	11	74	174	38	303
26	28	33	36	14	16	99	138	0	2	1	7	40	75	13	138
17	24	26	27	33	37	87	219	3	1	3	15	55	121	21	219
15	17	15	16	10	11	148	387	5	20	46	78	174	57	7	387
40	49	94	97	51	54	257	620	5	12	28	78	172	273	52	620
32	46	110	119	125	131	309	486	1	3	4	14	101	275	88	486
26	42	49	57	27	28	124	203	0	0	0	5	38	130	30	203
37	49	106	121	78	80	267	508	7	3	13	35	162	228	60	508

PRE-SOLD EVERYWHERE...
EAGERLY AWAITED BY MILLIONS...
TIMELY! UNUSUAL! SENSATIONAL!

RAD
TO-C
NEW

15
PULSE-TINGLING
CHAPTERS

TAXES TO BEAT THE AXIS

Play WALT DISNEY'S
TREASURY DEPARTMENT PICTURE

"The
NEW SPIRIT"

D'S SOCK 92-STATION COAST-FAST THRILL SHOW COMES TO GLORY AS A SERIAL SMASH!

"MIDNIGHT'S" exciting aviation and anti-spy exploits are known to an army of fans...via nationally circulated comic magazines...Whitman "Little Big Books"...and that vast airwaves hookup! Cash in on a great show's great appeal to young and old alike!

CAPTAIN MIDNIGHT

Based upon the radio serial "Captain Midnight"

with Dave O'Brien • Dorothy Short • James Craven • Bryant Washburn

Screen play by Basil Dickey, George Plympton, Wyndham Gittens, Jack Stanley • Directed by JAMES W. HORNE

A COLUMBIA CHAPTER PLAY

RELEASED FEB. 15th

LOCATION AND CAPACITY OF

[Table continued from page 23]

State	(1) Over 500,000 Population		(2) 500,000 to 200,000 Population		(3) 200,000 to 100,000 Population		(4) 100,000 to 50,000 Population		(5) 50,000 to 20,000 Population		(6) 20,000 to 10,000 Population		(7) 10,000 to 5,000 Population
	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Thea
MONTANA ..... (559,456)	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	14	3	11	6
NEBRASKA ..... (1,315,834)	0	0	1	23	0	0	1	8	0	0	7	19	8
NEVADA ..... (110,247)	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	5	0	0	2
NEW HAMPSHIRE ... (491,524)	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	10	2	6	7	18	6
NEW JERSEY ..... (4,160,165)	0	0	2	59	4	50	7	48	20	49	28	46	36
NEW MEXICO ..... (531,818)	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	10	4	11	8
NEW YORK ..... (13,479,142)	2	682	2	62	3	39	7	61	24	73	35	76	46
NO. CAROLINA ..... (3,571,623)	0	0	0	0	1	9	4	31	5	35	16	58	21
NO. DAKOTA ..... (641,935)	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	11	2	6	6
OHIO ..... (6,907,612)	1	116	5	219	2	23	3	20	21	98	23	60	48
OKLAHOMA ..... (2,226,434)	0	0	1	25	1	16	0	0	3	17	16	67	22
OREGON ..... (1,089,684)	0	0	1	55	0	0	0	0	2	11	4	13	9
PENNSYLVANIA ..... (9,900,180)	2	300	0	0	3	45	10	98	22	80	59	141	104
RHODE ISLAND ..... (713,346)	0	0	1	16	0	0	1	6	5	17	3	5	3
SOUTH CAROLINA ... (1,899,804)	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	13	2	14	6	23	15
SOUTH DAKOTA ..... (642,961)	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	8	5	15	4
TENNESSEE ..... (2,915,841)	0	0	1	31	3	49	0	0	2	9	6	14	16
TEXAS ..... (6,414,824)	0	0	3	96	1	18	7	63	8	55	23	88	57
UTAH ..... (550,310)	0	0	0	0	1	19	0	0	1	7	2	8	4
VERMONT ..... (359,231)	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	5	3	8	6
VIRGINIA ..... (2,677,773)	0	0	0	0	2	45	2	13	6	33	6	16	13
WASHINGTON ..... (1,736,191)	0	0	1	49	2	30	0	0	3	16	8	27	6
WEST VIRGINIA ..... (1,901,974)	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	38	4	20	5	14	13
WISCONSIN ..... (3,137,587)	1	70	0	0	0	0	2	18	15	63	14	25	17
WYOMING ..... (250,742)	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	4	3	7	2
Totals .....	14	2,301	29	1,099	49	743	107	898	304	1,278	550	1,405	937	1

THEATRE SERVICE ACCOUNTS

(8) 5,000 to 2,500 Population		(9) 2,500 to 1,000 Population		(10) 1,000 and less Population		(11) Totals		Seating Capacity—No. of Theatres
Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	Towns	Theatres	(a) 3,000 and over	(b) 2,000 to 3,000	(c) 1,500 to 2,000	(d) 1,000 to 1,500	(e) 500 to 1,000	(f) 200 to 500	(g) 200 and less	(h) Total
12	19	24	28	68	71	116	161	0	0	2	5	24	66	64	161
19	30	68	75	116	119	220	287	0	2	1	8	35	182	59	287
2	3	8	9	11	11	24	31	0	0	0	1	6	18	6	31
11	12	22	23	2	2	51	77	0	0	0	9	31	34	3	77
34	43	27	33	16	19	174	400	5	20	42	85	156	77	15	400
10	16	13	16	15	15	52	85	0	0	0	4	16	48	17	85
77	89	109	115	91	92	396	1,344	30	90	132	203	489	343	57	1,344
32	55	79	95	52	55	210	395	0	2	2	11	69	274	37	395
2	3	35	36	93	96	140	164	0	0	0	3	15	65	81	164
59	85	113	127	62	65	337	904	9	13	34	76	295	380	97	904
32	67	81	99	61	64	217	415	0	0	5	15	83	269	43	415
18	30	29	33	45	45	108	212	1	1	4	8	65	102	31	212
15	147	147	162	80	82	542	1,224	9	22	65	129	366	572	61	1,224
4	5	4	4	2	2	23	58	1	4	5	10	22	10	6	58
27	31	41	45	15	16	108	166	0	0	0	1	29	111	25	166
7	11	39	42	89	93	145	177	0	0	0	0	20	96	61	177
29	38	45	47	23	24	125	242	0	5	3	7	57	128	42	242
97	182	200	245	125	130	521	1,030	1	10	8	36	235	610	130	1,030
15	24	40	50	30	33	93	148	0	0	3	6	15	79	45	148
11	14	19	21	2	2	42	61	0	0	0	5	23	29	4	61
25	36	42	52	71	75	167	293	1	0	3	12	77	154	46	293
20	34	44	48	60	62	144	281	2	2	5	14	69	142	47	281
22	34	56	68	76	82	179	283	0	3	0	10	47	162	61	283
41	54	78	85	60	62	228	408	1	9	10	34	107	208	39	408
6	6	18	20	14	14	44	54	0	0	0	1	14	26	13	54
98	1,967	2,736	3,075	2,364	2,470	8,488	16,951	112	319	556	1,312	4,689	7,854	2,109	16,951

TIRE RATIONING HANDICAP FACTOR IN CLEARANCE

Appeal Board Considers Transportation Factor in Competition

The effects of tire rationing and other wartime automobile travel restrictions on the competitive relations of motion picture theatres were given attention by the Appeal Board in a motion picture arbitration award for the first time last week.

The Appeal Board, in its 18th decision, found in favor of a Dallas complainant, B. R. McClendon, operating the State and Texan theatres in Atlanta, Tex., overruling the dismissal of the complaint last November by J. B. Adone, arbitrator. The Appeal Board directed 20th Century-Fox, RKO, and Warners to grant a maximum of one day's clearance to the Paramount and Strand theatres, in Texarkana, Tex.

The board rejected the complainant's contention that the towns of Atlanta and Texarkana were not in the same competitive area because they are 28 miles apart. The board said the towns were connected by good highways and that although competition was slight each town drew some patronage from the other.

The decision, dated February 17, was not released to the press until Monday, February 23rd.

"Of course the competition, such as it is, is substantially based upon automobile transportation. If wartime control of automobile traffic results in the effectual limitation of this method of transportation, a different picture will be presented," the Appeal Board commented.

Precedent Seen

The ruling, according to some arbitration observers, may open up the way for a number of new clearance complaints charging that present clearance margins, in view of restricted transportation, are unreasonable as to area.

"On the record the present extent of the competition between Texarkana and Atlanta is, however, not so slight as to warrant us in holding that any clearance between the two would be unreasonable as to area. On the other hand it is our opinion that the competition is such that the maximum clearance should not exceed one day. When competition is slight clearance to be reasonable must also be short in point of time," the three Appeal Judges wrote.

In their decision the Appeal Board ruled against the Paramount-Richards Theatres, Inc., operator of the two Texarkana theatres despite the company's refusal to intervene. The circuit wrote a letter to the arbitrator refusing to become a party to the arbitration and challenging the jurisdiction of the motion picture arbitration tribunals.

The Appeal Board found that contracts and practices established restricted Atlanta theatres to pictures from 45 to 60 days after exchange release date whereas the two Texarkana theatres were entitled to pictures on release date, as were 46 other Paramount

Richards houses in 17 other towns, all on the same contract.

"Where clearance exists in fact the name by which it is described is unimportant," the Appeal judges wrote in setting aside distributor contentions over the arbitrator's jurisdiction.

"In practice the actual clearance of Texarkana over Atlanta is the number of days which elapse between the end of the run of a picture in Texarkana and 45 days after the picture was released by the exchange. Inasmuch as the distributor is not required to give Atlanta the picture until the expiration of 60 days the period of waiting time may be even longer. To hold upon such a state of facts that Texarkana has no clearance over Atlanta which can be arbitrated under Section VIII, would be highly technical and would in our opinion tend to nullify the purpose of Section VIII. No such result is contemplated by the Decree."

Revenue Greater

In determining the fair margin of clearance the board observed that while both towns charged approximately the same admission prices the Texarkana revenue was larger because of the greater size of the two Paramount theatres. They play on percentages varying from 25 to 35 per cent the Board found, whereas the Atlanta houses pay 40 per cent on the best pictures and a flat $40 rental on the others.

They reported that the complainant was not subjected to any clearance for two years after his theatre in Atlanta was opened in 1935. "Then as a result of an anti-trust suit commenced by the complainant the availability clause was inserted in contracts."

Defendant claims that Texarkana should have a run prior to Atlanta because of its greater size evoked the comment from the Appeal Board that the factors of Section VIII, applied to the proceeding led to the conclusion that if Texarkana played pictures ahead of Atlanta it needed little clearance protection. Accordingly the board set a one-day margin.

Costs were assessed against the three defendants.

In reversing Mr. Adone's dismissal of the case the Appeal Board criticized his failure to state the grounds on which he based his decision.

Detroit

The first Detroit case, filed almost a year ago by Julius L. London for his Booth theatre, Detroit, was settled this week by an award from Jerome G. Thomas, arbitrator, dismissing the case as an amended Specific Run demand. The original combination clearance and some run complaint was amended last spring to a Specific Run demand, under Section X. The entire action was postponed until the clause became effective on September 1st.

In his award Mr. Thomas found that the Booth Whittier and East End theatres received fourth run from Paramount and Warners, the defendant distributors. He asserted that the complainant, in effect, sought to move the Whittier and East End back to fifth run, a proceeding not in keeping with the decree. He cited inconsistency in the amended complaint and said the complainant had failed to prove the factors of circuit discrimination specified in Section X. The Plaza, Del The, Maxine and De Luxe theatres were involved, as was the Michigan Cooperative circuit.

Kansas City

The Fox Kansas City Corporation on Saturday appealed an award by Wendell H. Cloud in favor of the Mission theatre, Dickinson, Kan. The decision, reported in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for February 14th, page 13, set aside the exemption from arbitration of affiliated circuit theatres. It was reported that the five consenting distributors would join the Midwest circuit in the appeal test of the city's second case. The scope of Section XVII of the decree is at issue.

Boston

Boston received its ninth case, on February 19th when the Camelot Theatre Corporation of Massachusetts filed a some run action against Paramount in behalf of its Art theatre, in Springfield, Mass. The complaint asserted that Paramount refused to offer product on any terms, in violation of Section VI of the decree.

St. Louis

A seventh case at St. Louis, the first in several months, was filed Saturday by the Olga Theatre Corporation operator of the Rialto theatre in Hannibal, Mo. The complaint named Warners, 20th Century-Fox and Paramount and charged that they had refused to establish any "definite or reasonable" clearance for the Orpheum and Star theatres, Hannibal, over the Rialto. It asked the arbitrator to set a reasonable maximum, on a definite release date."

Minneapolis

Minneapolis received its first new complaint since November on Thursday when Lyle Carisch and Raymond Lee, partners, operating the Wayzata theatre, in Wayzata, Minn., asserted that Loew's, Inc., subjected them to unreasonable clearance of 56 days after Minneapolis first run in favor of the Tonka theatre at Excelsior, Minn. It asked the arbitrator to set a reasonable maximum.

The complaint was based on contracts for 1941-42 pictures. It is the first arbitration action filed on such contracts since the Minnesota anti-blocks-of-five law was put into effect.

Cleveland

J. Virgil Cory, arbitrator, at hearings on Cleveland's second case, a some-run action by the Dueber theatre, Canton, Ohio, last Thursday granted a motion by distributors to dismiss the complaint.

He ruled that the distributors had offered the Dueber, owned by the Park Theatre Company, product on terms not calculated to defeat Section VI of the decree. If there was question of discrimination in designating the Dueber's run, Mr. Cory ruled that he was without authority to decide it under the manner in which the complaint had been filed.

Witnesses called by the complainant, Frank N. Gaethke, included the secretary of Canton's Chamber of Commerce who testified as to population, A. M. Dueber, owner of the theatre building and Mr. Gaethke who testified as to building costs and equipment. Loew's had been dropped from the complaint prior to the ruling

(Continued on page 31, column 1)

BACK TO BACK

QUEEN

and JACK!

Paulette's back will line 'em up out front when you play Paramount's riotous comedy-drama of spine-spying spies, "The Lady Has Plans." It's an all-laugh yarn of a gal whose back becomes an international front when word gets around that secret war plans are written thereon! Paulette in the kind of fun they loved in "Nothing But The Truth" and "Ghost Breakers" ...Milland repeating his comedy successes of "Skylark" and "Arise, My Love!"

RAY
MILLAND

PAULETTE
GODDARD

in

"THE LADY HAS PLANS"

A Paramount Picture with

ROLAND YOUNG • ALBERT DEKKER • MARGARET HAYES
CECIL KELLAWAY • EDWARD NORRIS •

Directed by Sidney Lanfield
Screen Play by Harry Tugend

Clearance Case Dismissed in New Haven

(Continued from page 28)

on the dismissal motion filed by the remaining defendant's attorneys, Harold Berkowitz, Irving Cohn, Harry Pimstein and Norman Steinberg.

New arbitration demands were filed this week on some run and clearance in Boston, St. Louis and Minneapolis.

New Haven

At New Haven on Friday arbitrator George P. Murdock entered an award dismissing the clearance complaint of Joseph Shulman, operator of the Plaza theatre, Windsor, against all five consenting distributors. He ruled that the complainant had not proved the 28-30-day existing clearance as unreasonable.

The award assessed half the costs against the complainant and half against the five distributors. Mr. Murdock found distributor's counsel responsible for "obstructing and delaying the presentation of evidence by the complainant during a portion of the 6-day proceedings thereby making it necessary for the arbitrator to protect the complainant by allowing him somewhat greater latitude in admission of evidence than might otherwise have been justified."

Alleged losses in operation by the complainant, the arbitrator said, cannot be attributed to unreasonable clearance, since the complainant knowingly undertook a business risk when he did not enter into negotiations with Nathan Lampert, operator of the older theatre in the town, to make it a "closed town" and secure appurtenant advantages in his dealings with the distributors.

He found competition between the two houses of the keenest, and 28-30 days the commonest interval of clearance in Connecticut. He calculated that a reduction to 7-14 days in the clearance would permit second-run Windsor to play before second-run Hartford, disrupting the whole Hartford area." In concluding that the 28-30-day clearance was "reasonable," Mr. Murdock said he was "disturbed by certain intimations at hearings that the maximum clearance of the Windsor might be increased in the future. . . . Any such increase would be unreasonable and very probably retaliatory."

Chicago

Several declarations of intervention were filed with the clerk of the Chicago arbitration board last week.

Three of them were in connection with the Wheaton Theatre, Wheaton, Ill., clearance case, Chicago Case No. 13. Balaban & Katz intervened in behalf of their LaGrange theatre, LaGrange, Ill., and Tivoli theatre, Downers Grove, Ill. Other intervenors in this case are Loew's Lombard theatre, Lombard, Ill., and York theatre, Elmhurst, Ill.

The Warner Brothers Theatre Management Corporation have intervened in the Rio theatre, Hammond, Ind., case (No. 14), in behalf of their Paramount, Parthenon and Orpheum theatres, Hammond. Another intervention was filed by Lou Reinheimer for the Calumet.

New York

An award in New York's 16th case was appealed Tuesday by the complainant, Liberty-Freehold Corporation, operating the Liberty Theatre in Freehold, N. J. John K. Watson, arbitrator, in his award, reported in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for February 14th, cut the clearance margins of the Savoy and Lyric theatres, Asbury Park, but held that the clearances of the Mayfair, Paramount and St. James theatres were reasonable.

Theatre Owners Discuss Code

New York City circuit owners and representatives met Thursday in the office of Commissioner of Housing and Buildings William Wilson, to discuss new restrictions in the revised code of the Building Department, on theatre signs and displays.

The theatre men have been warned the restrictions must be obeyed in order that they may secure 1942 licenses March 1st.

The restrictions, designed to make more safe the type and fastening of signs in the event of air raids, provide that displays do not extend more than eight inches beyond the street wall of the theatre building; that they be constructed of material at least 3/16 of an inch thick, and adequately stiffened or attached directly to the street wall, and that printed or painted advertising matter displayed be not more than 3/16 of an inch thick, and be flame proofed.

Matthew Fox On War Board

Matthew Fox has joined the War Production Board. The vice-president of Universal Pictures and assistant to Nate Blumberg, has become aide to Robert Nathan, chairman of the WPB Planning Committee, in Washington.

Mr. Fox began his duties last week. Universal granted him a leave of absence for the "duration."

The Universal executive was born in Racine, Wisconsin, February 4th, 1911. He entered the industry in 1926, as booker for Tiffany-Stahl, Milwaukee. Followed then theatre managership, and a publicity post. In 1932, he managed the Rivoli, Hempstead, Long Island, a Skouras theatre. There followed promotions in that circuit, and in 1934 he became manager of the Academy of Music, Manhattan; in 1936, a film buyer, and assistant to circuit head George Skouras. In 1938, when Mr. Blumberg assumed the Universal presidency, Mr. Fox joined him.

Monogram Franchisers Buy "No Greater Sin"

The film "No Greater Sin" is being distributed by Monogram branch offices in New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Milwaukee, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Denver, Salt Lake City, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Omaha, Des Moines and St. Louis. Henry Elman and David Halper are handling the picture in the Chicago area and Irving Dietz and Mike Siegel are the North and South Carolina agents.

Columbia Pictures is distributing the film in Canada. United Artists is selling it in other foreign countries. Edward Golden, president of University Film Productions, Inc., producer of "No Greater Sin," reports that University's own agents, W. J. Fitzpatrick and Ben Stein, are distributing the picture in Dallas and New England respectively.

Nebraska Film Carriers Form Association

Film carriers in the Omaha territory filed articles of incorporation in Lincoln, Neb., last week as a mutual, non-profit organization. The association would present a united front of qualified haulers, offering protection against other truckers as well as an appreciable saving in insurance cost. Listed as incorporators are H. E. Lysinger of Grand Island, Alfred Otton of Pierce, M. G. Rogers of Omaha, Guy E. Mills and C. A. Rose of Lincoln, Neb.

Adler with PRC

Robert Adler, formerly with Columbia Pictures in the New York territory for the past 15 years, has been named booker and salesman for Producers Releasing Corporation in Detroit.

Industry Nets $1,250,000 For "Dimes"

One and a quarter million dollars was garnered by the nation's theatres in their March of Dimes drive to swell the infantile paralysis fund, headquarters in New York announced Tuesday. Several hundred theatres had not reported; and when they do the total is expected to go beyond Monday's mark.

Nicholas Schenck, chairman, and Loew's president, said Tuesday he believed it was the largest cash contribution ever made in the theatres of this country for a national charity.

The million-dollar tabulation was handed Mr. Schenck by Si Fabian, treasurer of the drive.

Among the larger checks received Monday at headquarters was one for $98,250.76 from the RKO circuit. Colorado and Western Nebraska theatres sent in a total of $6,398. The Interstate Circuit, Texas, and Texas Consolidated theatres sent $8,876. The motion picture studio employes in Hollywood reported $17,700. Loew's circuit reported an additional $5,000, bringing its total to $193,000. Paramount theatres and partners collected $200,000.

In response to inquiries, Mr. Schenck explained 50% of the money sent national headquarters would be returned to the March of Dimes committee in the communities from which the money was raised. To hasten that detail, it was urged that all theatres rush checks so that the audit can be completed, money sent back to the various communities, and a final report made.

New York stage, radio, and screen stars joined Sunday night in service at the 60th annual benefit for the Actors Fund of America, at the Imperial Theatre, that city.

Some 2,500 attended. Vinton Freedley was chairman of the entertainment committee. He announced funds raised by the performance would supplement endowment income not sufficient to take care of all demands upon the actors' fund.

Seek Indianapolis Film Inspection

The Indianapolis board of public safety on Tuesday recommended to the City Council that it pass an ordinance requiring the inspection of all motion picture film. Leroy J. Keach will present the measure for a vote on March 2nd.

James A. Watson, attorney for local 35, film employees union, and George A. Popp, city building commissioner, urged passage of the ordinance after several projectionists had told the board that uninspected film was a fire hazard. George S. Dailey, attorney for Indianapolis exchanges, opposed the measure.

Copyright Bureau Convicts Three

Following investigation by the Copyright Protection Bureau, Louis Colasuono was fined $1,000 and put on probation for one year, and Antonio Cardillo and Sol Jaffe were fined $100 each, by Federal Judge Alfred C. Cox, in New York, Tuesday. The three pleaded guilty to criminally violating the copyright law by exhibiting films illegally. The Federal Bureau of Investigation cooperated.

New York State Gets New Film Legislation

by RICHARD CONNERS
in Albany

Bills of motion picture interest were introduced in both houses of the New York state legislature last week, as Governor Lehman announced he favored chopping $3,000,000 more from the budget.

A new attempt to rid the labor and penal laws of the state of the "blue law" prohibitions against employment of children in motion pictures, or radio programs, was initiated by Assemblyman Harold B. Ehrlich of Buffalo and Senator William H. Hampton of Utica. Mr. Ehrlich, with the support of Children's Aid Societies, the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and others in his effort to leave exhibition to educational authorities, drafted a measure to remove gubernatorial objections.

In 1941, he passed similar legislation but Governor Lehman vetoed it, noting its looseness.

Although motion pictures are specifically in the bill, it provides that if educational authorities are satisfied the child's welfare is not impeded by the picture work, permits may be issued.

Without permits, an exemption for exhibitions in school, church and charitable functions, is allowed, as is appearance one hour weekly in studios.

Checking violations is the Industrial Commissioner's job.

Billboard Control Up

Billboard control also came before the legislature, with the introduction Feb. 13th of two bills by Senator Thomas C. Desmond, Newburgh, and Assemblyman Dutton S. Peterson, Schuylerville County.

One would give municipal bodies the right to regulate, prohibit, and restrict the erection, maintenance or display of billboards and outdoor advertising devices.

The other proposes the protection and improvement of roadsides with regulation of outdoor advertising by the Superintendent of Public Works.

Outdoor advertising companies would pay $50 yearly. A permit would be required for each sign, at one and one-half cents per square foot of area. Boards would be prohibited within highway boundaries, within 150 feet of intersections and within 500 feet of state parks.

Important to motion picture exhibitors is that posters could not be displayed on property without the written consent of the property owner and, a permit from the Superintendent of Public Works.

Other Legislative Actions

The film industry in Michigan may present its arguments to the Tax Board before the state will begin collecting its use tax of three per cent on film rentals, Louis Nims, State Commissioner of Revenues, said last week in Lansing, the capitol.

Previously, action had been started against one company, the Allied Film Exchanges. Mr. Nims said the ruling by the tax board, after arguments by the industry, would be made within two weeks, and would apply to the whole state.

The Youngstown, Ohio, City Council will mull an ordinance to provide free parking space to theatre patrons. Public hearing will be March 2nd.

Fanchon & Marco Realign Staffs

The Fanchon & Marco circuit of St. Louis announced personnel changes in first run and subsequent run theatres, last week. They follow:

Among first-run houses—Harry Crawford, from the Ambassador to the Missouri, replacing George Rixnor, who joined the Coast Guard; Henry Riegel, from the St. Louis to the Ambassador; Dick Fitzmaurice, from the second-run Granada to the St. Louis.

In second-run and subsequent-run houses—Robert Heinig, named manager of Granada; Dave Kinzler, from the Lindell to the Union; George Riegel, from relief manager to manager of Lindell; Don Norling, from the West End to the Shady Oak; Ray Parker, from the Shady Oak to the Avalon, which was leased by the chain this week from Mrs. Bess Schuler; John Heflinger, from the Lafayette to the West End; Howard Harris, from the Yale to the Lafayette; Victor Tramel, treasurer of the Missouri to manager of Powhatan, which likewise came under the chain's banner last week; Knute Broxton, from relief manager to manager of Yale; Beryl Carlew, promoted from assistant manager of Lafayette to relief manager.

Poster Men Organize

Independent poster exchange executives over the weekend in Philadelphia formed the Independent Poster Exchanges of America.

Mitchell Pantzer, spokesman, said the unit would "represent a powerful bond towards assurance for a continued source of supply in the advertising field, and to act in opposition to any monopolistic moves which might have adverse effects on the exhibitors."

Attendants were Martin Braverman, Minneapolis; Murray Lipp, Chicago; Mark Cummins, Cincinnati; Jack Judd, Pittsburgh; Ben Sampliner, Washington; Abe Arkin, Steve Sally, Harry Cohen, Morris Negrin, New York; Charles Lawlor, Mr. Pantzer, Philadelphia.

Represented were Bud Harris, Texas; Tom Dyer, Oklahoma; W. H. Cobb, New Orleans; E. J. Martt, St. Louis; Harry Vogelstein, Baltimore; Gregory Notarianni, Denver; Midwest Poster Service, Kansas City; United Advertising Corporation, Los Angeles; Alexander Previews Corporation, Colorado Springs.

Pennsylvania Allied Meets, Wisconsin on Insurance

Eastern Pennsylvania Allied, in Philadelphia, called an open meeting of independent exhibitors on Tuesday for a discussion of trade problems, including the raising of admissions and high film rentals. There were rumors, also, of plans for a booking combine.

The ITPA of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan has advised its members after a conference with state insurance commission officials and officers of the Insurance Rating Bureau, that their fire insurance rates will no longer be penalized for using sound equipment other than that listed as approved, providing the equipment is substantial and properly installed to insure the maximum of safety.

Members of the ITPA committee working on this problem include William L. Ainsworth of Fond du Lac, president, and Harry Perlewitz, business manager of the association; Ben Marcus of Ripon and F. J. McWilliams of Madison, directors, and D. S. MacKinnon of Milwaukee, insurance specialist.

Serlin Gets Novel Rights

Oscar Serlin has acquired the dramatic rights to John Steinbeck's new novel "The Moon Is Down," which the Viking Press will publish shortly. Mr. Steinbeck is currently at work on the dramatization of the novel, his first since "Grapes of Wrath."

Gillette Cites Screen Power

The "tremendous power" of the motion picture has made it "one of the greatest weapons for war or for peace" declared Lt. Col. Melvin E. Gillette, chief of the training film section of the Signal Corps at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., at a meeting of the Associated Motion Picture Advertisers last Thursday at the Hotel Edison, New York.

The recreational and morale value of films is "inestimable," he said. "They become safety valves... escapes. They can bring laughter, and if a man can laugh in trouble, he can fight. They can bring inspiration, lift a man, or a woman, out of indifference and send them marching onward with their fellows, looking and fighting for a free world."

Col. Gillette commended newsreels and documentary pictures for presenting truth in its most potent form—visual representation—and giving the public "the courage that comes with knowledge."

He cited the use that Germany has made of the filming of actual battles for instruction of their own troops and propaganda in neutral countries. England and Russia were also mentioned as utilizing motion pictures for military and civilian purposes.

In discussing the use of films for training soldiers in the United States, Col. Gillette stressed the educational value of presenting the one correct way to do a job, vividly and in detail. The soldier is introduced to the army, its tradition and its discipline, in pictures. He learns his special duties and the technique of military operations in that way.

Vincent Trotta, president of the AMPA, presided at the luncheon. Also on the dais were Barney Balaban, Stanton Griffis, Jack Cohn, Francis S. Harmon, Norton V. Ritchey, Arthur Mayer, Andy W. Smith and Jack Allicoate.

With Lt. Col. Gillette were Lt. Col. Richard T. Schlossberg and several members who had joined his staff from the motion picture industry. Master Sgt. Widmayer of the camera department was a March of Time cameraman. Tech. Sgt. North of the scenario department has had many years' experience as a writer for the major studios. Pvt. Robert Hoover of the editorial department was with Columbia, "cutting" and editing. Pvt. Norman Robins, also in the editorial department, has been an animation cameraman and cutter. Pvt. Lars Caloniun, of the animation department, came to Fort Monmouth from Walt Disney's staff.

Canadian Circuit Being Developed

Ray Allen, who is developing a theatre circuit after lengthy service as supervisor of 35 theatres in Ontario operated by Jules and J. J. Allen, his father and uncle, has opened the Queen's theatre at Hespeler, Ont., which has been remodeled.

The Mavety theatre, in the west end of Toronto, is being reopened by Mr. Allen after alterations. It has been closed for some time.

UA Promotes Magill

Mort Magill, United Artists salesman in Philadelphia, has been promoted to branch manager for the company in Pittsburgh.

ASIDES and INTERLUDES

By JAMES P. CUNNINGHAM

Cassandra Bradley, a pretty 19-year-old redhead, taken in custody by the Chicago police as an "amnesia victim," recovered her memory in a hurry when a publicity stunt failed to jell this week.

She was found wandering, apparently dazed, in a Loop department store, and was taken to the city psychopathic ward. When no flood of newspaper reporters and photographers appeared to interview her, the girl became frightened and told her story.

"They told me when they hired me for this stunt that I would probably be taken to the Dunning (psychiatric) institution and shown a motion picture. While watching this picture I was to regain my memory by reason of seeing it."

Miss Bradley remembered everything and recovered suddenly when she discovered she was to be held for 10 days' observation at the Psychopathic Hospital before her transfer to the Dunning institution.

She was booked for disorderly conduct and fined one dollar by Judge J. M. Braude in Woman's Court. The stunt, which backfired, was for the opening of 20th Century-Fox's "Remember the Day" at the Chicago Theatre. Cassandra will certainly remember.

Mr. Emerson Yorke, of documentary motion picture portent, made a hurry call to our Showmen's Reviews Department, the other mid-afternoon, requesting the quick dispatching of a reviewer to see two new war-and-defense pictures which he had just turned out on the war-and-defense film assembly line for Uncle Sam. The reviewer arrived at Mr. Yorke's screening room, waited a bit, saw the lights dim and then saw flashed on the screen a little subject entitled: "Machining a Rectangular Block with Cast Iron."

Ban by the Fourth U. S. Army Air Interceptor Command on making any long-range weather forecasts last week played havoc with Hollywood location schedules as fog blowing in from the sea and a storm caused cancellation of outdoor shooting.

Hardest hit by the prohibition of weather forecasts were the producers of western pictures, which, of course, must be shot for the most part out-of-dors.

Restrictions have been relaxed somewhat since the first order banning the forecasts, but producers now can only get forecasts on weather conditions which might be caused by inland atmospheric forces.

This is of little aid, however, in view of the great part that air pressure and other conditions at sea play on weather on the Pacific Coastal plain.

With war on, the U. S. Weather Bureau service has no "weather ships" on the Pacific reporting atmospheric conditions which, sweeping inward, would change the course of the weather. Nor are regular commercial ships reporting weather conditions on the Pacific due to the war-time restrictions on the use of the radio.

Benjamin Gayelord Hauser, "food adviser" to many a Hollywood breadbasket, including Greta Garbo's, gives the comforting advice that if there's a food shortage in the U. S. in this war we can all chew our food for an extra half hour—"you'll get more out of it."

The Los Angeles Times, which also serves that Hollywood land of make-believe, gives in its 'Personal' advertising columns some extra-curricular opportunities for acquiring fame and fortune, principally fortune.

There is, for example, the advertisement inserted by "a nationally known movie actor" who "wishes to meet a lady with means, past 30, who desires an income." Or, by writing to Box J-44, Times, and furnishing from $1,000 to $1,500, one can get himself a big chunk of a gold mine, "a large body of rich ore," says that ad.

Box J-145, Times, is addressed to "Mr. and Mrs. Capitalist," as follows: "Are you patriotic? You like victory sure, swift & complete for the U. S.? In order to terminate the war snappy communicate Box J-145."

Then there's the "Gent," 36, who "desires a home and a book-loving wife." If you're really lonely, though, Goodall, of Valejo, California, will furnish 50 names for 25 cents. Miss Santee, of Hillhurst Avenue, Los Angeles, will furnish a birth certificate for only $2. And anyone interested in "a system that will really make money," need only to write to Box J-300, Times.

An old story of pre-war Germany was the kicking around that the Nazis gave American business firms which tried to do business in their country. In the revised 1942 edition of his book, "You Can't Do Business with Hitler," Douglas Miller tells about the U. S. oil company which was forced to accept 8,000,000 mouth organs for a load of petroleum and the 200,000 canaries which the Germans forced on an American manufacturer in payment for a press for making automobile bodies. But the classic of all was the large, live hippopotamus which a certain American motion picture company had to take as part payment for some of its motion pictures sold to the Hitlerites.

Dorothy Dey, that fiery li'l gal columnist on the Miami Herald, fires away at some headliners who she suspects of conceiving patriotism with an eye to publicity. She aims particularly at those press agents who, with a gilded and hollow pretext, have Minnie the hip-wiggler tell in a yard of copy how she is turning over 10 per cent of her salary to buy defense stamps, which she'll get back later with interest aplenty.

Jimmy Fidler is back on the air, again broadcasting gossipings about films and film folk, from Hollywood. He's now working for Arrid, a deodorant.

Jacob Wittmann, Viennese "master barber" now practicing in St. Louis, flatly declared the best styles in men's hair in this country can be seen atop the heads of Hollywood stars.

Actors mentioned by Mr. Wittmann as having his favorite coiffure are Clark Gable, Adolphe Menjou, William Powell and Tyrone Power. "Power's hair is elegant," he chirped. "Gable's barber handles a technical problem nicely," he said.

Pretty Dorothy Broz, only 17, was shot to death by a boy companion in the dark balcony of the Palace Theatre, in Chicago, Tuesday night. The first feature of a double bill had just finished, the second had just started. The first was "Hellzapoppin", the second "Sealed Lips".

ADRIAN, Adrian of California, has finally arrived. With the sounding of clarions clear, and the bellowing of trumpets wide, Adrian, the designer of women's clothes, is announced by his Hollywood press agent, Russell Birdwell, as having finally gone off on his own.

"To fashion-wise women of America, who for years have been appreciative admirers of the genius of Adrian, world-famous designer of styles for the stars, this is NEWS!"—says Mr. Birdwell. The NEWS: "The man who designed countless beautiful and thrilling costumes for the stars of film-dom, has severed his long connection with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and, in Beverly Hills, has established his own salon—Adrian Ltd!!!"

Sounds the press agents clarion: "Southern California, Adrian is convinced, is an ideal field for fashion creation; the inspiration of natural beauty, spaciousness, independence, and its ever-growing position as a center where leaders of society, the arts, and all cultural and artistic interests find a congenial center"—Japs, blackouts, air raid alarms, shore shelling and such now withstanding.

In bowing Adrian before American "clothes-horses," at this point in the war and priorities, Mr. Birdman reminisces a bit about his client's early designing proclivities. "Artistic creation," he recalls, "has been a lifelong devotion for Adrian since, a baby of three in his birthplace in Connecticut, he adorned with his drawings the fly-leaf of every book he could lay hands on."

"Even as a child, he displayed the independence of artistic thought that has characterized him throughout life. When his mother, recognizing her son's ability, took him to an artist for a try-out, the boy refused to sketch the two stuffed sparrows that were given for a model. He wanted to create his own designs."

Fred P. Link has filed suit asking $5,000 damages from the comparatively new Schine Circuit's Norwalk Theatre, at Norwalk, Ohio, because, when Mr. Link appeared, last summer, as Mayor of Norwalk, on the stage of the theatre to preside at the opening ceremonies, he slipped and dislocated his wrist!

Maybe Hitler's spring offensive in Russia is not so close. Russian War Relief, Inc., in New York, reports that 3,000 field-type kerosene stoves have just left an Atlantic front for the "ice-bound Russian front."

Allied States Association of Exhibitors, via Sidney E. Samuelson, one of its national officers, reports the receipt of a complaint from a theatre owner who says a certain film salesman from one of the large companies claims "film prices are going up due to the scarcity of silver for use in coating film."

Vern Wilson, Chief Assistant U. S. Attorney in Cincinnati, has filed formal complaint with the FCC in Washington against garagemen in his city who use short wave radio to intercept police auto-collision calls in order to reach the scene of accidents with their wrecking trucks before the arrival of the cops. "Ambulance chasers" a la 1942.

1000th***
PERFORMANCE
56 Weeks
in New York
* Feb. 18, 1942

39
weeks
in
Los Angeles

15
weeks
in Chicago

NOW AVAILABLE
FOR POPULAR-RUN EN

★ THE PICTURE that holds Broadway's long-run talking picture record... now playing a return engagement at the Broadway after a record 51 weeks at $2.20 top... ready for presentation at YOUR regular policy and prices...

WALT DISNEY'S TECHNICOLOR TRIUMPH

FANT

WITH STOKOWSKI

15
weeks
in Boston

12
weeks
in Philadelphia

12
weeks
in San Francisco

9
weeks
in Cleveland

8
weeks
in Pittsburgh

7
weeks
in Washington

5
weeks
in Minneapolis

5
weeks
in Baltimore

4
weeks
in Buffalo

11
weeks
in Detroit

AGEMENTS!

THE PICTURE that led reviewers to greater praise than they had ever lavished before . . .

THE PICTURE that's had the greatest publicity coverage in the history of the business . . .

THE PICTURE most eagerly awaited by more people than any other picture of record (result of official national poll)...

RELEASED APRIL 3rd

THE SHOWMAN'S PERFECT
EASTER WEEK ATTRACTION

ASIA

GET IN TOUCH WITH YOUR RKO EXCHANGE TODAY!

FIRST 20 FREE FEATURES OFF TO COMBAT ZONES

Seven Companies Donate 20 Features, 14 Shorts on 16mm. for Camps

Major distributors made known this week through the War Activities Committee of the Motion Picture Industries, the identities of the films in the first 20 programs which they will make available, on a continuing service, for the U. S. armed forces stationed in combat zones or outlying defensive or offensive positions. Four prints of each program were made and were presented as a gift from the industry to the War Department, to be shipped abroad for U.S. soldiers, sailors and marines.

Seven major distributors contributed 20 features and 14 shorts; MGM, seven features, three shorts; Paramount, three features, three shorts; RKO, two features, one short; 20th Century-Fox, two features, three shorts; Universal, one feature, one short; Warner Bros., four features, two shorts, and Columbia, one feature, one short. The films were selected by the War Department.

Brigadier General F. H. Osborn, chief of the Army Special Services branch who accepted the films for the War Department, pointed out last Thursday, in New York, that the features are all current or pre-release productions and will be shown without charge to small groups of servicemen at a time in combat areas. They will not be used in this country he said.

Features and shorts are as follows:

Program No. 1—"Hellzapoppin," Universal; release date, December 26th; "Blacksmith Dentist," short, Universal; release date, December 15th.

Program No. 2—"Confirm or Deny," 20th Century-Fox; release date, December 12th; "Yarn about a Yarn," short, Fox; December 12th; and "Wonders of the Sea," short, Fox.

Program No. 3—"Tarzan's Secret Treasure," MGM; release date, December 21st; "Army Champions," short, MGM; release date, October 11th.

Program No. 4—"Playmates," RKO; release date, December 26th; "Fighting Fish," short, RKO; release date, December 26th.

Program No. 5—"You're in the Army Now," Warner Bros.; release date, December 25th; "Points on Arrows," short, Warner Bros.; release date, December 20th.

Program No. 6—"H. M. Pulham, Esquire," MGM; release date, December.

Program No. 7—"Babes on Broadway," MGM; release date, January.

Program No. 8—"Ball of Fire," RKO; release date, January 9th.

Program No. 9—"The Bugle Sounds," MGM; release date, January, 1942.

Program No. 10—"The Man Who Came to Dinner," Warner Bros.; release date, January 4th.

Program No. 11—"Son of Fury," 20th Century-Fox; release date, January 30th; "Flying Fever," short, Fox; release date, December 26th.

Program No. 12—"All Through the

FREE PROJECTION OFFERED BY LOCAL

Service without salary, in showing of defense films for educational and morale purposes, has been offered by 200 members of New York's projectionists' Local 306, it announced last week. It also selected a committee to coordinate defense activities. Stephen D'Inzillo, vice-president, is chairman. The union said individual members had purchased $400,000 of defense bonds, in addition to the $50,000 bought by the local; that Local 306 blood donors were visiting Red Cross offices; that 100 members had become air raid wardens and fire fighters; and that the union was negotiating with New York theatre owners to make, with permission from workers, deductions from weekly wages for defense stamps.

Night," Warner Bros.; release date, January 10th.

Program No. 13—"Johnny Eager," MGM; release date, January.

Program No. 14—"Wild Bill Hickok Rides," Warner Bros.; release date, January 31st; "Porky's Pastry Pirates," short, Warner Bros.; release date, January 17th.

Program No. 15—"Dr. Kildare's Victory," MGM; release date, January; "How to Hold Your Husband Back," short, MGM; release date, December 13th.

Program No. 16—"Mr. and Mrs. North," MGM; release date, January; "Tell Tale Heart," short, MGM; release date, October 25th.

Program No. 17—"Lady is Willing," with Community Sing, short, Columbia, release date, February 12th.

Program No. 18—"Sullivan's Travels," Paramount; "Buying a Dog," short, Paramount.

Program No. 19—"Fleet's In," Paramount; "Nix on Hyponotricks," short, Paramount; release date, December 19th.

Program No. 20—"Lady Has Plans," Paramount; "Copacabana Revue," short, Paramount; release date, November 28th.

More War and Defense Films

In answer to "demands of exhibitors in all parts of the country," Twentieth Century-Fox announced in New York this week that it would release nationally to theatres for "their permanent use and possession" its film, "The Star Spangled Banner." The subject was first released in Movietone News on January 31st. It runs 123 feet and features the national anthem sung by Merrill Miller, with a film background illustrating the verse.

From Fox's Hollywood studio, it was reported last week that the company had postponed filming "Down to the Sea in Ships," until after completion of "Black Swan," due to wartime restrictions against a single studio using facilities for the production of two sea pictures simultaneously. Gregory Ratoff, who was to direct "Black Swan," was assigned instead to "Strictly Dynamite."

MGM scheduled William Powell and Hedy Lamarr to co-star in "Crossroads," screen story of a French diplomat before the start of the war, it was announced by the company last week.

Pacific War Zone Film

Cary Grant is slated to return to RKO's studio in Hollywood this summer as star of "Bundles for Freedom," a romantic gangster story linked with defense activities written by Milton Holmes, a former caretaker of the Beverly Hills Tennis Club.

"The Pacific Frontier," two-reel Technicolor subject containing Far East war zone footage flown to the U. S. via China Clipper, is being edited for early release by Warner Bros. The situation in our Pacific outposts is "graphically summarized" in the film, according to Warner's.

Emerson Yorke Studios in New York, last week announced completion of production and delivery of eight reels on technical training for the defense program of the U. S. Office of Education, Federal Security Agency, in Washington. The pictures, detailing essential machine shop practice, were shot in defense plants in the East and include three subjects on operations on the shaper and two on operations on the radial drill press. Emerson Yorke wrote and directed the films for which Floyd E. Brooker and J. W. Barritt of the office of Education, were liaison and technical consultants respectively during production.

One of the first 16 mm. civilian defense training films produced on the Pacific Coast, "Air Raid Warden," will be released nationally by Photo and Sound, Inc., to civilian defense councils, air raid warden groups, industrial firms, city and country governments and schools, it was announced in Hollywood last week. In production, is another 10-minute defense training film, "Blackout," scheduled for release March 1st.

Screen Writers Go to Washington

Lieut. Colonel Darryl F. Zanuck, chairman of the Academy Research Council, announced in Hollywood over the weekend the start of preparation for a series of War Department training films on historical subjects. A group of leading screen writers will contribute their time for the next three weeks to write scripts for these films, he said. On Saturday, Jerome Chodorov, S. K. Lauren, Ted Paramore and John Sanford left the West Coast for Washington by plane, with Leonard Spigelglas, Julius Epstein and Philip Epstein scheduled to leave this week. Colonel Zanuck said the entire group will work in the capital under the guidance of Lieut. Colonel Richard T. Schlosberg and Major Frank Capra, now on duty in the office of the Chief Signal Officer of the War Department.

THE WORLD'S GREAT LAUGHING PICTURE

WITH MUSIC AND WORDS

YOUR LAUGHTER CUE FOR '42

YOU'LL BE SURPRISED

THE PEAK OF ENTERTAINMENT

The laughs of a lifetime—in one great picture!
Chaplin at his greatest—bringing you masterful comedy, told to the strains of music that will tug at your heart, told through words that will convulse you with laughter...

The World's Great Laughing Picture

CHARLIE CHAPLIN THE GOLD RUSH

with MUSIC and WORDS

Written and Directed by CHARLES CHAPLIN

Released thru United Artists

NO BLANKET DEFERMENT FOR STUDIOS, SAYS HERSHEY

Decision To Be Made in Each Individual Case by Local Board

Although the motion picture industry has been classed as "essential" by the National Selective Service System at Washington, deferment of film workers can be made only in individual cases. The recent directive to California local boards does not grant any kind of blanket exemption to Hollywood workers, Selective Service spokesmen declared this week in Washington.

Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service, on Saturday called a special press conference at Washington to clear up what he called "misunderstandings" about recent directives relating to the deferment of motion picture workers and labor leaders. The nation's press had commented widely on the original "essential" rating for Hollywood; Hollywood talent and labor groups, in turn, objected strongly to what appeared was a deferred classification for them.

Local draft boards, and local appeal boards, are the only agents empowered to defer any person from selective service, General Hershey said. Memoranda issued by his office in regard to the status of particular industries are merely to advise state headquarters, and through them local boards of findings and views of U. S. government departments and other agencies which have direction and supervision over the nation's war effort.

"A particular fact to keep in mind when interpreting any memoranda concerning deferments issued by National Selective Service Headquarters, or any announcements by other agencies, group spokesmen, or individuals," General Hershey said, "is that neither the director nor anyone else in the Selective Service System, except a local board, can grant deferment even to an individual and that no group or class exemptions can be made except by Congress."

Film workers seeking deferment must prove three things to their local board, the director said.

First, that the business, industry or profession in which an individual is employed is necessary in the war production program or for national health, safety or interest.

Second, that the work that such individual, personally, is doing is essential to the functioning of his industry.

Third, that there is no supply from which a replacement can be secured.

The making of claims for the deferment of film workers and the presentation of such claims are matters primarily for the employing company, it is further understood, he said. All deferments are provisional, and given in the national interest, not that of the registrant or his company.

The sole objective of memoranda on the essential character of any industry, he declared is to facilitate coordination of local with national action.

DRAFT BOARDS DEFER 70%

Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, director of selective service, on Monday said that approximately 70 per cent of the men of the United States registered for selective service had been deferred by local draft boards. Dependency, physical handicaps and defense work are the principal reasons, he said.

Deferments are expected to drop sharply following the relaxation by the Army of its standards for teeth and eyesight, Selective Service officers indicated. Also men classified in essential industries are due to face a careful reexamination of their status. The selective service director made plain, however, that farm labor and essential civilian industry would not be crippled by the draft, even if citizens must be assigned from other activities.

"The day is past when anyone can refuse to work for the government," he said.

Questioned about the deferment of nationally known motion picture stars General Hershey said that he doubted that any local board would be willing to "take the heat" for deferring such men.

It is up to public opinion in many cases to determine whether a film star is essential to the national morale and interest, he indicated. As an example he said that the film and radio public "wants Jack Benny, and at the same time wants Jack Benny to go to war."

"You can't have both," he said, "we have got to convince the public that not all can go to war." Public opinion must realize for itself that some must make bombs and ammunition, protect health at home, and keep civilian spirits up, a Selective Service spokesman added.

Film players "are national figures and have national responsibilities" in proportion to their place in the public eye General Hershey told reporters.

The directive to California selective service headquarters, and to local boards was issued at the request of Lowell Mellett, Coordinator of Government Films, Selective Service headquarters reported.

In a letter to General Hershey Mr. Mellett asked that the motion picture industry be classed as an activity in the national interest following his visit to Hollywood in January. He wrote in part:

"In performing these functions the industry requires the services of actors, directors, writers, producers, cameramen, sound engineers and other technicians. In each cate- gory there are, or will be from time to time, men who cannot be replaced because of the shortage of persons of their qualifications and skill and whose removal would cause a serious loss of effectiveness. (Section 622. 21-622.24 Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as Amended.)"

Lieutenant Colonel Carlto nS. Dargusch, deputy director of Selective Service wrote the California State Director, General Donovan, on February 6th, quoting Mr. Mellett, and added, for the director:

"In view of such certification, the Director of Selective Service finds that the motion picture industry is an activity essential in certain instances to the national health, safety and interest, and in other instances to war production. The responsibility of making and presenting claims for deferment is upon the motion picture industry and the determination of necessary men is one for for the local boards and appeal agencies."

General Hershey informed Mr. Mellett of the ruling on February 4th in a letter as follows:

"Dear Mr. Mellett:

"Receipt of your letter of February 2 and copy of Mr. Schaefer's memorandum is acknowledged."

"In view of the statements contained in your letter with respect to the essential character of the motion picture industry, I shall inform the agencies of the Selective Service System that the continuance of motion picture production is in certain aspects essential to the national health, safety and interest and, in other phases, essential to war production."

"It is understood that the making of claims for deferment and the presentation of such claims are matters primarily for the employing company. . . ."

Massachusetts Plans Statewide Blackout

Massachusetts shortly will have a statewide blackout, its Committee on Public Safety announced last week from Boston, where a recent blackout was said to be well withstood and executed by exhibitors.

In each theatre, patrons were given notice of the test five minutes before the air raid warning sounded. Patrons were told they might not leave seats until the "all-clear." Air raid wardens from theatre staffs were posted at the heads of aisles.

Following a meeting of representatives from each exchange and city and Yale University air raid officials, George Weber, Metro office manager, has been appointed chairman of further air raid preparation activities, in New Haven. The third and fourth floors of the Film Building have been designated as air raid shelters and steps will be taken to take all safety precautions, and call air raid drills. Attending the meeting were Ben Simon and Roy Donaldson, 20th-Fox; John Pavone and Samuel Zipkin, Universal; Hugh Maguire, RKO; Sidney Swirsky, Columbia; Henry Bruenig, United Artists; Morris Weber, Monogram; George Somma, Republic; Richard Carroll, Paramount; Angelo Lombardi, Vitagraph; Victor Cassella, National Theatre Supply; Alex Bookspan, Fishman Theatres.

(Continued on following page)

USO Starts New Campaign for Camp Shows

(Continued from preceding page)

William E. Spragg, district manager of the M&P Theatre Circuit in Rhode Island and Southern Massachusetts, has been appointed Amusement Industry Coordinator for the Rhode Island Protection Division of the State Council of Civilian Defense.

Mr. Spragg has had many years of experience in the show business.

Toronto had its first complete blackout since institution of uniform theatre air raid measures, on Wednesday. The measures include a private signal system for 110 theatres.

USO Seeking New Funds

The United Service Organizations, sponsoring recreation for men of the armed forces, is seeking $32,000,000 for operating expenses during this year. Its campaign will begin May 11th.

The sum is triple that sought in 1941.

Walter Hoving, USO board chairman, said Tuesday the organization's operations would be expanded greatly.

It now has 25 camp shows touring, and provides recreation for men in Alaska, Newfoundland, the West Indies, Hawaii, and the Canal Zone, in addition to those on the mainland.

Lawrence Phillips, its executive vice-president, has recommended to the War Department that admission to the traveling shows be abolished.

The recommendation does not include motion picture entertainment, now purveyed by the Army Motion Picture Service.

Meanwhile, the War and Navy Departments announced in Washington on Tuesday that all admission fees for servicemen to USO-Camp Shows would be abolished beginning March 8th. The charges are being eliminated at the request of USO, the announcement said.

Cut Service Admissions

William Snyder, Jr., operator of the Earl Theatre, New Oxford, Pennsylvania, announced that all men in the uniform of the armed forces would be admitted free of charge to the theatre.

The Minnesota Amusement Company circuit last week in Minneapolis disclosed it has reduced admissions for service men in uniform, in 14 houses. Observers rated the reductions at approximately 50 per cent of the prices prevailing.

Volume of War Programs On Radio Discussed

"Too much Government material on the air" was the subject of discussion last Friday in Washington at a meeting of Office of Facts and Figures officials and broadcasting representatives. The meeting was called to discuss plans for radio promotion of the Victory Production Drive which began this week.

During the conference, Government officials admitted to broadcasters that radio is essential for informing the public of America's war activities, and it is understood they asked radio executives how the volume of Government material on the air can be reduced without sacrificing any of its benefits to the public. OFF officials, it is reported, pointed out that the radio industry already has broadcast the great amount of Government material, which demonstrates the cooperation the Administration has been receiving.

Present at the meeting were Neville Miller, president, National Association of Broadcasters; John Shepard, Broadcasters Victory Council; Eugene Pulliam, Network Affiliates; George Storer, National Independent Broadcasters; John Fetzter, chairman of the NAB defense council, and James Shouse, representing the clear channel group, among others.

Meanwhile, Price Administrator Leon Henderson last Wednesday in Washington demanded immediate cancellation of recent price increases on radios and radio-phonographs which he termed "inflationary and unfair." He sent "sharply worded" telegrams to that effect to all wholesalers and retailers and pointed out that price increases took place after the War Production Board announced civilian radio production would cease on April 22nd.

FCC Issues New Rule

In Washington on Tuesday, the Federal Communications Commission announced a ruling that authorization for new stations or changes in existing transmitters will hereafter be issued only where it can be shown that any construction contemplated will not involve use of critical materials, or where the new or improved facilities will provide primary coverage for areas not currently receiving primary service. It is understood the FCC's policy was designed to clarify announcement of the Defense Communications Board halting new construction.

The FCC also announced that no extensions of time for completion will be granted unless the applicant meets these requirements or began construction before issuance of the order and has made available all critical materials and equipment necessary for completion.

The Commission declared that at the present time, "it is not clear that the expansion of broadcasting should be entirely eliminated for the duration of the war." The Commission further said that the Defense Board, the War Production Board and the FCC "are in agreement that, so far as possible, every part of the country should receive a good radio service. We have not yet reached that goal," was the FCC comment.

New Theatres For Army Camps

Two more theatres were opened at the military reservations at Indiantown Gap, Pa., recently, bringing the total of houses now in operation to four. One of the theatres is located near the end of the Artillery road and the other near the 109th Infantry area.

In Bastrop, Texas, it is reported that the J. G. Long circuit will build one or possibly two new theatres near the $23,000,000 new Army camp being constructed in that locale. H. A. Daniels, of the Palace, Seguin, Texas, is said to have purchased a lot in nearby Elgin on which he plans to construct a film house. Dale Wilson, owner of the new Eltex in Elgin, is reported to be reopening his theatre there.

A film house seating more than 500 was opened recently at the Edgewood Arsenal near Baltimore.

Theatres Report More Bond Sales

Sales of $532,151 worth of defense bonds were recorded last week by employees of Fanchon & Marco's St. Louis circuit, in connection with the rechristening of the old Mikado theatre. It is now the Victory theatre.

RKO theatres in New England, through Harry McDonald, division manager, have pledged $10,000 to "Buy Bombs for Bombers," supporting a Treasury Department campaign sponsored by the Boston Daily Record-American and Sunday Advertiser.

Sixty-five Skouras theatres in metropolitan New York Monday presented special "Stamp out the Peril" shows, admissions to which were defense stamps, which were canceled and given the Treasury Department.

New York Asked to Compel Free Service Tickets

Presaging pressure for similar laws in other states, New York legislators were asked last week to request theatre owners to admit members of the armed forces into theatre without charge—whenever seats are available.

The proposal came from Assemblyman Stephen J. Jarema, New York, who said the morale of the armed forces was important and that free entertainment and recreation would do more than any similar service to maintain it.

The Jarema resolution, sent to the Rules Committee, immediately met favorable response from some legislators but is expected to be fought quietly by theatre owners, particularly circuits.

At the same time, implementing recent policy-making speeches by President Roosevelt and Governor Lehman, who have hit discrimination in employment because of race, color, creed or religion, a series of anti-discrimination bills were introduced, with better chance of consideration than in the past due to the war emergency. They covered prohibition of race discrimination in theatres, agencies and employment.

Meanwhile, defense bills backed by the Defense Council and other emergency agencies and exempting municipalities and owners of buildings, etc., including theatres from public liability due to injuries or deaths occasioned by air raids or blackout tests were expected to be passed without any difficulty. On the defense bills, which have bi-partisan endorsement, some amendments may be proposed.

Consolidated, Philco, Technicolor Dividends

During the past week three companies announced dividends payable to stockholders in March and April of this year. Consolidated Film Industries, Inc., declared a dividend of 25 cents a share on the $2 preferred stock, payable on April 1 to stockholders of record March 10. Payment on these shares is $10.25 in arrears.

Herbert T. Kalmus, president and general manager of Technicolor, Inc., announced a dividend of 25 cents a share, payable March 31 to stockholders of record March 16.

The Board of Directors of Philco Corp. declared a 25 cent dividend payable March 12.

RKO Conferences Are Continuing

RKO management conferences have been transferred from La Quinta, in the Mojave Desert, California, to the studio. Participants in the discussion of all phases of the company's operations, are George J. Schaefer, president; Ned Depinet, vice-president in charge of sales; Joseph Breen, studio head; Charles Koerner, head of theatre operations; Edward Alperson, RKO circuit executive.

Interstate Takes Altec

Karl Hoblitzelle, president, and R. J. O'Donnell, vice president and general manager of Interstate Circuit, Dallas, whose 154 theatres constitute the largest chain in Texas, have appointed Altec Service to handle their sound and projection equipment servicing.

YOU CAN'T KEEP A GOOD MONSTER DOWN!

HERE'S UNIVERSAL'S
"MIDAS" AGAIN! . . .
OUT FOR MORE GOLD!

With every chill a thrill . . . . . with every thrill he fills your till!

The GHOST of
FRANKENSTEIN

SIR CEDRIC with RALPH
HARDWICKE • BELLAMY

LIONEL BELA EVELYN
ATWILL • LUGOSI • ANKERS

The new master character creator

and
LON CHANEY

as Frankenstein's Monster

Screenplay by W. Scott Darling
Directed by ERLE C. KENTON

Original Story by Eric Taylor
Produced by GEORGE WAGGNER

A UNIVERSAL PICTURE

NATIONAL RELEASE MARCH 6th

THE HOLLYWOOD SCENE

By WILLIAM R. WEAVER
Hollywood Editor

ESTEEMED EDITOR:

Are you coming West for DeMille Week? It's beginning to shape up like an event which the historian of the motion picture shouldn't miss.

DeMille Week is the title given the period of March 15th to 21st by John B. Kingsley, ex-officio mayor of Hollywood and president of its chamber of commerce, who could have called it Paramount Week with equivalent accuracy.

But it's really an 11-day program that's being set up by Judge Harlan G. Palmer, publisher of the Hollywood Citizen-News, who is chairman of the citizens' committee in charge of the celebration.

Celebration is used, this time, in the formal sense, denoting commemoration of dates and incidents significant in the history of the motion picture and its now home town, quite a number of which are in line for commemorating at this point.

On March 10th screen personalities of three generations are to break bread and pose for photographers in the barn which Cecil B. DeMille rented 30 years ago in the making of his and the nation's first feature-length picture, "The Squaw Man." It was located on Sunset and Vine at the time, and is now a gymnasium on the Paramount lot.

Premiere at New Theatre

On March 19th "Reap the Wild Wind," the producer's 66th picture and Paramount's 1300th, will be given its world premiere at the new Hollywood Paramount theatre, formerly the legitimate El Capitan and making its premiere as a cinema on the same evening, and Sid Grauman will be among the members of the committee in charge of that event.

You'll be remembering that Grauman's Chinese, which the new theatre will face and oppose across Hollywood Boulevard, used the DeMille "King of Kings" for its opening in 1927, and that Grauman's Egyptian used the DeMille "Ten Commandments" for its opening in 1923, both incidents rating importance in the history of the motion picture theatre.

Present on March 19th will be the Messrs. Jesse Lasky and Samuel Goldwyn, partners with DeMille in the founding of Lasky Feature Play company in 1912, and Adolph Zukor, whose simultaneously founded Famous Players corporation merged it, or vice versa, to make what is now Paramount and celebrating its 30th anniversary.

The premiere will be the first spotlighted festivity to be held (if nothing happens) since December 7th, and if it does to traffic what the prospect promises it will be the last until the next peace.

It is to be the last theatre opening, saith the committee, to be held anywhere in the nation during the emergency.

It is by no means beyond possibility that the enemy may seize the occasion to drop in, one way or another if not several, by way

Universal Leads Production Log

Universal had six pictures on its stages at week-end to lead the studios in point of production activity. Gross figures for the community were: 31 films in shooting stage, 40 in preparation and 63 in cutting rooms.

The week's work:

COMPLETED

COLUMBIA
Just Another Dame
Highly Irregular

MGM
Sunday Punch

MONOGRAM
Arizona Roundup
Klondike Fury
Men with Two Lives

PRC
Gun Shy
Panther's Claw

PARAMOUNT
Black Curtain

STARTED

COLUMBIA
Sweetheart of the Fleet

RKO-RADIO
Mexican Spitfire and the Ghost

REPUBLIC
Jesse James, Jr.
Shepherd of the Ozarks
Affairs of Jimmy
Valentine

20TH-FOX
My Gal Sal

WARNER
Escape from Crime

MGM
Crossroads
Grand Central Murder

PARAMOUNT
Henry Aldrich,
Editor

Across the Border
Glass Key

SMALL
Annie Rooney

UNIVERSAL
Escape from Hong Kong

SHOOTING

COLUMBIA
Meet the Stewarts
Three's a Crowd

GOLDWYN
Pride of the Yankees

MGM
Dr. Kildare (untitled)
Her Cardboard Lover

MONOGRAM
Ghost Town Law

PARAMOUNT
Forest Rangers
My Heart Belongs to Daddy
Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch

RKO-RADIO
Journey Into Fear

REPUBLIC
Girl from Alaska
Sunset on the Trail

SMALL
Friendly Enemies

20TH-FOX
Ten Gentlemen from West Point

UNIVERSAL
Eagle Squadron
Spoilers
Lady in a Jam
Saboteur
Broadway

WARNER
Desperate Journey
Shadow of Their Wings
Gay Sisters
Yankee Doodle Dandy

of putting a final period after the story of the motion picture's thirty years in Hollywood.

It stacks up like quite a historic occasion, anyway.

Better come out and take it in.

▽

If the industry at large cottons to the idea implemented by Columbia with its triple-starred trailer for "The Invaders" we may be needing to augment our staff of reviewers.

Columbia's trailer is not only triple-starred but also double-barrelled.

It tends to exploit not only "The Invaders" but also "Three's a Crowd," a Columbia picture now in making.

Ronald Colman, Jean Arthur and Cary Grant are the three stars, not in "The Invaders," who perch themselves on a table, on a set of "Three's a Crowd," which they are in, and tell George Stevens, who has nothing to do with "The Invaders" but is directing "Three's a Crowd," how they've enjoyed a screening of "The Invaders" which they've just witnessed, illustrating their remarks with scenes from the film.

It is not as complex as it sounds and it is a powerful argument in favour of seeing "The Invaders." Also, ultimately, "Three's a Crowd."

How many exhibitors may elect to lift the names of the stars from the trailer for use on their marquees, at a time when lack of name value in the current attractions may suggest doing so, remains to be seen.

Juxtaposed to the titles of a couple of clucks, the names of Ronald Colman, Jean Arthur and Cary Grant could make a heap of difference in the gross, and a person who bought a ticket to see them would see them.

Trailers like that could become box office films rating reviews.

▽

It remained for Jed Buell, independent producer of all-Negro films, to solve for Hollywood studios the preview problem of the rubber shortage.

As has been mentioned here, press reviewers were wearing out their tires on long drives to far places and steps had been taken, with assurance of success, to bring the previews into town.

But Producer Buell wanted them to come to see his all-Negro picture in front of an all-Negro audience in Los Angeles' Harlem, which is further from Hollywood than most remote preview-points, so he tackled the problem with the same technique he applies to his budgets.

He chartered two taxicabs and took the previewers down and back.

None of the major studios had thought of that.

Ah, Hollywood.—W. R. W.

A TRAGEDY AT MIDNIGHT

A REPUBLIC PICTURE

JOHN                      MARGARET
HOWARD · LINDSAY
KEYE LUKE · MONA BARRIE
ROSCOE KARNS

Joseph Santley — Director

Screen play by Isabel Dawn

Original story by Hal Hudson and Sam Duncan

BUY U. S. DEFENSE BONDS

Pa. Censors Saw Only 49 Foreign Films in a Year

The Pennsylvania Motion Picture Board of Censors, during 1941, reviewed 2,025 pictures, both features and shorts, it was disclosed by Mrs. Edna R. Carroll, chairman of the board, in Philadelphia, this week. Of these, only 49 were in foreign languages. On an average, the board reviewed more than three pictures a day. The pictures submitted were divided into five classifications: Western and Action; Crime, Horror and Mystery; Social; Miscellaneous and Musical. In her three years as censor board chairman, Mrs. Carroll said, pictures in 19 different languages were submitted for review, including one in Chinese and two in Arabic. Mrs. Carroll, however, will not make public any facts on censor deletions, changes or bans.

In addition to Pennsylvania, five other States have censorship, including New York, Ohio, Maryland, Virginia and Kansas. Mrs. Carroll pointed out that in Pennsylvania, the censorship board is paid by the industry and not by the taxpayers.

Mrs. Carroll said "Shanghai Gesture," which on two occasions had the State's seal of approval withheld, was finally passed by the censor board after all suggested changes and cuts were made. Last month, the censor board granted the seal of approval for the first time to Russian pictures. "The Girl From Leningrad" is the first Russian-made feature scheduled to play in Philadelphia in a long time.

Court Hearing on Banned Films

Jewel Productions, Inc., owner and exhibitor of the films "The French Nudists" and "Love Life of a Gorilla," filed suit in the Baltimore City Court last Friday appealing from the rulings handed down by the State Board of Censors last June that the pictures were "obscene, indecent, inhuman and immoral."

Judge Joseph N. Ulman of City Court gave the censors until March 3rd to answer the appeals and set March 9th as the date for hearings on the suits. Judge Ulman had been asked by Jewel Productions to reverse the board's action and permit the films to be shown in Baltimore theatres. Lee I. Hecht, attorney, filed appeals for the complainant.

Jewel Productions alleged that the gorilla picture was made at great cost, principally in foreign countries, and that it has been shown in New York, Chicago, Detroit and other cities. The company also contended that the nudist film is a news weekly or travel picture and contains nothing obscene or immoral. Jewell further alleged that the latter film was rejected by the board because it was not submitted by one of the "regular producing companies."

"Condemned" Withdrawn

Mayor W. George Bowdon of Alexandria, La., in a letter to theatre manager Hickman of the Joy Theatre of that city, voiced disapproval and condemnation of the film "Condemned," booked for the Joy. The mayor asked that the picture be withdrawn or that legal action would be taken to close the theatre.

Memphis Censors Reelected

The Censor Board of Memphis, Tenn., will continue for another year, according to announcement last week of the reelection of Lloyd T. Binford, retired insurance man and church leader, chairman; Mrs. Madeleine V. Smith, attorney, and Mrs. W. H. Fisher.

W. J. Long Leaves Vancouver Circuit

W. J. Long, manager and president of the Vogue theatre at Vancouver, B. C., and president of 17 of the 22 British Columbia theatres in the Odeon Circuit, resigned from both posts. Mr. Long was instrumental in renting the Vogue to Odeon in behalf of the Reifel realty interests of Vancouver last February when Oscar R. Hanson and Paul Nathanson were seeking British Columbia affiliations for the new Odeon chain.

Mr. Long, in a letter to MOTION PICTURE HERALD, said that he had sent his resignation to Haskell Masters, general manager of Odeon, "with nothing but the kindest feelings for Mr. Masters and those with whom I have had dealings." He expressed personal dissatisfaction and disappointment, however, at the manner in which the Odeon affiliation had developed.

Personnel Changes in Empire-Universal

Ben Plottel, branch manager at Vancouver, will change places with Frank L. Vaughan, manager at Winnipeg, on March 1st, it was announced by A. W. Perry, general manager of Empire-Universal Films, Ltd.

Harry Painter's appointment in charge of Republic sales was formally announced. Harry Law, former branch manager for Educational and Universal, has joined the Toronto sales force. Frank Fisher remains assistant general manager of the home office.

Three-Week RKO Drive Honors Division Heads

The period from March 14th to April 3rd has been designated by Nat Levy of RKO as a field tribute to the divisional chiefs, Bob Mochrie, Walter Branson and Leo Devaney, in record film shipments. They will be Mochrie weeks in the eastern division, Branson weeks in the western division and Devaney weeks in Canada.

The appointment of Albert L. Kolitz as branch manager at Denver, succeeding B. J. McCarthy who resigned, was announced by Ned E. Depinet as effective Monday of this week. Mr. Kolitz has been a salesman in RKO's Cincinnati exchange since 1936.

Boucher with Kogod-Burka

Frank M. Boucher was appointed assistant to Fred S. Kogod, it was announced this week, and will become general manager of the Kogod-Burka Enterprises in Washington. The company operates four theatres in that territory, the Atlas, Apex, Senator and the Princess. Mr. Boucher leaves the Schine organization, where for the past three years he was assistant to L. W. Schine and zone manager in charge of Western New York. He will begin his new duties on March 1st.

Universal Signs Benedict

Howard Benedict, formerly a producer for RKO, was signed by Universal last week as an associate producer, it was announced in Hollywood by the company. Mr. Benedict will work on a group of productions supervised by Milton Feld. He reported to the studio immediately. Producer of the "Saint" series, Mr. Benedict also did "Parachute Battalion" and "Obliging Young Lady" for RKO.

PRC Closes "Swamp Woman" Deals

Arthur Greenblatt, general sales manager of Producers Releasing Corporation, announced this week that contracts were closed with the Fox Wisconsin and Fox Mid-West circuits for "Swamp Women," the feature starring Ann Corio and Jack LaRue. The deals were completed in Milwaukee and Kansas City, following Mr. Greenblatt's tour of mid-west PRC exchanges.

Paramount Gets Civic Help for 30th Anniversary

Paramount's Thirtieth Film Anniversary, which will be celebrated in Los Angeles March 19th, simultaneously with the opening of the new Paramount Theatre in Hollywood, and the premiere of the company's "Reap the Wild Wind," has enlisted support from the area's notables in business, politics, and the professions.

A general committee has taken charge of the event.

The committee, which will serve with Judge Harland G. Palmer, publisher of Hollywood Citizen-News, includes Mary Pickford, Dr. A. H. Giannini, Sid Grauman, John B. Kinsley, Henry K. Hyde, E. J. Shurtz, Paul Evans, Phil Goldstone and C. E. Toberman.

Miss Pickford, now a producer, was an early Paramount star. Dr. Giannini has long been a banker in the film industry. Mr. Grauman is a pioneer Hollywood showman. Mr. Kingsley is president of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Hyde is president of the Hollywood Merchants Association, and of the Hollywood YMCA. Mr. Evans is general manager of Barker Brothers, Hollywood department store. Mr. Goldstone and Mr. Toberman have long been in the production capital's civic and business affairs.

The nine day festival will begin March 10th, Tuesday, with a luncheon in the original Paramount studio, once a barn, now the company's gymnasium. Stars, executives, and civic leaders will attend. Bob Hope will be master of ceremonies. The week, March 15th to 21st, will be called "De Mille Week," in Hollywood, observing the producer's, as well as the company's, 30th anniversary.

"Invaders," "Paris" Open

Columbia's "The Invaders" will have its United States premiere March 5th at the Capitol Theatre, New York City, attended by elaborate ceremonies, and to be followed by four national openings March 19th, at the Strand, Providence, the Schubert, Cincinnati, the Lafayette, Buffalo, and the Lincoln, Miami Beach.

RKO's "Joan of Paris" opened Tuesday at the Beach, Sheridan Square, and Paramount theatres, Miami Beach. This is its first run outside the Rivoli, New York.

American Seating Co. Reports 1941 Income

H. M. Taliaferro, president of American Seating Company which manufactures seats for theatres and other auditoriums, on Monday in New York, reported a net income of the company for 1941 of $505,031, after $425,000 provision for Federal taxes. This figure, equal to $2.28 each on 221,062 shares, compares with the 1940 net income of $456,679 after $147,000 provision for taxes, equal to $2.07 per share.

Earnings of $930,031 before taxes in 1941 compared with $603,679.

Lovejoy Named Trustee

Frank W. Lovejoy, board chairman of the Eastman Kodak Company in Rochester, N. Y., has been reelected a trustee of the Eastman Dental Dispensary.

LEGAL NOTICE OF TRADE SHOWINGS

Published for the benefit of exhibitors generally in compliance with Section III of the Consent Decree

ALBANY—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1052 Broadway	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1052 Broadway	2:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	1052 Broadway	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1052 Broadway	2:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	1052 Broadway	2:00 pm

ATLANTA—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	197 Walton St., N.W.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	197 Walton St., N.W.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	197 Walton St., N.W.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	197 Walton St., N.W.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	197 Walton St., N.W.	1:30 pm

BOSTON—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	115 Broadway	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	115 Broadway	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	115 Broadway	11:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	115 Broadway	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	115 Broadway	2:30 pm

BUFFALO—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	290 Franklin St.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	290 Franklin St.	2:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	290 Franklin St.	10:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	290 Franklin St.	2:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	290 Franklin St.	2:00 pm

CHARLOTTE—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? (20th-Fox)	308 S. Church St.	10:00 am
	Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	308 S. Church St.	11:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	308 S. Church St.	3:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	308 S. Church St.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	308 S. Church St.	3:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	308 S. Church St.	1:30 pm
	Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	308 S. Church St.	3:00 pm

CHICAGO—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1260 S. Wabash Ave.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1260 S. Wabash Ave.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	1260 S. Wabash Ave.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1260 S. Wabash Ave.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	1260 S. Wabash Ave.	2:30 pm

CINCINNATI—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? (20th-Fox)	1638 Central P'kway	9:00 am
	Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1638 Central P'kway	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1638 Central P'kway	2:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	1638 Central P'kway	9:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1638 Central P'kway	2:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	1638 Central P'kway	1:30 pm
	Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	1638 Central P'kway	3:00 pm

CLEVELAND—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	2219 Payne Ave.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	2219 Payne Ave.	1:30 pm

Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	2219 Payne Ave.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	2219 Payne Ave.	1:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	2219 Payne Ave.	1:30 pm

DALLAS—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1801 Wood St.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1801 Wood St.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps & Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	1801 Wood St.	10:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1801 Wood St.	2:30 pm

DENVER—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	2101 Champa St.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	2101 Champa St.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	2101 Champa St.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	2101 Champa St.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	2101 Champa St.	1:30 pm

DES MOINES—

Mar 9	Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1300 High St.	11:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1300 High St.	2:00 pm
	Who Is Hope Schuyler? (20th-Fox)	1300 High St.	3:30 pm
Mar 10	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1300 High St.	1:00 pm
	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	1300 High St.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	1300 High St.	1:00 pm
	Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	1300 High St.	2:15 pm

DETROIT—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	2211 Cass Ave.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	2211 Cass Ave.	1:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	2211 Cass Ave.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	2211 Cass Ave.	1:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	2211 Cass Ave.	1:30 pm

INDIANAPOLIS—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	Talbot Theatre 2145 No. Talbot St.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	Talbot Theatre 2145 No. Talbot St.	1:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps & Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	Talbot Theatre 2145 No. Talbot St.	10:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	Talbot Theatre 2145 No. Talbot St.	1:30 pm

KANSAS CITY—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1720 Wyandotte St.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1720 Wyandotte St.	2:00 pm & 3:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	1720 Wyandotte St.	10:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1720 Wyandotte St.	2:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	1720 Wyandotte St.	2:00 pm

LOS ANGELES—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	2019 S. Vermont Ave.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	2019 S. Vermont Ave.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	2019 S. Vermont Ave.	10:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	2019 S. Vermont Ave.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	2019 S. Vermont Ave.	2:30 pm

Legal Notice of TRADE SHOWINGS

continued

MEMPHIS—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? (20th-Fox)	151 Vance Ave.	9:15 am
	Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	151 Vance Ave.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	151 Vance Ave.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	151 Vance Ave.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	151 Vance Ave.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	151 Vance Ave.	2:00 pm
	Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	151 Vance Ave.	3:00 pm

MILWAUKEE—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1016 N. 8th St.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1016 N. 8th St.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	1016 N. 8th St.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1016 N. 8th St.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	1016 N. 8th St.	1:30 pm

MINNEAPOLIS—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1015 Currie Ave., N.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1015 Currie Ave., N.	2:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	1015 Currie Ave., N.	11:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1015 Currie Ave., N.	2:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	1015 Currie Ave., N.	2:00 pm

NEW HAVEN—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	40 Whiting St.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	40 Whiting St.	2:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	40 Whiting St.	10:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	40 Whiting St.	2:00 pm
Mar 11	Lone Star Ranger & Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	40 Whiting St.	2:00 pm

NEW ORLEANS—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? (20th-Fox)	200 S. Liberty St.	9:30 am
	Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	200 S. Liberty St.	11:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	200 S. Liberty St.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	200 S. Liberty St.	9:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	200 S. Liberty St.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	200 S. Liberty St.	9:30 am
	Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	200 S. Liberty St.	10:30 am

NEW YORK—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	345 W. 44th St.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	345 W. 44th St.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	345 W. 44th St.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	345 W. 44th St.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	345 W. 44th St.	2:00 pm

OKLAHOMA CITY—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	10 N. Lee Ave.	9:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	10 N. Lee Ave.	1:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	10 N. Lee Ave.	9:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	10 N. Lee Ave.	1:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	10 N. Lee Ave.	1:00 pm

OMAHA—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1502 Davenport St.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1502 Davenport St.	2:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	1502 Davenport St.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1502 Davenport St.	1:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	1502 Davenport St.	1:30 pm

PHILADELPHIA—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	302 N. 13th St.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	302 N. 13th St.	2:30 pm

Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	302 N. 13th St.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	302 N. 13th St.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	302 N. 13th St.	2:30 pm

PITTSBURGH—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? (20th-Fox)	1715 Blvd. of Allies	10:00 am
	Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	1715 Blvd. of Allies	11:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	1715 Blvd. of Allies	2:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	1715 Blvd. of Allies	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	1715 Blvd. of Allies	2:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	1715 Blvd. of Allies	2:00 pm
	Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	1715 Blvd. of Allies	3:30 pm

PORTLAND, ORE.—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	Star Film Exchange 925 N.W. 19th Ave.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	Star Film Exchange 925 N.W. 19th Ave.	2:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	Star Film Exchange 925 N.W. 19th Ave.	11:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	Star Film Exchange 925 N.W. 19th Ave.	2:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	Star Film Exchange 925 N.W. 19th Ave.	1:30 pm

SALT LAKE CITY—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? (20th-Fox)	216 E. 1st South St.	9:30 am
	Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	216 E. 1st South St.	10:45 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	216 E. 1st South St.	1:15 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	216 E. 1st South St.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	216 E. 1st South St.	1:15 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim (20th-Fox)	216 E. 1st South St.	1:15 pm
	Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	216 E. 1st South St.	2:30 pm

SAN FRANCISCO—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	245 Hyde St.	10:00 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	245 Hyde St.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	245 Hyde St.	10:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	245 Hyde St.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	245 Hyde St.	2:30 pm

SEATTLE—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	2421 Second Ave.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	2421 Second Ave.	2:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	2421 Second Ave.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	2421 Second Ave.	2:30 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	2421 Second Ave.	2:30 pm

ST. LOUIS—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	SRENCO Scre'n'g Rm. 3143 Olive St.	9:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	SRENCO Scre'n'g Rm. 3143 Olive St.	1:30 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	SRENCO Scre'n'g Rm. 3143 Olive St.	10:00 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	SRENCO Scre'n'g Rm. 3143 Olive St.	1:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	SRENCO Scre'n'g Rm. 3143 Olive St.	1:00 pm

WASHINGTON, D. C.—

Mar 9	Who Is Hope Schuyler? & Secret Agent of Japan (20th-Fox)	932 N. J. Ave., N.W.	10:30 am
	To the Shores of Tripoli (20th-Fox)	932 N. J. Ave., N.W.	2:00 pm
Mar 10	The Remarkable Mr. Kipps (20th-Fox)	932 N. J. Ave., N.W.	10:30 am
	Rings On Her Fingers (20th-Fox)	932 N. J. Ave., N.W.	1:00 pm
Mar 11	Sundown Jim & Lone Star Ranger (20th-Fox)	932 N. J. Ave., N.W.	1:00 pm

January Box Office Champions

Busby Berkeley, director.

BABES ON BROADWAY: Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. Producer, Arthur Freed. Director, Busby Berkeley. Photographer, Lester White. Recording director, Douglas Shearer. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Cast: Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, Fay Bainter, Virginia Weidler, Ray McDonald, Donald Meek, Richard Quine. Release date, January, 1942.

John Ford, director.

HOW GREEN WAS MY VALLEY: 20th Century-Fox. Produced by Darryl F. Zanuck. John Ford, director. Cameraman, Arthur Miller. Art director, Richard Day. Cast: Walter Pidgeon, Maureen O'Hara, Donald Crisp, Anna Lee, Roddy McDowall, John Loder, Sara Allgood, Barry Fitzgerald, Patric Knowles. Release date, January 23, 1942.

Mervyn LeRoy, director.

JOHNNY EAGER: Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. John W. Considine, Jr., producer. Directed by Mervyn LeRoy. Photographer, Harold Rosson. Recording director, Douglas Shearer. Art director, Cedric Gibbons. Cast: Robert Taylor, Lana Turner, Edward Arnold, Van Heflin, Robert Sterling, Patricia Dane, Glenda Farrell. Release date, January, 1942.

Irving Cummings, director.

LOUISIANA PURCHASE: Paramount. Associate producer, Harold Wilson. Directed by Irving Cummings. Photographer, Harry Hallenberger. Art directors, Hans Dreier and Robert Usher. Cast: Bob Hope, Vera Zorina, Victor Moore, Irene Bordoni, Dona Drake, Raymond Walburn, Maxie Rosenbloom, Frank Albertson. Release date, December 25, 1941.

William Keighley, director.

THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER: Warner Brothers. Jack Roper and Jerry Wald, associate producers. Directed by William Keighley. From the stage play by George S. Kaufman and Moss Hart. Art director, Robert Haas. Cast: Bette Davis, Ann Sheridan, Monty Woolley, Richard Travis, Jimmy Durante, Billie Burke, Reginald Gardiner. Release date, January 14.

Raoul Walsh, director.

THEY DIED WITH THEIR BOOTS ON: Warner Brothers. Executive producer, Hal B. Wallis. Associate producer, Robert Fellows. Directed by Raoul Walsh. Cameraman, Bert Glennon. Art director, John Hughes. Cast: Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, Gene Lockhart, Regis Toomey, Stanley Ridges, Arthur Kennedy. Release date, January 1, 1942.

Yates Stresses Morale Value; Sees Upturn

The world needs entertainment during wartime to keep up morale, and the motion picture industry is faced with the necessity of making more and better pictures, Herbert J. Yates, chairman of the board of Republic Pictures, said on a recent visit with Gene Autry during the performances of the new Autry "Flying A" Rodeo at the Houston, Texas, live-stock show.

Mr. Yates was accompanied by James R. Grainger, president of Republic. He flew to Houston from Los Angeles while Mr. Grainger had previously attended a conference of exhibitors at Corpus Christi, Texas.

Predicts Gain

"Motion pictures can reach more people than any other type of amusement," Mr. Yates said. "In Great Britain, for example, the picture business last year, after the severe bombing of London ceased, doubled its business of the pre-war days. The motion picture is now practically the only entertainment in Britain. I predict a big gain in the industry over here with new ideas to be developed and presented because of the war.

"So far as Republic is concerned, we have no reason to feel that we should change our policies. We are going to continue to make Westerns."

"We are also developing other Western stars and turning to new, young talent at all times," he concluded.

Gene Autry's $100,000 venture in glamorized, stream-lined Western rodeo shows drew a gate of approximately $240,000 in 10 days, despite eight days of rain in Houston.

Wednesday, Mr. Yates and home office executives opened the two-day quarterly sales meeting for the Eastern and Central districts at the New York Athletic Club.

Arriving in Chicago for a regional Republic sales meeting for the midwest, last Thursday and Friday, Mr. Yates said, "The industry must work harder, put in longer hours, and use better judgment than ever in picking out stories for the entertainment of a nation at war.

Public Wants Relaxation

"The people today hear enough about war on the radio and read about it in the papers and when they go to the theatre they want to forget about it, at least temporarily. For that reason Republic has no intention of producing war pictures, as such, but we will do such pictures as 'The Commandos' and 'Remember Pearl Harbor,' topical subjects taken from the headlines, which will be dramatized in a light way to give the theatre patrons a clearer picture of what they have read or heard.

"During the coming year we also intend to work hard on the building up of new stars and introduce new faces in our casts. Those on our lot due for a buildup during the year include Fay McKenzie, Ray Middleton, Betty Keane, Marilyn Hare, Mary Lee, and Ann Jeffreys.

Mr. Yates said Hollywood producers were taught a lesson with the loss of the foreign market two years ago. Up to that time, he said, the producers were so overwhelmed by the size of the foreign grosses that they switched to the foreign types of stories for many of their pictures, a move which increased the foreign grosses, but diminished the domestic intake.

Exhibitors tried to point this out, he said, but it took the destruction of nearly six-tenths of the European market to prove that the reason for the alarming domestic decrease was that

HERALD PEOPLE

By Staff Photographer

IRENE SMOLEN was born in Nikolaef in the southern part of Russia but, having come to these shores at nine months, she has no trace of either a Southern or Russian accent. She came to Quigley Publications along with Motion Picture News. Originally in the advertising production department, and then secretary to Terry Ramsaye, she now reviews films for the Herald, operates the "What the Picture Did for Me" department, and handles other editorial matters.

She is fond of reading the dictionary, which does not necessarily confine her to the King's English, and she loves to read recipes, which does not confine her to cooking. At the moment, her favorite sport is bowling, but she finds that the feeling is not reciprocal.

Her desires are very simple; she just wants to be rich and own a beautiful home in the country without termites or Japanese beetles.

they were not making pictures to suit the taste of the American public. Confronted with practically only an American market, the producers concentrated on product for home consumption with the result of better pictures on the market today.

"Republic," he said, "will continue to produce down-to-earth product on subjects of great interest to Americans, such as 'Sleepytime Gal,' starring Judy Canova, and 'Yokel Boy,' with Albert Dekker and Joan Davis; westerns such as the two coming Gene Autry's, 'Heart of the Rio Grande' and 'Dusk on the Painted Desert'; Roy Rodgers in 'South of Santa Fe'; Don Barry in 'Stagecoach Express'; Ray Middleton and Jean Parker in 'The Girl from Alaska'; Dennis O'Keefe and Ruth Terry in 'Affairs of Jimmy Valentine.'

The pictures mentioned by Mr. Yates were part of the 11 features, nine westerns and the one serial remaining on the current season's schedule and which were outlined to the branch managers in attendance at the sales conference, by James R. Grainger, sales chief. Mr. Grainger reported steadily increasing sales and satisfactory progress in collections.

M. J. Siegel, studio head, told the delegates of pictures in preparation, many of which are about ready for production.

Pathé Now Owns 100 Per Cent of PRC Stock

Pathé, in further negotiations, has purchased 100 per cent of Producers Releasing Corporation stock, Leon Fromkess, PRC vice-president, announced in Los Angeles this week before returning to New York. Pathé acquired about 68 per cent of the stock several weeks ago, he said, when it was announced it had controlling interest in the film company, and has since purchased the remaining 32 per cent.

Declaring that consent decree operations of five major companies has helped PRC sales, Mr. Fromkess set the company's business this year virtually 100 per cent better than the same time last year. He pointed out that PRC would service 50 per cent more theatre situations this year than last.

According to Mr. Fromkess, the consent decree has created a 12-month selling season and exhibitors are not able to contract for the greater portion of programs at the beginning of the season: they must keep buying, he said, as the decree signatories issue their block-of-five, therefore opening up new avenues for PRC business.

PRC's New Product

The company's vice-president, who had been in Hollywood since February 9th for product conferences with George R. Batcheller, head of production, also said that Pathé, Ltd., of England, and George Quigley of New York, each would make films for PRC. The Pathé picture is "Angel of Mercy, from the Edgar Wallace story. Its script is being written in Hollywood. The Quigley production will be a musical, tentatively titled "Dusty Waters," and will feature a name band. It will be produced at the Ideal Studios in New Jersey.

With 13 of 24 features and 10 of the 18 Westerns for this season completed, Mr. Fromkess said the remainder of product would be finished by June and the new production program started at that time.

New season product will have not less than 24 features and 18 Westerns, including from four to six higher budget specials, he said. PRC's annual sales meeting will be held in May with the company's 31 franchise holders now voting on the convention site.

Mr. Fromkess closed a deal with Dixon Harwin to produce "The Commandos Have Landed," scheduled for production in April. Another Harwin film for PRC is "Rogues in Clover," set to go before the camera on March 2nd. Other PRC pictures for March production are "The Devil's Sister," the Merrick-Alexander production; the Martin Mooney-William Beaudine film, "Men of San Quentin," and the Sigmund Neufeld feature, "The Mad Monster."

Two films just completed are "Gun Shy," the Harry Langdon-Charles Rogers feature, and "The Dawn Express," a Merrick-Alexander production.

Independents File

The Society of Independent Motion Picture Producers has filed incorporation papers with California. Listed as directors are Mary Pickford, Samuel Goldwyn, Alexander Korda, David O. Selznick, and Roy Disney.

TELEVISION PULLING IN ITS BELT FOR THE DURATION

But New Developments, Now Military Secrets, Will Be Aid to Recovery

Television will have to pull in its belt for the duration.

There is little hope, according to experts in a position to know, of the television industry progressing during the war. Rationed radio materials, and engineering talents, for civilian use will curb any substantial expansion of the current scope of television, they say.

When the war ends, however, they predict that the television industry will be on the threshold of a boom that will surpass both that of the standard broadcasting industry and the automobile in post-World War years. This is the "off-the-record" consensus of engineers, sales managers and government radio authorities.

In the interim, the television broadcasters indicate, they are going to make every effort to continue present programs and to nurture their infant industry. Officially they say it will keep right on growing. "Despite the war it won't stop," one executive said. Off the record, however, they admit the industry will be more than satisfied if it can maintain status quo despite priority curbs, drafted technicians and other wartime obstacles.

Defense programs, such as the extensive air raid warden training plan now in effect in New York, and the extension of inter-city systems of emergency visual communication on the Eastern seaboard are expected to give extensive aid to television. Much invaluable educational work is being done at this time it is said.

Developments Are Secret

A prediction of what is to come in television when the war ends was voiced recently by Dr. Alfred N. Goldsmith, a member of the advisory board of the Society of Motion Picture Engineers, inventor of many important television patents and for many years a consultant on visual broadcasting problems.

The war may even prove a boon to television, Dr. Goldsmith commented. He confirmed numerous reports in the industry that important developments in television science were going on under the cloak of military secrecy.

Other engineers say that these important discoveries in television technique, now classified as military secrets, will be available to the industry immediately after the war. Manufacturing methods, television apparatus and engineering knowledge are all growing at a great rate under the defense effort they said. This progress will become available to television, as an entertainment and communications medium.

An aid to the television industry after the war will be the great number of technicians now being trained in radio and specialized fields related to television. Because of its defense implications the total number of men being trained in various fields of cathode ray oscillography cannot even be hinted at.

SEES ADVANTAGES IN WAR SHUTDOWN

Dr. Alfred N. Goldsmith, engineer and television consultant, cites four important advantages which will accrue to the benefit of commercial television during the war emergency:

Wartime production of television apparatus and related radio products will make manufacture more uniform. Many manufacturers will standardize on single designs.

This standardization will make possible the production of more precise equipment.

Mass production methods are being, and will be, applied extensively to the manufacture of television and related equipment.

The cost of television equipment after the war will be greatly reduced by this increased production. Many shops now tooled for defense work can easily continue with the manufacture of television receivers. These will be much cheaper than is now possible.

War Production Board orders halting the manufacture of new radio sets ends all hope for the construction of new television receivers for public sale. Replacement parts are still available, the manufacturers report, however, and they say that the owner of a home television set should experience no immediate difficulty in obtaining new iconoscopes or other replacement parts.

Radio manufacturers report that they will be able to turn out about 40 per cent as much material for civilian use as heretofore. A large proportion of available supplies will go into the manufacture of replacement parts, and small portable and home sets.

The use of television as a civilian defense instruction medium meanwhile continues to boom, particularly in New York where both the National Broadcasting Company and Columbia Broadcasting System are cooperating with civil defense authorities.

Installation of television receivers in more than 100 New York City police precinct classrooms is already underway.

New Supporters

According to studio officials and several owners of television sets who have made them available for defense instructions approximately two-thirds of the wardens watching the television instructions have never seen visual broadcasting before. In some instances the ratio is even higher.

Du Mont is now operating a regular schedule over its New York station, WABD. Official designation as a commercial outlet, and the new call letters were granted the station by the FCC last week.

Du Mont is also proceeding with the construction of its Washington station, on 11th street. Mortimer Loewi, Du Mont vice-president, reports that the experimental transmitter previously in use in New York has been shipped to Washington and program tests will begin soon.

Mr. Loewi said reports that the station would be linked in a network with the Philco station at Philadelphia, General Electric's outlet in Schenectady and the National Broadcasting Company in New York were entirely unofficial. NBC likewise denied reports that a deal to exchange programs had been completed, although expressing willingness to do so.

NBC has received a permit for Washington's second sight-sound broadcasting station, on Channel 2, atop the Wardman Park hotel. Construction is underway.

Baird Stereoscopic Television

John L. Baird, English television manufacturer and inventor, reports by mail the perfection of a stereoscopic color television system. A two-phase red and green color disc on camera and receiver transmit the image. Stereoscopes is accomplished without use of spectacles and it is reported that the image may be viewed by several persons at once. Motion picture stereoscopes has long been possible with red and green spectacle devices.

Dr. Peter C. Goldmark, chief engineer for CBS television, and the inventor of the color television system demonstrated by Columbia last year, has patented a new cathode tube scanner for television cameras. The new tube features an "electron amplifier" within its own cylinder.

The year-end report by the National Televisions Systems Committee to the FCC on synchronization impulses and color standards is still in preparation. Individual companies have submitted reports on their work during the year, with recommendations to the committee which is collating them into a general report for the FCC. Dr. W. R. G. Baker, of the General Electric Company's Bridgeport laboratory, is chairman.

Bamberger Seeks Permit

The Bamberger Broadcasting Service, Inc., of New York, operator of station WOR and a principal Mutual Network partner, recently applied for a construction permit for a commercial television station. It will operate on Channel 6, for which Bamberger now holds a license for a one-kilowatt experimental station, W2XBB. Equipment for actual construction is currently unobtainable and the application was a formal move to keep the channel available.

WCBW, the Columbia Broadcasting Company's station increased its weekly film programs last week when it added a new historical film series and government shorts to its film motion picture schedules.

American history will be presented on alternate Friday afternoons in a series of school room pictures distributed by Academic Film Co.

Promote NBC Engineer

Harold P. See, a member of the NBC engineering staff, has been appointed a senior television supervisor by O. B. Hanson, vice-president and chief engineers. Mr. See succeeds F. A. Winkle, recently named New York division engineer. Mr. See will have charge of all field and studio engineering for NBC television.

Mexican Studios See Record 1942 Film Production

Producers underestimated their capacity for 1942 when they announced late in 1941 that they would make at least 50 films this year, only 10 more than last year's output. There are good indications that the 1942 production will be close to 70. That would be a record for Mexico, where modern film making began in 1930.

The prospects for 1942 are based on the January production of 10 pictures in the studios here, at present all there are in Mexico. These plants are scheduled to produce six pictures in February, and a check of the producers shows that schedules for the rest of 1942 call for from six to eight films a month.

Government aid to the industry and more money available for production as well as a better outlook for foreign business, particularly in the United States and in some Central and South American countries, have encouraged the producers to get down to business on a bigger scale.

Efforts of Mexican producers to obtain better opportunities in the Argentine have been intensified now that films of that country have gained a definite foothold in Mexico with the opening of an exchange here by Argentina Sono Film and Luminor, and the signing by these companies of the Cine Iris, a prominent first run theatre here, owned by Fernando Garcia, as their premiere house in this country. The exchange is functioning under the name Continental Films, S. A. and is in charge of Luis Boulinie and Guillermo Haza. It was organized and the Iris deal was supervised by Jose M. Rodriguez, traveling agent of both Argentinian companies. The Iris contract, it is said, calls for 12 releases this year.

Mexican producers now hope to equalize the treatment of their films in the Argentine and of Argentinian pictures in Mexico. Argentinian films have for some time been exhibited in Mexico at the rate of about 25 a year and always in the very best theatres, whereas only about two Mexican pictures are shown annually in the Argentine and invariably in inferior theatres. The Argentine customs' duties on Mexican films are about 10 times higher than are these Mexican imposts on Argentinian pictures.

▽

Better dress for its actresses is being stressed by Films Mundiales, S. A., one of the newer and leading producers. It has contracted Royer of Hollywood to supervise the costuming of its feminine players. Royer was offered this assignment while he was on a vacation here. It is reported that he will work for Mundiales for about six months. He is the first American fashion expert to dress Mexican movie queens but it is expected that other producers will follow Mundiales' example.

▽

Careless operation of a projection machine in a private house here during a children's party caused an explosion that seriously injured 11 of the children and a fire that did considerable damage to the house. The city is considering a law requiring that all projection be done by professionals.

▽

Members of the picture industry, including players, scenarists and directors, are backing the unique campaign launched by Rafael Munoz, who has adapted two of his novels for the Mexican screen, and some other authors to raise funds to buy 1,000 of the best cigars made in Mexico and ship them with the com-

SHORT PRODUCT PLAYING BROADWAY

Week of February 21st

CAPITOL

Fraidy Cat ..... MGM
We Do It Because ..... MGM
Information Please, No. 3... RKO Radio
Feature: Johnny Eager ..... MGM

CRITERION

Tanks ..... U. S. Defense
Short
Rack 'Em Up ..... Columbia
Feature: Born to Sing ..... MGM

MUSIC HALL

The Nifty Nineties ..... Disney-
RKO Radio
Feature: Woman of the Year ..... MGM

PARAMOUNT

The Mighty Navy—Popeye ..... Paramount
Tanks ..... U. S. Defense
Short
Unusual Occupations, No. 2 ..... Paramount
Feature: Bahama Passage ..... Paramount

RIALTO

Our Russian Front ..... Artkino
Defense of Moscow ..... Artkino
Feature: Frisco Lil ..... Universal

RIVOLI

Tanks ..... U. S. Defense
Short
The Nifty Nineties ..... Disney-
RKO Radio
Feature: Mister V ..... United Artists

ROXY

Secret of the Fjord ..... 20th Cent.-Fox
Funny Bunny Business ..... 20th Cent.-Fox
Community Sing, No. 6 ..... Columbia
Tanks ..... U. S. Defense
Short
Feature: Roxy Hart ..... 20th Cent.-Fox

STRAND

Tanks ..... U. S. Defense
Short
Porky's Pastry Pirates ..... Vitaphone
There Ain't No Such Animal ..... Vitaphone
Feature: Captains of the Clouds ..... Warner Bros.

pliments of all Mexico to Winston Churchill.

The British Premier delighted Mexico with his complimentary remarks when diplomatic relations were resumed between this country and his. Ex-President Cardenas broke those relations because he objected to a London note about the oil expropriation in 1938.

▽

James A. Fitzpatrick was accorded unusual honors by the Mexican government when he came here to make "Mexico Monumental," another of his color films. Mr. Fitzpatrick was met at the border by Alejandro Bulnes, chief of the government's tourist department, who escorted him to this city. The travelogue producer is the first American pictureman to be accorded such an honor.

Mr. Fitzpatrick has been accorded special Mexican government facilities for the making of his picture.

▽

Eager to maintain a good opinion abroad about Mexico, the federal film supervising and censoring department, Felipe Gregorio Castillo, chief, has become very particular about pictures made in Mexico. It ordered deleted from the latest one, "La Gallina Clueca" ("The Brooding Hen"), taken from an Argentinian stage comedy of the same name, a scene of a doctor's office in which a chipped wash basin appeared.

More Holdover, Gross Reports

Reports of holdovers on current releases from some of the major distributing companies this week include:

"Hellzapoppin," Universal; Palace, Chicago; opened February 11th, Fox, Detroit, opened February 13th; Hawaii, Los Angeles, February 11th; Albee, Providence, February 11th; Fulton, Pittsburgh, February 18th; Keith's Washington, February 19th; Centre, Salt Lake City, February 6th; Fox, St. Louis, February 5th.

"Ride 'Em Cowboy," Universal; Earle, Allentown, opened February 21st; Keith, Baltimore, opened February 17th; Palace, Cincinnati, February 19th; Keith, Dayton, February 20th; Strand, Hartford, February 11th; Senate, Harrisburgh, February 17th; Rialto, Louisville, February 12th; State, New Bedford, February 19th; Strand, New Britain, February 20th; Paramount, New Haven, February 20th; Orpheum, New Orleans, February 19th; Newport, Norfolk, February 19th; Civic, Portland, February 12th; Astor, Reading, February 18th; Capitol, Scranton, February 21st; Granada, Spokane, February 12th; and Penn, Wilkes-Barre, February 21st.

"Wolf Man," Universal; Broadway, San Diego, opened February 4th.

"Woman of the Year," MGM: Music Hall, New York, opened February 5th; Boyd, Philadelphia, opened February 5th; Penn, Pittsburgh, February 13th; Palace, Washington, February 12th; Broad, Columbus, February 19th; Palace, Memphis, February 19th; and Rex, Wheeling, W. Va., February 11th.

"Johnny Eager," MGM: Majestic, San Antonio, opened February 7th.

"Bedtime Story," Columbia: Orpheum, San Francisco, opened February 12th.

Broadway Holdovers

"Kings Row," Warner Bros., started its third week at the Astor, New York.

"Captains of the Clouds," Warner Bros., held at the Strand, New York, for a third week.

"Mister V," United Artists, third week hold-over at the Rivoli, New York.

"Our Russian Front," Artkino-Russian War Relief, held for a third week at the Rialto, New York.

"Ball of Fire," RKO-Goldwyn: third week holdover at the Hippodrome, Baltimore; second week at Oklahoma City, Lincoln, Seattle and Portland.

"Valley of the Sun," RKO: full week hold-over at the Strand, Louisville.

"Look Who's Laughing," RKO: second week holdovers at Orpheum, Des Moines, and Orpheum, Denver; also in Tacoma and Spokane; and third week in Seattle.

"Suspicion," RKO; held for third week at the Golden Gate, San Francisco.

"Little Foxes," RKO-Goldwyn: held for fifth week at the Gaumont Haymarket, London, England.

"Dumbo," RKO-Disney: second week holdovers at the Warner Theatre, Pittsburgh, and Aldine, Philadelphia; also entered its ninth week at the New Gallery Theatre, London, England.

Holiday Grosses

Grosses for the week:

"Woman of the Year," MGM, Radio City Music Hall, New York, drew an estimated $82,000 for five days, including $19,500 for Washington's Birthday.

"Roxy Hart," 20th Century-Fox, chalked up an estimated $62,000 from Thursday through Washington's Birthday; with a Sunday gross set at $20,000, a record for the Roxy Theatre, New York, and gross on Monday's holiday estimated at $16,000.

"Bahama Passage," Paramount, at the Paramount, New York, drew an estimated $34,700, Saturday through Monday and was expected to end its first week on Tuesday with $55,000.

Variety Clubs Wait Call for War Duties

That the U. S. Government may call upon the Variety Clubs of America to aid in the nation's war-defense effort, was disclosed last week by John H. Harris, national chief barker of the organization, who said that he had received a letter from Washington "in which they tell me they are about ready to call upon the Variety Clubs to do a job."

Mr. Harris also announced that the current "Hey Rube" membership drive was continuing to March 1st to allow all clubs to realize their goals of 100 per cent membership of film industry people in local territories.

Variety, according to Mr. Harris, cancelled its eighth annual convention, scheduled for May 15th-17th in Los Angeles, because of increasing demand made upon the organization's man power for added duties in defense and war work. Instead of the convention originally planned, officers and delegates from the various tents will meet to dispose of organization business at some place and time to be decided upon later, it was reported.

New Tent in New Haven

Approximately 50 representatives of the film industry met at the Hotel Garde in New Haven last Thursday, and voted to apply for a Variety Club charter and elect officers at a forthcoming meeting, scheduled for some time in March. This was the first organizational meeting of the group. I. J. Hoffman, Warner zone manager; Morey Goldstein, Herman M. Levy, executive secretary of Connecticut MPTO; Dr. J. B. Fishman, Connecticut Allied president, among others, arranged the luncheon. John Harris, national chief barker, and Martin Mullin, Boston club's chief barker, were guest speakers.

Paying tribute to 12 pioneer showmen, the Michigan Variety Club held a banquet last Thursday at the Book Cadillac Hotel, Detroit, at which film industry leaders of that city were present. Former Mayor James J. Walker of New York was toastmaster and the principal speakers included Senator Claude Pepper, of Florida; Claude Lee, public relations counsel for Paramount; Edgar Guest, and Malcolm W. Bingay, editorial director of the Detroit Free Press.

Senator Pepper declared, "I appreciate the vital effect of show business upon public opinion. It renders irreplaceable service in public morale. I want to apologize for those elements of Congress which did not see the industry's important contribution. We see this clearly now. There was nothing in so-called inflammatory motion pictures that was exaggerated in wickedness or deadliness," he said, referring to the Senate subcommittee inquiry last year of alleged war propaganda on the part of the motion picture industry.

The 12 showmen to whom guests and speakers paid tribute were: Ed Beatty, president, Butterfield Theatres; Jim Ritter, Detroit theatre owner and member of the board of directors for Co-operative Theatres of Michigan; Ed Kirchner, owner and operator, Family Theatre; Fred DeLodder, president, Co-operative Theatres; Bob Peltier, Mount Clemens theatre owner; Paul Schlossman, general manager of up-state houses associated with Butterfield; Harlan Starr, associated with Monogram; Glenn Cross, theatre owner; Tom Ealand, owner of the Ferndale Theatre; Jacob Stocker, Detroit theatre owner; Ray Branch, president, Allied Theatres of Michigan, and Ollie Brooks, general manager of Butterfield Theatres.

Guests included John C. Manning, managing editor of the Detroit Times; George W. Stark, "Old Timer," columnist, Detroit News; Douglas D. Martin, Detroit Free Press; Charles Oakman, Detroit City Controller, and A. A. F. Maxwell, president of the Union Guardian Trust Company. Proceeds of the banquet are being donated to the American Red Cross.

Variety Activities

More than 300 members attended the opening of the Los Angeles Variety Club's quarters at the Ambassador Hotel last week. The club-rooms were designed by S. Charles Lee, architect, and executed by R. McCullough, in charge of maintenance at Fox West Coast theatres.

A series of "service luncheons" were inaugurated last Monday by Albany's Variety Club, at which outstanding members of Tent Nine are to be honored for conspicuous Variety work. Proceeds of the luncheon are to be donated to various defense and service club activities. First "Kings for a Day," at a Washington birthday luncheon held on Monday, were C. J. Latta, zone manager for Warner Bros., Albany; and Arthur J. Newman, Republic Pictures' branch manager there. Chief barker Louis R. Golding, Fabian Theatres' divisional manager in Albany, announced the luncheons will be continued.

A meeting was held on Wednesday by the Variety Club of New England, Tent 23, in Boston, for the purpose of discussing the club's forthcoming year book and its annual dinner dance, scheduled for April 12th.

More than 22 members of Tent 4, St. Louis Variety Club, met at the Coronado Hotel last Wednesday at an initial "round table" luncheon which will be held daily in the Jug restaurant of the hotel. Ralph McGowan, vice chairman of the newly formed membership committee; chief barker Harry C. Arthur, Fanchon & Marco executive; Louis and Joseph Ansell; David G. Arthur, Edward B. Arthur, James H. Arthur, Tommy Thompson, Rex Williams and J. L. Kaufman, were present. Others in attendance were: E. L. Murphy, Henry C. Riegel, Clyde Brown, A. L. Hemke and Harry Crawford. Special invitations were extended by the club to St. Louis newspaper film editors to attend subsequent "round table" affairs.

National Decency Legion Classifies Fourteen Films

Of the fourteen motion pictures classified by the National Legion of Decency in its listing for the current week six were approved for general patronage, four were considered unobjectionable for adults, two were adjudged objectionable in part and two were condemned.

Class A-1, Unobjectionable for General Patronage: "Below the Border," "Lone Rider in Cheyenne," "Mister V," "Nazi Agent," "South of Santa Fe" and "This Time for Keeps." Class A-2, Unobjectionable for Adults: "Captains of the Clouds," "Girls Town," "Shut My Big Mouth" and "Too Many Women." Class B, Objectionable in Part: "Lady in Distress" and "The Night Before the Divorce." Class C, Condemned: "Fighting the White Slave Traffic" and "Nine Bachelors."

Georgia Theatre Owners Reelect Officers

The Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Georgia met last week in Atlanta, and reelected the following officers: J. H. Thompson of Hawkinsville, president; Ed Beach of Thomas-ton, vice-president; Hopson Johnson of Vidalia, treasurer, and Mrs. Willingham Wood of Washington, secretary.

R. B. Wilby of Atlanta, president of Wilby-Kincey Theatres, and Harlee Branch, an Atlanta attorney, addressed the meeting.

ANOTHER REPUBLIC
FAN MAGAZINE
AD

FUN FOR EVERYONE
IN A BIG PICTURE

WE have MADE a NEW JUDY
CANOVA
HIT in RESPONSE to
THE demands
OF all the FANS who ROARED
WITH glee at
HER antics in "SIS
HOPKINS." We've called it
"SLEEPYTIME GAL," but REST assured that there is NOTHING sleepy about
ITS side-splitting
COMEDY or its TUNEFUL
MUSICAL MOMENTS.

JUDY plays
THE title role,
WITH TOM BROWN, BILLY
GILBERT, RUTH
TERRY, THURSTON
HALL, ELISHA COOK, JR.,
MILDRED COLES, HAROLD
HUBER, and those radio stars,
JERRY LESTER and

SKINNAY ENNIS and his BAND to complete the list
OF top-flight favorites.

THESE folks are
ALL great ENTERTAINERS,
AND they do a
BANG-up job
IN this fast-
MOVING farce
COMEDY with MUSIC.

REPUBLIC has REALLY gone to TOWN on
"SLEEPYTIME GAL," and the RESULT is a pleasure
TO us and to you.

WHEN JUDY sings to
THE melodic
ACCOMPANIMENT of SKINNAY
ENNIS and his fine band, you
TOES will tap in tuneful applause.
THE whole show is a wide-awake
SCREENFUL of pleasure for you.
"SLEEPYTIME GAL" is the name,
AND it's

A REPUBLIC PICTURE

IN THE COURTS

Court Refuses Radio Action Against FCC

Both the National Broadcasting Company and Columbia Broadcasting System announced in New York on Tuesday that they would appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court the refusal on Saturday of a special statutory court of three Federal judges to rule on the injunctions brought by four broadcasting companies against the Federal Communications Commission's enactment of new radio regulations.

The decision, based on lack of jurisdiction, of Judge Learned Hand, of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, the dissenting opinion of Judge Bright of Federal Court, and that of Federal Judge Henry W. Goddard who concurred with Judge Hand that the court had no authority to act and that it was not making "any finding of fact," virtually placed the controversy between the FCC and the four plaintiffs, where it was before the action was begun last December. The plaintiffs include NBC, CBS, the World Life Insurance Society, owners and operators of station WOW of Omaha, and the Stromberg Carlson Telephphone Mfg. Co., owners and operators of station WHAM at Rochester.

Rules Called Threat

The plaintiffs contended that the FCC was exceeding its authority in regulations technically made effective on November 15th, 1941, which provided fundamental changes in business arrangements for the corporations, were designed primarily, it has been said, as an anti-monopoly measure. Actual application of the new rules have been held in abeyance during the trial and for "a reasonable period" thereafter. Validity of the complaints against the FCC's regulations were not passed upon either in the prevailing opinion, written by Judge Hand, or the dissenting document of Judge Bright.

Judge Hand declared, "The regulations are nothing more than a declaration—or if one chooses, a threat—by the commission that it will enforce those conditions upon any renewal of licence in the future. No change is made in the status of the 'affiliates' meanwhile; their existing contracts with the networks remain enforceable; nor has the commission given any evidence of an intention to use them as a basis for a revocation of existing licenses."

The plaintiffs have contended, however, that they already had suffered serious losses because some of their affiliate stations had indicated that existing contracts would be broken.

Liberties Union on Press-Radio

A study is being made of radio station ownership by newspapers, recently presented in hearings before the Federal Communications Commission, by the American Civil Liberties Union, it was announced last Friday in New York at the organization's headquarters. The board of directors of ACLU declared that "the public policy involved in the ownership of radio stations by newspapers is being examined by the Union under the chairmanship of Quincy Howe. Its recommendations will be submitted to the board shortly. The Union will examine it solely from the point of view of the effect of ownership on freedom of opinion."

The board also said that ACLU had commended the FCC for its order refusing to grant new licenses to newspapers during its current study. Meanwhile, two members of ACLU attorneys, Morris L. Ernst and Arthur Garfield Hays, have taken divergent personal positions regarding the press-radio controversy.

Court Enjoins Texas Attorney

After a two-day hearing of testimony, a temporary injunction restraining W. P. Hamblen, attorney, from interfering with the operation of the Horwitz-Texan Theatres, Inc., was granted late last Thursday by Judge Roy F. Campbell in the Eightieth District Court at Houston, Texas, in a suit brought by R. J. O'Donnell, general manager of the Interstate Circuit, Inc., and newly-elected president of the Horwitz-Texan interests following death of the late Will Horwitz.

Mr. Hamblen, life-time friend of the late theatre chain owner of Houston and executor of the Horwitz estate, took charge of the three Horwitz-Texan houses and operated them following the founder's death on last Christmas Day. Mr. O'Donnell was elected president of the Horwitz houses at a meeting of stockholders on January 16th.

During cross-examination, the executor maintained he represented a majority of the voting stock in the Horwitz-Texas Theatres, Inc., and that the election of Mr. O'Donnell was illegal.

It is expected that Judge Campbell will grant a superseded motion permitting Mr. Hamblen to remain in charge of the theatres, pending final ruling on the action by the appellate courts to which the Interstate counsel has applied.

Stefan Zweig And Wife Die

Stefan Zweig, 60, Austrian-born writer and his 30-year-old wife, Elizabeth, died of poison at their home in Petropolis, Brazil, on Monday. Mr. Zweig left a note explaining the suicide pact to Claudio de Souza, president of the P.E.N. Club, international writers organization, of Brazil. "It would require immense strength to reconstruct my life," he said, "and my energy is exhausted by long years of peregrination as one without a country."

Born in Vienna on November 28th, 1881, the author left his homeland at the invasion of the Nazis in 1938, and had been a writer in exile until the time of his death. He began his career shortly after World War I in Salzburg and since then his prolific volumes earned him the accolade of "the most translated author in the world."

Among his famous books, including numerous biographies, was "Marie Antoinette," which MGM filmed in 1938 starring Norma Shearer. A novel of his, "Letter from an Unknown Woman," was purchased by Universal in 1933 but never filmed. Two of his plays were produced by the Theatre Guild in New York. The first was "Volpone," and the second, "Jeremiah," produced in 1939.

Edward W. Fredrikson

Edward W. Fredrikson, radio salesman, former vaudeville comedian and booking agent, died February 17th in New York at the age of 55. He headed the "Gloom Chasers," an act that played the Keith-Orpheum and Loew circuits throughout the country, and virtually every Army camp during the last war. With the decline of vaudeville, Mr. Fredrikson entered the field of radio and joined Goldsmith Brothers as a radio salesman.

Song Suit Upheld

U. S. District Judge Barksdale in Philadelphia last Saturday overruled the motion of Paramount Pictures Corp. to dismiss the complaint of Dr. Clay A. Bolland and S. Bickley Reichner that a song they had written for a University of Pennsylvania "Mask and Wig" show had been plagiarized. Paramount's motion for a bill of particulars was granted in part.

OBITUARIES

Louis Dittmar, Exhibitor, Dies

Louis J. Dittmar, pioneer Louisville motion picture man, died Tuesday February 17th, at the Deaconess Hospital, Louisville, Ky., following an illness of 3 or 4 years. He was 64.

Mr. Dittmar, formerly a Cincinnati traveling shoe salesman for a manufacturing concern, came to Louisville about the turn of the century, and started the old Majestic Theatre, which became the leading motion picture house of Louisville. It was enlarged several times until it had a seating capacity of around 1,000 and was the largest theatre in the city or state. He also operated the Royal, Woodland, and the Ha-wa-ian Gardens, among other projects. Just after the war he built the Rialto Theatre, one of Louisville's largest and finest.

Starting about thirty years ago Mr. Dittmar became interested in the development of colored pictures, and was an executive of the old Kinemacolor Co., which produced a special projection machine for colored pictures. Later he became connected with Cinacolor. Mr. Dittmar was president of the former Louisville Photoplay Associations, and succeeding ones; and also president of the Kentucky Motion Picture Exhibitors Association, and other state bodies. He was active in some of the early day fights against the old Blue Laws and various state or local legislative movements.

He was first president of the Board of Tuberculosis Hospital, and was credited with fostering its development.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Blanche U. Dittmar, and a brother, Charles Dittmar, of Cincinnati.

Leslie J. Casey, Playwright, Dies

Leslie J. Casey, producer of silent films and stage plays, died last Wednesday, February 18th, at his home in New York. He was 51.

Mr. Casey was born in Australia, and arrived in the United States from England, where he had produced several plays, in 1913. Here he became associated with Fox Film Corp. as their Hollywood production manager, and later joined J. P. McGowan Co. for the production of several silent motion pictures.

Since 1920 his activities had been in the legitimate theatre. His most recent production was "These Two" in New York in 1934. He also produced "Fresh Fields" and "Romance" in Chicago.

Surviving him are his widow, Maybelle; a brother, Dr. George Casey of Sidney, Australia, and a sister, Mrs. T. M. Dodson of Bethlehem, Pa.

Victor Boucher

Victor Boucher, French stage and screen actor, died in a hospital in Ville d'Avray, according to a report received Sunday night by the CBS short-wave listening station from the Vichy radio. Mr. Boucher had acted in many French pictures, including "Nine Bachelors," the Sacha Guitry comedy, currently shown at the World Theatre in New York.

Douglas Cooper

Douglas Cooper, at one time the Canadian manager for the General Film Company, died in Toronto Tuesday. He was a pioneer in that country's film industry.

Sidney J. Bass

Sidney J. Bass, builder of the Iris Theatre in Terrell, Texas, died February 17th. He was 80 years old.

WHAT THE PICTURE DID FOR ME

Associated British

MEIN KAMPF, MY CRIMES: This picture was really better than I expected. It's worth playing, if you let the people know exactly what it's about in advance. Every U. S. citizen should see it.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

Columbia

ADVENTURE IN WASHINGTON: Herbert Marshall, Virginia Bruce—A good American picture, but no draw. Business off.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

BLONDIE GOES TO COLLEGE: Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake—Possibly the poorest of the series. Was intended for adults, more than children, and suffered through this fact at the box office.—Al Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

HERE COMES MR. JORDAN: Robert Montgomery, Rita Johnson—Here is a remarkably different picture that is a fast-moving comedy that brought raves from all sides. Business was very good and I know of no one who disliked it. It is very important to stress the disadvantage of getting in on the middle of the film. Running time, 94 minutes. Played February 10.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

LADIES IN RETIREMENT: Ida Lupino, Louis Hayward—A very good show. Wonderful acting by the whole cast, but was not appreciated here. Many walkouts. Running time, 92 minutes. Played February 2-4.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

LONE WOLF SPY HUNT, THE: Warren William, Rita Hayworth—A very entertaining programmer. Running time, 70 minutes. Played January 29-31.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

MEN IN HER LIFE, THE: Loretta Young, Conrad Veidt, Dean Jagger—Misleading name. Business not up to standard. A very fine picture but lacks popular draw.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

MYSTERY SHIP: Paul Kelly, Lola Lane—A fair programmer, suitable for dual billing.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

ROARING FRONTIERS: Bill Elliott, Tex Ritter—Passable western, we like Bill Elliott.—A. Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

SING FOR YOUR SUPPER: Jinx Falkenburg, Charles "Buddy" Rogers—Very good musical.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

SING FOR YOUR SUPPER: Buddy Rogers, Jinx Falkenburg—They ate it up, and asked for more like it. Had a good run on it, due possibly to defense bonds I gave away on Bank Night.—Al Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

TEXAS: William Holden, Glenn Ford—They came to see "Yank in the R.A.F.," but from reports this picture was the better of the two as far as entertainment was concerned. Running time, 93 minutes. Played February 15-16.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. General patronage.

TILLIE THE TOILER: William Tracy, Kay Harris—We ran this on bargain night and it got by. Nothing to rave about. We always make a little money on Columbia pictures. Running time, 62 minutes. Played February 3.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas. General patronage.

YOU BELONG TO ME: Henry Fonda, Barbara Stanwyck—Very chucklesome dialogue and situations were thoroughly enjoyed by the audience which, I am sorry to say, was not much more than average. The picture deserved more box office than it received. I cannot see any reason for its failure to do better as the trailer is good. Running time, 95 minutes. Played February 12.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

This is the original exhibitors' reports department, established October 14, 1916. In it the theatremen of the nation serve one another with information on the box-office performance of product for their mutual benefit. It is a service of the exhibitor for the exhibitor. Address your reports to—

What the Picture Did for Me
MOTION PICTURE HERALD
Rockefeller Center, New York

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

BLOSSOMS IN THE DUST: Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon—Very, very good. Drew the patrons in that know their pictures. Running time, 100 minutes. Played February 8-9.—H. T. Nokes, Ozark Theatre, Ozark, Mo. Rural patronage.

CHOCOLATE SOLDIER, THE: Nelson Eddy, Rise Stevens—May be O. K. for the other side of the tracks, but definitely no draw here. Business poor. Running time, 102 minutes. Played February 8-9.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. General patronage.

CHOCOLATE SOLDIER, THE: Nelson Eddy, Rise Stevens—Rise Stevens saved this from absolute failure. For a small town. N. G.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE: Spencer Tracy, Lana Turner, Ingrid Bergman—A sombre, gruesome story. R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE: Spencer Tracy, Lana Turner—There is no place on any program for this one. Why it should have been reproduced is beyond me. Tracy does his dual role very well but it does not elevate him in the public's eye. Running time, 123 minutes. Played February 13-14.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa.

DOWN IN SAN DIEGO: Bonita Granville, Ray McDonald, Dan Dailey, Jr.—Another feather for Director Sinclair to stick in his bonnet. A sleeper, well worth the price of admission; fast and exciting with a dramatic climax. You can rest assured this picture will give entertainment satisfaction. Running time, 70 minutes. Played February 4-5.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

DOWN IN SAN DIEGO: Bonita Granville, Ray McDonald, Dan Dailey, Jr.—Would be O. K. for a double feature.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

DOWN IN SAN DIEGO: Bonita Granville, Ray McDonald—A fair program picture used on a double bill with "For Beauty's Sake," an old one from Fox. Evidently it was intended for a low bracket picture and in this respect the producers made a perfect bulls-eye. Running time, 70 minutes. Played February 10.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

DOWN IN SAN DIEGO: Bonita Granville, Ray McDonald—Got stuck with this one. It's bad, and so was business.—Al Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

FEMININE TOUCH, THE: Rosalind Russell, Don Ameche—Amusing comedy which pleased average business. Running time, 93 minutes. Played February 11-12.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

HONKY TONK: Clark Gable, Lana Turner—Good every foot of the way. A picture well worth playing on your best days. Running time, 105 minutes. Played February 1-3.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

HONKY TONK: Clark Gable, Lana Turner—A good Saturday nite show.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

LADY BE GOOD: Ann Sothern, Robert Young, Eleanor Powell—A mediocre picture which was almost saved by Eleanor Powell.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

MARRIED BACHELOR: Ruth Hussey, Robert Young—Good comedy which pleased average business. Running time, 81 minutes. Played February 10.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

MARRIED BACHELOR: Ruth Hussey, Robert Young—A dandy little picture. Should be set Sunday. I played it Family Nite.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

PHILADELPHIA STORY, THE: Cary Grant, Katharine Hepburn, James Stewart—A pure box-office flop. Lowest grosses for nearly a year. Hepburn is death to our box office. Personally, I thought the story sparkling, although the theme has been done many times. Played January 18-20.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

SHADOW OF THE THIN MAN, THE: William Powell, Myrna Loy, Asta—Here is a can of film that won't be included in Academy selections, but still remains as a balm for any audience. Powell and Loy are well decked with entertaining habits. Played this release day and date with competitive first-run break and did a sell-out business.—Gene Rothgeb, Haven Theatre, New Haven, Ind. General patronage.

SHADOW OF THE THIN MAN: William Powell, Myrna Loy—These "Thin Man" stories are getting too thin. If this one was much thinner, you couldn't have seen the shadow.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

SMILIN' THROUGH: Jeanette MacDonald, Gene Raymond—Hope they don't make this any more. I could smile through the first one, but not this.—R. V. Fletcher, Lyric Theatre, Hartington, Neb. General patronage.

UNHOLY PARTNERS: Edward G. Robinson, Edward Arnold, Laraine Day—Our two favorite actors in one picture. We couldn't ask for more. And they didn't let us down. And Laraine Day was very good and she's so easy to look at. This kind of picture pleases our class of trade and we have them from all walks of life. Running time, 94 minutes. Played February 11-12.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas. General patronage.

Monogram

RIOT SQUAD: Richard Cromwell, Rita Quigley—Here is really a fine picture. Good work by its cast and excellent judgment by its director. The picture packs real action and is short. A good Friday-Saturday picture when you can fill in with your serials and shorts. Monogram pictures are up and coming. Give them a chance, they will produce the product. Running time, 55 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

Paramount

ALOMA OF THE SOUTH SEAS: Dorothy Lamour, Jon Hall—Did not think much of the picture except for scenery and beautiful color. However, patrons liked it and it did average business. Running time, 77 minutes. Played February 1-3.—G. W. McLean, State Theatre, Big Timber, Mont. Small town patronage.

BUY ME THAT TOWN: Lloyd Nolan, Constance Moore—Best half of double bill. Gave satisfaction and had some drawing power. Played February 6.—H. T. Nokes, Ozark Theatre, Ozark, Mo. Rural patronage.

FLYING BLIND: Richard Arlen, Jean Parker—Very good program picture. Will fill any bill where you want some action. Running time, 70 minutes. Played February 6-7.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

GLAMOUR BOY: Susanna Foster, Jackie Cooper—This ambled along peacefully for about an hour before it suddenly snapped awake. And just when it got darned good and interesting, we ran out of film. How—ever, it was generally well liked and drew better than average. An over-sized bouquet to Miss Foster for some fine singing. Running time, 82 minutes. Played February 9-11.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Fletcher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.
(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

HOLD BACK THE DAWN: Charles Boyer, Olivia De Havilland, Paulette Goddard—Swell picture which gave us the smallest gross in our theatre in a number of weeks. Everyone knew it was a dramatic love story and most of them stayed away. But if your people go for this kind of stuff, here's one grand picture. Running time, 115 minutes. Played February 8-9.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

IN OLD COLORADO: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, Andy Clyde—"Hoppy" is always welcome here. Running time, 66 minutes. Played January 30-31.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

IN OLD COLORADO: William Boyd, Russell Hayden, Andy Clyde—This series above average, yet we pay more than average for them. Paramount claims they don't sell them for less. Box-office returns justified. Played January 29-31.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

KISS THE BOYS GOODBYE: Mary Martin, Don Ameche, Oscar Levant—Was I glad I played this one only one day. Mary Martin is no draw at the box office and never will be. Don Ameche wasted in this one. Running time, 30 minutes. Played February 15.—Albert Montefalco, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

LOUISIANA PURCHASE: Bob Hope, Vera Zorina, Victor Moore—Business started out good, but adverse weather conditions the 2d and 3d day cut deeply into gross. A nice feature, slightly on the insinuating side, with Zorina giving her best performance. Hope not so good, Moore tops—Al Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

NEW YORK TOWN: Fred MacMurray, Mary Martin—Satisfied a Money Night patronage, but do not believe it would have attracted many if it had to stand up under its own. Running time, 75 minutes. Played February 4-5.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH: Bob Hope, Paulette Goddard—This was a fair comedy to ordinary business, with no comments from those that saw it; therefore consider it gave general satisfaction. Personally I looked for larger grosses from this combination of talent and the allocation given it by Paramount. Evidently the public thought different about it. Running time, 90 minutes. Played February 8-9.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

Republic

BAD MAN OF DEADWOOD: Roy Rogers—Everybody liked this. Business slightly off due to the fact we had a storm.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

ICE-CAPADES: Dorothy Lewis, James Ellison, Jerry Colonna—A dandy picture. Should do well where you have skaters.—Harland Rankin, Centre Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

JESSE JAMES AT BAY: Roy Rogers—Better than average Rogers. Perfect title.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

MAN FROM CHEYENNE: Roy Rogers—Good western drama which pleased the Friday-Saturday fans. Running time, 60 minutes. Played February 13-14.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

SINGING HILL, THE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Mary Lee—Liked by everyone, so that is that. Running time, 75 minutes. Played February 13-14.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

SINGING HILL, THE: Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, Mary Lee—An excellent picture. Music and comedy, western style. Mary Lee, the up and coming starlet, is really worth watching, and she really can sing. Running time, 75 minutes. Played February 13-14.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

RKO Radio

CITIZEN KANE: Orson Welles—If you're a small town, stay away from it. Something new in photography and scenes. Didn't like it myself. Some say it's the worst they've seen in some time. Too much Welles. Played February 9-11.—Daniel Korman, Palace Theatre, Englehart, Ontario, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

CITIZEN KANE: Orson Welles—Don't try to tell me Orson Welles isn't a genius; herein he has produced a mighty fine picture, and herewith he has established for me the lowest gross that I have ever, ever experienced. I would have sworn that such ridiculous receipts were utterly impossible. If you cater to film connoisseurs, this picture is made for you. But me; I hurt all over. Move over, somebody, and let me sue. Running time, 119 minutes. Played February 12-14.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. General patronage.

IN NEWSREELS

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 48, Vol. 24.—Alabama launched....Ration books printed....Training U.S. Airmen....New road in Panama....Troops in Iceland....India produces for war....Iran gets new Shah....Stirling bombers turned out....Sports

MOVIETONE NEWS—No. 49, Vol. 24.—President speaks to nation....Sub attack in Aruba....U. S. Troops in Ireland....Destroyer reaches Coast....Chinese pilots trained....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 246, Vol. 13.—Yanks in Iceland....Panama canal defenses....Iran royalty reviews army....Henderson on rationing....Welles calls for unity....Lana Turner sells bonds....Alabama joins Navy....Sports.

NEWS OF THE DAY—No. 247, Vol. 13.—President reports on War....Nazis shell West Indies....Aboard troopships to Ireland.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 51.—Alabama ahead of schedule....Golf for Red Cross....Victory gardens....Henderson warns hoarders....Iceland storm....Selectee gets D.S.M....Lend-lease report.

PARAMOUNT NEWS—No. 52.—President Roosevelt speaks to the nation....Canadian troops stage invasion....First pictures of Aruba....France's pre-war leaders on trial.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 51, Vol. 13.—Battleship Alabama....Ration books....Road across Panama....Soldier takes love insurance....Hurricane in Iceland.

RKO PATHE NEWS—No. 52, Vol. 13.—President speaks on war....Caribbean sub attack....Convoy troops to Ireland....Destroyer Shaw arrives....Sports.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 60, Vol. 15.—Storm Sweeps Iceland....New battleship launched....College air training....Panama Highway....Ration books for sugar....Women work on English bombers....Victory Gardens in Seattle....Chinese New Year....Prison acrobats....Sports.

UNIVERSAL NEWSREEL—No. 61, Vol. 15.—F.D.R. asks victory effort....U-boat in Caribbean....A.E.F. in Ireland....Destroyer Shaw repaired....Twin destroyers launched....Billion dollar bond drive....Florida train wreck...."Mock" invasion of Canada.

CITIZEN KANE: Orson Welles—Very disappointing to customers, box office and yours truly. Comments were evenly divided between wonderful and terrible. Personally, I thought it was a very fine picture. I wouldn't want to see many like it, however. Running time, 119 minutes. Played February 8-9.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

CITIZEN KANE: Orson Welles—I will not comment on the rating given this by critics, etc., but I will say that I had more kicks on this than any picture I've ever shown, no exceptions. Wish I had paid for it and left it in RKO's possession. Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

DUMBO: Disney feature cartoon—For beauty, entertainment and continuity, it was better than "Snow White," but we didn't do the business. The kids came, and some adults, and those who came praised it very much. We gave it preferred playing time and were not disappointed. You owe it to your kid patronage to run pictures like this. They appreciate it. Running time, 64 minutes. Played January 25-26.—M. L. Du Bose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas. General patronage.

FATHER TAKES A WIFE: Adolphe Menjou, Gloria Swanson—I was away when this picture played, but from the looks of the receipts and the absence of any "guests," this must have been a shotgun wedding. The comedy was too sophisticated for this spot. Running time, 80 minutes. Played February 2-4.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

FATHER TAKES A LIFE: Adolphe Menjou, Gloria Swanson—This falls into the mediocre class as entertainment or a box office production, used on Give-away nights to the lowest gross in many moons. It's the first one played in the first two blocks and not worth the rental asked. Running time, 79 minutes. Played February 11-12.—A. E. Andrews, Emporium Theatre, Emporium, Pa. General patronage.

LOOK WHO'S LAUGHING: Edgar Bergen, Charlie McCarthy, Fibber McGee & Molly—As far as I am concerned, this was the biggest surprise I ever had. Played on weekend, it packed them in every night. If you get a chance to play this, do it. Running time, 79 minutes. Played January 22-24.—G. W. McLean, State Theatre, Big Timber, Mont. Small town patronage.

MY LIFE WITH CAROLINE: Ronald Colman, Anna Lee—Lost on it. So the patrons were not the only ones dissatisfied. Played January 28.—H. T. Nokes, Ozark Theatre, Ozark, Mo. Rural patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

BELLE STARR: Randolph Scott, Gene Tierney, Dana Andrews, Louise Beavers—The following combination: a good story, beautiful color, an excellent cast and swell acting made an interesting 87 minute for our audience. It was the first opportunity that our boys have had to see Miss Tierney and all agreed, to a man, that she is a really fine actress and destined to go far in the movie world. Particularly pleasing to the Negroes in our population was the fine performance turned in by Louise Beavers. Judging from the comments made by our audience, this picture should please any theatregoer. Running time, 87 minutes. Played February 14.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

CHARLEY'S AUNT: Jack Benny, Kay Francis, James Ellison—A rollicking comedy that clicked. First time Fox has checked us for several years only to prove to themselves again that our patronage is limited. They sure enjoyed this picture. Played January 25-27.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

GREAT GUNS: Laurel and Hardy—This comedy drew better than average and kept them laughing from beginning to end. From the comments of the customers, I take it that these boys have been missed. Running time, 73 minutes. Played February 4-6.—Delmar C. Fox, Fox Theatre, Pincher Creek, Alberta, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

LAST OF THE DUANES: George Montgomery, Lynn Roberts—There was a time when a Zane Grey western was a big draw at our box office. It still does business, but not as good as the regular so-called Star Westerns. Just why we don't know, because this was a fine western and much above the average Star Western. Running time, 58 minutes. Played February 6-7.—Horn & Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

MURDER OVER NEW YORK: Sidney Toler, Marjorie Weaver—The usual Charlie Chan fare. Running time, 65 minutes. Played February 5-7.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

WHEN A MAN'S A MAN: George O'Brien—This is an old picture, but very good. Print from Monogram New Orleans exchange was in very good condition.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

YANK IN THE R.A.F.—Tyronne Power, Betty Grable—Boxoffice. Personally, only thought this was fair, but business was above par and I believe this is the picture that brought them in. Other half of dual, "Texas." Running time, 96 minutes. Played February 15-16.—H. Golden, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. General patronage.

United Artists

COCK OF THE AIR: Chester Morris—Just plain terrible with a capital "T." Not worth the carbons wasted on it. Running time, 71 minutes. Played February 15.—Albert Montefalco, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

INTERNATIONAL LADY: George Brent, Ilona Massay, Basil Rathbone—The timely theme is the showman's answer to this film-fare. Brent and Massey with versatile Rathbone do an average job of conveying the tale's intriguing gamut. Patrons' devotion to Brent held this one up; a "might" for your calendar.—Gene Rothgeb, Haven Theatre, New Haven, Ind. General patronage.

MAJOR BARBARA: Wendy Hiller, Rex Harrison, Robert Morley—A picture with potentialities—so very elusive. Definitely a class picture soaring over the average audience's faculty for appreciation. The free garnishing of Shaw's humor, splendid portrayals of a select English cast, Pascal's genius and a timely subject will hold a portion of the audience to the release's original intent. Was cynically welcomed here.—Gene Rothgeb, Haven Theatre, New Haven, Ind. General patronage.

MY SON, MY SON: Louis Hayward, Laraine Day, Henry Hull—O. K. if you have nothing else to do. Played February 18-19.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

RAFFLES: David Niven, Olivia de Havilland—Fair box-office returns on a mediocre, considerably oversold film. Played January 22-24.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

ROAD SHOW: Adolphe Menjou, Carole Landis, Charles Butterworth—No draw. People didn't go for it, either first or second run.—Harland Rankin, Park Theatre, Chatham, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

SO ENDS OUR NIGHT: Fredric March, Margaret Sullivan—This baby didn't even take in enough to pay the transportation charges on the film. Having a heavy German patronage, I tried to make a settlement on this future, knowing it would lose me a few patrons if I showed it, but U. A. refused to consider this.—Al Eliassen, Koronis Theatre, Paynesville, Minn. Rural and small town patronage.

THAT HAMILTON WOMAN: Vivien Leigh, Laurence Olivier—No business. Costume pictures off in small towns.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

(Continued on following page)

(Continued from preceding page)

Universal

ALL QUIET ON THE WESTERN FRONT: Lew Ayres—Played four days and broke all house records on any picture since the theatre was built. Played it single feature, raised my admission prices, advertised roadshow; am bringing it back for two more days. Lobby display, trailer, window cards, heralds, front, newspaper campaign helped to make the grosses terrific. Don't just play it. Push it like I did and you won't be sorry. Running time, 100 minutes. Played February 11-14.—Albert Montefalco, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn.

BURMA CONVOY: Charles Bickford, Frank Albertson—Swell little action picture that did O. K. all around. Everyone pleased. Running time, 62 minutes. Played February 11-12.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

FLYING CADETS: William Gargan, Peggy Moran—Liked very well by average Saturday night audience. Running time, 60 minutes. Played February 7.—G. W. McLean, State Theatre, Big Timber, Mont. Small town patronage.

HAWAIIAN NIGHTS: Johnny Downs, Constance Moore—A very good musical, but very short. Would have to double it or use lots of shorts. Running time, 65 minutes. Played February 9-11.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

IN THE NAVY: Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Dick Powell, Dick Foran—Good draw and well enjoyed by all who saw it. But why don't they leave out those Andrews Sisters, or just let them sing one song. Good to see Dick Powell again. Dick Foran should be given better parts. Played February 2-4.—Daniel Korman, Palace Theatre, Englehart, Ontario, Can. Small town and rural patronage.

KEEP 'EM FLYING: Abbott & Costello—They haven't tired of this combination yet here. Still does above average. Thought this one was the best yet. Running time, 80 minutes. Played January 25-27.—G. W. McLean, State Theatre, Big Timber, Mont. Small town patronage.

KEEP 'EM FLYING: Bud Abbott, Lou Costello, Martha Raye, Carol Bruce—Every angle in the calendar is embedded in this film. The hash dialogue spells audience tantrum from title to finish. Martha Raye is overbearing, while Dick Doran, William Gargan and Carol Bruce merit worthy billing as a feastful supporting cast. Abbott and Costello are still S. R. O. names here; a bumper dividend from your Universal contract.—Gene Rothgeb, Haven Theatre, New Haven, Ind. General patronage.

MAN-MADE MONSTER: Lionel Atwill, Lou Chaney, Jr.—Strictly program picture for dual billing.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

PARIS CALLING: Randolph Scott, Elizabeth Bergner—They stayed away from this one in very large quantities. I thought it was pretty good for this type of picture, although I don't care for this type and neither do my customers. Running time, 95 minutes. Played February 5-6.—G. W. McLean, State Theatre, Big Timber, Mont. Small town patronage.

ROAD AGENT: Dick Foran, Leo Carrillo, Andy Devine—One of the best westerns I've ever run. This trio is fine. This picture outgrossed their last one. Running time, 60 minutes. Played February 13-14.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

ROAD AGENT: Leo Carrillo, Andy Devine—This is a good western. Leo Carrillo is at his best, and that's saying a lot, for he is always good entertainment. Universal has got something in this Anne Gwynne, and it is my guess that we won't be seeing her in many more westerns. She's bound to go places. Running time, 94 minutes. Played February 11-12.—M. L. DuBose, Majestic Theatre, Cotulla, Texas. General patronage.

SOUTH OF TAHITI: Brian Donlevy, Brod Crawford—Played to average for this week-day. Was liked by those who saw it. Running time, 74 minutes. Played January 28.—G. W. McLean, State Theatre, Big Timber, Mont. Small town patronage.

SWING IT, SOLDIER: Frances Langford, Ken Murray—A dog. This wouldn't pass muster as a two-reeler.—Al Eliassen, Koronia Theatre, Paynesville, Miss. Rural and small town patronage.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: Irene Dunne, Robert Montgomery—Went over O. K. for a single on Sunday. No walkouts on it; some good comments. Running time, 95 minutes. Played February 1.—H. T. Nokes, Ozark Theatre, Ozark, Mo. Rural patronage.

Warner Bros.-First National

ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT: Humphrey Bogart, Conrad Veidt—Good picture and good business. Bogart with a gun in each hand the way my patrons like him. Running time, 107 minutes. Played February 8-9.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

BAD MEN OF MISSOURI: Dennis Morgan, Jane Wyman—Played very late due to a print being lost, necessitating changing original booking. Was liked and did a fair business. Running time, 74 minutes. Played January 29-31.—G. W. McLean, State Theatre, Big Timber, Mont. Small town patronage.

MALTESE FALCON, THE: Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor—Murder mystery. One of Bogart's best films. Story by author of the "Thin Man" pictures. Running time, 100 minutes. Played February 8-10.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

MANPOWER: Edward G. Robinson, Marlene Dietrich, George Raft—A real surprise picture and a thunderbolt of action and drama. Raft, Robinson and Dietrich make a swell combination. Alan Hale, Frank McHugh keep up their good work with plenty of good laughs. Running time, 100 minutes. Played February 15-17.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

MEXICAN SPITFIRE'S BABY: Lupe Velez, Leon Errol—Seemed to please average audience on "Take a Chance Night." Running time, 70 minutes. Played February 4.—G. W. McLean, State Theatre, Big Timber, Mont. Small town patronage.

ONE FOOT IN HEAVEN: Fredric March, Martha Scott—Very good business, but not quite up to what I expected it to be. Pictures like this sometimes draw too well in the first runs. Many folks at this show were ones that do not come often. It is absolute tops in quality and, of course, should be tied in with churches of every kind. Get behind it with all you have. They'll all like it. Running time, 110 minutes. Played February 13-14. W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op. Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

SERGEANT YORK: Gary Cooper, Joan Leslie—By far the greatest picture made. This is one time you can advertise a special picture and meet the public face to face when they leave the theatre, and not be ashamed you had to charge them higher admission. This picture should be the Academy Award winner. Running time, 132 minutes. Played January 25-27.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

TARGET FOR TONIGHT: Documentary—Real good picture. Workings of R. A. F. Timely. Business only average.—Harland Rankin, Plaza Theatre, Tilbury, Ontario, Can. General patronage.

THREE SONS O' GUNS: Wayne Morris, Tom Brown, Irene Rich—The title does not live up to itself until the final scenes. Even at that, it was a nice picture and well liked. An excellent piece of work by Irene Rich. Running time, 65 minutes. Played February 11-12.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

UNDERGROUND: Jeffrey Lynn—Played this on Bank Night and I wish I could have had it two days instead of some I have had. I had several to pay to see this the second time, matinee and night. After the show that night before I had the Cash Gift drawing I made an announcement urging the people to buy defense bonds and stamps and I think this picture really put them in the mood to help. Running time, 95 minutes. Played January 27.—Felix H. Tisdale, Ga-Ana Theatre, Georgiana, Alabama. Small town patronage.

WILD BILL HICKOK RIDES: Bruce Cabot, Constance Bennett, Warren William—A better than average western.—Leon C. Bolduc, Majestic Theatre, Conway, N. H. General patronage.

World

DESIGN FOR MURDER: Manning Whiley—A terrible show that is not worth playing. Doubled this with "The Return of Wild Bill". Running time, 50 minutes. Played January 5-7.—Fred Basha, Palace Theatre, Corner Brook, Newfoundland. Small town patronage.

Short Features

Columbia

COMMUNITY SING: No. 6:—Nice reel of its kind. Very few women at the show, so when the reel asks for women to sing alone, the men raised the pitch of their voices with very amusing results. They sang well with it. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

HOLLYWOOD DETOUR, A: Color Rhapsodies—Rather aimless attempts to be funny certainly fell very flat here. Running time, 8 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

RACK 'EM UP: World of Sports—Will please where fancy billiard shooting goes over. This is very good. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer

ABDUL, THE BULBUL AMEER: Technicolor Cartoons—A colorful cartoon of an old, old song that most of our patronage did not remember, making this subject just average. Running time, 8 minutes.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

ALLEY CAT, THE: Technicolor Cartoons—Looking for some real clever belly laughs? No foolin', this is it. Really a good one. Running time, 10 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

FIELD MOUSE, THE: Technicolor Cartoons—Good cartoon in color. Running time, 7 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

FORBIDDEN PASSAGE: Crime Does Not Pay Series—This was an interesting short and had many comments.—Miss Cleo Manry, Buena Vista Theatre, Buena Vista, Ga. Small town patronage.

HISTORIC MARYLAND: FitzPatrick Traveltalks—Beautiful color shots around Annapolis and Baltimore. Very good for scenic fans. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

(Continued on following page)

TELEGRAMS

are feature length stories in short subject form

CLASS OF SERVICE DESIRED		CLASS
TELEPHONE	DOMESTIC	TELETYPE	URGENT
DAY LETTER	DEFERRED	NIGHT LETTER	NIGHT TELETYPE
SPECIAL SERVICE

Please check the class of service desired. Indicate the class of service desired in the message or on the message card.

WESTERN UNION

ACCOUNTING INFORMATION

TIME FILED

BUSINESS IS ON THE MOVE. GET YOUR SHARE BY ACTING SWIFTLY. . . .

TELEGRAPH! TELEGRAMS GET ACTION!

WESTERN UNION

Everywhere

(Continued from preceding page)

NEWS OF THE DAY: The pleasing voice of Milton Cross describes the ever and fast working F. B. I. in capturing Nazi spies. Running time, 9 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

NEWS OF THE DAY: No. 234, Vol. 13.—Nazi Blitz in reverse, an English version, is best thing we have ever seen. You should buy this reel specially just to see it. Running time, 9 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

NEWS OF THE DAY: No. 238, Vol. 13.—Good. Running time, 9 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

WATER BUGS: Pete Smith Specialties—I received a letter from Mr. Pete Smith, stating if I had any ideas for a short to send them along. If he continues to make such grand pictures in the future, I guess he won't need any suggestions. This is another top-notch specialty.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

Paramount

ALL'S WELL: Gabby Cartoons—I am still waiting to see a good Gabby cartoon. They are far below Paramount's average. Running time, 9 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

CAB CALLOWAY'S JITTERBUG PARTY: Cab Calloway—Entertainment musical reel. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

OLIVE'S BOITHDAY PRESINK: Popeye the Sailor—This "Popeye" really drew the laughs and they talked about it afterwards, which is really something for a short subject here.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

ON THE SPOT: Sportlight—Paramount has something here in this I. O. sportreel. Let's have some more.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

TWO FOR THE ZOO: Gabby Cartoons—Fair. Few laughs here and there. Running time, 8 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

WHAT'S LACROSSE: Sportlights—Excellent short on a game so little known through here. Running time, 10 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

RKO Radio

CRYSTAL FILERS: Sportscope—The absolute tops in skiing reels, both photographically and entertainingly. Let your skiers know about it. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

GENTLEMAN'S GENTLEMAN, A: Walt Disney Cartoons—Good; the dependable Walt Disney. Running time, 7 minutes.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. General patronage.

INFORMATION, PLEASE, No. 4: John Gunther—With John Gunther as guest, this one continues a good series that gets me regular patrons whenever one is advertised. More humor in this one than usual. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

Curtain Call!

Time and again—the St. Moritz is the favored hotel of important persons on the American scene. You'll applaud its unusual services and fine park location. Tastefully furnished apartments at modest weekly and monthly rates. Some with terraces.

ST. MORITZ
ON-THE-PARK
50 Central Park South
NEW YORK

Direction: S. Gregory Taylor

Home of Rumpelmayer and
The Cafe de la Paix.

ning time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

INFORMATION, PLEASE, No. 12: Why should I cram these down my patrons' throats. They just don't like them. Running time, 11 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

MARCH OF TIME, NO. 5: "Our America at War"—Good, timely, but too many scenes from "The Ramparts We Watch." Outside of being perfect so far as time element is concerned, it is not as good as others in series.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

MARCH OF TIME SPECIAL: "Battlefields of the Pacific"—The most complete and descriptive film we have seen on foreign affairs. Running time, 20 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

MARCH OF TIME SPECIAL: "Battlefields of the Pacific"—This special issue of M. O. T. is fine. Play it by all means.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

MICKEY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY: Walt Disney Cartoons—Disney is not at his best in this color cartoon, but the audience will like it just the same. Running time, 8 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

WHO'S A DUMMY: Leon Errol—Typical Leon Errol antics. If they like him, they'll like this one. Running time, 16 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

Twentieth Century-Fox

HAPPY HUNTING GROUNDS: Terrytoons—O. K. short. These Terry-Toons are fair, but are not as good as other cartoons.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

LURE OF THE TROUT: Sports Reviews—Interesting fisherman's reel, but considerably over colored. Running time, 9 minutes.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

MEN FOR THE FLEET: Adventures Newscamera-man—Entertaining and timely reel. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

SLAP HAPPY HUNTERS: Terrytoons—Good cartoon. Too bad that Terrytoons aren't more consistent. Running time, 6 minutes.—H. Goldson, Plaza Theatre, Chicago, Ill. General patronage.

TWELVE O'CLOCK AND ALL AIN'T WELL: Terry-Toon—A nice cartoon.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

UNCLE JOEY COMES TO TOWN: Terrytoons—A nice cartoon. Running time, 8 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

WELCOME LITTLE STRANGER: Terrytoons—This is a dandy. Running time, 7 minutes.—John Stafford, Royal Theatre, Leonardville, Kan. Rural patronage.

WONDERS OF THE SEA: Adventures Newscamera-man—Interesting undersea views that will go where they like this sort of thing. Running time, 10 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

YARN ABOUT A YARN, A: Terrytoons—Fair enough cartoon that seemed to amuse. Running time, 7 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

Universal

GOING PLACES, No. 90: Another interesting filler. Running time, 9 minutes.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

HYSTERICAL HIGH SPOTS IN AMERICAN HISTORY: Color Cartoon—Excellent cartoon.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

MUSIC A LA KING: Henry King and his Orchestra—They can't help but like this musical. King's Orchestra is really good and there is a variety of entertainment packed in the film. Outstanding, according to popular opinion here, is the quartet "The King's Men," who certainly know the art of close harmony. Running time, 17½ minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

ONCE UPON A SUMMER TIME: Skinnay Ennis—Bill Benson of Universal kept after me to try a Universal two-reel musical. I finally did, and boy! are they good! Chockful of entertainment. Running time, 18 minutes.—Albert Montefalco, Roxy Theatre, New Britain, Conn. General patronage.

SKYLINE SERENADE: Musicals—It's an O. K. music and vaudeville reel. I have seen both worse and better. Running time, 16 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

STRANGER THAN FICTION: No. 85—A good filler for 75 per cent of the features. Running time, 9 minutes.—E. F. Stahl, Rialto Theatre, Melrose, N. M. Small town and rural patronage.

TRAIL OF THE BUCCANEERS: Variety News—Very good work.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala.

UNDER THE SPREADING BLACKSMITH'S SHOP: Color Cartune—Pretty good color cartoon. My only objection is that they are too short. Running time, 8 minutes.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

Vitaphone

ALOHA HOOEY: Merrie Melodies Cartoons—Good color cartoon. Running time, 7 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

BIRD CAME C. O. D., THE: Merrie Melodies Cartoons—This is one of the wackiest cartoons we have ever had. My folks liked it quite well. A new character is introduced (I haven't the slightest idea what kind of animal it is supposed to be) and got some laughs; but it is not the kind of character that will last for other cartoons. The little bird in the magician's top hat stole the show as he did in his last appearance some time back. Running time, 8 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

CARL HOFF AND BAND: Melody Masters Bands—Good orchestra reel. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

GAY PARISIAN: Technicolor Specials—Marvelous dancing and color by the Ballet Russe probably will be best accepted by class audiences. Lots of raves about this one here. Some did not like it, but they were in the minority. I'll be able to use more like this and do extra business with them. Running time, 20 minutes.—W. Varick Nevins III, Alfred Co-Op Theatre, Alfred, N. Y. Small college town patronage.

HIAWATHA'S RABBIT HUNT: Merrie Melody—Bugs Bunny again and a good cartoon.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

HOP, SKIP AND A CHUMP: Merrie Melodies Cartoons—Good cartoon in color. Running time, 7 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

JOE GLOW, THE FIREFLY: Looney Tunes—Nothing more than a fair fill-in.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

PLAYGIRLS, THE: Melody Masters Bands—Good orchestra reel. Running time, 10 minutes.—E. M. Freiburger, Paramount Theatre, Dewey, Okla. Small town patronage.

U. S. CALIF. BAND AND GLEE CLUB: Melody Masters Bands—Now this was a swell band short with plenty of popular college music and a touch of the patriotic to provide the climax. Running time, 10 minutes.—Horn and Morgan, Inc., Star Theatre, Hay Springs, Neb. Small town patronage.

WACKY WORM, THE: Merrie Melodies Cartoons—Good. Running time, 9 minutes.—Guy G. Black, Plaza Theatre, Inc., Lyons, Neb. General patronage.

WATER SPORTS: Sports Parade: Fancy diving, and some not so fancy (comedy diving), is shown in this short photographed in vivid color. Also, the tricky sports of water skiing and aquaplaning are highlighted and guaranteed to give your audience a thrill. Running time, 10 minutes.—J. A. Reynolds, Director of Education and Recreation, New Jersey State Prison, Trenton, N. J. Prison patronage.

Serials

Columbia

SPIDER RETURNS, THE: Warren Hull—This serial was well liked. Not as good as "The Spider's Web," but still O. K.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

Republic

KING OF THE TEXAS RANGERS: "Slingin' Sammy" Baugh, Duncan Renaldo—Very good serial. Duncan Renaldo is fine in this. Baugh is O. K.—Sammie Jackson, Jackson Theatre, Flomaton, Ala. General patronage.

Universal

DON WINSLOW OF THE NAVY: Don Terry, John Littel, Claire Dodd—Excellent serial. Hope it doesn't get corny like the rest. Running time, 25 minutes, first chapter.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

SEA RAIDERS: Dead End Kids, Little Tough Guys—This was corny throughout, but it drew extra business.—Eddie Ornstein, Rialto Theatre, Marengo, Ind. Small town patronage.

MANAGERS' ROUND TABLE

An international association of showmen meeting weekly

in MOTION PICTURE HERALD for mutual aid and progress

A-MIKE VOGEL, Chairman and Editor

GERTRUDE MERRIAM, Associate Editor

What's What in the Week's Wash

ABOUT as sound a way as any to check the effectiveness of the Round Table as a service medium is to be had in comments of new contributors accompanying applications for membership. Often, the new members note the help they have been getting from these pages. In return, they volunteer to expedite the functioning of this "clearing house" by reporting their proven boxoffice promotions.

* * *

AS an instance, this is borne out lately in the application from Manager William J. Abeln, of the Hi-Pointe, St. Louis, a unit of the St. Louis Amusement Co. He writes: "I have been meaning to send along my application for some time but never got around to it. I have been a reader of the Herald for several years and am very interested in the Round Table. This is the first time that I have ever sent anything in to you but you will hear from me frequently in the future."

* * *

ANOTHER branch of these services is indicated in the inspiration of the Quigley Awards towards bigger grosses generally and currently in the exploitation drive sponsored by our good friends in the Indiana-Illinois Theatres. The Manta-men are offered an encouraging number of extra credits for Fortnight Appointments and Quarter-Master Awards earned during progress of the circuit's drive.

* * *

ONE of the many definitions of showmanship might be, to do the conventional unconventionally, to perform as expected in an unexpected manner. For instance, a street stunt by Manager Ben Van Korn, on "You'll Never Get Rich" at the Lex, Chicago, used a pretty gal to distribute star photos of Rita Hayworth. The unexpected? She was appareled in male attire, fittingly, an usher's uniform.

* * *

GETTING something more out of what you have already got, is offered as another definition of showmanship, as indicated by Francis Deering for his third-time showing of "Gone With the Wind" at Loew's State, Houston. Atop all the newspaper attentions given the previous dates, Deering was able to sell one of the dailies on a contest that opened with a banner spread of scene stills from the picture. Defense stamps were given readers who "remembered most and best of what happened, and where, in the pictured scenes."

The morale-factor that is the theatre bears an increasingly heavy burden as the nation goes all-out for war. The coming Spring will see "home front" nerves even tenser as more and more of our boys engage in battle. Thus, the theatreman's responsibility grows apace. The kind of refuge he makes of his house must have to do with the proper maintenance of morale to keep high the public's chin.

It is not too soon to plan for warmer weather. Perfect physical grooming and distinguished personnel service is little enough to ask. The cheery, colorful, comfortable theatre is a national relaxation as important as ammunition.

ENOUGH boxoffice ammunition is noted in Paramount's press-book for "Mr. Big Goes to Town" to aim the attraction's appeal at a wide ticket-selling target, grown-ups as well as the junior. The 12-page exploitation section covers a heap of merchandising cooperations and other things to do in the direction of contests, lobbies and suchlike to engage the attentions of theatremen playing the date.

* * *

TIDINGS to this desk from Fred S. Kogod tells of the appointment of Frank Boucher as assistant to the president and general manager of the Kogod-Burka Enterprises in Washington, D. C., to which spot the Round Tabler moves from an executive post with the Schine circuit. One of our old-time regulars, Frank takes over with the best wishes of the membership for the biggest kin of success in the new situation.

* * *

PRESS and public of Toronto last week celebrated Manager Charlie Querrie's twenty-first anniversary at the F. P. C. Palace. What made the event more than a birthday was that the Round Tabler had served the theatre from the day it was opened, served it efficiently and loyally for the health of his boxoffice and the good opinion of his patrons.

A-Mike Vogel

ROUND TABLE IN PICTURES

With "rush week" going on at the University of Wisconsin during Marlowe Conner's date on "Dumbo" at the Capitol, in Madison, the Round Tabler had one of the popular sororities rush the "star". Stunt was picked up and broadcast on the Campus Hour over WIBA, good for art break and story in papers.

In conjunction with the Victory Book campaign to secure reading matter for enlisted men, Bill Elder at Loew's, in Indianapolis, uses display illustrated at right. Each week the Round Tabler changes the cutout figures to stars in his current attraction.

Following the apple-shooting sequence in "Thin Man", Lee Kline tied the idea to his lobby exploitation on the date at Warners' Orpheum, Philadelphia, by offering tickets to patrons who shot an apple from the cutout head with airgun.

To sell his date on "Keep 'Em Flying" at the Park Theatre, in Mansfield, Ohio, James Cattell promoted use of propellers and other equipment which was planted in his lobby during run. Appropriate tie-in copy was features.

To hook the sales of Defense Stamps via the special lobby booth to his current attractions, Harold Grott at the Met, Baltimore, builds up both with tie-in copy as here represented: "Don't let them Die with Their Boots On", copy changed to fit each program change. Booth, fourteen feet by eight, is decorated with defense posters furnished by postoffice.

"Virginian" Date Tied to Local

Since the main character in "The Vanishing Virginian" stems from a prominent jurist of nearby Lynchburg, Frank Shaffer made much of his date at Warners' Dixie, Staunton, Va., by coupling the campaign to the well-known local. This was made known widely in all of the advertising as was the book from which the picture was made, the author being a familiar figure in that sector.

Playing a leading part in the promotion was the M-G-M educational exhibit showing the highlights of the picture in production, the display receiving preview publicity when shown at the premiere in Lynchburg and before the recent exhibitors' convention in Richmond. Shaffer succeeded in having his leading women's club sponsor the showing in specially provided quarters at the Y. M. C. A. Lecturers provided by M-G-M were on hand to explain the exhibit which included original manuscript of the novel, original costumes used in the picture, photos of sets, miniatures of buildings in the production, etc. The talks were scheduled at regular hours and the local papers gave the showing plenty of front-page, trailers at the theatre also inviting the public to see the display.

The newspaper advertising was pegged to the leads and atmosphere of the attraction, an instance being the two-column type layout used by the Warner man taken from the campaign that marked the Richmond premiere. Headed: "If you miss this picture, you should be spanked," the copy prepared the mood of the story in the caption: "No war. No mobs. No sin. No hate. No noise," and the main character identified by name above the title.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Yates Ties "Laughing" To Local Woodpecker

Dave Yates of the State, Amarillo, Texas, in cooperation with RKO exploiteer Bud Gray worked out some clever gags centered around Charlie McCarthy in their "Look Who's Laughing" campaign. Capitalizing on a front-page story in the Amarillo Globe which told of the endeavor of a local citizen to capture a woodpecker which had been chopping away in the interior woodwork of their new home for several days, Yates advertised for a woodpecker for use in a Charlie McCarthy publicity stunt and the ad was tied in via stories with the bird which was driving a family crazy.

A saw, hammer, hatchet, brace and bit, chisels and tin snips were displayed in a store window near the State along with a sign which was stated they were the tools used by Surgeon Bergen in his operation on McCarthy. On a small pile of sawdust was a sign stating that it was the blood shed by McCarthy. It seems that Charlie's "epizootic" was removed.

In the outer lobby of the theatre there was placed an old wooden house block with a sign that it was Charlie McCarthy's "Dad." An axe was stuck in the block and on the axe was a sign announcing the awarding of five pairs of guest tickets to the persons guessing nearest the weight of the block. Yates billed the engagement as the Texas premiere of the comedy.

SHOWMEN'S LOBBY LAFFS

Another incident in the tumultuous career of the fabulous Marquee Mike as depicted here by his creator, Glenn Franke of Cheviot, Ohio.

Benefit Screening Held By Ahrens for "Dumbo"

Walter Ahrens, assistant manager of the Orpheum Theatre, Champaign, Illinois, staged a benefit screening for the patients of local sanitarium as the highlights of his campaign on "Dumbo." The affair attracted widespread attention with the local papers News-Gazette, Courier and Illini, playing it up in the news columns a week in advance of the screening.

Another phase of the campaign included a tie-in with book store for a window display of "Dumbo" books, plus a plug for the opening of the picture at the Orpheum. Radio transcriptions were used on piano company half hour radio program on station WDWS, two days in advance of play-date. In addition Ahrens staged a four day coloring and jingle contest sponsored by the News-Gazette, with the piano company awarding four Dumbo Record Albums to the winners, while the theatre cooperated with passes. Ahrens also arranged for the distribution of three thousand Dumbo kiddie play books to the children in all the grade schools of the twin cities.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Graver's Army Tieup

Larry Graver, Warner theatres district manager in Philadelphia, tied in with the selective service registration on Monday (16) in conjunction with the opening of "You're In the Army Now" at three of his key neighborhood houses—the Roosevelt, Nixon and 69th St. theatres. The three selective service boards in the theatre's area presented free theatre tickets to the first 25 registrants at each of the boards on registration day.

"Get Acquainted" Party Inaugurated by Swett

In a community surrounded by opposition theatres that play two weeks to two months ahead, all within a 20-mile radius, Al Swett at the Orpheum in Danvers, Mass., conceived the idea of bolstering his Sunday night business with a "Get Acquainted Theatre Party" sponsored by local merchants.

Each Sunday night, two winners are chosen from the audience to be guests of the manager and cooperating merchants the following Sunday night with a guest apiece. Winners are picked up following week by car and driven to restaurant tied in on the deal for dinner and thence to the theatre. During the program, the winners are introduced to the audience by some prominent localite. After the show, they are taken to cooperating drugstore when they may order their favorite beverage and then driven home.

Swett says the whole idea is sold on the screen advertising the merchants get as well as through newspapers. Each store tied in on the deal uses window and counter cards plugging the "Get Acquainted" slant, car driving winners to theatre bannered with copy: "Get Acquainted winners on their way to see", etc.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Engel's Goodwill Gesture

Upon learning that the heating unit of adjoining Town Hall was out of service, Owner Joseph Engel of the Plains Theatre in Plains, Pa., immediately offered the use of the theatre for pre-induction ceremonies for 39 selectees scheduled to leave for the Army. Thus, his good will rating increased.

THE "FORTNIGHTS"

Pace in the Fourth Fortnight of the first Quarter of the 1942 Quigley Awards keep up the standard as 65 Appointments are voted to 68 entrants, the extra three as usual have double credits. In addition to the mentions taken down by the theatremen of America, the current listing is distinguished by an Award to Mel Lawton, and Hermann Flynn of the Prince Edward Theatre, in Sydney, Australia.

A. E. ABLESON Lake, Devils Lake, N. D.	DICK FELDMAN Schine's Paramount, Syracuse, N.Y.	BILL MORTON GEORGE E. FRENCH RKO Albee, Providence, R. I.
ROB ANTHONY Schine's Piqua, Piqua, Ohio	J. H. FEULNER Des Plaines, Des Plaines, Ill.	CHARLES MOYER State, Hanover, Pa.
JOHNNY BARCROFT RKO, Columbus, Ohio	HERMANN FLYNN MEL LAWTON Prince Edward, Sydney, Australia	JACK NELSON Capitol, North Bay, Ont., Can.
FRANK BICKERSTAFF L. & J. Palace, Athens, Ga.	ED FITZPATRICK Loew's Poli, Waterbury, Conn.	PAT NOTARO Columbia, Sharon, Pa.
J. H. BLACK Capitol, Penticton, B. C., Can.	SAM GILMAN Loews, Harrisburg, Pa.	RAY PARKER Avalon, St. Louis, Mo.
LIGE BRIEN Belmar, Pittsburgh, Pa.	JOE GOLDSTEIN Liberty, Rochester, N. Y.	JIM PISAPIA Harbor, Brooklyn, N. Y.
LESLIE V. CAMPBELL Strand, Trail, B. C., Can.	FRANCIS GOOCH Houlton, Houlton, Me.	LES POLLOCK Loews, Rochester, N. Y.
JAMES CATTELL Park, Mansfield, Ohio	HAROLD GROTT Met, Baltimore, Md.	ED PURCELL Strand, Staunton, Va.
ARTIE COHN Roosevelt, Philadelphia, Pa.	R. H. GUENTHER Apollo, Buffalo, N. Y.	JIMMIE REDMOND Bonham, Fairbury, Neb.
BEN COHN Warner's Frolic, Chicago, Ill.	E. D. HARRIS Glendale, Glendale, Calif.	HARRY ROSE Globe, Bridgeport, Conn.
CY CONDON Huish, Elko, Nev.	LOU HART Schine's Glove, Gloversville, N. Y.	MORRIS ROSENTHAL Majestic, Bridgeport, Conn.
M. CONNER Capitol, Madison, Wis.	BILL HARWELL Ohio, Mansfield, Ohio	J. A. SANDERS Colonial, Junction City, Kans.
CLAYT CORNELL Schine's State, Tupper Lake, N. Y.	JOHN HEFLINGER West End, St. Louis, Mo.	BOYD F. SCOTT Broadway, Lubbock, Texas
JACK COTTER Colonial, Erie, Pa.	GUY W. HEVIA Empire, Syracuse, N. Y.	SID SCOTT Capitol, Sudbury, Ont., Can.
GEORGE CRONIN Strand, Portland, Me.	BILL JOHNSON Smalley, Dolgeville, N. Y.	HOWARD SEXTON Roxy, La Porte, Ind.
HAROLD W. de GRAW Schine's Oneonta, Oneonta, N. Y.	MEL JOLLEY Columbia, St. Thomas, Ont., Can.	FRANK SHAFFER Warner's Dixie, Staunton, Va.
E. M. DOWLING Capitol, Pittsfield, Mass.	R. LEE KLINE Orpheum, Philadelphia, Pa.	JOHN W. SHAFFER W. D. GALLIGAN Commercial, Chicago, Ill.
MAURICE DRUKER Loew's State, Memphis, Tenn.	ARTHUR KROLICK Century, Rochester, N. Y.	CHUCK SHANNON State, State College, Pa.
ALLAN EASSON Oakwood, Toronto, Ont., Can.	STAN LAMBERT Venetian, Racine, Wis.	CLYDE SMITH Paramount, Hot Springs, Ark.
JACK EBERSBERGER Sheboygan, Sheboygan, Wis.	IRVING H. LUDWIG Forest Hills, Forest Hills, N. Y.	T. TESCHNER Bijou, New Haven, Conn.
BILL ELDER Loews, Indianapolis, Ind.	BILL McCLAIN Virginia, Carrollton, Ohio	J. R. WHEELER Granada, So. Bend, Ind.
FRANCIS J. FAILLE Paramount, No. Adams, Mass.	JACK MATLACK Rialto, Medford, Oregon

Colleges Help "Clouds" Dates

Relatives of local boys serving in the RCAF were guests of Bert Leighton for the premiere of "Captains of the Clouds" at Warner's Grand, in Lancaster, Pa., Leighton securing the names of airmen through his newspapers which cooperated for the event. Students in aeronautics classes at the local Franklin & Marshall College were advised of the showing through announcements by faculty heads, the students coming to the theatre in a body.

Leighton was able to plug the date at the airport, where a large army bomber plane was on display. Tied to the picture was had with giant banner reading: "Planes like this play an important part in" etc. For the youngsters, a model airplane store used special windows with replicas of fighter and bomber planes to inspire a model building contest for prizes of guest tickets.

In Madison, Wis., Marlowe Conner also found the local collegians cooperative, the Warnerman having as his guest for his "Clouds" opening at the Capitol, the crack rifle squad of the University. The organization paraded from the campus to the theatre, where they were lined up by Conner for newspaper photos. Before the picture was taken, the company's color guard presented the colors on stage followed by the National Anthem.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

Ties 'Cavalcade' To Army Drive

Stimulation of interest in the army services was credited to the cooperation given local recruiting in the campaign for Universal's "Cavalcade of Aviation" at the Rialto, Medford, Oregon. As a result of the tie-in made by Jack Matlack, exploitation manager for the Geo. A. Hunt Theatres, an official station was opened in the lobby on opening night with army personnel on hand to answer inquiries and accept applications for enlistment.

The theatre service was emphasized in the advertising with the featurette billed over the other units of the program. Teasers in advance stressed the line: "America's 'V' is in its Cavalcade of A'V'iation", the "V" motif carried out throughout all the promotion, including the lobby recruiting publicity.

Used as a first-time locally, the army-theatre tieup was given wide publicity in the press, the campaign proving out at the box-office, according to Matlack, with many of the older folks as well as the younger eligibles on hand to look over the display and to see the show.

"LET'S HEAR FROM YOU"

McClain's "Mexico" Tieup

Ahead of "Down Mexico Way" at the Virginia, in Carrollton, Ohio, Bill McClain planted free readers in neighborhood weekly, while for "One Foot in Heaven," stills were landed on high school bulletin boards, in public library and clergy urged parishioners attendance.

ROUND TABLERS PREPARING FOR SPRING'S ARRIVAL

April Fool Parties, Easter-tide Doings Now Being Set by Members

With the spring season starting early in April, not too much time remains for the- atremen intent upon putting together cam- paigns to celebrate April Fools, Eastertime promotions, fashion shows and other sea- sonal inaugurations. In advance of this year's Easter, which comes on April 5, the egg hunts and coloring contests are again to and fore and what was done last year is to be pointed to as an indication of what will be executed next month.

One thing to be kept in mind is that in addition to the usual prizes of children's gifts, cash and merchandise, many theatre- men will offer defense stamps. In one form or another, this will bulk largely in Easter program plans, especially in competitions held for the youngsters.

As an instance of a typical Easter party, the one held in Belen, New Mexico, last year by Carmon Phillips at the Onate the- atre, offered local merchants an opportunity to donate the eggs, the project starting off with a free show for children at the theatre, who arrived at the house behind the local school band which also led the juveniles after the show to the park where the hunt was held. Phillips secured the assistance of Boy Scouts to bury the eggs at the park and to act as monitors to keep the youngsters under control.

Screwball Stuff Attracts

Encouraged by the general call for more screwballery to offset war tensions and, of course, by the all-out campaigns on "Hellzapopin," April Fools' activities this year are programmed exclusively to follow the general promotion by Interstate and Grif- fith's theatremen. Publicity and advertising urges the public to "go nuts," with every- thing at the theatre happening to emphasize the mood. For instance, the male personnel is dressed in female apparel and the wo- men vice versa. Coat hangers, advertised for free distribution in advance turned out to be ordinary nails and cigarette lighters turned up as matches. All of which were distributed elaborately in imprinted envel- opes.

Patrons are often told to sell tickets to the personnel and to expect that ushers will be asked to be shown to seats. Instead of the conventional flashlights, ushers were given kerosene lamps. The house staff sold pean- uts and popcorn in the aisles, boys rode bicycles through the house, shorts were run in reverse, etc., etc. Recent campaigns in the Round Table on "Hellzapoppin" dates provide further material, especially when the picture date coincides with the holiday.

Suggests Stunts in Theatre

A manual issued by Seymour Morris, Schine's Theatres advertising department, for "Hellzapoppin" provides further am- munition for the April Fool's prevue, among the stunts featured being a young man in

PLUGS "BOOTS" WITH GENERAL MAC ARTHUR

Since the regiment stressed in "They Died with Their Boots On" was the Seventh of Michigan, United De- troit Theatres ad forces sold "They Died with Their Boots On" by adver- tising Custer in the picture as the "General MacArthur of Michigan" at the head of a three-column plug for the date at the Michigan.

high hat and cutaway jacket and no trous- ers, who ascends to the stage to announce the party, while the house staff showered the audience with peanuts and popcorn. Tags carrying Olsen and Johnson's names were planted under 25 seats, folks at a given time invited to look under their seats for them. Those bringing them up to the stage receiving a dollar in exchange. As the people came into the theatre, they were given fake ten dollar bills with numbers on them and instructed to hold them should their duplicate number be called from the stage. To the women, men's wearing ap- parel articles were given and to the men, women's.

Up in the sector where milk-making is an important industry, Clayton Cornell at Schine's State, in Tupper Lake, N. Y., la- beled his promotion as a "Kids' Easter Matinee Party," securing a feature es- pecially suitable for the youngsters, which was run in conjunction with a short put out by the New York State Milk Board, "Our Milky Way," and shown with the coopera- tion of one of the large dairies. Bottles of chocolate milk were given to all attending, the dairy paying for and distributing a co- op herald house-to-house in advance.

War, or no war, women's fashion shows will again be important, representative be- ing that put on by J. R. MacEachron at the Malso Paramount, in Jackson, Tenn., who utilized the leading stores for the gowns and local socialites to serve as models. Mac's show was put on for one evening featuring misses', matrons' and children's apparel, well-known fashion ex- pert served as narrator. Stage settings were supplied by furniture stores and florists, the entire promotion publicized with an exten- sive advertising campaign and publicity sup- port from the newspapers.

A showing of morning wear, house dresses, play clothes, informal dresses, suits and coats supplied by nine cooperating wo- men's and department stores was the tiein executed by Pat Patchen, with 20 local girls as models, the entertainment featured with a number of acts put on by talented ama- teurs. For publicity purposes, Pat promoted a 14-page section of the daily, front cover given over to program of the show, rest of the section taken up with co-op ads, feature stories on coming styles and double truck of the new fashions posed by picture stars.

At Schine's Athens, in Athena, Ohio, Manager Francis Nolan put on a "National Defense Party," aimed, at that time, for the collection of aluminum utensils. Admission was free to children bringing in the required pots and pans which Nolan turned over to a local junk dealer at regular prices. This year, the idea will be turned to the collec- tion of waste-paper, used tooth paste and shaving cream tubes, old rubber and other articles requested by the government for salvage.

Nolan Holds Defense Party

Another slant in this direction will be for the children to exchange the articles they bring to the boxoffice for defense stamps distributed by the theatre, the stamps which the children would retain to allow them admission to the show. To accumulate funds for the theatre's stamp fund, the ma- terial brought by the children would be dis- posed of through regular channels, returns to be used for the purchase of more defense stamps.

Egg coloring is another reliable to be used extensively, the entries to be shown either in the lobby or, as practised by the Cleveland Loewmen, in prominent windows downtown in cooperation with local dailies. The prizes, in addition to defense stamps, will also be live bunnies, bags of candy and other things to appeal to the youngsters.

Egg hunts outside of the treasure ap- proach will also be fashioned in the manner used by Pat Patchen last year, who tied a number of stores to the promotion to fill their windows with eggs, prizes going to those coming nearest to guessing correct number. For this purpose, Pat put out spe- cial blanks with the rulings, names of stores and space next to each for the actual guesses.

Egg Rolling Finds Favor

Closer cooperation with papers for the egg rolling is also noted by the tieins made by Les Pollock, in Rochester, the cooperating daily running entry coupons; the youngsters required to fill them out and bring them to the theatre. The children were then given official tags to wear during the search in order to be eligible for the prizes, the top award given for the child locating the golden eggs.

STORE TICKET TIEIN AIDS TERRELL'S DATES

To keep the large department stores cultivated, since they are a valuable source of co-ops and win- dows displays, and to make a direct appeal to their employees, Dan Ter- rell at Loew's Capitol, in Washing- ton, offers guest tickets each week to employees making largest sales in any one department so designated by store manager. In exchange for this, store distributes tinted theatre heralds carrying ticket offer together with copy on current picture.

BRIEF REPORTS FROM THE FIELD

Since one of the leading Washington, Ind. plants makes parachutes for the government, "Kal" Kalberer seized upon the opportunity to tie in the company to his "Parachute Battalion" date at Switow's Indiana, in a sale of regular-price tickets given by the factory to all employees. The plant heads endorsed the picture for page-one attention, then followed with a full-page ad stressing their part in the national defense and urging attendance by the public to the picture, the plug taking half of the page. Actual chute made by the company was displayed in the lobby.

Eino Hemmila of the Rogue Theatre, Medford, Ore., wrote a letter to his boss as a means of promotion in his campaign on "All That Money Can Buy." Hemmila's letter, addressed to the house owner, Mr. Hunt, a prominent Medford citizen, covered reasons why local citizens should see the screen production. The letter was used in advertising copy and for display purposes.

Tying in with a local store, George Papas, Rialto, Beaver Falls, Pa., arranged a newspaper contest offering ski suits for the best answers to: "Why I'd like to own a ski suit similar to one worn by Greta Garbo in 'Two-Faced Woman.'"

"Why I like the Tarzan pictures" was the subject of a school contest set by H. Kalmer, Manos, Indiana, Pa., as part of his campaign for "Tarzan's Secret Treasure."

Guest tickets were awarded to those correctly naming Greta Garbo's first ten leading men in a radio contest arranged by Pat Notaro, Columbia, Sharon, Pa., during his "Two-Faced Woman" campaign.

Now that the public is requested to carry purchases from stores, Joe Feulner is tying to the move by plugging the parcel-checking service at the Des Plaines, Des Plaines, Ill., a card attached to the ticket-chopper calling attention to the service. Small card at the change machine invites patrons to take their change in stamps, a larger card placed on rear door of the box-office also plugging bond copy. Feulner has also substituted bonds for cash in his regular drawing.

Three stunning models, attractively dressed, rode street cars, busses and department store elevators carrying books with "Gone With the Wind" jackets as part of the "GWTW" campaign conducted by Ed Fisher, Loew's, Houston. He also arranged an interview with the former local Scarlett O'Hara and extended an invitation to the person who received the first seat at the original showing.

"Woman of the Year" is the New York transit lines' picture-of-the-month for February. It informs 151,000,000 subway, elevated and surface lines riders that "Katie and Spence are so good they steal the picture from each other."

Defense Tieins Keep Rollin'

From every quarter, theatremen continue to bombard the public with bonds-and-stamps promotions, collections of war material, and what have you, the week's bond activities featured by the dedicatory campaign at the F&M Victory, the new name of the circuit's Mikado selected in a contest by over 300 entrants. The ceremonies, staged by Manager Joe Goldstein, under the auspices of the local Legion posts, aimed for a wide sale of bonds, over $100,000 worth reported to have already been bought by F & M employees. For one day, passes were given to every patron-bond buyer and a term pass to the purchaser of the greatest individual amount.

Juke Box Plays Patriotic Songs

At the Majestic, East St. Louis, Ill., Manager J. R. McCullough tied a "juke box" idea to sales of stamps, the box filled with patriotic songs which patrons were invited to request. Members of local women's clubs were in charge, operating the box at 10 and 25 cents per tune. In addition to the song customers received a 10 or 25-cent stamp, and sales were reported as brisk as long lines of patrons gathered to listen and buy.

Entirely successful was the Tire Matinee put on by Clayt Cornell at Schine's State, Tupper Lake, N. Y., some 250 kids taking advantage of the free show offer by rolling up a lot of old rubber. Stacked up out front, the "admissions" proved the center of public interest. The plan proved easy-to-take, since Cornell had arranged with a tire store for full children's admissions for every tire brought in.

Holds Air-Raid Rehearsals

Toward the successful operation of theatre procedure in air raids, Comerford officials staged rehearsals during showings of M O T's "When Air Raids Strike" in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre for civilian defense workers in both situations. In the latter spot, the program was halted to announce that an air raid "was in progress," the staff then proceeding to carry out the circuit drills for the occasion. In Scranton, the lights were turned on, air raid announcements made, the personnel then demonstrating how the theatre could be cleared in an emergency. Among the circuit executives taking part in the proceedings were Tom Comerford, Charles Ryan, and district managers Byron Linn, John Comerford and Tom Killeen.

More than a thousand volumes were gathered at a special Book Matinee at the Penn, Wilkes-Barre, in connection with the Victory Book campaign, put on by Manager Paul Tighe cooperating with the local library head. Children were guests of the theatre in exchange for a book or magazine, police and fire officials being on hand to assist in handling the youngsters.

A man wearing a "shadow" costume and carrying a small black bag toured the streets of Anderson, Ind., as one of the highlights of Mel Blieden's campaign on "Shadow of the Thin Man" at the State Theatre. At busy intersections, man would open bag and before assembled curious spectators work a jigsaw puzzle made from a one-sheet. Western Union boy paged "Mr. Thin Man" in the theatre for several nights in advance of playdate, while the town's leading drug stores offered "Thin Man" sodas and luncheons for customers on special diets.

For "Underground," Jerome Engel, manager of the Family Theatre, Glen Lyon, Pa., had Hitler hung in effigy on a gallows mounted atop an automobile which toured the territory.

Don Black of the Heilig Theatre, Eugene, Ore., worked with the Eugene Daily News for a co-op page in his campaign on "Suspicion" that was of a two-fold nature. All contestants were called on to clip star cut-outs, assemble and name them. The second phase of the contest called for the writing of a slogan containing the word "suspicion" for each merchant represented on the page.

To exploit "Sundown," J. A. Sanders, manager of The Colonial in Junction City, Kansas, arranged for all the young women employees to be dressed in Arabic costumes for a week preceding the playdates.

J. Mark Cadle, manager of the Kiva theatre in Slater, Mo., successfully staged an old fiddlers contest in connection with "Tuxedo Junction," the contest advertised in the local press, handbills and weekly programs. Eight old fiddlers took part. Prizes in cash were awarded the first and second best.

John Newcomer, manager of the Uptown theatre, Manhattan, Kansas, arranged a model plane contest for junior's in connection with the presentation of "International Squadron." Planes secured in the contest were hung in the lobby and were used to construct a model miniature airdrome with the large roadshow board as background.

Inaugurating a Defense Week during the showing of "Billy the Kid," Ed Harris, Glendale Theatre, Glendale, Cal., held some form of defense activity in the theatre each night during the engagement.

A radio contest asking listeners to name previous "Tarzan" pictures in which Johnny Weissmuller appeared was landed by J. Merrill, Capitol, Wheeling, W. Va., as a highlight of his campaign for "Tarzan's Secret Treasure."

"Reserved for Asta" was the sign used on a genuine hydrant borrowed from the local Highway Department and placed in front of Shea's Theatre, Bridgeport, Pa., by Vincent Choate, in advance of "Shadow of the Thin Man."

SOME RECENT AD IDEAS

Everyone's Saying...

DON'T MISS-

Remember the Day

A 20th CENTURY-FOX PICTURE WITH

Claudette COLBERT JOHN PAYNE

2nd BIG HIT!
A HOWLING MYSTERY COMEDY!
The BODY DISAPPEARS
...and the fun begins!
with JEFFREY JANE LYNN WYMAN

Extra! TECHNICOLOR
SUPERMAN
AMAZING! EXCITING!
Don't miss this thrill

STARTING Tomorrow! Orpheum 30¢
DIRECTION A. M. BLANK

(Above) Reverse title panel against reverse benday background used throughout for "Remember", Orpheum, Omaha, is illustrated by this 100 lines on 2 col. campaign prepared by Joe Kinsky, district head, with Bill Miskell and Lou Kozal.

(Below) To plug his three headliners with equal prominence at the Central, Passaic, N. J., Abram Preiskill used hand-lettered circles punctuated with star heads.

Entire Week CENTRAL PASSAIC Starts Tomorrow
CENTRAL AVE. at ERIE STATION. DOORS OPEN 12:30

WORLD FAMOUS COMPOSER OF MODERN SWING!
RAYMOND SCOTT
AND HIS ORCH.
Featuring Raymond SCOTT QUINTET and BILLY LEACH

On The STAGE IN PERSON
YOUR FAVORITE RADIO STAR!
BENAY VENUTA
The BILLINGTONS

EXTRA ATTRACTION!
GREATEST OF ALL COMEDIANS!
WILLIE HOWARD

ON THE SCREEN FIRST RUN FEATURES
Charles BICKFORD
"QUEEN OF THE YUKON"
IRENE RICH

Last Day On Stage. Chico MARX & ORCH also Kitty CARLISLE

(Right) "Sleeper" head and copy to top everything else made up the type layout selected by Harold DeGraw to sell "Virginian" at Schine's, Oneonta, N. Y. Size: 100 lines on 2 col.

(Below) Of the various sales approaches on "Lady For A Day", the campaign at the Strand, Providence, aimed for the class slant, as indicated in this 155 lines on 2 col. typography layout. Copy divulged nothing of the story, with cuts only suggesting background.

STRAND

STARTS TOMORROW

Joan BLONDELL · John WAYNE

In one of the finest motion pictures of the year... brought to the screen by an important cast of ranking players who give life and movement to its impassioned story of a woman's haunting ambition.

"LADY FOR A NIGHT"

with RAY MIDDLETON
PHILIP MERIVALE · BLANCHE YURKA · EDITH BARRETT
LEONID KINSKY
THE HALL JOHNSON CHOIR

(Right) Since the stage show had finished a capacity run in advance of the picture, the United Detroit Theatres ad forces aimed to cash in on "Louisiana Purchase" at the Michigan by featuring the "100 times too big" slant to stress the $4.40 show angle at popular prices. Size: 160 lines on 3 col.

...It's A "Sleeper"!

Last night a large audience saw a great movie. They saw FRANK MORGAN deliver the prize performance of his career as Cap'n Bob Yancey. They heard KATHRYN GRAYSON sing beautiful melodies. They saw a picture attuned to the heart-beat of a nation... an American masterpiece to place alongside "Ah Wilderness!"

"THE VANISHING VIRGINIAN" is a "sleeper" produced with no advance fanfare and boasting no big stars. It has turned out to be great entertainment and a surprise hit. Oneonta is fortunate to have an early engagement of the picture the whole country will soon be talking about. Wake up and discover the greatest "sleeper" of all time—

"THE VANISHING VIRGINIAN"
—Starring—
Frank Morgan — Kathryn Grayson
— Plus 2nd Hit —
Miss Shirley Temple
"KATHLEEN"
with Laraine Day, Herbert Marshall

TODAY ONEONTA
AND FRI. ONEONTA, N.Y.

FLASH! Fire Sweeps Liner "Normandie"! Action in Singapore! A. E. F. in Ireland! IN TODAY'S NEWSREEL

100 times FOR ANY STAGE!
TOO BIG... TOO MANY GIRLS... TOO MANY LAUGHS!

Now MICHIGAN

All This..

And HOPE too!

A $4.40 Show That Is Reeking American-Slap-Happy NOW AT POPULAR PRICES...

BOB HOPE
VICTOR MOORE
ZORINA · IRENE BORDONI
"LOUISIANA PURCHASE"
IN TECHNICOLOR
A Paramount Picture

MUSIC AND LYRICS BY IRVING BERLIN

There is one place where each of us may always find laughter, inspiration, contact and relaxation. That place is the Motion Picture Theatre.

POUR AND 2:30:30:45:50:55:60:65:70:75:80:85:90:95:100:105:110:115:120:125:130:135:140:145:150:155:160:165:170:175:180:185:190:195:200:205:210:215:220:225:230:235:240:245:250:255:260:265:270:275:280:285:290:295:300:305:310:315:320:325:330:335:340:345:350:355:360:365:370:375:380:385:390:395:400:405:410:415:420:425:430:435:440:445:450:455:460:465:470:475:480:485:490:495:500:505:510:515:520:525:530:535:540:545:550:555:560:565:570:575:580:585:590:595:600:605:610:615:620:625:630:635:640:645:650:655:660:665:670:675:680:685:690:695:700:705:710:715:720:725:730:735:740:745:750:755:760:765:770:775:780:785:790:795:800:805:810:815:820:825:830:835:840:845:850:855:860:865:870:875:880:885:890:895:900:905:910:915:920:925:930:935:940:945:950:955:960:965:970:975:980:985:990:995:1000:1005:1010:1015:1020:1025:1030:1035:1040:1045:1050:1055:1060:1065:1070:1075:1080:1085:1090:1095:1100:1105:1110:1115:1120:1125:1130:1135:1140:1145:1150:1155:1160:1165:1170:1175:1180:1185:1190:1195:1200:1205:1210:1215:1220:1225:1230:1235:1240:1245:1250:1255:1260:1265:1270:1275:1280:1285:1290:1295:1300:1305:1310:1315:1320:1325:1330:1335:1340:1345:1350:1355:1360:1365:1370:1375:1380:1385:1390:1395:1400:1405:1410:1415:1420:1425:1430:1435:1440:1445:1450:1455:1460:1465:1470:1475:1480:1485:1490:1495:1500:1505:1510:1515:1520:1525:1530:1535:1540:1545:1550:1555:1560:1565:1570:1575:1580:1585:1590:1595:1600:1605:1610:1615:1620:1625:1630:1635:1640:1645:1650:1655:1660:1665:1670:1675:1680:1685:1690:1695:1700:1705:1710:1715:1720:1725:1730:1735:1740:1745:1750:1755:1760:1765:1770:1775:1780:1785:1790:1795:1800:1805:1810:1815:1820:1825:1830:1835:1840:1845:1850:1855:1860:1865:1870:1875:1880:1885:1890:1895:1900:1905:1910:1915:1920:1925:1930:1935:1940:1945:1950:1955:1960:1965:1970:1975:1980:1985:1990:1995:2000:2005:2010:2015:2020:2025:2030:2035:2040:2045:2050:2055:2060:2065:2070:2075:2080:2085:2090:2095:2100:2105:2110:2115:2120:2125:2130:2135:2140:2145:2150:2155:2160:2165:2170:2175:2180:2185:2190:2195:2200:2205:2210:2215:2220:2225:2230:2235:2240:2245:2250:2255:2260:2265:2270:2275:2280:2285:2290:2295:2300:2305:2310:2315:2320:2325:2330:2335:2340:2345:2350:2355:2360:2365:2370:2375:2380:2385:2390:2395:2400:2405:2410:2415:2420:2425:2430:2435:2440:2445:2450:2455:2460:2465:2470:2475:2480:2485:2490:2495:2500:2505:2510:2515:2520:2525:2530:2535:2540:2545:2550:2555:2560:2565:2570:2575:2580:2585:2590:2595:2600:2605:2610:2615:2620:2625:2630:2635:2640:2645:2650:2655:2660:2665:2670:2675:2680:2685:2690:2695:2700:2705:2710:2715:2720:2725:2730:2735:2740:2745:2750:2755:2760:2765:2770:2775:2780:2785:2790:2795:2800:2805:2810:2815:2820:2825:2830:2835:2840:2845:2850:2855:2860:2865:2870:2875:2880:2885:2890:2895:2900:2905:2910:2915:2920:2925:2930:2935:2940:2945:2950:2955:2960:2965:2970:2975:2980:2985:2990:2995:3000:3005:3010:3015:3020:3025:3030:3035:3040:3045:3050:3055:3060:3065:3070:3075:3080:3085:3090:3095:3100:3105:3110:3115:3120:3125:3130:3135:3140:3145:3150:3155:3160:3165:3170:3175:3180:3185:3190:3195:3200:3205:3210:3215:3220:3225:3230:3235:3240:3245:3250:3255:3260:3265:3270:3275:3280:3285:3290:3295:3300:3305:3310:3315:3320:3325:3330:3335:3340:3345:3350:3355:3360:3365:3370:3375:3380:3385:3390:3395:3400:3405:3410:3415:3420:3425:3430:3435:3440:3445:3450:3455:3460:3465:3470:3475:3480:3485:3490:3495:3500:3505:3510:3515:3520:3525:3530:3535:3540:3545:3550:3555:3560:3565:3570:3575:3580:3585:3590:3595:3600:3605:3610:3615:3620:3625:3630:3635:3640:3645:3650:3655:3660:3665:3670:3675:3680:3685:3690:3695:3700:3705:3710:3715:3720:3725:3730:3735:3740:3745:3750:3755:3760:3765:3770:3775:3780:3785:3790:3795:3800:3805:3810:3815:3820:3825:3830:3835:3840:3845:3850:3855:3860:3865:3870:3875:3880:3885:3890:3895:3900:3905:3910:3915:3920:3925:3930:3935:3940:3945:3950:3955:3960:3965:3970:3975:3980:3985:3990:3995:4000:4005:4010:4015:4020:4025:4030:4035:4040:4045:4050:4055:4060:4065:4070:4075:4080:4085:4090:4095:4100:4105:4110:4115:4120:4125:4130:4135:4140:4145:4150:4155:4160:4165:4170:4175:4180:4185:4190:4195:4200:4205:4210:4215:4220:4225:4230:4235:4240:4245:4250:4255:4260:4265:4270:4275:4280:4285:4290:4295:4300:4305:4310:4315:4320:4325:4330:4335:4340:4345:4350:4355:4360:4365:4370:4375:4380:4385:4390:4395:4400:4405:4410:4415:4420:4425:4430:4435:4440:4445:4450:4455:4460:4465:4470:4475:4480:4485:4490:4495:4500:4505:4510:4515:4520:4525:4530:4535:4540:4545:4550:4555:4560:4565:4570:4575:4580:4585:4590:4595:4600:4605:4610:4615:4620:4625:4630:4635:4640:4645:4650:4655:4660:4665:4670:4675:4680:4685:4690:4695:4700:4705:4710:4715:4720:4725:4730:4735:4740:4745:4750:4755:4760:4765:4770:4775:4780:4785:4790:4795:4800:4805:4810:4815:4820:4825:4830:4835:4840:4845:4850:4855:4860:4865:4870:4875:4880:4885:4890:4895:4900:4905:4910:4915:4920:4925:4930:4935:4940:4945:4950:4955:4960:4965:4970:4975:4980:4985:4990:4995:5000:5005:5010:5015:5020:5025:5030:5035:5040:5045:5050:5055:5060:5065:5070:5075:5080:5085:5090:5095:5100:5105:5110:5115:5120:5125:5130:5135:5140:5145:5150:5155:5160:5165:5170:5175:5180:5185:5190:5195:5200:5205:5210:5215:5220:5225:5230:5235:5240:5245:5250:5255:5260:5265:5270:5275:5280:5285:5290:5295:5300:5305:5310:5315:5320:5325:5330:5335:5340:5345:5350:5355:5360:5365:5370:5375:5380:5385:5390:5395:5400:5405:5410:5415:5420:5425:5430:5435:5440:5445:5450:5455:5460:5465:5470:5475:5480:5485:5490:5495:5500:5505:5510:5515:5520:5525:5530:5535:5540:5545:5550:5555:5560:5565:5570:5575:5580:5585:5590:5595:5600:5605:5610:5615:5620:5625:5630:5635:5640:5645:5650:5655:5660:5665:5670:5675:5680:5685:5690:5695:5700:5705:5710:5715:5720:5725:5730:5735:5740:5745:5750:5755:5760:5765:5770:5775:5780:5785:5790:5795:5800:5805:5810:5815:5820:5825:5830:5835:5840:5845:5850:5855:5860:5865:5870:5875:5880:5885:5890:5895:5900:5905:5910:5915:5920:5925:5930:5935:5940:5945:5950:5955:5960:5965:5970:5975:5980:5985:5990:5995:6000:6005:6010:6015:6020:6025:6030:6035:6040:6045:6050:6055:6060:6065:6070:6075:6080:6085:6090:6095:6100:6105:6110:6115:6120:6125:6130:6135:6140:6145:6150:6155:6160:6165:6170:6175:6180:6185:6190:6195:6200:6205:6210:6215:6220:6225:6230:6235:6240:6245:6250:6255:6260:6265:6270:6275:6280:6285:6290:6295:6300:6305:6310:6315:6320:6325:6330:6335:6340:6345:6350:6355:6360:6365:6370:6375:6380:6385:6390:6395:6400:6405:6410:6415:6420:6425:6430:6435:6440:6445:6450:6455:6460:6465:6470:6475:6480:6485:6490:6495:6500:6505:6510:6515:6520:6525:6530:6535:6540:6545:6550:6555:6560:6565:6570:6575:6580:6585:6590:6595:6600:6605:6610:6615:6620:6625:6630:6635:6640:6645:6650:6655:6660:6665:6670:6675:6680:6685:6690:6695:6700:6705:6710:6715:6720:6725:6730:6735:6740:6745:6750:6755:6760:6765:6770:6775:6780:6785:6790:6795:6800:6805:6810:6815:6820:6825:6830:6835:6840:6845:6850:6855:6860:6865:6870:6875:6880:6885:6890:6895:6900:6905:6910:6915:6920:6925:6930:6935:6940:6945:6950:6955:6960:6965:6970:6975:6980:6985:6990:6995:7000:7005:7010:7015:7020:7025:7030:7035:7040:7045:7050:7055:7060:7065:7070:7075:7080:7085:7090:7095:7100:7105:7110:7115:7120:7125:7130:7135:7140:7145:7150:7155:7160:7165:7170:7175:7180:7185:7190:7195:7200:7205:7210:7215:7220:7225:7230:7235:7240:7245:7250:7255:7260:7265:7270:7275:7280:7285:7290:7295:7300:7305:7310:7315:7320:7325:7330:7335:7340:7345:7350:7355:7360:7365:7370:7375:7380:7385:7390:7395:7400:7405:7410:7415:7420:7425:7430:7435:7440:7445:7450:7455:7460:7465:7470:7475:7480:7485:7490:7495:7500:7505:7510:7515:7520:7525:7530:7535:7540:7545:7550:7555:7560:7565:7570:7575:7580:7585:7590:7595:7600:7605:7610:7615:7620:7625:7630:7635:7640:7645:7650:7655:7660:7665:7670:7675:7680:7685:7690:7695:7700:7705:7710:7715:7720:7725:7730:7735:7740:7745:7750:7755:7760:7765:7770:7775:7780:7785:7790:7795:7800:7805:7810:7815:7820:7825:7830:7835:7840:7845:7850:7855:7860:7865:7870:7875:7880:7885:7890:7895:7900:7905:7910:7915:7920:7925:7930:7935:7940:7945:7950:7955:7960:7965:7970:7975:7980:7985:7990:7995:8000:8005:8010:8015:8020:8025:8030:8035:8040:8045:8050:8055:8060:8065:8070:8075:8080:8085:8090:8095:8100:8105:8110:8115:8120:8125:8130:8135:8140:8145:8150:8155:8160:8165:8170:8175:8180:8185:8190:8195:8200:8205:8210:8215:8220:8225:8230:8235:8240:8245:8250:8255:8260:8265:8270:8275:8280:8285:8290:8295:8300:8305:8310:8315:8320:8325:8330:8335:8340:8345:8350:8355:8360:8365:8370:8375:8380:8385:8390:8395:8400:8405:8410:8415:8420:8425:8430:8435:8440:8445:8450:8455:8460:8465:8470:8475:8480:8485:8490:8495:8500:8505:8510:8515:8520:8525:8530:8535:8540:8545:8550:8555:8560:8565:8570:8575:8580:8585:8590:8595:8600:8605:8610:8615:8620:8625:8630:8635:8640:8645:8650:8655:8660:8665:8670:8675:8680:8685:8690:8695:8700:8705:8710:8715:8720:8725:8730:8735:8740:8745:8750:8755:8760:8765:8770:8775:8780:8785:8790:8795:8800:8805:8810:8815:8820:8825:8830:8835:8840:8845:8850:8855:8860:8865:8870:8875:8880:8885:8890:8895:8900:8905:8910:8915:8920:8925:8930:8935:8940:8945:8950:8955:8960:8965:8970:8975:8980:8985:8990:8995:9000:9005:9010:9015:9020:9025:9030:9035:9040:9045:9050:9055:9060:9065:9070:9075:9080:9085:9090:9095:9100:9105:9110:9115:9120:9125:9130:9135:9140:9145:9150:9155:9160:9165:9170:9175:9180:9185:9190:9195:9200:9205:9210:9215:9220:9225:9230:9235:9240:9245:9250:9255:9260:9265:9270:9275:9280:9285:9290:9295:9300:9305:9310:9315:9320:9325:9330:9335:9340:9345:9350:9355:9360:9365:9370:9375:9380:9385:9390:9395:9400:9405:9410:9415:9420:9425:9430:9435:9440:9445:9450:9455:9460:9465:9470:9475:9480:9485:9490:9495:9500:9505:9510:9515:9520:9525:9530:9535:9540:9545:9550:9555:9560:9565:9570:9575:9580:9585:9590:9595:9600:9605:9610:9615:9620:9625:9630:9635:9640:9645:9650:9655:9660:9665:9670:9675:9680:9685:9690:9695:9700:9705:9710:9715:9720:9725:9730:9735:9740:9745:9750:9755:9760:9765:9770:9775:9780:9785:9790:9795:9800:9805:9810:9815:9820:9825:9830:9835:9840:9845:9850:9855:9860:9865:9870:9875:9880:9885:9890:9895:9900:9905:9910:9915:9920:9925:9930:9935:9940:9945:9950:9955:9960:9965:9970:9975:9980:9985:9990:9995:10000:10005:10010:10015:10020:10025:10030:10035:10040:10045:10050:10055:10060:10065:10070:10075:10080:10085:10090:10095:10100:10105:10110:10115:10120:10125:10130:10135:10140:10145:10150:10155:10160:10165:10170:10175:10180:10185:10190:10195:10200:10205:10210:10215:10220:10225:10230:10235:10240:10245:10250:10255:10260:10265:10270:10275:10280:10285:10290:10295:10300:10305:10310:10315:10320:10325:10330:10335:10340:10345:10350:10355:10360:10365:10370:10375:10380:10385:10390:10395:10400:10405:10410:10415:10420:10425:10430:10435:10440:10445:10450:10455:10460:10465:10470:10475:10480:10485:10490:10495:10500:10505:10510:10515:10520:10525:10530:10535:10540:10545:1

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

*the great national medium
for showmen*

Ten cents per word, money-order or check with copy. Count initials, box number and address. Minimum insertion, $1. Four insertions for the price of three. Contract rates on application. No borders or cuts. Forms close Mondays at 5 P.M. Publisher reserves the right to reject any copy. Film and trailer service advertising not accepted. Classified advertising not subject to agency commission. Address correspondence, copy and checks MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Classified Dept., Rockefeller Center, New York City

THEATRES

FOR SALE: PART INTEREST FLOURISHING business seven movie theatres. Address: MERENDONI, Teatro Rex, Barranquilla, Colombia.

HAVE CASH TO LEASE OR BUY SMALL town theatre Illinois, Michigan, Indiana or Wisconsin. BOX 1494, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

WESTERN MINING TOWN THEATRE BUILDINGS. R.C.A. equipment. No opposition. Plenty lead, zinc, copper, gold, silver. Owner goes to Army in 5 months. Takes money to buy one or more. BOX 1505, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

FOR SALE: MODERN THEATRE AND EQUIPMENT. Will sell building or equipment separate. ODOM BROTHERS, Durant, Miss.

POSITIONS WANTED

PROJECTIONIST, MINNESOTA OR WISCONSIN preferred. OPERATOR, 313 East Main, Wabasha, Minnesota.

MANAGER, 10 YEARS EXPERIENCE, DESIRES change. A-1 reference. BOX 415, Orangeburg, S. C.

PROJECTIONIST: FINEST WORK. 10 YEARS experience. Married, sober, age 27, excellent references. Go anywhere for permanent position with reliable party. J. W. TOLER, Village Theatre, Claremont, Calif.

LICENSED PROJECTIONIST. 12 YEARS EXPERIENCE. Married, family. Good sign painter, also Neon service man. Excellent references. Will go anywhere. BOX 1504, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

SEAT RECOVERING

WE RECOVER BACKS AND SEATS WITHOUT interfering with the operation of theatre. Write for sample materials and prices. We do the job for less. CHICAGO USED CHAIR MART, 844 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

PRINTING SERVICE

THEATRE BLOWERS, SAME QUALITY, LOW prices. STITES ART, Shelbyville, Indiana.

USED GENERAL EQUIPMENT

SOME THEATRE CAN USE YOUR OLD EQUIPMENT. A little ad here will reach thousands of potential customers. Only ten cents a word to tell the world what you have to sell. Try it today. MOTION PICTURE HERALD, Rockefeller Center, New York.

COMPLETE THEATRE EQUIPMENT AND chairs for 300 seat house. Low price for quick turnover. MOVIE SUPPLY COMPANY, 1318 South Wabash, Chicago.

1,200 USED UPHOLSTERED HEYWOOD CHAIRS. Full upholstered metal back, box spring seat, metal bottom. A first class lot of chairs priced right. CHICAGO USED CHAIR MART, 844 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

PRE-REMOVAL SALE, MUST CLEAN HOUSE. Portable sound projectors, 16mm., 35mm., from $59.50; rear shutters, Simplex, $29.50; Film cabinets, $1.49 section; lenses from $4.95; soundheads, $9.95; amplifiers, $4.95; Powers mechanisms, $39.50; cushion seats, 39c. Free bargain bulletins. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

FOR SALE: USED CIGARETTE MACHINES, 8 slot and 10 slot. Very reasonable. BOX 1503, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

EVERYTHING FOR THEATRE CHAIRS. All makes, parts, supplies, anchor cement, seat patch, used chairs, upholstering, repairing. Fensin Seating, 62 East 13th, Chicago.

NEW GENERAL EQUIPMENT

2,000' WIRE WELDED REELS, $1.19; FIRE EXTINGUISHERS, $1.80; Bausch Lomb 6" series II lenses, $19.50; public address systems, $35.60; stock tickets, 19c roll. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

BUY NEW SOUND SCREENS NOW WHILE material's available—23½ sq. ft.; Complete stage setting, $66.60; Fully automatic curtain controls, $75.95; heavy duty track, $2.19 ft. Immediate deliveries. S. O. S. CINEMA SUPPLY CORP., New York.

BUSINESS BOOSTERS

BINGO CARDS. DIE CUT, 1 TO 100 OR 1 TO 75, $2.00 per thousand. $17.50 for 10,000. BOX 1434, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BUY YOUR BINGO CARDS DIRECT FROM THE world's largest manufacturer of theatre bingo cards. Write us today for samples and prices. BOX 1477, MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

BOOKS

MOTION PICTURE SOUND ENGINEERING—547 pages; illustrated; covers every practical method and process in present-day sound engineering. Leading engineers explain every detail of apparatus and its arrangement, with diagrams, tables, charts and graphs. This manual comes straight from the workshops of the studios in Hollywood. It is indispensable to everyone working with sound equipment. Price $6.50 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 567 PAGE BOOK ON AIR CONDITIONING by Charles A. Fuller, authority on the subject. Available for theatre owners contemplating engineering changes. Book is cloth bound with index and charts and covers every branch of the industry as well as codes and ordinances regulating installation. Order now at $4.00 a copy postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

RICHARDSON'S BLUEBOOK OF PROJECTION. A second revision of the Sixth Edition of Richardson's Bluebook of Projection with a complete section of Sound Trouble-shooting Charts as well as a host of additional up-to-the-minute text on the latest equipment. Price $7.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

NEW 1941-42 MOTION PICTURE ALMANAC. Edited by Terry Ramsaye. The industry's most complete "Who's Who." More than 11,000 biographies and over 1,100 pages, chock full of reference information. Everyone in the motion picture industry should have a copy. Be sure to send in your order today. $3.25 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

BOOKKEEPING SYSTEM

THEATRE MANAGEMENT RECORD AND TAX Register. This new accounting system is the newest book of its kind ever made available to an exhibitor. In addition to being complete in every respect, it is simple—so much so that it is not necessary to have had bookkeeping experience in order to keep an accurate, complete and up-to-the-minute record of the business of your theatre. The introductory price is only $2.00 postpaid. QUIGLEY BOOKSHOP, Rockefeller Center, New York.

HELP WANTED

OPERATORS AND MANAGERS—MOVIE CIRCUITS, Roshon, 2506 RKO Building, New York.

PRESS OF
C. J. O'BRIEN, INC.
NEW YORK, U. S. A.

PRODUCT DIGEST

THE RELEASE CHART

SHOWMEN'S REVIEWS

Adventures of Martin Eden (Columbia—Bronston) Jack London Melodrama

Seagoing men as Jack London knew them and made them known to his readers fight out a feud involving not only themselves but the forces of right and wrong in a film combining power and weakness to produce a compelling total effect.

In its actionful sequences the picture throws Glenn Ford and Ian MacDonald into frequent fistic clashes.

In the calm interludes between these meetings the picture ranges the scale of settings from waterfront and attic living quarters to the drawing-rooms of the monied.

The tale of a sailor's attempt to prove a companion wrongfully imprisoned for mutiny, which he does by first becoming a writer of prominence and thus securing publication of suppressed facts in the case, is told in round-about fashion with ups and downs of interest which conspire to impart to the final sequence the power of the unpredictable. Emotions of many kinds are dealt with in the course of the narrative.

Claire Trevor, Evelyn Keyes and Stuart Erwin handle the other principal roles expertly. Produced for Samuel Bronston by B. P. Schulberg and directed by Sidney Salkow, the picture is virtually free of comedy relief and stresses the stern and mainly melodramatic aspects of the story, transferred to screen by W. L. Rivers, steadily.

Principal scene of the picture in San Francisco and the period is well in the past.

Previewed at the studio to a professional audience which appeared to regard the attraction as substantial entertainment.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Release date, Feb. 26. Running time, 88 minutes. PCA No. 8027. General audience classification.

Martin Eden .....	Glenn Ford
Connie Dawson .....	Claire Trevor
Butch Ragan .....	Ian MacDonald
Evelyn Keyes, Stuart Erwin, Dickie Moore, Frank Conroy, Rafaela Ottiano, Pierre Watkin, Regina Wallace, Robert J. McDonald.

Below the Border (Monogram)

The "Rough Riders" Ride Again

"Below the Border" boasts the "Rough Riders," consisting of Buck Jones, Tim McCoy and Raymond Hatton, in another one of their adventures in behalf of law and order and the fulfillment of justice, all executed in a manner that has become standard for this series.

Buck Jones, U. S. Marshal, has been commissioned by the Government to clean up a gang of criminals in Border City. It doesn't take Buck very long to come in contact with the gang, for en route, the stagecoach is held

Reviews

This department deals with new product from the point of view of the exhibitor who is to purvey it to his own public.

up and some money and very famous jewels are stolen from one of the women. Posing as a bad man himself, he joins the gang, and with the aid of the ever faithful Hatton and McCoy, succeeds eventually in rounding them up.

This western falls into the routine class, but should, nevertheless, satisfy those who are fans of the Rough Riders and those who are just fans of westerns.

Scott R. Dunlap was the producer and Howard Bretherton directed.

Reviewed at the New York Theatre, in New York, where the audience seemed to have a good time laughing at and with the picture.—IRENE SMOLEN.

Release date, Jan. 30, 1942. Running time, 57 minutes. PCA No. 8039. General audience classification.

Buck Roberts .....	Buck Jones
Tim McCall .....	Tim McCoy
Sandy .....	Raymond Hatton
Rosita .....	Linda Brent
Aunt Maria .....	Eva Puig
Slade .....	Charles King
Dennis Moore, Roy Barcroft, Bud Osborne, Merrill McCormick, Ted Mapes and Silver.

South of Santa Fe

(Republic) Western

This is another of Republic's streamlined Westerns, and an entertaining bit of potpourri it is, with Roy Rogers, singing cowboy star, right in there demonstrating again why exhibitors gave him third place in the 1941 MOTION PICTURE HERALD-FAME poll of Western stars.

There's a plot, involving men of the Old West in contest with some gangsters, of the 1942 weed variety. Paul Fix plays the menace, escaping from the law, who chooses Whittaker City for a hide-out and then decides to stage a kidnapping. Roy Rogers, leader of the rancher-cowhands of the bailiwick, upsets the apple cart. Involved too, is Rogers' heart interest, played by Linda Hayes. There's fighting, gun-play and some good chases on trusty steeds across the plains, up hill and dale, and finally, the capture of the lawless thugs. The kidnappees are rescued, Rogers' acclaimed hero of the day and all ends happily.

Throughout the film, are a number of tuneful cowboy songs interpolated in the action, comedy, romance sequences which give Rogers and Sons of the Pioneers ample opportunity to exercise their pleasing-to-the-ear vocal chords. George "Gabby" Hayes provides the comedy relief. Western fans, man and boy, will like the new Republic "he-men of the plains" dish turned out by associate producer-director Joseph Kane.

Previewed in Republic's home office projection room where some ladies of the National Board of Review foregathering, appeared to like the film.—J. E. SAMUELSON Release date, February 17th, 1942. Running time, 55 min. PCA No. 8047. General audience classification.

Roy .....	Roy Rogers
Mayor Whittaker .....	George "Gabby" Hayes
Carol Stevens .....	Linda Hayes
Paul Fix, Judy Clark, Bobby Beers, Arthur Loft, Charles Miller, Sam Flint, Jack Kirk, and The Sons Of The Pioneers.

The Man Who Returned to Life

(Columbia) Melodrama

A melodrama dealing with a small Southern town's prejudice toward Northerners, the attempted lynching of an innocent murder suspect and his escape only to return to save the life of the man convicted of murdering him, "The Man Who Returned to Life" is a tightly packed, tensely told story.

John Howard plays the title role, that of a Northerner forced to flee from a Maryland town when he is suspected of murdering the girl who attempted to force him to marry her on the eve of his marriage to another. He flees, assumes a new identity and then returns to save the life of the man accused of killing him.

Others in the cast are Marcella Martin, a comparative newcomer who does an outstanding job; Lucile Fairbanks, Ruth Ford, Roger Clark, Elisabeth Risdon, Paul Guilfoyle, Clancy Cooper, Helen MacKellar, Kenneth MacDonald, Carol Coombs.

Gordon Rigby's adaptation of the story by Samuel W. Taylor is a concisely built screenplay from which director Lew Landers extracted the maximum of entertainment facets. Wallace MacDonald was associate producer.

Exhibitors below the Mason-Dixon line might do well to examine the film for suitability with regard to their individual communities.

Previewed for the trade press in a Columbia studio projection room, Hollywood, where the picture drew laudatory comments.—VANCE KING.

Release date, Feb. 5, 1942. Running time, 60 minutes. PCA No. 8002. General audience classification.

David Jameson .....	John Howard
Jane Bishop .....	Lucile Fairbanks
Beth Beebe .....	Ruth Ford
Daphne Turner .....	Marcella Martin
Roger Clark, Elisabeth Risdon, Paul Guilfoyle, Clancy Cooper, Helen MacKellar, Kenneth MacDonald, Carol Coombs.

Professor Creeps

(Consolidated National)

All-Negro Comedy

Sixth in a series of pictures featuring all-Negro casts produced by Jed Buell has the requirements of the South's 400 colored-patronage theatres particularly in mind, this comedy sent the patrons of a colored-patronage house in downtown Los Angeles into such gales of laughter as "Hold That Ghost" precipitated throughout the land.

That it will do the same in similar situations elsewhere appears a certainty.

That it might do something like it in some white-patronage theatres is a possibility warranting exhibitor investigation.

Like "Hold That Ghost," which it is not like otherwise, "Professor Creeps" goes back to the medicine-show era for terror-type comedy which has been sure-fire since show business started.

Chief figures in the film are two Negro comedians, F. E. Miller and Mantan Moreland, who do in a quite different way for the film just about what the Messrs. Abbott and Costello do for theirs.

Starting out on a basis of straight comedy in an office setting, the picture uses a dream switch to place the two amateur detectives in the midst of occult occurrences in a house of mystery where a doctor walks on the ceiling, turns people into animals, performs assorted absurdities in behalf of comedy, then ends with the duo back where they started. It's all in the province of Negro humor as displayed in medicine-show days, again in the minstrel show era, and recently under profitable auspices in pictures.

Veteran William Beaudine's direction makes every foot of film count.

Previewed at the Lincoln theatre, Los Angeles, which is the colored population's Music Hall. A capacity audience laughed, screamed and shrieked its satisfaction from start to finish.—W. R. W.

Release date, not set. Running time, 63 minutes. PCA No. 8138. General audience classification.

Jefferson ..... F. E. Miller
Washington ..... Mantan Moreland
Professor Creeps ..... Arthur Ray
Daffodil Dixon ..... Florence O'Brien
Macco B. Sheffield, Margaret Whitten, Shelton Brooks, Jesse Cryer, Billy Mitchell, Zack Williams, Charles Hawkins, Clarence Hargrave, John Lester Johnson, Nappie Whiting.

To Be Or Not To Be

(UA-Lubitsch)

Comedy Lampooning Nazis

An unprepared turnout of theatregoers drawn to the village theatre in Westwood by "H. M. Pulham, Esq." came to this picture following the Fox Movietone newsreel pictures of the Pearl Harbor disaster and laughed heartily and often after the first 10 or 15 minutes. On the basis of this somewhat trying test of the film it would appear to follow that any showmanly fears growing out of the tragic passing of Carole Lombard, or the fact that this treats humorously of the Nazis at a time when the war news is not funny, may turn out to be groundless as concerns the boxoffice.

It is a venture in more directions than one which producer-director Ernst Lubitsch, who also collaborated with Melchior Lengyel on the story, has delivered to exhibitors and their customers.

Warsaw, just prior to, during and after the German assault, is the scene of the narrative, yet the film is a comedy and played for laughs in all save a few momentary passages establishing a background of desolation and Nazi domination.

As a comedy, it deals with the Nazi soldiers and the Gestapo in a manner just short of the "Great Dictator" tone.

MONOGRAM RELEASING "UNDERWORLD"

Monogram will distribute "Shadows of the Underworld", which was released in England under the title, "This Man in Paris". The picture was produced at the Pinebrook-Paramount studio in England by Anthony Havelock-Allan and was directed by David MacDonald. Starred are Barry K. Barnes and Valerie Hobson.

The film was reviewed in MOTION PICTURE HERALD, issue of July 8, 1939. The reviewer said of the picture: "On its own merits the film, which seeks to do in the English idiom—if with a Continental setting—what Hollywood has been doing successfully for years, has a rich fund of entertainment, breezy and infectious comedy, sheer fictitious melodrama, sparkling characterizations and a production and direction polish which would shame many a more expensive effort."

"Barry K. Barnes reads his role on conventionally jaunty lines and Valerie Hobson registers her wifely roles with easy polish. It is again, however, Alastair Sim's confused and confounded Scots editor who runs away with the film." The reference is to "This Man Is News", in which the same stars appeared.

The story, scripted by Edwin Justus Mayer, concerns the operations of the Polish "Underground" and follows the contour of a thrilling, patriotic melodrama, rife with escapes, captures, some killings, but utilizes all of these materials for laugh purposes.

Miss Lombard portrays a Polish actress who pretends to fall in with Nazi plans by way of preventing capture of Polish patriots. Jack Benny portrays her husband, a Polish Shakespearean star, who outwits the Gestapo by a series of successful disguises and impersonations.

The picture drew its loudest laughs from the preview audience in the many situations dominated by the comedian which are, as, and of themselves, amusing in the extreme. A running gag, in which Benny is interrupted in his reading of Hamlet's soliloquy, registered solidly.

In two respects the picture is linked of necessity to happenings in the world of fact.

Individual audience reaction to the film is tempered, one way or another in all cases, by the fact of Miss Lombard's death.

Mass audience reaction is subject to variation with the tenor of the day's war news.

In locations where Polish people predominate it is well to test out specifically the local attitude toward a comedy which utilizes blitzed Warsaw as a background for humor.

Previewed as reported in detail above.—WILLIAM R. WEAVER.

Release date, February 15, 1942. Running time, 100 minutes. P. C. A. No. 7825. General audience classification.

Carole Lombard ..... Maria Tura
Jack Benny ..... Joseph Tura
Robert Stack ..... Lieutenant Sobinski
Felix Bressar ..... Greenberg
Lionel Atwill ..... Rawitch
Stanley Ridges, Sig Ruman, Tom Dugan, Charles Halton, George Lynn, Harry Victor, Maude Eburne, Armand Wright, Erno Verebes, Halliwell Hobbs, Myles Mander, Leslie Dennison, Frank Reicher, Peter Caldwell and Wolfgang Zilzer.

(Review reprinted from last week's HERALD)

ADVANCE SYNOPSIS AND INFORMATION

FINGERS AT THE WINDOW (Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer)

Melodrama

PRODUCER: Irving Starr. Directed by Charles Lederer.

PLAYERS: Lew Ayres, Laraine Day, Basil Rathbone, Walter Kingsford, Miles Mander.

SYNOPSIS

Six persons have been murdered with axes in Chicago. In each case the murderer has been caught, and proves to be a raving lunatic. Oliver Duffy (Lew Ayres), an unemployed actor, walking the streets at night, sees a sinister figure following a girl. Duffy escorts the girl (Laraine Day) home. He keeps watch, sees a prowler but the man escapes. The next night he catches the prowler, who turns out to be a lunatic. Duffy concludes that a master-mind is behind the killings. A reward of $25,000 is posted by a newspaper for a solution to the mystery. Duffy resolves to win it. The chase narrows down to a Doctor Santelle (Basil Rathbone), who once was a stage musician Miss Day once knew in Paris. Santelle and Duffy match wits with Santelle getting the better of it until the final showdown when Duffy overpowers the doctor. The young couple collect the reward and wed.

RODEO RHYTHM (Producers Rel. Corp.)

Drama and a Kid Rodeo

PRODUCER: Leo J. McCarthy. Associate Producer: Martin Finkelstein. Directed by Fred Neymeyer.

PLAYERS: Fred Scott, Pat Dunn, Loie Bridge, Patricia Redpath, Jackie Cooper.

SYNOPSIS

The story opens in an orphanage where for the last several years it has been the custom to take all of the children to a ranch for a summer vacation. All plans have been made for the trip when a mortgage falls due and the money accumulated for the trip is used to pay the mortgage. An old vaudeville actor takes the children to the ranch in his truck. The kids decide to put on a rodeo to help defray expenses. The same mortgage holder makes his appearance and causes trouble. However, he has an auto accident, and it is the kids who save his life. He announces that he intends to build a finer orphanage for the children. The kid rodeo goes on as scheduled.

SPECIAL REMARKS

Thirty juvenile riders, ranging in ages from three to fourteen, appear in the picture.

CONTINENTAL EXPRESS (Monogram)

Intrigue

PRODUCER: Anthony Havelock-Allan. Directed by Herbert Mason. A British production.

PLAYERS: Rex Harrison, Valerie Hobson, John Loder, Muriel Ake, George Devine.

SYNOPSIS

Three political agitators during a temporary lull in the European war crisis, plot the assassination of a Balkan prime minister and use the daughter (Valerie Hobson) of a political figure in the Balkans as the dupe of their interests. They convince her that her father, who has been thrown into jail on a trumped-up political charge, will be ordered shot by the returning prime minister. She joins them in their fiendish plot, hoping to save her father's life. She and one of the agitators board the Continental Express in Switzerland. Her plot is foiled by Rex Harrison, secret service man.

ADVANCE SYNOPSSES

and information

BEYOND THE BLUE HORIZON

(Paramount)

Jungle Romance

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER: Monta Bell. Directed by Alfred Santell.

PLAYERS: Dorothy Lamour, Richard Denning, Jack Haley, Helen Gilbert, Walter Abel, Patricia Morison.

SYNOPSIS

Once more, Dorothy Lamour is back to the sarong which brought her stardom, playing a white girl found in the jungle with a playful ape and a ferocious tiger as her pets. Filmed in color, the picture introduces a new leading man in lion skin, Richard Denning, and features Jack Haley and Walter Abel. Patricia Morison plays the "other woman" and Helen Gilbert makes her first appearance since she signed with Paramount. The direction is by Alfred Santell, who directed Miss Lamour in "Aloma of the South Seas." The story opens in the United States with the boy and the girl in civilization, then takes them back to the jungle and the menace of an insane elephant.

TRUE TO THE ARMY

(Paramount)

Comedy

PRODUCER: Sol C. Siegel. Associate Producer: Jules Schermer. Directed by Albert S. Rogell.

PLAYERS: Judy Canova, Allan Jones, Ann Miller, Jerry Colonna.

SYNOPSIS

An Army comedy, this has Private Allan Jones as the producer and Jerry Colonna as his cohort, putting on their own show with talent recruited from the ranks, plus Judy Canova, who is hiding out at the army post from pursuing gangsters, and the twinkling toes of Ann Miller, who steps up her tap dancing to match the firing pace of a machine gun.

NIGHT IN NEW ORLEANS

(Paramount)

Comedy-Melodrama

PRODUCER: Sol C. Siegel. Directed by William Clemens.

PLAYERS: Preston Foster, Patricia Morison, Albert Dekker, Charles Butterworth, Jean Phillips, Dooley Wilson.

SYNOPSIS

Preston Foster, a New Orleans detective, tries to recover some school girl love letters written by wife Patricia Morison, only to find that the recipient has been murdered just before Foster broke in. Suspicion turns on Foster. From then on the picture is a mixture of comedy and melodrama.

KLONDIKE VICTORY

(Monogram)

Melodrama

PRODUCER: Maurice King. Associate Producer: Franklin King. Directed by William K. Howard.

PLAYERS: Edmund Lowe, Lucile Fairbanks, Bill Henry, Ralph Morgan, Mary Forbes, Jean Brook, Vince Barnett, Clyde Cook.

SYNOPSIS

Dr. John Mandre (Edmund Lowe), brain specialist, is ousted from the medical profession when he performs a delicate operation which is unsuccessful. Mandre is accused of letting the patient die because of his affection for the man's wife. Mandre, formerly a war pilot, enters the airplane ferrying service. On a return flight, he crashes in the Klondike. The disbarred doctor finds himself confronted with the some kind of operation as he had previously performed unsuccessfully. This time he performs the operation successfully. The local doctor (Ralph Morgan) accompanies Mandre back to civilization, resolved to restore his fellow physician to his rightful place in the medical profession by telling of the successful operation.

DR. BROADWAY

(Paramount)

Comedy-Melodrama

PRODUCER: Sol C. Siegel. Associate Producer: E. D. Leshin. Directed by Anton Mann.

PLAYERS: Macdonald Carey, Jean Phillips, J. Carroll Naish, Eduardo Ciannelli, Richard Lane, Joan Woodbury, Warren Hymer.

SYNOPSIS

Macdonald Carey, the co-star of Gertrude Lawrence in the stage play, "Lady in the Dark," is teamed here with Jean Phillips, Paramount starlet, in a comedy-melodrama filled with the colorful characters along Broadway. Carey is a physician who knows the Great White Way thoroughly. Miss Phillips is his receptionist. A man he had sent to prison and who is now dying, asks Carey to locate a daughter and give her a fortune. But others think they have prior claims on the fortune—and it takes all of the doctor's pals to block the fortune-seekers.

THIS GUN FOR HIRE

(Paramount)

Melodrama

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER: Richard M. Blumenthal. Directed by Frank Tuttle. Based on the novel by Graham Greene.

PLAYERS: Veronica Lake, Robert Preston, Laird Cregar, Alan Ladd.

SYNOPSIS

"This Gun for Hire" gives Veronica Lake an opportunity at dramatic melodrama, following her appearance as a siren in "I Wanted Wings" and a comedienne in "Sullivan's Travels." The story is that of a girl magician who is selected to get information on a suspected fifth columnist (Laird Cregar) and who achieves success dynamically through the aid of a young killer (Alan Ladd), who is intent on murdering Cregar and is the only man who can pump a confession from him. Through all this the girl's sweetheart, a police detective (Robert Preston) is pursuing Ladd, who has the girl a captive.

ARIZONA ROUNDUP

(Monogram)

Western

PRODUCED and directed by Robert Tansey.

PLAYERS: Tom Keene, Frank Yaconelli, Sugar Dawn, Jack Ingram, Hope Blackwood, Steve Clark.

SYNOPSIS

Tom Keene is hired by Steve Clark, who with his daughters, Hope Blackwood and Sugar Dawn run a ranch, to help round-up wild horses for shipment to the government remount station. The fly in the ointment is that the owner of the railroad spur is in cahoots with another rancher and they seek exorbitant prices for the use of the right of way road out of town. The ranchers call a meeting at which Tom discloses that he is a government man. He devises a plan to foil the plotters. They counteract by kidnaping Tom. He frees himself and in a gun battle the culprits are killed.

MRS. MINIVER

(Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer)

Drama

PRODUCER: Sidney Franklin. Directed by William Wyler. Based on the book by Jan Struther.

PLAYERS: Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon, Teresa Wright, Dame May Whitty, Reginald Owen, Henry Travers, Richard Ney.

SYNOPSIS

Mrs. Miniver (Greer Garson) guiltily buys a foolish hat while shopping in London. Hurrying to her home in the country, Mrs. Miniver is stopped at the railroad station by the station master, Mr. Ballard (Henry Travers). A lover of flowers, he has grown a beautiful rose and named it "Mrs. Miniver." At home, Mrs. Miniver and her husband, Clem (Walter Pidgeon), who has just bought a new car, feint about before revealing their two extravagancies. Meanwhile, Ballard enters the "Mrs. Miniver" rose in the annual flower show, causing much commotion, for no one has ever won the prize for the best rose but Lady Beldon (Dame May Whitty), aristocratic ruler of the village. Carol Beldon (Teresa Wright) comes to the Miniver home to make a plea and is berated by Mrs. Miniver's son, Vin (Richard Ney). The meeting leads to a romance. War is declared and Vin joins the R. A. F. Carol and Vin become engaged, later marry. Beldon wins the award but astounds everyone by giving it to Ballard for the Mrs. Miniver rose. Mrs. Miniver and Carol are caught in an air raid alarm. Carol is wounded and dies as the villagers carry on.

SWEATER GIRL

(Paramount)

Campus Musical

PRODUCER: Sol C. Siegel. Directed by William Clemens.

PLAYERS: Eddie Bracken, June Preisser, Phillip Terry, Frieda Inescort, Betty Jane Rhodes, Nils Asther.

SYNOPSIS

A college campus mystery musical, this teams Eddie Bracken and June Preisser in the leads for the first time. The story deals with a group of college students putting on their spring campus review called "Sweater Girl." Two of the students are murdered and the balance of the story deals with attempts to solve the murder in the midst of rehearsals of the show within the show.

YOKEL BOY

(Republic)

Comedy

ASSOCIATE PRODUCER: Robert North. Directed by Joseph Santley. Based on the play, "Yokel Boy," written by Lew Brown.

PLAYERS: Albert Dekker, Joan Davis, Eddie Foy, Jr., Alan Mowbray, Roscoe Karns, Mikhail Rasumny, Lynne Carver.

SYNOPSIS

In a publicity stunt calculated to bolster the sagging fortunes of the Mammoth Film Studios, the executive producer and his press agent, hire an "idea man" (Eddie Foy, Jr.) because he holds the world's record for movie attendance. Since the picture to which he is assigned is about a noted gangster, the idea man decides that the gangster should play himself. After much byplay the gangster (Albert Dekker) and his sister (Joan Davis) are set as the leads.

FEATURE SERVICE DATA

To aid showmen in checking:
Round Table Exploitation;
Audience Classification;
Legion of Decency Rating

All Through the Night (WB)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 21, '42, Page 58

Babes on Broadway (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 13, '41, Page 52; Jan. 3, '42, Page 50; Jan. 10, '42, Pages 57, 62; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65; Jan. 24, '42, Pages 50, 52; Jan. 31, '42, Page 68; Feb. 7, '42, Pages 59, 62; Feb. 21, '42, Page 60

Bahama Passage (Par.)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class B
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 14, '42, Page 56; Feb. 21, '42, Page 57

Ball of Fire (RKO)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 14, '42, Page 59; Feb. 21, '42, Pages 60, 61

Bedtime Story (Col.)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class B
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 21, '42, Pages 57, 58

Birth of the Blues (Par.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 13, '41, Pages 50, 51, 55; Dec. 27, '41, Page 74; Jan. 3, '42, Pages 57, 58; Jan. 10, '42, Page 65; Feb. 7, '42, Page 60; Feb. 14, '42, Page 60

Captains of the Clouds (WB)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 7, '42, Page 59

Chocolate Soldier (MGM)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 20, '41, Page 71; Dec. 27, '41, Page 76; Jan. 10, '42, Page 62; Jan. 17, '42, Pages 59, 65; Jan. 24, '42, Page 52; Feb. 14, '42, Page 58

Corsican Brothers, The (UA)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 3, '42, Page 57; Jan. 31, '42, Page 69; Feb. 7, '42, Page 58; Feb. 21, '42, Page 57

Design for Scandal (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 7, '42, Page 59; Feb. 21, '42, Page 60

Hellzapoppin (Univ.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 7, '42, Page 60; Feb. 21, '42, Page 61

Feature Service Data are indexed in The Release
Chart starting on Page 532.

How Green Was My Valley (20th-Fox)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 6, '41, Page 59; Jan. 3, '42, Page 59; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65; Feb. 7, '42, Pages 59, 62

Joe Smith, American (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 14, '42, Page 59; Feb. 21, '42, Page 60

Johnny Eager (MGM)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 31, '42, Page 69; Feb. 14, '42, Pages 58, 60

Kathleen (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 3, '42, Page 58; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65; Jan. 31, '42, Page 72; Feb. 7, '42, Page 62

Keep 'Em Flying (Univ.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 20, '41, Page 72; Dec. 27, '41, Page 75; Jan. 17, '42, Page 58; Jan. 31, '42, Page 71; Feb. 7, '42, Page 62; Feb. 14, '42, Pages 56, 60; Feb. 21, '42, Pages 56, 59

Look Who's Laughing (RKO)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 7, '42, Pages 59, 62; Feb. 21, '42, Page 58

Louisiana Purchase (Par.)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class B
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 27, '41, Page 74; Feb. 21, '42, Page 57

Man Who Came to Dinner (WB)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class B
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 24, '42, Page 50; Feb. 21, '42, Page 60

Mister V (UA)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 21, '42, Page 57

LEGION of DECENCY Ratings

Class A-1 Unobjectionable
Class A-2 Unobjectionable for Adults
Class B Objectionable in Part
Class C Condemned

One Foot in Heaven (WB)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 6, '41, Page 58; Dec. 13, '41, Page 55; Dec. 20, '41, Pages 73, 75; Jan. 10, '42, Pages 61, 62; Jan. 31, '42, Page 70; Feb. 7, '42, Pages 60, 62; Feb. 14, '42, Page 60; Feb. 21, '42, Page 60

Paris Calling (WB)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 21, '42, Page 57

Playmates (RKO)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 14, '42, Page 59

Shadow of the Thin Man (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 13, '41, Pages 50, 54; Dec. 20, '41, Pages 70, 74; Dec. 27, '41, Page 76; Jan. 3, '42, Page 50; Jan. 10, '42, Page 57; Jan. 17, '42, Page 65; Feb. 21, '42, Page 60

Shanghai Gesture, The (UA)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class B
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 27, '41, Page 74; Feb. 21, '42, Pages 56, 57

Suspicion (RKO)

Audience Classification—Adult
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 6, '41, Page 63; Dec. 20, '41, Page 75; Dec. 27, '41, Pages 70, 74; Jan. 10, '42, Page 62; Feb. 21, '42, Page 60

Swamp Water (20th-Fox)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-2
Round Table Exploitation—Jan. 3, '42, Page 59; Jan. 10, '42, Page 56; Feb. 7, '42, Page 59; Feb. 14, '42, Page 57

Tarzan's Secret Treasure (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 6, '41, Page 58; Dec. 13, '41, Page 52; Dec. 27, '41, Page 70; Jan. 3, '42, Pages 57, 58; Jan. 10, '42, Page 62; Jan. 17, '42, Page 58; Jan. 24, '42, Page 52; Feb. 7, '42, Page 62; Feb. 14, '42, Page 60; Feb. 21, '42, Page 60

They Died with Their Boots On (WB)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Dec. 27, '41, Page 76; Jan. 10, '42, Pages 56, 57; Jan. 31, '42, Page 68; Feb. 14, '42, Page 58; Feb. 21, '42, Page 60

Vanishing Virginian, The (MGM)

Audience Classification—General
Legion of Decency Rating—Class A-1
Round Table Exploitation—Feb. 7, '42, Page 60; Feb. 21, '42, Pages 56, 57

SHORTS

advance synopses and information

GANG BUSTERS (Univ.)

Serial—13 Episodes (6581-93)

Detective Lieutenant Bill Bannister (Kent Taylor) is assigned to run down an unknown gang of terrorists who have spread a net of crime over the city. Aiding him is Detective Tim Nolan (Robert Armstrong), while following his investigations closely are Vicki Logan (Irene Hervey), a news photographer, and her reporter teammate, Happy Haskins (Richard Davies).

Hotly pursuing a rapid sequence of daring crimes, including attempts at his life, Bill finds that the band's ringleader is a mysterious Professor Mortis (Ralph Morgan). Clues unearthed lead Bill to the discovery that Mortis' gang is made up of known criminals officially listed in police records as dead. Each has become a member of Mortis' "League of Murdered Men" after seemingly committing suicide by hanging while awaiting the death penalty.

Bill runs a gauntlet of narrow escapes in attempting to round up the gang. He fights a madman in a plane plunging earthward without a pilot; is trapped in a dynamited building; is dropped into a secret well and is committed to "living death" by the Professor.

Piecing together a chain of evidence, Bill is lead eventually to the hideouts of the Professor and his mob—one a subterranean cell beneath the city's subways, the other a suburban mystery house. Uncovered also is the Professor's fantastic hold over his gang through the use of death simulating capsules and anti-death treatments. Almost single-handed, Bill outwits and closes in on the gang and causes the gang's extinction.

CAST

Bill Bannister.....Kent Taylor
Vicky Logan.....Irene Hervey
Professor Mortis.....Ralph Morgan
Tim Nolan.....Robert Armstrong
Haskins.....Richard Davies
Chief O'Brien.....Joseph Crehan
Mayor Hansen.....George Watts
Halliger.....Ralf Harolde
Wilkinson.....John Gallaudet
Taboni.....William Haade
Barnard.....Victor Zimmerman
Mason.....George Lewis
Mr. Grub.....Johnnie Berkes
Police Chemist.....Pat O'Malley

SPECIAL REMARKS

The story is based on the radio series of the same name by Phillips H. Lord. The first chapter is reviewed on page 518 of your Product Digest.

CHAPTER TITLES

Episode One—"The League of Murdered Men"
Episode Two—"The Death Plunge"
Episode Three—"Murder Blockade"
Episode Four—"Hangman's Noose"
Episode Five—"Man Under Cover"
Episode Six—"Under Crumbling Walls"
Episode Seven—"The Water Trap"
Episode Eight—"Murder by Proxy"
Episode Nine—"Gang Bait"
Episode Ten—"Mob Vengeance"
Episode Eleven—"Wanted at Headquarters"
Episode Twelve—"The Long Chance"
Episode Thirteen—"Law and Order"

Release date, March 31, 1942

Synopses Indexed

Page numbers on short subject synopses published in Product Digest are listed in the Shorts chart, Product Digest Section, pages 530 and 531.

BLUNDER BELOW (Par.)

Popeye Cartoon (E1-5)

Popeye is one of a group of sailors receiving instructions on anti-submarine maneuvers from an officer who gives out with double-talk. The gobs go on deck for gunnery practice. Popeye steals a last look at his instruction book, climbs into the turret and the guns pop out with Popeye wrapped around the barrel like a bronco rider but facing the wrong way. After some wild experiences with the big guns, Popeye goes into action when a sub is sighted. Popeye gobbles a can of spinach, jumps into the water and swims toward the sub, like a shark fighter. Three torpedoes speed toward Popeye who grabs them like Indian clubs and flings them back at the sub. Popeye battles with the sub and hauls it aboard the American vessel.

Release date, February 13, 1942 7 Minutes

THE NEW SPIRIT (U. S. Treasury)

Walt Disney Cartoon

The thesis of this Walt Disney cartoon subject is that taxes will beat the axis. It was made expressly under the auspices of the War Activities Committee for the U. S. Treasury Department. Donald Duck has been chosen to represent the taxpayer. He listens to a broadcast concerning the paying of income taxes and holds a conversation, with heavy overtones of comedy, with the commentator. That way he learns the meaning of the phrase "taxes to beat the Axis." National Screen Service is distributing the subject.

8 Minutes

THE BIRD CAME C.O.D. (WB)

Merrie Melodie Color Cartoon (7710)

Conrad, a goofy cat and the latest addition to the Schlesinger cartoon characters, is told to deliver a large potted plant backstage in the local vaudeville theatre. He has considerable difficulty in getting the plant into the theatre and finally succeeds in distributing the pigeon who makes his home in the magician's high hat. The pigeon makes life miserable for Conrad, who eventually leaves the theatre without delivering the plant.

Release date, January 17, 1942 7 Minutes

SHAM BATTLE SHENANIGANS (20th-Fox)

Terry-toon (Color) (2559)

Gandy, the lively and erratic young Goose, and his sergeant, the Cat, are the principals in this cartoon which recounts their adventures in the recent "war games." The sham battle between the Blue Army and the Green shows the two heroes as earnest but inexperienced soldiers, not too bright, and the victims of a good deal of strange, sudden and violent hard luck.

Release date, March 20, 1942 7 Minutes

HEDDA HOPPER'S HOLLYWOOD, No. 3 (Par.)

(Z1-3)

Hedda Hopper takes the audience on a visit to a dog training school where pets of the stars are bedded, and the animals are trained for film work. Carl Spitz runs the school. There is Mr. Binkie, a scotty who was Ronald Colman's pal in "The Light That Failed" and Prince Karl, a great dane, who demonstrates that every movement of his master's hand has a meaning of its own. In addition to training dogs for studios and stars, Mr. Spitz is educating them for national defense. Dogs of many breeds are being trained for guard duty and some are already in active Army service. Also shown are several top stars hunting in Idaho.

Release date, February 20, 1942 10 Minutes

MICKY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY (RKO)

Disney Color Cartoon (14,117)

Minnie Mouse gives Mickey a birthday party with all of his friends participating including Clara Cluck, Clarabel Cow, Donald Duck, Horace Horsecollar and Goofy. Everyone goes into a jam session while the Goof goes to the kitchen to make the birthday cake. The first cake falls flat, the second is so heavy it falls through the floor and the third erupts like a volcano. While this is going on the party is hitting on all six with Donald doing the conga with Clara Cluck. The dance finale ends with Donald being tangled up in the chandelier. The Goof finally comes in with the cake—purchased from a bakery—and proceeds to fall to the floor.

Release date, February 7, 1942 8 Minutes

UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS, No. 3 (Par.)

(L1-3)

Henry Verrige of Windom, Minn., has whirligigs for a hobby and breezes to make them go. Twinkle Watts, at six, already is a fancy ice-skater and a child champion at bowling. Will Williams' hobby horses are Shetland ponies and he has been raising them since 1905 at the William's Pony Farm at Denton, Tex. Bessie Merle Kirschner of Edinburg, Tex., makes natty cactus tweeds from desert weeds. Amos 'n Andy, radio blackface comedians, make their first screen appearance in many a year. The comedians, Charles Correll and Freeman Gosden, are seen preparing their program, rehearsing and on the air.

Release date, February 27, 1942 11 Minutes

HEART BURN (RKO)

Edgar Kennedy Comedy (23,404)

Edgar Kennedy, a henpecked husband, learns that his neighbor controls his wife and family by feigning illness. Kennedy decides to try the same system and on arrival home staggers to the couch, pretending to be violently ill. Kennedy's act throws the family into wild confusion. Each member of the family determines to apply their own favorite remedy. Kennedy tries to laugh it off but that procedure only convinces the family that he is crazy and they phone for a mental specialist. Kennedy and the doctor end up in a fight just as the police arrive. Kennedy convinces the police that the doctor is the crazy one.

Release date, February 20, 1942 17 Minutes

SHORTS CHART

Production Numbers
Release Dates
Running Time

COLUMBIA

Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page
INTERNATIONAL FORUM (Two Reels) 1941-42
3451	Dorothy Thompson	2-22-41	142
3452	Will England Be Invaded?	5-27-41	199
3453	Will Democracy Survive?	10-17-41	365
RAYMOND GRAM SWING— HISTORICAL REELS (8 Minutes) 1941-42
3981	Broken Treaties	8-1-41	290
3982	How War Came	11-7-41	411
ALL STAR COMEDIES (Average 17 Min.) 1941-42
3421	Love In Gloom	8-15-41	236
(Youngman-Radio Rogues)
3401	An Ache in Every Stake	8-22-41	265
(Stooges)
3422	Half Shot at Sunrise	9-14-41	322
(Karns)
3428	General Nuisance	9-18-41	322
(Keaton)
3424	The Blitzkiss	10-2-41	333
(El Brendel)
3402	In the Sweet Pie and Pie	10-16-41	322
(Stooges)
3425	Loveable Trouble	10-23-41	352
(Clyde)
3409	Mitt Me Tonight	11-6-41	375
(Glove Slingers)
3426	She's Oil Mine	11-20-41	397
(Keaton)
3403	Some More of Samoa	12-4-41	453
(Stooges)
3427	Sweet Spirits of Nighter	12-25-41	453
(Brendel)
3410	The Kink of the Campus	12-25-41	477
(Glove Slingers)
3404	Loce Boys Make Good	1-8-42	465
(Stooges)
3428	Three Blonde Mice	1-22-42	509
(Mowbray)
3429	Sappy Birthday	2-5-42	..
(Clyde)
3411	Glove Birds	2-12-42	..
(Glove Slingers)
3405	Cactus Makes Perfect	2-26-42	..
(Stooges)
3430	Yoo Hoo General	3-12-42	..
(Billy Vine)
3431	What Makes Lizzy Dizzy	3-26-42	..
(Langdon-Ames)
COLOR RHAPSODIES (7 Minutes) 1941-42
3501	Who's Zoo in Hollywood	11-15-41	397
3502	The Fox and the Grapes	12-5-41	397
3503	Red Riding Hood Rides Again	12-25-41	477
3504	A Hollywood Detour	1-23-42	497
3505	Wacky Wigwags	2-22-42	..
3506	Concerto in B-Flat Minor	3-20-42	..
3507	Cinderella Goes to a Party	4-17-42	..
PHANTASIES CARTOONS (Average 8 Min.) 1941-42
3701	The Crystal Gazer	10-10-41	352
3702	Dog Meets Dog	3-6-42	..
3703	(Untitled)	4-30-42	..
FABLES (8 Minutes) 1941-42
3751	The Great Cheese Mystery	11-1-41	397
3752	The Tangled Angler	12-26-41	497
3753	Under the Shedding Chestnut Tree	2-22-42	..
3754	Wolf Chases Pig	4-1-42	..
CINESCOPIES (Average 9 Min.) 1941-42
3971	Exploring Space	8-8-41	265
3972	From Nuts to Soup	9-5-41	290
3973	The World of Sound	10-3-41	352
3974	Women in Photography	11-7-41	377
3975	Strange Facts	12-6-41	411

For short subject synopses turn to the Product Digest Section pages indicated by the numbers which follow the titles and release dates in the listing. Product Digest pages are numbered consecutively and are separate from Motion Picture Herald page numbers. For 1940-41 short subject releases prior to Sept., 1941, see page 227.

Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page	Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page
COMMUNITY SING (Series 6) (10 Minutes) 1941-42				SPECIAL SUBJECT (21 Minutes) 1941-42
3651	No. 1 (Don Baker)	8-15-41	251	X-310	War Clouds in the Pacific	12-24-41	495
3652	No. 2 (Current Hits)	9-5-41	309	FITZPATRICK TRAVELTALKS (Color) (9 Minutes) 1941-42
3653	No. 3 (College Songs)	10-1-41	323	T-311	Glimpses of Florida	9-6-41	353
3654	No. 4 (Popular Songs)	12-1-41	511	T-312	The Inside Passage	10-4-41	333
3655	No. 5 L. White	12-19-41	511	T-313	Georgetown, Pride of Penang	11-15-41	397
3656	No. 6 (D. Baker)	1-23-42	..	T-314	Scenic Grandeur	12-13-41	477
3657	No. 7	2-22-42	..	T-315	Historic Maryland	12-27-41	477
3658	No. 8 (D. Leibert)	3-27-42	..	T-316	West Point on the Hudson	1-10-42	497
QUIZ REELS (Average 10 Min.) 1941-42				T-317	Minnesota, Land of Plenty	1-31-42	511
3601	So You Think You Know Music, No. 1 (Series 2)	8-22-41	236	T-318	Colorful North Carolina	2-21-42	..
3602	Kitchen Quiz, No. 1	9-12-41	290	PETE SMITH SPECIALTIES (10 Minutes) 1940-41
3603	Kitchen Quiz, No. 2	12-12-41	435	S-271	Football Thrills of 1940	9-20-41	323
3604	Kitchen Quiz, No. 3	2-12-42	519	S-272	Flicker Memories	10-4-41	333
3605	So You Think You Know Music No. 2 (Series 2)	3-13-42	..	1941-42
PANORAMICS (10 Minutes) 1941-42				S-361	Army Champions	10-11-41	322
3901	A City Within a City	8-8-41	265	S-362	Fancy Answers	11-1-41	377
3902	The Gallup Poll	10-17-41	352	S-363	How to Hold Your Husband—Back	12-13-41	433
3903	New York's Finest	12-11-41	477	S-364	Aqua Antica	1-24-42	497
3904	Spare Time in the Army (Private Potts)	2-12-42	519	S-365	What About Daddy?	2-28-42	..
3905	Health for Defense (Gallup Poll No. 2)	3-6-42	..	PASSING PARADE (10 Minutes) 1940-41
TOURS (10 Minutes) 1941-42				K-288	Of Pups and Puzzles	9-16-41	225
3551	Journey in Tunisia	8-15-41	264	K-289	Hobbies	9-20-41	309
3552	Buenos Aires Today	10-10-41	323	1941-42
3553	Alaska Tour	11-7-41	375	K-381	Strange Testament	11-15-41	433
3554	The Great American Divide	2-12-42	..	K-382	We Do It Because	1-24-42	497
SCREEN SNAPSHOTS (Series 21) (10 Minutes) 1941-42				K-383	Flag of Mercy	1-31-42	..
3851	No. 1	8-15-41	322	MINIATURES (10 Minutes) 1940-41
3852	No. 2	9-12-41	290	M-239	Triumph Without Drums	10-18-41	333
3853	No. 3	11-7-41	377	M-240	Viva Mexico	11-1-41	377
3854	No. 4	12-5-41	411	1941-42
3855	No. 5	1-2-42	..	M-331	Changed Identity	11-8-41	365
3856	No. 6	2-12-42	511	M-332	The Greenie	1-24-42	497
3857	No. 7	..	..	OUR GANG COMEDIES (Average 11 Min.) 1941-42
WORLD OF SPORTS (9 Minutes) 1941-42				C-391	Helping Hands	9-27-41	322
3801	Tee Up	8-1-41	238	C-392	Come Back Miss Pippis	10-25-41	352
3802	Show Dogs	9-12-41	265	C-393	Wedding Worries	12-13-41	477
3803	Jungle Fishing	10-10-41	322	C-394	Melodies, Old and New	1-24-42	497
3804	Polo Champions	11-11-41	397	TECHNICOLOR CARTOONS (9 Minutes) 1940-41
3805	Rack-em Up	12-19-41	477	W-252	Officer Pooch	9-6-41	309
3806	College Champions	2-12-42	519	W-253	Flying Bear	11-1-41	377
3807	(Untitled)	3-12-42	..	1941-42
M-G-M				W-341	The Night Before Christmas	12-6-41	435
CRIME DOES NOT PAY (Average 20 Min.) 1940-41				W-342	The Field Mouse	12-27-41	477
P-206	Sucker List	9-27-41	224	W-343	Fraidy Cat	1-17-42	497
TWO REEL SPECIALS (20 Minutes) 1941-42				W-344	The Hungry Wolf	2-21-42	..
A-301	The Tell-Tale Heart	10-25-41	352	W-345	The First Swallow	3-14-42	..
A-302	Main Street on the March	1-10-42	477	PARAMOUNT UNUSUAL OCCUPATIONS (Color) (11 Minutes) 1941-42
BENCHLEY COMEDIES (10 Minutes) 1941-42				LI-1	No. 1	10-3-41	323
SI-1	How to Take a Vacation	10-10-41	323	LI-2	No. 2	12-5-41	411
SI-2	Nothing But Nerves	1-9-42	433	FASCINATING JOURNEYS (Color) (10 Minutes) 1941-42
SI-3	The Witness	3-20-42	..	MI-1	Road in India	10-24-41	377
SUPERMAN COLOR CARTOONS (8 Minutes) 1941-42				HEDDA HOPPER'S HOLLYWOOD (10 Minutes) 1941-42
WI-1	Superman	9-26-41	251	ZI-1	No. 1	9-12-41	290
WI-2	Superman in the Mechanical Monsters	11-21-41	435	ZI-2	No. 2	12-5-41	411
WI-3	Superman in the Billion Dollar Limited	1-9-42	486	ZI-3	No. 3	2-20-42	529
WI-4	Superman in the Arctic Giant	2-27-42	..	HEADLINERS (10 Minutes) 1941-42
WI-5	Superman in the Bulleteers	3-27-42	..	AI-1	Beauty and the Beach	9-26-41	322
MADCAP MODELS (Color) (9 Minutes) 1941-42				AI-2	The Copacabana Revue	11-28-41	397
UI-1	Rhythm in the Ranks	12-26-41	453	AI-3	Carnival in Brazil	3-6-42	..
UI-2	Jaspar and the Watermelons	2-6-42	486	POPEYE THE SAILOR (7 Minutes) 1941-42
UI-3	The Sky Princess	3-27-42	..	EI-1	I'll Never Crow Again	9-19-41	322
POPULAR SCIENCE (Color) (10 Minutes) 1941-42				EI-2	The Mighty Navy	11-14-41	397
J1-1	No. 1	9-19-41	322	EI-3	Nix-on Hypnotricks	12-19-41	435
J1-2	No. 2	11-7-41	375	EI-4	Kickin' the Conga Round	1-16-42	486
J1-3	No. 3	1-30-42	486	EI-5	Blunder Below	2-13-42	529
SPEAKING OF ANIMALS (8 Minutes) 1941-42				EI-6	Fleets of Stren'th	3-13-42	..
YI-1	In a Pet Shop	9-5-41	290	SPORTLIGHTS (9 Minutes) (1941-42)
YI-2	In the Zoo	10-31-41	377	RI-1	Shooting Mermaids	9-5-41	290
YI-3	At the County Fair	1-23-42	477	RI-2	Meet the Champs	10-3-41	323
QUIZ KIDS (11 Minutes) 1941-42				RI-3	Sittin' Pretty	10-31-41	377
QI-1	No. 1	9-12-41	290	RI-4	Quick Returns	11-28-41	411
QI-2	No. 2	12-5-41	411	RI-5	Buying a Dog	12-26-41	433
QI-3	No. 3	2-6-42	519	RI-6	Better Bowling	1-23-42	486
PRODUCERS AMERICAN HISTORY (22 Minutes) 1940-41				RI-7	Lure of the Surf	2-20-42	..
0.6	Our Freedom of the Seas	11-1-41	..	RI-8	Top Flight Juggling	3-20-42	..

Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page	Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page	Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page	Prod. No.	Title	Rel. Date	P.D. Page
RKO				SPORTS REVIEWS				MERRIE MELODIES CARTOONS (Color)				OFFICIAL U. S. DEFENSE FILMS
MARCH OF TIME (Average 20 Min.) (1941-42)				(8 Minutes)				(7 Minutes)				OEM FILM CIRCUIT—1600 Broadway, N Y. C.
23,102	Norway in Revolt.....	9-26-41	309	2301	Aristocrats of the Kennel..	9-12-41	352	7701	All This and Rabbit Stew..	9-13-41	265	Power for Defense.....
23,103	Sailors with Wings.....	10-24-41	331	2302	Life of a Thoroughbred.....	11-7-41	435	7702	The Brave Little Bat.....	9-27-41	352	Twelve Recruiting Trailers.....
23,104	Main Street, U.S.A.....	11-21-41	375	2303	Playtime in Hawaii.....	12-19-41	477	7703	The Bug Parade.....	10-11-41	352	Calling All Workers.....
23,105	Our America at War.....	12-19-41	420	2304	Evergreen Playland.....	1-30-42	486	7704	Rookie Revue.....	10-25-41	377	America Preferred.....
23,106	When Air Raids Strike..	1-16-42	451	2305	Winter's Wonderland.....	2-27-42	..	7705	Saddle Silly.....	11-8-41	433	Where Do We Go?.....
23,107	Far East Command....	2-13-42	495	TERRYTOONS (Color)				7706	The Cagey Canary.....	11-22-41	435	America Builds Ships.....
SPECIAL (22 Minutes) (1941-42)				(7 Minutes)				7707	Rhapsody in Rivets.....	12-6-41	465	Army in Overalls.....
.....	Battlefields of the Pacific (March of Time).....	12-17-41	420	(1941-42)				7708	Wabbit Twouble.....	12-20-41	465	Bits and Pieces.....
WALT DISNEY CARTOONS (Color) (8 Minutes) (1940-41)				2551	The Old Oaken Bucket.....	8-8-41	236	7709	Hop, Skip and a Chump....	1-3-42	519	Seven Tags.....
14,110	Old MacDonald Duck....	9-12-41	290	2552	The One Man Navy.....	9-5-41	236	7710	The Bird Came C.O.D....	1-17-42	529	Bomber.....
14,111	Lend a Paw.....	10-3-41	323	2553	Welcome Little Stranger....	10-3-41	264	7711	Aloha Hooey.....	1-31-42	519	Pots to Planes.....
14,112	Donald's Camera.....	10-24-41	352	2554	Slap Happy Hunters.....	10-31-41	365	7712	Conrad the Sailor.....	2-14-42	..	Food for Freedom.....
14,113	The Art of Skiing.....	11-14-41	397	2555	The Bird Tower.....	11-28-41	375	7713	Crazy Cruise.....	2-28-42	..	Red Cross Trailer.....
14,114	Chef Donald.....	12-5-41	433	2556	A Torrid Toreador.....	1-9-42	453	MUSICALS (Average 18 Min.) (1941-42)				Women in Defense.....
14,115	The Art of Self Defense.....	12-26-41	465	2557	Happy Circus Days.....	1-23-42	465	6221	Is Everybody Happy?.....	9-3-41	251	Safeguarding Military Information....
14,116	The Village Smithy....	1-16-42	486	2558	Cat Meets Mouse.....	2-20-42	509	6222	In the Groove.....	10-8-41	333	Tanks.....
14,117	Mickey's Birthday Party..	2-7-42	529	2559	Sam Battle Shenanigan ..	3-20-42	529	6223	Skylark Serenade.....	11-5-41	353	Any Bonds Today.....
INFORMATION PLEASE (Average 11 Min.) (1941-42)				TERRYTOONS (Black &amp; White) (7 Minutes) (1941-42)				6224	Doin' the Town.....	11-26-41	365	U. S. TREASURY DEPT. (Released Through National Screen)
24,201	No. 1 John Gunther.....	9-19-41	333	2501	The Ice Carnival.....	8-22-41	236	6225	Winter Serenade (Jingle Belles)	12-24-41	433	The New Spirit.....
24,202	No. 2 Howard Lindsay..	10-17-41	352	2502	Uncle Joey Comes to Town..	9-19-41	265	6226	Campus Capers.....	1-7-42	453	MISCELLANEOUS
24,203	No. 3 Cornelia Skinner ..	12-12-41	453	2503	The Frozen North.....	10-17-41	353	6227	Rhumba Rhythms.....	2-25-42	486	Defense of Moscow (Artkino).....
24,204	No. 4 (John Gunther)...	1-16-42	497	2504	Back to the Soil.....	11-14-41	375	6228	Tune Time.....	3-18-42	..	Hidden Hunger (Film Center).....
SPORTSCOPE (Average 9 Min.) (1941-42)				2505	A Yarn About a Yarn.....	12-12-41	433	6229	Gay Nineties.....	4-15-42	509	Kaltenborn Edits the News (Newsreel Distributors).....
24,301	Pampas Paddock.....	9-5-41	309	2506	Flying Fever.....	12-26-41	453	BROADWAY BREVITIES (20 Minutes) (1941-42)				Movie Quiz No. 1 (R. U. McIntosh)....
24,302	Dog Obedience.....	10-3-41	333	2507	Funny Bunny Business....	2-6-42	519	7101	Minstrel Days.....	9-6-41	265	Your Ringside Seat with Tex McCrary (Newsreel Distributors).....
24,303	Gaucho Sports.....	10-31-41	377	2508	Eat Me Kitty Eight to the Bar .....	3-6-42	509	7102	Perils of the Jungle.....	10-18-41	353	SERIALS
24,304	Crystal Flyers.....	11-28-41	411	THE WORLD TODAY (9 Minutes) (1941-42)				7103	At the Stroke of 12.....	11-15-41	352	COLUMBIA
24,305	Fighting Fish.....	12-26-41	465	2401	American Sea Power.....	8-29-41	309	7105	West of the Rockies.....	11-29-41	465	(1941-42)
24,306	Ten Pin Parade.....	1-23-42	519	2402	Uncle Sam's Iron Warriors ..	10-10-41	433	7106	Monsters of the Deep.....	12-13-41	453	3120 Holt of the Secret Service..
PICTURE PEOPLE (10 Minutes) (1941-42)				2403	Dutch Guiana.....	1-2-42	477	HOLLYWOOD NOVELTIES (10 Minutes) (1941-42)				(15 Episodes)
24,401	No. 1 Stars in Defense..	9-12-41	322	2404	Hub of the World.....	3-13-42	..	7301	Polo with the Stars.....	9-20-41	265	3140 Captain Midnight.....
24,402	No. 2 Hollywood Sports..	10-10-41	333	UNITED ARTISTS				7302	White Sails.....	11-8-41	365	(15 Episodes)
24,403	No. 3 Hobbies of the Stars ..	11-7-41	375	SPECIAL (16 Minutes) (1941-42)				7303	Points on Arrows.....	12-20-41	375	REPUBLIC
24,404	No. 4 Stars Day Off.....	12-5-41	453	....	A Letter from Home.....	11-28-41	420	7304	Miracle Makers.....	2-21-42	465	(1941-42)
24,405	No. 5 How to Be a Star..	1-2-42	465	WORLD IN ACTION (TWO REELS) (1941-42)				THE SPORTS PARADE (10 Minutes) (1941-42)				181 King of the Texas Rangers.....
24,406	Hollywood War Effort....	1-30-42	519	....	Churchill's Island.....	..	..	7401	Kings of the Turf.....	9-27-41	265	182 Dick Tracy vs. Crime, Inc.
EDGAR KENNEDY (Average 18 Min.) (1941-42)				....	The Battle for Oil.....	..	..	7402	Water Sports.....	11-1-41	365	(15 Episodes)
23,401	Westward Ho-Hum.....	9-5-41	251	....	This is Blitz.....	..	..	7403	King Salmon (color).....	12-27-41	465	183 Spy Smasher.....
23,402	I'll Fix It.....	10-7-41	352	UNIVERSAL				7404	Rodeo Roundup (color)....	1-31-42	..	(12 Episodes)
23,403	A Quiet Fourth.....	12-19-41	453	SPECIAL (19 Minutes) (1940-41)				7405	Hunting Dogs at Work....	2-28-42	..	184 Captain Midnight.....
23,404	Heart Burn.....	2-20-42	529	5110	Swing With Bing.....	9-4-41	..	MELODY MASTERS BANDS (10 Minutes) (1941-42)				(15 Episodes)
LEON ERROL (Average 19 Min.) (1941-42)				6110	Cavalcade of Aviation.....	12-17-41	442	7501	U. S. Calif. Band and Glee Club .....	9-13-41	264	UNIVERSAL
23,701	Man-I-Cured.....	9-26-41	322	....	Menace of the Rising Sun..	4-18-42	..	7502	Caricea Serenaders.....	10-25-41	365	(1941-42)
23,702	Who's a Dummy.....	11-28-41	411	COLOR CARTUNE (Average 7 Min.) (1941-42)				7503	Forty Boys and a Song....	12-6-41	375	6781-95 Riders of Death Valley..
23,703	Home Work.....	1-9-42	477	6241	Boogie, Woogie Bugle Boy of Co. B.....	9-1-41	251	7504	Carl Hoff and Band.....	1-3-42	465	(15 Episodes)
RAY WHITLEY (Average 15 Min.) (1941-42)				6242	Man's Best Friend.....	10-20-41	333	7505	The Playgirls.....	2-14-42	..	6881-92 Sea Raiders.....
23,501	California or Bust.....	11-11-41	365	6243	What's Cookin'.....	11-24-41	353	LOONEY TUNES CARTOONS (7 Minutes) (1941-42)				(12 Episodes)
23,502	Keep Shooting.....	1-30-42	497	6244	$21 a Day Once a Month..	12-1-41	397	7601	Notes to You.....	9-20-41	333	6881-92 Don Winslow of the Navy
20TH CENTURY-FOX				6245	Under the Spreading Blacksmith's Shop .....	1-12-42	453	7602	Robinson Crusoe, Jr.....	10-25-41	365	(12 Episodes)
ADVENTURES NEWSCAMERAMAN (Average 9 Min.) (1941-42)				6246	Hollywood Matador.....	2-9-42	486	7603	Porky's Peep.....	12-27-41	453	6581-93 Gang Busters.....
2201	Soldiers of the Sky.....	8-1-41	309	6247	The Hams That Couldn't Be Cured .....	3-2-42	..	7605	Porky's Pastry Pirates... ..	1-17-42	519	(13 Episodes)
2202	Highway of Friendship....	10-24-41	365	6248	Mother Goose on the Loose .....	4-13-42	..	STRANGER THAN FICTION (9 Minutes) (1941-42)				MAGIC CARPET (9 Minutes) (1941-42)
2203	Wonders of the Sea ..	11-21-41	435	2101 Sagebrush and Silver...				6371	Shampoo Springs.....	9-8-41	265	2101 Sagebrush and Silver...
2204	Men for the Fleet.....	1-16-42	486	2104	Secret of the Fjord.....	2-13-42	..	6372	The Hermit of Oklahoma..	10-13-41	333	.....
FATHER HUBBARD ALASKAN ADVENTURES (9 Minutes) (1941-42)				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...
2104	Secret of the Fjord.....	2-13-42	..	2101 Sagebrush and Silver...				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...
MAGIC CARPET (9 Minutes) (1941-42)				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...
2101	Sagebrush and Silver....	8-15-41	309	2101 Sagebrush and Silver...				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...				2101 Sagebrush and Silver...

THE RELEASE CHART

Index to Reviews, Advance Synopses and Service Data in PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION

Release dates and running time are furnished as soon as available. Advance dates are tentative and subject to change.

Consult Service Data in the PRODUCT DIGEST SECTION for Legion of Decency Rating, Audience Classification and Managers' Round Table Exploitation.

All page numbers on this chart refer to pages in the PRODUCT

DIGEST SECTION of MOTION PICTURE HERALD.

Short Subject Release Chart with Synopsis Index can be found on pages 530-531.

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in order of release, on pages 510-511.

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
ADVENTURES of Martin Eden	Col.	...	Glenn Ford-Claire Trevor	Feb. 26, '42	88m	Feb. 28, '42	p525	p476	....
All American Co-Ed	UA	...	Frances Langford-Johnny Downs	Oct. 31, '41	49m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p308	....
All Over Town	Rep.	Reissue	Olsen & Johnson	Oct. '41	60m	Aug. 28, '37	p330	....	....
All That Money Can Buy (formerly Here is a Man)	RKO	205	Edw. Arnold-W. Huston-Anne Shirley	Oct. 17, '41	106m	July 19, '41	p251	p197	p496
All Through the Night	WB	116	Humphrey Bogart-Conrad Veidt	Jan. 10, '42	107m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	p528
Always in My Heart	WB	...	Kay Francis-Walter Huston	Not Set	92m	.....	....	p464	....
Among the Living	Para.	4108	Albert Dekker-Susan Hayward	Dec. 19, '41	68m	Sept. 6, '41	p260	p235	p288
Apache Kid	Rep.	171	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 12, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p277	....
Appointment for Love	Univ.	6007	Margaret Sullavan-Charles Boyer	Oct. 31, '41	89m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p277	p452
Arizona Bound (formerly Rough Riders)	Mono.	....	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	July 19, '41	57m	July 25, '41	p249	p172	p210
Arizona Cyclone	Univ.	6063	Johnny Mack Brown	Nov. 14, '41	57m	.....	....	p230	....
Arizona Roundup	Mono.	...	Tom Keene	Mar. 6, '42	...	.....	....	p527	....
Arizona Terrors	Rep.	174	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Jan. 6, '42	56m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p408	....
BABES on Broadway	MGM	216	Mickey Rooney-Judy Garland	Jan. '42	118m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	p363	p528
Bad Lands of Dakota	Univ.	6013	Ann Rutherford-Robert Stack	Sept. 5, '41	74m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p207	p421
Bahama Passage (color)	Para.	4111	Madeleine Carroll-Stirling Hayden	Not Set	82m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	p320	p528
Ball of Fire	RKO	252	Gary Cooper-Barbara Stanwyck	Jan. 9, '42	111m	Dec. 6, '41	p393	....	p528
Bandit Trail (formerly Outlaw Trail)	RKO	281	Tim Holt	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	....
Bashful Bachelor, The	RKO	...	Lum and Abner	Mar. 20, '42	...	.....	....	p487	....
Bed Time Story	Col.	3004	Loretta Young-Fredric March	Dec. 25, '41	85m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p363	p528
Belle Starr (color)	20th-Fox	207	Randolph Scott-Gene Tierney	Sept. 12, '41	87m	Aug. 23, '41	p250	p161	p386
Below the Border	Mono.	...	Rough Riders	Jan. 30, '42	57m	Feb. 28, '42	p525	p464	....
Beyond the Blue Horizon (color)	Para.	...	Dorothy Lamour-Richard Denning	Not Set	...	.....	....	p527	....
Big Blockade, The (British)	Ealing-UA	...	War Documentary	Not Set	77m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	....	....
Billy the Kid Wanted	Prod.	257	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Oct. 24, '41	64m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p299	....
Billy the Kid's Roundup	Prod.	258	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Dec. 12, '41	58m	.....	....	p376	....
Billy the Kid Trapped	Prod.	259	Buster Crabbe-Al St. John	Feb. 20, '42	59m	.....	....	p467	....
Birth of the Blues	Para.	4109	Bing Crosby-Mary Martin	Nov. 7, '41	86m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	p528
Black Dragons	Univ.	...	Bela Lugosi-Joan Barclay	Mar. 6, '42	...	.....	....	p507	....
Blonde from Singapore	Col.	3041	Florence Rice-Lief Erickson	Oct. 15, '41	65m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	....	....
Blondie Goes to College	Col.	3017	Penny Singleton-Arthur Lake	Jan. 15, '42	...	.....	....	p409	....
Blue, White and Perfect	20th-Fox	227	Lloyd Nolan-Helene Reynolds	Jan. 6, '42	75m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p408	....
Blues in the Night	WB	110	Priscilla Lane-Richard Whorf	Nov. 15, '41	88m	Nov. 1, '41	p343	p308	....
Body Disappears, The	WB	111	Jeffrey Lynn-Jane Wyman	Dec. 6, '41	72m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
Bombay Clipper	Univ.	6031	William Gargan-Irene Hervey	Feb. 6, '42	61m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p432	....
Borrowed Hero	Mono.	...	Alan Baxter-Florence Rice	Dec. 5, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p407	p364	....
Born to Sing	MGM	226	Virginia Weidler-Ray McDonald	Mar. '42	82m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p442	....
Broadway Big Shot	Prod.	207	Ralph Byrd-Virginia Vale	Feb. 6, '42	59m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	....	....
Brooklyn Orchid	UA	....	Marjorie Woodworth-William Bendix	Feb. 20, '42	50m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	....	....
Bugle Sounds, The	MGM	220	Wallace Beery-Marjorie Main	Jan. '42	101m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p387	p496
Bullet Scars	WB	...	Regis Toomey-Adele Longmire	Not Set	59m	.....	....	....	....
Bullets for Bandits	Col.	3212	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Feb. 12, '42	...	.....	....	p364	....
Burma Convoy (formerly Half Way to Shanghai)	Univ.	6035	Charles Bickford-Evelyn Ankers	Oct. 17, '41	60m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	p137	....
Buy Me That Town	Para.	4102	Lloyd Nolan-Constance Moore	Oct. 3, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p262	p208	p210
CADET Girl	20th-Fox	220	Carole Landis-George Montgomery	Nov. 28, '41	69m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p351	....
Cadets on Parade	Col.	3035	Freddie Bartholomew-Jimmy Lydon	Jan. 22, '42	...	.....	....	p409	....
Call Out the Marines	RKO	217	Victor McLaglen-Edmund Lowe	Feb. 13, '42	67m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p443	....
Canal Zone	Col.	...	Chester Morris-John Hubbard	Mar. 19, '42	...	.....	....	p508	....
Captains of the Clouds (color)	WB	122	Jas. Cagney-Dennis Morgan-Alan Hale	Feb. 21, '42	113m	Jan. 24, '42	p473	p308	p528
Castle in the Desert	20th-Fox	234	Sidney Toler-Arleen Whelan	Feb. 27, '42	63m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p476	....
Charley's Aunt	20th-Fox	201	Jack Benny-Kay Francis	Aug. 1, '41	82m	July 26, '41	p262	p172	p288
Charlie Chan in Rio	20th-Fox	206	Sidney Toler-Mary Beth Hughes	Sept. 5, '41	62m	Aug. 23, '41	p262	p172	p260
Chocolate Soldier, The	MGM	208	Nelson Eddy-Rise Stevens	Nov. '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p289	p528
Citizen Kane	RKO	201	Orson Welles	Sept. 5, '41	119m	Apr. 12, '41	p249	p61	p367
Close Call for Ellery Queen	Col.	3031	Bill Gargan-Margaret Lindsay	Jan. 29, '42	...	.....	....	p463	....
Code of the Outlaw	Rep.	164	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Jan. 30, '42	57m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	....
Come On, Danger	RKO	285	Tim Holt	Not Set	58m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
Confessions of Boston Blackie	Col.	3028	Chester Morris-Harriet Hilliard	Jan. 8, '42	65m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	....	....
Confirm or Deny	20th-Fox	222	Don Ameche-Joan Bennett	Dec. 12, '41	73m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	....
Continental Express	Mono.	...	Rex Harrison-Valerie Hobson	Not Set	...	.....	....	p526	....
Corsican Brothers	UA	...	Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.-Akim Tamiroff	Nov. 28, '41	110m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	p299	p528
Courtship of Andy Hardy, The	MGM	229	Mickey Rooney-Lewis Stone	Mar. '42	93m	Feb. 14, '42	p505	p476	....

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
Cowboy Serenade	Rep.	144	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Jan. 23, '42	66m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p443	....
DANGEROUSLY They Live	WB	121	John Garfield-Raymond Massey	Feb. 14, '42	77m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	....	....
Date with the Falcon	RKO	213	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Jan. 16, '42	63m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	....
Death Valley Outlaws	Rep.	172	Don "Red" Barry-Lynn Merrick	Sept. 29, '41	56m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	....	....
Design for Scandal	MGM	213	Walter Pidgeon-Rosalind Russel	Dec. '41	82m	Nov. 15, '41	p361	p351	p528
Devil Pays Off	Rep.	111	Margaret Tallichet-William Wright	Nov. 10, '41	70m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p343	....
Dr. Broadway	Para.	...	Macdonald Carey-Jean Phillips	Not Set	...	...	...	p527	....
Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde	MGM	201	Spencer Tracy-Lana Turner	Sept. '41	123m	July 26, '41	p248	p134	p496
Dr. Kildare's Victory	MGM	217	Lew Ayres-Lionel Barrymore	Jan. '42	92m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	....
Don't Get Personal	Univ.	6037	Hugh Herbert-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 2, '42	60m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p343	....
Double Trouble	Mono.	...	Harry Langdon	Nov. 21, '41	63m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	p332	....
Down in San Diego	MGM	203	Bonita Granville-Ray McDonald	Sept. '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p250	p207	p353
Dressed to Kill	20th-Fox	202	Lloyd Nolan-Mary Beth Hughes	Aug. 8, '41	74m	July 26, '41	p249	p149	p236
Dude Cowboy	RKO	282	Tim Holt	Dec. 12, '41	59m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	....	p260
Dudes Are Pretty People	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-Jimmy Rogers	Mar. 13, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Dumbo (Color)	RKO	293	Disney Feature Cartoon	Oct. 31, '41	64m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	....	p496
Duke of the Navy	Prod.	206	Ralph Byrd-Veda Ann Borg	Jan. 23, '42	65m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p409	....
ELLERY Queen and Murder Ring Col.		3030	Ralph Bellamy	Nov. 18, '41	70m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
FANTASIA (color) (Revised)	RKO	292	Disney-Stokowski	Apr. 3, '42	82m	Nov. 16, '40	p494	p2	p286
Father Takes a Wife	RKO	204	Adolphe Menjou-Gloria Swanson	Oct. 3, '41	79m	July 19, '41	p262	p197	p236
Feminine Touch, The	MGM	207	Rosalind Russell-Don Ameche	Oct. '41	95m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p496
Ferry Pilot (British)	ABFD	...	War Documentary	Not Set	27m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	....	....
Fiesta (color)	UA	...	Armida-Antonio Moreno	Dec. 19, '41	45m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	....	....
Fighting Bill Fargo	Univ.	6065	Johnny Mack Brown	Dec. 19, '41	...	...	...	p364	....
Fingers at the Window	MGM	...	Lew Ayres-Laraine Day	Not Set	...	...	...	p526	....
Fleet's In, The	Para.	...	Dorothy Lamour-William Holde.	Not Set	93m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	....
Fly By Night	Para.	...	Nancy Kelly-Richard Carlson	Not Set	68m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p376	....
Flying Cadets	Univ.	6028	Wm. Gargan-Peggy Moran	Oct. 24, '41	60m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p161	....
Forbidden Trails	Mono.	....	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Dec. 26, '41	59m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p396	....
Forgotten Village, The	Mayer-Burstyn	...	Documentary	Sept. 16, '41	67m	Aug. 30, '41	p246	....	....
Four Jacks and a Jill	RKO	214	Ray Bolger-Anne Shirley	Jan. 23, '42	68m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	p332	....
Freckles Comes Home	Mono.	....	Johnny Downs-Gale Storm	Jan. 2, '42	...	...	...	p396	....
Frightened Lady (British)	Hoffberg	...	Marius Goring-Helen Hays	Nov. 7, '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	....	....
'Frisco Lil	Univ.	...	Irene Hervey-Kent Taylor	Mar. 13, '42	60m	Feb. 21, '41	p517	p467	....
GAUCHOS of Eldorado	Rep.	162	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Oct. 24, '41	56m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p308	....
Gay Falcon, The	RKO	206	George Sanders-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 24, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p218	....
General Suvorov	Artkino	...	Documentary	Sept. 19, '41	100m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Gentleman After Dark, A	UA	...	Miriam Hopkins-Brian Donlevy	Feb. 27, '42	...	...	...	p508	....
(formerly Heliotrope Harry)
Gentleman at Heart, A	20th-Fox	228	Carole Landis-Cesar Romero	Jan. 16, '42	66m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p432	....
Gentleman from Dixie	Mono.	...	Jack LaRue-Marian Marsh	Sept. 5, '41	63m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	p206	....
(formerly Li'l Louisiana Belle)
Ghost of Frankenstein, The	Univ.	...	Lon Chaney-Sir Cedric Hardwicke	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	p463	....
Girl from Leningrad (Russian)	Artkino	...	Zoya Fyodorova	Dec. 19, '41	92m	Dec. 27, '41	p431	....	....
Girl Must Live, A (British)	Univ.	6045	Lilli Palmer-Margaret Lockwood	Sept. 19, '41	69m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	....	p367
Girls Town	Prod.	202	Jane Storey-Edith Fellowes	Mar. 6, '42	68m	...	...	p476	....
Glamour Boy	Para.	4110	Susanna Foster-Jackie Cooper	Dec. 5, '41	80m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	....
Gold Rush, The	UA	...	Chaplin—Words and Music	Apr. 17, '42	...	...	...	....	....
Go West, Young Lady	Col.	3015	Penny Singleton-Glenn Ford	Nov. 27, '41	70m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	p289	....
Great Guns	20th-Fox	212	Laurel and Hardy	Oct. 10, '41	73m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	....
Great Man's Lady, The	Para.	...	Barbara Stanwyck-Joel McCrea	Not Set	...	...	...	p396	....
Gunman from Bodie	Mono.	....	Buck Jones-Tim McCoy	Sept. 26, '41	62m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	p263	....
(formerly Bad Man from Bodie)
HARD GUY	Prod.	205	Jack LaRue-Mary Healy	Oct. 17, '41	68m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p263	....
Harmon of Michigan	Col.	3023	Tommy Harmon-Anita Louise	Sept. 11, '41	66m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p263	p386
Harvard Here I Come	Col.	3039	Maxie Rosenbloom-Arlene Judge	Dec. 18, '41	...	...	...	p376	....
Hatter's Castle (Paramount-British)	...	...	Robert Newton-Deborah Kerr	Not Set	100m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	....	....
Hayfoot	UA	...	William Tracy-James Gleason	Jan. 2, '42	48m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	....	....
Heart of Texas, The	Rep.	144	Gene Autry-Smiley Burnette	Mar. 11, '42	...	...	...	p518	....
Hellzapoppin	Univ.	6046	Olsen & Johnson-Martha Raye	Dec. 26, '41	84m	Dec. 20, '41	p431	....	p528
Hennes Melodie	Scandia Films	...	Sonja Wigert	Feb. 7, '42	99m	Feb. 21, '42	p518	....	....
(Her Melody)
Henry Aldrich for President	Para.	4104	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Oct. 24, '41	70m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p210
Henry and Dizzy	Para.	...	Jimmy Lydon-Charlie Smith	Not Set	...	...	...	p443	....
Here Comes the Marines	Mono.	....	Wallace Ford-Toby Wing	Dec. 26, '41	...	...	...	p432	....
Hi, Gang (British)	General Film	...	Bebe Daniels-Ben Lyon	Not Set	100m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	....	....
H. M. Pulham, Esq.	MGM	212	Hedy Lamarr-Rob't Young-Ruth Hussey	Dec. '41	117m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	p496
Hold Back the Dawn	Para.	4103	Charles Boyer-Olivia de Havilland	Sept. 26, '41	116m	Aug. 2, '41	p251	p208	p452
Honky Tonk	MGM	204	Clark Gable-Lana Turner	Oct. '41	105m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p235	p452
Honolulu Lu	Col.	3024	Bruce Bennett-Lupe Velez	Dec. 11, '41	...	...	...	p364	....
How Green Was My Valley	20th-Fox	224	Roddy McDowall-Walter Pidgeon	Jan. 23, '42	118m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p320	p528
Hurricane Smith	Rep.	108	Ray Middleton-Jane Wyatt	July 20, '41	69m	July 26, '41	p249	p197	p236
INTERNATIONAL Lady	UA	...	Ilona Massey-George Brent	Sept. 19, '41	102m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p277	p496
International Squadron	WB	106	Ronald Reagan-Olympe Bradna	Oct. 11, '41	87m	Aug. 16, '41	p262	p196	p452
(formerly Flight Patrol)
Invaders, The (British)	Col.	...	Howard-Massey-Olivier	Not Set	123m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	....	....
(formerly 49th Parallel)
It Started with Eve	Univ.	6005	Deanna Durbin-Charles Laughton	Sept. 26, '41	90m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	p205	p496
(formerly Almost an Angel)
I Killed That Man	Mono.	....	Ricardo Cortez-Joan Woodbury	Nov. 28, '41	71m	Nov. 15, '41	p363	....	....
I Married an Angel	MGM	...	Jeannette MacDonald-Nelson Eddy	Not Set	...	...	...	p507	....
I Thank You (British)	General Film	...	Arthur Askey-Richard Murdoch	...	81m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	....	....
I Wake Up Screaming	20th-Fox	216	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Nov. 14, '41	82m	Oct. 18, '41	p317	p299	p421
(formerly Hot Spot)

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	(REVIEWED)
						M. P. Issue	Product Digest Section	Advance Synopsis	Service Data
JAIL House Blues	Univ.	6032	Nat Pendleton-Anne Gwynne	Jan. 9, '42	62m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p396	.....
Jessie James at Bay	Rep.	151	Roy Rogers-"Gabby" Hayes	Oct. 17, '41	56m	Oct. 18, '41	p319	.....	.....
Joan of Paris	RKO	218	Michele Morgan-Paul Henried	Feb. 20, '42	91m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	p442	.....
Joe Smith, American	MGM	221	Robert Young-Marsha Hunt	Feb. '42	62m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p409	p528
Johnny Eager	MGM	218	Robert Taylor-Lana Turner	Jan. '42	107m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p363	p528
Juke Box Jennie	Univ.	...	Ken Murray-Harriet Hillard	Mar. 27, '42	...	.....	.....	.....	.....
Juke Girl	WB	...	Ann Sheridan-Ronald Reagan	Not Set	...	.....	.....	p464	.....
Jungle Book, The (color)	UA	...	Sabu	Apr. 3, '42	...	.....	.....	p396	.....
KATHLEEN	MGM	215	Shirley Temple-H. Marshall-Laraine Day	Dec. '41	85m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p351	p528
Keep 'Em Flying	Univ.	6001	Abbott and Costello	Nov. 28, '41	80m	Nov. 22, '41	p386	.....	p528
Kid from Kansas, The (formerly The Americanos)	Univ.	6051	Dick Foran-Andy Devine	Sept. 19, '41	60m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p221	.....
Kid Glove Killer (formerly Along Came Murder)	MGM	...	Van Heflin-Marsha Hunt	Not Set	...	.....	.....	p495	.....
King, The (French)	Trio Film	...	Raimu	Oct. 27, '41	90m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	.....	.....
King of Dodge City	Col.	3209	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Aug. 14, '41	63m	Aug. 9, '41	p250	p220	.....
Kings Row	WB	120	Ann Sheridan-Robert Cummings	Not Set	130m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	p320	.....
Klondike Victory	Mono.	...	Edmund Lowe-Lucile Fairbanks	Mar. 20, '42	...	.....	.....	p527	.....
LABURNUM Grove (British)	Anglo Film	...	Edmund Gwenn-Cedric Hardwicke	Dec. 1, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	.....	.....
Ladies in Retirement	Col.	3309	Ida Lupino-Louis Hayward	Sept. 18, '41	92m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p263	.....
Lady Be Good	MGM	202	Ann Southern-Robert Young	Sept. '41	110m	July 19, '41	p248	p146	p496
Lady for a Night	Rep.	101	Joan Blondell-John Wayne	Jan. 5, '42	88m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p351	.....
Lady Has Plans, The	Para.	...	Paulette Goddard-Ray Millan	Not Set	75m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p464	.....
Lady In Distress (British)	Times	...	Michael Redgrave-Sally Gray	Feb. 14, '42	76m	Feb. 21, '42	p517	.....	.....
Lady Is Willing, The	Col.	3007	Marlene Dietrich-Fred MacMurray	Feb. 12, '42	91m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p351	.....
Lady Scarface	RKO	203	Dennis O'Keefe-Francis Neal	Sept. 26, '41	66m	July 26, '41	p248	p160	p236
Land of the Open Range	RKO	284	Tim Holt	Apr. 10, '42	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	.....
Larceny, Inc.	WB	...	Edward G. Robinson-Jane Wyman	Not Set	...	.....	.....	.....	.....
Last of the Duanes	20th-Fox	209	Geo. Montgomery-Lynn Roberts	Sept. 26, '41	57m	Sept. 13, '41	p260	p247	.....
Lawless Plainsman	Col.	...	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Mar. 12, '42	...	.....	.....	p508	.....
Law of the Jungle	Mono.	...	Mantan Moreland	Feb. 6, '42	...	.....	.....	p476	.....
Law of the Timber	Prod.	215	Marjorie Reynolds-Monte Blue	Dec. 19, '41	64m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p364	.....
Law of the Tropics	WB	105	Jeffrey Lynn-Constance Bennett	Oct. 4, '41	76m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	.....
Let's Go Collegiate	Mono.	...	Frankie Darro-Manton Moreland	Sept. 12, '41	62m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p209	.....
Lone Rider and the Bandit	Prod.	263	George Houston	Jan. 16, '42	...	.....	.....	p409	.....
Lone Rider in Cheyenne	Prod.	264	George Houston-Al St. John	Mar. 13, '42	59m	.....	.....	p507	.....
Lone Star Law Men	Mono.	...	Tom Keene-Betty Miles	Dec. 5, '41	...	.....	.....	p387	.....
Lone Star Ranger	20th-Fox	...	John Kimbrough-Sheila Ryan	Not Set	...	.....	.....	p443	.....
Lone Star Vigilantes, The	Col.	3211	Bill Elliott-Tex Ritter	Jan. 1, '42	58m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	.....	.....
Look Who's Laughing	RKO	209	Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy	Nov. 21, '41	79m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p221	p528
Louisiana Purchase (Color)	Para.	4136	Bob Hope-Vera Zorina-Victor Moore	Dec. 25, '41	98m	Nov. 29, '41	p385	p332	p528
Lucky Ghost	Consolidated National	...	Mantan Moreland	Feb. 10, '42	68m	Feb. 21, '42	p518	.....	.....
Lydia	UA	...	Merle Oberon-Alan Marshall	Sept. 26, '41	104m	Aug. 23, '41	p262	.....	p496
MAD Doctor of Market Street	Univ.	6042	Una Merkel-Claire Dodd	Feb. 27, '42	61m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	.....
Magnificent Ambersons, The	RKO	...	Joseph Cotton-Dolores Costello	Mar. 13, '42	...	.....	.....	p507	.....
Major Barbara (British)	UA	...	Wendy Hiller-Robert Morley	Sept. 12, '41	115m	May 10, '41	.....	p85	p353
Male Animal, The	WB	...	Henry Fonda-Olivia De Havilland	Not Set	101m	.....	.....	p464	.....
Maltese Falcon, The	WB	107	Humphrey Bogart-Mary Astor	Oct. 18, '41	100m	Oct. 4, '41	p298	.....	p496
Man at Large	20th-Fox	210	Marjorie Weaver-Geo. Reeves	Sept. 26, '41	69m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p247	p496
Man from Cheyenne	Rep.	153	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Jan. 16, '42	60m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p431	.....
Man from Headquarters	Mono.	...	Frank Albertson-Joan Woodbury	Jan. 23, '42	67m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p443	.....
Man from Montana	Univ.	6061	Johnny Mack Brown	Sept. 5, '41	56m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	p276	.....
Man Who Came to Dinner	WB	117	Monty Woolley-Bette Davis	Jan. 24, '42	112m	Dec. 27, '41	p429	p332	p528
Man Who Returned to Life	Col.	3034	John Howard-Roger Clark	Feb. 5, '42	60m	Feb. 28, '42	p525	p476	.....
Man Who Seeks the Truth	Dome (French)	...	Raimu	Oct. 7, '41	80m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	.....	.....
Man with Two Lives	Mono.	...	Edward Norris	Mar. 13, '42	...	.....	.....	p495	.....
Married Bachelor	MGM	205	Ruth Hussey-Robert Young	Oct. '41	81m	Sept. 13, '41	p258	p247	p496
Marry the Boss's Daughter	20th-Fox	221	Betty Joyce-Bruce Edwards	Nov. 28, '41	60m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p289	.....
Masked Rider, The	Univ.	6062	Johnny Mack Brown	Oct. 24, '41	58m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p276	.....
Maxwell Archer, Detective (British)	Mono.	...	John Loder-Leueen MacGrath	Not Set	...	.....	.....	p476	.....
Mayor of 44th St.	RKO	...	George Murphy-Anne Shirley	Apr. 10, '42	...	.....	.....	p487	.....
Melody Lane	Univ.	6029	The Merry Macs-Baby Sandy	Dec. 19, '41	60m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p376	.....
Men in Her Life	Col.	3005	Loretta Young-Dean Jagger	Nov. 20, '41	89m	Oct. 25, '41	p321	p277	.....
Mercy Island	Rep.	110	Ray Middleton-Gloria Dickson	Oct. 10, '41	72m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	.....	.....
Mexican Spitfire's Baby	RKO	210	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Nov. 28, '41	70m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p247	.....
Mexican Spitfire at Sea	RKO	220	Lupe Velez-Leon Errol	Mar. 6, '42	72m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p443	.....
Miracle Kid, The	Prod.	213	Tom Neal-Carol Hughes-Vicki Lester	Nov. 14, '41	69m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p320	.....
Missouri Outlaw, A	Rep.	173	Don "Red" Barry	Nov. 25, '41	58	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p364	.....
Miss Polly	UA	...	Zasu Pitts-Slim Summerville	Nov. 14, '41	45m	Nov. 8, '41	p350	.....	.....
Mister V (British) (formerly Pimpnel Smith)	UA	...	Leslie Howard	Mar. 20, '42	122m	July 5, '41	p450	.....	p528
Mob Town	Univ.	6021	Dick Foran-Anne Gwynne	Oct. 3, '41	62m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p289	.....
Moonlight in Hawaii	Univ.	6025	Mischa Auer-Jane Frazee	Nov. 21, '41	61m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p149	.....
Moon Over Her Shoulder	20th-Fox	215	John Sutton-Lynn Bari	Oct. 24, '41	68m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	.....
Mountain Moonlight	Rep.	107	Weaver Brothers and Elvira	July 12, '41	68m	July 19, '41	p250	p149	p236
Mr. Bug Goes to Town (color)	Para.	4114	Fleischer Feature Cartoon	Not Set	78m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p376	p496
Mr. Dist. Attorney in Carter Case	Rep.	112	James Ellison-Virginia Gilmore	Dec. 18, '41	68m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	p409	.....
Mr. Wise Guy	Mono.	...	East Side Kids	Feb. 20, '42	70m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p475	.....
Mr. and Mrs. North	MGM	219	Gracie Allen-William Post, Jr.	Jan. '42	67m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	p387	.....
Mrs. Miniver	MGM	...	Greer Garson-Walter Pidgeon	Not Set	...	.....	.....	p527	.....
Musical Story, A	Artkino	...	Sergei Lemeshev	Oct. 10, '41	84m	Oct. 25, '41	p331	.....	.....
Mystery Ship	Col.	3040	Paul Kelly-Lola Lane	Sept. 4, '41	65m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p194	p220
Mystery of Marie Roget	Univ.	...	Patric Knowles-Marie Montez	Not Set	...	.....	.....	p507	.....
NAVY Blues	WB	103	Jack Oakie-Ann Sheridan	Sept. 13, '41	108m	Aug. 16, '41	p249	p205	p452
Nazi Agent (Formerly Salute to Courage)	MGM	227	Conrad Veidt-Ann Ayars	Mar. '42	82m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	.....	.....

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	(REVIEWED)		Advance Synopsis	Service Data
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section
Never Give a Sucker an Even Break	Univ.	6016	W. C. Fields-Gloria Jean	Oct. 10, '41	70m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p299	p496
New Wine	UA	...	Ilona Massey-Binnie Barnes	Oct. 10, '41	87m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p157	p452
New York Town	Para.	4105	Fred MacMurray-Mary Martin	Oct. 31, '41	75m	Aug. 2, '41	p248	p207	p236
Niagara Falls	UA	...	Marjorie Woodworth-Tom Brown	Oct. 17, '41	43m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	...	...
Night Before the Divorce, The	20th-Fox	235	Lynn Bari-Joseph Allen, Jr.	Mar. 6, '42	67m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	...
Night in New Orleans	Para.	...	Preston Foster-Patricia Morison	Not Set	...	...	...	p527	...
Night of January 16	Para.	4106	Robert Preston-Ellen Drew	Nov. 28, '41	80m	Sept. 6, '41	p261	p235	...
Nine Bachelors (French)	J. Bercholz	...	Sacha Guitry	Feb. 7, '42	85m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	...	...
Nine Lives Are Not Enough	WB	104	Ronald Reagan-Joan Perry	Sept. 20, '41	63m	Sept. 6, '41	p245	p235	...
No Hands on the Clock	Para.	4113	Chester Morris-Jean Parker	Not Set	76m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p364	...
North to the Klondike	Univ.	6023	Brod Crawford-Lon Chaney, Jr.	Jan. 23, '42	58m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p396	...
Nothing But the Truth	Para.	4101	Bob Hope-Paulette Goddard	Oct. 10, '41	90m	Aug. 2, '41	p250	p206	p496
OBLIGING Young Lady	RKO	215	Joan Carroll-Edmond O'Brien	Jan. 30, '42	80m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	p332	...
On the Sunny Side	20th-Fox	232	Roddy McDowall-Jane Darwell	Feb. 13, '42	69m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p487	...
One Foot in Heaven	WB	108	Fredric March-Martha Scott	Nov. 1, '41	108m	Oct. 4, '41	p297	p206	p528
Our Russian Front	Artkino	...	Documentary	Feb. 11, '42	40m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	...	...
(Formerly Report from Russia)
Outlaws of Cherokee Trail	Rep.	161	Three Mesquiteers-Tom Tyler	Sept. 10, '41	56m	Sept. 20, '41	p276	p263	...
Outlaws of the Desert	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	66m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	...	...
PANAMA Hattie	MGM	...	Ann Sothorn-Red Skelton	Not Set	...	...	...	p396	...
Pacific Blackout	Para.	4115	Robert Preston-Martha O'Driscoll	Jan. 2, '42	76m	Dec. 13, '41	p406	p364	p496
(formerly Midnight Angel)
Parachute Battalion	RKO	202	Robert Preston-Nancy Kelly	Sept. 12, '41	75m	July 19, '41	p249	p196	p421
Pardon My Stripes	Rep.	122	Bill Henry-Sheila Ryan	Jan. 26, '42	64m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p442	...
Paris Calling	Univ.	6014	Randolph Scott-Elizabeth Bergner	Jan. 16, '42	95m	Dec. 6, '41	p407	p320	p528
Perfect Snob, The	20th-Fox	223	Lynn Bari-Cornel Wilde	Dec. 19, '41	62m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	p351	...
Pittsburgh Kid, The	Rep.	133	Billy Conn-Jean Parker	Aug. 29, '41	76m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	...	p353
Playmates	RKO	212	Kay Kyser-John Barrymore	Dec. 26, '41	96m	Nov. 8, '41	p349	p332	p528
Powder Town	RKO	...	Victor McLaglen-Edmond O'Brien	Apr. 17, '42	...	...	...	...	...
Prime Minister, The (British)	WB	115	John Gielgud-Diana Wynyard	Not Set	94m	Aug. 23, '41	p249	...	...
Private Nurse	20th-Fox	204	Brenda Joyce-Robert Lowery	Aug. 22, '41	61m	July 26, '41	p250	p197	p236
Professor Creeps Consolidated	Nat.	...	F. E. Miller-Mantan Moreland	Not Set	63m	Feb. 28, '42	p526	...	...
Public Enemies	Rep.	121	Philip Terry-Wendy Barrie	Oct. 30, '41	66m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	...	...
QUIET Wedding (British)	Univ.	6044	Margaret Lockwood-Derek Farr	Nov. 21, '41	80m	Feb. 15, '41	p386	...	...
RAIDERS of the West	Prod.	252	Bill "Radio" Boyd-Lee Powell	Feb. 13, '42	64m	...	...	p432	...
Reap the Wild Wind (color)	Para.	...	Ray Milland-Paulette Goddard	Not Set	...	...	...	p408	...
Red River Valley	Rep.	152	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Dec. 12, '41	62m	Dec. 20, '41	p418	p409	...
Remarkable Andrew, The	Para.	...	William Holden-Ellen Drew	Not Set	80m	Jan. 24, '42	p473	p443	...
Remember the Day	20th-Fox	226	Claudette Colbert-John Payne	Dec. 26, '41	86m	Dec. 20, '41	p417	p408	p452
Ride 'Em Cowboy	Univ.	6002	Abbott and Costello	Feb. 20, '42	86m	Feb. 14, '42	p505	p464	...
Riders of the Badlands	Col.	3202	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Dec. 18, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p387	...
Riding the Wind	RKO	283	Tim Holt	Feb. 13, '42	60m	Sept. 6, '41	p246	...	...
Riders of the Purple Sage	20th-Fox	213	Geo. Montgomery-Mary Howard	Oct. 10, '41	56m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	...
Riders of the Timberline	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	59m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	...	...
Right to the Heart	20th-Fox	229	Brenda Joyce-Cornel Wilde	Jan. 23, '42	74m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	...
Riot Squad	Mono.	...	Richard Cromwell-Rita Quigley	Dec. 12, '41	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	p364	...
Rise and Shine	20th-Fox	219	J. Oakie-Walter Brennan-Linda Darnell	Nov. 21, '41	92m	Nov. 15, '41	p361	p351	p496
Road Agent	Univ.	6052	Leo Carrillo-Andy Devine-Dick Foran	Dec. 19, '41	60m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	...	...
Road to Happiness	Mono.	...	John Boles-Mona Barrie	Jan. 9, '42	83m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p396	...
Roaring Frontiers	Col.	3210	Bill Elliott	Oct. 16, '41	60m	Aug. 30, '41	p234	...	...
Rock River Renegades	Mono.	...	Corrigan-Kane-Terhune	Feb. 27, '42	...	...	...	...	...
Rodeo Rhythm	Prod.	270	Fred Scott-Patricia Redpath	Mar. 13, '42	72m	...	...	p526	...
Roxie Hart	20th-Fox	233	Ginger Rogers-George Montgomery	Feb. 20, '42	74m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	p487	...
Royal Mounted Patrol	Col.	3201	Chas. Starrett-Russell Hayden	Nov. 13, '41	59m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p289	...
SABOTEUR, The	Univ.	...	Robert Cummings-Priscilla Lane	Mar. 6, '42	...	...	...	p508	...
Saddle Mountain Roundup	Mono.	...	Range Busters	Aug. 29, '41	60m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p299	...
Sailors on Leave	Rep.	109	Wm. Lundigan-Shirley Ross	Sept. 30, '41	71m	Oct. 11, '41	p305	p299	p432
Sealed Lips	Univ.	6038	Wm. Gargan-June Clyde-John Litel	Dec. 5, '41	62m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	...	...
Secrets of the Lone Wolf	Col.	3026	Warren William-Ruth Ford	Nov. 13, '41	67m	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p289	...
Secrets of the Wasteland	Para.	...	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	70m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	...	...
Sergeant York	WB	101	Gary Cooper-Joan Leslie	Sept. 27, '41	134m	July 5, '41	p250	p111	p495
Shadow of the Thin Man	MGM	210	William Powell-Myrna Loy	Nov. '41	97m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p308	p528
Shadows of the Underworld	Mono.	...	Barry K. Barnes-Valerie Hobson	Not Set	...	...	p526	...	...
Shanghai Gesture, The	UA	...	Gene Tierney-Walter Huston	Feb. 6, '42	105m	Dec. 27, '41	p442	...	p528
Ships With Wings (British)	UA	...	John Clements-Leslie Banks	May 15, '42	...	Dec. 20, '41	p419	...	...
Shut My Big Mouth	Col.	3021	Joe E. Brown-Adele Mara	Feb. 19, '42	70m	Feb. 21, '42	p517	p476	...
Sierra Sue	Rep.	143	Gene Autry-Smilay Burnette	Nov. 12, '41	64m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p343	...
Sing Another Chorus	Univ.	6030	Johnny Downs-Jane Frazee	Sept. 19, '41	63m	Sept. 13, '41	p259	p137	...
Sing for Your Supper	Col.	3022	Jinx Falkenburg-Buddy Rogers	Dec. 4, '41	65m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p331	...
Sing Your Worries Away	RKO	219	Bert Lahr-Buddy Ebsen	Feb. 27, '42	71m	Jan. 10, '42	p450	p442	...
Siren of the South Seas	Mono.	...	Movita-Warren Hull	Nov. 7, '41	57m	Jan. 31, '42	p486	p218	...
Skylark	Para.	4107	Claudette Colbert-Ray Milland	Nov. 21, '41	93m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p235	...
Small Town Deb	20th-Fox	217	Jane Withers-Cobina Wright, Jr.	Nov. 7, '41	72m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	...
Smiling Ghost, The	WB	102	Brenda Marshall-Wayne Morris	Sept. 6, '41	71m	Aug. 16, '41	p262	p207	p452
Smilin' Through (color)	MGM	206	Jeanette MacDonald-Gene Raymond	Oct. '41	100m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p247	p495
Snuffy Smith, Yard Bird	Mono.	...	Bud Duncan-Edgar Kennedy	Jan. 16, '42	67m	Jan. 31, '42	p485	p408	...
Song of the Islands (color)	20th-Fox	236	Betty Grable-Victor Mature	Mar. 13, '42	75m	Feb. 7, '42	p493	p487	...
Son of Fury	20th-Fox	230	Tyrone Power-Gene Tierney	Jan. 9, '42	98m	Jan. 10, '42	p449	p432	...
Sons of the Sea (British)	WB	119	Michael Redgrave-Valerie Hobson	Feb. 7, '42	91m	July 5, '41	p430	...	...
South of Santa Fe	Rep.	154	Roy Rogers-George "Gabby" Hayes	Feb. 17, '42	55m	Feb. 28, '42	p525	p507	...
South of Tahiti	Univ.	6020	Brian Donlevy-Brod Crawford	Oct. 17, '41	75m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p308	...
Soviet Power	Artkino	...	Documentary	Sept. 6, '41	112m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	...	...
Spooks Run Wild	Mono.	...	Bela Lugosi-Leo Gorcey	Oct. 24, '41	64m	Oct. 11, '41	p306	p277	...
Stage Coach Buckaroo	Univ.	6064	Johnny Mack Brown	Feb. 13, '42	...	...	...	...	...
Steel Against the Sky	WB	112	Lloyd Nolan-Alexis Smith	Dec. 13, '41	68m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p376	...

Title	Company	Prod. Number	Stars	Release Date	Running Time	REVIEWED
						M. P. Herald Issue	Product Digest Section	Advance Synopsis	Service Data
Stick To Your Guns	Para.	....	Bill Boyd-Andy Clyde	Not Set	63m	Sept. 27, '41	p286	....	....
Stolen Paradise (formerly Adolescence)	Mono.	....	Leon Janney-Eleanor Hunt	Oct. 10, '41	62m	Oct. 19, '41	p319	p263	p386
Stork Pays Off, The	Col.	3036	Maxie Rosenbloom-Rochelle Hudson	Nov. 6, '41	68m	Nov. 15, '41	p362	p308	....
Strangler, The	Prod.	229	Judy Campbell-Sebastian Shaw	Mar. 27, '42	....	....	....	....	....
Sullivan's Travels	Para.	4112	Joel McCrea-Veronica Lake	Not Set	91m	Dec. 13, '41	p405	p320	p452
Sundown	UA	....	Gene Tierney-Bruce Cabot	Oct. 31, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
Sun Valley Serenade	20th-Fox	205	Sonja Heine-John Payne	Aug. 29, '41	86m	Aug. 22, '41	p251	p137	p367
Suspicion (formerly Before the Fact)	RKO	208	Cary Grant-Joan Fontaine	Nov. 14, '41	99m	Sept. 20, '41	p273	p158	p528
Swamp Water	20th-Fox	218	W. Huston-Walter Brennan-Ann Baxter	Dec. 5, '41	90m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p299	p528
Swamp Woman	Prod.	230	Ann Corio-Jack LaRue	Dec. 5, '41	68m	Jan. 3, '42	p441	p331	....
Sweater Girl	Para.	....	Eddie Bracken-June Preisser	Not Set	....	....	....	p527	....
Swing It Soldier	Univ.	6033	Frances Langford-Ken Murray	Nov. 7, '41	66m	Nov. 1, '41	p341	p331	p452
Syncopation	RKO	....	Adolphe Menjou-Jackie Cooper	Mar. 27, '42	....	....	....	p487	....
TANKS a Million	UA	....	William Tracy-Elyse Knox	Sept. 12, '41	50m	Aug. 9, '41	p250	....	p220
Target for Tonight (British)	WB	109	Documentary	Nov. 8, '41	48m	Aug. 16, '41	p318	....	p495
Tarzan's Secret Treasure	MGM	214	Johnny Weismuller-Maureen O'Sullivan	Dec. '41	80m	Nov. 15, '41	p375	p289	p528
Texas	Col.	3008	William Holden-Glenn Ford	Oct. 9, '41	94m	Oct. 11, '41	p307	p181	p495
Texas Man Hunt	Prod.	251	Bill (Radio) Boyd	Jan. 2, '42	60m	....	....	p409	....
They Died with Their Boots On	WB	114	Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland	Jan. 1, '42	140m	Nov. 22, '41	p373	p308	p528
This England (British)	World	....	Emlyn Williams-John Clements	Nov. 17, '41	80m	Mar. 8, '41	p406	....	....
This Gun for Hire	Para.	....	Veronica Lake-Robert Preston	Not Set	....	....	....	p527	....
This Time for Keeps	MGM	228	Ann Rutherford-Robert Sterling	Mar. '42	71m	Feb. 14, '42	p506	p495	....
Three Cockeyed Sailors (British)	UA	....	Tommy Trinder-Claude Hulbert	July 4, '41	77m	June 21, '41	p248	....	p288
Three Girls About Town	Col.	3016	Joan Blondell-John Howard	Oct. 23, '41	72m	Oct. 25, '41	p330	p263	p367
Thunder River Feud	Mono.	....	Range Busters	Jan. 9, '42	....	....	....	p443	....
Thundering Hoofs	RKO	286	Tim Holt	Not Set	61m	Dec. 13, '41	p407	p387	....
To Be or Not to Be	UA	....	Carole Lombard-Jack Benny	Mar. 6, '42	99m	Feb. 21, '42	p526	....	....
Today I Hang	Prod.	214	Walter Woolf King-Mona Barrie	Jan. 30, '42	....	....	....	p467	....
Tonto Basin Outlaws	Mono.	....	Ray Corrigan-John King	Oct. 10, '41	60m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p320	....
Too Many Women	Prod.	210	Neil Hamilton-June Lang	Feb. 27, '42	67m	....	....	p508	....
Top Sergeant Mulligan	Mono.	....	Nat Pendleton-Carol Hughes	Oct. 17, '41	70m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p308	....
Torpedo Boat	Para.	....	Richard Arlen-Jean Parker	Not Set	70m	Jan. 24, '42	p474	p464	....
Tough As They Come	Univ.	....	Billy Halop-Bernard Punsley	Not Set	....	....	....	p508	....
Tragedy at Midnight, A	Rep.	114	Margaret Lindsay-John Howard	Feb. 2, '42	68m	Feb. 7, '42	p494	p476	....
Tramp, Tramp, Tramp	Col.	....	Jackie Gleason-Jack Durant	Mar. 12, '42	....	....	....	p507	....
Treat 'Em Rough (formerly Panama Kid)	Univ.	6039	Peggy Moran-Eddie Albert	Jan. 30, '42	61m	Jan. 24, '42	p475	p408	....
True to the Army	Para.	....	Judy Canova-Allan Jones-Ann Miller	Not Set	....	....	....	p527	....
Tuxedo Junction	Rep.	113	Weaver Brothers	Dec. 4, '41	71m	Dec. 6, '41	p395	p343	....
Twilight on the Trail	Para.	....	Bill Boyd	Not Set	58m	Sept. 27, '41	p285	....	....
Twin Beds	UA	....	George Brent-Joan Bennett	Apr. 24, '42	....	....	....	p442	....
Two-Faced Woman (formerly The Twins)	MGM	211	Greta Garbo-Melvyn Douglas	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p299	p451
Two Latins from Manhattan	Col.	3020	Joan Davis-"Jinx" Falkenburg	Oct. 2, '41	65m	Sept. 27, '41	p287	....	....
Two Yanks in Trinidad	Col.	....	Pat O'Brien-Brian Donlevy	Mar. 26, '42	....	....	....	p508	....
UNDERGROUND Rustlers (formerly Bullets and Bullion)	Mono.	....	Range Busters	Nov. 21, '41	....	....	....	p331	....
Unexpected Uncle	RKO	207	Anne Shirley-Charles Coburn	Nov. 7, '41	67m	Sept. 20, '41	p274	p218	....
Unfinished Business	Univ.	6004	Irene Dunne-Robert Montgomery	Sept. 12, '41	96m	Aug. 30, '41	p233	p172	p451
Unholy Partners	MGM	209	Ed. G. Robinson-Laraine Day-Ed. Arnold	Nov. '41	94m	Oct. 18, '41	p318	p289	p421
VALLEY of the Sun	RKO	216	Lucille James-James Craig	Feb. 6, '42	84m	Jan. 10, '42	p463	p442	....
Vanishing Virginian, The	MGM	223	Frank Morgan-Kathryn Grayson	Feb. '42	97m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p387	p528
WEEKEND in Havana (color)	20th-Fox	214	Alice Faye-C. Miranda-J. Payne	Oct. 17, '41	80m	Sept. 13, '41	p275	p247	p495
Weekend for Three	RKO	211	Dennis O'Keefe-Jane Wyatt-Philip Reed	Dec. 12, '41	66m	Oct. 25, '41	p343	p332	....
We Go Fast	20th-Fox	208	Lynn Bari-Alan Curtis	Sept. 19, '41	64m	Sept. 13, '41	p260	p247	p495
We Were Dancing	MGM	225	Norma Shearer-Melvyn Douglas	Mar. '42	94m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p443	....
Western Mail	Mono.	....	Tim Keene-Jean Trent	Feb. 13, '42	....	....	....	....	....
West of Cimarron	Rep.	163	Tom Tyler-Bob Steele	Dec. 15, '41	56m	Dec. 20, '41	p419	p396	....
West of Tombstone	Col.	3203	Charles Starrett-Russell Hayden	Jan. 15, '42	60m	Feb. 21, '42	p517	....	....
What's Cookin'	Univ.	....	Andrews Sisters-Gloria Jean	Feb. 13, '42	60m	Feb. 21, '42	p517	p507	....
Wild Bill Hickok Rides	WB	118	Constance Bennett-Bruce Cabot	Jan. 31, '42	82m	Dec. 27, '41	p430	p408	....
Wild Geese Calling	20th-Fox	203	Henry Fonda-Joan Bennett	Aug. 15, '41	78m	July 26, '41	p249	p196	p367
Wings of Victory	Artkino	....	Vladimir Belokurov	Nov. 14, '41	95m	Nov. 15, '41	p374	....	....
Wolf Man, The	Univ.	6015	Claude Rains-Dick Foran	Dec. 12, '41	70m	Dec. 13, '41	p420	....	....
Woman of the Year, The	MGM	222	Spencer Tracy-Katharine Hepburn	Feb. '42	112m	Jan. 17, '42	p461	p376	....
Workers, Let's Go (Czech)	Trans-Oceanic	....	Jan Werich-Jiri Voskovec	Dec. 12, '41	71m	Dec. 20, '42	p420	....	....
YANK in the R.A.F.	20th-Fox	211	Tyrone Power-Betty Grable	Oct. 3, '41	97m	Sept. 13, '41	p257	p149	p495
Yank on the Burma Road, A (formerly China Caravan)	MGM	224	Laraine Day-Barry Nelson	Feb. '42	66m	Jan. 17, '42	p462	p432	....
Yokel Boy	Rep.	115	Albert Dekker-Joan Davis	Mar. 13, '42	....	....	....	p527	....
You Belong to Me	Col.	3003	Henry Fonda-Barbara Stanwyck	Oct. 30, '41	97m	Oct. 25, '41	p329	p289	p451
You're in the Army Now	WB	113	Jimmy Durante-Jane Wyman	Dec. 25, '41	79m	Dec. 6, '41	p394	p376	....
You're Telling Me	Univ.	....	Hugh Herbert-Anne Gwynne	Mar. 27, '42	....	....	....	p508	....
Young America	20th-Fox	231	Jane Withers-William Tracy	Jan. 2, '42	73m	Jan. 10, '42	p451	p432	....
ZIS—Boom—Bah	Mono.	....	Grace Hayes-Peter Lind Hayes	Nov. 7, '41	62m	Nov. 1, '41	p342	p332	....

Feature Product including Coming Attractions, listed Company by Company, in Order of Release on page 510.

---

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Eastman Motion-Picture Film Cans and Cores MUST BE RETURNED

---

WAR requirements have sharply curtailed the supply of metal and plastics needed to manufacture 35-mm. motion-picture film cans and cores. Consequently, the Eastman Kodak Company urges the prompt return of these essential supplies. They must be used over and over again.

Help maintain the supply of motion-picture film by seeing to it that all Eastman cans and cores are kept in good condition, collected, and shipped to the Kodak Park Works, Rochester, N. Y.

By doing your part in this emergency, you help yourself and everyone connected with the motion-picture industry—as well as all those who depend more than ever on the screen for vital information and entertainment.

Write for prices and detailed shipping information.

---

Motion Picture Sales Division
EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Columbia Pictures

makes public expression of its appreciation to

CARY                      JEAN                      RONALD GRANT ★ ARTHUR ★ COLMAN
and
GEORGE
STEVENS

who so graciously after seeing the picture volunteered their services to appear in the special trailer for

The INVADERS

starring

LAURENCE                      LESLIE                      RAYMOND
OLIVIER ★ HOWARD ★ MASSEY

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

0 007 551 773 7